

Bigoted 351

Chapter 351: Dear, Don't Be Afraid, The Man's Raging Anger

The kidnapper noticed that Qin Shu was walking slowly so he turned around and glanced at her leg. He saw that there was bright red blood on her white socks. It was very glaring. He was patient today, which was rare, so he slowed down his pace to allow her to catch up with him.

As Qin Shu walked, she sized up the place. Outside the warehouse, there was an empty space. Weeds were growing everywhere and there was a similar warehouse next to it.

These should be the warehouses of an abandoned factory.

The surroundings were so quiet that there seemed to be no sign of life. However, she knew that the kidnapper in front of her was definitely not the only one here.

There should be kidnappers waiting for Fu Tingyu at the entrance of the factory.

After following the kidnapper for a while, they finally arrived at a worker's dormitory. It was a row of buildings. It was a little dilapidated due to the sun and the wind. One could even smell a pungent musty smell.

Qin Shu glanced at her surroundings. Along the way, she did not find any other kidnappers following her, which meant that the kidnapper in front of her was the only one who was watching over her.

She looked at the kidnapper in front of her. He was about 1.88 meters tall and had strong-built. It was obvious that his strength was not weak.

Even if she was injured, she was not confident that she could finish him off in one move.

At the same time

The moment Shi Yan found the exact location, Fu Tingyu rushed over with his men.

Gu Yan's palms were covered in sweat. He turned his head to look at Fu Tingyu. His face was gloomy and his lips were tightly pursed. The hand on his leg was clenched into a fist. He was using much strength so his knuckles turned pale. It was a sign showing how nervous, afraid, and worried he was.

The reason why Qin Shu was kidnapped this time was because of him.

If it weren't for him, they wouldn't have kidnapped Qin Shu to threaten Fu Tingyu.

Gu Yan opened his mouth and wanted to comfort him, But, in the end, he didn't say a word. Rescuing Qin Shu safely was more useful than any comforting words.

When they arrived at the destination, Fu Tingyu and the others didn't enter through the front door.

Instead, they parked the car in a secluded corner. Gu Yan stayed in the car. Two people were left to protect him. This was because Gu Yan had no fighting ability at all.

When he noticed that Fu Tingyu was going in personally, Gu Yan couldn't help but remind him, "You can't use brute force, what if you..."

Before Gu Yan could finish his words, Fu Tingyu interrupted him coldly, "My wife is inside."

After saying that, Fu Tingyu turned around and left.

Shi Yan and the others quickly followed him.

Gu Yan looked at Fu Tingyu's tall and straight back. He knew that Fu Tingyu would do anything for Qin Shu. That was why he reminded him.

However, he also knew that it was useless to remind Fu Tingyu. He would still risk everything for her.

Fu Tingyu brought Shi Yan, Ye Luo, Ye Leng, and the other men along and quietly sneaked into the abandoned factory.

After entering, they split up to look for Qin Shu.

Shi Yan and Ye Luo wanted to follow behind Fu Tingyu but he rejected them because they would be able to find her faster if they split up.

"Split up and search. Find her as quickly as possible."

Shi Yan and Ye Luo did not dare to disobey their Fourth Master's orders. Hence, they could only turn around and walk in the other two directions.

Fu Tingyu did not stay any longer. He started to look for the lady in the abandoned factory.

The other members of the Ye family had already started fighting with the kidnapers to create a diversion.

Qin Shu fell to the ground because she was unable to stand up properly. She watched the kidnapper as he approached her slowly. Blood oozed out from his forehead. He had been kicked by her. However, her right foot was injured so she did not have enough strength. After she kicked him, she did not manage to knock him out. Instead, she fell to the ground too.

At this moment, the kidnapper had been thoroughly enraged. His eyes were red as he glared at the seemingly weak girl in front of him. Actually, she was not weak at all.

The kidnapper walked up to the girl and took out a gun from his pocket. He pointed it at her head and said viciously, "I didn't plan to let you die so soon. You asked for it."

Qin Shu looked at the kidnapper in front of her and grabbed the nut in her hand. She accidentally felt it when she fell. The nut was very big and heavy. As long as she hit the eyes of the kidnapper when he was not paying attention, she could snatch the gun from his hand. Of course, she needed to be fast enough...

After the kidnapper finished speaking, he slowly tightened his fingers. Just as he was about to pull the trigger, a sudden sound echoed in the air and caused his tightened fingers to loosen.

Qin Shu looked at the kidnapper in front of her widening his eyes in disbelief. He looked as though he wasn't able to accept what happened. However, no matter how unwilling he was, he still fell straight to the ground.

This caused the nut in her hand, which she was about to throw out, to spin in her palm before it fell to the ground.

She looked behind the kidnapper. The man's tall and straight figure was there. He was like a god that suddenly descended from heaven. He was holding a gun in his hand. The black muzzle of the gun was still emitting a wisp of smoke.

The moment Qin Shu saw Fu Tingyu, her tensed nerves relaxed.

Fu Tingyu saw the girl who had fallen to the ground. Her face was pale and the blood on her forehead had stained half of her face. The bright red blood stung the man's eyes. His gaze turned red and cold.

He ran over quickly and squatted down in front of the girl. He hugged the girl and used his chest to block the girl's line of sight so that she would not see the dead man behind her.

"Don't look." The man comforted her in a low voice. "Don't be afraid. I came late."

Qin Shu's forehead was pressed against the man's chest. Listening to the man's uneven heartbeat made her feel a lot more at ease.

Fu Tingyu looked at the man behind him with red eyes. He raised his gun and fired dozens of shots at him as if he was taking revenge and venting his emotions. Only the sound of air being torn apart and the sound of bullets entering the flesh could be heard. It made one's scalp go numb.

He hugged the person in his arms tightly with one hand, covering her eyes with his chest and her ears with his palm.

Qin Shu opened her eyes. Even if she didn't look, she could guess what the scene would be like. She didn't move or make a sound. She quietly leaned in the man's arms and waited for him to vent his anger.

When everything became quiet again, she could still feel the man's chest heaving up and down because of his anger.

Fu Tingyu looked down at the lady. His gaze fell on her forehead, which was covered in blood. Even her black hair was stained with blood. The anger in his heart did not diminish but instead grew stronger.

"Let's go back."

He carried the girl horizontally. He did not let her see the dead person on the ground the entire time.

Fu Tingyu carried the girl and walked out in large strides.

Shi Yan walked over from the other side. When he saw Fourth Master carrying Qin Shu, he immediately came forward to help him.

"Fourth Master, there are six people here in total."

“Don’t spare a single person. Let them suffer a fate worse than death.”

If Fu Tingyu was not worried about the lady in his arms, he would have wanted to let them have a taste of what it meant to suffer a fate worse than death personally.

After saying this, he carried the girl and walked straight towards the car.

Shi Yan’s gaze shifted towards Ye Luo, who was clenching his fists, eager to give it a try.

Gu Yan stood by the car and waited anxiously. He kept looking at the abandoned factory. When he saw Fu Tingyu walking over with Qin Shu in his arm, his heart finally settled down.

He opened the car door and waited for them.

Fu Tingyu walked over with the lady in his arms and got straight into the car.

Gu Yan got into the car after them and closed the door.

He left a car for Shi Yan and the other people.

Ye Ke started the engine and drove away.

Chapter 352: Fourth Master’s Heart Ached To The Point Of Suffocation. Could He Not Show Off His Wife

In the car

Fu Tingyu hugged the lady and began to examine the injuries on her body. Starting from the top, he looked at her forehead, which was full of blood. Her hair was stained with a lot of blood and her forehead was also covered with large beads of sweat.

One side of her fair cheek was covered in blood. It was a ghastly sight.

“Does it hurt?” He asked in a low voice. He opened up a general disinfectant wet wipes with his other hand.

Qin Shu nodded obediently. “Yes, it hurts quite a bit.”

“Then I’ll be gentler.”

The man looked at the bleeding wound again. His heart was aching terribly.

He took the disinfectant wet wipes and wiped the dried blood on her forehead. His movements were very gentle. He was afraid that it would hurt her.

Gu Yan sat at the side, unable to help. When he saw that Qin Shu’s face was covered in blood and her complexion was a little pale, he could not help but worry.

He could only wait until he reached Sheng Yuan garden to examine her properly.

Gu Yan looked at Fu Tingyu and realized that his complexion was not much better. Needless to say, he knew that he must have fought with someone. Before he went in, his face was not this pale.

Fu Tingyu used a few wet wipes before he managed to wipe all the blood off the lady's face, revealing her small face. Her face was a little pale. She must have been frightened by those people.

The man clenched his fists and looked at the lady's ankle. Her white socks were soaked with blood.

He pursed his lips tightly. Not only did his heart ache, but he also blamed himself. She got hurt because he did not protect her.

Qin Shu looked at the man as he pursed his lips, lowered his head, and took off her slippers silently. It made her groan in pain. "Ouch!"

The man stopped moving the shoes. He looked up and saw the lady's frown. It made his heart clenched.

"I'll be gentler."

Qin Shu nodded.

The man lowered his eyes again and held the shoes tightly. He slowly took off her shoes and then her socks. This was the most difficult part because the socks were stuck to the flesh and blood. It would be very painful to take them off.

He gritted his teeth. This time, he took off her socks as fast as he could. That way, the pain would only last for a moment.

If he took them off bit by bit, the pain would be continuous.

The pain in that instant caused Qin Shu's forehead to break out in cold sweat. She bit her lips tightly to prevent herself from screaming.

Fu Tingyu took off her socks and then turned his head to look at the girl. Her small face was scrunched up because of the pain. He hated himself for not being able to bear the pain for her.

If it wasn't for the fact that he couldn't use too much anesthetic, he would have given her anesthetic to reduce the pain.

After the momentary pain, her foot was still hurting although it felt much better than the pain when she was taking her socks off.

She looked at Fu Tingyu and smiled at him. "Okay, it doesn't hurt that much anymore."

Qin Shu's smile made Fu Tingyu's heart ache even more.

He pursed his lips tightly, lowered his eyes, and lifted her ankle with his big hand. Not only did he allowed himself to see the injury clearly, Qin Shu saw it clearly too.

Previously, she did not have time to care about the injuries on her body. All her focus was on thinking about how to escape.

Now, looking at the injury on her ankle, she saw that a large piece of flesh was torn. The socks were taken off so the originally dried area started to bleed again.

Besides Fu Tingyu, even Gu Yan, who was sitting at the side, could not help but gasped when he saw the wound.

Although it was an external injury, such an injury was still very painful. Moreover, Qin Shu had always been protected by Fu Tingyu like a little princess. How could she bear such pain?

An hour later, at Sheng Yuan.

Fu Tingyu carried the lady all the way into Sheng Yuan and went straight to the master bedroom on the second floor.

Gu Yan did not follow them because Qin Shu was in a haggard state currently. She would definitely need to shower and change into clean clothes first.

He sat on the sofa in the living room and waited for them to come down.

Ning Meng was worried about Qin Shu but Fourth Master was here so everything should be fine. When she saw Gu Yan, she quickly made a cup of tea and placed it on the coffee table in front of Gu Yan.

“Young Master Gu, have some tea first.”

Gu Yan looked up at Ning Meng. Then, he looked down at the hot tea in front of him. He picked it up and brought it to his mouth to take a sip.

Ning Meng’s face turned red immediately

Fu Tingyu carried Qin Shu back to the bedroom and put her on the sofa. He turned around and filled the bathtub with warm water.

While he was running the water, he opened the closet, took out the lady’s home clothes, and took them into the bathroom.

Qin Shu sat on the sofa and watched the man running in and out to prepare a bath for her.

After the water was ready, Fu Tingyu’s slender figure walked out and carried her into the bathroom.

When taking a shower, her injured feet must not touch the water. Fu Tingyu was very careful when helping Qin Shu to take a shower.

He also checked if there were any other injuries on her body.

It took almost an hour for her to wash up.

Fu Tingyu took a dry towel and wiped the lady’s wet hair until it was half-dry.

He did not let Qin Shu touch anything throughout the whole process.

Fu Tingyu was really a meticulous and considerate good husband.

After doing all this, Fu Tingyu bent down and picked the lady up. He went straight downstairs and asked Gu Yan to take a look at her injuries.

Qin Shu looked at the man pursing his lips tightly. His face was taut as if he was angry. Ever since he carried her back, the man had been wearing this expression. It was as if he was angry with her but his movements were very gentle.

She felt warmth in her heart. There was also a sweet feeling surrounding her heart. The feeling was very strong.

Fu Tingyu carried the lady and walked to the sofa to sit down. He did not have any intention of putting her on the sofa. He just sat there and let her lay in his arms.

Gu Yan looked at Fu Tingyu's actions. Look at how dearly he was treating the lady. Could he not be so showy in front of him?

Show off that he had a wife?

Show off that he was doting on his wife?

Fu Tingyu noticed that Gu Yan did not take any further actions so he turned his head to look at Gu Yan. "What are you waiting for?"

"..." Waiting to see how you will show off your wife...

Gu Yan coughed lightly to ease his embarrassment. He opened the medical kit and started to treat Qin Shu's wound.

He prepared the items he needed later. He held a cotton swab with his well-defined fingers and dipped it with some disinfectant before he started to clean the wound.

However, before he started, he heard Fu Tingyu reminding him in a low voice, "Be gentle."

"..."

Of course, he knew that he must be gentle. He was usually very gentle..

Gu Yan held the cotton swab. Because of Fu Tingyu's reminder, his movements became gentler.

Qin Shu looked at the man who looked extremely nervous. However, there was nothing she could do. The arm that was hugging her was filled with strength and she could feel that his palm was full of cold sweat. His arm, which was pasted against her skin, felt cold. But, she felt warm in her heart.

After the disinfection was done, the next step was to remove the skin.

This time, Gu Yan was really stumped. How should he do it?

It would definitely be painful. Otherwise, how could he remove the skin attached?

Gu Yan took out the medical scissors from the medical kit. He was so nervous that he did not know where to start.

Before he started, Fu Tingyu knew what he was going to do next so he said in a more serious tone, "Be gentle."

Fu Tingyu looked nervously at the lady's fair ankles. A piece of flesh was stuck to the wound. It would hurt just by touching it, let alone remove it.

Chapter 353: Who Dragged Fourth Master Out? He Saw Something Amazing

"..."

Gu Yan was a doctor himself. He had his own way of doing things. He never let others tell him what to do.

His movements had always been gentle and he tried his best not to hurt his patients as much as possible.

But, after being reminded by Fu Tingyu who was at the side, he suddenly felt like an intern. He looked at the patient and didn't know what to do. He was afraid that he would make a mistake the moment he acted.

For a two-way professor like him, wasn't it humiliating for him to do this?

Gu Yan took a deep breath to keep himself calm.

Fu Tingyu was holding Qin Shu's foot with his hand.

He lowered his head to look at the piece of skin on top. First, he used a pair of pliers to clamp the bloody skin on top. Then, he used a pair of scissors to cut off the skin.

The process was a little painful but it was still within Qin Shu's tolerance range.

However, in Fu Tingyu's eyes, it was very painful.

You wouldn't be able to imagine how much pressure Gu Yan was under before he managed to treat the wound and bandage it up.

After he was done, he heaved a sigh of relief and raised his hand to wipe the cold sweat on his forehead. It was really no less than performing a very intense surgery.

Fu Tingyu's gaze looked at the girl's forehead. Not only was there a cut, but it was also swollen.

"And the wound on her forehead."

Gu Yan looked at the wound on Qin Shu's forehead. It was easier to treat.

But, under Fu Tingyu's nervous gaze, it would become hard too.

Gu Yan began to disinfect the wound very carefully. Then, he applied medicine on a piece of cotton wool. He cut the gauze into a square shape and stuck it on the cotton wool. Finally, he fixed it with medical tape.

Finally, he finished treating the wound on Qin Shu's forehead. Gu Yan felt that it had been a long time since he had been so nervous.

“Don’t touch water during this period of time. It will heal faster.”

Qin Shu nodded. “Okay.”

At first, she was not nervous when he was treating the wound, But, seeing Fu Tingyu’s nervous look made her nervous too.

Maybe it was because she knew that he cared about her so she could be weak in front of him.

This was probably what was meant by becoming haughty because of one’s love.

Fu Tingyu lowered his head and lifted the girl’s injured leg with his big hand. He looked at it a few times and saw the gunshot wound on her calf from the corner of his eye. He frowned.

She had been injured twice in such a short period of time. It made him heartache and he blamed himself.

He remembered that the lady was going to the capital to study. How could he feel at ease letting her to the capital to attend university?

“Your foot is injured. Don’t go to the capital.”

When Qin Shu heard that the man would not let her go to the capital to attend school, and she could not help but feel a little anxious. “It’s okay. This injury will be healed in two days. Besides, I’ll be sitting in a car all the time. I don’t have to walk much.”

Gu Yan saw that Fu Tingyu was still holding Qin Shu and was reluctant to let her go. He felt that he had to go back first. He might be fed with displays of love later.

As for Fu Tingyu, he sighed again. It was impossible to stop Fu Tingyu from fighting.

“I’ll go back first.”

Gu Yan packed his medical box, stood up, and was ready to leave.

Fu Tingyu suddenly called out to him, “Be careful during this period of time. They will definitely look for you again.”

Gu Yan turned back to look at Fu Tingyu and chuckled, “Well, I’m too popular. There’s nothing I can do.”

With a faint smile on his lips, Gu Yan turned around and left.

Should he keep a low profile?

The feeling of being targeted... was not very good.

Fu Tingyu retracted his gaze and looked at the lady. Looking at her pale face, he started to worry for her again.

“Do you still plan to go to the capital tomorrow?”

Qin Shu nodded. “Yes, I’ll go there tomorrow and get ready. The class is in two days. Within these two days, my injury will be healed.”

Fu Tingyu pursed his lips and stared at the lady without saying a word.

Seeing that the man was unhappy, Qin Shu had no choice but to change the topic. "Do you know what I was thinking when the kidnapper pointed a gun at me?"

At the mention of this, Fu Tingyu recalled that when the kidnapper pointed a gun at the lady, he stopped breathing. He was so scared that his mind went blank for a moment.

He felt that the girl must have been struck with fear at that time. She must have felt very scared too.

In that instant when you were on the verge of death, that kind of fear was something that people who had never experienced before would not be able to understand.

"What were you thinking about?"

Qin Shu looked at the man and said slowly, "I'm thinking that you will definitely come to save me at the critical moment."

Fu Tingyu looked at the lady. He did not even blink his eyes. "You're so sure?"

Qin Shu nodded vigorously. "Because you've never gone back on your words."

At that time, Fu Tingyu's figure really flashed across her mind. She felt that he would come to save her at the first possible moment.

Perhaps it was because he would appear in time every time so she had such a thought subconsciously.

But now, she would think about saving herself instead of being timid and afraid like before. In the past, she only knew how to sit and wait for death.

The displeasure in Fu Tingyu's heart lessened. "Were you scared at that time?"

Qin Shu nodded.

Yes, why wouldn't she be scared?

She hadn't lived enough yet.

She still hadn't lived with him for the rest of her life yet.

She still had a lot of regrets that she hadn't completed.

Fu Tingyu tightened his arms and looked at the person on his chest. This was the lady whom he treated as his own life. He was more afraid than she was at that time.

But, fortunately, he arrived just in time.

Qin Shu suddenly remembered that she still had important things to do. She pushed the man away and said, "I'm going upstairs to pack my luggage. I have to bring everything I need."

After saying that, she wanted to climb off the man.

"I'll carry you up."

Fu Tingyu hugged her tightly to prevent her from running around. Then, he stood up and walked to the second floor with steady steps.

Qin Shu didn't refuse and let the man carry her to the second floor.

After entering the master bedroom, Fu Tingyu put the girl on the bed and said in a low voice, "Sit down and don't move. I'll help you pack up."

Qin Shu was stunned.

Fu Tingyu stood up and walked to the wardrobe. He opened the wardrobe and took out the password-locked luggage bag. He placed it on the bed behind him and opened it.

Then, he started to pack her clothes.

First, he folded her autumn clothes and put them in the luggage bag.

Then, he folded her summer clothes one by one and put them in.

Qin Shu sat at the side and watched. Fu Tingyu's noble hands were a feast for her eyes when he played the piano.

When he folded her clothes, his movements were neither fast nor slow. It was also a feast for the eyes.

When Fu Tingyu walked to the wardrobe and bent down to open the drawer below, her face turned red. She saw the man's slender fingers reaching into the drawer. He took her undergarments and turned around to put them into the luggage bag.

Just as Qin Shu was staring at the man's hands, he suddenly raised his head and looked over, making her face turned even redder.

Seeing the girl's slightly red face, Fu Tingyu curled the corners of his lips and lowered his head to continue packing her luggage.

When he was done packing, he scanned the bedroom and finally looked at the little nest on the balcony. Boss was lying on the balcony, basking in the sun.

The girl loved cats so much. Would she want to bring Boss along?

He walked to Boss's little nest and glanced at Boss who was lying on the ground. He looked extremely lazy. What did Babe like about him?

When he retracted his gaze, he saw the silver business card in the nest. He squatted down and picked up the business card in the nest with his slender fingers. He saw the name written on it: Jun Li.

Chapter 354: The Purpose Of Going To Imperial College, Fourth Master's Arrangement

The business card was silver and very thin.

However, the business card was not made of paper, nor was it pure silver.

Instead, it was the kind of expensive silver jade that was rarely seen on the market.

Many people from wealthy and noble families often used business cards made of different materials. These were normally limited edition. Handing a business card that represented one's identity to a person was a sign of how important the other party was.

His cold gaze shifted to the bottom of the business card. Professor Jun Li of the Imperial College.

A man's face suddenly appeared in his mind. He had seen him once.

What he remembered vividly was that pair of purple eyes.

It was very hard to find someone with purple eyes. They could be said to be extremely rare.

But, he could not be ruled out the possibility that he was wearing cosmetic contact lenses.

Jun Li?

The man's gaze turned colder. His slender fingers exerted more force too as if he was going to break the business card.

Qin Shu looked at the neatly folded clothes in the password-locked luggage bag. It was hard to imagine that this was the work of the Fourth Master, whom everyone in Jiang City feared.

She looked up at the man on the balcony and found him squatting in front of Boss's little nest.

She thought of Boss. She wanted to take it with her to the capital.

They could keep pets in the dormitory as long as they passed the hygiene test.

Boss was not only a prideful cat but also a cat that liked to be clean. He did not have any bad habits and would take a bath every day. Hence, he was very clean.

Qin Shu put on her slippers. Her foot was injured so she could only move her feet slowly. When she walked to the man's side, he suddenly stood up, causing her to stop in her tracks.

In front of the 1.9 meters tall Fu Tingyu, Qin Shu had to raise her head to see his face. She met his gaze and asked, "What are you looking at?"

Fu Tingyu looked down at the lady in front of him. He tried to see through her.

Qin Shu noticed that he was only staring at her and didn't say anything so she asked again, "What are you looking at?"

Fu Tingyu looked at her for a long time. The lady's face was still a little pale. He looked at the wound on her forehead. Her black hair fell down, covering most of the white gauze. His gaze moved to the lady's sparkling eyes. "Why do you want to go to Imperial College so much?"

Qin Shu said, "To prove myself. I promised you that I would definitely get into Imperial College. Moreover, I also want to broaden my horizons."

Fu Tingyu pursed his lips and looked at her. The lady's yearning look made him frown.

How could she explain the business card in his hand?

Qin Shu glanced at Boss on the balcony and the corners of her eyes rose. "I want to bring Boss with me. We can keep pets in the dormitory."

Boss, who was lying on the balcony, was drooping his head listlessly. His two small ears suddenly stood up and his dark green eyes rolled around. He became energized.

Fu Tingyu said unhappily, "What else?"

Why didn't she think of bringing him along?

Qin Shu's gaze swept across the bedroom and said, "I won't bring anything else. There are too many things and it's a little troublesome."

Fu Tingyu's face darkened.

"I haven't been seeing my acceptance letter. Is it in your room?"

She had been busy during this period of time. All her attention had been on Fu Tingyu so she had neglected the acceptance letter.

After hearing Ye Xue mentioning it yesterday, she remembered that she had never seen her acceptance letter at all.

The acceptance letter was handed to him by the butler when he came back from work that day.

He originally wanted his lady to study at a local university.

That was why he kept the letter of acceptance.

Now that she mentioned it, Fu Tingyu still nodded. "Yes, it's in my study."

Qin Shu let out a sigh of relief. "That's good. I almost thought that the letter of acceptance was lost by the courier. If it was really lost, it would be a little troublesome."

"I'll go to the study and see if there's anything else I need to bring."

Qin Shu suddenly remembered that there were some course notes and materials in the study. She walked slowly into the study.

Fu Tingyu's gaze was fixed on the lady's slender back. He pursed his lips and walked out.

The entire Sheng Garden knew that Qin Shu was going to the imperial capital to attend university tomorrow so the dishes prepared by the chefs at night were very exquisite. Everyone displayed their specialized skills in all the dishes they could use it on.

When the dishes were placed on the table, at a glance, it was glamorous and beautiful, as if a hundred flowers were blooming with birds chirping in the background.

Qin Shu looked at the dishes in front of her. Every dish was a work of art. It was very appetizing. At the same time, it made her a little reluctant to eat the food as she was afraid of ruining the lifelike peonies.

"Did the chefs in our house bring out everything they've learned in their lives today?"

Fu Tingyu glanced at the variety of dishes in front of him. "Almost all of them."

“Young madam is going to the capital to attend university tomorrow so the chefs specially prepared them for you.” Ning Meng was just about to smile when she remembered that Qin Shu was leaving the next day. She couldn’t bring herself to smile again.

Qin Shu was a little touched after hearing that. The chefs in their house were very good at cooking and the dishes were also suitable for her appetite. When she arrived at the capital, she would definitely miss the food at home.

The dishes were very delicious. However, because she was leaving soon, her appetite was affected by the atmosphere so she didn’t eat much.

Fu Tingyu didn’t have much appetite either. He just barely ate a bowl.

After dinner

The moment Qin Shu stood up, Fu Tingyu strode over. He stretched out his arms and carried her up horizontally. He walked straight to the second floor.

Such scenes were often seen in Sheng Yuan garden. Hence, the people in the garden were all used to it.

They all knew that Fourth Master doted on young madam, so they were even less surprised.

What surprised them was the change in young madam. It could be said that she was vastly different from the young madam who always kicked up a fuss in the past.

They all hoped that young madam could get along well with Fourth Master. Although they were a little surprised by the change in young madam now, they felt that the change was very good. They hoped that she could continue to be like this with Fourth Master.

Fu Tingyu carried the girl straight into the master bedroom and placed her on the bed. “If you’re sleepy, sleep first. There’s no need to wait for me.”

Qin Shu nodded obediently. “Okay.”

Fu Tingyu took a few glances at the lady before straightening his body. He turned around and walked out of the bedroom and went to the study.

In the study

Fu Tingyu sat in front of the study table. Because of Qin Shu’s kidnapping, there were many things that he had not dealt with yet. He still had to send her to the capital personally tomorrow so tonight was destined to be a sleepless night.

At this moment, the door to the study was pushed open from the outside. Shi Yan walked in and stood in front of the desk.

“Fourth master, those people have been dealt with. We have also sent people to protect Young Master Gu. The capital’s side has also made arrangements according to your instructions.”

Hearing this, Fu Tingyu picked up a purple-silver business card from the side with his slender fingers and handed it to Shi Yan. “Go and investigate this person for me.”

Shi Yan's gaze turned to the business card in Fourth Master's hand. He took it and glanced at the words on it. Professor Jun Li from Imperial University.

Why was Fourth Master suddenly investigating him?

He raised his eyes to look at Fourth Master and asked in puzzlement, "Isn't Jun Li the Chairman of Imperial College? Why are you investigating him?"

Fu Tingyu knew that Jun Li was the chairman of Imperial College. He wanted additional information.

"When did you talk so much nonsense?"

Chapter 355: The Origin Of Purple, The Purpose Of His Trip To Xijin

Shi Yan felt a chill down his spine. He lowered his eyes and did not dare to make another sound. From his tone, one could tell that Fourth Master was in a bad mood.

Jun Li was very handsome and had a modest personality. Fourth Master was probably afraid that Qin Shu... Ugh!

Fu Tingyu lowered his eyes. He thought of his younger brother and raised his eyes again. "Is Little Yan ready?"

Shi Yan replied, "The young master is ready."

There was one more thing he did not say. Looking at young master's face, he did not seem to be willing to follow Fourth Master and Young Madam.

Fu Tingyu lowered his gaze and continued to deal with his work.

Shi Yan turned around and walked out of the study to investigate Jun Li.

At two o'clock in the morning, Shi Yan pushed open the study door again and walked in. He stood in front of the desk and handed Jun Li's information to his master.

"Fourth master, this is Jun Li's information."

Fu Tingyu turned his head and looked at the information in Shi Yan's hand. He reached out and took it. Then, he opened the document bag and took out the information inside to read.

Jun Li was a professor and the chairman of the board of directors of the Imperial College. This was public information.

In addition, he was the young master of the Jun family in the imperial capital. He was the third son of the Jun family and was known as the third young master.

He was currently single and had no relationship experience.

The girls who liked him could line up from the entrance of the Imperial College to the sports field. They could even circle the field a few more times.

It was all basic information.

"What's with his purple eyes?"

Shi Yan said, "I heard that his eyes were injured when he was young and he almost lost his sight. After that, he kept wearing contact lenses but the color is purple."

No one in the Jun family had purple eyes so there was no inheritance. It was also not strange for Jun Li to wear cosmetic contact lenses.

Fu Tingyu put the information on the desk. He thought of the business card and frowned.

Shi Yan suddenly remembered something and said, "Fourth Master, according to the investigation, Jun Li also went to Xijin. He arrived at Xijin at noon on the 23rd of August. He went with his friends and also went to the Phil Equestrian Center. He returned to the capital one day after us."

At noon on the 23rd, that was the second day his babe arrived. Could it be a coincidence?

Fu Tingyu's expression turned dark.

Shi Yan looked at Fourth Master's dark expression. Did I say the wrong thing?

Fu Tingyu was busy until 4:30 in the morning. Just as the sky turned white, he turned off the computer in front of him, stood up, opened the study door, and walked out.

Shi Yan was standing at the door. When he saw his master coming out, he said, "Fourth Master, are you ready?"

Fu Tingyu turned his head to look at Shi Yan. "You don't have to follow me this time. Stay in the company."

"I understand, Fourth Master." Based on Fourth Master's tone, he would be staying in the capital for two days.

Fu Tingyu walked to the door of the master bedroom. He pushed the door open and walked in. He looked at the person on the bed. Listening to the light breathing sounds, he knew that she was in deep sleep.

He opened the closet and took out his sleeping robe. Then, he turned around and walked into the bathroom.

He took a shower and washed up.

When he came out, he was wearing a light-colored bathrobe with a casual knot on his belt.

With his half-dried hair, he walked to the bed and sat down. He looked at the lady's sleeping face. There was a hint of red on her fair skin. His slender fingers reached out and pinched her cheek. Perhaps it was because she was too thin, but when he pinched her cheek, there didn't seem to be any meat at all.

However, when he pinched her cheek, Qin Shu, who was sleeping, frowned in dissatisfaction. Her hand unconsciously grabbed the thing that was disturbing her sleep. When she felt the hand, she opened her eyes abruptly. She saw the man sitting on the bed looking at her.

“Did I oversleep?”

She sat up with one hand supporting the bed. She didn't feel sleepy anymore. Her hand was still holding the man's big hand.

Fu Tingyu looked at the lady who was staring at him with her eyes wide open. “It's still early.”

Qin Shu glanced out of the window and realized that the sky was already turning white. She retracted her gaze and looked at the man. Only then did she realize that his short hair was wet and she could smell the fragrance of the shower gel on the tip of his nose. That meant that he had just taken a shower.

He did not have the habit of taking a shower in the morning.

But, this morning...

“Then I'll go wash my face and brush my teeth. The station will definitely be full these few days.”

Qin Shu let go of the man's hands. She supported herself on the bed with both hands, put on her slippers, and went to the bathroom to wash up.

Although her feet still hurt, she could still walk. She just couldn't walk fast.

Fu Tingyu's gaze landed at the lady's right foot. The pure-colored gauze around her ankle was wrapped layer by layer, making her ankle appear even thinner. It looked as if he could easily break it with one hand.

The lady's slender figure walked into the bathroom, blocking his line of sight at the same time. He retracted his gaze, stood up, and walked into the dressing room.

After Qin Shu washed up and walked into the dressing room, Fu Tingyu had already changed his clothes. He stood in front of the dressing mirror and wearing a tie. He was wearing his usual black suit. They were all haute couture.

She walked over and changed into the clothes she bought yesterday.

Fu Tingyu put on his tie. When he turned around, he saw that the lady was changing into a new set of clothes. With just a glance, he knew that this set of clothes was not prepared by him.

It was a pair of light-colored denim overalls with a chiffon shirt underneath. It was a simple and refreshing style, very suitable for a new university student.

With her hair tied in a bun, she looked a little mischievous.

The man looked at the lady's eyes. Her beautiful brows and eyes curved slightly as if a gentle breeze had brushed past them, bringing with it the warmth of the warm march sun. Her gaze wasn't intense but it was unforgettable.

He walked over to the lady's side. Beside him was a row of cabinets. There was a drawer under it.

Qin Shu looked at the man who suddenly walked over. She watched as he opened a drawer at the side, took out a pair of black-rimmed glasses, and wore them on the bridge of her nose.

The slightly rustic style covered up that pair of beautiful eyebrows and eyes.

The man nodded his head in satisfaction. "Very nice."

Qin Shu had nothing more to say about the man's beauty standard. As long as he liked it, she didn't mind wearing the glasses.

"I'm going to leave soon. No matter how busy you are, you must remember to rest and balance your work and rest. Do you hear me? Eat on time and don't get drunk when you drink."

Qin Shu, who didn't know that someone was going to send her to the capital personally, began to remind the man what he should or shouldn't do.

"By the way, if you miss me, you can call me or video call me."

"Okay," Fu Tingyu responded.

Qin Shu held the man's arm and nagged at him as they walked downstairs.

Fu Tingyu only listened and responded.

When they reached the dining table, Qin Shu stopped nagging and began to eat.

The man didn't like to talk at the dining table. That was why she kept talking just now.

Breakfast was also very hearty. Most of the pastries were made by the chefs in the house.

At this moment, Fu Tingyan walked in and looked at the two people at the dining table. He walked slowly to the dining table and sat down.

He looked at his brother and said, "Brother." Then he looked at Qin Shu and hesitated for two seconds. "Sister-in-law."

He wouldn't have to call her sister-in-law after they reached the Imperial College.

Qin Shu had been puzzled ever since Fu Tingyan came in. Why did he come to Sheng Yuan so early to eat?

Was he planning to go to Imperial City with her?

"Are you planning to go to Imperial City with me? I thought you would go with Jiang Yu."

Chapter 356: Babe Was A Little Excited In Front Of Everyone

"Yes," Fu Tingyan replied. He originally planned to go with Jiang Yu but Jiang Yu had already left for the capital yesterday.

Because it was a last-minute decision and his brother asked if he wanted to go with him...

That was why he was sitting here now.

Ning Meng prepared a set of bowls and chopsticks for Fu Tingyan.

Fu Tingyan looked at the food on the dining table and found that there were more styles than before. It made him very hungry.

Fu Tingyan knew about the cooking skills of the chefs in the house and it was very to his liking. Otherwise, he would not keep thinking of coming here to eat free food.

While Qin Shu was having breakfast, Shi Yan and Ye Luo moved the luggage and other things to the car.

After moving the luggage, Ye Luo went up to the second floor again to carry the little proud cat.

Boss had already woken up. When it looked at Ye Luo who was walking over to it, it despised him. It felt that he was a piece of wood with a violent tendency.

However, it also felt enjoyable to let someone carry it as it didn't have to walk.

Ye Luo walked in front of Boss, bent down, picked up Boss expressionlessly, and walked out.

Boss narrowed his eyes. Being carried was indeed a kind of enjoyment.

After breakfast, Qin Shu went to the bedroom on the second floor, picked up her backpack, and walked down again.

Fu Tingyu stood in the middle of the living room and looked up. He saw the girl coming down from upstairs and then walking towards him.

Qin Shu looked at the man in front of her. Then, she glanced at Fu Tingyan, who was leaning against the entrance, as well as Ning Meng, who was standing by the side, and Shi Yan...

However, she remembered that she was going to the capital soon and she might not even be able to see them once a month.

She suddenly reached out and wrapped her arms around the man's neck and gave him a kiss.

Fu Tingyu froze. Looking at the lady in front of him, he subconsciously pursed his lips.

This was the first time the lady had kissed him in front of someone. He was a little surprised but his heart was filled with joy.

Fu Tingyan leaned against the entrance and waited. When he saw this scene, he froze as well. This was the second time he saw his brother kissing Qin Shu. Although it was very light this time, it still made him blush.

Ning Meng was also a young girl in her prime. She never had a boyfriend or fall in love before. She didn't even have much contact with the opposite sex. This was the first time she saw this kind of scene so her face also turned red.

Shi Yan was relatively calm... actually, there was a subtle blush on his old face.

There was a moment of silence in the living room.

Fu Tingyan came back to his senses and turned around to walk out.

Shi Yan went to the company on his own.

Qin Shu let go of her hands and slowly lowered them. She looked at the man with her beautiful eyes.
“Okay, I should leave now.”

“Okay.”

Qin Shu’s actions just now made Fu Tingyu felt much happier. He held the lady’s hand and walked out.

Qin Shu looked at the man in a daze. Then, she looked at the hand that was holding her hand. Was he planning to send her to the car?

She followed the man out of the living room with confusion.

Outside, a black caravan was parked there. Ye Luo was waiting by the side.

Qin Shu was stunned when she saw the caravan. Why did she need a caravan to go to the station?

While Qin Shu was in a daze, the man pulled her hand and she heard the man’s deep voice. “What are you standing there for? Get in the car.”

“Oh.” It was rare for Qin Shu to be slow. She looked at the caravan in front of her and lowered her head to get in.

Fu Tingyu followed closely.

Fu Tingyan had been waiting in the car for a long time. He was sitting opposite Qin Shu.

Ye Luo closed the car door, turned around, and sat in the driver’s seat. After closing the door, he started the engine and drove away.

Boss sat in the passenger seat, staring at Ye Luo with its dark green eyes.

Ye Luo glanced at Boss. Then, he focused on driving, ignoring Boss’s look of boredom.

After Fu Tingyan got in the car, he took out his phone and started playing games to kill time.

Qin Shu noticed that Fu Tingyan was playing games so she also wanted to take out her phone and play games to pass time as well.

However, when she remembered that she was going to be separated from the man, she decided to spend more time with him.

She remembered that there was a movie that was quite popular recently. Now that the man was free, it was a good time to watch it with him.

She wondered if the man would feel bored?

She turned her head to look at the man and asked for his opinion. “Do you want to watch a movie together? There’s a movie that has a very good review recently.”

The corners of Fu Tingyu’s mouth curled up slightly. “Okay.”

Qin Shu turned sideways when she heard that. She unzipped her backpack and took out her laptop. There was a rectangular table in the middle of the caravan. She placed her laptop on the table in front of her.

When she turned on her laptop, she took out her headphones and stuffed one side into her ear. She stuffed the other end into the man's ear.

The headphone cord was white. Against her fair skin, it didn't look obvious.

After putting on the headphones, Qin Shu opened the APP and found the movie. She clicked on it.

Fu Tingyu turned his head to look at the headphone in the lady's ear. His gaze followed the white headphone cord. It was connected to his own headphone cord. He stared at the white cord in front of him and was stunned for a few seconds.

He never used this kind of earphone other than in the past when he was still in school

Same earphone and two wires connecting him and her. It was a wonderful and strange feeling. It was as if their hearts were connected.

This was how he felt until the opening song of the movie sounded beside his ear. "The night is coming. I want to sleep with your name on my pillow and listen to the melody of your heartbeat..."

Only then did he come back to his senses and look at the laptop screen.

The clip looked like a youth movie.

Qin Shu had never seen this movie before either. She just saw the ratings and movie reviews and realized that they were quite good. Hence, she wanted to take a look.

Fu Tingyan raised his eyes and glanced at the two people opposite him. They were very close to each other, so close that if one of them turned their head to the side, the person could touch the other person's face and jaw.

The two of them shared an earphone. The two wires connected the two of them. The scene was inexplicably harmonious as if they were an envious couple.

He realized that agreeing to go to the capital with his brother was a wrong choice.

Would liking someone really make one entirely crazy?

His brother was not only crazy, he was already crazy to the point of madness.

It was as if he couldn't live without Qin Shu.

His brother seemed to be happy because Qin Shu had changed. She was no longer the same as before.

He looked at his brother's face. His long and narrow eyes were smiling faintly.

It also meant that his brother was in a good mood.

Thinking of the scene he saw in the living room, Fu Tingyan's face couldn't help but turn red again.

He retracted his gaze and continued to play the game. Deep inside, he was still very curious. What would it feel like to fall in love with someone?

While watching the movie, Fu Tingyu and Qin Shu didn't open their mouths to speak at all. They looked at the laptop in front of them and watched the development of the plot. It was full of ups and downs. It was heart-wrenching.

The plot belonged to a sad but warm kind of movie.

Qin Shu felt deeply moved because the male lead in the movie treated the female lead exceptionally well, so well that it made people jealous.

However, she was not envious because the man beside her was even better than the male lead in the movie.

The time passed very quickly as they watched the movie. An hour had passed.

When she looked up, she realized that something was wrong. An hour had passed but why hadn't they arrived at the bus station?

Chapter 357: There Was A Room In The Car, Arrived At Imperial College

Qin Shu looked out of the car window and realized that they were already on the highway. No wonder the car was driving so fast. Other than the few traffic lights at the beginning, it hadn't stopped after that.

She retracted her gaze and glanced at Fu Tingyan who was opposite her. He was still lowering his head and playing with his phone. She turned her head to look at the person beside her. He was as calm as ever.

So, they were not going to the station but the capital?

Was he going to send her there personally?

Actually, Jiang City was not far from the capital and it was very convenient to travel there. It was a three-hour drive and there was a direct high-speed train from Jiang City to the Capital. The speed was even faster.

She turned her head to look at the man beside her. She was very touched that he had taken time out of his busy schedule to send her there.

However, she also thought of another problem. If he appeared in her school, with his looks and temperament, it would cause a huge uproar.

When Qin Shu was feeling touched and surprised, Fu Tingyu took out a fruit from the small refrigerator. He held a fruit knife in one hand and peeled it. After peeling it, he cut it into pieces and put it on the fruit plate. His actions weren't very smooth and skilled but he looked extremely elegant.

There were two fruit plates because his brother was sitting opposite him.

He put one of the fruit plates in front of Fu Tingyan. Fu Tingyan had been playing games all these while but he saw his brother's every move, especially when he was peeling the fruit. He wondered if his brother had forgotten about him after he got a wife?

Seeing the fruit plate that his brother placed in front of him, his eyes lit up. His brother hadn't forgotten him.

Although he was excited, he still finished the game first before he slowly ate the fruit in front of him. He acted as if he didn't care.

Fu Tingyu placed the other plate in front of Qin Shu. "Eat some fruit."

Qin Shu looked at the fruit plate in front of her. It was all her favorite food. She reached out and picked up a cherry and put it into her mouth. It was sweet with a hint of sourness but it was very delicious.

Fu Tingyu took out a tissue to wipe the water stains on his hand. "Come in and sleep after you eat."

Qin Shu held the cherry in her mouth and smiled. "Okay."

Fu Tingyu glanced at the lady. Then, he stood up from the chair and opened the door. Behind the car was a small room with a bed. It was just the right size for two people to sleep on. He walked into the room.

Then, he closed the door.

The bedding was all new.

Fu Tingyu, who had not slept the whole night, had a hint of tiredness in his eyes. He slowly took off his clothes and hung them on the clothes rack at the side. He picked up the robe that he had prepared beforehand and put it on.

After he fastened his belt, he sat on the bed and laid down, waiting for his personal pillow to come.

Qin Shu ate the fruit in front of her and closed the laptop while she was at it. She put it into her backpack.

Fu Tingyan ate the fruit while looking at his phone. He enjoyed it very much. He glanced at Qin Shu who was opposite him. His gaze went past her to the door behind her. His brother was inside.

He looked at Qin Shu who in front of him and opened his mouth. In the end, he didn't say anything. He lowered his head and continued to eat the fruit while playing with his phone.

Qin Shu ate the last piece of dragonfruit. She took out a tissue and wiped the residual juice from the corner of her mouth. Then, she stood up, opened the door behind her, and walked in. When she turned around and she closed the door.

Fu Tingyan saw Qin Shu entering the room. He played with his phone for a while and felt really bored, Hence, he decided to chat with Ye Luo on his phone.

Ye Luo had taught him martial arts, so the two of them were quite close.

After Qin Shu entered, she saw Fu Tingyu lying on the bed, his long and narrow eyes half-closed. There was a large space beside him. It was specially reserved for her.

On the clothes rack, there was a light pink nightgown.

She took off her clothes, picked up the light pink nightgown, and put it on. She looked down and tied the belt.

Fu Tingyu held his head with one hand and watched the lady as she put on the light pink nightgown. The nightgown caused her cheeks to appear pinkish.

Qin Shu tied the belt and looked up at the bed. She found that the man was looking at her. She lowered her eyes slightly and walked to the bed. Then, she laid down on the man.

When taking a long-distance ride, sleeping was actually the best way to pass the time.

Fu Tingyu pulled the lady into his arms. His clean and smooth chin pressed against her soft hair. He closed his eyes and started to catch up on sleep.

He had not slept for the whole night. He hugged his exclusive pillow. It allowed him to fall asleep very quickly.

Qin Shu slept very early last night so she was not sleepy when she laid down. She heard the light breathing of the man. When she looked up, what she saw was the man's incomparably handsome face. However, he was still frowning when he was asleep. It was as if something was bothering him.

She raised her hand and smoothed out the wrinkles between his eyebrows before withdrawing her hand.

She nestled in the man's arms and watched him sleep. Unconsciously, she felt a little sleepy too. She closed her eyes to sleep.

Fu Tingyu's biological clock was very accurate. No matter how deeply he was sleeping, he would still wake up after two hours.

He opened his eyes and looked down at the lady in his arms. He leaned over and kissed the lady's forehead before getting up.

When Fu Tingyu got out of bed to put on his clothes, Qin Shu woke up as well. When she opened her eyes, she saw a tall figure beside the bed. She raised her hand to look at the time on her watch. She had slept for two hours. That meant that she had already arrived at the capital. Perhaps she would arrive at the Imperial College soon.

She hurriedly got out of bed and began to take off her clothes to change.

Compared to the anxious Qin Shu, Fu Tingyu continued to tidy his clothes and tie his tie slowly.

After putting on their clothes, Fu Tingyu and Qin Shu walked out.

Ten minutes later, they arrived at Imperial College.

Fu Tingyu was already impatient from waiting in the car. As soon as the car stopped, he immediately opened the car door and got out. Then, he went to pick up his password-locked luggage bag. He also helped to take Qin Shu's luggage bag while he was at it.

When Qin Shu got out of the car, Fu Tingyu said, "I'll wait for you outside."

Qin Shu carried her bag and stood outside the car door. She looked at the man sitting in the car. She wanted to say that he didn't need to wait outside because she had a lot of things to deal with as he had just entered the college. She wouldn't be able to come out for a while. However, seeing the man's determined gaze, she still nodded. "Okay."

Ye Luo carried Boss down from the passenger seat at the front and stood at the side to wait.

Boss lifted his eyelids and yawned lazily as if he had not slept well on the road.

Fu Tingyan carried a luggage bag in each hand and a backpack on his shoulder. He was waiting at the school gate.

He was not like the young masters of other families, who had other people taking care of their luggage bags.

Fu Tingyan was very low-profile.

Qin Shu carried the backpack and walked in front of Ye Luo. She took Boss from his hand and walked towards Fu Tingyan.

The two of them walked forward, one after the other. To outsiders, they looked like two strangers.

Jiang Yu came a day earlier. He knew that Fu Tingyan was coming today so he came early and waited at the entrance.

He saw Fu Tingyan's figure in the crowd and ran over.

"I've wait for you for a while. I've already arranged the dormitory. I've got some connections. We'll stay in the same room."

Jiang Yu was a little excited. He caught a glimpse of the lady behind Xiao Qi. Because she was wearing glasses, he didn't recognize her at first glance. He just felt that she looked familiar.

Chapter 358: This Mouth Is A Little Annoying. Meeting Familiar People In School

He felt like he had seen the lady somewhere before.

Jiang Yu couldn't help but take a few more glances before realizing that she looked extremely similar to Qin Shu. There was a hint of surprise in his voice. "You're Qin Shu, aren't you? I can't even recognize you with your glasses on."

Qin Shu wasn't surprised that Jiang Yu recognized her. Most people who knew her would be able to recognize her.

"Why are you here with Xiao Qi? Did you guys arrange this beforehand?" Jiang Yu glanced at Fu Tingyan. Something was up.

Fu Tingyan's face darkened. He raised his leg and kicked Jiang Yu. "Can't you see that I'm carrying two suitcases?"

Jiang Yu dodged hurriedly. "Let me help you." He took the suitcase from Fu Tingyan and noticed that Qin Shu's ankle was wrapped in gauze. He turned back to look at Qin Shu. His gaze landed on the gauze on her forehead. He asked, "Why did you get hurt everywhere after going on a summer vacation? Aren't you very powerful? How did you get injured?"

After so long, Jiang Yu could still vaguely remember the scene where Qin Shu kicked the brawny man away. It was way too cool.

Fu Tingyan turned to look at Qin Shu. Curiosity flashed in his eyes. He saw the wounds when they were at Sheng Yuan but he didn't ask because his brother was there.

Jiang Yu was a straightforward person. Others might think that he was gloating but in reality, he was just curious as to how someone as powerful as her could get hurt.

"I fell accidentally."

She was in a car accident and then she had to fight with kidnappers. If she didn't get hurt, she would be superwoman.

Jiang Yu couldn't help but laugh. "Then you'd have to fall down the stairs to get the effect you have now."

Fu Tingyan: ...

He really wanted to shut Jiang Yu's mouth. Does he know how to talk?

Qin Shu: ...

Jiang Yu didn't realize that there was something wrong with what he said. When he saw that she was holding a cat in her arms, he couldn't help but feel curious. "Why did you bring your pet here?"

Qin Shu lowered her eyes and looked at Boss with dotting eyes. "It's more clingy to me so I brought it here."

Boss raised its dark green eyes and looked at Qin Shu with a very obedient look.

Qin Shu looked at Boss's eyes and pondered for a moment. She took out her pet bag, opened it, and put Boss inside. Then, she zipped it up and carried it on her back.

Pets like Boss were very rare so it would not be good if someone saw it.

At this moment, a male student walked up to them and greeted them warmly, "You guys are freshmen, right? I'm the president of the student union, Qiao Ran. If you don't know where your dormitory is, I can lead you there."

Jiang Yu knew Qiao Ran when he arrived yesterday. He was a year three senior as well as an influential figure in Imperial College. Other than being a top student, he was extremely good-looking and had a cheerful and bright personality. There were many girls who liked him.

However, Jun Li was in the Imperial College too. He stole much of Qiao Ran's limelight.

Tingyan was in the same dormitory as him while Qin Shu didn't know where she was staying. Jiang Yu pointed at Qin Shu beside him and said, "She just arrived. She doesn't know which dormitory she has been assigned to. Senior, you can take her there."

“No problem.” Qiao Ran looked at the bespectacled young lady. When he saw the injury on her forehead, he was a little surprised. “What’s your name? I can check where your dormitory is.”

Qin Shu looked at the young man in front of her. In terms of looks, he was not inferior to Fu Tingyan and Jiang Yu. But, his temperament was a little different. He was bright and cheerful so he was more enthusiastic.

“Linxi High School, Qin Shu,” she answered concisely.

Qiao Ran’s first reaction was, Qing Shu (love letter in Chinese)?

But he knew that her name would not be like this.

“Let me check.”

Qiao Ran took out his phone and logged into the Imperial College’s official management website. He entered Qin Shu’s name and saw the dormitory assigned to her. He looked up at Qin Shu and said, “It’s in building A, second floor. It’s a little far away. I’ll take you there. It’ll be troublesome if you get lost like the other juniors.”

The university was very big, to begin with. It was indeed easy to get lost on the first visit so it was best to have someone to lead the way.

“Then I’ll have to trouble you, senior.”

Fu Tingyan glanced at Qiao Ran. He planned to go over together.

Jiang Yu handed the suitcase in his hand to Qiao Ran. “Sorry to trouble you, senior.” After he said that, he hooked his arm around Fu Tingyan’s neck. He was a little excited. “Tingyan, I’ll bring you to our dormitory to take a look.”

“No worries. I’m the president of the student union. It’s only right for me to help my junior.”

Qiao Ran smiled. He carried the suitcase and looked at Qin Shu. “Let’s go.”

Qiao Ran walked in front. He seemed to know that ladies walked slower so his pace was neither too fast nor too slow.

Qin Shu carried her pet bag and followed him at a leisurely pace. Her leg was injured so she could not walk fast even if she wanted to.

“Tingyan, let’s go too.”

Jiang Yu put a hand on Fu Tingyan’s shoulder and led him to the male dormitory.

Fu Tingyan had no choice but to follow Jiang Yu. He glanced at Qin Shu. The young man was just leading the way so it shouldn’t be a problem.

“I chose the third floor. The balcony is facing the female dormitory directly.”

Jiang Yu introduced excitedly as they walked.

Fu Tingyan was only responsible for listening.

It was a long distance from the school gate to the female dormitory.

Qiao Ran carried her suitcase and walked slowly. However, after walking for some time, he realized that Qin Shu was still lagging behind. When he turned around and noticed that Qin Shu was not walking properly. He looked at her feet and saw that her ankle was wrapped in gauze. She was injured.

She had an injury on her forehead and her foot. What a pitiful young lady.

He stopped and waited for her.

It was not suitable for her to walk for a long distance since her foot was injured.

That was why Qin Shu was walking very slowly. When she saw that Qiao Ran was waiting for her, she felt a little embarrassed.

When Qin Shu got closer, Qiao Ran could not help but asked, "What happened to you during the summer vacation? How did you hurt yourself so badly?"

Qin Shu smiled at Qiao Ran and felt a little awkward. "I accidentally fell."

Qiao Ran saw that Qin Shu's foot was injured so he pondered for a while and said, "Wait a moment, I'll go find a car."

Qin Shu was about to refuse when a black luxury car stopped in front of her. She looked over curiously. When the car window slowly rolled down, she saw a pair of purple eyes. The gaze was gentle and his face seemed to have turned a little paler.

It was normal to bump into Jun Li here. After all, he was a professor at Imperial College.

The car door was pushed open from the inside. When Jun Li's slender figure walked out of the car, he saw Qin Shu's feet wrapped in gauze. His brows were furrowed. When he stood up straight, he looked at Qin Shu's forehead and furrowed his brows again.

"How did you get injured?"

Qin Shu replied nonchalantly, "I accidentally fell."

Now, whenever people asked how she got injured, she would always say that she fell.

Qiao Ran saw Jun Li coming down and greeted respectfully, "Professor Jun.."

Jun Li glanced at Qiao Ran and then looked at Qin Shu. "You're too careless. Get in the car. I'll send you to the female dormitory."

"Then I'll put her luggage in the car." Qiao Ran carried the luggage to the back of the car, pulled open the boot, and put the luggage inside

Qin Shu felt a little embarrassed. It was her first day at Imperial College and she had already troubled Jun Li.

Chapter 359: He Was Right, Everyone Wanted His Contact

When she saw Qiao Ran putting her suitcase into the car, she decided not to be pretentious.

“Then I’ll have to trouble Professor Jun.”

She felt that this was the most appropriate way to address him since she was studying at Imperial College.

Jun Li smiled faintly. “It’s no trouble. I have nothing to do anyway.”

Qin Shu lowered her head and sat in the car.

Jun Li turned to look at Qiao Ran. “You can go back.”

“Professor Jun, I’ll go back first then.”

Qiao Ran turned and left after saying that.

Jun Li turned around and sat in the car. Then, he closed the door.

Su Ying glanced at the rearview mirror before driving to the female dormitory.

Qin Shu placed her pet bag by her feet and looked out of the car window. She was trying to remember the route in case she got lost.

Jun Li tilted his head and saw Qin Shu’s actions. He knew that she was trying to recognize the way. “I’m free later. I can bring you around so that you can familiarize yourself with the environment.”

Qin Shu still wanted to go out after this so she declined directly. “There’s no need for that. There’ll be plenty of time in the future. I’ll get familiar with the school slowly.”

“That’s true. Your college life has just begun. As time passes, you’ll naturally become familiar with it.”

Jun Li’s gaze was fixed on Qin Shu’s ankle. There were a few layers of gauze wrapped around her slender ankle so he could not see the injuries inside.

He looked at it for a long time before he retracted his gaze.

Riding in the car was many times faster than walking. It did not take long for them to reach the female dormitory.

Su Ying was the first to get out of the car. He opened the back seat door and then walked straight to the back of the car to take out the suitcase.

Qin Shu pushed open the car door by herself and got out. She held the pet bag in her hand and watched as Jun Li got out from the other side of the car.

Jun Li glanced at the pet bag in Qin Shu’s hand and took a few steps forward. “Let me help you carry it.” As he spoke, his hand reached out and took the pet bag from Qin Shu’s hand.

Qin Shu wanted to refuse but before she could open her mouth, Jun Li’s hand was already stretched out.

Jun Li carried the pet bag. It wasn’t heavy. It should be a small pet. When he was in Xijin, he had heard Qin Shu mentioning her pet before.

Suddenly, a few ear-piercing scratching sounds came from the pet bag. It sounded like sharp claws scratching a hard cloth.

Qin Shu heard the scratching sounds. Boss must have known that a stranger was carrying it and was unhappy.

Jun Li looked down at the pet bag and said, "Let's go up."

At this time, Su Ying carried the suitcase and took the lead to go up the stairs.

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and walked up the stairs.

When she passed by the entrance of the dormitory office, no one stopped her.

She didn't find it strange. Jun Li was a professor at Imperial College and the chairman of the board.

Just his looks alone were enough to get them in.

They arrived on the second floor in a short while.

Qin Shu's dormitory was 205. Su Ying had already put her luggage in the dormitory.

Qin Shu walked in and glanced at the dormitory. There were two beds, a balcony, and a bathroom. The space was just right for two people.

Jun Li also glanced at the dormitory. The structure of the male and female dormitory was actually the same but this was his first time coming in.

He put the pet bag on the table at the side.

"The double room dormitory is a little small." The school actually had single apartments for the wealthy but she didn't want to live in it.

"I think that it's alright. Two people don't need much space."

Qin Shu's gaze turned to the bed on the right. She decided to choose this bed.

Jun Li retracted his gaze and looked at the spectacles on Qin Shu's nose bridge. The design was a little rustic but it wasn't ugly on her. It just covered up her beautiful eyes.

"If you have any questions, you can look for Qiao Ran. He is the president of the student union and is very familiar with Imperial College. He can help you a lot."

Qiao Ran gave her a good first impression. He was friendly and warm. He was a little easier to get along with than she had imagined.

"Yes, Senior Qiao is very friendly. If there's anything I don't understand, I'll look for him."

Jun Li glanced at the pet bag and asked her, "Is your pet a cat?"

Qin Shu was a little surprised when she heard that. "Why did you guess that it was a cat?"

Jun Li smiled. "I just anyhow guess."

At the mention of Boss, Qin Shu's eyes lit up. "It is indeed a cat. I saw it when I was at the Pet Street. It seemed quite smart so I bought it."

Jun Li laughed out loud this time. "You are also quite smart." There was a hint of doting in his tone.

Qin Shu was stunned. This was the first time she saw Jun Li laughing. He was already handsome and his voice was pleasant to the ear. Hence, his laughter was like a gentle march breeze. It felt a little warm.

She was stunned for a long while before she regained her senses. "Professor Jun, you must be joking."

When Jun Li heard this, he stopped laughing. "Only people who are not familiar with me would call me Professor Jun. We are friends. You can just call me by my name."

Qin Shu thought that calling him Professor Jun was the most appropriate way to address him but after hearing what he said, she felt that it did sound a little distant.

She nodded, indicating that she agreed with what he said.

"I'll take my leave first then."

Jun Li glanced at her head. He clenched his hands and turned to leave.

Su Ying was already waiting outside.

Qin Shu sent Jun Li to the door and watched him walk to the stairs. She was about to go in to pack her luggage when she heard someone shouting.

"Hey, do you know Professor Jun?"

Qin Shu stopped in her tracks and turned around. She saw several young ladies standing in the corridor.

"I saw Professor Jun sending you to your dormitory. How did you guys meet?"

"Do you have Professor Jun's contact? WeChat is the best."

"Professor Jun is so handsome. If you have his contact, you must share it with us."

"Sister, how did you hook up with Professor Jun? Teach us."

Qin Shu looked at the young ladies in front of her with infatuated expressions on their faces. She couldn't be bothered with them at all. She turned around and walked into the dormitory.

The young ladies standing in the corridor looked at one another and then rushed into the dormitory.

"Why aren't you saying anything? Why don't you tell us his contact details?"

"Yeah, what's wrong with telling us?"

"What's your relationship with Professor Jun? Is it that kind of...?" The young ladies covered their mouths and looked at Qin Shu in surprise.

Qin Shu looked at the young ladies in front of her coldly. "He was here just now. If you wanted his contact, why didn't you ask him directly? I don't have the right to give you his contact information. What is my relationship with him? Is that any of your problem?"

The female students were stunned at first but soon, their faces turned green and white. Their expressions were very ugly.

“Why are you so arrogant? You’re not very beautiful. Do you think that you are very charismatic just because you are close to Professor Jun?” The female student sneered.

“I think that she doesn’t have Professor Jun’s contact so she said that on purpose. Perhaps she deliberately said that she was injured and pretended to be pitiful so she asked Professor Jun to send her up. Professor Jun is so easy to talk to so he agreed.”

When she said this, the other young ladies saw the injury on Qin Shu’s forehead and her foot. They agreed with her.

Before they entered the Imperial College, they had all inquired about Jun Li. He had a good personality, was gentle and refined, and was easy to get close to.

“Let’s go, let’s go. She just likes to show off. Maybe Professor Jun will forget about her the next day. Let’s not waste time with her.”

Chapter 360: Got Despised. Senior Came To Help, A Slap In Their Faces

“We can ask our senior sisters for it. When we get it, she might come to us and beg for Professor Jun’s contact.”

“Professor Jun is really handsome, especially his eyes. They’re really beautiful.”

“I saw it too. He’s even more handsome than I imagined.”

As the young ladies left, their conversation became fainter and fainter.

The dormitory also quietened down.

It was not enough to just describe Jun Li as tall, rich, and handsome.

He had beauty, talent, money, and figure.

He was elegant and refined.

It was normal for these young ladies to admire him, but... their behavior was really annoying.

Their appearance was like an interlude to Qin Shu. She did not care, nor did she want to care.

She looked at the dormitory and started to tidy up.

When she was halfway through, a young lady walked into the dormitory. She was carrying a suitcase. When she came in, there was a shrill sound of dragging.

Qin Shu heard the sound and looked over. The young lady had an oval face and her long hair was tied into a ponytail. Her hair was naturally curly and her skin was fair. From her clothes, one could tell that she was the daughter of a rich family.

When Qin Shu was sizing her up, the other party was sizing her up too.

She was wearing ordinary clothes and wearing such rustic glasses. Did she come from a small town?

The girl who was sizing Qin Shu up was called Mu Ke. She came from a wealthy family.

They were about to become roommates and would have to stay together for at least three years.

Qin Shu was about to greet her but before she could say anything, Mu Ke retracted her gaze, put on her headphones, and started to pack her luggage while humming a pop song.

...

Qin Shu sighed when she saw that the other party was ignoring her. She did not bother with her anymore and continued to pack her things.

Even though they shared the same dormitory, they had two closets and two cabinets. They would not disturb the other party.

Half an hour later, Qiao Ran walked into the dormitory with two male students behind him. They were carrying two thin quilts and daily necessities.

Qiao Ran looked at Qin Shu, who was packing her luggage and said, "Junior sister, I've brought the daily necessities. We'll tidy them up for you."

Qin Shu was a little embarrassed when she saw Qiao Ran personally bringing the daily necessities over and helping her with tidying up the room. She quickly said, "I've already troubled you enough. I'll do it myself. You can just put the things on the bed."

"It's no trouble. Aren't you injured? You can just wait at the side."

Qiao Ran turned around, picked up the quilt from his classmates' hands, and started to make the bed for her.

Qiao Ran was 1.85 meters tall. Making the bed was just a piece of cake for him.

The other two seniors also stopped and placed the daily necessities in the cabinet.

Qin Shu stood at the side, feeling a little at a loss. She could see that Qiao Ran was very friendly but she felt a little embarrassed when he helped her with these things.

Mu Ke saw three male students suddenly enter the dormitory. so she took off her earphones. Then, she saw one of them making the bed for her roommate. It was her first time seeing a boy make the bed, and it was such a handsome boy. She was stunned for a moment.

Qiao Ran had neat short hair, a slender figure, and long arms. When he made the bed, he shook the corner of the quilt. He looked extremely handsome when he was doing that.

After Qiao Ran made the bed, his forehead was covered with a layer of sweat. He raised his head to look at Qin Shu. When he raised his eyebrows, a bead of sweat fell from his forehead.

"What do you think about this? If it isn't good enough, I'll do it again."

Qin Shu looked at the neat and tidy bed and felt that Qiao Ran had changed her opinion of some young men.

Most young men were lazy. They washed their socks in piles, maybe even their clothes. Their dormitories were filled with the smell of smelly socks.

“No need. This is good. Thank you, Senior Qiao.”

“You’re welcome. If there’s anything else I can help you with, just let me know.” When Qiao ran smiled, he looked very warm.

“Okay.” Other than nodding, she really didn’t know what to say.

Qiao Ran glanced at Qin Shu and curled the corner of his lips. “Then we’ll be leaving first.”

When Mu Ke saw that they were about to leave, she hurriedly called out to him, “Wait a minute, senior.”

Qiao Ran stopped in his tracks and turned around to look at Mu Ke. “What’s the matter?”

Seeing Qiao Ran’s handsome face, Mu Ke’s cheeks flushed slightly. “I’m also new here. Can you help me get some daily necessities?”

Qiao Ran replied, “No problem.”

Qiao Ran glanced at the students beside him. “The two of you can help her get some later.”

“Got it, president.”

Qiao Ran and the other two members of the student union walked out of the dormitory one after another.

Mu Ke was about to ask him if he was coming, but before she could ask, Qiao Ran and the others had already walked out.

The initially lively dormitory quieted down after they left.

Mu Ke glanced at Qin Shu, pursed her lips, and continued to pack her luggage.

Qin Shu looked at the tidy bed. It was rare to see such a friendly and enthusiastic senior like Qiao ran.

Not long after, the two seniors brought Mu Ke’s daily necessities over.

“Junior sister, here are the daily necessities you asked for.”

Mu Ke raised her head and looked behind the two seniors in front of her. She was a little disappointed when she did not see the president that they were talking about.

She pointed at the empty bed. “Leave it here.”

The two seniors knew from Mu Ke’s expression that she had taken a liking to their president. However, the president did not come so she was disappointed.

After they put down the items, they turned around and wanted to leave.

Mu Ke stopped them again. “Is your president coming?”

“School just started. Our president is very busy. He can’t attend to all the new students.” The one who answered Mu Ke was a new member of the student union called Chen Xiao.

Mu Ke glanced at Qin Shu. Why did he attend to her?

Chen Xiao also glanced at Qin Shu, not knowing what to say.

“We’ll be leaving first.” Chen Xiao pulled his friend and ran out in a hurry.

After Qin Shu was done tidying up, she put her pet bag under the bed, took some dried fish, and put them in. Then, she zipped it up.

Only then did she pick up her backpack and walked out of the room.

Half an hour later.

Qin Shu walked out of the school and saw the black caravan parked at the school gate. She quickened her pace and walked over.

Ye Luo saw Qin Shu walking over so he got out of the car, opened the door, and waited for her.

Qin Shu walked to the front of the car, lowered her head, and got in.

Ye Luo closed the car door and turned around to sit in the driver’s seat. He started the engine and left.

Before Qin Shu came, Fu Tingyu was leaning against the back of the chair and closing his eyes to rest. He even fell asleep.

He only woke up when Ye Luo opened the car door.

When he opened his eyes, he saw the lady getting in. Her forehead was full of sweat and her fair cheeks were slightly red.

The capital’s summer was hot and dry and it was very cold in winter. It made him wanted to take her back to Jiang City.

Qin Shu sat in the car and saw the man leaning against the back of the chair. His eyes were slightly drooping as if he had just woken up.

Fu Tingyu stretched out his long arm and pulled the young lady into his arms. He took out a piece of tissue with his slender fingers and wiped the sweat off her forehead. “Did it go well?”

“It went better than I expected.”

She did not expect her seniors to be so supportive. She didn’t need to worry at all.

After Fu Tingyu wiped the sweat off, his slender fingers took off the glasses on the bridge of her nose and placed them on the table at the side. He stared at the young lady’s exquisite facial features for a long time.
