

Bigoted 431

Chapter 431: Yu's Parents, Was Yu Serious?

Qin Shu stood at the entrance of the office and pushed the door open. She looked inside and found that the desk was empty.

He wasn't dealing with work. Could he have gone to rest?

Qin Shu was about to walk in when she was suddenly hugged from behind. A man's deep voice was heard. There was a hint of excitement in the voice. "Babe, why are you here?"

Fu Tingyu went out for a while and saw a slim figure standing in the office when he came back. He just saw the back view but he knew that it was his Babe.

That was why he deliberately walked lightly and didn't make a sound.

Qin Shu turned around and looked at the man's perfect face. She could see it every day but it still stunned her. "I came to see if you were obedient and rest after eating."

Fu Tingyu carried her up and walked in, closing the door behind him.

"Since you're here, you can rest with me."

The man carried her straight into the lounge.

Qin Shu let him carry her. She was free now anyway so it was fine to rest with him.

When they entered the lounge, Fu Tingyu put her on the bed. Then, he stood up and began to take off his clothes. His gaze was fixed on the person on the bed.

Qin Shu blinked. She felt that the man's actions and gaze were very similar to scenes from a certain plot.

Fu Tingyu took off his clothes one by one and then put on his nightgown. He then laid on the bed. With a pull of his hand, he pulled the lady into his embrace. He placed her head against his chest and his chin against her soft hair.

Even he himself did not realize that his heart was beating faster.

Maybe it was because Gu Yan said that he didn't have to die so early after he made the medicine. That meant that he would have a longer time to stay with her, dote on her, and love her.

Before he met her, he had never thought that he would like someone to this extent. He liked her so much that he was even willing to dig out his heart for her to see.

He suddenly understood why his father doted on his mother so much. His father could even ignore his grandmother for his mother's sake.

He bought a private island for his mother and it was heart-shaped. He spent a lot of time and energy on that island.

In his memory, his father was a quiet person.

His grandmother often said that his father forgot his mother when he had a wife. She said that he had raised him for nothing.

Later, he insisted on marrying Babe.

His grandmother said helplessly, "Your personality is exactly like your father's."

He lowered his eyes and smoothed the lady's silky hair with his big hand. He thought about the relationship between him and Babe now, which was much better than before.

"I'll bring you to see my father and mother at the end of the year."

Qin Shu quietly nestled in the man's arms. When she heard that, she raised her head to look at the man. However, she could only see the man's smooth and clean jaw.

This was the first time that the man had mentioned his father and mother to her, which made her somewhat expectant.

"Alright, I haven't met them yet. I wonder if your parents will like me?"

Fu Tingyu said, "Don't worry about my father. My mother will definitely like you."

Qin Shu questioned, "Are you so sure? Even your grandma doesn't like me."

At the mention of his mother, Fu Tingyu's gaze softened a little. "My mother is different from my grandma. She is a very gentle woman."

This was the first time Qin Shu heard Fu Tingyu praising a woman for being gentle. It also made her very interested in his mother. "I believe in you."

Fu Tingyu continued, "My father listens to my mother in everything so he will like you if my mother likes you."

Even if Fu Tingyu was trying to reassure her, she could tell that his parents were very loving.

Fu Tingyu closed his eyes. He was not sleepy at first, but gradually, he became sleepy.

After an hour of sleep, Fu Tingyu woke up. He looked down at the person in his arms. She was still sleeping soundly.

He slowly sat up from the bed, stood up, and walked to the clothes rack. He took off his robe and started to put on his clothes.

After putting on his clothes, he walked out of the lounge.

Qin Shu woke up half an hour later.

She walked out of the lounge and saw the man sitting at his desk. She didn't disturb him. Instead, she sat on the sofa, picked up a magazine, and casually flipped through it while waiting for him to get off work.

Fu Tingyu looked up at the girl. Then, he lowered his head and continued to deal with his things.

Four hours later

Fu Tingyu started to tidy up his desk. After he was done, he stood up from his desk and walked to the sofa. He lowered his eyes and looked at the phone in the lady's hand. "I'm going back."

Qin Shu is playing a phone game. When she heard the man's voice, she hurriedly quit the game and put away the phone. She stood up and followed the man out of the office.

Ye Luo had already had a fulfilling meal with Boss outside. The arrogant Boss finally stopped haggling over the matter before.

:00 at night

Qin Shu sat at the head of the bed, waiting for the man to come out. He was going to visit Gu Yan tomorrow so she also wanted to go.

The bathroom door opened and the man walked out in his pajamas. His hair was half-dried by the hairdryer. It looked a little damp.

Fu Tingyu walked over and sat down at the head of the bed. He reached out and pulled the lady into his arms. He rubbed his big hand against her hair.

Qin Shu leaned her head against the man's chest and said gently, "Can I continue to accompany you tomorrow?"

Fu Tingyu's hand stopped for a moment. Then, he put it down. "I have something to do tomorrow so you can stay at Sheng Yuan."

Qin Shu noticed that the man didn't want her to know that he would go to Gu Yan's place tomorrow to test the medicine. He also didn't want her to accompany him.

She pursed her lips. "Then I'll go and look for Gu Yan tomorrow."

"Why are you looking for him?" Fu Tingyu moved the lady over and faced her.

Qin Shu said, "I want to ask him something."

Fu Tingyu was afraid that she would ask Gu Yan about him and the testing of the medicine tomorrow.

"I don't allow you to go. You'll stay in Sheng Yuan tomorrow."

After Fu Tingyu finished speaking, he realized that his tone was too rough so he pulled her into his arms and said in a low voice, "When I'm done with my work tomorrow, I'll accompany you wherever you want to go."

Qin Shu said softly, "When you're done with your work, I'll have to go back to the capital to study."

The man was stunned.

"I think that you've been in a good mood recently. Your anger should have subsided so I should be leaving."

The man said unhappily, "My anger hasn't subsided yet."

Qin Shu continued, "You don't need me to accompany you tomorrow."

"Tomorrow, you just need to rest well at home."

"I can't sleep during the day. I'm not a pig. All I do is eat and sleep," Qin Shu also began to scoff unhappily.

Fu Tingyu looked down at the lady's dissatisfied expression. Suddenly, he leaned over and whispered into her ear. There was a smile at the corner of his mouth.

After listening to the man's words, Qin Shu shook her head. "No."

The man's gaze was deep. "Yes, as long as I can persist."

"If I say no, it means no."

Qin Shu's head shook like a rattle. She was not willing to sleep on the bed for a day because she exercised too much.

"That's not up to you."

Fu Tingyu turned off the headlights in the bedroom, leaving only the bedside lamp. The light in the originally bright bedroom instantly dimmed.

He picked up the phone on the bedside table again and looked at the time. It was eleven o'clock.

Qin Shu saw that he was still looking at the time so the corner of her mouth twitched. "Babe, are you serious?"

Chapter 432: Planned To Leave Her Behind And Find Gu Yan to Cure His Poison

Seeing the man withdrawing his hand and moving closer to her, she unconsciously moved back a little.

Fu Tingyu directly used his actions to tell her whether he was serious or not.

The dim light in the bedroom did not go off until four in the morning.

The next day

Fu Tingyu opened his eyes and looked down at the person in his arms. She was sleeping peacefully and her breathing was light. There was no sign of her waking up.

Her lips pouted slightly because of dissatisfaction, as if she was unhappy.

This time, he had gone too far.

He stretched out his long arm and picked up the phone on the bedside table. He looked at the time. It was seven o'clock.

He put down the phone and looked down at the person who was still sleeping. He lowered his head and planted a kiss on her forehead.

Only then did he lift the blanket and get off the bed to go to the bathroom to wash up.

When he appeared in front of the bed again, he was already fully dressed. He glanced at the person who was still sleeping soundly on the bed. She was so tired that she did not even change her sleeping posture.

After looking at her for a while, he turned around and left the bedroom, closing the door behind him.

He finished his breakfast and then stood up and left. When he passed by the entrance and saw Ning Meng, he stopped in his tracks.

Lemon was actually quite afraid of Fu Tingyu. Thus, when Fu Tingyu stood in front of her, she instinctively straightened her body tightly.

“Let her sleep until she wakes up naturally.”

After Fu Tingyu finished speaking, he walked straight out.

When Fu Tingyu left, the invisible pressure disappeared too. Ning Meng relaxed. She originally planned to go upstairs and ask Qin Shu to come down for breakfast but now, she gave up on the idea of going upstairs.

Fu Tingyu went to the company first. After dealing with the urgent matters, he made a call to Gu Yan and then got up to go to Gu Yan’s private villa.

Forty minutes later, at the private villa

Gu Yan was already prepared to meet Fu Tingyu. He even brewed a pot of tea specially.

When he told Qin Shu that he was a little nervous, it was not a lie.

Fu Tingyu’s poison was something that he had been worried about for a long time.

Now that he had finally found the herbs and the antidote, he was just waiting for the effects.

It would be weird if he wasn’t nervous.

When he heard footsteps, he knew that Fu Tingyu had arrived. Because the pharmacy door wasn’t closed so the footsteps outside could be easily heard.

He turned his head and saw Fu Tingyu walking in. He had been in good spirits for the past few days.

However, he didn’t see Qin Shu.

Fu Tingyu walked in directly and sat across from Gu Yan. He glanced at the purple clay pot on the coffee table. There was steam coming out from the mouth of the teapot and the aroma of the tea permeated the air. It was obvious that the tea had just been brewed.

Gu Yan picked up the purple clay pot and poured a cup of tea for him. He also poured himself a cup of tea. Drinking tea could calm one’s mind.

He put down the purple clay pot in his hand and looked up at Fu Tingyu. “Aren’t you going to tell Qin Shu about the spread of your poison?”

Fu Tingyu responded with a “hmph”.

Gu Yan continued to ask, "So you're not going to tell her about the testing of antidote today?"

Fu Tingyu reached out to pick up the teacup in front of him and brought it to his mouth to take a sip. "I'll tell her when the poison is completely gone."

"Okay." Gu Yan seemed to understand what he was thinking. He turned his head to look at Ji Fei. "Go prepare the bathtub. Put the herbs in the order I told you."

"Got it, young master." Ji Fei turned around and walked out.

The only advantage of traditional Chinese medicine compared to Western medicine was that it would not lead to hair loss or have other implications due to the various treatments.

Gu Yan retracted his gaze and looked at Fu Tingyu. "Soak yourself in the herbs for a while first before taking the antidote. It can help you to successfully expel the poison."

"Okay." Fu Tingyu didn't know much about the ancient Chinese medicine's detoxification method, but he trusted Gu Yan. He trusted him enough to place his life in his hands.

After they finished the tea in the purple clay pot, Ji Fei was ready. He walked in and stood in front of Gu Yan. "Young master, it's ready."

"Okay."

Gu Yan looked at Fu Tingyu. He stood up and walked to the next room.

Fu Tingyu followed him in.

The room next door had been refurbished. In the bathroom, there was a bathtub that was half the height of a person. It was steaming hot and there were all kinds of medicinal herbs floating on it. The originally clear hot water had also turned dark brown.

The bathtub had been specially customized by Gu Yan. The wood was also pear blossom wood. Fu Tingyu was a germaphobe. He would never use anything that other people used before.

Fu Tingyu smelled the strong smell of herbs as soon as he walked in. It was a little pungent.

Fu Tingyu stood in front of the bathtub and started to take off his clothes. He took off his suit jacket and pants one by one and placed them on the clothes rack at the side. He took them off until only his underwear was left. Only then did he step into the bathtub. The water was a little hot but it was within his tolerance range.

After he entered, he sat on a stool in the bathtub.

In the bathtub, there was a stool that was connected to the wall of the bathtub so it would not move.

Gu Yan took out the medicine that he had prepared and placed it on the side. He turned to look at Fu Tingyu and asked, "Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?"

"It's a little numbing." Fu Tingyu felt that the place that had been soaked by the hot water was a little numb.

Hearing that, Gu Yan nodded and looked at the time. After about ten minutes, he started to prepare the medicine that he had made with hot water.

He picked up the glass and shook it. After it cooled down a little, he picked it up and handed it to Fu Tingyu.

Fu Tingyu reached out to take it and brought it to his mouth. He took a sip. It was a little hot and very bitter, just like the saying that good medicine was bitter.

He frowned slightly and could only drink it slowly. After he finished it, he handed the empty glass to Gu Yan.

Gu Yan knew that this medicine was bitter, exceptionally bitter. Fu Tingyu was already very strong since he managed to finish the medicine without vomiting it out.

He took the empty glass and placed it on the marble table at the side.

Gu Yan stood at the side and watched Fu Tingyu's reaction after drinking the antidote.

The moment Fu Tingyu sat in the bathtub, his forehead began to sweat. It was because of the hot water.

After drinking the medicine, beads of sweat fell down his forehead like rain, it never stopped.

His fair skin was a little red after being soaked in the hot water. At this moment, because of the medicine, it was even redder.

On the contrary, his lips seemed to have lost its color as they began to turn white.

At this moment, in Sheng Yuan.

Qin Shu woke up from her dream. She opened her eyes abruptly and looked at the slightly dark bedroom. She subconsciously turned her head to look at her side. The man had already left.

The thick curtains blocked the sunlight outside, causing the light in the bedroom to be a little dim. This was also one of the reasons why she fell into a deep sleep.

The curtains were specially pulled up by Fu Tingyu before he left. Moreover, they were double-decked in order to prevent the sunlight from getting in. It created a good sleeping environment.

When she thought about how the man had tortured her for so long last night so that she could have a good rest today, she did not know whether she should laugh or be angry.

Fu Tingyu must have already gone to Gu Yan's place.

She hurriedly lifted the quilt and sat up. She gasped in pain because her actions were too big.

She picked up her phone and looked at the time. It was almost eleven o'clock. It was already so late. She wondered how they were doing now.

She dialed Gu Yan's number without thinking.

After a while, the call was picked up.

"Gu Yan, he's already there, right? How is he now? Is he still at your place?"

Chapter 433: Unacceptable, Worried

Gu Yan saw that it was Qin Shu who was calling. He glanced at the person lying on the bed. Fu Tingyu had just come out of the bathtub. After detoxification, his face was a little pale and his body was very weak.

He walked out of the bedroom before picking up Qin Shu's phone.

"Yes, he is very weak now. He is lying on the bed. He plans to tell you when the poison has been purged completely."

"I know. He didn't even allow me to follow him today." Qin Shu was a little helpless. She thought of the most important question, "Has the poison been completely purged? How's the effect of the medicinal herbs?"

Gu Yan replied, "The effect is still okay. I'm going to check his pulse to see if the poison has been removed."

Qin Shu was still worried. "When you're sure, send me a message and let me know."

Gu Yan said, "Okay."

Qin Shu hung up the phone, put on her slippers, and went to the bathroom to wash up as she waited for the results.

Gu Yan put his phone in his pocket, turned around, and walked back into the bedroom. He looked at the person on the bed. He walked over and sat down on the edge of the bed.

Looking at Fu Tingyu's pale face, he said, "I'll check your pulse to see if the poison has been removed entirely."

Fu Tingyu was just a little weak at the moment because it took a lot of effort to remove the poison.

Hearing Gu Yan's words, he took the initiative to stretch out his hand. His skin, which had been soaked in hot water, was still red.

Gu Yan picked up his hand, placed two fingers on Fu Tingyu's pulse, and began to check his pulse.

Gu Yan actually liked Chinese medicine very much. He had studied many ancient medical books and the methods to treat illnesses recorded were all unheard of.

As for Western medicine, he only learned it in his spare time. He had the idea that it was always good to have more skills so he was also very proficient in western medicine too.

However, he mostly used the methods of traditional Chinese medicine to treat his patients.

Gu Yan frowned slightly, "The effect of the medicine this time is very good but there is still some remaining poison. You can only rely on time for it to slowly expel from your body. Your body is a little weak now and you need to rest more. I have a piece of wild ginseng here. Let the chefs in the Sheng Yuan stew some soup every day to nourish your body."

This wild ginseng was picked by Qin Shu on the mountain. It was very big and also very rare.

He planned to go to that mountain forest again after some time. There must be a lot of precious medicinal herbs in there.

Many precious medicinal herbs were no longer available on the market so if he could pick some and use them as medicine, he could sell them for a sky-high price.

His goal was not to make money. It was just his interest.

“Okay,” Fu Tingyu replied. After detoxifying, he felt weak and sleepy.

“Take a rest first. We’ll have lunch together later. You can go back when you feel better.”

After saying that, Gu Yan stood up and walked out. When he walked out of the bedroom, he picked up his phone and quickly wrote a message to Qin Shu. After sending it out, he put away his phone and went downstairs to ask the servants to prepare lunch.

Qin Shu changed into a new set of clothes and walked out of the cloakroom. She went straight to the bed and picked up her phone to check the message.

Not long after she opened it, she saw a message from Gu Yan.

Gu Yan: I just checked his pulse. There’s remaining poison in his body. He needs time to slowly expel it. However, there’s something I haven’t told him yet. His martial arts value is only at 5% now. He needs time to slowly recover it.

After reading the message, Qin Shu was stunned. His martial arts value had also become weaker?

Does this mean that Fu Tingyu was no different from an ordinary person now?

Having only 5% of his martial arts value was equivalent to being crippled for a martial artist at the peak of his ability.

No matter what he wanted to do in the future, he would need to bring a lot of bodyguards with him to protect him.

Fu Tingyu was such a proud person. How could he withstand the blow of becoming a weakling?

How long would it take to recover slowly with time?

Qin Shu held her phone tightly. After thinking for a while, she decided to type a message and send it over.

At this time, Gu Yan had just walked into the bedroom and called Fu Tingyu to get up for lunch.

His phone’s notification sounded. He was not in a hurry to take it out and read it. Instead, he waited for Fu Tingyu to get dressed. They went downstairs together and went straight to the dining room.

On the dining table

There were a few mild-tasting dishes and a bowl of soup. It was a nutritious medicinal meal that Gu Yan had specially asked the kitchen to make for Fu Tingyu.

Gu Yan and Fu Tingyu sat down at the dining table.

Gu Yan looked at the dishes on the table and the bowl of soup in front of Fu Tingyu. "You have just detoxified the poison and your body is still recovering. The dishes I asked the chef to prepare are mild in taste. The soup in front of you is specially made for you too."

Fu Tingyu glanced at Gu Yan and then at the bowl of soup in front of him. He could smell the faint smell of herbs on the tip of his nose. He picked up a spoon and scooped up the soup to put it into his mouth. The temperature was just nice. The taste of the medicinal cuisine was generally a little bad.

While Fu Tingyu was drinking the soup, Gu Yan took out his phone from his pocket and opened it. He saw a message from Qin Shu.

[Qin Shu: How long will it take for his martial strength to recover to its original level? I'm afraid he can't accept it since he is such a proud person. We won't be able to keep this a secret for long. He will soon realize that the strength of his martial art has become so weak that it's almost negligible.]

After reading the message, Gu Yan glanced at Fu Tingyu, who was still drinking the soup, and pursed his lips.

He could tell that Qin Shu was also hesitating whether to say it or not.

Although he had never learned martial arts, he understood Fu Tingyu. The sudden weakening of his martial arts skills was a big blow to him.

He held his phone tightly, his brows furrowed. He seemed to be in a dilemma.

After a while, he put down the phone and looked up at Fu Tingyu, who was opposite him. When he opened his mouth, he was still a little hesitant.

Fu Tingyu noticed Gu Yan's gaze and looked up. His voice filled with confusion. "Do you have something to say?"

"Yes." Gu Yan nodded. "You just removed the poison and your body is slowly recovering. The strength of your martial arts... will also need time to slowly return to normal."

Fu Tingyu's gaze paused. He raised his head to look at Gu Yan and asked, "What do you mean?"

Gu Yan knew what he was thinking from Fu Tingyu's expression. He repeated, "Your current combat strength is only at five percent. You need to recover slowly."

Hearing that his combat strength was only at 5%, Fu Tingyu furrowed his brows. The hand holding the spoon suddenly tightened. He could not accept that he had become so weak.

He asked again with uncertainty, "So, you're saying that I'm no different from an ordinary person now?"

Gu Yan knew that he could not accept it but he still nodded. "Yes."

Fu Tingyu pursed his lips and looked down at the medicinal cuisine in front of him. He still did not believe that his combat strength was only 5% .

Gu Yan quickly comforted him, "Don't think too much. Your combat power will slowly recover over time. It won't disappear entirely."

Fu Tingyu suddenly raised his eyes. "How long will it take?" Gu Yan hesitated. "I'm not sure about the exact time. It shouldn't be too long."

Sheng Yuan.

After Qin Shu sent the message, she could not sit still. When she thought about how sad the man would look when he learned that his combat power had decreased, her heart ached.

After sitting for a while, she decided to go downstairs and walk around the courtyard while waiting for him to come back.

Today, the sun was just right and the breeze was gentle.

Chapter 434: Provocation, Why Didn't You Like Me At The Start?

Qin Shu came out of the villa and walked on the cement road. Unknowingly, she came to the ginkgo tree by the balcony.

She raised her head. Several months had passed and the ginkgo tree's leaves had always been golden yellow. With the arrival of autumn, the leaves began to fall one by one.

The fallen leaves under the tree were cleaned by the servants every day. However, there were still many leaves on the ground.

Ye Luo walked over with a document bag. "Young madam, the evidence has been obtained."

Qin Shu turned around when she heard that. She knew when Ye Luo walked over because Ye Luo did not soften his footsteps.

Ye Luo handed the document bag in his hand to Qin Shu.

Qin Shu glanced at the document bag in front of her but did not take it. She looked up at Ye Luo. "Find a suitable time to send it to Qin Hai."

Ye Luo retracted his hand. "Okay."

Qin Shu walked around and didn't see Boss so she asked casually, "Where's Boss?"

Ye Luo said, "On the top of the tree."

"..." Qin Shu replied, "Why did it go to the top of the tree?"

Ye Luo remained expressionless. "It's afraid that I'll snatch its dried fish."

Dried fish was Boss's snack. The last time, Ye Luo took the dried fish and tempted Boss for a long time. However, he didn't give it to Boss in the end.

Therefore, whenever Boss had the chance, it would secretly eat it.

This time, it took advantage of Ye Luo's carelessness and took the whole bag of unopened dried fish and put it on the tree to prove that it was able to feed itself with its own effort.

"Boss is getting smarter and smarter." Qin Shu couldn't help but laugh. Boss knew that Ye Luo wouldn't be able to catch it if it climbed up the tree.

Ye Luo: ... It was getting greedier and greedier.

Qin Shu didn't bother with Boss. Boss was simply provoking Ye Luo by doing this.

She raised her head and continued to look at the ginkgo tree in front of her. This tree had been growing for quite a few years.

Six o'clock in the evening

Qin Shu had been waiting outside the entire time. She saw a tall figure walking in through the Moon Cave Door. It was six o'clock and the sky had already darkened. The street lamps in the garden had also lit up.

The slightly yellow light shone on the man's handsome outline. The silhouette formed looked extremely perfect.

He was a product of God's special treatment. No amount of adjectives could describe his stunning beauty.

The man seemed to have also seen her and his footsteps slowed down.

Qin Shu strode over. Her footsteps were a little hurried. Ever since she learned that he had gone to Gu Yan's place, she had been anxious to see him.

Gu Yan had already told her about the general situation but she still wanted to see him with her own eyes. She wanted to know how he was doing?

He had already stopped walking as if he was waiting for her.

She walked in front of the man, raised her head, and looked at his face. They were standing right under the street lamp so she could see the man's face clearly. His complexion was a little better than before but it was still a little too white.

The man suddenly reached out and pulled her into his arms. He said in a low voice, "Babe."

Qin Shu replied, "Yes, I'm here."

"The poison in my body has been purged." The man's voice was very low.

"It's a good thing that your poison is gone. I'm very happy." Qin Shu was really happy about this. Being healthy was better than everything else.

As for his combat strength, she could wait for it to slowly recover.

She also believed that his combat strength would return to its original peak.

"Yes," the man replied.

From the man's low voice, she knew that he was still sad about the weakening of his combat strength.

She wanted to raise her head from the man's chest but unfortunately, her head was pressed down by the man's big hand. She could not raise her head so she could only lower her head and press against the man's chest. She said, "Let's go in. Dinner is ready."

“Okay.”

The man let go of the hand that was holding her head. Instead, he held her hand and walked in the direction of the dining room.

Ning Meng placed the dishes on the table.

Qin Shu followed the man and washed her hands before sitting down.

Fu Tingyu picked up the chopsticks on his right-hand side and glanced at the dishes in front of him. They were all relatively mild in taste but he didn't have much of an appetite. However, in order not to let the lady notice his strange behavior, he still picked up the food and slowly ate the rice in his bowl.

Qin Shu also ate a little absentmindedly. She could only pretend that she didn't know anything regarding this matter.

The man must hide the news that the value of his martial art had weakened and not let the public know about it.

Otherwise, Fu Tingyu would definitely be in danger.

As for not letting her know, there were many reasons too.

After dinner

When Fu Tingyu went upstairs, he instructed, “If you're tired, go to bed early. Don't wait for me.”

“Okay. After you're done with work tonight, come back early to rest.” Qin Shu watched the man's back view as he left. She pursed her lips and turned around to return to the master bedroom.

At night

There was only a table lamp in the study. The light was very dim

In front of the dark brown desk, the man's tall and straight figure was sitting on a leather chair. His hand was resting on the armrest of the chair. There was a cigarette between his fingers. The flame was flickering.

A faint green smoke came out from the corner of his mouth.

Once the poison was cured, it meant that he could continue to stay by Babe's side.

As for his promise to let her go, he regretted it.

From the moment he said it, he had regretted it.

When he thought of the lady leaving him, it felt as if a piece of his body had been forcefully peeled off. He felt that blood was dripping down his body. It was extremely painful and difficult to breathe.

The man put the cigarette to his mouth, took a deep breath, and slowly blew out the smoke.

However, his martial strength was gone. He was like an ordinary person now. He could not even deal with a bronze-rank fighter.

How could he protect his Babe?

He still needed to rely on others to protect him!

Fu Tingyu clenched his fists tightly. His gaze was dark and cold. He could not imagine himself becoming a weakling, a weakling who could not even protect himself.

Until late at night

Fu Tingyu didn't know how many cigarettes he had smoked but his throat felt dry. He looked down and glanced at the time on his watch. It was already three o'clock in the morning.

He stood up but he didn't go back to the master bedroom to take a shower. Instead, he took a shower in the lounge.

When he came out, he only had a pure white towel around him. His wet hair was half-dried by the hairdryer.

The traces of soaking in the bathtub that day had disappeared.

The man was tall and slender. His muscles were well-defined and flexible.

His waist was thin. He was the kind of person who looked thin in clothes and looked fleshy when he took off his clothes.

He opened the study door and walked out.

After walking for a while, he came to the door of the bedroom. He gently pushed the door open and walked into the master bedroom. Only the bedside lamp was lit. It emitted a soft light.

He closed the bedroom door and looked at the bed. The lady was already asleep. He walked straight to the bed, lifted the blanket, and laid down beside the girl.

After lying down, he off the bedside lamp and the bedroom fell into darkness.

He turned sideways and pulled the lady into his arms, pressing her head against his chest.

His pitch-black eyes blended into the darkness. When he thought of the lady's attitude toward him when they first met, he whispered, "Babe, why didn't you like me back then?"

The man pursed his lips and continued, "Is it because of my bad character?"

Qin Shu, who was pulled into the man's embrace, heard a strong heartbeat. Her eyelashes trembled as she slowly opened them. She could hear the man's whisper. If they were not close enough, she would not have been able to hear what the man was saying.

Chapter 435: I Don't Mind You Having Desires Towards Me, Coincidental Meeting

In the quiet bedroom, only the sound of his heartbeat disturbed Qin Shu's thoughts.

Why didn't she like him back then?

They were from two different worlds. When they first met, they weren't familiar with each other and were no different from passersby. How could she fall in love immediately?

Even if she wanted it to be love at first sight, she needed to have desires towards him first.

Fine, she might be able to love him at first sight but he wouldn't.

She was disfigured back then. Even she despised herself. She could not even look at herself in the mirror.

Fu Tingyu had always been very good to her. Apart from not letting her leave him, he would do anything for her.

It was just that on the first night, his actions had indeed frightened her.

As well as what happened after that, even though it was all because of her.

If she only liked his looks and his money, she would definitely like a handsome and rich man like him at first glance.

She wanted to hear the man continue speaking but after waiting for a long time, the man did not speak.

Qin Shu was originally waiting for the man to come back but she only heard him walking in after waiting for a long time. She was about to fall asleep.

Now that she was in the man's arms, she felt sleepy and fell asleep in no time.

The next day, at the dining table.

Qin Shu raised her eyes and glanced at the man. He was eating his breakfast leisurely, just like always.

She lowered her eyes and thought about the man's murmurs last night. She pursed her lips and wanted to say something.

"Do you mind that I didn't fall in love with you at first sight?" She asked in a low voice.

The lady's voice was soft, low, and gentle. Fu Tingyu's combat strength had dropped to 5% so he didn't hear what she said clearly.

He looked up at her in confusion. "What?"

Seeing that the man didn't hear her clearly, Qin Shu had no choice but to raise her voice. "Did you hope that I fell in love with you at first sight?"

Fu Tingyu thought for a moment and nodded. "Yes."

Being able to fall in love with him at first sight was certainly better than not liking him.

Qin Shu explained, "Then haven't you heard of the saying that falling in love at first sight is actually all based on lust?"

Fu Tingyu said, "I don't mind that you having desires towards me."

"..." As expected, the man's answer surprised her.

"So, if I liked you back then because of your looks and your money, you wouldn't mind?" Qin Shu couldn't help but ask.

Fu Tingyu said, "That's also like." Like would always change to love.

Qin Shu didn't know what to say because of the man's answer and was stunned for a moment. "Alright, aren't you afraid of marrying a prodigal wife?" She said the last sentence very softly.

But, Fu Tingyu heard it. "I have so much property under my name. If I don't spend it, it will become my inheritance."

What he meant was, she could spend his money however she wanted. If he didn't let his wife spend his money, was he supposed to leave it to his son as an inheritance?

[From the unborn Baby Fu: Hey, hey, think about me, your unborn son! I want to be a rich second generation, the second generation of a wealthy family...]

Qin Shu: ...

Fu Tingyu was sitting at his desk in his office and dealing with something when his phone suddenly rang.

He turned his head and glanced at the phone screen. He realized that it was Mo Chengyu calling. He thought about the last time he brought a woman to drink with him so he directly ignored it.

His phone rang continuously until it hung up automatically.

Not long after, his phone rang again, as if it was telling him that the other party had something urgent to say.

Fu Tingyu stopped writing and paused for a moment. He put down the pen in his hand and picked up the phone to answer the call.

As soon as the call was connected, he heard Mo Chengyu's puzzled voice.

"Brother Yu, why did you pick up the call so late?"

Fu Tingyu asked directly, "What's the matter?"

"I was looking for you for a drink."

"..."

"I'm not free." After throwing out these few words, Fu Tingyu was about to hang up the phone.

Mo Chengyu knew this brother's temper too well. He would hang up the phone whenever he felt like it. Sometimes, he would even turn off his phone.

He hurriedly said, "Wait, don't hang up. I, I have something to say."

Fu Tingyu only spat out one word coldly, "Speak."

"Last night, my mother brought up the matter of the child marriage. Do you think my mother will force us to get married?"

“If you get married, you’ll become obedient.”

Fu Tingyu’s voice was filled with schadenfreude.

Mo Chengyu growled unhappily. “Brother Yu, how can you be so schadenfreude? Getting married isn’t a joke. It’s a matter of life and death. I’d rather play than get married.”

Fu Tingyu said, “Then, break off the engagement.”

“Me? That’s not very good.” Mo Chengyu was in a difficult position.

“Let me work at your company during this period of time. You can take it as I’m learning management skills from you. I’ll work for you for free.”

Fu Tingyu said, “Don’t you have a company at home?”

“My mother wants me to go to the company to cultivate my relationship with my fiancée. She wants us to hold an engagement party at the beginning of the year.”

Fu Tingyu said, “You should.”

Mo Chengyu had never begged anyone before. This time, he was really forced into a corner.

“Brother Yu, we’re brothers after all. You must help me.”

Fu Tingyu initially wanted to reject him but after some thought, he changed his mind. “As for auntie...”

“I’ll convince my mother.”

“Alright then.”

Mo Chengyu hung up the phone and heaved a sigh of relief. He went home first.

He used his eloquent tongue to convince his mother.

The next morning, he drove his Lamborghini sports car to the Fu Corporation to work. On the way, he drove a female university student named Ning Lin to class.

Ning Lin called him yesterday. As a playboy, he naturally didn’t reject her.

When they arrived at school, Ning Lin alighted from the sports car. Many of her classmates saw her and saw a super-rich and handsome man fetching her to school. They all had envious looks on their faces.

Ning Lin’s vanity was greatly satisfied. To highlight the relationship between her and Mo Chengyu, she stood in front of the sports car and chatted with Mo Chengyu.

Mo Chengyu rested one hand on his forehead as he listened to Ning Lin’s words. The corners of his mouth had a smile as he occasionally responded with a “yes”.

At this moment, he caught a glimpse of a tall figure riding a bicycle behind Ning Lin.

He immediately recognized the girl as Yang Yuan. It had been a few days since he got drunk. She did not pester him like the other girls nor did she take advantage of the situation to ask for money. It was as if nothing had happened.

Mo Chengyu's Lamborghini sports car was a global limited edition. There were only ten of them. Thus, it was extremely conspicuous when he parked at the entrance of the university.

Yang Yuan tilted her head and glanced at the Lamborghini. She happened to meet Mo Chengyu's gaze.

Both of them were stunned.

Yang Yuan glanced at Ning Lin, who was standing beside the car and was dressed exquisitely. She seemed to have understood something and retracted her gaze. She carried the bicycle with both hands and went straight up the stairs. Then, she put it down and rode the bicycle towards the university entrance.

Mo Chengyu frowned. What did that look mean just now?

Ning Lin noticed that Mo Chengyu was staring at Yang Yuan and was a little displeased. She said coquettishly, "Young Master Mo, are you free tonight? Let's go watch a movie together."

"Sure," Mo Chengyu replied and retracted his gaze from Yang Yuan.

"Remember to come and pick me up. Don't remember the time wrongly like last time," Ning Lin reminded him happily.

Chapter 436: Qin Shu finally Makes her Move

Mo Chengyu's lips curled into a smile. "Got it. Hurry up and go in."

"Then I'll go in." Ning Lin happily turned around and walked towards the school gate.

Mo Chengyu waved his hand and drove to Fu Tingyu's office.

After work that night

Mo Chengyu drove to the university's vicinity. He did not go to the university's entrance. Instead, he chose an exit to park his car.

Upon seeing Mo Chengyu parking at the exit, the traffic police ran over to issue a ticket.

Mo Chengyu immediately gave him ten times the fine. "I'll park for another ten minutes."

The traffic police: "..."

After the traffic police left, Mo Chengyu got out of the car. He crossed his arms and leaned against the front of the car as if he was waiting for someone.

About seven to eight minutes passed.

Yang Yuan rode her bicycle towards him.

Mo Chengyu stood up straight and walked towards her.

Yang Yuan looked at the person walking towards her and had no choice but to stop. She placed her feet on the ground to steady herself.

She looked at Mo Chengyu's handsome face and asked, "Are you looking for me to drink with you again?"

"No." Mo Chengyu took another two steps forward and stood in front of Yang Yuan. He touched his chin with his fingers and said, "I feel that I have to make it up to you for what happened last time."

"OH." Yang Yuan nodded. She did not hesitate and stretched out her hand. "How much do you want to pay?"

Mo Chengyu glanced at the hand in front of him. Yang Yuan was slender, fair, and had a velvety voice; she was a beauty, save for the thin calluses on her palm.

He looked up at Yang Yuan again.

Yang Yuan blinked. "Didn't you say compensation? Don't you want to give money? Don't you want to be responsible?"

Mo Chengyu's eyes paused. It was his first time meeting such a direct girl. He chuckled. "I have no intention of getting married."

Yang Yuan gave him a knowing look. "If a rich young master like you wants to be responsible, the sun will rise from the west. So, give me the money. The more, the better."

Mo Chengyu looked at Yang Yuan. After a few seconds, a wave of inexplicable anger frothed from within him. He reached into his pocket and took out his wallet. He took out a card and handed it to her. "One hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Is that enough?"

"It's enough." Yang Yuan took the card and put it into her pocket swiftly. She then raised her head to look at Mo Chengyu and kindly reminded him, "I heard that Ninglin has a very ambiguous relationship with a senior. You should like the kind of girl who is clean. So, change to another one."

After saying that, Yang Yuan no longer paid attention to Mo Chengyu's darkening face. She stomped her feet and happily rode her bicycle away. After being stifled for a few days, her anger finally cleared up.

Mo Chengyu's face was sullen. As he watched Yang Yuan leave, he felt profoundly stifled. He immediately got into his car and drove to the bar, preparing to drink.

At the university entrance, Ning Lin stood there and waited. She was wearing a skirt sewn together with extremely thin fabric and suffered at the brunt of the frigid breeze.

In the end, she could not bear but call Mo Chengyu and criticize him.

"Young Master Mo, why aren't you here yet?"

"I forgot to go to the movies. I'm having a drink with my buddy. Ask someone else."

Mo Chengyu hung up the phone and called Yun Qishen. Let him pay for his own drink.

Ning Lin sneezed coldly and stomped her feet in anger. "It's the same as last time. My memory is so bad. If I had known earlier, I would have asked senior to go to the movies instead." She didn't want to waste time.

– (beeping)

Today, the weather was fine, but the temperature is a few degrees lower than during the seven-day long holiday.

Fu Tingyu went to the office as usual.

Today, Qin Shu wore a custom-made suit that was of formal clothing.

It was black in color, the pattern was simple, and the cutting was exquisite.

She wore a high ponytail that made her appear very professional.

Qin Shu was dressed neatly. She slowly walked down the stairs.

Ye Luo saw that Qin Shu was dressed relatively formally, so he asked, “Where is young madam planning to go?”

Qin Shu said, “To the Qin Corporation.”

Ye Luo asked again, “Do you want me to bring people?”

Because last time, I went to the company to bring people.

Qin Shu said thoughtfully, “Bring a few people, just to keep up the show.”

When Ye Luo heard this, he took out his phone and dialed Ye Qing’s number. “Bring ten brothers.”

Qin Shu thought that bringing ten brothers was a little excessive.

She was afraid that they would be too intimidating.

On second thought, since it was just for show, then it was up to them.

Following that, Ye Luo added, “I’ve been there last time, don’t bring them.”

Qin Shu turned to look at Ye Luo and realized that he was sometimes overly cautious.

Ye Luo hung up the phone and went to the garage to pick up the car.

Ye Luo took large strides. When Qin Shu walked out, he had already parked the car at the door and opened the car door to wait for her.

Qin Shu quickly sat in the car.

Ye Luo closed the car door, sat in the driver’s seat, and drove to the Qin Corporation.

In the meantime, in the Qin corporation’s high-level meeting room, a shareholders meeting was held.

Such a grand meeting was held once a year and had extraordinary significance.

Qin Hai sat on the chairman’s seat and looked at the shareholders sitting down.

This year's results were obviously far poorer than last year's. As the chairman of the board of directors, there was a definite responsibility to manage the company's operations. That was why the shareholders had gathered and requested for the meeting to be held in advance. They wanted Qin Hai to tell them what was going on.

The meeting had already gone on for 30 minutes. Qin Hai had also explained why the results had fallen this year.

However, the shareholders were not convinced. The company's performance had fallen, and they had made less money. This also meant that they would receive fewer dividends.

Qin Hai saw that the shareholders were still complaining; he could not help but put on a cold face. "This year, the fall is due to many reasons. All of you are just throwing your weight around and contributing nothing. You are just waiting to receive the money. I am busy entertaining people every day, and this has caused my performance to falter. It will be fine after I get through this period."

The shareholders looked at one another and were unhappy. However, they did acknowledge that Qin Hai was too bogged down by work.

The animosity generated during shareholders' discussion gradually died down.

Seeing that the shareholders had stopped talking, Qin Hai cleared his throat. "Then, for the remainder of this meeting, I'll explain my future plans to all the shareholders."

"Director Qin has a daughter who is already an adult. I remember that the company has her shares too. Why isn't she here?"

The person who spoke was an old man called Chu Ciwen. He had been persuaded to invest in the company by Wen Xin, Qin Shu's mother.

Qin Hai's expression changed, and he quickly returned to normal. "She's my daughter. Now that her studies are more important, she has decided to transfer her shares to me. They will still be hers in the future."

"Of course. Director Wen is so capable. His daughter must be like him. The company will also prosper under her hands." Chu Ciwen felt a little regretful. For such a young and capable woman to wind up in a car accident... It was truly the envy of the heavens.

Qin Hai's face darkened a little, but he could not flare-up.

At this moment, the conference door was suddenly pushed open from the outside. When the door panel hit the wall, it made a "Bang" sound.

As the intruders swung open the door, the security guards lost their balance trying to stop them and fell to the ground, wailing.

Everyone in the conference room was horrified. They all stared at the office door to see who dared to barge into such an important meeting.

Qin Hai looked at the security guards on the floor and growled, "Haven't you eaten? Have you not the strength to stop them? Hurry up and chase the irrelevant people out!"

Chapter 437: You're very Similar to Your Mother

The security guard couldn't stand up after being thrown so heavily, but he could only force himself to get up for the sake of his job.

Before they could struggle to get up, there was a "crash".

A group of people in black suits came in and stood in two rows on both sides. Their movements were neat and uniform as if they had been trained.

All of them were tall and straight, with no expression on their faces. It was obvious that they were not to be trifled with.

When Qin Hai saw people he did not know running into his company, he shouted sternly, "Who are you? This is my company. Those who are not related to me, get out."

Qin Shu walked in with even steps and looked at Qin Hai, who was sitting at the head seat. In a month, he had gained a little more weight, and the flesh on his stomach had also increased a little. Though still handsome, his face got a bit saggy, and there were obvious bags under his eyes.

This was caused by overwork and overindulgence.

He had been playing outside and neglected Mu Lan, who was only in her forties. She could not stand being neglected, so she kept a gigolo.

She smiled innocently. "Are you planning to get me out of here?"

Qin Hai was stunned when he saw Qin Shu who had suddenly appeared. He did not expect Qin Shu, who was studying in the capital, to suddenly appear in the company and bring so many people to break into the high-level meeting.

It also gave him a bad premonition.

"Director Qin, who is she?"

"Who on earth is she? How dare she barges into the high-level meeting?"

"She's not old. Could she be Director Qin's daughter?"

Chu Ciwen saw the girl who appeared at the door, and his eyes were filled with surprise. Seeing this beautiful face also reminded him of the warmth of that smart and capable woman.

He looked at the girl at the door and asked Qin Hai, "Director Qin, Is she your daughter? She looks a little similar to Director Wen."

Qin Hai heard Chu Ciwen's words, and his face turned colder, but he couldn't show it. He suppressed his anger and smiled, "She's my daughter. She's too young to be sensible."

Qin Hai's face darkened when he looked at Qin Shu. He stood up and walked in front of Qin Shu, "Do you know what this place is? Will it affect you if you interrupt the high-level meeting? Go back quickly!"

After Qin Hai finished speaking, he reached out to grab Qin Shu's arm. He wanted to bring her out, but his hand reached out and missed.

Qin Shu had already dodged to the side. She was so fast that Qin Hai did not notice, so he missed her.

Ye Luo reached out to stop Qin Hai and looked at him expressionlessly. His eyes were very cold, the kind that could freeze people to death, indicating that he should not get close to Qin Shu.

Ye Luo was handsome and expressionless, but the violent aura emanating from his body still made people afraid, and their hair stood on end.

Plus, he had deliberately disguised himself last time, so Qin Hai did not recognize him at all. It was the person who had crippled one of his hands at that time.

Qin Hai was no exception. Seeing Ye Luo, who was a few points taller than him, with a tall and firm figure and an imposing manner that seemed like he wanted to fight, his heart could not help but tremble.

Qin Hai did not dare to look at Ye Luo. He looked at Qin Shu, thinking that he was her father, the chairman of the company. When she suddenly disrupted the meeting, his eyes twisted.

“You are getting more and more outrageous. This is the company, a high-level meeting. You, a child, brought a group of people to cause trouble and even injured the security guard. Are you going to let the shareholders see a joke? Why aren’t you going back?”

Qin Shu glanced at the shareholders in front of the meeting table and revealed a puzzled expression. She looked at Qin Hai with a faint smile. “Who said I’m here to cause trouble? Isn’t this a shareholders’ meeting? Why Can’t I Come? I also have shares in the company.”

She then looked at the security guard who was wailing on the ground. “They blocked me from entering the shareholders’ meeting, so my bodyguards made a move.”

Hearing Qin Shu’s words, Qin Hai understood that the thing he was afraid of had finally come. However, because Qin Shu didn’t know anything about the company, and because he was her father, the company’s chairman, he wanted to chase Qin Shu back and not let her mess around here.

“You still have a reason, don’t you? Is this place easy to come to? Did you see Qin Ya come in? If you weren’t my daughter who barged into a high-level meeting like that, I would have thrown you out long ago. Before I lose my temper, hurry up and leave.”

Qin Hai’s tone was very bad. This was after he had suppressed her. If it weren’t for the presence of the shareholders and the fact that she did have shares, he would have told her to scram.

The shareholders saw the father and daughter arguing and whispered to each other.

“What’s going on? Why did Director Qin’s daughter come here?”

“Maybe she’s spoilt. She’s here to throw a tantrum. My daughter is always throwing a tantrum. It’s a headache.”

“I think Director Qin is also having a headache. She’s here to throw a tantrum, and she brought so many people. It feels like she’s here to cause trouble. Haha...” that person couldn’t help but laugh after he finished speaking.

“Didn’t she say she’s here to participate in the shareholders’ meeting? What does a little girl know?”

Chu Ciwen listened to the shareholders’ discussions and looked at the father and daughter standing at the door. After thinking for a moment, she stood up and went to Qin Hai’s side, she advised, “Director Qin, don’t be angry. Your daughter is already nineteen years old. She can participate in the high-level shareholders’ meeting. If she doesn’t know anything, you can teach her.”

Qin Hai suddenly clenched his hands behind his back and glanced at Chu Ciwen. He used to be a busybody, and now he was a busybody. If it weren’t for the shares in his hands, he would have kicked him out long ago.

“She’s still a student. Her studies are the most important.” Qin Hai looked at Qin Shu and said with a cold face, “Have you had enough? Hurry up and leave with your people.”

Qin Shu saw that Qin Hai was eager to let her leave because she was afraid that she would say something. Unfortunately, she was here today to take back everything.

“Today is the shareholders’ meeting. I have something to announce. Why are you so anxious to let me go? What are you afraid of?”

“This is a company. There are so many people here. You don’t know anything, yet you come to the company to embarrass yourself? Go back quickly.”

Qin Hai did not know what Qin Shu was going to announce, but his instincts told him that what Qin Shu was going to say was not a good thing.

When Chu Ciwen heard this, the corner of her mouth held a faint smile. “Director Qin, you don’t have to be so angry. Your daughter has shares, so she has the right to speak. The company will still be handed over to her in the future. Why don’t you let her talk about it? It doesn’t make sense, and the shareholders won’t agree.”

Qin Shu glanced at Chu Ciwen. She knew him because she had investigated all the shareholders in the company, so she had read all of Chu Ciwen’s information.

He was in his forties and looked more handsome than Qin Hai. He also looked young. He ran a restaurant business and was also a management talent.

When the company had just started, he had already been in the company, and he had even injected capital into it.

When his mother was still alive, he had also worked in the company.

Later on, when his mother passed away, he had abandoned everything and just sat there every year waiting for his dividends.

She had been in the company for so long, and Chu Ciwen was the first to speak up for her, so his impression of him had increased a little.

“Thank you for your understanding, uncle, but there is indeed something important to announce today. I am still young, so uncle will be more lenient with me later.”

Chapter 438: Everyone Was Against Her

Qin Shu looked at Qin Hai. "What my uncle said is better than what you said."

After saying that, she went straight to the conference table.

Chu Ciwen couldn't help but laugh when he heard that. He reached out and patted Qin Hai's shoulder. "Your daughter is similar to President Wen. You are so lucky."

After saying that, Chu Ciwen also turned around and returned to his seat.

Qin Hai was looking extremely upset. Chu Ciwen had always been against him. Not only did he praise Qin Shu, but he also wanted to let Qin Shu speak?

He clenched his fists, but now he could only bear it.

Qin Hai could only return to his seat and sit down. As he walked past Qin Shu, he said in a low voice, "This is the company. Don't mess around. If you have something to say, say it at home."

Qin Shu glanced at Qin Hai, who had already sat down in the executive chair. He said she was messing around? Well, she was planning to make a big fuss this time.

The shareholders looked at Qin Shu, standing in front of the conference table. Some were eager to hear what she would say, some were waiting for her to make a fool of herself.

Chu Ciwen said, "Tell us what's on your mind. Don't worry. We are all seniors in the company."

Qin Shu nodded politely to Chu Ciwen and looked at everyone present. A chill ran down everyone's spine as they were caught by her gaze.

She withdrew her gaze. "I am Qin Shu, the daughter of Wen Xin. I suggest we elect a new chairman of the board."

As soon as Qin Shu finished speaking, the quiet meeting room fell silent for a few seconds before exploding. Shareholders began whispering among themselves.

"A new chairman?"

"Why? That's so sudden!"

"What's going on here?"

"Could it be that there's a conflict in Director Qin's house?"

Chu Ciwen was also surprised, not by the idea of a re-election, but by her suggesting it.

Qin Hai knew that Qin Shu was up to no good, but he never expected her to barge into the meeting room to bring up the re-election of the chairman. He could not hold it in any longer and slammed down on the table, he couldn't contain his anger. "Nonsense. I'm the chairman, and I'm your father. Get out."

The shareholders also thought that this was a farce. How could she chase her father out of office? Moreover, girls didn't know anything. Why would she want a new chairman?

Piao Lishu, who was close to Qin Hai also spoke up at this moment. "Re-electing the chairman is an important matter. Don't spout nonsense if you don't have a clue. This is the company, not your playground. Besides, Director Qin is still your father. If there's anything, you can discuss it at home."

"You are still a child. It's better for you to go to school. Director Qin can handle the business in the company. Stop fooling around. Otherwise the others will laugh at you."

The one who spoke was another shareholder on Qin Hai's side.

Qin Shu glanced at Qin Hai who was extremely angry and continued, "I am indeed a student. When my mother was alive, she transferred all the shares to me. I have 40% of the shares and I am already an adult."

Qin Shu paused. "I have two reasons for suggesting the re-election. First, the company's performance is declining year by year. This shows that there are problems in the company's management, operations, publicity, and other departments. The problem stems from chairman Qin's negligence and incompetence in management. Second, chairman Qin embezzles public funds for alcoholism and personal entertainment."

When Qin Shu said this, everyone was in an uproar.

Just as Qin Shu had said, the company's performance actually got worse every year, especially this year. The decline was very steep.

There were very big problems in the management.

When they heard about the embezzlement of public funds, the shareholders also began to have doubts. Their eyes turned to Qin Hai. They obviously wanted an explanation from him.

"Director Qin, is what your daughter said true?"

"The management aspect must indeed be strengthened. Director Qin, do you have anything else to say?"

"Director Qin, your daughter has it all figured out. There are major problems in the company's management and operations. The misappropriation of public funds is by no means a small matter," said Chu Ciwen.

Hearing this, Qin Hai looked very embarrassed. Moreover, he was utterly disgraced in front of so many shareholders.

He suddenly stood up and growled, "You b*tch, how dare you slander me for embezzling public funds? Are you doubting my ability?"

Qin Hai was so angry that he trembled. He raised his hand and wanted to slap Qin Shu. The man's strong palm came towards her with a swish.

Ye Luo was standing at the side. When he saw this, he quickly took two steps forward, grabbed Qin Hai's wrist, which was coming towards her, and squeezed it with force.

It was direct and violent. He clamped the wrist and subconsciously wanted to cripple that hand. However, the current situation was not suitable, so he forcefully endured it.

Qin Hai's face was deathly pale from the pain and could not say a word.

The shareholders present were also shocked and did not dare to speak. This was because Ye Luo, that man in black, was not someone to be trifled with.

Qin Shu looked at Qin Hai, who was sweating heavily on his forehead. "Slander? I don't slander someone with empty words."

Ye Luo immediately understood. He took out the documents from his briefcase and sent them to the shareholders present one by one.

After Ye Luo finished handing them out, Qin Shu said, "All the shareholders will know whether I'm telling the truth after one look."

The shareholders all picked up the documents and began to read them.

Chu Ciwen also picked up the documents and took a few glances at them. He looked up at Qin Shu and then at Qin Hai. "Director Qin, what do you think the shareholders will gain from you doing this?"

"Impossible, I didn't do it." Qin Hai didn't believe it. He went straight to one of the shareholders and took a few glances at the documents. He was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

The veins on his forehead were throbbing. "Where's the finance department manager? Call him over."

Qin Shu sneered. "Without your signature, the finance department doesn't have that much power."

Qin Hai was stunned. He clearly hadn't signed it.

Qin Shu ignored Qin Hai and continued to announce, "I will take the position of chairman. I have most of the shares in my hands. If you have any objections, you can raise them up."

"I object. You are just a girl. How can you run the company if you don't know anything?"

"So what if you have the most shares? We shareholders have more shares combined than you alone. We have the right not to let you be the chairman."

Qin Shu was not angry. Instead, she smiled. "I have more than 40% of the shares in my hands."

"How is that possible? Director Qin has 20% of the shares. The rest of the shares are in our hands."

Qin Shu took out a share transfer from Qin Hai and another share transfer from Wen Xin and she handed them to the shareholders. "I have 60% of the shares, which is more than half of the company's shares. Is there any other problem?"

Qin Hai looked at the share transfer on the conference table in disbelief. Why was his share transfer in Qin Shu's hands? And he remembered putting Wen Xin's in the safe. Why was it also in Qin Shu's hands?

No matter where Qin Hai put it, as long as Qin Shu wanted it, she could easily take it.

Chu Ciwen said, "There's nothing wrong with me. Since Director Wen left, the company has been getting worse every year. It's time to reorganize. I support Qin Shu to become the new chairman."

Chapter 439: Slapped in the Face

Chu Ciwen was an old man, and he held 15% of the shares. He was the largest shareholder.

If even Chu Ciwen didn't object to this young girl taking over, what reason did they have to object?

But they still had to say it.

"I don't have any objections. I just want to know, will the company be managed by the newly appointed chairman or Qin Hai? Is there any guarantee for the company's future development?"

"I agree. The company is not a toy, where we can just play around. There are dozens of people waiting to eat." In the face of everyone's doubts, Qin Shu did not show any fear: "Everyone can rest assured on this point. Qin Hai mismanaged the company and misappropriated public funds. It is not suitable for him to continue staying in the company. All the embezzled public funds must be returned. I will raise the company's performance by an indicator within half a year. The year-end bonus will not be less than last year."

Chu Ciwen looked at the girl standing in front of the table. Her every move, every word, and the confidence in her beautiful eyes, it all looked similar to Wen Xin.

"As for the position of the general manager of the company..." Qin Shu looked at Chu Ciwen. "I hope Uncle Chu will take up the position. I wonder if Uncle Chu is interested."

"Me?" Chu Ciwen was a little surprised. Indeed, he did not expect Qin Shu to let him take up the position of the general manager. He was a little surprised.

Qin Shu said, "Uncle Chu, you don't have to rush to answer. You can think about it first."

"I will." Chu Ciwen looked at the confident look in Qin Shu's eyes as if she had already guessed that he would agree, just as Wen Xin did.

Qin Hai listened to Qin Shu's decision and trembled with anger. He threw the document in his hand away and scolded, "You b*tch, unfilial daughter. I am your father, and you want to chase me out of the company?"

Ye Luo grabbed Qin Hai's wrist with one hand and stuffed a rag into Qin Hai's mouth with the other. "Shut up."

Qin Hai's face turned pale because of the pain in his hand. The rag that was stuffed into his mouth was used to wipe the dust, so it naturally did not taste good.

Qin Shu ignored the mad Qin Hai. "If there are no objections, the meeting will be over."

When the shareholders heard this, they all stood up and left one after another, lamenting the drastic change of situation in less than an hour.

Chu Ciwen glanced at Qin Shu, smiled, and turned to leave.

When everyone in the meeting room had left, it instantly became quiet.

Only then did Qin Shu look at Qin Hai. His veins were throbbing violently, and his cheeks were flushed because of anger. She curled the corners of her lips and said, "You must be confused about what's going on with the embezzlement of public funds. You'll have to ask your wife and good daughter about this."

Qin Hai was stunned, as if he couldn't believe it.

Ye Luo pulled off the rag.

With nothing in his mouth, Qin Hai immediately shouted, "They couldn't have done such a thing."

Seeing that he didn't believe it, Qin Shu didn't refute him. "If you don't believe it, you can ask the finance department's manager yourself. But I've already decided to fire him from his position as the finance department's manager. You must be thinking why I would do this."

Qin Hai stared at her with wide eyes, looking at his daughter who he had never noticed before. She had actually ruined him, leaving him with nothing. His face was filled with disgust and disdain. "Ungrateful, unfilial b*tch..."

"Pa!" A slap interrupted Qin Hai's unfinished words.

Qin Shu retracted her hand and looked coldly at Qin Hai in front of her. She sneered. "Ungrateful? Unfilial? Have you ever looked me in the eye since I was young? Have you ever given me love? Have you ever cared about me? From the beginning of my memory, you have never hugged me."

Qin Shu took a deep breath. "Mother passed away less than seven days, and then you brought the illegitimate daughter and mistress home. Your attention was entirely on them and you never noticed me. You didn't care if I ate well or if my grades suddenly dropped. You didn't care when I was sick and hospitalized. To you, I'm worse than a stray dog. Other than getting angry at me, scolding and beating me, what else did you leave behind for me?"

"Do you still remember that my face was disfigured? You clearly knew that Qin Ya had tampered with the cream and taken away the original one on my dressing table, which caused my face to be disfigured. Yet, you spoke up for her and said that I asked for it. Do you know how I survived all these years with my face disfigured?"

When she thought of the strange looks, ostracism, and abuse that she had received in those years, those were the darkest days of her life. She didn't even know how she survived.

"Aren't you fine now? What are you not satisfied with after marrying into a rich family? You even coveted your father's company and tried to frame me. I regret it now. I regret that I didn't know earlier that you were an ingrate. I should have thrown you away when you were young." Qin Hai said fiercely.

She clearly knew that Qin Hai did not see her as his daughter at all. He did not care whether she was dead or alive, let alone being disfigured.

After saying so much, he still felt that there was nothing wrong.

However, Qin Shu would still find it hard to breathe with waves of throbbing pain in her heart.

She endured the stifling feeling in her chest and sneered. "Your company? You really have the nerve to say that. This company was built by my mother. When the company was just established, did you invest any funds? Do you have the talent to manage the company? You're the one who enjoyed the profits. How can you say that?"

Qin Hai hated it the most when others said that he was incompetent because Wen Xin was too smart and capable, which made him look useless.

He glared fiercely at Qin Shu, wishing that he had strangled her to death the moment she was born. Otherwise, he would not have ended up like this today.

"Take care of yourself."

Qin Shu took a deep breath. She did not want to say another word to a heartless person like Qin Hai. She walked out of the company.

Ye Luo and the other Ye brothers followed closely behind.

Qin Hai only wanted to find out what was going on with the embezzlement. He endured the pain on his wrist and hurriedly went to look for the finance department's manager.

Qin Shu walked out of the company. The wind blowing in front of her made her feel a little better.

She walked down the steps and saw Chu Ciwen standing at the bottom of the steps. He was tall and straight. Although he was in his forties, he was still handsome. He was looking at her and her voice was filled with doubt. "Are you waiting for me, Uncle Chu?"

Chu Ciwen smiled and nodded. "I heard Director Wen mention you before. She said that you were quite naughty when you were young. Director Wen was smart and capable. Even as a man, I admire her a lot. Now that I see you, you are even better than her."

This was the first time she heard someone mention her mother using a complimentary tone and his eyes were very gentle.

"Are you familiar with my mother?"

"Of course. When we were working together, your mother worked very hard. Otherwise, she wouldn't have let a small company to become a listed company in just a few years. It's just that..."

Chu Ciwen thought of such a smart woman who had died, and let out an inaudible sigh.

Qin Shu was a little happy. It turned out that there were still people who knew about her mother's hard work back then. Not everyone was like Qin Hai.

"Then, are you willing to take up the position of General Manager?"

Chapter 440: Finding Out

Chu Ciwen looked at Qin Shu for a while. "You knew that I would agree?"

Qin Shu shook her head. "I didn't know. I guessed that Uncle Chu would agree. After all, the company also has Uncle Chu's hard work."

Chu Ciwen chuckled. "If you put it that way, it's a little hard for me to refuse." He paused. "I can come back and help you look after her for two years."

Qin Shu was really happy that Chu Ciwen had agreed. "Thank you, Uncle Chu."

Chu Ciwen laughed as well. "Do you have any idea how you can improve your performance in half a year?"

Qin Shu nodded. "I already have. I'll sort out the specific plans."

During the summer vacation, the files that she had read in the company were still useful.

"Then I'll wait." Chu Ciwen was looking forward to it.

After bidding farewell to Chu Ciwen, Qin Shu took a car ride back to Sheng Yuan.

..

..

At this time, Qin Hai especially went to look for the manager of the finance department. After asking for a long time, he found out that it was Qin Ya who had asked him for help. Thereafter, she secretly changed the role and embezzled the public funds.

After knowing this, Qin Hai hurried home.

At this time, school was not over yet.

Qin Hai searched around the villa but did not see Mu Lan. He had nowhere to vent the anger in his heart.

"Where the hell is she?"

Qin Hai was fuming with anger. He had nowhere to vent. He took out a wine glass and sat on the sofa. He poured a glass of wine and took a big gulp. Then he scolded fiercely, "Ingrate, how dare you chase me out of the company?"

At this moment, the maid came over with the express delivery.

"Master, this is your express delivery." The maid saw that Qin Hai was in a bad mood and carefully handed the express delivery to him.

Qin Hai took a big gulp of wine and glanced at the express delivery in the maid's hand. He reached out and took it. He sized it up a few times. It looked like an ordinary express delivery. His name was written on it. He didn't buy the express delivery.

After looking at it for a while, he aggressively opened the package. With a crash, countless photos fell from it. Some fell on the sofa, some fell on the floor, and some fell on the coffee table in front of him.

Qin Hai did not expect it to be full of photos. He looked at the photos on the coffee table. The photos were of two people, a man and a woman, hugging and kissing each other, lying on the bed, and naked... There were even more shocking photos.

The woman in the photos was Mu Lan, his wife.

Qin Hai only felt a green grassland above his head. His heart was already burning with anger. Now that he saw the photos of his wife cheating on him, he was surrounded by anger and his eyes were red.

No man could stand being cuckolded.

At this moment, Mu Lan came back from outside. Her makeup was exquisite and her clothes were gorgeous. She was humming a song and seemed to be in a good mood.

When she walked into the living room and saw Qin Hai sitting on the sofa, she felt a little guilty. She stopped and walked over slowly.

“Why are you back so early today? Isn’t the company busy?”

Qin Hai raised his head. His eyes were burning with anger as he stared at Mu Lan. It was only today that he realized that he had chosen a younger style for his hair and clothes. His makeup was also exquisite.

He looked a few years younger.

It turned out that he had an affair and was nourished by love. That was why he had become younger.

Qin Hai suddenly raised his head. That pair of resentful eyes looked like they were about to kill someone. Mu Lan was so frightened that she stopped in her tracks and could not help but feel a chill down her spine.

She noticed that there were a few photos on the glass coffee table. She glanced at them curiously. It would have been better if she did not look at them. However, when she saw that the photos were of her and Wei Ge getting a room together, she was so frightened that her face turned pale and she took a few steps back.

“You b*tch.” Qin Hai suddenly stood up and strode to Mu Lan. He walked up to her and gave her two slaps. “How dare you go and fool around with a man behind my back? You b*tch, I’m going to beat you to death today.”

After being slapped twice, Mu Lan’s face immediately became red and swollen. It was a burning pain. When she saw Qin Hai getting angry, she was so scared that she turned around and wanted to run away. However, Qin Hai grabbed her hair and pulled her back.

“Qin Hai, let go of me.” Mu Lan struggled desperately and tried to break free from Qin Hai’s hand. “Let go of me. You have played with countless women outside. You are the only one who has a woman outside. Can’t I find a man?”

Hearing Mu Lan’s angry roar, Qin Hai grabbed her hair and raised his hand to slap the face with delicate makeup again. He used all his strength.

Mu Lan’s face was swollen from the slap. Her hairstyle at the barbershop was also messed up. She looked completely different from before she came in.

“B*tch, I told you to go out and find a man.”

Qin Hai grabbed Mu Lan’s hair tightly and pulled her back hard, revealing her face. He slapped her again.

Qin Hai's mind was filled with those disgusting photos. He grabbed Mu Lan's head and dragged her to the second floor.

Mu Lan's hair was grabbed, so she was forced to follow Qin Hai upstairs. Her mouth was screaming in pain, but because her cheeks were red and swollen, she couldn't cry out. She could only snort.

When they reached upstairs, Mu Lan was not only faced with punches and kicks.

The screams came from upstairs, and the maids were so scared that they didn't dare to go upstairs.

When Qin Ya came back, she heard Mu Lan's screams and rushed upstairs. She saw Qin Hai pulling out his belt and beating Mu Lan.

Mu Lan's clothes were disheveled, and her exposed skin was full of traces of the belt being pulled out. Her hair was messy, and she had already recognized her as Mu Lan.

She hurriedly went up and grabbed Qin Hai's hands that were holding the belts. "Dad, why did you hit Mom?"

Qin Hai's anger still hadn't subsided. His hand was blocked by someone, and when he turned around, he saw Qin Ya. Thinking that she had looked for the finance department manager and embezzled public funds, not only had he lost his position as the chairman but he had also been kicked out of the company, his anger was rising.

In the past, Qin Hai had also been angry, but he had never been as hair-raising as he was today.

Qin Ya was frightened by Qin Hai, and she suddenly stepped back in fear. "Dad, what happened to you?"

"What happened to me? Your cheap mother is out seducing wild men." Qin Hai slowly walked in front of Qin Ya, his gaze was fierce as he stared at his daughter who had betrayed him. "I didn't treat you well? You actually embezzled public funds, and you even used my name? I will teach you a good lesson today, you ingrate."

Qin Ya's face turned pale. She had only asked the finance manager to make a move today. She had only moved a little and was prepared to move again next time. How did she find out so quickly?

While Qin Ya was still in shock, Qin Hai raised the belt in his hand and whipped it fiercely at Qin Ya. He couldn't dodge in time and the belt directly hit her arm. It hurt so much that she cried out, "Ah!!! It hurts!!"

Qin Hai raised the belt again and whipped it a few times. He still felt that it was not enough to vent his anger.

"It's all because of you that I was kicked out of the company. It's also because of you that I won't lose my position as the chairman and even the position of general manager. Now, there's nothing left."

Qin Ya curled up on the ground and wrapped her arms around her body. When she heard Qin Hai say that he was kicked out of the company, she was immediately stunned.
