

Bigoted 501

Chapter 501: The uncle gave advice. The hero saved the beauty.

Because the time and timing were not right.

Fu Tingyu intended to ease up his relationship with Qin Shu, stabilize their relationship, and then tell it to his parents.

Because if his parents knew that he had kidnapped a wife and didn't care whether she was willing or not.

He might be the one who would be beaten up, because they were not as easy to talk with as Grandma.

In order not to backfire, they hadn't been informed.

Fu Tingyu looked up at his uncle and didn't say a word.

Mu Nianzhi smiled, he said in an experienced tone, "That's how it is when you're in a relationship. It will make you lose your mind and be absent-minded. It will also make you irritable and angry for no reason. You might be so happy at the previous moment, but for the next second, you might be in so much pain."

"If you're calm during a relationship, it won't be a relationship."

Fu Tingyu looked at him and understand what he said. It was indeed the case.

"You just have to coax a woman. The more she loses her temper, the less angry you should be. If you keep coaxing her, she'll be so soft-hearted that she'll lose her temper. Then, you can explain the reason why you are unhappy."

"I can tell that uncle has been through so much before. You know a lot."

The corners of Fu Tingyu's lips curled up, and he felt a little bitter. Because the situation was different, it could not be generalized.

After finishing lunch, Fu Tingyu left.

After getting into the car, he held his chin with one hand and looked at the traffic outside the car. He took out his phone with one hand and looked down at the screen. There was an unread message.

He opened it and looked at the content.

[Bao'er: Are You coming over for dinner tonight? – giving a heart gesture]

He held his phone tightly. It was a very ordinary question, but it made him heartache.

Many people thought that he had trapped Qin Shu by his side and would not care whether Qin Shu liked him or not.

In fact, he cared more than anyone else.

Every word or action of her could move his heart.

But he had worked hard for more than two years, he still couldn't make her fall in love with him. Instead, he made her dislike him even more.

Every time he saw her show fear to him, the disgust in her eyes would make his heartache.

This was also why her sudden change made him even more terrified and uneasy.

Because there was a reward for giving, and there was no gain without effort.

But no one could refuse the person he liked acted coquettishly to him, prepared a gift, and said that she liked him and loved him.

He would be happy for a long time because she said she liked him.

The reason why dreams were so beautiful was because they didn't exist in reality. That was why he didn't want to wake up.

Therefore, he hoped that even if she lied to him, she would lie to him for the rest of his life. He didn't want to know that it was just a dream.

If the dream suddenly woke up one day, it would be more painful. It was like being in heaven at the last second but falling into hell for the next second. You didn't even have time to get used to it.

"Lord Four, we arrived at the branch company." Shi Yan called out once at the beginning, but Lord Four didn't respond, so he reminded him again in a more serious tone.

He came back to his senses and looked outside the car. The car had already stopped at the entrance of the branch company.

He pushed the door and got out.

...

In the evening.

Ye Xue cooked some more dishes tonight. A big shot would come to eat, so she had to prepare more.

After the dishes were placed on the table, Ye Xue called them down one by one for a meal.

Qin Shu sat at the dining table with her phone in front of her. From the moment she sent the message until now, the man had not replied.

She picked up her phone, opened the chatbox of Wechat, and sent another message.

Ye Xue and Jiang Yu were already sitting at the dining table and waiting.

They did not know what had happened, but they could tell that Qin Shu did not seem to be in a good mood.

She didn't want to tell them, and they didn't know how to ask.

Ye Xue tilted her head and asked in a low voice, "Did you call Fu Tingyan to come over for dinner?"

"I just called. He's on the way. Tomorrow is the weekend. I'll ask him to stay here so that he doesn't have to go between two places every day," Jiang Yu also replied in a low voice.

"But there are no more empty rooms here."

"No More?" Jiang Yu frowned. "Then let him stay with me. I've slept with him before anyway."

After Jiang Yu said that, he felt that this sentence sounded a little weird.

"That works too." Ye Xue knew that they were good friends.

"Is Bo Ye coming back for dinner today?" Ye Xue asked again.

"I don't know. I haven't seen him for these two days."

...

Fu Tingyan rushed over from the dormitory after receiving a call from Jiang Yu.

He walked today because he planned to walk all the way back after dinner and digest his food at the same time.

When he passed by a forest, he heard the sound of fighting.

It was already evening, the street lamps were already lit up, but the forest was pitch black. He couldn't see anything at a glance.

Fu Tingyan stopped and looked for a while before walking in.

There was a path paved with cobblestones in this small forest. He walked along the path for a while and saw two figures, one in black and one in white. Obviously, the black figures got the upper hand.

"Do you really want me to tie you up?"

"I won't go back."

Fu Tingyan frowned. This voice sounded like Bo Ye's voice.

When he heard the word 'tie', he frowned and walked straight over. Without saying a word, he punched the person who wanted to tie Bo Ye up.

Bo Yin was caught off guard and was hit squarely.

Fu Tingyan immediately followed up with a second punch, hitting Bo Yin right in the face.

This was the second surprise attack on Bo Yin. Under such circumstances, he took a few steps back, with his ashen face.

Fu Tingyan looked at Bo Ye. The light was too dim to see the expression on his face. "Hey, are you alright? Why did he kidnap you?"

Bo Ye panted slightly. "He wanted to take me away."

Fu Tingyan frowned. "This is kidnapping."

“This is our family matter. It’s not up to an outsider like you to interfere.” Bo Yin’s voice was cold and stern. “Who is he?”

Bo Ye glanced at Fu Tingyan and replied with a word, “Classmate.”

Family matter? Fu Tingyan glanced at them. They were in a family?

“I won’t go back. Don’t look for me.”

After saying that, Bo Ye turned around and left, ignoring Bo Yin.

Last time, he couldn’t bring him back. How could Bo Yin let go of this opportunity? He quickly chased after him.

Fu Tingyan stopped Bo Yin. “Are you deaf? Didn’t you hear him say he doesn’t want to go back?”

“What does it have to do with you?” Bo Yin wanted to chase after Bo Ye, so he moved away.

Fu Tingyan quickly chased after him and stopped him again. “Indeed, it doesn’t have to do with me. But since I’ve run into him, I want to get involved.”

Bo Yin watched as Bo Ye walked further and further away. He could only beat the person in front of him to the ground before he went to find Bo Ye.

Inevitably, they started fighting very quickly.

Bo Ye had already walked out of the small autumn forest and was heading towards the apartment. After walking for about ten minutes, he stopped again and looked back in the direction of the small forest. Fu Tingyan had yet to catch up.

His brother’s martial prowess was above Fu Tingyan’s.

Would anything happen to him?

Bo Ye thought about it and decided to return the way he came. He did not want Fu Tingyan to get hurt because of this.

Chapter 502: You have to Take the Responsibility if He Got Hurt. It’s Embarrassing.

When Bo Ye rushed back to the small forest, he heard a few gunshots, which made his heart tighten.

“Bo Yin, you’re f*cking crazy.”

Bo Ye cursed for the first time.

Fu Tingyan covered his arm with one hand and walked out. He couldn’t help but curse in his heart, F*ck!

Seeing Bo Ye walking towards him, he said, “He’s gone.”

Then, he walked towards the apartment.

When Bo Ye heard this, he did not care about Bo Yin anymore. He turned around and chased after Fu Tingyan.

“You’re injured.”

Bo Ye saw Fu Tingyan covering his arm with his hand. He could smell a strong smell of blood. Because the light was too dim, he did not know how many places he had been injured.

Bo Yin’s marksmanship was very accurate.

Fu Tingyan endured the pain and teased, “Yeah, how are you going to thank me?”

Bo Ye didn’t reply. Instead, he said, “Let’s go back to the apartment. I’ll take care of it for you.”

“That’s it?” He had been shot twice. How could it be gone after taking care of it?

Bo Ye looked up at him. “What else?”

“Let’s go back and take care of it first.” He felt the pain right now.

Bo Ye nodded in agreement.

At the apartment

The three people at the dining table all looked anxious.

Qin Shu kept staring at her phone. The man hadn’t replied to the message she sent over half an hour ago.

Such a situation happened for the first time. In the past, he replied to messages very quickly.

It also meant that the man was really hurt this time and was very angry.

“Why isn’t Tingyan here yet? It’s so short-circuited. He should have crawled here by now, right?”

As soon as Jiang Yu finished speaking, the apartment door was pushed open. Bo Ye and Fu Tingyan walked in one after another.

“You’re finally here. If you didn’t come, I would have thought that you’d gone missing.”

Jiang Yu walked over and saw the blood on his body. He was shocked. “What happened?”

“There was an accident. I’ll go up and take care of it.” Fu Tingyan endured the pain and walked up to the second floor. Every step he took hurt because he had been shot in the thigh. If he hadn’t dodged quickly, he might have been dead.

Bo Ye followed Fu Tingyan up to the second floor silently. He had a medical kit in his bedroom, so he could treat the normal gunshot wounds.

Qin Shu walked over when she heard that. She didn’t forget to put her phone in her pocket before she left to avoid missing any information.

“What happened to Yan?”

She saw Fu Tingyan and Bo Ye going upstairs and asked Jiang Yu.

“Tingyan seems to be injured.” Jiang Yu said.

Qin Shu heard this and hurriedly went upstairs to take a look.

Jiang Yu also followed to going upstairs. Then, he stopped and glanced at Ye Xue who was following behind him. "You'd better wait downstairs." After saying that, he went upstairs quickly.

Ye Xue just wanted to see how he was. But after hearing Jiang Yu's words, she still didn't go upstairs.

In the room

Fu Tingyan went to Bo Ye's room because he said he would help him treat his wounds.

Jiang Yu could treat some small wounds, but he didn't know how to treat a gunshot wound.

Qin Shu was a woman, so it was inconvenient.

Therefore, he could only let Bo Ye treat his wounds.

The wheel of fortune had turned. It turned for Bo Ye to help him.

After Fu Tingyan came in, he took off his coat with blood and threw it on the sofa.

He was wearing a white and short-sleeve T-shirt, the blood on his arm had never stopped.

Bo Ye took a look and went to get the medical kit silently.

Fu Tingyan wanted to continue taking off his shirt, but he stopped when he saw Qin Shu come in.

Qin Shu knew it was the gunshot wounds when she saw Fu Tingyan's wounds. "What happened?"

"It was an accident." Fu Tingyan walked to the chair and sat down. His face was a little pale. It was caused by the loss of blood and pain.

"My brother made it." Bo Ye walked over with the medical kit and opened it on the table beside, preparing for the things he would need later.

"Your brother came to capture you again?"

Qin Shu recalled what happened last time and frowned. She had a feeling that there was something hidden here.

"Yes." Bo Ye glanced at Fu Tingyan's arm. The muscles on his arm were faintly visible, which meant that he frequently trained. The bullet had passed through the side. Although it had pierced through, it had not hurt the bones, so it was not serious, he could just take the bullet out.

After he was ready, Bo ye asked him, "Do you need an anesthetic? I have it here."

"No, I'm not like you. I'm not as delicate as a girl." He had to endure the pain. His brother was not afraid at all.

"Okay." Bo Ye took the sterilized tweezers and went to take the bullet.

Jiang Yu looked at the bloody hole on Fu Tingyan's arm and then at the tweezer in Bo Ye's hand. He guessed what he was going to do next. He advised, "Tingyan, don't try to be brave at an inappropriate time. It's better to use an anesthetic. It would be really painful when the tweezer was put into the flesh."

"Yes, it's quite painful." Bo Ye looked at Fu Tingyan, indicating that it was better to use an anesthetic.

"I also think it's better to use an anesthetic. It really hurts." Qin Shu said this because she had experienced it herself. After using an anesthetic, it still hurt a lot.

Fu Tingyan was originally fine, but after hearing the words of the three people in front of him, he couldn't help but feel a little...

However, he still refused. "Hurry up."

"Okay." As soon as Bo Ye finished speaking, the tweezer reached into the flesh without hesitation, trying to catch the bullet.

The bullet was a little deep, and it couldn't be seen. The tweezer was put in and it searched for a while.

It was really painful as the tweezer twisted and turned in the flesh. Fu Tingyan gritted his teeth, and his smooth forehead was soon covered with fine beads of sweat. His face was even paler than before, and he tried hard not to scream.

Bo Ye glanced at Fu Tingyan. His hands did not stop moving. The only way to reduce the pain was to take the bullet out.

"It's out."

Fu Tingyan heaved a sigh of relief. His forehead was covered in sweat. It really hurt.

Bo Ye threw the bullet into the trash can, put down the tweezer, and began to clean his wound. Then, he bandaged it.

Even Jiang Yu felt pain. Don't use anesthetics, was he stupid?

Qin Shu shook her head. He liked to put on a brave mask, just like his brother.

After bandaging it, Bo Ye and Fu Tingyan heaved a sigh of relief at the same time.

Fu Tingyan looked down at the wound on his thigh. He still had to take off his pants. He looked up at Qin Shu and Jiang Yu. "You two go out first."

"What's wrong?" Jiang Yu asked in puzzlement.

Bo Ye also looked at Fu Tingyan in puzzlement.

"I have another injury. It is inconvenient to treat it when you guys are here." Fu Tingyan said.

Jiang Yu looked at his body from the top to the bottom. Where was the other wound? "Why is it inconvenient?"

Bo Ye also looked at him a few times before his gaze finally landed on his thigh. Because he was wearing black pants, blood was flowing out, so he couldn't see it at all. He only knew because he saw a hole in his pants.

This position... was very awkward...

"It's not convenient for me to stay here alone, so I'll leave first." Qin Shu also found out where the injury was, so she walked out of the room without saying a word.

"I don't know how to treat such an injury. I'll leave too." Jiang Yu turned around and left after saying that.

Bo Ye glanced at the two people who had already left. He retracted his gaze and looked at Fu Tingyan. He was stunned when he saw that he was taking off his belt.

Fu Tingyan took off his belt and pants, then threw them onto the sofa. They were covered in blood along with his T-shirt.

Chapter 503: Guy Blushed and He Looked Good, Gone To Look For Her Man

But this action made him break out in cold sweats.

After taking off his pants, he sat on the chair and waited for Bo Ye to take the bullet out for him.

Bo Ye looked away and looked at the medical box, feeling a little awkward.

"What are you waiting for? Do it." Fu Tingyan just wanted to take the bullet out as soon as possible. It was going to hurt anyway.

"... I." Bo Ye held the tweezers and refused to look at him.

"Weren't you ruthless just now? And now you turned coward?" Why didn't he hesitate just now?

"... I'm not a coward."

"Then what?"

Bo Ye blushed slightly. "Nothing. just turn your head away."

Fu Tingyan stared at Bo Ye for a while and found that he was blushing. He had seen girls blushing, but he had never seen guys blushing.

His overly fair cheeks were stained with a layer of pink, as if he had put on makeup.

Was he embarrassed, or...

"Fine, I won't look. Just hurry up." Fu Tingyan turned his head away and did not look at Bo Ye.

Bo Ye clenched his tweezers and waited for a while. He turned to look at Fu Tingyan, then looked at the wound on his leg. He hesitated, then squatted down, focused his attention on the wound. He looked very concentrated and began to retrieve the bullet.

When the pain came, Fu Tingyan gritted his teeth and looked down at Bo Ye. He realized that his expression was so serious. It was as if there was nothing else, except the bullet in the wound, in his eyes.

His hand was a size smaller than his, and it was very fair. It looked rather weak, but the way he held the tweezers was very determined.

“The bullet is out.”

Fu Tingyan was stunned for a moment. The bullet was out just like that?

“You’re pretty fast this time.”

Was it fast?

Bo Ye threw the bullet into the trash can and did not reply. Instead, he began to clean his wound and disinfect it.

At this moment downstairs

Ye Xue reheated the food. As it had been quite a while, with the current weather, it got cold easily.

Qin Shu waited, but the man still did not reply. She gripped her phone, stood up, and walked out.

Jiang Yu glanced at the second floor. Why hadn’t they come down yet?

Outside the apartment, the sky was already dark, streetlamps by the roadside were lighted.

Qin Shu took her phone to a backlit area and dialed the man’s phone number.

On the top floor of the branch office, the lights were on.

Shi Yan sat in front of his computer to settle the matters at hand. He glanced at the time and found that it was already past seven. He turned to look at Fu Tingyu and found that he was still settling matters on hand and had no intention for dinner.

At this moment, the phone rang.

Shi Yan glanced at the phone on the desk.

The man sitting at the desk paused. He turned to look at the lighted phone screen. The word Babe was displayed on it.

After hesitating for a moment, his slender fingers reached over, picked up the phone, and pressed the answer button.

After the call went through, she asked, “Aren’t you coming here for dinner?”

“I’ve already eaten outside.”

Qin Shu pursed her lips. “Even if you’re angry, you should reply my messages. I’ve sent two messages, but you haven’t replied to any of them.”

The Man paused. He moved his phone away and tapped into Wechat. There was an unread message.

[Babe: Are You still busy? I’m waiting for you for dinner.]

He placed his phone near his ear. “I just saw it.”

Qin Shu: “Are you coming over tonight?”

The man gripped his phone tightly. “I’m working overtime tonight.”

“I got it. Don’t work too late. Please rest early.”

After he hang up, he opened Wechat to edit his messages.

Shi Yan waited for Fu Tingyu to hang up his phone, he stood up and asked, “Mr Fu, what do you want to eat tonight? I’ll go order food.”

“Whatever.” After saying that, he deleted the message he had edited earlier.

Shi Yan secretly wiped his sweats. Any other dish was fine, but this Whatever was a bit difficult to order.

Shi Yan resigned himself to fate and walked out.

Qin Shu held her phone tightly and turned to walk in.

Fu Tingyan had just come down from the second floor. He had already changed his clothes, as his leg was injured, he walked a little slowly.

Bo Ye followed behind, his slightly blushed cheeks had already returned to their usual fair complexion.

The two of them walked to the dining table one after another and sat down.” Tingyan, your brother isn’t here yet. Will he be outside entertaining others?” Most of the businessman would need to entertain others.

“I don’t know either. Where’s Qin Shu?” Fu Tingyan swept his gaze across the living room and didn’t see her.

“She must have gone to make calls to your brother.” Jiang Yu guessed.

Qin Shu walked in and saw that everyone was at the dining table. She went to the dining table and sat down.

Fu Tingyan looked at Qin Shu. “Is my brother not coming?”

“Yeah, he’s working overtime tonight. He had eaten outside. You guys can go ahead.” Qin Shu scooped half a bowl of rice for herself and lowered her head to eat.

Bo Ye glanced at Qin Shu and then at the other three people at the dining table. What happened?

The other three had the same expression. We don’t know either.

“My Brother is a workaholic. He’s always working till late. Don’t think too much...”

Qin Shu stopped eating. “I know.”

Fu Tingyan didn’t know what to say. He lowered his eyes and picked up his chopsticks. Then he realized that his bowl was empty, he turned to look at Bo Ye. His slender fingers knocked on the table twice, signaling to him to fill his bowl with rice.

He was injured because of him. It wasn’t too much ask to get him to fill his bowl with rice, was it.

Bo Ye had just got a bowl of rice. He picked up his chopsticks and was about to eat when he heard the knocking on the table. He turned to look at Fu Tingyan. He held the chopsticks in one hand and his other hand was empty.

Then, he looked at his gaze and gesture. He looked just like a big boss. The meaning was obvious. Fill the bowl with rice for him.

He looked down at his rice bowl and placed it directly in front of him. Then, he picked up the empty bowl and filled it with rice.

Fu Tingyan felt that he was quite tactful. He clenched his chopsticks and began to eat as well. He was already hungry.

Qin Shu finished half a bowl of rice and could not eat anymore. She went straight to the second floor.

The four at the dining table looked at each other.

“What’s wrong with Qin Shu?” Fu Tingyan asked.

“I don’t know. She seems to be in a bad mood,” Ye Xue whispered.

The four of them looked at the second floor with puzzled expressions.

Qin Shu walked into the room, put her laptop into her backpack, zipped it then picked it up, and walked out.

When she went downstairs, those at the dining room heard her and looked over. They saw Qin Shu carrying her backpack and planed to go out.

“I’m going out for a while. I might not come back this evening.” Qin Shu glanced at the four people at the dining table and said, and walked straight out of the apartment.

The four at the dining table retracted their gazes and looked at each other again.

“She’s going to look for your brother, right?” Jiang Yu asked.

“Of course. My brother and her are very close.”

Jiang Yu realized that he liked Qin Shu’s personality. Since her husband wasn’t coming, she took the initiative to go look for him.

Bo Ye suddenly asked, “Who’s your brother?”

Fu Tingyan glanced at Bo Ye.

Jiang Yu hurriedly replied, “Qin Shu is his brother’s wife.”

“Oh.” Bo Ye tilted his head and glanced at Fu Tingyan. You’re out of love.

Fu Tingyan was speechless, what kind of expression was that? ? ?

..

Qin Shu rode the electric bike all the way out of the school and hailed a cab.

“Master, please go to the city,” Qin Shu said as she took out her laptop and placed it on her lap.

Chapter 504: Hacker Attacked, Staying Up Late With You

“Young lady, the city is big. Which part of the city are you going to?” The driver couldn’t help but laughed.

“Master, please go towards the direction of the city. I’ll ask for the specific location.”

“Okay.” The driver drove to the city.

Fu Tingyu said he was busy over the phone. He must have been busy at work.

He didn’t say what he was doing in the capital, so she didn’t know where he was now.

So, she could only rely on her hacking skills to find his specific location.

She spent some time to hack into the Ye family’s satellite positioning system. Fu Tingyu’s whereabouts were absolutely confidential, so the security was very high.

Moreover, the Ye family also had highly skilled hackers.

She entered with a high-profile. Anyway, the man knew that her hacking skills were formidable, so she did not need to hide it.

From the GPS, she found out his specific location. It was an office building in the city center, which was also bought by Fu Tingyu not long ago.

It was actually very difficult to buy such a prime location, but he had connections, the Mu family, so he could easily get it.

After telling the driver the exact location, she exited from the system.

At the Ye family’s base

“Who is this? Why is he so arrogant? He even greeted us with such a high profile before hacking through. Is he afraid that we won’t know that he’s here?” Ye Liang didn’t stop typing. Instead, he was getting faster and faster.

“He’s just letting us know that he’s here. He’s aggressive, I don’t think he would come with good intentions. Stop him first.”

Ye Liang was a little embarrassed. “Er, I can’t stop him.”

“I’ll do it.”

The two of them exchanged positions.

Ye Mo stared at the computer. His hand movements were skilled and sharp.

One minute later

Ye Liang and Ye Mo stared at the computer. They watched helplessly as the hacker who had entered left. They couldn’t even get a glimpse.

“If Mrs Fu was here, he definitely wouldn’t be able to escape.”

“Mrs Fu?” Ye Mo looked at Ye Liang in confusion.

“You haven’t seen Mrs Fu’s skill. It’s way better than ours. I can’t even describe it with words.”

“Forget it, let’s inform special assistant Shi. I’m afraid that someone is going to harm Mr Fu.”

“I’ll call.”

Ye Mo dialed Shi Yan’s cell phone number and it didn’t take long for the call to be connected.

“What’s the matter?”

“Please be more alert, someone hacked our system to find the whereabouts of Mr Fu.”

Shi Yan frowned and hung up. He walked to his desk and said, “Mr Fu, someone is trying to locate you.”

“Do you know who it is?” Fu Tingyu didn’t even raise his head and continued to deal with the matters at hand.

“I’m not sure. I’ve told them to pay more attention.”

Fu Tingyu clenched the mouse in his hand and didn’t say a word.

“I’ll go over now.” Shi Yan turned and left.

Downstairs at the office building

Qin Shu raised her head and looked at the office on the top floor. The lights were on there, which meant that the man was indeed busy.

She retracted her gaze and walked in. Just as she reached the door, she stopped again.

The man doubted that she didn’t want his child. Now, other than explanation, there was nothing else she could do.

What if the man really made such a demand, what should she do?

Her refusal would only made the man felt that she was just paying lip service.

If she didn’t refuse, not only would it be bad for her health, she would also have to continue taking the birth control pills.

She stood at the door with her hands clutched on her backpack strap, hesitating about going in or not going in.

..

In the school apartment

There was a problem when they were about to sleep, which was where should Fu Tingyan sleep?

As there were no spare rooms, he was injured and needed someone to take care of him.

The three guys sat on the sofa in the living room.

“Tingyan, you sleep with me tonight. Anyway, we are quite close. It will be easier for me to take care of you if you move in tomorrow,” Jiang Yu suggested.

"I'm injured now. What if you accidentally hurt my wound?" It was because they were close that he knew Jiang Yu would not sleep without tossing and turning at night.

Jiang Yu fell silent.

Bo Ye pondered for a while and said, "I have an empty bed in my room. You can sleep for a night."

"There were three empty beds in Bo Ye's room." Jiang Yu remembered now.

Fu Tingyan glanced at Bo Ye and hesitated.

"Tingyan, don't hesitate. It is good to have someone taking care of you. You need help with a lot of things when you're injured."

Bo Ye was speechless. he regretted it.

Fu Tingyan also felt that he was injured because of Bo Ye. So it was his duty to take care of him. "Then, I'll depend on you."

Bo Ye was stunned.

Fu Tingyan said, "You make the bed first. I'll go up and sleep later."

Bo Ye now understood. What he meant by depending on him was to make the bed for him!

"Wait here." Bo Ye stood up and went to his room on the second floor.

There were blankets. As long as he covered the mattress, it would be fine.

It wasn't difficult for him, but it was difficult for the injured Fu Tingyan.

Half an hour later, Fu Tingyan slowly went up to the second floor and walked into Bo Ye's room. He leaned against the door and watched Bo ye walked out of the bathroom in his pajamas.

It was his first time sleeping in a room with someone he wasn't familiar with. He was really not used to it.

"You don't have any special needs when you sleep at night, right?"

Bo Ye stopped and turned to look at Fu Tingyan. He replied indifferently, "Snoring, talking in my sleep, grinding my teeth, all the above."

Fu Tingyan frowned. "I didn't realize that with your good, look, you have such bad habits?"

"You're just going to sleep for a night." Bo Ye walked to his bed, took off his shoes, and went to bed. He read for a while before going to bed.

At this time, Jiang Yu brought the clothes over and stuffed them into Fu Tingyan's arms. "They're all new clothes. I've never worn them before."

Fu Tingyan glanced at the pajamas and underwear in his arms. He sighed and walked into the bathroom.

Jiang Yu glanced at Bo Ye and returned to his room.

Fu Tingyan washed himself very slowly as he was injured. When he came out, he found that Bo Ye was already asleep. He looked at his own bed, which was opposite Bo Ye.

The quilt was folded neatly. It was a light blue checked four-piece set. It was refreshing and simple.

He walked over, took out his slippers and got on the bed, turned off the lights, and went to sleep. The room fell into darkness.

Fu Tingyan lay on the bed. He thought about how Bo Ye would snore, grind his teeth, and talk in his sleep in the middle of the night. He stayed alert at night and he did not sleep well at all.

In the end, he did not hear Bo Ye snore, grind his teeth, and talked in his sleep..

“Didn’t you say that you would snore, grind your teeth, and talk in your sleep? Why didn’t I hear it last night?”

Bo Ye’s lips lifted up slightly. “I was just saying it casually.”

Tingyan was speechless, so he was just saying it for fun?

..

It was exceptionally cold in November morning, and the frost dew was a little heavy.

In the end Qin Shu didn’t go into the office. It was difficult to get a cab in the early morning.

She stood near the office building for the whole night. There were fine droplets of dew on her black hair. Her face was a little pale, like the cold wind in the morning, it was cold.

The light on the top floor of the office was on for the whole night. The man had been busy for the whole night.

The Sun had already revealed more than half of its face, and there were more and more taxis now.

Qin Shu retracted her gaze from the top floor of the office building and glanced at her phone.

At one o’clock in the morning, she sent him message.

[Babe: Please rest early.]

[Tingyu: Okay.]

Chapter 505: The Man Was Angry And Sorry. Anonymous Report

She edited a message and sent it over.

A taxi happened to stop in front of her.

After she sent her message, she glanced at the taxi and hesitantly opened the door to get in.

“Imperial College.”

“Okay.”

Fu Tingyu pinched between his eyebrows. He had been staring at the computer for so long, and his eyes were a little dry.

He stood up and was about to go to the lounge to sleep for two hours, then he heard a message notification on his phone. He picked up his phone, the screen showed the chat box interface. He could see the content of the message the moment he looked.

[Babe: Please remember to have some breakfast.]

Shi Yan opened the office door and walked in “Mr Fu, Ye Feng said there was a woman standing by the sign near the office building the whole night. As she was against the light, we couldn’t see her face, they kept watch on her,” Shi Yan said carefully, as it was already dawn, only then did they knew who was standing there.

Fu Tingyu held his phone tightly, and the figure of a person flashed in his mind. “Where is she?”

“She has already taken a cab and left.”

Fu Tingyu’s eyes froze.

Shi Yan added in a small voice, “It was Mrs Fu.”

Fu Tingyu’s heart tightened. No wonder she sent him message at one o’clock in the morning and asked him to rest early. She also sent him a message just now to remind him to have breakfast. What did she mean by doing this?

She came, but she didn’t come in.

She stood outside the whole night, and the lowest temperature at night was two or three degrees Celsius. wasn’t she afraid of catching a cold?

The more he thought about it, the angrier he got. However, he had nowhere to vent his anger, and his heart was filled with panic.

He had the feeling that she had come to make him angry on purpose, to make him felt sorry.

Shi Yan saw that Mr Fu looked unhappy, and there were signs that he was about to smash his phone. He lowered his eyes and wanted to go out and get another phone on standby.

..

..

Qin Shu returned to the Imperial College, she went straight to the Student Union.

Student Union

“It’s true. I saw Qin Shu piled the food on Yan Jing’s head with my own eyes yesterday. She was extremely arrogant,” Xu Qin said indignantly.

“I saw it too. She even admitted that she had someone backing her and deliberately messed with Yan Jing.”

Yan Jing stood by the side and listened to their comments. They were all on her side. She was rather pleased, but on the surface, she pretended to be wronged.

“Maybe I accidentally offended her, so she did this to me.”

“I really couldn’t believe it. She’s such a person. Yan Jing, don’t be afraid of her. I don’t believe that there is no way we can clarify matters.”

“Well she has someone backing her, so she came into the Student Union and took the post of the head of the planning section directly. Yan Jing was here for two years and she didn’t get the post.”

“It’s different when you had someone behind you. I didn’t think she has any special ability. She didn’t look too outstanding either, right? And she’s not a talented woman, right? So what rights does she have?”

Qin Shu heard these comments when she walked into the Student Union. She walked straight in and saw a group of them gathered around and slandered her, distorting the truth.

..

She walked towards them and glanced at them, who were filled with righteous indignation just a moment ago.

“You people thought that I entered the Student Union by the back door. So what if I did, you are just envious and jealous that I have someone to back me and you don’t.”

“You’ve been in the position of vice-head for two years, but you didn’t get promoted. You’re jealous that I got into the position of head of the planning section as soon as I came in.”

“Isn’t it just jealousy? So is there a need to make it sound so grand?”

“I was about to leave the Student Union by the end of the semester, but after hearing you guys, I feel that I should hold on to this post. Only then I could fulfil your accusation that I have a background and I am arrogant.”

“You guys continue to be jealous. College lives is quite long. So take it slow.”

After Qin Shu said that, she turned and walked towards the planning section. Arrogant? Then she would show them how arrogant she could be.

Did they really think that when she kept quiet, she would be a sick cat? A paper tiger?

“She’s so f * cking arrogant, and she wanted to hold on to the post of the head of the planning section for a long time.” Xu Qin couldn’t help but swear.

“She has backing. It’s too difficult for Yan Jing to move up.”

“Let’s go to the principal and expose her. As long as it is fact, she could be kicked out of the Student Union.”

“Is not good for us to do this, is it?” Yan Jing’s voice was gentle, making the group of people stand up for her.

“What’s not good about it? If we keep such a person in the Student Union, she will overshadow you in the future, and you can’t say a word even if you’re angry,” Xu Qin said indignantly.

“I think so too. Let’s expose her and get her out of the Student Union. Let’s see how she could still be arrogant.”

The group of people gathered around and discussed how they could expose Qin Shu for gaining her post by other means.

Yan Jing stood by the side and let them continue on the topic. She acted as if it had nothing to do with her.

After the group had discussed, they decided to report it anonymously.

They sent their opinions to the principal by email.

After sending it, Xu Qin said proudly, “Yan Jing, just wait for the good news.”

Yan Jing still had the expression that it was wrong for them to do so.

“I believe that the principal will definitely send someone over to investigate who is backing Qin Shu.”

At this moment, in the principal’s office

After the principal finished reading the anonymous email, he frowned. He remembered what happened last time. As he did not investigate thoroughly, he fired Qin Shu and even asked the instructor to lecture her. He was punished and had to write a 10,000-word self-reflection and even got his bonus deducted.

So this time, he called Qiao Ran directly. Qiao Ran was the President of the Student Union, many things were decided by him.

Qiao Ran got the call and went to the principal’s office. He was in a foul mood.

When Xu Qin and the others saw Qiao Ran got out after receiving the call, they were somewhat gloating.

“It must be the principal who called. No matter how good Qiao Ran is, he can’t fight the principal.”

“The principal must be angry this time. Did you see that? Qiao Ran’s face looked terrible.”

“I believe Qin Shu will be kicked out of the Student Union soon, and Yan Jing will be able to take the post of the head of the planning section.”

A look of anticipation flashed across Yan Jing’s eyes.

Qin Shu, who had just walked to the door, heard their conversation and knew that they must have done something.

It had only been less than a day, and they were already so eager?

Qiao Ran went to the principal’s office, he found out that there was an anonymous report on Qin Shu got into the Student Union by the back door.

“You were the one who brought Qin Shu into the Student Union. you made her the head of the planning section without any votes. You have to settle this yourself.” The principal threw the hot potato to Qiao Ran.

Qiao Ran had more power than it seems. Other than the higher-ups, no one else knew.

“I will give them a satisfactory and convincing reason.”

The principal heaved a sigh of relief. This time, it was none of his business.

Qiao Ran returned to the Student Union and immediately called for a meeting.

Yan Jing, Xu Qin, and the others immediately rushed to the meeting room when they received the notice.

In the meeting room, they could not help but laughed out loud as they anticipated Qin Shu’s misfortune.

“Qiao Ran must have been scolded by the principal. Qin Shu has no choice but to leave this time.”

“That must be the case. Otherwise, why would he be in such a hurry to call for a meeting? Moreover, everyone in the Student Union has to attend.”

“Qin Shu is finished this time. Without her backing, let’s see how she could be so arrogant.”

Chapter 506: Get Qin Shu Expelled During Meeting? I’ll Make All Of You Convinced

“Just kick her out of the Student Union is considered a light punishment. We should just expelled this person.”

Qiao Ran stood at the head of the table. Behind him was a huge screen that was ready to turn on.

As he listened to the discussions, he banged the table hard. “All of you, be quiet.”

For a moment, the meeting room was dead silent.

Qiao Ran had always been very gentle and rarely got angry. To made him got angry showed the seriousness of the matter.

They also knew that Qiao Ran must have been scolded by the principal, which was why he was so angry. They are pleased with themselves and gloated over his misfortune.

Qin Shu received a notification from Qiao Ran and went to the meeting room with her laptop.

The meeting room was very big and could accommodate a lot of people.

When she went in, she found that everyone was already there. It was usually noisy, but it was exceptionally quiet today, as if they were waiting for the announcement of something important.

What Qin Shu didn’t know was that they were all discussing whether they should expel her at the start of the meeting but was stopped by Qiao Ran.

She walked to her seat and seated, then she placed her laptop on the meeting table and opened it.

When she came in, everyone looked at her with different gazes.

When Qiao Ran saw that everyone was almost in, he tapped on the table with his finger, he glanced at everyone with a serious expression. "I just went to the principal's office and learned that someone had anonymously reported on Qin Shu, that she got into the Student Union by the back door, she's now the head of the planning section. I am sure the person reported her knew what transpired."

As soon as Qiao Ran finished his speech, Xu Qin glanced at Yan Jing. She did not expect the president would comment on this matter. Could it be that he would made it clear then kick her out?

Yan Jing glanced at Qiao Ran without a hint of guilt. She didn't report it. If it was ever came to light, it would not be her fault.

Qin Shu glanced at Yan Jing and Xu Qin, then retracted her gaze. She looked at the computer screen and began to type skillfully at the keyboard. A string of complicated code flashed on the screen.

She was using a mini laptop that she always carried with her. After splitting the screen, the code would only show at the lower right corner, so the two short-sighted heads that sat beside her could not see what was on the screen.

After his words, Qiao Ran paused. "I just want to say, those who said that Qin Shu came in through the back door, are they feeling inadequate or jealous? Or are they questioning my ability as the president?"

The meeting room was very quiet. There was only Qiao Ran's voice, but everyone's expression changed. They were all guessing that this meeting was to expel Qin Shu, wasn't it?

Qiao Ran switched on the screen behind him. On it was an admission notice and the college entrance examination score.

"This was Qin Shu's admission notice and the college entrance examination score. Look at it for yourself and think about your own."

The members of the Student Union looked at the screen in unison. When they saw the admission notice and the college entrance examination score, they could not help but look surprised.

"This admission notice was written by Professor Jun himself. There is only one per year," Qiao Ran said.

Yan Jing looked at the admission notice and the college entrance examination score on the screen in disbelief. They were all full marks?

How was this possible? If it was so amazing, why did she not get into the Student Union in the very beginning?

Xu Qin was also stunned. This must be a S-class top student. Otherwise, how did she get full marks?

Not only them, other students were also astonished.

Qin Shu glanced at the screen. She now knew the purpose of Qiao Ran's meeting.

Qiao Ran glanced at everyone in the meeting room. Their expressions were as he had expected.

“Qin Shu wasn’t the only one who got full marks. Han Xiao and Fu Tingyan also got full marks. ” But Professor Jun chose Qin Shu because her previous results were so bad that she couldn’t even get into a junior college, but she managed to get into Imperial College with full marks. Shouldn’t you all be thinking how she did it?”

The Student Union members were shocked once again. The underachiever had turned into the S-class top student. “Next, I’ll let you guys see if Qin Shu’s post as the head of the planning section is based on connections or real talent.”

Qiao Ran changed the content on the screen again. “This is Qin Shu’s proposal for our school’s anniversary celebration and the detailed plan. The idea was innovative, different from the traditional style of the school’s anniversary celebration, and it will have higher publicity value.”

“Do you still think that Qin Shu entered the Student Union by connection and took the post of the head of the planning section through the back door?” Qiao Ran glanced at everyone in the meeting room, his eyes were sharp.

Qiao Ran’s words were like a slap on the faces of those who slandered Qin Shu. It was hard and painful.

All in the meeting room was completely silent.

Yan Jing looked a little uneasy. She thought that she could get Qin Shu out of the Student Union this time, she did not expect it to end like this. She did not manage to kick her out, and she let everyone know how outstanding she was?

Xu Qin clenched her jaw in shock and swallowed hard.

Those who initially doubted Qin Shu now looked at her with admiration.

Those who slandered Qin Shu now looked guilty, uneasy, and ashamed.

Suddenly, the display screen changed again. It was the contents of the anonymous email and a screenshot of the desktop.

On the laptop screen on Xu Qin’s desk, her mailbox was opened, the deleted email had been restored, and the background image of her computer was a selfie of Xu Qin. When the screenshot came through, her desktop background image was also taken.

Then her mailbox returned to its closed state.

In the quiet meeting room, someone shouted suddenly.

“The anonymous informant is Xu Qin.”

Everyone in the meeting room looked at Xu Qin with a puzzled expression.

Xu Qin looked at the person who spoke in panic. “Don’t talk nonsense, think before you speak.”

“Look at the screen yourself.”

Xu Qin looked at the screen and saw the anonymous tip-off email, as well as the background of her computer desktop. It was a selfie of herself. She was so frightened that her face turned pale. "How, how is this possible?"

Qin Shu closed her laptop without batting an eyelid.

Earlier, she had used her hacker skills to hack into Yan Jing's computer, but she couldn't find anything. So she hacked into Xu Qin's computer.

When she recovered the deleted email, she found out that the anonymous tip-off email was sent by Xu Qin. Yan Jing just made use of Xu Qin, to try to kick her out of the Student Union. If the matter was exposed, Yan Jing could stay out of it.

But, she did not intend to let Xu Qin off either.

It was just a remote control, and she took the screenshot on purpose.

"So it was Xu Qin who reported. I heard her talked bad about Qin Shu and that she had neither talents nor looks."

"I heard it too. I just didn't expect her to be so narrow-minded and she would go report it, she implicated the president and he was summoned by the principal."

Listened to everyone's discussion, Xu Qin's face turned paler and paler. She didn't expect the matter to be exposed. She looked at her good friend Yan Jing helplessly, wanting her to speak up for her.

However, before she could speak, Yan Jing looked at her with disappointment.

"Xu Qin, how could you do such a thing? You're my good friend. If others didn't know, they would have thought that I asked you to do so. I am really disappointed in you."

Chapter 507: Backbiting. Children Won't Understand

Yan Jing was afraid that Xu Qin would drag her down, so she took the initiative to strike first.

Xu Qin looked at Yan Jing in shock. "Yan Jing, how can you say such things? If it isn't for..."

Before Xu Qin could finish, she was interrupted by Yan Jing. "I know that you're defending me because of what happened in the cafeteria the other day, but how can you do such a thing?"

You really let me down."

Many people had seen what happened in the cafeteria previously, and the news had long spread.

When they heard what Yan Jing said, everyone looked at Xu Qin again, their eyes full of contempt.

"At the cafeteria the other day, Yan Jing did say forget about it. Xu Qin was even more angry and agitated than Yan Jing. She must be jealous of Qin Shu."

"Just like Yan Jing said, no matter what, we shouldn't do anything behind the back of someone. In fact not just Qin Shu would be kicked out of the Student Union, the president would also get implicated."

Xu Qin quickly retorted, "No, it's not what she said. Yan Jing knew that I reported it. She was also there at the time. When I submit the report, she didn't stop me."

Yan Jing sighed and pretended to look helpless. She looked as if she knew that Xu Qin would drag her down with her.

She didn't explain. She just made herself look very pitiful.

"You want to drag Yan Jing down with you even though it was your fault. You're really shameless."

"That's right, admit it if you've done something wrong, by implicating others, do you have a conscience?"

Xu Qin was at a loss for words. No matter how she explained, no one listened to her. She was afraid when the anonymous report came to light.

Now that she saw Yan Jing's attitude of staying out of the matter, and her words that tried to clear herself, she felt chills in her heart.

She had always stood up for Yan Jing, but this was the result she got in return.

Did Yan Jing treat her as a friend?

Qin Shu glanced at Xu Qin, her face full of panic and fear. She had been pushed to the cusp of the storm, and she had also been smeared by Yan Jing. It was difficult to clear her name.

On the other hand, Yan Jing had pushed her responsibility away.

Qin Shu just smiled and looked at her coldly.

After Qiao Ran finished reading the content on the screen, although he was puzzled as to how the two screenshots came about, he did not ask on the spot. He should punish the culprit that did such a thing.

He looked at Xu Qin and said in a cold voice, "From now on, you have been kicked out of the Student Union. Please apologize to Qin Shu now and write a self-reflection. This wrong doing will not go away and will always be with you."

Xu Qin looked at the people in front of her and then at Yan Jing. She really hated them, but no one believed her now.

She looked at Qin Shu again. She suddenly remembered what happened in the cafeteria and what Qin Shu said at that time. In fact, the food was poured by Yan Jing herself, but she framed Qin Shu.

As for the last bit, Qin Shu deliberately piled food on Yan Jing's head so that she would not be at a disadvantage.

So from the very beginning, Yan Jing had been pretending to be pitiful, weak, understanding, and using her?

Xu Qin stood up and looked at Qin Shu. "Qin Shu, I'm sorry." After saying that, she glanced at Yan Jing and then turned to leave.

The anonymous report incident ended here. Xu Qin was being used, and Yan Jing got away.

However, Yan Jing was not happy, she did not get to kick out Qin Shu. Instead, she became the S-class top student that everyone was talking about, and she got full marks in the college entrance examination.

..

Qin Shu finished her own task in the Student Union and walked out with her bag.

“Qin Shu, wait a minute.”

Qin Shu stopped when she heard the voice. She turned and saw Qiao Ran walking over.

“Senior, is there anything else?”

Qiao Ran walked up to Qin Shu and said apologetically, “I didn’t expect that by pulling you into the Student Union, it would get them to talk about you behind your back, for causing you troubles, I was being careless.”

“I’m fine. They couldn’t affect me. But I’m a little embarrassed that senior did all this for me today.” Qin Shu did not see them eye to eye to begin with, if they dared to provoke her, she would not show mercy.

Qiao Ran heaved a sigh of relief. “It’s my duties, I am happy that you won’t mind. I’m afraid that with them making such a fuss, you won’t want to stay in the Student Union anymore.”

Qin Shu burst out laughing. “Won’t they be happier if I leave? So, I won’t be leaving for the time being. I’ll let them see me every day, make them anxious but there’s nothing they can do about it.”

“Then I’m relieved.” Qiao Ran was also amused by Qin Shu’s words. “It’s lunchtime now, you should be hungry too.”

“Yeah, then I’ll go now.”

Qin Shu turned and left.

Qiao Ran stood where he was and watched Qin Shu leave. She was indeed different from the other girls.

He turned and walked into the Student Union with a smile.

..

Qin Shu returned to her apartment. It was rare to see Fu Tingyan and Bo Ye together on the sofa. They were watching a movie.

Fu Tingyan was sitting like a boss. As he was injured, he was bossing Bo Ye around.

Bo Ye sat beside him, peeling oranges, and handed them to him to eat. His face was expressionless.

He seemed to be willing to do whatever Fu Tingyan wanted.

Qin Shu walked over and sat down opposite Fu Tingyan. She glanced at his injury and asked, “How’s your injury?”

“It’s okay.” Fu Tingyan looked at Bo Ye. His slender fingers picked up the peeled oranges and put them into his mouth, it was quite sweet. It felt good to order Bo Ye around.

Bo Ye pursed his lips.

"I can see that you're enjoying it." Qin Shu took off her schoolbag and put it aside.

"I've moved everything over." Jiang Yu walked in with the password locked luggage and looked at Fu Tingyan who was on the sofa. "Where do you live?"

"In Bo Ye's room," Fu Tingyan replied.

Bo Ye rejected directly. "No way."

"My injury." Fu Tingyan pointed at his own injury. Shouldn't he take care of him, as he got injured for his sake?

Bo Ye was speechless, he's in the wrong. It was his brother's fault.

"Then I'll move it in." After saying that, Jiang Yu carried the luggage to the second floor, into Bo Ye's room.

Jiang Yu was busy moving things.

Fu Tingyan was busy eating walnuts.

Bo Ye was busy peeling walnut shells.

Fu Tingyan turned and looked at Bo Ye. The walnut shells were very hard, and his fair fingers were turning red from peeling walnuts.

He frowned. "Why are you so stupid? Just use a small hammer to crack it."

"If it's broken into pieces, it would not be so convenient to eat," Bo Ye replied without raising his head.

Fu Tingyan was speechless, then he said, "I don't want to eat anymore."

"Okay." Bo Ye replied and continued peeling.

Fu Tingyan frowned again. "Why are you still peeling?"

"I want to eat," Bo Ye said as he put the peeled walnut into his mouth. There was still one left, after peeling and eating it, he stood up and left.

Fu Tingyan was again speechless.

Qin Shu sat on the sofa and edited a message to send to the man. After sending, she picked up her backpack and prepared to go upstairs.

Fu Tingyan stopped her. "What's going on between you and my brother?"

Qin Shu stopped in her tracks and sighed. "You're just a child. You won't understand."

Fu Tingyan retorted, "I'll be an adult next year."

"You're still a child, and you're still single, so you won't understand." Qin Shu left these words and went upstairs.

Fu Tingyan turned to look at Qin Shu. He was a child? He is single?

Did he have to be in a relationship to understand?

Chapter 508: I Have Never Lied To You. He Came For Her

Jiang Yu finished moving Tingyan's things and was about to go find Ye Xue, but he was stopped by Fu Tingyan.

"Do you know what happened between Qin Shu and my brother?"

"How would I know?" Jiang Yu was a little confused.

"You're worse than me the single guy." Fu Tingyan snorted coldly.

"What?" Jiang Yu was even more confused.

"My brother must be very angry this time." Fu Tingyan concluded after two days of observation.

"What do you mean?"

"You don't know my brother. He can't live without Qin Shu."

"Is it that serious? No one in this world could stop the earth from spinning just because he can't live without someone. So, what you said is impossible."

"Because my brother said so, he said Qin Shu is his life."

Fu Tingyan snorted and turned to go upstairs. As his leg still hurt that he walked very slowly. In fact, he did not believe that his brother really could not live without Qin Shu?

Qin Shu was his brother's life?

Is Qin Shu the oxygen?

Jiang Yu shook his head. He did not believe that one person would value another person as his life.

..

..

Fu Tingyan had not been coming over to look for Qin Shu. He had been busy with this current project.

It was said that one who was unsuccessful in love, will succeed in life.

Two days of concentrated energy made the current collaboration project started very quickly and smoothly. It was much faster than expected.

Qin Shu was also busy with the school's anniversary celebration these two days, as tomorrow was the school's anniversary. She still had to make a cameo role.

At noon, she sent a message to the man, asking if he would come tonight.

She would send such messages almost every day.

The man's reply was that he was working overtime.

In the afternoon

Qin Shu came out of the Student Union. She glanced at her phone, he still hadn't replied to her message.

She held her phone tightly and walked to her apartment.

"Qin Shu."

She knew it was Han Xiao when she heard the familiar voice. She stopped, turned around, only to see Han Xiao walked over from the side road.

In the past two days, they have only met each other in class, this was the first time he had come to look for her after last incident that happened a few days ago.

"What's the matter?" She asked.

Han Xiao stopped in front of Qin Shu, after what happened previously, he did not know what to say to Qin Shu. He felt that she would not believe anything he said.

"I have something to tell you."

Han Xiao's voice was a little low.

Qin Shu asked, "What do you want to say?"

Han Xiao lowered his eyes and looked at her. There was a never-before sincerity in his eyes. He said slowly, "What I wanted to say is that I have never lied to you, not a single word."

Qin Shu was stunned.

Han Xiao repeated, "What I said to you earlier, was true."

"Let's end this matter here and now. I have told you that I am not Little Munchkin but you didn't believe, I am indeed not. You might not know my mother, but she always said that it is good to have many skills. If it's like what you said, that I've really been to Qi Mountain to learn martial arts, then my mother wouldn't have hide this from me. I also think that it's impossible for me to have lose my memory." Qin Shu explained slowly.

Han Xiao did not give up. "Then don't you think that a person who kept you by his side the moment he met you has no other motives?"

"He said that he wanted me to be his woman the moment he saw me." Qin Shu recalled that first date. The man's words were overbearing and domineering, she continued, "He wouldn't lie to me. I believed that he truly loves me, and I didn't think that anyone else could treat me as if I was his life."

After hearing this, Han Xiao felt a sharp pain in his heart. It was as if someone had choked his neck and he couldn't breathe. He would felt pain whenever he breathed.

"You actually said that other than Fu Tingyu, no one else value you as his life?" Han Xiao took a deep breath, and he was hurt. "Haven't you ever thought that Fu Tingyu might be the one who caused your amnesia?"

Qin Shu retorted, "Impossible. When he saw me, other than surprises, he didn't have any other expression."

Because he was so good-looking, the first time she saw him, she had been staring at him, so she could clearly remember his expression.

Han Xiao growled, "That's because he knew that you're Little Munchkin. Otherwise, why would he have such a surprised look?"

Qin Shu was stunned.

Han Xiao tried hard to suppress his out-of-control emotions. "Do you have a picture of yourself at twelve-year-old?"

Qin Shu was a little regretful. "No, they threw them all away two years ago."

Those things had all been thrown away. Perhaps they had thrown them even earlier, but she did not know then.

Han Xiao was somewhat in disbelief. "You didn't have a single photo of yourself in the past?"

"No, not a single one. Not even a photo of me and my mother." Qin Shu's heart ached a little. There was originally a photo of them by her bedside table in her room. In the end, it was destroyed by Qin Ya.

"What's going on?" Han Xiao saw Qin Shu's sad look and knew that there must be some unknown issues in the past.

"It's already over. I still have something to do, so I'll go back now." Qin Shu smiled at him and turned to leave.

Han Xiao watched Qin Shu leave, he felt that she must have experienced something bad over the years.

After Qin Shu left, he took out his phone and called his assistant. "Go and investigate what happened to Qin Shu in the past few years. Be quick. Also, see if there are any photos of her when she was young."

Then, he hung up. Why didn't he think of investigating what happened to her in the past few years? Maybe he could find out what happened between Fu Tingyu and her.

He didn't believe that there weren't any photos left. Even if there weren't any at home, what about other places, schools, or photos on the application forms for any certificates.

..

In the office

Fu Tingyu finished his work. It was already evening. He picked up his phone and looked at his messages. He saw the message from the girl.

[Babe: Are You Coming Back Tonight?]

It was already the third night. He did not know how he had managed to survive these past three nights. Other than work, he did not want to sleep at all, and he could not fall asleep either.

Lying in the cold blanket without the familiar warmth, it would make him difficult to sleep through the night, and it would also remind him of how sweet the girl's words sounded every time. He was happy like a fool. In the end, she was only joking. That kind of suppressed feeling, that which he could not vent his anger, could drive him crazy any time.

Shi Yan walked in when it was dinner time. It was his trying moment every time, he asked, "Mr Fu, are you still having Whatever tonight?"

Fu Tingyu looked at his phone. If he did not know earlier, just by looking at the message, he would have thought that she looked forward to his return.

He thought about Han Xiao who was still in the Imperial college, and he could have look for her any time.

He said, "Go to the Imperial College."

"Got it, Mr Fu." He hoped that they could reconcile this time.

..

At the dining table

As usual, Qin Shu just took half a bowl of rice then went up to the second floor after meal.

The four people at the dining table saw that Qin Shu was in a bad mood, but she couldn't express herself, they felt bad as well.

"Tingyan, make a call to your brother and ask him to come over," Jiang Yu couldn't help but said.

"If my brother doesn't want to come, there's no use for me to call." Fu Tingyu knew his brother too well. As long as he wanted to be here, no one could stop him.

"Your brother is here," Ye Xue reminded him in a low voice. She looked at the man who had already walked into the living room. He would have a halo around him wherever he went. It was an eye-catching scene that attracted everyone's attention.

Fu Tingyan turned and saw his brother walked over. Speaking of the Devil.

Chapter 509: The Hug That You Can't Refuse, Couldn't Let Go

Fu Tingyu walked to the dining room and glanced at the dining table. He didn't see the girl and looked at his younger brother, Fu Tingyan. "Where is she?"

Fu Tingyan pointed upstairs. "She just went up. Brother, what have you been busy with these few days?"

"The company's business." His voice was flat, he went straight to the second floor after he answered.

Jiang Yu looked at Fu Tingyu's tall and slender figure with admiration in his eyes. "I also want to become a powerful person like your brother."

"My Brother?" Fu Tingyan was a little proud. "You need more practices."

Bo Ye glanced at the man on the stairs and then at Fu Tingyan who was sitting beside him. The two brothers were indeed quite alike.

..

In the room

Qin Shu sat in front of the computer and stared at the computer screen in a daze.

Tomorrow was the school's anniversary celebration. Qiao Ran actually wanted her to be the host. Perhaps due to what happened earlier. Qiao Ran had a second opinion on Yan Jing.

But she refused.

The school had prepared special awards for the school's anniversary celebration this time. They would select three programs and award them with certificates of Honor.

The Student Union would select the five best programs, and the school would decide the finalists.

Qin Shu was just a guest star. She had to do two programs, but in the end, she rejected one.

Now, she wasn't thinking about all this. Instead, she was thinking about the possibility that the man would be here tonight.

It had been two days, and he hadn't come to look for her.

The door behind her slowly opened, and the man's tall figure walked in. He walked with even steps and walked to the back of the girl.

The man stood tall and straight. He looked at the girl, then glanced at the computer screen. It was the school's official website.

Qin Shu's attention was on something, she didn't hear the footsteps behind her. She had planned to look for Fu Tingyu after the school's anniversary, and it was almost time.

Two days had passed, would he stay up all night to work every day?

Thinking of this possibility, she threw away her pen and stood up. She wanted to go over and take a look.

Just as she turned, she saw the tall figure standing behind her. She was stunned.

She was too engrossed in her thoughts that she did not even notice that someone had entered her room.

In two days, she realized that the man seemed to have lost weight. He had dark circles under his eyes. Although it was not obvious, but it could still be seen.

Qin Shu could not think of anything else, she just hugged him.

She raised her head and looked at the man. "Have you eaten?"

The man lowered his eyes and looked at her. Her face was already engraved in his mind. He could visualize it even with his eyes closed.

No matter how bad he felt in his heart, no matter how hurt he was by her deception, he could not remain indifferent to her, let alone refused her hug.

Just like now, he was being hugged tightly by her.

Compared to kissing, he preferred being hugged tightly by the girl. He felt needed and he wanted to be owned.

“No.” The man’s voice was very low.

As Ye Xue had only made enough food for five people, there was probably no food downstairs except for leftovers.

She thought for a while and then decided, “Then I’ll cook noodles for you.”

“... Okay.” The man hesitated, He knew that the girl can’t cook, so did she know how to cook noodles?

“Sit down and wait for a while. It’ll be ready soon.” Qin Shu said, then turned and walked out of the room.

The man turned and watched the girl leave. When she disappeared at the door, he looked at her desk.

There was a laptop on the desk with the screen lit up. There was a stack of books by the side. A silver pen was placed next to the pen holder. He saw the girl throw the pen away, as if she was in a hurry to do something.

Qin Shu ran all the way downstairs. Ye Xue and the others had already finished eating. She went into the kitchen and saw Ye Xue tidying up.

“Ye Xue, please teach me how to cook noodles. He hasn’t had his dinner yet.”

She didn’t even know how to cook instant noodles. Let alone cooking dragon beard noodles, she could only ask Ye Xue for help. In the entire apartment, only Ye Xue knew how to cook.

“How about we cook some rice and stir-fry another two dishes? How could he eat noodles?” Ye Xue subconsciously thought about a person like Mr Fu, how could he eat noodles?

Qin Shu shook her head. “No need. I’ll just cook some noodles, egg noodles.”

Ye Xue was not sure if Mr Fu would eat egg noodles, Seeing Qin Shu was so affirmative, she could only say, “Alright, I’ll teach you. Egg noodles are actually very simple.”

Ye Xue turned on the fire at the stove, took an egg from the fridge and handed it to Qin Shu. “When the pot is hot, pour some cooking oil and fry the egg.”

Qin Shu took the egg and stood in front of the pot. Seeing that the pot turned smoky with heat, she took the oil pot and poured oil into it.

“This amount is good enough,” Ye Xue reminded her.

Only then did Qin Shu put down the oil pot and stared at the pot.

“You can put the egg in,” Ye Xue prompted her again.

“Oh.” Qin Shu took the egg and knocked it at the edge of the pot. Then, she cracked the egg and put the egg in. And she realized that the egg yolk was broken.

She was a little embarrassed.

“It’s the first time you cracked an egg, so it’s normal for it to be broken. I did that when I tried to crack an egg for the first time too, it was also broken. The appearance doesn’t matter. What’s important is the taste.” Ye Xue was afraid that Qin Shu would feel discouraged, so she said with a smile.

Qin Shu felt relieved. As long as the taste was good, it would be fine. “Then what’s next? Should we just put water in?”

“Wait until the egg is fried and then take it out. Then, we’ll put water in,” Ye Xue said.

Ye Xue turned down the heat. As long as she didn’t take too long, it wouldn’t be burnt.

Under Ye Xue’s guidance, Qin Shu scooped up the egg and put in the right amount of water. When the water boiled, she put in the noodles.

When adding salt, Qin Shu put it in bit by bit. She was afraid that if she put too much salt, it would taste terrible.

“It’s about time to turn off the fire.”

Qin Shu quickly turned off the fire.

Ye Xue took a bowl and handed it to Qin Shu.

The noodles was just enough for one person. She picked up the pot and poured the noodles into the bowl bit by bit. It was much easier than scooping up the noodles.

After the noodles were all poured into the bowl, she put down the pot, then picked up the fried egg, and put it in.

Looking at the egg noodles in front of her, it didn’t look as good.

Would it taste good?

“No matter how it looks, at least it’s made by you. This is your first time cooking, and is already very good,” Ye Xue praised.

The two people in the kitchen were so serious that they didn’t notice Fu Tingyu was standing at the kitchen door.

He was curious how Babe would cook the noodles, because she really hadn’t cooked any noodles before.

The man saw all that had happened in the kitchen, and he was moved.

However...

“Well, I’ll bring it to him.” Qin Shu took a pair of chopsticks and picked up the bowl of egg noodles. She turned and saw the man standing at the door. She didn’t know how long he had been standing there.

“Why are you here?”

The man looked at the steaming bowl. The noodles that had just come out of the pot were still piping hot. He moved and walked to the girl. “Let me do it.” He reached out his hand and took the bowl from her. He turned and walked to the dining room.

Qin Shu followed him.

Ye Xue stuck her head out and looked at the two of them walking out. She felt that they were really a good match.

At the dining table

The man sat in front of the dining table.

Qin Shu handed the chopsticks to him. “Chopsticks.”

The man looked up and glanced at the chopsticks. He took the chopsticks with his slender fingers and lowered his eyes to look at the steaming noodles in front of him. He tightened his grip on the chopsticks, picked up the noodles and blew at them to cool it. Then, he put them into his mouth and chewed.

Chapter 510: Cook Noodles For Me For The Rest Of My Life. I Want To Do Some Exercise When I'm Full

No matter how many times she watched the man eat, it would always be pleasing to the eyes.

Qin Shu watched the man ate a mouthful of noodles and was a little nervous. “How does it taste?”

The man swallowed the noodles in his mouth and looked up. He said in a low voice, “It’s very delicious.”

After saying that, he picked up another strand and blew on it, took it into his mouth and chewed slowly.

It was very delicious? Qin Shu didn’t believed, “You have to tell me the truth. Otherwise, how can I improve my culinary skills?”

The man stopped chewing and looked up at her.

There was noodles in his mouth. Although it wasn’t much, but it made his cheeks bulge a little. He looked cute.

He kept staring at her? ? ?

“What’s Wrong?”

“As long as it’s cooked by you, I would like to eat.” The man lifted the corner of his mouth and lowered his head to continue eating noodles.

If she cook noodles for him the rest of her life, he would eat noodles the rest of his life, and he would never get tired of it.

Qin Shu beamed. “Then I’ll cook for you for the rest of your life. Just don’t get tired of it.”

“I won’t.” The man continued eating noodles. In fact, he regretted for not coming to look for her these few days. His rival was still around, and for his own reason, he did not come over for two days.

No matter what, he could not give his rival a chance to come close to her.

Babe could only be his. Han Xiao could not snatch his wife away from him.

After the man finished eating his noodles, he picked up the bowl and drank all the noodle soup. There was not a drop left. Then, he put down the bowl and took out a tissue to wipe the stains off his mouth. His actions were elegant and noble.

Qin Shu watched the man finish a bowl of noodles and even drank up the soup. She was a little surprised. "Are you full?"

The man said, "I'm quite full."

"Then why did you drink all the soup?"

"I'll do some exercise later. It can help with digestion," the man said seriously. He didn't mean to joke at all. He just wanted to have their children. He wanted it more than ever.

At first, Qin Shu wasn't really thinking. But when she saw the man's expression, she knew that the word "Exercise" was not as simple as she thought.

"Let's go upstairs." The man stood up and walked to her side. He lowered his eyes and reached out his hand to her.

Qin Shu looked at the hand in front of her and then looked at the man. His eyes were pitch-black, like a galaxy in his eyes. She couldn't see the end of it, which made it very easy for her to fall right in.

She looked at the big hand in front of her, which could easily wrap around hers. She could only stretch out her hand, which was as good as agreeing with the man.

She pursed her lips, as if hesitating.

The man stretched out his hand and looked at the hand on the girl's lap. She clenched it very tightly, as if she was unwilling. Seeing that she did not extend her hand, he bent down and took the hand on her lap. He stood up straight, led her to stand up together.

She could feel how tightly the man gripped her hand, as if he was a little angry. The palm of her hand was pinched by the man to express his dissatisfaction.

The man held her hand and slowly walked up to the second floor. When he reached the door of the room, he suddenly said, "You don't want to have my child, do you?"

Qin Shu immediately denied, "No..."

No, then why did you take the contraceptive pill?

"Your lie has been exposed."

Qin Shu looked at the man and couldn't explain.

She did take the contraceptive pill and he discovered. Although there was a reason to it, but she did lie to him.

“If you don’t want to, I will.” The man pushed open the door and brought her in.

Qin Shu was stunned.

The door closed with a bang and the lights in the room lit up as well, illuminating the corners of the room.

The man’s tall figure stood in front of her, shrouding her slender figure. “Do you want to take a shower together, or do you want to take a shower first?”

“Let’s do it together, save time.” This were not their first time, so nothing to be ashamed of.

For such an answer, the man froze for a few seconds, he thought she would avoid it, and did not expect that she would come close.

He had no reason to refuse.

“Then go in.”

The man grabbed her hand and went into the bathroom. As if she would run away.

Qin Shu reminded: “We have not taken any clothes.”

“No need.”

The bathroom door was slammed shut.

..

..

..

After the shower

Qin Shu laid on the bed, looking at the man walked over, took out his slippers and get onto the bed, she was perturbed.

The man took out his slippers, glanced at the girl. She had just taken a bath, her face was flushed, with wet hair on her forehead, eyes were also a little red, as water got into the eyes accidentally.

Knowing that she was resisting, he frowned unhappily.

Before lying down, he turned off the lights and the bright room instantly turned into darkness.

Qin Shu felt the man lying down beside her. He stretched out his arms and pulled her towards him. They had just taken a shower and their bodies filled with the fragrance of the shower gel. The unique scent of her man made her feel a little overwhelmed.

She was afraid that he would do something next.

After waited for a long time, seeing that the man did not move, she heard the man’s even breathing. Only then did she know that he had fallen asleep.

She was relieved, but at the same time, she felt a little sorry for him. If he could fall asleep so quickly, he must have been very exhausted. Otherwise, it was only ten o'clock now. How could he possibly fall asleep?

Fu Tingyu had stayed up all night for three consecutive nights. He would only rest for two hours in the morning. With his martial art power weakened, he could not stay up all night as before.

He was extremely tired now. The familiar warmth of her body, the familiar scent, which made him fall asleep in a second.

Qin Shu could not sleep. Would he believe what she said only when they had children?

The next day

After a good night's sleep, the man woke up at seven o'clock. He stayed up all night for the last few days. He slept very well and was full of energy.

The curtains were drawn tightly, so the light in the room was dim.

He looked at the girl's sleeping face and lowered his head to kiss her forehead.

He was so used to sleeping with her in his arms.

The person in his arms moved, crawled into his arms, as if it was an unconscious action as she was asleep.

In the Quiet Room, there came a message notification. The man turned to look at the bedside table, the screen that lit up was her phone.

He glanced at the girl and found that she was still sleeping. He looked at the bedside table and picked up the phone. Even if it was locked, he could still see the message on the screen.

[Hanxiao: I didn't know about it before. I asked you about it yesterday, but now I know. Please think about what I said.]

After Fu Tingyu finished reading the message, his hand that was holding the phone tightened. What was he talking about?

He looked down at the girl who was still sleeping and started to feel scared.

Qin Shu woke up more than half an hour later. As she couldn't sleep last night, she took awhile to fall asleep.

Today was the school anniversary, so she had to wake up early.

Fu Tingyu woke up early. He was already dressed neatly and sitting on the chair in front of the desk, he watched the girl went to wash up in her pajamas.

At this time, his phone rang, he took out his phone and found that it was from his uncle. He picked up the call.

"We're going to the island for a holiday tomorrow. Would you come along?"

Fu Tingyu remembered that short message and agreed. "Yes."

Mu Nianzhi stunned for a moment before he smiled. "Okay then. You Don't have to prepare for anything. The boat has everything ready."
