

Bigoted 571

Chapter 571: When I Find Someone to Treat You, A Man is Jealous

He was wearing a heavy wool coat in light grey, and a black scarf around his neck.

The cold wind around him did not affect his gentle gaze at all.

During this period of time, Jun Li had gone home and was not at school.

Therefore, she was a little surprised to see him on the road on a snowy day.

Qin Shu couldn't help but slow down. When she walked in front of him and saw the gentle-looking Jun Li, she couldn't help but smile. "Jun Li, when did you come back to school?"

Jun Li stood in the snow and looked at the person walking toward him. He smiled. "I came back today after dealing with the family matters, so I am here to apologize to you."

Qin Shu looked at him with a puzzled face. "Apologize?"

Jun Li explained, "I came to apologize to you on behalf of Lan Qi. He was too irrational in doing things."

Only then did Qin Shu remember that Lan Qi had kidnapped her. He was only a fifteen-year-old boy, and he was someone close to Jun Li.

So she didn't take it to heart.

Jun Li handed the gift box in his hand to her. "These are the strawberries I picked when I passed by the Strawberry Garden. I'm here to apologize to you. I hope you'll like them."

Qin Shu looked at the gift box that Jun Li handed over. It was wrapped, and she could see the strawberries inside. Each and every one of them was neatly arranged. Each of them was full of colour, making one want to take a bite.

The leaves at the bottom were very fresh. Just as he said, they were freshly picked.

Qin Shu raised her head to look at Jun Li. Her eyes were very bright, as bright as the stars. "For me?"

Seeing her bright eyes, he knew that she liked it.

Jun Li had a gentle smile on his face. "Yes."

He used a box of strawberries as an apology was much easier for her to accept than giving expensive gifts.

Qin Shu saw that the strawberries were delicious, sour, and sweet, so she didn't argue and accepted them.

"I like it very much."

The smile in Jun Li's eyes was even more obvious. "It's good that you like it. How have you been recently?"

"I'm pretty good. It's December, and I'm on vacation after the new year. I feel like time passes quite quickly."

After saying that, Qin Shu looked at Jun Li's pale face and felt a little worried. "Are you alright? I see that your face is very pale. Have you recovered from your illness yet?"

"I won't recover so soon." Jun Li said nonchalantly.

From the first time Qin Shu saw him, his face had been very pale. He was a sickly pale man.

"I know a doctor who is very good at medical experience. I can introduce him to you. He will be able to cure your illness."

Jun Li shook his head. "There's no need of it."

Qin Shu looked at him in confusion and realized that he did not seem to care. She could not help but feel a little anxious. "But your illness has not recovered yet. The earlier the treatment, the better for you."

Jun Li smiled and said, "I'm very happy that you say that. So, I won't trouble him."

Qin Shu stopped and looked at him with a serious expression. "Are you unhappy about something?"

Jun Li smiled. "No."

Qin Shu asked, "Then why don't you see a doctor even though you know that your body isn't well?"

Jun Li sighed. "I've seen many doctors, but it's useless."

Qin Shu heaved a sigh of relief. So that was the reason. "The Doctor I know is a genius in the medical world. His medical skills are very good, so he'll be able to cure you."

Jun Li lowered his eyes and looked at her. The smile in his eyes deepened. "Thank you. There's no need."

"You're afraid of disappointment, don't you?" Qin Shu guessed. "You haven't tried, so how do you know that he can't cure you? As long as there's hope, you shouldn't give up so easily."

"Yes, I know." Jun Li smiled faintly. When the snow fell, it didn't fall on his pale face. It brushed past his ears and fluttered down.

Qin Shu held the strawberry gift box in her hand and looked at the snowflakes avoiding his pale face. It was as if she could not bear to hurt him.

A person like him, who was so gentle to living things in the world, should not be tormented by time and pain.

If he was not willing to see a doctor, then she would let Gu Yan come and see him.

He would be cured.

Jun Li watched the snowflakes grow bigger and bigger. He felt that a year was almost over.

He turned his head to look at her. "I heard from Qiao Ran that you agreed to go to the school next door to study."

Qin Shu nodded. "Yeah, I didn't have anything to do next week, so I agreed."

Jun Li said, "Then we can go together. This time, I'll personally lead you guys. We can't let the school next door look down on us."

"Of course not. Let's not talk about talent and learning first. Isn't there a saying now that beauty is justice? With your looks and the looks of the seniors, you can kill them instantly."

Qin Shu said confidently.

People would be amazed by him if they looked back at him.

Jun Li's looks were worth it.

Jun Li nodded and agreed with her, "What you said makes sense. The looks of Imperial Capital University will not lose."

He suddenly asked, "When would you take off these glasses?"

Qin Shu's hand adjusted the frame of her glasses unconsciously. "I'm not taking them off. I think it's good to wear glasses."

"Okay." Jun Li saw that her cheeks were red from the wind and remembered the mask he bought. He reached into his pocket and took out a mask and handed it to her. "It's quite windy outside. It'll be better if you wear a mask."

Qin Shu looked at the black mask that appeared in front of her and reached out to take it. The cloth was very soft and thick. It was very warm to wear in winter.

She clenched the black mask in her hand tightly and turned her head to look at Jun Li.

Jun Li said, "The first time I met you, I saw the black mask you were wearing. I felt that black looked better on you, so when I bought it, I also bought black."

Qin Shu felt that Jun Li was too caring. When they were together, there was no pressure at all.

"Thank you." Other than thank you, she did not know what else to say.

She put on the black mask on her face. Her face was instantly covered, blocking out the cold wind. She did not feel cold at all.

Jun Li smiled and did not mind the word 'thank you'.

When they reached the intersection in front of them, Jun Li said, "I have an important meeting in the afternoon as I just came back. If there's anything, you can come and find me directly."

Qin Shu nodded. "Okay."

Jun Li smiled at her, he turned around and walked away evenly.

Qin Shu stood in the snow and watched Jun Li leaving.

After school, she returned to the apartment.

Qin Shu placed the strawberry in her hand on the glass coffee table.

Jiang Yu immediately saw that the box was filled with strawberries. He raised his head and asked Qin Shu, "When did you buy the strawberries?"

"I didn't buy them. Jun Li picked them in the Strawberry Garden." After saying that, Qin Shu went up to the second floor and changed her clothes.

"Professor Jun is so nice?" Jiang Yu thought that Qin Shu bought it and planned to wash some for Ye Xue to eat. Since it was a gift from Jun Li, he gave up his plan.

At this time, a tall figure walked in from the apartment door. When he walked to the sofa, he saw the strawberries in the box and stopped in his tracks. "Who bought the strawberries?"

"Jun Li picked them in the Strawberry Garden. It's for..." Jiang Yu felt the air suddenly turn cold and swallowed his last words.

Jun Li?

Even if Jiang Yu didn't finish, he knew it was for his wife.

"You guys can have the strawberries."

Chapter 572: Don't Leave a Single Strawberry For Her. He Will Pamper His Own Wife

"You guys can have the strawberries."

He purposely went to the strawberry garden to pick strawberries for his wife?

He looked at the strawberries in the box, girls liked to eat strawberries the most.

The man's eyes darkened.

Jiang Yu looked at the fresh strawberries on the glass coffee table and then looked up at Fu Tingyu. He was troubled. "Brother, this is for sister-in-law. It's not good for us to eat it."

Fu Tingyu looked at the box of strawberries and found it very annoying. "Why not? You can eat it now. Don't leave a single one."

"Then, won't sister-in-law didn't get to eat them?" Jiang Yu reminded carefully. His brother seemed to be angry.

Fu Tingyu said, "You eat what you want. Don't worry about her."

After saying that, he turned around and walked out again.

When he walked to the door of the apartment, he saw Fu Tingyan and Bo Ye. "Eat the strawberries on the coffee table."

Before he finished his sentence, his tall figure had walked out.

Fu Tingyan was stunned. He turned around to look at his brother's back as he left. Did he specially buy strawberries for them to eat?

Fu Tingyan retracted his gaze and walked in with Bo Ye.

When he walked to the sofa, he saw a box of strawberries on the glass coffee table. His brother bought them.

He turned his head to look at Bo Ye. "Go wash some strawberries."

Bo Ye looked at him with an indifferent expression.

"My waist..." Fu Tingyan held his waist with one hand and slowly sat down on the sofa.

Bo Ye:"..."

"I'll wash some for Xiaoxue too."

Hearing that Fu Tingyan wanted to eat, Jiang Yu, who was hesitating whether he should eat or not, did not hesitate anymore. He opened the box, picked up the fruit plate at the side, filled it with about twenty fruits, and stood up to go to the kitchen.

Bo Ye glanced at Fu Tingyan, who was sitting on the sofa like a boss. Was it easy for him to order him around?

He glanced at his waist, then he went to wash some strawberries for him.

A box of strawberries would be gone. There was not a single one left.

Ye Xue planned to cook dinner tonight, so she was busy in the kitchen as soon as she came back.

She was cutting the vegetables.

After Jiang Yu washed the strawberries, he took out a tissue to wipe off the water stains on the strawberries and handed it to Ye Xue who was cutting vegetables. "Xiao Xue, try the fresh strawberries."

Ye Xue looked at the strawberries by her mouth. Judging by their colour, she knew that they were fresh. She opened her mouth and took a bite. The strawberry juice instantly entered her mouth. It was sour and sweet. It was very delicious.

Jiang Yu saw that she had taken a bite and asked, "How is the taste?"

Ye Xue chewed twice. "It's sour and sweet. The taste is very fresh. It's very delicious."

Jiang Yu saw Ye Xue where the strawberries seemed to be very delicious. He took the remaining half of the strawberry and put it into his mouth to eat. It was just as she said. It was sour and sweet. He frowned slightly. It was indeed delicious.

Ye Xue was stunned when she saw Jiang Yu eat the remaining strawberries.

Jiang Yu didn't like sour strawberries, but the strawberries were quite fresh. "Tomorrow, I'll bring you to the Strawberry Garden to pick strawberries."

Ye Xue recovered from her shock and agreed without thinking. "Okay."

Jiang Yu picked up another strawberry and fed it to Ye Xue.

.....

Bo Ye placed the washed strawberries on the coffee table in front of Fu Tingyan. Then, he sat at the side and took out his phone.

Fu Tingyan's well-defined fingers reached into the plate, picked up a strawberry, and put it into his mouth. He felt a little sour just now, but he felt better after eating it.

He glanced at Bo Ye. "Aren't you going to eat it?"

Bo Ye turned his head and glanced at the strawberries on the plate. After hesitating for a while, he reached in, picked up a strawberry and put it into his mouth. It was sour, but it tasted fresh.

Fu Tingyan thought that Bo Ye didn't like sour food, but seeing that he ate it, he didn't seem to dislike sour food.

So he continued to let him eat.

Bo Ye didn't refuse. If he wanted to eat, he would eat.

After a while, the strawberries on the plate were all eaten. There wasn't a single one left.

When Fu Tingyan was about to reach out to take it, he realized that the plate was empty. He glanced at Bo Ye and didn't realize that he was eating so quickly.

.....

On the second floor.

After Qin Shu changed her clothes, she remembered the posts in the deep sea forum. She hadn't seen them once, and she didn't know what had happened.

She opened her laptop and logged into the deep sea forum.

Then, she saw that her posts had become a hot topic.

The main reason was that she was the first one who dared to say that the Death Note was a scam.

Therefore, all the killers, organized and unorganized, who were watching, came to gossip about the topic.

The replies and comments were almost the same.

She didn't look at them in detail.

She saw a few private messages. She clicked on them. The message said, "Can you delete this post? We can refund the money."

Qin Shu was stunned for a few seconds.

Refund money?

Could it be done like this?

How was it different from Taobao merchants deleting bad comments?

Qin Shu stared at the screen for a while and replied to a message.

[ Mo Yan: How much is the refund? ]

After replying to the message, she was ready to exit the forum.

A new reply popped up on the screen.

[ Death Note: half of the surgery fee. ]

[ Mo Yan: Sorry to bother you. ]

After sending the message, she was ready to ignore the Death Note, but the other party replied in a second.

[ Death Note: seven-tenths? ]

Qin Shu looked at the content of the message coldly and did not reply.

After a while, the other party sent another message.

[ Death Note: Full refunds. Please make a post to explain. ]

Qin Shu: "..."

Did they compromise just like that?

The other party had refunded the 10% commission for the original employment fee.

Qin Shu deleted the post and made a post that was purely an entertainment misunderstanding.

This matter was resolved just like that.

A 10% commission fee was not a small amount.

Qin Shu took the money happily, closed her laptop, and went downstairs.

When she walked into the living room and was about to wash a few strawberries, she found that the box on the glass coffee table had been opened. There was not a single strawberry left inside.

Not to mention strawberries, not even a single leaf was left.

She looked at Fu Tingyan on the sofa. "You finished eating the strawberries?"

Fu Tingyan was playing a game with Bo Ye. When he heard that he replied, "Yes, why?"

"Why didn't you leave some for me?" Qin Shu looked at the empty strawberry box. She didn't even know how the strawberries tasted. Were they sour?

Fu Tingyan raised his head and looked at Qin Shu. "Who bought these strawberries?"

Qin Shu said, "Jun Li picked them at the Strawberry Garden. Why?"

Jun Li, Professor Jun?

After listening, Fu Tingyan seemed to understand why his brother told him to finish them. He didn't want Qin Shu to eat the strawberries that other men had given her.

"My brother wanted us to finish all of them. Not a single one was left."

Fu Tingyu?

Qin Shu walked to the sofa and sat down. She didn't say anything else. Would a man be jealous over a box of strawberries?

At this moment, in the Strawberry Garden.

Shi Yan held up the illumination lamp, bent his waist, and followed his master all the way.

He looked at his master's tall and straight figure who was bending down because he was picking strawberries. Wouldn't the outsiders be shocked if they knew?

The man held a small red basket in his hand and bent down. His slender fingers were picking large and ripe strawberries.

He was wearing a high-grade custom-made suit. It was pure black, and he was born with noble temperament. He did not fit in with the shed.

The basket was full of strawberries carefully picked by the man. They were not smaller than Jun Li's at all, and they were not inferior to his strawberries.

Chapter 573: He Had to Do It Himself. A Ringtone Shocked Everyone at the Dining Table.

The man glanced at the strawberries in the basket and felt that they were not enough. He continued to pick the big and ripe strawberries.

At the door of the greenhouse, an old and a young farmer in a blue coat were standing.

During the day, they saw a very good-looking man who spoke gently picking strawberries.

It was obvious to see that he was born rich because of his clothes and behavior.

He was the first rich person who picked strawberries in this strawberry field.

Those rich people let the servants or subordinates pick the strawberries.

At midnight, a man who was in a brand suit and good-looking came. He looked like a leader of a business empire.

They were flattered that he had suddenly come to their strawberry plantation to pick strawberries.

"Dad, I saw that they came in a Bentley and were quite rich. The man who bent down to pick strawberries was obviously the president or chairman of a company. Why would he come here to pick strawberries?"

The one who spoke was the son of the grower. He didn't understand that why he had to pick strawberries himself. He could ask his subordinates to do it instead.

“How would I know about the thoughts of the rich? Maybe he wants to make his girlfriend happy?” The farmer was also dumbfounded.

“He has much money, good looks, and a fit body. Many women will rush to get close to him. Do he need to coax women?”

The farmer’s son lowered his head and looked at himself. He was wearing the clothes for working. He was 1.76 meters tall, and he didn’t have a single abdominal muscle. His looks couldn’t be seen in the crowds. He only lived in a well-off family.

A man like him would be so treasured by women.

“Why do you care so much? In ancient times, there were many emperors who were willing to do everything for women.”

Alright, a normal person like him could not understand the world of rich and powerful people.

After selecting, Fu Tingyu let Shi Yan pay while he carried the strawberries to the carriage.

Looking at the strawberries, he was quite satisfied.

Thinking of Jun Li’s gift box, he wanted to buy a gift box as well.

After Shi Yan paid the bill, he drove straight to the Imperial College.

When passing by a gift box packaging store, he said, “Stop the car.”

Shi Yan’s reaction was extremely fast. Hearing his master’s words, he immediately stepped on the brakes.

After the car stopped, the man got out of the car with a basket of strawberries and walked straight into the store.

There were a few young female shop assistants in the store. When they saw a tall and handsome man walk in, they were stunned by his good looks and height. What would a tall, rich and handsome guy be?

The man in front of them interpreted these words vividly.

They felt that these words were not enough for praising this man.

A few of the shop assistants stepped forward at the same time. “Sir, do you need anything? I can recommend it for you.”

Fu Tingyu stood straight in front of the girls and said in a cold voice, “I want a heart-shaped gift box.”

“Okay, I can get it for you.”

Just a while, the shop assistant brought over a beautiful heart-shaped gift box. Seeing the strawberries the man carried, she seemed to understand why the man wanted the gift box.

Such a handsome man already had a girlfriend!!!

“Sir, do you want me to wrap the strawberries? We guarantee that you will be satisfied.”

“No need, I’ll do it myself.”

Fu Tingyu directly refused others’ help. He liked to DIY the presents for Babe.

He took the heart-shaped gift box and walked to the cabinet at the side. He placed the gift box on top of it and reached his slender fingers into the basket. He took out the strawberries one by one and started to place them.

He had big hands, fair skin, and long and slender fingers. His hands looked even better than hand models.

A few shop assistants gathered around and looked at this tall, rich, and handsome man placing the strawberries on his own. Their movements were careful, as if he was afraid that he would break the fresh strawberries.

How careful was he! It must be extremely happy to be his girlfriend. It was really enviable! !

The strawberries were obviously freshly picked. I wish that my boyfriend could be so careful too. I’m so envious! !

The man spent some time arranging the strawberries one by one, then closed the lid, wrapped it in colorful ribbons, and tied a bow.

After paying, he walked out of the packaging shop with the heart-shaped gift box and directly got into the car.

When his master got into the car, Shi Yan glanced at the eye-catching heart-shaped gift box. His master really knew how to be romantic.

If Ye Luo had half of his skills, he didn’t need to worry about finding a girlfriend.

Shi Yan stepped on the accelerator and drove toward the Imperial College.

Half an hour later, at Imperial College

After Ye Xue finished cooking, Jiang Yu helped to put the dishes on the table one by one.

“I’ll call them over to eat.”

Jiang Yu brought the last dish, walked out of the dining room, and came to the living room.

“Don’t sit there, come and eat.”

Fu Tingyan and Bo Ye stood up one after another and walked to the dining room.

Qin Shu saw that Ye Xue’s food was ready, but he was not back yet. What had he gone out to do?

She walked to the dining table and sat down in confusion.

Jiang Yu suddenly asked, “By the way, will brother come to dinner tonight?”

Qin Shu said, “I’ll make a call to ask.”

After saying this, she picked up her phone and quickly played the familiar number.

[ hubby, I miss you... ]

Suddenly, a ringtone sounded in the apartment. Those who were sitting there were stunned. Who said that it was a ringtone?

When they heard the sound, they looked over and saw a tall figure walking over from the side.

Fu Tingyu had just taken out his phone. Actually, even without looking at the caller ID, he knew that it was Babe calling him.

That was because this ringtone was Babe's voice message to him.

Did he set a special ringtone for her?

The moment he heard the ringtone, he knew that it was Babe calling.

Seeing that Fu Tingyu had returned, everyone's gaze turned to Qin Shu. that voice, "hubby, I miss you." was Qin Shu's.

Fu Tingyu didn't know how to use other people's voice messages, and he didn't dare to use it.

Ugh! ! !

Qin Shu looked at the four people in front of her with an awkward expression. She didn't know when the man had used her voice message to make a ringtone.

Now all heard it...

She hurriedly hung up and put her phone aside.

Fu Tingyu held his phone tightly and walked over with his handbag. He sat down beside the girl and placed the handbag on the chair behind him.

The other four people at the dining table came back to their senses and pretended not to hear anything. They each picked up their chopsticks and lowered their heads to eat.

Qin Shu leaned closer to the man and lowered her voice. "Why did you take this message as a ringtone?"

The man turned his head and looked at the person who was right in front of him. He could see her curly thick eyelashes and her fair skin.

He said matter-of-factly, "I like it. If you call me, I'll know."

The ringtone was set last night. He should have used this voice message as Babe's exclusive ringtone.

Qin Shu's eyes froze. She kept feeling that this was a high-profile display of affection.

What if he was in a meeting or meeting some important partner?

Would her suicidal call tarnish a man's image outside?

When Fu Tingyan was eating, he saw the beautiful handbag behind his brother. He asked casually, "Brother, what did you buy?"

Chapter 574: They Witnessed a Public Display of Affection. It Looked Like Having a Baby.

Because when he came in just now, he was carrying a white handbag with a floral print.

Qin Shu subconsciously looked behind the man and saw the beautiful handbag. She was also a little curious about what was inside.

The other three people also looked over. They were curious about what was placed in the beautiful handbag.

The man turned his body sideways and his gaze fell on the handbag. He had planned to pass it to her after eating.

Now that his younger brother had mentioned, he put down his chopsticks, picked up the handbag, and handed it to the girl. "This is for you."

His pitch-black eyes stared at her, anticipating what kind of expression she would show.

"What did you buy?" The corners of Qin Shu's mouth unconsciously curled up into a beautiful arc. After taking it, she looked inside and found that it was a heart-shaped box.

Was it Valentine's Day today?

That was not right. It was only December 3rd, and it was still early for Valentine's Day.

Jiang Yu was quite curious about the things in the bag and urged, "Sister-in-law, take it out and see what he bought for you."

"I'm also curious about what my brother bought." When Fu Tingyan came back, he saw his brother leaving in a hurry. It must be related to strawberries.

He knew his brother too well.

Qin Shu held the handbag and glanced at the man as if to ask if he wanted to take it out.

The man looked at her with some anticipation.

She withdrew her gaze and reached her hand in. She took out the heart-shaped gift box and placed it on the dining table in front of her.

The front of the heart-shaped gift box was also transparent. After it was placed flat, one could see that there were strawberries neatly placed inside. All of them were fresh and full. The leaves at the bottom were also very fresh. It could be easily told that they were freshly picked.

At the dining table, the four people saw that the gift box was heart-shaped to express love. Then, they saw that the gift box was filled with strawberries, and they instantly understood.

Qin Shu's husband was jealous.

They witnessed a public display of affection.

Fu Tingyan also understood the reason why his brother let them eat all the strawberries.

It was because he didn't want Qin Shu to eat the strawberries given by others.

Even if she did eat them, she would eat the strawberries that his brother picked.

Such jealousy!!!

Qin Shu looked at the box full of strawberries. Every one of them made her want to take a bite. The warmth filled her heart.

He let them eat all the strawberries that Jun Li picked, and then he went to pick the strawberries himself?

He was really possessive but a little cute.

She raised her head to look at the man and grinned at him. Her tiger teeth were especially bright, and her smile was very sweet.

“You’re so nice.”

The man saw the smile on the girl’s face and was a little happy. “Let’s eat.”

“Okay.” Qin Shu put the gift box on the cabinet at the side. After dinner, she would wash a few and have a taste.

The four people at the dining table really understood the what the consequences of Jiangcheng’s Lord Fu being jealous and how he spoiled his wife.

Ordinary people really couldn’t compare with him.

Without Jun Li’s strawberries as an eyesore, the man had a pleasant dinner. From time to time, he would pick up food for the girl. Seeing her eat happily, his mood also became happy.

Qin Shu ate a little less tonight and prepared to save her stomach to eat strawberries.

However, the man often picked up food for her, and it was her favorite food. Unconsciously, she ate until she was full.

The man put down his chopsticks and took out a tissue to elegantly wipe the grease at the corner of his mouth. “You go up first. I’ll wash the strawberries.”

“Okay.” Qin Shu rubbed her slightly bloated stomach. She could still eat a few strawberries in the gift box.

She stood up and went to the second floor, preparing to take a shower first.

The man stood up, picked up the box of strawberries, opened it, and took out a fruit plate from the cabinet at the side. He took out the strawberries one by one.

The four people sitting at the dining table looked at the man standing in front of the cabinet. He had a tall figure and a noble temperament.

It made them feel a little emotional.

This perfect man with wealth and good looks pampered his wife perfectly and make others envy.

Fu Tingyu took the strawberries and went straight to the second floor.

Jiang Yu looked at Fu Tingyu, whom he had admired since he was young, and thought that he loved his wife so much. He suddenly felt a little emotional. "Tingyan, I feel that I have misunderstood your brother over the years."

Fu Tingyan turned his head to look at him. "What do you mean?"

"I thought your brother was the kind of big shot who would be cold and ruthless to everyone and act swiftly and decisively."

Jiang Yu sighed. "No matter how powerful a person is, when he meets the one he likes, he will turn into a gentle person."

Ugh! ! !

It was not appropriate to describe his brother like that!

On the second floor

Qin Shu had just taken off her clothes to take a shower. The water coming out from the shower was warm.

The bathroom door opened at this time. The sound of water covered the sound of the door opening, so she did not know that someone had come in.

The man took the fruit tray to the sink, turned on the tap, and began to wash the strawberries.

The sound of the showering was very loud behind the shower curtain.

The man washed the strawberries and turned his head to look at the scene behind the shower curtain. Other than a slim figure, nothing else could be seen.

His throat tightened. He retracted his gaze and continued to wash the strawberries on his hands.

After washing, he turned his head to look and found that the girl had not finished washing.

After staring at the shower curtain for a while, his slender fingers came in front of him. He undid the buttons on his suit jacket, took off a high-end custom-made suit, and the other clothes. He turned around, opened the shower curtain and walked in.

Qin Shu had almost finished washing. She was about to turn off the shower and put on her clothes.

Because the man suddenly came in, she had to wash again.

And the time she took to wash was several times longer than before.

It had been one and a half hours since she came out of the bathroom.

Qin Shu lay on the bed, still feeling a little bloated.

The man came over with a fruit plate. His tall figure sat next to the girl and handed the fruit plate to her.

"Eat the strawberries."

Qin Shu looked at the fruit plate. She couldn't resist the temptation and reached in with her hand. She picked up the strawberries and put them into her mouth. The sour and sweet taste rushed to her taste buds. It was the taste she liked, and it was very fresh.

After eating the first one, she couldn't stop eating.

The man held the fruit plate by one hand and looked at the girl eating the strawberries. It was also a kind of enjoyment.

Especially eating the strawberries that he picked with his own hands. The feeling was completely different.

The man washed half of the strawberries and filled the whole plate.

Unconsciously, Qin Shu finished the whole plate of strawberries. Her stomach, which was already full, was now bulging. It was a little uncomfortable.

She put her hand on her stomach and looked at the man. "Hubby, I'm so full that felt a little uncomfortable."

"Let me massage for you."

The man looked at the girl's belly and placed his hand on it. He felt that it was bulging and turned to look at the girl. The smile in his eyes was a little deep. "It's a little like having a baby."

After he said that, he looked over again. His dark and deep eyes were filled with tenderness.

It was bulging. It will look like that when she was pregnant.

Qin Shu's face turned red. She lowered her head to look at her belly. Because she had eaten too much, her belly was bulging. It was really like what the man said.

But how could it be so fast?

Just because he said so?

Chapter 575: Aren't You Tired of Pretending? Why Didn't You Mention the Little Munchkin?

The man's gaze was fixed on the girl's belly, and he imagined what she would look like when she was pregnant. He felt happy just thinking of it.

Qin Shu felt that the massage is enough. "That's it, you can stop."

The man's large hand rubbed her belly at an even speed. After rubbing it for a while, there was no effect.

He turned his head to look at the girl. Her seaweed-like hair hung down, covering half of her face. Her slender fingers reached out and pulled the hair behind her ears, revealing the girl's slightly red face.

Qin Shu stared at the man who suddenly approached her. Following that, the man's unique scent came along with the flavor of shower gel and entered her nostrils.

"Aren't you going to sleep?"

The man whispered in her ear, "I want to help you digest."

...

Qin Shu fell asleep when she laid down on the bed because of tiredness.

The man did not feel sleepy at all. He looked down at the person in his arms and placed his big hand on the girl's belly, which had become flat.

He was looking forward to the arrival of a child that belonged to him and her.

...

During these days, when Qin Shu woke up, the bedside was already empty. The man used to wake up early, and the cooperation plan was already on the right track, so he would be very busy.

After finishing breakfast, she went to the student union.

Because Qiao Ran said that there was no suitable job for the school two days ago, but the job had been confirmed today, and it was suitable for girls to do.

Before going to the student union, she made a call to Ye Xing, asking her to come to the student union.

Ye Xing received Qin Shu's call, so she hailed a taxi and went straight to the Imperial College.

The distance was not far, and it only took seven to eight minutes by car.

She held a business card in her hand. She had not gone to look for him in the past two days because she had not thought about it yet.

She wanted to look for Gu Yan after her job was settled so that she could recover her memory as soon as possible.

When they arrived at the Imperial College, Ye Xing found the exact location of the student union.

Qin Shu was standing at the student union waiting. When she saw Ye Xing walking over, she said, "Senior managed to get you a job. The monthly salary is okay, you can try to do it first."

"Okay." Ye Xing nodded with a smile and followed Qin Shu in.

Qiao Ran was waiting in the president's office. When he saw Qin Shu walking in with a girl, he put down the pen in his hand, stood up and walked around the desk. He walked over to Qin Shu and glanced at the girl beside her, he said, "It's her, right? I'll bring her to the principal's office. Don't be nervous."

"Thank you." Qin Shu thanked him and turned to Ye Xing. "He is a very nice person, and he takes good care of his junior."

Ye Xing believed Qin Shu's words. After all, Qiao Ran did not seem like the kind of person who would lie.

"OK, thank you, senior Qiao."

"You're welcome. Follow me."

Qiao Ran brought Ye Xing to the principal's office.

The principal gave a rough description of the job.

“The School Library needs a librarian. The salary is okay, and the workload is acceptable. If you think it’s okay, Qiao Ran will take you there now.”

Ye Xing did not have any objections after hearing it. It was only temporary anyway. “I’m fine with it.”

The principal nodded and looked at Qiao ran. “Qiao ran, take her there to familiarize the environment.”

“Got it, Principal.” Qiao ran then looked at Ye Xing. “Come with me. The library is slightly far away from here.”

Ye Xing nodded at Qiao Ran and followed him to the library.

...

After the school anniversary ended, the Planning Department had a lot of free time.

Qin Shu usually did not come to the student union, so after settling Ye Xing’s work, she was ready to leave the student union.

“Qin Shu, wait a minute.”

Just as she walked out of the student union’s gate, she heard someone calling her. The voice sounded familiar. It was Yan Jing.

She stopped and turned around. She saw Yan Jing wearing a snow-white down jacket with a light brown gauze skirt underneath. Her clothes had a pure and refreshing feeling.

She walked over slowly.

Ever since the embarrassing incident at the school anniversary, Yan Jing had kept a much lower profile. She usually didn’t participate in any activities.

It had been more than ten days, almost half a month since the school’s anniversary. The heat of the embarrassing incident had passed, and she had become more active.

“What’s the matter?” Qin Shu’s voice was emotionless.

“You helped me perform on stage. I want to thank you properly. I heard that you took a leave of absence, so I haven’t had this chance to invite you to dinner. There will be a lot of people, most of them are from the Planning Department, and there are also students from the neighboring school. A lot of handsome boys will come.”

Yan Jing looked at Qin Shu with a very sincere expression.

Qin Shu smiled. “Aren’t you tired?”

“What do you mean?” Yan Jing looked at Qin Shu in confusion.

“I remember very clearly what happened in the canteen. You pretend every day. I’m tired just by looking at you. There’s no need to eat. You can enjoy the handsome guys yourself.”

After saying that, Qin Shu turned around and left.

Yan Jing was stunned after hearing Qin Shu's words. She didn't expect Qin Shu to be so straightforward. Looking at Qin Shu's back, she clenched her fists. Why can she be so arrogant? There was nothing special that she got full marks in the college entrance exam.

Her college entrance exam results were also very good. She was still the prettiest girl in the department. She was almost the prettiest girl in the school.

I yield a little, so I spoke to you. Why are you still so arrogant?

Yan Jing's seemingly innocent face became a little distorted due to jealousy.

Who exactly was backing Qin Shu?

Otherwise, how could a freshman dare to be so arrogant?

Even the president was helping her.

She had to find this person.

Yan Jing failed to invite Qin Shu, so her plan failed tonight. This was what made her even angrier.

She took out her phone and dialed a number while turning around to leave.

After Qin Shu left the students, she went to class.

During this period of time, she had indeed missed quite a few classes.

Although the problem between her and Han Xiao had not been resolved, the classes were still ongoing.

During class, Han Xiao would not talk about the Little Munchkin's matter. Just like before, he was very serious when teaching her. He was cold and quiet now.

He usually dealt with a matter with a serious attitude.

Han Xiao was wearing a black overcoat with a gray sweater underneath. He had extraordinary calmness.

After class, Qin Shu tidied up what she had just learned, and then closed the laptop.

Han Xiao had already closed the laptop while seeing Qin Shu close the laptop. After a few days, he returned to his usual calm.

After Qin Shu finished tidying up, he asked in a low voice, "Have you asked Fu Tingyu about what happened between him and the Little Munchkin on the mountain?"

Qin Shu's action of picking up the pen holder paused. Fu Tingyu did not mention anything about what happened on the mountain to her, or about the Little Munchkin.

Now Han Xiao mentioned it, she held the pen tightly in her hand. She turned her head to look at Han Xiao and pursed her lips. "No, there shouldn't be anything between them, right?"

"Why don't you ask him? You trust him so much, and he loves you so much..."

When saying this, Han Xia clenched the textbook in his hand to keep himself calm. He continued, "Why didn't he tell you about what happened on the mountain?"

Chapter 576: The Reasons of Believing in Fu Tingyu. Asked Gu Yan to Treat Jun Li's Illness

Qin Shu looked at Han Xiao and was stunned for a while before replying, "Perhaps, he thinks that what happened on the mountain is not important."

Han Xiao replied, "Is it because not important, or he's too guilty to say it?"

Qin Shu was stunned at first, but then he remembered that Han Xiao had mentioned something about Fu Tingyu and the Little Munchkin. They seemed to get along with each other not so well.

"You said that He and Little Munchkin have a conflict, so it's normal for him not to mention it."

Han Xiao's black pupils stared at her. "If you didn't mention before, then what about now?"

Qin Shu said, "He doesn't think I'm Little Munchkin. He and Little Munchkin don't have much to do with each other. I think it doesn't matter whether he mentions it or not."

Han Xiao looked at Qin Shu and listened to her answer. She kept protecting Fu Tingyu. During the past seven years, why did the situation reverse?

"You think he's lying to me, right? And why do I trust him so much?" Qin Shu thought about the memories with Fu Tingyu. He was so protective of her, so how could he lie to her and have other motives?

She continued, "He has done so many things for me, so many that I can't even count them."

"He would rather be injured than let me be injured."

"He would rather deal with everything than make me worried."

"He would try all best to keep me safe."

"He would rather sacrifice his life to ensure mine."

Every time she recalled that fire, it was the pain in the depths of Qin Shu's heart. It was also her nightmare.

She looked at Han Xiao. "I don't have any reason not to trust him."

Han Xiao was stunned once again when he heard this. She could not believe that Fu Tingyu loved her that much. And he also loved her very much.

"I can do all of these too. Why don't you trust me?"

"You can do all of this for the Little Munchkin. She is the person you like."

When Qin Shu said this, she paused for a moment. "Actually, as a friend, a teacher, you are also very sincere. The feeling you give people is that you are full of righteousness. You are willing to do anything for a friend. Therefore, I treat you as a good friend. I believe you, but that you have been mistaken something for all time."

Han Xiao was originally a little angry, but when he heard the last sentence, he felt that he had been too hasty.

She did not remember what happened on the mountain, so she said this.

“So now I just want you to remember what happened on the mountain as soon as possible. I want you to know that the person you trusted the most back then was me, Han Xiao, but not Fu Tingyu.”

He emphasized his last sentence.

Qin Shu did not know what to say when she saw that Han Xiao still insisted. After all, this was his business.

“Actually, I’m quite curious why you like a little girl? An eleven or twelve-year-old girl? You weren’t an adult back then either.”

Han Xiao did not expect Qin Shu to ask this question. He was stunned for a few seconds at first.

If it was in the past, he might not know how to say it.

However, after seven years of searching, he knew that if he did not say it now, could it be that he would wait until the future?

“In the past, I was young, and I just simply liked her. Later, during these seven years, I realized that I did not just like her.”

Hearing this, Qin Shu felt that this kind of love was quite beautiful. When she looked at Han Xiao, her eyes carried a smile. “If Little Munchkin knew that you still remembered her and liked her, she would be very happy.”

Han Xiao looked at Qin Shu, hoping that he could find a way to make her remember what happened on the mountain. So she would leave Fu Tingyu and return to him.

While Qin Shu and Han Xiao were chatting, everyone in the classroom left, leaving only her and Han Xiao.

She swept a glance at the empty classroom and looked at Han Xiao. “Everyone has left. Let’s go too.”

Han Xiao grunted. He stopped reminding her to remember what happened on the mountain. It was useless for him to say anything more now.

He picked up his laptop and textbook, stood up, and walked out of the classroom side by side with Qin Shu.

Yan Jing walked out of the classroom and watched Han Xiao and Qin Shu leave side by side. After observing for a while, she was sure that the person Han Xiao liked was Qin Shu.

Another thing was that Qin Shu lived in the same apartment with Fu Tingyan, Jiang Yu, and Bo Ye.

With so many boys around, she knew that she was not a good girl.

How could a man like Han Xiao like a promiscuous woman like Qin Shu?

Yan Jing gritted her teeth. She had to expose Qin Shu’s secrets in front of Han Xiao so that Han Xiao would definitely not like her anymore.

Then her chances of wooing Han Xiao would be even higher.

As Yan Jing thought of this, she began to yearn for the image of being together with Han Xiao.

...

Qin Shu and Han Xiao separated at the intersection in the front. She went straight to the apartment.

Thinking of Jun Li's illness, she decided to call Gu Yan and ask him to come over when he had time.

The call was dialed in a short while. Gu Yan's gentle voice came from the other end of the phone.

"What's wrong? Are you feeling unwell?"

Gu Yan's voice sounded a little like Jun Li's. It sounded especially warm.

"No, I have a friend who isn't feeling well. He has seen many famous doctors but hasn't been cured. If you are available, I'd like you to come over and take a look at him."

Gu Yan wouldn't refuse Qin Shu's request. "He's at school, right? I'll come over later to take a look at him."

Gu Yan's straightforward answer surprised Qin Shu. She could not help but smiled. "Yeah, he's been at school all this time."

"Yeah, I'll call you when I get there."

Gu Yan hung up the phone.

Ji Fei walked in from outside. "Young master, the woman who was hit by the car last time is here to see you."

"Is she feeling unwell? Let her in quickly." Gu Yan subconsciously thought that the girl was suffering from the aftermath of being hit by the car.

Ji Fei turned around and walked out. When he came in again, Ye Xing followed behind him.

Gu Yan looked at the girl who walked in and glanced at her leg. He saw that she was walking much better just now, so he asked, "Are you feeling unwell?"

Ye Xing nodded. "Yes."

Gu Yan said, "Tell me where you're feeling unwell first. I'll help you take a look."

Ye Xing did not hesitate and directly explained the cause of her illness. "I've lost my memory. Can you help me recover my memory?"

Gu Yan thought for a while and asked, "What caused the memory loss?"

Ye Xing shook her head. "I'm not sure. When I woke up, I realized that I don't remember what happened in the past."

"There are many reasons for memory loss. There are head injuries, temporary memory loss due to blood clots in the brain, and selective memory loss due to mental stimulation."

After Gu Yan finished, he added, "You can go to the hospital for a check-up first to see if there are any symptoms such as blood clots in the head. If there aren't, it's possible that mental stimulation has caused the memory loss."

"Then I'll go to the hospital for a check-up first."

Ye Xing felt that what he said made sense, so she decided to go to the hospital for a check-up first.

After Ye Xing left, Gu Yan instructed, "Get ready. I'm going to the Imperial College."

Chapter 577: They Fought Together. Gu Yan Checked Jun Li's Pulse.

"Got it, young master." Ji Fei left the pharmacy and went to the garage.

Gu Yan packed up the medical kit and took away the commonly used medicine one by one. Then he walked out of the pharmacy with the medical kit.

When he got into the car, he made a call to Qin Shu. "I'm on my way."

"Okay, I'll go find him later and meet up with you."

Qin Shu hung up the phone and went downstairs. She was not in a hurry to look for Jun Li because Gu Yan needed time to come over from his apartment.

When she went down the stairs, she saw two people sitting on the sofa. They were Fu Tingyan and Bo Ye. Both of them seemed to be playing games because they were staring at their phones.

They did not have many classes today, so they stayed in the apartment.

After a while, Fu Tingyan suddenly hugged Bo Ye's neck. "Let's go kill Jiang Yu."

Having his neck wrapped around by someone made Bo Ye feel a little uncomfortable, especially since Fu Tingyan's weight was all on him. He moved her neck a little, "Why?"

Fu Tingyan did not answer Bo Ye's question. Instead, he said, "Don't ask why. Kill him until he doesn't dare to go online."

Bo Ye, "..."

This was how it happened.

Jiang Yu and Ye Xue were in the room, playing games with their phones.

Jiang Yu saw Fu Tingyan and Bo Ye in a double row, so he sent a message to Fu Tingyan.

[Jiang Yu: Tingyan, are you in a double row with Bo Ye again? Why don't you find two girls to fight together? It's important to match well.]

Fu Tingyan glanced at the message sent by Jiang Yu, and his face darkened. He quickly replied a message.

[Fu Tingyan: Are You showing off that you have a girlfriend?]

[Jiang Yu: No, absolutely not. I'll continue to fight with Ye Xue. You guys continue. Let's go!]

After reading the message, Fu Tingyan's face darkened even more. Did he still say no?

In the end

Bo Ye accompanied Fu Tingyan to chase after Jiang Yu. In the end, Jiang Yu was so angry that he ran downstairs with his phone.

Qin Shu teased Boss and watched the three boys fight. She smiled and shook her head. She fed Boss some dried fish and left the apartment.

Jun Li had a house at school, but she didn't know where it was because she had never been there before.

Walking out of the apartment, she took out her phone and dialed Jun Li's number.

After the call was connected, she asked, "Jun Li, where do you live at school?"

When Jun Li heard that, surprise flashed across her eyes. "Are you coming to see me? It's in the apartment area, the apartment Lan Qi lived in before."

"Then I'll go there now."

Before hanging up, Qin Shu told him that Gu Yan would come to see him.

"I talked to Gu Yan on the phone. He'll come to see you later. His medical skills are really superb. He'll definitely cure your illness."

After saying that, Qin Shu hung up the phone and went to the apartment that Lan Qi had taken her to before.

Jun Li looked at the phone that had been hung up. There was a faint smile on the corner of his mouth, as if he was happy but also helpless.

At this moment, Su Ying walked in and saw his young master staring at the phone and smiling. A hint of doubt flashed in his eyes. "Young master, a family call. Madam wants you to go back."

Jun Li's smile faded. "Tell her that I'll go back tonight. Make some preparations. There will be two guests coming later."

"I'll go make preparations right away." After saying that, Su Ying turned around and walked out.

Jun Li lowered his eyes to look at the phone in his hand. The screen had already darkened.

After looking at it for a while, he stood up and walked out.

Qin Shu had come to the apartment building before, thus she remembered where it was.

They arrived after walking for about ten minutes.

Less than ten meters away from the apartment, they saw Jun Li standing at the entrance of the apartment. He was wearing a light brown cashmere sweater. He was tall and slender, but he looked a little thin. He didn't even wear a coat.

She quickened her pace and walked over. She stopped in front of Jun Li. "It's so cold outside. Why did you come out?"

Jun Li's eyes were gentle. "It's fine. I've troubled you this time."

"It's no trouble. Gu Yan should be here soon." Qin Shu looked at Jun Li's pale face. Standing in the cold wind, he looked even paler.

She hoped that Gu Yan could cure his illness.

At this moment, there was the sound of brakes behind her.

Qin Shu turned around and saw Gu Yan getting out of the car. He was wearing a cashmere coat and glasses on the bridge of his nose. Perhaps because he was in a hurry to get out, he did not take them off.

Qin Shu stepped forward to welcome him. "You came so quickly."

"I hung up the phone, so I came." Gu Yan's gaze was fixed on the man standing at the door of the apartment. His face was sickly pale, and even his lips had lost bloody color. This showed that his illness was very serious.

He turned his head to ask Qin Shu, "Is he the patient you mentioned?"

Qin Shu nodded. "Yes, his face has always been very pale. He hasn't recovered even after seeing many doctors."

Gu Yan could tell what Qin Shu said. "Let's go over and have a look."

Qin Shu and Gu Yan walked up to Jun Li and introduced each other.

"He's the doctor with superb medical skills that I mentioned to you, Gu Yan," Qin Shu said to Jun Li.

"He's the director of the Imperial College, Jun Li," Qin Shu said.

Jun Li's purple eyes looked at Gu Yan and the corners of her mouth curled up into a smile. "I've long heard that Professor Gu's medical skills are superb. I've never had the chance to visit him. I'm very honored that Qin Shu introduces Professor Gu to me."

Gu Yan smiled. "Mr. Jun, you flatter me."

"It's cold outside. Come in and talk." Jun Li gestured for them to come in.

Gu Yan and Qin Shu walked in one after another.

Ji Fei followed behind Gu Yan with a medical kit in hand.

Jun Li's slender figure followed after him.

Su Ying had already prepared tea and snacks and placed them on the marble tea table.

The three of them sat down on the sofa one after another.

Jun Li said, "Professor Gu, please have some tea."

“Thank you.” Gu Yan was not in a hurry to drink tea. Instead, he said, “I’ll check your pulse first. You can also tell me the cause of your illness and the history of your illness first. This way, I can understand your illness better.”

“Many doctors say that the cause of my illness cannot be found. It could be poisoning, cancer, or viral infection. There are also Taoist priests who say that I’m tainted with something dirty, so I won’t live long.”

Jun Li spoke as if he was not talking about him. As if the person who would not live long was not him either.

Qin Shu’s heart skipped a beat when she heard this, but Jun Li did not seem to care. However, she did not want Jun Li to die.

Gu Yan frowned slightly when he heard this. “I’d better check his pulse first.”

Ji Fei, who was standing at the side, placed the medical box on the sofa. He opened the medical box and took out a diagnosis pad from it and handed it to his young master.

Gu Yan took the diagnosis pad and placed it on the marble coffee table, waiting for Jun Li to reach his hand over.

“Thank you, Professor Gu.” Jun Li sat up straight and unbuttoned the crystal button on his sleeve, then rolled it up, then stretched it over. He placed his wrist on the diagnosis pad.

His skin was fair, and his wrist was slightly thinner than other men. It might be due to his illness.

Jun Li placed two fingers on his wrist and started to check his pulse.

Gu Yan was very serious when he checked his pulse. Qin Shu and Jun Li did not say a word and waited quietly.

After five minutes, Gu Yan frowned as if he could not believe it. He checked again.

Chapter 578: Got it right. A man without a sense of security

Translator: Nyoï-Bo Studio Editor: Nyoï-Bo Studio

Gu Yan checked again, but his brows were still furrowed.

Qin Shu had an ominous feel when she saw his frown. She looked at Jun Li again. His face had been very pale, sickly pale.

She could only pray in her heart that he would be fine.

Jun Li’s purple eyes looked at Gu Yan. Seeing that his brows were slightly furrowed, she did not ask, but waited quietly.

Qin Shu waited for Gu Yan to withdraw his hand before she asked, “How is his illness?”

Gu Yan frowned. “His pulse is very chaotic. It seems like he has been poisoned for a long time, but it also seems like he has been sick for a long time. In short, his health is not very good.”

In fact, Jun Li's pulse was even more chaotic than what he had said. It was difficult to tell the cause and symptoms of the illness, and his symptoms were very similar to that of a type of poison.

Hence he was unable to diagnose and treat the illness accordingly.

Hearing this, Qin Shu could not help but frown. It was more serious than she had imagined. "Then can it be cured?"

Jun Li also withdrew his hand. Listening to Gu Yan's words, he slowly fastened the crystal button on his sleeve.

Gu Yan glanced at Jun Li. He saw that his face was pale but very peaceful, as if he already knew the condition of his body.

He gave one word, "Difficult."

Qin Shu asked, "That means that there's still a way, right?"

Gu Yan turned his head to look at Qin Shu and sighed, "I haven't diagnose him, and I don't know the cause of his illness. Let me think about it again."

Jun Li raised his head to look at Gu Yan across from him, "I know my own body very well. I've seen so many doctors, but I still haven't been able to find out anything. So sorry for the trouble, Professor Gu."

Gu Yan was a little ashamed. "It's my fault for not being good at medicine. I couldn't find the cause of your illness, but I can prescribe some medicine to ease your current symptoms of vomiting blood."

Jun Li picked up the teacup in front of him. Hearing this, he paused and said in a surprised voice, "Professor Gu's medical skills are very good. You can even that I'm vomiting blood."

Gu Yan smiled. "I should be still be able to see that you were having these symptoms as well. Namely, dizziness, drowsiness, and poor appetite."

Jun Li nodded. "Professor Gu is right. I have all these symptoms."

Gu Yan pondered for a moment and said, "I think you must have been poisoned by two kinds of poison, with the side effects of medicines, I can't confirm the diagnosis at the moment."

Jun Li looked at Gu Yan and said with some expectation in his voice, "Then does Professor Gu have a way to treat it?"

"Not at the moment. I can only give you a temporary relief. You should pay more attention to yourself. Using your martial art skills is equivalent to suicide," Gu Yan reminded.

When checking his pulse, Hu Yan could feel Jun Li's pulse was a little weak and his meridians were blocked. There was blood clots in his chest, and his breathing was unstable. This meant that there should blood clots in his lungs as well.

These were all the consequences of using his martial arts skills when the body did not allow it.

Qin Shu only knew that Jun Li was also a martial artist when she heard Gu Yan mention force. She wondered what his martial arts level was?

She had never known that Jun Li knew martial arts before.

“Thank you for your reminder, Professor Gu.” Jun Li put down the teacup in his hand and looked up at Gu Yan. “Professor Gu’s medical skills are much better than those I’ve seen before.”

Gu Yan said, “You flatter me.”

After saying that, Gu Yan took out a pen and paper from the medical box and began to write down the prescription.

As he wasn’t entirely sure of the cause of his illness, the medicine he prescribed was very mild. The main purpose was to alleviate Jun Li’s symptoms such as vomiting blood, poor appetite and dizziness.

After writing the prescription, he handed the prescription to Jun Li. “You can buy all these in pharmacies. You can try them for a week first. If the effect is significant, you can continue to take them to relieve the effects.”

“Thank you, Professor Gu.” After Jun Li thanked him, Juying, who was standing at the side, reached out to take the prescription. “Young master, I’ll go get the medicine.”

Jun Li replied, “Okay.”

Juying took the prescription and walked out.

Gu Yan did not stay long after the visit.

Before he left, Jun Li stood in front of Qin Shu. His clothes were still a little thin for the weather.

He looked down at Qin Shu with a smile in his eyes. “Thank you.”

This made Qin Shu feel a little ashamed because Gu Yan did not cure Jun Li immediately.

“You are too polite. You have to believe in Gu Yan, he will definitely cure you.”

Jun Li nodded with a smile in his eyes. “Yes, I believe him.”

“I’ll take my leave, take care of yourself.”

After saying that, Qin Shu turned around and left with Gu Yan.

Jun Li’s stood at the door of the apartment, watching Qin Shu with a gentle gaze as she left.

When she got into Gu Yan’s car, Qin Shu couldn’t help but ask, “Jun Li’s weak body is because of the poison, right?”

Gu Yan said, “The main cause of the illness should be the poison. The two poisons are extremely strong. If it’s dragged on for too long, it will be very difficult to treat. Moreover, the medicinal herbs needed are also extremely difficult to find.”

Hearing this, Qin Shu’s brows furrowed. She really didn’t want anything to happen to Jun Li.

Gu Yan glanced at Qin Shu and thought of the way Jun Li looked at her just now. He felt that it was a little too gentle and intimate than him.

“You have a good relationship with him.”

Qin Shu nodded. “Yes, he gives me the feeling of a big brother. He took great care of me after coming to the Capital University, like siblings.”

Gu Yan frowned. “Better than me?”

Qin Shu blinked her eyes and grinned at Gu Yan. “No. You’re better than him, just like my brother.”

Qin Shu’s flattery made Gu Yan feel very comfortable. “That’s more like it.”

Qin Shu explained with a smile, “Actually, I’m basking in his sister’s glory. For some reason, his sister left. It’s been seven years since he last saw her. He thinks that I’m quite similar to his sister, so he takes extra care of me.”

“So that’s the reason.” Gu Yan nodded thoughtfully. “It’s just that Fu Tingyu wouldn’t think so. He would definitely be jealous if he saw this.”

At the mention of Fu Tingyu, she recalled the strawberries that Jun Li had given her two days ago. No one could compare to that man’s ability to get jealous.

She smiled helplessly. In her heart, she felt that when the man becomes quite cute when he got jealous.

Qin Shu arrive at the entrance of the apartment. Before she got out of the car, Gu Yan asked, “You really love Yu, don’t you?”

Qin Shu’s hand that was holding onto the other handle paused. She turned around to look at Gu Yan and said very seriously, “Of course I really love him. If I don’t, I would have left him.”

Liking someone was not something that happened overnight. Perhaps in the beginning, she did not love him as deeply as he did, but she would try her best to love him.

Hearing Qin Shu’s answer, Gu Yan was relieved.

“He has never felt safe. He always felt that you might leave him. Sometimes he feels conflicted like this. After all, you did hate him in the past. He can’t really believe the sudden in you within such a short period of time.”

Qin Shu felt a pang of heartache at the mention of the man. “Thank you for telling me this. I know.”

Gu Yan smiled. “It’s a little hard on you to be so understanding.”

Qin Shu pushed open the car door and got out.. She walked straight to the intersection and saw the man’s car slowly approaching.

Chapter 579: A Man’s Skills Needs to Be Strengthened. Is He on Bad Terms with Little Munchkin?

Qin Shu stopped in her tracks and stood there waiting.

The pure black Bentley stopped in front of her. The man got out from the car. He wore the same black custom-made suit that hadn’t changed over the years.

Qin Shu jogged over and extended her arm to wrap around the man's arm. There was a smile on the corners of her eyes and brows. "Why are you here so early today?"

The man looked down at the girl's smiling face. It was brighter than the sun and would drive away the tiredness from a day's work.

"I'm going to Mianxia with my uncle the day after tomorrow. I'll be back in three to four days."

"Going to Mianxia?"

Qin Shu felt Mianxia sounded little familiar, as if she had heard it somewhere before.

"Let's go in." The man held the girl's hand tightly and walked into the apartment. He was leaving for a few days, and he wanted to spend more time with the girl.

Qin Shu followed the man into the apartment. She was still thinking about Mianxia.

At night, Qin Shu finished showering and walked out of the bathroom with wet hair.

The man held a hair dryer in his hand and stood in front of the chair. He looked at the girl. She had just finished showering. Her cheeks were red, and there was still water dripping from the ends of her hair.

"Come here, let me dry your hair." His voice was deep and magnetic.

Qin Shu wiped the water droplets on her hair with a towel. When she heard the man call her, she walked over and sat down on the chair in front of the man and placed the towel on the back of her neck.

She lifted a strand of wet hair, "My hair is too long. I want to cut it shorter."

The man plugged in the power. Hearing this, he looked at the girl's hair and found that it was already at her waist.

"I'll help you."

"Okay, I'll wait to see my husband's skills." Qin Shu was looking forward to the man's skills, but she just hoped that he wouldn't cut it too badly.

The man glanced at the girl and saw the look of anticipation on his face. "Wait and see."

He put down the hair dryer in his hand. He pulled open the drawer at the side, and took out a pair of scissors. Then, he walked into the bathroom and took out a comb.

He took out a bedsheet from the closet and shook it open and wrapped it around the girl so that stray hairs don't get all over her while trimming.

Qin Shu looked down and thought that the preparation seemed legit.

The man smoothed the girl's hair with a comb, then picked up the scissors and began trimming.

Even if he had trimmed hair before, he sure have seen people do it.

The man had learned the basic hand gestures quite well.

After cutting off five centimeters, the man felt that it was uneven. He took the scissors and cut it again. It felt even more uneven.

There was no mirror in front of Qin Shu, so she couldn't see the back. She didn't know how the man was doing.

"Honey, how's everything?"

"Just little longer."

The man stared at the girl's hair and took the scissors to cut a little more. This time, it was a little more even, but he felt that something was strange.

Qin Shu saw that the man was very focused in trimming, so she didn't care to ask. She could only wait for the final result.

The man looked at it for a long time. He tightened his grip on the scissors in his hand and cut again.

This time, it looked even more even.

Only then did the man pick up the hair dryer and start to dry the wet hair.

Qin Shu, who had almost fallen asleep, heard the sound of the hairdryer and knew that it was done. She perked up again.

It was finally done and she could see the finished product.

The man held the hairdryer and blew. His wet hair was nearly dried before he turned off the hairdryer.

Then, he took off the sheets from the girl's body and looked at the girl's waist-length hair. It was ten centimeters shorter, but it was still long.

"All done."

"I'll go look in the mirror."

Qin Shu jumped down from the chair impatiently and ran all the way into the bathroom. She stood in front of the bathroom mirror and looked at herself in the mirror.

Her hair was shorter, almost ten centimeters shorter.

The end of her hair was a little curly naturally. After being neatly cut, it was a little too straight, hence it felt odd when the man looked at it just now.

Her husband's skills still needed to be honed.

The man also walked in and stood behind the girl. He looked into the mirror and looked at the girl's new hairstyle. The corner of his mouth rose. "This looks pretty good."

Pretty good?

The corner of Qin Shu's mouth twitched. The man's sense of beauty was indeed different from those of ordinary people.

The man stretched out his arms and hugged the girl. His chin pressed against the girl's hair. She had just washed her hair, all he could smell was that of the her shampoo. "Babe."

Qin Shu turned around and stretched out her arms to wrap them around the man's neck. She stood on tiptoe and planted a kiss on the man's lips. "Honey, I love you."

The man's heart skipped a beat. No matter how strong he was, when he hear these three words, his heart will go soft.

"Babe, you can say it a few more times. I like it very much."

Qin Shu hugged the man's neck and whispered into his ear, "If you like it, I can say it every day."

The man suddenly tightened his arms. "Babe, I'm looking forward to the arrival of our baby. No matter if it's a boy or a girl, I'll like it very much."

Qin Shu said, "It will happen very soon. I'm also looking forward to the arrival of our baby. I hope that the baby looks like you. Strikingly good looks and etremely intelligent."

The man looked down at the person in his arms and looked at her exquisite facial features. His fingers caressed the girl's face. "I hope the baby looks like you. No matter who the baby resemble, I'll like it."

Qin Shu unconsciously caressed her lower abdomen. The corners of her mouth curled into a beautiful arc. "Then let nature take its course. I would love to know the gender of our first born, and whose genes it inherits."

"Okay." The man's hand also caressed the girl's lower abdomen. It happened to be on the girl's hand. He was full of anticipation.

"It's getting late. Let's go to bed." The man carried her. Qin Shu instinctively hugged the man's neck. He walked straight to bed and laid the girl flat.

Qin Shu's hand was still around the man's neck. She snuggled into the man's arms and said coquettishly, "Honey Yu, can you tell me about your martial arts training on the mountain?"

The man's eyes paused. He stared at the girl for a long time before he said, "What does Babe want to hear?"

Qin Shu thought for a while and said, "Your father and the others should be very strong. Why do they want to send you to the mountain and learn martial arts so far from home? What did you encounter when you went up the mountains?"

"I originally learned from Uncle Ye, but because father was jealous, I didn't manage to go. It was father's good friend who recommended me to go to Qishan."

Fu Tingyu recalled that his father refused to send him to Uncle Ye's place and directly sent him to Qishan without his mother's knowledge. He was also unhappy.

Therefore, when he met a little girl who was five years younger than him, he naturally wasn't willing to call her senior sister.

In addition, he was already in a bad mood, so he was even more unwilling.

Qin Shu raised her head and looked at the man. She asked hesitantly, "Then, have you and Little Munchkin always been at odds?"

Qin Shu regretted immediately after asking the question.

She felt conflicted. She believed the man's feelings for her, but she was also curious about the relationship between him and the little munchkin.

Perhaps it was because she heard Han Xiao mention something about the man and the little munchkin, so she was even more curious.

The man's eyes became deep as he stared at the girl. She was suddenly so curious about what happened on the mountain, curious about what happened between him and the little munchkin. There was no need to guess, he already knew what Han Xiao said in front of her.

He began to work on the idea of taking her away from the Imperial City and back to Jiangcheng.

This idea had always been there. He did not act on the idea because he cared about the girl.

The man's silence made her feel a little uneasy. She lowered her eyes and snuggled into the man's embrace. Her hands were wrapped around the man's waist.

Why did she have to be curious about what happened to him on the mountain in the past?

It was all in the past, wasn't it?

Her arms tightened a little. She closed her eyes and said in a low voice, "Go to sleep."

After a long silence, the man's low voice came from above her head.

"What did he say to you?"

Qin Shu raised her head to look at the man. She could feel that he was angry. As expected, she shouldn't have brought up this matter.

She thought for a while and said, "He talked things between you and Little Munchkin. He said that there was a conflict between the two of you."

"He said that I fought with the Little Munchkin, didn't he? He said that he had a good relationship with the Little Munchkin, and my relationship with her was very bad, right? He really thinks too much of himself."

The man could not suppress his frustration. He tried his best to control his emotions, but he was still angry because of Han Xiao's words.

Qin Shu was stunned. The man was more angry than she had imagined, and he was also very worked up. She felt unease after hearing those words.

"You mean that your relationship with Little Munchkin is very good?" She asked carefully.

The man's pitch-black eyes stared at the girl.

"Babe, don't get too close to Han Xiao, and don't listen to what he says either, understand?"

After the man finished speaking, he lowered his head and kissed her fiercely.

It was as if he couldn't suppress his possessiveness.

He didn't want Han Xiao to destroy the relationship between them that was finally getting better.

In fact, Qin Shu still had many questions to ask, but the man didn't give her a chance to speak.

...

...

The next day

It was already eight in the morning when Qin Shu woke up. The space beside her was already empty.

She opened her eyes and looked at the ceiling above her head. She slept until eight.

Her waist still felt a little sore.

Her limbs were weak.

Thinking back to what the man said last night, he had been repulsive of the relationship she had between her as Han Xiao because Han Xiao treated her like Little Munchkin.

Even though he knew that she wasn't, the man still felt uneasy.

She didn't understand, and the man didn't explain anything.

She wrapped herself in the blanket and continued to sleep.

She did not plan to go out today anyway.

At night, the man still came to the student's apartment.

He wanted to spend more time with the girl because he was going to Mian Xia tomorrow. Even if it was just for one night, he couldn't waste it.

After taking a shower, Qin Shu nestled into the man's arms. She had slept for most of the day, so she didn't feel sleepy at all. She just closed her eyes and waited for the drowsiness to strike.

The man didn't feel sleepy either. After returning from Mianxia, he wouldn't be able to stay in the Capital City for many days. He had to return to Jiangcheng.

The matters of the branch office were almost settled. He couldn't stay in the capital forever.

He looked down at the person in his arms. He really wanted to pack her up and bring her back to Jiang City.

It was New Year's Day in a few days. After New Year's Day, there would be a winter vacation.

He could only resist the urge to pack her up and bring her home.

He turned off the bedside lamp and the room fell into darkness.

The man hugged his personal bolster. Her body temperature had always been what he liked, and also what he longed for.

What he could not forget for so many years was probably her warmth.

...

The next day, Qin Shu woke up very early. The man had just changed into his usual pure black suit.

After the man adjusted his suit, he looked down at the person on the bed. "My ride is at nine o'clock. I'll be back in about three days."

Qin Shu hugged the quilt tightly and rested her head on her arm. Looking at the man like this, she felt that he was really tall, handsome, and charming.

"I'll wait for you to come back and take me out for a big meal."

"Definitely." The man leaned over and placed his hands on the bed. He planted a kiss on the girl's forehead. "Wait for me."

After the man finished speaking, he stood up straight, turned around, and walked out, closing the door behind him.

After the man left, Qin Shu lay on the bed for a while.

Thinking that she still had to go to the student union to study at the neighbouring university, she immediately lifted the quilt and got out of bed.

It was just a sparring match between the two schools.

After Qin Shu finished washing up, she opened the closet and took out a beige coat with a black scarf.

Seeing the black mask hanging on it, she also took it out.

It was important to keep warm.

After she was dressed properly, Qin Shu went to the student union.

Qin Shu went to the student union and saw Yan Jing. Han Xiao went as well. She did not know that they would be there.

Qiao ran was next to them.

Yan Jing was standing beside Han Xiao. When she saw Qin Shu walking over, she whispered to Han Xiao beside her, "I invited Qin Shu to have dinner with me yesterday. When she heard that you were going, she refused. I tried persuading her but she just did not want to go."

Han Xiao agreed to go because he heard from Yan Jing that Qin Shu would come. However, he didn't see her at all.

When Han Xiao heard that, his eyes darkened a little. When he saw Qin Shu walking over, he wondered if she already hated him that much?

Yan Jing raised her head and looked at Han Xiao. She didn't know if he believed what she just said?

Qin Shu walked over and greeted them, "Senior, Han Xiao."

Qiao Ran saw Qin Shu and smiled, "Professor Jun will be here soon."

"OK." Qin Shu looked at Han Xiao, "I didn't expect you to go too."

Han Xiao looked down at the girl who used to like him, "You don't want me to go?"

Qin Shu smiled and shook her head, "Of course not, Senior didn't say who would be going, so I was a little surprised to see you. But if you go, Imperial University's looks will improve a lot."

Han Xiao looked at Qin Shu with doubt. He still had some doubts in his heart. Did she really hate him?

Yan Jing looked at the two in front of her. Han Xiao's gaze seemed to be fixed on Qin Shu. She pretended to be puzzled and asked, "Qin Shu, if you knew that Han Xiao was going, you wouldn't want to go, right?"

After Yan Jing said that, Han Xiao couldn't help but feel that if Qin Shu knew that he was going, she would refuse to go like the previous night.

Qin Shu glanced at Yan Jing. From her words, she knew that she was deliberately saying that. "What do you mean?"

Yan Jing seemed to be frightened and deliberately shrank behind Han Xiao. "I invited you to have dinner with everyone last night, but you refused, so I thought that you would also refuse to go to the the neighbouring university as well."
