Chapter 591: Trapped In The Elevator, The Man Was About To Go Crazy

The phone continued ringing, as if to remind them that someone was looking for them frantically.

Jun Li moved his body, which pulled his muscles and nerves, a dull pain hit him, causing him to frown.
“Hiss! ! !”

His body, which had just sat up straight, fell back onto the wall of the elevator and he almost fainted.

He remembered that Qin Shu was still unconscious in his arms, and her injuries were unknown.

He endured his pain and the feeling that he was about to faint, he pushed his hand on the ground and tried sit up again, he hugged the person in his arms a little tighter, in the darkness, his hand fumbled to reach into Qin Shu’s pocket and took out her phone.

The moment he took out her phone, he fell again, his body crashed onto the wall of the elevator, making a loud noise.

The phone that had just been cut off rang again.

Fu Tingyu held his phone tightly, as no one answered the phone, fear took over his heart, it was as if he was in an ice cellar.

He had never been so afraid.

When faced with death, he did not show any fear in his eyes.

But at this moment, the man’s dark eyes were filled with fear.

The veins on the man’s forehead bulged, his hand kept pressing on the elevator button, but there was no response.

The power supply in the entire building had been cut off due to the accident, the elevator had stopped operating.

The only way now was to use the safety passage.

Mu Nianzhi looked at the man who was almost going crazy in front of him, it was very dangerous in the building at the moment, anything could happen.

He followed closely behind and pressed on his shoulder. “Tingyu, calm down.”

Mu Nianzhi’s martial art strength was above platinum level, and Fu Tingyu was forced to stop when he pressed on his shoulder.

However, the man couldn’t bother, he just wanted to find Babe as soon as possible and see that she was safe, otherwise, he wouldn’t be able to calm down.

“Uncle, please let go.”

The man tried to break free from Mu Nianzhi’s grip, but he was held down even tighter.

“Tingyu, listen to me, it’s dangerous for you to go in rashly, we can get some professional search and rescue personnel to come in and look for her...”

Before Mu Nianzhi could finish his sentence, Fu Tingyu interrupted and stared at him with his bloodshot eyes, he said slowly, “Even if it’s hell, I would find her at the very first instance.”

Mu Nianzhi saw his bloodshot eyes and was stunned, he quickly comforted him, “Tingyu, wake up. I know you’re worried about her, but searching aimlessly like this will only waste time, we don’t know which floor she’s on right now...”

Fu Tingyu growled, “We can’t just sit around and wait for her to die, she hasn’t picked up her phone yet...”

The phone was suddenly connected, and a barely audible voice came through. “In the elevator...”

Before he could finish his sentence, he suddenly stopped, although he couldn’t hear what the other person said clearly, but he knew it wasn’t Babe’s voice.

The phone belonged to Babe, which meant that Babe was with him.

Babe couldn’t even pick up the call...

Seeing him like this, Mu Nianzhi could roughly guess that the call had been connected, he didn’t speak again and waited quietly.

Fu Tingyu hurriedly asked, “Hello, where is she?”

“In the elevator.” Jun Li used all his strength to spit out these three words.

“Where is she? Please say it louder.”

The voice was too soft, so Fu Tingyu couldn’t hear what the other person was saying at all.

After a while, Fu Tingyu, who was still waiting for the other person to answer, heard a busy tone, the other person hung up.

Mu Nianzhi asked hurriedly, “How’s it going?”

“He hung up.”

Fu Tingyu quickly called again, he could only be able to look for Babe if he could confirm her exact location.

Su Ying was also anxious, he had been following them all this time, he knew his young master too well, he must be with Qin Shu, if he followed them, he would be able to find his young master.

The phone was hung up again. Fu Tingyu stared at the phone for a while, what did he mean by not picking up the phone?

In the elevator, Jun Li narrowed his eyes, one side of his eye socket was full of blood, he could not see the phone screen at all.

In the elevator, the phone’s signal was not very good either.

He was familiar with the phone's keyboard, so he typed out the words based on his feeling, his vision was a little blurry, he did not care whether it was right or not and just sent it out, however, this also consumed all his energy.

After sending the message, his palm was out of strength, and the phone fell from his palm.

Jun Li was already at his limit for being able to hold on until now.

He hoped that they would be discovered soon and that he would send Qin Shu to the hospital, this was his last thought before he fainted.

Fu Tingyu was about to dial the number when he saw a message sent over.

[Babe: Elevator]

Babe was trapped in the elevator?

Fu Tingyu gripped his phone tightly and said to Mu Nianzhi, "Please call for help, they're trapped in the elevator."

"Be careful, don't be rash."

Mu Nianzhi was afraid that he would ignore everything as he was in a hurry, so he reminded him before he left and ran out in a hurry.

Fu Tingyu ignored what he said, he only knew that Babe was trapped in the elevator and her injuries were unknown, she was waiting for him to save her.

He returned to the elevator and looked at the tightly shut elevator, he reached out to the gap of the elevator door and tried to break it open.

He didn't know which floor the elevator was stuck on.

Su Ying ran over, he felt that his young master was probably trapped in the elevator with Qin Shu, seeing Fu Tingyu tried to break the elevator door, he walked to the other elevator and intended to break the elevator door open with his bare hands.

Fu Tingyu, who only had a weak martial art strength, found it very difficult to break open the elevator door with his bare hands.

If he was at his peak, he could easily open the elevator door.

However, he did not give up, he used all his strength to pull on both sides, as he used too much strength, his nails turned outwards, and his hands full of blood, bright red blood flowed from his fingertips, he could not bother.

The gap of the elevator door enlarged a little, so it was easier to break it.

He took a deep breath and continued to use all his strength to open the elevator door.

Su Ying's martial art strength was above the Gold level, he spent some time to open the elevator door, he stuck his head in to take a look and saw that the elevator was on the highest floor.

He came to Fu Tingyu's side and helped him open the elevator door.

With Su Ying's help, Fu Tingyu quickly pulled the elevator door open, he stuck his head in and saw that the elevator was on the lowest floor.

"That elevator is at the top," Su Ying said.

Fu Tingyu frowned, when he took the call just now, he felt that the other person didn't have the strength to speak, which meant that the elevator had an accident.

At the top, it meant that the elevator was only stuck on that floor.

Before he could finish thinking, he hurriedly walked to the safety passage and ran to the basement.

The lowest floor was at the basement carpark.

Su Ying ran over, at this moment, the light above their head shook a few times and suddenly fell, Fu Tingyu, who had just passed under, could not dodge in time and was hit right on the head, blood immediately flowed out.

He staggered two steps and felt dizzy, the blood on his head flowed down his forehead, across his eyes and brows, and dripped onto the ground.

He raised his hand and randomly wiped the blood above his eyes, with his eyes wide open, he continued to run toward the basement carpark.

Su Ying followed him and saw that Fu Tingyu was hit by the light, his body swayed, he was about to go forward to help him when he saw that Fu Tingyu continued to run as if nothing had happened.

Chapter 592: He Didn't Have Much Time Left

It was obvious that Fu Tingyu cared a lot about his wife and was deeply in love with her, otherwise, he wouldn't have gone to look for her without considering the danger.

Even though he was injured, he still ran as fast as he could.

This also made Su Ying to have a different opinion of the man in front of him.

However, what he didn't understand was why his young master acted the same way?

Su Ying didn't have time to think about it and quickly chased after him.

The basement carpark was at basement two, after the power was cut off, the lights below were all turned off, it was pitch-black.

Fu Tingyu came to the elevator door in the dark, just as before, he planned to open the elevator door with his bare hands.

Su Ying also came over to help, with his help, it didn't take long before the elevator door was opened.

After the elevator door opened, it was pitch-black inside.

Su Ying took out his phone and turned on the torch light, with a ray of light, he could roughly see the situation inside.

In the elevator, Jun Li and Qin Shu were both unconscious, their foreheads were covered in blood, and the blood was still flowing.

Fu Tingyu saw the person in Jun Li's arms, blood was flowing, and he didn't bother to be jealous, he squatted down and pulled the girl into his arms, even he himself didn't realize that his hands were still trembling.

The moment he held her in his arms, his heart started to tremble as well.

"Babe, don't be afraid. I'll send you to the hospital right away."

With that, he carried the girl and went back the way he came.

Su Ying saw that his young master had fallen into a coma, he couldn't bother about anything else, bent down to carry his master in his arms.

Jun Li was on the lighter side, so it was not difficult for him to carry him.

Fu Tingyu ran out with the unconscious girl in his arms.

Mu Nianzhi came in and saw Fu Tingyu running out with the girl in his arms, he quickly said, "There's ambulance outside, let's carry her to the car first."

With that, he led the way.

Fu Tingyu followed him with the girl in his arms.

Su Ying followed as well.

After they got into the ambulance, Fu Tingyu used his uncle's phone to call Gu Yan's number.

He trusted Gu Yan's medical skills.

After the call was connected, he said, "Yan, please come to the People's Hospital in the city, she's injured."

Hearing Fu Tingyu's trembling voice, Gu Yan knew that the situation was bad, otherwise, he would not have been so afraid that he could not even control his voice.

"I'll be there right away."

After hanging up, he asked Ji Fei to send him to the People's Hospital in the city.

Fu Tingyu threw the phone to Mu Nianzhi and went to see the girl, her eyes were tightly shut, and her face was very pale, the blood at the corner of her forehead had already been stopped by the nurse.

Seeing her like this made his heart ache and he blamed himself.

He had not protected her well, she got hurt, and she got hurt more than once.

It was all because of his negligence that she had been hurt.

He would rather bear all the pain for her than let her get hurt even a little bit.

Mu Nianzhi, who was sitting by the side, saw Fu Tingyu's pained, regretful, and self-reproachful expression.

He suddenly thought of his brother-in-law.

His sister had been injured unexpectedly previously, and his brother-in-law had the same expression on his face, he wished that the person lying there was himself and not the person in his heart.

He then looked at the girl on the stretcher, she didn't look old, at most seventeen or eighteen years old.

Her exquisite features were flawless, like a masterpiece of the Creator's special attention.

Her beauty was no less than his sister's when she was young.

He thought of the caption on the screen. If it weren't for that caption, he and Fu Tingyu wouldn't have come down from the thirteenth floor in time.

Could it be that she knew that they were in danger, so she had that line of threatening caption?

He had thought that Tingyu's woman was just throwing a tantrum, but now it seemed that she wasn't.

Su Ying carried Jun Li to the ambulance next to them and followed closely behind the ambulance in front.

Forty minutes later, in the emergency room of the People's Hospital

Gu Yan ran all the way here, when he saw Fu Tingyu, who was standing at the door and pacing non-stop, he hurriedly asked, "How is she?"

Fu Tingyu turned and saw that Gu Yan had arrived, his anxious and frightened heart calmed down slightly.

"I don't know yet, they just sent her in."

When Fu Tingyu turned, he saw the injury on his forehead, he frowned. "You're injured too. Why Don't you take care of it?"

"Don't worry about me, let's go in and take a look together."

He had waited outside to wait for Gu Yan, if he didn't go in, he would be frantic outside.

Gu Yan looked at the man who was in a hurry to go in, he advised, "Yu, listen to me, you go and take care of the wound first, I'll go in and take a look, don't worry, with me around, she'll definitely be fine."

Fu Tingyu still wanted to say something, but Gu Yan knew that he could not be calm whenever he encountered anything related to Qin Shu.

He continued, "Trust me, treat your wound first, you don't want her to see you like this when she wakes up, do you?"

Fu Tingyu took a deep breath and tried hard to remain calm, when he looked at Gu Yan again, he was a little better than his panic state as he was in before.

“I believe in you.”

“I won’t let you down.”

Gu Yan quickly walked in after he finished speaking, he disinfected himself and put on the anti-bacterial gown before entering the emergency room.

He had made a phone call before coming over.

As a medical genius and a professor in the medical school, he had inherited his father’s powerful genes.

Many hospitals had tried to invite him to give lectures and clinical lectures, but it was very difficult to arrange.

So this time, when he took the initiative to volunteer, the director was naturally more than happy.

Fu Tingyu regained his composure and went to treat the injury on his forehead, he did not want the girl to see him in such a sorry state the moment she opened her eyes.

Su Ying had been guarding the emergency room as well, at this moment, he did not ask for anything except for his young master to recover quickly.

Fu Tingyu came back, with a pure white gauze bandage on his forehead, he stared at the tightly shut resuscitation room as if he could see a hole through.

After two hours of emergency operation, the lights of the operating theater went out.

Gu Yan was the first to come out, he was wearing the anti-bacterial gown.

Fu Tingyu was the first to greet him. “How is she?”

Gu Yan said, “Her life is not in danger, she just suffered a blow to her forehead and is temporarily unconscious.”

Fu Tingyu let out a sigh of relief after hearing what Gu Yan said. “How long will it take for her to wake up?”

Gu Yan replied, “If nothing unexpected happens, about an hour later.”

Su Ying immediately came up to him and asked, “What about my young master? How is He?”

Gu Yan looked at Su Ying. “Your young master is in a more serious condition, his body was already weak to begin with, and now that he has used his martial art strength, it has caused a lot of damage to his body, his life was not in danger for the time being, but...”

Su Ying hurriedly asked, “But what?”

Gu Yan said helplessly, “Just get ready, he doesn’t have much time left.”

Thinking that he was Qin Shu’s friend, he added, “I’ll try my best to save him.”

Su Ying was stunned on the spot.

At this moment, Qin Shu and Jun Li were pushed out one after another and sent to the VIP Ward.

Fu Tingyu entered the ward with Qin Shu.

Su Ying saw his young master coming out, only then did he come back to his senses, he followed his young master to the ward.

Jun Li's ward and Qin Shu's ward were next to each other.

The facilities in the VIP ward were much better than the ordinary ward, there was a separate lounge and an independent balcony.

Fu Tingyu stood guard in front of the bed, his pitch-black eyes staring at the person on the bed, hoping that she would wake up soon.

Chapter 593: Han Xiao Was Injured, She Restored her Martial Art Strength?

The person on the bed had her eyes tightly shut, her face was a little pale, and there were several layers of gauze wrapped around her forehead.

Her delicate eyebrows were slightly furrowed, it was what she did when she felt uneasy or uncomfortable.

The Man's heart ached as he extended his slender fingers and caressed her eyebrows, he noticed that several of his fingernails had already split, although the bleeding had already stopped.

A pair of piano-playing hands, knuckles that were flawless to the point of perfection, they were even better looking than the hand models with billion dollars' worth of insurance coverage, had now riddled with scars.

When the nurse wanted to bandage him, he refused.

His slender fingers caressed her brow and smoothed out the creases between her brows.

The girl looked as if she had fallen asleep, her face was peaceful.

It was just that he had worries and fears surrounding his heart when he did not see her wake up, which made him impossible to calm down.

Next door

Su Ying looked at his young Master on the bed, his face was as pale as paper, a sickly pallor that he had never seen before, his eyes, which were filled with mystery and warmth, were now tightly shut, with no signs of waking up.

At this moment, he did not know if he should inform his family or his mother that the young Master was in the hospital.

It was just that his Young Master hadn't woken up yet, so he couldn't make decisions on his own.

If it weren't for Qin Shu, his Young Master wouldn't have been injured again.

Was Qin Shu that important to the Young Master?

At the same time, there were several ambulances stopped at the entrance of the hospital.

In one of the ambulances, there lied Han Xiao, he was being pushed into the resuscitation room by the nurses.

Gu Yan was about to go and see Qin Shu when he saw a group of nurses pushing the bed towards the resuscitation room, he saw that the person on the bed was someone he knew, Han Xiao.

He had heard from the nurses that Qin Shu and Jun Li were injured in the accident at the Elvis Business Building.

He had also heard that Han Xiao had gone in with them, this was what Su Ying had said.

Su Ying had also come to him just now, asking him to save his young master.

His answer was to do everything he could to save Jun Li.

It was because Jun Li was injured when protecting Qin Shu.

Then Han Xiao must have been injured in this accident as well.

If he was not wrong, Han Xiao's leg had lost a lot of blood, and his injury must have been very serious.

He remembered that the first time he met Han Xiao was on the mountain.

At that time, he was seriously injured, yet he still refused to let go of Qin Shu, this also meant that he valued Qin Shu very much as a friend.

Gu Yan's first impression of him was not bad.

He stopped, turned and walked to the resuscitation room again.

He put on the anti-bacterial gown that he had just taken off and prepared to perform emergency surgery with the doctor on duty.

The doctor had prepared for the worst, the most important thing was to save the patient's life, he would try his best to save his legs as much as possible.

When Gu Yan entered, the chief surgeon saw him and a flash of light flashed in his eyes. "Professor Gu, the patient's chest has a very high amount of blood, two of his ribs are broken, and his leg was also seriously injured, we might not be able to save it."

"Try to hold on." Gu Yan walked over and looked at Han Xiao on the operating table, he then looked at the indicators on the instrument next to him, the situation was a bit pessimistic.

He could not help but frown.

The operation lasted for four hours, after the operating theater lights turned off, Gu Yan came out of the resuscitation room, he had just taken off the anti-bacterial gown when he heard someone call for him.

"Mr Gu, please take a look at our Young Madam quickly."

Shi Yan only found out about such a big accident after he had finished his tasks.

The Young Madam had been in a coma all this while, Mr Fu was about to go crazy from anxiety.

He searched for a long time before he found out that Mr Gu was in the resuscitation room.

“What happened to Qin Shu?” Gu Yan hurriedly took off his protective clothing, his protective hood, and put on his own clothes.

“Young Madam has been in a coma all this while, Mr Fu is about to go crazy from anxiety.” Shi Yan was also about to go crazy.

“Still not awake?” Gu Yan frowned, he had been in the operating room for four hours, logically speaking, she should have woken up after such a long time, why would she still not wake up?

“I’ll go and take a look.” Gu Yan changed his clothes and quickly rush to the VIP ward.

Shi Yan followed and ran.

In the VIP ward

Fu Tingyu saw that the person on the hospital bed had no signs of waking up, his eyes were already red with anxiety.

Gu Yan had said that she would wake up in an hour if nothing went wrong. It had already been more than four hours, the sky was already dark, but his Babe still had not woken up.

Before he found Gu Yan, he asked the doctor to look at her, the diagnostic was that she was still in a coma and he did not know when she would wake up.

“What’s wrong with her?”

As the anxious voice sounded, Gu Yan’s figure stepped into the ward.

Fu Tingyu turned and saw Gu Yan, he grabbed his arm and pulled him to the bed, his voice was anxious and trembling. “Why isn’t she awake yet?”

In a moment of desperation, Fu Tingyu’s hand was very strong, Gu Yan staggered a few steps due to his sudden movement.

After he steadied himself, he said, “Let me take a look.”

He bent down, took out her wrist from under the blanket, and began to check her pulse.

While Gu Yan was checking her pulse, Fu Tingyu did not dare to disturb him, standing by the side and waiting quietly.

After a while, Gu Yan frowned as well.

Seeing Gu Yan’s frown, Fu Tingyu could not help but start to worry. “How is she? When will she wake up?”

Gu Yan withdrew his hand and said, “She is in a coma right now, nothing else is out of the ordinary, the only strange thing is that her martial art strength was in an explosive state.”

Martial art strength was in an explosive state?

That was the precursor to breaking through the current bottleneck.

Disbelief flashed across Fu Tingyu's eyes, Babe did not have any martial art strength before, not at all.

Babe had already restored her martial art strength in such a short time?

Breaking through the bottleneck, what level would she breakthrough?

Green, white, yellow, platinum, peak, or emperor, which is the highest level of martial art strength.

Fu Tingyu have no time to think about this at the moment, nor did he have time to think about how she would suddenly restore her martial art strength.

What he was most concerned about was, "Why hasn't she woken up?"

Gu Yan thought for a while and said, "It might be her brain is in a selective coma."

Fu Tingyu asked, "Selective coma? What does that mean?"

Gu Yan said, "In layman's terms, it means that her brain is tired and needs to rest."

Fu Tingyu asked, "Then when will she wake up?"

"We'll see tomorrow." Gu Yan himself was not sure when she would wake up as her pulse was quite stable.

Tomorrow?

Fu Tingyu's heart was in his throat again, looking at the unconscious person in bed, he could not calm down.

Gu Yan suddenly thought of Han Xiao and turned to look at Fu Tingyu. "Han Xiao and Qin Shu seem to be on good terms, he was also injured in this accident, do you know?"

Han Xiao?

His senior brother was also involved in the accident, did he come with Babe?

Jun Li, Han Xiao came with Babe this time?

"What happened to him?"

Gu Yan said, "I came to see Qin Shu just now and saw him being pushed in on the way, he was Qin Shu's friend, so I went back to take a look, I was there when he was rescued, he was seriously injured and his leg was hurt, he is now in a coma."

Chapter 594: Suddenly Woke Up

Was it very serious?

Fu Tingyu frowned, even more, when he heard this, he would rather Han Xiao and Jun Li's injuries are borne by him alone than let them get injured because of his woman.

Especially Han Xiao, he wanted Babe to have nothing to do with him.

Now that Han Xiao was injured.

His brows furrowed into a knot.

“When will he wake up?”

Gu Yan said, “Tomorrow too, he was in the third VIP ward on the first floor.”

Fu Tingyu pursed his lips and looked at the person on the bed, he thought of the two men lying in the hospital, they were equally outstanding and the elite among their peers.

He had always known that his Babe was unusually attractive, others could not help but want to get close to her.

It also let him know that his Babe was too popular and that many men were coveting her.

After Gu Yan left, he sat in front of the hospital bed and waited, he wanted her to see him the moment she opened her eyes, not anyone else.

After Gu Yan came out of Qin Shu’s ward, he went to the next room.

Su Ying paced back and forth anxiously. “Why is Young Master still not awaken? What if Madam suddenly asks, how should I answer?”

Su Feng was also hospitalized due to his injuries.

Hearing the door opening, he turned and saw Gu Yan walking in, he hurriedly went up to him as he was the only one who could save his Young Master right now.

“Mr Gu, my Young Master is still not awake, would he be alright?”

Gu Yan glanced at Jun Li who was still unconscious on the bed, he retracted his gaze and looked at Su Ying. “What he needs the most now is rest, we’ll see later, I came here to ask what he was being poisoned with, only when I understood his situation, then would I be able to concoct an antidote.”

In Jun Li’s body, there was not only one kind of poison but two or three, he was unable to determine which kind of poison he was poisoned with.

Su Ying lowered his eyes in embarrassment. “Mr Gu, I don’t know either.”

“If you don’t know, this would be difficult to handle, his physical condition is very bad, I’ve said before that using his martial art force is equivalent to suicide...”

Gu Yan did not continue, as he knew Jun Li used his martial art strength to protect Qin Shu.

Looking at the pale Young Master on the hospital bed, Su Ying could not help but felt anxious. “Does Mr Gu have no other way to save my Young Master?”

Gu Yan was silent for a long time before he said, “It’s too difficult.”

Just these words had already defined Jun Li’s current physical condition as very bad, even if there was an antidote, it might not be able to save him.

Upon hearing this, Su Ying fell to his knees, this was the first time he had fallen to his knees to someone, as long as he could save his Young Master, he would do anything.

“Mr Gu, please think of a way to save my Young Master, he is only twenty-three years old...”

Su Ying had never cried before, but his voice was a little choked up at this moment.

Gu Yan was shocked, but then he sighed again. “Please get up, he is Qin Shu’s friend, even if you don’t mention it, I will do my best to save him.”

“Thank you, Mr Gu.” Su Ying got up from the floor and looked at his Young Master on the bed, his breathing was weak, and his face was pale without a trace of blood, his eyes reddened unconsciously.

Gu Yan also looked at the person on the bed, “It’s better not to use his martial art strength in the future.”

He already didn’t have much time to begin with, using martial art strength was equivalent to consuming his life, it was no different from suicide.

“I’ll keep an eye on the Young Master.” Su Ying could not guarantee that his Young Master would not use his martial art strength, especially when he encountered anything related to Qin Shu, Young Master would not bother about his own health.

“Let him rest first, he won’t wake up so soon for the time being.”

Gu Yan patted his shoulder and turned to walk out.

After the ward door was closed, Gu Yan stood at the door., it was already nine o’clock in the evening, it was so quiet that he could occasionally hear footsteps.

He looked at the ward across from him, Han Xiao lived across, when he thought of his leg, he let out an inaudible sigh.

Then, he turned and left.

In the middle of the night

Hua Wuyan rushed over from the station when he heard the news, he asked the nurse on duty and found out Han Xiao’s ward number, then, he ran straight over.

When he reached the door of the ward, he took a few deep breaths before reaching out to open the door.

It was very quiet in the ward, and his nose was filled with the strong smell of medicine.

He walked in, closed the door, and walked to the bed, he looked at Han Xiao, who was on the bed, his head was tied with gauze, and his face was very pale.

He looked further down, one of his legs was also tied with a pure white gauze.

This was the first time he had seen Han Xiao in such a sorry state.

He had only gone back for a few days, and this happened?

Hua Wuyan came over and started to take care of him.

The next day

The bright and beautiful sunlight shone in from the window, shortening the shadow on the floor.

Fu Tingyu did not sleep the whole night, waiting for the girl to wake up.

The sky was already bright, but the girl showed no signs of waking up.

The man's nerves were tense the whole time, looking at the slight wrinkles between the girl's brows, his slender fingers reached over and smoothed them one by one.

"Babe, you've been asleep for a long time, please wake up and look at me, okay?"

He had not slept the whole night, and his voice was a little hoarse and deep.

Gu Yan pushed the door open and walked in at this time, he saw Fu Tingyu sitting in front of the hospital bed, needless to say, he must have been awake the whole night.

Fu Tingyu turned when he heard the sound and realized that it was Gu Yan who had come in, he hurriedly asked him, "She's not awake yet."

"I came over to take a look."

Gu Yan frowned and walked to the bedside. Fu Tingyu stood up to make room for him, he sat on the seat where Fu Tingyu had just sat and then took Qin Shu's wrist out of the blanket, her wrist was slender and fair, and it felt like it could be broken with one hand.

Gu Yan started to check her pulses.

After a few seconds of silence, he said, "Her pulse is a little more stable than yesterday."

Fu Tingyu asked, "Then why isn't she awake yet?"

Gu Yan thought for a while and said, "I'm not sure about the details, let's wait a little longer, she's in good health now, you can treat her deep sleep as a rest."

"Professor Gu, can you go and see Han Xiao? He just woke up..."

Hua Wuyan rushed in and saw Fu Tingyu and also Qin Shu who was in bed, his words stuck in his throat.

He came too late last night, so he didn't have the chance to see Qin Shu.

Hua Wuyan stared at the person on the bed for a long time until he felt the cold gaze from the side, only then did he realize that he had been staring at her for a long time.

He retracted his gaze and looked at Fu Tingyu. "How is Qin Shu?"

Fu Tingyu replied, "She's still in a coma."

Gu Yan looked at Hua Wuyan when he heard that. "I'll go and take a look."

The three of them were not treated by Gu Yan initially, but as they were friends, he became Qin Shu's doctor, Jun Li and Han Xiao, were also treated by him.

To put it bluntly, it was because they saved Qin Shu that they benefited from Qin Shu.

“Sorry to trouble professor Gu.” Hua Wuyan planned to take care of brother Han first before coming over to see Qin Shu.

Fu Tingyu tucked the girl in, stood up straight, and looked at the two men who had already walked to the door. “I’ll go and have a look too.”

Chapter 595: He Was Crippled, How Could He Fight For Her?

Hua Wuyan stopped in his tracks and turned to look at Fu Tingyu, during this period, due to Qin Shu, he and brother Han had always been on bad terms.

Now, he suddenly wished to visit brother Han, what for?

Did he want brother Han to keep a distance from Qin Shu?

Fu Tingyu’s slender legs walked evenly towards Hua Wuyan, the two of them were almost the same height, and Hua Wuyan was about two centimeters shorter.

“He is my senior brother after all, shouldn’t I go and visit him?”

Fu Tingyu’s voice was the same as usual, deep and magnetic.

Hua Wuyan lifted the corner of his mouth and smiled. “Of course you should, after so many years, you have changed quite a lot.”

Fu Tingyu glanced at Hua Wuyan’s long flax-colored hair and smiled. “You too, you now have long hair.”

Thinking of Han Xiao just waking up, Hua Wuyan did not continue to argue with Fu Tingyu, but walked out first.

Fu Tingyu and Gu Yan walked over one after another.

Before leaving, Fu Tingyu closed the door.

Hua Wuyan pushed open the other ward door and walked in.

Fu Tingyu and Gu Yan followed.

Hua Wuyan bent down to look at Han Xiao and asked worriedly, “Brother Han, how do you feel?”

Han Xiao tilted his head slightly and saw Hua Wuyan and Fu Tingyu, however, he did not see Qin Shu, he asked, “Where is Qin Shu?”

After he said it, he realized that his voice was extremely hoarse, his throat was dry, and it hurt a little.

His voice was also very low, if one did not pay attention, one would not be able to hear him.

Hua Wuyan said, “I saw her just now, she is still resting.”

Han Xiao let out a sigh of relief when he heard that, he saw that Fu Tingyu had also come, other than the injury on his head, there were no other injuries.

This time, she should be relieved.

Gu Yan walked over and looked at Han Xiao, he had just woken up, so his expression naturally did not look any better.

“Do you feel any discomfort?”

Han Xiao moved, which involved several parts of his body, he frowned, “My chest is stuffy and painful, and my right leg seems not able to move.”

Gu Yan said, “You have two broken ribs, and your sternum is damaged, your right leg is broken, and your meridians are severed.”

Gu Yan didn't finish his sentence.

Anyone who learned martial arts would know how serious it was to hurt the meridians.

Hua Wuyan was stunned, he looked at Han Xiao's right leg in disbelief, if his meridians were hurt, he might never recover.

No one could remain calm when they knew that they would become disabled.

Han Xiao was no exception.

He supported himself on the bed with both hands and looked at his right leg, he thought that if his leg was smashed, it would break at most and he would recover, after taking some time to recuperate, but he did not expect that his meridians would be injured.

From now on, he might be crippled?

Then how could he fight for Qin Shu?

Hua Wuyan saw that Han Xiao was so agitated and hurriedly went forward to hold him down. “Brother Han, don't be agitated, you still have injuries, there would definitely be a way to cure your leg.”

The veins on Han Xiao's forehead bulged due to his agitation, and his originally pale face also flushed.

He stared fixedly at Hua Wuyan, gritted his teeth, and spat out a sentence, “I might become a cripple...”

He bit the last word extremely hard.

After saying this, he fell back onto the bed as if he had lost all his strength, his ink-black eyes had lost their usual charm.

Hua Wuyan felt bad when he saw Han Xiao like this, they were together since they were young and went to learn martial arts together, their relationship was so good that they were like blood brothers.

Gu Yan saw that Han Xiao was so agitated, it was within his expectations, he suddenly said, “Have you heard of the Lanzhi Grass?”

“Lanzhi Grass?” Hua Wuyan turned to look at Gu Yan when he heard that.

Gu Yan explained, “This herb, Lanzhi grass, has the effect of unblocking the meridians and connecting the paths, however, it is not available on the market, it could be said to be extinct.”

Hearing the first half of the sentence, Hua Wuyan's eyes flashed with hope, however, hearing the second half of the sentence, his eyes darkened again.

"Extinct, does that mean there is no such herb? Not even on the mountain?"

Gu Yan said, "I didn't say it was extinct, it was recorded in the herbal notes, I'm not sure if there is any on the mountain, I've been on the mountain for four or five days, but I didn't find this herb."

Fu Tingyu stood not far away, when he heard Gu Yan say that Han Xiao's meridians in his leg were hurt, he was also shocked, those who learned martial arts all understood what it meant.

Would Han Xiao be crippled due to this?

Fu Tingyu didn't know how long he stood in the room, he didn't even say a word to Han Xiao, they were love rivals, Han Xiao had always coveted his woman.

He also didn't know how he walked out of the ward and came back.

He did not know what had happened then either.

Han Xiao, Jun Li, and Babe had entered the business building together, why had Han Xiao separated from them?

He sat in front of the bed and looked at the girl who was still unconscious, his slender fingers reached out and caressed her slightly pale face. "Babe, why haven't you woken up yet? When you wake up, I can take you back."

He did not like hospitals.

When Shi Yan pushed the door open and walked in, he saw that Mr Fu's shoulders were slightly trembling.

Mr Fu had never liked hospitals since he was young, he rarely got sick or injured.

Even if he got sick or injured accidentally, it was treated by Gu Yan's father.

After Young Master Gu had gone to university to study medicine, he had always been treated by Young Master Gu.

Mr Fu had an uncle who doted on him very much, Uncle Leng. Before Mr Fu went up the mountain, it was Uncle Leng who taught him martial arts, he taught Mr Fu since he was young and treated him very well.

At that time, he had also learned martial arts together with Mr Fu.

The reason Mr Fu hated the hospital was that Uncle Leng was in the hospital, not able to be resuscitated, and passed away.

If it was not because Young Madam was in the hospital, Mr Fu would not have set foot in the hospital.

Shi Yan stood at the door and waited for a while, finally he walked in with a food container in his hand.

“Mr Fu, eat something first.” He walked to the table and placed the food containers on the table one by one, placing the chopsticks properly.

Fu Tingyu raised his eyes and looked at the food on the table, he didn't have any appetite.

“Dong Dong”

At this moment, there were a few knocks on the door, Shi Yan went to open the door and saw Su Ying at the door. “What's the matter?”

Su Ying said, “My Young Master is awake, he wants to see Miss Qin.”

Shi Yan turned to look at the bed, then, he retracted his gaze and looked at Su Ying. “My Young Madam is still not awake.”

When Shi Yan turned, Su Ying followed his line of sight and saw that Qin Shu didn't seem to have woken up yet.

He turned to look at Shi Yan. “Then I'll go back and tell my Young Master.”

“Okay.”

Shi Yan waited for Su Ying to leave before he closed the door, before he turned around, he heard his Master ask, “Jun Li is awake, right?”

Shi Yan replied, “Su Ying said he's awake.”

Fu Tingyu recalled the moment the elevator door opened and saw Jun Li holding the girl in his arms, it would be a lie to say that he wasn't angry or jealous, he would rather be the person who was injured and protecting the girl, and not any other man.

After a long silence, he said, “I'll go over to take a look, you keep an eye on her, inform me when she wakes up.”

Shi Yan lowered his eyebrows and nodded. “Got it, Mr Fu.”

Fu Tingyu stood up, opened the door, and walked out, he went straight to the ward next door.

Chapter 596: Outright Threats

In the ward next door

Fu Tingyu raised his hand and knocked on the door.

Not long after, the door opened from the inside.

When Su Ying saw that it was Fu Tingyu who was knocking on the door, he was a little surprised. “Mr Fu, are you looking for my Young Master?”

Fu Tingyu: “Yes.”

“Mr Fu, please come in.” Su Ying gestured for him to come in.

Fu Tingyu raised his eyes and looked inside, then he walked in and saw Jun Li sitting on the bed, his face was pale and without any color, there was a bandage on his forehead.

Jun Li saw Fu Tingyu, he heard Su Ying mentioned about his wound on his head before, he was hit by a falling light to save Qin Shu.

If it weren't for him and Qin Shu being trapped in the elevator, Fu Tingyu would be safe and sound.

"How is she now?" His voice was very soft.

Fu Tingyu's slender legs walked evenly and sat down on the chair in front of the bed, he looked up at Jun Li and spoke. "She's still unconscious. Gu Yan said she's fine."

Although he sounded relaxed, he was actually feeling uneasy.

Hearing him say it himself, Jun Li finally heaved a sigh of relief. "It's good that she's fine."

Seeing the corner of Jun Li's mouth lifted imperceptibly, Fu Tingyu frowned. "Why are you protecting her so desperately?"

"What do you think?"

Jun Li's voice was very soft as if a gust of wind could blow it away.

Fu Tingyu's pitch-black eyes turned colder. "She's my wife."

What he meant was that her husband was him, and no one was allowed to covet her.

Jun Li smiled, his smile was very light. "Yes, I know. I have my own reasons for protecting her, it has nothing to do with you."

When did his wife need someone to protect her?

Fu Tingyu asked, "Do you like her?"

"There are many kinds of likes, and there are also many kinds of love." Jun Li looked at him. "Whether I like her or love her, no matter which one it is, it has nothing to do with you."

Fu Tingyu's hands on his laps suddenly tightened, as if he was restraining himself, the Jun Li in front of him was very difficult to see through, he was different from Han Xiao, and it was very difficult to understand him.

"No matter what kind of feelings you have for her, stop it right now, she is my wife, and she will be my wife for the rest of my life."

Fu Tingyu's voice was cold and hard, and it carried an overbearing tone.

Jun Li lowered his eyes and chuckled. "You only emphasized that she is your wife, have you ever thought of standing in her shoes? "She needs freedom, respect, and friends, she is a very talented person, and she needs a big stage to perform on. "She is not in prison."

When Jun Li said this, his voice was still light, and his eyes were like warm jade.

Fu Tingyu was stunned, he narrowed his eyes and looked at the seemingly gentle Jun Li in front of him. "It's a fact that she is my wife. I will give her whatever she needs, I don't need you, an outsider, to tell me what to do."

Jun Li laughed again, and then his smile disappeared, his gentle eyes suddenly turned cold. "If you dare to treat her badly, I will not let you go."

Fu Tingyu said, "You don't have to say that, I will always keep her in my heart."

Jun Li's imposing manner made his breathing a little unstable earlier, he took a few breaths and said, "You'd better keep your word."

Fu Tingyu glanced at Jun Li, pursed his lips, stood up, and turned to leave.

As soon as Fu Tingyu left, Jun Li started coughing. "Cough cough..."

Su Ying hurriedly took the silk handkerchief and handed it to him. "Young Master."

Jun Li took the silk handkerchief and covered his mouth, after a while, the pure white silk handkerchief was dyed red, which was a little shocking.

Su Ying's body trembled when he saw it.

He seemed to be used to it, when his cough subsided a little, he asked, "How's Han Xiao?"

"He's awake too, I heard that he might be crippled," Su Ying said truthfully.

"Can Gu Yan cure him?" Jun Li handed the blood-stained silk handkerchief to Su Ying and took out a wet towel to wipe the blood at the corner of his mouth.

"I heard that there's a missing portion of medicinal herbs, and it's extinct," Su Ying said.

Jun Li stopped wiping. "What medicinal herbs?"

"Lanzhi Grass," Su Ying said.

Lanzhi grass?

Jun Li continued to wipe the blood at the corner of his mouth.

"Young Master, you've been in the hospital for two days, do you want to call Madam and tell her?" Su Ying asked in a low voice.

Jun Li: "No need, she'll only worry for nothing if she knows."

He was already injured to this extent, and he still said that Madam was worried for nothing?

However, it was a matter decided by his Young Master, Su Ying could only obey and did not dare to object.

Gu Yan concocted some medicine and asked Su Ying to boil it for Jun Li to drink.

Chinese medicine was generally bitter, as good medicine was bitter to taste, the medicine that Jun Li drank every day was even more bitter.

No matter how gentle he looked, whenever he drank the medicine, his face would always be bitter.

Su Ying brought over a bowl of medicine that had just been boiled, the mouth of the bowl was steaming, and the medicine was pitch-black, one could tell by the smell that it was very bitter.

“Young Master, please drink the medicine while it’s hot.”

Jun Li took a look at the pitch-black medicine and said with a bitter face, “It’s too bitter.”

Recalling the way the Young Master drank the medicine yesterday, his entire face was scrunched up, it was enough to show how bitter the medicine was.

He asked carefully, “Then should I prepare some candies?”

Jun Li raised his eyebrows. “The candies you have, are they sweet?”

Only then did Su Ying remember that his Young Master could not taste sweetness, no matter who gave the candy, it was not sweet.

He remembered another thing, the Young Master seemed to have mentioned that there was a person who gave him candies that were sweet.

As for who that person was, he did not know.

“Then what do we do?”

“Then I won’t drink it?”

If you don’t drink it, it won’t feel bitter.

“Young Master, you must drink this medicine.” He felt that these medicines were more effective than the ones the Young Master had drunk in the past.

Jun Li frowned and hesitantly took the bowl in his hand, he held his breath, brought the bowl to his mouth, and drank it in one gulp. Just as he tasted the bitterness, his delicate and pretty brows furrowed, and his entire face immediately crumpled.

This medicine was really terrible to drink.

Su Ying immediately handed him a glass of water. “Young Master, please rinse your mouth.”

On the fourth day of Qin Shu’s coma, both Han Xiao and Jun Li had come to visit her.

Gu Yan said that she was only unconscious as if she was sleeping, her pulse was normal, yet she did not wake up.

Han Xiao had also recovered from his negative state of becoming a cripple, as some things could not be changed.

Even if he had to do it all over again, he would still choose to do it, perhaps it was because of Qin Shu, so everything was worth it, it was also an important reason for him to maintain his calmness.

Han Xiao was in a wheelchair and was pushed by Hua Wuyan.

Fu Tingyu stood by the side, during these four days, he had been watching over her non-stopped, hoping that when she woke up, the first person she saw would be him.

Hua Wuyan pushed the wheelchair to the side of the bed.

Han Xiao looked at Qin Shu, who was lying on the bed, as if she was asleep, her face was calm, very similar to how she used to while sleeping when she was young.

After looking at her for a long time, he suddenly said, "I want to talk to her alone for a while."

"No." Fu Tingyu rejected him very bluntly, Han Xiao was his love rival, how could he let him stay here alone with his wife?

Hua Wuyan was immediately unhappy when he heard that. "Han Xiao's injuries are so severe, he just wants to talk to her alone for a while, how could you reject him? Why are you so cold-blooded and heartless?"

Chapter 597: Liking With Motives, Knowing Little Munchkin's Mother?

Fu Tingyu sneered, "So what?"

"... You!" Hua Wuyan was flabbergasted, brother Han's leg was almost crippled, was it too much to ask to spend a quiet moment and speak alone? Was it too much?

Gu Yan walked over and pressed Fu Tingyu's shoulder, trying to persuade him, "Yu, let him talk for a while."

Fu Tingyu looked up at Gu Yan, he was a little surprised that Gu Yan would persuade him, he glanced at Han Xiao who was sitting in the wheelchair and was still a little hesitant.

In the end, he followed Gu Yan Out.

Hua Wuyan saw him walk out and glanced at Qin Shu who was on the bed, then, he too walked out and closed the door before he left.

After closing the door, Hua Wuyan looked at Fu Tingyu who was standing in front of him, after seven years, he had lost his innocence, the already very outstanding person, had become even more outstanding and steady.

However, when he thought of what he had done, Hua Wuyan could no longer hold it in. He questioned, "Fu Tingyu, she doesn't love you, do you think it's meaningful to trap her by your side?"

Although he said that he was questioning him, he was actually defending Han Xiao against injustice.

Fu Tingyu's tall and slender figure stood upright, when he heard Hua Wuyan's question, his body could not help but stiffen.

However, he quickly returned to normal.

"She is mine, Fu Tingyu's wife, naturally, she loves me too."

Hua Wuyan sneered. "Stop pretending, we have already investigated, it was you who risked everything to trap her by your side, you are a selfish and petty person."

Fu Tingyu looked at Hua Wuyan coldly, he did not refute and did not nod his head to admit it.

As none of these were important, he had never felt that he was a magnanimous person.

When Hua Wuyan saw that he did not speak, he took it as an admission, he asked again, "Do you dare to let her go?"

Fu Tingyu's gaze was gloomy, he tried his best to suppress the anger that was about to erupt. "Why should I let her go? She is my wife, it is only proper for husband and wife to be together."

Fu Tingyu's words were so powerful that even Hua Wuyan was stunned.

They were a legal couple, prime and proper.

But...

Hua Wuyan raised his eyes to look at him and said word by word, "Little Munchkin liked brother Han, and you are the one who snatched his love."

Gu Yan had listened for a while, and he could only grasp the general meaning, Han Xiao liked Qin Shu, and Qin Shu liked Han Xiao in the past?

Who was that Little Munchkin?

Seeing that Fu Tingyu had already endured it to the limit, he was afraid that the two people in front of him would fight, so he took the role as a doctor and said, "Stop arguing, this is the ward."

Hua Wuyan's heart was filled with anger, but he considered Gu Yan's words and did not speak again.

Fu Tingyu's eyes were gloomy.

Gu Yan had no choice but to pull him to the window by the side.

Right now in the ward, there's only the unconscious Qin Shu, and Han Xiao, who was sitting in the wheelchair, it was very quiet.

Han Xiao pushed the wheelchair to the side of the bed, wanting to be closer to her.

They had been separated for seven years, no one knew how he had managed to survive these seven years.

He pursed his lips tightly and did not say a word, he looked at the girl in deep sleep, her sleeping face was extremely beautiful.

It made others very reluctant to move their eyes away.

After a long silence, he said, "I have always remembered my promise that I would find you, now that I have found you, but you didn't remember me and forgot what you said to me."

"Fu Tingyu was right, I was not by your side when you needed me the most, I said that I would always protect you, but I didn't do it."

“But I didn’t give up, I never gave up fighting for you, I wanted you to remember me, when you turned around, I want to be at your back, but now...”

As he said this, he looked at his leg, he couldn’t feel anything at all.

He was now a cripple.

“Now I’m even less qualified.”

He really couldn’t bear to give up.

It was like having a piece of his heart gouged out, it was dripping with blood, and he was in so much pain that he wished he could die.

Han Xiao stayed in the ward for quite some time, so much as that Fu Tingyu started to feel disgruntled.

Just as he was about to knock on the door, the door opened, and Han Xiao came out on the wheelchair.

When he saw Fu Tingyu at the door with his face turned a little dark, he didn’t have to ask and he knew why.

Han Xiao was still a little upset. “Let’s talk.”

Fu Tingyu: “Okay.”

Han Xiao pushed the wheelchair to the end of the corridor.

Fu Tingyu followed without saying a word.

There was a window at the end of the corridor, as it was winter, and the cold wind was blowing outside, the window was tightly shut, and the whistling wind outside could still be heard.

Han Xiao was facing the window.

Fu Tingyu stood tall and straight, looking at Han Xiao’s back. “What do you want to say?”

“She’s the Little Munchkin.” Han Xiao used an affirmative tone.

This wasn’t the first time Han Xiao had said this, and it was the same affirmative tone.

Fu Tingyu stared at him, guessing the meaning behind his words.

“You don’t dare to admit it?” Han Xiao asked again.

Fu Tingyu said, “There’s no way to goad me.”

“Then why don’t you admit it?”

“So what if she’s the Little Munchkin?”

For a moment, both of them fell silent.

After some time, Han Xiao asked, “Do you really like her? Do you have no other motives?”

Fu Tingyu replied, “Of course I have motives.”

Han Xiao's eyes turned cold. "You..."

But before he could finish, Fu Tingyu said, "I like her, I want her to be with me for the rest of her life, I want to grow old together with her, I want to pamper her, these are all my motives for liking her."

Hearing this, Han Xiao's heart calmed down a little, "I hope you can keep your promise, if she suffers any grievances, I will do whatever it takes to snatch her away, I will make sure you never find her again."

Fu Tingyu furrowed his brows, the doubt in his eyes disappeared in a flash. "You don't have the chance."

Don't have the chance?

"That's good."

Han Xiao looked out of the window, snowflakes were drifting outside, the snowflakes were quite big and it reminded him of the time when he accompanied her to build a snowman on the Qi Mountain, she smiled very happily, he could clearly see her two small canine teeth, they looked very bright, even brighter than the snowflakes floating in the sky.

Fu Tingyu stood by the side without saying a word, he thought that he had nothing more to say, just as he was about to turn and leave, he heard him ask, "When did you meet the Little Munchkin?"

Fu Tingyu's turning motion paused. "Two years ago."

Two years ago?

That was two years earlier than him.

If he had found Little Munchkin earlier than Fu Tingyu, they definitely would not be like this now.

Perhaps, he and the Little Munchkin would have been engaged.

"At that time, her face should have been disfigured, how did you recognize her?"

Fu Tingyu looked at Han Xiao with a deep gaze, he felt that he was exceptionally calm today.

Since he had already admitted that Babe was the Little Munchkin, there was no need for him to hide any longer.

"Before I met her, I first ran into her mother, as long as I investigated, I would easily find her."

Han Xiao had heard Qin Shu mention her mother, he had never met her mother, and he did not know what her mother looked like.

Now, he heard Fu Tingyu mention it again, could it be that he knew her?

He suddenly turned his wheelchair and looked at him. "Little Munchkin's mother? How do you know her mother?"

Chapter 598: Master Who Was Out Of The Mortal World

Fu Tingyu said, "I don't know him. I've only seen her once on the Qi Mountain."

Han Xiao's voice was filled with doubt. "Isn't Qi Mountain out of bounds to family members?"

“Then I don’t really know.”

When he saw her hugging that beautiful woman and calling her mother back then, he was also very surprised.

This was because the Qi Mountain clearly stated that during the duration of martial arts training, trainees were not allowed to go home, and their family members were not allowed to visit, and they can’t reveal anything about the Qi Mountain.

It was precisely because of this that Qi Mountain became so mysterious.

However, Babe’s mother did go up the mountain, and at that time, their master was also there.

He accidentally bumped into her.

“So, when you met Little Munchkin, you couldn’t recognize her?”

This was something that Han Xiao had always been brooding over, when he first saw her after years, he did not recognize her.

Fu Tingyu said, “Before I met her mother, I had not bumped into her.”

But when he first saw her, he had already determined that she was the person he was looking for.

Han Xiao understood what he meant, he and she had crossed their paths too many times.

He pushed his wheelchair and left slowly.

Fu Tingyu stood straight on the spot, watching Han Xiao’s back as he left, he pursed his lips, even if Han Xiao’s leg was broken for Babe, that was not a reason for him to let go.

No matter what, he would not let go of Babe’s hand.

After returning to the ward, Fu Tingyu originally planned to talk to Babe for a while, however, there was another knock on the door, causing him to frown unhappily.

Fu Tingyu let go of the girl’s hand and stood up to open the door, he saw Jun Li standing at the door, he was wearing a striped hospital gown and his face was sickly pale, seems like a gust of wind could blow him over.

“What’s the matter?”

Jun Li’s voice was very soft. “I come to see her.”

Fu Tingyu frowned again and turned to let him in.

Jun Li walked in slowly and went straight to the bedside, he looked at the person on the bed who showed no signs of waking up, he was a little anxious. “It’s already the fourth day today, why hasn’t she woken up? Did Professor Gu say anything?”

“Yan said that she will wake up within the next two days.” Fu Tingyu looked at the person who was still unconscious on the bed, he was more anxious than Jun Li, but it was useless to get anxious as Babe just didn’t wake up.

Although Jun Li didn't trust Gu Yan's medical skills as much as Fu Tingyu did, he still believed in him.

It would be fine if she could wake up safely.

Jun Li didn't stay for long and left the ward, reason being that it was time for him to get back and take his medicine.

Looking at Qin Shu's peaceful sleeping face, he suddenly felt like eating candy, candy that tasted sweet.

He was especially looking forward to her waking up soon.

Lying on the hospital bed, Qin Shu felt her head aching, it was as if it would explode, she was in the dark and could not even see her own fingers.

After an unknown duration, it became brighter right in front, she saw a familiar figure walking towards her, as the figure approached, she could also see the person's face clearly.

The person looked bold but her gaze was very gentle, her exquisite facial features were breathtakingly beautiful.

This was the image that engraved deeply in her mind, it was her mother.

She ran over excitedly and hugged her mother. "Mommy, where have you been?"

Wen Xin hugged her precious daughter, she was already ten years old, but she was a little shorter than other children of the same age.

"Mommy went to look for a master for my Xiao Bao, women should be independent and self-reliant, so that they won't be bullied."

Qin Shu asked curiously, "What kind of master? Is he the same as Master Bai Li?"

Wen Xin thought for a while and asked, "Does Xiao Bao want to learn martial arts?"

Qin Shu nodded vigorously. "Yes."

"Then mommy will send you to learn martial arts, you will be away from home for a few years and won't be able to come home, it will be very hard to learn martial arts, you have to be mentally prepared."

Wen Xin did not want her precious daughter to leave home for a few years, but learning martial arts was a good thing and she would not be bullied, it could also be a form of exercise.

Upon hearing that she would be away from home for a few years and would not be able to come home, Qin Shu was a little hesitant. "If I can't see mommy, then I don't want to go, I want to be with mommy."

Wen Xin was very patient and tried to enlighten her. "Xiao Bao, listen to me, although learning martial arts is hard and you won't be able to come home, mommy will find time to visit you, you have to understand that it is a good thing to learn more skills, it will help you in future, there is no harm learning more, when you grow up, you will understand."

Qin Shu seemed to feel that Wen Xin had made up her mind to send her away, she put her arms around Wen Xin's neck and said in a choked voice, "But I don't want to be separated from mommy. I'll miss mommy."

Wen Xin's slender fingers caressed her daughter's back and said gently, "Xiao Bao, be good. You're already ten years old, you should learn to be independent and strong, when you get there, you'll meet many friends and can learn martial arts with them."

Qin Shu hugged Wen Xin and acted like a spoilt child. "I have not done learning my hacking skills yet?"

Wen Xin knew that she was looking for an excuse, but she didn't point it out. "Bai Li said that you've already mastered the skills, the rest is up to you to practice and to be more proficient."

Hearing this, Qin Shu pouted unhappily. "Then will father agree to let me go?"

Wen Xin's gaze paused, and then she said, "You don't have to tell him about this, Xiao Bao doesn't have to tell him where you go either, if he asked, just tell him that you're going out on a holiday."

Qin Shu nodded, not fully understanding. "Mom, I understand."

Qin Shu watched as her mother helped her pack her luggage and went to the station in the afternoon.

It was her first time going on a long trip, and she was only ten years old, she was a little nervous and a little excited, when she arrived at the place her mother had mentioned, Qin Shu realized that it was really beautiful, the place was filled with mists, and all kinds of flowers and trees were planted there.

It was not an exaggeration to say that it was a paradise.

She also saw her master.

She thought that a great martial artist who lived high in the mountain and forest would definitely be like a wise old mage, he would have white hair and white beard, looked like an old man who was out of the mortal world.

This was a scene that she had imagined from watching too many television dramas.

However, when she saw her master, he looked wise, out of the mortal world, but he was too young, and he did not even look like he was thirty years old.

She was only ten years old, the adjectives that she learned could not describe the appearance and the air of the man in front of her.

After her mother left, she followed behind her master, wherever her master went, she followed, when she first arrived on the mountain, she was especially obedient.

As she only knew him for the time being, and she wanted to get familiar with him.

She heard that acquaintances were easier to talk to, if one made a mistake, the punishment would not be too severe, the main reason was that she had read the rules of the Celestial Sect and they were very strict.

Later on, more people came to the mountain.

Fu Tingyu stayed by her bed for the fifth day, after staying up all night, he fell asleep unconsciously.

When he woke up, the first thing he did was to look at Babe, he was stunned when he saw a tear drops as clear as crystals at the corner of her eye.

After a while, he finally realized.

The girl cried in her sleep, did she dream of something sad?

His slender fingers caressed the corner of the girl's eyes and wiped away the tears, just as he wiped away the tears, more glistening tears dripped, as if she was extremely sadly.

The Man's heart suddenly panicked, he pulled the girl into his arms and his deep voice trembled. "Babe, what's wrong?"

Chapter 599: Gone Missing Suddenly

The man hugged the girl and noticed that she was still shedding tears, he became even more flustered. "Babe, wake up."

Qin Shu seemed to have fallen into a nightmare, "No... no..." her tears didn't stop either, she was grieved, and very sad.

Seeing the girl sad and grieved, the man's heart clenched, he hugged her tightly with one hand, and his slender fingers caressed the girl's tear-stained cheeks. "Babe, please wake up, I'm here, don't be afraid. I'll always be here."

"Babe, I'll always be by your side, please wake up soon, okay?"

The man coaxed her in a low voice for a long time, finally the girl's sleep talking gradually subsided, her tears stopped and she fell into a deep sleep once again.

When the person in his arms stopped crying and murmuring, the man slowly released the grip of his arms and lowered his eyes to look at the girl's even breathing.

He gently laid her on the bed to let her sleep more comfortably.

He held a silk handkerchief in his right hand and wiped the tears on the girl's cheeks gently. "Babe, what did you dream about that made you cry so sadly?"

No one answered his question, only Qin Shu, who was in her deep slumber knew what she dreamed about.

When Gu Yan came to check on her, Fu Tingyu roughly told him about the girl's sudden crying and murmuring.

"What was her situation right now?"

Gu Yan thought for a while and explained, "Maybe there's something in her heart that she couldn't face or couldn't accept, she's been suppressing it in the depths of her heart and suddenly dreamed about it, that caused her current situation."

He guessed this as he had studied psychology before, so he made this conclusion.

Fu Tingyu frowned and looked at the person on the bed, was there something in Babe's heart that she could not accept and could not face?

After a long pause, he suddenly asked, "She has been in a deep slumber, is this related to her memory loss?"

He did not mention to anyone that the girl had lost a portion of her memory, this was the first time he had mentioned it.

Gu Yan was a little surprised. "She lost her memory? Why haven't I heard you mention before?"

Fu Tingyu said, "She lost more than three years of her memory, she could not remember the time when she learned martial arts on the mountain."

"Is that the memory when you learned martial arts? So you two have known each other for a long time, right?"

Fu Tingyu nodded.

Gu Yan finally understood why Fu Tingyu was so interested in Qin Shu, the reason was that they had known each other from before.

So Qin Shu was the Little Munchkin that Hua Wuyan had spoken about?

"Then how did she lose her memory all of a sudden?"

Gu Yan thought of Hua Wuyan's words earlier, could it be that Fu Tingyu wanted to monopolize Qin Shu, and then...

He looked at him in disbelief. "Could it be that you erased her memory?"

"It wasn't me, when I found her, she already forgotten about me, so I just didn't bring up the past again."

This was probably out of his selfishness, as Qin Shu and Han Xiao's relationship was way too good in the past.

At first, he thought that she didn't remember him, which made him a little unhappy.

But later, he realized that she didn't just forget him, but everyone else, so he felt that he could get to know her all over again.

Gu Yan looked at Qin Shu and guessed, "So she probably dreamed about her lost memory just now."

Fu Tingyu was stunned, he suddenly had a bad feeling, was Babe going to regain her memory soon?

He turned to look at Gu Yan. "Is she going to regain her memory?"

Gu Yan said, "It's possible."

Fu Tingyu looked at the person on the bed and started to feel uneasy.

Soon after, Gu Yan gave Qin Shu a routine check-up and changed the gauze on her wound, the medication he used was of the highest quality, she should recover very quickly.

"Her injury is almost healed, and her body is recovering very quickly, we just need to wait for her to wake up now."

Gu Yan did not say when she would wake up.

As she could wake up at any moment.

Gu Yan's words did not comfort the man, perhaps it was because the girl had been sleeping for a long time, which made him lose his patience.

It was late in the evening

The lights in the ward had already lit up, emitting a faint yellow and gentle light.

Fu Tingyu stayed by the bed for another day, doing nothing, as nothing was more important than Babe.

Shi Yan took charge of all matters in the branch office.

The joint venture was handled and negotiated by his uncle.

He raised his head and looked out of the window, watched the sky turn dark again, which meant another day was about to end, and Babe still hadn't woken up.

He retracted his gaze, tucked the girl in, stood up and walked out, the door to the ward was gently closed.

On the hospital bed, Qin Shu's thick eyelashes fluttered a few times, she slowly opened her eyes and closed them again.

It had been too long since she had last seen the light, and she felt a bit uncomfortable for a moment.

After a while, her long eyelashes fluttered a few more times, and she opened her eyes again, she saw the pure white ceiling above her head., she was stunned.

The smell of disinfectant surrounded the tip of her nose, it smelt terrible.

This was the hospital.

She frowned. The memories before she fainted appeared in her mind suddenly, the elevator where she and Jun Li took had an accident, and then... she didn't know what happened after that.

She tilted her head to look at her bedside, she didn't see Fu Tingyu and she suddenly became afraid.

There was no one in the ward, it was so quiet that it made her scared.

Then she thought of Jun Li, Han Xiao, and the others.

What happened to the three of them?

She lifted her quilt immediately and got off the bed, put on her slippers and hurriedly opened the door of the ward and walked out.

She had slept for five days, so she was full of energy and strength.

The moment the door opened, the cold air rushed in, she couldn't help but shivered as she was only wearing a thin striped hospital gown.

The hospital gown was very loose, when she walked, it flapped left and right.

It was already nighttime, the corridor was very quiet, occasionally, she could hear footsteps and the sound of door opening.

Qin Shu looked at the empty corridor, it was strange and she was a little lost.

Where were they?

She walked all the way to the nurses' station on night shift and made enquiry.

Fu Tingyu, who had just stepped out, walked to the ward, when he saw that the door of the ward was open, his brows tightened, he pushed the door open and strode in, when he saw the empty hospital bed, he was shocked.

"Babe has gone missing?"

He ran out immediately, the first place he went to was Jun Li's ward next door.

The door was pushed open forcefully, before he could see what was happening inside, he asked, "Is she here with you?"

As soon as he finished speaking, he realized that there was no one else in the ward except Jun Li and Su Ying, his heart fluttered even more.

Looking at Fu Tingyu who had just barged in, Jun Li raised his head to look at him and asked nervously, "What happened to her?"

Fu Tingyu ignored him, when he knew that Babe was not around, he turned and ran out again.

Jun Li stopped eating his porridge, he handed the bowl to Su Ying, lifted his quilt, got off the bed, and walked out.

Su Ying could not stop him.

Fu Tingyu went to Han Xiao's ward, he pushed open the door and found that it was empty.

Could it be that Han Xiao had taken Babe away?

"How dare he!"

Fu Tingyu turned and ran out, his eyes were red with anger.

Chapter 600: Afraid That You Really Don't Want Me Anymore

Qin Shu was led back to the ward by the nurse, she asked where Fu Tingyu was, the nurse didn't know who she was referring to.

When she asked where Jun Li was, the nurse immediately replied that she knew which ward he was in.

It wasn't because Jun Li's name was easy to remember.

It was because his look was remembered by everyone, and he was also very gentle.

As for Fu Tingyu, the nurses only knew that there was a handsome man next door, but they didn't know his name.

As for Qin Shu, since Fu Tingyu took care of her, and Gu Yan treated her, so no one else had the chance to get close to her.

On her way back to the ward, Qin Shu saw a tall figure running out of another ward not far away, towards the elevator.

That familiar figure had already been carved into her mind, and she could not forget it.

“The ward in front is Jun Li’s ward.” The nurse pointed at the ward not far away.

Qin Shu could no longer hear what the nurse was saying right now, her gaze was on the figure not far away, he was wearing a white shirt and black suit pants, he was like a perfect mannequin, and the clothes fitted well on him, his figure was even better than that of the male model on the runway.

Without further thinking, she ran towards that familiar figure.

She was wearing the wool slippers that Fu Tingyu had specially bought for her, the soles were very soft, when she stepped on the cold floor tiles, there wasn’t much noise.

Like a gust of wind, she ran over quickly, she ran behind the man, and hugged him.

The Man, who was waiting for the elevator, heard the noise and was about to turn when he saw a figure running towards him and hugged him.

Just as he was being hugged, his uneasiness calmed down.

He almost thought that Han Xiao had taken her away.

The man was stunned for a moment before he turned and hugged her tightly, as if he was afraid that she would disappear.

Jun Li, who had just come out of the ward, was about to look for Qin Shu when he saw the two hugging each other near the elevator door, he slowly stopped.

She was finally awake.

His worried heart had finally calmed down as well.

Su Ying followed closely. “Young master...” he swallowed his words when he saw the two hugging not far away.

Jun Li looked at them for a while, then he turned and walked back into his ward.

Su Ying followed him in puzzlement. “Young master, Miss Qin was awake, aren’t you going over to take a look?”

Jun Li replied indifferently, “Let’s go back and have some porridge.”

Alright.

Su Ying did not ask any further and followed his young master back to the ward.

Qin Shu hugged the man, when she knew that he was fine, her worried heart had finally calmed down.

The man hugged her for a while, then took a good look at her, his voice was a little nervous. "Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?"

Qin Shu smiled happily when she saw the man, she revealed her two shiny canine teeth. "No, no, I'm fine."

Other than some headache, everything else was fine.

After showing her good mood, she realized that there was a white bandage on the man's head. The whites and his black hair were a great contrast.

Her smile disappeared and she stared at his head worriedly. "What happened to your head?"

The man bent down and carried the girl, she lost her center of gravity and she instinctively stretched out her arms to wrap them around his neck.

He carried the girl as they walked into the ward and said nonchalantly, "It's nothing. I just grazed it a little."

Qin Shu knew that the man was lying the moment she heard his words. No matter how serious his injury was, he would make it sound like a small wound, however, when she saw that he was fine, she did not wish to ask any further.

"Did you see the caption I posted?" She was a little curious if he did see it.

"I saw it. I was afraid that you really didn't want me anymore, so I rushed down at the very first moment, and I wasn't hurt."

Although he seemed to be joking, but he was really afraid that she didn't want him anymore.

The girl couldn't help but laughed, she was also anxious at that moment, so she typed the caption, she knew the man was most afraid of her leaving.

Therefore, if he saw that threatening phrase, he would definitely rush down.

When he recalled the scene of the girl in the elevator, which was so dangerous, the man's face darkened. "You're still laughing, do you know how dangerous it was back then?"

"I know, it's because I know that I have to go in, I am not sure if you saw that caption, what if you didn't come down?"

The girl's worried and nervous tone hit the man's hardest spot in the heart and it was softened instantly.

He froze, then he said with a dark face, "That doesn't mean you can take the risk."

Qin Shu said, "It's your fault that I can't get through your phone."

The man was at a loss for words, it was indeed his fault, his phone broke at that very moment.

"Nothing like this will happen again," the man promised.

Qin Shu thought of Jun Li and Han Xiao, she asked without thinking, "How are Jun Li and Han Xiao? They went in with me."

The man paused, when he thought of Jun Li and Han Xiao, he pursed his lips and carried the girl into the ward without saying a word.

The sudden silence of the man let Qin Shu thought that he was jealous, she pursed her lips and said, "They went in because of me."

The man placed the girl on the bed, brought two soft pillows and put on her back, he then pulled the quilt over her and tucked her in gently.

Qin Shu stared at the man with her clear eyes, he was indeed jealous, she did not want Jun Li and Han Xiao to take risk with her either.

Just that it was an emergency at that time, every minute wasted would mean more danger.

Therefore, she did not have the time to argue with them.

After the man tucked the girl in, he pursed his lips and said, "Let's have something to eat first, after that I'll bring you to see them."

Hearing that, Qin Shu smiled. "Okay."

The man brought fresh food and placed it on the dining table on the bed, as she had just woken up, he had ordered porridge and some light dishes for her.

Qin Shu was indeed hungry, she didn't know that she had actually been unconscious for five days, during these five days, she was on nutrient drips.

Even with porridge and side dishes, she still had a good appetite.

The man looked at the girl eating porridge and the side dishes with a spoon, he thought of her sudden arrival to Mianxia, he asked, "You knew that there was danger in the Elvis Business Building, so you rushed there, right?"

Only then did Qin Shu recalled, how was she going to explain to him that she knew there would be danger in the Elvis Business Building in advance?

She tilted her head to look at the man opposite her, found that he was staring at her quietly, she put the spoon in her mouth and nodded. "Yes."

"How did you know?" The man asked again.

Qin Shu thought for a long time, tried to look for explanation in her mind, then she gave an ambiguous answer, "I got the information from some special channel."

Special channel?

The Man's dark eyes stared at the girl for a long time, as if he was guessing what the so-called special channel was, what special channel?

And the caption, if he guessed correctly, the entire business building's display screen would have the same caption, this was something that an ordinary person couldn't do.
