

Bigoted 701

Chapter 701: Had Earned It! !

The man saw her looking at him with the porridge in her hand. "I thought you're hungry, just have some porridge."

"Okay."

She nodded and looked away, picked up a white porcelain spoon, and began to eat the porridge in the bowl, there was a little sugar in the red bean and barley porridge, a bit sweet and tasted good.

The man sat by the side and looked at her.

Fu Tingyu hid his emotions very well, so the girl didn't notice the guilt, self-blame, and heartache deep in his heart.

After finishing the bowl of red bean and barley porridge, Qin Shu handed the empty bowl to Fu Tingyu. "I'm full."

Fu Tingyu took the bowl and placed it on the side table, without saying a word, he pulled the girl into his arms.

The man's movements were very gentle, so Qin Shu didn't feel any discomfort from the sudden hug, nor did she feel nauseous because she had just eaten.

She called out softly, "Baby Yu."

"I just want to hold you." The Man's chin rubbed against the girl's soft hair.

The man did not mention the matter again, so Qin Shu naturally would not bring it up at this time.

The matter was already in the past, both he and she had another child now, perhaps it was that child who was reincarnated.

Thinking of this, her heart would not feel so bad.

After hugging for a while, the man said, "I'll bring you home."

Qin Shu: "Okay."

Qin Shu wanted to lift the blanket and walk on her own, however, just as she lifted the blanket, she was carried horizontally by the man, she subconsciously reached out and wrapped her arms around his neck.

"I'll carry you." The man hugged the girl, he felt that her weight had become lighter, when would he be able to fatten her up?

On the way out of the old mansion, he met the old Madam who came to visit Qin Shu.

"Aren't you going to stay for dinner before going back?" The old Madam glanced at Qin Shu and realized that she looked very pale, it must have been due to what had happened earlier.

Fu Tingyu turned to look at the old Madam with a cold look in his eyes. "Do you think she can still eat?"

"Xiao Yu, I was foolish and have blamed Xiao Shu wrongly." After the old Madam said that, she looked at Qin Shu, "Xiao Shu, I'm sorry to have made you suffer."

Qin Shu tilted to look at the old Madam and said calmly, "It's normal for grandma to be so suspicious, I know that grandma has never liked me, after hearing such bad comments and seeing so-called evidence, you might think that I was that kind of woman."

The old Madam wanted to say something, but Fu Tingyu spoke first. "Grandma, she's tired. I'll take her home first."

With that, he left in large strides.

The old Madam stood where she was and watched her grandson carry Qin Shu out and away, it was very similar to the scene of Beichen carried Mu Shengwan.

Bright Garden

Qin Shu only ate a small bowl of rice for dinner, she couldn't eat anymore.

Fu Tingyu looked at the girl's sharp jaw and thin shoulders, he felt a little helpless. "I'll take you for a walk in the backyard."

Qin Shu immediately put down the tissue in her hand. "Sure."

Before they went out, Fu Tingyu asked someone to get a mink fur coat and draped it over the girl's shoulders, only then did he lead her out.

The sky was already dark, the street lamps in the yard gave off a faint yellow light.

Qin Shu followed the man along the cement road, taking even steps.

She suddenly thought of the notice she had received today, she raised her delicate little face and smiled. "Oh right, baby Yu, Imperial College has delayed the start of the school term, I can stay at home for another half a month."

The man stopped in his tracks, from the girl's words, she wanted to continue going to school, he lowered his eyes and said, "Then you can rest at home, schooling is too tiring."

She thought that the man would stop her when he found out that she was pregnant yet still wanted to go to school, she did not expect to hear such words.

Qin Shu smiled and replied, "I thought so too, it just so happens that my pregnancy reaction is better."

The man said, "Okay."

Qin Shu lowered her head and looked at her belly. "Maybe the baby will become smarter too."

The man looked at the girl's belly. "Why do you think so?"

"The baby will learn with me, and it will be the university knowledge, it will be free prenatal education."

After saying that, Qin Shu even laughed twice, her laughter was as melodious as a bell.

When the man heard that, the corners of his mouth lifted. "That makes sense."

When she saw the man laugh, Qin Shu's mood was exceptionally good, surprisingly, she did not throw out the food that she had eaten that evening.

Taking advantage of the man's good mood, she said, "Baby Yu, can I ask you something?"

A gust of evening breeze blew over, the man helped the girl close the front of her clothes. "Babe, if you have any questions, you can just ask them."

Qin Shu asked, "You said you have met my mother, did my mother say anything to you?"

The man was startled.

"Since you've been separated for so many years, don't disturb her."

This was what her mother said back then.

Qin Shu thought for a moment and said, "I think if she got murdered for offending someone, my mother should be able to sense it, would she have said something to you?"

The man raised his hand to rub the girl's hair. "Your mother didn't say anything, if it was really a murder, I will help you find the murderer."

Qin Shu said, "But, so much time has passed, it might be difficult."

The man said, "You're pregnant now, don't think about this, just leave it to me."

Qin Shu nodded at him.

Although this matter had passed, some things needed to be resolved.

At this moment, Qin Shu was sitting on the sofa, on her lap was her high-spec laptop.

Her slender fingers were typing the code skillfully.

Hacking into the computer system of the Xu family's company and Xu Jiewen's personal computer was very easy for her.

What she needed to do was to leak important inside information about the company.

Unexpectedly, she found the traces of another person on the computer.

After careful investigation, she found that it was the Ye brothers.

Therefore, she directly unlocked the encrypted documents and the USB flash drive, which was equivalent to opening the door for them.

On the other side of the computer

Ye Liang stared at the computer, the encrypted document that was displayed earlier had suddenly become unencrypted, he was a little confused and forgot to move his hand that was typing the code.

He suddenly shouted behind him, "Ye Mo, I've seen a ghost."

“What’s wrong? Is it very difficult?” Ye Mo asked without turning his head.

“No, before I knew if it was difficult, the encryption disappeared.” Ye Liang looked confused, but his hands didn’t stop moving.

“Huh?” Ye Mo kicked the chair and it accurately stopped beside Ye Liang, looking at the computer.

“The Xu family won’t know that I’m coming, so they’re taking a vacation?”

As soon as Ye Liang finished speaking, a sentence appeared on the computer screen.

[ You’re welcome to take it! ]

Ye Liang widened his eyes, sh*t!

Ye Mo was also shocked.

After some detailed investigation, Ye Liang widened his eyes again and pointed at the computer screen, shouting, “It’s him, it’s him, he’s come to visit our place several times.”

“This guy is haunting us, sh*t!”

“He’s been here several times, is he an enemy or a friend?” Ye Mo asked.

The next evening, after Qin Shu had washed up and slept, Fu Tingyu walked out of the bedroom and went into the study.

Shi Yan walked in after a while, when he saw his Master sitting in front of the desk, he walked over.

Chapter 702: Xu Wei Came

“Mr Fu, as you have expected, it’s not the first time that the Xu family has been involved in a project collaboration with Shengling and they are also involved in the sale of arms in Xijin.”

The Xu family was wealthy, as they deal with arms, the profits were very high, but it was illegal.

Fu Tingyu’s gaze moved away from the computer. “Evidence?”

“Here.” Shi Yan handed the document bag to his Master.

Fu Tingyu opened the document bag and took out the confidential documents, he looked at the first page and asked, “How is the progress of the Shengling Project?”

Shi Yan said, “The Xu family spent a lot of time and effort this time, they are prepared to invest a huge amount of money, they are scheduled to sign the contract on Wednesday.”

Fu Tingyu raised his eyes and pondered for a moment. “Let the other two companies quit the Shengling project.”

Shi Yan looked at his Master in doubt, “This project is very difficult to obtain, if they withdrew, then the Xu family will have the majority.”

Fu Tingyu flipped a page. “That is to let him swallow it all by himself.”

Shi Yan was stunned for a moment, but he did not ask any further. "I understand, Mr Fu, I will go make arrangement now."

Fu Tingyu suddenly said, "Wait a moment."

Shi Yan's foot, which had just taken a step out, retracted silently, he turned and looked at his Master. "Mr Fu, do you have any other instructions?"

Fu Tingyu said, "Get some strawberries."

"Go it, Mr Fu, I'll go to the garden to pick them tomorrow."

Fu Tingyu did not even raise his head and said, "I want them by tomorrow."

Shi Yan said, "I understand, Mr Fu, I'll go now."

After waited for a while and saw that his Master didn't say anything, Shi Yan turned and left the study.

After Shi Yan walked out of the study, he suddenly thought of a question, should he look for the partners first or send someone to pick strawberries first?

As these two matters were equally important.

As long as it was related to Qin Shu, it was more important than anything else.

His Master doesn't eat strawberries.

When Ning Meng saw Shi Yan coming down the stairs, she asked, "Shi Yan, what are you going to do?"

Shi Yan's eyes lit up when he saw Ning Meng, she had been taking care of Qin Shu's daily life, she was meticulous and was the best person to pick strawberries.

"Ning Meng, you're just in time, can you go to the strawberry garden and pick some fresh strawberries."

Ning Meng looked at Shi Yan in confusion. "But it's already 10 pm."

Shi Yan reminded, "It's 10 pm, so you'll be back by tomorrow morning."

The strawberry garden was quite far from here.

"Young Madam wants to eat, right? No problem, I'll go to the strawberry garden now."

After Ning Meng finished speaking, she ran outside.

Shi Yan stopped her. "Bring Ye Qing along."

In the study

Fu Tingyu dialed Gu Haitian's cell phone.

"Uncle Gu, are you free tomorrow? I have something to discuss."

Gu Haitian said, "Tomorrow afternoon, I'll accompany Shangyue to the art exhibition, if you want to talk, let's do it in the morning."

Fu Tingyu said, "Then let's make it an appointment in the morning at Figo Cafe."

After hanging up the phone, he stood up and went back to the bedroom.

It was already eleven o'clock when he finished showering, For Fu Tingyu, who was used to sleeping late, it was considered early.

He tiptoed onto the bed and lay down beside the girl, then, he pulled her into his arms.

The person in his arms moved a little, then, she rubbed against his chest as if she was looking for a comfortable position to continue sleeping.

After finding a comfortable spot, she stopped dawdling.

The man held the girl in his arms, his heart was filled with satisfaction, but at the same time, it was still faintly aching.

The next day, the sun was shining brightly

Fu Tingyu said he would go out to discuss something.

Qin Shu sat on the balcony and basked in the sun.

Ning Meng ran in with the washed strawberry in her hands, as if she was presenting a treasure, she said, "Young Madam, quickly take a look at this."

Qin Shu looked up lazily and saw Ning Meng holding the strawberries in her hands, they were fresh and with attractive color, her eyes instantly lit up.

"When did you buy the strawberries?"

"Mr Fu knew that Young Madam likes strawberries, so he specially instructed us to pick them in the morning."

Ning Meng smiled and placed the washed strawberries in front of Qin Shu, she did not forget to put in good words for her Master. "Young Madam, Mr Fu is really good to you, he is so attentive and thoughtful."

Qin Shu's lips lifted unconsciously, she picked up a strawberry and put it into her mouth, the first thing she tasted was sour, but she felt sweet in her heart.

Two days later, the headlines and Weibo news were announced.

Xu Jiewen, the head of the Xu family, was arrested for allegedly selling arms #

Shengling investment stopped operating as director Xu Jiewen was arrested #

A day after the incident, it was exposed again.

Mr Xu was suspected of murder #

Xu Jiawen's huge assets were confiscated, the origin of which was unknown #

Negative news about the Xu family came flooding in.

The two Xu family members were arrested, and for a moment, they fell into a panic, their faces were ashen.

In the Xu family's villa, the television was broadcasting all kinds of negative news about the Xu family.

Mrs Xu was wiping her tears as she cried. "What the hell is going on? Why did we have so much trouble? Your Uncle went in, and now even his assets have been confiscated."

"Auntie, it's useless for you to cry, now, we have to think of a way to get dad out, we also need to prove that the money came from the legitimate channels."

"How do we prove it? Your uncle has already gone in, the usual people who worked well with us have all closed their doors and disappeared."

Mrs Xu had gone to a few families yesterday to look for help, but they all rejected her, now, she had no other means.

Willy Xu had been adopted by the Xu family since he was young, so he had changed his surname to Xu.

He was also extremely anxious, if the assets were confiscated, together with the loss of the investment, they would have nothing left.

He turned to look at his sister. "You are usually close to the Fu family's old Madam, and you are also Fu Tingyu's classmate, go find him to help us, otherwise, we will be finished this time, as long as the Fu family is willing to help, the Xu family still has a chance to turn things around."

Because all of Jiangcheng's economic lifeline, power, and connections were in the hands of the Fu family, as long as the Fu family said the word, the Xu family would be able to tide over this crisis.

After the events in the past two days, Xu Wei had long been scared silly, hearing her second brother say this, she was a little hesitant.

Look for Fu Tingyu?

Would he help?

Mrs Xu placed all her hopes on her daughter. "Daughter, go find the Fu family, in the past, the relationship between the two families was good, he'll definitely be willing to help."

Willy Xu also placed his hopes on his sister.

"Sis, now we can only rely on the Fu family, if the Fu family is willing to help, not only will uncle be able to come out, but the assets will also be returned."

Xu Wei looked at her mother and her cousin looking at her expectantly, she was also afraid of losing everything as she was so used to living a luxurious life, how could she endure the simple living?

If she lost her status as the daughter of the Xu family, how could she vie for Fu Tingyu?

She gritted her teeth and agreed. "I'll give it a try."

After saying that, she grabbed her bag and left the house.

Fu Enterprise

Xu Wei looked up at the Fu Enterprise building, she was a little nervous, her hand that was holding the branded handbag was sweating in the winter.

She gritted her teeth and walked in.

Everyone in the company basically knew Xu Wei, the daughter of the Xu family, so they let her in.

Xu Wei stood at the office door, took a deep breath, and raised her hand to knock on the door.

Not long after, the door opened from the inside, it was Shi Yan who opened the door.

She was stunned for a few seconds!

Chapter 703: She Asked For It

Actually, Shi Yan had already known when Xu Wei arrived, so when he heard the knock on the door, he opened it immediately.

No matter how Xu Wei tried to hide it, she could not hide her fear and nervousness.

“Special assistant Shi, is Tingyu inside? I have urgent matters to look for him.”

“Mr Fu is inside.” After Shi Yan said that, he turned to let Xu Wei in.

“Thank you.” Xu Wei couldn’t wait to go in.

Fu Tingyu was sitting in front of the desk with a calm expression.

Xu Wei couldn’t bother about her infatuation or her manners, she quickly walked to the desk and hurriedly said,

“Tingyu, you should have heard about my family, my father was suddenly arrested and even his assets were confiscated, if this continues, the Xu family will be finished, I want to ask for your help, otherwise, my family won’t be able to survive this crisis.”

Fu Tingyu raised his eyes slightly. “On what basis?”

Xu Wei’s expression froze, then, she said, “The Fu and Xu families are family friends, for old times sake, please help my family this once, as long as you intervened, our Xu family will have hope, we would owe you a favor.”

“A favor from your Xu Family? What’s the use of it?” The man’s voice was extremely cold.

Facing Fu Tingyu’s cold and merciless attitude, Xu Wei could only continue to plead. “Tingyu, I’m begging you, just help us this time. No matter what request you make, I will agree to it.”

Fu Tingyu sneered, “Want about you kill yourself?”

Xu Wei was stunned, she couldn’t believe what she had heard.

To be more precise, she was so frightened by this sentence that her legs went limp.

Who wasn’t afraid of death?

She said with a trembling voice, "Tingyu, are you joking?"

"Joking?" Fu Tingyu sneered, "Do I have so much free time?"

Xu Wei was stunned, she didn't expect Fu Tingyu to make such a request.

She gritted her teeth and said stubbornly, "Other than this request, I can agree to everything else, even my body, I don't need any status, I can do anything..."

This was the most important thing that she cared about, Fu Tingyu didn't lack money or anything, this is the only thing she could give

Before she could finish, Fu Tingyu interrupted her coldly. "You're overestimating yourself."

Xu Wei's face turned pale as she defended herself, "I'm clean."

Fu Tingyu said, "Sending yourself to my door is very dirty in my eyes."

Xu Wei was stunned, her expression was even uglier than before.

Fu Tingyu said, "I only belong to my wife, I'm willing to give up more for her."

Shi Yan walked over at this moment. "Mr Fu has a meeting to attend, please leave."

Although he said 'please', he sounded like he was trying to chase her away.

"Tingyu, I'm begging you, just help my family this time, other than this request, I can agree to any other request." Xu Wei was so anxious that she almost cried, she was on the verge of kneeling.

Shi Yan directly pulled Xu Wei out of the office.

Xu Wei was a delicate socialite, how could her strength compare to Shi Yan's, who was practicing martial arts.

He effortlessly pulled Xu Wei out of the company.

"My Master is too busy, Miss Xu, it's best if you don't come and disturb him."

After saying that, Shi Yan ignored Xu Wei.

Xu Wei stood at the intersection of the road to the company in a sorry state, she knew that it would be difficult to get Fu Tingyu's help, but she didn't expect that it would be even more difficult than going up the moon.

It was simply a humiliation.

She was dirty just because she delivered herself to his door?

Qin Shu was a priceless treasure in his heart?

But when she thought of her father who was arrested and the Xu family, Xu Wei had no choice but to go to the old Madam.

After Xu Wei left, Shi Yan took out his phone and dialed a number, he said, "Send the news that the whole incident was caused by Xu Wei to the Xu family."

Fu residence

The old Madam did not sleep well these few days, and her spirits were also much worse than usual.

The main reason was that she had something on her mind.

Naturally, she did not know what had happened to the Xu family in Jiangcheng these two days.

When Xu Wei arrived, the old Madam only raised her eyes to take a look, she was not in the mood to bother about her.

When Xu Wei saw the old Madam, tears streamed down her cheeks. "Grandma, something big has happened to my family, only you can help our family."

The old Madam frowned. "What could have happened to your family?"

"Grandma, I don't know what happened either, my dad was arrested suddenly on suspicion of trafficking in arms, his assets were confiscated due to the unknown income sources, my dad had invested in Shengling projects, he lost a lot of money due to this incident," Xu Wei said as she cried.

Was it that serious?

The old Madam was shocked, the Xu family was ranked in the top five in Jiangcheng, this incident just happened suddenly...

Xu Wei cried again, "Grandma, please help our Xu family, otherwise, our Xu family will be finished."

"How can I decide on this matter? The Fu family is now in charge by Xiao Yu, he has the final say in everything."

What the old Madam meant was that apart from Fu Tingyu, no one else could help.

"... But..." Xu Wei was so anxious that she sobbed again, "Grandmother, can you talk to Tingyu and ask him to help our Xu family, just once."

The old Madam sighed. "Due to the incident earlier that we slandered Xiao Shu, how can I have the cheek to look for Xiao Yu now?"

Xu Wei was stunned, on her pale face, there were two streaks of tears.

Xu Wei did not expect things to develop to this state.

But what should she do now?

At this moment, the Xu family was already complaining.

As the cause of the entire incident was due to Xu Wei.

It was all because of her that the Xu family was in trouble.

"Where's Xu Wei? She must come out today and give us an explanation."

"I don't know what she did to implicate the entire Xu family, the chairman has gone in, and even Shengling projects had lost a huge sum of money."

Shengling projects had used the funds of the Xu Enterprise, if they lost, it was equivalent to losing everyone's money.

"I heard that the finance department manager has resigned, now, we don't even know the exact operating funds of the company, the employees are anxious, and they are saying that the company is going bankrupt."

The Xu clan was big, after this incident, the direct descendant of the Xu family came to them one after another to ensure they don't suffer losses for their own interests.

Mrs Xu was furious when she saw all the nagging and questioning in front of her.

"What did you say? What does this have to do with my daughter? Just because of this huge loss, you can't put all the blame on my daughter."

"You still don't know, right? It's because your daughter offended the Fu family that the Xu family has consecutively gone downhill."

"And so is the chairman, he did something illegal and implicating the entire Xu Enterprise."

"Xu Wei must take full responsibility for this loss."

Her daughter had offended the Xu family?

Mrs Xu retorted, "My daughter has a very good relationship with the Fu family, due to this incident, my daughter has gone to the Fu family for help, as long as the Fu family is willing to help, the Xu family will be able to tide over this crisis."

"She's going to the Fu family? It would be good if she doesn't bring trouble to the Xu family again."

Xu Wei returned home in a sorry state and saw that the living room was full of people and was very noisy.

She walked over to her mother and asked, "Mother, what's going on?"

When Mrs Xu saw that her daughter had returned, it was as if she saw hope, she pulled her to the front of everyone, and looked at the group with some pride.

"Weiwei, quickly tells them that you went to the Fu family, they have already agreed to help, the Xu family will be able to survive this crisis."

Chapter 704: Outcome Of The Investigation

"Xu Wei, did the Fu family agree to help?" Someone asked.

"You can tell from the way she looked, the Fu family didn't agree to help, and she offended the Fu family."

"Xu Wei, the Xu family is in this situation because of you."

Mrs Xu was very anxious, she pulled her daughter's hand. "Weiwei, didn't Fu Tingyu agree to help?"

Xu Wei was stunned on the spot.

What she couldn't accept was that the Xu family had suffered all this because of her?

She suddenly remembered what had happened a few days ago, was it because of that misunderstanding?

Fu Tingyu wanted to destroy the Xu family just because Qin Shu had been wronged?

No wonder when she looked for Fu Tingyu today, his gaze and his tone, were ruthless and merciless.

What was she going to say? if she said it out loud, it would only be more embarrassing and make everyone look down on her even more.

Mrs Xu looked at the ferocious Xu family members and tugged at Xu Wei's sleeve. "Weiwei, say something."

"What else is there to say? If the Fu family was willing to help, would she still have such a sullen face?"

Mrs Xu looked at her daughter's face, it was deadly pale and very frightening, she already knew the answer in her heart.

The hope that had been ignited instantly fell to the bottom again.

Was the Xu family really going to be finished this time?

"Xu Wei, the Xu family's disaster was all caused by you, you have to resolve this matter."

"Of all people, you have to offend the Fu family, not only did you harm yourself, but you also harmed everyone."

"Today, you have to give everyone an explanation, otherwise, it won't be over."

Xu Wei looked at the group of people in front of her, they are the ones that fawned over her.

But today, every one of them revealed a gaze that would devour her, causing her entire body to go cold.

The next day, the major news media once again broke news about the Xu family.

the Xu Enterprise has filed for bankruptcy #

the daughter of the Xu family, Xu Wei, has gone crazy #

Bright Garden

Qin Shu looked at the news about the Xu family on the screen, her gaze was cold and didn't have much of a ripple.

The Xu family, which ranked third among the top five in Jiangcheng's big families, was gone just like that.

The man's speed was really fast.

Six days had passed, but there was still no reply to the private messages on the Deep Ocean Forum, it was like a stone sinking into the ocean.

Thinking of Han Xiao's leg, she quietly put down the laptop on her leg.

She picked up her phone and found an unread message.

It was from Jun Li.

She opened the chatbox and saw a photo.

The background of the photo should be the foot of a mountain, as it was only half of it, the foot of the mountain was full of light purple flowers.

There was a stream beside that flowed endlessly.

After admiring the photo, Qin Shu sent a message.

Qin Shu: "Where is this place? It's so beautiful."

Jun Li: "At the foot of the mountain near Qi Mountain."

The words "Qi Mountain" were too familiar, and Jun Li had mentioned it to her once.

There was also Han Xiao, Hua Wuyan, and Fu Tingyu, all of them learned martial arts at Qi Mountain.

Didn't Qi Mountain disappear?

How did Jun Li film it?

Qin Shu asked, "How have you been lately?"

Jun Li replied, "I have teas and read books every day to cultivate my body and mind, I'm pretty good, how about you?"

Qin Shu replied, "I'm pretty good too, Imperial College has delayed the start of school, so I can stay at home for a few more days."

Jun Li asked, "Is there any news about the Lanzhi grass? I'm also looking for it, but there's no news for the time being."

Qin Shu: "Same here, It's hard to find the Lanzhi grass, but I'll try my best to find it."

Su Ying stood by the side and looked at his Young Master quietly, he was the one who had taken that photo with his Young Master.

The four seasons here were like spring, and the temperature was suitable, it was similar to Qi Hua's climate, so it was very suitable for patients to recuperate.

After Jun Li finished reading the content of the message, he put down his phone and turned to look out of the window, there were green mountains and trees, and the faint fragrance of the flowers in the valley, he could still hear the flowing stream.

There was a wooden bridge over the stream, as it was maintained frequently, the bridge did not look like it had been through wind and rain.

He looked at the wooden bridge and fell into deep thought.

Fu Tingyu had spent a lot of time and effort, but he still could not find the person who tampered with Wen Xin's car back then.

When he returned to Bright Garden in the afternoon, he saw the girl sitting on the sofa and looking at her computer, he walked over and sat down beside her.

Qin Shu knew when the man walked over, she raised her head and looked at him in surprise. "Why are you back so early today? Aren't you busy?"

"I came back to accompany you." The man ruffled the girl's soft hair. "I asked someone to investigate, but they couldn't find anyone who wanted to murder your mother, revenge killings are even less likely, I've checked all the people in the business world back then, it wasn't them."

Jiangcheng was Fu Tingyu's territory, so he knew more about the people in the business world than she did.

Even he said so...

She said faintly, "Then who was it that wanted my mother's life?"

The man pulled her into his arms and caressed her hair as if he was comforting her, "Although your mother is very strong, she has a sense of propriety when dealing with people, even if it were competitors, she could handle them with ease, maybe the car's brakes failed due to the car itself, not because of a murder."

Qin Shu looked up at the man. "So, my mother died in an accident?"

"It's very likely." The man paused. "Tomorrow, I'll accompany you to see her."

Qin Shu nodded. "The last time I went alone, I told her that I've already registered my marriage, the next time I go, I'll bring you along."

The man looked at her, the girl's eyes were very bright, like the brightest stars in the night sky, bright and dazzling.

He suddenly leaned over and kissed the girl's eyelashes, then came to the girl's lips.

His kisses were quite restrained.

The next morning

Fu Tingyu prepared a bouquet and offerings, he took the girl to the cemetery.

Although Qin Hai had cheated on her, the cemetery chosen for Wen Xin was good.

Qin Shu held Fu Tingyu's arm and looked at the tombstone, there was a black-and-white photo of Wen Xin,

"Mom, look who I brought." She looked at the man and smiled. "He is the man I told you about previously, my hubby, your son-in-law, he is not only excellent, but he is also very good to me."

The man looked at the girl, he was praised by his girl in front of his mother-in-law, it made him feel good, the corners of his mouth couldn't help but be lifted.

He retracted his gaze and looked at Wen Xin on the tombstone, he promised, "Mom, don't worry, I will take good care of her, I Won't let her get bullied, and I won't let her suffer."

Anyway, regardless of whether Wen Xin agreed to his marriage to Qin Shu, he was already her husband.

He had also called her mom, and there was no room for rejection.

On the tombstone, the black and white photo of Wen Xin looked very young, and the smile on the corner of her mouth was very shallow, Qin Shu looked like her by about 50-60%, her face was exquisite, they were both the Creator's special produce.

Qin Shu quietly said a lot of things to Wen Xin in her heart, and then she told her the happy news.

"Mom, congratulations on becoming a Grandma." She smiled and looked at her stomach. "I'm already more than a month pregnant, and the baby is very healthy, when the baby is born, I'll bring him to see you."

Fu Tingyu glanced at the black-and-white photo on the gravestone, feeling a little guilty.

She didn't want him to look for Babe initially.

Chapter 705: Master's Teachings

Now, Babe was his wife, and he had a child.

He never regretted it.

Qin Shu was in a much better mood now that she had brought the man to see Wen Xin.

Fu Tingyu held her hand and noticed that it was a little cold, so he held it in his palm. "Are you tired?"

Qin Shu shook her head. "No, I'm very happy today."

Yes, she was really happy to bring her husband to visit her mother today.

..

The following days, Qin Shu did not slack off, instead, she began to study because she wanted to graduate two years earlier.

Therefore, time was very tight.

Fu Tingyu went to work at the company and tried to return earlier every day.

Qin Shu continued to look for professors online, teachers with university teaching experience.

Before looking for teachers, she suddenly thought of Qin Hai, during this period of time, Ye Luo had not come to talk about his situation.

She put down the mouse and took out her phone to call Ye Luo.

"What has Qin Hai been doing recently?"

"Qin Hai has gone missing."

Ye Luo expressionlessly held the phone in one hand and a small dried fish in the other hand to feed Boss.

The human and the cat were squatting under the ginkgo tree.

Boss stared at the dried fish in Ye Luo's hand and ate with gusto.

Ye Luo just looked at him expressionlessly.

Disappeared?

"When did it happen?"

Ye Luo: "Four days ago, he completely disappeared in Jiangcheng"

Completely disappeared meant that there was no longer Qin Hai in Jiangcheng.

"How come he disappeared suddenly? Please investigate."

After hanging up the phone, Qin Shu stared at the computer screen and frowned.

Ye Luo put away his phone, took out a small dried fish from the package, and handed it to Boss.

"Meow"

Boss looked up at Ye Luo, and then at the small dried fish in his hand, he was a little hesitant.

In his heart, he always felt that Ye Luo was so eager to feed him, is to make him grow fat so that he couldn't run fast.

..

Qin Shu thought for a while, but she couldn't figure out the reason for Qin Hai's disappearance.

She collected her thoughts and looked at the computer screen again, she found that someone had replied to her teacher recruitment post.

Reading the replies, she frowned.

It was all boring replies, so she skipped them.

It wasn't that easy to find a suitable teacher.

That time with Han Xiao was purely an accident.

There was no suitable teacher for the time being, so she put the post aside.

Thinking of the post on the Deep Ocean Forum, she went to the Deep Ocean again.

Just as she opened it, she saw a private message.

[ Anonymous: You answer my question first, are you the Young Master of the Black Alliance, Black Knight? ]

After reading this reply, Qin Shu thought for a while and replied with an ambiguous answer.

[ Black Knight in a vest: I don't know about Black Knight, I only know hacking skills, can you tell me about Lanzhi grass? ]

Qin Shu stared at the words 'Black Knight' and thought for a long time, her Master Baili, could he be the Young Master of the Black Alliance, Black Knight?

Master looked young, but he was already in his forties, right?

But Master never said anything about the Black Knight.

After waiting for about ten minutes, the other party replied.

[ Anonymous: How're Your hacking skills? ]

[ Black Knight in a vest: Not bad. ]

No matter what the other party's goal was, she replied with two words.

[ Anonymous: Hacking Defense Network? ]

Qin Shu was stunned, she vaguely felt that the other party was not so simple, these words were obviously a test.

[ Black Knight in a vest: Just say what you want to say. ]

[ Anonymous: I want to know the ranking of your hacking skills on the hacker leaderboard, if you can take the first place, we can make a deal and get what we want. ]

After reading the content of the message, Qin Shu was silent for a while and was thinking about this issue.

Deal?

About hacking skills?

She remembered that Master Baili had said that if she learned everything he taught, she would definitely be number one on the hacker leaderboard.

At that time, she always felt that Master Baili was praising her, but in fact, he was actually praising himself for his high skills.

Back then, she asked, and Master Baili just said to keep a low profile.

[ Black Knight in a vest: I haven't compared with them, so I don't know the standard on the leaderboard. ]

The other party was silent and didn't reply to her message, Qin Shu thought that he was probably speechless.

After a while, the other party replied to her message.

[ Anonymous: I'll send you a web address. ]

Qin Shu agreed.

They added each other as friends, and then the other party sent the web address.

After Qin Shu clicked on it, she found that the security alert indicated that there was a virus invading the website.

She was a hacker herself, so she was not afraid of viruses.

Five minutes later

[ Black Knight in a vest: Done. ]

[Anonymous: Let's make a deal, after the task is completed, I'll tell you about the Lanzhi grass. ]

[ Black Knight in a vest: What deal? ]

[Anonymous: Pretend to be the Black Knight and help us do something. ]

After reading the contents of the message, Qin Shu was stunned.

She didn't even know who the Black Knight was, how could she disguise herself?

[ Black Knight in a vest: Do you have any information about the Black Knight? ]

[Anonymous: No, no one has seen the Black Knight before. ]

Qin Shu was speechless.

There wasn't even any information, she didn't even know if the Black Knight was a man or a woman, how could she disguise herself?

But when she thought about the other party knew about the whereabouts of Lanzhi grass, she couldn't refuse, no matter how hard the deal was.

After thinking for a while, she agreed to the deal.

4 pm

When Fu Tingyu came back, Qin Shu told him about this.

"I won't agree, it's too dangerous."

Fu Tingyu refused without thinking,

Qin Shu held onto the man's arm. "But the other party knows the whereabouts of Lanzhi grass."

Fu Tingyu said, "Till now, no one knows if the Black Knight is a man or a woman, his/her age? If you don't even know this information, how can you disguise yourself?"

"As no one knew about the Black Knight, therefore, I can set up one myself precisely, as long as the hacking skills are good, I'm not afraid that they won't believe me."

Hearing that, the man looked at her, it seemed that there was some truth to it, he asked, "Where did you learn your hacking skills?"

Qin Shu said, "Master taught me."

The man paused. "Master?"

"Yes, my mother found him for me."

When he heard that, Fu Tingyu subconsciously thought that it was their Master who taught her, but he quickly disregarded it.

Wen Xin?

"Who is your Master?"

Qin Shu shook her head. "I don't know, my mother didn't mention, and my Master didn't say either."

Fu Tingyu fell silent.

Wen Xin was different from other mothers, how could a mother let her daughter learn how to hack? Learn martial arts?

Qin Shu tugged at the man's sleeve. "Then you agreed, right?"

The man did not answer, instead, he asked, "Did the other party say where?"

"Not yet."

"We'll decide after the other party replies."

Qin Shu nodded, agreeing with the man's decision.

Two days later

The results of the investigation were out.

Ye Luo said, "We haven't found Qin Hai, and there's no news of him."

Then how did Qin Hai disappear for no reason?

No one answered her question.

In the afternoon, that person in the forum replied.

[ Anonymous: February 15th, Nan Yue. ]

[ Black knight in a vest: Okay. ]

After Fu Tingyu returned, Qin Shu said, "The other party replied, they want me to go to Nan Yue on February 15th."

Nan Yue?

Nan Yue was a neighboring country of Hua Xia, in the south.

However...

Chapter 706: I May Not Be His Biological Son?

However, he did not continue to think about it.

The man pondered for a moment and said, "I'll go with you."

Qin Shu nodded. "Okay."

After deciding to go to Nan Yue, Qin Shu began to pack her luggage.

Fu Tingyu walked over and pulled her to the side to sit down and rest. "I'll pack."

"Okay." Qin Shu sat by the side and watched, men were different from women when it came to packing, regardless of whether it was their style or methods.

After packing the luggage, the man sat next to the girl and held her in his arms, he placed his hand on her lower abdomen gently.

As it had only been more than a month, her stomach had yet to show.

Therefore, her lower abdomen was flat and did not have much flesh.

It was not just her stomach, her pregnancy reaction had caused her to lose a lot of weight during this period.

The man said in a low voice, "You're too thin."

Qin Shu looked at her stomach and felt that it was alright. "Last night, I did some research on the internet and it was said that a woman's figure will go out of shape when she is pregnant and will gain weight later on."

"Is that so?" The man chuckled and didn't seem to mind. "I've never seen you gain weight before, I'm looking forward to seeing you gain weight later on."

Qin Shu glanced at the man. "I'm afraid I'll have to disappoint you, I won't let my figure go out of shape."

She searched for a bunch of post-pregnancy photos on the Internet, many of them were photos of her figure going out of shape and became bloated.

So, no matter what, she would not allow herself to become like that.

The man leaned close to the girl's ear and asked, "Are you afraid that I'll dislike you?"

Qin Shu turned her head and looked at the man's incomparably handsome face.

The two of them were very close to each other, their auras were so familiar to each other that it was bone-deep.

The girl wrapped her arms around the man's neck and kissed his sexy lips. "Do you dare?"

The man chuckled softly. "No, I dare not, I could despise anyone but my wife."

He was the one who was afraid of being despised.

At five o'clock, Gu Yan came to check Qin Shu's pulse.

Ji Fei followed behind with the first aid box.

Gu Yan saw Qin Shu and first looked at her face, he noticed that she was much better compared to a few days ago, so he asked, "How have you been feeling recently?"

Qin Shu said, "I feel fine, but my morning sickness is quite severe."

Fu Tingyu said, "It's almost immediately after she finished eating."

Gu Yan didn't expect the morning sickness to be so serious. "Let me check the pulse first."

Gu Yan asked Ji Fei to take out the diagnosis pad, and Qin Shu reached out her hand.

After checking her pulse, Gu Yan said, "Her pulse is stable, and the baby is fine."

Qin Shu let out a sigh of relief, as long as the baby was fine, everything was fine.

He paused for a moment. "I'll prescribe some medicine to relieve the symptoms of vomiting."

Qin Shu was filled with regret when she heard that there was a prescription to relieve vomiting, if she had known that there was such a prescription, she would not have vomited every day.

Fu Tingyu asked, "Why didn't you tell us earlier?"

"I didn't know that she would vomit so badly during pregnancy." Gu Yan admitted his mistake. "I should have mentioned earlier, I'll ask Ji Fei to get the medicine now."

Ji Fei took out a pen and paper and handed it to Gu Yan.

Gu Yan quickly wrote the prescription and handed it to Ji Fei. "Come back quickly."

"Yes, Young Master. "Ji Fei took the prescription and walked out.

Fu Tingyu thought about leaving Jiangcheng the next day and asked, "Will there be any problems if I go to Nan Yue with her tomorrow?"

Gu Yan thought for a while and said, "There won't be any problems going to Nan Yue, as long as you pay attention, it's best not to use martial art strength."

Fu Tingyu was relieved after hearing that.

After Gu Yan checked her pulse, he thought of something that he was very confused about recently, when he looked at Fu Tingyu, he did not know how to ask.

Fu Tingyu saw that Gu Yan wanted to say something but hesitated, he asked, "Is there a problem?"

"There is an issue," Gu Yan said, "I discovered something very important."

Fu Tingyu said, "What is it?"

Gu Yan hesitated for a long time before he said, "I may not be my father's biological son."

Fu Tingyu asked, "Have you been too free recently?"

Gu Yan said, "No, I've been quite busy, when I tried to get information from my father, he said that he didn't want me in the beginning but was forced to do it."

Qin Shu couldn't help but laugh. "That doesn't mean that you're not your father's biological son, what if your father is joking?"

Gu Yan gave a very understanding expression and said, "My father isn't the type to joke, he's not married and I've never seen him with a girlfriend, the possibility of me being adopted is very high."

"Whether he's biological or not, we'll know after the paternity test." Fu Tingyu picked up the kettle and poured a glass of water for Gu Yan, he also poured a glass of water for the girl. "Drink some water to moisten your throat."

Qin Shu happened to be thirsty, so she picked up the glass and drank a few mouthfuls of water.

Gu Yan shook his head hesitantly. "I don't think that's a good idea, father treats me very well, if I do the paternity test myself, wouldn't that hurt my father's feeling?"

Fu Tingyu glanced at Gu Yan who was worrying over nothing. "You know that Uncle Wen is good to you, so you don't have to think so much."

"I'm just curious why my surname is Gu and not Wen."

"Then go ask Uncle Gu."

"Uncle Gu?"

Gu Yan didn't think of asking Gu Haitian because his surname was also Gu.

..

The Moon was as cool as water, on Fengyi Mountain, when the night breeze blew, it was a little cooling.

Bo Ye waited for Fu Tingyan and Jiang Yu to take a shower before she took her clothes and walked into the bathroom for a shower.

The bathroom was actually a very simple cubicle.

The water was from the mountain stream, there's a water heater, so need not worry about running out of hot water.

The only thing she was worried about was that her true identity would be discovered.

Bo Ye took a quick shower every time.

At this moment, someone knocked on the cubicle door, Fu Tingyan's shout came from outside. "Bo Ye, I left my phone inside, please help me take it."

Bo Ye's body stiffened, she turned to look at the tightly shut door,

The knocking continued. "Dong Dong, Bo Ye, did you hear me?"

Bo Ye gripped the towel in her hand tightly, she looked at the table by the side and saw a black phone lying quietly on it.

She lowered her head to look at herself, she just wet her body, how was she going to hand the phone to him?

“Bo Ye, why aren’t you saying anything? Did something happen?”

Fu Tingyan saw that Bo Ye didn’t answer, so he couldn’t help but worry.

Bo Ye gripped the towel in her hand tightly and walked to the table, she picked up the phone on the table and turned to walk to the door.

She turned off the lights first, then she opened the door, the gap was very small, so she could hand the phone over.

The moment the door opened, a faint fragrance of shower gel entered his nose. It smelled very nice.

Fu Tingyan took a look inside, it was pitch-black, except for the moonlight outside the window.

“Why didn’t you turn on the lights? Is the light broken? I’ll come in to take a look.”

He looked at Bo Ye, there was only moonlight, so he couldn’t see clearly, however, he could see his wet hair and thin shoulders.

As the gap was very small and the light was dim, he couldn’t see clearly.

Bo Ye refused directly, “No need, the lights are not broken.”

“Then why didn’t you turn on the lights?” Fu Tingyan looked at Bo Ye suspiciously, who would take a shower and with the lights off?

“Take your phone, I want to continue my shower.” Bo Ye moved the phone toward him.

Fu Tingyan took the phone with one hand and put the other hand on the door, his gaze swept around again. “Are you hiding something from me?”

Chapter 707: Changed Suddenly

Bo Ye also had one hand on the door to prevent Fu Tingyan from suddenly coming in. “No, let me finish my shower first.”

The more Bo Ye acted like this, the more Fu Tingyan felt that there was something hidden from him, he pushed the door and noticed that it was blocked from inside, so he couldn’t push it open.

He frowned. “Let me go in and take a look.”

“Wait until I’m done bathing.” Bo Ye pushed against the door, refusing to let him in.

“Tingyan, why did it take you so long to get your phone?”

Jiang Yu waited for a while but didn’t see Fu Tingyan, so he came over.

Fu Tingyan glanced at Bo Ye in the bathroom and loosened his grip, Bo Ye took the opportunity to close the bathroom door and continue bathing, even faster than before.

He turned to look at Jiang Yu. “I’ve got it.”

“Do you want to make a call home?” Jiang Yu wanted to make a call, but he couldn’t.

“I’ll call grandma, and I should return a call to my mom, I should tell my brother as well.”

Fu Tingyan said as he dragged Jiang Yu away.

Half an hour later

Bo Ye had finished bathing for quite a while, there were only the three of them on the mountain, Uncle Ye stayed at the foot of the mountain in the evening.

Fu Tingyan walked into the bathroom, the heat inside had already dissipated, but there was still the fragrance of the shower gel.

The bathroom was not big, so one could see it at a glance, there was nothing inside.

Then what was Bo Ye doing inside?

He did not find anything. When he turned and left, he saw a white object by the door, he bent down to pick it up and took a look, he was stunned.

It was a pair of white boxers.

Bo Ye hurriedly walked in and saw Fu Tingyan looking at her pants.

When she was washing her clothes, she noticed that the pants were missing, so she ran back to look for them.

But she didn’t expect Fu Tingyan to be here, and the pants were in his hand.

Hearing the footsteps, Fu Tingyan turned to look at the person who ran in. “This is yours?”

“It’s mine.” Bo Ye reached out to take it without batting an eyelid and pinched it in her palm.

Fu Tingyan sized Bo Ye up and then glanced at the white pants in her hand. “These shouldn’t be men’s.”

“I bought the wrong one, I’m going to wash the clothes first.”

After saying that, Bo Ye turned and left, afraid that Fu Tingyan would ask more questions.

Fu Tingyan stared at Bo Ye’s departing figure for a long time and followed him thoughtfully.

Bo Ye stood in front of the sink and washed the clothes with her hands.

Fu Tingyan crossed his arms and leaned against the pillar, looking at her lazily and leisurely.

The light above his head swayed with the wind.

With the help of the light, he saw a large bruise on Bo Ye’s fair arm, it was probably from the fall during their martial arts practice in the day.

“Later, I’ll apply some medicine for you.”

Bo Ye’s hand movements paused, she turned her head to look at Fu Tingyan, with an “Uh-huh”, she lowered her head and continued to wash her clothes.

Fu Tingyan looked at her for a while before he suddenly stood up straight and walked over. "Let me help you."

"No need." Bo Ye had refused but her hands were empty, the clothes were already in Fu Tingyan's hands.

"A few pieces of clothes, I'll be done washing them in a while." Fu Tingyan turned on the tap and started to wash the clothes.

There was no washing machine on the mountain, so the clothes were all washed by hand, Fu Tingyan, who did not know how to wash clothes, had learned to do it by now, although his technique was a little clumsy, it was already very good for him, who was born into a wealthy family.

Bo Ye stood aside and raised her eyes to glance at Fu Tingyan, back in school, he had changed his excuses every day to make her wash his socks.

Now, he actually changed his character?

He now started to wash clothes for her?

She lowered her eyes to look at the white boxers in his hands, and her gaze was a little complicated.

They didn't realize that there was a person on the tree opposite them looking at them.

A slender figure stood on the welcoming pine tree, his clothes fluttering in the wind, his pair of red eyes stared at the two people in front of the sink, deep in thought.

February 15th

Fu Tingyu and Qin Shu boarded the plane to Nan Yue.

Accompanying them were Shi Yan and Ye Luo, holding Boss, Ye Leng, Ye Qing, and the other ten Ye brothers.

Nan Yue's temperature was about 10 °C higher than Jiangcheng's, and they could clearly feel it when they got off the plane.

Qin Shu only wore a slightly loose and casual outfit, and it was men's.

Standing beside Fu Tingyu, her presence was felt although she was shorter than Fu Tingyu, on the contrary, they looked very harmonious.

When she didn't know who the other party was, it was better to conceal her identity, as it wasn't good for her to expose the fact that she knew how to hack.

A tall tree attracts stronger wind, and one has more troubles when one became famous.

Similarly, if one's reputation was too great, it would also cause unnecessary trouble.

This was what Master Baili had said.

When she was young,

“Master Baili, my mother said that your hacking skills are very good, on the world hacker rankings, where are you ranked?”

Master Baili laughed when he heard that. “Is ranking important? I’m very low-key.”

At that time, she was too young and didn’t understand the specific meaning of the word low-key.

She would complain in her heart, maybe he was not ranked, Master Baili was embarrassed to say it out loud.

Shi Yan booked a hotel in advance.

It was two o’clock in the afternoon when they arrived at the hotel.

After taking a short rest, Fu Tingyu accompanied Qin Shu to the agreed place to meet.

Actually, Qin Shu wanted to go alone, but the man wasn’t at ease.

On the way

Qin Shu looked at the message sent by the other party and turned to look at the man. “The other party’s name is Seymour.”

Seymour?

Fu Tingyu said, “He has quite a background.”

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and looked at the phone screen, Seymour, In her previous life, she had heard a few words about Seymour.

The person who controlled the entire economic lifeline of Nan Yue was related to this Seymour.

The meeting place was a cafe.

When they entered, the waiter went forward to take a look at the attire of the two people in front of him, one was dressed formally while the other was dressed casually.

The higher-class cafe usually had a certain dress code for guests.

The waiter asked, “Excuse me, sir, do you have an appointment?”

Qin Shu said, “Yes, Mr. Seymour”

She was wearing a voice changer, and her voice was clear and cold, however, her slightly raised eyes and brows carried a vicious air.

When the waiter heard this, he nodded slightly. “Sir, please follow me.”

Qin Shu, Fu Tingyu, followed the waiter all the way up the spiral staircase to the second floor.

The waiter suddenly stopped and gestured for them to go in. “Mr. Seymour is inside.”

Qin Shu looked over and saw a man in a navy blue suit sitting upright.

That was Mr. Seymour.

The reason why she was so sure was that he was the only one in that place.

Just by looking at his side profile, one could tell that he was very handsome.

But in front of Fu Tingyu, no matter how handsome he was, he would still be inferior.

After the waiter left, Qin Shu walked over with Fu Tingyu.

This meeting was actually similar to a face-to-face meeting, as they had never met each other before, their looks and status were all obscured.

The man sitting turned his head, he saw the two men walking over, perhaps their temperaments were different from the others, there was a hint of ripple in his calm eyes.

When they approached, the man stood up and introduced himself. "I'm Seymour, in charge of this collaboration, which one of you is the Black Knight in a vest on the Deep Ocean Forum?"

Qin Shu said, "I am, you can call me Ling Shu."

Chapter 708: Baby Yu, This Will Hinder You

Ling Shu?

It was a very common name.

From his tone of voice, his eyes, and his temperament, it was clear that he was not an ordinary person.

Seymour glanced at the man beside Ling Shu, his gaze was reserved, and the aura he gave off made it difficult to ignore him.

While Seymour was sizing them up, Fu Tingyu was also sizing him up., his tone was very formulaic.

From what he said just now, it could be heard that he was only in charge and not the person in charge.

Seymour said, "Please take a seat."

The three of them took their seats.

Seymour said, "The reward for this cooperation is the news about Lanzhi grass and a generous sum of US dollars, however, all information about us must be kept confidential."

Qin Shu's goal was Lanzhi grass, if she could earn some extra money, there was no reason for her to refuse.

"First, tell me what you want me to do by disguising myself as the Black Knight, if it's something that will tarnish my reputation or over my bottom line, I might not agree to it."

Seymour smiled. "That won't happen, my Master made a bet with someone, within a month, we have to find the Black Knight and hack his personal computer, as well as the safety net of his manor."

Bet?

The corner of Qin Shu's mouth twitched, as expected, all rich people had nothing to do.

Seymour then said, "As long as you do it and don't get suspected, it's equivalent to completing the cooperation."

"I'll try my best."

Without 100% certainty, Qin Shu would not over-promise.

Pretending to be a pig then prey on a tiger was an exception.

Since the cooperation was agreed, Seymour had completed his task, "Since you've agreed, I'll bring you to see my Master tomorrow."

Qin Shu only said. "Okay."

After leaving the cafe

Qin Shu followed the man to taste the local delicacies.

Gu Yan's prescription was quite effective, after taking it, the morning sickness was not so bad anymore.

However, when he was in men's clothing, the only uncomfortable thing was that her chest felt stuffy, and she always felt like vomiting.

Nan Yue favors sweet dishes, and most of the dishes were sweet, but some were not sweet.

Qin Shu took the menu and ordered the dishes, she didn't know how the dishes tasted as she had never taken them before, so she ordered based on the good-looking photo of the dishes.

Fu Tingyu picked up the kettle and poured a cup of hot water for the girl, and a cup for himself.

Then, he picked up the cup and drank the plain boiled water while watching the girl ordered the dishes, it was very pleasing to the eye.

It also gave him a thought.

In the future, he could just abandon everything in the Fu family, take her to taste all the delicacies in the world.

To see the most beautiful scenery.

When he thought of this, he was inexplicably jealous of his father, he subconsciously glanced at the girl's stomach, after she gave birth to a son, he had to educate him well...

A person's usual little habits would not change due to age.

Just like her right now, she chose dishes based on their appearance.

It was very similar to going on a blind date, she would first look at their appearance.

The hotel's service was very good, and the efficiency was good.

The dishes were served by the waiters one after another.

Qin Shu's appetite was not good, but when she saw the new dishes, she had the desire to taste them.

Her gaze turned to the phoenix-tailed fish, she licked her lips, clenched her chopsticks, picked up a piece of fish, and put it into her mouth.

The phoenix-tailed fish was actually a deep-sea fish without tiny fish bones.

It was indeed a little sweet, but it tasted good.

She raised her eyes to look at the man opposite her. "You try it too, this fish tastes pretty good."

"Uh-huh." The man withdrew his gaze and picked up a piece of fish and start eating, he chewed and said, "It does taste good."

Qin Shu ate some food, as there was something in her stomach now, so she began to eat slowly. "Baby Yu, who do you think is the Master of Seymour?"

Fu Tingyu stopped eating, he thought for a while and said, "He controls the economic lifeline of the entire Nan Yue. On the surface, everyone only knows about Seymour, which means that his Master might be from a hidden family."

He paused. "Since he didn't announce it to the public, he probably doesn't want outsiders to know."

Qin Shu nodded to show that she understood. "He's just pretending. I understand."

Fu Tingyu looked up at her with an expression that said she understood everything, he couldn't help but laugh.

After dinner

Fu Tingyu held the girl's hand and returned to the hotel.

On the way back, almost everyone turned to look at them and revealed a look of appreciation.

It wasn't until they got into the car that these gazes disappeared.

At the hotel

Fu Tingyu sat at the bar counter, there was a laptop in front of him, and he was dealing with matters in the company.

They knew nothing about Nan Yue's hidden family.

Qin Shu was sitting on the sofa, there was also a laptop on her lap, her hands were typing skillfully on the keyboard, searching for all the information about Nan Yue's hidden family.

However, all the information she found was about Seymour.

However, she soon figured out that Seymour was just the representative placed in front of the hidden family.

Therefore, she concluded that the person standing behind Seymour just liked to be mysterious.

In short, pretentious!

Since she could not find any useful information, she simply ignored it, she put down her laptop, put on her slippers, and went to the man's side.

Knowing that the man was dealing with important matters, she did not disturb him and just sat aside and watched.

After watching for a while, she stood up and poured a glass of water for the man, she placed it on his right hand so that he could reach it.

Then, she laid her hands on the bar counter, rested her head on her arms, and stared at the man.

The Man had handsome features, sharp edges, and a high nose bridge. All of them were meticulously created by the Creator.

Her gaze fell on the man's lips.

The thickness of his lips was moderate.

She remembered every kiss...

The man glanced at the girl who lay by his side, quietly watching him work, a sense of satisfaction that he had never felt before arose in his heart.

This was something that he had never dared to think about previously.

Because of the man's gaze, Qin Shu immediately cut off the fantasies in her mind, she grinned at him, revealing two small canine teeth, she looked rather mischievous.

"Am I disturbing you?"

"No." The man put down his mouse and pulled her into his embrace. "I'm very happy."

Qin Shu glanced at the computer screen that was still lit up by the side and then at the man who was hugging her.

..

At night, Fu Tingyu turned off the computer quite early and went to take a shower.

Qin Shu sat on the bed and waited for the man to come out while she read the prenatal education.

She found the prenatal education in the suitcase, so she took it out to read.

In the book, there were many things to pay attention to during the early stages of pregnancy and the birth period.

When Fu Tingyu came out of the bathroom, he saw the person sitting at the head of the bed with a book in her hand, she was reading seriously.

He walked over and sat down on the edge of the bed, took a glance at the book in her hand, with just one glance, he recognized that he was the one who bought the prenatal education book.

Qin Shu raised her head to look at the man and raised the book in her hand, she asked with a smile, "I found it in the suitcase, when did you buy this book?"

"I bought it when Gu Yan told me about the pregnancy reaction." Fu Tingyu took the prenatal education book, he only read a little and felt that it was very practical.

Qin Shu supported herself on the bed with both hands and sat up straight, she leaned over to the man and wrapped her arms around his neck. She rested her chin on the man's shoulder and tilted her head to look at him.

"Baby Yu, why do you want to buy this kind of book?"

Chapter 709: The Rules of Meeting Seymour's Master

The man turned to look at her, when the girl hugged him, a sweet smell entered his nose, and his eyes darkened.

"I want to know what you should pay attention to during pregnancy."

Qin Shu kissed the man's cheek. "Baby Yu, I feel that you have the potential to be a nanny."

Nanny?

"Why do you say that?" The man's voice was filled with doubt.

"You're so attentive and thoughtful." Qin Shu reached out to the prenatal education in front of the man and flipped a page for him. "This is the first time I've heard of a man reading prenatal education."

"I just want to understand the various stages of pregnancy, when I encounter it in the future, I won't be clueless."

The man paused. "When it is bigger, most women would be bloating, if I know beforehand, it'll be easier for me to deal with."

Qin Shu suddenly hugged the man's neck and took the initiative to kiss him again.

This time, it was not his cheek, but his lips.

She knew that the man was very good to her, he spoiled her to the bone and was even willing to give up his life.

With where he was standing now and his status, he was so busy that he might not even be able to eat on time every day.

But he was willing to go home early and read the prenatal education for her.

"Baby Yu."

"Uh-huh?"

"When you're old, I'll accompany you every day, we'll have tea, take a stroll, and watch the sunrise and sunset."

Holding your hand, growing old with you together.

The man tilted his head and stared at the girl for a while, he leaned closer to kiss her lips.

The most direct way for the man to express was probably to kiss her.

He endured it for a long time.

As the girl's words were really too emotional.

..

After the girl fell asleep, the man picked up the prenatal education book and started reading from the bookmark.

Since reading the prenatal education book, the man discovered a lot of knowledge that he had never understood before.

It also let him know that it was really hard for a woman before and after pregnancy.

Especially the pain that she had to endure during childbirth.

Now just thinking about it made him reluctant.

After reading a segment, the man closed the book, turned off the light, and pulled the girl into his arms, the tip of his nose smelled the unique scent of the girl, and there was a familiar warmth in his arms.

He had never felt more at ease in his heart.

The next day

Qin Shu put on her men's clothes again and wore a cap, she was still dressed casually.

Even though she was dressed casually, it could not hide her noble temperament and good looks.

Fu Tingyu was wearing a high-end custom-made suit, his figure was even better than that of a model walking on the catwalk, needless to say, his temperament showed his manly charm.

When they walked out of the hotel, Seymour's car was waiting outside.

After exchanging a few pleasantries, both parties got into the car.

The driver stepped on the accelerator and drove to his Master's house.

This time, only Fu Tingyu and Qin Shu went.

Shi Yan and the others stayed in the hotel.

Shi Yan was a little worried because his Master's martial strength had not recovered yet, and he was not by his side, if anything happened, how can it be that there was no one by Mr. Fu's side to protect him?

Ye Luo stood beside Shi Yan, holding Boss in his arms.

Boss's eyes were filled with resentment, a little aggrieved.

Because Qin Shu left without him.

Unhappy!

Ye Luo lowered his eyes, took out a dried fish from his pocket, and put it near Boss's mouth.

With a cat's attributes, even if he did not move his nose, he would know that it was a dried fish.

Boss raised his eyes to look at Ye Luo, his face was cold, just a poker face.

However, the dried fish was quite nice.

Boss opened his mouth and ate the dried fish with the corner of his mouth, his grievance was reduced by half.

When the car was far away, Shi Yan retracted his gaze and turned his head, he saw Ye Luo feeding Boss dried fish. "It's quite annoying to raise this little tsundere, isn't it?"

"Uh-huh." Ye Luo replied expressionlessly.

Boss raised his head, looked at Shi Yan, and then looked at Ye Luo, he unhappily stretched out his claw to scratch Ye Luo's clothes.

Boss's claws were very sharp, without any mercy, he slashed with his claw, leaving a gash.

Seeing this, Shi Yan thought, if this claw scratched his face, wouldn't his face be disfigured?

The corner of his mouth twitched. "Little tsundere is angry?"

"Uh-huh." Ye Luo ignored the gash on his chest, and took out a dried fish from his pocket, and put it near Boss's mouth.

Shi Yan turned to look at Ye Luo. "Why do I feel like you've changed?"

Ye Luo turned to look at Shi Yan, his eyes filled with doubt.

Shi Yan couldn't help but joke, "If you have this much patience with women, are you afraid of not having a girlfriend?"

Ye Luo asked expressionlessly, "Is he more troublesome than women?"

Shi Yan was speechless.

Ugh!!!

Wasn't little tsundere more troublesome than women?

..

Halfway through the journey, Qin Shu and Fu Tingyu's eyes were covered by a black cloth.

Seymour said apologetically, "Sorry for the inconvenience, this is the rule to meet my Master."

Qin Shu was speechless.

Needless to say, she knew that Seymour did not want others to know the exact location of his Master's residence.

Did he think that she would not know as she was blindfolded?

Fu Tingyu's eyes were blindfolded, but his expression was very calm, he reached out and held the girl's hand tightly.

Her hand was held by a warm hand, Qin Shu used her finger to scratch the man's palm. Most people would itch when got scratched.

The man's palm was not itchy, his heart was itchy.

He used his finger to write words in the girl's palm. 'Are you afraid?'

Qin Shu's lips lifted, she also wrote words in the man's palm. 'No, am not, you're here.'

Fu Tingyu was relieved to know that the girl was not afraid, however, when he heard the last three words, the corners of his mouth unconsciously lifted.

Then, Qin Shu wrote other words. 'Was It Itchy?'

If there was no one around, Fu Tingyu would definitely use his actual actions to tell her the issue of whether it was itchy.

However, he wrote words in her palm, 'mischievous.'

Qin Shu thought for a moment and wrote, 'I'm a good girl!'

Fu Tingyu felt that he had been teased by the girl again, but he was unable to react after being teased.

He held the girl's hand tightly, not letting her continue to be mischievous.

With her eyes covered, Qin Shu couldn't see either, but from the moment the man held her hand, she could roughly guess that the man was a little annoyed.

He wasn't angry but seemed helplessly annoyed.

She couldn't help but smile proudly.

They sat together, so no one saw them held hands or wrote.

The car drove quickly for a while before it stopped.

The car stopped at the foot of a mountain, there was a huge red lacquered wooden door right in front, on top of the door were the words "Qingyun Manor".

The entire manor was built inside the mountain, the building was magnificent and grand, but it was also very mysterious.

"We're here." Seymour opened the car door.

Fu Tingyu was sitting beside the car door, he got out first, Qin Shu held his hand and followed him out of the car.

The subordinate who wanted to go forward to help was stopped by Fu Tingyu's cold gaze.

Seymour turned his head and glanced at Ling Shu and the man who followed him, his gaze fell on the hands of the two who were holding hands, his gaze paused.

He had doubts in his heart, but he didn't ask.

He retracted his gaze and walked in.

Fu Tingyu and Qin Shu held hands, they didn't bother about the doubtful gazes of others and followed Seymour unhurriedly.

Chapter 710: See With His Own Eyes

The road was quite flat, she did not bump into anything when she walked, it was also very smooth.

Her eyes were covered, and she could not see her surroundings but only rely on her senses.

When her feet stepped on the bluestone, the sound was different from the cement road and the floor tiles.

The man scratched her palm gently, Qin Shu tilted her head, as her eyes were covered, she could not see anything.

The man held her hand a little tighter.

She also felt that the air pressure here was a little low.

Only places where the strong martial art practitioners did not deliberately restrain their strength, that would emit the aura of the strong practitioners.

The reason why Fu Tingyu was tense was due to his martial art strength was too low.

Qin Shu held the man's hand in return.

After walking for about half an hour, her footsteps suddenly stopped, which also meant that she had arrived.

"Master, he is the one who knows how to hack, his name is Ling Shu." Seymour pointed at Ling Shu beside him and said.

The man sitting on the sofa was the manor head of Qingyun Manor, Yun Yao.

He looked at the two people in front of him, the black cloth was also untied by his subordinate, he could see their looks, it was not an exaggeration to say that they looked extremely exquisite.

After being stunned for a few seconds, he returned to normal.

Qin Shu and Fu Tingyu deliberately restrained their auras, but the noble temperament that they were born with could not be concealed.

Qin Shu also clearly felt that the gaze from the other side was scrutinizing.

The black cloth on her eyes was untied, and she could see the owner of that scrutinizing gaze sitting on the sofa.

It was a very young man, he was about the same age as Fu Tingyu, and he had a tall and straight figure.

His facial features were very handsome.

His eyes were as sharp as falcons.

Being stared at would make others feel a chill down their spine.

“Starting now?” Qin Shu’s voice was neither hot nor cold, neither impatient nor anxious, but very calm.

Fu Tingyu stood by the side and had already let go of her hand, listening to the girl’s calm voice, he would subconsciously turn his head to look at her.

She was wearing men’s clothes and a cap, it was completely different from when she was wearing a suit.

Yun Yao raised his hand slightly and signaled for Seymour to start.

Seymour lowered his eyebrows and nodded, he placed the laptop that he had prepared beforehand on the table by the side.

“Mr. Ling, please.”

Qin Shu walked over and sat down in front of the table, she took a look at the laptop in front of her, with just a glance at the brand, she knew that this laptop was the latest computer with a good configuration, it could increase the internet speed by several times, it was even better than her laptop.

She had wanted to buy this laptop a month before it was pre-sold.

However, she was told that it had already been pre-ordered.

“Mr. Ling, the computer interface shows the other party’s information,” Seymour reminded.

“Okay.” Qin Shu looked at the computer screen, it was much more convenient to have a target than to look for it herself.

Qin Shu first sneaked into the other party’s safety net and disabled the security system, then, she planned to hack into the other party’s personal computer.

This was a process that required time.

Fu Tingyu sat by the side and watched, this was not the first time he saw the girl use hacking skills, but it was the first time he saw her hack into other people’s security systems and personal computers.

The hands that typed the code were skilled and neat, and the speed was so fast that it was dazzling.

When the black cloth was untied, he roughly glanced at the interior and decoration of the living room, whether it was furnishings or solid wood tables and chairs, they were all very expensive, some of them were not even available on the market.

There was also the man sitting on the sofa opposite him, he gave the impression that he was not an ordinary person.

It was impossible for a hidden family like this to not have hackers by their side.

There was only one possibility, and that was the hackers under him had limited abilities.

He glanced at the girl, who was sitting in front of the computer, she was calmer than ever.

It gave others the feeling that even if Mount Tai collapsed right in front of her, she would remain calm and expressionless.

Before they started, Qin Shu already knew that it would be very difficult, she did not expect it to be even more difficult than she had imagined.

No wonder Seymour asked about the National Defense System.

This was equivalent to hacking the National Defense System.

Seymour stared at Ling Shu for a while, he knew better than anyone how difficult it was, which was why he was very nervous.

He glanced at his Master, rested one hand on his chin, and looked at Ling Shu as if he was waiting for the result.

If he failed this time, he felt that he would be finished.

The waiting time was the longest and the most difficult.

Time passed by minute by minute.

Qin Shu's hand speed became faster and faster as if she was competing with someone.

While everyone was waiting, a smile appeared on Qin Shu's calm face.

Yun Yao was holding a teacup in his hand and sipping his tea unhurriedly, anyone with a discerning eye would recognize that this tea set came from an official kiln hundreds of years ago and was very expensive.

At this moment, a mobile phone rang.

Yun Yao stopped sipping his tea and looked at the phone on the mahogany coffee table, on the screen, it showed a call from Iron Rooster.

Yun Yao put down the teacup in his hand, picked up the phone, and answered the call.

A deep voice sounded beside his ear. "Who did you get?"

Yun Yao raised his eyes to look at Ling Shu, who was sitting opposite him, he understood in his heart, and a hint of a smile appeared on his cold face. "Take a guess."

"Don't tell me you've really found the Black Knight, the Young Master of the Black Alliance?"

Yun Yao retorted, "Would you believe if I said 'No'?"

The man who was known as the Iron Rooster snorted. "I wouldn't believe it if I didn't see the actual person."

He glanced at the technicians who were still busy with their work, he was a little disappointed that the security system took so long to fix?

He retracted his gaze and looked at the laptop in front of him, only then did he realize that it had been remotely controlled, the desktop was originally a Maneki-Neko, but now, it had been replaced by a hot female lead...

His face darkened and he almost vomited.

Yun Yao asked, "Is your security system still intact?"

Iron Rooster was speechless.

Yun Yao asked again, "How about your computer?"

The man known as Iron Rooster could not keep his cool. "I still don't believe that you have found the Black Knight."

Hearing the other party's tone, Yun Yao understood. "Whether you believe it or not, you've already lost, you have to accept the consequences."

"I'll give you 30%, but the condition is that I want to see the Dark Knight himself."

"No problem." Yun Yao hung up the phone, it was rare to have Iron Rooster give a 30% profit!

On the other side, the man known as Iron Rooster gritted his teeth. "I gave a 30% profit share! !!"

He felt indignant!

The Dark Knight had disappeared for so long, how could Yun Yao find him?

"Book a plane ticket to Nan Yue."

"Yes, Young Master." Lin Lu turned around to book a plane ticket.

..

After Qin Shu hacked into the other party's computer, she didn't touch anything else but just changed the desktop.

Fu Tingyu didn't know whether to laugh or cry when he saw the girl's actions, the Maneki-Neko had been replaced by a hot actress?

The rich and powerful families didn't lack women, and the ones they hated most were those who flirted.

When they saw the man on the sofa take a call, his cold expression changed slightly.

Qin Shu knew that he had won the bet, did it mean that she had completed her task?

Yun Yao looked up at Ling Shu. "Your hacking skills are very good, but the next step is to see if you can fool him."

Qin Shu asked, "If I fool him, you would tell me the news about the Lanzhi grass, right?"
