

Bigoted 901

Chapter 901: Falling Into Lake

He let the hair drop from his hand and looked at Qin Shu. "Time really flies. It's been ten years. Back then, you were the youngest among us, but now you are married and have Xiao Jiu."

Qin Shu looked at Fu Tingyu who was sitting at the bow of the boat and Xiao Jiu who was leaning against the railing. The corners of her mouth unconsciously curled up into a happy smile. "You guys should hurry up and find a girlfriend."

Hua Wuyan shrugged helplessly. "It's not that easy. Finding a girlfriend is a big project."

He stared at her for a while and asked, "You look different."

"That's for sure. You guys have also changed a lot. When you first went up the mountain, I saw your short flax-colored hair and thought that you were a gangster in the neighborhood."

Hua Wuyan was amused. "A gangster as handsome and rich as me?"

Qin Shu held back her laughter and said, "At first glance, you looked really a little like a gangster loitering near the school."

Hua Wuyan said, "That's because you loved to have fun."

"Did I?" Qin Shu remembered that she was very serious and very excited because she finally had playmates.

Hua Wuyan saw Han Xiao walking over and called out, "Brother Han."

Qin Shu turned her head and saw Han Xiao walking over. She didn't know what he thought about the conversation last night.

What he said last night was the most genuine thought in her heart.

"I'll go play with Xiao Jiu." Hua Wuyan smiled and left.

Han Xiao walked to Qin Shu's side and stopped. He glanced at the scenery. The boat had already started. Although he didn't often go out, he knew the scenery here like the back of his hand.

"Do you like the scenery?"

Qin Shu smiled as she looked at the small island across the lake. "Although it's already autumn, the scenery is still very beautiful, and the temperature today is good."

Yan Shuang looked at them and remembered what had happened on Qi Mountain. She smiled and said, "In the past, when we were on Qi Mountain, everyone said that Ling Han and Ling Bao were a couple. They also said that Ling Han treated Ling Bao as his wife..."

Feeling the cold gaze from the other side, she glanced at Fu Tingyu. She could tell that he was displeased and changed her words. "I discovered that Xiao Jiu has inherited the best parts of you and Ling Bao. He is handsome and smart."

Fu Tingyu did not reply. His gaze was fixed on the girl on the deck. In the end, he picked up a plate of cherries, stood up, and walked over.

"Do you want to have some cherries?" He handed the fruit plate to the girl and put his other arm around her waist, as if he was stating ownership.

Qin Shu looked down and saw the red cherries in front of her. Not only were they fresh, but they were also very big.

"Of course. I thought there were no cherries in this season." She picked up a big red one and put it into her mouth. When she bit the flesh of the cherries, the juice spilled out. It was a little sour but also very sweet.

Han Xiao watched Qin Shu eat the cherries. As her habit as a little girl, she liked to eat the big and red ones first.

In the past, when they were on the Qi mountain, watching her eat was a visual enjoyment for him.

Fu Tingyu looked at Han Xiao opposite him and noticed that the latter had been staring at Qin Shu, so he said, "Part of her memories are still lost to her."

Han Xiao raised his head and looked at Fu Tingyu in confusion. He thought that she had recovered all her memories.

"Why?"

"Master didn't let her remember the things that happened after you left the mountain. It should be related to why she lost her memory."

Fu Tingyu glanced at the person who was still picking cherries. "She will definitely recover it one day."

Han Xiao looked at Fu Tingyu. With his high IQ, he quickly understood the meaning of his words.

He suddenly remembered the words of the lady owner of Auntie's Wonton Noodles on the snack street in the ancient City of Wind and Moon.

After he left, the person who had been accompanying Qin Shu was Fu Tingyu.

He suddenly understood one thing. Fu Tingyu had liked the girl ever since they were on Qi Mountain.

He always felt that Fu Tingyu disliked him because of the little girl.

Yan Shuang called out to them, "Don't just stand there. Sit down and eat while you chat."

Qin Shu heard Yan Shuang calling them and raised her head to say to them, "Let's go over."

Han Xiao said, "Okay."

"Yeah." Fu Tingyu put an arm around Qin Shu and walked towards the table.

Xiao Jiu grabbed the railing of the boat with both hands and looked at the dark green water. He raised her head to look at Jun Li and Hua Wuyan. Finally, he asked Hua Wuyan because he was the host.

“Uncle Yan, can we fish here?”

Hua Wuyan said, “Of course, you can. I have even prepared a fishing rod.”

This was a tourist resort invested and operated by the Hua family and Han family. Of course, they could fish here.

Even if there wasn't fish, Hua Wuyan could throw in tens or a hundreds of fish into the lake so Xiao Jiu could fish.

“Uncle Yan, you're awesome.” Xiao Jiu was a little excited as he looked at the fish swimming around in the lake. They were fighting over the fish food.

Xiao Jiu turned to look at Jun Li. He was holding the fish food in his hand and feeding it in boredom. He could not help but ask, “Uncle Jun, do you not like touring on the lake?”

Jun Li paused and turned his head to look at Xiao Jiu with a smile. “No, touring on the lake is enjoyable.”

Xiao Jiu asked again, “Are you ill?”

Jun Li put down the fish food and squatted down in front of Xiao Jiu. He asked with a smile, “Why do you ask?”

“Compared to other uncles, your face is especially pale, and you're very thin and listless. I did some research online. Usually, this is the symptom of being sick or suffering from an illness for a long time.”

When Xiao Jiu looked up the words “Chronic illness”, various articles and links appeared on the web page.

So when he saw Jun Li's appearance, he guessed that he was sick.

After hearing this, Jun Li was a little surprised. A child who was only three years old could observe so meticulously, and it could be seen how outstanding the child would be in the future.

“You can infer whether someone is sick from their appearance. Xiao Jiu, you're very smart. Yes, I'm sick, and I've been on medication.”

Xiao Jiu felt a little sorry for him because he hated taking medicine. “Is that medicine bitter?”

Jun Li shook his head. “It's not bitter. After taking the medicine, I eat a candy.”

Xiao Jiu was surprised. “So adults also take candies after taking medicine. I thought only children do that.”

“Xiao Jiu, the fishing rod is here.” Hua Wuyan walked over with a fishing rod, a bucket, and baits.

Xiao Jiu heard the words and excitedly ran over.

Jun Li watched Xiao Jiu running with his chubby legs and smiled. Then, he stood up.

Perhaps it was because he had been squatting for a long time, he was dizzy when he stood up. For a moment, his vision was pitch black.

Jun Li subconsciously reached out for the railing of the boat, but he missed it. This was a cruise boat and the railing was very low.. Jun Li fell into the lake immediately.

Chapter 902: The Situation Was Not Good

The moment he fell into the lake, Jun Li did not even have time to react and was completely submerged in the water. His vision gradually blurred. It was early autumn and the water was not cold. Instead, the temperature was suitable, very suitable for swimming.

But he did not know how to swim.

It was a human's instinctive reaction to be afraid when falling into the water.

However, Jun Li didn't show any signs of fear. He didn't even struggle. Instead, he recalled the time when he fell into the water for the first time.

It was a bright and beautiful afternoon with beautiful murmurs of the water, the chirping of birds and the fragrance of flowers. Other than that, there was only silence...

Jun Li suddenly fell into the water, catching everyone off guard.

Qin Shu was only stunned for a second before she ran over and jumped into the water.

Fu Tingyu and Han Xiao reacted as well. They stood up almost at the same time and ran over.

When Fu Tingyu stood up and jumped down, Han Xiao was also planning to jump down. Only then did he remember his injured leg and turned around to get the life buoy.

After Qin Shu jumped into the lake, she saw that Jun Li did not move at all. She was so scared that her heart almost stopped beating.

Jun Li, you can not die.

She sped up and swam over. When she reached Jun Li's side, she grabbed his arm and brought him out of the water.

As soon as he came out of the water, Jun Li couldn't help but cough violently.

"Jun Li, you'll be fine. You'll definitely be fine." She said it to comfort Jun Li and herself. Jun Li's face was pale like never before.

At this moment, Fu Tingyu also swam over and grabbed Jun Li's arm. "Give him to me."

Qin Shu was stunned. Fu Tingyu knew how to swim?

She did not have time to think about it. Together with Fu Tingyu, she helped Jun Li to the side of the boat.

Han Xiao had just thrown the life buoy down.

Hua Wuyan and Yan Shuang watched anxiously from the side. It happened so suddenly. No one had expected that Jun Li would suddenly fall into the lake.

Qin Feng heard the commotion and ran out. Jun Li had already been helped out of the water.

Then he was sent to the hospital.

Three hours later, in a VIP ward in the hospital.

Qin Shu had changed out of her wet clothes. Her gaze was fixed on Jun Li who was lying in the hospital bed. At this moment, he was still in a coma and his face was paler than white paper.

The doctor performed a full body check on Jun Li, finding that his bodily functions had decreased and there was a large shadow in the image of liver.

However, she did not know what caused this.

Only Gu Yan knew about Jun Li's illness, and only he knew that it was caused by poison.

Ever since she knew that she was little Munchkin and Ling Bao, she had suspected that she and Jun Li had known each other.

After recovering part of her memories, she recalled her life on Qi Mountain, including Fu Tingyu, Han Xiao, Hua Wuyan, and Qin Feng. She recalled the first time she met Chao Yan.

The only person she did not remember was Jun Li.

Perhaps, the first time she met Jun Li was because of a candy.

Fu Tingyu walked into the ward and glanced at the still unconscious Jun Li. He comforted her, "I've already called Gu Yan. He's on the way. Don't worry."

Qin Shu looked up at the man and nodded. She could only wait for Gu Yan to come over.

Gu Yan arrived at the hospital at midnight. He did not even have time to rest and rushed to treat Jun Li.

Gu Yan's medical skills were well-known both at home and abroad. Getting the news that Gu Yan was treating Jun Li personally, several medical professors in the hospital waited there. They all wanted to see watch.

Gu Yan used acupuncture and did not need to go to the operating room.

Only Gu Yan, his assistant Ji Fei, and a few other doctors were left in the ward.

Outside the ward.

It was midnight. The corridor was so quiet that one could hear a needle drop on the floor. Everyone was anxiously looking at the tightly shut door.

Qin Shu sat on the chair outside the door. From time to time, she would raise her head to look at the door of the ward. Her eyes were filled with anxiety and worry.

Hua Wuyan looked at the tightly shut door and felt very guilty. "I didn't know that Jun Li was so weak. If I had known, I definitely wouldn't have asked him to come here, and today's incident wouldn't have happened."

Yan Shuang patted Hua Wuyan's shoulder and comforted him. "It was an accident. What illness does Jun Li have? I saw that his face was so pale, and he is very thin. He wasn't in good spirits either."

Yan Shuang looked at Qin Shu after she finished speaking.

Qin Shu replied, "He was poisoned. Even Gu Yan is not sure what kind of poison it was. He has been taking medicine for the past few years."

Three years ago, Gu Yan said that Jun Li might only have one year to live. It would be a miracle if he could live three years.

She had always thought so. Now that a miracle had really happened, she thought Jun Li would definitely be cured.

Two hours later, the ward door opened and Gu Yan walked out.

Qin Shu heard the noise and stood up immediately. When she saw Gu Yan come out, she hurriedly asked, "Gu Yan, how is he?"

Gu Yan sighed, "You know that it's already a miracle that Jun Li can live until now. His condition is not very good now. He's getting worse each day."

Qin Shu felt her legs go weak after hearing that. Her face turned a little pale. Getting worse by the day? Then was there no possibility of curing Jun Li?

Fu Tingyu held her slender waist with one arm. He also knew what kind of situation Jun Li was in. It was not easy for him to be alive until now.

Hua Wuyan felt guilty. He walked over and asked Gu Yan, "Is it because of falling into the water?"

Gu Yan replied, "No. It's to do with his poor health."

Jun Li was still unconscious. Even though Gu Yan said that, Hua Wuyan still felt guilty.

Fu Tingyu glanced at his watch. It was past two in the morning. He looked up at Gu Yan. "You've been busy for so long and you're tired. Go back and grab some sleep."

Gu Yan felt very tired. He nodded. "Okay."

Han Xiao said, "I'll send you back to Han Manor. Eat something before you rest."

Gu Yan had treated Han Xiao's leg before and they were no strangers to each other.

Gu Yan nodded. "Thank you."

"Professor Gu, it's my pleasure." Han Xiao walked Gu Yan out of the hospital and returned to Han Manor.

Qin Shu watched Han Xiao leave with Gu Yan. She looked at Hua Wuyan and the others. "You guys should go back and rest too."

Qin Feng asked, "What about you?"

Qin Shu said, "I'll wait here until he wakes up."

Hua Wuyan said, "I'll stay here, too. You guys go back and rest."

Fu Tingyu knew that she was worried about Jun Li, so he said, "You guys go back. I'll stay here with her."

They looked at each other, nodded, and left one after another.

In the ward, Qin Shu sat on the sofa and looked at Jun Li. He was still unconscious.

She knew that he couldn't swim.

She suddenly remembered that Fu Tingyu also couldn't swim.

Then how did he suddenly know how to swim today?

Chapter 903: That Was How He Cheated Her Of Her First Kiss

Fu Tingyu bought some desserts because she said that when she was in a bad mood, she would eat something sweet to improve her mood.

He walked to her side and sat down, placing the desserts in front of her one by one, "Eat something first."

Ever since Jun Li fell into the water, she had not eaten much. Her stomach was already hungry and when she saw the desserts, her stomach began to protest again.

She picked up the mousse cake, scooped a spoonful, and put it into her mouth to eat.

Fu Tingyu glanced at Jun Li on the bed. He had never understood why she was so good to Jun Li?

What did Jun Li have to do with her?

When Qin Shu lifted her head, she found the man in a daze, so she asked: "What are you thinking about?"

Fu Tingyu looked back at her and asked: "Why are you so good to him?"

Qin Shu put down the mousse cake in her hand. "It is mutual. Whether it's kinship or friendship, he treats me very well too."

However, she had a feeling that there must be some kind of connection between her and Jun Li.

Fu Tingyu paused and asked again: "Did you know him in the past?"

"He doesn't exist in my memory." At this point, Qin Shu remembered that there was still a part of her memory that had not recovered. She added: "Maybe I knew him in the past, but because there is still a part of my memory that has not recovered, I don't remember."

Fu Tingyu frowned slightly and looked at Jun Li again. He had never been able to see through Jun Li.

He remembered what he had said in the Mianxia hospital at that time. It did not seem like something that a person who had not known each other for long should say.

Perhaps her hunch was right. She and Jun Li might have known each other in the past.

Qin Shu suddenly remembered something. "By the way, I thought you didn't know how to swim?"

"I do. Ever since I was young..." Fu Tingyu seemed to remember something and swallowed the rest of his words.

Even if Fu Tingyu did not say the rest of his words, Qin Shu could guess what he did not say.

"You've known how to swim since you were young, right?"

Fu Tingyu turned his head to look at her. He did not admit nor deny it.

Qin Shu said faintly, "I saw it today. You're quite good at swimming."

Fu Tingyu: "I'm okay."

"I really did not expect you to be such a person. You even cheated me of my first kiss."

Even after so many years, she still could not help but want to ridicule him when she thought of what happened back then.

That was half a year after Fu Tingyu went up the mountain. She had been chasing and fighting with him for a long time.

She also often made a move because of a single sentence. The main reason why she made a move first was that his words were sometimes really infuriating.

Just on Qi Mountain, she had chased after him countless times and even created a path. She was so familiar with it that she could run even with her eyes closed.

In summer, even if they did not run, they would still be covered in sweat. Not to mention chasing after him around Qi mountain for a whole round.

There was a deep pond at the back of Qi Mountain. How deep was it exactly? She had gone down once. Even without reaching the bottom, it was already ten meters deep.

When she was about to reach the deep pool, she did not notice. All her attention was on Fu Tingyu. She always missed by a little just when she was about to catch him.

Probably everyone had this kind of experience. When someone made you very angry and especially when he ran faster than you, the more you could not catch him, the angrier you became.

So in a fit of anger, she directly raised her leg and kicked him.

She thought that she would miss because he seemed to have eyes at the back of his head and knew how to dodge.

In the end, she often didn't expect the result. In the past when she thought she would be successful, she would miss.

This time, she thought she would miss him, but she was successful.

In the end, Fu Tingyu fell straight into the deep pond. After drinking a few mouthfuls of water, he shouted that he did not know how to swim.

At this time, she was no longer angry. Seeing him struggling in the deep pond and about to sink, her first reaction was to save him.

Without thinking, she jumped into the deep pond to save him.

Fortunately, her mother had taken her to the swimming pool to find a professional teacher to learn to swim, so her swimming ability was very good.

However, no matter how good her swimming ability was, it was still very difficult to save Fu Tingyu, who was nearly 30 centimeters higher than her.

She could only try her best to save him upon seeing that he was already drowning and was about to faint.

It took a lot of effort to drag him ashore.

Seeing that he had fainted, she was really scared.

Although she hated him a little, every time she chased him, she always hoped that he would fall in the end, but that was just a thought. She never actually wanted him to be in trouble, much less wanted him to drown.

When she was learning to swim in the swimming pool, the teacher had taught her the first aid method for drowning and she learned it very quickly.

When she saw that he had fainted from drowning, she followed the teacher's instructions and started to save him. First, she used her hands to press on her chest to make him spit out the water that he had drunk, and then she used mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

When she did all this, although she was anxious, she was very serious. She was afraid that if she did not save him in time, he would die.

She performed a few times of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. At that time, she really thought that he did not know how to swim and that he really fainted from drowning.

She only found out now that he did it on purpose. He deliberately let her kick him into the deep pond, pretended that he did not know how to swim, and then pretended to faint on purpose.

Fu Tingyu turned his head to look at the girl. He was also very surprised when he recalled the scene at that time, "I didn't expect you to know so much, even mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. I just wanted to tease you, but in the end... it was not enough and you continued several times."

At that time, when he was pulled ashore, he was ready to wake up. Seeing her save him so seriously, he held back.

Even until her two pink lips touched his, he did not react for a long time and his mind was in a mess.

At the age of 16, he had never thought that he would have such an intimate action with a girl. It was even her who took the initiative.

He also never thought that his brain would work like a turtle's crawl because of this action.

In the past, he would have thrown her ten meters away directly because he was a germaphobe and did not like others to get too close to him.

However, not only did he not push her away, but he also allowed her to continue doing such things.

It was just like the first time he was in the ancient City of Wind and Moon. He could endure being ridden on the ground by her and having his chest touched by her. He could even bear to look at her innocent expression.

"I thought you were going to drown. I've learned the first aid method, so I will definitely follow the steps. Mouth-to-mouth resuscitation has to be performed consecutively. Who do you think will only perform it once? Most importantly, you pretended to be unconscious. I did it a few times, but I didn't see you wake up."

Qin Shu could not help but complain. At that time, she almost thought that he was going to die, so she cried anxiously.

That was because it was the back of the mountain. Qi Mountain was so big and no one usually came to the back of the mountain.

She was only eleven years old. It was already good enough that she could calmly save people.

Now that she thought about it, her tears were in vain.

Fu Tingyu held back his laughter and said: "I didn't dare to wake up."

He was afraid of being beaten up.

He knew her too well. If she had known that he was faking it, she would have definitely beat him up.

He did not dare to wake up?

He also knew that he was in the wrong?

Fu Tingyu had mysophobia, so women did not dare to get close to him. That time when he fell into the water was probably the first time he had such intimate contact with a girl.

Plus, he was only 16 years old at that time, just in his puberty.

Qin Shu suddenly came close to him and asked curiously: "Then, how did you feel at that time?"

Chapter 904: Deliberately Hide

Fu Tingyu turned his head and saw her curious face. It was really different after she grew up. In the past, if she had known that he had lied to her like this, she would have been so angry and not be gentle with him.

He carefully recalled the feelings at that time. "I felt very nervous, and there was also the throbbing feeling of puberty. It felt like jelly and it tasted like strawberries, sweet and shy."

In fact, she was also very nervous at that time because it was her first time giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to a boy. As for how it felt, she could not remember.

After that incident, whenever she saw him, she would remember the image of giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to him.

Fu Tingyu looked at her. Perhaps it was because of the experience of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation after drowning that caused him to lie to her again later on.

When Jun Li woke up, it was the third day. Everyone was anxious.

Jun Li slowly opened his eyes. Because he had not seen daylight for a long time, he was not used to it. He opened his eyes and closed them again.

Qin Shu was so excited that she said: "Jun Li, you're finally awake."

Jun Li was already comfortable with the light. When he opened his eyes, he saw Qin Shu. He was stunned for a moment, then the corners of his mouth curled up into a smile: "Scared?"

Qin Shu nodded: "Yes, you've been unconscious for three days."

Jun Li said, "Three days? No wonder I felt like I slept for a long time."

"Wait a moment, I'll get Gu Yan to check you again."

After saying that, Qin Shu quickly walked out. Jun Li wanted to stop her, but he did not have time to say anything.

Seeing Qin Shu's figure leave the ward, maybe he should not have come to Qi Hua this time.

Half an hour later

Gu Yan checked Jun Li's pulse and looked at him. He had been observing Jun Li's complexion for the past few days and could tell how his physical condition was from his complexion.

Compared to last year, Jun Li's energy was much worse. Not only was his complexion pale, but there was also a trace of a morbid aura of death. This was something that ordinary people could not detect.

He asked: "How does your body feel?"

Jun Li replied indifferently: "In all aspects, it's not as good as before. I feel as if I've been emptied inside out."

Gu Yan did not hide his illness. "From the pulse just now, your liver has been destroyed by the poison. Your body is very weak. It's so weak that even a cold can easily defeat you."

Jun Li knew his body very well so when he heard Gu Yan's words, his eyes did not have the slightest fluctuation. He said: "Don't tell her."

Gu Yan had treated him for a few years so he knew who he was talking about. He also wondered what the relationship between Jun Li and Qin Shu was?

"She will find out sooner or later."

Jun Li paused and said: "We'll talk about it later."

Gu Yan sighed, stood up, and walked out.

Seeing Gu Yan come out, Qin Shu was the first to greet him and ask: "How is Jun Li?"

Gu Yan comforted her, "Don't worry. His body is too weak, that's why he fell into the water. Plus, he doesn't know how to swim, that's why he's been unconscious for so long. He just needs to rest."

Qin Shu was slightly relieved when she heard that. "That's good."

When Gu Yan came out, Su Ying walked in with a light porridge.

This time, Jun Li came out alone.

Su Ying rushed over after hearing the news.

When Jun Li got out of bed and walked around, it was the next morning. Su Ying pushed him to bask in the sun in the hospital.

His face was sickly pale. Under the sun, he looked even paler, with a sense of powerlessness.

Qin Shu and Fu Tingyu brought Xiao Jiu to see Jun Li.

When Xiao Jiu saw Jun Li, he took the lead and ran over with his two short legs. He grabbed the hem of his clothes and asked: "Uncle Jun, are you feeling better?"

Jun Li squatted down and looked at Xiao Jiu. "Much better." Then he looked at the two people behind Xiao Jiu, Qin Shu and Fu Tingyu.

Qin Shu walked in front of Jun Li and stopped. Although Gu Yan said all he needed to do was to rest well, she was still very worried when she saw his current condition: "I heard that you are going back to the Imperial City tomorrow, is that right?"

Jun Li slowly stood up and smiled. "Yes, Professor Gu said to rest well so I want to go back and have a good rest."

Jun Li indeed needed to rest. His entire state also looked very bad.

"I have a question that has puzzled me for a long time. I want to ask you."

Fu Tingyu turned his head and looked at her. He could roughly guess what she wanted to ask.

Jun Li asked: "What question?"

“That time at Qi Hua Airport, you said that you got close to me because I was... I didn’t hear the last two words clearly, can you tell me?”

Qin Shu looked at him steadily, waiting for his answer.

Jun Li recalled that time at Qi Hua Airport and blurted out those words on impulse. He smiled. “You guess. I’ll tell you if you guess it.”

Qin Shu sighed: “If I could guess it, I wouldn’t have to ask you.”

Jun Li: “Actually, I was just saying it casually that day. Don’t take it seriously.”

Qin Shu was stunned! “You don’t seem like someone who would joke around.”

Jun Li said: “It’s fun to joke around once in a while.”

Qin Shu looked at Jun Li. Sometimes, she could not see through Jun Li either. He was always calm and collected but he also had a warm and friendly look. Even if he was angry, he did not seem to care.

It was difficult to guess what he was really thinking.

Jun Li returned to the Imperial City early the next morning. She sent him off personally.

Before Jun Li boarded the plane, she could not help but ask again: “Was that sentence really a joke?”

Jun Li smiled and nodded: “Yes.”

Qin Shu stared at Jun Li for a few seconds. She really could not see through whether what he said was true.

..

Qin Shu stood in the courtyard and watched Hua Wuyan play with Xiao Jiu. Xiao Jiu was much smarter than she was when she was young. She held the gun in a decent posture. Most importantly, she only learned for an hour before she was able to hit the ninth ring.

Han Xiao walked over and stood beside her. He looked at Xiao Jiu in the middle of the courtyard and said, “Xiao Jiu is very smart. She is so young, yet she was able to hit the ninth ring.”

Qin Shu smiled and asked: “What about you? How many rings were you able to hit when you were young?”

Han Xiao replied: “I only held the gun when I was six.”

“I started even later. I was ten years old.”

She started holding the gun in her first year on the mountain. Her master was afraid that she would be bored so he taught her marksmanship and let her play by herself.

Qin Shu’s marksmanship was good. Han Xiao had seen it when he was on Qi Mountain. She did not look like a beginner at all.

“Are you going back to Jiangcheng tomorrow?”

Qin Shu nodded: "Yes, Xiao Jiu has to go to school."

After a few seconds of silence

"I'll send you."

"Okay."

Yan Shuang took advantage of the fact that there was no one around Fu Tingyu to ask him in puzzlement: "Ling Yan, what's wrong with your martial art strength?"

When Fu Tingyu jumped into the water, she realized that something was wrong. This was because when a martial artist's martial art strength reached the peak level, their speed could not be so slow.

When he was learning martial arts on Qi Mountain, he was the most talented. It was impossible for him to slow down after so many years.

However, on the day when Jun Li drowned, she saw clearly that his speed was not just slightly slower.

Actually, this was not the first time she had suspected it. In the past few times, she had also noticed that his speed in all aspects had slowed down a lot. It was just that she had never thought about it seriously.

Fu Tingyu replied faintly: "I just attained the silver rank."

Chapter 905: She Is Much Stronger Than You Can Imagine

Silver rank?

Yan Shuang looked at him in surprise. She could not believe it. He had broken through the Peak Level ten years ago and now he was back to silver rank?

"What, what is going on?"

Fu Tingyu's answer was simple and concise: "It was caused by poison."

"What kind of poison is so powerful? Even martial art strength can disappear? Who is so vicious? Doesn't he know how important martial art strength is to a martial artist?" Yan Shuang said indignantly.

Fu Tingyu thought of his sworn enemy who tried to get close to the girl, the leader of the Crimson Sand Organization. After kidnapping the girl and Gu Yan, he helped her get the Lanzhi grass. What kind of move was that?

In the past few years, the Crimson Sand Organization did not seem to have made any moves.

"It's already in the past." The voice was still indifferent.

"How can it be over? Ten years ago, you were at the Peak Level. If nothing went wrong, you're definitely not far from the Emperor Level now, but you're only silver rank now. I don't know if there's any way to recover your martial art strength."

This was the first time Yan Shuang had heard that being poisoned could cause someone's martial art strength to weaken and disappear. At that moment, she did not know if there was any way to recover it.

“It’s only a matter of time before I recover to the Peak Level.” After trying many methods, they were all useless. It had already been four or five years, so he could only rely on himself to recover.

Although Yan Shuang had never lost her martial art strength, as a martial artist, she knew very well that falling from the Peak Level all of a sudden was very saddening.

“Wait until I go back and ask my grandfather. There must be a way.”

Fu Tingyu turned his head and glanced at Yan Shuang. He remembered that when they first met, she knew that he needed Lanzhi grass, so she agreed to help him without saying anything.

“Thank you.”

Yan Shuang smiled and said, “We are all brothers. It’s too polite to say thank you.”

“Okay.” Fu Tingyu replied.

“Tomorrow, when you go back to Jiangcheng, I will also go back to North Star. I am the only one in my family. The daughters of other families are busy shopping and getting boyfriends. Every day, I am only concerned about the company or the family. I even suspect that I will be bald when I am thirty years old,” Yan Shuang could not help but complain.

Fu Tingyu smiled. “That means you have the ability.”

“Having the ability is equivalent to being exhausted to death,” Yan Shuang said enviously. “I also want to be like Ling Bao. I want to stay at home to look after my husband and raise my children. There is no pressure at all.”

“She is not a little woman who stays at home to look after her husband and raise her children. She is busy with her career. Sometimes, she is so busy that she doesn’t even have the time to talk to me.”

Fu Tingyu was not exaggerating at all.

When she was pregnant, she worked hard to study for university courses.

After Xiao Jiu was born, she began to further her studies.

During her studies, she also had to take care of the Wen Hua Company.

At the same time, there was also the technology research and development that she cooperated with.

In the eyes of outsiders, Qin Shu was a little woman who married into a wealthy family to look after her husband and raise her children.

However, very few people knew that she was the chairman of Wen Hua. In just two years, Wen Hua had surpassed their previous glory days.

Last year, Wen Hua had squeezed into the top 100 in the world.

A hint of surprise flashed across Yan Shuang’s eyes: “Really? I really didn’t expect Ling Bao to be so amazing. It looks like I have to work hard too. I have to work hard to develop my career and let the Yan Family rise to a higher level.”

Fu Tingyu: "All the best."

Yan Shuang nodded vigorously: "Okay."

The next day, Qin Shu and Fu Tingyu brought Xiao Jiu to the airport.

Yan Shuang booked the flight on the same day and went to the airport with them.

Han Xiao, Xiao Hua, and Qin Feng sent them to the airport.

Before boarding the plane, Qin Shu lowered her head and said to her son, "Xiao Jiu, say goodbye to your uncles."

Xiao Jiu raised his small hand and waved at them. "Uncle, Uncle Han, Uncle Yan, goodbye."

Hua Wuyan waved at Xiao Jiu reluctantly: "Goodbye."

Qin Feng also waved his hand like Xiao Jiu did but he directed his words to Han Xiao: "I keep feeling that Xiao Jiu is not like a three-year-old child. He is too smart."

Han Xiao looked at the back view of the family of three as they left and said: "Indeed, he does not look like a three-year-old child."

After learning for an hour, his marksmanship was already so good.

Qin Feng was a little emotional: "I often think of what happened on the Qi Mountain, and I suddenly understand a sentence. Beating is care and scolding is love. It is probably referring to Ling Bao and Ling Yan."

Hua Wuyan: "I also didn't expect that two people who would fight each other every time they saw each other would end up together."

Han Xiao: "Ling Bao still has a part of her memory that she hasn't regained."

Qin Feng and Hua Wuyan turned their heads to look at Han Xiao with confusion in their eyes.

Han Xiao looked at them: "From what Fu Tingyu said, it should be because Master doesn't want her to remember."

"I also feel that there's something strange about Ling Bao's amnesia. When Ling Bao left the mountain, there were no signs at all. Even Ling Yan and I did not know until we didn't see Ling Bao the next day and went to ask Master about it. Also, Master asked me to follow Ling Bao when she left the mountain, but Master didn't mention it again. Isn't it very strange?" Qin Feng asked back.

"It is indeed very strange. Did Master erase Ling Bao's memories?" Hua Wuyan also asked.

Han Xiao said: "Master has that ability."

Hua Wuyan said: "I also heard from my grandfather that after one's martial art strength reaches the Emperor Level, everything is beyond ordinary people. They will even age slower than average."

"Master is very young. Unfortunately, I didn't see him last time." Qin Feng felt a little regretful.

Han Xiao: "In the world today, how many martial artists have reached the Emperor Level?"

Hua Wuyan and Qin Feng were stunned.

Emperor Level martial artists had basically gone into hiding. They did not even know if they were still alive.

Jiangcheng

After Qin Shu met Han Xiao, Qin Shu was not the only one who had one less thing to worry about in her heart. Fu Tingyu also felt the same.

In Fu Tingyu's heart, Han Xiao was his strongest love rival.

He was constantly worried that Qin Shu would choose Han Xiao again because she remembered the past.

Although he had heard the conversation, if he had not appeared, Qin Shu would still choose Han Xiao.

At this moment, Fu Tingyu could also focus on his work.

Xiao Jiu still had to go to Kindergarten.

In the morning, Xiao Jiu carried his bag and looked at Qin Shu. He suggested: "Mother, can I not go to Kindergarten?"

Qin Shu squatted down in front of her son. Seeing the unwillingness on his face, she asked: "You can play with many children in Kindergarten. Don't you like it?"

Xiao Jiu slowly said: "I don't like it. They are too weak. During the tug-of-war, I won before I even started. When I ran to the end of the ten-meter sprint, they just started running. There are also a few girls who always give me chocolate. I don't like chocolate."

Qin Shu looked at her son who was only three years old and was speaking with conviction. She thought for a while and said: "Then you won't go to kindergarten today. You can play at home by yourself."

Xiao Jiu was a little dejected just now. When he heard these words, he instantly became spirited. "Then I'll look for Uncle Ye Luo to go boxing."

Qin Shu smiled and took off the school bag on his back. "Go."

"Mom, I love you." Xiao Jiu hugged Qin Shu's face and kissed it. Then she smiled and went to look for Ye Luo.

Qin Shu shook her head with a smile. She stood up with her school bag and walked into the living room.

After her memory was restored, she had yet to contact Chao Yan.

Chapter 906: Baby Is Trying To Get Information From Me

After recovering her memory, she still had not contacted Chao Yan.

Thinking of Chao Yan's eyes, they were covered with gauze every time they met.

She had not contacted him all this time because she only remembered the scene when she first met Chao Yan. She did not remember anything else.

She was a little curious. What other things did she not remember between them?

She carried Xiao Jiu's bag into the living room and sat down on the sofa. She took out her phone and saw the message on it. The note was changed to Chao Yan back when she was in the ancient City of Wind and Moon.

She looked at her phone number and hesitated.

Ning Meng walked over with fresh fruit in her hand. When she saw the bag on the sofa, she asked curiously: "Madam Fu, why didn't Young Master take his bag with him?"

Qin Shu gripped her phone tightly and glanced at the small school bag on the sofa. She smiled helplessly and said: "He didn't go to school. He went boxing with Ye Luo."

"Young Master is so young yet so good at boxing. He can even move a heavy sandbag that I can't."

Ning Meng had seen Xiao Jiu boxing with a sandbag. A woman was worse than a child.

Qin Shu also felt that Xiao Jiu was very interested in boxing. After thinking for a while, she instructed: "Prepare some fruits for him. He can't practice for too long."

"Okay, I'll go now." Ning Meng walked out with light steps.

After Ning Meng left, Qin Shu looked down at Chao Yan's phone number on her phone. After looking at it for a while, she called him directly.

This was the first time she called Chao Yan.

The phone rang for about ten seconds before it was picked up. A joyful voice sounded in her ear. "Baby actually called me on your own accord. I'm flattered."

Chao Yan's tone was no different from the first time they met. He was very straightforward and knew how to play the victim.

However, he was very different compared to the first time they met on Qi Mountain.

The first time they met, he was even colder than Han Xiao. In fact, he did not even say a word.

Qin Shu called out: "Chao Yan."

Chao Yan's voice was filled with confusion: "What's wrong, Baby?"

Qin Shu said: "That time when we had a trip to the lake in North Star, the little girl in the story you told me was me, right?"

As soon as Qin Shu finished speaking, the other end of the phone suddenly went silent.

After a few seconds of silence

Qin Shu thought that he was too surprised and could not react in time because he had been unwilling to talk about the past. It was probably because he was deliberately unwilling to talk about it.

However, the silence was a little long, which made Qin Shu a little puzzled.

Just as she opened her mouth to ask, she heard Chao Yan say: "Baby, you remember the past?"

Qin Shu: "Yes."

Chao Yan paused and then asked: "Then do you remember what you said to me?"

Qin Shu was stunned. How could she remember what she said? She only remembered the scene of their first meeting and nothing else.

She realized that it was probably her master who had deliberately taken those memories out.

This was because she met Chao Yan after Han Xiao went up the mountain. There was no reason not to remember.

The only possibility was that it was deliberately removed from her memory.

"I don't remember." She answered honestly.

Chao Yan asked: "Then why did you say that you remembered?"

"I only remembered the scene when I first met you. I don't remember anything else. Not even what I said."

"Baby, you are trying to trick me by saying that you remember in hopes that I reveal everything out of excitement, right? Baby has become bad."

Chao Yan could not help but laugh at the end of his sentence. Through the phone line, Qin Shu heard it clearly.

She really wanted to trick Chao Yan into talking, but she could only blame Chao Yan for being too smart.

"If I didn't try to trick you into talking, would you have said it?" She asked back.

Chao Yan smiled and said: "No, that's why I said that you have become bad learning how to trick me."

Qin Shu could not help but roll her eyes. "You have changed so much since the first time I met you."

Chao Yan was silent for a while before asking: "Then do you like me then or me now?"

"I like the change in you." Qin Shu was telling the truth. This was because when they first met, Chao Yan was expressionless and had a lifeless look on his face, especially when he could not see. He just sat there motionlessly. Perhaps it was because he had not gone out for a long time, his skin was very fair, even fairer than hers.

She practiced martial arts every day and was very tanned.

Even if she could not see his eyes, it did not affect his appearance at all. It was the same when he was young.

Chao Yan smiled: "You didn't call me just to get information from me?"

“No.” Qin Shu pursed her lips. No one could probably understand her current mood. Chao Yan was Fu Tingyu’s sworn enemy, the person who poisoned him and the person who kidnapped her and Gu Yan.

However, he had helped her. Not only did he help her, but he also helped her get the Lanzhi grass.

Now that she remembered that she knew Chao Yan. She could guess that their relationship was not bad from what he said occasionally.

“I’m just curious about our past.”

“Then come and play with me for two days. I’ll tell you another story.”

“...” Qin Shu said: “You said that we were friends. Do friends make deals like this?”

Chao Yan sighed: “If I didn’t do this, would you have played with me?”

“Friends don’t need to make such deals. If you don’t want to talk about it, I won’t force you. We’ll talk when I remember the rest of my memories.”

Chao Yan was a little helpless: “Baby.”

Qin Shu said, “Wei Ming, Wei Xing, Wei Yan, I killed them.”

Chao Yan paused. He was a little surprised that Qin Shu had personally killed someone.

The innocent and lively little girl from before had also become so bold.

“You are avenging Fu Tingyu, aren’t you?”

“Logically speaking, revenge should be done on the instigators. You hid it too deeply, so I can only take action against them.”

“You won’t be able to do it.” Chao Yan said with certainty.

Qin Shu pursed her lips. The first time in his villa, when she held a dagger against his fair neck, she hesitated.

“That time, it was because it was in your territory and Gu Yan was still in your hands.”

“Then what happened after that? You had many chances to make a move but you didn’t.”

Qin Shu was stunned for a few seconds, then said: “That’s because you can’t see.”

Chao Yan directly denied, “No, that’s because in your heart, you clearly know that I have no ill intentions towards you.”

Qin Shu was stunned again when what he said hit spot on.

“Baby, even a fool can see through it. Besides, you’re so smart, how could you not see through it? If you couldn’t sense it when you saved Gu Yan, would you have risked staying by my side for three days?”

Qin Shu was a little unconvinced, “Then did you know that when you kidnapped me and threatened Fu Tingyu, if it wasn’t for Fu Tingyu, I would have already died. In the end, you kidnapped me in exchange for Gu Yan. If I didn't save myself and if it wasn't for Fu Tingyu rushing over in time, I would have already died."

"Baby, I didn't instigate those people, but the reason was indeed me. It was because they knew that I was poisoned and tried to help me cure it. Fu Tingyu was even poisoned because I was poisoned.. It was because of this poison that they thought of ways to capture Gu Yan."

Chapter 907: You Trust Me?

"The time when you came to save Gu Yan, I only found out after he was captured."

"But after you found out, you didn't release him. Instead, you kept him in custody."

As soon as Qin Shu finished speaking, the phone suddenly quietened down. It was so quiet that she thought Chao Yan had hung up.

She did not hear Chao Yan's voice. She held the phone tightly in her hand and did not say anything for a while.

After a while, Chao Yan said: "Baby, I just want to live longer."

After hearing Chao Yan's words, Qin Shu was silent. He did not care about his own body and promised to let her and Gu Yan leave three days later. It was the same as giving up on the treatment.

Chao Yan was poisoned the same as Fu Tingyu. He was poisoned even earlier than Fu Tingyu. It was already a miracle that he could live until now.

It was human nature to want to survive.

Therefore, Chao Yan did not let Gu Yan leave. It was something that normal people would do.

"Were you really not the one who instigated those things?"

"It's up to you to believe it or not. No matter how much I say, it's useless."

Qin Shu pursed her lips. "Has your poison been cured?"

Chao Yan said: "I won't die anytime soon."

Qin Shu could tell that he was angry because of what had happened just now, "Do you have time to come to Jiangcheng?"

Chao Yan raised his eyebrows. "Why? Do you want to make it up to me?"

"..." Qin Shu: "Let Gu Yan cure your poison."

Chao Yan smiled. "You believe me now?"

Qin Shu did not say anything.

Chao Yan took the silence as agreement. "No need. I know my own body. Do you have anything else?"

Qin Shu frowned, "Do you really not need Gu Yan to cure you?"

“No need. If you really want to make it up to me, come to the ancient City of Wind and Moon to play with me for two days when you have time.”

After hanging up the phone, she thought of what Chao Yan had said. He just wanted to live longer. Qin Shu felt something stuck in her chest and it was very uncomfortable.

Sitting on the sofa in a daze for a long time, she called Gu Yan.

“Gu Yan, do you still have the antidote for Fu Tingyu?”

“I still have some left. Why are you asking about this?”

“I want it.”

Gu Yan could not help but feel a little anxious when he heard that: “What’s wrong? Is anyone poisoned?”

“Don’t ask so much. I’ll go to your house to get it now.”

Qin Shu hung up the phone after she finished speaking. She took her bag and left the house.

Gu Yan looked at the phone that had been hung up and was still a little confused.

Qin Shu rushed to Gu Yan’s private villa, took the medicine, and was about to leave.

Gu Yan grabbed her arm and asked: “Who’s poisoned this time?”

“Chao Yan.” After saying that, Qin Shu was in a hurry to leave.

Gu Yan was stunned on the spot. “Who is Chao Yan?”

No one answered him because Qin Shu had already gone far away.

After leaving Gu Yan’s private villa, Qin Shu went straight to the delivery company. She knew where Chao Yan lived, so she quickly filled out the delivery form and sent the antidote to Chao Yan.

This was an express delivery. It would arrive the day after tomorrow at the latest.

At night

After Fu Tingyu returned, Qin Shu raised the issue of Xiao Jiu going to Kindergarten with him.

“Xiao Jiu doesn’t want to go to Kindergarten. I plan to let him go to the first grade.”

Fu Tingyu said, “Then have you thought about which primary school to go to babe?”

Qin Shu said, “I’ve already thought about which school to go to. In order to train Xiao Jiu, I won’t go to an elite school. Blue Flag Primary School is pretty good.”

Fu Tingyu also felt that there was no need to go to an elite school, so when his wife said it, he naturally agreed. “Listen to you, my wife. I’ll get Shi Yan to handle this later.”

Qin Shu pulled him back, “There’s no rush. I’ll talk to Xiao Jiu about this later and listen to his thoughts.”

Fu Tingyu smiled and nodded: “I’ll leave it to you.”

Qin Shu raised the corner of her mouth and turned around to look for Xiao Jiu.

Xiao Jiu did not go to Kindergarten today. He was boxing with Ye Luo for an hour and played with Boss for two hours. Finally, he pulled Ye Luo to play shooting with him to practice his basic skills.

The day was happy and fulfilling. His smile was plastered all over his face.

Qin Shu saw Xiao Jiu with a smile on her face, "Xiao Jiu, did you have fun today?"

Xiao Jiu was still holding the beginner hacker skill guide in his hand because it was harder to learn than shooting.

"I'm happy. Why did Mommy come looking for me?"

Qin Shu said, "I discussed it with your dad for a while. I'll let you go to Primary School tomorrow. Blue Flag Primary School is an ordinary Primary School. Do you have any opinions?"

After Xiao Jiu heard this, he comforted Qin Shu instead: "I don't have any opinions. I'll quickly get used to the new learning environment. Mommy don't worry about me."

Qin Shu was very comforted. Her son was too sensible. "Xiao Jiu, you are the best. Let Shi Yan send you to school tomorrow, okay?"

Xiao Jiu: "Okay, I'll listen to Mommy."

Her son was too sensible. Qin Shu let out a sigh of relief. She saw that her son was holding the beginner hacker skill guide that she had prepared. Xiao Jiu had been holding it for the past few nights

"Xiao Jiu is that interested in learning how to hack?"

Xiao Jiu nodded vigorously: "Yes, Mommy. I want to learn how to hack. If I can learn it, I can solve a lot of problems."

Qin Shu saw that Xiao Jiu was so interested, "How about I set aside an hour every day to teach you? I'll give you a computer to practice on."

"Are you really going to find time to teach me? Will Dad object?" Xiao Jiu hesitated when he thought of Fu Tingyu, who always had a straight face.

"It's okay. Your dad won't object." Qin Shu gave him reassurance.

Xiao Jiu was so excited that he almost jumped up, "Mommy is still the best."

"Okay, you read first. Go to bed at nine, okay?" Qin Shu didn't forget to remind him.

Xiao Jiu said: "I got it, Mommy. I will go to bed at nine sharp."

After the decision for Xiao Jiu to go to Blue Flag Primary School was made, Shi Yan went to look for the Principal of the school overnight.

After everything was prepared, he brought Xiao Jiu to Blue Flag Primary School the next day.

On the way, Xiao Jiu did not reveal an excited expression. Instead, he took the computer that Qin Shu had given him and began to practice his hand speed.

Hearing the sound of typing, Shi Yan looked up at the rearview mirror. Seeing Xiao Jiu typing on the keyboard so seriously, he would think of Qin Shu hacking someone else's computer. It was especially cool.

Ancient City of Wind and Moon, Chao Yan Manor

Yin Shi held the parcel and curiously looked at it as he walked.

When he came to the balcony, he opened the parcel and said, "Master, this is your parcel. It was sent from Jiangcheng."

Chao Yan was sitting on the rattan chair, drinking tea with one hand. When he heard the word Jiangcheng, he stopped drinking tea, "Who sent it?"

Yin Shi replied: "Master, there's no name written on the package."

"Let me see."

Yin Shi handed the package to his master?

Chao Yan put down the teacup in his hand, took the package, and opened the box. As soon as he opened it, he could smell a strong smell of Chinese medicine.

When he took out the things inside, he was stunned for a moment.

Just by feeling it, he knew that there were several sets of wrapped medicine and a piece of paper inside.

Chao Yan handed the paper to Yin Shi, "What's written on it?"

Chapter 908: Bullied on the First Day

Yin Shi took the piece of paper and had a skim through its contents. Then his face changed. "Master, this is method of how to make the antidote. What you have in your hand should be the prescription for the antidote."

When he learned that this was the antidote, Yin Shi did not show any joy. Instead, he was a little sad.

The antidote that he could not get four years ago was so easily obtained four years later. Four years had passed and the antidote was no longer effective.

"She sent it." Chao Yan held the well-wrapped medicine in his hand, and the corners of his mouth unconsciously curved into a beautiful smile.

Yin Shi suddenly understood who had sent this package. When he thought that this was the antidote that he could not get four years ago, he was indignant.

"But this antidote is no longer effective. Why did she only send it now? Four years ago, she knew that master you were poisoned, why didn't she let Gu Yan Cure You..."

Chao Yan scolded, "Shut Up."

Yin Shi held the paper tightly in his hand, "Master..."

Chao Yan placed the two small packets of medicine on the pear-wood tea table in front of him, "Put these away."

Yin Shi glanced at the two packets of medicine on the table, then wrapped them in the paper used for the prescription. No matter how indignant he felt, it was not his place to speak out.

After packing up the two packets of medicine, he brought the medicine that he had brewed and placed it on the table. He glanced at his master and saw that his master was getting thinner and thinner with every passing day. His Master's condition was also getting worse, and his heart ached.

This was also the reason that he was so angry when he saw the antidote that he could not get four years ago.

"Master, the medicine has been brewed. You should to drink it while it's still hot."

Chao Yan was not in a hurry to drink the medicine. He took out his phone and dialed Qin Shu's number.

Qin Shu saw the caller ID. It was Chao Yan. She knew that he had received the medicine.

Chao Yan said, "I've received the medicine."

Qin Shu said, "The medicine needs to be combined with acupuncture. It's not difficult to find a good doctor for that. As long as you follow the instructions, the poison can be cured. But the medicine has side effects."

Chao Yan asked, "What side effects are there?"

"Once the poison is cured, martial art strength will also disappear."

Qin Shu knew how important martial art strength was to a martial artist, so she told him in advance to allow him to be mentally prepared.

She said again, "No matter what, staying alive is the most important thing."

Chao Yan said, "I understand what you mean."

Qin Shu only heaved a sigh of relief when she heard this.

It was Xiao Jiu's first day in kindergarten, and she was the youngest in the entire grade.

When the homeroom teacher of Class 101, Miss Mei, learned that she had a new student in her class, a child who was only three and a half years old, she thought that she had misheard.

Or perhaps the Principal was joking.

It was only when she saw Fu Zhiheng that she understood that the Principal was not joking. On the contrary, he was very serious.

Miss Mei still could not believe that such a young child was sent to primary school instead of kindergarten. What were his parents thinking?

However, she still liked Fu Zhiheng's looks.

Xiao Jiu carried his bag and followed Miss Mei into Class 101's classroom.

“Students, a new student has arrived in our class. He is younger than any of you, so you have to take care of him.”

After Miss Mei said that, she turned to look at Fu Zhiheng. “Why don’t you introduce yourself first?”

She said that subconsciously. After she finished speaking, she thought of how he was still so afraid of strangers that he wouldn’t be able to say a word, so she decided to introduce him herself.

Xiao Jiu glanced at his classmates who were a few years older than him and said, “I am Fu Zhiheng.”

Miss Mei had just opened her mouth when she heard Fu Zhiheng’s words. She turned to look at him and realized that not only was he not afraid of strangers, but he was also very calm and collected. She was a little surprised by it.

“Miss, is he in the wrong place? He should be in kindergarten at such a young age. If he cries, no one will be there to cheer him up.”

The one who spoke was a little chubby. Just as he finished speaking, the classroom was filled with laughter.

Miss Mei smiled and looked at Fu Zhiheng. His face was as white and straight as dough. She was indeed a little afraid that if he suddenly cried in class, it would affect the other students.

Xiao Jiu ignored what the chubby boy had said and turned to Miss Mei. “Miss, where is my seat?”

Miss Mei swept his gaze across the classroom and saw an empty seat at the back. She pointed to that empty seat and said, “Sit there.”

Xiao Jiu’s gaze followed the direction of Miss Mei’s finger and saw the empty seat at the back.

“Thank you, Miss.” With that said, he walked from the front of the class with his two short legs to the back.

Miss Mei said, “Students, turn to page 15 of the textbook. Let’s continue with the lesson.”

Xiao Jiu took out the beginner hacker textbook and placed it on the textbook to continue reading. He was so engrossed in reading that he did not even know that the teacher had left after class.

He was engrossed in reading when a chubby hand suddenly appeared in front of him, preventing him from seeing the words on it.

Xiao Jiu looked up and saw the chubby boy, who had said that he was going to crying during class, stood in front of his desk. There were quite a number of students standing behind the chubby boy. All of them were sizing him up as if they were looking at a monkey.

“Hey brat, have you weaned yet?”

Immediately after the chubby boy finished speaking, there were other students who followed up.

“You’re still so young. You might even need a diaper.”

“Let me see if you’re wearing a diaper to class.”

The chubby boy was famous for being mischievous and often bullied other girls. The other boys were also afraid of him because he had an older brother who was in the fifth grade and was also a little tyrant.

Just as the chubby boy reached out to pull Xiao Jiu's pants, Xiao Jiu dodged and stepped on the chubby boy's foot, causing the chubby boy to fall to the ground with a loud thud.

The students who were watching the show were shocked. They stood at the side and looked at each other. No one dared to speak.

When the homeroom teacher, Miss Mei, heard the news and rushed over, she saw that the chubby boy's mouth was full of blood and two of his front teeth had fallen out. He had been crying ever since he had fallen over.

Xiao Jiu sat on the desk and watched the chubby boy cry like an outsider.

Miss Mei asked, "What exactly is going on?"

The chubby boy pointed at Xiao Jiu as he cried and said, "It was Fu Zhiheng who pushed me down. My Teeth... My teeth are gone."

After saying that, he burst into tears again.

Miss Mei looked at Fu Zhiheng and then at the chubby boy, Hao Qi. She knew that Hao Qi was mischievous. One should consider oneself to be lucky if he didn't bully him.

She looked at Fu Zhiheng and asked, "Fu Zhiheng, what happened just now?"

Xiao Jiu glanced at the chubby boy. When he was crying, he happened to see that two of his front teeth were missing. He looked back at Miss Mei and said, "He wanted to pull my pants down, but he fell down."

Xiao Jiu looked like someone who had been kneaded out of flour. He was very adorable and spoke slowly. His credibility was 100% .

In addition to his age, his small figure.

Miss Mei was a little angry when she heard this. She comforted Xiao Jiu, "Are you scared? Don't be afraid. I'm here now.. He won't dare bully you again."

Chapter 909: Self-defense

Miss Mei looked at Hao Qi again and said, "It's one thing for you to be mischievous every day, but why are you bullying a classmate who is so much younger than you? I'll take you to the hospital first, and then I'll call your parents."

Miss Mei held Hao Qi's hand with one hand, and she took out her phone with the other to make a call. Then, she walked out of the classroom.

"Hao Qi's brother is the little tyrant of the fifth grade. You're going to be in trouble."

The one who spoke was the male student who had agreed with Hao Qi earlier.

The students quickly dispersed.

Xiao Jiu had never met anyone who had caused him any real trouble ever since he was born, let alone the little tyrant who bullied the weak.

Therefore, he directly ignored his words and continued reading with his head lowered.

One of the girls glanced at Fu Zhiheng and hesitated for a while before walking up to him and reminded him softly. "After school, you'd better ask your parents to pick you up. Otherwise, you'll really be in trouble."

After saying that, she jogged back to her seat.

Xiao Jiu glanced at the little girl who reminded him just now. She was very careful, as if she was afraid of being seen by others.

"Is it that scary?" Xiao Jiu mumbled in a childish voice. Then, he lowered his head and continued reading.

After class, he picked up his bag and took out his phone to call Ye Luo.

"Uncle Ye, wait for me at the convenience store across from the school. I'll walk there myself."

Ye Luo didn't ask why. He just said, "Okay."

Then, he hung up the phone and waited at the entrance of the convenience store.

Xiao Jiu put away his phone and continued walking. He just wanted to see who was going to teach him a lesson. What made that little girl so scared?

"Bro, it's him. Fu Zhiheng knocked out two of my front teeth." Hao Qi pulled his brother Hao Lei. When he spoke, his words were still a little unclear.

"Let's see who dares bully my brother." Hao Lei snorted. He looked up at the direction Hao Qi was pointing at and saw a little brat whose height was not even close to his brother's chest. At first glance, he looked like a harmless child. How was he able to knock someone's teeth out?

He looked down at his little brother. "Are you sure he hit you?"

"It was him. Look at my teeth. My teeth are gone. My classmates are laughing at me," Hao Qi pointed at his own mouth and said.

Hao Lei looked at Fu Zhiheng again. He walked over and blocked his way. "Did you knock out my little brother's teeth?"

When Hao Lei asked the question, he did not have much confidence. Looking at such a small child, how could he knock out his little brother's teeth?

Xiao Jiu looked up at the two people blocking his way. He glanced at Hao Qi and understood everything.

The guy who was going to teach him a lesson was the tall guy in front of him?

“He fell on his own.”

When Hao Lei heard this, he looked at his younger brother and was thinking of the exact same thing.

Hao Qi cried and said, “Bro, don’t listen to his nonsense. He suddenly dodged and stepped on my foot. That’s why I fell.”

Hao Lei looked at Fu Zhiheng again. “You stepped on my brother’s foot?”

“Yes.” Xiao Jiu did not deny it. He just wanted to know what they wanted to do.

“No wonder my brother fell. So it was you who stepped on my brother’s foot? My brother lost two front teeth. You have to compensate him with two of your own.” Han Lei reached out and grabbed Fu Zhiheng’s collar.

Xiao Jiu frowned. When Hao Lei reached out, he quickly dodged. His speed stunned Hao Lei for a long time. He looked at Fu Zhiheng who was in front of him just now for one second and then two meters away from him the next.

Xiao Jiu looked up at him and asked, “You want to hit me, right?”

Hao Lei came back to his senses. He looked at Fu Zhiheng who was asking him such an obvious question.

It was hilarious.

It was the first time he met someone who was not afraid at all,

“You broke my brother’s front teeth. If I don’t hit you, why do you still have them? As long as you lose yours, then we’re even.”

Xiao Jiu tilted her head and asked again, “You want two front teeth from me, right?”

“Are you stupid? Didn’t I say that I want to get even with yo... ”

Before Hao Lei finished speaking, he felt a pain in his abdomen, and the air was knocked out of him. He held his stomach with one hand and looked at Fu Zhiheng. He was the one who kicked him just now.

Xiao Jiu didn’t give him a chance to react. He raised his leg and kicked Hao Lei’s jaw again. His small body landed steadily on the ground.

Hao Lei fell to the ground after being kicked. He spat out blood and two of his front teeth.

His eyes were widened in shock. He couldn’t believe that a little kid could be so powerful.

“It was self-defense,” Xiao Jiu said and clasped his bag tightly. Then, he turned around and walked towards the convenience store.

He thought that primary school was much more exciting than kindergarten.

The first time he fought with someone was much more fun than fighting with sandbags in the martial arts practice room.

Ye Luo stood by the car and waited for Xiao Jiu to get in. He had seen the scene of Xiao Jiu beating someone up just now. The son of Sir Fu was really extraordinary.

On the way back

Ye Luo said, "The roundhouse kick that you did just now was very cool."

"Then practice some more with me when we get home, Uncle Ye." Xiao Jiu felt that his speed was a little slow just now, and the height of his jump was not enough. If the other person was ten centimeters taller, he would definitely miss the kick.

"Okay." Ye Luo continued to drive.

Back at Bright Garden

After Xiao Jiu got out of the car, he went to look for Qin Shu.

He pushed open the door of the small study room and walked in. "Mom, I'm back."

Seeing that her son was back, Qin Shu put down what she was doing and carried her son up. As she helped him take off his schoolbag, she asked, "How was your first day of school? Did you get along well with your classmates?"

"It was more fun than kindergarten." Xiao Jiu was thinking that he could do what happened today a few more times so that he could practice his skills.

Qin Shu was a little curious. "Is that so? Which aspect of primary school was more fun than kindergarten?"

Xiao Jiu said, "I practiced what I learned today."

"You answered all the questions correctly, right?" The reason why she asked was because Xiao Jiu had indeed learned elementary school knowledge.

Xiao Jiu shook her head. "No, it was Uncle Ye who taught me the side kick and the roundhouse kick. I used them all. I also used the teleportation technique that Grandmaster taught me."

Qin Shu heard this and guessed one thing. "You fought with your classmates?"

"Yes, he laughed at me for not weaning myself. He even said that I wore diapers to school and wanted to strip my pants. In the end, I stepped on the back of his foot. When he fell, he knocked his front teeth off. Then, after school, he got his brother to beat me up. I was just defending myself." In the end., Xiao Jiu did not forget to give himself an excuse to fight.

"He dare laugh at my son?" Qin Shu lowered her head and kissed her son on the forehead. Then, she praised him, "Xiao Jiu did the right thing. Don't attack others unless they attack you. They asked for it."

Xiao Jiu was very happy that he was not scolded. "Thank you, Mom."

"I believe that Xiao Jiu won't attack others for no reason. It's good to teach those naughty kids who bully the weak a lesson, but you have to know your limits, understand?" Qin Shu emphasized the last sentence.

"I understand, mom. Then, I'll go practice with Uncle Ye."

"Go."

Xiao Jiu nimbly got off Qin Shu's body, turned around and ran out.

Chapter 910: A Hug

At night, when she was sleeping, Qin Shu told Fu Tingyu about this matter.

The man lowered his head and looked at her. "Do you regret not putting Xiao Jiu in an aristocratic school?"

Qin Shu shook her head. "No, it's the same in an aristocratic school. I'm just afraid that Xiao Jiu is too young and will make mistakes easily."

Fu Tingyu comforted her. "Xiao Jiu may be mischievous, but he still knows his limits. You should be glad that Xiao Jiu has the ability to protect himself and won't be bullied."

"You're right. Just teach her more. She knows when to stop."

Qin Shu felt much more at ease now.

Qin Shu still took out an hour every day to teach Xiao Jiu hacking skills.

Xiao Jiu was very good at learning. He also learned how to blind type. He was also very familiar with some simple controls.

During the weekend.

Xiao Jiu lay on the balcony and stared at the backyard wall in a daze. This was because his Grandmaster always came in from there and also took him away from there.

When Qin Shu came in, she saw her son lying on the balcony. During this period of time, her son had been very happy because he had already learned the basics of hacking. Why was he suddenly frowning today?

"Xiao Jiu, what's wrong?" She sat down beside Xiao Jiu and turned her head to look at him.

Xiao Jiu tilted his head and looked at Qin Shu, he looked a little worried. "Mommy, why hasn't Grandmaster come to take me to Qi Mountain to play for so long? Last time, he told Grandma that he would come to take me to the mountains to play in a few months. It has been five months now, but Grandmaster still hasn't come."

Xiao Jiu suddenly sat up straight and asked, "Mommy, does Grandmaster and Grandma Not Like Me Anymore?"

Only then did Qin Shu know that her son was unhappy because of her master. She comforted him, "Xiao Jiu is so smart and sensible, how could he not like me?"

Xiao Jiu said in a low voice, "Then why hasn't Grandmaster come to pick me up to play in the mountains yet? He said that he would come to pick me up in three months."

Qin Shu explained, "That's because Grandmaster and your grandma have already left Qi Mountain to go back to their hometown. The distance is too far, so they didn't come to pick you up to play."

Xiao Jiu heard this and changed her previous worry. "Then when will grandmaster and grandmother come back?"

"I don't know either. It shouldn't be long."

After searching for a few months, she still couldn't find her master and mother. It was as if she had vanished from the face of the Earth.

"Then I'll wait for Grandmaster to come back and pick me up." Xiao Jiu expressed that he was extremely patient.

Seeing that her son wasn't in a good mood, Qin Shu's eyes shifted. She smiled and asked, "Mommy will teach you a unique skill. Do you want to learn it?"

Xiao Jiu's eyes lit up. "I do. What does Mommy want to teach me?"

"Sit here and wait. Mommy will be back very soon."

After saying this, Qin Shu stood up and walked out of the room. Not long after, she returned with something in her hand.

Xiao Jiu saw that Qin Shu was holding a brand new box of poker cards in her hand. He was a little puzzled. "Does Mommy want to play poker with me?"

"Yes. Mommy will teach you a new way to play poker." Qin Shu opened the box and took out the poker cards inside. She held one between her two fingers and pulled it out. Her gaze swept across the room and finally landed on the apple on the desk, she smiled at her son. "Xiao Jiu, look at the apple on the desk."

Xiao Jiu did not know what Qin Shu was going to do. He looked curiously at the apple on the desk. It was an apple imported from abroad. Every one of them was very expensive.

There were four apples in total. Ning Meng had brought them in.

The next second, something flew across the room with incredible speed. The apple that was originally perfectly intact, split in two.

A brand new poker card then fell to the ground.

Xiao Jiu widened his eyes at the scene before him. Then, he looked at Qin Shu and asked, "Mommy, how did you do that?"

"Mommy will teach you." Qin Shu took out a poker card and sandwiched it between her middle finger and her index finger. "Xiao Jiu, look carefully. Control the strength of your fingers, push your martial art strength, aim at the target, and then throw the card out."

After Qin Shu finished speaking, the poker card flew out quickly, and half of the apple on the desk was split into two again.

"Mommy, I want to try it too." Xiao Jiu also picked up one of the poker cards and imitated Qin Shu's movements, flying the poker card out.

The first time, it only traveled about a meter before it fell to the ground

He continued the second and third time.

Seeing her son learning so seriously, Qin Shu knew that all of his attention was on poker and apple cutting.

“Xiao Jiu, you’ll get poker and apple cutting techniques in time.”

“I got it, Mommy.” Xiao Jiu directly took all the poker cards and tried them one by one, looking very serious.

Qin Shu stayed for a while and then she turned around and walked out. She didn’t want to bother her son.

In the afternoon, Qin Shu received a call from Ye Xing.

In the past few years, Ye Xing had settled in Jiangcheng and found a relatively leisurely job.

“Ye Xing, what’s the matter?”

Ye Xing replied, “Thank you for taking care of me these past few years. I’ve already recovered my memories. I’m already on the bus heading to the airport.”

Qin Shu was stunned for a few seconds when she heard that. It had already been a few years. She had thought that Ye Xing would never recover his memories, but now that he had suddenly recovered his memory, she was quite surprised.

“Are you going home?”

Ye Xing nodded. “Yes, I’ve been away for so many years. My family must be worried sick.”

“That’s true. We haven’t contacted each other for so many years. Your family must be worried. Be careful on the road. If you need anything, you can contact me.”

“Thank you, Qin Shu.”

Qin Shu hung up the phone. She couldn’t help but smile when she thought of the scene when they met.

Today was the day that Fu Tingyan returned from his studies. Fu Tingyan had called Old Madam Fu and Fu Tingyu last night to inform them.

It took him four years to learn martial arts, and he only came back to Jiangcheng once during that time.

Fu Tingyan carried his luggage and walked out of the airport. He looked at the sky of Jiangcheng. It was a feeling that he had not felt for a long time. Even the air was familiar to him.

He turned around and looked at Bo Ye. She stood beside him with her luggage. In the four years that had gone by, Bo Ye had lost her innocence, and she had become more beautiful. She grew a little taller but was still too skinny.

Learning martial arts was dull, but with Bo Ye by his side, he felt that time passed very quickly.

Bo Ye stood beside Fu Tingyan with her luggage. Although this was not her hometown, it was a different feeling to step onto the path of learning martial arts from here.

Fu Tingyu held Bo Ye's hand. "Let's go."

Bo Ye looked down at her hand that was held by Fu Tingyan and was forced to follow his footsteps. At this moment, her feelings were a little complicated.

She had originally planned to take a plane home. She had not seen her brother for four years. Although she had contacted him by phone, she still missed him very much.

However, Fu Tingyan had stopped her. He said that he had booked two tickets to Jiangcheng. His intention was very clear. He wanted her to come with him to Jiangcheng.

That was the reason why she was here at Jiangcheng Airport and now he wanted her to go home with him.

Sensing that Bo Ye seemed a little reluctant, he turned around and asked, "What's up? Don't you want to come home with me?"

Bo Ye shook his head. "No, it's not that."

"Then why are you walking so slowly?" Fu Tingyan immediately smiled and said, "Is it because you're hungry? Do you want me to carry you to the car?"
