

Bigoted 961

Chapter 961: Can He Be Saved?

Gu Yan shook his head, helpless. He was telling the truth. It was already a miracle Jun Li's body had held on for so long.

The real surprise was how fast Jun Li's condition had deteriorated. It caught him off guard.

Qin Shu reacted after what seemed like an age. She could not accept this outcome. Looking at Su Ying, who knelt on the ground, she felt a strong sense of empathy. Su Ying had always been by Jun Li's side, and their relationship ran deep.

"Su Ying, get up. If Gu Yan could save Jun Li, he would certainly do so."

Qin Shu glanced at Jun Li, who was lying in bed. The last time they talked, he did not mention his physical condition, merely mentioning how he had finished all the medicine Gu Yan prescribed. There was a good chance it was the reason he had not visited; his health did not afford him the luxury.

Still, she had not expected his condition to be so bad.

Jun Li was such a gentle person. How could the heavens be so cruel to snatch him away?

Su Ying got up. If begging was of no use, what else could he do? Then, it occurred to him that he had not served any refreshments to Jun Li's guests. Qin Shu and Gu Yan had rushed over as soon as they got off the plane and could not have had the time for food or drink. All because they were concerned for Jun Li.

"Miss Qin, Professor Gu, you must both be tired. Please allow me to prepare lunch. In the meantime, may I show you all to the dining room?"

Everyone shuffled out of the room, following Su Ying's lead.

Xiao Jiu held his mother's hand and kept looking at Jun Li from over his shoulder. He did not know what was wrong with Jun Li, except that everyone seemed unhappy.

In Xiao Jiu's eyes, Jun Li was only taking a nap.

Lan Qi chose to remain behind. He was the only one left in the quiet bedroom, aside from Jun Li.

Lan Qi sat down on an empty chair by the bed. He stared at Jun Li, who was still unconscious, muttering in a choked whisper, "I've called Qin Shu over. Wake up, please..."

He received no response from the man lying in bed. It was as if the man had fallen into a deep sleep. Aside from the slow rise and fall of his chest, no other signs indicated his still being alive.

Jun Li had always told him not to cry. A man should not shed tears so easily.

He did not understand. Why did a man have to swallow his tears? Why could a man not cry whenever he needed to?

The afternoon sun shone like a ball of fire in the sky.

Gu Yan sat in the courtyard with a pen in his hand, furiously reformulating his prescription.

Reformulating the prescription was no easy feat, especially with Jun Li's fragile physical state. With his body ready to pack up at any moment, Gu Yan needed to strike a balance that would suppress his condition without causing Jun Li further harm.

Qin Shu sat opposite Gu Yan with an extremely thick medical book in her hand. She only had a superficial understanding of pharmacology, and even then, only for Fu Tingyu's sake.

Xiao Jiu hugged President Ba and stared at Lan Qi.

Lan Qi had seen Xiao Jiu once before when he was young. He had been no different from a small ball, playfully hugging anyone and everyone he could.

Ye Luo kept a watchful eye on Xiao Jiu, President Ba in his arms.

"You hugged me once when you were young. Come, let me hug President Ba too," Lan Qi said.

Xiao Jiu did not know Lan Qi. Yet, he did not think it strange when he learned he had hugged him before.

He peered at the cat in his arms and said, "It's President Ba, not Madam Jiao. I could let you hug him, I guess."

Xiao Jiu viewed President Ba as family. It was alright letting someone else hug him, but no one should think of taking him away.

As Xiao Jiu spoke, he presented President Ba to Lan Qi.

Lan Qi scooped up President Ba quite naturally. It had been too long since he had hugged President Ba, and he missed the haughty cat. As he brushed President Ba's shiny, black coat, he said, "President Ba is Madam Jiao. Your mother decided on the name to pick."

President Ba purred happily, his dark green eyes narrowing into slits. It was a sign of how much he enjoyed the pampering.

Mother?

Xiao Jiu asked doubtfully, "Mother chose the name?"

"Yes." Lan Qi nodded, his attention fixed on President Ba.

Xiao Jiu thought of Jun Li, who was still sleeping and asked, "When will Uncle Jun wake up?"

Lan Qi shook his head. "I don't know."

"Even if Uncle Jun is sleeping because he isn't feeling well, Uncle Gu will give him something to help him feel better. Uncle Gu is a skilled medical practitioner. There's nothing Uncle Gu can't cure!" Xiao Jiu declared earnestly.

Lan Qi stared at Xiao Jiu but said nothing in response.

Gu Yan spent the whole afternoon revising the prescription but had yet to divine a feasible solution.

It was hard work since he had not brought many medicinal herbs. He could derive only so many combinations with so few materials available. When he bathed Jun Li later that night, he used acupuncture, hoping it would slow his body's deterioration.

He spent three hours performing acupuncture while Jun Li soaked in the bathtub filled with hot water.

A touch of crimson coloured Su Ying's face as he carried Jun Li out of the heated water.

Needless to say, after soaking in hot water for three hours, Jun Li's whole body was as red as a cooked lobster.

Jun Li, who was over 1.85 meters in height, looked weightless in Su Ying's arms.

Gu Yan went to the medicinal herbs market with Ji Fei the next morning.

Qin Shu went to see Jun Li.

In the wan light of dawn, Jun Li's bedroom was dim. A golden shaft shone through the window, casting a long shadow over the room.

It was quiet.

Jun Li was still unconscious. He had not awoken despite the acupuncture he received the previous night.

It was almost the New Year, and lanterns and streamers decorated the streets. Spring was in the air.

Qi Manor, on the other hand, appeared lifeless and dead. Spring had not thawed the winter chill: no lanterns hung from the eaves, and not a whisper of the New Year dwelled in the dark manor. It reminded her of Bright Garden.

She had tasked Housekeeper Shi with making the appropriate arrangements. Regardless of how she felt, the New Year had to look like the New Year. No one could suspect a thing.

Qin Shu lingered in the room for a while. She got up and exited the room when she could bear the silence no longer.

Just as she turned the corner, she heard a voice. When they mentioned a method of saving Jun Li, she subconsciously stopped in her tracks.

"Is there really a way to save Master Jun?"

"I'm not sure. I heard from Su Ying that Miao Xin's Gu worms might save Master Jun. I only heard about it while eavesdropping."

"If Gu worms are the answer, why hasn't Su Ying gone to Miao Xin? You must have misheard."

"You don't understand. There's a deep grudge between the Jun family and Miao Xin."

"Gu worms... It sounds creepy!"

The two maids chattered away as they continued their work.

Qin Shu leaned against the wall, deep in thought. She had overheard the conversation. Could Gu worms save Jun Li?

She had her doubts, but what if they really could save Jun Li? The question weighed on her mind as she went downstairs.

Gu Yan returned to Qi Manor after taking a stroll outside for most of the day. When he came back, it was already late.

Qin Shu saw him and immediately went up to him. "Jun Li hasn't woken up. It doesn't look like acupuncture was of much use."

"It'll be a while before he wakes up. More importantly, we cannot allow his condition to worsen further."

When Gu Yan left, he had already guessed it would not be easy for Jun Li to wake up because his whole body had been hollowed out. It was already a miracle he still drew breath.

Qin Shu pressed on, "Is there no other way to save him?"

Gu Yan stopped in his tracks. He faced Qin Shu and told her the truth, "Jun Li's body has been failing for a long time. The last time he fell into the water, he told me not to let you know about his physical condition because he was afraid you would be worried."

"You mean to say you knew of Jun Li's worsening condition and did not tell me?! He is at his limit now, isn't he? So you're saying it's a miracle he's still alive..." Qin Shu could not accept Gu Yan's words, no more than she could the news of Fu Tingyu's disappearance.

Even now, she firmly believed Fu Tingyu was somewhere out there, waiting for her to find him and to bring him home.

"Jun Li's body has reached its limit. Surgery isn't an option. He might very well die on the table if we tried forcing it."

Gu Yan knew how thin she had been stretched from work and worry over Fu Tingyu's matter. Her exhaustion was palpable. Jun Li's collapse was another blow, perhaps just as difficult to bear as her husband's continued absence..

Chapter 962: Miao Xin, Four Great Clans, Leader

Jun Li was her good friend. He would definitely be sad when he learned that his friend did not have much time left.

Just like how Fu Tingyu had disappeared for so long. He would often not sleep well and often dreamed that he had suddenly returned, unharmed.

Qin Shu trusted Gu Yan the most. Even Gu Yan had said so. She did not know who else could save Jun Li.

She suddenly remembered hearing the conversation between the two female servants that day, so she asked Gu Yan, "Have you heard that Miao Xin's Gu worms can save people?"

Gu Yan looked at her with some surprise: "You know about Miao Xin's Gu worms?"

Qin Shu said: "I heard two maids talking today, saying that it can save Jun Li."

Gu Yan said: "Gu worms saving people. There has never been such an example in medical science, but there is such a legend. However, Gu worms are easy to backfire, and the risk is very high."

Miao Xin used to be affiliated with Hua Xia. However, due to some matters, it was now an independent small country. Miao Xin occupied a very small area in the south.

Qin Shu asked: "Do you mean that the possibility of Gu worms saving people is very high?"

Gu Yan nodded: "Yes, it is possible."

Hearing this, Qin Shu saw hope: "Since it can save someone, we have to try any method."

Gu Yan had a bad premonition: "What do you want to do?"

Qin Shu said firmly: "I want to go to Miao Xin and find Gu worms that can save Jun Li."

"But, you don't know Miao Xin well, you won't be familiar with the place, Gu worms are not that easy to find. Because Gu masters who can raise Gu worms use their own blood to feed them, it takes a lot of effort to raise Gu worms, and they would not easily hand over the Gu worms they raised. Miao Xin is a relatively backward thinking area, not only is it backward thinking, but it is also somewhat feudal." Gu Yan said.

Qin Shu said: "I cannot watch Jun Li die so I have to try."

Gu Yan asked back: "Then do you know how long it will take? Ten Days? Half a month? Can Jun Li hold on until then?"

"I have to try even if this is the case." Qin Shu looked at Gu Yan with hope in her eyes: "I'm going to Miao Xin. Try to stall for time until I come back."

Gu Yan could not help but ask again: "Do you really plan to go to Miao Xin?"

Qin Shu nodded hard: "Yes, as long as there's a way, she wants to try."

Seeing that she was so insistent, Gu Yan could only agree with her and support her.

"Alright then. I can only do my best to ask him to stall for more time. I can't guarantee how long he can stall for."

Qin Shu heaved a sigh of relief. "Thank you, Gu Yan."

"Between you and me, there's no need to say thank you. Just do your best. Jun Li would not want to see you running around for him and risking your life. If you're injured and anything happens to you, even if you save Jun Li, he will blame himself."

Gu Yan did not forget to remind her that if Jun Li was awake, he would definitely not let her go to Miao Xin.

"I know, I will protect myself." Even if not for others, for Fu Tingyu and Xiao Jiu, she had to protect herself and not let herself get hurt.

After Gu Yan finished his dinner, he went to his room to analyze the prescription.

Qin Shu went to look for Su Ying because the female servant had mentioned that Su Ying should know that Gu worms could save Jun Li.

In the corridor of the backyard of Qi Manor, there were rooms on all sides. It was difficult for the cold wind to blow in.

Su Ying stood tall in front of Qin Shu, blocking the lights behind him.

“Miss Qin, what do you need me for?” He asked with a low voice.

Qin Shu did not have much time to beat around the bush, so she asked directly: “You know that Gu worms can save Jun Li, right?”

“Su Ying knows a little about it. This is a method that should be used as a last resort because Gu worms can easily backfire. If you are not careful, you will also die.” Su Ying replied.

‘What Su Ying and Gu Yan said were more or less the same. Gu worms had risks, but they could also save Jun Jun Li, so there was no other way.

She asked again: “Then do you know what kind of Gu worms can save Jun Li?”

“Theard that there is a kind of Gu worms called Reverse that can save Master Jun.” This was the result of Su Ying’s investigation during this period of time. No one knew the exact details.

“Reverse?” This was the first time Qin Shu heard of Gu worms with such a name, but this name was very good. Reverse, reversal of fate. This must be a meaning behind it.

After deciding to go to Miao Xin, Qin Shu started to pack her luggage. Actually, she did not need to pack her luggage, because it had only been two days and she had not moved her things much.

She decided to go with Ye Luo and bring boss along.

Xiao Jiu could stay in Qi Manor and let Gu Yan watch over her. Since Xiao Jiu was sensible, she would be at ease.

This was her own idea so she still needed to discuss it with Xiao Jiu.

She walked into Xiao Jiu’s room. He had just finished showering and was about to go to bed.

Xiao Jiu had strict control over his sleeping time. Because he was too young, it was not suitable for him to stay up late.

Xiao Jiu saw Qin Shu walk in and got down from the bed, “Mommy, did you come looking for me for something?”

Qin Shu nodded: “Yes, Mommy has something to discuss with you. Mommy is going to take a plane to Miao Xin tomorrow to look for Gu worms that can save Uncle Jun. Mom plans to go with Ye Luo while you stay here. Do you have any opinions?”

Xiao Jiu knew that his mother was very considerate, but he wanted to go with her. He said his thoughts out loud: “Mommy, I want to go too. Daddy is not back yet, so I have to take on the responsibility of protecting you.”

“This is the first time Mommy is going to Miao Xin. I am not familiar with the place, so it’s easy for me to encounter danger. So, Mommy hopes that you can stay in Qi Manor and play with Uncle Gu and Lan Qi for a few days. Mommy will be back soon.”

Going to Miao Xin was different from coming to Imperial City. Miao Xin was highly dangerous. For safety reasons, she still hoped that Xiao Jiu could stay here.

Xiao Jiu was silent for a while. As if he had made a decision, he said very seriously: “Then I’ll listen to Mommy. I’ll wait here for Mommy to come back. I’ll also listen to Uncle Gu. Come back early please.”

Qin Shu hugged her son in her arms. Her face was full of relief: “My Xiao Jiu is so sensible. Mommy is proud of you.”

The next morning, Qin Shu, Ye Luo, and Boss took a plane to Miao Xin.

Miao Xin had a different culture. Even though it was connected to the outside world, Miao Xin still wore a lot of traditional clothes.

In Miao Xin, Gu masters had a very high status. An outstanding Gu master was someone that all the clans wanted to recruit.

Miao Xin, Fan City

‘There were four clans, Lei Clan, Tian Clan, Hou Clan, and Xiang Clan.

Above the four clans, was the leader of Miao Xin, Long Clan.

Qin Shu spent some time to find out all this.

‘When she arrived at Miao Xin, it was nine o’clock in the evening. She found a hotel to stay at.

For the sake of unnecessary trouble, Qin Shu did not disguise herself as a man this time but made herself look ugly. Ye Luo did the same.

She did not dress up very ugly, but just the kind that no one would notice if she was within the crowd..

Chapter 963: Temptations Was Too Great

10:30 pm.

Fan City, a five-star hotel

Qin Shu carried Boss and Ye Luo into the hotel.

The receptionist looked up and saw a man and a woman. Furthermore, it was in the middle of the night. When Ye Luo said “open a room’, the receptionist booked a room for them.

Ye Luo did not know that she booked only one room. After paying, he took the room card and followed Qin Shu to take the elevator.

After using the room card to enter the room, they saw that there was only a huge bed, a private bathroom, and a small balcony in the room.

Qin Shu and Ye Luo stood in front of the huge bed and were stunned for two seconds. They thought that they had entered the wrong room. After looking at the room number, they realized that it was the right room.

Ye Luo took the room card and said: "I'll go down and ask."

Qin Shu nodded: "Okay."

After Ye Luo left.

Qin Shu was waiting at the door with Boss in her arms.

Ye Luo was very efficient. In a short while, he came over with a new room card.

Qin Shu looked at Ye Luo who was walking towards her and asked: "What's going on?"

"She took the wrong room card." Ye Luo did not say tell her that the receptionist treated them as a couple, so she only booked one room, not a suite.

The room card in Ye Luo's hand was a suite. Every time they went out, they would want a suite like this.

There were two-room suites and three-room suites.

After finishing everything, she lay on the bed, because it was an unfamiliar country, an unfamiliar environment, and an unfamiliar environment.

Qin Shu lay on the bed, staring at the ceiling above her, but she did not feel sleepy.

Regarding Gu worms like Reverse, it was said that they were extremely difficult to nurture. Even high-level Gu masters might not be able to nurture one.

The four great clans and the leader's family would spend money to nurture some high-level Gu masters. If they could nurture Gu worms like Reverse, they would definitely not act rashly, because it could save their lives.

The more she thought about it, the more she could not fall asleep. Furthermore, she had not been sleeping well for over a month.

She forgot to bring the sleeping pills.

Qin Shu turned around, facing the window, looking at the dark night sky, thinking about how to meet with the high-level Gu master the next day.

That night, Qin Shu only slept for less than three hours.

She sat on the sofa with dark circles under her eyes and a laptop on her lap. Her hands were typing on the keyboard skillfully and quickly.

Boss was nestled next to Qin Shu's legs, lazily squinting his eyes, as if he still wanted to take a nap.

Ye Luo brought a cup of steaming hot coffee and placed it on the glass coffee table. He glanced at Qin Shu, then sat on the independent sofa at the side and waited.

Boss narrowed his eyes, then stood up and jumped down from the sofa. After landing steadily, he walked in front of Ye Luo with graceful steps and raised his chin to look at Ye Luo.

Ye Luo lowered his eyes and looked at Boss expressionlessly. He did not reach out to carry it and just watched.

The Man and the cat looked at each other for a long time.

Boss felt a little embarrassed, It wanted Ye Luo to take the initiative to carry it, but in the end, he was just expressionless.

Ye Luo seemed to see that Boss was unhappy. He took out a bag of small dried fish from his pocket.

Boss' eyes lit up a little, and his whiskers trembled.

Ye Luo seemed to have done it on purpose. After tearing open the packaging, he let the fishy smell spread and did not hurry to feed Boss.

Boss stared at the dried fish for a long time. Ye Luo did not plan to feed it, nor did he hug it.

If it were any other time, it would definitely turn around and leave.

But now, the temptation of the dried fish was too great. Even if it ate it every day, it would not get sick of it. Not to mention that Ye Luo was controlling the number of times it ate the dried fish.

It was only allowed to eat once a week, sometimes once every half a month. Most ridiculously, it was to eat once a month.

It had almost forgotten the taste of the dried fish.

Staring at the dried fish in Ye Luo's hand, it endured and endured, and finally...

It jumped onto the armrest of the sofa in a graceful posture. After it stood firm, it still raised its chin and looked at Ye Luo, but its dark green eyes were circling around ye Luo's hand holding the dried fish. Its intention was too obvious, and it could not be ignored even if one wanted to.

Ye Luo looked at Boss and felt that it was almost time, he moved his hand over.

The next second, Boss moved over and quickly took the dried fish from his hand, eating it in one bite and licking his lips, still not satisfied.

Qin Shu's gaze looked at the information on the computer page. Her hand reached towards the glass coffee table, held the cup of steaming coffee to her mouth, and drank it slowly.

Miao Xin had six most famous high-level Gu masters, they were.

Two from Long Clan, Yang Jin and Hao Ze.

One from Lei Clan, Tan Lin.

One from Tian Clan, Li Qian.

One from Hou Clan, Sun Shang.

One from Xiang Clan, Zhao Yun.

Their strength was evenly distributed, thus, they had been peaceful all these years.

Long Clan.

Qin Shu looked at Long Clan. As Miao Xin's leader, their influence should be the strongest.

She planned to start with Long Clan first.

High-level Gu masters were all raised by them at home. Just like the guests of ancient times, different guests would receive different treatment.

High-level Gu masters and ordinary Gu masters also received different treatment,

From food, clothing, accommodation, and monthly salary, there was a huge difference.

Everyone depended on their ability to raise themselves.

If they could be bribed with money, it would be even better.

Qin Shu instructed: "Ye Luo, prepare the car to Nine Bay. Remember to change your clothes."

"Okay." Ye Luo picked up Boss, stood up, and walked into his room to change his clothes.

Qin Shu closed her laptop, put it on the sofa, and stood up to change her clothes.

'When she came out again, she was wearing Miao Xin's traditional clothing, a large collar, a short shirt, and a pleated skirt.

The skirt could be long enough to cover her feet, elegant and graceful. It was also short enough to reach her knees, graceful and moving.

She wore a headband on her head, a short skirt with a large lapel on her upper body, and a pair of long pants with embroidered lace on her lower body. She wore an embroidered apron with little exquisite silver accessories to set off the dress.

Miao Xin's pleated skirt had colorful patterns and patterns, with embroidery, brocade, batik, and flower decorations.

It was a very simple set, whether ,in color or accessories, it was extremely ordinary.

'When Ye Luo came out, he had also changed into a different appearance.

The men's attire was relatively simple. The top was mostly a shirt or a hand-rolled long gown. The shoulders were covered with wool blankets with geometric patterns. Their heads were wrapped in a green headband, and their calves were wrapped with leggings.

Just like Qin Shu, they were all dressed in extremely simple clothes and were not extravagant.

It was the first time Ye Luo saw Qin Shu wearing Miao Xin's clothes, so he took a few more glances.

Qin Shu also took a look at Ye Luo. It was also his first time wearing Miao Xin's clothes. She observed the men's clothing and smiled: "It looks pretty good."

Ye Luo was stunned for a while and said: "You look pretty good too."

It was the first time he said such polite words with an expressionless face. It really made people feel a little weird.

"Alright, let's go."

Boss looked at the two people in front of him, feeling strange too.

Ye Luo went to rent a van early in the morning.

Nine Bay was actually a mountain, there was a total of nine bends. That was a tropical rainforest with all kinds of insects.

At the end of every year, high-level Gu masters would go to Nine Bay to collect insects to create Gu worms..

Chapter 964: The Side Profile Looks Like His Man

The car drove for about two hours before reaching Nine Bay.

Qin Shu opened the car door and got out, looking at Nine Bay. The undulating mountain range was surrounded by tropical rain forests, similar to the pictures on the Internet.

Nine Bay was near a huge village called Kua Yi Village. There were more than two hundred households living there.

Whether it was high-level Gu masters or ordinary Gu masters who came here to collect worms, they would all stay in Kua Yi Village.

Qin Shu said to Ye Luo: "Let's go to the Village Head's house to stay."

"Okay." Ye Luo agreed and followed Qin Shu into the village.

Just as they entered the village entrance, two women wearing Miao Xin's clothes walked over. They looked young and were all very beautiful.

The villagers here were all wearing Miao Xin's clothes.

This was also the reason why Qin Shu wanted to change her clothes.

Qin Shu took a step forward and asked politely: "Hello, where is the Village Chief's house?"

One of the women could tell from Qin Shu's words whether she was a local or not. The people here were more hospitable and did not mind that she was not a local, so she pointed the way for her. "The house that is the largest is the village chief's house."

"Thank you." Qin Shu thanked her and walked towards the Village Chief's house with Ye Luo.

Kua Yi Village only had one house that was the largest. Not only was it much bigger than the other houses, but it was also located the highest. This also represented the position of the Village Chief. The villagers here were hospitable, and the Village Chief's house was no exception. When they heard that Qin Shu was here to play and wanted to stay for a few days, they immediately agreed and arranged two rooms on the west side.

After thanking them, Qin Shu followed the Village Chief's daughter-in-law to the arranged rooms.

"This is your room. If you need anything, you can tell me." The Village Chief's daughter-in-law was a woman in her forties, she was wearing Miao Xin's clothes, which were more luxurious than the two women she met at the village entrance.

"Thank you." Qin Shu thanked her politely.

After the Village Chief's daughter-in-law left, Qin Shu walked to the window and looked out. From here, she could clearly see the mountain road into Nine Bay. There was a lake along the way, and the environment was beautiful. It was very suitable for a vacation to relax.

Ye Luo stood behind Qin Shu. For so many years, she was the one who told him what to do. He had never asked her why they were here and what she was going to do next.

It was the same this time. He was waiting for Qin Shu's next instructions.

Boss was standing on a wooden table by the window. The color of the table looked a little old. A few years had passed, and his small body was still petite and lovely. However, he was a little more fleshy.

His pair of dark green eyes looked out of the window curiously. After Qin Shu had seen enough, she withdrew her gaze and looked at Ye Luo behind her. "Ye Luo, let's go out and take a walk to understand."

Ye Luo nodded: "Okay." Qin Shu carried Boss and walked out first. Kua Yi village was two hours away from the City Center, but the residents here were not affected by the outside world. The culture was simple and honest.

Qin Shu carried Boss as they walked on the cement road, as she looked around, occasionally, there would be villagers passing by. Maybe because they looked unfamiliar, they would attract frequent stares. She turned to look at Ye Luo, "Go and find out who are the Gu masters who are staying here?"

"Yes." Ye Luo replied, turning around and leaving.

After Ye Luo left, Qin Shu walked alone for a while and saw the Village Chief bringing a few men in from the village entrance. From the Village Chief's expression and actions, it could be seen that these people's identities were not ordinary.

As for those men, they were tall and all of them were handsome. Their clothes were black and they had black scarves on their heads.

Could they be high-level Gu masters?

When they got closer, the village chief greeted Qin Shu, "Miss Qin, are you going out to play?" "Yes, Village Chief." Qin Shu replied politely. The village chief heard this and did not forget to remind her, "Don't go too far and don't enter the mountain. It is very dangerous."

Qin Shu smiled and thanked: "Thank you Village Chief for your warning."

Qin Shu's appearance was ordinary, but it still attracted the gazes of the men opposite her. They were curious and probing.

Qin Shu did not know if it was she was imagining things, but she saw a flash of surprise in their eyes.

One of the men with a dark bamboo tube was staring at Qin Shu, but he was asking the village chief: "Village Chief, she is also a guest of your house?"

"Gu Master Hao, she is a guest of my house, she will leave after staying for a few days." The Village Chief replied respectfully.

Sensing the probing gazes from the men, she did not hear wrongly. The Village Chief addressed the man in front of her as Gu Master Hao. So he was Long Clan's high-level Gu master, Hao Ze?

Qin Shu looked at that Gu Master Hao again. His skin was very white, with a trace of sickly paleness, sharp edges, deep brows, and deep eyes. He was very handsome.

This was her first time facing a high-level Gu master face to face so she was still a little nervous. This was because Gu masters had many Gu worms, they could plant them on you without notice.

She thought for a while, but still greeted them, "Hello, this is my first time here, I heard that the scenery here is beautiful and the Gu worms are also very magical, I came here because of the reputation."

Her tone was neither servile nor overbearing, neither distant nor warm, but it showed her curiosity for this place.

Hao Ze and the four Gu masters stared at Qin Shu for a while but did not speak.

The Village Chief smiled at this time: "Miss Qin, go out and come back early, there will be a lot of good food and wine prepared at home tonight." "Understood Village Chief, I will leave first." Qin Shu finished speaking and did not look at them anymore, continuing to walk forward. The four Gu masters followed the Village Chief to his house.

Qin Shu walked for a while and came to the back of the village. Boss suddenly jumped down from her embrace and landed steadily on the ground. He turned around to look at Qin Shu before running forward.

After spending so much time with Boss, just one look was enough to know what it wanted to do, not to mention such an obvious action. If she guessed correctly, it should have found something familiar.

Qin Shu followed Boss all the way. After walking for about ten minutes, they arrived at the lake that they saw from the window.

The deep pool was at the foot of the mountain. The right side was full of trees. Dense branches and leaves stretched out and reflected on the lake. The untrimmed branches and leaves were very natural and beautiful.

The water of the lake was dark green. From afar, it looked like a huge emerald.

The lake was so clear that one could see the bottom. One could clearly see the small rocks at the bottom of the lake. It was very beautiful.

Boss suddenly ran into the grass. His black figure disappeared into the grass and disappeared in an instant.

Qin Shu walked into the grass curiously and saw a man sitting by the lake. He was wearing Miao Xin's clothes and a scarf on his head.

Boss was beside the man. It raised its chin and looked at the man. When he saw Qin Shu coming, it called out: "Meow"

When the man sitting down heard the sound of the cat, he stopped washing his hands and turned his head to look at the side.

From this angle, Qin Shu could clearly see the man's side profile. His forehead was smooth and clean, his nose bridge was tall and straight, and his lips were moderate in thickness. His flawless side profile stunned her..

Chapter 965: Crazy Woman

She could not believe her eyes and her heart stopped beating.

She stared at the man's side profile and did not even dare to blink her eyes. This was the person she had been thinking about day and night, but she was afraid that she was imagining things.

The man sitting by the lake shook off the water droplets on his hand and stood up. When he turned around, he saw a woman standing behind him. He stopped in his tracks.

The moment the man turned around, Qin Shu's body froze when she saw that extremely familiar face. Her heart raced uncontrollably. She was so excited and scared that she did not even dare to move or speak.

Countless nights and countless dreams, she would dream of different scenes and different times to reunite with him.

She would wake up from her dream every time she got so happy and wanted to hug him.

Right now, she could not tell if this was reality or a dream.

Staring at the man's face, she felt that he was thinner than before. His chin was thin and pointy, and when she met the man's dark eyes, her heart trembled.

The man saw that the woman kept staring at him, and he walked over with doubt.

Seeing the man walk over, Qin Shu held her breath and stared at the man. She waited for him to come closer, hoping that he would hold her in his arms just as before and tell her that this was not a dream.

As the man walked closer and closer, Qin Shu did not even dare to blink her eyes. Her heartbeat became faster and faster, so fast that it felt like it was about to jump out of her chest.

The man's slender legs walked over evenly. When he brushed past her, he glanced at the woman in confusion. Feeling the man's gaze, her heart jumped. However, in the next second, the man left directly.

Qin Shu stood where she was and did not react for a long time. He just left like that?

It had been almost two months. After being separated for so long, he left without saying a word?

"Meow!" Boss sounded at her.

Only then did Qin Shu react. She hurriedly turned around and found that the man's figure had disappeared.

She ran out of the bushes and stood on the cement road. Looking left and right, the man had already disappeared.

Was this a dream again?

At this time, Boss ran over and meowed at Qin Shu. Then, he sniffed the scent and traced for the man.

Qin Shu immediately followed after Boss when she saw his actions.

Boss led the way in front. Sometimes he ran, sometimes he stopped and waited for her.

Until she came to a house. Qin Shu stopped and looked up. The house was the same as the other houses. It was two stories tall and the door was open.

Boss had already sneaked in through the door.

She paused and followed him in.

This was a house of an ordinary civilian. The decoration inside was different from the Village Chief's house. There was a wooden table in the living room. There was a teapot and four cups on the table which were all made of bamboo. Four chairs were arranged neatly around the table.

The man saw from the room that the woman standing in the living room was the woman who had been staring at him by the lake. He frowned, "Why are you looking for me?"

'When she saw the man again, Qin Shu was still very excited. However, the way he looked at her with unfamiliarity made her feel a little scared, "You don't know me?"

Actually, when she saw the man, she realized that something was wrong. The way the man looked at her was like he was looking at a stranger.

Could it be that she had mistaken him for someone else?

How could she have mistaken him for someone else.

The man did not get angry. Instead, he laughed: "Your words are really interesting. It's your first time in Kua Yi Village, right? You look very unfamiliar. Should I know you?"

Qin Shu's heart instantly turned cold. He said he did not know her? He knew it was her first time here, and she looked unfamiliar?

She suddenly remembered that she was putting on makeup and purposely made herself look ugly.

“Wait a moment.”

Qin Shu’s gaze swept across the living room, but she did not know where the bathroom was. She then retracted her gaze and looked at the man: “Where is the bathroom?”

She was so urgent for the toilet. The man pointed behind him, “It’s at the back. That small door is there.”

“Thank you.” Qin Shu thanked him subconsciously. She rushed into the bathroom, turned on the tap, and started to wash her face.

The man sat down in front of the table and poured himself a glass of water. Then, he started to drink.

Boss looked up at the man. First, he jumped onto the chair, then onto the table. His dark green eyes stared straight at the man.

The man looked up at Boss and his expression darkened, “Get down.”

“Meow” Boss shrunk his neck and took two steps back. Then, he directly fell off the table. Fortunately, he reacted quickly and landed steadily.

Qin Shu finished washing her face and casually wiped her face. Then, she ran out of the bathroom. When she saw the man sitting in front of the table, she said: “I have already washed up. Look at me.”

When the man heard that, he turned his head to look. The woman’s face was much whiter than before, and her facial features were very delicate. However, the people here did not like such a woman who was too white.

He only took a glance. There was not much emotion in his pitch-black eyes, “I don’t know you.”

The man’s voice was very calm, just like his eyes. There was no emotion.

The man’s unfamiliar gaze and cold tone did not seem to be faked. Qin Shu asked tentatively, “What’s your name?”

“Does my name have anything to do with you?” The man’s voice was cold. He picked up the teacup in front of him and continued drinking.

Qin Shu walked over and stopped less than half a meter away from the man. She saw the chair by her feet and sat down. Then, she looked at the man and asked: “Have you always lived here?”

The man responded with an “En” that was neither light nor heavy.

Qin Shu’s hands on her legs suddenly tightened. She asked again, “Do you still remember what happened in the past?”

The man raised his eyebrows slightly and looked at the woman who acted like she was familiar with him. “Are we familiar with each other?”

“Are we familiar?” Qin Shu’s heart began to hurt. Are we familiar? They had already gotten married and had a child. The only thing missing was the wedding banquet on the eighth day of the first lunar month. Does he think they are familiar with each other?

She looked at the man with her head. It was still that face that easily attracted people. It was as if it was carved into her mind and could be recalled with her eyes closed.

However, that pair of extremely cold eyes were unfamiliar.

‘When the man saw that she was about to cry, he frowned again, “If there’s nothing else, please leave.”

Qin Shu suddenly stood up and stretched out her arms to hug the man’s neck. She hugged him very tightly, she whispered into his ear: “It’s been two months. Do you know how I’ve endured these days and nights? You are trying to make me leave just because you say you don’t know me. Do you have a conscience?”

The man did not like others to get too close, nor did he like such intimate contact. He was stunned for two seconds before his neck was suddenly felt hot. He did not need to look to know that it was a woman’s tears. He felt that his heart was also scalded by the tears.

He had always hated women who loved to cry. He pulled the woman who was hugging him away forcefully. The woman’s strength was too great, and it took a lot of strength to pull the woman out of his arms.

In the past, even if he was angry, as long as she took the initiative to hug him, he would not push her away.

This time, he pushed her away forcefully...

Chapter 966: Drinking With Four High-Level Gu Masters At The Same Table

The man saw that the woman’s face was already covered in tears, he frowned again, feeling a little annoyed, “Woman, you have the wrong person.”

“I did not get the wrong person, you are Fu Tingyu.” Qin Shu reached out to hug him again, but just as she hugged his neck, the man pulled her away again.

‘The man warned coldly: “If you continue to act like this, Don’t blame me for attacking you.”

Qin Shu stood straight in front of the man and looked at him with her watery eyes. Similarly, she did not show any weakness: “Why don’t you try hitting me?”

The man was stunned for a few seconds before he spat out three words impatiently, “Are you crazy?”

The man did not hit her. Instead, he grabbed her arm and pushed her out. Then, he closed the door with force.

After closing the door, the man raised his hand and wiped his neck. The tears had already been absorbed by his clothes, but he could still feel that it was very hot there.

He saw a pitch-black cat standing by his feet. Its dark green eyes were staring at him.

Outside the door, Qin Shu looked at the tightly shut door. She could not believe that she had been thrown out by the man just like that?

She reached out to knock on the door, but the door opened at this time. She was delighted. Did the man think that he had acted too much?

The smile that had just curled up on the corner of her mouth had yet to spread across her face when a black thing suddenly flew towards her from the front. It landed right in her arms, and the door closed with force again.

She lowered her head to look at Boss. Boss looked at her with a wronged expression, "Meow"

Her smile gradually disappeared from the corner of her mouth. She felt sorry for Boss and also felt sorry for herself. She rubbed its head and said, "I will make him pay for your wrongs."

"Meow Boss' eyes lit up. It was looking forward to the arrival of that day so that it could also feel proud.

Qin Shu raised her head again to look at the tightly shut door in front of her. She turned her head to look at the sky. She could only go back first. Now that she knew he was here and that he was safe and unhurt, her heart that had been worried for a long time was finally relieved.

However, from his reaction and actions just now, it did not seem like he was faking it.

Other than amnesia, she could not think of any other reason.

The sky was already dark, Qin Shu did not even have any makeup on after washing her face.

'When she returned to the Village Chief's house, her room could be entered from the stairs outside, she did not need to go in from the Village Chief's house, so no one saw her.

Ye Luo returned before her, waiting for her in the room.

He was about to speak about the list of Gu Masters he found today, but Qin Shu interrupted him first, "Listen to me first."

Ye Luo paused, then nodded.

Although what happened earlier made her sad, she was very happy and excited, "I found him."

Ye Luo was a bit confused: "Gu worms?"

Qin Shu smiled and shook her head, "It's Fu Tingyu, your Lord Fu."

"Where is he?" Ye Luo looked like he was going to find his master.

Qin Shu held him down and continued: "He's in Kua Yi Village, in the house behind the village. However, he seems to have lost his memory. I recognized him, but he said he didn't know me and even chased me out."

This was the thing she was most angry about. Even if he did not know her, there was no need to chase her out.

Ye Luo was silent for a while and asked her, "How did Madam Fu confirm that he's Lord Fu?"

Qin Shu proudly lifted up Boss in her arms. "It was Boss who led me to him, I knew at a glance that he was Fu Tingyu. Boss wouldn't be mistaken."

“Meow” BA cooperated and called out.

Ye Luo lowered his eyes and looked at Boss BA. He had seen how Boss’ nose worked. After being together for so many years, he still understood Boss and knew how powerful its nose was.

That nose was tens of times more sensitive than a police dog.

Qin Shu had confirmed that he was Lord Fu and Boss had also confirmed. So that was definitely Lord Fu.

Just amnesia was very troublesome.

Ye Luo asked, “Then what does Madam Fu plan to do?”

Qin Shu said: “First make contact him. We can’t just take him away now. After we find Gu worms, we’ll bring him back to Jiangcheng.”

“Okay.” Ye Luo nodded.

At this time, the Village Chief’s daughter-in-law knocked on the door: “Miss Qin, you can come out to eat now.”

Ye Luo walked over, opened the door, and walked out. He said to the Village Chief’s daughter-in-law: “I’ll be there soon.”

“Hurry up, we’ve prepared a lot of delicious food tonight.” The Village Chief’s daughter-in-law went down the stairs after giving her instructions.

Ye Luo closed the door and waited outside.

The door opened again, and Qin Shu reapplied her makeup, returning to her normal appearance with a darker complexion.

The Village Chief’s house had four tables with different guests.

The Village Chief and four high-level Gu Masters sat at one table.

The Village Chief’s family took three tables

As for the tourists, there were only Qin Shu and Ye Luo.

The village chief arranged for them to sit at the same table as them to eat.

This arrangement was very polite.

Qin Shu first thanked the village chief, then sat down at the table. The four men sitting opposite her were all high-level Gu masters. That was why the village chief was so respectful.

One of them was called Hao Ze. He was under the Long Clan, so the other Gu master, Yang Jin, should be one of the three.

Drinking at the table was unavoidable.

Village Chief said: “Come, come, drink.”

The Village Chief was sixty years old, he loved to drink, and also liked to entertain guests with wine.

The other four were high-level Gu masters, with high status in Miao Xin, but in Kuai Yi, the four did not put on airs.

They raised their wine glasses and clinked them.

Qin Shu looked at the full glass of wine in front of her. It was Village Chief who poured it for her.

The glass used to hold the wine was made of bamboo. Regardless of whether it was polished or crafted, it was very exquisite.

She raised the glass and brought it to her mouth to drink. The taste was not spicy but had a little sweetness instead. It was a little cocktail and also had herbal flavors. In any case, it was quite good, like fruit wine.

Just now, the Village Chief said that this wine was personally brewed by him and could not be bought with money.

She heard that there was a habit here. The first three glasses of wine had to be drunk in one go. Otherwise, it would mean that she was dissatisfied with the host's hospitality. She was not in a hurry to move the glass away. Instead, she glanced at the four men opposite her and realized that they had all drunk it in one go. This meant that it was true.

Hao Ze finished the wine in the cup, his brown eyes glanced at Qin Shu before looking away.

She finished the wine in the cup in one go, feeling the gazes from the other side, she subconsciously looked up but did not see anyone looking at her.

She put down the wine cup, could it be that her senses were wrong?

The village chief took the wine bottle and poured the wine for the other four Gu masters, before reaching over to pour the wine for Qin Shu, asking with a smile: "How do you feel about this wine?"

Qin Shu recalled the taste of the remaining wine on her tongue, saying: "It is very delicious, a little sweet, like fruit wine. Village Chief's craftsmanship is very good, it is much better than the wine sold outside."

The Village Chief was very happy when he heard this, "Drink more if you like, I have many more in my wine cellar. When you leave, I will give you a few more bottles."

"Thank you Village Chief." Qin Shu raised her wine glass, "Village Chief, here's to you."

"You're too kind." The Village Chief also raised his wine glass and then drank it all in one breath, not a drop left..

Chapter 967: Entering the Wrong Room In a Drunken Stupor

Qin Shu had drunk a lot of wine after three rounds. Mainly because the wine was too delicious, just like the Peach Blossom Brew that Master brewed. It made people unable to resist glass after glass.

She ate some food and felt inclined to leave, so she found an excuse to walk away from the dining table.

Kuai Yi village was pretty even at night. When the sky turned dark, red lanterns would be lit on the eaves of every house. Originally a characteristic village, it looked like a sea of lanterns from afar when they were all lit. It was a beautiful sight.

Qin Shu walked a few steps and discovered the scenery in front of her. It made her stop in her tracks.

Ye Luo, who was following behind her, stopped in unison.

The stairs outside were made of wood. A platform was specially extended at the corner. There was a table and two chairs on it, and it even came with a sunshade on the top.

‘Without turning her head, Qin Shu said, “Ye Luo, you head back first. I’ll sit here for a while.”

Ye Luo looked at his surroundings. After making sure that there was no problem, he nodded. “Okay.”

Then, he continued upstairs.

After Ye Luo left, Qin Shu walked to the table and sat down. Looking at the lights coming from countless homes, she suddenly thought of a sentence. Amongst the sea of lights, there would always be one that was lit for her. That was her final destination.

In the past, there was surely one that was lit for her.

Ever since Fu Tingyu went missing, she would leave a light for him and wait for him to come back.

Now that she had finally met him, he didn’t remember her. The feeling of being forgotten was lousy.

Yet, he was safe and sound and that made her feel better because this was the best outcome.

She seemed to understand Han Xiao’s mood at that time, as well as Fu Tingyu’s.

One had to experience how it felt to be forgotten by someone who was highly valued before one could truly understand.

Qin Shu suddenly frowned as she sensed someone approaching. The next second, a person had sat down beside her.

She turned her head to look. With the help of the light above, she realized that the person sitting beside her was high-ranking Gu Master Hao Ze.

“Yes, is something the matter?” asked Qin Shu.

Hao Ze curled his lips slightly like he was smiling. “Do you know about Gu worms?” he asked.

“I’ve only heard that they’re very magical, but I’ve never seen them before,” Qin Shu replied honestly, shaking her head. Her eyes were so clear and bright that one could see right through her. She didn’t seem like a person who was lying at all.

Hao Ze stared at her for a while and discovered that there was a hint of red on her cheeks. It was probably because of the alcohol. His fingers suddenly reached out toward her.

Qin Shu moved back instinctively.

Hao Ze didn’t seem to mind, nor pay any attention to her body language. He opened his palm.

In it was a very small bamboo tube, the size of a pinky finger and three centimeters long.

Qin Shu asked curiously, "What is this?"

Hao Ze explained, "This is a Gu worm that I have cultivated. It is called Heart-Eating Gu worm."

"What is it used for?" Qin Shu asked.

"They can enter a person's heart and eat it little by little," explained Hao Ze. "It causes the person to suffer from heartache every day until they die."

Qin Shu felt her hair stand on end just listening to him. Gu worms were indeed something that made people want to stay far away.

She thought of Jun Li. Could Ni save him?

Hao Ze saw Qin Shu staring at the small bamboo tube in a daze. "Are you afraid?" he asked her.

Qin Shu replied, "Isn't it normal to be afraid?"

Hao Ze put away the small bamboo tube. "You came here just to play?" he questioned her back.

"For the Gu worms too," replied Qin Shu. She did not hide it from him because he was a high-level Gu master, and there was a high possibility that he could nurture Gu worms like Ni.

"Revenge?" Hao Ze continued to guess.

Qin Shu shook her head. "To save someone," she replied.

Hao Ze was momentarily stunned. "Most Gu worms are harmful to people," he said. "Who told you that Gu worms are meant to save people?"

"Theard from others that there is a Gu worm called Ni. It can revive the flesh and bones of people." Qin Shu turned her head to look at Hao Ze, waiting for his reaction.

"The tradition of Gu worms like Ni have been lost," said Hao Ze. As if recalling something, he added, "But now, we can try."

"What do you mean?" asked Qin Shu.

As it was related to the Long family, Hao Ze was a little hesitant. Seeing that she was so eager to know, he smiled and said, "There's no harm in telling you. To cultivate this kind of Gu worm, we need a bowl of blood as feed."

Since Hao Ze said it like that, it meant that the blood needed would not be from an ordinary person.

Qin Shu asked, "Whose blood do you need?"

"This is a secret," Hao Ze replied.

Qin Shu nodded, indicating that she understood. "Alright. Honestly, it does not matter whether I know whose blood it is. I just want to reverse the situation and save someone."

She looked at the red lanterns in front of her. On the surface, it looked like she was admiring them, but in her heart, she was confused. What was Hao Ze's motive for getting close to her?

She wanted to get close to Hao Ze because he was a high-ranking Gu master. He had the ability to cultivate Ni.

Then, what about him?

Hao Ze stared at Qin Shu before casually asking, "Where did you come from?"

"I came from Hua Xia," Qin Shu replied, just as casually. How big was Hua Xia? The entire Miao Xin was not as big as a province.

Hao Ze laughed. "Hua Xia is very big," he commented.

Qin Shu nodded. "Indeed."

After Hao Ze left, Qin Shu continued to sit, with no intention of leaving.

However, her heart felt like it was on fire, and her body felt hotter and hotter. Her cheeks were as red as a ripe apple.

Qin Shu didn't know that the wine brewed by the village chief had a strong after-effect after drinking it.

At this moment, the wine's after-effect kicking in on Qin Shu was no different from being drunk.

She stood up abruptly and went down the stairs. Her footsteps were a little unsteady, but she didn't stop walking.

She did not stop until she reached the door of a house. She reached out to push the door, but it did not open. She pushed it a few more times, but it still did not budge.

She held the door with one hand to steady herself. She reached into her clothes and took out the broken moon. The sharp blade flashed under the moonlight, and the door opened.

Seeing an entrance, Qin Shu put away the broken moon and walked in. When she reached the room, the same thing happened. She still had to use the broken moon to open the room door.

The light was very dim in the room. Only the moonlight outside the window shone down, illuminating the room furnishings.

Qin Shu almost instinctively walked to the bedside, then lifted the quilt and crawled in.

The man slept very lightly. When he heard the noise, he thought that a little squirrel had snuck in to look for food. Because there were many squirrels in the mountains, he did not care.

It was not until the quilt was lifted and a body crawled in, that the smell of wine wafted to his nose.

That was not all. The hand touched his chest, then touched the area beside him. The body nestled in his arms and covered herself with the quilt. It was all done in one breath, as if it was an everyday thing.

Their bodies were close enough let him know that it was a woman.

A woman flashed through the man's consciousness. It was the woman who had come to be familiar with him in the afternoon and had mistaken him for someone else.

The room was pitch black. The man lowered his head to look at the person who had suddenly burrowed into his arms. He could not see the woman's face clearly because she had buried herself deep.

As she got closer, the aroma of the wine became stronger.

Chapter 968: The Annoying Little Vixen

'The man reached out, ready to throw out the drunkard who had barged into his room. Before his hand grabbed the woman's collar, she suddenly reached out and hugged his waist tightly.

"Baby Yu, I miss you."

"Baby Yu, do you know I've been looking for you for two months?"

"I'm not the only one looking. Many people have been looking for you for months."

"I dream of you every night. I dream of you sinking into the river and telling me how cold it is. I dream of you telling me that you're waiting for me to find you."

The drunk woman's voice was low with a hint of sobbing. It made one's heart ache.

'The man's hand stopped in mid-air. He was only wearing a cotton shirt and felt his chest soaked in something warm. Only then did he realize that the woman in his arms was crying.

He did not like strangers getting close to him. He truly hated this kind of intimate touch.

After a few moments of silence, the man frowned. The hand that had stopped in mid-air mere seconds ago reached out to grab the woman's collar, ready to pick her up and throw her out. Just as he exerted force, the arm that was still around his waist tightened a little. It was as if she had sensed that he was about to get rid of her.

'The woman rubbed against his chest and found an extremely comfortable position. She was humming something, but it was too soft for the man to make it out.

'The man took a deep breath and forcefully pushed away the arm around his waist. He got off the bed and carried the woman up horizontally. He walked out of the room and came to the door.

Before he could chuck her out, the woman's arm hugged his waist again. She hugged him even tighter than before, as if she knew what he was going to do next.

In fact, this was Qin Shu's usual response. She liked to sleep in Fu Tingyu's arms. She liked to hug his waist. When her body felt empty, she instinctively hugged him tighter.

"Baby Yu, why don't you remember me? Why do you want to chase me away?" Qin Shu cried sorrowfully. Her tears did not stop.

'The man's body froze. He looked down at the woman in his arms, groaning and crying at the same time. It gave him a royal headache.

"Where did this crazy woman come from?" he asked himself.

After standing at the door for a few seconds, he turned around and walked into the room with Qin Shu still in his arms. He turned on the lights in the room and put her back on the bed, pulling up the blanket and covering her.

After he had tucked her in, he stood by the bed and looked down at the woman on the bed. There were still tears on her eyelashes, and her eyes were a little swollen from crying.

She waved her hands in the air for a while, as if she was trying to hold on to something. In the end, she grabbed the blanket and held it in her arms. Her eyebrows were knitted tightly together, and she slept very restlessly.

In a day, he saw this woman cry twice.

The man pinched the space between his eyebrows, trying to relieve his headache. He turned around and walked to the sofa, picked up his clothes and slowly put them on.

He then sat down and planned to sleep upright on the sofa for one night.

His deep eyes glanced at the person on the bed. He found that she, who was originally sleeping in the middle, was now pressed up against the wall with a blanket between her. She seemed very uneasy and scared.

'The winter night was very long.

In the second half of the night, the man looked at the bed more times than he blinked.

'The woman had clearly drunk a lot of alcohol and kept saying that it was hot. She took off her clothes and moaned uneasily. "Baby Yu, it's so uncomfortable, so hot..."

'As an average man, he really could not withstand such an exciting scene.

It was normal for him to have a reaction.

The man looked down and his face darkened. Finally, he stood up and walked into the bathroom.

When he came out again, he looked much better.

In order to let himself sleep more comfortably in the remaining few hours, the man took a towel dipped in cold water and covered the woman's face. It would cool her down very well, and at the same time, it blocked the agonizing whines that she made from time to time.

The towel was cotton and had very good ventilation. She wouldn't feel suffocated.

'The woman finally calmed down a little. Only then did the man return to the sofa and sit down to continue sleeping.

'When the sky turned white, it also gradually brightened up.

The man had slept fitfully for only three hours. He glanced at the woman on the bed and found that she was sleeping soundly.

“Just whose bed is this?” he asked himself again.

The man sat on the sofa for a while, then got up to wash up before leaving the house.

He turned around and looked at his room. “I hope that crazy woman leaves by the time I am back,” he muttered.

After the man left, Ye Luo walked out from the back of the room with Boss Ba in his arms. He looked at the person who looked exactly like Fourth Master for a long time.

Early in the morning, he realized that Qin Shu hadn't woken up yet, so he went to knock on the door. He knocked for a long time, but no one answered.

Ye Luo had no choice but to break into the room. He found that the room was empty. When he looked at the bed, he saw that the quilt was folded very neatly. With one glance, he knew that it had been untouched the entire night.

He remembered that Qin Shu had drunk last night. He was afraid that something had happened to her, so he asked Boss Ba to lead the way. He followed Boss Ba's lead and came all the way to this room.

Before he went forward, he saw a man walk out from the room. He looked exactly the same as Fourth Master. Not only did he look like him, but his temperament was also very similar.

This man must be the one that Qin Shu mentioned yesterday, which was Fourth Master.

After the man had walked far away, Ye Luo carried Boss Ba into the room. He found Qin Shu sleeping very soundly on the bed.

After giving it some thought, he chose not to wake her up but turned around and left.

Ye Luo proceeded to exit the room and follow behind Fourth Master at an unhurried pace. It had only been a few minutes before the man sensed that he was being stalked. As a result, Ye Luo did not dare to keep up with the trail.

He could only head back and wait for Qin Shu to return before making any plans.

The sun was high in the sky when Qin Shu woke up with a headache, as a result of her hangover.

She rubbed the space between her eyebrows and opened her sleepy eyes. She stared at the furnishings in the room for a long time. This was not the room in the village chief's house.

“Could it be that I went back to the wrong room after I got drunk?” she wondered.

Qin Shu was so scared that she sat up abruptly. She realized that something was wrong. She looked down and saw that the white shirt she was wearing was a little messy. Several buttons on it had been torn off. She did not feel good at all.

Then, she realized that the Miao Xin clothes on the bed were the same ones she had worn yesterday.

“How could I make such a crass mistake?” she moaned.

Qin Shu checked herself first. There were no telltale signs on her body. Only then did she let out a sigh of relief.

In fact, she knew that nothing like that had happened even without checking, because her body didn't feel out of the ordinary.

Qin Shu put on her clothes as fast as she could and walked out of the room. She wanted to ask the owner if she had done anything wrong since she was drunk last night.

When she came to the living room, she saw that the furnishings looked familiar. Was this the room where Fu Tingyu lived?

She saw the tea set on the wooden table and confirmed that this was where he lived now.

So it meant that she came to his place last night when she was drunk?

Qin Shu sighed, relieved. As long as she didn't barge into someone else's house, it was fine.

She looked around the house but didn't see Fu Tingyu. "Where did he go?" she wondered.

The man came back from outside around noon. "That crazy woman should have left, right?" he thought to himself...

Chapter 969 Justified Actions

He walked into the house and saw three steaming hot dishes on the wooden table. It was obvious at a glance, that they had just come straight out of the oven.

Previously, many women in the village came to cook and clean for him. He chased them away initially, but it did not deter them. In the end, they were given a serious warning. Gradually, the women in the village no longer dared to come.

His expression was cloudy.

He also guessed that the person who cooked the food was the same one who climbed into his bed last night.

Qin Shu came out of the kitchen with a bowl of rice in her hand. When she saw Fu Tingyu standing in the living room, she smiled and greeted him. "You're back. Go wash your hands first, then you can eat," she said.

Fu Tingyu asked in a deep voice, "Who allowed you to cook these?"

Qin Shu said matter-of-factly, "The wife should cook for the husband. Although my culinary skills are far inferior to yours, you should make do with it."

"Get out." Fu Tingyu's face turned even darker. He had never seen such a shameless woman. She climbed into his bed in the middle of the night and called herself his wife?

Qin Shu felt a painful prick in her heart. This was the first time he had uttered such nasty words. She said indifferently, "You should take back your words. I'm afraid that if you remember them in the future, you will regret saying those two words."

Fu Tingyu completely treated her as a joke. "Can't a woman like you have a little bit of shame? You crawled into a man's bed in the middle of the night and still insist on staying here and not leaving?"

Qin Shu stopped laying out the table. She raised her head and looked at Fu Tingyu, taking a deep breath to control her anger. He was only saying these because he couldn't remember.

After comforting herself, she said, "You are my husband. What's wrong with crawling into your bed? Even if I stay here and not leave, it's only justified."

"There's something wrong with you." Fu Tingyu's face was dark as he strode over and picked up the food on the table. As usual, he threw all the food out, leaving none behind.

Qin Shu looked at the food she had prepared for the entire morning. Fu Tingyu had not eaten a single bite and threw them out just like that. She felt very uncomfortable.

"You used to say that you married me to pamper me, not to make me cook for you, so you never let me into the kitchen," Qin Shu said.

She then looked at him. "The next time I cooked for you, you ate all of it," she added.

Fu Tingyu was a little annoyed by her words. He pointed outside and said coldly, "I don't know you, and I am not your husband either. Get out now."

"If you weren't my husband, do you think I would waste my time on a strange man? With your looks? There are many good-looking people in the world," Qin Shu retorted. "Let me tell you, I do hold grudges."

With that, she turned around and walked out.

Fu Tingyu was furious. He had just sat down and was about to pour some water when Qin Shu came back again. "Just because you are my husband, I will still come back."

After saying that, she turned around and left again.

Fu Tingyu was speechless.

Where did this crazy woman come from?

He glanced at the food that he had thrown on the ground, still giving off steam. Each time, the woman's aggrieved face would appear in his mind.

Qin Shu returned to the village chief's house and went straight to her room.

After disappearing overnight, Ye Luo must have been worried sick.

After coming up, she found Ye Luo holding Boss Ba on the platform around the corner, seated on a wooden chair as if waiting for her.

“Ye Luo.” Qin Shu walked over and sat down opposite him.

“Young Madam Fu, did Fourth Master manage to remember you?” Ye Luo asked.

Qin Shu shook her head. “No, he doesn’t remember anything.”

She rested her chin on one hand, her face filled with worry.

Ye Luo asked again, “Then why is Young Madam Fu sleeping in Sir’s room?”

Qin Shu felt a little awkward at the mention of this matter. She did not know that the sweet wine had such a strong after-effect. She also did not know how she ended up with a man.

This was the first time she had gotten drunk and ended up in the wrong room.

“Last night’s wine was very strong. I don’t know how I ended up with him,” Qin Shu explained.

Looking at Fu Tingyu’s reaction today, something must have happened last night that made him unhappy.

The only fortunate thing was that she wasn’t thrown out.

He actually said that she didn’t have any shame at all?

Once he remembers, she would let him know that she does have a lot of shame and would forbid him from sleeping with her for a month.

Qin Shu had already made two mental notes in her head.

Due to some ongoingings, Ye Luo did not manage to inform Qin Shu of what he discovered the night before.

“This time, only four high-level Gu masters who came to Nine Bay are from the village head’s family,” Ye Luo said to Qin Shu. “They are Hao Ze, Tan Lin, Li Qian, and Sun Shang respectively.”

This was out of Qin Shu’s expectations. “Yang Jin did not come?” she asked.

Ye Luo shook his head. “No.”

“Last night, I chatted with Hao Ze for a bit. He needed a bowl of blood to cultivate Ni. As for whose blood it was, I have no idea,” said Qin Shu.

She could vaguely guess that it was surely not the blood of an ordinary person, nor was it the blood of a Gu master.

“In that case, does Young Madam Fu have any ideas to restore Fourth Master’s memory?” Ye Luo asked. This was what he was most concerned about.

“For the time being, I don’t know the reason for his amnesia,” Qin Shu replied, recalling her master deliberately erasing a part of her memory.

However, Fu Tingyu’s situation was different from hers. Whether it was accidental amnesia or deliberately caused by a man, she didn’t know.

As if remembering something, Qin Shu ordered, "Ye Luo, go and find out what happened to him about two months ago. Also, find out how long he has lived here."

"Got it," Ye Luo responded and got up to leave.

Qin Shu stood up and went back to her room.

It was almost evening when Ye Luo came back and told Qin Shu everything he found.

"The villagers said that Fourth Master is called Ah Yu here and has lived here since he was young. He has no parents and is considered an orphan," Ye Luo reported.

Qin Shu asked again in disbelief, "Did the villagers really say that?"

Ye Luo nodded. "I asked thirty families and they all said the same thing," he replied.

"What's going on?" Qin Shu frowned. She couldn't figure it out. He was Fu Tingyu. Even if he had amnesia, the people in the village did not.

He should have been here only in the past two months, and not been raised here since he was young.

Ye Luo was unable to figure it out either. He also firmly believed that the man was Fourth Master.

"The people in the village have no need to lie," Ye Luo said.

"I won't make a mistake, and neither will Boss Ba," Qin Shu replied with certainty. He was Fu Tingyu, so she definitely did not make a mistake.

"Ask all the people from over 200 households," she added.

Ye Luo replied, "Okay."

Qin Shu sat there in a daze. She realized Ye Luo was still sitting there with no intention of leaving.

She knew Ye Luo too well. If he didn't leave, it meant he was waiting for further instructions.

"You should go back and rest early," Qin Shu told him.

"Okay," Ye Luo responded and carried Boss Ba back to his room.

After Ye Luo left, Qin Shu sat at the table for a while. She noticed that the wine on the table was a small white porcelain bottle, about 250 milliliters. It was sent by the village chief's daughter-in-law for her meal. She didn't drink it..

Chapter 970 Barged Into the Man's Room Again

Qin Shu rolled her eyes, picked up the bottle, and drank a few mouthfuls.

Then she put down the bottle, stood up, opened the door, and walked out.

Qin Shu was really drunk last night. She ran to the man's house and even climbed into the man's bed.

Tonight...

Qin Shu was no longer new to this.

She had already been here twice.

She was too drunk last night and didn't know how to climb into his bed.

The moonlight hung high in the sky.

Qin Shu stood at the man's door. The door was tightly shut, so she could only continue pretending to be drunk if she wanted to enter.

It was very easy to enter. All she had to do was to use Broken Moon to gently strike the door and it would open.

After entering, Qin Shu pretended to be drunk and walked unsteadily to the side of the bed. She glanced at the person on the bed. He should be sleeping very soundly.

Then, Qin Shu began to take off her clothes. Since she was wearing new Miao Xin garments, it was really uncomfortable.

Qin Shu took off her clothes very quickly. After she was done, she bent down and touched the corner of the blanket before lifting it up and climbing into bed again. She was awake, so her speed was about the same as last night as she did it in one fluid motion.

After getting into bed, she nestled into the man's arms. She reached out and hugged the man's skinny waist. She said, "Baby Yu."

The man had not slept well, and it was also difficult for him to fall asleep. Now, there was suddenly another person in his arms. Both of them were only wearing cotton shirts. When they pressed against each other, they could feel each other's warm body temperature.

Fu Tingyu could sense the hand at his waist even through the fabric. It was a bit unruly.

His sleepy mind instantly became clear.

The man suddenly opened his eyes. The room was pitch-black, and the smell of alcohol was the same as last night. He knew without hesitation that the crazy woman had climbed into his bed again.

Was she drunk, and sleepwalking?

This time, he would not take pity on her. He reached his hand out and held the woman by her collar to lift her up. Since he had held her last night, he knew that she was very light, and he could lift her up easily.

However, just as he lifted her up a little, the woman started to touch him again.

After being married for a few years, Qin Shu understood the man's weaknesses only too well. Although she did not know whether these tricks would work on the man after he had lost his memory.

Regardless of whether they worked or not, she would only know if she tried first hand.

She would first make a move to make the man let down his guard. It was the most traditional tactic.

Qin Shu climbed onto the man's shoulder and leaned close to his ear. The fragrance of the wine and the heat transmitted into his ear. "Baby Yu, it's been so long. Did you miss me?"

The woman's voice was low, soft, and charming.

The man's face turned from black to red. He didn't know if he was angry or if this crazy woman in his arms had caused it. No correction, it was the little vixen.

Fu Tingyu took a deep breath and tried his best to calm his unsteady breathing. He pushed her away and wanted to get up.

Qin Shu moved in on him quickly as well. She held him down and didn't let him get up. Then, she turned over and climbed up.

Only then did the man realize that the woman was a strong martial artist and was completely on par with him.

Fu Tingyu had underestimated her.

Qin Shu stared at the man under the moonlight. It had been too long since she had stared at him like this. For a moment, she was a little fascinated.

The man's looks were undeniable. Not only was he attractive, but he was also a troublemaker.

"Get lost." The man's voice was low as if he was trying to restrain himself.

"Certainly not." Qin Shu held the man's handsome face with both hands. She looked like she was drunk and a little childish. "Baby Yu, I dare you to say that again."

How could she challenge the man? "You crazy woman, I want you to get lost..."

Before she could finish her words, he was blocked by the woman.

Fu Tingyu could sense something soft which felt like toffee and tasted sweet.

He could smell the fragrance of wine as it went into his mouth.

There was one more trick up her sleeve she could use on Fu Tingyu, and it worked every time.

isses had always worked on him. She could kiss him lightly or deeply depending on the occasion.

n the past, there was a rule of thumb for coaxing Fu Tingyu. If a one kiss wasn't enough, then she would kiss him twice.

She had stayed by Fu Tingyu's side for more than eight years, and this trick had never failed.

As for this time...

Would the man be very resistant to this since he had lost his memory?

Was she rushing things?

She knew being impatient didn't work.

However, she felt the man always fell for these moves.

As for her kissing skills, her master was Fu Tingyu. How bad could she be?

Judging from the man's reaction, it was working.

It suddenly reminded her of the time when she was learning martial arts at Qi Mountain. The man deliberately let her kick him and fell into a deep pool.

Then he pretended to drown and let her save him. He even pretended to faint, making her anxious.

Finally, she had to give him mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

The man happened to be conscious when it happened.

Since it was her first time giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, and he was a boy, she remembered the event keenly.

It felt very similar to Fu Tingyu's reaction now.

He didn't hate her. Also, it felt very familiar, so he didn't know what to do and forgot to push her away for a moment.

Just as Qin Shu thought, the man was indeed shocked by her action, and it was also his first time being kissed by a woman.

Previously, he would push her away without any hesitation or even throw her out.

But this time, he didn't react immediately and the crazy woman succeeded.

The woman was very bold and did whatever she wanted. It felt more like a provocation.

It was a feeling he had never felt before and it was growing in his mind and spreading through his limbs.

Even though he had only encountered this woman three times, he was...

Qin Shu leaned close to the man's ear and let out a soft sigh. "Baby Yu, I really miss you. Don't chase me away, okay?"

Baby Yu?

It was the first time the man had heard someone call him that, and it was so natural.

When he heard the woman call him that last night, he felt that the name was genuinely childish.

The man's face was flushed. In the end, he could not stand the woman's actions. He pushed her away, got off the bed, and walked into the bathroom.

He had moved with even greater fluidity than Qin Shu.

To be precise, he was not a saint and incapable of suppressing his desires with a gorgeous woman lying in his arms.

The door slammed shut with a bang leaving the room shaking in its wake.

Qin Shu lay on the bed and watched as the man slipped away. She couldn't help but want to laugh. Despite Fu Tingyu's memory loss, her moves had worked on him all the same.

After Qin Shu finished laughing, she couldn't laugh anymore. She felt that she had gone a little overboard.

Qin Shu should have pressed down on him just now and not let him leave. She should have let him surrender first. That way, he would have no reason to chase her away.

Now, he had let him escape.

Qin Shu looked at the bed before she finally lay on it and prepared to sleep.

The man had lost his memory. If she offended him now, he might really throw her out.

Forty minutes later, the bathroom door opened from the inside. The man walked out. Water droplets were still dripping from his dark hair. He had changed into a new set of clothes and his body was emitting a faint fragrance of shower gel and he had obviously just showered.

He walked to the bedside with even steps and glanced at the woman on the bed. She was already asleep. She had the face of an angel and looked particularly innocent.

He walked to the bedside with even steps and glanced at the woman on the bed. She was already asleep. That angelic face was innocent and innocent..