Chapter 981 Looked Forward To Her Having A Baby Girl

Qin Shu looked at the man opposite her. He was slowly eating the millet porridge in front of him with the side dishes. Even though he had lost his memory, he still ate like before and did not talk much.

She ate a few mouthfuls of the millet congee and praised: "Baby Yu, the millet porridge you cooked is really delicious."

"You should praise the electric rice cooker." The man ate the millet porridge without raising his head, and his tone was very calm.

However, Qin Shu said: "Without you, does a dead thing know how to wash the rice? Does it know how much water to put in?"

The man: "..."

After breakfast

Qin Shu touched her belly, which was as big as a ball. She sighed in satisfaction: "I'm so full, my belly feels a little uncomfortable." She had eaten breakfast before coming. Although she did not eat much, she still ate.

Just now, she had eaten two bowls of millet porridge. She was really full.

WO

The man cleared the bowls and chopsticks. Hearing this, he turned his head to look at the woman. His standing posture just happened to see her touching her tummy. He knew better than anyone how flat the woman's stomach was. There was no meat at all. Even if she had just finished eating, she looked no different from usual.

"You've finished eating. Leave quickly." He withdrew his gaze and walked into the kitchen with the dishes in his hands. He did not say another word.

Qin Shu ignored his words. She stood up and followed him into the kitchen. He was washing the dishes by the sink. She walked to the side and stopped. In front of him, she deliberately stuck out her stomach and touched it. She tilted her head to look at him: "Don't you think this looks like a baby?"

The man did not stop washing the dishes. He glanced at the woman's action and was stunned for a moment. Her stomach was bulging. The woman next door was four months pregnant, and her stomach was bulging like this.

The woman did indeed look like she had a baby.

The man stared at the woman's movement of touching her stomach one after another, and he was a little lost in his thoughts.

Qin Shu also noticed that the man had been staring at her, so she said: "We can have a cute daughter."

The man came back to his senses and looked at the woman's smiling face. Although she was disguised to be ugly, without makeup, if she gave birth to a daughter, she would not only be cute but also...

The man realized that he was thinking too far ahead, so he immediately stopped his thoughts, retracted his gaze, and continued to wash the dishes.

After washing the dishes, the man walked out of the kitchen without a word.

Qin Shu followed closely behind. She saw the man pick up the bandana and put it on his head before walking straight out of the house.

She hurriedly followed him, "Where are you going?" After walking a few steps, she went back and closed the door before chasing after him.

The man walked toward the entrance of Nine Bay without a word.

Qin Shu did not know what he was going to do. She asked him, but he did not answer. She could only follow behind him.

She had gone into Nine Bay once. In winter, the mountain forest was very humid. After going in, her entire body would be drenched.

The man in front of her suddenly stopped and did not look back at her, "Don't follow me."

Qin Shu also stopped and asked him: "Then tell me, what are you going in for?"

The man was a little impatient: "Why do you care so much?"

Qin Shu looked helplessly at the man's tall and straight back. She could tell that the man was very impatient. Perhaps it was because she was too close and forcing him too much.

But she had no choice. Jun Li was waiting for her to save him, and she did not want to leave him here.

"Do you despise me so much?" Her voice was low and very aggrieved.

"Put yourself in my shoes and think about it. Isn't it annoying to have you don't like to follow you around all the time?" The man shouted impatiently.

Qin Shu pursed her lips, "If you don't like it, it's indeed quite annoying."

"It's good that you know." The man left these words and continued walking inside.

After walking for about ten minutes, the man gradually slowed down. There was no sound of footsteps behind him, nor was there a woman's voice. That woman left? No matter how thick-skinned a woman was, she would definitely not be able to stand it and leave if he said that.

She might even leave this place soon.

Initially, he thought that he would be able to breathe a sigh of relief since no one bothered him. However, he felt that his surroundings were too quiet. He felt that something was missing

He continued walking and suddenly stopped. He turned around and saw her wearing an ordinary Miao Xin outfit standing less than two meters away from him. She was grinning at him.

In an instant, he felt that there was nothing missing. He did not feel that his surroundings were too quiet. The man let out a sigh of relief. However, the words that came out of his mouth were the exact opposite. "Why are you still following me?" Qin Shu raised her chin and looked at him. "If I want to follow you, I will. In this life, even if you hate me, I will not leave. As for the next life, we can talk about it in the next life. The most important thing is to live this life well."

The man was stunned, and his heart started to heat up again.

Why was it different from what he thought?

"There's something wrong with you."

The man said those words and turned around to continue walking. He did not say that he would not let her follow him.

After walking for a few meters, the man did not hear the woman's voice. He walked for a while, but there was still no movement behind him.

He had to hide his voice when he walked?

The man stopped and thought for a moment. He turned around to take a look and saw the woman standing still and staring at him.

He could not figure out what the woman was thinking?

However, he could not turn around and continue walking like this.

He could only walk back.

The man stopped in front of her, "Why aren't you walking again?"

Qin Shu didn't say anything. She raised her chin and stared at him with her eyes that were as bright as the stars. "... He said: "If you don't want to follow me, you can go back."

Qin Shu continued to purse her lips and did not say anything. The man stared at the woman for a while and realized that something was wrong with her. He changed from his usual casual look to one with a hint of worry: "What's wrong with you?"

Qin Shu then said three words: "My feet hurt."

When the man heard this, he frowned and looked at the woman's feet. Through the clothes and shoes, he could not see where she was injured. He could only squat down and reach out to her feet to test where she was injured.

Qin Shu looked down at the man. Just a moment ago, he looked as if he wanted to throw her a thousand miles away. Now, he was worried about her. She thought that even if the man did not remember, he should still have some feelings in his heart.

"I just twisted it by accident just now. It hurts a little. I'll be fine after resting for a while."

The man raised his head to look at her, then stood up. With his back facing her, he squatted down again, "Get up." His tone was similar to his usual tone, but it made the corners of Qin Shu's mouth curl up involuntarily. He still cared for her.

She bent down and lay on the man's back. Her arms wrapped around his neck. At this time, the man also hugged her legs and stood up. He walked forward without saying a word.

Qin Shu put her arms around the man's neck and rested her chin on his shoulder. She tilted her head and looked at him, just like before. "Do you really hate me that much?"

Qin Shu was very close to him. As long as she moved two centimeters forward, her lips would touch the man's neck. The hot air that spurted out just happened to land on his neck.

Chapter 982 Always Surprising Him

The man subconsciously shrank his neck. It was a little itchy, but he did not answer her question.

The man was silent. Qin Shu took it as his tacit agreement. She asked again: "Then do you know why even though you hate me so much now I still want to pester you?"

This time, the man could not help but ask: "Why?"

Qin Shu said slowly: "I'm afraid that if I really leave in anger, ignore you as you wish, you'll regret and blame yourself in the future. Don't be in a hurry to refute my words. You'll understand in the future."

Therefore, no matter what the man said or did, she could only tell herself that he only acted this way because he had lost his memory.

If she was always full of grievances and cried in front of him, he would definitely feel sorry and blame himself in the future when he remembered.

The man listened quietly and did not say anything else.

Qin Shu did not sleep well the previous night. She lay on the man's body and fell asleep after a while.

Light breathing sounds came into his ears. The man knew that she was asleep. He slowed down and let the woman sleep quietly on his back.

It did not seem like he had something to do on the mountain, but more like he was taking a walk.

When Qin Shu woke up, the sky was already dark.

She was shocked and suddenly widened her eyes, "How did I fall asleep?"

She had slept too soundly this time, so she was in a deep sleep.

She looked around and realized that they had already descended from Nine Bay. They were about to reach the door of the house.

"If you're awake, come down." The man stopped his footsteps and signaled for her to come down.

Qin Shu was too embarrassed to cling to him anymore and quickly got down from his body.

"Go back." The man said these three words and walked straight in, preparing to cook dinner.

Qin Shu looked at the man's back and said: "We're already at the door. Aren't you going to let me have dinner?"

Although she asked this question, she had already followed the man into the kitchen.

She walked to the man's side and saw that he was washing vegetables: "What are we eating tonight?"

"Noodles." After the man washed the vegetables, he took out two eggs from the basket and placed them on the table.

Qin Shu's eyes lit up: "I haven't eaten noodles for a long time. You can cook more." The man turned his head to look at her. He still took out two servings of noodles for adults.

Cooking noodles was simple and convenient. In a short while, two bowls of noodles were ready.

On the dining table, there were two bowls of steaming noodles. On the noodles, there was a sunny-side-up egg and coriander.

Qin Shu was really hungry. She did not have time to say anything. She picked up her chopsticks, picked up a few noodles, and brought them to her mouth to cool down. Then, she put them into her mouth to eat.

The man held his chopsticks in his hand. Because the noodles had just come out of the pot and were very hot, he was not in a hurry to eat. He raised his eyes to look at the woman opposite him. Seeing that she had already started eating, he reminded her: "Be careful, it's hot."

As soon as he finished speaking, Qin Shu's pink lips were flushed red from the heat, and her beautiful brows were tightly furrowed.

The man quickly picked up the kettle and poured a cup of water. The water in the teapot was already cool. He picked it up and placed it in front of her. His gaze was fixed on her lips, which were very red from the heat as if she had applied lipstick.

"Drink some cold water."

Qin Shu picked up the cup and drank a few mouthfuls of water. When she drank the water, her lips were immersed in the cold water, relieving the pain.

The man then said: "No one is snatching it from you. Why are you eating so quickly?" "I'm hungry." Qin Shu smiled at him. Her smile was very sweet, and then she lowered her head and continued eating the noodles. The man saw that she was eating happily as if she was eating something delicious from the world. He could not help but have an appetite. He clenched his chopsticks and started eating too. Qin Shu finished all the noodles in the bowl in front of her. There was not even a drop of soup left. She wiped the grease at the corner of her mouth with satisfaction: "It's really delicious."

The corner of the man's mouth unconsciously curled up. He cleaned the dishes and went to wash the dishes.

The two bowls were washed in a short while.

The man wiped his hands clean and brewed a pot of tea. The two of them poured a cup of tea and then sat down.

Qin Shu looked at the tea in front of her, which was steaming. It was already night, and she was leaving the next day.

She suddenly raised her head and looked at the man: "Baby Yu, I really have to go to Miao Capital tomorrow morning. Can you come with me?"

The man picked up the tea and took a sip. When he heard her mention this matter again, he frowned: "Why should I leave with you and not you stay here?"

Qin Shu explained: "I have something important to do, so I have to leave."

Something important? Anyway, it was more important than him. The Man's face darkened, "Then go. No one will bother me again." After saying that, he put down the teacup in his hand, turned around, and strode into the room. With a bang, the door was slammed shut.

Qin Shu was stunned for a few seconds. Why was he angry and hiding in the room again?

She stood up and walked to the door. She raised her hand and knocked on the door.

"Baby Yu, open the door. Let's have a good chat."

There was no light in the room. It was pitch-black and even one's fingers could not be seen.

The man's tall and straight figure sat on the sofa. His slender legs were crossed and he had a cigarette in his mouth. That little spark flickered frequently in the pitch-black room.

He was indifferent to the knocking.

The man just smoked quietly. He did not know why he was so angry.

In fact, he was very angry.

The knocking came again, "Baby Yu, I know you are angry. Open the door. I will coax you."

The man sneered. Did he treat him like a three-year-old child? He continued to smoke and had no intention of opening the door.

Qin Shu waited for a while. Seeing that the man had no intention of opening the door, she knocked on the door a few more times and shouted: "Are you really not going to open the door?"

There was no sound outside the door for a while.

There was silence for a long time

The man raised his eyes and looked at the tightly shut door. The cigarette between his fingers was already half-lit.

Did she leave?

Just as this thought flashed through his mind, the tightly shut door was kicked open with great force. The door panel collided with the wall with a loud sound and then fell directly to the ground with another loud bang.

Qin Shu retracted her foot, and her tall figure stood at the door. Her pair of clear eyes were like the stars in the night sky, very bright and bright. Seeing this, the man forgot to smoke the cigarette in his mouth. His dark and deep eyes looked at the woman standing in the night sky. She always surprised him.

She did not play by the rules, which often made him unable to guess what she might do next.

She was a woman he had only known for a few days, yet she was able to disturb his peaceful life.

The slender and tall figure at the door moved. Her slender legs walked over step by step with even steps. The door was less than five meters away from the sofa. In a short while, she stopped in front of the man.

The room was too dark. It was impossible to see each other's faces, facial expressions, and eyes clearly.

The man put down the hand holding the cigarette on his knee and said faintly, "You still want to play that game?"

Qin Shu stared at the slender figure on the sofa and said, "I really can't stay here for too long. I told you before, I need to find Gu worms to save my friend."

The man chuckled: "Did I stop you from going?"

Chapter 983 Who Would Like A Crazy Woman?

Qin Shu said helplessly: "Then you should come with me."

His voice sank: "I don't want to repeat what I said."

Thinking about what he had said just now, it meant that he would not leave unless she stayed.

If Jun Li was not waiting for her to save his life, she would not be in such a hurry to leave.

But she could not let go of him.

Now, she could only go soft.

Qin Shu suddenly took a step forward and threw herself into the man's arms. She was very fast as if she was afraid that the man would dodge.

The woman suddenly threw herself at him without any warning. Fortunately, his hand was fast, otherwise, the cigarette butt would definitely burn her.

Qin Shu wrapped her arms around the man's neck and rested her chin on the man's broad shoulders. She softened her voice and asked: "Then what would it take for you to be willing to go with me?"

The man coldly replied: "I won't go."

Qin Shu heard this and saw that the man was so insistent. She asked, "You really like the quiet life here, don't you?" The man replied: "It has nothing to do with you."

Qin Shu slowly said: "If you like it, after we go back, we can go and live on the island for a period of time. What do you think?"

The man replied: "It has nothing to do with 11

Qin Shu sighed helplessly. Why was her tone the same as when she was at Qi Mountain?

"I know. If I ask you to come with me now, you definitely won't be willing. Then you stay here first. When I get the Gu worms, I will come back to find you, okay?" If the man was really unwilling to follow her, she could only go alone and come back after getting the Gu worms. "If you leave, don't come back." The Man's voice became colder, indicating that he was unhappy.

No matter how she heard it, it sounded like they were words of anger.

Qin Shu thought that it had only been a few days since they had reunited. Could it be that the man who had lost his memory had already fallen in love with her?

She moved closer to the man's ear and asked him: "Do you like me?"

The warm breath was accompanied by a sweet smell. Half of it entered the man's ear and the other half entered the tip of his nose, causing him to tremble.

The man turned his head: "Who would like a crazy woman?"

When it reached Qin Shu's ears, it automatically translated to, "I like you, this annoying little vixen."

She asked again: "Then do you like it if I kiss you?"

The man replied: "I don't like it."

That meant that he liked it.

Qin Shu's hand caressed the man's handsome face and turned it over. The man half-pushed and half-turned his face away, "What?"

Qin Shu chuckled softly.

When he heard the laughter, the man asked: "What are you laughing at?"

Qin Shu stopped laughing: "You're actually quite cute like this."

ILII

Qin Shu leaned forward and kissed his lips.

The man was dissatisfied with the word 'cute'. Just as he was about to flare up, the corner of his mouth heated up. He was about to say something, but it was forcefully swallowed back into his stomach.

He was describing the shape of the man's lips.

Qin Shu's kiss was meticulous. Even with her eyes closed, she knew that the man's lips were actually very sexy.

If she did not know that men had a proud nature, she would definitely be angered to death by his words.

Just like on the Qi Mountain, the man's words were even more incongruous than they were now.

The faint smell of tobacco. Qin Shu did not like this smell.

"I don't like the smell of tobacco." She licked her lips. It felt a little spicy.

The man did not say anything. He silently put out the cigarette in his hand. He casually threw the cigarette butt accurately into the ashtray.

Qin Shu did not realize that the man had used his hand to put out the cigarette again. She did not expect that he still had this bad habit after losing his memory.

Qin Shu grabbed the front of the man's shirt and said coquettishly: "Can you not chase me away tonight? I'm going to Miao Capital tomorrow. I don't know how many days I'll take to come back."

What he could not stand the most was when her voice was low and gentle, with a hint of coquettishness and a hint of grievance.

It was as if he had made a huge mistake by chasing her out.

It was also because he did not have the heart to throw her out a few days ago.

He looked down at the woman in his arms, reached out to her head, and took off her bandana. Her seaweed-like hair cascaded down like a waterfall.

The man's hand caressed her hair. Her hair was as smooth as silk, making one unable to let go.

His voice was deep and magnetic. "Do you know the meaning of staying? I'm a normal man, I can't guarantee it." The meaning of the man's words was very clear. If she stayed, he would definitely do something

He did not want to suffer by going to the cold water.

Qin Shu could hear that the man had gradually softened, which meant that he still cared about her in his heart. Otherwise, he would not have asked such a question.

She pursed her lips and asked him: "Then let me ask you a question, how about it?" The man lifted a strand of hair to the tip of his nose and sniffed it: "What question?"

Qin Shu deliberately whispered into his ear: "Do you like me?"

The man was stunned for a few seconds as if he was thinking about this question. After a while, he did not answer.

She was a little discouraged, but it was only a few days. Even if he loved her very much before he lost his memory, he would not like her so soon now that he lost his memory.

It also required a process.

“It’s okay if you don’t answer, let’s take our time...”

Before Qin Shu could finish her words, her body suddenly soared into the air. He carried her horizontally and strode to the bedside.

She stared at the man in front of her in confusion. “You’re not thinking of throwing me out again, are you? Let me tell you, if you dare to throw me out again, I...”

The man stopped and asked her in return: “What are you going to do?”

Qin Shu lifted her chin, “I’m going to hug you and not let go. I won’t let go even if I die.” “Then you’d better keep your word.” The man continued to walk with her in his arms

Qin Shu: “What do you mean?”

The man did not answer her again. When he walked to the bedside, he placed her on the bed while he stood in front of her and started to unbutton her.

were

In the pitch-black room, his palms were already sweating and he was a little nervous.

Qin Shu sat on the edge of the bed and felt the man’s movements. Because she could not see the man’s expression, she opened her mouth: “What are you doing?”

The man did not answer and continued to move his hands.

Because the lights were not turned on, the man spent some time before he took off her coat. Then, he squatted down and took off her shoes. The shoes were very easy to take off. After a while, he took them off and placed them on the ground. Then, he stood up and pushed her, he signaled her to go into the bed.

Qin Shu obediently moved into the bed. Her bright eyes stared at the figure in front of the bed as if he was taking off his clothes.

After a while, the man also took off his slippers and got on the bed. He pulled up the blanket and pulled her into the bed.

Qin Shu was still a little confused. She did not know what the man was trying to do by not saying a word?

He did not answer the question just now, and now???

For so many days, she had always been the one who took the initiative. Now that it was the man who took the initiative, she was really not used to it.

Qin Shu was carried into the man’s arms and rested her head on his arm. It had been so many days, but this was the first time she was carried into his arms. The sound of his strong heartbeat drifted into her ears.

Chapter 984 I’ll Marry You, Stay

Her jaw was suddenly lifted. The warm touch and the familiar smell.

Qin Shu's heartbeat could not help but start to quicken, wondering if it was developing too fast?

The result of a man taking the initiative was that he made it impossible for her to think normally. For example, why did he suddenly act like this?

Why did he say he did not like her at the beginning and then do otherwise? And it happened so quickly, in just a blink of an eye.

Qin Shu only felt dizzy and very tired. She wanted to sleep, but the man did not let her.

Just as she closed her eyes, she was woken up by him again.

In the end, she vaguely heard the man close to her ear and said domineeringly: "I'll marry you, stay."

Then, she fell asleep.

As for the rest, she did not remember anything.

At 3:30 in the morning, the cold wind was blowing outside, and dark clouds covered the moon.

Only then did the man feel satisfied and embrace the woman into his arms to sleep. He, who had never slept well, slept very soundly.

Even when he was asleep, the corners of his mouth were curled up, as if he was dreaming.

His life had always been calm and tranquil, and he had never thought that there would be such a woman who could make him lose control so easily. Every word she said could make his heart heat up.

Tonight's action was probably impromptu, but there was only one thought in his mind. He wanted to keep her and marry her. That thought was very strong, so strong that even he could not control it.

The next day

When Qin Shu woke up, she subconsciously looked at the position beside her. He had long disappeared and the quilt beside her was cold. Then, she glanced at the window and found that the sky was already bright. Thinking of going to Miao Capital that day, she lifted the quilt and sat up abruptly. The next second, she frowned, regretting being so abrupt. It hurt so much.

The man was not willing to go with her now, so she could only go alone. When she got the Gu worms, she could let Ye Luo go back first. She would stay here and wait for the man to be willing to go with her before going home.

She rested for a while before getting out of bed and slowly putting on her clothes. It took her quite a while to put on her clothes.

When she walked, she felt that both of her legs were not hers.

As expected, this was the result of not exercising for too long.

This was too tiring.

She searched around the room but did not see the man, "Where did he go?"

Thinking that she was going to Miao Capital that day, she returned to the room and searched for a while. She found a paper and a pen in a drawer at the side and wrote a sentence. She placed the note on the pillow and used a pen to press it down.

Only then did she walk out with her hands on her waist.

She still could not help but feel like complaining in her heart.

They had only been separated for two months, yet she felt that he was like a young boy who had no self-control.

Qin Shu came out of her room and went straight back to the Village Chief's house. The neighbor next door was carrying a basket of vegetables, and just happened to see a woman coming out of Ah Yu's house.

The neighbor stared at the woman's back view for a long time, then glanced at Ah Yu's house. The woman who had already become a housewife could not help but think in that direction.

"Which family's daughter did Ah Yu fall in love with? She's really blessed."

After she went back Ye Luo had already tidied up and sat in Qin Shu's room to wait.

Qin Shu pushed the door open and walked in. When she saw Ye Luo, she walked over and rested for a while.

"Madam..." Ye Luo had just opened his mouth when he saw Qin Shu's slightly open collar. There was a very deep mark there, so he swallowed the rest of his words.

Qin Shu picked up the hot water bottle and poured herself a cup of warm water. She brought it to her mouth and drank a few mouthfuls. After moistening her throat, she said: "He doesn't want to go with me, but I've made a deal with him. When I get the Gu worms, I'll come back and look for him."

Ye Luo asked: "Does Lord Fu Believe Your Words?"

Qin Shu shook her head. "No, but I believe that when I come back, he'll be willing to go with me."

Qin Shu was not confident in herself, but she was very confident in him. She believed that even if he lost his memory, he would not be willing to part with her.

Ye Luo believed Qin Shu's words because she understood Lord Fu better than he did.

In fact, the previous night, Qin Shu realized that the man had said those words because he did not want her to leave.

But she could not stay. Jun Li was still waiting for her to save him.

Even Gu Yan could not guarantee that he would be able to delay until the day she returned, so she had to get the Gu worms as soon as possible.

She had been here for a few days, but she did not dare to call Gu Yan to ask about Jun Li's situation.

She was afraid that it was not what she wanted to hear.

After resting for a while, Qin Shu bid farewell to the Village Chief and paid the accommodation fee, which was slightly higher than what she said at the beginning.

The four high-level Gu masters left early in the morning

The Village Chief also fulfilled his promise, which was to give Qin Shu two jars of wine that he brewed himself.

“Thank you, Village Chief.” Qin Shu took the two jars of wine with a smile. The wine was indeed quite delicious.

She gave it to Ye Luo and asked him to put it away.

After saying goodbye to the Village Chief, Qin Shu and Ye Luo left Kua Yi village one after another.

When they reached the intersection, she turned her head to look at Fu Tingyu’s house. She wondered if he had returned?

Qin Shu gritted her teeth, retracted her gaze, and continued to walk forward.

The car stopped on the street not far away.

They did not walk for long before they arrived in front of the car.

Qin Shu got in the car first.

Ye Luo put his luggage in the car, turned around, pulled open the driver’s seat, and drove away.

When the man returned to the house, there was a pheasant in his hand. It was found in the animal trap he had placed in the mountains the previous day. He went to take a look early that morning and found a pheasant that he wanted to cook for her for lunch.

He pushed the door open and walked in. He first put the pheasant into the cage in the corner of the wall before walking into the room. He was ready to wake the woman up for breakfast.

When he walked into the room, he immediately saw that the woman was no longer on the bed.

He stood at the door and stared at the small bed. He stared at it for a long time but did not move.

“I’m going to Miao Capital tomorrow...” He recalled what the woman said the previous night.

He walked to the bed, bent down, and touched the place where the woman slept last night. The blanket was cold, which meant that the woman had left for a while.

He saw that the note on the pillow was pressed down by a black pen. His slender fingers reached over and pulled out the note. There was a line of words written on it.

“Babe Yu, I’m going to Miao Capital today. I’ll come back to look for you after I get the Gu worms. Wait for me to come back. Love, Babe.” The woman’s words were very beautiful. They were fluid and smooth without any hesitation, just like how she left without any hesitation.

The man pursed his lips tightly. After reading the contents of the paper, his expression instantly darkened. He held the piece of paper tightly in his palm. Because he had used too much force, the roots of his fingers turned pale. The flat piece of paper was crumpled into a ball.

“I said I wanted to marry you and asked you to stay, but you left without saying a word?”

Could she not have waited for him to come back and told him before leaving?

“You left just like that, and you still said you loved me?”

The man sneered as if he was mocking himself. He sat down on the bed and placed his hands on his knees weakly. He was still holding the paper in his palm.

Chapter 985 His Private Life Was In A Mess

“You didn’t even ask me again. How did you know that I wasn’t willing to go with you?” The man suppressed his growl, but it was very weak.

He had been too hot-headed last night. When he picked her up and walked to the bed and took off her clothes, he knew that he had fallen for her.

There had never been a woman who had upset him. Every day, he would subconsciously think of her in his mind.

He had thought that he would spend his life so peacefully, with a cold heart.

However, he had been messed up by a woman whom he had only known for a few days.

The room was frighteningly quiet.

The man just sat on the bed like that. He did not even have the strength to vent the anger in his heart.

He slumped on the bed behind him. His dark eyes were dark and lifeless as he stared blankly at the beam above his head.

After a long while, the man said faintly: “If you leave, don’t come back.”

At this moment, in Miao Capital Qin Shu and Ye Luo returned to the hotel where they stayed. The room was still the same and had been kept.

Qin Shu sat on the sofa, holding Hao Ze’s business card. She thought of what he had said before, “Yang Jin, he won’t help you.”

How did he know that Yang Jin would not be willing to help her?

She could not fulfill Hao Ze’s request, now she could only try it out with Yang Jin.

Qin Shu kept the name card and stood up, “Ye Luo, I am going out for a while.”

Ye Luo also stood up, carrying Boss as he walked out first.

Yang Jin’s villa was easily located.

Yang Jin’s villa was not far from Hao Ze’s villa, it should be in the same villa area.

As a high-level Gu master, their treatment was very good. The villa was also prepared for them by Long Clan.

At the villa's entrance

Ye Luo took a step forward and pressed the doorbell.

Not long after, the door opened from the inside, it was a young maid with a delicate appearance: "What's the matter?"

Ye Luo said: "My master wants to visit Gu master Yang, is Gu master Yang around?"

"Do you have an invitation? Do you have an appointment?" The maid asked.

Ye Luo shook his head: "No."

The maid said apologetically: "Then I am sorry, without an invitation, my master will not see you." The maid smiled apologetically and closed the door.

Ye Luo looked at the tightly shut door and walked towards Qin Shu: "You need an invitation and an appointment."

Qin Shu was standing at the side, she heard everything the maid said, she could tell that Yang Jin had a huge background, it was not easy to get along with him.

But it did not mean that she would give up. As long as she could satisfy Yang Jin's request, she might be able to let Yang Jin try to refine the Gu worm.

"Ye Luo, request for visitation"

"Yes." Ye Luo could only prepare a request for visitation at the last minute, he pressed the doorbell again and handed the request for visitation to the maid.

The maid received the request for visitation and closed the door again. That night, Ye Luo received a call from the butler in Yang Jin's villa who said that they would meet at 9 am the next day

After hanging up, Ye Luo told Qin Shu the time of the meeting

While waiting, Qin Shu carefully checked some information about Yang Jin.

Yang Jin was thirty years old this year, he had married two wives. The first wife died of illness three years ago, and then he married a second wife.

His private life was chaotic after all. Because he was rich and powerful, he never lacked women.

Yang Jin's father was also a high-level Gu master of the Long clan, Yang Jin learned Gu refinement from his father when he was young, thus becoming a high-level Gu master. And Yang Jin's father and long clan were in-laws. In comparison, Yang Jin's status in the Long Clan was a little special.

Yang Jin grew up with a silver spoon in his mouth. With Long Clan backing him up, and also the fact that he was a high-level Gu master, he was arrogant and domineering, but no one dared to offend him.

Because of this, most of the troubles that Yang Jin caused were settled by his father.

The next day

Nine o'clock

Qin Shu and Ye Luo arrived at Yang Jin's villa on time, Boss was left in the car and not brought down.

The first person they saw was the housekeeper in Yang Jin's villa, she was a young and sexy woman, not even twenty-five years old. She was well dressed and not lacking in sexiness.

Even if one were to look for a butler, they would look for such a young, beautiful, and sexy woman. Therefore, it was not groundless to say that his private life was chaotic. When Qin Shu was observing the butler, she was also observing Qin Shu. Her facial features were upright and could be said to be exquisite. However, the color of her skin was a little difficult to describe. It made her overall appearance a lot lower. She was dressed in neutral clothes and did not have much of a woman's flavor.

The housekeeper only took a few rough glances before she withdrew her gaze. "Please follow me."

The housekeeper was wearing seven-centimeter high heels and was walking in front.

Qin Shu and Ye Luo walked one after the other into Yang Jin's private villa.

From the outside, the villa was considered to be very luxurious.

When they walked in, they realized that the outside was nothing compared to the exterior. The interior decoration was considered a luxury.

It was European style, even that leather sofa was very expensive.

wa

One na

On the sofa, there was a handsome man sitting. He had brown curly hair and wore a black robe that only Gu masters would wear. This also meant that he was Yang Jin. "Master, she is here." The Butler stood in front of the sofa and waited.

Yang Jin lazily sat on the sofa. Looking at the woman walking over from behind the butler. With just a glance, he lost interest, her skin was not fair enough, and his appearance was a little less attractive. His gaze swept over the woman again, and the corners of his mouth curled up, she was tall, her legs were long and slender, even though she was dressed in neutral clothes, her good figure was hard to conceal.

When the person approached, Yang Jin lazily said: "Miss Qin, right, sit down and talk."

"Thank you, Gu master Yang." Qin Shu's slender legs sat down on the sofa opposite Yang Jin.

Yang Jin instructed: "Make some tea." "Yes, Master." The Butler walked elegantly in her high heels to make tea.

Qin Shu explained her purpose: "Gu Master Yang, I am here to ask you to help me refine Gu worms, are you interested?"

Most of the people who came to look for him wanted to spend money to ask him to refine Gu worms, so when Yang Jin heard this, there was no expression on his handsome face: "Gu making is my specialty, what Gu is it?"

Qin Shu saw Yang Jin's lack of interest, she said: "Reverse, I wonder if Gu Master Yang will accept it?"

Just a moment ago, Yang Jin was still leaning on the back of the sofa, looking uninterested. After hearing Qin Shu, he suddenly sat up and looked at her: "What Gu did you say?" Qin Shu lightly said: "Reverse."

Yang Jin heard it clearly this time. After so many years, there was still someone who wanted Gu Worms like Reverse?

Following that, he returned to his previous appearance: "Sorry Miss Qin, I will not accept this."

Although she had expected such an outcome when she heard it, she felt another sense of disappointment.

Because she had lost another possibility of getting Reverse.

Qin Shu asked: "Why won't you accept it? Is there a reason?"

"If I don't want to accept it, then I don't want to accept it. Miss Qin, please go back. I still have things to do, so I won't accompany you." Yang Jin directly ordered her to leave.

Qin Shu hesitated for a moment before standing up, "Sorry to bother you then."

After saying that, she turned around and left. She did not stay any longer.

Chapter 986 Strange Man

Ye Luo followed Qin Shu's footsteps.

Yang Jin supported his chin with one hand, staring at Qin Shu's departing figure for a while.

The Butler walked over at this time, holding a tray with two cups of tea on it.

"Master, where are they?" The butler bent down and placed the tray on the glass coffee table, then sat on Yang Jin's lap with half of her body's weight was leaning on Yang Jin.

Yang Jin looked at the beautiful Butler, deep in thought.

Qin Shu walked out of the villa, turning back to take a look, feeling somewhat unwilling to give up. Long Clan only had two Gu masters, if they were not willing to help, would they be able to get Gu Worms?

For two days, Qin Shu tried some methods to get Yang Jin to help, but the other party still refused very straightforwardly.

She could not go and find Hao Ze. Qin Shu asked Ye Luo to pass a request for visitation to the Long Clan.

The Long Clan was like the king of Miao Xin. Perhaps there was still a chance if she started from the Long family.

The head of the Long Clan was Long Size, who was already in his seventies. Apparently, he had been in poor health for the past few years and often lay ill in bed.

Long Size had three sons and a daughter.

The eldest son died of illness twenty years ago.

The youngest daughter had gone missing for a few years.

The youngest son had a mischievous nature. He had been injured accidentally two years ago, and his IQ was like that of a child.

Now, only the second son, Long Qingyue, was left to temporarily manage the Long Clan. These were all the information that Qin Shu had found about the Long Clan. Today, they had just finished breakfast.

The news came from the Long Clan, and they had agreed to meet at nine in the morning.

Qin Shu was still dressed in a neutral outfit, and her face was still decorated. Her skin color was a little darker, and her seaweed-like long hair was tied into a high ponytail.

With her temperament, one could tell that she was not simple just by standing there.

The Long Clan's old house was built on the side of a mountain, and it took up a large area. Behind the house was a large bamboo forest. The Butler of the Long Clan received Qin Shu. He was a man over a hundred years old with gray hair, and his figure was slightly plump.

"Please follow me."

The housekeeper led Qin Shu all the way in and made a few turns.

Qin Shu thought she was going to see Long Size, but she found that the housekeeper had brought her to a gazebo in the backyard. There were tea and pastries on the stone table in the gazebo.

The housekeeper walked into the gazebo, turned around, and said to Qin Shu: "Miss Qin, sit here and wait for a while. My Second Master is taking care of some things. He will come to see Miss Qin later."

Upon hearing the word "Second Master", Qin Shu knew it was Long Qingyue. He had not inherited the position of the leader yet.

When she requested visitation, it was clear that she wanted to see Long Size, not Long Qingyue. "Thank you for your trouble, Butler. I want to ask, why isn't it the person I am meeting the leader of Long Clan?"

The butler replied, "My master is too sick to see any guests, so the guests are all received by my Second Master. Miss Qin, please sit here for a while."

In winter, the leaves of some trees in the backyard had already fallen off. A gust of wind blew, and the yellowed leaves fell into the gazebo. A cement path led straight to the bamboo forest. Although someone cleaned it every day, there were still a few leaves on the road, it looked a little bleak.

Qin Shu glanced around in confusion. The guests were usually received in the living room, but Long Qingyue arranged for her to be in the gazebo in the backyard. What did he mean by this?

She did not use any identity when she visited the Long Clan this time. She just used an ordinary identity with the intention of collaboration. She only wanted to start with targeting the Long Clan. and it would be much easier for her if the Long Clan got involved.

After waiting for about half an hour, there was still no sign of Long Qingyue. At this time, a crisp and muffled groan came from the depths of the bamboo forest.

Qin Shu heard the sound and looked over. Looking at the dark and deep path, a trace of doubt flashed in her eyes. She stood up and walked towards the path in the bamboo forest.

Ye Luo called out: "Madam."

"Wait for me here." Qin Shu instructed and walked straight into the path in the bamboo forest.

Ye Luo stood in the gazebo and watched Qin Shu leave. He was a little worried, but when he thought of how Qin Shu was stronger than he was, he did not follow her.

The crisp and muffled sound continued.

Qin Shu heard the sound and walked over. As the distance closed, the sound became louder and louder.

After a while, the front gradually opened up. At the end of the path was an independent courtyard. The signboard on the courtyard door had the words "Heavy Wood" written on it.

"The voice just now came from here."

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and walked in.

There were no flowers, plants, or trees in the courtyard for decoration. There were only a few boxes made of bamboo placed on both sides of the courtyard.

However, the light here was slightly dim. The trees behind the house and the bamboo forest in front blocked a lot of the sunlight.

In the middle of the courtyard stood a man in black clothes. He was about 1.87 meters tall and had a tall and straight figure. He stood there like a mountain.

In his left hand was a bamboo pole that was about the thickness of a bowl. It was about a meter long and looked fresh. It should be from the gang valve.

The man placed the bamboo pole on the ground and squatted down as well. It was as if he did not notice anyone entering his courtyard.

Qin Shu walked over curiously and squatted down in front of the man. She found that he was holding a drill in his hand and was drilling holes in the bamboo pole.

She looked up at the man and found that his bangs were very long. With his head lowered, she could not see his face at all.

This appearance reminded her of herself in high school, because there was a scar at the corner of her right eye.

At this time, the man suddenly dropped the drill in his hand, stood up, and turned around to walk into the house.

Qin Shu was about to ask him why he was drilling, but he just left like that, as if he did not see her.

This courtyard looked a little rundown. It did not seem like a place where the Young Master of the Long Clan would live, but it also did not seem like a place where a servant would live.

Although this place was a little dilapidated, it was an independent courtyard. Whether it was the location or the structure of the house, a servant was not qualified to live here.

She stood up, looked at the open door, and walked in.

The light in the room was even darker than the outside. She saw the man sitting at the table, and because his back was facing her, she did not know what he was doing.

She walked over and peeked at the thing in the man's hand. If she was not so brave, she might have screamed out in fear.

In front of the man was a dark vessel, and inside was a decomposed bug corpse. There was a small light beside it, and the degree of decomposition could be clearly seen. There were a few white spots on it that were slowly squirming, it was a corpse bug, and it gave off an unpleasant smell.

Although Qin Shu was brave, her taste was not that good. Especially when she suddenly saw it, her stomach churned and she wanted to throw up. She tried hard to suppress the thought of throwing up and asked the man: "The things inside are all decomposed. Why are you still keeping them?"

The man did not answer her. Instead, he moved the small light away, closed the lid, and placed it in the cabinet at the side.

Then, he took out another thing. It was a bamboo tube.

Then, he took out the same vessel as before.

Chapter 987 The Granddaughter Who Returned To The Long Clan

Qin Shu saw that he did not answer and was minding his own business. She said again: "Are you a member of the Long Clan? My name is Qin Shu. I'm here to visit the leader of the Long Clan."

The man lowered his head and still did not answer. Instead, he took some things that she did not recognize and put them into the vessel. Then, he opened the bamboo tube and poured in the things inside.

The moment the things inside fell in, Qin Shu saw it. It was a very large centipede. Countless feet struggled desperately as they fell as if they had guessed their fate.

The man's hands paused, and then he continued to work on the things in hand.

It was the first time Qin Shu had met such a cold person. He did not like to talk even more than Han Xiao.

"I was waiting in the pavilion for quite a while, but Second Master Long hasn't arrived yet. I heard a voice coming from here, so I came over to take a look out of curiosity. What's your name?"

The man closed the lid and put the vessel into the cabinet. He stood up and walked out again.

Qin Shu, who was ignored again, was stunned for a moment. Could it be that he was a and was unable to speak? Or was he deaf, so he could not speak?

Then why did anyone not prepare a hearing aid for him to learn how to speak?

She looked at the house again and suddenly thought that he might have been left here to fend for himself because his family did not like him and no one cared about him.

Just like her, after her mother left, Qin Hai no longer cared about her. Even if she did not go home for the night, he did not think of looking for her.

She collected her thoughts and followed him out. She saw the man pick up the drill and continue to drill.

She walked over and squatted down in front of the man. She took out her phone and quickly typed a sentence before handing it to the man.

The man's eyebrows moved and his dark eyes looked at the sentence on the screen.

[Can you hear me? My company has just developed a new hearing aid. If you need it, I can get someone to send a copy over to you.]

After reading the content, the man withdrew his gaze and continued with his work.

Qin Shu waited for a while. Seeing that the man did not even raise his head and did not respond, she thought to herself, could it be that he could not even read?

Unable to hear, unable to speak, and unable to read.

Unable to even communicate in the most basic way.

Is the Long Clan that ruthless?

Or is it because he was not a member of the Long Clan?

"They treat you badly, so why are you still here? You might as well walk out of the Long Clan. You have arms and legs, so you won't starve to death. At the very least, it's better than staying here."

Qin Shu sighed. She knew that he could not hear her, so she was just saying. At this time, the man suddenly stopped what he was doing. He stopped the drilling machine, took out his phone from his pocket, started to type the message, and then handed it to Qin Shu.

Seeing this, Qin Shu was a little embarrassed. So he knew how to read.

She looked at the content on the phone screen. There were only two words, "No need."

After reading it, Qin Shu edited another piece of comforting words for him to see.

“With a hearing aid, you can communicate with people normally. Why don’t you want it? Typing and chatting like this, how can it be as good as chatting face to face? Are you afraid of paying for it? It’s free for you.”

After the man finished reading, he looked up at the woman opposite him. His dark eyes flashed with a hint of light. Then, he shook his head, lowered his head, and continued with his work.

Qin Shu was stunned for a moment. When the man raised his head just now, although the time was short, she saw that the man was very good-looking

There was a pattern on the right side of his face that looked like a tattoo. It was dark-colored and shaped like a flower.

Because the man lowered his head too quickly, she did not see it clearly and did not know what it was.

She did not forget the purpose of her visit to the Long Clan that day, so she edited another message and showed it to him while holding back her laughter.

“I respect your opinion. If I try to persuade you again, it will make me look like I’m doing a sales promotion. You look like a consumer who’s afraid of being cheated. I still have something to do, so I’ll take my leave first.

Bye.”

The man looked up but did not have any reaction.

Qin Shu put away her phone, stood up, and left the Heavy Wood Courtyard.

The man raised his head and looked at Qin Shu’s back as she left. After looking for a long time, his dark eyes were dark and bright.

At this moment, in Fuqing Courtyard

On the rosewood-carved bed, a green curtain surrounded the bed tightly.

A man and a woman stood in front of the bed.

The man was Long Qingyue, the Second Master of the Long family. He said respectfully to the person under the curtain, “Father, I have good news for you. Although I haven’t found sister, I have found sister’s daughter, Long Xiao, and I have done a paternity test.”

An old voice came from the curtain. Because of his serious illness, his voice was slow and heavy.

“Let me take a look.”

“Yes, Father.” Long Qingyue turned his head to look at Long Xiao. “Xiaoxiao, let Grandpa take a look at you.”

Long Xiao was only in her twenties. She was pretty and fair, and her almond-shaped eyes seemed to be able to talk.

"I got it, Uncle." Long Xiaoxiao took a few steps forward and lifted the green curtain. She looked at Long Size who was lying on the bed. His hair was like silver strands, and his face was like a ravine. His face, which was covered with years, looked sickly. "Grandpa." Long Xiao called softly.

Long Size was old, and his eyes were not as good as before. In order to see his granddaughter clearly, he craned his neck to see if Long Xiao looked like his daughter. However, it was futile. He did not have enough strength and fell back onto the bed. Long Size opened his mouth and asked: "Ah Yue, do they look alike?"

Long Qingyue replied, "Father, Long Xiao and sister look a little similar. You can take a good look when you recover from your illness."

"That's good, that's good." Long Size's nervous nerves had completely relaxed now.

After returning to the gazebo, Long Qingyue finally arrived.

"I've made Miss Qin wait for a long time."

Qin Shu's lips curled into a faint smile. "It's alright. Second Master Long is a very busy person. It's already my honor for you to be able to come and see me." He walked to the Stone Table and sat down. He instructed: "Make another cup of tea."

The Butler ordered someone to make another cup of tea.

Long Qingyue looked at Qin Shu. Yesterday, when he saw the request for visitation, he knew she was someone he had never seen before. From the accent, he knew that she was a foreigner.

"Miss Qin, is there anything important you want to see my father about?"

Qin Shu said: "There are two things I want to discuss. The first is collaboration, I think Kua Yi Village can be developed as a tourist area, there will be a lot of benefits. The second is, I want to ask your Clan, the Long Clan to refine a Gu worm, feel free to raise your terms."

The moment Long Qingyue heard about collaboration, he felt that he could consider it. "We can discuss the cooperation slowly. As for making the Gu worm, Miss Qin, tell me what Gu worm it is first."

Qin Shu replied with one word: "Reverse."

It had been a long time since someone mentioned this kind of Gu worm. Now that he suddenly heard about it, Long Qingyue was stunned for a moment before saying, "Reverse, it has been many years since it appeared. I need to ask my father."

Qin Shu heard this, which meant that there was still hope. "Then I'll have to trouble Second Master Long. I'll wait for your news."

"Okay." Long Qingyue instructed: "Send Miss Qin out."

"Miss Qin, please." The Butler made a gesture of inviting her. "Okay." Qin Shu nodded at him, stood up, and left with the butler.

Chapter 988 Actually Not Mute

When Yang Jin walked over, he happened to see Qin Shu leaving from the small path. His eyes narrowed as he looked at Long Qingyue in the gazebo and walked over.

le looke, he smali 'lappen

Long Qingyue watched Qin Shu leave and stood up, intending to go find his father to talk about this matter.

He had just walked out of the gazebo when he saw Yang Jin walking over, "Long Xiao has already met father. He is very happy. You guys have made a great contribution to the Long Clan this time."

Yang Jin said humbly: "Second Master is too polite, this is what we should do. Why did that person come to look for Second Master? She looks very familiar." "To discuss a collaboration." Long Qingyue thought of refining Gu worms, he then said: "And also to refine Gu worms."

Yang Jin nodded thoughtfully: "Oh, did she say she wanted Reverse?"

Long Qingyue said: "Yes, it has been many years since anyone mentioned Reverse."

The corners of Yang Jin's lips curled up, "She came to look for me before, but I rejected her because this is related to the Long Clan. Moreover, young miss has just returned. Regardless of whether she inherits or not, I believe that the Leader would not agree because of this matter."

Long Qingyue furrowed his brows. Long Xiao had just reunited with the family, so his father would definitely not agree. "You are very considerate. Father dotes on my younger sister so much, and my younger sister's daughter is the apple of his eye. Tomorrow, I will tell her that from now on, the Long Clan will no longer have such Gu worms as Reverse."

Yang Jin smiled and said: "Second master dotes on young miss, young miss will definitely be very happy."

"I will go and chat with Xiaoxiao for a while." Long Qingyue walked towards Long Xiao's courtyard. Yang Jin turned around and glanced at Long Qingyue, a faint smile hanging on the corner of his mouth.

The next day

Qin Shu received a call from Long Qingyue.

"I'm sorry, Miss Qin. This is an important matter, and my father does not agree." Although Qin Shu knew that there was only half the chance, she did not give up when she heard the result and asked again: "Can't we discuss it further? The conditions can be raised at will."

Long Qingyue said: "Reverse Gu worms are different from other Gu worms, so Miao Xin will ban the refining of Gu worms like Reverse."

When she heard the word 'ban', it was as if her hope had been shattered. Qin Shu's eyes turned gloomy. What about Jun Li?

But Qin Shu quickly regained her composure, "Gu refinement, we can discuss it in the future, we can discuss developing the tourism industry together first."

Long Qingyue ignored her first sentence and continued with the second: "You can explain your idea in detail, I will consider it."

Qin Shu was very good at developing the tourism industry. Additionally, she had lived in Kua Yi Village for a few days, she was very familiar with the environment there. She could understand how to develop it rationally and make Kua Yi Village develop better.

She told her thoughts to Long Qingyue.

The Long Clan was not only the leader of Miao Xin, but they also controlled the entire economy of Miao Xin while managing the power. Of course, they also hoped that their territory would develop better and better.

Developing tourism was a good thing.

"Miss Qin, if you are free, you can come and discuss the details of the collaboration."

"I'm free now. Second Master Long, if you are free, I can go over now." Long Qing pondered for a while and said: "Ten o'clock then."

"Okay."

Qin Shu hung up the phone. She had been waiting for the result for the whole night. She was disappointed and felt an indescribable pain in her heart.

Jun Li was waiting for her to save him.

Fu Tingyu was still waiting for her in Kua Yi Village. She was not afraid of anything else but the people in the village.

She rubbed the space between her eyebrows and felt a headache.

The two things that were pressing on her made it hard for her to breathe. At the same time, it was also the reason for her to persevere. "Ye Luo, go to the Long Clan." "Yes." Ye Luo stood up and took the lead to get the car.

Qin Shu took a deep breath to refresh herself, then stood up and walked out.

When she arrived at the Long Clan, she was still in the gazebo this time.

The Butler said: "Second Master has something on and will be here soon. Miss Qin, please sit down and wait for a while."

"Thank you, Butler." Qin Shu thanked him and sat down in front of the stone table.

Since it was her second time here, she was more familiar with it, so she was more casual.

She turned her head to look at the path in the bamboo forest. After thinking for a while, she stood up and walked towards the path.

Ye Luo stood in the pavilion and did not follow her.

Qin Shu raised her head and looked at the words 'Heavy Wood' on the board. She thought to herself, what does it mean?

She raised her feet and walked in. The courtyard was the same as yesterday. There were no changes.

But that man was not in the courtyard.

She walked into the house again and subconsciously looked at the cabinet she saw the previous day. There were five or six vessels inside.

She roughly guessed what it was used for.

Refining Gu worms.

Qin Shu was still guessing what kind of Gu worms it would be when she saw a black figure walking over. She turned her head and looked over. It was the man from the previous day.

The man stopped in his tracks. He did not expect anyone to come.

This time, Qin Shu saw the man's face clearly. His face was very pale, and his dark eyes were like black pearls. The most eye-catching thing was the ink tattoo on his right cheek, which looked like a lotus flower, but it was not.

It was just that his entire face looked a little familiar.

Where had she seen him before?

The man also reacted at this time. He immediately lowered his head, turned around, and walked to the table to sit down. He took out the vessels from the cabinet, opened the lid, and began to get busy.

The man gave people the feeling that he was an autistic person. He did not speak, did not raise his head to look at people, and busied himself as if he was immersed in his own world.

Qin Shu stood still and stared at the man's back for a long time. Suddenly, a figure flashed in her mind. He often stayed alone and did not speak for a long time. He busied himself and treated everyone as invisible.

At that time, they would sometimes discuss whether or not he was autistic.

She walked over with doubt and sat down opposite the man. After thinking for a while, she took out her phone and typed a sentence for him to see.

"Can you say your name?"

The Man's dark eyes glanced at the words on the phone screen and replied with three words: "Long Muyan."

The man's voice was very low, like the sound of the rain hitting a banana leaf. It was clear and melodious, but also had a hint of childishness.

If she had not heard it with her own ears, she would not have believed that his voice would be so pleasant to hear.

Qin Shu was stunned for a few seconds. If she had not heard it clearly, she would have thought that she was hallucinating.

She could not help but feel like ridiculing him. A person who could speak could actually hold back his words and even use his cell phone to type and communicate???

Immediately after, she controlled her violent temper.

Looking at the man in front of her again, it was possible that he really had autistic tendencies. Otherwise, there was no way to explain his actions.

Wait!!!

Did she hear wrongly just now? His surname was Long and his name was Muyan.

A member of the Long Clan?

She seemed to have found out some information.

She glanced at the man in front of her and happened to see him holding a bamboo clamp, pulling out the rotten worms from the container. She saw the corpse worms squirming on it, and one of them fell down and fell into the Gu.

She averted her gaze in discomfort, in case she could not help but feel nauseous.

She took out her phone and checked again about the Long Clan.

Finally, she saw some information about Long Muyan.

Chapter 989 A Piece of Good News

Long Muyan was 27 years old. He was the eldest grandson of Long Size. His father had passed away when he was young, and his mother had passed away two years later.

There was no other information. There was also no mention of Long Muyan's medical history of autism.

Qin Shu took out her phone and glanced at Long Muyan. He gave people the feeling that he had locked himself up.

He was Long Size's eldest grandson. Logically speaking, he should be the most favored.

She raised her head and glanced at the house. She glanced at the somewhat desolate scene in the courtyard. It did not seem like the treatment that the eldest grandson should receive.

She asked him tentatively: "Do you like staying here?"

Long Muyan nodded. He did not even raise his head to look at Qin Shu. He was busy with the work at hand.

Qin Shu wanted to understand why Long Muyan, as the eldest grandson, would receive such treatment?

The point was that he himself quite liked it.

She continued to ask: "Is your family treating you well?"

Long Muyan raised his eyes to look at Qin Shu. His dark eyes were very calm, and then he lowered his head.

At this moment, the Butler walked in from outside the courtyard. When he saw Qin Shu at the table, he was stunned for a moment. Then, he said to Long Muyan: "Young Master Yan, Master wants to see you."

The sudden arrival of the Butler did not cause Qin Shu to reveal a guilty expression. Instead, she looked at him calmly.

Long Muyan continued to busy himself with the matters at hand.

The Butler did not urge him and turned around to leave after saying that.

Qin Shu glanced at Long Muyan, but he acted as if he did not hear her and continued to busy himself. She could not help but feel even more puzzled.

Only when Long Muyan was done with the matters at hand and put the Gu worm back to its original place did he stand up and walk out.

Qin Shu also stood up and looked at the tall and straight figure in front of her. He was wearing black clothes, and his surroundings seemed to be emitting a gloomy aura.

If she did not hear his words, she would really think that he was the kind of person who was gloomy enough to make her turn away.

Long Muyan went to Long Size's room.

Qin Shu did not continue to follow him. When she reached the fork of the road, she went to the gazebo.

Not long after, Long Qingyue arrived.

During the conversation, they only talked about the cooperation and did not mention the Gu refinement.

Qin Shu mentioned it twice, but Long Qingyue rejected both of them.

After the discussion was almost done, the next step was to prepare the contract and then to plan the development plan.

She left all of this to the people in the company. After returning to the hotel, Qin Shu sat on the sofa. The Long Clan had directly banned Gu worms like Reverse this time, which meant that this path was cut off.

Thinking of Jun Li in Imperial City, she could not give up so easily. She took out Hao Ze's name card.

Hao Ze was a Gu master chosen by the Long Clan, he had been raised in Long Clan since young, he should be very clear about Long Clan's matters.

She took out her phone and dialed Hao Ze's number.

After about five seconds, the call was picked up, the other party was not surprised at all, as if he had guessed that she would call this number.

“Miss Qin.”

Qin Shu did not beat around the bush and went straight to the point: “Let’s make an appointment to meet.”

Hao Ze readily agreed. “Sure, you can decide the time and place.”

“Two o’clock in the afternoon, afternoon coffee shop.”

“Okay.”

Qin Shu hung up the phone and dialed Gu Yan’s number.

After the call was picked up, she asked: “How is Jun Li?”

“He hasn’t fully woken up yet. He suddenly woke up the night before. After saying a few words, he fell asleep again. How’s the situation on your side?” Gu Yan asked.

“It’s fine on my side. I’ll get the Gu worms as soon as possible.” In order not to worry Gu Yan, Qin Shu told him about Fu Tingyu. “I’ll tell you a piece of good news. I’ve found Tingyu.”

Gu Yan was stunned for a moment. Then, he revealed a happy expression and asked her excitedly: “Really? Is he with you now?”

“No. I plan to look for him after I get the Gu Worms. He’s in Kua Yi Village now.”

“It’s great as long as he’s fine. It’s been two months. We’ve finally found him.” Gu Yan let out a long sigh and also let out a sigh of relief. Xiao Jiu ran over at this time. He raised his head and asked: “Uncle Gu, is that my mother’s phone? I want to talk to her.”

“Okay, okay. Here you go.” Gu Yan smiled and handed the phone in his hand to Xiao Jiu.

Xiao Jiu took the phone and shouted into the microphone: “Mommy, did you miss Xiao Jiu? I’ve always been very obedient and not naughty.”

Hearing Xiao Jiu’s soft baby voice, Qin Shu’s heart instantly softened. “Of course, I miss Xiao Jiu. Mom found Dad. I’ll be able to bring him home soon. Are you happy?”

“Mommy really found Daddy. I’m happy. I’ll wait for Daddy and Mommy to come home together.”

“Okay, mommy will finish my work as soon as possible and then come home with Daddy to Xiao Jiu.”

After hanging up the phone, Qin Shu felt that the pressure she was under was worth it. Xiao Jiu, Jun Li, Gu Yan, and the others were waiting for her and the man to get back to Imperial City. No matter how difficult it was, she had to get the Gu worms and go back as soon as possible.

Two o’clock in the afternoon, afternoon coffee shop

Qin Shu came half an hour earlier and sat in a more conspicuous place so that when Hao Ze came, she could see him at a glance.

Just as Qin Shu thought, Hao Ze’s tall and straight figure walked into the coffee shop and saw Qin Shu at a glance. That position was more conspicuous and at the same time, it was relatively quiet.

He raised his feet and walked over.

Qin Shu saw that Hao Ze had come, so she raised her hand to call the waiter over and ordered two mocha coffees.

"I'm late. Miss Qin, sorry for the wait." Hao Ze sat down opposite Qin Shu and looked at her with a smile on his face.

Qin Shu said: "I'm the one who came early. It's my honor that you took the time out of your busy schedule to come over."

Hao Ze smiled: "Miss Qin, I'm not used to you being so polite all of a sudden."

The waiter came over with a tray and placed two cups of Mocha coffee in front of Qin Shu and Hao Ze. Then, he turned around and left.

"Miss Qin, are you looking for me this time for that matter?" Hao Ze picked up the coffee and looked up at Qin Shu, waiting for her answer. Qin Shu said, "I can't do what you said. Besides, Long Qingyue has already said that it's forbidden to refine these Gu Worms. You should have heard about it."

Hao Ze nodded: "Yes, I just heard about it. It seems that Miss Qin is very well-informed."

Qin Shu did not hide it from him. "I heard from Long Qingyue that you have been raised in the Long Clan since you were young, so you should be very familiar with the Long Clan. I want to know why the clan suddenly banned Gu worms like Reverse."

Hao Ze asked back, "Then, have you heard that the granddaughter of the Long family has acknowledged her ancestors and returned to her family?"

Qin Shu's eyes flashed with doubt, she shook her head: "I have not heard of her, is she the daughter of Long Qingyue?"

Hao Ze smiled and shook his head, explaining: "She was born to Long Size's youngest daughter, she has just been acknowledged. Long Size did not want his daughter to marry outside, thus, the daughter she gave birth to is his granddaughter."

"I can see that long Si Ze dotes on this little daughter, he loves the house and the Crow, thus he also likes this granddaughter. But, what does this have to do with Gu Refinement?" Qin Shu asked.

"This is a secret, this is also rules of the Long Clan." Hao Ze looked at her with a helpless expression.

Chapter 990 Breaking Into Long Clan At Night

Long Clan's secret?

Only Long Clan's high-level Gu masters could do so. Qin Shu knew it was related to blood, but why was it suddenly forbidden?

She suddenly remembered what Hao Ze had said earlier, Long Si Ze's granddaughter had acknowledged her ancestors, and Long Qingyue suddenly announced this news, did this mean there was a connection between the two?

She suddenly raised her head to look at Hao Ze, who was leisurely drinking his coffee, "Is Reverse related to Long Size's granddaughter?" "I didn't say that." Hao Ze smiled and continued drinking his coffee.

Hearing this, Qin Shu was even more certain that it was related to Long Size's granddaughter.

But now, banning the refinement of Reverse was equivalent to cutting off all possibilities.

Hao Ze drank a few mouthfuls of coffee and looked up at Qin Shu. Seeing her frown and troubled look, he knew that she was troubled over Reverse.

After pondering for a long time, he suddenly said: "Actually, you can find someone else to help you."

Qin Shu asked: "Who?"

Haoze said: "Long Muyan, the eldest grandson of Long Size."

Qin Shu was stunned.

Haoze continued: "However, Long Muyan has had a weird personality since he was young. No one can get close to him, and he doesn't get close to others either. The possibility of convincing him is too low, but it's also away."

She had met Long Muyan before, and it was just like what Haoze had said. It was difficult to even communicate with him. Was it possible for him to help?

"The Long Clan forbade this matter. How could he have a solution? Moreover, he... seems to have sealed himself up, unwilling to communicate with others."

A hint of surprise flashed across Haoze's eyes, and then he looked at her with a smile: "It seems that Miss Qin has already met Long Muyan. Now, it's up to Miss Qin yourself."

Haoze raised his coffee cup to his mouth and drank it leisurely.

Qin Shu stared at Haoze for a long time, unable to figure out his thoughts. From the first night they met, he suddenly leaned over to talk to her and even made such a request.

Until now, he was still polite and gentlemanly, talking to her leisurely from time to time.

He said that he had a purpose to get close to her, but it felt like he was helping her, but he made such a request again.

After Haoze left, Qin Shu was still sitting there.

The coffee in front of her was still steaming, but she did not drink it.

After sitting for a while, she did not understand Haoze's purpose, so she left the afternoon coffee shop with doubts.

When she walked out of the coffee shop, it was already 3:30 in the afternoon.

Ye Luo had been waiting outside, holding Boss in his arms. He had just fed it some dried fish. At this time, he was sleeping soundly in Yee Luo's arms. His pitch-black hair was very bright, indicating that his nutritious food was very good.

After Qin Shu got into the car, Ye Luo stepped on the accelerator and drove away.

Qin Shu stared out of the car window. The Sun was setting in the west, and the afterglow shone on the car. There was not much time left in the day.

She did not have much time to waste.

She suddenly ordered: "Ye Luo, go to the Long Clan."

"Yes, Madam," Ye Luo replied. The car drove to the intersection in front, turned the steering wheel to the right, and drove towards the Long Clan.

They arrived at the Long Clan manor. The Butler saw Qin Shu and was a little surprised. She only got it in the morning and came again in the afternoon. He said apologetically: "Miss Qin, my second master has gone out with the young miss. He won't be back for a while."

Qin Shu said, "I'm not here to look for Second Master Long. I'm looking for Young Master Yan, Long Muyan." "I'm sorry, Miss Qin. Young Master's personality is different from others. He can't see strangers. Second Master Long told me not to let anyone disturb him." The Butler replied.

Qin Shu asked in puzzlement: "I saw him today. He's still fine."

"Miss Qin, there's something you don't know. Something happened to Yan Zhangsun today. He can't see strangers." the Butler replied.

"Alright, I won't bother you anymore."

Qin Shu turned around and left with doubts.

But in her heart, she was thinking, something happened to Long Muyan?

What could have happened?

Before she left, she went to see Long Size, his grandfather.

Even if he was a loner, he wouldn't quarrel with long size.

What could it be?

That night, it was deep and quiet. The Moon was dark and the wind was high. A black figure quickly jumped into the long family manor. The agile figure quickly shuttled through the bamboo forest and didn't stop until it reached the gate of the courtyard.

A lamp was lit at the gate of the courtyard, illuminating the words "Heavy Wood" very brightly.

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and walked in. She saw that the lamp was lit in the room, which meant that the person was still awake.

She walked to the door and raised her hand to knock on it.

After a while, the door opened from the inside. Long Muyan was wearing a black shirt. His bangs were very long, and his hair was dripping with water. A faint fragrance of shower gel drifted out. He must have just showered.

His dark eyes were as calm as a deep pool of water. There was no emotion in them.

He only looked at Qin Shu who was outside the door. He did not ask or let her in.

Qin Shu knew that it was inappropriate to come to a man's room in the middle of the night, and it was even more inappropriate to come when the man was preparing to sleep after taking a shower. However, she had no choice but to come.

"I came to look for you in the afternoon. The Butler said that something happened to you and you can't see strangers, so I could only come to see you at night." After Qin Shu explained, she asked: "Can you let me in?"

After a few seconds of silence, Long Muyan moved his body and took a few steps back.

Only then did Qin Shu step into the room. The light inside was a little soft, adding a bit of vitality to the originally lifeless room.

She walked to the table and was about to sit down. Seeing that Long Muyan did not walk over, she turned around in confusion and saw that he was still standing at the door.

Long Muyan lowered his head slightly. His slightly long bangs covered the dark-colored flower mark on his right cheek.

She asked: "Do you want to stand and talk to me?"

Long Muyan stood for a while and walked to the table with mechanical steps. He sat down with his hands on the table. His hands were as pale as his face.

Only then did Qin Shu sit down. She looked at Long Muyan across from her and saw that his hands were waving uncomfortably as if he was nervous.

After a while, he suddenly reached into the cabinet and took out a vessel.

Seeing this, Qin Shu automatically thought of rotting corpses and wriggling corpse worms. Could Gu worms be made like this?

"The housekeeper said that something happened to you. Are you okay?" Although she knew that communicating with Long Muyan was a very difficult thing, she still asked.

Long Muyan lowered his head and fiddled with the vessels as if he didn't hear her. He was completely immersed in his own world.

Qin Shu guessed that he didn't want to answer her question, so he kept quiet. She could only change the question. "Then can you do me a favor? If you have any requests, feel free to ask. I can help you with anything I can do."

Qin Shu asked tentatively, looking at Long Muyan, but she did not have much hope in her heart.

A high-rank Gu master like Hao Ze, who was raised in the Long clan since young, was not willing to help. Moreover, Long Muyan was not a high-rank Gu master, and with his personality, it was really difficult.
