Chapter 1021 Chasing Zhao Xiang Away

Zhao Xiang had been hiding this matter all along. Now that Qin Sheng had revealed it, she was so angry that her face turned green.

Her entire body was trembling. "Qin Sheng, don't talk nonsense."

Gao Yongliang had been tolerating Zhao Xiang for a long time. He did not let her do what she wanted and exposed her directly. "Zhao Xiang, you're not interested in your research and you're always targeting Qin Sheng. I've seen all of this. You don't have to quibble anymore."

Zhao Xiang's face alternated between green and white, not knowing if it was from embarrassment or anger.

She gritted her teeth and released all her anger. "Professor Gao, I've always respected you because you're a highly respected senior. You're doing this research mainly for Qin Sheng. I'm just doing it in passing. Have you ever been nice to me?"

Gao Yongliang was speechless. This was the first time he had met such a student.

His personality had always been like this, always putting on a serious front.

It was the same for Qin Sheng.

Usually, he would not show it on his face when he didn't like someone.

Zhao Xiang loved to fight, and she would usually mock Qin Sheng in front of him in all sorts of ways, acting all high and mighty.

Gao Yongliang thought that even though he didn't like Zhao Xiang, he would try his best to answer all of her questions.

He didn't think that he would be such a person in Zhao Xiang's heart.

Gao Yongliang's face darkened. "Zhao Xiang, I won't be able to take care of you in the future."

It was obvious that he wanted to chase Zhao Xiang away.

Zhao Xiang had rarely suffered such grievances. "I'll leave. I don't care."

She picked up her bag, slammed the door, and left.

In front of Qin Sheng, Gao Yongliang's attitude took a 180-degree turn. "Qin Sheng, I'll study it again with your method. If it's confirmed that there's no major problem, I'll apply for a patent for you."

"Add your name," Qin Sheng said with a frown.

Gao Yongliang was taken aback. "Qin Sheng, I'm rarely involved in this research. I can't even solve ten of your problems from the beginning to the end. I'm not of much use to the research."

"Add it." Qin Sheng still insisted on her idea.

Gao Yongliang reminded her helplessly, "If my name is added, I'm afraid that everyone's attention will fall on me instead of you, the person who has really done the research. Qin Sheng, aren't you afraid that I'll take the credit for this?"

Qin Sheng smiled. "That's good. I can reduce the trouble."

If this research were to be published, many people would probably come looking for her.

With Gao Yongliang as a shield, she could save a lot of trouble.

As for her reputation, she didn't care about it. As long as she wanted to, she could take up a lot of honor. Most of the time, she did it according to her own interests.

Gao Yongliang was speechless.

Just because she didn't like the trouble, she pushed out this project that could shake the world?

Qin Sheng was probably the only weirdo in this world.

However, there were not many freaks like Qin Sheng. A medical problem that had troubled medical scientists for more than a decade had been solved by a first-year student like Qin Sheng. Perhaps Qin Sheng did not think much of this project.

Qin Sheng's research was indeed very attractive, but he could not do something like snatching his student's research away. When the time came, he would help Qin Sheng apply for a patent and would not add his own name.

"Qin Sheng," Gao Yongliang rubbed his hands and asked, "are there any other things we need to pay attention to in this research?"

Qin Sheng frowned and threw a notebook at Gao Yongliang. "It's all here."

Chapter 1022 Shen Jiayue's Boyfriend

Gao Yongliang hugged the notebook. He loved it so much that he couldn't bear to part with it. Then, he waved his hand and said, "You can go back first. I can do it alone."

With that, he returned to his laboratory, not forgetting to take the utensils with him. Qin Sheng's notebook was a treasure to him, and he studied it day and night in the laboratory.

His laboratory had a lounge and a toilet.

Gao Yongliang had stayed in the laboratory for two weeks. His wife had to bring him food.

By the time he came out, Gao Yongliang's beard was already unkempt, his hair and clothes were in a mess, and there was a smile on his face from time to time. Those who didn't know would think that he had gone crazy.

Of course, this was all a story for later.

On the other hand, Qin Sheng left the laboratory. It was still early, so she strolled around the Imperial Capital University very casually.

The rate of Qin Sheng's head-turning was almost 100%.

Qin Sheng's looks and noble aura made people feel that she was unapproachable. The boys did not dare to approach her and could only watch her from afar.

Qin Sheng was leaning against a tree, chatting with Fu Hanchuan on her phone.

"Qin Sheng." A woman's voice was heard. Qin Sheng recognized it. It was Shen Jiayue's voice.

Qin Sheng raised an eyebrow and put her phone away. "What's the matter?" she asked.

Shen Jiayue deliberately leaned closer to the boy next to her. "This is my boyfriend, Gao Yunping."

"Oh." Qin Sheng only took a glance before looking away.

"The company under his family's name has a market value of tens of billions," Shen Jiayue said proudly. "His monthly pocket money alone is a few million."

Gao Yunping stared at Qin Sheng, his eyes almost glued to her.

Qin Sheng sensed Gao Yunping's gaze and frowned in discomfort.

When Gao Yunping heard Shen Jiayue's introduction, he was very humble. "It's all my father's credit. Student Qin, since you know Yue Yue, maybe we can go over for a meal."

Shen Jiayue bit her lip. At that moment, she had already noticed that Gao Yunping had been staring at Qin Sheng.

It was obvious that Gao Yunping had taken a fancy to Qin Sheng.

As expected, she was a vixen who seduced people everywhere. Otherwise, she wouldn't have been kept by so many men.

It had not been easy for her to become Gao Yunping's girlfriend. She could not let Qin Sheng mess things up!

Shen Jiayue clenched her fists and glared at Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng had a headache. Shen Jiayue was holding a grudge against her again. Was she getting shot while lying down?

Shen Jiayue was afraid that Qin Sheng would seduce Gao Yunping, so she wanted to announce Gao Yunping's identity. She wrapped her arms around Gao Yunping's arm, but Gao Yunping avoided her.

Her face stiffened.

Qin Sheng did not want to get involved in the matter between Shen Jiayue and Gao Yunping, so she left directly. Gao Yunping stood in front of her and blocked her way.

"Student Qin, are you sure you don't want to go out for a meal and get to know each other? We're going to a hotel owned by the Qin Corporation. It's the biggest hotel in the capital. It'll cost at least 200,000 yuan for a single visit."

Shen Jiayue's expression was unsightly.

She had been with Gao Yunping for more than a month, but he had never been willing to take her to such a high-end hotel.

He only spent a few thousand yuan on dinner.

Shen Jiayue felt that Gao Yunping had pampered her enough, but she did not expect him to be willing to spend hundreds of thousands of yuan in front of Qin Sheng.

Gao Yunping didn't notice that Shen Jiayue was right beside him.

He continued to throw out bait. "Miss Qin, maybe we can go shopping. You and Yue Yue know each other, so I naturally won't be stingy with you. At that time, you can choose whatever Chanel bags you want."

Chapter 1023 Qin Sheng is Lin Haoyu's Woman

Qin Sheng was getting impatient. Her eyes were very cold. "Get out of my way."

A gust of cold air suddenly rose from the soles of Gao Yunping's feet, and he was frozen in place.

Qin Sheng took the opportunity to go around Gao Yunping.

It seemed that she didn't have to deal with Shen Jiayue in the future. This man obviously just wanted to play with Shen Jiayue.

Shen Jiayue would fail one day.

By the time Gao Yunping reacted, Qin Sheng had already disappeared.

"Yue Yue, is this the dormitory mate you always mention?"

"Yes," Shen Jiayue replied with a smile.

Gao Yunping was excited. "Then when are you going to ask her out for a meal? I didn't see her the last time I treated her to a meal. This is to make up for it."

Shen Jiayue was very unwilling. What kind of charm did Qin Sheng have to be able to charm so many men?

Even Gao Yunping, who had only seen Qin Sheng once, was mesmerized by her.

Shen Jiayue's mind spun quickly, and she quickly came up with a solution. "Brother Yun, did you see the white watch on Qin Sheng's wrist?"

"A white watch?" Gao Yunping frowned. He remembered that Qin Sheng did have a watch on her wrist.

"That's an Olly watch. It's one of a kind in the world and is worth tens of millions," Shen Jiayue said sarcastically, "This is a gift from Qin Sheng's sugar daddy. She has more than one sugar daddy."

Shen Jiayue unlocked her phone. There were photos of Fu Hanchuan, Lin Haocheng, and Lin Haoyu picking up Qin Sheng.

Gao Yunping was even more eager to try. Since he could sleep with Qin Sheng with money, didn't that mean he had a great chance?

Shen Jiayue saw through Gao Yunping's thoughts and was very dissatisfied.

However, she could not fall out with Gao Yunping yet.

Shen Jiayue still had some self-awareness. Her appearance could only be considered above average. If she missed Gao Yunping, she would not be on the list of a rich second-generation like him.

She had met Gao Yunping at a bar.

Gao Yunping was rich and good-looking. She had her eyes on him for a week. Later, she found an opportunity to enter a hotel with a drunk Gao Yunping. Because of her good service, she was able to charm Gao Yunping.

Shen Jiayue suppressed the dissatisfaction in her heart. "From what I know so far, these three people are quite powerful. If any man dares to be with Qin Sheng, I'm afraid he'll be dealt with by them."

"What about the other three?"

Shen Jiayue showed Gao Yunping the picture of Lin Haoyu coming over to pick up Qin Sheng. "One of them is the Lin family from the Imperial Capital."

"The Lin family of the Imperial Capital!"

Gao Yunping picked up the phone and recognized Lin Haoyu immediately. His eyes widened in disbelief. "Qin Sheng is actually Lin Haoyu's woman!"

A lingering fear rose in his heart.

It was a good thing that he knew about this. Otherwise, if he had provoked Qin Sheng and Lin Haoyu found out that he was snatching Lin Haoyu's woman away, he did not even dare to think about the consequences.

The Gao family did have some power, but they were far from being able to compete with the Lin family.

If the Lin family wanted to destroy the Gao family, it would be a piece of cake.

Shen Jiayue put her phone away. "That's right. It's better not to provoke a woman like Qin Sheng, who has slept with many men. She may look pure on the surface, but who knows how dirty she is behind our backs."

Gao Yongping found an excuse for himself. "Indeed. Qin Sheng isn't as good as you, Yue Yue."

Shen Jiayue snuggled into Gao Yunping's arms, looking like a little bird.

Her eyes were extremely dark.

She couldn't rely on Gao Yunping, so she had to get more money from him as soon as possible.

However, what Shen Jiayue didn't know was that Gao Yunping's fiancée had her eyes on her.

Chapter 1024 You Can't Tear Them Apart

At the Imperial Capital University Art Association.

Wang Xiaoli was celebrating Ye Yutong's high selling price for her artwork. Most of the Association members were present.

Xie Hen was there as well, but he was leaning against the wall alone, far away from the others.

His gaze landed on the door and did not move away for a moment. He was waiting for Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng's attitude was usually very distant, and he did not spend much time with Qin Sheng. Even though he knew that there was no hope between him and Qin Sheng, Xie Hen could not help but get closer to her.

Of course, this was as a friend.

When Ye Yutong saw this, she walked over and said in a mocking tone, "Xie Hen, are you waiting for Qin Sheng here alone?"

Xie Hen only glanced at her, not saying anything.

Ye Yutong held the red wine in her hand and took a sip. "Actually, even if Qin Sheng is with another man, you can still snatch her away. It all depends on your methods."

Xie Hen narrowed his eyes. "Do you have any ideas?"

Ye Yutong chuckled and said, "I like Fu Hanchuan. As long as Fu Hanchuan is with me, Qin Sheng will be abandoned. By then, she will be hurt by her feelings, and you will naturally be able to take advantage of her. You should know that women are often the most vulnerable at this time."

"Xie Hen, with your qualities, you're very compatible with Qin Sheng. Fu Hanchuan is five years older than Qin Sheng. They're not suitable for each other at all."

Xie Hen furrowed his brows. Ye Yutong continued, "Hiding at the side and watching the two of them being intimate, that should be very uncomfortable. Why don't you try harder?"

"Oh? Ye Yutong, can you guarantee that you can be with Fu Hanchuan?" Xie Hen raised his eyebrows.

"Of course. As long as you help me, I'll definitely be able to do it," Ye Yutong said confidently.

Xie Hen had a rough idea of Ye Yutong's tactics. First, she got him to get close to Qin Sheng on purpose and create an ambiguous atmosphere so that Fu Hanchuan would misunderstand and have a conflict between them. Then, she got close to Fu Hanchuan.

Xie Hen couldn't help but sneer.

It was almost impossible to separate them with such a poor method.

The two of them trusted each other and were straightforward. Even if they had a misunderstanding, they would ask each other face to face.

If he did that, Qin Sheng would stay away from him in the future.

Xie Hen wouldn't take the risk. He didn't want to lose his friendship with Qin Sheng.

“Ye Yutong, you won’t get what you want,” he said expressionlessly. “You’d better give up. You can’t break up Sheng Sheng and Fu Hanchuan.”

Ye Yutong could not believe it. “You’re willing to just watch them be together?”

“Why not?” Xie Hen asked.

Ye Yutong laughed coldly, “Xie Hen, you are a fool. You don’t even want to fight for your happiness!”

Xie Hen only smiled and didn’t say anything else.

He wasn’t stupid, he was afraid.

He knew that they could not be separated, but if he still tried to interfere, he would only end up hurting himself. Qin Sheng would not bother with him in the future.

Ye Yutong couldn’t find a way to break through Xie Hen, so she gave up. If it was any other time, she would have dealt with Xie Hen after he kept rejecting her.

However, Xie Hen was from the second richest family in the Imperial Capital, the Xie family. Ye Yutong did not dare to do anything to Xie Hen.

Ye Yutong returned to her seat and sat down.

Wang Xiaoli had been by Ye Yutong’s side the whole time, so she had heard everything that the two of them said.

She couldn’t help but say, “Xie Hen’s family is rich. As long as he pursues Qin Sheng, Qin Sheng has no reason to reject him. I really don’t know what he’s worried about.”

Chapter 1025 This Painting Was Drawn By Her

Ye Yutong was drinking and did not answer Wang Xiaoli’s question.

If Xie Hen didn’t help her, she had no other legitimate way to break them apart.

She could only...

Ye Yutong laughed coldly. As long as she could get Fu Hanchuan and marry him, she would do anything.

As for Qin Sheng, heh, she would just let her be smug for a while.

On the other side, Qin Sheng came over very quickly.

Xie Hen had been staring at the door the entire time. When he saw Qin Sheng, his peach-shaped eyes lit up.

He quickly went up. “Xiao Sheng.”

Qin Sheng nodded. “Xie Hen.”

The two of them walked into the Association together. Xiaoli Wang said in a weird tone, “Oh, Miss Qin, you’re here. You even took Yutong’s place in the National University Student Painting Competition and won first place. If it weren't for you, Yutong would have won first place and participated in the competition."

Qin Sheng smirked. "I remember that two years ago, Ye Yutong had participated in painting competitions. The won the highest award she won was the third prize."

Wang Xiaoli was speechless for a while. Then, she straightened her neck and said, "That was before. Now, Yutong's painting has been sold for 10 million yuan in this exhibition."

Ye Yutong also had the intention to show off. She took out her phone and showed Qin Sheng the painting.

Qin Sheng had recognized it.

She was the one who had painted it. Earlier, Ye Yutong had called Qin Sheng over alone and asked her to draw a similar one according to the style of a painting she had prepared in advance.

Qin Sheng wanted to see what Ye Yutong's motive was, so she did not reject her. It would not take much time for her to draw a painting.

Qin Sheng looked at Ye Yutong sarcastically.

So she had taken her painting to the exhibition.

Ye Yutong leaned closer to Qin Sheng and lowered her voice so that only the two of them could hear her. "That's right. This is the painting I asked you to draw. Qin Sheng, I'm going to put your painting on display and even gain a reputation because of it. Doesn't this feel good?"

With that, she straightened her body and stared at Qin Sheng's expression.

However, she did not see anger on Qin Sheng's face as she had hoped.

Wang Xiaoli stood at the side with her arms crossed. "Qin Sheng, don't be too smug. If you want to take Yutong's place just because you won the National University Student Painting Competition, you should take a look at yourself first."

Qin Sheng was the champion of the National University Student Painting Competition, so many members of the Association were on her side.

Because of this, they had put in a lot of good words for Qin Sheng.

Ye Yutong had been holding it in for a long time. In addition, she wanted to prove to Fu Hanchuan that she was not worse than Qin Sheng, so she had the idea that since her painting skills were not as good as Qin Sheng's, she would ask Qin Sheng to help her paint a picture.

It would be a great humiliation to Qin Sheng if she won an award with Qin Sheng's painting.

Ye Yutong was smart. She was worried that she would be found out, so she asked Qin Sheng to paint a similar style. This way, without any evidence, Qin Sheng could not accuse Ye Yutong of stealing her painting.

At that time, she had been watching Qin Sheng painting and was not afraid that Qin Sheng would leave any evidence behind.

She even deleted the surveillance videos of the Association.

If Qin Sheng were to step forward and criticize her, she could make a counter-charge.

“Xiaoli, Qin Sheng is indeed very capable,” Ye Yutong said in an understanding manner, “After all, Qin Sheng did win the championship. She was even chosen by the president of the Imperial Capital’s Art Association.”

Many people in the Association could tell that Ye Yutong and Qin Sheng were not on good terms. After all, two tigers could not live on the same mountain.

A few people saw that Ye Yutong was the president and wanted to curry favor with her, so they helped Ye Yutong ridicule Qin Sheng. However, most of them were on Qin Sheng’s side.

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows and exposed Ye Yutong. “President Ye, I remember that I was the one who drew this painting.”

Chapter 1026 Expose, Show Evidence

Wang Xiaoli laughed coldly. “Qin Sheng, this is Yutong’s style. It’s obviously different from yours. How is this stealing? Hehe, you’re just lying. Don’t you know how to pick the right time?”

Qin Sheng’s red lips parted slightly. “Really?”

Some of the members who were on Ye Yutong’s side laughed sarcastically.

“President Ye stole Qin Sheng’s painting? That’s impossible. I agree with Vice President Wang. It’s very obvious. It’s President Ye’s style.”

“Hahaha, who does this Qin Sheng think she is? President Ye’s painting skills aren’t bad either. There’s no need to steal her paintings.”

“Qin Sheng, do you have any evidence?”

The members who supported Qin Sheng did not step forward to speak up for her.

After all, this was indeed Ye Yutong’s style.

Ye Yutong was also sneering in her heart. Qin Sheng was indeed brainless. She had indeed stolen Qin Sheng’s painting, but Qin Sheng had no evidence. What could she do to her?

If word got out, everyone would only think that Qin Sheng was narrow-minded and could not bear to see others in the limelight.

Ye Yutong frowned. “Qin Sheng, I did paint this. Did you misunderstand something?” she advised.

Xie Hen looked at Qin Sheng. He knew that Qin Sheng definitely had a way to deal with this.

She wouldn’t say anything that she wasn’t confident in.

Qin Sheng was very outstanding.

Qin Sheng raised an eyebrow and asked, "Do you really want me to show you the evidence?"

"Qin Sheng, if you can produce evidence, I'll admit to it." Ye Yutong did not believe that Qin Sheng could produce any evidence. After all, she had destroyed all the evidence. At that time, the Association's door was closed, and there were only the two of them.

"Alright," she said.

Qin Sheng nodded. She took out her phone and went straight to a computer. She transferred the video from her phone to the computer and played it on the big screen of the Association.

When she was painting, she had already noticed that something was wrong.

When she returned, she retrieved the video recording before Ye Yutong destroyed the surveillance cameras.

Soon, the computer displayed a video of the scene in the art studio of the Association.

Ye Yutong's pupils constricted and she looked at Qin Sheng in disbelief.

Was this the surveillance from the studio that day?

How could that be? Didn't she destroy it?

Ye Yutong's palms were sweating.

Qin Sheng smirked. She clicked the mouse and the video played quickly.

In the end, when the painting was about to take shape, Qin Sheng played the video at 1.0 times the normal speed. It clearly showed that Qin Sheng's painting was Ye Yutong's painting that had been sold for 10 million yuan. Ye Yutong was standing behind her.

It was obvious that Ye Yutong had stolen Qin Sheng's painting.

The Association was in a mess, and Wang Xiaoli stopped talking.

Qin Sheng pressed the pause button and asked Ye Yutong with a raised eyebrow, "President Ye, how is it?"

At this moment, Ye Yutong was frozen on the spot. She did not expect Qin Sheng to produce evidence.

She blurted out without thinking, "Qin Sheng, how could you have this video? Didn't I already delete it?"

Wang Xiaoli tugged at Ye Yutong's clothes.

Ye Yutong finally reacted and her face turned pale.

Qin Sheng chuckled. "Don't forget who I defeated at the computer science competition."

Ye Yutong clenched her fists tightly. She could not even stand properly.

The members of the Association looked at Ye Yutong with a strange gaze.

"Yutong," Wang Xiaoli quickly supported Ye Yutong.

Qin Sheng chuckled. "I won't stay in this Art Association anymore. It's troublesome."

Qin Sheng had always been more easygoing. She had only joined the Art Association on a whim.

If she didn't want to stay, she would naturally leave.

Chapter 1027 You Can Sit Down and Count the Money

The reason why she stayed in the Association for a few months was that she wanted to teach Ye Yutong a lesson before she left.

Qin Sheng did not forget that Ye Yutong had always been thinking about Fu Hanchuan.

Qin Sheng walked closer to Ye Yutong and chuckled. "It's better not to have any wild thoughts about someone who doesn't belong to you."

Ye Yutong clenched her fists and gritted her teeth. "He's mine."

If Qin Sheng had not intervened, she would have been engaged to Fu Hanchuan by now.

Qin Sheng only laughed mockingly. She did not break Ye Yutong's fantasy. In her previous life, even if she did not get together with Fu Hanchuan, Ye Yutong still did not get what she wanted.

If Ye Yutong dared to use any tricks, then don't blame her.

Qin Sheng left the Art Association. Xie Hen followed her from a distance, his eyes dark.

'Qin Sheng, do you really like Fu Hanchuan that much?'

The news that Ye Yutong had stolen Qin Sheng's painting had spread throughout Imperial Capital University.

Imperial Capital University placed great importance on the management of the students' character. After investigating the truth, they specially held a meeting to discuss and make a decision in view of Ye Yutong's special situation.

Given Ye Yutong's situation, she should have been expelled from Imperial Capital University.

However, Ye Yutong had won many awards for the school. Imperial Capital University had decided to give Ye Yutong another chance. However, they had punished her and removed her title as the president of Imperial University's Art Association.

Ye Yutong apologized on the forum.

Her attitude was very sincere.

The evidence was conclusive. She had no choice but to admit her mistake and apologize.

[Ye Yutong: I'm sorry. I was wrong this time and brought trouble to Qin Sheng. I was just momentarily blinded. When I saw that Qin Sheng had won the National University Student Painting Competition, I was so jealous that I lost my mind. That's why I made such a mistake. Now that I've received my punishment, I'll definitely think twice before I act in the future.]

Many of Imperial Capital University students forgave Ye Yutong after hearing what she said.

After all, Ye Yutong had always been a good person and treated others with grace. Perhaps Ye Yutong had been wrong.

Of course, there were also many people who did not like Ye Yutong and were attacking her.

No matter what, after this incident, Ye Yutong's perfect image in everyone's heart had been shattered.

Ye Yutong also rarely returned to school, afraid that she would see the strange looks from the students.

For a while, she did not dare to do anything to Qin Sheng.

She could only wait for the storm to pass. Otherwise, everyone would be prejudiced against her. Even if it was Qin Sheng's fault, no one would believe it.

Two weeks later, Gao Yongliang came out of his office. His clothes were in a mess, but his eyes were bright.

He had already verified that the reagent developed by Qin Sheng could completely repair the damaged immune system.

It could also prevent the invasion of R-grade viruses.

The ingredients in it did not cause any harm to the human body.

If this was made into medicine, it would save countless lives.

Gao Yongliang found Qin Sheng and said, "Sheng Sheng, prepare the materials. I'll help you apply for the patent."

"Just write your name," Qin Sheng said straightforwardly this time.

Gao Yongliang was having a headache. This was the first time he had met someone who didn't care about fame and fortune.

He quickly thought of a solution because he remembered that Qin Sheng had received 10 million yuan when she had entered Imperial Capital University.

Gao Yongliang threw out a bait. "Qin Sheng, if you have the patent, in the future, when those pharmaceutical companies use your prescription to make drugs, you can sit here and count the money."

The moment he finished speaking, he heard Qin Sheng say, "Alright."

Chapter 1028 Qin Sheng Researched It

Gao Yongliang, "..."

Sure enough, she changed quickly.

Qin Sheng brought the information to Gao Yongliang. She frowned and said, "Professor Gao, it's all here. However, if you use this as a topic to write a research paper, remember that you'll be the main focus."

Oh, also, it's best if you publish the paper at the same time as you submit the patent application results."

In this way, Gao Yongliang would attract more attention, and few people would notice her.

Gao Yongliang knew what Qin Sheng's goal was. He felt helpless, but he was already satisfied that Qin Sheng had agreed to only write her as the patent applicant.

Gao Yongliang went to see the principal of Imperial Capital University after he had settled the matter.

In the principal's office.

The Principal was wearing a pair of glasses and handling some documents. Gao Yongliang ran in.

The Principal glanced at him. "What happened? You're so anxious."

Gao Yongliang threw a document in front of the Principal. "Principal, take a look at this."

The Principal saw the bold black words and frowned. "Patent application?"

Gao Yongliang was a well-known medical scientist in the world. He had more than 20 medical patents. The Principal was not surprised that Gao Yongliang would take out this patent.

Gao Yongliang was beaming with joy. "Principal, I can say that this research is more impressive than any research I've ever done. If it's published, it will cause a sensation all over the world."

At this moment, Gao Yongliang's previous solemn look was gone.

The Principal couldn't help but sit up straight. Gao Yongliang rarely commented on a research project in such a way. Since he said so, it must be very impressive.

He opened the application form.

Immune cells, R-virus.

The Principal read the first paragraph. Even though he had little contact with medical knowledge, he could feel that this research was extraordinary.

Gao Yongliang explained, "Principal, the main purpose of our research is to improve the immune cell's resistance. We've also found a way to deal with the R-virus. If this research is applied to medicine, it will cure many patients who have lost their immunity."

The Principal was shocked to hear Gao Yongliang's words.

He could already imagine the commotion this calculation would cause.

Gao Yongliang: "Principal, I didn't come up with this research. I've been researching for three years. In the end, I couldn't make any progress, so I gave up halfway."

The Principal was very surprised. "Who did it?"

"Qin Sheng," Gao Yongliang replied.

The Principal was speechless.

He was silent.

After a long while, the Principal finally managed to force out a sentence. "Are you sure?"

Qin Sheng had never even attended a class and was only in her first year of university. Even Gao Yongliang had not made any progress after three years, yet Qin Sheng had managed to research it in just a few months?

At this moment, the Principal remembered the reporter's report.

Qin Sheng was in her third year of high school, and she only used three to four days to study.

Gao Yongliang's eyes were filled with resentment. "Principal, you can't believe it either, can you? In just three months, she solved a problem that has been plaguing the medical world for many years. I'm afraid Qin Sheng is the only pervert like this."

"At the National College Computer Competition," the Principal said, "Qin Sheng only used a short two hours to solve the programming problem that had been plaguing the world."

"On the day the results were out, the head of the Computer Science Department looked for Qin Sheng again. His goal was naturally to get Qin Sheng to transfer her major to their department."

Chapter 1029 Qin Sheng is Not Going to Class

Qin Sheng did the same thing and threw the problem to the head of the Medicine Department.

The head of the Medicine Department was naturally unwilling to let go of a genius like Qin Sheng. Back then, when Qin Sheng had filled in her application to go to their department, he had been overjoyed.

When he found out the purpose of the head of the Computer Science Department, his face immediately turned black.

The two of them argued until their faces were red.

Since they could not find a solution, they went to the principal.

The Principal had a headache. Why were they all fighting for Qin Sheng?

Hearing the Principal's words, Gao Yongliang sighed, "There are some people who are beyond the reach of ordinary people."

The Principal was also very glad that he had not allowed Qin Sheng to enter Peking University. Otherwise, with such a genius student like Qin Sheng, the principal of Peking University would have been very smug.

A week later, Gao Yongliang's research paper was published. At the same time, the results of the application were out.

All the major media outlets in the country reported on this.

In just three to four months, the research on improving the resistance of immune cells and even completely repairing the loss of immune cell function caused by the R-virus had spread almost all over the world.

It caused a huge sensation in the entire world.

The article published by Gao Yongliang described the functions and effects of the reagent, as well as the descriptions of various indicators.

For the whole day, Gao Yongliang's phone rang non-stop.

Gao Yongliang had been emphasizing that Qin Sheng was the one who did the research and that he had little role in it.

Of course, many people didn't believe Gao Yongliang's words, thinking that he was just trying to flatter his own student.

After all, Qin Sheng was only a first-year student. Just this point alone was enough to make them disbelieve that Qin Sheng was the one who had done the research.

There were also many who questioned the reliability of the reagent.

Gao Yongliang didn't explain. Instead, he arranged for his researchers to speed up the research of drugs suitable for the human body, and then carry out clinical trials.

When the real medicine was out, it would naturally shut the mouths of those who doubted it.

Of course, it would take a few months. After all, it was related to people's health.

He had to ensure that they could be cured without any residual effects.

It was almost time for the final exams.

After Qin Sheng came to Imperial Capital University, the number of times she went to class could be counted on one hand.

The school had given special permission for Qin Sheng to skip classes, but Qin Sheng's teacher could not help but look for the Principal.

"Principal, I admit that Qin Sheng is very smart, but no matter how good she, she still has to come to class. If she doesn't even know the basic theoretical knowledge, how can she have any achievements in medicine?"

"Professor Qiu, have you ever heard of the research on immune cells?" the Principal asked with a smile.

"Immune cells?" Professor Qiu frowned. This research had almost shocked the whole world, so he naturally knew about it.

"This is the research that Professor Gao did," he said.

Only a small number of people knew Qin Sheng's name. The media was only reporting on Gao Yongliang's research.

Gao Yongliang was about to post an explanation on Weibo when Qin Sheng made a special call.

Naturally, Qin Sheng's goal was to prevent Gao Yongliang from calling her by her name.

She really could not forget how many people had contacted her after the painting competition. Qin Sheng hated trouble the most, so she naturally wanted to hide it as long as possible.

"No," the Principal put down his teacup and denied, "Professor Gao's knowledge played a very small role in it."

Qiu Rifan's curiosity was piqued. "Then, Principal, who was the one who came up with this research?"

Chapter 1030 Arranging the Exams For the Next Four Years

"Qin Sheng," the Principal replied with a smile.

Qin Sheng...

Qiu Rifan was stunned. He was very surprised. He did not doubt the Principal's words, but did Qin Sheng really have such an ability?

Someone who skipped classes every day could solve this problem?

Qiu Rifan suddenly felt like cracking open Qin Sheng's head to see what was inside.

He had a complicated expression on his face. "This theoretical knowledge might not be important to Qin Sheng."

"Maybe Qin Sheng is an exception. But I'll talk to her about it. We'll have to learn all this theoretical knowledge eventually. I heard that Qin Sheng wants to learn on her own. Maybe you can take a look at Qin Sheng's test results this time."

At this moment, the Principal still did not know that Qin Sheng had already finished studying the medical books for four years in university.

That day, the Principal contacted Qin Sheng and asked her to come to the office.

Qin Sheng was currently in the school library, looking for information on Old Master Lu's condition.

She already had a medical team under her to study Old Master Lu's condition in his previous life.

Qin Sheng had just placed a book back on the bookshelf in the library when she received a call from the Principal. Qin Sheng went over immediately.

In the principal's office.

"Sheng Sheng." The Principal poured Qin Sheng a cup of tea with a smile.

The veins on Qin Sheng's forehead twitched when she saw the smile on the Principal's face. She had a very bad feeling about this.

“Uncle Principal,” Qin Sheng said, “tell me, what’s the matter?”

The Principal knew that Qin Sheng did not like to beat around the bush, so he went straight to the point. “Sheng Sheng, do you rarely go to class?”

“Yes.” Qin Sheng nodded. “There’s no need to go over and listen.”

The Principal coughed lightly. “Look, Sheng Sheng, do you want to go and listen to the class? Maybe you’ll get something unexpected.”

This was the first time the Principal had persuaded a student to go to class in such a humble manner.

Qin Sheng felt that if she did not agree to attend the class, the Principal would not let her go so easily.

Now that she had finished the courses of the four years of university and done some of the visual tests of the previous Imperial Capital University, she was basically fine.

The exam could also be put on the agenda.

Qin Sheng smirked. “Principal, you can arrange an exam for me. It’ll be about the contents of my four years in university.”

“Exam? You mean the final exam, right?”

The Principal suddenly stopped talking and widened his eyes. “Qin Sheng, are you talking about the exams for the four years of undergraduate studies?”

“Yes.”

“You mean you’ve finished learning?”

The Principal’s voice was filled with disbelief. He did not expect Qin Sheng to directly ask for an exam when he talked to Qin Sheng about the class. What’s more, it was exams for the four years!

At that time, even Fu Hanchuan had taken a year and a half to become a Master’s student. In the next six months, he had written two theses in a row and graduated with a PhD.

Qin Sheng did not deny it. “I don’t want to waste too much time on this.”

The Principal tried to persuade her. “Sheng Sheng, think about it carefully. There are more than a hundred medical textbooks in the four years of university. Medical knowledge is generally obscure and difficult to understand. Without a teacher, it’s hard to really understand the content.”

“Besides, if you study so many books at the same time, it’s easy for you to get the knowledge mixed up. Sheng Sheng, do you want to hold the exam later?”

The problems that the Principal had mentioned did exist in many of the students, but Qin Sheng was not one of them.

“Uncle Principal, let’s make a bet,” Qin Sheng said.

The Principal frowned.
