

All-Mighty Girl Gets Spoiled by A Bigshot

Chapter 12: Provocation

“My grades are not good enough for Class 1. I can’t change my grades from fighting,” Qin Sheng said coldly.

Qin Hai’s face was livid with anger.

Qin Sheng tilted her head and thought for a moment. Then, she laughed lightly with a mocking look in her eyes, “Don’t worry. Other than the few people in the school who you told, no one will know that I’m your daughter, Qin Hai, and I won’t embarrass you. As for whether I’m outstanding or not, you won’t care, right?”

She wouldn’t tell anyone that she was Qin Hai’s daughter. She wouldn’t care about this identity anymore, let alone reveal it to others.

This blood that was related to them by blood, she wished that she could shed it.

Qin Hai was hit in the heart and became even angrier. “Qin Sheng, you’re my daughter! How can you say that about your own father?”

“Do you treat me as your daughter?” Qin Sheng glanced at Qin Hai and sneered. “I’m afraid that your daughter is only Qin Churou.”

After saying that, she ignored Qin Hai and went straight upstairs.

Her back was straight and her figure was thin.

Walking alone on the stairs, she looked frail and helpless.

Unfortunately, Qin Hai didn’t take any of this to heart. He was so angry that he slammed the table. “If I knew this would happen, I wouldn’t have brought her back.”

Lin Shuya glanced at Qin Hai from the corner of her eyes and said unhappily, “I told you that Rou’er would be our only daughter. You were the one who insisted on bringing her back.”

“Didn’t I do this for the sake of our Qin family? Qin Sheng is a good-looking girl. If we can find a suitable match for her to marry, she will be able to help our Qin family a lot.”

Qin Hai's words fell into the ears of Qin Sheng, who was about to open the door on the second floor. The corners of her lips curled up into a mocking smile.

She had never understood that Qin Hai and Lin Shuya did not like her and still wanted to bring her back. So this was the reason.

They treated their only biological daughter as a tool to exchange for benefits, while Qin Churou, the adopted daughter, was spoiled to the heavens by them.

How ridiculous was that?

Qin Sheng was no longer interested in their next conversation. She directly opened the door and walked in.

The thick layer of the door isolated her from the outside.

Qin Sheng took a shower and sat cross-legged on the bed with the computer in her hand. She put the computer on her lap and turned it on.

She logged into the Black Emperor and found that her post had sunk long ago. No one responded.

Qin Sheng frowned slightly in confusion. Was her way of posting the post too gentle?

She tilted her head and pondered for a while. The corners of her lips curled up slightly with a hint of arrogance. Her fair and beautiful fingertips flew over the keyboard and typed an extremely arrogant sentence.

[QS: I looked at your results and concluded with a few words: Bad! No standards at all! I really don't know how you guys became hacker experts. It seems that the famous Black Emperor is just so-so.]

Qin Sheng even deliberately @ the top few hackers among the Black Emperor, provoking them. "If you have the guts, then compete with me. Unless you're a coward, worried that you can't compete with a newcomer."

After Qin Sheng posted a new post, she turned off her computer.

She basically couldn't remember the knowledge from high school now. She needed to study hard.

She took out her Chinese textbook. As long as she went through it once, the knowledge she had learned in her previous life would reappear in her mind, and she would be able to apply the knowledge from one example to another.

Qin Sheng was a genius.

However, she had been living in a persecuted environment since she was young. She could only carefully hide her edge.

She had just finished junior high school when Shen Mei stopped her from going to school.
