

ALL-MIGHTY GIRL GETS SPOILED BY A BIGSHOT

Chapter 1221 - 1221 Sticking Such Low-Level Lies

1221 Sticking Such Low-Level Lies

Thank you readers!

“Liu Haifeng, where’s your medical ethics?” Director Li was rarely angry. “Even if the patient is on his last breath, you have to work hard to save him and not give up.”

“Director,” Liu Haifeng retorted, “if Doctor Gao came to save him, I would definitely stay and help him. But if a student came, where would I put my face?”

“Liu Haifeng, you still don’t know what you did wrong?” Director Li frowned.

Liu Haifeng didn’t say anything. There was hatred in the depths of his eyes.

As expected, this director was extremely biased. It was obvious that Gao Yongliang was in the wrong in this matter, yet he still protected him like this!

The hospital director also stayed outside the ward and did not leave.

Another 15 minutes passed. The electronic screen above the door frame and the words ‘In Operation’ went out. Gao Yongliang and Qin Sheng came out of the operating room one after another. Qin Sheng closed the door.

“Doctor Gao, Qin Sheng, have you saved the patient?” Liu Haifeng asked sarcastically.

Liu Haifeng couldn’t help but gloat.

He was naturally happy to see Gao Yongliang in trouble.

Song Mingliang’s heart sank when he heard that. His voice was trembling as he asked, “Doctor Gao, my son How is my son?”

Gao Yongliang took off his mask. “Congratulations, your child is safe and sound.”

Song Mingliang suddenly grabbed Gao Yongliang’s hand. “Really?”

He stared at Gao Yongliang, afraid that Gao Yongliang was lying just to comfort him.

Gao Yongliang nodded with certainty. “Mr. Song, don’t worry. Gui Zi is very healthy. Although the surgery was difficult, there are no more problems now. He can be discharged after two weeks of observation.”

Hearing this, Director Li and Liu Haifeng were both stunned.

Liu Haifeng asked, “How can he be healthy? Doctor Gao, why are you telling such a low-level lie? Even if the patient doesn’t die, there will be serious sequelae.”

Gao Yongliang sneered. “Just because you don’t have the ability to do it doesn’t mean that others can’t do it too. Doctor Liu, you’re still a little short-sighted.”

“Mr. Song, you can go in and see your son now,” he said to Song Mingliang.

“Alright, alright, alright.”

Song Mingliang walked in quickly.

Gao Yongliang had never lied, and this kind of lie would be exposed sooner or later. There was no need for Gao Yongliang to lie.

Thinking of this, Liu Haifeng was stunned on the spot. His eyes were filled with disbelief. Did they really bring the patient back?

“Doctor Gao, is it true?” Director Li asked excitedly, “Has Sayers’ disease been cured?”

Gao Yongliang nodded.

“Wait a minute.”

Director Li also entered the ward and began to examine the patient’s body.

After ten minutes, his hands were trembling. He was too excited.

It was true. The patient was not affected at all.

Director Li walked out. Liu Haifeng’s heart sank when he saw the director’s expression.

As expected, it was cured

Liu Haifeng’s face turned pale.

Director Li’s eyes were very bright. His gaze stopped on Qin Sheng and asked very gently, “Student Qin Sheng, did you really save him?”

Chapter 1222 I Have No Thoughts Of Becoming A Doctor

Gao Yongliang answered on her behalf, "Indeed, I didn't participate in the rescue during this period. I only helped to pass some things. Qin Sheng is a girl who can create miracles. After the patient suffered from Sayers' disease, his heart stopped, but Qin Sheng was still able to save him."

Speaking of this, Gao Yongliang continued to sigh, "This is the only person in the world who has been able to save a patient with Sayers' disease."

Director Li became even more excited when he heard Gao Yongliang's words. He rubbed his hands and asked, "Student Qin Sheng, have you studied this topic before?"

Qin Sheng thought about it and answered truthfully, "I know a little. I read about two minutes of this knowledge."

In fact, because the Sayers' Syndrome was extremely rare, there was very little introduction to it. There was only a very rough introduction. Qin Sheng only knew some of its dangers and basic characteristics.

Hearing this, Director Li was speechless.

Two minutes?

As expected, Qin Sheng was indeed a medical pervert that even Gao Yongliang acknowledged.

Gao Yongliang was also very surprised. Although he had seen Qin Sheng's abnormal ability many times, he could not help but be amazed every time he saw it.

Director Li smiled like a human trafficker. "Student Qin Sheng, after graduation, do you want to work in our hospital? Of course, if you don't have many courses now, you can come to work in our hospital."

Qin Sheng frowned and refused. "Sorry, I don't have any intention of becoming a doctor."

Director Li was stunned. "Aren't you a medical student?"

Qin Sheng did not hide her motive. "I studied medicine because I wanted to protect the people around me."

She didn't want to watch helplessly as they left the world because of their illness.

Gao Yongliang never thought that Qin Sheng would have such thoughts, but he could understand that Qin Sheng did not have to sacrifice her freedom for others.

"Sheng Sheng, I can understand what you're thinking," he said with a frown. "But isn't it a pity to waste all your medical talent?"

Qin Sheng lowered her eyes and said nothing.

Gao Yongliang did not continue to persuade her. He had plenty of time in the future.

Director Li coughed. "Student Qin Sheng, can you tell me how to treat Sayers' disease? You're the first person to be able to cure Sayers' disease without any sequelae."

Director Li was a little embarrassed. After all, such a method would bring great benefits to Qin Sheng. Most doctors would hide it, afraid that others would steal it.

It was understandable that Qin Sheng did not tell him.

However, he was really itching to do so. He promised, "Qin Sheng, don't worry. I definitely won't tell anyone about this method."

Qin Sheng never thought of hiding it. "Director Li, I'll send it to you when I get back."

Director Li took out his phone. "Then let's add each other as friends on QQ."

Qin Sheng did not refuse. After the two of them added each other as friends, Director Li looked at Qin Sheng's name in his contact list and smiled.

He naturally wanted to befriend such a capable person.

Gao Yongliang did not want to be outdone. "Sheng Sheng, send me a copy of that too."

Qin Sheng nodded helplessly. "Alright."

When Liu Haifeng heard their conversation, his face turned extremely pale. He could only hope that Gao Yongliang and Qin Sheng did not hear him clearly when he said he wanted to kneel.

A smile tugged at the corners of his lips. "Student Qin Sheng is indeed better than a master. I was too narrow-minded."

All-Mighty Girl Gets Spoiled by A Bigshot

"Director, I still have something to do. I'll leave first."

Liu Haifeng was about to leave.

A melodious female voice came from behind. "Wait."

Liu Haifeng stopped in his tracks. He turned around and tried his best to look natural. "Student Qin Sheng, is there anything else?"

He clenched his fists, which were hanging by his sides, and his palms were already covered in sweat.

"Doctor Liu, did you forget about apologizing to me?" Qin Sheng asked with a smile.

"Student Qin Sheng, I don't understand what you're talking about."

Liu Haifeng frowned. Hadn't Qin Sheng already started rescuing the patient? Why did she notice his words?

Qin Sheng said directly in front of the director, "You said that if I could save the patient, you would kneel down and apologize to me."

Liu Haifeng was naturally unwilling to apologize to a woman like Qin Sheng.

He was about to defend himself when Qin Sheng's voice entered his ears again. "As far as I know, there are surveillance cameras installed in the operating theater."

Liu Haifeng's face stiffened.

"Doctor Liu, you were thinking of leaving just now, right? Have you forgotten what you said?" Gao Yongliang sneered.

Liu Haifeng's lips twitched. "I really forgot. I'll apologize now."

He clenched his fists, bent his legs, and knelt on the ground.

He lowered his eyes and hid the unwillingness in them. "Qin Sheng, I'm sorry. I misunderstood you. I apologize to you now."

Qin Sheng did not respond.

Liu Haifeng stood up after waiting for two minutes.

He glared at Qin Sheng with hatred in his eyes.

Liu Haifeng's gaze was very intense. Qin Sheng naturally noticed it, but she did not care. "Doctor Liu, don't look down on any ordinary person. They might slap you in the face."

Liu Haifeng gritted his teeth. "Indeed."

At this moment, Director Li said, "Doctor Liu, you can pack up today and leave your job."

Liu Haifeng was stunned. His eyes widened and he said in disbelief, "Director, are you going to fire me?"

"Yes, our hospital has a very low tolerance level. You abandoned the patient and left during the surgery. This is already a big taboo in our hospital. I'm sorry, our hospital can't tolerate a doctor like you," Director Li said mercilessly.

When Liu Haifeng heard this, the resentment in his heart that had been suppressed for a long time burst out. "Li Yilei, I don't think you chased me away because I left the operating theater early. You're biased toward Gao Yongliang."

"You saw that I offended him, so you couldn't wait to chase me away." He pointed at Gao Yongliang and spoke angrily.

Seeing that Liu Haifeng was stubborn, Director Li did not explain further.

He rubbed his forehead and ordered him to leave. "Liu Haifeng, you can leave."

"I'll leave then. I've already been in the Imperial Capital's First Hospital for eight years, and I haven't been promoted. Do you think I care? If I go somewhere else, I can still do well."

Liu Haifeng left after saying that.

Director Li smiled awkwardly. "Student Qin Sheng, I'm sorry to make a fool of myself."

Qin Sheng did not mind. "I often meet people like Liu Haifeng. It's fine."

Director Li heaved a sigh of relief and said gratefully, "Student Qin Sheng, it's all thanks to you for this operation."

"If you want to thank me, then transfer half of the boy's surgery fees to my card."

Gao Yongliang was speechless.

Director Li was speechless.

Two nurses pushed a trolley into the operating room and transferred the boy to a normal ward.

Qin Sheng changed out of her uniform and walked out of the office.

Song Mingliang ran over and said gratefully, "Miss Qin Sheng, thank you for saving my son. If it wasn't for you, he would probably be..."

Song Mingliang didn't finish his sentence. His eyes were a little red.

All-Mighty Girl Gets Spoiled by A Bigshot

"Miss Qin," Song Mingliang continued, "I'll remember your kindness for saving my life. Do you need any help? If I can help, I will definitely help."

Qin Sheng frowned. "You're the famous composer in China, Song Mingliang?"

Song Mingliang was stunned. He did not expect Qin Sheng to recognize him.

He did not hide anything. "Yes, I am."

"I have a condition."

"Miss Qin, go ahead."

"Enter Shenghe Entertainment."

Song Mingliang smiled bitterly. "Miss Qin, I haven't composed a piece for three years. I'm afraid that my standard will drop by a lot. Besides, I have a psychological barrier to composing. I still can't overcome it. I don't have any inspiration, let alone write a good piece."

Qin Sheng smiled. "I can see that you care about your son very much, but can you guarantee that you can give him a good life? As far as I know, you're working in the supermarket now. Can you accompany your son well like this?"

Song Mingliang was stumped.

He clenched his fists by his sides.

It was indeed as Qin Sheng had said. Other than composing, he knew nothing else.

Seeing that Song Mingliang was starting to waver, Qin Sheng continued, "Come to Shenghe Entertainment. We will give you a minimum salary of 10,000 yuan. In addition, we will arrange for a psychiatrist for you. This way, even if you don't make a song, you can still live a basic life."

Song Mingliang frowned. "Miss Qin, what is your relationship with Shenghe Entertainment? Can you make the decision?"

Qin Sheng smiled. "I forgot to introduce myself. I'm the boss of Shenghe Entertainment."

Song Mingliang was stunned. He didn't expect the boss of Shenghe Entertainment to be a nineteen-year-old girl.

However, when he thought of Qin Sheng's deeds, he felt relieved.

He clenched his fists and finally nodded. "Alright, I agree."

Qin Sheng nodded in satisfaction. "I'll get Yixiu to prepare the contract with you."

"Miss Qin, I still have to thank you for saving my son."

"It's not a loss for you to come to Shenghe Entertainment," Qin Sheng said truthfully with a smile.

Song Mingliang was a talented player. After three years of training, these would become a good source of inspiration for him. The songs he composed in the future would not be inferior to those from three years ago.

Later on, Song Mingliang was just as Qin Sheng had expected. Every song he composed was a hit, and he made more than ten singers in Shenghe Entertainment famous.

After returning to Fu Garden, Qin Sheng sent her treatment method to Director Li and Gao Yongliang.

Director Li studied for an entire night without sleeping. The next morning, he had two big dark circles under his eyes as he excitedly instructed his assistant.

"Tao Yun, send me the video of Qin Sheng treating the boy in the operating room immediately."

The assistant was very fast. In less than half an hour, a video was sent to Director Li's phone.

Director Li used his Weibo account to post a Weibo message.

[Imperial Capital First Hospital Li Yilei V: I found a genius student who had a treasure trove. The probability of Sayers' Syndrome appearing during surgery is very low. Once it appears, the patient's life will be taken away within fifteen minutes. According to the records, out of 1,300 people who have suffered from Sayers' Syndrome, only three have been saved, and these three have serious sequelae.]

[This student had only been exposed to the Sayers' Syndrome for a minute, but in fifteen minutes, she had saved the patient completely unscathed. The patient did not have any sequelae, which is really amazing.]

[This person is Qin Sheng from Imperial Capital University. Qin Sheng has already told me the treatment method. According to Miss Qin Sheng, I will announce this method for free.]

All-Mighty Girl Gets Spoiled by A Bigshot

There was a video attached to the post, which was sent to Director Li by his assistant.

Director Li had a high prestige in the medical field. In addition, he was the director of the First Hospital of the Imperial Capital, so he had 5 million fans.

[Director Li, do you mean that Qin Sheng solved Sayers' Syndrome in just 15 minutes? F*ck, is that true?!]

[Although I don't know anything about medicine, I can still tell from the director that she's amazing. I can only say that Sister Sheng is amazing.]

[F*ck, this is too f*cking awesome. Sister Sheng, please accept my bow.]

[This Sister Sheng is a complete pervert. I just want to ask, is there anything that Sister Sheng doesn't know?]

[Last time, it was a paper published in the international ICN medical journal, which caused a sensation around the world. Now, there's another paper about solving Sayers' Syndrome. Will it also cause a sensation around the world?]

[Those foreigners often laugh at our country for being trash in the medical field. Now we can laugh at them back.]

[...]

Without a doubt, the topic of Qin Sheng's treatment of Sayers' Syndrome quickly rose to the top of Weibo's trending searches.

There was a sea of 'f*ck' and '666' comments below.

Everyone was already used to Qin Sheng's trending searches on Weibo.

Many celebrities could not get on the trending searches even if they tried their best, but Qin Sheng's trending search was as simple as drinking water and eating.

This time, news of Qin Sheng's treatment of Sayers' Syndrome spread all over the world. Many famous people in the medical field called Director Li to verify it.

Director Li replied very patiently.

Many internationally renowned hospitals had extended an olive branch to Qin Sheng through Director Li, but they were all rejected by Qin Sheng.

Although Qin Sheng had rejected the offer to work at the Imperial Capital's First Hospital, Director Li felt more at ease when he saw that even an internationally renowned hospital had been rejected.

Some people remembered that Qin Sheng's name was involved in the research on improving immune cell resistance. Gao Yongliang seemed to have emphasized that this project was mainly due to Qin Sheng's credit.

At first, they thought that Gao Yongliang wanted to make his student famous, so he deliberately said that.

After all, Qin Sheng did have such an ability.

Qin Sheng had previously submitted a paper to the international ICN medical journal, which was extremely helpful in the treatment of heart disease. Now, there was Sayers' Syndrome!

Many people believed that Qin Sheng would definitely become a leading figure in the medical field in the future.

Kelton Medical School was the most famous medical university in the world. It had brought out countless famous medical scientists in the medical field. Many medical students regarded Kelton Medical School as the highest goal of their learning career.

However, Kelton only accepted 200 students every year.

After the principal of Kelton Medical School found out about Qin Sheng, he immediately made the decision. "No matter what, we have to win Qin Sheng over to our school. We will try our best to fulfill all the conditions she has proposed."

The dean followed the instructions of the principal of Kelton Medical School and contacted Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng massaged the space between her eyebrows as she heard the dean's words. Many people had been looking for her these past few days.

After a peaceful day, another one came.

Qin Sheng picked up the call. "What's the matter?"

The other party smiled ingratiatingly and introduced, "I'm the dean of the Academic Affairs Office of Kelton Medical School. I'm here to see you today to ask if you're willing to join our school."

Qin Sheng frowned and did not answer.

All-Mighty Girl Gets Spoiled by A Bigshot

The other party continued. "Student Qin Sheng, don't worry. Since you're in our school, we'll definitely give you the best learning resources. We'll also give you as much bonus as you want."

"I'm studying at Imperial Capital University now," Qin Sheng said helplessly. "Go and ask my principal. If he doesn't agree, then I'm sorry."

As usual, Qin Sheng threw this problem to the principal of Imperial Capital University to solve.

The dean's eyes lit up.

Qin Sheng would have gone to Kelton Medical School if she only wanted the principal's approval.

"Alright, Qin Sheng, wait for my good news.

After hanging up the phone, the dean of the Academic Affairs Office of Kelton Medical School immediately found the phone number of the principal of Imperial Capital University and called him.

After hearing his words, the Principal's face turned green with anger.

Another one came to snatch Qin Sheng's school!

Why were they all so thick-skinned?

"Did Qin Sheng ask you to contact me?" he asked through gritted teeth.

"Yes." The dean nodded. "Principal Meng, according to Qin Sheng's intentions, she should have agreed. However, she hoped to get your approval."

When the Principal heard this, he smiled disdainfully in his heart.

It was another person who had been kept in the dark by Qin Sheng.

Why would someone like Qin Sheng, who disliked trouble, go abroad to study?

She had left this matter to him to handle, so it would save her trouble.

The dean continued, "Principal Meng, your student is very capable. If she comes to our school, she will have a better future. You won't stop your student, right?"

The Principal sneered. "Student Qin Sheng doesn't need to go to your place."

"What do you mean?" The dean frowned.

"Student Qin Sheng only used one semester to complete the four-year course of Imperial Capital University. This semester, she's already a graduate student. Moreover, she even did those world-shaking studies. Your school should have studied those illnesses, right? However, there was no idea, but Qin Sheng did it."

"Student Qin Sheng has already learned what she needs to learn. With Qin Sheng's ability, there's no need for her to waste her time at your school."

The dean of the Academic Affairs Office of Kelton Medical School frowned and wanted to refute the Principal.

However, when he thought of Qin Sheng's achievements, he fell silent.

Perhaps Qin Sheng really... did not need to go to Kelton Medical School.

The Principal snorted coldly. "You guys should give up. Qin Sheng won't go over to your school. To be honest, many top organizations in the country want to invite her to work, but she rejected them all, let alone go over to your school to continue her studies."

The Principal didn't give the dean any face and hung up the phone.

He called Qin Sheng again.

Qin Sheng swiped her phone screen and asked, "Uncle Principal, what's the matter?"

The Principal cleared his throat. "Sheng Sheng, um, if someone comes looking for you next time and asks you to go to their school, you can just reject them directly."

Every time those people came to look for him, he would have a heart attack.

Moreover, he had a misconception that Qin Sheng had the choice to leave the school at any time.

It seemed that this was not an illusion. No matter which school Qin Sheng went to, she would be welcomed...

Thinking of this, the Principal wiped his cold sweat again.

It seemed like he would have to continue to support Qin Sheng.

Otherwise, if Qin Sheng left Imperial Capital University unhappily, who would he cry to?

1227

Qin Sheng said coldly, "Uncle president, don't you want me to stay in DIDU university? It's up to you to refuse? And you know my temperament. I don't want to deal with these things. If you're tired, I can go to North University..."

"No, no, No." he surrendered, "don't worry, Sheng Sheng, I just mentioned it casually. How can I feel annoyed?"

The president was sweating on his forehead. Qin Sheng always threatened him by changing jobs to go to North University. He was afraid of Qin Sheng's threat. He was afraid that Qin Sheng would really run to North University.

The president of a top university has no one to mix with him.

The headmaster thought sadly.

Qin Sheng clenched his lips, "that's troublesome, uncle principal."

The headmaster's lips pulled out a smile and smiled reluctantly, "it's no trouble, it's just a few phone calls."

After the two finished talking on the phone, Qin Sheng continued to devote himself to the research.

H city.

Recently, Lin Shuya always felt nausea and nausea, so she went to the first hospital of H city for examination.

The doctor examined Lin Shuya and frowned.

Lin Shuya asked anxiously, "doctor, how is my physical condition?"

The doctor did not answer Lin Shuya, but asked, "Miss Lin, do you like eating sour things recently and are prone to sleepiness?"

Lin Shuya listened to the doctor, "yes, it's really what you said. Recently, she especially likes to eat wild jujubes and blueberries, and has drunk a lot of lemonade..."

The words stopped abruptly.

An idea came to Lin Shuya's mind. Did she

Thinking of this, Lin Shuya's mouth is full of bitterness. She hasn't been pregnant for more than ten years. Now she is 40 years old. It's basically impossible to have another child.

And in the past two months, she only did it with Qin Hai once, when he was drunk.

The doctor smiled and said, "Miss Lin, Congratulations, you are indeed pregnant. The baby is one and a half months old."

Lin Shuya was stunned, "really, really?"

The doctor nodded with certainty.

After a while, Lin Shuya reacted. She was very excited, "I, I'm finally pregnant."

Visit readel.me for extra chapters.

Lin Shuya went to check it again.

Make sure you're pregnant.

She took the report and couldn't wait to call Qin Hai, "brother Hai, I'm pregnant."

These days, Lin Shuya often has insomnia.

Qin Hai has been fooling around outside. She even bumped into him many times.

Qin Hai didn't have any escape, and even had an affair with other women in front of Lin Shuya.

Li Yan left with her and her son. Lin Shuya was worried that another woman was pregnant with Qin Hai's child. At that time, she also wanted to divorce Qin Hai.

Now with this child, if he was born a man, wouldn't Qin Hai be very kind to her?

Lin Shuya's heart lit up a glimmer of hope.

She has had enough of quarreling with Qin Hai every day. Even Qin Hai gives her very little money every month.

"Lin Shuya, you have a child?" Qin Hai suddenly stood up from his seat and was surprised.

Lin Shuya hasn't had any movement in her stomach for more than ten years. Now there's another child. No wonder he's surprised.

But

Qin Hai frowned, "Lin Shuya, are you sure you're not lying to me?"

"I didn't lie to you, Haige. I just went to test it."

"I expect you dare not." Qin Hai asked nervously, "is it a man or a woman?"

1228

Lin Shuya guessed: "now it's only one and a half months old. It's not enough to measure it. However, Haige, I think it's a boy and a sour girl, and I like to eat sour."

"OK, Shuya, I'll go back right away. Are you still in the hospital?"

Qin Hai is very excited. Although he has slept with many women in recent months, none of them is pregnant.

I didn't expect Lin Shuya to have children.

Lin Shuya replied, "well, I'm in the hospital. Haige, pay attention to safety when you come over."

Qin Hai should go.

He rushed directly to the hospital and saw Lin Shuya. His attitude towards Lin Shuya was very good.

The two of them don't quarrel as often as they used to.

Lin Shuya gave the report to Qin Hai. At this meeting, Qin Hai was sure that Lin Shuya did not cheat him.

"Shuya, slow down."

Qin Haisheng was afraid that Lin Shuya would knock and bump. He carefully protected Lin Shuya all the way.

Now there are two servants in the villa. Qin Hai said, "Shuya is pregnant. You should take care of your wife in the future. If she has any questions, I only ask you."

The servant was surprised. Is Lin Shuya pregnant?

They responded respectfully, "yes."

Qin Hai was also very generous to Lin Shuya at this time. He took out a bank card and gave it to Lin Shuya, "this is one million. You can sell whatever you want to buy at ordinary times. Don't aggrieve yourself."

Lin Shuya took her bank card and was very happy. Qin Hai had not been so kind to her for a long time.

She thought of the time when she first fell in love with Qin Hai.

Lin Shuya smiled, "don't worry, brother Hai, this is also my child. I will never let him do anything, but brother Hai, can you come back with me more in the future?"

Qin Hai frowned. "Now the entertainment company hasn't been open for long, but after two months, it should be almost busy. At that time, there was a lot of time, Shuya. Don't worry. I'll be back on time in the evening in these two months."

Lin Shuya touched her abdomen.

A smile twinkled in his eyes.

With this child, those dark lives are finally coming to an end.

She doesn't have to divorce Qin Hai, let alone go back to the Lin family.

Visit readel.me for extra chapters.

Because Qin Hai was busy with the company, he took Lin Shuya back to his bedroom and went to his study.

Lin Shuya calls Qin Churou.

Qin Churou received many plays. When Lin Shuya called her, she was still reciting her lines.

Seeing Lin Shuya's phone number, Qin Churou's eyes flashed a touch of impatience, but she still connected, "Mom, what's the matter with you calling me?"

Lin Shuya touched her abdomen and said with a smile, "rou'er, you're going to have a brother."

Qin Churou was stunned and slowly squeezed his mobile phone. "Mom, do you mean you're pregnant?"

"Yes." Lin Shuya nodded.

Qin Churou's lips pulled out a smile, "that's great, mom, you're finally pregnant, and dad will treat you in the future."

"Yes, rou'er, you concentrate on your work. Now your father is very kind to me. You don't have to worry about me. He just gave me a million."

Qin Churou clenched her fists. "Mom, I'll go back and see you in a few days."

After talking to Lin Shuya.

A smile of mockery and disdain arose from the corners of her lips.

Hehe, Lin Shuya also said that what she cared about most was her. Instead, she went to have another child.

If she really had a son, would her adopted daughter still have a foothold in the Qin family?

All-Mighty Girl Gets Spoiled by A Bigshot

1229 Meeting the Master

Qin Churou's eyes darkened.

She would never let him come to this world safely. How could she let someone fight for her property?

After Qin Churou went back.

She took out a bottle of medicine and passed it to Lin Shuya. “Mom, take two pills a day. These are expensive medicines from overseas. They’re good for the fetus and have no side effects. I’ll buy them for you after you finish them.”

Lin Shuya didn’t doubt Qin Churou’s words. She nodded and said, “Alright, then I’ll have to trouble you, Rou’er.”

“No trouble at all.” Qin Churou’s lips curled into an ambiguous smile.

She took out a business card and said, “Mom, this is my friend. He’s a famous gynecologist. You can ask him to check on your brother’s health in the future.”

“Alright.” Lin Shuya took it.

Qin Churou’s eyes darkened.

If these medicines were taken for three months, the child would die...

Ha, the Qin family could only have her as the only daughter. In the future, she would also be the heir to the Qin family’s assets.

Lin Shuya said, “Rou’er, I’m going to Qingfeng Temple to pray for my son. Speaking of which, I haven’t seen Master for a long time. I should go and see him. If it wasn’t for him, I wouldn’t know. You’re our lucky star.”

Qin Churou was very nervous. “Mom, you don’t have to thank him. You just have to thank him for what happened back then. He’s getting on in years now. If we go over to thank him, I’m afraid it’ll affect Master’s reputation.”

Back then, she had looked for that master. She did not understand why, after Qin Sheng’s return, she, who had always had a smooth sailing life, had one unlucky thing after another.

The answer she received... The lucky star was not her, but Qin Sheng.

As for why she was unlucky, it was mainly because she had dealt with Qin Sheng.

Since she was not the lucky star, she could not tell Lin Shuya and Qin Hai about this.

The two of them valued benefits very much. If they knew that Qin Sheng was the lucky star, they would probably chase her out of the Qin family for Qin Sheng.

Qin Entertainment was still in its infancy, but it was still worth hundreds of millions.

If Qin Entertainment paved the way for her, her development in the entertainment industry would be much faster.

Qin Churou clenched her fists tightly. She had made up her mind that she would never let Qin Hai and Lin Shuya know about this.

Lin Shuya was convinced by Qin Churou. "It's indeed inappropriate to disturb Master, but Qingyun Temple is very spiritual. I still have to go and pray for my son."

"Mom, do you care about him very much?"

Lin Shuya nodded. "Of course, only my son will stay by my side. As for my daughter, she will have less contact with her family after she marries."

Hearing this, Qin Churou's eyes flashed with unwillingness.

Lin Shuya continued. "Also, if I have a son, Qin Hai will treat us well. If I give birth to a girl, her personality will be like Qin Sheng's. Wouldn't that be terrible?"

Qin Churou gritted her teeth.

He hadn't even been born yet, but Lin Shuya was already so biased.

Then, after he was born, Lin Shuya and Qin Hai would surround him and spread rumors about him all day long. Even Qin Entertainment would be given to him.

How could they?

All the assets of the Qin family should be hers.

Qin Churou was afraid that Lin Shuya would bump into that Master, so she said, "Mom, I'll be free in a few days. I'll go with you."

Lin Shuya didn't refuse.

Lin Shuya and Qin Churou went to Qingfeng Temple together.

The Master had gone out, so they didn't meet him.

Qin Churou's worried heart finally relaxed.

Chapter 1230 - 1230 Asking Qin Sheng For Help

1230 Asking Qin Sheng For Help

Fu Corporation.

Old Master Fu was sitting in the chairman's office. He was flipping through the documents. When he saw the contents, he was so angry that his entire body trembled.

"This Ye couple really dares to treat us like this!"

Because of Ye Yutong and Fu Hanchuan's engagement, the two families were at loggerheads.

Although the Ye Corporation had been attacked by the Qin Corporation, the Lin Corporation, and the HD Group, they still had time to deal with the Fu Corporation.

Now, the Fu Corporation had suffered a huge loss.

Old Master Fu was looking at the profit and loss statements of the Fu Corporation for the past few months. They had lost at least 20 million yuan every month, and in the following month, they had lost 40 million yuan.

The Fu Corporation had not been developing well to begin with. It was only because of its strong foundation that it could survive for so many years.

If this continued, the Fu Corporation would declare bankruptcy in less than a year.

"Dad, what should we do now?" Fu Hongyi asked carefully. Now that the Ye Corporation is trying to bite us, I'm afraid the company won't be able to hold on for long."

Old Master Fu gritted his teeth. "This Ye couple is indeed ungrateful. In the past, the Fu Corporation had helped them develop a lot. Now, they're turning against us."

Fu Hongyi said angrily, "If Fu Hanchuan hadn't insisted on getting together with Qin Sheng, our relationship with the Ye family wouldn't have fallen to such a state. Yutong is so outstanding. He's considered lucky to be able to marry her. He actually dared to reject her!"

"Qin Sheng!"

Old Master Fu's eyes lit up.

He paced back and forth in the office with his hands behind his back.

"Isn't Qin Sheng backed by the Qin Corporation and the Lin Corporation? These are all the top ten companies in the Imperial Capital. They're many times stronger than the Ye Corporation. If they help us, not only can we get rid of the current crisis, but we might also develop better than before.”

Fu Hongyi frowned. “Dad, that kid Fu Hanchuan is born to be rebellious. He’s determined to cut ties with us. Why would he agree to help us?”

Old Master Fu said confidently, “I’m looking for Qin Sheng. Qin Sheng will definitely agree.”

Back then, he objected to Qin Sheng and Fu Hanchuan being together, which was why Qin Sheng’s attitude toward him was so bad.

Now that he had agreed to their relationship, Qin Sheng would naturally change her attitude.

She might even offer to help.

“Dad, but Qin Sheng seems to have the same personality as Fu Hanchuan. She also broke off relations with her adoptive parents and biological parents.”

He couldn’t bear to see Fu Hanchuan doing well.

Qin Sheng was so outstanding and had a strong family background, yet Fu Hanchuan was able to marry her!

Old Master Fu was disdainful. “What’s the big deal? How could her family be the same as the man’s? Qin Sheng is going to marry into the Fu family in the future. She has to please me well.”

Fu Hongyi saw that Old Master Fu was stubborn and did not say anything.

Now that the Fu Corporation was facing a crisis, he could not find any other way to solve it.

The Fu Corporation’s efficiency was very low. It took a whole two hours to find out.

As soon as he got Qin Sheng’s phone number, Old Master Fu could not wait to call her.

When Qin Sheng saw that it was an unfamiliar number, she frowned and picked up. She put on her Bluetooth earpiece.
