

Bigshot 181

Chapter 181: A Pheasant Cannot Become a Phoenix

When the hooligans saw this scene, they knew that they had kicked an iron plate?

They immediately cried and begged for mercy.

“We were blinded by our emotions. Let us go. We won’t dare to do it again in the future.”

“It was someone else who instructed us to do it. It has nothing to do with us. If you want to look for them, look for them.”

“Hero, let me go. I still have my grandparents at home. My mother, who is paralyzed in bed, needs to be taken care of.”

The three gangsters cried until their snot and tears covered their bruised faces.

Assistant Lin ordered coldly, “Bring them back.”

On the other side, the uneasiness in Fu Hanchuan’s heart had not completely subsided.

He was really afraid.

If Qin Sheng could not defeat them and he was late again... He did not dare to imagine what Qin Sheng would experience next.

“Sheng Sheng, you can’t do these dangerous things in the future.” Fu Hanchuan was unusually serious in front of Qin Sheng.

This place was very remote. Normally, Qin Sheng wouldn’t come here.

These three gangsters were obviously attracted by Qin Sheng on purpose.

Qin Sheng saw the worry in Fu Hanchuan’s eyes and nodded. “Okay.”

Fu Hanchuan suddenly looked in a direction.

He pulled Qin Sheng and hid in a corner.

Qin Sheng also frowned.

Liang Hua ran over with some students.

When she saw that there was no one around, she frowned.

Today, a message was sent saying that Qin Sheng was surrounded by gangsters in this alley.

Liang Hua found a few students who lived near the school and came over.

She didn’t want to save Qin Sheng. Instead, she wanted more people to see it. If the news got out in the school, Qin Sheng wouldn’t have the face to stay in H City High School anymore.

Liang Hua hated Qin Sheng to the bone. She dreamed that something would happen to Qin Sheng.

Liang Hua's gaze fell on a pool of blood on the ground.

She narrowed her eyes. It seemed that this was Qin Sheng's.

"You guys go look for Qin Sheng separately. She's your classmate. You can't let anything happen to her."

It was already past 6 o'clock in the evening. The sky was gradually darkening.

They did not look too carefully, but they were also suspicious of the incident with Qin Sheng.

Why did Liang Hua believe that Qin Sheng was in trouble?

They searched around but could not find her, so they gave up.

Liang Hua was unwilling to give up, so she continued to stay here to search.

Meanwhile, Fu Hanchuan had already brought Qin Sheng back to the car.

Fu Hanchuan sat in the driver's seat and frowned. "Sheng Sheng, I'll look into today's matter."

Qin Sheng didn't refuse this time.

"Brother Fu, focus on Zhao Jia and Liang Hua. If this matter is also related to Qin Churou, leave her to me."

Qin Churou and she were enemies for two lifetimes.

Qin Sheng hoped that she could personally deal with Qin Churou, raising her high up and being pushed down onto the ground later on.

Didn't Qin Churou love to stand in front of people, act like she was beautiful and accept everyone's envy?

Then, she would let Qin Churou stand tall then drag her down.

Qin Sheng was very vengeful, and she would not show mercy to some people.

"Okay." Fu Hanchuan nodded and agreed.

That night, Qin Sheng returned to the Qin family.

The Qin family had already finished their dinner.

Old Madam Qin was asking Qin Churou to clean up the dishes. She said while cutting her nails, "A student has to know how to do some work. Don't just focus on reading. If you spend the whole day dealing with books, I'm afraid you'll read like a fool. Churou, I'm asking you to work, and I'm not deliberately making things difficult for you. This is just to train you."

"After you marry someone, these things will have to be done. You're not a real heiress. A pheasant can't become a phoenix. You have to do what needs to be done."

Chapter 182: Success

Qin Churou brought the bowls, chopsticks, and dishes into the kitchen one by one.

Old Madam Qin leaned against the door and watched her wash.

These days, Qin Churou had been cleaning up the dishes at night. She was already very skilled.

But today, she was clearly absent-minded.

After Qin Churou finished washing the bowls and chopsticks, she wiped them dry with a cloth and placed them to the side.

With a crisp 'bang' sound, the bowl fell to the ground, shards shattering all over the floor.

Old Madam Qin swept a sharp gaze over.

She started scolding again, "As a woman, you're so clumsy. Your background isn't good, you don't know how to wash clothes and cook, and you're not good-looking enough. Tell me, who would dare to have you?"

"I really don't know what's good about you. Ah Hai actually treats you as his biological daughter. In my opinion, it was your acting skills of pretending to be weak and pitiful that deceived them."

Qin Churou hated Old Madam Qin to death in her heart, but on the surface, she didn't dare to refute Old Madam Qin.

She nodded and bowed. "I'm sorry, Grandma. I won't do it again."

Old Madam Qin frowned unhappily. "Qin Churou, who's your grandma? You and I aren't related by blood. Ah Hai and Lin Shuya treat you as their daughter. They treat you better than their biological daughter. I don't recognize you as my granddaughter."

Qin Churou lowered her head and didn't dare to speak.

She was used to Old Madam Qin. Old Madam Qin didn't like Lin Shuya and Qin Churou anywhere and would scold them whenever she had the chance. Regardless of whether she was reasonable or not, Qin Churou and Lin Shuya didn't dare to refute.

Qin Hai was also a little annoyed. However, he had been very filial since he was young and didn't dare to refute Old Madam Qin.

After dinner, he went upstairs.

Lin Shuya was the same. Old Madam Qin had instructed her to do all kinds of work for various reasons.

At night, she really did not want to do it anymore, so she found an excuse to go up with Qin Hai.

Qin Churou also wanted to go back to her room. However, she had been the one who washed the dishes at home these past few nights. If she went back to her room, she would inevitably receive the harshest treatment from Old Madam Qin.

Qin Churou could only stay on the first floor and let Old Madam Qin instruct her to do the work.

"What are you still standing there for? Go and clean up these fragments."

Upon hearing this, Qin Churou hurriedly walked out of the kitchen. She looked at the time and realized that it was already 7 o'clock. Qin Sheng had yet to return.

The corners of Qin Churou's lips curled up.

She was looking forward to going to school the next day.

There must be a lot of students discussing Qin Sheng's defilement.

"You're still standing here?" When Old Madam Qin came out, she saw Qin Churou standing in the middle of the living room, not moving.

Old Madam Qin spat again. "You've been dawdling for so long and still haven't started doing anything. Qin Churou, you've turned a deaf ear to my words, haven't you?"

"I'll go right away," Qin Churou hurriedly replied.

Before she could take a step forward, the doorbell rang.

Old Madam Qin sat on the sofa and looked at Qin Churou. "Go and open the door."

Now that Old Madam Qin had given the servants in the villa a holiday, she told them to go home. The villa's cleaning was done by Qin Churou and Lin Shuya, so naturally, there were no servants to open the door.

Qin Churou frowned. At this time, who would come?

Qin Churou didn't expect it to be Qin Sheng. After all, Qin Sheng might not be able to come back tonight.

However, when she opened the door, a familiar face appeared in front of her.

Qin Churou's pupils suddenly shrank.

"Why is it you?" Qin Churou subconsciously shouted.

Wasn't Qin Sheng trapped by the hooligans? Moreover, Qin Sheng's clothes were very neat, and there were no wounds on her body. It didn't seem like something had happened.

How was it possible?

Could it be that they had failed?

But they were three hooligans. Qin Sheng was only an 18-year-old girl. How could she escape?

Moreover, those three hooligans said that they were about to succeed.

Chapter 183: Booking a Flight Ticket

Qin Sheng saw Qin Churou's reaction and roughly understood that the three hooligans tonight had something to do with Qin Churou.

Qin Sheng smiled and said, "Isn't it normal for me to come back?"

Qin Churou also realized that her reaction was a little excessive.

She changed her words. “No, I want to say, why did you come back so late? It’s already past seven.”

Qin Sheng did not want to act with Qin Churou anymore. She bent down slightly and whispered, “Qin Churou, I’m fine. Are you surprised?”

Qin Churou’s forehead was covered in sweat. The corners of her lips curled into a stiff smile. “Sister, what are you talking about? I don’t understand.”

“You know what you’ve done.”

Qin Sheng gave Qin Churou one last mocking glance before walking past her and into the living room.

Qin Churou stood where she was and her hands that were hanging by her side slowly tightened.

When Old Madam Qin saw Qin Sheng, although she did not have a good expression on her face, she did not make things difficult for her.

“Sheng’er, you are the granddaughter of my Qin family. In the future, don’t be polite to those who stubbornly cling on to the Qin family and are not willing to leave. If you have to scold them, you have to scold them. If you have to hit them, you have to hit them. You can’t let some people who want to take over the Qin family’s nest ride on your head.”

This person was obviously referring to Qin Churou.

Qin Sheng only responded to Old Madam Qin’s words with a faint smile.

She and Old Madam Qin could only be considered as strangers who were related by blood.

Old Madam Qin did not make things difficult for her, nor did she treat her well.

After experiencing a lifetime, Qin Sheng did not dare to believe in this so-called kinship easily.

At this moment, Old Madam Qin’s words did not make her feel much.

After Old Madam Qin and Qin Sheng finished speaking, her gaze fell on Qin Churou at the main door.

She shouted loudly, “You’re still standing there in a daze! Quickly come in and clean up.”

Qin Churou could only take the tools to clean up the debris on the ground one by one.

Qin Churou was very unwilling now.

She didn’t expect Qin Sheng to escape from the incident that she thought was a sure thing.

How could Qin Sheng have such a good life?

Fu Hanchuan’s villa.

“President, the interrogation has been cleared up.” A bodyguard came in to report.

Those hooligans were also timid. Before the bodyguard could make a move, they confessed everything.

Zhao Jia used her original cell phone number to contact the hooligans. After checking, they found out.

As for Qin Churou, she used another number. However, the bodyguards also played Qin Churou's voice, allowing the hooligans to recognize her.

Fu Hanchuan narrowed his eyes and asked, "What were they going to do to Sheng Sheng?"

Fu Hanchuan's tone was very cold.

He would not let go of anyone who dared to touch Sheng Sheng.

The bodyguard replied, "Zhao Jia gave them the order to threaten Qin Sheng, and Qin Churou gave them 300,000 yuan to defile Miss Qin. They wanted them to take photos and post it online so that Miss Qin's reputation would be ruined."

Fu Hanchuan's entire body was shrouded in a murderous aura.

His hands on the table were tightly clasped together, and his fingertips turned white.

After a long while, he calmed down his desire to kill.

"Investigate everything that they have done and send them to the police station. Also, we can't let Zhao Jia off either. After Sheng Sheng finishes participating in the math competition, we will deal with Zhao Jia. These days, keep an eye on Liang Hua and Zhao Jia."

Fu Hanchuan had already investigated everything about Liang Hua.

He wanted to leave her to Qin Sheng to deal with, but there was no need for that now.

"Yes." The bodyguard nodded respectfully.

"Go out."

The door of the villa closed, and Fu Hanchuan was the only person left in the huge villa.

He rubbed the space between his eyebrows and picked up his phone to order, "Lin Li, bring over all the work that needs to be done in the next few days. I'm going to the capital tomorrow. Book two plane tickets for me."

Chapter 184: Qin Churou's Calculations

The next day, Zhao Jia also saw Qin Sheng.

Zhao Jia originally didn't know if the three hooligans had succeeded, so she called and asked, but no one picked up.

She didn't sleep the whole night.

She didn't expect to see Qin Sheng at school, and Qin Sheng still acted as if nothing had happened.

How was that possible?

As long as the girls were threatened by those hooligans, they would come and drop out of school or suspend their studies.

Qin Sheng's current state was completely different from what she had imagined.

Could it be that those three hooligans had failed?

Just as this thought popped up in her mind, it was interrupted by Zhao Jia.

Although those hooligans were not particularly skilled, they were more than enough to deal with a woman like Qin Sheng.

Zhao Jia was restless the entire day.

Liang Hua was also in a bad mood.

She arrived at the place that the person who sent her a message yesterday had mentioned, but she did not find anything.

Originally, she was also certain that the pool of blood on the ground was Qin Sheng's. However, Qin Sheng came to the school as usual today, and she did not see a single injury on her body.

Liang Hua thought that the person who sent her a message was playing with her.

Under normal circumstances, Liang Hua would not believe a message from a stranger. However, it was related to Qin Sheng. If it was true, she could see this good thing and chase Qin Sheng out of H City High School

Even if it was fake, Liang Hua would still make a trip there. She would not let go of this opportunity.

She did not expect that they were playing with her. Where was Qin Sheng?

Qin Churou was also absent-minded the whole day.

She once made a mistake in answering a question, and Liang Hua was in a bad mood. In front of the class of students, Liang Hua gave Qin Churou a fierce scolding.

Qin Churou lowered her head and clenched her fists. Her nails were almost embedded into her flesh.

Why was Qin Sheng okay? Why was Liang Hua safe and sound?

Actually, the message that Liang Hua got was sent by Qin Churou.

Qin Churou wanted Liang Hua to go over and attract the attention of others. When she was discovered, she could push Zhao Jia and Liang Hua to take the blame. Even if she was not discovered, Liang Hua was the one who spread the news. Qin Sheng would not let Liang Hua off.

In this way, even if she dealt with Qin Sheng, Liang Hua wouldn't be able to escape, killing two birds with one stone.

Qin Churou didn't need to tell Liang Hua.

Liang Hua had made Qin Churou lose too much face in front of the group. Qin Churou hated Liang Hua so much that she couldn't wait to see something happen to Liang Hua.

Thus, Liang Hua was lured into the alley.

No matter what the end result was, Liang Hua wouldn't end up well.

Qin Churou thought that she would get rid of Qin Sheng and Liang Hua in one fell swoop.

However, she did not expect that Qin Sheng would not be taken away by them and would be safe and sound.

Qin Churou's eyes were filled with hatred.

This time, Qin Sheng was considered lucky. She could still participate in the mathematics competition.

Qin Churou had participated in the provincial level competition before, but because of Su Yixiu, the super genius student, she had never participated in the national competition before.

She had a kind of obsession with mathematics competitions.

She also put most of her energy into preparing for this mathematics competition.

Now that the spot had been snatched away by Qin Sheng, Qin Churou was very competitive, so she was naturally not convinced.

But she had no other choice. She could only watch helplessly as Qin Sheng and Su Yixiu were taken away from the school by Luo Xuewen.

Fu Hanchuan's car stopped in front of them.

He got out of the car and nodded. "Teacher Luo, I'm also going to the capital. I'll bring all of you to the airport."

Luo Xuewen saw that it was Fu Hanchuan and knew that he was Qin Sheng's brother. He nodded and agreed.

Qin Sheng sat in the passenger seat while Luo Xuewen and Su Yixiu sat in the back seat.

Chapter 185: Living With Him

Fu Hanchuan bent down slightly and fastened Qin Sheng's seatbelt.

Qin Sheng was used to it and did not stop him.

On the other hand, Luo Xuewen was watching their interaction from the back seat of the car. He stroked his chin with a face full of interest.

Something was not right. Something was really not right.

This action, this doting gaze, this soft doting voice, it made the heart of an outsider like him beat wildly.

He was experienced, and men understood men the best.

Now, Luo Xuewen could basically confirm that Fu Hanchuan liked Qin Sheng.

As for this 'brother and sister', he had also used this method to woo his wife, so it was understandable.

It was a 40-minute journey from H City High School to the airport.

There were already people waiting for Fu Hanchuan at the airport. Fu Hanchuan gave him the keys and said, "Drive the car back."

There were two suitcases in his hands. One was Qin Sheng's and the other was his.

"Teacher Luo, I've already told the principal that Sheng Sheng will be staying with me for the next two days. I'll send her to school," Fu Hanchuan said.

Qin Sheng looked at Fu Hanchuan in surprise.

She didn't refute him. She trusted Fu Hanchuan's words.

"Okay."

Luo Xuewen brought Su Yixiu on the plane.

Fu Hanchuan also went to the first-class cabin with Qin Sheng.

"Brother Fu, are you going to the capital too?" Qin Sheng asked.

"Yes, I need to go to the company," Fu Hanchuan said calmly. "It just so happens that you're going to the capital to participate in the competition, so I'm going together with you."

"Okay." Qin Sheng didn't doubt it.

The plane took off. Qin Sheng read a magazine for a while on the plane and gradually felt sleepy.

She adjusted her school uniform and closed her eyes.

Fu Hanchuan quickly put Qin Sheng's head gently on his shoulder.

A stewardess came over. "Sir, what would you like to eat..."

Before she could finish, Fu Hanchuan interrupted her. He said in a low voice, "Bring a blanket over."

The stewardess looked at the girl on Fu Hanchuan's shoulder and instantly understood.

A blanket was quickly delivered over and Fu Hanchuan gently covered Qin Sheng with it.

For the next hour or so, Fu Hanchuan remained in the same position and did not move.

Fu Hanchuan did not close his eyes and kept looking at Qin Sheng.

When the plane arrived, Fu Hanchuan woke Qin Sheng up.

"Brother Fu." Qin Sheng's sleepy eyes were still a little drowsy. "Have I been sleeping on you as my pillow?"

"Yes."

"Then..." Qin Sheng's worried gaze fell on Fu Hanchuan's shoulder.

Fu Hanchuan raised his hand and rubbed Qin Sheng's head. The corners of his lips curled up into a smile.

"It's okay."

When Fu Hanchuan got up, he frowned slightly.

However, he didn't show any abnormalities. He held Qin Sheng's hand and met Qin Sheng's surprised gaze.

He said gently, "There are too many people. Don't get separated."

Qin Sheng did not say anything and allowed Fu Hanchuan to hold her hand.

Fu Hanchuan went to retrieve his luggage. Qin Sheng wanted to pull her luggage, but Fu Hanchuan avoided her hand. "Let me do it."

Seeing that Fu Hanchuan insisted, Qin Sheng could only let Fu Hanchuan pull the luggage by himself.

Fortunately, there were not many people at the airport, so it was not crowded.

As soon as they left the airport, a man in a black suit and sunglasses came up to them.

"President, here are your keys."

Fu Hanchuan took the keys and turned to Qin Sheng, saying in a low voice, "Sheng Sheng, let's go."

Fu Hanchuan put the suitcase in the back of the car and brought Qin Sheng to a villa in the suburbs. Fu Hanchuan had bought it when he came to the capital.

Chapter 186: Fu Hanchuan's Promise

Fu Hanchuan had already arranged for people to clean up the villa. He also prepared clothes, toiletries, and learning tools for Qin Sheng.

When he arrived at the villa, Fu Hanchuan once again checked Qin Sheng's room.

After there were no problems, he went into the kitchen and prepared a simple dinner for Qin Sheng. It was said to be simple, but there were four dishes, meat, and a soup.

Fu Hanchuan usually ate by himself. He was also very talented. Now that he had good cooking skills, even a five-star chef could not compare to Fu Hanchuan.

"Sheng Sheng, eat more. After you're done, go and rest."

Fu Hanchuan peeled three prawns for Qin Sheng and put them into her bowl.

From the moment they boarded the plane, Fu Hanchuan had taken care of Qin Sheng meticulously. He was afraid that she would be hungry and tired. Qin Sheng's heart was very warm.

She also picked up some vegetables and meat for Fu Hanchuan.

"Brother Fu, you eat more too."

Qin Sheng could be cold to others, but in front of Fu Hanchuan, she would unconsciously suppress the coldness on her body.

Fu Hanchuan looked at the food in his bowl and smiled happily.

He did not waste it and ate it all.

Qin Sheng's appetite was not big, and she only ate one bowl of rice.

She still had to participate in the competition the next day, so she went to bed early.

Fu Hanchuan got up at 7 o'clock the next day to prepare breakfast for Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng also got up very early.

After washing up, she went downstairs and heard some sounds coming from the kitchen.

Qin Sheng's eyes were slightly red. Only Fu Hanchuan would take care of her like this and take care of every aspect of her life.

The Qin family didn't even ask about her college entrance exam. They only cared about Qin Churou.

Qin Sheng had always kept a distance from Fu Hanchuan in her previous life. If Fu Hanchuan wanted to treat her well, Qin Sheng would always reject him.

Now, Qin Sheng's heart was very warm.

Fu Hanchuan happened to take out the breakfast. He was wearing a white casual shirt and an apron around his waist.

When he saw Qin Sheng, a smile appeared on his expressionless face. "Sheng Sheng, eat your breakfast. You have an exam later."

He put down the bread and milk and pulled the chair for Qin Sheng.

Then, he went back into the kitchen and took out his breakfast.

Qin Sheng took a bite of the bread, and her eyes kept falling on Fu Hanchuan.

"Brother Fu." Qin Sheng finished the bread and said, "I was thinking, if you have a girlfriend in the future, will you not treat me well?"

In Qin Sheng's heart, she wanted Fu Hanchuan to always treat her well.

In her previous life, she had experienced too much indifference and deception. Only Fu Hanchuan and Old Master Lu were truly good to her. Therefore, she desperately wanted to seize this warmth, but she did not want to let go.

Hearing this, Fu Hanchuan smiled softly. "Sheng Sheng, the way I treat you will never change in this life."

His girlfriend would only be her. There would be no one else.

Fu Hanchuan was determined to be a person, and he would walk the same path to the end, regardless of whether there was a result or not.

Qin Sheng was this person.

Before Qin Sheng, Fu Hanchuan did not like anyone. After Qin Sheng, the person Fu Hanchuan liked and loved would always be Qin Sheng.

In his previous life, Fu Hanchuan had always been single.

Qin Sheng also smiled, smiling so much that her eyes were curved.

“Thank you, Brother Fu.”

Fu Hanchuan could see Qin Sheng’s dependence on him, and the corners of his lips curled up happily.

After breakfast, Fu Hanchuan checked Qin Sheng’s exam tools and the competition certificate.

After sending Qin Sheng to the school gate, Fu Hanchuan sat back in the car and watched Qin Sheng, Luo Xuewen, and the others enter the school together from afar.

“Qin Sheng, Su Yixiu, with your standards, there will definitely be no problem. Come on!”

Luo Xuewen did a cheering action.

Chapter 187: Sleeping In the Examination Room

Qin Sheng and Su Yixiu both nodded their heads coldly.

Luo Xuewen: “...”

‘Alright, you guys are the gods of learning. You guys have the final say.’

“The examination will start in half an hour. You guys can enter the examination room later.”

Su Yixiu was a frequent visitor to Imperial Capital University to participate in the competition. This time, Luo Xuewen did not bring them to familiarize themselves with the examination room. With Su Yixiu bringing them along, there would not be any major problems.

“Yo, isn’t this Teacher Luo from H City High School? Why, did he bring your students to participate in the competition again?”

Li Bao glanced at Qin Sheng and said mockingly, “This student of yours looks very unfamiliar. Looks like she has not participated in many competitions. With such a student, aren’t you afraid of being dragged down?”

Li Bao was a teacher from G City High School. H City and G City were in the same province, competing with each other.

G City High School also spent a lot of money to poach a lot of high-quality students from H City.

H City High School and G City High School had always been opposites.

In the past four years, H City High School’s overall results and the number of students who entered Imperial Capital University were less than G City High School.

For this reason, G City High School often ridiculed H City High School.

Luo Xuewen smiled. “Teacher Li, you should worry about your own students’ results. No matter what, we still have Su Yixiu.”

Su Yixiu was a front for their school.

As for Qin Sheng, she would naturally slap them in the face when the college entrance examination came.

Li Bao sneered. "Only Su Yixiu in your school can do that."

The smile on Luo Xuewen's face did not change. "At least Su Yixiu alone can compare to the two students in your school."

He looked at his watch and said to Qin Sheng and Su Yixiu, "It's about time. Let's go in first. For someone who randomly bites, just take a look."

"You!"

Li Bao was so angry that he could not refute.

As long as Su Yixiu participated in the competition, the first place would belong to him. G City could only get second place at most. In national competitions, geniuses were as common as clouds. G City's students often did not even have a place.

Su Yixiu was always able to get first place. The value of first place was more than the second and third place combined.

H City High School had always been suppressed and ridiculed by G City High School. In the past two years, because of Su Yixiu, their backs had straightened quite a bit.

"Luo Xuewen, Su Yixiu alone won't be able to take your school's college entrance exam." Li Bao forced out these words.

Luo Xuewen smiled and didn't say anything else.

If Li Bao knew that Qin Sheng was even more powerful than Su Yixiu, Li Bao would probably be angered to death.

Su Yixiu and Qin Sheng were in the same exam room.

The first segment of the competition was the paper test. The top twenty people with the highest scores would be selected for the next round of the competition.

There were about 400 participants from all over the country. It was already very difficult to enter the first round.

Many students were very nervous.

If they wanted to enter the second match, they would have the chance to be booked by a famous university.

Even if they did not go to that university, their college entrance examination score would still be increased by 10 points.

All of these were very important to the third year students.

At 9:10, the exam officially began. The exam time was 90 minutes. The exam could only be handed in 40 minutes after the start of the exam.

Qin Sheng was doing it very seriously. Her speed was very even.

She only used 25 minutes to finish the entire exam paper. Seeing that it was still early, she checked the exam paper once, and it only took five minutes.

Qin Sheng simply put down her pen and fell asleep on the table.

Chapter 188: Submission

The invigilator frowned.

In all these years, this was the first time someone had slept on the competition ground.

Which school had sent this student to participate in the competition? They did not know how to answer the questions, and their attitude was not correct.

The invigilator walked to Qin Sheng's side angrily.

After Qin Sheng finished the paper, she placed it in the upper right corner. The invigilator walked closer and saw the paper at a glance.

Other than the multiple-choice and fill-in questions, the words under the other simple and comprehensive questions were full and black.

It must have been filled in carelessly.

The invigilator would never believe that someone could finish all the questions in just thirty minutes.

Not only did she not finish the questions, she even filled in carelessly. This was the first time he had seen such a student. With these kinds of standards, how could she participate in this National High School Mathematics Competition?

He had to teach this student a lesson.

The invigilator picked up the exam paper with a dark face.

He was also a mathematics teacher.

Just now on the podium, he had already finished the multiple-choice questions.

The invigilator started from the multiple-choice questions. The first one was correct, the second, the third... all of them were correct.

Then he continued to look down and saw that the multiple-choice questions were all correct!

The invigilator: "..."

This should be just a coincidence. However, could she finish all of these multiple-choice questions by relying on luck?

The invigilator jumped straight to the simple answer questions.

Although it was called a simple answer question, these questions were also very difficult.

The invigilator looked at the questions but did not calculate them. Then, he looked at Qin Sheng's answers.

He frowned and pondered for a moment. This girl's train of thought was correct and the steps were correct as well.

The invigilator read through the questions one by one, and the short answers were all right!

The comprehensive questions were also filled up by Qin Sheng. The previous ones were all right, so this question could not be wrong.

He looked at Qin Sheng in shock.

If she did not know the answer in advance, then she was a genius.

But the questions in this competition were strictly confidential. Knowing the answer was absolutely impossible.

Could it be that this girl was Su Yixiu, who had won first place in all kinds of competitions? Wasn't Su Yixiu a male?

The invigilator looked at the name on the exam paper suspiciously.

Qin Sheng, H City High School?

The pointer gradually pointed to 9:50. It was time to hand in the exam paper.

Qin Sheng woke up after picking the right time.

The invigilator was still holding the exam paper and pondering over the last question.

The last question was the most difficult question in the entire paper. In the mathematics competition, very few students could do it. Even the invigilator's mind was a mess when he saw Qin Sheng's correct answer.

Qin Sheng looked at the time and said, "Can I leave now?"

"Ah?" The invigilator didn't react for a moment.

"I'll hand in the paper."

"It's done." The invigilator nodded. Qin Sheng had already finished and basically done it correctly. He didn't need to keep Qin Sheng anymore.

The invigilator took the examination paper and went to the podium to read it slowly.

The invigilator who was standing at the back of the classroom was also curious. He also came to the podium and was stunned when he saw the full answer.

"You're done?" he asked softly.

"Yes." The first invigilator nodded and sighed, "She has basically done it all right. If nothing unexpected happens, she will probably get full marks for the results of the examination paper this time."

Full marks!

He was stunned. This was the first time he heard of someone who could get full marks in a math competition.

The invigilator with him was a very capable math teacher.

Since he could say that she got full marks, there was nothing to doubt.

Even if Qin Sheng didn't get full marks, she was close to full marks.

Chapter 189: Reporter's Question

When Qin Sheng said that she was handing in her paper, many students raised their heads in surprise.

Done?

It was only 9:50 now, and even a class lesson wasn't this short.

They had just completed their choices and filled in the blanks.

Those students did not believe that Qin Sheng could complete the entire paper in a short 40 minutes. They thought that she had left a lot of blank space.

They only looked at it for a few seconds before they buried their heads in the paper.

They still had three short-answer questions and two comprehensive questions that they had not done yet. The questions were difficult and there were only 50 minutes left. Time was tight and there was no time to think about other things.

When Su Yixiu heard that Qin Sheng wanted to hand in the paper, he was not surprised.

He was in the same exam room as Qin Sheng in his last monthly exam.

When Qin Sheng was taking the math and science combined exam, she finished it in less than 30 minutes.

English took about 40 minutes.

As for Chinese, which required a lot of writing, it only took more than an hour.

Even he had to admit that Qin Sheng was very good.

Su Yixiu smiled, lowered his head, and started to do the exam paper.

It seemed that the first place this time was Qin Sheng.

Su Yixiu had always gotten first place in the previous competitions.

If the first place in this mathematics competition fell on Qin Sheng's head, Su Yixiu would not feel unbalanced.

Su Yixiu was very clear that there were many geniuses in this world, and he was not the most powerful one.

He Manyun bit her pen and looked at Qin Sheng's back as he left the classroom, smiling disdainfully.

She had thought that the person who could represent H City High School to participate in the math competition would be very powerful, but it turned out that she was just so-so.

It seemed that she was worrying too much.

He Manyun was one of the students who participated in the competition at G City High School. She had just been by Li Bao's side.

She disliked Qin Sheng from the first moment she saw her.

He Manyun was also a beautiful person. When she saw Qin Sheng, she instantly felt that she was a lot shorter.

He Manyun was very arrogant. She had always disliked people who were more beautiful than her and had better grades than her.

At this moment, when she met Qin Sheng, the first thing she felt was disgust.

Now that Qin Sheng had turned in her papers early, He Manyun felt a little relieved.

She was just a scumbag who came to participate in the competition through connections. She was good-looking, but she was brainless. This kind of woman was not worth her attention.

He Manyun was delayed for three to four minutes just thinking about it.

When she came back to her senses, she saw that there were only about forty minutes left. She had only completed the fill-in-the-blank question and the first short answer question.

He Manyun hurriedly buried her head in writing.

Time was already very tight. At this moment, she had already delayed so much time. He Manyun's heart was a little flustered.

On this side, Qin Sheng walked out of the examination room and went downstairs.

The National High School Mathematics Competition was highly regarded. There were reporters stationed at Imperial Capital University early on.

Qin Sheng was the first to come out, and she came out more than 40 minutes earlier.

She was either a failure or a god of learning.

But even if she was a god of learning, it was impossible for her to complete a mathematics competition paper in 30 to 40 minutes.

The mathematics competition questions were very difficult. Even university professors were unable to complete them.

Those reporters had already determined that Qin Sheng was an underachiever. To be able to represent a city to participate in the mathematics competition, she must have used some backdoor methods.

However, among the top students participating in the mathematics competition, there was such an underachiever. This was also a place that could attract attention.

Two reporters took microphones and came in front of Qin Sheng. They began to ask, "Student, you came out so quickly. Have you already completed the questions?"

"Student, may I ask if the competition questions this time are very simple?"

"You handed in your paper so early. Are you confident that you can get first place in this exam?"

"Student, how many points do you think you can get for the exam results this time?"

Chapter 190: Qin Sheng Was a Bad Student

Qin Sheng smiled faintly, her eyes filled with pride. "It's not difficult. I have the confidence to get first place."

The reporters were momentarily silenced and looked at each other.

This was not going according to the usual pattern.

Shouldn't one be modest and say that the questions were very difficult and that they were not sure how much they could get?

Qin Sheng's words stunned the reporters.

Luo Xuewen was still sitting on the bench under the shade of the tree. Qin Sheng walked past the reporters and walked towards Luo Xuewen.

Luo Xuewen was still playing with his phone and didn't notice the situation on Qin Sheng's side. It was Li Bao who saw Qin Sheng.

"Teacher Luo, your student is really fast. They have already handed in their papers. There are still more than 40 minutes until the end of the exam. Can they finish it? Don't tell me they handed in their paper and left just because they didn't know how to do the questions?" Li Bao crossed his arms in front of his chest. He spoke mockingly.

Upon hearing this, Luo Xuewen also looked over.

Upon seeing Qin Sheng, he frowned.

So fast?

Now that Qin Sheng had arrived, Luo Xuewen asked, "Have you finished the examination paper?"

"Yes." Qin Sheng nodded.

Upon hearing Qin Sheng's reply, Luo Xuewen felt relieved. "Alright, you did well."

"Then I'll be leaving first."

"Go."

Luo Xuewen believed in Qin Sheng. Although he had spent less than seven hours with Qin Sheng, he could be considered to have understood her.

Qin Sheng was very steady. She had never missed any of the questions she had done.

Since she said that she had already done it, she had already done it.

These mathematics competition questions were very difficult to others, but to Qin Sheng, they were nothing.

Usually, the difficulty of the last question in H City High School was no less than that of the mathematics competition, but Qin Sheng was able to complete it in a short period of time.

Before coming to the Imperial Capital, Luo Xuewen wasn't worried about Qin Sheng's level. He was only worried that Qin Sheng would be nervous and that it would affect her performance.

Now, it seemed that he didn't need to worry anymore.

In this competition, Qin Sheng was very likely to surpass Su Yixiu and take first place.

Luo Xuewen had this confidence.

Qin Sheng left.

Li Bao looked at her mockingly and shook his head.

"Teacher Luo, your student has quite a strong backing. She was able to get a spot to participate in the exam and handed in her paper early. You guys didn't stop her. It seems that you guys are prepared to give up this spot. However, aren't you afraid that she would lose your school's face by getting 20-30 marks?"

Li Bao shook his head and said, "That's not right. She might not even score 20-30."

The other teachers also looked at Luo Xuewen with a hint of mockery in their eyes.

In the National High School Mathematics Competition, the two people who had the best mathematics scores in the city were chosen. Even if they were just a little worse, they wouldn't be that bad.

Now, among these top students, wouldn't it be a disgrace to the school if they mixed in an underachiever?

However, these teachers didn't pay too much attention to them. They only took a glance and then withdrew their gazes.

This kind of person was just an escort. They would be eliminated in the first round, and they wouldn't be able to participate in the following competitions. It didn't have too many conflicts of interest with them.

Seeing that Luo Xuewen didn't speak, Li Bao was still unwilling to let Luo Xuewen off.

"No wonder your school has been getting worse and worse all these years. Every college entrance exam was suppressed by our G City High School. So this is the reason. I'm afraid that even the so-called top students of class one also came in through the back door."

Li Bao's words were just short of saying that H City High School was dominated by money. The top students of class one were all poor students, and they all had backers.

Luo Xuewen smiled and said, "Li Bao, don't speak too soon."
