

All-Mighty Girl Gets Spoiled by A Bigshot

Chapter 21: Does Your Face Hurt

See QS bet, but also bet 3 million, Lu Ming smiled disdainfully. Betting so much, he really thought they could win. They didn't see who the opponent was.

Lu Ming bet all his money on himself to win, adding up to 1.2 million.

3

Qin Sheng agreed to the challenge.

[The Most Handsome In the Universe: Let's change the game and move the battle to reality?]

[QS: Okay.]

[The Most Handsome In the Universe: You decide the battlefield.]

Qin Sheng thought about it and entered the name of a company, "Longfei Group."

Longfei Group was HD Group's hostile company. It used despicable means towards the HD Group, and the HD Group was what Fu Hanchuan founded.

1

[The Most Handsome In the Universe: Okay, let's get started and get this over with.]

The competition began. Qin Sheng quickly typed on the keyboard. Lines of code appeared on the computer and began to attack Longfei Group.

Lu Ming also focused his attention and looked for loopholes in the system's protection. He did not dare to underestimate QS too much.

Longfei Group had spent a lot of effort on the system's protection. It was not easy to invade.

There were a total of five lines of defense. Each line of defense had a monitoring function. If one was not careful, they would be discovered. If the attack was too long, they would also be noticed.

Even Qin Sheng took two minutes to break through the first line of defense.

The further they went, the harder it was.

Ten minutes later, Qin Sheng had already started to attack the fourth line of defense.

Lu Ming was still stuck at the second line of defense. Sweat broke out on his forehead. He took some time to look at Qin Sheng's position and then looked away. However, he was getting faster and faster.

The onlookers outside were anxiously waiting for the result.

They could not see the progress of the real-life attack. They could only wait for the appearance of both sides in the competition to know the result.

"Who do you think will win?"

"It must be Handsome. The Most Handsome In the Universe has been ranked eighth on the list for so long. Do you think he is a vegetarian?"

"Don't be too confident. You guys haven't learned your lesson. Have you been slapped in the face by QS? That son of a b*tch hid behind the screen and watched you guys discuss and then slapped you in the face. I want to ask you, does your face still hurt? Anyway, it does hurt me a lot."

The hackers: "..."

Their bodies froze. Their hands that was typing on the keyboard also froze. They silently deleted the words that they had typed out one by one.

It was as if The Most Handsome In the Universe had come out to fight against QS and his solemn words had made them lose their minds again.

Perhaps The Most Handsome In the Universe would lose. After all, the record that he had set was defeated by QS.

This time, no one dared to say anything. They could only quietly wait for the result.

On the other side, Qin Sheng was just one step away from breaking through the fifth line of defense. She looked at the position of The Most Handsome In the Universe that had just escaped from the third line of defense.

Qin Sheng's lips curved slightly. She waited on the spot for a while.

Lu Ming seemed to be getting more and more flustered. He had lost his composure. His mind was now filled with the bet of 1.2 million that he had bet.

If he lost, the money that he had saved for three years would be gone. That was his life. He was prepared to use it to build a top-notch computer. If he lost, his plan would be ruined.

Sweat covered Lu Ming's forehead and nose.

He frowned, his eyes only focused on the code on the screen.

On the other side, Qin Sheng pressed the enter key. All five lines of defense were broken through. Qin Sheng entered the internal system of the Longfei Group and leisurely walked around.

When she came out, Qin Sheng looked at the position of The Most Handsome In the Universe and raised her eyebrows.

Fingertips gently clicked the mouse, deliberately touching the other side of the alarm.

Chapter 22: Qin Sheng Lost?

As Lu Ming was still at the fourth line of defense, he heard the alarm.

"F*ck!" Lu Ming cursed and increased the speed of his hands.

This QS was too mean!

Lu Ming was in front, so he was the first to go out.

Seeing The Most Handsome In the Universe come out, the hackers all heaved a sigh of relief. It turned out that QS was not as powerful as they thought.

[Tick Tock: The Most Handsome In the Universe, he is indeed handsome!]

[Zhu: Handsome man is indeed invincible!]

[King: Handsome, is QS still lingering on the first line of defense?]

Lu Ming was now lying on the chair dejectedly. He did not want to look at the computer anymore.

Five minutes later, Qin Sheng exited the Longfei Group's system. When she was retreating, she had even kindly destroyed the five lines of defense.

It was estimated that the defense system could not be used anymore. To rebuild the defense system, it would require a large amount of money and a lot of time.

The internal information of the group was crucial. It could not be stolen by outsiders. If the core information was stolen, it would be a fatal blow to the company.

When Qin Sheng triggered the alarm, the technical staff of the Longfei Group discovered it. They immediately began to track Qin Sheng.

Unfortunately, their computer technology was much worse than Qin Sheng's, so they couldn't find any traces of Qin Sheng at all.

2

After destroying all the defense lines, Qin Sheng arrogantly left a sentence. "Your defense is too rubbish. I'll help you check next time."

The technical staff: "..."

They didn't need it, thank you.

1

The technical staff could only watch as an arrogant hacker logo escaped from under his eyes.

Without hesitation, he reported this matter to the department head.

"What? Aren't you a high-tech talent who came back from studying abroad? Even you can't stop it!?"

The department head realized the seriousness of the matter and called the chairman overnight.

The chairman flew into a rage. "Find him! Find this person immediately!"

He had never been provoked so arrogantly before. Who wouldn't want to please him?

He thought of something and became nervous again. "Did he take away the company's information?"

"I'm not sure, but he destroyed our defense line and left a message saying that he would come back next time."

"Take care of it right now. I invited you here and gave you your salary. Are you taking money for nothing?" The chairman of the Longfei Group blamed the technology department. The system had been hacked. It was their fault for not doing their job well.

“Yes.” The technical department director could only agree. However, he was not convinced. Those who knew about computers understood that there were many experts in the world. How could they compare to these people? No matter how good the system was, there would always be a loophole. It was very difficult to ensure that everything was safe.

It was not that they did not want to poach those hacker geniuses, but they were very arrogant and refused.

After he returned, he began to maintain and rebuild the defense system overnight.

However, this was not something that could be solved in a short period of time.

At the same time, they were still worried about when this hacker would come.

As for QS, they were destined to not be able to find her. Qin Sheng was very cautious and did not leave any traces behind.

QS appeared at Black Emperor.

Those who could not stand QS jumped out to mock her. When everyone congratulated The Most Handsome In the Universe for winning, he did not refute them, so everyone thought that QS had lost.

[Trash: QS, I thought you were invincible. I didn't expect you to lose too.]

[Duck: Hahaha, how does it feel to lose? Let you be arrogant!]

[Hacker Qin: This tells us that we should not be too arrogant. Otherwise, one day, we won't even know how we died.]

Qin Sheng's eyes narrowed as she watched them jump up and down. She slowly typed, “Who told you that I lost?”

Chapter 23: I'm Little Blackie Online

The hackers were stunned for a moment.

Wasn't it? It was The Most Handsome In the Universe who told them.

Otherwise, they wouldn't have come out to mock QS.

A hacker slapped his head fiercely. "It seems that The Most Handsome In the Universe hasn't spoken since he came out. QS losing is all a guess."

In real life competitions, those who returned to Black Emperor first usually won. Those who lost would be a little late because they still had to attack the system.

However, Qin Sheng was different. She triggered the alarm, so The Most Handsome In the Universe could only leave.

Hearing this, the other hackers were also suspicious.

The Most Handsome In the Universe was too quiet. It was not compatible with his flamboyant personality.

Everyone ran to send private messages to Lu Ming.

Lu Ming finally typed a few words on the keyboard and sent it out. "I lost."

The forum was silent for a few seconds before it was instantly flooded with f*cking comments.

Lost, lost?!

The Most Handsome In the Universe, who was ranked eighth on the Black Emperor Rankings, had actually lost!

All the hackers in the Black Emperor Rankings were gathered, and even the big shots and rookies would appear on the forum. Even in the world, the position of the number eight hacker on the Black Emperor Rankings was ranked at the top.

And this QS had even defeated the number eight! Their strength was so terrifying.

The hackers in the forum were completely silent. They no longer had any doubts about QS's strength. Instead, they felt that their arrogance back then was justified. The big shots had the right to be arrogant.

In the world of hackers, the strong were respected.

For the strong, they looked at the problem with a layer of filter. This was not because they were disgusted by QS's behavior, but because they felt that they were domineering.

I'm Little Blackie, who was the first to be defeated by Qin Sheng and had his computer hacked, was finally online.

He was still sweating profusely.

During the period when he went offline, he had been turning on his computer. He only came in after an hour.

[I'm Little Blackie: Sorry, I went offline temporarily because I had something to do.]

He did not dare to say that he was hacked by QS during the battle. If they knew about it, it would be enough for them to laugh at him for half a year.

I'm Little Blackie thought that there would be a large circle of hackers questioning him, but he found that those people came over to comfort him instead.

I'm Little Blackie: "???" What happened? This wasn't the style of their website.

He asked his close friend.

His close friend only sympathetically reminded him, "Look at QS's battle results."

I'm Little Blackie hurriedly ran over to look at QS's battle results. After looking at his long string, he quieted down.

So... He, a rookie, was PKing with a big shot, and he still looked down on this big shot?

In the end, he was tricked by the big shot, and his screen was hacked?

How ignorant was he? How high was the sky, how thick was the ground?

Over here, Qin Sheng posted an advertisement on Black Emperor.

QS: Repair the computer system, remotely diagnose computer problems, build a protective system, and discuss the price privately. The price is definitely worthy of the service I provide. Welcome, QQ: XXXXXX. Don't disturb me if there's nothing else!]

Everyone from Black Emperor: "..."

So, QS caused such a huge ruckus at Black Emperor just to advertise for money?

With this thought in mind, someone asked, "Boss, are you really short of money?"

QS replied, "Yes, I'm very short. I'm very poor."

Everyone from Black Emperor was speechless once again.

How could someone with such technology be poor?

Someone seemed to have won more than 6 million at Black Emperor. Qin Sheng had won the match just now and received more than double the odds. Including the capital, it was a total of 6 million.

How could a person who had earned 6 million in just over an hour be poor?

I don't believe you!

Chapter 24: Looking For Help

After Qin Sheng finished her advertisement at Black Emperor, she went to a special forum to post an advertisement. The content was the same as in Black Emperor, except that it specifically stated that she had defeated the number eight, The Most Handsome In the Universe.

Some people who did not mind watching the show specially sent a screenshot to Lu Ming.

Lu Ming: "..."

He was so angry that he was about to explode. This was giving an inch and asking for a mile!

He didn't believe that no one could cure this son of a b*tch!

Lu Ming angrily called Fu Hanchuan. "Brother, your cute little brother has been bullied. Help me teach him a lesson."

Fu Hanchuan stood in front of the French window. His eyes narrowed slightly as he asked, "What happened?"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up. Was he going to agree?

Thus, he added on to what had just happened.

"Brother, you're ranked first in all Black Emperor. Once you make a move, that son of a b*tch will definitely be beaten down by you."

Fu Hanchuan turned on his computer and his gaze fell on QS, which was ranked eighth in all of Black Emperor.

In Black Emperor, defeating the hackers in front would give them the ranking. Therefore, she was now ranked eighth in QS, occupying The Most Handsome In the Universe's slot.

“QS.” Fu Hanchuan’s heartbeat suddenly accelerated. He thought of Qin Sheng.

QS was the first letter of Qin Sheng’s name.

1

His slender and good-looking hand was placed on the keyboard. His mind was filled with the image of Qin Sheng sitting in front of the computer. She was typing on the keyboard with a wanton smile on her lips.

After a long while, he sighed and stopped what he was doing.

“You solve it yourself,” Fu Hanchuan said and put the phone down.

Lu Ming’s anxious voice came from the other end of the phone, “Hello, Brother, Brother, no, didn’t you agree to it?”

Fu Hanchuan’s gaze lingered on the name QS for a long time before he moved his gaze away.

He browsed through the posts and replies from QS.

She could be described with two words.

Crazy, arrogant!

Fu Hanchuan smiled. His little girl was obedient and sensible. This QS couldn’t be her. He was thinking too much.

2

Fu Hanchuan exited the Black Emperor and picked up his phone. His gaze fell on ‘Sheng Sheng’ on the phone screen.

Was she asleep?

Just as he was thinking, a message was sent.

[Sheng Sheng: Brother Fu, are you free tomorrow?]

Fu Hanchuan thought about the full schedule for tomorrow and could reject all of them.

Without any hesitation, he tapped on the screen with his fingertip. “Yes, what does Sheng Sheng want me to do?”

As soon as he finished typing, Fu Hanchuan frowned slightly. He deleted the last sentence and sent a 'Yes'.

Qin Sheng's message was sent instantly. "Brother Fu, can you use your identity to help me get a bank card?"

Now that all the information about Qin Sheng was in Qin Hai's hands, especially with such a large amount of money, it was impossible for Qin Hai not to know that she would not expose herself before she disowned Qin Hai.

Fu Hanchuan saw Qin Sheng's information, and his eyes were full of smiles.

To apply for a bank card, did Sheng Sheng trust him that much?

"Okay."

After sending the information over, Fu Hanchuan thought for a while and typed a few words, "I'll be free tomorrow."

When Qin Sheng saw Fu Hanchuan's information, a warm current flowed through her heart.

He had never rejected her. She did not understand why she would distance herself from him because of Qin Churou in her previous life.

Fu Hanchuan's appearance alarmed the entire Black Emperor.

One had to know that C, the number one boss in the Black Emperor rankings, had appeared in the Black Emperor rankings countless times.

He was even more arrogant and arrogant than QS!

The moment he appeared, he provoked the top ten hackers. He tortured them so badly that they did not dare to touch their computers for nearly a month.

He even f*cking broke Black Emperor's system.

He had always maintained his first ranking for four years.

C's deeds had become a legend.

This time, seeing him online, they thought he was going to torture someone again. The melon seeds bench was already set up, but in the end, he just came in and walked around?

The hackers had been waiting for C to come to Black Emperor day and night. Later, they didn't want to see him anymore.. They had already been fed dog food.

Chapter 25: The Natural Phoenix

The next day was Saturday, so there was no need for classes. Qin Sheng tidied up and left the house.

Qin Hai was not at home, and Qin Churou stayed in the room. Only Lin Shuya was sitting in the living room, drinking tea.

When she saw Qin Sheng, Lin Shuya did not give her a good look. "Where are you going?"

Qin Sheng only replied with three words. "Something came up."

Lin Shuya didn't say anything else. She was just asking out of courtesy and didn't really care about Qin Sheng.

If Qin Sheng was an outstanding person, she would naturally treat her well. However, she couldn't help herself. Taking her out would only make her lose face.

2

Especially that family. She wouldn't let them know that she had this daughter. If they found out, they would only look down on her even more.

Lin Shuya had to tell them that her choice was not wrong.

When she thought about how her brother had already developed the company overseas and was far more powerful than Qin Hai, Lin Shuya did not feel good.

However, fortunately, a master said that her daughter was a blessed, born phoenix.

6

Rou'er would be able to win her face in the future.

5

Lin Shuya did not care about her, and Qin Sheng did not have to explain to her anymore. She left the house.

Outside the door, there was a car parked not far from the Qin family's villa. Fu Hanchuan did not want to attract the attention of the Qin family and cause trouble for Qin Sheng, so he did not park the car at the entrance of the Qin family's villa.

At this moment, Fu Hanchuan was sitting in the back seat of the car with a computer on his lap.

He had some things that he had to deal with.

However, his mind was obviously not on work. He looked out of the window from time to time.

The executive who was reporting the solution to Fu Hanchuan was confused. Was the president satisfied or not satisfied?

This was the first time he had seen the president lose focus while working. The president was a famous workaholic!

Cold sweat dripped down the executive's forehead. Fu Hanchuan suddenly nodded. "Follow up on your plan and contact Assistant Lin specifically."

This was the first time that Fu Hanchuan did not ask his subordinate to change his plan.

After giving his instructions, he turned off his computer and got out of the car.

Qin Sheng was wearing a white dress. Her slightly curly long hair hung on her shoulders. Fu Hanchuan was stunned for a moment before the corners of his lips curled up slightly.

Fu Hanchuan and Qin Sheng were five years apart in age. Fu Hanchuan did not like to smile and was very mature. In the eyes of others, he and Qin Sheng were many years apart. Fu Hanchuan also realized this and specially wore a white casual outfit.

The two of them looked like a couple.

"Brother Fu." Qin Sheng came to Fu Hanchuan and raised her head slightly. Fu Hanchuan was very tall and she needed to raise her head to see him clearly.

"Brother Fu, are you here early?"

Fu Hanchuan opened the car door and said elegantly, "I just arrived."

"Oh." Qin Sheng got into the car and Fu Hanchuan sat next to her.

"Drive," Fu Hanchuan ordered. Then, he turned to look at Qin Sheng. "Sheng Sheng, do you want to continue staying in the Qin family?"

Qin Sheng was slightly stunned, and a hint of bitterness flashed across her lips. In her previous life, he had asked her the same question, but she was a fool. She couldn't tell who was sincere and who was fake.

She tugged at the corner of her clothes. "I'll think of a way to leave the Qin family."

Fu Hanchuan frowned slightly. "Do you need my help?"

Qin Sheng rejected him. "It's not difficult. I'm dispensable in the Qin family."

As long as she touched Qin Hai's interests, he would give up on her as his daughter.

Fu Hanchuan's heart skipped a beat. Waves of dull pain came over him. Sheng Sheng's situation was really heartbreaking.

He rubbed Qin Sheng's hair. "Sheng Sheng, you still have my grandfather. We'll treat you very well."

"Okay.." A brilliant smile bloomed on Qin Sheng's face.

After settling their bank cards, the two of them went to the restaurant to eat.

The two of them sat by the wall. Outside was a pedestrian street, and there was only a glass window between them. They could clearly see the scene inside from the outside.

When Qin Churou passed by the restaurant, she caught a glimpse of Qin Sheng's figure.

She was slightly stunned. Why would Qin Sheng come here? Why would a country bumpkin come to such a high-end restaurant?

Then, her gaze fell on Fu Hanchuan's figure. She only saw a side profile, but it was perfect to the extreme. A tall nose bridge, sexy lips...

Qin Churou's heart raced. She had never seen such a good-looking man.

She almost could not control herself as she walked into the restaurant.

When she entered the restaurant, she happened to see Fu Hanchuan use his slender and good-looking hands to peel the prawns and place them in Qin Sheng's bowl.

Qin Sheng also shamelessly ate them.

Qin Churou gripped her hands tightly, her fingertips turning white. How did Qin Sheng meet such a man? She even asked him to peel the prawns for her!

Qin Churou was also used to acting. Very quickly, she suppressed her jealousy and slowly walked towards Qin Sheng.

“Sister.”

Qin Churou’s pretentious voice sounded. Qin Sheng put down his chopsticks and asked expressionlessly, “What’s the matter?”

“Sister, I wanted to look for you to go shopping together. I didn’t expect you to leave so early,” Qin Churou complained. She squeezed herself next to Qin Sheng and sat down, looking like a good sister.

This dining table was for two people. Qin Sheng was very thin, and her chair could barely fit two people.

However, it was very crowded. Fu Hanchuan frowned and finally gave Qin Churou a look.

According to the information, Qin Sheng and Qin Churou were carried by the wrong person when they were in the hospital. Qin Churou was the child of a rural couple, but she became the daughter of the Qin family and enjoyed the love of the Qin family.

Qin Sheng had been abused by that couple in the countryside. Ever since she was three years old, she had endless work to do.

If it were not for the pressure of compulsory education and the pressure of the village officials, the Feng couple would not have sent Qin Sheng to school.

They had not paid a single cent for Qin Sheng’s school fees. They knew the Feng couple’s character. The village officials collectively donated money to help Qin Sheng pay for her school fees. After Qin Sheng grew a little older, she went to find work on her own.

Once she finished junior high school, the Feng family did not allow Qin Sheng to go to school. It was only because Qin Sheng promised to give them a fixed amount of money every month that they continued to let Qin Sheng study.

After Qin Sheng was brought back, Qin Churou still stayed in the Qin family.

According to the information, Qin Churou’s talent was extraordinary. She had been recognized by the Master of Painting, Qi Wenshi, since she was young and became one of his students. In the third year of high school, she was firmly ranked in the top ten of the entire grade.

She was kind and filial. When she saw the stray cats and dogs on the road, she couldn’t help but feed them and send them to the veterinarian if they were injured.

Fu Hanchuan sneered and looked away.

She was just like Zhou Sihui.

1

Qin Churou noticed Fu Hanchuan's gaze on her. Her face was slightly red. She picked up a glass of juice in front of Qin Sheng and asked casually, "Sheng Sheng, is this your friend?"

Qin Sheng's lips curled into a mocking smile.

Did Qin Churou like Fu Hanchuan this time?

"What does it have to do with you whether he's my friend or not? My relationship with you doesn't seem to be that good. You really don't know your place." Qin Sheng didn't give Qin Churou any face. She disdained to maintain a superficial relationship with Qin Churou.

Qin Churou's face was a little stiff, but she quickly recovered. Her eyes were very red, and her voice sounded very wronged. "Sister, I know that I've monopolized Mom and Dad for more than ten years. You have a problem with me, but that's not something I can stop. If you're angry, I can move out.. Sister, as long as you're willing to forgive me, I'm willing to do anything."
