

Bigshot 291

Chapter 291: Top Immortal Cultivators Conference

The disciples looked at their Palace Master and fell silent. They had perplexed looks on their faces.

They did not expect their Palace Master to have a breakthrough with the title Milk-Drinking Maniac.

Was there such a good thing in the world?

Ye Liuyun pretended to be well in front of his disciples to maintain his reputation. He was in a good mood. He smiled and said, "Right, how's the thing I asked you to investigate going?"

Two disciples stood up and said, "Replying to the Palace Master. Regarding the Xuan Water Bracelet, we only found that it appeared in the hands of a Yuan Water Real Immortal three thousand six hundred years ago. However, a thousand years ago, the Yuan Water Real Immortal suffered from Five Decays and failed the Natural Tribulation, resulting in ultimate death. Therefore, the possession of the Xuan Water Bracelet is still unknown."

"A bunch of nonsense!" Ye Liuyun shook his head. "In other words, you didn't find anything!"

The two disciples exchanged a look and did not speak.

Ye Liuyun scoffed coldly, "If he suffered from Five Decays, one would normally choose to find a secluded place to wait for the arrival of death. Do you know where the Yuan Water Real Immortal was last seen?"

One of the disciples said, "Seems to be in the West. There are some traces of him appearing at the West Mountain Range Sky."

"West Mountain Range?" Ye Liuyun's eyes were filled with deep thoughts. He frowned and said, "There are countless mountains and those who're afraid of death or awaiting death like to stay there. Therefore, it's like finding a needle in a haystack."

He was frustrated.

This was the first task the expert had given him. This was his chance to make up for his previous mistake. The expert did not hold a grudge against him and helped him to breakthrough. If he did not complete this task, how could he not be ashamed?

Meanwhile, far away up in the sky, some clouds were moving. Swiftly after, a figure gradually appeared. It was a skinny elder dressed in grey.

The elder glanced around and saw how badly shaped the Liuyun Palace was. His eyes flashed with a burst of vague laughter. He made a gesture and smiled at Ye Liuyun. "Greetings to the Liuyun Palace Master."

Ye Liuyun remained calm. He asked, "Where are you from? What are you here for?"

The elder in grey said, "It's not convenient for me to mention the name of my master. However, he sent me here to pass on some words that the Liuyun Palace Master would be interested in."

"Speak!"

"My Master said that the world's changing. Many opportunities have been blocked and the future's vague. However, some opportunities might appear. The fact that your Liuyun Palace has turned to this shows that you've touched upon something."

The elder paused. He then continued, "There are signs of changes appearing. My Master's secretly inviting some Immortals who share the same view over to have a discussion. He wonders if the Liuyun Palace Master would be interested."

"Oh? What are you all planning to do?" Ye Liuyun's expression remained unchanged while he was scoffing coldly in his heart, 'A bunch of frogs under the well jumping around trying to mess things up! I can clearly see through it. If you want to mess with the peace of the expert, you have to go through me first!

'I'm the expert's most loyal spy!'

"You'll find out after the discussion." The elder smiled. "Is the Liuyun Palace Master saying yes?"

Ye Liuyun nodded, "Yes, I do!"

"Wonderful, I'll go and inform the others. The time isn't set yet, but the venue will be at the Tiandang Mountain. We'll let you know the exact time by then!"

The elder in grey smiled. "Don't mind me telling you this, but those attending this discussion are at least Golden Immortals. This is the so-called one in ten thousand years gathering, also known as the Top Immortal Cultivators Conference. You won't regret attending."

Ye Liuyun wore a look of surprise. "Really? Wonderful!"

...

At the Ordinary Realm.

Inside the four-part architecture.

The crowd followed Li Nianfan back to the front yard.

Dragin and Nanan could not wait to bring over their stools. They sat with their eyes sparkling.

"Everyone, please, have a seat," Li Nianfan said. Then, he continued, "Xiao Bai, bring over some soda water and some fruits. Then, bring this donkey to the kitchen to cook."

"Yes, my beloved master," Xiao Bai happily accepted the order while Ziye and Taoist Xinghe watched with terror.

This was also a super mega bigshot! And yet the expert simply instructed Xiao Bai? If it was not for the expert, they would never dare to speak to this kind of existence, let alone having it serve them!

Ziye could not help saying, "Thank you so much, Xiao Bai."

Li Nianfan waved it off and said nonchalantly, "Xiao Bai's just an ordinary home robot. It's good at chores and has no other use. It's not a big deal."

Xiao Bai nodded. "Exactly, I'm just an ordinary home robot. Please, don't mind me."

Ziye and the rest forced a stiff smile. Their hearts were beating wildly and they did not dare to speak.

This was a conversation between bigshots. They could not step in.

Soon, soda water and fruits were served. Xiao Bai said, "Master, what flavor would you like the donkey to be cooked in?"

Li Nianfan smiled. "Slightly spicy."

"Alrighty!" Xiao Bai accepted the order and went away to work diligently.

Li Nianfan looked at his yard. He could not help smiling.

Looking around, this yard had turned into an educational teahouse, except his students were a bunch of Immortals and Demons. What a sight!

His bootlicking business was doing better and better!

He coughed gently and said, "Continuing where we left off."

“Nezha rushed ahead to catch up. He stood on Ao Bing’s neck and lifted the Circle of Universe. He pointed it at the door to force out the essence of the Third Prince. It was a dragon, stretched out on the ground.

“Nezha said, ‘The essence of this tiny dragon is out. Whatever, I can use its tendons to make some dragon band and armor...’”

This simple sentence made everyone react, their organs shaking vigorously with chills all over their bodies.

A dragon died just like that? Its tendons were being torn out for use?

That was a real dragon! The Third Prince of the Dragon King! He was always known to be arrogant and powerful!

This...was beyond imagination!

“Argh!” Dragin cried out in shock, her tiny face had gone pale. “How did the Third Dragon Prince die?”

Li Nianfan shook his head and said, “They didn’t have a choice. The fate of the dragon family’s quite tragic.”

When a dragon was born, it might already be in a very powerful realm that was equivalent to many years of human cultivation. However, according to the myth, other than a few super-powerful dragons, the rest were not too impressive.

Dragin almost cried. She asked, “Why?”

“This would date back to an even earlier story.” Li Nianfan paused for a moment before he continued, “The most renowned story was of the Battle of the Dragon, Phoenix, and Unicorn. The battle was fierce, and due to that, they committed a crime against Heaven and were abandoned by Heaven. Their luck dropped vigorously, and following that, they played the role of sacrificed characters. They had been going downhill since.”

There was no solution to them being abandoned by Heaven.

One was the son of Luck, the other was abandoned by Heaven. Perhaps one went out and the son of Luck peed on him and was eventually drowned to death.

An even earlier story?

The Battle of the Dragon, Phoenix, and Unicorn?

The expert even knew who was abandoned by Heaven?

Everyone’s scalp turned numb. It was as if their blood had stopped circulating. They had chills all over.

How could he simply speak such terrifying words?

What period was the expert from? Dated back to an earlier time? Was he as old as the world?

The longer they spent with the expert, the smaller they felt about themselves. How they wished to drill a hole and bury themselves in it to become a small ant.

The Fire Phoenix and Dragon who were directly related to this were shocked.

The Dragon, Phoenix, and Unicorn seemed to be enemies with too many internal conflicts. This was embedded in the deep ends of their brains, but somehow, they remembered nothing.

In this instance, they suddenly understood why the elderly Dragon King was hiding away beneath the pond. The outside world was too dangerous!

“Alright, alright. It’s just a story, let’s stop there. I’ll continue.” Li Nianfan waved it off and continued with the previous story.

The crowd nodded, not daring to ask nor speak.

Following that, the Dragon King was furious and he wanted to drown the town. Nazhe was forced to cut off the flesh of his father and mother as punishment. However, Tayi used lotus roots to rebuild the bodies...

The story was unfolding and the crowd listened as if they were intoxicated. Their inner selves were drunk from this majestic storyline.

As major figures started to appear one after another, the story started to unfold after all the setups. From a third person’s perspective, one could clearly feel how dark the fights were.

Up until the point where Jiang Ziya used the flame to burn the Lute Demon, Li Nianfan stopped. He smiled and said, “Alright, we’ll stop here for now. Stay tuned for the next session.”

The crowd did not speak. They did not even pester him for more as they needed time to digest.

Many characters of the ‘Investiture of Gods’ had treasures in hand, refreshing their world views. Furthermore, whether it was humans, demons, gods, or even dragons, their own lives seemed almost worthless if they were in this story. They could die anytime.

They all felt chills all over.

The world of a bigshot was indeed very dangerous.

Meanwhile, a waft of fragrance appeared and everyone’s hearts skipped a beat.

They looked in the direction of the fragrance and saw that rows of golden-burnt donkey meat were ready.

The meat was wrapped in flatbread. Due to being deep-fried, the outer layer was unequally burnt and golden-yellow. Some were darker than the others. However, this made the dish seem even more tempting.

The flatbread was not closed. There was an opening in the middle.

Inside, it was filled with red donkey meat which was sizzling from the heat, giving out smoke which was the source of the fragrance.

It smelled good, it smelled so good!

Gulp!

The crowd gulped in unison. All the impure thoughts in their minds had been tossed away. They only had one thought left, 'Eat it!'

Dragin and Nanan had already ran over. They could not help grabbing one each. They were warm to the touch.

They opened their mouths and bit on the middle part that had the most meat.

Munch!

The crispy outer layer made a crisp sound. It was the perfect texture. One could bask in the fragrance of the flatbread while enjoying its texture.

Swiftly after, the sensations of the donkey meat tickled the taste buds as if a volcano was exploding, filling up the entire mouth with some juiciness.

The donkey meat was different from other meat. It had one extra feature—it smelled good!

It smelled so good!

“Hmm...so yummy!” Dragin and Nanan’s faces flushed red. They were munching loudly as if they had forgotten about everything. They were feeling unprecedented bliss.

Even Blackie who was sleepy earlier suddenly jumped up and started barking.

Woof, woof, woof!

Li Nianfan asked Xiao Bai to distribute the meat to each of them. “Come, everyone, enjoy.”

The deep-fried flatbread was not soft and snow-white like the steamed buns. The dough gave off a nice fragrance once fried in oil.

This was the first time the crowd had seen something like this. They could not help feeling amazed.

Apart from the benefits of the food, the fragrance of it alone was able to make the Immortals fight for it.

Bigshot was indeed a bigshot. The food the expert ate was indeed different from the ordinary people.

Perhaps even the Immortals had no right to taste such good food.

Perhaps only those bigshots from long ago had the right to eat these.

Chapter 292: Five Decays, Spy In Action.

Time went by, day after day.

Li Nianfan was living comfortably. This donkey was big. There was enough meat to last them a few days.

Daji was serving him well, too. He would go to the backyard to take care of the plants from time to time. After using the growth serum to water the plants, the gourd's vines were starting to grow. Since he did not build a shelf, the vines grew along with the saplings not far away. They looked at peace.

The sapling was getting stronger, too. It was green like jade, glowing with green light.

"What a pity that there isn't much entertainment in this Immortal Realm. If not, life would be perfect now!" Li Nianfan could not help thinking. "Now that I have a thousand years of lifespan with prolonged youth, I can't get too bored. I need to kill some time. Let's see if I can come up with some entertaining activities."

...

At the Tiandang Mountain.

It was located close to the West in the Immortal Land.

It was called a mountain, but it was not exactly a mountain. Perhaps it used to be a mountain in the past.

It was a massive flat land at the heart of the mountain with other mountains surrounding it. Rumor had it that this land used to be a gigantic tall mountain that was wiped away by force during one Natural Tribulation. Hence, it was now flat.

Therefore, this was named the Tiandang Mountain.

Today, the empty mountain range was livelier than usual. The traveling clouds in the sky came one after another.

If there was an Immortal in here, he would be so shocked. This was because the Immortals driving the clouds were all very powerful. All of them were exuding powerful Qi and they were all extraordinary.

Other than many of the old demons who never simply went out, many Sect Masters were attending in person. They were all glowing with power.

As they were flying, they would slow down their clouds to travel together if they saw someone they knew, conversing with smiles on their faces.

Meanwhile, two elders met.

They were different from the ordinary Immortals. These two elders' hair were fluffy, their skins wrinkled. Their eyes were not glowing. Instead, they looked rather dull.

If one looked at their appearance, they did not look like Immortals. Instead, they looked rather lowly maintained.

They did not fake this look. Although Immortals liked to pretend to look worn out, their skin would still appear soft like a baby's when they were attending a conference with other Immortals present.

Thus, these two Immortals were really old. Whenever this happened, it meant that the lifespan of the Immortals had basically come to an end.

"Brother Lin, I can't believe you're still alive!"

"Daoist Ma? Ha-ha-ha, you're still alive?"

The two of them exchange a look, their eyes filled with awe. "The last time we met was thirty thousand years ago. I remember back then I was still a small cultivator and you were a small Daoist! Ha-ha-ha!"

Daoist Ma nodded, "Yeah, back then we wanted to become Immortals. In the blink of an eye, tens of thousands of years have passed."

"It's not easy for us to stay alive this long," Longevous Lin sighed. He then asked in a low voice, "What did you suffer from the Five Decays?"

Daoist Ma nodded bitterly, "In a hundred years, I'll have my third decay. I'll be a dead man by then."

Longevous Lin said joyfully, "I still have a hundred and fifty years! I'll live fifty years more than you, ha-ha-ha..."

Daoist Ma said unwillingly, "Do you remember the rumors of the Heavenly Temple back then? If only there's a Flat Peach in the world!"

"What era are we in now? That was just a rumor back then, it's almost impossible now." Longevous Lin shook his head bitterly. He said, "Back then, we fantasized about eating a flat peach to immortalize. Now, we fantasize about eating flat peaches to prolong our lives. Ha-ha-ha, what a world!"

"I was going to wait for my death in peace. However, after hearing about the massive changes in the world with massive opportunities, I decided to come to try my luck. Isn't this why you're here, too?"

"Of course. Do you know what happened?"

Daoist Ma shook his head. "I haven't followed the news of the outside world for a long time, let alone the ordinary realm. However, judging by the situation, this isn't a small matter."

The two of them travelled together, talking about the past.

Actually, the two of them were not as close back then. They probably only spent a few days together. After meeting each other after thousands of years, they suddenly became close friends.

Cluck! Cluck! Cluck!

Meanwhile, a unicorn carriage galloped toward them. Three unicorns were galloping powerfully, each unicorn stepping on a cloud, exuding a powerful temperament.

Behind the unicorns, a grand carriage was being pulled, exuding glory all over. The lights were shining straight ahead as if the carriage lights were brightening up their surroundings.

The surrounding clouds were forced to make way. Wild wind was blowing.

The carriage's high-profile appearance was like a supercar racing down an ordinary road while making a loud noise. The surrounding Immortals frowned and wore looks of displeasure.

Daoist Ma and Longevous Lin's conversation abruptly stopped as well. Before they could react, the carriage had already shot past them like the wind.

Daoist Ma's face changed. "This is unacceptable! Everyone here's a well-reputable Immortal. Who doesn't have treasures? Is there a need to show off?"

As he spoke, he lifted his hand and pulled out a sword to secure it below his feet. The sword was glowing brightly. However, that was not it. He made another gesture and pulled out six treasures in one go. The three swords were placed below his feet and the other three swords around his body. There were six different glows around him, making him look very cool.

"Well said. Everyone has lived past countless ages, we should've seen it all. It's such a childish act to show off!" Longevous Lin nodded in agreement.

With that, he gently patted on the small sparrow perched on his shoulder. In the next moment, the sparrow stretched out its wings and transformed into a gigantic bird. The bird howled and allowed him to ride on it.

"Childish!"

Not far away, a woman shook her head and felt triggered by them. She brushed the jade on her neck and the jade was removed. It then turned into a gigantic jade, glowing brightly. Instantly, she turned into more of an Immortal than she already was.

The Tiandang Mountain instantly became lively. There were all kinds of glows and special effects. Things were all over the place.

The mountain was very spacious. The crowd walked from all directions to the heart where they saw a majestically glowing main hall. The hall was glowing with bright lights, golden glass, and Immortal Clouds circulating it. It looked like the most ideal architecture in the most ideal land.

Above the main hall, there was a huge banner hanging that said, 'Immortal Land's Top Immortals Urgent Conference'.

Phew...

The three unicorns did not stop until they reached the front door of the main hall. The door of the carriage opened automatically. Ye Liuyun gradually exited the carriage. He looked authoritative and powerful

"I wondered who was being so high-profile. Turns out it was the Palace Master of the Liuyun Palace. Perhaps this was how he got away from being chased by the Five-Color-Sacred Cow?"

This was followed by gentle laughter. A beautifully and majestically dressed middle-aged Immortal stepping on seven-colored mushroom clouds walked over, glowing in lights. "Isn't it better to stay humble?"

Someone said, "Haven't seen you in so many years. Brother Liuyun's grandpa is indeed admirable. No wonder you got the title of the Milk-Drinking Maniac."

"So he's the Milk-Drinking Maniac! Good to finally meet him!"

Since everyone here was in the Golden Immortal realm, they could speak their minds freely.

“Ha-ha, indeed. I’m the Milk-Drinking Maniac. It’s me!” Ye Liuyun did not seem to mind and admitted it easily. Not only that, he appeared rather proud of it.

To him, he was serving the expert by admitting it.

The expert was the one who liked drinking the milk of the Five-Color-Sacred Cow. Of course, he would never expose the expert. So what if he admitted to being the Milk-Drinking Maniac? What an honor!

The middle-aged Immortal sighed, “Brother Liuyun’s skin is indeed thicker than ours.”

“Ha-ha, what right do you have to call me your Brother?” Ye Liuyun smiled arrogantly. His Qi around him condensed, exuding an oppressive power. Instantly, the air became tense.

Everyone’s heart jumped vigorously. The treasures around them had suddenly turned dull.

They all looked at Ye Liuyun in shock as their eyes filled with disbelief.

What was that?

Was he not chased after by the Five-Color-Sacred Cow not long ago? He had a breakthrough?

“Ha-ha-ha, congratulations to Palace Master Liuyun, congratulations!” A burst of laughter came from within the main hall. Following that, an elder in white robes walked out. He seemed friendly, peaceful, and very enthusiastic.

“With the lack of Immortal Qi in the Immortal Land, Palace Master Liuyun was able to break through despite the current situation. This is indeed admirable. This is indeed legendary!” The elder made a gesture at Ye Liuyun. “Please, allow me. Since we’re all here, let’s be friends.”

They all walked into the main hall.

There was tea prepared for all of them, along with some Immortal Fruits on the table. The setting was very extraordinary.

If this was in the past, Ye Liuyun might still be impressed. Now, however, he looked down on all of these. The Immortal Fruits here were nowhere close to even one glass of water at the expert's. How was he not embarrassed to bring them out to entertain his guests? Ha-ha, poor dude!

The expert would entertain his guests with at least an orange!

The setting was simple. The Taiyi Golden Immortals sat around one table, while the Golden Immortals sat around another table.

"Palace Master Liuyun, please, take a seat," the elder in white robes said politely. He continued, "Including you, there are five Taiyi Golden Immortals visiting!"

"Five?" Ye Liuyun's brows furrowed. He looked shocked.

There were too few Taiyi Golden Immortals in the Immortal Land. Without an accident, he was the only one who managed to break through in 10,000 years. One could say that Taiyi Golden Immortals were indeed very ancient and rare. They were perhaps figures that survived since the ancient times.

Normally, it would be impossible to meet even one of them.

In a low and mysterious voice, the elder in white said, "Two of them are Immortals of the Sacred Land!"

Ye Liuyun was even more shocked. He remained calm on the surface while his heart sank.

It seemed that it was quite hard to be a spy here. He had to be more cautious.

Gradually, more and more Immortals came. It was rare to come across a Golden Immortal. Yet, there were twelve gathered here today, and the number was going up.

However, Ye Liuyun noticed that many of these Golden Immortals had aged. They were entering the Five Decays so they were not to be concerned about.

Meanwhile, two figures appeared outside the door. They arrived one after another.

They were Xiao Chengfeng and Urchin.

They were shocked. They exchanged a look and pretended as if they did not know each other as they walked inside the main hall.

The two were delighted. It seemed that they were not spying alone. They were not alone!

After a moment, an elder in grey came.

Half his hair had turned white. He had a goatee beard and was exuding a rather weak temperament. He did not show any Immortal feature. However, this man was a Taiyi Golden Immortal.

Swiftly after, two more figures came, riding on clouds. They were two women.

The two women exchanged a look. They nodded at one another and sat before the table.

By then, there were five Taiyi Golden Immortals and 14 Golden Immortals. They had all arrived.

With such a massive gathering, it was indeed something that had not happened in 10,000 years.

The elder in white who organized this gathering stood up and spoke.

“Everyone, I’m Qing Yunzi. Please, allow me to introduce our guests with formality.”

Qing Yinzi said, "Immortal Ziye of the Sacred Land Ice Palace, Immortal Linzhu of the Sacred Land Biyun Temple, Immortal Ye Liuyun of the Liuyun Palace, and Immortal Xuanyuan."

Five Taiyi Golden Immortals, two of which were from the Sacred Land. This was a very rare occasion.

The Sacred Land had always been mysterious. They had existed for a very long time but remained inactive and out of sight. This must be a serious matter if they invited the Immortals of the Sacred Land over.

"Alright, cut the nonsense. Just tell us why you invited us over," Immortal Xuanyuan said, his voice hoarse.

"Alright, I'll go straight to the point." Qing Yunzi smiled. He said, "The Immortal Qi in the Immortal Land has been decreasing and cultivation has been getting harder. These are well-known facts. However, there are now drastic changes happening in the world. You all must've felt the Immortal Qi increasing. Do you know why?"

He paused. Then, he answered his own question, "If you aren't aware of this yet, let me tell you. A few big things have happened in the ordinary realm. The road between the Immortal Realm and Land has been reopened, a Human Sovereign was chosen, and not long after, I even felt the resurfacing of the underworld! There must be some shocking secrets being hidden from us!"

Ziye and Ye Liuyun listened without changing their expressions.

Immortal Linzhu said, "I'm aware of what you mentioned, but it's impossible to find the source of it."

"Exactly, it's being covered by Heaven, blurred out." Qing Yunzi smiled and said, "However, what I can be sure of is that this is all coming from the Ordinary Realm! After doing some research, I vaguely know the intention behind these changes."

A Golden Immortal could not help asking, "What does this have anything to do with us?"

“Whenever the world changes, there’ll be unimaginable opportunities. Other than becoming Daluo Golden Immortals, nobody can escape the fate of death!” The elder in white looked at them and said, “Don’t any of you want to become one?”

Instantly, many of the Golden Immortals’ breathing became rapid.

Especially half of them who had entered the stages of Five Decays. Instantly, their eyes grew red.

Normally, a Tian Immortal would have a lifespan of 30,000 years, a Real Immortal would have 40,000 years, a Golden Immortal would have 50,000 years, while Taiyi Golden Immortals would have 60,000 years. Once they reached the end of their lifespans, they would suffer from the Five Decays.

The Five Decays happened once every 500 years. The first decay had an 80 percent chance of survival, the second decay had a 60 percent chance, and all the way to the fifth decay would be death!

Only a Daluo Golden Immortal could get out of this cycle, living in Heaven forever.

“We’ve been fighting to live longer against Heaven. It’s not easy for us to come to this stage. We have to take a leap of faith now that an opportunity’s right in front of us!” The words of the elder in white pricked the crowd like a needle.

He continued, “I don’t mind telling you that the so-called Flat Peaches and Ginseng Fruits from the ancient times do exist. Everyone can prolong their lives from the Five Decays for as much as a thousand years!

“I’ve asked someone to bring this ‘Journey to the West’ book from the ordinary realm. This is the treasure among treasures. I’ve even made some copies for each of you here. This book clearly recorded a great secret from the ancient times. Everyone, please, have a read right away.”

Chapter 293: You’re Using This To...Bribe Me?

“Sigh, although the Golden Immortals get a lifespan of fifty thousand years, when we’re battling or tempering our weapons, we need to spit out blood which reduces our lifespan. It’s very rare to live past forty thousand years.”

Everyone sighed. They then went ahead to collect their books.

The book recommended by the Taiyi Golden Immortal must be extraordinary!

They looked serious. Each of them had a copy in hand. They all started reading.

Since they were all Immortals, their speed of reading was rapid. It did not take long before they finished reading the book. They all looked shocked. They had the same reaction.

Their lips parted like a statue.

Gradually, some Immortals started to snap out of shock. The look of disbelief was still on their faces.

“This book contains the Basics of Wisdom!”

“So shocking, so hard to believe, so terrifying!”

“Secrets of the ancient times, secrets of the ancient times! How terrifying!”

“This was definitely written by a bigshot from the ancient times. So, Flat Peaches really do exist in the world? Where’s the heavenly Temple? I want to work there!”

An aging elder could not help standing up. He said to Qing Yunzi, “Senior Qing Yunzi, is this book really from the ordinary realm? Perhaps the person who wrote the book resides in the ordinary realm?!”

“Indeed!” Qing Yunzi nodded. “Furthermore, the series of changes happening in the ordinary realm are the doings of this person!”

“This...this...this...”

Everyone widened their eyes. "A bigshot! A bigshot! What are his intentions?"

"This is the reason why I gathered you all here!" Qing Yunzi said with a solemn face. He said slowly, "According to what I see, based on all of the evidence, this person seems to be plotting to bring back the glory of the ancient times. However, I'm not sure how he's going to do it."

"Bring back the glory of the ancient times? Impossible!" Instantly, a Golden Immortal's face changed. He was shaking his head vigorously.

It was the same middle-aged Immortal who mocked Ye Liuyun earlier.

His reaction instantly attracted everyone's attention.

Ye Liuyun's eyes glared at him, sending electric currents. He scoffed, "Cao Songzi, why do you say so?!"

Ziye's eyes narrowed with a sparkle. She was excited.

The expert was clearly trying to bring back the glory of the ancient times. However, even she did not know much about it. Yet, the others claim to know something?

She could help the expert do more things now.

Cao Songzi's heart sank. He said hastily, "I just find it hard to believe."

Ye Liuyun's Qi had gathered around him. He scoffed, "Spill!"

"I only know a little," Cao Songzi sighed as he gave in. "By chance, I gained the inheritance of an ancient Immortal. This is why I got to where I am today. Back then, the ancient Immortal had reached the late-Taiyi Golden Immortal realm. He was one step away from becoming a Daluo. However, he was also entering the fifth decay, so death was expected."

Ziye pestered, her expression remaining unchanged, “Then?”

“This ancient Immortal knew that based on how the world was, there was no hope in becoming a Daluo Immortal. He died unwillingly!” Cao Songzi halted. Then, he continued, “Since ancient times, Immortal Qi has been decreasing, making it impossible for an ordinary man to become an Immortal. Meanwhile, it’s also impossible for an Immortal to become a Daluo Immortal. Every Immortal would suffer from the Five Decays, resulting in ultimate death. Think about it. If this goes on, what would happen?”

Everyone frowned while their scalps were getting numb.

The road between the Immortal Realm and Land was broken, and the road of longevity for the Immortals was destroyed. Cultivation was also getting harder. They would enter the Age of Decadence!

They thought about the glory in ‘Journey to the West’. Then, they thought about the current situation. They all felt hopeless chills all over them.

Qing Yunzi frowned. He was unsure as he said, “If so, why would this man do such a thing? Is he trying to go against Fate?”

“The likelihood of this is as low as zero!” Xuanyuan shook his head and straightened his face. He analyzed, “Think about it. If you’ve cultivated up to this stage and could live forever, would you suddenly go against Fate? Isn’t it better to stay alive?”

Someone raised his hand and said, “What if this person genuinely cares for the world?”

“This likelihood is zero!” Xuanyuan said with a confident smile. “To this so-called bigshot, everyone’s an ant. What does it have anything to do with him whether or not we could live forever?”

Everyone nodded. “You have a point!”

Even Ziyue started to doubt deeply. ‘Is the expert really trying to go against Fate? Unless... I got it wrong?’

Xuanyuan got everyone’s attention. He smiled confidently as he analyzed, “Therefore, I think there are three possibilities!

“Firstly, this man’s an expert. He wants to rebuild the ancient times and to go against Fate. It’s high risk with zero benefits. It’s obviously impossible, so we’ll pass on this.

“Secondly, the world’s suddenly changing for no reason. Everything’s done by Heaven, and everything we’ve speculated is nothing but coincidence. This likelihood is slightly higher, but not that high!

“Thirdly, this man’s a chess piece of a bigshot! The actual expert’s using him to set up the world. Of course, it isn’t to rebuild the ancient times. The intention is quite big, and it’s likely to change. This likelihood’s higher!

“Fourthly, this man’s a Taiyi Golden Immortal who’s unable to become a Daluo. Coincidentally, he inherited some powerful ancient treasures. Facing the threat of Five Decays, he has no choice but to go against Fate to seek longevity! I think this is the most likely!”

Clap! Clap! Clap!

Qing Yunzi took the lead and started clapping his hands. With that, applause filled the air.

Wonderful! Wonderful!

So reasonable, he had his points!

Ziyue and the others applauded him as well. If they did not know the expert in person, they would have believed him.

Immortal Xuanyuan was proud of himself. He stood up and halted the applause. “Anyway, it’s either the third or the fourth possibility. No matter which, they contain huge opportunities, enough for one to live forever! Tempting?”

“Tempting, of course, it’s tempting!” Qing Yunzi nodded vigorously. “I didn’t expect Immortal Xuanyuan to have so much understanding. It’s so embarrassing for me to be the one hosting this gathering. I’m so ashamed!”

“Ha-ha-ha, actually I’ve been keeping a close eye on this matter and I did my research. In fact, I even went ahead to investigate it.” Immortal Xuanyuan laughed. “I came here today to see if everyone would be interested in joining forces to find out more about this. After all, this is related to longevity, so we have to plan it well.”

“Of course, of course.” Everyone nodded, especially those who were about to face their Five Decays. They would do anything to prolong their lives.

By the side, Ye Liuyun’s eyes narrowed. He heard the keyword. He stared at Immortal Xuanyuan and asked with a serious tone, “How did you investigate?”

Immortal Xuanyuan halted for a second. “What does this have anything to do with you?”

“Tell us, how did you investigate?” Ye Liuyun’s eyes narrowed. He was exuding Qi all over as he scoffed coldly, “Did you use the Xuan Water Bracelet?”

Immortal Xuanyuan frowned. “How did you know?”

Ye Liuyun’s eyes sparkled. He slammed his fist on the table and pointed his finger at him. He growled, “Bastard! It’s you!”

Immortal Xuanyuan’s face changed as he said with a deep voice, “You’re with that person?”

“Ha-ha-ha! Broken shoes are found everywhere, and I found you so effortlessly! I finally found you!” Ye Liuyun was very excited. He laughed as a red rounded cup appeared in his hand. “Bastard, check out this treasure!”

Instantly, flames rose in the air, rushing toward Immortal Xuayuan.

Immortal Xuanyuan smiled. He waved his hand. Instantly, wind circulated him, blocking the flames. He scoffed with a smile, “I should be the one saying so. Who would’ve expected that you’d have the courage to jump out at this time! Brothers, there’s an accomplice here! Everyone, let’s take him down to get more information!”

Seeing that everyone was about to get in action, Ziye hastily stood up. “Wait!”

She looked at Ye Liuyun. Her brows slightly furrowed as she tested, “Brother, orange?”

Ye Liuyun’s eyes sparkled. “Milk! Ha-ha-ha! We’re together!”

Ziye smiled. She prepared her Qi as she asked, “What is it? Does the expert want to attack this person?”

“Precisely. This man used the Xuan Water Bracelet to attack the expert. He even harmed a few innocent ones. We can’t let him go!” Ye Liuyun nodded.

Xiao Chengfeng and Urchin could not stay seated any longer. Instantly, they stood up. “If so, count us in!”

Instantly, the four of them surrounded Immortal Xuanyuan.

This sudden change was shocking to many of them.

What happened? This suddenly changed? Were they exchanging secret words?

Even Immortal Xuanyuan was shocked. He then smiled from anger, "Well done. We don't have that many Immortals here, and yet, who would've thought that four spies got mixed in. The setup of this man's quite high!"

Qing Yunzi's face stiffened. He said, "Everyone, this is my territory. This isn't good."

Ye Liuyun scoffed, "This is our problem. It's best if you don't step in."

"Immortal Xuanyuan's my guest. I can't just watch him get bullied. Furthermore, I'm the host, it's my duty to get involved!" Qing Yunzi's face straightened. He then said in a low voice, "Also, you've got it wrong. We have more people than you!"

He said to Immortal Linzhu, "These people must know something, they have intentions! Immortal Linzhu, let's join forces and take them down!"

By the side, Immortal Linzhu was unable to react. She looked at Ziye doubtfully, "Sister Ziye, what's the matter?"

Ziye lifted her hand and took out a piece of donkey meat. She gave it to Zhulin unwillingly and said, "I don't have time to explain. Eat this and help us!"

Everyone looked at her. They could not believe their eyes.

Was that a...steamed bun?

Immortal Ziye actually brought a steamed bun out with her?

Immortal Linzhu held the donkey meat blankly. She said, dumbfounded, "You're using this to...bribe me?"

Chapter 294: Helping The Expert To Set A Small Goal

"Ha-ha!"

Someone could not hold it in any longer and burst out laughing. In fact, many of them started laughing.

“Who’d have thought that Immortal Ziyue of the Sacred Land could be so stingy! How’s she not embarrassed bringing out a steamed bun like that?”

Immortal Xuanyuan instantly felt proud of himself. He said, “Immortal Linzhu, this isn’t a small matter. It has big consequences. Joining forces with us is the best choice. In fact, I’m willing to reward you with a Deluxe Spiritual Treasure!”

“This isn’t the place for you to speak! Shut up!” Xiao Chengfeng’s robes flew in the air, exuding a sharp temperament. “Take my sword, come to me, sword!”

Dong!

A longsword suddenly shot out from his back, exuding a glow. The sword Qi gathered at one point, attacking Immortal Xuanyuan.

Smash!

The Sword Qi was like a rainbow, forming an endless wind. The wild wind blew in all directions, clearing the surroundings. The chairs and tables were turned into powder while the Immortal Fruits on the table were all smashed!

Twelve of the Golden Immortals were still rather perplexed. They could not help backing away. “What a waste! What a waste!”

Especially Qing Yunzi. He was in pain and his eyes were red. He scoffed loudly, “If you want to fight, go out and fight! Don’t fight in here!”

He was a man of occasion. For this conference, he had made many preparations. He brought out all of his best treasures and redecorated the main hall with much effort. How could they destroy it?

“Alright! We can’t fight in here, let’s go out!” Xiao Chengfeng exuded an even more powerful Qi. His entire being was sharp like his sword. He pointed at the sky and shot up. “This main hall seems to be a piece of Spiritual Treasure. However, the roof is unable to stop me! Watch me break through it!”

Vroom!

The sword rushed up to the sky, instantly piercing through the main hall’s roof!

The world was instantly illuminated.

Qin Yunzi was furious. His Spiritual Treasure was destroyed. His eyes had turned blood red. “Oh, mother! You...you idiot!”

Ye Liuyun flew up with flames circling his figure. He took out a crown from his chest and put it on his head. Instantly, his Immortal Qi increased powerfully. He scoffed, “Check out this treasure!”

As he waved, the flames turned into a flaming dragon. It rushed up into the sky, blocking the sky and light. It was rushing toward Immortal Xuanyuan.

Ye Liuyun was using the Law of Flame to become a Taiyi Golden Immortal. This flame was nothing like an ordinary flame. Its temperature was so shockingly high. Furthermore, since he was taught by the expert, this flame had a specialty. With the presence of both Yin and Yang, the flame could become stronger when touched by water!

There were countless Laws on the road of cultivation that combined and intertwined in many ways, whether it was the real flames of the Phoenix, the flames of the Golden Crow, or the Samadhi Real Fire. Although they were all flames, they had different Laws of Flame. Some flames even consisted of a few types of laws with boundless power.

To become a Taiyi Golden Immortal, one needed to master a few different Laws to improve.

Urchin did not want to lose out. “I’m coming, let’s end this quickly for the sake of the expert!”

Instantly, the four of them joined forces with effects all over the place. The swords slashed rapidly, shaking up the surrounding space. It was very terrifying.

Immortal Xuanyuan's wrist flipped and an azure blue handkerchief flew out from his hand and slowly unfolded in front of him. It formed a Xuan Water Shield with shocking protection.

Meanwhile, his eyes flashed. He pointed a finger at Xiao Chengfeng who was trying to act cool.

One had to admit that Xiao Chengfeng was so good at making an enemy, his annoyance made it hard to resist killing him!

Meanwhile, Xiao Chengfeng was dancing with his longsword in the air. His Sword Qi was as powerful as the flowing river. He seemed unstoppable as he slashed down at Immortal Xuanyuan from above!

He was shouting triggering words, "My sword will cut you up! Are you ready to die?"

The flashing sword landed on the Xuan Water Shield. Instantly, ripples were made. A dent was made as water splashed everywhere.

"You were able to block my sword. This tortoise shell's hard enough!"

Slash!

Suddenly, a bright light flashed like a golden long snake, darting a few times quicker than lightning. Within the blink of an eye, it appeared behind Xiao Chengfeng.

Quick! Too quick!

The golden light was extremely sharp and terrifying. It made Xiao Chengfeng's hair stand up all at once. He even had to swallow back the words he was shouting.

Just as the light was about to stab him, another light flashed like a long river across the sky, colliding into the golden light.

Ding!

The two lights touched and split away.

They were a golden pair of scissors and a blue hairpin.

The hairpin flew back to Ziyue and automatically went back into her hair while the golden pair of scissors flew back to Immortal Xuanyuan and circled him.

“Good kid! You almost killed me!” Xiao Chengfeng snapped back to reality. Instantly he had cold sweat all over as his face sank. He attacked more vigorously and spat out more triggering words, “You didn’t kill me, you just made me stronger! Come, face my wind!”

Facing the group attack was already challenging for Immortal Xuanyuan. When he was finally able to throw an attack, it was nothing. He growled furiously, “Qing Yunzi, what are you waiting for? Why aren’t you helping me!?”

Qing Yunzi walked forward. He said with a solemn face, “Everyone, since Immortal Xuanyuan came to my place, he’s my guest. If you are all attacking him, you’re forcing me to get involved.”

Meanwhile, he gathered the rest. “Everyone, I hope we can join forces. We’ll have the upper hand!”

Among the twelve of them, eight of them were suffering from the Five Decays. They did not have much time left. They could fight with Laws but not directly in battle. However, there were also four strong, combative Golden Immortals. Their eyes sparkled.

Cao Songzi was the first to stand up. “I didn’t like Ye Liuyun anyway. Everyone, let’s get in!”

Instantly, the four of them flew up. They started fighting with Xiao Chengfeng and Urchin.

Everything happened within a very short time. Meanwhile, Immortal Linzhu was still sizing up the donkey meat. She leaned forward to sniff at it before putting it into her mouth.

“Wow!”

Her mouth did not match her image. Her mouth was not as big. With just one bite, one-third of the donkey meat was bitten off.

“De-li-cious!”

Her little cherry mouth was tainted with some oil, causing it to sparkle. Her mouth gulping as she chewed it, while her eyes were glowing brighter.

“So, so, so yummy!”

She looked quiet, cold, and elegant. However, she had transformed into a food-lover by then. Even her eyes almost turned into heart shapes.

It merely took her three bites to finish the donkey meat. She was half chewing and half gulping. It was indeed a shocking sight to watch.

“Sister Ziye, you know me best. Where did you get such good stuff?” She was clearly unsatisfied. She stuck out her tiny tongue to lick her red lips. She looked at Ziye with anticipation, “Do you have more? Do you? I want more!”

Damn, this was not right!

Qing Yunzi was about to get in action when suddenly, he halted as his scalp itched. This did not seem right!

Apart from the spies, they even managed to bribe another person?

“You help us first, then I’ll tell you more!” Immortal Ziye had already flown up, the hairpin in her hair glowing as it flew out like lightning. It lit up in the air while stabbing Immortal Xuanyuan’s Xuan Water Shield!

Stab!

Within two breaths, there was a slight ringing sound as the hairpin pierced through the shield!

Ye Liuyun’s attack followed. The wild flames were rising and transforming into a gigantic flaming palm. It was slamming toward Immortal Xuanyuan.

“Qing Yunzi!”

Immortal Xuanyuan’s face was flushing red, his organs almost breaking. He had never felt so powerless in life. “Are you going to stand there and continue watching the show?”

“Sorry! I’ll stop now!” As if waking up from a dream, Qing Yunzi hastily closed his eyes and turned away.

“How dare you!” Immortal Xuanyuan spat out blood.

Spurt!

His blood flew in the air.

The azure blue handkerchief gave out an eye-burning glow. The Xuan Water Shield reappeared while the golden scissors circled him like a viper ready to attack any time. With that, he turned and ran away.

“Where’re you running to? Check out my One Leaf Blindfold!” A jade-green leaf appeared in Linzhu’s hands. It was glowing gloriously just like jade.

She lifted her hands. Instantly, the leaf vanished in thin air. When it resurfaced, it had transformed into a gigantic green leaf, enveloping the escaping Immortal Xuanyuan.

Ziye and Ye Liuyun instantly ran after him. They continued to attack him!

All kinds of glorious combating effects exploded in the air.

Cao Songzi saw that it was not going well. Instantly, he stopped and straightened his face. "Sorry to have offended you all."

The other three instantly halted as well. They felt guilty.

"Excuse me, I fought the wrong person by accident."

"Misunderstanding, it was a misunderstanding."

"Stop fighting, we surrender."

This put Immortal Xuanyuan in an even more difficult situation.

He started to doubt his life. He could only let out an unwilling moan as he said, "I did nothing to you all. Why did you all join forces to attack me?"

Life was hard!

He attended this gathering happily, to seek some attention, and yet now, the situation had changed so abruptly.

It had changed! They already had powerful allies and he was fighting them all by himself!

“Because you offended an expert!” Ye Liuyun smiled coldly. He lifted his hand and the flames rose. Instantly, they wrapped around Immortal Xuanyuan, burning him into ashes.

The azure blue handkerchief and the golden scissors were getting dull. Ziye picked them up nonchalantly. “These two are Heavenly Spiritual Treasures. We can use them to worship the expert as the price of victory.”

Ye Liuyun could not help saying, “He has two pieces of Heavenly Spiritual Treasures, this guy’s pretty rich!”

The battle ended and the scene resumed its peace.

Qing Yunzi and the crowd remained transfixed in their spot. They did not dare to breathe as their brains were still buzzing. They did not know what to do.

This was a Taiyi Golden Immortal, the most powerful ranking Immortal in the Immortal Land, and he died just like that!

How unbelievable! Nobody would believe it even if they told them.

The Top Immortal Cultivators Conference was going well. How did it suddenly turn out like this?

They had not even started and this Immortal was killed already!

These spies were too aggressive.

Qing Yunzi coughed and said weakly, “Actually, I think we can just talk it out. Killing is so bad.”

“I know you all have many questions,” Ziye said elegantly as she gradually landed on the ground. “Don’t worry, we won’t simply kill you all. As for the expert, we’ll give you sincere advice! The power of the expert's beyond your imagination. If you don't want to die, don't ever think of disturbing him, let alone checking him out. If not, you won't even know why you died!"

Ye Liuyun scoffed, "Exactly. Immortal Xuanyuan's the best example! Besides checking him out, the expert...is not to be insulted!"

Everyone looked at one another.

Daoist Ma bit his tongue. He gradually walked forward and asked, "I'm the humble Daoist Ma, greetings to Immortal Ziye. May I know if there's any way I could serve the expert?"

Qing Yunzi followed swiftly, "Yeah, Immortal Ziye, could you please tell us what are the intentions of the expert? We'll do our best."

Ziye's eyes sparkled. After a moment of thought, she said, "Actually, you all guessed it. The expert's indeed going against Fate! Immortal Xuanyuan overruled this possibility right away."

Everyone was shocked. "He's planning to go against Fate? Why would he do so?"

"For the sake of all of us!" Ziye said with a look of admiration and respect. "Please, don't weigh the expert down with your narrow thinking. The expert has reached the stage where his realm's way beyond the world. He's beyond all of us. He could feel all the pain of humankind. Thus, he's going against Fate for everyone's sake!"

Daoist Ma's face flushed red instantly. He said hastily with excitement, "Immortal Ziye, if this is true, please, bring me along!"

The rest said hastily, "Please, bring me along as well!"

The Five Decays was something every Immortal had to go through. They would all die eventually. Now that someone with such power was taking the lead, of course, they would be willing to risk it all to fight against Fate!

“Alright, fighting against Fate requires planning. It’d be better to have more people working for the expert,” Ziye nodded. She added, “I don’t mind telling you all this. The legend about the existence of a Heavenly Temple during the ancient times is true. I’m from the Heavenly Temple!”

Immortal Linzhu nodded by the side. “I can testify, I used to play in the Heavenly Temple.”

Everyone gasped, their faces changing.

They knew more about the Sacred Land. It was indeed passed on from the ancient times.

Ziye said, “The expert would mention the Heavenly Palace from time to time with a nostalgic look. It’s apparent that he wants to rebuild the ancient times. Therefore, our first goal is to rebuild the Heavenly Temple for the expert to visit, to give him a surprise!”

“Going against Fate isn’t an easy path,” Qing Yunzi said with a concerned tone.

“If we don’t go against Fate, we’ll end up dying, too! I only have a hundred years left anyway. The opportunity’s right in front of us. I’m unafraid of anything!”

Daoist Ma laughed. He then said with anticipation, “Immortal Ziye, if you used to work in the Heavenly Temple, I’ll work for you! If we rebuild the Heavenly Temple, are the Flat Peaches real? Will I be able to get a role in this temple? I don’t have to be high ranking. I won’t even mind being a soldier who guards the gate.”

Longevous Lin agreed, “Same here, just get me any role!”

“This depends on how the expert takes it. If you perform well, the expert won’t mistreat you all,” Ziye said calmly before taking out an orange. “Of course, there are Flat Peaches. This orange is just an ordinary fruit in the eyes of the expert. It is used to serve his guests. Each of you will get one wedge. Distribute them among yourselves.”

The crowd watched the orange wedges being distributed.

They did not show any reaction until they put the wedge into their mouth. Instantly, their pupils dilated.

“This...this is really an orange?”

“Spiritual Root! This is Spiritual Root!”

“I can’t imagine having the chance to eat this before I die!”

“The expert treats this as a fruit? Then what are the Spiritual Fruits we collected? Trash?”

“Hmm? What are you doing? Who said you’re allowed to hold onto the orange skin? Put it down right away!”

“Who sees it, gets it! This is a reward from the expert. To be fair, I must be the one distributing!”

Ziye had a smile on her face. She was excited. This gathering was originally hosted to plot against the expert, and yet, it went the other way around. Not only that, she even recruited everyone to help the expert set a small goal against Fate. The expert must be so satisfied.

Chapter 295: The Misled Yuecha

Sneeze!

Inside the four-part architecture.

Li Nianfan sneezed and rubbed his nose.

What was that?

Was he catching a cold? The air in the Immortal Realm was so refreshing and of ideal temperature. The food was fresh and harmless. He had not caught a cold in a very long time.

Perhaps someone was thinking of him?

However, it should not be a bad thing. After all, he had made so many friends without offending anyone.

Furthermore, he was merely an ordinary man. What trouble could there be?

With that in mind, he smiled and lifted his carving knife to continue his carpentry.

There was a small twig in front of him that he was carefully carving on.

Unwanted sawdust was all over the floor, forming a curled shape with each shaving. They looked neat.

Daji seemed concerned. "Mr. Li, would you like to take a rest? Or teach me?"

"Ha-ha-ha, this isn't for ladies." Li Nianfan could not help smiling.

He could not help imagining how Daji would look carving on the twig. The sight would be so delightful and strange. He wanted to laugh.

Li Nianfan continued, "I'm just making some stools and tables. It's a small matter."

The four-part architecture was indeed quite big. Even with the addition of the Fire Phoenix, Dragon, and Nanan, it was not crowded at all. In fact, he felt that he lacked stools and tables, especially with how Li Nianfan was meeting more friends now. They were far from enough.

These people were bigshots. He could not let his guests stand.

Daji raised her hand. She cautiously helped Li Nianfan to wipe away his sweat. She asked, "Mr. Li's been working on this for half a day. Why don't you accompany Daji to play a round of chess?"

“No need, I’m making a new game. It’ll be very interesting.” Li Nianfan smiled. Then, he mocked, “So, little Daji’s bored and wants me to accompany you?”

“Alright, let’s go out and have a stroll. Perhaps we can do some hunting!” Li Nianfan stated. He then said to Xiao Bai, “Xiao Bai, keep the sawdust, I need to use them.”

Daji was already happily packing up. She was ready to go out.

The Fire Phoenix transformed into a small firefinch, sitting on Li Nianfan’s shoulder, while Blackie followed behind him, wagging his tail.

Li Nianfan brought along his bow and arrow before walking out of the four-part architecture.

Somehow, he looked at the couplet in front of his door.

‘I Came From Mortal Realm, Seeking For Longevity.’

Suddenly, he felt that this was rather ‘low’.

It was okay in the past. As his visitors were mostly cultivators, this couplet seemed alright. However, now that he had Immortals as his guests, this couplet seemed weak.

He had to replace it.

Scratch!

Li Nianfan simply tore this away. This was a small matter. He could write a new one soon.

The group entered the forest.

Compared to the past, the atmosphere in the forest was more tense than usual.

Li Nianfan could not help saying, "Daji, do keep an eye on Dragin, Nanan, and also the little fox. Don't play in the forest, I don't feel safe."

Li Nianfan already had this feeling after seeing the Donkey Demon in the Fallen Town.

A demon attacking the town so arrogantly. This had not happened in the past. It was fortunate that there was an Immortal nearby. If not, it would have ended badly.

However, he could tell that this Donkey Demon was high ranking. Since when did such powerful demons start to linger around?

He had to be careful anyhow.

Daji looked around and nodded diligently. "Okay, Mr. Li."

At the same time.

At the foot of the Fallen Immortal Mountain.

Meng Junliang and Zhou Yunwu arrived.

Zhou Yunwu asked, "Army Advisor, we didn't bring anything the last time. We won again because of Mr. Li. Is it okay for us to only bring these to him?"

Meng Junliang said, "Sincerity's the most important key when visiting Mr. Li. Now that it's getting cold, clothes would make one feel warm. This is what Mr. Li needs, the rest are too much. It's an insult to him!"

Zhou Yunwu still felt guilty. He sighed and said, "My power's so limited. For a figure like Mr. Li, the clothes should be made of the best demon skins in this realm. I'm unable to provide such things for Mr. Li."

Meng Junliang said, "As long as you're sincere. What my King needs to do now is to calm this chaotic world down to help Mr. Li."

"Right, why are you visiting the expert?" Zhou Yunwu asked curiously.

Meng Junliang said honestly, "When I was preaching, I suddenly felt confused. I came here to seek help."

As they spoke, the two of them had arrived by the door of the four-part architecture.

However, a woman in robes had been standing outside the door with her palms pressed together. She was waiting patiently.

Zhou Yunwu pressed his palms together and greeted, "Greetings to Tara Yuecha."

"Amitabha, you're the current Human Sovereign," Tara Yuecha said with a calm face. She greeted, "Greetings to the Human Sovereign."

The expert was not home. The three of them had to stand before the door to wait. They showed no trace of impatience on their faces.

After a long while of silence, Tara Yuecha suddenly looked at Zhou Yunwu and asked, "May I ask what does the Human Sovereign think of Buddhism?"

Zhou Yunwu smiled. "It's naturally excellent to subdue evil and the demons. It's good for the people."

Yuecha asked hastily, "Has the Human Sovereign thought of establishing Buddhism as the national religion, to preach Buddhism to everyone?"

Zhou Yunwu said, "Tara Yuecha, the expert had once given me a piece of writing, 'Man Can Conquer Nature'. From then on, I declared that my Xia Kingdom will never worship the sky or ground. We'll be a Kingdom of people!"

Tara Yuecha continued, "Actually, I think the Human Sovereign's destined for Buddhism."

Meng Junliang's face straightened. His eyes were as sharp as knives as he stood and scoffed coldly, "Yuecha, you're overdoing it!"

Sha-sha-sha!

Meanwhile, footsteps were heard coming from the forest. Li Nianfan walked over with two rabbits in hand.

The three of them greeted politely, "Mr. Li, Miss Daji."

Li Nianfan smiled and said, "It's you guys. Why are you standing outside? Please, come in and have a seat."

Click!

The door swung open. Li Nianfan instantly asked Xiao Bai to get some milk for his guests.

Li Nianfan smiled and said, "I've heard the news of King Zhou's victory!"

Zhou Yunwu hastily stood up. He said sincerely, "It was all because of Mr. Li's pointers. I came here today to thank you."

With that said, he brought out the item and placed it on the table. He said uneasily, "Here's a little something. Please, don't look down on it."

“Wow, brocade clothes! You’re so polite!” Li Nianfan let out a look of delight. It was almost the end of Autumn. He was about to go shopping in the Fallen Town. Little did he expect someone to give this to him.

He had only heard of brocade clothes from books back in his previous realm. Who would have thought that the entire set would be placed right in front of his eyes now? Furthermore, looking at the material, it was definitely top-grade skin!

It looked soft and glowing, comfortable and warm to the touch. It looked so luxurious!

It was delicately made. They must have put in a lot of effort.

“How thoughtful!”

“As long as you like it, as long as you like it,” Zhou Yunwu answered, delighted. He let out a long sigh of relief.

Meanwhile, Xiao Bai walked out with a tray of glasses with milk. Li Nianfan instantly said politely, “Let’s speak later. First, let’s have a cup of warm milk to warm up the body.”

“Thank you.” Yuecha and the other two politely reached out to receive the milk.

The glass was transparent, reflecting the sunlight delicately. The pure white milk laid inside quietly, giving off some heat.

The surface of the milk had a vague layer of foam on top.

With one gentle sip, the fragrance of the milk spread out in their mouths and its warmth soothed their throats. It made them feel as if they were bathing in the hot spring, making them shiver uncontrollably. It instantly took away their chills.

Meanwhile, a gust of energy was sent throughout their bodies.

The crowd was tasting the milk carefully, its fragrance lingering in their mouths. They were all enjoying the blissful feeling. They were extremely grateful.

What was bliss? It was the ability to get free meals or a drink from the expert from time to time. How blissful!

Li Nianfan smiled. "How's the texture?"

Zhou Yunwu said sincerely, "It's smooth and not too sticky. The texture was thick and yummy. It's the best of the best. The food you serve here is so memorable!"

Li Nianfan laughed. "Good taste! This is just the starting stage. There will be yogurt, strawberry yogurt, and more. Come over whenever you feel like eating."

"Thank you." The three of them were so touched. They would never be able to repay the expert.

"I don't have much here, I only have good food. You're welcome," Li Nianfan waved it off. He then looked at Tara Yuechha and smiled, "I heard about your preaching from the Fallen Town. How's the preaching going?"

"Thank you for asking. Buddhism is indeed full of insights and wisdom. It's beneficial for everyone," Yuecha said in awe. Then, she halted and frowned. "However, not everyone wants to believe in Buddhism. I'm still far from saving all beings."

"Saving all beings?" Li Nianfan's brows furrowed vigorously.

'Huh? You want to save all beings? Will you give up on those who don't believe in Buddhism?

'This woman seems to be overdoing it. I need to fix her.'

“This is wrong,” Li Nianfan said right away. He asked, “If the beings are happy and living in peace, why would they need to be saved by Buddhism?”

Yuecha said, “Living in peace is merely an illusion. They can only achieve eternal happiness by turning to Buddhism.”

“How absurd!” Li Nianfan did not mind refuting her. He asked, “What is Buddha?”

Yuecha was well-learned. She answered without hesitation, “Those who save others are Buddha. Those who are saved by the other are Buddha, too.”

“Very wrong!” Li Nianfan shook his head.

“Which part of it is wrong?” Yuecha did not understand.

Li Nianfan looked at Yuecha and said, “All beings are Buddha!”

Yuecha pressed her palms together. She was deep in thought and was still confused. “Please, explain.”

“Buddha is within us! Just as how Buddha teaches us to be kind, all beings have inbuilt kindness. Thus, we’re all Buddha! However, this doesn’t mean that one must turn to Buddhism to have kindness!”

Li Nianfan continued, “Buddhism should be preached to those who’re willing to be preached to, by fate. If you’re forcing it onto the beings, how’s this different from spreading evil?”

Chapter 296: No.1 Demon Wife

“Amitabha.”

Yuecha’s heart sank. She hastily shut her eyes, pressed her palms together, and chanted Buddha’s name in silence.

Her back was covered in cold sweat by then. Her head felt as if it was hammered vigorously.

Buzz!"

She suddenly awakened in fear.

If it was not for Li Nianfan's reminder, she would have...overdone it.

She let out a long sigh. "I was too obsessed!"

"It's not too late to know now." Li Nianfan smiled. He fell silent for a moment before he continued, "Buddhists shouldn't forget their pure intention. Buddhism shouldn't be a place to hide sins and wrongdoings. Remember, Buddhism's all about cause and effect. Naturally, one shouldn't neglect others' cause and effect, nor should one force something on another being."

Religions could easily go astray. Preaching was right, but after development, private intentions would gradually grow, leading one astray.

Buddhism had one too many of those unpleasant people.

Some absolutely disgusting people in Buddhism liked to pretend to be good, when in fact they were merely being the busybody.

When they were done being disgusting, the offended party would want to take revenge, only to have these Buddhists stand up and tell them to put down the knife and to be like Buddha. They would persuade others to let go of their grudges.

How frustrating!

If one were to lose their pure heart and become obsessive, Buddhism would not be helpful anymore. In fact, he would end up preaching the wrong things!

Yeucha said sincerely, “Mr. Li, I understand now. I’ll take note.”

Li Nianfan nodded. This should be the way.

Suddenly, Meng Junliang stood up. He politely bowed at Li Nianfan and said, “Mr. Li, I was just about to start preaching to enlighten humankind. I want to spread Mr. Li’s insights to every corner of the world to develop more potential people.”

“This is a good thing!” Li Nianfa smiled. “However, don’t call it my insights, I’m not that great!”

The expert was being so humble. Perhaps this was the true spirit of being an expert.

Meng Junliang continued, “I realized that there are too many insights in the world. I don’t know where to start from.”

“Ha-ha-ha, that’s easy.” Li Nianfan smiled instantly. His eyes sparkled as he said without thinking, “We could establish subjects such as language, maths, and sciences!”

He did not expect to be able to bring this over to the Immortal Realm. He was slightly excited. The children here would be so grateful of him!

“Language, what? Maths?” Zhou Yunwu and Meng Junliang looked at Li Nianfan with big question marks on their heads.

‘Sigh, our understanding’s too shallow. We don’t understand even one word. This is too deep!’

“It’s actually quite simple.” Li Nianfan coughed and recomposed his thoughts, changing his way of speaking. “We could distribute the insights into different categories. These would be language, medical sciences, sports, and more. Each person is gifted in his own way, so we’ll put them in different classes accordingly. We could even have some examinations in both language and sports, as well as an examination every three years to pick out the most outstanding ones.”

This was more simply put in this sense. It was merely setting up subjects.

Zhou Yunwu and Meng Junliang wore a look of realization! Their faces flushed red with excitement.

The expert was indeed the expert. He easily fixed this chaotic problem by categorizing them.

However, Li Nianfan continued, "After passing the language test, it would show that this student has the potential of becoming a political leader, and in turn, an officer. If the student passes the sports test, this shows that this student has the potential of leading an army. It's the same for the rest."

Li Nianfan stated it simply. It was just a brief idea.

However, the most important key was the idea. If not, one would not know which direction to head into.

Meng Junliang instantly stood up. He was very inspired. He said, "Mr. Li's indeed a genius. I've learned a lot."

"Wonderful, wonderful!" Zhou Yunwu was more excited than Meng Junliang. He bowed deeply, so excited that he had tears in his eyes. He called out with a trembling voice, "With that, my people will be enlightened in the upcoming generations! I'll never be able to express my gratitude to you. Please, allow me to kneel!"

This matter would directly affect future generations and the standards of humankind. It was a concept for sustainable growth. This was as valuable as the herb manual!

Li Nianfan simply waved it off, "It's just a small matter, there's no need."

Meng Junliang suggested, "Mr. Li mentioned language and medical sciences. Shall I name the place where knowledge is passed on...a 'classroom'?"

Li Nianfan smiled. "Good name!"

Zhou Yunwu and Meng Junliang were so excited. They looked very excited. They could not wait to go back and start forming the classrooms.

The Xia Kingdom's territory was not huge. Therefore, it would be easy to manage. The classrooms could be built easily. This would benefit the future of humankind!

"Mr. Li."

After staying silent for a very long time, Meng Junliang parted his lips. His eyes darkened as he took in a deep breath to ask a question very close to his heart, "Please, allow me to ask, why preach to the world?"

Li Nianfan first halted.

He understood what Meng Junliang meant.

He did not ask 'why' as in 'how come'. He was asking from a more spiritual level.

It was similar to when someone would ask, 'why do you want to become a teacher?'. One could answer that it was to make money or to develop more potential people.

This man was digging into things again. It seemed that he really liked to ponder on things from a more spiritual level.

Li Nianfan did not answer directly. He fell silent for a very long time. Suddenly, he had a thought. He said, "Daji, help me get a paper and brush."

"Sure, Mr. Li."

Soon, a paper and brush were placed in front of Li Nianfan. Daji was preparing the ink diligently.

Li Nianfan held the brush. He looked at the white paper in front of him. He smoothed the paper with one hand and then took a deep breath.

The brush landed!

The point of the brush landed on the white piece of paper, moving like clouds and water. He did not exert any force but each stroke was powerful.

His movement was fluent and carefree as one word after another jumped onto the paper.

Vroom!

Along with his movements, a strange Qi arrived as if halting the entire world. The hills, the moon, and everyone else had become his backdrop. He became the one and only man standing.

The wind stopped blowing, the leaves stopped shaking, and dust stopped floating. Everything in their surroundings froze by instinct, as if too afraid to disturb Li Nianfan in any way.

Everything was so still that one could even hear the sound of Li Nianfan's brushstrokes.

Yuecha pressed her palms tightly without moving while Meng Junliang stared blankly with blood veins in his eyes. He wished he could tear out his eyes. Zhou Yunwu held his breath, clenching his fists tightly.

Daji and the Fire Phoenix stared without blinking, too.

Suddenly, they felt as if they had become the brush in Li Nianfan's hand, following the brush as it danced across the paper.

They knew that they were witnessing the birth of the best art in the world!

When Li Nianfan stopped writing, they finally snapped back to reality and looked at the paper.

'Let the world be the heart of the livelihood of the people; for the sacred teaching and peace for all future generations.'

Vroom!

Everyone felt as if their scalps were exploding. Their minds went blank as they lost the ability to think. They were all brainwashed by the words.

They did not know if it was just in their heads, but they saw a faint glow coming out from the paper. It looked like the natural glow of the sky, with countless phantoms of aspiring people appearing on top of the paper. They were all worshipping and bowing!

Nobody dared to speak, they did not even dare to breathe. They were deeply pulled into this realm. They were even more terrified of disturbing this bunch of aspiring worshippers.

By merely looking at this sentence, they could feel their realms rapidly improving. Their entire being had been upgraded. They were now able to face any test without being tempted!

Was this the realm of the expert?

No way, this could only be one tiny corner of the expert's ice mountain.

However, even this tiny corner of the expert's ice mountain was enough for them to worship and benefit from forever!

Meng Junliang had tears in his eyes. How he wished he could kneel and worship the expert by knocking his head on the ground.

This was...the most profound saying!

The expert did not simply answer his question. He conquered it thoroughly from inside out!

Li Nianfan smiled. "How is it?"

"Mr. Li, I've learned so much!" Meng Junliang bowed deeply for as long as five seconds before standing up.

He looked at the words. There was an inconceivable fire in his eyes. He asked with a trembling voice, "Could you please give this to me?"

"Of course...not!" Li Nianfan quickly changed his answer.

He suddenly recalled that he tore away the couplet on his door. This sentence was good enough to act as a replacement. Even if he did not hang it on his door, he could put it in the yard as a good decoration.

Meng Junliang sighed, disappointed. "Sorry for asking."

Li Nianfan said, "Mr. Meng, you know the words. With your ability, why take it from others? You can clearly write one yourself!"

Meng Junliang's heart sank.

It was not that the expert did not want to give it to him, he was pointing it out to him!

Yes, why ask for it? One day, he would be able to grasp the truth of the words and put them into action. He would be able to write it himself!

'So, Mr. Li expects so much from me!'

Suddenly, he felt like crying. He said in a very solemn tone, "Mr. Li, I understand. I won't let you down!"

Li Nianfan was feeling awkward. He did not know what he understood, so he could only answer, “Ha-ha, good, then.”

Zhou Yunwu made a gesture, “Thank you so much for pointing these out to us today. I’ve learned a lot and benefited greatly from your teaching. Goodbye, for now. If Mr. Li ever needs anything, please, just say the word. My entire Xia Kingdom’s at your disposal!”

Li Nianfan made the gesture in return, “King Zhou’s too polite. Have a good trip back.”

Yuecha pressed her palms together. She bowed at Li Nianfan and said, “Goodbye, Mr. Li.”

“Goodbye!”

Zhou Yunwu and the other two walked out from the four-part architecture. They still had the look of awe on their faces.

As if being edified, their spiritual levels had been upgraded.

Even Yuecha suddenly felt that the Buddhism she had been preaching was rather low. No wonder the expert could easily point out such things to her to make her less obsessive. His realm was so high that he was no longer able to be impressed by anything anymore.

He was the true bigshot!

Inside the four-part architecture, Li Nianfan watched them leave. He did not keep them for dinner.

When he went out hunting earlier, he was hunting for fun. Thus, he did not manage to hunt anything big. The two wild rabbits did not have much meat on them anyway, so it would not be nice to keep them for dinner.

“I’ll keep the delicious rabbit meat for myself!”

Li Nianfan smiled as he sat on the chair. He started enjoying himself as he said, "Xiao Bai, go and prepare the rabbit meat, I'll have them roasted. Right, don't waste the rabbit head. Make it spicy, it'd be yummy to chew on."

...

As the sun set, the sunlight gradually retreated as the night approached.

At the Southern Mountain area.

The mountain was engulfed by darkness. Looking from afar, it looked like a sleeping demon, ready to hurt anyone.

However, within the mountain, all of the demons were transfixed in their spots, shivering in fear.

They all knelt on both knees, facing the same direction.

Looking along the direction they were facing, more and more demons gathered. In the heart of the mountain was a cave.

The surroundings of the cave were filled with demons like blooming flowers, kneeling at the cave.

Small and helpless.

Click! Click! Click!

As the heavy footsteps were heard, the demons could not help holding their breaths, their heads shrinking in.

It did not take long before a gigantic figure gradually walked out from the cave.

Under the moonlike, the shadow of this gigantic figure covered its surroundings.

It was a gigantic demon with a bull's head and a human's body!

Its horns were like two crescent moons, pointing upright while exuding a shocking chill.

"Rubbish! Real rubbish!" A sound came from the bull, full of despise. "I never thought the demons in the ordinary realm could fall into this stage. Not only is the Demon King not the Demon King, you're all too afraid to even eat the humans! What, you've all become vegetarians?"

Beside the Bull Demon, there was a gigantic green wolf, its fur glowing vaguely under the moonlight like a stream of flowing water. It had good fur.

The Wolf Demon smiled and said, "Brother, isn't that well? Since the demons in the ordinary realm are doing bad, it's time for our performance! Becoming the Demon King will be as easy as flipping the hand!"

The Bull Demon nodded in agreement, "Exactly. We've made the right decision to come down to the ordinary realm. In the ordinary realm, we don't have any restrictions!"

Now that the road between the Immortal Realm and Land had reopened, many demons that were not doing well had the chance of going to the ordinary realm. They would instantly become the most powerful ones!

The Bull Demon growled, "This bunch of demons are so useless. I don't have other options, so I have no choice but to take them as my staff!"

"Brother, I heard from this bunch of demons about an interesting matter," the Green Wolf paused. It then continued, "There's actually an appearance of a Nine-Tailed Fox nearby."

“Nine-Tailed Fox?” the Bull Demon’s eyes widened like bells, glowing from within. It said hastily, “The Nine-Tailed Fox is known as the ultimate wife. Only the Demon King’s allowed to marry such a beautiful demon!”

The Green Wolf nodded, “Exactly! It’s indeed the Nine-Tailed Fox!”

“Where is it? What are we waiting for? Let’s go catch it and make it my wife!” The Bull Demon was getting impatient. It glared at its surrounding demons and growled, “Who knows about this? Stand up right away!”

Chapter 297: My Bull Demon Is Bullish!

The small demons trembled even more vigorously. They all exchanged terrified looks.

The Bull Demon’s face sank. “Hmm?”

Finally, a small Deer Demon stood up and said in fear, “My...King, it’s not that we’re unwilling to tell you more. It’s just that the Nine-Tailed Fox is very unlucky. I feel like it’s better to stay away from her.”

The Bull Demon squinted its eyes. It scoffed, “What do you mean?”

“My King, the Nine-Tailed Fox was first seen in the Fallen Immortal Mountain. Ever since her appearance, a series of strange events have been happening!”

The Deer Demon’s face was filled with deep awe. It trembled and said, “We really don’t want to be vegetarians, but we have no choice. We live in the fear of the Nine-Tailed Fox.”

Bull Demon frowned. “What strange things?”

“The Nine-Tailed Fox is the symbol of all demons. Ever since her appearance, countless big demons have attempted to get her. However, no matter who it is, once someone has the intention of capturing her, he’ll never live past the second day!” The Deer Demon took a deep breath and continued, “Back then, the Demon King of the Fallen Immortal Mountain was the Silver Moon Demon King, a powerful Mountain Eagle King. It led an army to capture the Nine-Tailed Fox but was somehow killed. So did the Boar Demon King of my Southern Mountain area. He only had the intention, but before he could get into action, a bunch of men came to destroy him. There are many more such cases. Anyway, it's very terrifying! So terrifying!"

Gradually, more and more demons stood up. Their faces were filled with terror as they spoke.

"Trying to capture humans is the same. Once we're exposed, we're dead. Therefore, we can only become vegetarians. No one dares to become the Demon King."

"I heard this is because there's a powerful figure in the Fallen Immortal Mountain. He loves wild meat and likes to turn demons into dishes."

"Yeah, according to reliable news, the recipe's known as 'Demons on the Tip of the Tongue'. So terrifying!"

Shiver!

...

"Is there such a thing?" The Bull Demon's mood became heavier as he suddenly felt a weight on his shoulder. He said, "So, you're all living so poorly. How dare they bully the demons! However, you all don't have to worry. I came down from the Immortal Land to help you all!"

The Bull Demon was very excited. Suddenly it felt a sense of duty.

"Let's go, I'm leading an army to attack the Fallen Immortal Mountain. We're capturing the Nine-Tailed Wolf!"

"Immortal Bull Demon, please, calm down. Don't do that!" The demons were terrified. They tried to talk him out of it. "Isn't it good enough to stay alive?"

“What’s there to calm down about? I came from the Immortal Land. Is there anything in the ordinary realm that can stop me?!” The Bull Demon was frustrated. Its voice struck like thunder as it growled arrogantly, “From now on, I’m your Demon King. I’m going to capture the Nine-Tailed Fox alive! Come and kill me! Come and turn me into your dish! Look, I’m so bullish! Nobody can do anything to me, ha-ha-ha!” The Bull Demon smiled coldly. “Cut the nonsense, my knife’s been hungry for a long time. Just watch me attack!”

“My brother’s so bullish!” The Green Wolf Demon growled from the back. “If the two of us join forces, the mere Nine-Tailed Fox would be so easily captured!”

The demons did not feel at ease, but they did not dare to speak more. They had no choice but to follow.

On the same day, the huge army of demons started to fly up into the sky with a limitless gust of demon spirit. They were arrogantly rushing toward the Fallen Immortal Mountain.

However, a few demons had quietly left the group on the way there.

...

At the Fallen Immortal Mountain.

The Wild Boar Demon, Black Bear Demon, and Green Python Demon gathered together. They had a look of shock on their faces and their eyes were heavy.

“Bull Demon and Wolf Demon? From the Immortal Land?” The Wild Boar Demon’s tiny eyes glared out like a ball, its small heart beating rapidly.

“They must be so powerful!” The Black Boar Demon’s face was serious. “Are we able to fight them?”

“Demon King has been following the experts around, giving us a lot of opportunities. No matter what, we must hold it!” the Green Python Demon said, wiggling its body. It paused and continued, “However, we need to find the Demon King, in case they disturb the expert’s peace.”

The Wild Boar Demon said, "Exactly. It'll be chaotic if they fight here. Let's go to the Southern Mountain area and fight there instead!"

"Small ones, let's go!"

Instantly, the demons flew up in the air, covering the sky as they rushed toward the Southern Mountain.

The night was getting darker.

The round moon hung low in the sky, witnessing the two parties approaching the other.

Finally, the two demon clouds met.

"Stop!"

The Bull Demon made a gesture. It scoffed, "Who are you, tell me your name!"

The Wild Boar Demon replied, "We're the demons from the Fallen Immortal Mountain. To the demons in front of us, if you all turn back now, you might be able to live. If not, don't blame me for your demise later!"

"Ha-ha-ha! Who'd have thought that the demons from the Fallen Immortal Mountain came uninvited! You came to the trap yourself! Well, well, well! How brave!" the Bull Demon laughed. Its Qi rushed up into the sky as the fur on its neck expanded. Its eyes were glowing fiercely. "A small boar, a small bear, and a small python. Three demons who aren't even in their Mahayala realms telling me to turn back? I can only say that the demons in the ordinary realm have never died before!"

"Come, knife!" The Bull Demon flipped its wrist. A long knife appeared in its hand. It jumped up with an unstoppable temperament, full of energy and power.

On the surface of the knife, the moonlight shone like a flowing stream, its light landing on the surface of the knife carefreely.

In the hands of the Wild Boar Demon, a huge mace appeared and danced in the air. The Wild Boar Demon jumped up. "Look at me!"

The Bull Demon looked at the mace and shock appeared in its eyes. "Deluxe Spiritual Treasure?"

Its eyes reddened after that, displaying a look filled with greed.

"No wonder you had the courage to be so arrogant. How does an ordinary boar demon in the ordinary realm deserve this Deluxe Spiritual Treasure? Let me snatch it from you!"

It scoffed through its bullnose. Instantly, water appeared, swirling and flowing like thick silk. It rushed toward the Wild Boar Demon. Instantly, the Wild Boar Demon's actions were halted.

"Die!"

The Bull Demon was so agitated. Its hands turned muscular as the long knife chopped from above!

Dong!

The Wild Boar Demon's body jolted vigorously. Like a ball, it fell from the sky and smashed on the ground loudly. Dust flew up everywhere.

It spread out in ripples. They were in bad shape.

However, it laid on the ground, patted its buttock, and instantly jumped back up. Its boar ears flapped up and down as if nothing had happened. It flew back up into the sky.

The Bull Demon wore a look of disbelief. "This boar has thick skin!"

“Eat my old bear hammer!”

Meanwhile, the Black Bear Demon already stood up. It had a heavy hammer in its hand. It picked it up, smashing at the head of the Bull Demon.

“Another Deluxe Spiritual Treasure? Did you rob an Immortal’s cave?” The Bull Demon’s face sank. It raised its knife to meet the force.

Ding!

The Bull Demon’s face changed. It was once again shocked. This bear’s strength was so unusually big!

The Black Bear Demon scoffed fiercely, “Another hammer!”

With that, as if hammering on something, the sound of clashing was heard continuously!

The Green Wolf Demon hastily rushed forward. “Brother, I’m here!”

Its eyes sparkled with green light as its mouth opened wide. Instantly, an endless storm appeared, blowing the surrounding trees away. The wind was sharp like a knife, cutting at the Black Bear Demon!

The Green Python Demon’s body was vigorously swimming. It was stunned on the ground. By its tail, some ripples were swirling like the swirling of a river. With that, a gigantic tsunami was formed, blocking out the wind knife.

“Small ones, attack!”

The Wild Boar Demon rushed into the battlefield with the mace in hand.

“Kill them!”

Behind it, countless demons shouted as they casted all kinds of spells. They rushed toward the Bull Demon and Green Wolf Demon like a tsunami!

“Ha-ha, how innocent. Do you think we don’t have an army?” The Bull Demon smiled arrogantly as it scoffed, “Small ones, attack!”

However, it was replied with a long silence.

Not only did the bunch of demons behind them not attack, they even took some steps back.

They smiled at the Wild Boar Demons and the rest and said, “Everyone, please, don’t take it wrongly. We have no choice but to come here and watch.”

“Betrayers! You’re all betrayers! Can’t you all fight for your own sake?” the Bull Demon growled angrily, its face turning green from betrayal.

The Black Boar Demon and the others were only Mahayala demons, but they were well trained with good knowledge of Insights. Thus, the three of them were able to fight the other two. Along with the help of the demons behind them, they were almost winning.

The demons of the Southern Mountain watched with their scalps itching. They felt lucky to be alive. They could not help discussing amongst themselves.

“The demons of the Fallen Immortal Mountain are so terrifying, they’re actually winning against the two huge demons from the Immortal Land!”

“As I said, the Fallen Immortal Mountain’s extraordinary! I was about to go and live there.”

“Who doesn’t! I heard even the white cabbage in that mountain is a treasure. The leaves taste better!”

“Sigh, I wonder if they’re still recruiting.”

...

“Argh! I’m exploding!” The Bull Demon was so frustrated. It was trembling all over. Its already scarce hair stood up and its eyes almost lashed out in flames.

It took in a deep breath and swallowed its saliva. Its two nostrils expanded vigorously.

“Watch my Water Golden Mountain!”

Bam!

Countless ripples exploded rapidly, instantly turning the area into a sea.

The water was filled with the Bull Demon’s spells. They were able to shield themselves while restricting their opponent’s movements!

As the water rolled out, every wave was a powerful attack.

“Brother, I’m always the brother you can rely on during the key moments!” the Green Wolf Demon said with pride. It smiled coldly as its wolf fur flew with the wind. “We’re brothers, we’ll never part. Once we conquer the demons in the ordinary realm, we’ll become legends!”

The Bull Demon nodded hastily. It was touched. “Good brother!”

“Watch my Wind and Sea!”

The Green Wolf Demon jolted and rushed forward. The wind blew unstoppably along with the waves. The endless wave combined with the wind, instantly forming a majestic tornado. A shocking, powerful and destructive sight!

The Green Wolf Demon had turned into wind, quick like lightning. Its claws were sharp like knives as it flashed and launched at the Wild Boar Demon!

“Your boar skin’s thick? Let me scratch you!”

Meanwhile, a few figures gradually rushed over.

They were Nanan, Dragin, and the small fox.

Nanan’s eyes sparkled instantly. “Wow, we came at the right time. The fight’s so exciting!”

Dragin said, “I know how to control water and I’m good at it!”

The small fox wiggled its nine tails. It was bouncing forward gradually. Under the moonlight, its snow-white fur was as pure as snow, exuding a soft and gentle glow.

Chapter 298: Dazzled By Beauty

“Demon King’s here!”

The crowd of small demons became energetic as they looked at the little fox.

Moo!

The Bull Demon was exuding power. Since it was using too much strength, it was unable to speak and it could only make a mooing growl.

A-whoo!

The Green Wolf Demon was howling unstoppably, flying along with the wind.

Meanwhile, they were both shocked. The Demon King was here?

They looked ahead and their pupils dilated.

“Nine-Tailed Fox! There’s really a Nine-Tailed Fox in the ordinary realm!” The Bull Demon was delighted. “My true wife has finally appeared!”

Instantly, it approached the Nine-Tailed Fox. It scoffed, “Brother, hurry, catch the Nine-Tailed Fox alive!”

The Green Wolf Demon hastily nodded. “Brother, don’t worry, I’m your brother. I’ll catch it for you right away!”

It turned into a gust of green wind. It launched at the little fox like a hungry tiger launching at its prey.

The little fox watched them approaching it blankly. Its small eyes widened in shock. Its originally hopping limbs were no longer hopping. In fact, it was staggering backward.

Its eyes were turning red as if it had used up all of its courage in life. Its snowy white fur was no longer soft. It had signs of an explosion.

‘What a vulgar Bull Demon and Wolf Demon, how terrifying!’

‘Waa... Sister forced me to fight without helping me. How am I supposed to fight them!’

The little fox was dumbfounded. It remained transfixed on a branch blankly, its tears ready to overflow anytime.

It bit its tongue and used up all of its power to gather its Qi. Its nine tails gently wiggled, making it blend with the moonlight.

Swiftly after, the surrounding night sky gradually receded like the water. The entire world had become a pink ocean with some warm bubbles rising occasionally.

The Bull Demon's eyes instantly turned into heart shapes, its saliva oozing out of its mouth.

Its original black bull face flushed red. It said lovingly, "The ultimate Demon Wife indeed. She's going to be my wife for sure!"

The Green Wolf Demon in front jolted as well. As if under a spell, it did not move.

There was a green light coming out from its eyes.

Abruptly, it turned its head and slapped the bull in its face!

Slap!

The Bull Demon was still looking excited and joyful, its teeth showing. However, it was dumbfounded by this slap. The grin on its face gradually faded.

The Bull Demon said in a low voice, "Brother, what do you mean?"

"Why don't you pee and look at your reflection. How is that face of yours ever good enough for this noble Nine-Tailed Fox?" the Green Wolf Demon said with a look of disgust. It scoffed, "Stay away from my goddess Nine-Tailed Fox!"

"Seems like your wolf desire's aroused and you're dazzled by beauty." The Bull Demon squinted its eyes and scoffed, "Wake up! Have you forgotten what you said earlier? To be brothers forever?"

"Ew! I don't have a brother like you!" The Green Wolf Demon exuded wild wind with powerful Qi crashing down on the Bull Demon. It grinned and said, "Get out! The Nine-Tailed Fox is my goddess, I'll guard her!"

"I can't believe your wolf desire isn't only aroused, it also woke up the one-in-a-million bootlicking desire!" The Bull Demon was feeling down. It suddenly felt upset. Who would have thought that its only brother would turn on him? Beauty was always the root of troubles.

However, it would not give away the Nine-Tailed Fox!

The Bull Demon's eyes were fierce and deadly. "Brother, if you want to fight over this with me, excuse me for not being kind to you!"

"My goddess, don't be afraid. I'll take this Bull Demon down for you!" The Green Wolf Demon did not forget to show how faithful he was in front of the little fox.

The little fox was still perplexed. "Oh...go on."

The goddess actually answered!

The Green Wolf Demon's eyes flashed with light. It was so excited! As if being injected with a stimulant, its battling capability maximized. "How dare you, Bull Demon, die!"

The Bull Demon went wild. "Mo...how're you not embarrassed! I should've known that you're a bad wolf. How dare you steal your brother's wife! I'll kill you today!"

Instantly, the two started fighting. No one was winning or losing. Their spells kept exploding in the air like fireworks, one after another, glowing in the night sky.

The others became their popcorn-eating audience. They watched in awe, enjoying this legendary duel.

Time had passed and the night was slowly diminishing. A ray of light gradually made it to the sky.

By the door of the four-part architecture.

Nanan and Dragin pulled two disproportionate bodies clumsily out from the forest. There was a gigantic black bull and a huge wolf. They both had shut their eyes peacefully by then.

Click!

The door was opened.

Li Nianfan looked up and frowned. He told them off gently, “The three of you went out in the morning to go hunting?”

Dragin grinned. “Ha-ha, brother, we’ve got something!”

“Don’t do this again! You’re all still so weak! How dangerous!” Li Nianfan said worriedly. He then looked at the bull and wolf. He said in shock, “What a gain! This bull’s sp big, its meat is definitely of top grade! I wanted to eat bull meat the other day. I’ll make you all authentic wild steak!

“And this wolf. Wow! The fur isn’t bad at all, and it feels nice and warm like Spring. I happened to be making some stools, adding a layer of fur would be perfect!”

Although Li Nianfan was telling them off, he was delighted. It was like growing some characters in a game. They had finally grown up and went hunting for him! Good investment!

“Xiao Bai, hurry up, come here and help,” Li Nianfan called out. Instantly, they gradually pulled the two bodies into the four-part architecture.

Click!

The door was closed.

Meanwhile.

In a secluded forest of the Immortal Realm, five figures landed from the sky along with a loud thunderstorm.

They were Ziyue and the rest.

Immortal Linzhu's eyes were looking around. She was checking out the surroundings and said in shock, "I can't believe the road has actually reopened. How nostalgic! However, this is so different."

"If Heaven wants to end the Immortalizing era, it's inescapable," Ziyue said. "The world's nothing like before."

"Right." Immortal Linzhu suddenly smiled and said, "However, as long as there's good food! Sister Ziyue, did you really gain such delicious steamed buns from the ordinary realm?"

Ziyue smiled and said, "Would I lie to you?"

"Sister Ziyue knows me best. Back then, I used to sneak into the Heavenly Temple and Sister Ziyue would prepare good food for me," Linzhu said with a nostalgic look. "The ambrosia back then was so yummy! I haven't had good food in too long. Who'd have thought Sister Ziyue would bring me some! How delightful!"

"Although I haven't had ambrosia before, the wine at the expert's place is even more delicious than ambrosia!" Ye Liuyun said with a smile.

Immortal Linzhu's eyes sparkled. She even started drooling. "Really? The expert even has wine?"

Ziyue said hastily, "When you get there, you better behave. Even if there's wine, it's a priceless treasure. It's not something we can simply drink."

Immortal Linzhu smiled. "I know, as long as he gives me food, I'll do anything!"

Ziyue said, "All you think about is food."

Immortal Linzhu said, "Back then, my master said that I was an empty soul, born to feel empty. Only through good food would I feel satisfied."

Xiao Chengfeng could not help laughing. "Ha-ha-ha, how meaningful!"

"How dare you laugh at others?" Urchin could not help rolling his eyes. "You're the one with the most nonsense. I think you can behave slightly better. If not, I'd be the one helping you to get back your dead body one day!"

Ye Liuyun nodded in agreement. "Brother Urchin's right. Hearing the things you say, sometimes even I feel like killing you."

"What do you all know? This is called a realm! The showier I am, the higher my realm!" Xiao Chengfeng said with a straight face. "I look up to the expert. The three realms that were told by the expert in just a few sentences... Thinking back now, I can still feel my blood warm and scalp itching. However showy I get, I won't get to that stage. Thus, I'm working hard to look up to the expert!"

"How can you compare yourself to the expert? What the expert talked about was the truth of the world while what you said is nonsense!"

"Can't you see I'm working on it?"

The group chatted happily, traveling on clouds toward the Fallen Immortal Mountain.

One hour later, the clouds gradually landed by the foot of the mountain. They all went up by foot.

Ziye took a deep breath. She said, "Linzhu, do behave when you see the expert. Also, remember what I said to you!"

Immortal Linzhu nodded. "Sister Ziye, I know, I understand."

It did not take long before the five of them arrived before the four-part architecture.

Xiao Chengfeng gradually went ahead and politely knocked on the door three times.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

“Come in.”

Li Nianfan’s voice came from inside.

The five of them straightened themselves and carefully entered.

Li Nianfan still had the carving knife in hand. He was making a stool.

Chop! Chop! Chop!

Sawdust littered the ground while Daji accompanied him by the side, wiping off his sweat and feeding him fruits from time to time. What a life!

The five of them walked in and hastily greeted politely, “Greeting to Mr. Li, Miss Daji, and Goddess Fire Phoenix.”

“It’s you guys! Please, have a seat.” Li Nianfan looked up and saw Ziye and Ye Liuyun. He said in shock, “Oh, you all know each other!”

It seemed the circle of Immortals was not that big after all.

“Ha-ha, yeah, what a coincidence!” Ziye and the group smiled. They looked at the sawdust all over the floor in terror. She could not help asking, “Mr. Li, you’re...”

"I was bored, so I plan to make some stools to play around." Li Nianfan put down the knife. He smiled and walked over, "Xiao Bai, go and prepare some tea right away."

Stools?

Makin stools with Spiritual Wood? Out of boredom?

The crowd pursed their lips. They looked at the pile of sawdust made from Spiritual Wood on the ground. Even though they had mentally prepared themselves, they still felt a twitch in their hearts. How...wasteful!

If they could use these Spiritual Wood shavings to make treasures, there would be no problem making ten or even twenty Deluxe Spiritual Treasures. They could even make a few good Heavenly Spiritual Treasures.

Now, they were used to make stools.

However, the Spiritual Wood being able to become the expert's stool was a blessing indeed. No loss.

Ziye looked at the yard and nonchalantly glanced around. She jolted vigorously.

"Hmm?"

She saw a paper hanging by the rockery in the middle of the yard. The words were clear. A vague glow was swirling around the paper.

There seemed to be some strange Insights circling the paper. So majestic and sacred, as if this was the most exquisite treasure in the world.

'Let the world be the heart for the livelihood of people; for the sacred teaching and peace for all future generations.'

This... This...

Her lips slightly parted. Her throat was dry while her mind blanked. She was dwelling in this artistic conception, unable to get out.

Two sentences contained such a limitless conception. It was as if the mountains and sea were crumbling and her entire being was engulfed by them, making it hard for her to breathe.

How majestic, how massive!

She felt that she was unable to take it anymore.

The others also saw this paper. Their pupils dilated in unison. Their pores opened up all over their skin and they had goosebumps all over.

They had a feeling that these two sentences were able to support this world!

Xiao Chengfeng suddenly had a sense of guilt. The expert was better at showing off, while he was still far behind!

Seeing that they were all captivated by the paper, Li Nianfan felt his goal of showing off was achieved. He was satisfied.

He could not help smiling and asked, "What do you all think about this writing?"

"Wonderful! So wonderfully written!"

The crowd praised in awe. They did not need to be fluent in language to sincerely express their feelings of being utterly stunned.

Ziye's cheeks even flushed red as her gentle body slightly trembled.

She could feel such majestic aspirations in this writing! This was a worldly aspiration!

Back then, after listening to Immortal Xuanyuan's nonsensical analysis, she had her doubts about the expert's intention of going against Fate.

Now, she was reassured.

The expert was indeed trying to bring back the glory of the ancient times. He was going against Fate for the sake of all beings!

One did not have to make further comments on the intentions of a man who could write such things! He was no longer measurable by their common understanding!

Being able to work for a figure like him would be the proudest thing one could do!

No matter what, even if they had to sacrifice themselves, they must help the expert!

After all, reproducing the ancient times had always been their dreams! And the expert...was their hope!

Li Nianfan looked at Immortal Linzhu. He asked curiously, "Right, this is..."

Immortal Linzhu stuck out her tongue and introduced herself, "Mr. Li, I'm Linzhu, a good friend of Ziyue's. I love good food."

So, a food-loving Immortal!

Obviously, Ziyue had been showing off in front of her best friend, thus attracting her over. How convenient.

“Oh, Immortal Linzhu, welcome.” Li Nianfan smiled. He said, “You’re all in luck today, I happened to have some wild meat. I was about to prepare a feast!”

Chapter 299: The Expert’s Sense of Ritual

A feast?

Besides Immortal Linzhu, everyone’s eyes sparkled in unison with so much anticipation.

If the expert called it a feast, it would be nothing less than a feast!

“Oh, Mr. Li,” Immortal Linzhu hesitated for a moment. She took out a pair of scissors and a handkerchief and placed them on the table. “Here’s a little something, hope you don’t mind.”

To be honest, Immortal Linzhu did not want to give away these two items.

They were both Heavenly Spiritual Treasures. Although they were not the most refined ones, any Heavenly Spiritual Treasure was considered top graded treasures. What did Heavenly Spiritual Treasures stand for? They were the most powerful treasures!

Most importantly, Heavenly Spiritual Treasures had Luck in them. They could block danger, while the Laws in them were so rich, they could even enlighten an individual.

Back in the ancient times, Heavenly Spiritual Treasures were very rare, let alone now.

Back then, Immortal Xuanyuan used this very handkerchief to block countless attacks, gaining him the reputation of being undefeatable!

If it was not for Ziyue who had the Heavenly Spiritual Treasure Hairpin which was just as powerful, they would not have been able to defeat Immortal Xuanyuan!

Immortal Linzhu had one Heavenly Spiritual Treasure of her own. It was a single leaf that she was born with. Now, she had to give away two Heavenly Spiritual Treasures, how suffocating!

However, she remembered what Ziye said to her, so she remained calm.

Sigh, so difficult!

Of course, Li Nianfan had no idea how hard it was for Immortal Linzhu. He smiled and shook his head, "Look at you! Just come alone, why bother bringing a meeting gift? You're too kind!"

They came here for free food and also brought him gifts, how polite!

He looked at the two items.

The scissors were delicate, shorter than the length of a palm. It had a gold finish, reflecting light under the shining sun. The blades were sharp and long. It looked good and sharp.

Was it made from gold?

Perhaps giving gold as a gift was something normal for an Immortal.

Li Nianfan simply picked up a piece of wood from the ground and used the scissors to cut it. Effortlessly, the wood was cut into two smooth ends without any trouble.

"Good pair of scissors!" Li Nianfan's eyes sparkled. "I happen to need a pair of scissors, thank you!"

He then looked at the handkerchief.

It was as small as one's face and in an azure sky blue color. It was cool and gentle to the touch. It was also somewhat elastic and comfortable.

Good item!

This handkerchief would have been one of the finest luxury items back in his previous realm.

Without hesitation, Li Nianfan handed the handkerchief to Daji. "Daji, this handkerchief suits you best! Toss away the one you have, they're so different!"

Whenever he was carving, Daji would use her handkerchief to wipe off his sweat from time to time. The handkerchief she had was made of rough material. It was nowhere close to this!

Ever since he met the Immortals, his living conditions had been improving. His ordinary four-part architecture had become so luxurious. Ha-ha!

Linzhu felt as if she was going insane!

Scissors?

Handkerchief?

This...did he have any misconception of Heavenly Spiritual Treasures?

Did he have any idea what he was wrongly accusing?

"Thank you, Mr. Li."

However, Daji smiled sweetly as she accepted the handkerchief with delight. She rolled it around in her hands as she gently wiped off the remaining sweat on Li Nianfan's forehead.

"The material of this handkerchief's so nice! It's cool to the touch and so absorbent. Not bad!" Li Nianfan praised. He smiled at Immortal Linzhu and said, "Immortal Linzhu's so considerate."

Immortal Linzhu had to bite her tongue to avoid crying out loud. She said in a low voice, "Glad you like it."

Her heart was dripping blood.

Considerate?!

So absorbent? How could a Heavenly Spiritual Treasure not be absorbent? It was not only absorbent, but it could also produce water!

'Waa...give it to me if you don't want it!'

She could not help looking at Ziyue and the rest. However, all she saw was that they looked normal as if this was something ordinary and they were not affected in any way.

How could she not realize in the past that these people were such good actors? When did they get their training?

"The feast we're having today needs to have a sense of ritual. Everyone, please, sit for a while. I'll go and prepare." Li Nianfan was in a good mood. He smiled and said to Xiao Bai, "Xiao Bai, hurry up and prepare the steak. Remember, you must pick the meat from the spine and loin. Those are the most tender and delicious parts."

Xiao Bai answered right away, "Don't worry, Xiao Bai's a professional chef."

With that, Li Nianfan walked into the utility room. The familiar sounds of clashing and knocking came from the room.

Immortal Linzhu asked in a low voice, "Sister Ziyue, the Heavenly Spiritual Treasures we gave away have become a pair of scissors and handkerchief. Are you not going to say anything?"

“What’s there to say?” Ziye halted slightly. She said, “This is their honor. Didn’t you see? The handkerchief had the opportunity to touch the expert’s sweat. What an opportunity!”

“Ha-ha.” Immortal Linzhu looked at Ziye as if this was the first time she met this woman. She felt her heart collapsing.

Xiao Chengfeng said in a low voice, “Immortal Linzhu, look there. Right, that wine jar. That’s an Intermediate Heavenly Spiritual Treasure, the Xuanyuan Sea Spell Cauldron. It’s being used to keep the wine. Can you see?”

Urchin smiled and added on, “I can only say that you haven’t seen the world. Once you get to the backyard of the expert, you’ll know what cloud nine means. Just get used to it.”

Immortal Linzhu made it clear that she had no comment.

She mumbled to herself, “I don’t even know if the feast is worth what I gave away.”

By the side, Xiao Bai had picked up the knife professionally. It effortlessly cut out all of the meat from the bull. One had to admit that the meat of this bull was really good. It was definitely a fat bull that liked to work out.

Following that, Xiao Bai took out a metal rack and placed the meat on top of it to burn to prepare the steak.

Its movement was fluent and professional.

Li Nianfan walked out of the utility room. He had two boxes in his hands.

These two boxes looked worn out with dust all over. The outer layers were wrinkled. It was apparent that they had been stored at the bottom.

Everyone’s heart sank. They all looked at these two boxes, feeling somehow threatened.

They were threatened in horror as if these two boxes contained something horrifying.

Daji asked, “Mr. Li, what are these?”

“Cutleries!” Li Nianfan smiled. “For this feast, we have to have a sense of ritual.”

With that said, he used a knife to gently cut through the top of the box, creating an opening.

Following that, he gradually uncovered the box.

The crowd could not help staring with their eyes widened. They stared inside the box, holding their breaths.

As the box was opened, although there was no glow coming out, they all felt a chilling shock attacking their bodies. They had the urge to turn and run away.

It was as if what laid inside the box were the deadliest weapons.

Breathe...

They all took a deep breath at the same time, forcing themselves to calm down. They looked closer.

With one look, they all felt as if they were being struck by lightning. Their eyes rolled back and they almost fainted.

Heavenly Spiritual Treasures!

A box full of Heavenly Spiritual Treasures!

These were not ordinary Heavenly Spiritual Treasures, these were Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures!

What concept was that? The crowd felt their minds go blank. They were unable to process it.

Ding-ding!

Li Nianfan reached inside the box and took out a bunch of shiny forks and knives to put on the table.

He spoke, "They aren't that useful. I can only use them like this. Since we're having steak today, let's have a sense of ritual."

Not so useful?

The crowd stared at the forks and knives being tossed onto the table. In unison, they all held their chests as their breathing became rapid.

'No way, I might become the first Immortal in history to die from shock.'

Immortal Linzhu's mouth was gaping. Her jaw almost fell to the floor.

She was still heartbroken about Li Nianfan not taking her two Heavenly Spiritual Treasures seriously. In the blink of an eye, he took out a box of Heavenly Spiritual Treasures and merely intended to use them as the cutleries.

This feeling was so humiliating. She suddenly felt extremely insignificant.

This was similar to visiting someone and gifting them with the most expensive silver bracelet, only to realize that this person's house was filled with gold. Even the toilet paper was made of gold!

So shocking! So unbelievable!

They had never seen so many Heavenly Spiritual Treasures in their entire lives.

Scratch!

Li Nianfan did not mind them. He opened the other box.

Similarly, there was no glow coming out of the box. However, when sunlight shone inside, the reflecting light was so bright that they were unable to open their eyes.

Another box of Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures!

The crowd had been so stimulated that they had gone numb. They even thought they were dreaming.

Inside this box were weirdly shaped glasses. Between the cup and the bottom, there was a long and slender glass holder.

“So...this is Mr. Li’s so-called sense of ritual.”

Ziye’s face muscles had stiffened. When she spoke, she was even twitching.

The so-called sense of ritual meant by the expert was to dine with Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures.

So, the expert had already been keeping a low profile normally.

Even Ye Liuyun, the Immortal who was the best at showing off and seeking attention, felt so out of the league in that moment. He felt attacked. “I feel that the expert might have some misconception on the term ‘sense of ritual’!”

Apart from the fact that these were all Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures, the key was that all of them looked exactly the same. How did he do that? Was he a supplier of Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures? How would Heaven allow such cool things to exist?

Meanwhile, Xiao Bai's voice was heard, "Master, the steak's cooked medium-well. They're ready."

"Good timing, let's hurry." Li Nianfan put the cutleries in place as he called out, "Everyone, don't just stand there. Hurry up and come over. Let's get ready."

"Co...coming!" Ziye's voice was slightly trembling.

The crowd gradually sat down with their trembling bodies. They were extremely rigid as they looked at the forks and knives along with the long-legged glass. They were almost too scared to reach out to touch them.

Just the knife alone. To be stated blankly, if Immortal Xuanyuan was still alive and even if he hid in the handkerchief, this knife would have killed him in one go.

Chapter 300: How Exciting

Who would believe them if they told anyone about dining with a pile of Ultimate Spiritual Treasures?

Even they were unable to believe it themselves.

The crowd exchanged looks. They swallowed a mouthful of saliva with difficulty.

Sizz!

Meanwhile, Xiao Bai had already brought out portions of the steak and placed it quietly in front of the crowd. The oil was still jumping and sizzling around, making the steak vibrate slightly.

"Let me tell you, steak goes well with red wine." Li Nianfan smiled as he opened up the wooden jar by the side. "Although I don't have red wine now, grape wine works the same. Nice!"

The jar was filled with red liquid, looking stunning like a rose. A wave of fermented grape fragrance spread in the air. It was not strong but long-lasting.

Whoosh.

Xiao Bai was acting like a waiter, pouring the grape wine for the crowd.

The red grape wine flowed smoothly like a fountain, causing some ripples inside the glasses. It looked beautiful and stunning.

Indeed, beautiful and stunning.

If they did not see it with their own eyes, the crowd would not have believed that these terms could be used to describe wine.

“This...this is really wine?”

Immortal Linzhu could not help licking her lips. She looked blankly at the grape wine. She had not tasted it but she already felt drunk just by looking at it.

“Indeed,” Li Nianfan nodded. He said, “We can drink the wine later. The steak won’t taste as good once it’s chilled. Right, the steak should be eaten like this. Watch me and learn.”

With that said, Li Nianfan used his left hand to hold the fork and right hand to hold the knife. With a gentle cut, the steak was sliced. He then forked the meat into his mouth.

“The taste isn’t bad.” Li Nianfan nodded and chewed on the food in enjoyment. He commented, “Xiao Bai, don’t be lazy next time. Remember to flip both sides of the beef so the meat can be more evenly cooked.”

Xiao Bai instantly said, "My master found out! My master's so wise and observant with a good sense of smell. Xiao Bai's sorry."

"You're naughty." Li Nianfan smiled. He then looked at his guests and pestered, "Why aren't you eating yet? Hurry up and taste it. This is definitely delicious."

"Eat, we'll eat now."

The crowd's hearts sank. They bit their tongues as if going on a pilgrimage. They cautiously picked up the forks and knives.

Eating was not a problem, but this was their first time eating with Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures. How could they not get nervous? Who would believe this?

With difficulty, they held the knives and forks. Their hearts were beating rapidly.

They were finally able to touch Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures. So, this was how the Ultimate Heavenly Treasure felt like. They had to feel it better.

Li Nianfan's movements were not hard to imitate. Quickly, they all copied Li Nianfan's movements and picked up a piece of meat to put into their mouths.

At this moment, they wanted to cry.

Simply because eating with Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures was such a big deal!

What an honor!

"So...so delicious!"

Immortal Linzhu already snapped out from the shock. She focused on the delicious food, her eyes glowing.

The texture of the steak was top quality. It was soft and tender to bite. The meat was loose and relaxed but nice to chew on.

The muscles and fatty parts had been removed. The oil in the meat was equally spread out without any gamey taste. With every bite, juices were coming out, oozing with the purest fragrance and butter. The flavors were flirting with their taste buds without overpowering them with oil.

The texture was not too hard or soft, juicy but not greasy.

“So delicious!”

Immortal Linzhu could not find any other word to describe it. She always thought she had a high standard for food, and that anything other than the ambrosia from the Heavenly Temple could never be considered as delicious food.

Now, she realized how wrong she had been. So wrong!

Were those really ambrosia she ate back then? No, they were feces!

So, truly delicious food tasted like this. She finally had the privilege to taste them. Even if she had to give away all of her treasures, it would be extremely worthwhile, let alone the earlier two Heavenly Spiritual Treasures!

This was the attitude of a true food-lover!

Li Nianfan smiled at Immortal Linzhu. However, his smile stiffened.

He realized that this Immortal’s eating posture was somewhat strange.

Usually, one would cut the steak into smaller pieces. However, this Immortal did not cut it into small pieces. The meat she was putting into her mouth was half the size of a palm. Her cheeks were so puffed up while she chewed loudly.

Even though the steak Li Nianfan served was not small, it was likely to be finished by her in seven or eight bites.

She was indeed a true food-lover among the Immortals!

Li Nianfan hastily picked up the long-legged glass. He said, "Don't just eat the steak, have some wine."

In unison, everyone put down their forks and knives and picked up the wine glasses with respect. "Mr. Li, cheers to you."

However, it was not until then when they realized that they did not know how to use this treasure. They did not even know how to hold it.

"Everyone, hold it this way. It's fancy." Li Nianfan demonstrated. He then said, "Before we drink, we have to gently swirl the wine in the glass. This is to wake the wine up."

Ziye said, "Thank...thank you for teaching."

Of course, the crowd did not want to disappoint the expert. They all followed his movements.

Less than a quarter of the wine glass was filled. As they swirled their glasses, a faint glow and scent vaguely wafted out under the sunlight, quiet like the water.

Gradually, they realized that somehow, the wine inside the glass had gone through some changes. The color seemed to have grown more stunning while becoming clearer.

The wine seemed to be alive, almost as if it was moving.

This was the so-called grape wine illuminating the glass.

“Okay,” Li Nianfan said while lifting the glass to his lips. He took a gentle sip, his movements gentle and elegant.

Instantly, a gust of fragrance burst in their mouths. The sour and sweet liquid rolled around the tips of their tongues, followed by a thick wine scent tickling their taste buds.

This was different from the white wine. The grape wine was sour and sweet. It calmed one down, sedating one’s troubles as the wine settled down, making one feel as calm as water.

One word—relaxing.

Once the gourds were ready, he would use one to keep white wine and another to keep grape wine. What a life!

The others naturally followed Li Nianfan’s actions. They swallowed the wine as their cheeks flushed red. The wine did not intoxicate them. They intoxicated themselves.

In the next moment, their pupils dilated as they stared at the wine glass in their hands. They looked as if they were questioning their lives.

Apart from the taste of this grape wine, a shocking opportunity was inbuilt in the liquid as well. It was so shocking that the entire Immortal Land would be shocked!

“This... This is...”

Immortal Linzhu was dumbfounded. All of her power was moving. She could feel it, whether it was her power, her understanding, or her realm, they were all increasing rapidly!

They were growing so rapidly...so rapid that nobody could ever dream of growing so rapidly!

The others felt the same. They were so shocked that their brains almost exploded.

They knew that the expert had plenty of treasures all over. However, even the finest things would take some time to digest after ingesting.

According to the Insights contained in this alcohol, it would take at least one and a half years for them to digest it. However, their bodies were digesting it right away without a hint of impurities. It was as if they were gaining Insights through cultivation.

It was the effect of this wine glass!

It was indeed the Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasure! So powerful!

It could even have a purifying effect, allowing huge opportunities to enter the body.

So, the process of 'waking the wine up' was the way to use this Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasure!

Scary! How unbelievable!

If they shared this information, this would have shocked everyone!

For example, if an ordinary man drank this wine, he would be drunk for 1,000 years. He would become a powerful cultivator only after he woke up 1,000 years later. However, after being purified by this wine glass, it cut short the 1,000-year process right away!

Terrifying!

If this wine glass was given away, it would attract a violent fight, shaking all of the three realms. The expert had a whole box of them here.

The crowd could not help secretly glancing at the box with their eyes. Inside the box, there were rows of wine glasses placed side by side. They all shrunk their necks in unison.

Other than powerful, the crowd could not think of any other word to describe the shock in them.

With extremely perplexed feelings, the crowd finally finished this extremely luxurious feast.

They did not want the meal to end at all. After all, one glass of wine was equivalent to 100 years worth of intense cultivation. This meal was able to be instantly digested with no side effects!

However, they knew they could not get greedy. Being able to get one free meal at the expert's was already the greatest opportunity one could ever receive.

Therefore, seeing that Li Nianfan had stopped eating, they all stopped without hesitation. They did not dare to take one extra bite.

Except for Immortal Linzhu. Seeing that Ziyue had one small piece of uneaten steak, she quickly and unnoticeably reached out and swallowed it down right away. A blissful smile appeared on her face following that.

Seeing that the crowd had stopped eating, he smiled and asked, "Are you all full? How's the meal?"

"So satisfied, so satisfying. To be honest with you, Mr. Li, this meal is the best meal I've eaten in...hmm...one, two, three, four...hundred thousand years! This is truly delicious!" Immortal Linzhu half-leaned back. She was patting her rounded tummy while she squinted in bliss.

Hundred...thousand years?

Li Nianfan's smile instantly stiffened.

Oh, mother!

What was that? She lived for so long? Was she showing off her age?

'Look at her, she's lived for a hundred thousand years. I was so happy being able to live for another thousand years after drinking the blood of the phoenix. The delicious food in hand's no longer delicious!

'So triggering!

'Wait, what an Immortal she is. She's lived for a hundred thousand years and yet, she's still so young and energetic.

'Women who have lived for three thousand years would already be at the top, let alone a woman who has lived a hundred thousand years.

'Also, if she hasn't been in a relationship for a hundred thousand years, then...'

Gasp...

'Even the thought of it is terrifying!

'Thinking on a deeper level, how exciting would that be!'
