

Bigshot 35

Chapter 35: Seven Zeros

In the next two days, the stock of Tengfeng Group slowly recovered, but the increase was not big. Qin Sheng continued to buy while buying, and then bought more than 2 million shares.

On the third day, Tengfeng Group held a press conference.

At the press conference, a manager of HD Group appeared. The reporters had some vague guesses in their hearts, and the shutter of the camera was pressed more frequently.

An important department of the HD Group was the investment department. The number of companies that were invested in could be counted on two hands a year.

There were very few companies that the HD Group took a fancy to. As long as it invested in them, that company's development momentum would definitely be very good. It was a legend. It had sharp eyes and had never made an investment mistake. As long as it invested in it, it would make a huge profit.

The chairman behind the scenes of HD Group was even more legendary. Many people guessed that he was an experienced middle-aged man.

The fact that the chairman of Tengfeng Group had personally appeared at the press conference this time showed the importance he attached to HD Group.

The two signed the contract and shook hands. "Happy working together."

The manager of HD Group announced to the reporters, "Our company will provide funds and technical talents to Tengfeng Group. We hope that Tengfeng Group can have a good development in the future."

Boom!

Hearing this, the reporter completely blew up.

This was the first time he heard that HD Group would help other companies with technical talents. What kind of charm did this Tengfeng Group have to make HD Group set a precedent?

Later, countless rumors about the relationship between the bosses of the two companies spread. Little did they know that Fu Hanchuan only took a fancy to the value of Tengfeng Group's products.

An important reason for Tengfeng Group's failure was the lack of technology and talent. If they were given help in this area, they would develop rapidly.

Fu Hanchuan was a businessman in the business world, not a philanthropist. He would not do anything that would make him suffer.

From the beginning to the end of the press conference, the smile on the chairman of Tengfeng Group had never disappeared.

This was HD Group. How could he not be happy that he could invest in a company that was on the verge of bankruptcy?

Although he had given them 35% of the shares, compared to HD Group, this 35% was naturally not as important.

At the same time, Tengfeng Group's shares rose sharply. They rose for three days in a row and increased by 18 times. It was now 45 yuan per share.

Qin Sheng's capital also rose from more than 10 million to 200 million.

She narrowed her eyes and looked at the capital in her account. She counted the zeros on it several times. After a long while, a smile appeared on her lips.

In just over a week, she had earned close to 200 million from 300,000.

She was already a little rich woman.

Qin Sheng knew that this stock would not fall at the moment, but there was not much room for it to rise. She clicked on the mouse with her finger and sold all of it.

With a huge sum of more than 180 million, Qin Sheng was very generous and transferred 50 million to Hong Yuan's account.

The moment the funds arrived, Hong Yuan received the bank's information. He saw a series of zeros on it and thought that his eyes were playing tricks on him. He rubbed his eyes and they did not disappear.

When Hong Yuan counted for the first time, there were seven zeros...

Hong Yuan counted again, and it was still seven!

Another message was sent over. It was from Qin Sheng. "If the company's funds are not enough, you can ask me for more."

Hong Yuan: "..."

He originally thought that it was already considered good for a little girl like Qin Sheng to be able to take out 3 million. He didn't expect her to take out 50 million from the start!

When his company was at its peak, its total assets were only 30 million.

A man like him who had worked hard for many years couldn't even be compared to a little girl like her....
