

Bigshot 38

Chapter 38: Not Urgent

Teacher Lin smiled helplessly.

If she did not know that she had hit Lin Feng when she just arrived in Class 4, she would have thought that Qin Sheng was a good student.

“Have you been adapting to school recently?” Teacher Lin asked about Qin Sheng’s life.

“Yes.” Qin Sheng nodded.

Teacher Lin hesitated for a moment before asking, “What do you think about what happened today?”

Teacher Lin believed in Qin Sheng. Qin Sheng was arrogant and had a bottom line. She would definitely not be kept by others. She also knew the inside story. It would not be too bad for her to be placed in Class 1 by her family.

She was only worried that this incident would affect Qin Sheng. The violence of public opinion was enough to destroy a person. Those who could not bear it would easily commit suicide or suffer from depression.

As a form teacher, she had the obligation to not let anything happen to the students in her class.

Qin Sheng merely smiled and said indifferently, “I’m just bored. Their opinions have no effect on me.”

Teacher Lin heaved a sigh of relief. She smiled. It seemed that she was not wrong. Qin Sheng was very outstanding.

“Then how do you want to solve it?”

“Let nature take its course.”

She could already guess who had spread these words. Other than Qin Churou, who else could it be?

Qin Churou was a top student and was highly regarded in Class 1. She was also used to acting and got along well with others in school. No one would believe that she was spreading rumors.

People were born to gossip. Many people had the truth in front of them, but they still insisted on their own views. If they thought that you were kept as a mistress, then you had to be kept as a mistress. They would not admit their mistakes.

After a long time, there was no meaning. They would naturally stop.

Teacher Lin was choked by Qin Sheng’s words. She rubbed the space between her eyebrows. She had a headache.

If the person involved was not anxious, why would she be anxious?

Although it was difficult to find evidence to prove Qin Sheng’s innocence, Qin Sheng’s attitude was too indifferent. She felt stifled.

Teacher Lin did not want to see Qin Sheng anymore. She waved her hand and said, "You can go back."

When Qin Sheng left the office, she met the form teacher of Class 1, Liang Hua, who was also the English teacher of Class 4.

Liang Hua hated Qin Sheng to the extreme. As soon as she arrived at school, she heard the students talking about Qin Sheng being taken care of by an old man. She believed these rumors and subconsciously thought that Qin Sheng was this kind of person.

The person who arranged Qin Sheng to be in Class 1 was probably that old man.

Liang Hua did not know that Qin Sheng was a member of the Qin family. Qin Hai cared about his face and did not want others to know that Qin Sheng was his daughter. Hence, he warned the principal and the grade director not to tell others about the relationship between Qin Sheng and the Qin family.

Liang Hua was a little disappointed when she saw that Qin Sheng was not affected by the negative rumors.

However, she would not let go of the opportunity to mock Qin Sheng. She sneered and said, "You are indeed not a good student. You are a woman who studied in a romantic place at such a young age."

"Liang Hua, you are not worthy of the word 'teacher'." Qin Sheng did not give Teacher Liang any face and walked past her to leave.

1

Liang Hua was so angry that her chest heaved up and down vigorously. She walked into the office and transferred her anger onto Teacher Lin.

"Teacher Lin, you are very young. You don't know what students you can and cannot have. Let's see what kind of student your class will bring in. She is kept by a man and her moral character is corrupted. If this gets out, don't affect the top students of my Class 1."

Liang Hua was leading Class 1, the best class in H City High School. She felt that her status was higher than the other three head teachers.

She was also bossy to the three class teachers. The other two class teachers would also suck up to her. Only this Teacher Lin did not take her seriously.

Liang Hua would mock Teacher Lin from time to time.

She even wanted to kick Teacher Lin out of the school. Unfortunately, Teacher Lin had a big background.. The head of the academic affairs office rejected her request.