

Bigshot 451

Chapter 451 Doubled

Qin Hai's company was far from enough in H City. Gu Wen didn't have to give Qin Hai any face and directly ordered him to leave.

Seeing Gu Wen's firm attitude, Qin Hai didn't want to be slapped by Gu Wen.

Qin Hai snorted coldly and left.

As soon as he left the company, Qin Hai picked up his phone and ordered, "Find out who bought the land in the north of the city."

His face was gloomy.

Hundreds of millions of dollars had slipped away from his eyes. No one would feel good about it.

An idea formed in Qin Hai's mind.

If he didn't give the land to him, then don't blame him.

Two days later, the news media in H City were all reporting on the incident on Xinjian High School.

Dai Ren, the chairman of the Fei Long Group, was so angry that his whole body trembled when he saw the news.

Without a doubt, the price of that piece of property would definitely increase by several times.

That was a matter of billions, not a small amount.

Dai Ren was angry, but he couldn't do anything about Shengshi Technology.

If it was a normal company, he could secretly trip them up and always be able to vent his anger. He even dared to mess with the HD Group.

Only, Shengshi Technology, although it was just an unremarkable company, had a powerful hacker behind them, so he couldn't do anything to them.

If he provoked her and leaked the information of her company, it would be a fatal blow to the company.

Dai Ren didn't dare to gamble.

Dai Ren's eyes were fixed on the report in the newspaper. His eyes were filled with gloom.

If there was a chance, he would definitely take revenge on Shengshi Technology.

Since that hacker was protecting Shengshi Technology, then Shengshi Technology must be related to them!

Over here, Hong Yuan had also seen this news. He was dumbstruck. His boss had really guessed it right.

The housing prices had really doubled.

School district housing was very expensive.

And the only remaining area of Fang Real Estate was near the newly built high school. During the high school stage, parents attached importance to it. Many parents would rent or buy some houses near the school to accompany their children to school.

Hong Yuan suspected that Qin Sheng had heard the news beforehand. Otherwise, why would she be so confident?

Thinking of the land in the north of the city, Hong Yuan rubbed his hands together.

He was looking forward to the land price in the future.

It was news that Hong Yuan had seen in Shenghua Real Estate. He raised his eyebrows and looked at Fang You, who was sitting opposite him. "Are you losing money?"

This loss was naturally related to the fact that the price of Fang Real Estate had increased several times not long after it was bought by Qin Sheng. Fang You said nonchalantly, "If Boss had not bought our company, Fang Real Estate would have fallen into Dai Ren's hands. The price was ridiculously low. No matter what, I am very grateful to her."

Fang You was indeed stunned when he saw this news.

He had never thought that those houses would one day become school district buildings.

at those houses would

He also roughly understood that the Long Fei Group had framed them for having quality problems with their houses. It turned out that they had received insider information early on.

Because the purchasing manager had bought inferior materials, some houses did indeed have quality problems.

However, he did not know where Qin Sheng had hired an expert from. That expert was very authoritative and had done some appraisals on the construction and materials of the other houses.

It was also publicly reported on the news in H City. Other than the part of the houses that had been exposed as having quality problems, the rest had been built with good construction materials.

Originally, those people thought that all the houses in Fang Real Estate were of the same poor quality. Now, this highly authoritative expert personally announced that there was no problem with those houses. On the contrary, they were all built with high-quality materials.

Chapter 452: All-Intelligent Games

With this, their suspicions were completely dispelled.

There were also quite a number of people who approached Shenghua Real Estate to buy a house.

However, Qin Sheng had specifically instructed them not to sell the houses for a short period of time.

Fang You probably understood now that Qin Sheng was probably waiting for the news of the construction of the high school to be released.

Even Fang You had to admit that Qin Sheng was very powerful. She was only eighteen years old, but her abilities were already astonishing.

Many people would never be able to achieve what she had achieved in their entire lives.

It was hard for Fang You to imagine what kind of heights Qin Sheng would reach when she grew up completely.

When Fang You said this, there was no unwillingness in her eyes. Hong Yuan had been paying attention to Fang You's expression ever since he said that.

He did not see any unwillingness on Fang You's face. He could not help but nod in satisfaction.

Fang You was indeed a good person, so he didn't have to worry too much that he would betray Qin Sheng.

Hong Yuan raised his eyebrows and said, "Recently, Boss has bought a piece of land in the north of the city. You'll be in charge of it from now on."

Fang You had heard Qin Sheng mention this matter before, so he nodded. "Okay."

Although Hong Yuan was currently the deputy manager of Shenghua Real Estate, Qin Sheng was worried that Fang You wouldn't be able to handle it, so she asked Hong Yuan to help him.

Now that Shenghua Real Estate had stabilized, the game was at the most critical stage of development.

Hong Yuan had to focus on the game.

He was also going to propose to Qin Sheng that he would not be the assistant manager of Shenghua Real Estate.

Qin Sheng had arranged their work very clearly. Hong Yuan was in charge of Shengshi Technology, while Fang You was in charge of Shenghua Real Estate.

Hong Yuan returned to the company and held a meeting.

He looked at his subordinates. "The game is basically completed now. We have to do the following work well. We can't make any mistakes. Let's try to get the game online during the summer vacation."

The development of the all-intelligent game was not simple. Qin Sheng had developed it in her previous life, but it did not go online in the end.

Therefore, with a general idea and technology, Hong Yuan and the others did not need to spend too much time.

"General Manager, we will work hard."

When the subordinates heard this, they were very excited.

They could imagine the sensation that this game would bring when it went on the shelves.

There were indeed many games on the market that claimed to be all-intelligent, but the current technology did not support it. Therefore, this all-intelligent game was just a gimmick.

There were no real all-intelligent games.

And this game that they were developing, if it was successful, it would probably become an epoch-making existence for games.

They were already eagerly waiting for that day to come.

As for failure, they had never thought of it.

They had all participated in the development of this all-intelligent game. No one knew better than them how powerful the technology was, and they were confident that they could successfully develop it.

After Hong Yuan finished speaking, he arranged some more work for them.

Those subordinates were listening attentively, recording from time to time.

After Hong Yuan finished his instructions, he said, "That's all for today. You guys go and do your work first. If there are any problems, report them to me immediately."

Those employees left one after another.

Yu Bei did not leave. He came up and asked, "General Manager, do you think Boss will come at such a critical time?"

Hong Yuan's hand that was organizing the documents paused. Then, he looked at Yu Bei. "Are you going to call her over?"

Yu Bei immediately refused. "It's not like you don't know that she blocked my phone. I can't contact her, right?"

Actually, Yu Bei did not dare to look for Qin Sheng because he was afraid..

Chapter 453: Unfamiliar

After the incident last time, Qin Sheng had caught him talking bad about her. Yu Bei had been worried that Qin Sheng would take revenge on him and torture him again.

At that time, he would have to shut himself up again for a long time.

Hong Yuan naturally saw through Yu Bei's thoughts and did not expose it.

"Yu Bei, you'd better obediently do the work on hand. As for Boss, you'd better not count on her. Don't you see that every time she comes to the company, she runs faster than a rabbit? She's afraid that we'll find her."

Yu Bei didn't have too much hope that Qin Sheng would come to the company.

Hearing this, he nodded in agreement. "Forget it. If we're counting on her, we might as well do our own research."

Yu Bei was filled with regret. How could he have been provoked by Qin Sheng and challenge her to a competition? How could he have been forced into the company to be a coolie?

He had been abused again and again.

Yu Bei was still unwilling. He still had a lot of questions that he needed Qin Sheng's help to answer.

However, he did not dare to look for Qin Sheng.

Hong Yuan sorted out the documents in his hands and passed them to Su Yixiu. "Yixiu, take a good look at these documents."

"Okay."

Su Yixiu took them and casually flipped through a few pages.

Yu Bei's gaze suddenly landed on Su Yixiu, and his eyes kept rolling.

A thought formed in his mind.

Qin Sheng would not pay attention to him, but she would pay attention to Su Yixiu. Wasn't Su Yixiu Qin Sheng's classmate? Qin Sheng had specially recruited him.

Yu Bei smiled and said, "Yixiu, do me a favor?"

Su Yixiu glanced at him. "What?"

"Help me contact Boss and ask her to help solve some problems in the company."

Yu Bei thought about it and felt that it was too obvious.

Moreover, even if Qin Sheng came, he would not dare to look for her.

After thinking about it a few times, Yu Bei finally thought of a solution that he felt was not bad. "Wait here."

Yu Bei ran back to his office and dug out the procedural problems that he had long prepared.

Then, he came to the meeting room.

Su Yixiu did not leave. He was waiting for Yu Bei.

Yu Bei passed the few pages of paper to Su Yixiu. "Help me pass this to Boss and ask her to help answer it."

Su Yixiu frowned.

Yu Bei reminded him worriedly, "Don't tell her that I asked. Just say that it was an employee of the company who asked."

Su Yixiu did not say anything. He just returned the paper to Yu Bei.

"I'm not very close to her either. You can ask yourself."

Su Yixiu was not wrong. Su Yixiu was busy with studying and with his grandmother. However, Qin Sheng was the only person who could surpass him ever since he grew up.

That was why Su Yixiu paid more attention to Qin Sheng.

However, there was still very little contact between them.

Su Yixiu and Qin Sheng were not very close.

Yu Bei was anxious. "You're in the same school as her, and she specially recruited you. Aren't you close?"

Su Yixiu ignored him and left the office directly.

Yu Bei wanted to teach Su Yixiu a good lesson yesterday, but he was defeated by Su Yixiu. Since Su Yixiu said so, he did not dare to stop Su Yixiu anymore.

He understood that a genius could not be provoked.

Yu Bei could only take the few pieces of paper back to the office, face the computer, and start to find an answer.

It was not that Yu Bei could not answer these programming questions, but it would take a lot of time. Qin Sheng only needed to take a few glances to know how to answer them.

Therefore, Yu Bei wanted to ask Qin Sheng for help to save trouble.

But now, he could only solve them by himself..

Chapter 454 Questioned

The piece of land in the north of the city had been taken away, and Qin Hai could only watch as hundreds of millions of dollars were gone just like that. Qin Hai was unwilling to give up, so he sent people to find out who had bought Gu Wen's piece of land.

Because there was no clue, the people Qin Hai sent to investigate could only wait near the piece of land every day.

Two days later, Fang You personally came to check on the piece of land.

This was something Qin Sheng had specially instructed Hong Yuan to buy. Fang You valued it very much, so he personally came to take it over from Gu Wen.

This area in the north of the city was very remote, and there were few people.

Fang You did not know what was the use of buying this land, but Qin Sheng had instructed him. Fang You always felt that there was a reason for Qin Sheng to value this land so much. Fang You did not dare to underestimate it.

Fang You was inspecting the area, and Gu Wen was by his side explaining to him.

Qin Hai sent someone to take a photo of them.

Then, that person sent it to Qin Hai.

Qin Hai was processing documents. When he heard the notification on his phone, he frowned and opened it.

“Fang You?” Seeing the picture on it, Qin Hai immediately recognized the person in the photo as Fang You.

Fang You and Qin Hai were both in the real estate industry. The two of them had always been competitors, and Qin Hai hated Fang You both from the inside out.

Qin Hai was very disdainful of Fang You. He couldn’t be compared to Fang You in the past, but after experiencing a bankruptcy crisis, could Fang You be compared to him?

If Fang You swallowed the land, then let him spit it out.

Seeing that it was still early, Qin Hai directly went to Fang You’s company.

When he saw that the words ‘Fang Real Estate’ were no longer in front of the company’s door and that it was replaced by ‘Shenghua Real Estate’, he frowned.

When did he change the name?

Qin Hai did not know about the change of ownership of the real estate. The media had reported this matter, but Qin Hai was busy dealing with the company at the time and did not pay attention to it. At this moment, Qin Hai was completely confused. He went online and looked up Shenghua Real Estate.

There was very little information about Shenghua Real Estate. It only said that Shenghua Real Estate had acquired Fang Real Estate, and Fang You had continued to be the general manager of Shenghua Real Estate. There was also the fact that Shenghua Real Estate’s employees had basically not changed.

There was no specific mention of the behind-the-scenes boss of Shenghua Real Estate.

There were only some speculations.

Initially, Qin Hai thought that he could get that piece of land back, but now, he wasn’t sure.

Qin Hai was worried that the person behind Shenghua Real Estate was quite powerful.

After all, very few companies could swallow real estate.

Qin Hai thought about the companies that might swallow real estate, but he couldn’t find one.

Soon, Fang You returned from the north of the city.

“General Manager, Qin Hai is here to look for you,” an assistant said.

“Qin Hai?” Fang You frowned.

He and Qin Hai could be considered arch-enemies. They rarely talked. Even if they appeared together, they were competing for their own interests.

It was already good if the two didn’t fight.

Fang You couldn't understand why Qin Hai would come to look for him.

Fang You walked into the reception room. Qin Hai didn't even look at him and sneered, "Chief Fang, you're really good. You took my land away."

Qin Hai had just thought it through

Perhaps the boss behind Shenghua Real Estate wasn't that powerful.

Even if they were indeed powerful, they shouldn't be able to do anything to him.

From the beginning to the end, Qin Hai couldn't swallow this anger.

Therefore, at this moment, Qin Hai did not give Fang You much of a good impression.

Fang You walked over and did not care much about Qin Hai's words. "In a business competition, whoever gets the first prize will get the prize. You have not reached a contract with Gu Wen, so how can we snatch it?"

Chapter 455 Don't Regret

"We just didn't come to an agreement. I was the one who took a fancy to that piece of land," Qin Hai explained.

Fang You was speechless. He didn't know how Qin Hai had developed Qin Real Estate to this extent over the years.

"President Qin, now that we have signed the contract with Gu Wen, that land belongs to our Shenghua Real Estate. This is a fact that cannot be changed."

Qin Hai choked for a moment. He had been in the business world for many years. He naturally knew this principle.

But he was really unwilling to accept it.

Qin Hai frowned and his attitude softened. "Then, transfer the land to me. I'll buy it from you at the same price."

Fang You smiled but didn't agree.

Qin Hai advised, "Chief Fang, that piece of land is in a remote location. I think your Shenghua Real Estate doesn't value that piece of land that much. You might as well sell it to me."

Fang You raised his eyebrows. "Then, President Qin, since that piece of land is remote and you look down on it, why do you have to take it?"

"I have my own uses." Qin Hai said righteously.

"I'm sorry. Our Shenghua Real Estate also has its uses. Otherwise, why would we spend 120 million to buy it? After all, this is not a small amount."

Fang You's smile did not change, but it was obvious that he would not give that piece of land to Qin Hai if he wanted it.

Qin Hai's expression turned cold. "Fang You, take a step back. It's good for everyone. Are you deliberately going against me?"

Fang You could not be bothered to be polite with Qin Hai. "President Qin, you are wrong. In the business world, for the sake of our respective interests, there is no such thing as not giving in. You wanted to lower the price yourself, but you missed it. Who can you blame?"

Qin Hai was so angry that his face turned red. He stood up from his seat.

"Fang You, if you don't give it to me, don't blame me," Qin Hai said in a deep voice, "I'd like to see just how big of a background the boss of Shenghua Real Estate has! When that time comes, if something really happens, do you think you can still be the general manager?"

Qin Hai's words were full of threats.

Fang You didn't really care. He said calmly, "Go ahead."

He stood up and made a gesture of 'please'.

It was obvious that he was asking Qin Hai to leave.

Qin Hai waved his hand and said angrily, "Fang You, I hope you don't regret it."

After Qin Hai left, the smile on Fang You's face instantly disappeared. He frowned.

se

The assistant at the side asked, "General Manager, Qin Hai is a bit sinister. He will use some despicable methods. Will he do something to us?" Fang You also had a headache.

Back when he was still in Fang Real Estate, Qin Hai would often use some methods on the company, but they were all dealt with by him. If the company was still his, he did not have to be afraid of Qin Hai.

However, since the boss was Qin Sheng, he did not dare to let any mistakes happen to the company. After all, it was Qin Sheng who gave him hope and allowed him to continue managing the company. Fang You thought for a while and said, "I'll go and ask the boss first."

Qin Sheng was very capable. Fang You felt that Qin Sheng had a way to deal with Qin Hai's matter.

After saying that, he picked up his phone and told Qin Sheng about this matter.

Qin Sheng wasn't surprised to hear that.

She had asked Hong Yuan to buy the land that Qin Hai had set his eyes on. She had already expected Qin Hai to take revenge.

Qin Sheng did not like trouble, but she was not afraid of trouble when it came to certain matters.

The Qin family was one of them

as 01

Since this matter could annoy the Qin family, and she could also earn a good sum of money from it, naturally, Qin Sheng was willing to do it.

She flipped through the magazine in her hand and said nonchalantly, "Don't worry about him. If there's anything, let me know immediately."

Fang You nodded. "Okay."

Chapter 456 Cooking

He thought about the house that was still under construction before the acquisition and asked Qin Sheng, "Boss, do you want to start building a factory under the company's name? Boss, before the acquisition, the company was building a factory under its name. However, due to the previous disturbance, it was shelved. Do you want to start construction again?"

"You can make the arrangements. You have full authority over these matters."

After saying that, Qin Sheng hung up the phone and flipped through the medical textbooks in her hands again. When she was in school, she had already finished reading all the medical textbooks for the first semester of her freshman year during class break. Now, she was reading the next volume.

Qin Sheng's memory was extremely good. Basically, she would not forget the books she had read for three years.

Even if she forgot, she would still have some impressions. She only needed to flip through the textbooks and take a second look, and she would be able to memorize the knowledge.

Therefore, Qin Sheng was not worried that she would have to start all over again after learning all this knowledge.

Qin Sheng finished reading another book. She put down the textbook and looked at the time. It was already 5 o'clock.

Fu Hanchuan should have returned from the company. Qin Sheng went downstairs and curled up on the sofa, scrolling through her phone. She was waiting for Fu Hanchuan.

It was half-past 5 and Fu Hanchuan was still not back. Qin Sheng frowned and was about to call Fu Hanchuan when Fu Hanchuan called her.

"Sheng Sheng," Fu Hanchuan's doting voice came from the phone. "I might be back late tonight. I'll be back around 6. If you're hungry, Ask the maid to cook for you."

Fu Hanchuan did not know whether Qin Sheng knew how to cook or not, but he did not think of letting Qin Sheng cook alone.

In Fu Hanchuan's heart, Qin Sheng should be doted on. He would not think of letting Qin Sheng do some work. Even when he poured water, Fu Hanchuan would often help her. During the time that Qin Sheng lived in Fu Garden, Fu Hanchuan took care of Qin Sheng meticulously.

In the past, Fu Hanchuan was busy with work every day.

After meeting Qin Sheng, he wished that he could stay by Qin Sheng's side every day. Therefore, the HD Group's executives were surprised to find that their president was finally not a workaholic.

Qin Sheng nodded and reminded him, "Brother Fu, be careful."

"Okay." Fu Hanchuan smiled softly.

After hanging up the phone, Qin Sheng looked in the direction of the kitchen from time to time, struggling between whether to cook or not.

Qin Sheng wanted to cook a meal for Fu Hanchuan herself.

However, she could not forget the experience of entering the kitchen in her previous life. Every dish was either burnt or salty or bland. Anyway, it tasted terrible. However, compared to her frying, it was still relatively light. Qin Sheng struggled for a long time before she finally stood up and called a servant who could cook to teach her.

Qin Sheng entered the kitchen. The servant initially thought that teaching Qin Sheng would be an easy task. After all, Qin Sheng was smart and could learn anything very quickly. However, the servant did not expect that there would be people in the world who could basically learn everything at once, but towards cooking, there was a natural idiocy. "Miss Qin, are you cooking for Young Master?" the servant asked while helping Qin Sheng wash the vegetables.

"Yes." Qin Sheng nodded.

The servant immediately smiled. "Miss Qin, Young Master will be very happy when he knows that you are cooking for him. Previously, Young Master has always cooked for you. To be honest, this is the first time I have seen Young Master treat a person so well. Even Old Master Lu does not receive such treatment."

Qin Sheng felt a little uneasy.

She was really worried that the food she cooked would not taste right.

Chapter 457 Cooking 2

Qin Sheng's brows were tightly knitted. The servant helped Qin Sheng finish the dishes and started to guide Qin Sheng from the side.

"Miss Qin, cooking is not difficult. You are so smart. You will definitely learn it in one go."

Having said that, Qin Sheng did not have a shred of confidence in her heart. In her previous life, she had learned a few times and failed every time.

Qin Sheng knew what she was capable of.

She muttered softly, "Is that so?" The servant did not hear her. Seeing that the remaining water in the pot had been boiled dry, she asked Qin Sheng to start adding oil and then pour the seasonings in.

Everything went smoothly and there were basically no problems.

The servant smiled and said, "Miss Qin, look, isn't this very simple?"

Qin Sheng didn't say a word.

In her previous life, she had already learned the process, so there were naturally not many problems.

The main thing was... When it was time to add the seasoning.

The maid said, "Miss Qin, put a spoonful of salt in."

Qin Sheng frowned. She poured a part of the salt into the pot. The servant nodded and asked Qin Sheng to add some other seasoning.

The servant said, "Miss Qin, pour in some water and boil it for a while. Then you can fill it up."

Qin Sheng listened and poured in the water prepared by the side.

The servant didn't expect that in a blink of an eye, Qin Sheng would pour all the water in the pot down. "Miss Qin!"

The servant wanted to stop her, but it was too late.

Qin Sheng blinked and was very puzzled. "Is there a problem?"

The servant saw that the meat was submerged in the water. Even if they wanted to boil the water dry, it would take thirty minutes.

In short, this dish was considered useless.

The servant quickly said, "There's no problem. This should be a mistake. Let's continue."

Disappointment flashed in Qin Sheng's eyes.

It seemed that she had failed.

The servant was worried that Qin Sheng's confidence would be thwarted. She comforted her, "Miss Qin, this is your first time cooking, right? It's normal to make mistakes. Everyone is like this."

Next, the servant was worried that Qin Sheng would make such a mistake again.

So, she prepared just barely enough water in advance.

Qin Sheng did not make any mistakes. She made a total of three dishes, and they all looked very good. The servant nodded repeatedly. "Miss Qin, look, isn't cooking very simple?" Qin Sheng also heaved a sigh of relief and nodded.

The servant brought all the dishes to the dining table, and Fu Hanchuan came back.

Seeing that Qin Sheng was not in the living room, Fu Hanchuan frowned. Just as he was about to look for Qin Sheng, the servant came out of the dining room. She said respectfully, "Young Master, Miss Qin is in the dining room."

"Okay."

Fu Hanchuan answered calmly. He took a step forward and arrived at the dining room.

Qin Sheng had not taken off the apron she was wearing. Fu Garden's apron was based on Fu Hanchuan's height. When it was worn by Qin Sheng, it made her look very petite.

Fu Hanchuan was stunned for a moment before he walked quickly to Qin Sheng's side. "Sheng Sheng, did you cook dinner today?"

"Yes." Qin Sheng was quite nervous. She was worried that the food would taste bad. After all, she could not forget the history of her cooking in her previous life.

Finally, she added, "But it might taste terrible."

Fu Hanchuan's heart was filled with joy. Although he liked Qin Sheng cooking for him, he still felt sorry for her.

He took off Qin Sheng's apron. "Next time, don't do it yourself. Wait for me to come back, or let the servants cook."

"Okay," Qin Sheng answered obediently.

Fu Hanchuan smiled softly and went to the dining table to sit down.

Qin Sheng had just helped Fu Hanchuan to fill the bowl with rice. Fu Hanchuan picked up a piece of vegetables.

Qin Sheng was very nervous.

Chapter 458 Taste

Fu Hanchuan furrowed his brows and swallowed it. He looked at Qin Sheng with a doting gaze. "It's delicious. Sheng Sheng, you're amazing."

Fu Hanchuan tried the other two dishes.

Fu Hanchuan commented on them one by one, and all of them complimented the dishes. Qin Sheng felt relieved when she saw Fu Hanchuan eating with relish. She was worried that the dishes looked good, but the taste was not right.

She picked up her chopsticks and was ready to taste them.

Fu Hanchuan did not stop her. A smile flashed across his eyes. "Sheng Sheng, be mentally prepared."

Hearing Fu Hanchuan's words, Qin Sheng's heart jumped again. She picked up a piece of tomato from the egg and put it into her mouth.

A very salty taste spread in her mouth.

Qin Sheng frowned. Did she treat the salt as sugar?

Qin Sheng had always been unable to distinguish between salt and sugar. If it was in the past, she would have tried the taste in advance. However, with the help of the servant, Qin Sheng did not suspect that she had put in the wrong seasoning.

Little did she know that the servant also did not realize that she had put in the wrong seasoning. After all, Fu Hanchuan cooked alone. This servant had never been in charge of the kitchen, so she did not know the exact location of the salt and sugar.

In addition, she was not very close to Qin Sheng, so she could not see clearly.

The servant also did not know that Qin Sheng would not be able to distinguish between sugar and salt.

Fu Hanchuan very considerately placed a cup of water in front of Qin Sheng. Qin Sheng drank it, and the salty taste in her mouth was diluted a little. After that, Qin Sheng tried the other two dishes again.

The other dishes were not salty, but the taste was too light, and there was a little sweetness.

Qin Sheng frowned and swallowed.

It seemed that she was indeed not a good cook. After being reborn, she was still very useless.

Qin Sheng looked at Fu Hanchuan again. Fu Hanchuan was eating with relish.

She quickly brought the dishes to her side. "Brother Fu, don't eat anymore."

Fu Hanchuan smiled and said dotingly, "As long as it's made by Sheng Sheng, I like it. After all, this is the first time I've eaten your cooking. I can't waste it."

Qin Sheng felt warm in her heart, but she still insisted on her own thoughts. "Don't eat it. Just cook another serving."

The food was really terrible. Even she, who was not picky, found it hard to swallow, let alone Fu Hanchuan.

Fu Hanchuan saw that Qin Sheng insisted on cooking a new dinner. He could eat it himself, but he could not bear for Qin Sheng to eat the food with the wrong seasoning.

Even he had to admit that, uh... it was terrible.

Fu Hanchuan ate a few more mouthfuls of Qin Sheng's dishes. Seeing that Qin Sheng was anxious, he put down his bowl and chopsticks.

"Sheng Sheng, wait here for a while. I'll go cook some noodles."

Fu Hanchuan went into the kitchen.

Qin Sheng sat alone at the dining table. Looking at the failed products on the table, her brows were tightly knitted.

After a long while, she picked up the food and poured it into the trash can.

It did not take long to cook the noodles. In less than fifteen minutes, Fu Hanchuan came out with two bowls of noodles. He and Qin Sheng each had one bowl.

It was a very simple ingredient, but Fu Hanchuan managed to cook it to the level of a five-star chef.

Qin Sheng ate very slowly. She looked at Fu Hanchuan from time to time.

Qin Sheng felt that Fu Hanchuan was very considerate. She had lived in Fu Garden for several months. Fu Hanchuan took care of her life. Fu Hanchuan rarely talked about her matters to the servants.

She didn't know who would be able to marry him...

Chapter 459 Trouble

Qin Hai and Fang You had yet to reach an agreement. After returning to the company, he had sent people to keep an eye on Shenghua Real Estate.

It was not a secret that the factory under Shenghua Real Estate had reopened. Qin Hai had found out about it immediately.

After listening to his subordinate's report, Qin Hai's face turned gloomy. An idea formed in his mind.

He waved his hand and said, "Go out."

Just as his subordinate left, Li Yan walked in.

At this moment, Qin Hai was leaning against the back of his office chair, looking very tired. Li Yan walked behind Qin Hai and helped him press his temples. "Brother Hai, what happened this time?"

"It was Shenghua Real Estate that snatched the land that I wanted and humiliated me. In the end, they even chased me out of the company." Qin Hai was indignant.

He felt that he was not wrong.

He had bought the land first, but Shenghua Real Estate had taken it away. Shenghua Real Estate acted like a despicable person.

He had also lowered his attitude and begged them, but Fang You still did not give in.

Qin Hai hated them, so he wanted to find an opportunity to teach Shenghua Real Estate a lesson.

Li Yan frowned. "Brother Hai, who owns Shenghua Real Estate?"

Qin Hai replied, "It's a company that just started. It bought Fang Real Estate and founded Shenghua Real Estate."

"You don't know the background of the other party. Brother Hai, are you sure you want to deal with Shenghua Real Estate?" Li Yan analyzed as she massaged Qin Hai.

Qin Hai was disdainful. "Don't worry. Even if they have a background, they must have come from another city. A strong dragon cannot suppress a local snake. Even people in this city can't control the sky with one hand."

Even though he said that, Li Yan was still very worried.

She felt that Qin Hai was too reckless and that he dared to offend them without knowing their background.

In the end, Li Yan didn't open her mouth to stop Qin Hai. She knew Qin Hai's character very well. If she went up to stop him now, she was afraid that she would anger Qin Hai.

That factory was the only building being built by Shenghua Real Estate. The building was very important and they had to go there every day to take a look.

The factory reopened for two days, but there were no problems.

Fang You came near the factory and looked at the factory from afar. He asked the person-in-charge, "How long will it take to finish?"

"Fifteen days should be enough," the person-in-charge answered respectfully.

Fang You frowned and said, "Are the raw materials used to build the factory all good?"

The person in charge was very confident. "Chief Fang, don't worry. The raw materials for this factory are all carefully handled by me. There will definitely not be any problems."

Fang You's heart was still worried. He was not at ease.

He had a dream that night. He dreamed that something had happened to the factory.

It was very realistic. Fang You rarely dreamed, let alone dreamed that something would happen to the factory.

Although it was just a small dream, Fang You was still worried and came to the construction site early in the morning.

It was already noon, and Fang You didn't go back. He ate a box lunch sent by his assistant and continued to watch the construction of the foreman on the site.

"Chief Fang, there shouldn't be any problems here. You can go back and rest first," said the person in charge of the construction site.

Fang You rejected, "It's fine."

As they were talking, they heard the sound of a heavy object landing on the ground. Fang You hurriedly looked over.

He saw a person lying on the ground. There was a pool of blood on the ground.

For a moment, the scene was very chaotic.

Many people were making emergency calls.

There were also some people who were scared silly and didn't know what to do.

Chapter 460 He Was C

Fang You ran over to check his breathing. The foreman was still breathing weakly.

"How is it?" the person-in-charge asked anxiously.

Fang You didn't say anything. He was doing some first aid to the foreman.

The person-in-charge panicked. "He's the foreman. How did he fall from such a high floor?"

Fang You frowned.

The foreman had fallen from the tenth floor. Fortunately, he had fallen into the sand. His injury was serious, but it did not endanger his life as long as he got medical assistance.

The ambulance arrived very quickly.

Fang You felt that something was amiss. It was not uncommon for workers to have accidents, but it happened too coincidentally. It happened not long after Qin Hai had threatened him.

Moreover, this person was the foreman. It was very likely that Qin Hai had something to do with this matter.

Fang You followed the ambulance to the hospital.

The foreman was sent to the emergency room.

He did not dare to delay and immediately reported this matter to Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng frowned and asked, "Is he alright?"

"His life is not in danger at the moment," Fang You answered. After thinking for a while, he told his guess. "Boss, I suspect that this matter has something to do with Qin Hai."

"Okay, I got it. You don't have to worry about this matter first. I'll handle it."

After Qin Sheng hung up the phone, her beautiful brows furrowed.

Qin Sheng was indifferent. If it were any other time, she would not take these troubles to heart. However, this involved a human life, so she had no choice but to take it to heart.

Even if Fang You did not mention this matter, Qin Sheng could also guess that this matter was most likely related to Qin Hai.

Qin Sheng knew that Qin Hai would use some sinister methods to deal with Shenghua Real Estate, but she didn't expect that Qin Hai would disregard the safety of others.

Fu Hanchuan didn't go to the company today. He stayed at home to work. At this moment, he happened to sit next to Qin Sheng and noticed the sadness in Qin Sheng's eyes.

He asked worriedly, "What happened?"

Qin Sheng told Fu Hanchuan about what happened at the construction site. Fu Hanchuan frowned. "Do you need my help?"

Qin Sheng shook her head. "Not yet. I should be able to handle this matter myself."

Fu Hanchuan thought of Qin Sheng's hacking skills and felt helpless. His Sheng Sheng was too powerful, so it seemed that he was not very useful.

Fu Hanchuan hoped that he could help Qin Sheng a little.

He still did not give up and said, "Sheng Sheng, if you encounter any difficulties, remember to look for me."

This time, Qin Sheng did not refuse. She nodded and said, "Okay, definitely."

Fu Hanchuan analyzed, "If it was really done by Qin Hai, I think he would use media to publicize this matter. Previously, the matter of Fang Real Estate using low-quality materials to build houses should also be exposed."

"Sheng Sheng, Shenghua Real Estate has just recovered its reputation. If Qin Hai publicizes the foreman's matter together with the previous quality issue, I'm afraid the reputation of Shenghua Real Estate will drop drastically." Qin Sheng thought for a moment. "If we can find evidence of Qin Hai's contact with the foreman, the matter should be resolved. H City's surveillance cameras are everywhere. If we can pull up the surveillance cameras, we will be able to find some evidence."

However, this would take a lot of time.

Right now, the development of the all-intelligent game was at a critical stage. Yu Bei and the other hackers were indispensable. Qin Sheng was very conscientious and did not get Yu Bei and the others to help.

When she said this, Qin Sheng did not put up any defenses in front of Fu Hanchuan. She easily told him that she wanted to hack into the surveillance system of others to adjust the surveillance cameras. Fu Hanchuan could not help but laugh. His eyes were filled with love.

It seemed that he had to let his Sheng Sheng know as soon as possible that he was C.
