

Bigshot 461

Chapter 461 Finding a Way Out

Fu Hanchuan was always fighting Qin Sheng on Black Emperor under the disguise of 'C'.

As long as Qin Sheng logged into Black Emperor, he would definitely appear. However, if Qin Sheng was not there, Fu Hanchuan would not appear either.

As the top two experts on Black Emperor, they were naturally the center of attention.

Those hackers also discovered this rule and started to guess what the relationship between QS and 'C' was.

Many guesses spread on the internet.

Among them, the most recognized was that C and QS were very close friends.

Of course, there were also many people who thought that they were lovers. Although they were both men, it did not prevent them from falling in love. There were all kinds of guesses, but no one guessed that QS was a woman.

After all, Qin Sheng's arrogant appearance on the internet had already been deeply rooted in people's hearts. The moment she went on the Internet, she started to provoke all kinds of hacker experts.

When she competed with those hackers, they were beaten up in all aspects without any mercy.

Her tone was even more arrogant.

Those hackers only thought that QS was a big man with a stingy foot. Very few people would associate QS with a delicate girl.

As Fu Hanchuan had said, less than three hours after the foreman fell from the building, all kinds of media reports were covering the sky and earth.

[Shocking! Just when the quality problem of the House of Fang Real Estate, the predecessor of Shenghua Real Estate, was solved, this incident broke out again?]

(Shenghua Real Estate took over Fang Real Estate. It has only been five days since the factory was rebuilt, and the foreman jumped off the building to commit suicide?)

The following reports were all about the foreman being threatened by Shenghua Real Estate. The foreman couldn't bear the pressure and jumped off the factory that Shenghua Real Estate was building.

There was also a suicide note left by the foreman.

The suicide note did not specify what Shenghua Real Estate had threatened him with. It was ambiguous. This way, it made people even more suspicious of Shenghua Real Estate. Following that, all kinds of bad guesses followed.

Qin Hai's office, Qin Real Estate.

Qin Hai sat on the sofa. He looked at those reports and sneered with disdain. They were too inexperienced to fight with him.

He had to make them beg at his door. They had to obediently give him that piece of land without asking for a single cent.

Li Yan sent the documents in. "Chairman, this is the company's half a month's worth of data."

At this moment, Qin Hai's mood was much better. When he saw Li Yan, he couldn't wait to share it. "Yan'er, now that my plan has taken effect, you just wait and see. Gu Wen will definitely come begging to me. Otherwise, their company's reputation will be ruined."

Qin Hai showed a media report to Li Yan.

"Chairman, did you do this?" Li Yan looked at it and asked with a frown.

Qin Hai was very proud. "Yes, this matter can not be resolved by Shenghua Real Estate unless they beg me. When the time comes, they will ask me to agree to help them. It won't be so simple."

Li Yan knitted her brows tightly. She had a strange feeling in her heart. Logically speaking, the boss behind Shenghua Real Estate was very powerful. They would not be so easily schemed against and lost by Qin Hai.

She was only worried that after Shenghua Real Estate found out the truth, they would turn around and take revenge on Qin Hai.

Qin Hai was really a fool. Who knew how much trouble he would bring her in the future?

Qin Hai was very lucky in past few years. The company had never suffered any major setbacks, so it did not reflect Qin Hai's short-sightedness.

Now that the good luck had run out, Qin Hai was really useless.

It seemed that she had to find a way out for herself.

Chapter 462 Recording

Li Yan did not dare to tell Qin Hai what she was thinking. She exclaimed, "Chairman, I didn't think that you could think of such a method. I think that Shenghua Real Estate has been suppressed by you for the time being."

Being praised by Li Yan, Qin Hai was even more proud. "Of course. It's just a mere Shenghua Real Estate. It's not enough to fight with me."

Li Yan smiled and said, "Brother Hai, you're really amazing."

She was wearing a professional suit. Although she was also the mother of a son, Li Yan had been well-taken care of these past few years. Her age did not seem to have increased by much.

Qin Hai looked at Li Yan, and his heart was in turmoil.

He held Li Yan's hand and said, "Yan'er, I'm going to visit you and your son tonight."

Qin Hai had been busy with work during this period of time and had not been to Li Yan's apartment for a few weeks.

"Brother Hai, aren't you going to accompany Sister-in-law?" Li Yan asked with a smile.

Qin Hai was very disgusted and waved his hand. "Don't mention that woman. She only knows how to spend money all day and can't do anything at all. She has a fiery temper and can't even give birth to a son. Back then, I was blind to marry her."

As he said that, his fingers rubbed the back of Li Yan's hand affectionately. "Yan'er, you're the best."

Because she still had work to do, Li Yan didn't stay in Qin Hai's office for too long. After tidying up, she went out. There was still a hint of romance between her brows, and her lips were slightly swollen.

After this, Qin Hai was still unable to calm down his emotions.

He found Gu Wen's phone number and called him, showing off. "Gu Wen, how is it?"

Gu Wen narrowed his eyes. "It was your doing."

Qin Hai didn't hide the fact that he had done this matter. He smiled proudly. "It's not my fault. Who asked you to snatch my land back then? Gu Wen, I warned you. You brought this on yourself."

Gu Wen looked at the media report on the computer. "So, Qin Hai, you called to show off?"

"Yes." Qin Hai said disdainfully, "Gu Wen, have you thought about how to solve this?"

Gu Wen was silent. He only looked at the media reports seriously and did not take Qin Hai's words seriously.

Qin Hai's proud voice came from the phone again. "Hahaha, Gu Wen, you can't solve this, right? You won't be able to find any evidence on this matter. The reputation of your Shenghua Real Estate will definitely decline greatly. Let's see who else dares to buy your houses?"

"Gu Wen, your position as the general manager is about to be lost."

Gu Wen said slowly, "That foreman isn't dead. There will be evidence eventually. Qin Hai, you're too proud of yourself."

"What!" Qin Hai widened his eyes and asked in disbelief, "He's not dead!? He fell from such a high floor. It's impossible that he's not dead!"

Gu Wen said with a smile, "So, shouldn't you think of a way out?"

Qin Hai only panicked for a moment before he regained his rationality. "Gu Wen, do you think that the foreman will tell the truth?"

"Let's wait and see."

Gu Wen said these four words and hung up the phone.

Gu Wen opened the recording of the conversation between Qin Hai and himself.

He had been a competitor with Qin Hai for many years. Gu Wen naturally knew Qin Hai's personality. Calling him at this moment was nothing more than showing off.

Therefore, Gu Wen recorded the conversation in advance and also got Qin Hai's words out of the phone. Gu Wen was quite speechless with Qin Hai. He was really so stupid that he was pitiful. Wasn't he worried that others would record the conversation? Gu Wen sent the phone recording to Qin Sheng.

Chapter 463 Vegetative State

On the other side, Qin Hai originally wanted to show off in front of Gu Wen, but he didn't expect that he would be the one who suffered a setback.

Qin Hai was very flustered. He quickly called his subordinate and instructed, "Immediately investigate the current situation of the foreman of Shenghua Real Estate."

This matter wasn't difficult to investigate. In less than an hour, the subordinate reported, "Chairman, according to our understanding, he seems to have injured his head. Now that he's in a vegetative state, he won't be able to wake up for a while."

Qin Hai was visibly relieved.

He thought of Gu Wen's words and curled his lips in disdain. Gu Wen actually wanted to threaten him!

Now that the foreman was in a vegetative state, there was not much difference between him and death. If Gu Wen wanted to find evidence, wasn't he dreaming?!

Qin Hai continued to read the media reports. The discussion on Shenghua Real Estate was very intense.

It even became a trending topic on Weibo.

(Before this, there were quality problems with the real estate properties. Later, experts came forward to prove that the remaining properties were of excellent quality. Shenghua Real Estate even resisted the purchase of the properties. Only then did I believe in Shenghua Real Estate. I didn't expect that it was just a show.)

(I don't dare to buy this Shenghua Real Estate's houses.)

[It's too disgusting. I guess this foreman must have stumbled upon Shenghua Real Estate's unspeakable secret. That's why he was threatened. In the end, he was forced to jump off the building.]

Qin Hai looked at these comments and felt extremely comfortable in his heart.

Under such public opinion, even if Shenghua Real Estate didn't die, it would lose a layer of skin!

On Qin Sheng's side, seeing the more intense public opinion, she didn't care and just threw her phone aside.

Qin Sheng targeted the foreman. As long as she could find traces of this foreman, she would basically be able to find the records.

With that evidence, it would prove the innocence of Shenghua Real Estate. The only regret was that Qin Hai would push all the blame onto his employees, and he himself was out of the picture.

Qin Sheng flipped through the records. She only paid attention to the whereabouts of the foreman for the past two days.

The interface of the computer was switched one by one. The surveillance cameras followed the foreman one by one. Qin Sheng spent five hours to check the travel records of the foreman two days before the accident.

The foreman did not contact anyone suspicious that day, so there was a high probability that it was the day before the foreman's accident.

Qin Sheng looked at the time. It was already 8 o'clock in the evening. She did not continue searching

Qin Sheng took out her phone and opened the recording of the call she received from the room.

Qin Sheng narrowed her eyes. It seemed that this recording could be placed last. This time, Qin Sheng did not plan to let Qin Hai off.

She needed to teach Qin Hai a lesson. Otherwise, Qin Hai would not learn his lesson again and again and would find trouble with her again and again.

Qin Sheng picked up her phone and ordered, "Uncle Hong, check Qin Hai's recent whereabouts."

This was the first time Qin Sheng had asked Hong Yuan to check Qin Hai's whereabouts. Hong Yuan was a little excited. He asked carefully, "Boss, are you preparing to deal with Qin Hai?"

Qin Sheng did not hide anything. She nodded. "Yes."

"Okay, I'll do it right away."

Hong Yuan agreed. He had long disliked Qin Hai. This time, Qin Sheng was prepared to deal with Qin Hai, so Hong Yuan agreed immediately.

After hanging up, Hong Yuan instructed his secretary to do it.

Hong Yuan also saw the media reports smearing Shenghua Real Estate, but he did not pay too much attention to it.

In Hong Yuan's eyes, anything could be solved by Qin Sheng.

Therefore, Hong Yuan was not worried that Shenghua Real Estate would be severely injured.

Instead, he was worried about the people who were hindering Qin Sheng.

Chapter 464 Fu Hanchuan Was Hacker

After giving instructions, Qin Sheng logged into Black Emperor.

Fu Hanchuan also followed her into Black Emperor.

This time, Fu Hanchuan did not directly invite Qin Sheng to compete. Instead, he privately messaged her.

[C: QS, your name is Qin Sheng. You are 18 years old this year. You are currently a senior in high school in H City.]

When Qin Sheng saw this, her beautiful brows furrowed.

(QS: You Hacked into my computer?)

Qin Sheng had personally set up a protective system for her computer. Not to mention ordinary hackers, even the top ten hackers in the world could not break through it.

Qin Sheng did not understand what had gone wrong.

How did C know such detailed information about her?

Fu Hanchuan's lips curled up as he typed, [No invasion.]

Qin Sheng sent a few question marks over.

Fu Hanchuan smiled dotingly.

[C: I've seen you go to Black Emperor. You've said it yourself, you're QS.]

Qin Sheng frowned. She had always logged into Black Emperor in her room. Very few people would enter or leave her room, except for him...

A figure flashed through her mind.

She asked in surprise, [Are you Brother Fu?]

Qin Sheng also thought of it. Wasn't C the initial of the last word in Fu Hanchuan's name?

[C: Yes.]

Fu Hanchuan quickly agreed. A second later, another message popped up in Qin Shen's message dialog box. [C: Sheng Sheng, I've always been the one competing with you. I tampered with some of Black Emperor's programs without permission. As soon as you're online, a message will be sent to my phone.)

Fu Hanchuan did not hide anything and told her everything

Fu Hanchuan was very glad that he did not listen to Lu Ming and target Qin Sheng.

He was very sure that his Hacker C code name had never gone against Qin Sheng.

He was the one who dared to reveal his identity in front of Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng was very curious.

(QS: Brother Fu, aren't you very busy?) Qin Sheng's memory was very good. When she logged into Black Emperor, Fu Hanchuan had to work a few times.

She really could not understand why Fu Hanchuan would waste his time competing with her on Black Emperor.

The competition on Black Emperor was just entertainment.

Fu Hanchuan replied very quickly.

[C: Work is far less important than Sheng Sheng.]

Qin Sheng's face turned hot, and a hint of panic flashed in her eyes.

Her fingertips quickly tapped on the computer keyboard. (Brother Fu, let's have another match.)

Qin Sheng missed this topic very well. A hint of indulgence flashed across Fu Hanchuan's eyes, but he did not continue. His little girl was going to be shy. After Fu Hanchuan and Qin Sheng's match, Qin Sheng felt a little uncomfortable. She only had one match before she went offline.

Fu Hanchuan leaned against his office chair and smiled dotingly when he saw the hacker logo that Qin Sheng had hidden.

Qin Sheng's hacker logo was a little pig. Fu Hanchuan's mind moved slightly and he switched to a similar one.

Now that Qin Sheng already knew that Fu Hanchuan was C, Fu Hanchuan didn't have to worry too much.

Lu Ming had been watching Fu Hanchuan and Qin Sheng's match. Qin Sheng had exited the game and he was just about to go up and look for Fu Hanchuan.

When he saw Fu Hanchuan's hacker profile picture, he vaguely felt that it was very familiar.

After thinking for a while, he quickly ran over to check Qin Sheng's hacker profile picture.

"Cough, cough, cough."

Lu Ming spat out a mouthful of water.

His brother's... this... what operation was this?

A logo that was similar to QS?!

It looked like a couple's picture. No, his brother, didn't he like Qin Sheng? Dare to get along with QS so weirdly, and couple logos!

D*mn, did his sister-in-law know?

Chapter 465 Suspected That Qin Sheng Was QS?

Lu Ming coughed a few times and wiped away the remaining water on his mouth.

He quickly typed on the keyboard.

(The Most Handsome In the Universe: Brother, aren't you afraid that Sister-in-law will be jealous if she finds out?)

Lu Ming was very confused.

When did his brother become so flirtatious?

Fu Hanchuan did not answer. Lu Ming's brain had a few more twists, and his hands moved very quickly as well. He then sent a message over.

(The Most Handsome In the Universe: F*ck, Brother, are you trying to cheat?)

Fu Hanchuan was in a good mood today. In the past, he would not let Lu Ming off so easily.

At this moment, he only glanced at him indifferently. He ignored him and went offline.

Lu Ming was very curious. Why would Fu Hanchuan change his profile picture to something similar to QS?

His brother was not a playboy. In addition to the fact that he cared about Qin Sheng, he would flirt with a man?

QS, Qin Sheng Lu Ming felt that he was about to guess the truth.

QS and Qin Sheng's names were too similar. Also, his brother's attitude towards QS...

Could it be that QS was really Qin Sheng?

Lu Ming's body trembled.

He rejected QS as Qin Sheng.

In Lu Ming's eyes, Qin Sheng was already a little pervert who was better than him in all aspects. The only thing he could rely on was his hacking skills. Now that he was told that Qin Sheng was QS, she was suppressing him all over the Internet. She even caused him to lose a lot of face?

If he, Lu Ming, lost to a woman in hacking skills, could he still have any face? More importantly, he had repeatedly provoked QS on the internet, saying that QS was a man like a woman.

It was not that Lu Ming had never suspected that QS was Qin Sheng, but he did not want to believe that a woman was better than him in terms of hacking skills.

However, Fu Hanchuan's actions now made Lu Ming suspect that QS was Qin Sheng.

Lu Ming put his palms together and looked at the ceiling. He mumbled, "God bless, QS must not be Qin Sheng."

Although Lu Ming was almost certain that Qin Sheng was QS, he still felt a little lucky.

Qin Sheng woke up early the next day and continued to search for the foreman's whereabouts.

The day before the accident, the foreman had met with a department manager of Qin Real Estate.

On the surveillance video, Chen Gui had a long conversation with the department manager. The foreman seemed to be struggling. In the end, under the persuasion of the department manager, the foreman nodded and took the money that the department manager had given him.

Their voices were also recorded.

However, sometimes the voices were louder. Most of the time, the voices were very low and could not be heard clearly.

Qin Sheng intercepted the surveillance video, but she still felt that it wasn't enough.

Just this amount of money alone wasn't enough to send the foreman to his death. If he fell from the tenth floor, there was a high chance that he wouldn't survive. However, the foreman was lucky and fell on the sand, which saved his life.

Just as she was thinking about this, Fang You made another call to Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng put her phone to her ear and answered the call.

"Boss," Fang You reported, "There was an accident on Chen Gui's side. He seems to have terminal cancer and can live for less than two months."

This 'Chen Gui' was naturally referring to the foreman.

Fang You guessed the reason why the foreman was willing to jump down from the tenth floor, so he told Qin Sheng about this matter.

Qin Sheng's fingertips lightly tapped on the table. "Okay, I got it."

After hanging up the phone, Qin Sheng's brows furrowed. She thought for a moment and then turned on the computer.

Her fingertips flew over the keyboard of the computer, and the interface of the computer changed one by one.

Chapter 466 Press Conference 1

Qin Sheng hacked into the computer system of the H City's No. 1 Hospital in H City and tried to enter Chen Gui's name. Soon, she found Chen Gui's examination records.

The personal information displayed on it was indeed the foreman.

Qin Sheng narrowed her eyes and began to check Chen Gui's examination records. It was written clearly that Chen Gui indeed had terminal stomach cancer and did not have much time to live.

However, there was no record of Chen Gui's treatment.

Presumably, he did not want to waste money on it.

Qin Sheng leaned back in the chair and thought.

If Chen Gui had terminal cancer, then all of this would make sense.

Since he would die anyway, it would be better if he could get a sum of money even if he died.

Qin Sheng then retrieved Chen Gui's examination records from the hospital.

With this evidence, it was enough to teach Qin Hai a lesson.

Qin Sheng turned off her computer and turned on her phone. The matter of Shenghua Real Estate was still trending on Weibo. Those posts were all aimed at Shenghua Real Estate.

Even if someone stood up for Shenghua Real Estate, they would be badly criticized.

They would say that they were the lackeys of Shenghua Real Estate, and that Shenghua Real Estate had sent people to whitewash their name.

It was obvious that they were all from the water army.

Needless to say, this was all thanks to Qin Hai. Qin Sheng put down her phone and didn't intend to pay attention to it.

It wouldn't be too late for her to take action after the matter was thoroughly blown up.

On Weibo and in other news reports, the public opinion about Shenghua Real Estate was faintly showing some uncontrollable trends.

Qin Hai had been constantly looking at his phone and reading the reports of the major media over the past two days.

Seeing that they were all attacking Shenghua Real Estate, he wanted to ask Shenghua Real Estate for an explanation. However, Shenghua Real Estate remained silent and did not give any explanation.

The media all felt that Shenghua Real Estate was afraid.

Qin Hai smiled smugly. Shenghua Real Estate was doomed this time unless they came to him and asked him to clarify things for them.

They actually dared to fight over land with him? They were not qualified enough!

Qin Hai was still waiting for Fang You to come over, while Qin Sheng had already started to arrange for Fang You to hold a press conference.

The public opinion was getting more and more heated.

Fang You was very anxious. "The press conference will only be held in two days. However, there have been reporters stationed near the company for the past few days. I'm really worried that Qin Hai will come up with something else."

Fang You was on the phone with Hong Yuan.

Hong Yuan appeared much calmer compared to Fang You.

He was not worried that something would happen to Shenghua Real Estate. Instead, he was worried for the troublemakers.

Qin Hai would not be having an easy time for the next few days.

Hong Yuan smiled and said, "Old Fang, don't worry. I think you know Boss' ability. Can others benefit from her? It's already good enough that she doesn't punish others."

Hearing this, Fang You's heart gradually calmed down.

He nodded and agreed very much. "Boss is indeed very powerful. However, can this matter be resolved perfectly?"

Fang You didn't know that Qin Sheng had already found all the evidence. Moreover, he hadn't been by Qin Sheng's side for long.

Fang You had some doubts about whether Qin Sheng could resolve this matter.

It wasn't that Qin Sheng's abilities weren't high, but this crisis was very difficult to handle.

Hong Yuan raised his eyebrows and said nonchalantly, "Just wait and see. Qin Hai won't have a good life in the future. Our boss won't be bullied so easily."

Hong Yuan's tone was very confident, and Fang You smiled. "Alright, then I'll wait and see."

Chapter 467 Press Conference 2

Two days later, the public opinion on Shenghua Real Estate had reached its peak.

Since the incident, Shenghua Real Estate had never made an appearance. They didn't say anything, and many people were biased toward the bad guesses in the news media.

Was Shenghua Real Estate really innocent? How could there not be a clarification after four days? It was obvious that Shenghua Real Estate was guilty. And on this afternoon, Fang You announced that a press conference would be held. Regarding the foreman jumping off the tenth floor and becoming a vegetable, this matter was very big. Those media reporters had been paying attention to this situation.

At this moment, seeing that Shenghua Real Estate was holding a press conference, almost all the well-known media organizations in H City had sent people to attend.

The hall was packed with people.

This press conference was a live broadcast, broadcasted on the entire Internet.

Qin Hai had naturally received the news early on. He sat in his office and looked disdainfully at Fang You on the live broadcast.

He wanted to see what Fang You would say.

A struggle at death's door?

At the press conference, Fang You sat in the middle.

The flashing lights kept falling on Fang You.

The reporters below the stage kept asking, "Chief Fang, what do you think about Chen Gui jumping down from the tenth floor this time?"

"Chief Fang, How do you explain the suicide note that Chen Gui left behind?" "Did your Shenghua Real Estate threaten Chen Gui, as everyone guessed, and directly cause Chen Gui to jump to his death?"

"Chief Fang, isn't Shenghua Real Estate in the wrong not to come forward to explain for four days?"

"In order to cover up its own unspeakable secret, Shenghua Real Estate asked the foreman to commit suicide. How can you make others believe you?"

The reporters' tone was very aggressive.

Fang You raised his hand and interrupted the reporters' words. The venue instantly fell silent.

Fang You looked into the microphone and smiled, "Today's press conference is to resolve the incident with the foreman four days ago. Chen Gui's accident was because someone wanted to frame our Shenghua Real Estate and used improper means."

When Fang You said this, the venue was in an uproar, and voices rang out again.

The reporter asked, "Chief Fang, who framed Shenghua Real Estate? Do you have evidence?"

Fang You smiled. "Of course we have evidence. We won't comment on the person who framed us for the time being. You can take a look at our surveillance footage and information first."

Fang You gave his assistant, who was standing at the side, a look.

The assistant understood. He walked to a computer and turned on the prepared surveillance footage.

The first shot was of the department manager of Qin Real Estate.

The footage was not very clear. They could not recognize the person at the moment.

The department manager often went out to talk about collaboration. One of the reporters recognized him.

He said in surprise, "Isn't this one of the department managers of Qin Real Estate?"

Qin Hai was watching the live broadcast. When he saw this video, his heart tightened.

How could it be?

How could this video be leaked?

Cold sweat kept dripping down his forehead.

The department manager appeared, followed by Chen Gui.

"How could this Chen Gui appear with this department manager? And from the time on the video, it was the day before Chen Gui's accident. So, this is a conspiracy of Qin Real Estate?" A reporter was very confused. Her words were synchronized on the live broadcast.

Qin Hai also heard it. He suddenly clenched his fists.

His palms were also sweating profusely. He was nervous.

Chapter 468 Press Conference 3

Qin Hai had never thought that something would be exposed one day. He had been very careful when arranging this matter. Moreover, Chen Gui had become a vegetable. As long as he didn't say anything, basically no one would find out anything.

Now, how did Fang You find out?

Qin Hai's face was pale.

Over here, the other reporters were discussing in low voices.

They were also looking at the monitor on the big screen. The monitor was very blurry, but the movements between Chen Gui and the department manager could be clearly seen.

Obviously, one was trying to persuade, and the other was struggling.

Their voices were intermittent, but a few key words clearly entered the ears of everyone at the press conference, and naturally also spread to the internet.

“If you go and commit suicide, you must make everyone think that it was Shenghua Real Estate that forced you to jump off the building!”

Boom—

As soon as these words were said, the entire venue exploded.

“So this is a conspiracy. This department manager had bribed Chen Gui to commit suicide so that he could pin all the blame on Shenghua Real Estate. It’s too despicable!”

“Qin Real Estate is using improper methods to deal with Shenghua Real Estate. Is this considered breaking the law?”

“So this Shenghua Real Estate is also a victim. We should be looking for Qin Real Estate, not Shenghua Real Estate.”

Everyone was having a heated discussion.

Of course, they also put a part of their attention on the rest of the video. It was basically hard to hear the discussion between Chen Gui and the department manager of Qin Real Estate.

When they saw the manager give Chen Gui a stack of cash...

They were even more insistent on their own thoughts.

The department manager of Qin Real Estate was indeed bribing Chen Gui!

When the video stopped, they could not calm down for a long time. Unexpectedly, Shenghua Real Estate, which they had been attacking for the past few days, was a victim.

A reporter frowned and asked, “Chief Fang, then why did Chen Gui jump off the building? He fell from the tenth floor and basically could not survive. He chose to jump off the building. It’s not just about the money, right?”

Fang You raised his eyebrows.

It seemed that his boss was really amazing. She could guess what questions the reporters would ask him.

Fang You looked at his assistant. The assistant understood and switched the page on the computer.

A picture appeared on the big screen. It was Chen Gui’s check-up record from the biggest hospital in H City.

Fang You: "Chen Gui has stomach cancer and is in the terminal stage. Chen Gui knows that he has less than two months left. Why not use these two months to exchange for a large sum of money?"

The reporters all frowned.

The hospital's inspection record did not seem to be fake.

Moreover, if it was faked in front of the entire country, it would be easily exposed. Wouldn't that be a slap in the face?

If Fang You really said that, then Chen Gui's choice to jump off a building would not be questioned.

"Other than this, there is still evidence."

A male voice sounded from the door. It was Assistant Lin's voice.

He walked in with a leather file in his hand.

As the chief assistant of the HD Group's CEO, Assistant Lin often appeared in front of the media. These media reporters were naturally recognized by Assistant Lin. They swarmed up and surrounded Assistant Lin.

"Assistant Lin, today is Shenghua Real Estate's press conference. Why are you here?" "Assistant Lin, what evidence are you talking about?"

"Assistant Lin, what is your relationship with Shenghua Real Estate, or HD Group and Shenghua Real Estate?"

Chapter 469 Support

Assistant Lin did not say anything. He went directly to Fang You's side.

"Hello, Chief Fang." Assistant Lin extended his hand.

Fang You was momentarily stunned. He had not expected Assistant Lin to come to the press conference.

Although he was only a special assistant, the HD Group was large and powerful. Assistant Lin even represented the CEO of the HD Group.

Even Fang You's company, which was quite large in H City, had a hard time meeting Assistant Lin.

Fang You stretched out his hand in shock and shook Assistant Lin's hand. "Hello." Assistant Lin nodded. "The CEO sent me over to give this to you."

Fang You frowned and took it.

After opening the document bag, he saw the title on the contract. He was a little stunned.

"This is?"

Assistant Lin smiled and said, "This is the department manager that you mentioned and the agreement that Chen Gui secretly signed."

When Fang You saw the contents, he opened his mouth in disbelief.

He thought that his boss was already very impressive if she could get her hands on the surveillance footage and the records of Chen Gui's examination at the hospital.

He did not expect that someone would find out about the contract that had already been signed.

Assistant Lin did not deliberately lower his voice. His words were clearly heard by everyone present.

ere

They were very confused. What contract? Some of them were also very smart. They quickly figured out what kind of contract Assistant Lin had given to Fang You. "Could it be an agreement between Chen Gui and the department manager?"

Fang You quickly looked through the contract and then arranged for his assistant to help him project the contract onto the big screen.

The contract clearly stated the requirements of both parties.

The department manager would first give Chen Gui 200,000 yuan. After the deed was done, he would give him another 2 million yuan and promise to pay for his daughter's tuition and miscellaneous fees.

The contract was also signed.

When this contract came out, the department manager bribed Chen Gui and framed him. There was no escape.

Fang You looked at the time and asked, "Do you have any other questions?"

A reporter quickly asked Fang You, "Chief Fang, Fang Real Estate was bought by Shenghua Real Estate. You continue to be the general manager. I would like to ask, who is the behind-the-scenes boss of Shenghua Real Estate? Is it convenient for you to tell me?"

Fang You had a professional smile on his face. "When the time is up, you will naturally know."

The reporter still did not give up. "Can you reveal a bit of information about them?"

Fang You thought for a moment and replied, "She is very powerful. Also, I advise some people not to focus their attention on Shenghua Real Estate. My boss is not someone that anyone can afford to offend." Hearing Fang You's answer, the reporter knew that she could not get anything out of him. She did not continue asking. "Okay, thank you, Chief Fang."

Another reporter asked, "May I ask what is the relationship between Shenghua Real Estate and HD Group?"

Fang You did not answer. He also did not know if Qin Sheng was related to HD Group, so Fang You did not dare to answer this question rashly.

However, Assistant Lin answered, "Your boss and my president are close. She can be said to be the most important person to my president. I advise some people that if they offend Shenghua Real Estate, they will offend HD Group."

The reporters were full of doubts.

Why did they feel that Assistant Lin's words made the bosses of the two companies sound like a couple?
The boss of Shenghua Real Estate was female?

Chapter 470 Support 2

The moment this thought popped up, they had ditched it.

To be able to support such a large company, and from the resolution of this crisis, it could be seen that the behind-the-scenes boss of Shenghua Real Estate was not a simple person.

How could it be a female?

Shenghua Real Estate was the first company that HD Group put out the word to protect.

However, no matter what, with the backing of HD Group, those companies would not dare to provoke Shenghua Real Estate in the future.

As for the fact that Qin Real Estate dared to plot against Shenghua Real Estate, they could only sympathize with Qin Hai for a second.

The other reporters wanted to ask Fang You and Assistant Lin for more information about the behind-the-scenes boss of Shenghua Real Estate and HD Group. Fang You had already announced the end of the press conference.

Those reporters did not stay any longer.

They rushed back to the newspaper office and started to rush the draft.

The events that happened at the press conference were not small. They had to send out the news report as soon as possible to grab some traffic.

Qin Hai's office.

Qin Hai was so angry that he turned off his computer.

His hands were shaking. He still could not understand how a flawless matter could be easily found out by Shenghua Real Estate.

Moreover, the backing of Shenghua Real Estate was actually HD Group!

Qin Hai was both angry and afraid.

His hands were trembling. He picked up his phone and ordered, "Tell Qi Ping to come to my office immediately."

Two minutes later, Qi Ping came over.

"Chairman."

Qin Hai looked at him with a heavy gaze.

Qi Ping's heart skipped a beat. He had a very bad feeling

He asked very carefully, "Chairman, what happened?"

Qin Hai's voice was heavy. "How did you do it? You actually exposed the matter. Now everyone knows that you bribed Chen Gui to frame Shenghua Real Estate."

"Qi Ping, just because of a trash like you, Shenghua Real Estate has been cleared. Instead, they suspect us!"

"Chairman, that's impossible!" Qi Ping denied subconsciously. "I was very careful. No one noticed us at that time."

"Okay, then take a look!"

Qin Hai was so angry that his heart was aching. He turned on his phone and showed the replay of the live broadcast to Qi Ping.

Qi Ping saw the video at a glance. It was very familiar. It was the video of him and Chen Gui meeting

Qi Ping looked at the video in his hand and froze on the spot.

He was very flustered. "I'm sorry, Chairman, I don't know why this was recorded."

Qin Hai sneered. "You are a person who has done more harm than good. The situation of our Qin Corporation's real estate had just turned for the better, and you ruined it again!"

Qi Ping lowered his head and did not dare to speak.

Qin Hai calmed down some of his anger and instructed, "For this matter, you will shoulder it alone. Don't drag the company down. Just say that you don't like housing." "Chairman, this..."

Qi Ping hesitated. If he blamed this matter on himself, he was afraid of going to jail.

Qin Hai frowned and advised, "Qi Ping, whether you bear this responsibility alone or not, you can't escape this relationship. If you listen to me, there will be benefits for you."

Beads of sweat appeared on Qi Ping's forehead.

He clenched and loosened his fists by his side. He clenched and loosened them again and again.

Qin Hai returned to his desk and sat down. He looked at Qi Ping, waiting for his answer.

Ten minutes later, Qi Ping nodded. "Okay." Qin Hai nodded in satisfaction. "Qi Ping, after this, I will give you 4 million."
