

Bigshot 481

Chapter 481: A Hint From The Expert—My Duty

The entire Gaojia Village fell silent.

Everywhere in the sky was filled with countless Heavenly Guards standing on clouds.

On the ground, Yang Jian and the other three guards stood there.

Any one of them would be a mega bigshot in the ordinary realm, and yet all of them showed up together due to one man!

‘I’m only an ordinary nobody surrounded by countless Immortals! What should I do? Help! Urgent!’

Li Nianfan blankly looked at the four in front of him and could not help smiling bitterly. “It’s just a small matter. All of you are making too much of a scene.”

He asked the Black and White Impermanence to inform the Heavenly Temple and merely asked them to send over a witness so that the Heavenly Temple knew about the matter.

Who would have thought they sent out so many Heavenly Guards over. It was over the top!

All of that was too exaggerated.

Ye Liuyun said, "We are worried for your safety, Lord Saint, hence we must ensure everything is sorted out."

Yang Jian said with a straight face, "Yeah, this is related to the Heavenly Temple as well. He had wronged Lord Saint, so we must punish and never let him off!"

Juling Shen said angrily, "Ya! Argh! That worm pisses me off! How unfortunate that he killed himself! Otherwise, I'd tie him to the pillar and whip him with Heavenly Thunders!"

Xiao Chengfeng said, "All of us came to help since we're bored!"

In truth, the Heavenly Temple exploded upon receiving news from the Black and White Impermanence!

It was doing Lord Saint a favor! Someone was offending Lord Saint in front of his face! How bad was that! It was the most urgent matter for the Heavenly Temple!

It was so rare to gain an opportunity to help the Expert, thus Yang Jian and the rest all rushed over in excitement.

Jade Emperor and Empress would also have come down were they not having to maintain their image!

Li Nianfan had nothing to say. He was very touched and said, "Thank you so much!"

Luckily he had good connections with all of them. All of them immediately rushed down upon hearing he was in danger. Being a Lord Saint was indeed a powerful matter. Haha!

Li Nianfan said, "Unfortunately, this isn't a big deal as there's no Deluxe Merit. Sorry to have made you come all the way."

"Eh, Lord Saint, do we look like those who only care about Deluxe Merit?"

"Lord Saint, if there's anything in the future, we're happy to help even without Deluxe Merits!"

Yang Jian and the rest bootlicked very naturally. Li Nianfan felt really good. Those Immortals were good with their words!

The Black and White Impermanence exchanged looks with each other and noticed the stress therein.

As expected, they were nowhere close to the four Heavenly Guards yet who had mastered the art of bootlicking and made the Expert so happy! They were taking the lead!

It was apparent they had to work harder!

“Oh, right. We’ve found Wukong and Zhu Bajie’s weapons in the Gaojia Village!” Li Nianfan called for Nanan.

He said after a moment, “Zhu Bajie’s weapon will be returned to the Heavenly Temple. As for the Golden Cudgel, is it okay...to let Nanan keep it?”

“Of course! Of course!” Yang Jian did not hesitate at all. “You’re being too humble. These two weapons belong to no one and since you found them, they actually belong to you. You may do as you like!”

Juling Shen said, “Exactly, Lord Saint is too polite. Those who found them get to keep them! They don’t belong to the Heavenly Temple.”

Ye Liuyun quickly said, “The Golden Cudgel suits Nanan! Lord Saint is wise!”

“Haha, alright then!” Li Nianfan smiled. “However, all of you should keep the Nine Tooth Rake as I don’t need it.”

All of them rushed down, so he could not let them return empty-handed.

Yang Jian did not turn down the offer and made a gesture. "Lord Saint, thank you for your gift."

Li Nianfan waved it off and said, "You're welcome. Right, hurry and go back to your matters. Don't waste time down here."

It was such a waste of resources to have so many Heavenly Guards gathering there.

Xiao Chengfeng said, "You're right! We'll leave now. Lord Saint, do call us if you ever need anything."

"Goodbye, Lord Saint." The Black and White Impermanence bid Li Nianfan farewell.

The Heavenly Guards left as swiftly as they came and soon the clouds had all gone away.

Of course, they cleaned up the Qingling Mountain on the way back.

As for those remaining in Gaojia Village, they not only survived but also witnessed such a shocking scene. All their fantasies had disappeared and all of them ran away as soon as possible.

The rest of the cultivators had nothing to do there as the treasures had been given off. The place was too dangerous with many bigshots hiding in there, hence they would stay away from that place.

Gao Yue woke up from the shock. She bowed at Li Nianfan and said, "Thank you so much, Mr. Li."

Li Nianfan not only saved her but also the entire Gaojia Village.

She spoke as she quietly kicked the bull demon by her side. The bull demon did not react as his bull mouth was left open. He had turned into a sculpture and not moved for a very long time.

He could not even feel the wounds on his body. He was so shocked that his soul had left his body.

He was merely a small demon, a very small demon. Let alone the Heavenly Guards, it was even intimidated by cultivators, hence it came to no surprise that he was utterly shocked by what just happened.

A bigshot! A mega bigshot!

He did not have the courage to speak and even wanted to give up breathing! He merely wanted to be a nobody!

Li Nianfan looked at the bull demon and found it funny. He then said, "Miss Gao, you're welcome. In fact, we should be thanking you since we took some treasures from here."

Gao Yue sincerely said, "You're too polite, these treasures do us more harm than good. It's good that they're gone now. Mr. Li, would you like to stay here for a few more days? We'll treat you well!"

After Li Nianfan's arrival, he first saved the bull demon then brought her to meet her father in the Underworld. He even saved the entire Gaolao Village! He had helped them too much!

Li Nianfan smiled and shook his head. "No need, it's time for me to leave now that things have sorted. Miss Gao, I'll see you in the future."

Gao Yue was disappointed. She sighed and said, "Let me walk you out."

After leaving the Gaojia Village, Li Nianfan could not help feeling emotional. He originally came to sightsee. Who would have thought that that would happen and...Zhu Bajie actually left treasures there! It seemed that he was really in love with Gao Cuilan!

Nanan happily held on to the Golden Cudgel while walking and jumping with the cudgel. Her eyes were glowing as she waited for demons to appear so that she could fight them.

Meanwhile...

Yang Jian and the rest reported back to the Heavenly Temple.

It was related to the Expert, so the Jade Emperor and Empress were very concerned. They let out a sigh of relief when they heard that it was resolved.

Yang Jian said, “Right, Jade Emperor and Empress, they’ve found the Golden Cudgel and Nine Tooth Rake from Gaolao Village. The Expert only kept the Golden Cudgel and said that the Nine Tooth Rake should belong to the Heavenly Temple and asked me to bring it back.”

He took out the Nine Tooth Rake as he spoke.

Jade Emperor said with guilt, “Sigh, it does indeed belong to the Heavenly Temple. Who’d have thought the Expert is so considerate! While we... While we can’t do much for the Expert!”

The Nine Tooth Rake was made by Old Taishang and belonged to Marshal Canopy and so it naturally belonged to the Heavenly Temple. However, so many years had passed and the Heavenly Temple was unable to find it. It was then found by the Expert and even returned to them...

They had taken too many advantages from the Expert which made them even guiltier!

Jade Empress sighed, “The Expert has been giving and treating us with so much respect. All we could do is to show our faces when he needs us.”

For example, why did they send out so many Heavenly Guards that time? It was because there were too few things they could do for the Expert. They would of course do their best when there was anything they could do for him! Even if it was a very small matter!

It was the respect they must show to the Expert!

However, they clearly knew that they were only comforting themselves. At the end of the day...they were useless! They had no way of proving themselves useful!

Most importantly, they did not even help the Expert at that time, and yet brought back the Nine Tooth Rake...

"Hurry up and improve ourselves! Let's try to be more useful to the Expert!" Jade Emperor said and continued, "General Ye Liuyun, you don't seem to have a suitable weapon yet. You may keep the Nine Tooth Rake since the Expert likes you."

Ye Liuyun said, "Thank you, Jade Emperor. I'll make the most out of it to help the Expert!"

Jade Empress beside him said, "Right, did the Expert give any instruction?"

Yang Jian shook his head. "No, the Expert told us not to waste time. He asked us to hurry back to do our work."

Jade Emperor was disappointed. "That's all...?"

"Did the Expert really say so?"

Meanwhile, an ethereal voice was heard in the air as a glow was seen with many flowers blooming following that. It was a sacred sight as a figure arrived.

Everyone greeted, "Greetings to Empress Nuwa."

"It's alright. I've heard everything you've said."

Nuwa was concerned with Li Nianfan's news. She had overheard every word they said and still could not help but appear at the end.

Jade Emperor curiously asked, "What do you mean? Did the Expert mean something else?"

Nuwa coldly said, "What do you think? Have you forgotten how Dao Zhu liked to speak in riddles? I don't even like to say things clearly, let alone the Expert!"

Once they had reached a certain realm, they could not simply speak. For example, if the Emperor was hungry and said he was hungry, it would seem degrading. Instead, he would usually hint at others about it. Therefore, those who could understand the Emperor would be promoted.

The Jade Emperor instantly said, "Please enlighten us!"

Nuwa said in a serious tone, "The Expert asked all of you to hurry and do your own matters. What would that be?"

“What would that be?”

The crowd frowned. Were they not working already? Unless they had to work overtime?

Meanwhile, the Jade Emperor saw the third eye on Yang Jian’s forehead and had a flash of inspiration in his eyes as he cried out, “You’re referring to the Expert’s menu!?”

“Yeah, how can I forget such an important matter! Providing food for the Expert’s menu is my duty! I’m such a failure! Even the Expert had to remind me of it himself! I’m such a failure!”

Chapter 482: Fight For the Expert

Everyone had a look of realization. They recalled the ‘Classics of Mountains and Seas’.

The Heavenly Palace treated the expert’s menu very seriously. They had remembered every beast from the menu and kept an eye out for them to find out if they existed in this Eldritch World.

Unfortunately, they had not been able to find any trace. The conclusion was that most of these beasts existed in the Chaos or other worlds.

Yang Jing frowned and sighed. "It's been a long while since we brought Qiongqi to the expert. How can we not bring him the second beast after this long!"

Juling Shen said, "Even the expert couldn't help dropping hints to pester us! How embarrassing was that!"

All of them felt useless.

Although they knew about their mission, they felt...powerless!

One had to know that the Chaos was infinite, hidden with all kinds of different worlds in it. Some worlds were so huge with great dangers. They could not go over to someone else's world to hunt down a beast!

This could easily turn them into someone else's dish!

Even the Goddess Nuwa almost got in trouble!

Meanwhile, Xiao Chengfeng suddenly stood up. He said, "Jade Emperor, I'd like to resign from my God post!"

The Jade Emperor frowned. He asked doubtfully, "General Xiao, you're..."

“I’d like to go into the Chaos to hunt down the beasts for the expert!”

One would die upon entering the Chaos!

However, so what? Dying for the expert was an honor!

If he was scared and did nothing, he would have wasted the expert’s expectations of him. He would be too embarrassed to live!

“Brother Xiao, you’re so mean. You never thought of bringing me along?” Ye Liuyun laughed and said, “Jade Emperor, I’d like to resign as well!”

Yang Jing said coldly, “The two of you aren’t even a Daluo Golden Immortal! You have no right to go into the Chaos! If anyone’s going, it has to be me! I, Yang Jing, have never owed anything to anyone. However, I can never repay the expert for what he’s given me. Nothing less than my life is worth giving him!”

Juling Shen took two axes from his waist. He swung them in the air and growled, “No matter what, I’m definitely going!”

The four of them were looking sincere and impatient.

The expert must be so disappointed in them. After all...he had helped them so much and given them so many opportunities. And yet, they were unable to do anything for him or help him!

Sigh, they were so useless!

“Nonsense! If anyone’s going, it should be me!” the Jade Emperor scoffed with a serious look

The Empress said, “Indeed, you’re all too shallow, what can you do? What will you gain? The expert has given you so much, do you think you can just go and get yourself killed?”

“Alright. I’ve planned for this. Whether it’s the understanding of the Chaos or the cultivations, you all are way below me. Of course, I should be the one going,” Goddess Nuwa said, her tone sacred.

“Furthermore, in the world that I went to the other time, there was a beast.”

Yang Jing quickly said, “Empress, we can help.”

“You guys? You all will just slow me down.” Goddess Nuwa shook her head. She took a deep breath and said, “I’ve been thinking a lot recently. I even went ahead to seek help from Miss Daji and Miss Fire Phoenix to learn more about the expert.”

The Empress asked in a serious tone, “May I know what’s your realization?”

Nuwa said in a serious tone, "I realized that the expert seems really bored. Therefore, he had invented many games to kill his time. Given this situation, do you think the expert came here merely to experience life?"

The Jade Emperor speculated, "Unless...the expert treats this as a game, too?"

"Very likely." Goddess Nuwa nodded. "I learned that the expert likes to level up in games. If so, what are the levels in our Eldritch World? The beasts in the menu consist of different levels. Since they're on the menu, of course, we must catch them all!"

"Level up?"

Yang Jing and the rest heard with excitement. They clench their fists with their eyes glittering as if they had found their purposes. They said with determination, "We must help the expert level up!"

"This is a serious matter. The expert has helped us too much. He's given us too many opportunities and we must work hard ourselves!" Goddess Nuwa halted as if she was making a serious decision. She said with a trembling voice, "I have a feeling that the expert's trying to level up to turn our Eldritch World into the number one in the Chaos!"

"Number one in...the Chaos!?"

Gasp...

Everyone gasped as their hearts thumped. They almost ran out of breath.

This idea was too wild.

It was the Chaos! What was the concept of being number one in the Chaos? They were unsure because it was beyond their imagination!

Without a doubt, the current Eldritch World was definitely not number one. It was likely to be one of the worst...

Xiao Chengfeng suddenly laughed wildly. "Number one in the Chaos! Ha-ha-ha! Nice! Thanks to the expert for his truth and patience, I'll prove to him that I, Xiao Chengfeng, am not weak!"

Yang Jing and the rest turned to look at Xiao Chengfeng. He was always good at boasting.

Juling Shen patted Xiao Chengfeng's shoulder. He smiled and said, "Well said, I have the exact same thought!"

Ye Liuyun continued, "What a coincidence, I had the exact same thought as the two of you!"

Yang Jing's third eye popped out with surprise. He could not help saying with respect, "Treating the entire Chaos as a game, is this the bigshot? A bored bigshot can be so wild?"

One could never imagine a bored bigshot!

Goddess Nuwa said, "Therefore, it's our Eldritch World's honor to be chosen by the expert!! We must cultivate well to make a name for ourselves in the Chaos. We can't let the expert down! If our performance doesn't please the expert, he could easily...kill us all!"

The Jade Emperor and the rest said with a determined look in unison, "Don't worry, we know the importance. For the expert, we'll work very hard to level up!"

Goddess Nuwa nodded. She reminded them, "Well, then. I'll rush back soon. I'll now leave you all with the Eldritch World."

With that said, she flew into the air and disappeared gradually.

"Goodbye, Nuwa Empress."

...

In the ordinary realm.

After leaving the Gaojia Village, Li Nianfan brought Nanan toward the Liusha River according to the map.

Because of the Absolute Era, there were some geological changes. Therefore, once they crossed the Liusha River, they could arrive at the Daughters Kingdom by the next stop.

Li Nianfan did not intend to visit but the name of this place was too famous, he really wanted to see more of this world. He wanted to see what it was like for a kingdom to be made up of only women.

He was merely curious.

Thinking of it, the feeling of seeing a kingdom of only women...how exciting!

The two of them were not in a rush. Time passed slowly.

Unknowingly, they had walked out from the woods. The trees became more spread out. The soil on the ground had turned yellow. Not far away was a hill.

Walking forward, the air had turned moist. They could hear the sound of a stream flowing.

Nanan put the Golden Cudgel across her shoulder. She sniffed and said, "Be careful, Brother. There's the smell of a demon in front."

Li Nianfan nodded. He did not forget to remind her, "Don't overdo it."

Nanan nodded seriously, "I know, Brother."

It did not take long before a long and wide river came into sight.

The river was flowing rapidly with water splashing everywhere. The color was yellow, just as implied in its name as the Liusha River.

However, this was not the main point.

By the side of the river, there were twenty people gathered, knelt on their knees. On the table in front, there was a pig, a cow, and a sheep.

Beneath the river's surface, there was a white and transparent crystal dragon showing half of its body to the crowd.

The outlook of this crystal dragon was unique. Its body was glass-like, looking very beautiful under the sunlight.

With that, the two people in the forefront each held on to a child and handed them to the crystal dragon.

“How dare you!”

Nanan glared, her small face flushed red. “Cruel dragon! Take my cudgel!”

Before she finished her sentence, she rushed over and lifted her cudgel, smashing between the crystal dragon and the crowd.

She not only smashed the table into pieces, she even caused some ripples in the river. She was so powerful that the crystal dragon jolted. Its face changed and did not hesitate to rush into the water.

“Trying to run away?”

The cudgel in Nanan’s hand rapidly thickened and elongated. It rushed into the river and started stirring it.

Instantly, splashes were everywhere.

It did not take long before a swirl was made. The energy was so powerful that one would find it hard to breathe.

Swiftly after, a figure was sucked out of the swirling pool. It fell heavily on the ground.

It was a woman in a white silk dress. Her face was pale with blood on the corner of her lips. She moaned listlessly on the ground. She then begged on her knees, "Please, let me live."

"Let you? You bullied the villagers and tried to eat the children! This is unacceptable! I want you to try my cudgel!" Nanan was angry. When she was younger, she was almost eaten a few times. Thus, she hated demons that bullied children. Nanan's face was cold as she raised her hands, ready to hit the demon!

"Please, please, let me go."

"This is a misunderstanding. Immortal Jiao didn't bully us."

"Please, forgive her."

Meanwhile, twenty or so villagers begged on their knees for the crystal dragon's life.

Nanan halted. She frowned and looked at the crowd. She looked at the two children who were handed over and asked, "You're all trying to make the crystal prawn eat these two children?"

The two villagers shook their heads as they explained, "Of course not. Why would Immortal Jiao eat children? We wanted our children to touch Immortal Jiao and to get some Immortal Qi."

The two children were hiding behind the adults. They were terrified.

Li Nianfan ran over with an angry face. He smacked Nanan's tiny head from the back.

"I told you to look closer! Look at what you've done!"

Li Nianfan was quite speechless. He scolded, "Do you want me to confiscate your Golden Cudgel?"

"Sorry, Brother. I thought the two children were in danger." Nanan lowered her head. "I'm sorry..."

Li Nianfan looked at the listless Immortal Jiao. His mouth twitched. They had wronged a good Immortal...

He quickly said, "Go and apologize to her!"

At the same time.

Among the Chaos, a figure gradually stood out. He had a grey robe on with holes everywhere. He seemed worn out with messy hair and clothes. He had a wine jug in hand, staggering in the Chaos. He seemed wasted.

He was walking aimlessly, half drunk and half sober. He took a step into the Eldritch World...

Chapter 483: A Visitor. Ali the Crystal Dragon

The light was piercing. The darkness of the Chaos was taken over by the bright light, like someone coming out from a dark night into a room full of light.

“Huh? This is...”

The person jolted. He looked around and raised an eyebrow. “A broken small world?”

He looked up and took a sip of wine. He shook his head as he started walking around this Eldritch World aimlessly.

Behind him, his long sword jolted and started to grow, “Brother Feng, be careful now that we’re in others’ world.”

“Ha-ha, don’t worry. This world’s much smaller than our world. It’s trying so hard to hide itself, how can we be in danger?”

The man calmed his long sword and said, "Furthermore, we don't have bad intentions. Since we're here, it's by fate. We might as well explore this world."

He seemed wasted with no goal. He was staggering aimlessly.

However, he knew that by the look of this world, the Laws here were not as powerful. He would not be attacked and even if he lost, any major fight in here would break this world into two!

Therefore, he was not anxious.

He gradually took a step. However, with just one step, he had crossed countless distances. From Outer Space, he went past the Heavenly Palace, Immortal Realm, and landed in the Ordinary Realm causing no scene.

"This world's trying its best to hide itself from danger. Interesting."

The man walked around in the ordinary realm. He traveled miles with one step. He was sightseeing in this world as if he was on a vacation. However, this was not a random tourist attraction. This was the entire world.

It did not take long before he arrived at the Xia Kingdom. Since the development, the Xia Kingdom had expanded and prospered greatly with lots of Human Luck.

The man's feet halted. He looked surprised. "This world's so weak and the humans are weaker. How can they have so much Luck in this place? How did they do it?"

He went into the Xia Kingdom like an ordinary man. He did not attract any attention. He was feeling everything and observing with shock.

"That...that's..."

He looked at the farmland from not far away. He had a look of disbelief in his eyes. "Luoyun, look, there. They have different fruits from the normal seasons!"

Not only that, the grains are different here. They had a very likable shape which did not make sense!

The man closed his eyes to feel it and said, "There's no spell cast and the world doesn't have any major change. How did this happen?"

His longsword jolted. It called out in shock, "This...the ordinary men made these?"

They had no cultivation and yet they managed to do this. It was as if this was a normal thing to do.

The man walked forward and let out his Divine Consciousness to observe closely. Quickly, he saw the schools in the Xia Kingdom and learned about everything they taught. A rush of information went into his head which made him perplexed and shocked.

“Breeding plants and mass production. And the herb manuals, the law of nature, and everything else...”

The man gasped. “What a genius idea! And the strange way of calculation...”

“One had to understand the world so much to come up with this! No wonder! No wonder the Luck’s so strong here. A leader was born here!

“As expected, each world has its unique place. It’s such a shame that this selfless leader was born in this broken and weak world. What a pity...”

He used the word ‘selfless’!

For someone like him to use the word ‘selfless’ showed how much he respected this leader!

“Unfortunately, there’s no point for us to learn these. Our world no longer exists.”

The man had a nostalgic look on as he shook his head. He did not disturb the villagers and walked away. With one step, he traveled miles, across the mountains and seas.

Quickly, he stopped on top of a big river. The river was twisted and seemingly calm. The surrounding view was very calming with mountains and green trees.

“This is an interesting river. It has the law of nature embedded inside it. One will get pregnant after drinking from it and will give birth to a girl.”

The man smiled casually. He touched the longsword behind him and said in a gentle tone, “Luoyun, watch, I’ll do something interesting with you...”

...

Liusha River.

Nanan was like a child who had made a mistake, apologizing to Immortal Jiao.

However, she was too powerful. Immortal Jiao dared not accept her apology. She was too intimidated.

Li Nianfan went ahead to help her out. He said, “Immortal Jiao, we’re too sorry. This young girl’s foolish and caused unnecessary trouble. Sorry for offending you.”

Immortal Jiao bit her lip and shook her head. "It's okay, I'm fine."

What else could she say? She was not as powerful, she was unlucky to have been wronged. At least she was still alive.

Meanwhile, Li Nianfan finally noticed the look on Immortal Jiao. She had some shells on her hair which was slightly blue with a pair of snow-white earrings. She had some scales on her neck. She seemed gentle with a look of elegance.

She looked like a newly grown small crystal prawn.

"Your lips are bleeding, how are you fine?"

Li Nianfan could not help sighing and glaring at Nanan again.

He learned from the villagers that Immortal Jiao was guarding the Liusha River. She was in charge of the rain and current here. She had gathered many merits and the villagers worshipped her.

Li Nianfan had some knowledge of crystal dragons. They were a mix of dragons and python. In mythology, they were kind and it seemed true.

Li Nianfan could tell who was kind and who was not.

Although they were also dragons, they were not the same as the Eastern Sea Dragon King.

The Eastern Sea Dragon King evolved from carps. Similar to this crystal dragon, she had dragon blood in her but she was not an actual dragon either.

The most authentic dragon was only present in the faraway time when the Dragon Ancestor was around.

If Immortal Jiao and the Eastern Dragon King continued to cultivate, they would then transform into actual dragons eventually.

Li Nianfan asked, "May I ask what's your name? And are you part of the Four Seas Dragons?"

"My name's Ali, I'm part of the Dragon Palace," Ali said.

"So, we're friends." Li Nianfan smiled. He introduced himself, "I'm Li Nianfan, I'm friends with the dragons. This is really a misunderstanding, I'll think of a way to make it up to you."

He was guilty. He wanted to tell the Dragon King to take good care of Ali. It was nice to have connections.

Li Nianfan?

Friends with the Four Dragon Kings?

Vroom!

Ali's head went blank! She stood back up not long ago and now she jolted. She almost fell to the floor.

How could she have not heard of the expert's name?

This was the taboo in the Heavenly Palace! Any Immortal with some rankings were carefully instructed to treat the expert with the utmost respect. It could be an opportunity!

This was the expert! She had met the expert!?

Ali felt her small head buzzing. She panicked as she became helpless with an increased heart rate and breathing.

"I—I—I..." her lips quivered. She did not know what to say. She was in so much panic that she wanted to die!

Seeing that she was perplexed, Li Nianfan thought that she did not understand. With a thought, he gradually opened his eyes and a golden Deluxe Merit flower slowly floated in sight. It was rotating slowly.

It was eye-catching!

He smiled. "Luckily I'm not any ordinary man. This is the proof."

"Gasp... I believe you. Of course, I believe you!"

Ali's voice was shivering. She quickly greeted, "Greetings to Lord Saint."

Li Nianfan returned the gesture, "No need to be so polite. We're sorry to have wronged you."

"It's okay, it's really okay, Lord Saint." Ali shook her head vigorously. She did not know how to interact with the expert. She was helpless and small in her heart.

She bit her lip and said weakly, "Lord... Lord Saint, is there anything I can do for you? I'll try my best!"

Li Nianfan comforted, "You don't have to be so nervous. I don't bite."

Ali dared not speak. She thought to herself, 'I know you don't bite but you like to eat wild meat. And I'm wild meat! If you suddenly want to eat me, I won't be able to resist and will give in to you.'

She was still young and was not good at bootlicking. This was more of a danger than an opportunity. She was not greedy either and she only wanted to respect him.

Li Nianfan continued, "I don't have anything to ask for. I'm just in the mood to walk around the Liusha River. You've been here for how long? Are you familiar with this place?"

Ali said, "I've been here since young, and I was given the position by the Dragon Palace to guard this place. I know this place...quite well.

"If Lord Saint's interested, you may...come over to visit my place."

Li Nianfan was interested. "At the bottom of the river?"

Ali nodded.

Li Nianfan smiled. "That's not bad, sure."

Ali nodded and her body jolted with light circulating. Soon, she turned into a crystal dragon and went into the water. She floated on the water and said with respect, "Lord Saint, please, come up."

"Okay." Li Nianfan smiled and did not hesitate to sit on the neck of the crystal dragon with Nanan.

Ali prepared them before rushing into the Liusha River.

She was getting around the water easily. Although the current of the Liusha River was urgent, the current around Ali would become calm and back away. Ali was not only calm, but she could also make the water go away. Thus, Li Nianfan and Nanan were unaffected.

However, the surroundings were nothing close to the other ocean. The water was impure and there was not a lot of variety. There were many stones. As Ali went down further, she arrived at her cave soon.

It was indeed a cave with an empty and bald entrance.

Chapter 484: Breaking Bottleneck From a Burp.

Ali's body jolted as her long tail pointed at the entrance of the cave. As she was about to enter it, she was blocked by some resistance.

"Stand there!"

Along with a loud scoff, up to a hundred figures swam over. They were all kinds of water demons, from lobsters to frogs.

They looked unfriendly.

Swiftly after, wild laughter was heard. A weird and powerful body rushed out from the cave.

His face had black scales with his eyes popping outward. He was half human and half fish. He glared at Ali and said, "Ali, you're finally home! What's your consideration? Marry me."

Ali twisted her body and growled, "Black Fish Demon, you took over my cave when I'm not around?!"

"What does that even mean! We're a couple, how's this taking over your cave?" Black Fish Demon laughed. He was in a good mood. With a gesture, his bunch of demons walked over with a few boxes of pearls and money.

Black Fish Demon said arrogantly, "I made some money recently. I even prepared the betrothal gift. We'll live here. What's the fun of becoming an Immortal? Why don't you be with me and name ourselves Kings while living freely."

Ali was so angry that she stuttered coldly, "You're insane! Get out!"

“Get out?” Black Fish Demon said coldly, “I’ve liked you for a long time. Since I’ve come, I came prepared. You have to marry me even if you don’t want to!”

“You’re shameless!”

Ali scoffed as her body jolted. A long water ripple slashed toward Black Fish Demon like a knife.

The water ripple looked simple but it contained the power of the river. The places it touched had blended into the water. It made it very powerful with unlimited cutting power.

The Black Fish Demon squinted. He twisted his wrist and a big silver knife appeared. He was powerful and the knife let out a buzzing sound. Following that, he slashed the water ripple and turned it into two easily. It then vanished.

Black Demon Fish’s eyes glinted as he laughed. “Good knife! It’s indeed a good Deluxe Spiritual Treasure.”

He was satisfied. With this treasure, he was undefeatable. This female crystal dragon could only become his!

“Deluxe Spiritual Treasure?” Ali halted. She was uneasy.

Her power was similar to the Black Fish Demon's. However, it was not the same now. The treasure was too powerful.

"Not bad! Why don't you give in and accept your fate already? Don't worry, I'll be a good husband. Ha-ha-ha!"

Black Fish Demon walked out and approached Ali. Meanwhile, he glared at Nanan and Li Nianfan. He said coldly, "You even brought home a wild man! I can forgive you but I need to eat him!"

"You want to eat me?" Li Nianfan smiled and shook his head. "Coincidentally, I'm thinking of a way to cook a fish dish. I'm ready to make a tomato fish slice."

Ali was hurt by Nanan. Li Nianfan felt sorry. Now that a dish had come, it reminded Li Nianfan that it was time to make a nice dish to try.

Black Fish Demon said eerily, "Ha! How are you so stubborn before you die? I've also thought of a dish, a tomato human dish! You shall die!"

However, before his knife arrived, a very powerful rush of Qi rushed into him. The river water flew back and emptied the spot he was standing on.

A gigantic golden cudgel lashed down and landed on his head.

Black Fish Demon cried out in shock. He felt his body becoming as heavy as a mountain. He did not even have the chance to get his knife before this cudgel ended his life.

There was no resistance and no sound. He fell to the ground and turned into a gigantic black fish. He was dead.

“Done.” Nanan kept her Golden Cudgel and pouted. “Luckily I didn’t use too much force. If not, the flesh would’ve turned mushy. Brother, what about these small demons?”

“No need, drag the black fish in.”

“Oh.” The terrified small demons jolted after Nanan dragged the black fish into the cave. When they regained consciousness, they were shocked and escaped like crazy.

The abrupt death of their King was a terrible sight to them.

Inside the cave.

Ali was back in her human form. She was terrified. She led the way as she said sincerely, “Thank you, Lord Saint, for your help.”

If she was captured by the Black Fish Demon to become his wife, it would have been a nightmare. Even the thought of it was very scary and unacceptable.

Li Nianfan said, "It's a small matter. I'm hungry now. The black fish isn't a bad dish. You're in luck."

The cave was not luxurious but it was a nice place. It was spacious with a few glowing pearls as decoration.

It was made by emptying a big stone. There were some rooms and things, though the decoration was ordinary and not exceptionally grand.

Compared to the Eastern Sea Palace, this was poorly done.

No wonder many Immortals did not like to stay in this place. Each position would go on from a thousand to ten thousand years. They worked in poor conditions which was difficult for the Immortals.

Ali led Li Nianfan and Nanan to the living room. She poured them wine and said awkwardly, "Lord Saint, please...have a drink."

"Okay, thank you." Li Nianfan lifted the wine glass and took a sip. He asked curiously, "This black fish is a demon from the Liusha River?"

"Yes, Lord Saint." Ali nodded. She said, "He's arrogant around here. He'd flip the boats over from time to time and eat the passer-by. I've fought him a few times and none of us won the fight. So I can't do anything about him."

She said as she could not help looking at the black fish with a complicated look.

Thinking back, Black Fish Demon was merely a dish in the eyes of the expert...

She knew that the expert liked wild meat. As expected, Black Fish Demon sacrificed himself to treat him. He was good at this!

“Alright, the black fish is still fresh, let’s hurry and sort it out.”

Li Nianfan smiled. He had eaten many demons so he was not as emotional. The thought of eating the tomato fish made him drool. This would be a nice dish!

The recipe for the tomato fish was simple. Tomato and fish were the two main ingredients. He would then sprinkle some condiments and white wine to thicken the broth to boil the fish in.

The two main keys in this dish were the cutting skills and the mixing of the broth.

Of course, these were not difficult for Li Nianfan. They were easy to him.

Since he brought the condiments with him, he only had to put them on the fire to cook the condiments with tomatoes. The broth then started to boil.

As for his cutting skill...no introduction was needed.

Seeing that Li Nianfan was taking out his pots and pans, Ali was so shocked and helpless.

She did not expect the expert to be so friendly. He brought along this fancy set of cookery with him. How much did he love eating!

She then looked at herself. There was not even a kitchen in her cave...

Li Nianfan moved rapidly and professionally, sorting things out orderly. Looking at him, he worked in one movement. It was aesthetically pleasing and one did not want to break it.

Ali wanted to help but she did not know how to help. She could only look at him from the side.

Especially when Li Nianfan was cutting the fish with the knife, she felt a warm breeze on her face as she could not help being drawn into it. Her world blurred out and all she could think of was Li Nianfan slicing the fish.

She seemed to have seen the...law!

She was speechless and did not understand it. Anyhow, it was very impressive.

The knife glinted as the fish was perfectly sliced. The flesh was equally sliced with transparent and crystal bits. The scales were peeled off as well. The patterns were shown, it was a work of art!

One knife cut after another, the fish slices formed a line and were even glowing...

Ali was perplexed. At this moment, she had a sudden realization. The Black Fish Demon was so lucky! It was turned into a dish by the expert! What kind of honor was that? Look, it was even glowing...

It did not take long before the fish was completely sliced. They were then added to the tomato broth. The timing was perfect.

Everything was done. Now, they only had to wait for the fish to be cooked.

Since they were waiting, Li Nianfan smiled and asked, "Immortal Ali, what do you usually eat?"

Ali thought for a while and said, "Usually, the ordinary men would worship me by putting food into the river. Sometimes, I also eat the fish and prawns from the river."

“You eat them raw?”

“Yeah.” Ali’s face flushed red. She was embarrassed. Normally, she did not find it strange to eat things raw. However, looking at Li Nianfan’s mocking eyes, she felt somewhat guilty.

Li Nianfan smiled, “Ha-ha-ha, do give it a try. Good food’s an important part of life.”

“Okay.”

Ali nodded. She was looking at the boiling tomato fish. She was seduced by the fragrance coming out from it.

Gulp, gulp.

In the pot, the bubbles were boiling while the fish started to jump around inside. Of course, both Nanan and Ali’s hearts were jumping along with it.

Among the red broth, pieces of snowy white fish meat stood out. The sight of it was very tempting.

On top of that was the fragrance of tomato and fish meat in the air.

Gulp!

Ali could not help licking her lips. She gulped.

She had completely calmed down. She was squatting by the pot, blankly looking at the food inside it. Her small nose sniffed.

“It’s about time. Have a try.”

Li Nianfan’s words sounded like music to Nanan and Ali. They picked up the chopsticks quickly and took out the fish from the pot.

The fish was thinly sliced but the flesh was very bouncy. They did not break apart too easily. As the fish went into their mouths, the sourness of the tomato exploded. The sourness was not invasive, it was just right. As it touched the tips of their tongues, it awakened their taste buds. Following that, the fragrance of the fish and its smoothness exploded.

“Argh! So yummy!”

Ali’s eyes turned into stars! She was crying in her heart!

“So the fish who fancied me tastes so good!”

“Yum!”

Following that, she moaned.

Upon swallowing the first slice of fish, the energy in her started to circulate. It felt as if she had eaten something very nourishing. Her body heated up and her face flushed red.

“This dish contains...spiritual roots!?”

She found it hard to believe. She took a deep breath and carefully scooped out a small bowl of fish broth. She parted her small mouth and took a sip.

The sour broth went around in her mouth. It then flowed down her throat and arrived in her stomach.

The delicate texture heated up her stomach. The broth touched each corner of her body. The energy she felt was like a drop of water entering a pot of hot oil, splashing everywhere.

The energy rushed to her head. She parted her mouth and moaned.

Burp...

She burped.

With this one burp, her bottleneck was broken through as if it was a piece of paper.

With that, she went from Late-Immortal Realm to Real Immortal Realm!

All of these happened from one mouthful of soup! One burp! Who would believe her?

Nanan and Li Nianfan, who were also enjoying the food, looked at her. They were perplexed.

Ali was delighted! Her face flushed red. Even her neck and ears were red. She lowered her head and felt very embarrassed.

Chapter 485: Is She Insulting Our Friendship

Argh!

I burped!

How embarrassing!

Ali's face was burning. Especially when she felt Li Nianfan's eyes on her. She felt very ashamed.

Since the beginning of her cultivation, she had never felt so embarrassed.

'I actually burped. I can burp?'

Li Nianfan saw how embarrassed Ali was, so he coughed and pretended nothing had happened. He said, "Come, let's continue eating."

This tiny crystal dragon must have been eating too much raw food. She reacted after tasting such yummy hot food. It was interesting.

"Hmm..."

Ali nodded. She was very emotional.

She looked at the tomato fish again. Her beautiful eyes were very shocked as if she was dreaming.

When she felt her internal energy again, she had reached the Real Immortal Realm!

She carefully reached out with her chopsticks. This time, she was not picking the fish, she was picking the tomato. She sent it to her mouth.

The soft tomato was gradually unleashing its juice inside her mouth. It was sour and sweet, very delicious. Meanwhile, a strange Spiritual Power rushed out and pushed her closer to the Law! The new energy she just gained was empowering!

She did not doubt that if she cultivated now, she would learn more than before!

This...this...this was the Spiritual Root!?

Not just any ordinary Spiritual Root!

Ali's scalp was itching. She had some tomato in her mouth that she did not want to swallow. She dared not chew as well.

This was too precious!

It was like going to a restaurant and only realizing how expensive the food was after tasting it, fearing to continue chewing because of how priceless it was. Would one pay for it? However, one could not even pay for it even if one sold their soul!

She had not seen the world before. Since she did not look closely. She had not noticed anything strange.

Most importantly, who would have thought that the tomato would be made of Spiritual Roots!

She did not know this before! She learned something new!

No, not only the tomato!

Other than the black fish, even the ginger and garlic were made of Spiritual Roots...

So, out of everything, the black fish was the least important. Even the water was many times more expensive than the black fish.

Facing this dish of tomato fish, Ali's body jolted. She was dumbfounded by this otherworldly opportunity. She dared not eat it.

She had heard too much about the expert.

What she heard the most was how it was important to treat the expert with the utmost respect. Anything from the expert was an opportunity greater than years of cultivation. There were even rumors about how meeting the expert was someone's blessing gathered from years of cultivation.

Ali thought someone was exaggerating it greatly. Now she realized that...the reality was way more exaggerated than that. The one mouthful of soup just now was more precious than her lifelong worth of cultivation. It was incomparable!

And yet, it was merely a meal that the expert made spontaneously...

So shocking! This made one...unable to accept it!

Was this the difference between the bigshot and an ordinary person?

Li Nianfan was surprised. "Immortal Ali, are you full?"

Ali jolted and shook her head. "No, not yet."

"It's not up to your taste?"

Ali was shocked. She almost cried and said, "No, no! This is too delicious! I have never tasted something so delicious!

"It's so delicious that I was lost tasting it."

"Ha-ha-ha, that's good. Don't get lost yet, eat more."

Li Nianfan laughed pleasantly. He patted Nanan and said, "Nanan, eat less! Take care of Immortal Ali!"

...

At the same time, somewhere in the Chaos.

Goddess Nuwa arrived at a huge wasted star. Although this star was wasted, there was quite some traffic caused by powerful beings.

The Chaos had no limit.

There were limitless possibilities, anything was possible.

The difference between humans and demons was too tiny. In some worlds, humans were the main characters, and in some worlds, demons were. Some worlds were just like the Eldritch World, some broken and some rotten.

Therefore, there were quite a lot of people traveling in the Chaos. Some were homeless, some were looking for opportunities in the Chaos. As time passed, some spots had gained more traffic than the others.

Some spots were seen as a gathering spot and some were made into a spot for trading treasures.

These cultivators had high cultivations. There were not many Quasi-Saints around. They dared not show their faces.

Although Goddess Nuwa had spent many years traveling among the Chaos, coming back here still made her rather uneasy.

The Chaos gave one too much pressure, she felt too tiny in it.

She took a deep breath. She was calm as she walked. She did not look around as she tried to minimize her presence.

On both sides of the path, there were people trading treasures. Those treasures were all at the Ultimate Spiritual Treasures level. Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures and Deluxe Merit Treasures were seen everywhere.

Quickly, she arrived at a spot. A classy and elegant woman was waiting for her there.

The woman looked at Goddess Nuwa in shock. "Sister Nuwa, you're fine? I thought you..."

"I escaped, luckily." Goddess Nuwa waved it off. "Sister Yun Shu, I need a favor from you this time."

Yun Shu looked at Goddess Nuwa with disbelief. "You're not trying to get back into the Yunhuang World, are you?"

"Yeah," Goddess Nuwa nodded. "But I'll just go and come back. I won't stay there for long. Just capturing a fish."

"You're going there to capture a fish?"

Yun Shu thought she had misheard. "No way? What fish is worth the risk? Are you insane?"

If she was going back to get a treasure or law, she could understand. To capture a fish?

What was that about?

Although the Yunhuang World was complete and big, one had not heard of a fish worthy of a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal to risk her life capturing. Perhaps it was a new breed?

‘Perhaps she had other intentions and she was brushing me off by using the fish as an excuse?’ Yun Shu thought that it was very likely. Everyone had their own secrets in the Chaos. She did not dwell on it. She said in a serious tone, “Sister Nuwa, are you sure? Are you sure about this decision? Is it worth it?”

Similar to Goddess Nuwa, she had to get out from her own world to live in the Chaos. The two of them had spent thousands of years together. They formed a team to look for treasures in the Chaos. They had good relations and trusted one another.

Goddess Nuwa nodded. She said without hesitation, “I’m sure and I must go!”

She was going to get the ingredients for the expert. This was an important issue, and that was the only location she was aware of that had the ingredient needed. No matter how great the risk was, she had to go.

“You’re...”

Yun Shu frowned. She felt that Goddess Nuwa was taking a huge risk and she did not understand it.

In the Yunhuang World, the Laws were complete. There were 22 Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals and eight Saints working mainly for the Heavenly Ways Station. The Laws were complete and the conditions for cultivation were good. However, most people dared not start cultivating.

This world tended to repel external Spiritual Roots. If one barged in and was found out, one would be hunted and killed!

Goddess Nuwa was chased after and almost killed the other time. Had she not learned her lesson? Or was she more mentally prepared this time?

Goddess Nuwa said in a serious tone, "Sister Yun Shu, this is a very important matter to me. Please, help me."

"Okay, be careful."

Yun Shu knew it was useless to talk her out of it. She turned her wrist and a half-transparent crystal mirror appeared. She cast a spell and a weak glow washed over Goddess Nuwa's body. Her Qi was concealed and would not be easily noticed by the Heavenly Ways.

"Thank you."

Goddess Nuwa nodded. After a moment of hesitation, she took out a small bottle for Yun Shu. "You've helped me twice. Here's a gift in return for your help."

Everything was ready. Goddess Nuwa was excited. She turned over in a hurry and rushed into the Chaos.

It was just capturing one fish, it was not too difficult. She had to rush toward the Yunhuang World and capture the fish. As long as she stayed cautious, it should not be a big deal.

Yun Shu saw how Goddess Nuwa was rushing away in a hurry. She was suspicious. She felt that Goddess Nuwa was acting strange this time around.

She then looked at the small bottle in her hand. She could not help shaking her head and said, "Reward?

"She's now being polite with me? I know her so well. We're both poor, so what treasure could we possibly get? What reward can she get me?

"Furthermore...this bottle is so small, what does it contain? How is she not embarrassed to hand this to me? Is she insulting our friendship?"

Chapter 486: Daughter's Kingdom Is In Danger

Yun Shu was half smiling and crying as she looked at the small bottle in her hand. It contained some kind of liquid in it.

"Whatever, this was at least a little something from Nuwa. It'll be quite mean if it was an ordinary liquid. Hope it isn't."

Yun Shu shook her head and nonchalantly opened the lid of the bottle

Instantly, a powerful Spiritual Qi rushed out and formed into a wild wind. The wind shot right into her face!

Before she could react, she found it hard to breathe!

Gasp...

Yun Shu gasped. Her heart was in her throat. She did not hesitate to shut the lid. She had goosebumps all over and her blood was flowing backward!

She pretended to be okay. She looked around and when she saw that people did not notice what just happened, she let out a sigh of relief. With a flash, she had gone somewhere hidden.

“This is... Chaos Spiritual Water!?”

This was definitely Chaos Spiritual Water!

Yun Shu panted as she looked blankly at the small bottle. She could not believe this.

“Sister Nuwa actually gave me a bottle of Chaos Spiritual Water!?”

“Did she pick the wrong bottle? Was she keeping this bottle for herself instead?”

“Perhaps she had gone rich over the night?”

She started to overthink and her head was spinning rapidly. She was excited and perplexed. She had too many thoughts in her head.

How generous! How otherworldly generous!

Chaos Spiritual Water! This was not something naturally made in any of the worlds! This was something produced in the Chaos. One could only get hold of it in one’s dreams!

She had lived for so long and this was the first time anyone had ever awarded Chaos Spiritual Water to someone else.

Yun Shu held the small bottle tightly. She kept it cautiously as she could not help crying in her heart, ‘Argh! I’m rich now!’

After a moment of thought, her thinking went back to normal as she started to think.

Goddess Nuwa was acting strange! This was so strange!

She risked her life getting into the Yunhuang World. And she was only going to capture a fish?

Furthermore, where did she get this Chaos Spiritual Water from? She was simply giving this away? This showed that she had many other treasures! She had really gone rich!

Perhaps it was during her previous escape that she stumbled across a big treasure? And gained a huge opportunity?

Yun Shu felt as if she had eaten a lemon! She felt sour.

However...if she had gained such a huge opportunity, why would she still need to capture a fish?

What was the link between a fish and the Chaos Spiritual Water?

Yun Shu did not understand but she could sense that there was a huge hidden secret behind all these!

Behind all of these, there must be an even greater opportunity!

“Opportunity...”

Instantly, her feelings intensified. It was as if she could see her lifelong opportunities beneath the mist in front of her!

She fixed her eyes and turned to one direction abruptly. That...that was the world where she belonged. However, she dared not return now.

Following that, she turned to the direction Goddess Nuwa traveled to. She locked her eyes in that direction and clenched her fists. She took a deep breath and followed behind Goddess Nuwa.

No matter what, even if it was a small chance, she had to find out and fight for the opportunity!

...

At the Eldritch World.

A Crystal Dragon was swimming up the tides rapidly. Two figures stood on top of it. They were Li Nianfan and Nanan.

The Liusha River was very wide with an urgent current. Even a massive boat would be shaky floating on it. Li Nianfan and Nanan were planning to fly over but since Ali was so friendly and was in charge of this area, Li Nianfan did not want to turn her down. He had to go on top of her to cross the river.

The journey was stable. They saw a different view than they would if they were flying.

It did not take long before they arrived at the other side of the shore. They were approaching it rapidly.

The offshore was in green. It looked like a forest with a nice view.

With the blink of an eye, Ali halted abruptly.

Li Nianfan and Nanan got off Ali. They stepped onto the grass.

Li Nianfan made a gesture. "Thank you, Immortal Ali."

Ali returned the gesture in a hurry. "You're welcome, Lord Saint. This is what I should be doing."

After exchanging a few more words, Li Nianfan bid her farewell. They walked toward Daughter's Kingdom.

Seeing that Li Nianfan was moving further away, Ali's eyes teared up. Although they had only met for a few days, she felt it was too unreal as if it was a dream.

Most importantly, within such a short time, she was greatly affected. It was life-changing!

Even though the expert merely passed by, Ali's cultivation, power, and worldview had changed drastically. She had improved greatly!

Was this how powerful the expert was?

Was this the benefit of staying around the bigshot?

How wonderful!

Ali felt that in the next hundreds to thousands of years, she would live in awe of how powerful the expert was!

Since there was a dangerous river blocking the Daughters Kingdom, there were not many people around. Other than Daughter's Kingdom, there was not even a village nearby!

This location was unique.

They did not waste any more time. Li Nianfan and Nanan flew by with the wind. When they went past Mother River, they stopped for a while before continuing their journey.

Half a day later, a city came into sight. Walls were blocking the city, making it stand out from the rest. They used the walls to block out the surrounding beasts. One could feel how prosperous the city was just by looking at it.

“It looks like we’re here.”

Li Nianfan’s eyes sparkled. In order to not cause a scene, he landed with Nanan not far away. Then, they walked over.

The tall walls stood high with ‘Daughter’s Kingdom’ engraved on the gate. On top of the tower, three armored female soldiers were patrolling the city.

However, these three female soldiers did not seem happy. They seemed to be distracted and sighing from time to time. They seemed worried.

One of them asked, “Is anyone getting pregnant in your house?”

“No, I drank the water from Mother River yesterday. However, I still don’t feel any reaction since then. I don’t think I’m pregnant.”

“What should we do? Why did the Mother River Water stop working all of a sudden? Our Queen has ordered for all women to drink it but it’s not working for anyone.”

“My Kingdom’s in danger!”

If no new baby was born, Daughter’s Kingdom would be turned into a ghost town in 100 years.

All the women of the kingdom were perplexed.

“Excuse me, do you mind opening the gate to let us through?”

Suddenly, a voice was heard coming from the other side of the wall. The three female soldiers jolted. Their pupils dilated with a look of disbelief.

This voice was very...thick!

“A man’s voice?!”

The three of them were very excited. Their faces flushed red as they looked out from the wall. They fixed their eyes on Li Nianfan.

One of them could not help asking, "Is that a man behind the wall?"

Li Nianfan frowned.

This question...

Considering that this was Daughter's Kingdom, it was not strange. He said honestly, "Yes, I'm a man."

"Open the gate! Open the gate, hurry!"

Quickly, the gate was opened!

Two female soldiers rushed toward Li Nianfan. They stared at Li Nianfan and said with enthusiasm, "Welcome to Daughter's Kingdom! Please, come in."

The other female soldier rushed to the palace in the city. She was rushing and crying out loud, "A man's here! A man!"

Initially, the entire Daughter's Kingdom had a sad atmosphere. The women were sobbing and wailing by the road.

Originally, according to the Daughter's Kingdom's tradition, a woman must drink from the Mother River at 20 years old and give birth to a female baby in three days.

However, this tradition stopped three months ago. Since the Mother River stopped working, nobody was able to get pregnant.

This was a nightmare for those who had just turned 20. They could only hide in their rooms and cry.

When the female soldier cried out, the dead city was instantly lively again. All women had lights in their eyes. They found it hard to believe and were all excited.

Those crying in their rooms walked out and looked around.

It did not take long before footsteps were heard. Following that, women came out in all directions. They all fixed their eyes on Li Nianfan as if they were attracted to him.

"Argh! A real man!"

"He has a beard below his mouth. How sexy!"

"So this is what a man looks like. My heart flutters, I like him."

“Seeing him, I can already think of the names of our children.”

“Sisters, come on out! A man’s here!”

“He’s looking at me! He’s looking at me! Argh! I’m going to be dead!”

Suddenly, the street turned lively again. More and more women gathered. They were not going away. They all stared at Li Nianfan.

The initial sadness was nowhere to be found. They were all very excited.

Gasp...

Li Nianfan gasped weakly. He was very nervous. Instantly, he started to doubt whether it was the right decision to visit Daughter’s Kingdom.

Looking ahead, women were everywhere, all over the place.

However, they were not shy at all. They were all very brave and they did not hide their excitement in their eyes. Li Nianfan felt his scalp itching.

He did not understand. These women seemed skinny and gentle. How could they be so wild?

Dong!

The two female soldiers pulled out their swords. They said, "Back off! Back off! Stop pushing. He's our Queen's most valued guest! Touching him is a deadly crime!"

Li Nianfan could not help saying to Nanan, "Nanan, please, protect me."

"Yeah, brother, don't worry. I'll keep you chaste!"

Nanan nodded. She tightened her grip on the golden cudgel. She felt that these women were scarier than the demons.

If they were demons, she would not hesitate to smash them with her cudgel. However, they were all women and she found it harder to get rid of them...

Finally, against the ever-approaching women, the two female soldiers led them into the palace.

Upon entering the gate, an expensively dressed woman was waiting. Seeing that Li Nianfan was coming in, her beautiful eyes widened. Her long and red dress dragged on behind her as she walked toward him.

Li Nianfan took a small step backward. He said, "My name's Li Nianfan, greetings to Your Highness."

The queen halted and said, "Sorry to seem desperate. Since Mr. Li has come from afar, please, stay in my palace. I'll ask them to serve you some drinks."

Although she said so, her eyes were staring at him from all angles. She was staring at Li Nianfan.

He must have entered a wolf's den.

He only knew how attractive he was after coming to Daughter's Kingdom.

Li Nianfan felt very lucky. If he came straight to Daughter's Kingdom from the transgression, he would not have anything left in him by now.

He gently coughed. "Your highness, sure."

The queen smiled and said, "Mr. Li, please, follow me."

Walking upstairs, they went into a palace. Many women were serving them. They were all looking at Li Nianfan with a flirtatious smile on their lips.

The queen looked at Li Nianfan and asked curiously, "May I ask, how did you get to my Daughter's Kingdom?"

Li Nianfan answered half-heartedly, "I was bored and stumbled across it."

The queen felt lucky. "What a coincidence. Your arrival could solve the danger we're facing right now."

Li Nianfan asked strangely, "Why would you say that?"

"Oh, you don't know? Half a month ago, the Mother River stopped working. The women can't get pregnant after drinking its water. Without the Mother River, there won't be a new generation in this kingdom. We're going extinct."

The queen seemed sad, but she then said with excitement, "I begged the sky five days ago for a male to arrive. My kingdom will listen to him and worship him as our King. Who'd have thought that Mr. Li's now here? You're destined to save my Daughter's Kingdom!"

Li Nianfan understood what she meant. He felt helpless and his scalp itched.

He bit his tongue and said, “Your Highness, you don’t necessarily need a man. Who knows, there might be a way to save the Mother River.”

“No, it’s impossible for the Mother River to regain its power. I think having a man is more reliable than the river.”

The queen looked at Li Nianfan and looked rather embarrassed. She said, “Mr. Li, do you think I’m pretty?”

Li Nianfan replied, “Of course, you’re pretty.”

The queen leaned in with a seductive smile/ “I have many pretty women in here. If Mr. Li becomes the king, you won’t have to do anything. No matter what you need, we’ll do our best to satisfy you. You only need to be a man.”

What did she say?

Be a...man?

Him!?

Chapter 487: So Seductive. Can You Blame Me?

Nonsense!

Dirty!

Impossible!

Li Nianfan jumped in shock!

How could she say that?

Did she want him to live?

“You’re kidding me. I’m just an ordinary man, my power is limited. How am I even comparable to the Mother River”

Li Nianfan twitched and he said with a straight face, “I think what’s important now is to fix the Mother River again.”

“Mr. Li, don’t panic. We’ll give you enough time to rest. You can do it when you feel like it.”

The queen said understandingly. She stared at Li Nianfan with lust. "When you walked over, did you find anyone that you fancied? I'll send them over right away. They'll be willing to."

"Ha-ha, no need."

Li Nianfan backed away slightly. He hid behind Nanan and said, "Your Highness, we just met today. You don't even know who I am. Who knows, maybe I'm a bad person, maybe I'm not even your type."

Who would have thought that a Deluxe Merit Saint like him had to be protected by a small girl in this Daughter's Kingdom?

The queen said, "You're kidding me. We like how you look, everything else doesn't matter."

In other words, only looks mattered. Right?

Li Nianfan was speechless. He could only say, "To be honest with you, I know the Heavenly Palace well. I can ask some Immortals to help fix Mother River. I can assure you it'll be running again. Goodbye for now, I'll come back next time."

He definitely would not!

A kingdom with only women was scarier than what he imagined. Women were like tigers, this was not a lie!

“You want to leave!?”

Seeing that Li Nianfan had stood up, the queen’s face changed. She stood up and said, “No way!”

Roar!

From the outside, a row of women rushed in. Each of them was weaponized with armors. They blocked Li Nianfan from leaving.

They did not hide their desires in their eyes. They glared at Li Nianfan, either licking their lips or gulping.

Li Nianfan almost went soft. He did not doubt that if the queen did not make an order to protect him, these women would have rushed upon him. It would be bad.

A handsome female soldier suggested, “Your highness, why so polite? Once we capture him, he’ll accept his fate and listen to us.”

“Exactly, let’s do that!”

The female soldiers were more excited than ever.

“How dare you all!”

Meanwhile, Nanan straightened her face. Her small face was blushing. She outstretched her hand abruptly and a strong Qi pushed the female soldiers back.

Instantly, the weapons in their hands rushed out. They all gathered in the sky as controlled by Nanan and formed into a ball.

Nanan said with a cold face, “How dare you think so lowly of my brother? It won’t be just your weapons in the sky next time, it will be you all!”

Everyone jolted. They had a shocking look on their faces as they backed away.

“Mr. Li, you...”

The queen’s face turned pale. She looked at Nanan, feeling shocked. She did not know what to do.

Li Nianfan felt more secure. He smiled and introduced, "This is my sister, she knows some tricks. Don't worry, as long as I'm not under attack, she won't hurt you all."

He paused for a second and said, "As I said, we have connections in the Heavenly Palace. As long as we can leave, it won't take long before Mother River is fixed."

He said as he signaled to Nanan that he was ready to leave.

"Mr. Li, please, stay."

Meanwhile, the queen called out. Her beautiful eyes looked at Li Nianfan with a pleading look. She had tears in her eyes as she bowed at Li Nianfan. She said sincerely, "Mr. Li, if you leave now, as the queen of Daughter's Kingdom, I can't pass on this news to my people. I'd rather die!"

"Mr. Li, please, stay."

"Just for a few days."

"Waa..."

Instantly, all of the women turned into vulnerable women. They were all sobbing and begging.

This...

Li Nianfan frowned. He found it challenging.

Of course, he knew what they were concerned about. Once Li Nianfan had gone back, Daughter's Kingdom would be in danger.

Once he left, the queen might as well kill herself. She was not kidding.

"Mr. Li, I have an idea."

A beautiful advisor beside the Queen said, "You may ask your sister to inform the Heavenly Palace while you stay here for a few days. Don't worry, we'll treat you politely."

"You all will treat him politely? The pigs might as well fly!"

Nanan scoffed and swung the golden cudgel in her hand. "Why would I care about your life and death? Brother, let's go!"

The queen walked forward and cried out, "Mr. Li, I can guarantee that we won't offend you!"

"Sigh, whatever." Li Nianfan sighed and shook his head. "Nanan, you go and inform the Heavenly Palace. Ask them to come and have a look. I'll stay here."

It would not take more than a day. Li Nianfan felt that he might be okay.

Nanan asked, "Brother, will you be fine?"

"What else could happen?" Li Nianfan smiled and shook his head. He reminded her, "Remember to hurry!"

If not, he could always fly up and he would be safe.

Nanan thought about it and nodded. "I know, brother."

"Thank you, Mr. Li."

The queen was delighted. She looked at Li Nianfan with joy as she instructed her staff, "Bring over some nice dishes. Bring the dancers and entertainers over."

In a green mountain a few miles away.

Suddenly, laughter was heard.

The originally bored man let out a laugh. He shook his head and said, "Interesting. Very interesting. The man was interesting and the group of women are interesting, too. Luoyun, did you see that? There are such people in the world."

According to his understanding, no matter who it was, any man would turn wild for a month before crying to leave.

However, the sword behind him jolted. It did not smile. It pointed out, "Brother Feng, if so, you're a gentleman?"

"How could it be? Of course, I'm not an easy person. Luoyun, don't you know me?"

He was shocked. He quickly continued, "What I'm trying to say is that even women..."

The sword behind him asked, "Even women what?"

"Cough, cough. Nothing. Even women can be...adorable."

...

Time passed. It was already dark.

The queen kept her promise. She did not try to touch Li Nianfan, but there were many hints. She did not try to hide her intentions which really shocked Li Nianfan.

Even the dancers rushed over Li Nianfan like a wave. Li Nianfan felt as if he was not the one admiring their performance, it was them admiring him!

A man had to protect himself well in Daughter's Kingdom.

Li Nianfan felt as if he was in a wolf's den. He could not sit still. Seeing that it was getting dark, he quickly finished his dinner and wanted to go back to his bedroom.

On the other hand, the queen was looking at Li Nianfan like a fangirl.

Although Li Nianfan did not speak a lot, each gesture of his turned her on. Even a glance at him made her heart flutter. She was in love. Was this the attraction from a man? This was too wild, too handsome...

By the side, the advisor asked, "Your highness, you're not going to do anything?"

The queen sighed and said, "What can I do? Do you want me to force him against his will?"

The advisor said, "I heard that a man and woman communicate best late at night. Each party attracts one another. Why don't you try it tonight? When his sister comes back tomorrow, we won't have a chance."

The queen was touched. "What should I do?"

Instantly, they discussed it. They dressed the queen up as they went to Li Nianfan's room.

Knock, knock, knock.

They knocked on his door.

Inside the room, Li Nianfan's heart jumped. As expected, they came for him. He knew it!

He did not even remove his clothes. He did not want to lose himself during the night.

Knock, knock, knock.

“Mr. Li, are you asleep?”

Click!

Li Nianfan opened the door. When he saw the queen outside the door, he was shocked.

The Queen dressed up more delicately than during the day. She was no longer wearing her majestic robe. She was now wearing an orange silk dress with diamonds. She looked like an elegant young lady. Her cheeks were pinkish and her lashes long. Under the moonlight, she looked as if she was glowing.

Li Nianfan looked away and asked, “Your Highness, you’re not asleep yet?”

Seeing that Li Nianfan was attracted to her, the queen felt confident. She said elegantly, “May I come in?”

Li Nianfan tilted his body. “Please.”

The queen said, “How are you finding this place so far? Do you feel cold at night?”

“Thank you for being so thoughtful. No, I’m not cold,” Li Nianfan answered directly. He said, “May I ask what you’re doing here so late at night?”

Sigh.

The queen frowned and sighed. She looked pitiable as her small body leaned forward. Her curves were showing and she looked very alluring.

“To be honest with you, although Mother River’s our source of reproduction, this incident...made me realize how we must eventually rely on men. We can’t give birth to boys with Mother River.”

The queen widened her eyes as she stared at Li Nianfan and said, “I won’t stop you from leaving. However, could you help us make one male baby, just once?”

Li Nianfan jolted. He felt confused.

If only he was a bad boy. Should he let himself loose?

Was he to blame? It was...too tempting!

He was a very normal man. It was already an achievement for him to have restrained himself up to this stage. It was not easy.

Suddenly, he was reminded of Daji and Fire Phoenix.

Although the queen was as beautiful, compared to the Immortals, something was lacking. He was finally able to repress himself at the end.

The urge was evil. It would affect his self-image. He had to hold it!

“Your Highness, we have only met for one day. We don’t know each other well enough. There’s no hurry, we have plenty of time.”

Li Nianfan let out a sigh of relief. He asked, “Even after I’ve left, it doesn’t mean I won’t be back in the future.”

He had his private intentions. There was no man in this kingdom. He could simply connect them with the outside world. All the problems would be solved.

However, he took that back before he spoke up.

“You’d come back?”

The queen was both sad and surprised.

“Yeah, I will.”

Li Nianfan nodded. It did not take too much effort to come over.

He changed the topic. He said, “Your Highness, the night is long. Since we’re not going to sleep, why don’t we play a game?”

The queen was interested. “What game?”

“Call in two others, four of us will play together.” Li Nianfan took out a square wooden box. “Let’s play flying chess!”

Chapter 488: It Seems Like You’re Not As Knowledgeable.

The night was getting dark.

A huge cloud appeared and quickly landed on the ground.

The Jade Emperor came in person. He had Yang Jing and Juling Shen behind him, as well as six Heavenly Soldiers behind them, rushing toward Daughter’s Kingdom.

They heard that the expert needed help and that he was at a 'wolf's den' and needed rescue. They dared not take any more time. They rushed over at the quickest speed.

They had serious faces on. They controlled the clouds above Mother River. They scanned the river and sent out their Divine Consciousness to find out more.

Yang Jing opened up his third eye and checked out every detail of the river.

"The Law of this river was changed by someone!"

The Jade Emperor said abruptly with a straight face, "The Law was changed?" He did not seem too pleased, he was worried.

Yang Jing jolted. His heart sank as he said, "The Law here...was set by a Saint, right?"

"A Saint!"

The Jade Emperor took in a breath and his pupils dilated. "The Laws were set by the Saints back in the day. There were nine thousand nine hundred and eighty-one Laws. Daughter's Kingdom was one of them. And yes, it was set by a Saint."

He did not make it too explicit but the crowd fell silent.

If this was set by a Saint, not anyone could have changed it. Only a Saint could have changed it!

“It seems that another visitor has come to our world...”

The Jade Emperor pursed his lips. He was perplexed and worried. Very worried!

Goddess Nuwa went out, and now that this bigshot was here, they could not find him!

Perhaps it was the Saint from this world returning. He was playing a joke on everyone.

The Jade Emperor could only comfort himself with that, although he knew that this was very unlikely.

He said suddenly, “Yang Jing, Junling Shen, this is dangerous. Do you still want to tag along?”

Yang Jing’s black robe flew in the air. He said, “Jade Emperor, what are you talking about? Have you seen me running away from danger? You think too lowly of me!”

Junling Shen widened his eyes. He said calmly, “Me, too!”

Cultivation had always been against the Heavenly Ways. There were dangers everywhere. The path of Immortalization was even harder, it was very difficult!

They had been through countless dangers. It was as if drinking tea, fighting, and surviving were all part of the journey.

Furthermore...this mission was related to the expert!

The expert gave them an opportunity. Of course, they had to go all out! If it was simple, the opportunities would not have made them shoot up like a rocket. Even if they did not say it explicitly, they knew by heart that they were ready to sacrifice their lives for the expert!

If they ran away from danger, how shameful would that be!? What point was there to stay alive for?

"Okay!" the Jade Emperor nodded. He glanced at the Heavenly Soldiers behind him and said calmly, "Go back."

However, none of them moved.

One of them said, "Jade Emperor! The mission hasn't started, we have no reason to go back."

Another soldier said, "Jade Emperor, no Heavenly Soldier has ever been sent home before. It doesn't make sense."

The Jade Emperor shook his head and said weakly, "There's nothing you can help with. You're here to give up your lives."

"Actually, even though we're not as powerful, we could still...do something for the expert!"

"Jade Emperor, if an enemy came from the Chaos, I'm willing to sacrifice my life to fight against them."

Meanwhile, three Heavenly Soldiers bowed at the Jade Emperor. They said, "To be honest, my descendants met the expert back in the ordinary realm. The expert helped them a lot and there's no way for us to repay him. Please, give us a chance to do something."

"So, they're the expert's friends."

The Jade Emperor let out a friendly smile. He asked, "You're..."

Nanan said, "Uncle Pei An, Uncle Gu Yuan, and Uncle Gu Changqing. I heard from my brother that they brought the chickens over for him."

“That’s all we could offer,” Pei An smiled. “We’re glad that the expert didn’t mind them.”

Nanan said, “Ha-ha-ha, that bunch of chickens are now more powerful than you.”

Pei An and the other two coughed awkwardly. “Ha-ha, sure, sure...”

What was there to say?

Those chickens laid eggs for the expert! If possible, they would rather become his chickens!

Waa...

They were nothing close to the chickens! How triggering!

By the side, the Jade Emperor could not help sighing and saying, “Giving the chickens to the expert was indeed confusing!”

He was emotional and he could totally relate.

Not long ago, they gave a peacock to the expert to lay eggs for him. They were jealous of the peacock as well!

The Jade Emperor's status was not even close to the animals who laid eggs for the expert. Sigh, it felt so bad. He wanted to sleep.

Nanan said, "Okay, Daughter's Kingdom's too dangerous. I must rush back to find brother."

She was in a hurry. She wondered how her brother was doing.

The Jade Emperor quickly said, "Yeah, we should. Hurry back, don't take any more time!"

Nanan nodded. She left them with the cloud and rushed toward Daughter's Kingdom.

The Jade Emperor straightened his face. He ordered, "Everyone, look around. Send out signals when you find something strange!"

...

Nanan was quick. The sky had just turned bright when she was flying above the Daughter's Kingdom. She rushed into the palace.

She said to the servants in a panic, "Where's my brother?"

The servants were instructed by the queen. They said, "Mr. Li's now resting in the room. You may wait for him in the living room."

Nanan frowned. "No way, I want to meet my brother now."

The servants quickly said, "The queen and Mr. Li are now resting. They're not to be disturbed."

"What? Resting together?"

Shocking! Nanan was dumbfounded. "The queen's now in the same room as my brother?"

The servant replied, "Not only our queen, the advisor, and general as well."

"What? There are four of them?!"

Nanan could not believe her ears. She gritted her teeth with tears in her eyes. She said in a low voice, "How daring! Bring me over, now!"

She should not have left them. She knew these women had intentions for Li Nianfan. They were like wolves. Since she left, she gave them chances!

She had wronged brother, waa...

The servants were terrified. They had to obey her and brought her to the room.

As they approached, they could hear a conversation coming from inside the room. They were laughing from time to time.

Nanan's steps turned heavy. She was depressed. She stopped outside the room and dared not enter.

She started to imagine different scenarios.

The sky was turning bright. They had been talking throughout the night? How?

It seemed that they had succeeded!

She had wronged Sister Daji and Sister Fire Phoenix...

She was very sad. Finally, she bit her lip and cast a spell to unlock the door. She then pushed open the door.

Click!

The door was unlocked. The room fell silent. Nanan was dumbfounded.

She was prepared for everything and yet...that was what she saw?

She asked blankly "Brother, what are you all...doing?"

Li Nianfan smiled and said, "An exciting Flying Chess! It's a fun and innovative game."

Nanan's small lips parted. She was shocked. "You all have been playing Flying Chess throughout the night?"

"Yeah, it's fun! We've forgotten about the time."

Li Nianfan looked at Nanan. He asked, "You're back so soon? Are they coming from the Heavenly Palace?"

Nanan let out a sigh of relief. She smiled and nodded. "They're coming. They're investigating the cause. There seems to be some trouble."

"I see..." Li Nianfan stood up and thought for a moment. He was curious. "Glad that they're coming. I'd like to have a look as well."

Li Nianfan was curious about how the river could impregnate the women and how it suddenly stopped working.

Li Nianfan said to the queen, "Your Highness, please, excuse me. I believe that the river will be fixed in no time."

This time, the queen did not stop him. After spending a night with this man, she had started to trust him.

She said, "Yeah, I trust you. Can you...let me keep this Flying Chess?"

"It's a small game, just take it."

Li Nianfan did not mind. He walked out.

By the side, the queen quickly asked another person to take his place to continue the game.

At the same time.

Mother River was flowing between the forest.

In the sky, clouds were flying by and patrolling the area.

Pei An and the other two traveled in a group. When they passed by the mountain, they glanced around and saw a figure among the trees.

The man was standing at the foot of the mountain. He faced the flowing river, standing alone with nothing to hide.

At this instance, he gradually turned over to look at the three of them.

With just a look, even without any Qi, a powerful Qi appeared. It felt as if the wind was blowing wildly, making it hard to breathe.

It felt as if the ants had the attention of the humans. One could not help feeling nervous from within.

Instantly, the three of them felt a chill. Their heads turned blank.

It seemed as if...they had no right to look at this kind of existence.

However, after a moment, Pei An's body jolted. His voice was hoarse and tiny, "We...found him!"

The three of them made a sound. Their Qi circulated and formed into a light pillar as it rushed upward.

In the past, this was something simple. They could do it easily. However, now it seemed to take up so much effort. Even a small gesture took all of their energy.

"Huh? What a powerful Path."

The man was shocked. Pei An and the other two were not even Golden Immortals. Although he did not do anything, he was still very powerful.

Usually, people like them dared not move when they saw someone like himself. And yet they moved. That was impressive.

Little did he know that Pei An and the other two had spent a long time with the expert. They had gone past the ordinary for a long time. In terms of their mentality, they had seen a lot and they were able to stay calm.

Quickly, four clouds flew over, one after another. When they saw the man, all of them seemed very shocked. They felt chills all over and could not move.

The Jade Emperor's face turned pale. He looked at the man cautiously as he asked, "May I ask daringly, why are you here in the Eldritch World?"

His Primordial Spirit was shaking. This man's realm was way beyond the Saint in this Eldritch World. He was almost as powerful as the Hongjun Daozu!

The man drank a sip of wine and said, "If I say I'm here to destroy this world, what would you do?"

He was speaking nonchalantly and yet the Jade Emperor and the group felt more nervous than ever. The atmosphere was intense and the air was stuffy. It was very difficult to even speak.

They were being threatened!

"Then, we'll have to fight!" the Jade Emperor said seriously. He tried his best to gather all of his energy at the tip of his head.

Meanwhile, Yang Jing and the rest had veins showing. Their faces flushed red as they were gathering their energy as well.

The man continued to ask, "You're daring enough to fight me?"

"Why not!?"

Yang Jing was jolting. He wanted to fight as he scoffed. He exploded and had three knives in his hands. He scoffed with determination, "As long as I'm still alive, I'll fight you!"

"Wa-ya-ya!"

Juling Shen's body jolted. He was fighting against the pressure exuded by the Saint. His eyes widened like bells. "Me, too!"

Their energy was slowly coming out with difficulty. They were very limited. Compared to the other times, they had almost no energy now, and yet, they were still very determined!

The man did not speak, nor did he move.

He looked at the lake nostalgically.

Back then, when his world was in danger, all of them tried their best to defend it as well...

They wanted to fight for their world!

And yet, he escaped...

Thinking of that, he could not help clenching his fists. His eyes darkened as if he could see his world getting destroyed all over again. He felt emotional.

The longsword behind him glowed and said, "Sigh, Brother Feng, let it be. Don't play with them."

"How brave," the man sighed and said, his tone heavy and emotional. "Your world's indeed astonishing."

From the moment he arrived in this world, he had seen many astonishing things and people. He was surprised. Even though this was supposed to be a broken world, he felt as if he had learned a lot. Suddenly, he was moved. He asked curiously, "The man...seems to be an ordinary man? And you all...are probably the people in charge of this world. Who'd have thought that a word from him would make you all come all the way here?"

Of course, he knew it was Li Nianfan who sent Nanan to ask them for help. Who would have thought that an ordinary man could seek help from bigshots in this world! This did not make sense!

"Ordinary man?"

The Jade Emperor shook his head. He felt proud of himself. "It seems that you're not as knowledgeable!"

Chapter 489: A Harmless and Friendly Bigshot

"Oh?"

The man let out an astonished look. "Unless he's not an ordinary man?"

He drank another sip of wine again. He found it amusing.

He was not as knowledgeable?

Someone from this broken world said he was 'not as knowledgeable'?

Who was he? He was possibly the most important person in this world. He was way beyond them, unreachable!

It was as if an ant called out to the owl in the sky, saying the owl 'not as knowledgeable'.

The Saint was not to be insulted. Although he was wasted, he would not permit this from happening.

“I’m not a violent person, but if you can’t give me an explanation, you shall...die!”

He said nonchalantly. As he spoke, the space around him condensed and froze.

At this moment, the river stopped flowing, the wind stopped blowing. The tree leaves halted, the noises around them silenced. Everything in here had turned into a painting, completely cut out from the original world.

This was how powerful a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal was. Changes could be made easily. In this world, nobody could speak to the Saint!

“Of course, he’s not an ordinary man. He’s a traveler in the Chaos. He arrived in my Eldritch World to live as an ordinary man. If you can’t read him, doesn’t that show that you’re not as knowledgeable?”

The Jade Emperor almost ran out of breath but persisted through. He bit the bullet and said, “Now we...would like to ask you on behalf of the expert to fix Mother River. If not, we don’t know what to say to the expert!”

He spoke as they groaned.

They were all struggling. Although they could no longer gather their energy, they still did not give up. They were not going to back away from fear.

Facing this man, even though they were terrified, they knew...they had the expert supporting them. If they backed away, they would bring shame to the expert.

The Saint was not to be insulted. When one became a Saint, power was everything. If two of them were both Saints, either side must not show his weakness. Once he had shown his weakness, they would have to fight to regain one's reputation.

Especially when...the expert did give them a direct order!

An order from the expert must be accomplished and not neglected!

This was all they were thinking.

"Expert? Interesting."

The man squinted. He could feel that the group felt confident when mentioning the expert. All of their energy came from their current determination.

This 'ordinary man' was so powerful?

Instantly, he thought of many things.

This world was too unique. Even though it seemed broken, many places here taught him a lot. Even though he had gone through the Absolute Era, it seemed as if everything was coming alive again. New lives were made. Even though they were not as powerful, they seemed determined and fearless...

As the person in charge of this world, the Jade Emperor spoke up in front of him even though he knew he was not as powerful.

In fact, he had a sense of pride coming from him. He seemed to be proud of an...ordinary man?

“A traveler from the Chaos?”

If what they said was true, how powerful would this man be? He was the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal. If even he could not read him, how terrifyingly powerful was this man?

He asked in his head, “Luoyun, do you think this is possible?”

Luoyun jolted and said, “Brother Feng, everything’s possible in the Chaos. This broken world is too strange. However, the possibility is close to absolute zero!

“An unbelievable mega bigshot, pretending to be an ordinary man in this broken world? This is nonsense!”

The man was confused. He had too many doubts.

“Wow, Jade Emperor, you came in person? And Erlang Shen and Juling Shen? What are you all gathering here for?”

Meanwhile, a voice was heard with a hint of casual surprise. Everyone jumped.

Not only that, when this voice was heard, the pressure exuded upon the group instantly vanished. It was nowhere to be seen. The river continued to flow, the wind continued to blow, the trees continued to move...

Everything seemed to have resumed to how it was...

Looking up, a golden cloud casually floated over. It was Li Nianfan and Nanan.

They came!

Lord Saint came in person!

When the Jade Emperor and the rest saw Li Nianfan, their eyes turned red. They were emotional.

The expert knew they were getting bullied here so he came in person. He cared about them so much!

They were not surprised that the pressure had vanished. With the expert around, what pressure could there be? Nothing!

They instantly stood upright and greeted, "Greetings to Lord Saint!"

Li Nianfan asked curiously, "Jade Emperor, did you find anything?"

The Jade Emperor dared not hide anything from him. He told him everything.

The man's pupils dilated. He was very shocked. He stared at Li Nianfan with a look of disbelief.

He was not affected by the Realm of Saint at all?

The so-called Realm of Saint was a temperament. A Qi that belonged only to Saints!

For example, when the Jade Emperor made his appearance, the villagers dared not look him in the eyes. The Realm of Saint would affect his surroundings. And yet, since the arrival of this... 'ordinary man', his Realm of Saint instantly vanished!?

In other words, his temperament was completely washed out by this ordinary man!

How...how could that be!?

He was truly not an ordinary man?

The man did not want to believe this. He unleashed his temperament again. Usually, the wind would change drastically. Countless beings would start worshipping him. And yet, everything was calm now.

Not calm...everything was ordinary!

It was as if with Li Nianfan around, the world only had one temperament existing. Ordinary-ness!

If this man could easily neglect his Realm of Saint, this showed that he was way more powerful than himself!

Bigshot!

A mega bigshot!

Meanwhile, Li Nianfan looked at him. It was a casual glance. Li Nianfan's eyes were calm and unmoved. And yet, this man felt thunder in his heart, he almost collapsed!

Li Nianfan was perplexed as well. The Jade Emperor causally filled him in on the situation earlier, and yet what he was told was some big news!

In the Chaos, there were countless worlds and powerful beings. There were even some Creators just like God Pangu.

That man was a powerful being from the Chaos. He was more powerful than Goddess Nuwa. He was the reason why Mother River stopped working.

Insane!

So terrifying!

He should not have come!

This world was too dangerous!

Li Nianfan thought it was a small matter. He rushed over to check it out. Who would have thought that a mega bigshot was here!

However, if he ran away now, it did not seem appropriate.

Luckily, this man did not seem too violent for now.

He asked gently, "Jade Emperor, did you communicate well? Did you tell him that you're harmless?"

Meanwhile,

The man panicked. He was helpless. He started communicating with Luoyun, "Luoyun, what they were saying...seems to be true! This man's very powerful! Very powerful! He's a mega bigshot!"

No wonder the group was so brave earlier. They had such a powerful being supporting their backs. They were not to be offended. No way!

He cried to himself in despair, 'We seemed to have triggered someone...we shouldn't be offending.'

Damn it! The probability was close to zero and yet it happened!

Luoyun said, "Luckily we didn't offend anyone yet. This expert doesn't seem hostile. Why don't we show him that we're harmless?"

"That's the only thing we can do anyway. Luoyun, promise me, if I'm killed, don't fight back. You're just a Spiritual Sword, he might let you off!" the man said and took a deep breath. He calmed his fearful heart and walked forward.

He was no longer making big movements like before. He was walking calmly and uneasily.

He was coming!

The bigshot was coming!

Li Nianfan jumped. He stayed on the same spot and was not moving. He was looking serious.

The man stopped some distance away. He made a gesture and said, "My name is Lin Feng, I came into this world by accident. I found this river strange and so I simply changed its Laws for fun. I'm sorry to have caused you all troubles."

The Jade Emperor exchanged a look with his people. They all shook their heads silently. They were laughing at him.

He was shocked by the expert, right?

He was still so arrogant moments ago, why stop acting now?

Was he not ashamed? Was he going to start bootlicking now?

Li Nianfan halted. He was delighted and felt less worried.

Wow, not bad.

It seemed that this bigshot from the Chaos was a friendly bigshot.

Chapter 490: Li Nianfan Straight To The Point.

“So, it was a misunderstanding.”

Li Nianfan smiled. He said, “It’s nothing then, everything’s resolved now.”

“Right, right, you’re right. I’ll fix it now.” Lin Feng did not hesitate to cast a spell. Instantly, a glow flew into Mother River and the river was fixed.

“Thank you.” Li Nianfan made a gesture and introduced himself, “I’m Li Nianfan. Although I have no cultivation, I’m lucky to have become a Deluxe Merit Saint in this Eldritch World. Nice to meet you, Brother Lin.”

Lin Feng dared not waste anymore time. He quickly returned the gesture and said, “Greetings to Lord Saint.”

He jumped. He was pretending to be an ordinary man?

He felt it when his Realm of Saint vanished. When a man became too powerful, one would try to live as an ordinary man to experience ordinariness. However, one’s Qi could not be changed as it was coming from the inside. He was meant to be high-above at all times!

And yet... Li Nianfan had an ordinary temperament!

It was as if nothing was powerful around him. There was no ‘high above. Any temperament would vanish. Everyone had to live with his ordinariness.

What kind of realm was that!?

Lin Feng had no idea and found it unbelievable!

How powerful!

Li Nianfan calmed down. He had a plan and had to bite his tongue!

He had experience in doing this.

He went from an ordinary man and bribed his way up with those cultivational bigshots. Now, this was a similar case with different subjects.

Do not panic. Keep calm. Making friends was his forte.

He said, "Jade Emperor, since we have a visitor, let's waste no time. Make a boat and show him around."

Although this bigshot seemed friendly, they still had to know him better. It was better to make a new friend than an enemy.

It would be troublesome if they had offended him.

“Lord Saint’s right. We have a boat, yes!”

The Jade Emperor nodded quickly. With a gesture, an exquisitely made boat instantly appeared.

The boat was not huge but it gave them enough room.

Li Nianfan smiled and said, “Brother Lin, please.”

“Thank you.” Lin Feng was not too cautious. Since this had happened, even though he panicked and wanted to find a way to leave, he knew he must not turn down an invitation from the bigshot. He had to go ahead.

The group boarded the boat. The boat traveled down the river.

Li Nianfan and the rest sat around the table.

When Li Nianfan saw the wine jar in Lin Feng’s hand, he said, “Brother Lin likes wine?”

“Just one of my hobbies,” Lin Feng said as he brought out his wine jar. He asked, “Do you like wine as well? Would you like to taste it?”

“Ha-ha-ha, of course, I do. However, I have a type of wine here. Would you care for a try?”

Li Nianfan removed the purple golden gourd from his waist. He shook it and removed its lid.

“Even though this isn’t some precious wine, it has a nice texture. I can assure you!”

“Really?”

Lin Feng was shocked by what Li Nianfan said. He was also curious as he could not help looking at the purple golden gourd in his hands.

In the beginning, he did not see anything different about this gourd. He found it eye-catching, bright, and glowing.

However, it did not take long before his heart sank. He found this very interesting.

“Brother Feng, this gourd’s an Ultimate Treasure!”

Behind him, Luoyun Sword cried out. She was a Spiritual Treasure, so she was sensitive to other Spiritual Treasures. She felt a sense of external pressure and fear. She cried out with a tremble, “It’s terrifying. I think it could be an Ultimate Chaos Treasure!”

An Ultimate Chaos Treasure?!

Lin Feng's pupils dilated. He focused his divine consciousness on the gourd. He felt as if he was looking at an ocean. His head turned dizzy as if his consciousness was about to get sucked in.

He dared not go on. He cut out his divine consciousness. His body was filled with cold sweat. He was in fear.

If this thing could suck in his divine consciousness, there was no doubt that this was an Ultimate Chaos Treasure!

He offended it! He really did offend it! How could he use his personal divine consciousness to look into the expert's treasure? Luckily the expert was generous and did not hold it against him. If not, he could have died!

"Brother Feng, are you okay?" Luoyun Sword asked. "This gourd seems to be...pretending to be ordinary?"

It was trying its best to hide its glory and Qi. It was trying to make itself look ordinary.

Lin Feng took in a breath and said, "That's normal. Since the expert's trying to be ordinary, of course, his treasures would try to act along with him. Everything around the expert should try to be ordinary. This was the temperament of the expert!"

"I can't believe this! That was an Ultimate Chaos Treasure! And the expert's using an Ultimate Chaos Treasure to...bottle his wine!? What kind of wine is that?"

Lin Feng and Luoyun Sword were talking about how shocked they were. They were instantly scared and dared not breathe.

Was this the pressure from meeting a bigshot?

"Come, try the wine."

Li Nianfan had no idea Lin Feng had been talking to his sword all this while. He was pouring everyone a glass of wine.

Whoosh!

The wine flowed into the glasses and pulled Lin Feng back from his talking. When he saw the wine flowing, he was stunned as his head exploded.

His jaw dropped and he took in a cold breath.

Gasp...

Meanwhile, Luoyun Sword trembled.

This...this...this...

This wine was extraordinary!

Very extraordinary!

They had been in the Chaos for too long. They had some understanding and knowledge.

This wine had the Qi from the Chaos. It was made with Chaos Spiritual Roots!

So terrifying! So shocking!

Lin Feng's heart fastened. His hair was standing everywhere. He was dumbfounded by what he saw.

Li Nianfan looked at how shocked Lin Feng was. He asked curiously, "Are you okay?"

“I...”

Lin Feng thought quickly. He was trying his best to come up with an excuse. “I’m smelling the wine! Right! It smells so good! I can’t help gasping.”

“Ha-ha-ha, it seems that you’re really into good wine!” Li Nianfan laughed. He said, “Alright, try it. It’s just an ordinary wine. Don’t look down on it.”

“I won’t, I won’t!”

Lin Feng felt his scalp itching as he replied.

An Ultimate Chaos Treasure was used as an ordinary wine jar. A wine made with Chaos Spiritual Roots was called ‘ordinary’. Was he trying to insult them all? He was too weak for this!

Even his hand was shaking as he accepted the glass. He looked at the wine in it and was perplexed.

He would never have thought that he was lucky enough to drink wine made of Chaos Spiritual Roots. Was he dreaming?

He was too excited. He had many thoughts and he felt confused. “Luoyun, look! Wine made of Chaos Spiritual Roots looks like this!”

Luoyun Sword said, "Brother Lin, I see it."

Back then, they lost their world because of Chaos Spiritual Roots!

This was their out-of-grip dream. And yet, they were now touching it...

The Jade Emperor and Yang Jing accepted the wine glass as well. They were smelling the wine and felt energetic.

They were in luck! They were in luck!

They gained another opportunity from the expert again! How would they pay him back!

'Expert, I promise you, our lives will belong to you from now on!'

They could not wait to drink it.

Argh...good wine! Nice!

Li Nianfan looked at Lin Feng. He could not help asking, "Why aren't you drinking? Is it not up to your liking?"

"No, sorry, I'm thinking of my past." Lin Feng snapped back to reality. He lifted the glass and drank it with tears in his eyes.

Li Nianfan said, "How is it?"

Lin Feng was not stingy with his compliment. He said sincerely, "Good wine! I traveled in the Chaos and this is the best wine I've tasted!"

Li Nianfan laughed and said proudly, "Ha-ha-ha, you're too kind. I'm just messing around but everyone likes this."

Just messing around?

Did he give this wine to anyone?

Lin Feng was dumbfounded. He looked at the Jade Emperor and the rest who were also drinking. He found out that the expert would actually do that.

Damn it!

He wanted to collapse!

Was there such a generous man in the entire Chaos?

Even if an existence like this man craved for this level of good wine, anyone in this broken world could get hold of this?

No wonder these people dared to stand up to him. They worked so hard for the expert, and this man would do the same!

Not much, just once per day. He would be a good boot-licker.

Li Nianfan saw that it was about time. He asked, "Right, may I know why you came here?"

"Sigh, I came in by accident."

Lin Feng shook his head. He sounded sad as he said, "To be honest with you, my world no longer exists. I've been walking around in the Chaos. I get drunk all the time, sorry to be such an embarrassment."

Li Nianfan refilled Lin Feng's glass. He expected Lin Feng to continue speaking.

As expected, Lin Feng thanked him and sighed as he said, "In the Chaos, the weaker ones get eaten. The smaller worlds must stay hidden. If not, it'd be seen as food. Back then, my world was in danger. I escaped my world in the end. I watched my world go extinct."

He spoke with his eyes reddened. He felt very guilty.

Even though he was very powerful now, this was his guilt and this greatly affected his mentality. He was unable to move forward.

At the deep end of his heart, he had two goals—one was to get revenge and the other was to improve. He wanted to recreate his world and revive Luoyun Sword.

However, he was no longer able to improve. These two goals were hopeless and he started to get wasted.

When the Jade Emperor heard what he said, they fell silent and heavy.

They knew that if they had not met the expert, the Eldritch World would have been diminished just like Lin Feng's.

Li Nianfan looked as if he was thinking.

To put it in simpler terms, the Chaos was like a big world with thousands of Laws and Sects. The competition was violent. Lin Feng's sect was destroyed and he was now homeless.

He was pitiable.

Lin Feng said in a low voice, "Am I a person scared of death?"

"Of course, not," Li Nianfan said without thinking.

'You're a bigshot, of course, I know what to say.'

Li Nianfan thought of how cruel this world was. He merely wanted to send this outsider away from this world.

After all, he was a Deluxe Merit Saint in this world. The Eldritch World was safe for him but it was not safe from the Chaos.

Keeping Lin Feng here was like keeping a time bomb around.

Lin Feng's eyes sparkled. He looked at Li Nianfan with anticipation, "Lord Saint thinks I'm not?"

“Of course not.”

Li Nianfan let out a friendly smile and reformed his words. He said, “If you went all out, even though those people might praise you for your bravery, you’ll still be dead. Sometimes, fighting isn’t everything. Staying alive is more impressive.”

“Staying alive is more impressive...”

Lin Feng’s eyes widened. He felt awakened from a dream, his goosebumps were showing.

He clenched his fists tightly. He looked perplexed. “Will I...be able to take revenge?”

Thinking of that big demon, he felt helpless.

Li Nianfan merely smiled and said calmly, “The path is long, let it come when it comes. It’s not easy, but once you start, it shall be done!”

Vroom!

Lin Feng’s head felt like it was exploding. His blood was boiling wildly. He was very excited and shaking.

It was a simple sentence and yet he felt emptied. His mind instantly opened up.

“Yes, I can do that!”

Lin Feng had a look of determination in his eyes. He mumbled.

His originally lost hope was gradually toughening up.

He stood up abruptly and bowed at Li Nianfan. He said in a serious tone, “Thank you, Lord Saint, for pointing this out for me. I understand it now! Thank you, I’ll remember what you said.”

He was emotional.

The expert was indeed an expert! A simple sentence from him had instantly freed up his mind and toughened up his determination. Was this the realm of a bigshot?

Li Nianfan sat in the same spot and smiled. He said nonchalantly, “Glad that you understood.”

He seemed impressed.

He knew many quotes to sound impressive anyway.

He said this to Lin Feng with one purpose. He wanted to send this time bomb away. 'Go away and take revenge. Don't stay in this world!'

He did not care whether Lin Feng would be able to take revenge or not. He was not concerned. He said this merely to sound profound and nothing else...

Lin Feng seemed pumped up. He said, "Lord Saint, everyone, I'm ready to leave."

Li Nianfan was glad. He said, "So soon? Not taking a few more glasses?"

"No, thank you for your wine." Lin Feng shook his head. He bowed, "I've let myself loose for too long. Thank you for waking me up and putting hope back in me!"

"Cough, cough, you're welcome." Li Nianfan felt embarrassed.

He was convincing this man to die and yet this man was thanking him for that. He felt rather guilty.

He was guilty. After a moment of thought, he said, "Brother Lin, I have nothing to give you. Here's a small thing, I hope you don't mind."

"Nanan, get me the television."
