Chapter 491: How Was This Casual

“Huh? The television?”

Nanan pouted. She was unwilling to. After hesitating for a long while, she took out the television.

Even though they called it a television, it was actually a transparent crystal ball. It was the same crystal ball Li Nianfan was given back in the days, an item that allowed one to replay one’s thoughts.

Other than watching the television to kill some time, he could recall his past realm and look back at his memories.

Li Nianfan used it to recall his memories from home.

“Alright, it’s not something precious. We can find another one in the future.”

Li Nianfan smiled and caressed Nanan’s head. He took the television off Nanan and handed it to Lin Feng.

He said, “Here, this item will help you store your memories. When you miss home, you can imagine your past and look at it through this crystal.”

Lin Feng looked at the television and felt his throat getting dry. He swallowed his saliva with difficulty. He stuttered, “This...for me?”

His look of hesitation seemed as if he did not like it.

Li Nianfan took it back and said awkwardly, “It’s nothing special, it’s okay if you don’t like it.”

“I like it, I like it, thank you, Lord Saint.”

Lin Feng jolted. He thanked him instantly, “I really miss home. Thank you, thank you.”

Li Nianfan said, “Okay, keep it.”

Lin Feng looked at the television. He felt as if he was dreaming. He held it as if he was holding the most precious item.

An Ultimate Chaos Treasure!

Although this television was not as powerful as the gourd, this was definitely an Ultimate Chaos Treasure!

“Luo—Luoyun, this is...an Ultimate Chaos Treasure?”

“Brother Feng, it’s indeed an Ultimate Chaos Treasure,” Luoyun Sword was shaking as she said in awe.

What kind of bigshot was he? He simply gave away an Ultimate Chaos Treasure? Just like that? Was he testing their hearts?

After giving him the gift, Li Nianfan felt that it was about time. He said, “Alright, I hope you get what you want.”

“Yeah, thank you, Lord Saint. Thank you, everyone. I won’t forget the kindness you all showed me. Goodbye.”

“Goodbye!”

Lin Feng did not waste any more time. He flashed and disappeared in the air. He went back to the Chaos.

His speed was fast. With merely three steps, he was at the Outer World and arrived on another Star.

Up until then, he still could not believe what just happened. He looked at the television in his hand and felt as if he was dreaming.

This was an Ultimate Chaos Treasure!

This was something everyone would fight for in the Chaos. They could kill one another to get this. Many things would be destroyed. And yet...he received this so easily?

He dared not even dream about this!

“Brother Feng.”

Luoyun Sword’s voice pulled him back to reality. She asked, “Hurry and find out what this does!”

“It’s not a killing treasure and it’s not a protective treasure either.” Lin Feng looked at it and sent his divine consciousness into the television.

“The expert said it’s to watch and feel it with the brains. Use the heart to project...”

He gradually went inside.

Meanwhile, the television started to glow and the screen lit up.

Lin Feng’s body jolted. He focused on it and a sword appeared. It was a longsword and the world was broken by this sword. The world vanished into nothing and only this sword was left.

The Sword Qi was wild like a stormy rain. It was very powerful and made it hard for Lin Feng to breathe. It was too powerful and undefeatable!

Meanwhile, the sword rushed toward him!

What kind of sword was this? There was no way to run or hide from it. It was undefeatable. This was a deadly sword!

Lin Feng watched as this longsword rushed at him. He could not do anything. The only thing he could do was to open his eyes wide and face his death.

Vroom!

The longsword landed and the scene vanished and everything returned to normal.

Lin Feng opened his eyes wide. He had goosebumps and chills all over. He had fear in his eyes.

"I'm not dead yet?"

He looked at the television in his hand. He felt threatened with disbelief. "That was...the preaching of the Truth?!"

"This is an Ultimate Treasure of Truth! It contains the Truth!"

Lin Feng gasped with excitement. With this, he could understand the Truth better. He would learn the Ultimate Truth with great improvement!

"No, not only that!"

Lin Feng recalled the sword from earlier and he gained a lot from that. However, this was merely the first layer!

“The television has more than that! That might as well be the very first layer! There are second layers, third...”

Terrifying! Undefeatable!

With this, he might be able to take revenge! Revive Luoyun Sword! These were the two goals he had!

The expert was concerned about him not achieving his goals, so he rewarded him with this treasure! The expert was being so thoughtful, it was so touching!

Lin Feng was shaking. This treasure was so unique. It was way more precious than an Ultimate Chaos Treasure!

This was the greatest gift!

“My teacher! My teacher!”

He faced the direction of the Eldritch World and went on his knees. He had tears in his eyes as he cried out, “Although you didn’t admit it, you not only taught me, you even walked me out of confusion. You rewarded me with the utmost opportunity. I don’t know if I’m even qualified to be your student but you’re forever my teacher! I’ll work hard to gain your approval!

“Don’t worry, I won’t let you down! Please, let me worship you!”

With that said, he bowed his head in the direction of the Eldritch World three times.

Luoyun Sword felt confused, too. She said abruptly, “Sigh, who’d have thought that there’s such an expert around! If he was in our world back then, everything would be different now.”

“Luoyun, mind your words,” Linfeng said with a serious tone. “We can’t talk about the things he does. We should be grateful for the opportunity given to us.”

“Brother Feng, I know, I’m just being emotional.”

Lin Feng fell silent. He could not help saying, “To be fair, the expert picked such a broken world to visit. How lucky they are! More than going from hell to heaven!”

“How admirable...”

Meanwhile.

At the Mother River.

Li Nianfan watched as Lin Feng left. A moment later, after making sure he was gone, he let out a sigh of relief and a smile.

“He’s finally gone. We’re safe now.”

He looked at the Jade Emperor and said proudly, “Luckily I’m smart and sent him away. He’s so powerful and Empress Nuwa isn’t around. If he stays, we’re all in trouble.”

The Jade Emperor and the rest twitched their lips. They did not know whether to cry or laugh. They said, “How clever!”

‘Stop pretending!

‘You fed him Chaos Spiritual Roots and gave him an Ultimate Chaos Treasure. What did you say?

‘Please, reward us as well!’

Nanan pouted and said, “Brother, I don’t get to watch the television anymore.”

“That’s good, you get to do other things,” Li Nianfan smiled nonchalantly. He then comforted her, “Alright, it’s not a big deal, we’ll find another one soon.”

The Jade Emperor and the rest understood it and remembered it. Yes, get him another television!

“Alright, we got lucky. Let’s drink to celebrate!”

Li Nianfan raised his glass and looked at Gu Changqing and the rest. He said, “Long time no see.”

Lord Saint still remembered them!

Pei An and the other two felt emotional. They greeted, “Greetings to Lord Saint.”

“Ha-ha-ha, we’re old friends, don’t be so polite. Come. Everyone, try my wine.”

Li Nianfan smiled and poured them his wine.

When Lin Feng was around, the Heavenly Soldiers had no place to sit. Now, only they were left, so they could be more casual.

No matter what, he had to be friendly to everyone. Since the wine was not valuable and socializing did not cost any money anyway.

“Thank you, Lord Saint.”

The Heavenly Soldiers were touched. They held the wine glasses in hand and felt very emotional.

How generous of him!

Staying with the Lord Saint was always the right thing to do!

Being able to work for the Lord Saint was their blessing!

They took small sips as they did not want to finish so soon.

After all, this was a once-in-a-lifetime kind of opportunity. A glass of this was something that countless people admired. No, countless worlds would admire them for this!

The group was enjoying their time. They talked for a while before Li Nianfan and Nanan went back to Daughter's Kingdom.

The queen was still in the room, and they were still playing Flying Chess. In this boring world, the appearance of Flying Chess was like a lantern. They filled up the void in this boring and cold kingdom.

When they learned that Mother River was fixed and that Li Nianfan was about to leave, the queen did not stop him and parted with him unwillingly.

Li Nianfan made a gesture and said, "Your highness, no need to walk us out. Goodbye for now."

The queen looked at Li Nianfan with anticipation. She had tears in her eyes as she bit her lip and said, "Mr. Li, remember to come back often. My kingdom welcomes you at all times."

"Don't worry, I will."

Chapter 492: The Unlucky Goddess Nuwa

At the Yunhuang World.

A beautiful figure peeked her head out from the clouds. Then, she silently landed.

She walked across the air and moved quickly.

Goddess Nuwa snuck in. She had a clear goal in mind but did not want to delay. She just wanted to get the fish and go back to the expert.

She felt the endless Immortal Qi in the air and the endless Power of Law in the realm. Goddess Nuwa looked jealous.

That was the benefit of the unflawed world. The cultivators had much better resources. The flawed world was not half as good even when they were in the Prehistoric Era.

Soon, Goddess Nuwa focused. She thought about the four-part architecture and instantly stopped being jealous.

‘I’ve seen a majestic sight. The Yunhuang World’s nothing.’

That place was like a dumpster compared to the four-part architecture.

She crossed continents and arrived at the sea.

Splash!

The sea waves were strong. The waves were high like a wall. The waves kept coming. The wind was roaring, too. Waves splashed everywhere. There was water in the air like it was raining cats and dogs.

The nearby lands were drowned in the sea. Even the mountains were flooded.

“Here it is.”

Goddess Nuwa levitated mid-air. The water could not get close to her. She was untouchable. She seemed to be stepping on the waves.

“This place must be where the Luo Fish is. It has the body of a fish, the wings of a bird, and it sounds like a mandarin duck. When it is discovered, it means that the flood is approaching.”

Goddess Nuwa kept scanning the sea. She thought to herself, ‘According to the descriptions in the expert’s cookbook, plus the rumored information about this constantly flooded place, there must be a Flying Fish Demon causing havoc. It must be the Luo Fish.’

Suddenly, Goddess Nuwa saw something.

She saw two figures quickly passing by beneath the sea’s surface. Then, they leaped through the waves. They had fish bodies but they had wings. They leaped and glided with the current as if they were flying.

The two fishes were half a meter long. They crisscrossed as they flew. Every splash they made caused the sea waves to create bird-like sounds.

“It’s them!”

Goddess Nuwa was delighted. She stood still and reached out. It was as if she had telekinesis. She instantly trapped the two happily-swimming fishes.

‘Hehe. Gotcha!’

She camouflaged her aura and hid her capabilities. Being a Quasi-Saint was sufficient enough to capture them.

The two Luo Fish were Daluo Golden Immortals. It was a piece of cake for Goddess Nuwa to capture them.

Goddess Nuwa did not kill them to ensure their freshness. She carried them on her shoulder and grinned. She was about to leave.

She walked for a while before she heard someone calling her.

“Cultivator, please, wait.”

Goddess Nuwa frowned. Three figures hurriedly walked to her. An elder with a goatee smiled at her. He saluted and said, “I’m cultivator Yun Jizi. Greetings.”

“Greetings,” nodded Goddess Nuwa. She did not introduce herself. She asked, “May I help you, cultivator?”

Yun Jizi did not mind her manners. A lot of powerful cultivators were arrogant.

“No, no, not at all.”

Yun Jizi was polite. He looked at the Luo Fish on Goddess Nuwa. He smiled and said, “These two Luo Fish have been causing havoc all year. The area is constantly flooded. My students and I saw how you captured them. We were impressed, so we wanted to greet you.”

They were there to get rid of the Luo Fish. They were ready to fight. They did not expect to win without doing anything.

Goddess Nuwa was annoyed. Everything was going as planned until she ran into a delay.

Goddess Nuwa said calmly, “I shall leave if you don’t need anything. Farewell!”

However, Yun Jizi wanted to befriend her. He smiled as he followed Goddess Nuwa. He was a student of the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal. He wanted to befriend powerful cultivators so he could preach.

Goddess Nuwa would be glad to talk to him in the past. She would want to gather information about the Yunhuang World. However, she was not interested at the moment. She was in a hurry to leave.

Soon, they talked about the most shocking topic of the Yunhuang World.

Yun Jizi looked terrified. He asked in a low voice, “Have you heard about the death of Zhengyi Sect’s Master Longevity?”

Goddess Nuwa had a slight change in expression. She asked, “Master Longevity died?”

Master Longevity was the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal that chased after her and into the eldritch world. ‘But that was his figure. How did he die?’

“Don’t you know, cultivator?”

Yun Jizi cast Goddess Nuwa a weird look. Then, he said, “This is serious news. Master Longevity was a powerful cultivator. He was a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal. He was one of the greats in the Chaos. But two months ago, a Sword Qi outside the Chaos killed Master Longevity!”

Gasp—

Goddess Nuwa gasped hard. Her eyes were wide with shock.

‘Two months ago.

‘Sword Qi.

‘It must be the Peach Wood Sword!’

She did not expect that the Peach Wood Sword crossed dimensions to kill the actual Master Longevity in the Yunhuang World!

The Peach Wood Sword was the leftover powers of the expert. The expert did not even attack him in person.

'This is too unbelievable!'

The news shocked Goddess Nuwa. 'He's too powerful. Is he invincible? Probably.'

"Shocking. Right?"

Yun Jizi looked at Goddess Nuwa. He smiled and said, "Everyone gasped when they heard the news. We're not sure what kind of Godly person Master Longevity messed with. It's terrifying."

Goddess Nuwa nodded and said, "Scary indeed."

Yun Jizi continued, "The Chaos is too dangerous. Everyone in the Yunhuang World's paranoid. Every Saintly student has an Extraterrestrial Spirit Orb in hand. It's used to prevent outsiders from entering the Yunhuang World."

'Extraterrestrial Spirit Orb?'

Goddess Nuwa felt her heart pound. She instantly had a bad feeling about that.

'No way!

'Don't tell me I'm so unlucky!'

Then, Yun Jizi took out an orb.

He introduced it to her, "This is it. It will go off if it senses cultivators that don't belong to our world within ten thousand miles."

The orb suddenly became fiery red after he said that. Then, the fiery red lights pointed at Goddess Nuwa.

Goddess Nuwa. "..."

Yun Jizi. "..."

"Perhaps it's broken?"

Yun Jizi was baffled for a moment. He apologetically said, "Sorry. Something's wrong with my orb. Take out your orbs, guys."

Goddess Nuwa was the powerful cultivator who killed the Luo Fish. He felt like she was not an outsider.

'After all... Who would cross dimensions to help the Yunhuang World get rid of evil Demons?

'Who would be so bored?

'What kind of hobby is that? There's no way.'

Soon, his two students took out their Extraterrestrial Spirit Orbs.

The three orbs shined a bright red. The fiery red light pointed at Goddess Nuwa.

The four of them stared at each other. They were mystified.

'What the heck?! Seriously?'

Goddess Nuwa instantly had a mental breakdown!

Yun Jizi and the others also had a mental breakdown. They were shocked. “You, are you an outsider?!”

Boom!

Goddess Nuwa attacked them. Then, she flew away without delay. She went toward the Chaos with all her might.

Meanwhile, the entire Yunhuang World slightly quaked. A mysterious force was emitted. Everybody felt that. They could tell something big was about to happen.

Somewhere in a palace, an elder suddenly opened his eyes. He frowned, and said in a low voice, “Who dares hurt the cultivators of my sect?!”

He calculated a prediction with his fingers. He did not look happy at all. There were menacing glints in his eyes. “An outsider! What a bold move!”

He slowly stepped out and vanished from the palace.

He reappeared on a star. He looked at Goddess Nuwa with a cold gaze. The elder cast a spell as he flicked his horsetail whisk at Goddess Nuwa.

Countless strands attacked Goddess Nuwa like thousands of tentacles.

The elder squinted. He scoffed, “I don’t know why you came here, but how dare you touch the fish of the Yunhuang World and hurt my students. Unforgivable!”

Goddess Nuwa felt her heart sink. She knew she was not his match. She was also at a disadvantage because she was from the outside world. She had to risk everything and escape as fast as she could!

She raised her hand. She dragged out the Lotus Lantern.

Goddess Nuwa used all her powers to ignite the lantern. The flames burned brightly. She also cut the corner of her lip and smudged blood on the Lotus Lantern.

The Lotus Lantern instantly activated the defense. It shone brightly as flames surrounded Goddess Nuwa. It blocked the strands of the horsetail whisk. They went down like comets!

The elder yelled, "You're an outsider insect! How dare you mess with the glorious Yunhuang World?! Follow me and kill her! Attack!"

A lot of figures appeared and attacked Goddess Nuwa!

It was quite the commotion.

At the Chaos, outside of the Yunhuang World.

Yun Shu was hiding somewhere. She looked like she was struggling. She was thinking about how to ask Goddess Nuwa about the Chaos Spiritual Water. It was a sensitive topic since it was a huge opportunity.

"I wonder how Goddess Nuwa's doing in the Yunhuang World. When will she come out?"

She mumbled to herself. Suddenly, she saw a figure flying out of the Chaos. She looked closely and realized it was Goddess Nuwa. Goddess Nuwa had two big fish on her back, too. She was easily recognizable.

Yun Shu was baffled. "No way. Goddess Nuwa went to the Yunhuang World to fish? She's so reckless."

Then, she realized figures were chasing after her from the Chaos. They targeted Goddess Nuwa.

She was utterly stunned. She could not believe her eyes.

“What’s going on? Did Goddess Nuwa mess with an entire hive of cultivators? Is this necessary? It’s only two fishes. Why all the commotion?”

She kept looking back and forth at that moment. She was once again in a slump. ‘Should I rescue her?’

Chapter 493: The Bloody Commotion Caused by Two Fish

Yun Shu hid in the dark. She was having an internal battle.

‘To rescue or not to rescue. That is the question.

‘If I rescue her, I would be facing the wrath of the Yunhuang World. Even if I fight alongside Goddess Nuwa, we’re outmatched. I’ll be on the run, too. There are too many powerful cultivators in the Yunhuang World! It’s too dangerous.

‘However... Maybe I can get on Goddess Nuwa’s good side. The risks might pay off in the end.

‘If I don’t rescue her, this will be like watching a good show. That’s all.’

She thought about the situation of her world and tightened her grip.

Then, she looked at Goddess Nuwa. Goddess Nuwa had the Lotus Lantern to protect her but she was in danger. The defense of a Heavenly Spiritual Treasure was amazing but her opponents were powerful. Some of them had deadly weapons, too.

Yun Shu made a decision. She instantly went over to the battlefield. “If not now, when? No opportunities will fall in my hands if I don’t seize it!”

She shifted and took out a mirror. She tossed the mirror.

At that moment, a deadly black broadsword was attacking Goddess Nuwa!

Boom!

Every chop sounded like demon howls. It was bone-chilling. The black light of the broadsword was darker than the Chaos itself. It had an unstoppable force. The Lotus Lantern was shattering.

It kept attacking, and the chopping was getting stronger. The deafening noise affected her Primordial Spirit.

Goddess Nuwa did not dare to fight back. She was stuck from the horsetail whisk strands. She felt helpless against the group attack.

Jet black light surrounded Goddess Nuwa on the fourth chop. Goddess Nuwa was pale. The Lotus Lantern flickered like it was about to go out.

She tried to hold on. Suddenly, a mirror appeared. It expanded with the wind and blocked the broadsword's light.

Meanwhile, the mirror activated its extreme light. The Chaos was instantly brightened. Everyone felt like the mirror weakened their aura.

Cultivators fought with their eyes, Primordial Spirit, and by sensing auras. They instantly felt like they went blind. They could not target anyone. It was only for a moment but it was sufficient enough for an escape.

"Cultivator Nuwa, run!"

Yun Shu lifted her hand and slashed at the horsetail whisk strands. She hurriedly escaped with Goddess Nuwa.

Everyone in the Yunhuang World snapped out of it. They chased after them.

The elder with the horsetail whisk stood still. He gazed upon the endless horizon.

The elder with black robes slowly walked toward him with the black broadsword. His black robes moved with the wind. He was magnificently graceful and deadly. His aura had the Power of Slaughter.

He asked, "Cultivator Qingfeng, why didn't you chase after them?"

Longevous Qingfeng smiled. He asked mysteriously, "What do you think, cultivator Tianyuan?"

Longevous Tianyuan pouted. "Ha. I'm not a schemer like you. Just tell me what you want to do next."

Longevous Qingfeng looked around. He had to say, "Master Longevity died. Everyone in the Yunhuang World's more cautious. Only you and I are brave enough to chase after her. Everyone else are sneaky elders who observe ice-cold!"

He paused. Then, he said, "But they can't see what I see. I'm good at calculating predictions. I can tell this lady has a big secret!"

"Big secret?"

Longevous Tianyuan's eyes flickered. He frowned and asked, "Tell me this. Why did that lady come to our world? Was she there to capture two fish?"

"She indeed only captured two fish." Longevous Qingfeng shook his head. He calculated with his fingers. Then, he said, "I can't tell, but don't mind the details. I should tell you that the other lady has... Chaos Spiritual Qi on her!"

Longevous Tianyuan was stunned. "Chaos Spiritual Qi? Are you sure? What should we do?"

"We should wait for the big fish to take the bait!"

Longevous Qingfeng laughed coldly. He looked like he had it covered. He said slowly, "Control your powers. Don't attack them too hard. Let's see where they will run to in the end. We should dig out this big secret little by little."

Longevous Tianyuan nodded and laughed. "Nice!"

...

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu ran for their lives in the Chaos.

Goddess Nuwa said, "Cultivator Yun Shu, I didn't know you would come and save me."

"Now's not the time. Wait until we're safe."

Yun Shu was pale. She was unsure whether she made the right decision. She looked at the two fish on Goddess Nuwa. She had to say, "Cultivator Nuwa, I think you can toss the fish and apologize to them. Perhaps we can escape safely."

She could not believe that she was running for her life because of two fishes.

They did not look like treasure either. If she died for fish, it would be awful.

Goddess Nuwa shook her head without hesitation. She said sternly, "No. These two fish are crucially important. I can't let anything happen to them."

Yun Shu noticed how serious Goddess Nuwa was. She had to whisper, "Are you saying that there's a secret behind the two fishes?"

Goddess Nuwa glanced at Yun Shu. She shook her head. "This is too important. Forgive me, I can't tell you."

‘Cultivator Nuwa’s hiding something!’

Yun Shu was intrigued. She did not blame Goddess Nuwa. Instead, she felt sort of happy. She was filled with excitement. She felt like she was getting closer to a huge opportunity.

“Don’t move, demonic ladies! Leave the fish and surrender. We might spare your lives!”

Someone yelled from behind. A giant golden net shrouded them.

The net contained Power of Law. It sparkled as it approached them like a giant claw.

However, something happened.

The golden light reflected and solidified. The reflected golden light also became golden nets. They surrounded Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu from all directions.

They were suddenly like fishes in a net!

“Ha. Puny tricks!”

Goddess Nuwa had an ice cold face. She smudged the Lotus Lantern. A rainbow light shined. It instantly outshined the golden net. The two of them continued to flee.

Yun Shu also sneered. She asked, “You’re only a Quasi Saint. Do you think you can stop us?”

The bunch of cultivators behind them all had treasures. However, it was nothing to them. They could wipe them out with effort.

The black broadsword appeared again. The jet-black broadsword’s light appeared in the Chaos. The stars were turned to dust once they touched the black light. It was above Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu.

'The attack of a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal!'

Even in the Yunhuang World, the attack of a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal would be earth-shattering.

Back then in the Eldritch World, the Dragons, Fire Phoenixes, and Kirins were only Quasi-Saints. They ruined the realm. So, one could imagine how destructive it was when Saints battle!

Therefore, anyone who was a Quasi-Saint had to battle in the air or in the Chaos. They were extremely powerful.

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu worked together. They activated their Lotus Lantern and mirror at the same time to block the broadsword's light.

Yun Shu ran while she scolded, "It is only two fishes. Is this necessary? Come on!"

Goddess Nuwa frowned. She also felt like something was off.

Master Longevity chased after her in the first place because she crept into the Zhengyi Sect. However, she was being chased because of two fishes. They were not some sort of treasure. It was a bit odd.

'Is it necessary?'

She could not figure it out. In the end, she saw it as the Yunhuang World being bossy.

Goddess Nuwa did not look happy at all. She said, "Yun Shu, let's sense while we run. Can you tell how many cultivators are after us?"

Yun Shu looked happy after a while. She said, "It seems like there's only one Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal. The rest are all Quasi-Saints."

“Phew—Good.”

Goddess Nuwa sighed in relief. She quickly generalized their capabilities.

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu were Saints in the Prehistoric World. However, they were no longer Saints when they were separated from the Prehistoric World. They were not as capable anymore. They would not win against a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal.

However, if they returned to the Eldritch World, they could borrow the strength of the realms to fight back. Before that...they had to be extra careful.

They continued to scurry in the Chaos. They kept shifting and changing their directions. They would attack from time to time, too. Finally, they realized that there were no signs of the Yunhuang cultivators. Goddess Nuwa felt relief. She continued heading toward the Eldritch World.

Goddess Nuwa said, “Follow me!”

The cultivators saw Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu run in one direction. Longevous Tianyuan with the broadsword had to grin. He said in a low voice, “The fish...has taken the bait!”

Chapter 494: Blackie’s Birthday, Are We Worthy Enough

In the Eldritch World.

It was midnight.

Li Nianfan walked in the forest with Nanan.

Next up, they were going to the last location of their trip, the Wuzhuang Temple.

The Wuzhuang Temple was the place of Immortal Zhen Yuanzi. Most importantly, it had the Ginseng Fruit. Li Nianfan could live 47,000 years longer if he ate the fruit.

'Forty-seven thousand years, man!

'Such a long time. My hair would be all white by then!

'But... I like it!'

"The Ginseng Fruit's probably gone, but... I have to check it out. Perhaps there'd be a miracle."

Li Nianfan felt troubled yet excited.

"Nanan, it seems like we have to sleep outside again."

Li Nianfan was used to it. They immediately start to set up camp.

He laid on the ground and looked at the stars. The night sky was quiet and dark. The stars were bright and flickering.

'Hey, wait a minute.

'Why are the stars moving?

'Why are they moving so fast?'

Li Nianfan was stumped. The stars moved and shifted into the shape of a dog's head.

Li Nianfan thought that he was seeing things.

He looked closely. The stars moved again. They became a row of bright stars. Then, they became rings of light. Their colors were also shifting. Almost as if...they were changing colors.

“Holy cow. Is this a drone light show? The Heavenly Palace is so rich.”

Li Nianfan was stunned. He exclaimed, “I see. The stars can change colors.”

Nanan was pissed off. She had to complain, “Brother, is the Heavenly Palace having some sort of big event? They didn’t invite us! Curse them!”

She was intrigued. She had clouds underneath her feet as if she was going to jet off. “Brother, come on. We have to hurry up and go over there!”

Li Nianfan waved it off. He casually smiled and said, “Enough. What for? We can watch it from the Immortal Realm. A closer view is worse.”

Nanan pouted. She unwillingly backed down.

Somewhere amongst the stars.

A bunch of cultivators was insanely busy. Some of them held flags to manipulate the stars, some of them held compasses for navigation. Some cultivators held rulers to calculate.

“Places. Next image... Lotus! Make it happen!”

“Right, to the right! Yo, what’s going on with you? Can’t you differentiate your lefts and rights?!”

“That star over there, please, be brighter. Today, you shall be the brightest star.”

The cultivators were all Xing Guan. They were responsible for star navigation and brightness. They were usually quite bored. However, they were busy that night. They started to sweat hard.

Taoist Xinghe walked on the starry sky. He was supervising.

Before the Heavenly Palace was rebuilt, he was working for the Seventh Princess, Ziyi. He was also familiar with Li Nianfan. So, he was promoted into a Star Lord.

He supervised the workers with a serious face. He said in a low voice, "Look alive. This is a task assigned by the Lord Dog. Don't slack off!"

"We know. To be honest with you, the workload for a year isn't as much as tonight."

"I'm exhausted. Are there rewards for working overtime?"

Taoist Xinghe slapped him on the head. "Overtime?! It's an honor to work for Lord Dog. This is our chance to show our gratitude! Be mindful of your words. Got it?"

Deified Dog stood mid-air like a cool dog. Its dog fur swayed with the wind. He yelled, "Today's Lord Dog's birthday! Make sure nothing goes wrong. Our Lord Dog's watching. You'll have rewards if he's satisfied!"

He said while taking out a bunch of dog food to munch. "See this? This is Flat Peach flavored dog food. It's my usual meal. Do you know what being rich is? Our Lord Dog's the definition of being rich!"

The Immortals stared at the dog food with jealousy. They drooled over it.

The sentence worked. The Immortals were pumped to work overtime.

"Meteor. Yes, meteor. Stand by, places!"

"More meteors. We should make a meteor shower. It must be bright!"

The Jade Emperor and the others were watching nearby, too. The expert's dog was involved. They could not be careless.

They were instantly astounded when they saw Deified Dog taking out a bunch of dog food. They were crazy jealous of Deified Dog.

'We're worse than Dogs... We Immortals are worse than Dogs!'

The Jade Emperor coughed softly. He said, "Yang Jing, Deified Dog is your dog. Can you ask for some dog food?"

"Uncle, I can't do that!"

Yang Jing looked troubled. He shook his head and said, "I tried it before. Deified Dog is stubborn. He said only dogs can eat dog food. He won't give me any! I'll try again later, uncle. Maybe I can beg for some dog food for you."

The Jade Emperor did not look happy. He scolded, "Yang Jing, you have such backward thinking! You want to eat dog food?! How dare you think of me like that?"

"I don't want to eat the dog food. I just have a Dog. I asked you to help get some dog food for my dog!"

"Yang Jing, I'm your aunty, listen to me. Where's your dignity as Erlang Shen?" said the Empress. She paused and said, "The Jade Emperor and I raised two lover dogs. You should give me some dog food, too."

Juling Shen immediately walked over. He smiled and said, "Lord Erlang Shen, my dog wants to try it, too. Can you...?"

Yang Jing was blushing from embarrassment. He was utterly humiliated.

'You guys have Dogs? Why don't I know about it?'

'What a bunch of nonsense. You liars!'

He was livid from embarrassment. "Shoo!"

At the Dog Mountain.

The dogs stood in a row. They cast spells so the entire mountain was shining. A lot of Dog Demons were performing for the dogs.

Blackie looked up at the stars. He was reminiscing.

"It's the fifth year..."

Blackie mumbled to himself, "Five years since my Master raised me."

Blackie would always remember the day the Master adopted him. That day was the day of his new life. So, that day was his birthday. He would never forget it!

"Master, do you see the starry sky?"

Blackie suddenly turned into a poetic dog. Blackie said slowly, "I'm no longer by your side. But, we're looking at the same starry sky. This is us sharing the same sky a thousand miles away. Blackie's with you."

A bunch of meteors appeared in the sky. They rained down. It was a majestic sight of the universe.

The stars lit up the quiet dark night. It was beautifully mesmerizing.

Li Nianfan had meteors in his eyes. It was the reflections of the meteors. "Such a beautiful meteor shower! Are the Star Lords playing with fireworks up there? Party!"

Nanan was jealous. "Manipulating the stars must be so much fun. They didn't invite me..."

Meanwhile.

Two figures walked in the Chaos. They looked flustered and walked extremely fast. They passed the stars as fast as they could.

It was Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu.

They headed into the Eldritch World. They stopped in their tracks because they were astounded by the sight.

The stars were bright and shining. The Immortals were very busy moving the stars around.

It was a fiesta!

"Goddess Nuwa, your world's very..."

Yun Shu tried to find a description. In the end, she said, "Your people are very...happy."

She had never seen anything like that. Nobody else in the Chaos would do that. 'They knew how to party, that's for sure!'

The busy Immortals were passionate and all fired up. They were joyous to look at. Yun Shu saw two words on them—'hope' and 'happiness'.

Yun Shu was impressed by the Eldritch World. It was a wonderful world. The people must be very happy.

Goddess Nuwa was baffled.

‘What’s going on today?’

‘What are they doing?’

‘When did the Heavenly Palace become so grand?’

‘The Jade Emperor’s depraved!’

She looked serious. She stepped out and appeared in front of the Jade Emperor and the others. Her Sainly aura was emitted. It was holy and prestigious.

However, the two fish on her back were not fitting for her aura.

The Jade Emperor and the others jumped. Then, they hurriedly saluted, “Greetings to Empress Nuwa.”

“Wow! What a big fish. Empress, this is a successful hunt. We should celebrate!”

“Celebrate? We’re in big trouble!”

Goddess Nuwa was worried. She exclaimed, “No time to explain! Get ready to fight!”

“Fight?”

The Jade Emperor and the others were shocked. They were not ready at all. Suddenly, they heard a loud laugh. A powerful aura appeared. It twisted time and space.

Longevous Tianyuan walked over with a broadsword. He grinned at them with contemptuous eyes. His aura was powerful.

“Haha. Just in time for some sort of event night.”

Longevous Tianyuan sneered, “Who knew that a flawed world would have such entertainment? Ridiculous.”

He said that, but he was considering doing the same in his world. He wanted to have some entertainment in his world, too.

The elder appeared with malicious intent. He did not attack but everyone was petrified.

They knew that he was unstoppable!

No one dared to breathe.

“Another Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal...”

The Jade Emperor had wide eyes. His heart was beating out of his chest. ‘We just dealt with a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal a few days ago. Why’s there another one?’

‘Being the Jade Emperor’s so awful!

‘Is the Eldritch World the back garden of Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals or something?’

‘Can’t we live freely? My life’s too hard.’

Goddess Nuwa squinted. She emitted a Saintly aura as she said, “You aren’t worthy enough to cause havoc in my Eldritch World!”

Everyone instantly felt better when Goddess Nuwa said that. They went serious like they were ready to fight.

“We aren’t worthy?”

Someone else mocked them in the depths of the Chaos.

Longevous Qingfeng who hid in the dark made an entrance.

He smiled and waved his horsetail whisk. The waterfall-like meteors instantly faded away into dust.

The sparkling stars were creating the shape of a Dog who stood tall.

They also faded away into nothing...

“Fancy tricks. Useless.”

Longevous Qingfeng commented and smiled. He stood there smugly and asked, “What if I join in? Are we worthy enough?”

Chapter 495: You Bullies. Bad Dog

‘Two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals?’

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu instantly felt their hearts sink to the bottom.

They purposely ran in circles to avoid being followed. They did not expect the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals to be so patient. They did not detect their presence at all. It was too unexpected.

They thought they had an upper hand. However, things changed. They could not win.

Longevous Tianyuan looked like that was a sure win. He sneered, "You're from a flawed world and you dare come to our Yunhuang World? So courageous."

He had to look at Longevous Qingfeng. He had doubts in his mind. It was a pleasant surprise that they landed in a flawed world. However, Longevous Qingfeng said there would be Chaos Spiritual Qi. It was disappointing.

"How dare you ruin the image of the Lord Dog?! Die!"

Deified Dog growled at them. His soft fur stood on ends.

The image was his proud work. He spent a lot of time designing it to please Blackie. He did not expect the image to turn to dust. That was bullying!

"Yo, what a feisty little dog. You probably don't know who you're messing with!"

Longevous Qingfeng laughed from anger.

'What a lowly world. Even a dog would dare challenge my authority.'

He overpowered Deified Dog with his powerful aura!

Yun Shu lifted her hand. The mirror shielded Deified Dog from Longevous Qingfeng.

Longevous Tianyuan said in a low voice, "Kill them!"

He attacked everyone with his broadsword.

At that moment, everyone felt like they were a lone boat in a vast sea. More importantly, they could not resist. They would be wiped out at any second.

Goddess Nuwa had the Lotus Lantern in hand. The Lotus Lantern shined. The fiery light beamed to the sky and became a huge rainbow lotus. The lotus was ignited with rainbow flames. It slowly bloomed and became a huge lotus shield. It was powerful and majestic.

It blocked the broadsword and attacked them!

“Watch out,” said Goddess Nuwa

Goddess Nuwa flew to the Chaos while dragging the Lotus Lantern. She was ready to fight Longevous Tianyuan in the Chaos.

“Fight!”

Yang Jing twirled his Three-Pointed Double-Edged Blade. He fanned out his black cape and went for the kill!

“Useless!”

The blade attack was strong but it was easily crushed by the opponents. Then, a huge bronze palm attacked Yang Jing with an unstoppable force!

The huge palm contained immense Power of Law. A mysterious aura was emitted. It was ground-breaking!

Yang Jing looked indifferent. He stabbed the palm with his Three-Pointed Double-Edged Blade!

Boom!

The two forces collided. The stars were shattered from the aftermath. There was an explosion in the Chaos. The three realms quaked from the terrifying thunder.

Yang Jing backed away. His hand that held the weapon was shaking. He looked pale.

However, another huge bronze palm came at him without any warning!

Yang Jing could only defend himself by putting the Three-Pointed Double-Edged Blade in front of his chest.

Boom!

The palm attacked Yang Jing. He spat out a mouthful of blood. He was not able to avoid the attack. He fell like a comet.

He crashed onto a star in the blink of an eye. The entire star shattered into pieces.

Bam!

Yang Jing slashed the palm attack with his Three-Pointed Double-Edged Blade. He barely made it out. He was still bleeding from the corner of his mouth.

Deified Dog was instantly enraged. He yelled, "Master!"

Yang Jing lifted his hand and gestured to Deified Dog to shut up. He looked at the cultivators of the Yunhuang World.

"A bunch of sheep. Laughing and celebrating with enjoyment. Your happy days are over when you meet us!"

A bronze bald man slowly walked out. He had a menacing grin. He looked at Yang Jing and shook his head. "Yikes. You can't endure two slaps?"

He slowly walked towards Yang Jing.

The Jade Emperor and the Empress felt their hearts sink. They looked at each other. "The Flesh Cultivator! He's as powerful as the Twelve Ancestors."

There were a lot of cultivators in the vast Chaos. It was a shame that the Eldritch World was flawed. Otherwise, they would have a lot of expert cultivators, too...

The Jade Emperor flicked his wrist and out flew the Hao Tian Pyramid. It flew toward the bronze man. He yelled and charged into the battlefield. "Do you think you can mess with the Eldritch World?"

The Empress opened The Land of Mountains and Rivers Painting. It shielded the Immortals. She yelled, "Weaker cultivators should run right now. You can't help by staying here. Get the Demon King, Mosquito Taoist, and Kunpeng!"

The cultivators from the Yunhuang World were all at least Quasi-Saints. The Heavenly Palace cultivators were mostly Tian Immortals and True Immortals. They were strongly outmatched. Staying there would be a burden.

The battle of two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals and ten Quasi-Saints!

The battle was a tough one for the Yunhuang World cultivators. However...for the Eldritch World cultivators, it was a battle that could destroy their entire realm!

A big ax stopped the Hao Tian Pyramid.

"Don't move. I'm your opponent!"

"Wow, wow, wow. The little sheep starts to resist!"

“This world isn’t much, but at least they have some resources. We can share their ultimate treasures. It’s better than nothing.”

The Yunhuang cultivators did not charge and attack. They casually looked at everyone as if they could easily kill them.

“Get help? Go on, get help! We’ll be waiting! Haha—”

They laughed. Someone walked out arrogantly. He was the opponent of the Empress.

“You bullies. I, Xiao Chengfeng, am not afraid of anything!”

Xiao Chengfeng was flushed. He pulled the sword out swiftly with a ‘clang’ sound. The cold light shone in the night sky. He held his sword like a lone moth. He charged toward the Quasi-Saints!

“Die.”

Someone said coldly. They charged their auras toward Xiao Chengfeng like a thunderstorm!

“Hm!”

Nobody attacked. The Quasi-Saints made Xiao Chengfeng groan with their minds. His Primordial Spirit was trembling like it was going to shatter. He was bleeding from his mouth and his nostrils.

However, Xiao Chengfeng did not back away. He held his longsword and pointed at his opponents. He seemed to be one with his sword.

He continued to move forward with red eyes. He charged at them with his sword.

“So rare to see a good sword cultivator.”

They scoffed. They attacked Xiao Chengfeng with a green hill that expanded with the wind!

“Kneel!”

They yelled before the small hill crashed into Xiao Chengfeng. It was as if they were yelling from the realm. It was irresistible. They overpowered Xiao Chengfeng and made him kneel!

Xiao Chengfeng spat out a mouthful of blood. His sword aura was gone but his eyes were still determined. He stood up straight, “Kneel, my foot!”

Xiao Chengfeng was like an insect against the green hill attack. He went down!

“Don’t worry, Brother Xiao. I’ll help you!”

Ye Liuyun had the Nine Tooth Rake. He activated his powers and teleported next to Xiao Chengfeng. He smashed the green hill with his Nine Tooth Rake.

“Yah! Take this!”

Juling Shen held his axes. He flew to their side and enlarged. He was a three feet tall giant in the blink of an eye.

The three of them worked together and held on. They resisted the green hill.

“Useless. I shall grant you the honor of dying slowly then!”

The green hill became more powerful. It was crushing down on them. Xiao Chengfeng and the others felt stuck. They used all their might to resist. They felt like they would be crushed at any moment.

Meanwhile, Yang Jing was fighting the bronze bald cultivator.

Yang Jing was a cultivator of Divine Skills. He also mainly focused on cultivating the Flesh. However, he was a fresh Quasi-Saint. Yang Jing was not on his level. His opponent would be unstoppable if he broke his Divine Skills!

“Dragon Rope!”

Yang Jing fought hard against the bronze bald cultivator. His third eye emitted a mysterious light. He looked for a chance to attack. A golden rope appeared like a golden dragon. It entangled the bronze cultivator!

The ropes entangled the bronze cultivator multiple times. He was trapped. Yang Jing held the other end of the rope and smirked.

However, the bronze bald cultivator laughed maniacally. He jolted and his powers went off like an explosion. The Dragon Rope was shaken off. Then, he pulled on the rope. Yang Jing was pulled toward him!

He attacked Yang Jing with his bronze fist!

Yang Jing’s expression changed. He flicked his wrist and held the Three-Pointed Double-Edged Blade tightly to defend himself against the attack.

Bam!

The powerful attack hit Yang Jing. Yang Jing flew away from the force of the attack.

“Master!”

Deified Dog ran over on all fours. He clenched his jaw with hatred in his eyes. Deified Dog opened his mouth. Wild winds formed a huge Deified Dog figure and a tornado was formed. It roared at the bronze bald cultivator!

The bronze bald cultivator glanced at it. Then, he simply attacked with his fist. The destructive attack blew his attack into bits. Deified Dog also flew away from that hit. He crashed into a star.

Yang Jing coughed out two mouthfuls of blood. He was pale. He stood up, using his Three-Pointed Double-Edged Blade to balance himself. He exclaimed, "Deified Dog, go!"

"Master..."

Deified Dog limped. He knew that he could not help his Master. He could only growl at the bronze cultivator.

The bronze cultivator did not look at Deified Dog. He moved towards Yang Jing and attacked again!

He would fight a Quasi-Saint. The others were all insects to him. He did not even want to look at them.

Deified Dog took out his Dog Bowl and tossed the bowl to Yang Jing. Deified Dog yelled, "Master, catch. Hold on, I'll get help!"

'I need to beg for Lord Dog's help!

'My Lord Dog's as powerful as a Saint! He'll turn things around!'

Then, Deified Dog limped towards the Above Immortal Realm.

The Quasi-Saints did not care about Deified Dog at first. However, they laughed when they saw how tragic he looked.

“Is that dog going to get help? Perhaps another dog?”

“So tragic. A classic bad dog. It’s trying to escape.”

Chapter 496: Who Gave You the Right to Kill on My Turf

Deified Dog left. Nobody from the Yunhuang World cared.

He was just an insect. Not worth mentioning.

“Enough. It’s about time to end this!”

The owner of the Green Hill Treasure was an elder. He smirked coldly and pressed down with his hands. He was going to crush Xiao Chengfeng and the others!

Suddenly, the starry night was bright once again. The light coming from Xiao Chengfeng and the others was about to vanish. Then, stars were flickering again. It was as if they had been transported to another realm.

“I came just in time. Right?”

Endless stars connected into a huge Kirin image. It looked down on everyone from the Yunhuang World.

“Outsiders. Why don’t you kneel and beg for mercy?!” yelled another voice.

The stars lit up and formed an image of a giant Dragon. The Dragon moved and stared at everyone.

Daji and Fire Phoenix brought a bunch of Demons under the pale moonlight. They came in like waves. They said coldly, “Get into the Starburst Formation. Wait for Empress Nuwa’s orders!”

Kunpeng and Mosquito Taoist also showed up. Mosquito Taoist licked her red lips and said, “My Eldritch World is weak, but not powerless! You’ll pay for the damage you’ve done!”

A bunch of Tian Immortals, True Immortals, Demons, and cultivators showed up, too. They merged into the Starburst Formation.

They were one—like bright stars in a huge formation.

The Starburst Formation connected the cultivators like stars. The more people they had, the more powerful they were!

It was a heavenly formation created by the Eldritch World!

Goddess Nuwa exclaimed, “Cultivator Yun Shu, join me in the formation!”

“Yes!”

Yun Shu sighed in relief. She was pale and wounded.

She did not fight for long but she was clearly outmatched. She could not win against Longevous Qingfeng. Goddess Nuwa could borrow the force of her realm, but she could not. She had been holding on.

“A heavenly formation that borrows the force of the world?”

Longevous Qingfeng and the others looked at the sky full of stars. They looked calm. “Ha. Interesting. But...still pathetic.”

Longevous Tianyuan squinted. His black broadsword had an intense menacing aura. He attacked the formation!

Whoosh—

A menacing aura roared like a beast. It attacked them like a comet that was about to split them in half!

Suddenly, the star lights formed into a giant figure of a golden bell—the Eastern Bell. It blocked the black broadsword and spun slowly!

Clang!

The black broadsword clashed with the Eastern Bell and made a loud sound. The Starburst Formation blocked the attack!

Then, the starlight shined bright. It formed a huge Lotus Lantern and a Flaming Flag.

The two of them shined brightly. Powerful flames were emitted in the blink of an eye. The starry night turned to an extremely terrifying and fiery battlefield. The flames were hotter than the Holy Fire. It contained extreme Power of Fire. It would burn anything on sight!

The smallest flame could burn a Daluo Golden Immortal to death. Any cultivator inferior to a Daluo Golden Immortal would disintegrate with one touch!

The flames were high. It surrounded the twelve cultivators of the Yunhuang World. The flames wanted to engulf everything.

Longevous Qingfeng waved his horsetail whisk in an infinity motion. He made everyone stand in a circle and formed a defense formation. The defense formation blocked out the fire.

“How troublesome. Futile resistance. What a waste of time.”

Longevous Qingfeng shook his head. Then, he said calmly, “Go for it, everyone. Use your most vicious attacks on them. They can’t break my defense.”

Longevous Tianyuan laughed. “Eldritch World? What kind of future does this flawed world have? You, sword guy, I can allow you to be my sword slave. You can have a future in the Yunhuang World.”

A Quasi-Saint laughed. “For those Kirins and Dragons who want to live, you can be my ride!”

“Shut up! The Yunhuang World’s nothing. You can’t compare it with our Eldritch World!”

Xiao Chengfeng scoffed. The stars formed into a longsword’s figure and attacked the cultivators of the Yunhuang World!

“Ha. Yunhuang World?”

The Jade Emperor also scoffed, “You’re a bunch of cultivators with no knowledge!”

The others also mocked them, “Ignorant fools!”

“You don’t know anything about our power!”

They all simultaneously thought of the expert.

‘It isn’t about how high the mountains are or how deep the water is. The place is heightened because it’s the sanctuary of an Immortal or a Dragon!’

‘My world isn’t as good as the Yunhuang World because my world is flawed, but... We have a Godly expert in our world. He chose the Eldritch World. It’s our blessing. As long as he’s in the Eldritch World, our world’s stronger than any world!’

‘The Yunhuang World is trash! How dare you compare us? What are you so smug about?’

'Ugh. Shameless!'

The cultivators of the Yunhuang World all frowned.

They could tell they were not bluffing. They knew it was sincere pride from the bottom of their hearts.

They could not figure it out. 'You guys are being prideful over this? Seriously? Are you brainwashed?'

They felt as if they were billionaires who hired poor workers. However, the poor workers told them that the billionaires were poor.

Ridiculous. It was unbelievable.

Yun Shu was also stumped. She wanted to ask Goddess Nuwa where they got their superiority complex from. It was not easy for everyone to be that prideful at the same time.

"Ha. How ridiculous!"

Longevous Tianyuan was enraged. He was ready to kill. "I didn't know that the Eldritch World's not only pathetic, but the cultivators are also arrogant and blind. Haha, what a joke!"

"Fine. Let's...kill them all!"

Boom!

The twelve cultivators of the Yunhuang World activated their powers. Their Immortal Items beamed to the sky with halo lights. Time and space were twisted from their powers! It almost drowned the starry night!

...

“Master, hold on!”

Deified Dog limped toward Dog Mountain as fast as it could. He saw Blackie on the mountaintop. Blackie looked up at the starry sky with tears in his eyes.

“My Lord. Please, help me, Lord Dog!”

Deified Dog wept. He fell before Blackie and sobbed. It was very tragic.

“I saw everything.”

Blackie spoke softly. He did not sound happy or sad. His black eyes had a hint of coldness. He was not trying to be menacing, but... Deified Dog felt a bone-chilling fear.

Blackie was not like the two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals. He could change realms at any given moment.

He did not emit any aura. However, it was precisely why Deified Dog was so fearful. That was the calmness before the storm.

Deified Dog had never seen Lord Dog like that.

‘This is the first time I’ve seen Lord Dog this angry...’

Blackie said, “Deify, I’ve been thinking about how to deal with those people. What do you think?”

He was smiling at the Dog image presented by the stars. He was about to enjoy it. However, they were turned to dust...

They did not wipe out the stars. They wiped out the dignity of Blackie!

From that moment, he had been thinking about how to deal with them.

Deified Dog said in a low voice, “Lord—Lord Dog, two of them are Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals...”

“Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal?”

Blackie shook his head. He said calmly, “What’s that? I don’t know! All I know is they insulted me and they will pay!”

“Let’s go. Take me to the battlefield!”

He picked up Deified Dog and crossed dimensions in one go.

Meanwhile.

In the Chaos.

Stars were shining in the Starburst Formation. Endless starlight turned to powerful spell attacks. They kept attacking the twelve cultivators of the Yunhuang World!

Everyone from the Yunhuang World seemed to be a lone fighter. However, nobody panicked. They cast spells and pulled out their weapons. They blocked the attacks with light.

The Yunhuang World had a natural advantage. Their Immortal Items surpassed the Immortal Items of the Eldritch World. Each Quasi-Saints had a Heavenly Spiritual Treasure in hand!

It was unimaginable for cultivators in the Eldritch World.

They could not win by numbers.

Boom!

At one point, there was an explosion. A strong killer aura washed over them like a tsunami. The black broadsword light was terrifyingly dark. It was as if it could devour anything. It was going to engulf the stars with the quickest speed!

Crack!

The Starburst Formation cracked. Everything popped like a bubble. Daji and the others were knocked away. They went pale and spat out blood.

Longevous Qingfeng said, "Kill them!"

"Are you trying to order me?"

Longevous Tianyuan frowned with displeasure. He scoffed and attacked with his broadsword.

The attack felt as easy as stomping a bunch of ants.

The dark broadsword attack was like the attack of the reaper. They had nowhere to run!

When the attack hit, they could basically say farewell to their world...

Daji and the others calmly faced the attack. They did not look scared. They felt like it was a shame.

'We did our best. Even if we die, we die with honor.

'But it's a shame that we can't work for the expert anymore. We haven't given him the two fish yet!'

Nobody said anything. They shut their eyes and awaited death. Suddenly, a dog's paw appeared...

He slapped away the black broadsword attack.

"Who gave you the right to kill on my turf?"

The night was dark. Blackie slowly walked out like a graceful cat. His fur had a sheen under the pale moonlight. It swayed and sparkled.

"A... Dog?"

The cultivators from the Yunhuang World were stunned. They looked at Deified Dog. They were instantly puzzled.

'It really got another dog.'

'Did it bring another dog to die, too?'

The cultivators of the Eldritch World were all overjoyed when they saw Blackie. They exclaimed, "It's Lord Dog!"

Yun Shu was puzzled. At that moment, she truly felt like...she did not belong there.

She could not understand them.

They were oddly prideful and had a superiority complex. Then, they were excited to see a dog. No, more like...they worshipped the Dog.

Goddess Nuwa and her cultivators seemed to be...mentally ill.

Blackie became the main focus when he made an entrance. Deified Dog was flustered, but he stood up straight.

Blackie asked, "Who beat up my underling?"

"Me!"

The bronze bald cultivator looked at Blackie. He mocked Blackie by beckoning, "Black Dog, what's up? Did you come here to avenge your underling?"

Blackie slowly walked towards him. He said calmly, "Break your limbs, kneel, and bark like a dog. Maybe then I'll spare your life."

"Wow, I'm so scared."

The bronze cultivator laughed. Then, he yelled with a menacing look, "You damn dog! What nonsense are you talking about?! Die!"

He punched Blackie.

However, before he could do so, Blackie somehow appeared on top of him. Then, Blackie smacked him!

Bam!

The bronze cultivator did not fall. He spun at the same spot a hundred times like a fan. He was dizzy from that. His bronze paint fell off.

Then, Blackie tossed him to Deified Dog. "Do whatever you please!"

“This dog...”

‘Perhaps it’s a Dog Saint?’

The cultivators of the Yunhuang World frowned. They instantly looked at Blackie differently. They were cautious.

The Jade Emperor had to give a reminder, “Lord Dog, watch out. Those are Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals!”

Blackie was still expressionless. He looked calmly at everyone from the Yunhuang World. He asked, “Who destroyed the starry Dog image?”

Longevous Qingfeng and Longevous Tianyuan looked at each other. Then, Longevous Qingfeng replied, “It’s me. I couldn’t stand it so I destroyed it. What does it have to do with you?”

He tossed his horsetail whisk as soon as he said that. The thin strands of the horsetail whisk webbed out in the most terrifying way! It could tear the sky apart!

Meanwhile, Longevous Tianyuna also attacked Blackie with his broadsword!

“You’re only a puny dog. How dare you come at us? Stop being pretentious. We don’t have time to waste. Die!”

No one could react to the attacks from two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals, especially at such a close distance. It was highly destructive. Their attacks looked like the face of death itself!

They did not cast a spell attack. They were attacking Blackie with their Immortal Items!

The horsetail whisk and the black broadsword landed on Blackie.

The cultivators of the Eldritch World wanted to scream, but they realized something was off. They forced themselves to shut up.

‘No—Nothing happened?’

‘How’s this possible?!’

Chapter 497: Tell Me Honestly, Am I Able to Make It Out Alive?

Tell Me Honestly, Am I Able to Make It Out Alive?

Dead silence!

Nobody moved while also forgetting to breathe.

The sight was too shocking and unreal. It was too unbelievable!

Even cultivators of the Eldritch World were stupefied.

Those were two incredibly powerful Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals. They attacked the dog at the same time, but the dog seemed fine and looked calm.

Almost as though that was not a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal’s attack but only a mosquito bite.

The world went still.

Blackie slowly raised his paw and scratched. He...scratched.

Longevous Qingfeng and Longevous Tianyuan felt their blood turn cold. They could snap out of it but did not want to as they were unwilling to accept the truth.

The flawed world had flawed realms. The Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals were like reckless gods in there that no one could do anything about.

However, an unbelievably powerful black dog showed up.

It surpassed their knowledge and understanding.

At that moment, they made eye contact with Blackie.

They were mindblown. They were thunderstruck. Their limbs went cold as they felt waves of horror that almost made them lose their minds.

‘This dog...is so scary!’

‘Run!’

That was the final thought in their minds as both of them ran away at the same time.

However, the dog had attacked them with his paw. Two ‘slaps’ could be heard—Longevous Tianyuan and Longevous Qingfeng were slapped in the face, causing the two of them to spin like a Beyblade.

“Yikes—”

Everyone finally snapped out and gasped at the same time. Their hearts almost jumped out of their chests from being unable to handle it.

Two Chaos Golden Immortals were spinning in circles, causing the area to be windy...

The huge news in the Chaos was unheard of. They could not believe what just happened in front of their eyes.

It was too scary. They did not dare to look at Blackie for fear they might cry.

However, it was only the beginning.

“You guys ruined Lord Dog’s birthday. It seems like he can only slap you for entertainment.”

Blackie stopped them from spinning before slapping their faces from left to right as several more slaps rained down on them.

It was too fast to see. They could only see the heads of Longevous Qingfeng and Longevous Tianyuan rhythmically moving left to right.

Slap!

Slap! Slap!

Blackie hit them while he tore their clothes and left claw marks on them. They seemed extremely tragic at that moment.

Everyone else quivered and felt like they had heard something they should not. ‘So...this is the sound of a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal being slapped.’

It also created an echo—the slaps were like drums.

After a while, Longevous Tianyuan and Longevous Qingfeng dropped to the ground like dead dogs in a wounded mess, their bodies still twitching.

“Run, run, run!”

The other nine Quasi-Saints were horrified and wanted to escape the accursed place.

They ran as fast as they could with all their might. They even used up their powers, fuel, Immortal Items, or whatever they had at hand just to run!

In the blink of an eye, they ran into the Chaos.

“Run, boy. Run!

“Look at all of you. What a bunch of dogs!”

Blackie quietly watched them leave before retracting his paw.

The Quasi-Saints managed to run far into the Chaos. However, they were still fearful and felt like they barely survived.

They would never forget that dog’s face. It was a nightmare.

Suddenly, the entire Chaos quaked as the darkness suddenly turned into a black paw. It seems that they were inside the dog’s paw all along!

“No, no! This can’t be real!”

“Lord Dog, spare... Spare us!”

The dog’s paw picked them up like toys...

“Huh? Bad dog? Ha!”

Blackie sneered before tightening his paw. The nine Quasi-Saints disintegrated into nothingness as their souls faded into the Chaos.

Plop!

Blackie picked up the two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals before dropping them in front of everyone. He then shook his dog fur as though it was a piece of cake.

Gulp!

The Jade Emperor and the others gulped. They already tried overestimating Blackie's powers. However, they realized they still underestimated Blackie all along.

Their weak selves had limited their imagination.

It sent a shiver down their spines as they forced themselves to stay calm. They then bowed with respect. "Thanks for saving our lives, Lord Dog."

Yun Shu was uncontrollably nervous as her fists turned pale from clenching them too hard. Her brain was still buzzing as her body trembled.

She thought she was dreaming ever since Blackie showed up and could not snap out of it.

'T-this...

'What kind of Legendary Dog is that?!'

She felt like a helpless child at that moment as she held on to Goddess Nuwa. She was looking for comfort while tearing up from the panic.

“Cultivator Nuwa, your world’s too scary. I thought we were the same. Turns out, you’re secretly an affluent kid. You even have a Dog God at your place!”

‘I was the clone all along.’

Blackie looked at Yun Shu who almost screamed as she cried and sobbed, “I-I... I’m Yun Shu. Greetings to Lord... Lord Dog.”

She then hurriedly added, “I’m Nuwa’s friend. I’m one of the good guys.”

Goddess Nuwa was as nervous as her and stuttered, “L-Lord Dog, she’s my friend...”

In all honesty, she had just returned to the Eldritch World. The Jade Emperor mentioned Blackie before, but that was the first time she witnessed Blackie’s attacks.

Blackie was mind-blowing.

Blackie looked away without a care before looking at Deified Dog.

At that moment, Deified Dog—who was sitting on the bronze cultivator who had passed out a long time ago—wiped his butt on his face.

Blackie said, “This isn’t over yet!”

Blackie gave a serious look. “It was a memorable day for me and Master, but they offended my Master! I have to take my revenge!”

“Deify, keep farting until he wakes up. Tell him to take me to that whatsoever Yunhuang!”

“Yes, Lord Dog!” said Deified Dog.

The others had a changed facial expression. The Jade Emperor clenched his jaw. He then stepped forward and suggested, "Lord... Lord Dog, the Yunhuang World's far stronger than the Eldritch World. How about we plan before we act?"

"Lord Dog, there are a lot of Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals in the Yunhuang World and they have eight Saints. Apart from that, they have their home realm advantage. We have to be careful as safety comes first."

Goddess Nuwa finally stepped out. She paused and decided to say, "Lord Dog, I can go with you if you want to go to the Yunhuang World."

"Go with me?"

Blackie discriminately shook his head. "No need for that! You're too weak and a lousy teammate."

Goddess Nuwa instantly shut up from the awkwardness. Ouch.

The bronze cultivator finally woke up—still dizzy from being attacked. He immediately screamed, "How dare you attack me? You insects! You dogs! You're dead!"

A dog's butt with long black fur appeared in front of his eyes.

"Huh? Hm!"

"Sigh, I simply want to be a pretty black dog. Why's that too much to ask? Why do you force me to do something like this?"

Blackie looked disappointed.

He pulled back his dog paw and carried the bald bronze cultivator and walked gracefully into the Chaos...

Everyone breathed heavily until Blackie was out of sight. The tension caused by Blackie's presence was choking them.

"Cultivator... Cultivator Nuwa."

Yun Shu patted her chest—still horrified.

She thought she would be a fearless cultivator in the Eldritch World. However, she was too weak and felt like she just walked into a deadly world. She hid meekly behind Goddess Nuwa for safety.

'This world's too scary!'

"The Lord Dog h-h-has...a Master?" Yun Shu's voice was shaky. She thought something was wrong with her ears when she heard those words coming from Blackie that she almost passed out.

'That was a legendary dog that can defeat Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals! He might even be a Dog God of this realm, and yet he has a Master?!

'Who is his amazing Master? I can't picture it as my limited imagination won't allow me to fantasize about such an amazing existence

'Incredible! Who can do that in the entire Chaos?'

Goddess Nuwa groaned for a moment and stared at Yun Shu with her pretty eyes. She exclaimed, "Cultivator Yun Shu. Blackie has a Master...who's also in my Eldritch World! This is the biggest secret of the Eldritch World!"

Boom!

Yun Shu jolted and almost fell.

'The big secret!

'Cultivator Nuwa's big secret!

'But...

'I can't believe how big the secret is!

'Perhaps I know too much?'

She had teary eyes and helplessly begged, "Cultivator Nuwa, aren't we friends? Tell me honestly, am I able to make it out alive?"

Chapter 498: Thanks for the Reward, Lord Saint!

Goddess Nuwa comforted her, "Don't worry, Cultivator Yun Shu. The expert's very friendly."

'Very friendly?

'Yeah, right.'

Yun Shu was naturally worried. She did not expect to run into a Godly expert. 'Will the expert hate me? What can I do to make the expert happy?'

Her mind went blank as she panicked. She wanted to turn and run.

However, she almost died after all that. 'Is this not what I wanted? If I leave now, I'd be pushing away this golden opportunity. What else can I achieve in my life?'

Cultivators were supposed to fight for opportunities. 'Fear makes me weak.'

Yun Shu took a deep breath and refrained from running. She asked softly, "Cultivator Nuwa, can you tell me about the expert? What should I do? It's fine if you can't tell me."

Before Goddess Nuwa could answer, Deified Dog said, "I know what you can do to make the expert happy."

Yun Shu immediately said with respect, "Please tell me, cultivator."

She was a Saint, but she did not dare to be arrogant in front of Deified Dog. Deified Dog was the underling of the Lord Dog. It was super awesome.

"Lay eggs!"

Deified Dog said, "You'll be loved by the expert if you can lay eggs."

Deified Dog looked jealous and troubled.

'Sigh. Why can't dogs lay eggs, too?

'This is discrimination. So unfair!'

"Lay eggs?" Yun Shu was stupefied. She had to look at Goddess Nuwa. However, Goddess Nuwa nodded with seriousness, "Cultivator Yun Shu, you'll be highly successful if you possess this skill."

Yun Shu did not understand, but she knew that she missed out on something big. She shook her head in disappointment. "I...can't."

She bit her lip. She asked, "Is there anything else I can do?"

"Too bad." Goddess Nuwa shook her head. "There are no other ways. Let me tell you about the things you need to be aware of when you meet the expert."

Suddenly, a figure slowly flew over on a cloud. It was Nanan.

She looked at everyone with a weird face. She said with curiosity, "Empress Nuwa, Jade Emperor, you're all here."

"Goddess Nanan."

The Jade Emperor slightly jolted. Then, he hurriedly asked, "Does the expert want anything?"

"My brother was watching the stars. The show suddenly vanished, followed by explosions. We thought something happened."

Nanan continued, "He told me to come check out the commotion."

The Jade Emperor laughed. He said, "Thanks for the concern. We're fine."

However, the Empress shoved the Jade Emperor. She whispered, "Are you stupid? Do you think the expert isn't aware of our situation? He obviously didn't send Nanan for that!"

The Jade Emperor was stunned. "Perhaps it's a hint?"

"You fool!" The Empress poked the Jade Emperor on his temple. She asked, "What's the first thing Goddess Nanan said?"

"The stars! The expert was watching the stars!"

The Jade Emperor almost jumped. He was flushed. He hurriedly yelled, "Hurry up, move! Continue the star performance! The expert's watching! Hurry, hurry, hurry!"

The other Immortals naturally overheard their conversations. They knew that the expert was watching the performance. They were instantly pumped. They started to get busy.

“The expert’s watching our star show. This is too great. Work hard, everyone.”

“Places, places, move those stars!”

“A lot of the stars were damaged from that battle. It’s not enough.”

“Go to the Chaos and grab some stars! Come on, this is so frustrating!”

“Move, move!”

It was an honor to perform for the expert. They could not believe that they interrupted the show!

The Jade Emperor and the Empress were also involved. Goddess Nuwa was responsible for supervising everything. She was looking for perfection

The stars danced all night...

The next morning.

The sun was bright.

Li Nianfan yawned and stretched.

“So late. I slept too late last night,” mumbled Li Nianfan. He started to wash up.

All was set. Li Nianfan stood still and looked at the sky. He quietly waited

He sent Nanan to check out the situation, but Nanan did not come back. Then, the stars started to perform again.

He knew that Nanan participated in manipulating the stars.

Li Nianfan shook his head. "So naughty."

Suddenly, the sky started to form clouds. A cloud slowly approached him.

"Yo, it seems like she's back."

On the cloud.

Goddess Nuwa carried two Luo Fish on her back. The fish were still wiggling. They stayed fresh. Yun Shu clenched her fists on the side. She relaxed her palm and clenched it again. She repeatedly did that. She had goosebumps all over.

'Time to meet the bigshot. How can I not be nervous?'

She felt like a peasant meeting a Saint.

She finally figured out why Goddess Nuwa would risk her life to capture two fish. She was working according to the cookbook of the expert.

She was envious of Goddess Nuwa. She was able to work for the expert. That was too awesome.

Goddess Nuwa noticed that she was nervous. She hurriedly reminded her, "Cultivator Yun Shu, relax. You're about to meet the expert!"

“Yeah...”

Yun Shu immediately straightened up. She took a deep breath and pressed on her chest to control her beating heart.

Soon, the cloud landed.

Yun Shu felt like her heart stopped beating because it jumped to her throat.

She glanced at Li Nianfan. He was as described by Goddess Nuwa, a completely ordinary man. She could not tell that he was extraordinary.

Goddess Nuwa previously told her about Li Nianfan. Otherwise, she would not recognize Li Nianfan as the bigshot even if he stood in front of her.

Yun Shu hurriedly cleared her thoughts. She thought to herself, ‘What am I thinking? How am I able to tell the bigshot’s disguise? Ridiculous!’

Nanan smiled and said, “Brother, we’re back.”

“You do know how to come back!”

Li Nianfan rolled his eyes. Then, he looked at everyone and immediately straightened up. He saluted, “Greetings to Empress Nuwa.”

Then, he looked at Daji and Fire Phoenix. He smiled, “Daji, Fire Phoenix, you’re here, too.”

“Master.”

Daji and Fire Phoenix also smiled. They gracefully walked over to Li Nianfan.

“Let me have a look at you.”

Li Nianfan held her soft hands. He jolted because it was very smooth. Awesome.

Previously, he was surrounded by a bunch of beautiful women in Daughters Kingdom. He could see but he could not touch. Moreover, he faced all sorts of seduction. It was hard to endure it. In the end, he played chess to numb himself.

He could finally touch Daji. It was fulfilling.

Daji was still the prettiest.

‘I have been single for too long. I can’t keep going on like this. I have to find a solution.’

Li Nianfan realized the importance of having a woman around through the Daughters Kingdom trip.

Also, he transmigrated to this dimension. He was considered successful, so it would be a shame if he did not marry a beautiful wife. It was one of the best enjoyment in life. Li Nianfan would not deny himself that.

‘I’ve enjoyed delicious food and I have my status. I’ve enjoyed all sorts of entertainment. Now, it’s time for the next step.’

Li Nianfan thought to himself. He felt feverish and excited.

Daji slowly moved closer and said with a soft voice, “The Demons are under control. I want to be with you from now on. I want to serve you, Master.”

Li Nianfan instantly laughed. “Haha, good. Nice, Daji.”

Li Nianfan then asked with worry, “Oh yeah, was there a fight yesterday?”

“Yeah.”

Daji nodded. She instantly told him what happened.

“Another outsider? This is so dangerous.”

Li Nianfan had to frown. He got rid of the outsider named Lin Feng. However, the Eldritch World was once again under attack. ‘What’s going on? The Eldritch World keeps running into trouble!’

“Thankfully you’re fine,” said Li Nianfan. Then, he smiled and said, “Let’s get into it. Take out your weapons, time for Deluxe Merit rewards.”

Goddess Nuwa took out her Lotus Lantern. Daji and Fire Phoenix took out the Eastern Bell and the Flaming Flag.

Li Nianfan waved. Golden Deluxe Merit light rolled out like streams. It flowed towards everyone.

Yun Shu stood at the side. She did not dare to speak.

She looked at Goddess Nuwa and the others—they looked thrilled. She felt disappointed because she knew that there was none for her.

After all... She did not belong to their world.

However, she was suddenly engulfed by a golden light. She was stumped and surprised.

‘I—I... I get Deluxe Merit, too?’

She was touched, but more confused and flustered.

After a moment of hesitation, she hurriedly took out her mirror Immortal Item. It absorbed the Deluxe Merit like it was thirsty.

She watched the Deluxe Merit seep into her Immortal Item. She was in a daze. She felt a mix of emotions and started to tear up.

Her world was worse than the flawed Eldritch World. She felt like Deluxe Merit was something out of reach for her world.

She could not believe that she would gain Deluxe Merit. Moreover, Deluxe Merit that was not even from her world. It was too unreal. She felt flattered and surprised.

Deluxe Merit was something even Saints would treat as treasure. Deluxe Merit Treasure could harm a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal. Deluxe Merit was more than powerful.

It was precisely why every world had limited Deluxe Merit. It was very rare and precious. 'Why would they share it with an outsider?'

The realm did not allow sharing Deluxe Merit with outsiders.

However... The rules of the Chaos were broken by Li Nianfan.

Yun Shu sneakily glanced at Li Nianfan. She noticed how casual he looked. She was shocked and astounded. 'Is this the almighty expert? He's indeed scary. So incredible.'

Li Nianfan rewarded them with Deluxe Merit while he pondered.

'According to Daji, they aren't the only ones who joined the battle. The others have Deluxe Merit, too. But I can't reward them one by one.'

'So inconvenient.'

As for taking away their Deluxe Merit... It was not beneficial for Li Nianfan. He did not consider it at all. It was too shameless.

Moreover, he wanted to reward the cultivators that helped. He knew how dangerous the Chaos was, so he wanted to make more allies.

"If only I can deliver the Deluxe Merit from a long distance," said Li Nianfan.

Then, countless Golden Deluxe Merit Light poured out from him. It turned to strands and was delivered in various directions!

Li Nianfan was overjoyed. "Haha. I can. So convenient!"

Meanwhile.

At the Wuzhuang Temple.

The Jade Emperor and the Empress were with a bunch of Immortals. They carefully dug around a wilted tree. Then, they buried Longevous Tianyuan and Longevous Qingfeng.

The Jade Emperor said, "The Ginseng Fruit Tree is just a Spiritual Tree. However, it should be revived by having two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals as fertilizer."

The Empress said, "Hopefully so. After all, no one has tried this before. Ginseng Fruit Tree, please, revive!"

They heard from Nanan that the expert went on a trip to look for the Ginseng Fruit Tree. Their first reaction was to...do whatever they could to revive the tree. They needed to give the Ginseng Fruit to the expert!

It was such a puny request from the expert. They would be ashamed of themselves if they could not do it.

Goddess Nuwa suggested the idea after they brainstormed. Everyone felt like it was a good idea. So, there they were.

They had to try any possible methods for the expert!

Suddenly, there was a rumble of thunder in the sky. Golden light started to appear in the clear blue sky.

“That’s... Deluxe Merit!” The Jade Emperor jolted. He exclaimed, “Did the expert deliver Deluxe Merits to us?!”

“Deluxe Merit! It really is Deluxe Merit! Get ready, everyone! Here comes the expert’s rewards!”

“Boohoo! The expert’s too nice to us!”

Golden light beamed down on them!

The Jade Emperor, the Empress, and the Immortals were uncontrollably excited. They immediately stopped what they were doing. They respectfully bowed in the direction of Li Nianfan. They chanted, “Thanks for the reward, Lord Saint!”

At the Kirin Cliff.

A golden sea was about to swallow the cliff whole. The Kirins bathed in Deluxe Merit. They were roaring with excitement.

“The Kirins got Deluxe Merit, too!”

“Thank you, God!”

“What are you talking about? You should be thanking the expert! Thank you, Lord Saint!”

Chief Kirin stood up and said sternly, “On my mark. Thanks for the reward, Lord Saint!”

Everyone in the Heavenly Palace was cheering.

The Dragons were flipping out on the surface of the sea.

The Demons of the Above Immortal Realm rejoiced.

The huge amount of Deluxe Merit made everyone celebrate.

Somewhere in each corner, they bowed at Li Nianfan. They sincerely yelled, “Thanks for the reward, Lord Saint!”

Chapter 499: Not Enough. Oh, They Were ‘Roommates’

It was very convenient.

‘I don’t have to go through the trouble of delivering the Deluxe Merit myself. Good, very nice.’

Li Nianfan smiled.

The Golden Deluxe Merit Light faded. Daji and the others looked at their Immortal Items with joy.

The expert rewarded them with a lot of Deluxe Merit. It was so satisfying.

After all, they fought 12 powerful cultivators of the Yunhuang World with the Starburst Formation.

Goddess Nuwa looked at her Immortal Item. It was starting to emit a halo. Her eyes lit up with joy.

‘What a nice reward!

‘My Immortal Item became a Deluxe Merit Treasure!’

The girls had the Eastern Bell, the Flaming Flag, the Lotus Lantern, and the Dust Free Mirror. They used to be Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasures.

The items were much more powerful with the Deluxe Merit. There was a saying in the Chaos, ‘Once you have an Ultimate Heavenly Spiritual Treasure with Deluxe Merit, your Immortal Item will be as powerful as a Chaos Spiritual Treasure!’

They could own a Chaos Spiritual Treasure with a bit more Deluxe Merit!

So awesome and powerful!

Yun Shu was anxious. She quietly asked, “Cultivator Nuwa, I’m not from the Eldritch World but the expert gave me Deluxe Merit. Was it a mistake?”

Goddess Nuwa reminded her, “The expert gave it to you, so accept it. I told you, don’t act too surprised. This is how we usually do things. Act normal!”

“Oh.”

Yun Shu gently nodded. Then, she tried to have courage. She carefully thanked Li Nianfan, “Thank... Thank you, Lord Saint.”

“You’re welcome.”

Li Nianfan chuckled. He asked curiously, “You look so familiar, cultivator. You are...?”

Goddess Nuwa helped her answer, “Lord Saint, she’s Yun Shu. A friend I met in the Chaos.”

‘A friend in the Chaos?’

‘Is she an outsider? But I can tell from her Deluxe Merit that she helped a lot in the battle. It seems like cultivators from different worlds can be allies, too.

‘Since she’s Goddess Nuwa’s friend, she must be a Saint, too.’

Li Nianfan immediately saluted and said, “Greetings to Empress Yun Shu.”

Yun Shu went stiff. Her hair stood on ends. She hurriedly said with a trembling voice, “Lord Saint, just call me Yun Shu.”

‘I’m not used to a bigshot being so polite to me. I’m not used to it at all. Boohoo, somebody, help me!’

Goddess Nuwa knew that Yun Shu was not taking it well. She did not dare to let her speak any more. She did not want Yun Shu to anger the expert.

She pulled out the two fish and said, “Lord Saint, I captured these two fish by coincidence. I think they look like the Luo Fish so I brought them here.”

“Luo Fish?”

Li Nianfan was instantly intrigued. He looked at the Luo Fish and carefully observed them. “Yo, the two fish are huge. And with wings, too. It really is the Luo Fish!”

Luo Fish looked like ordinary fish. Their wings were not feathery wings. Instead, they were rather scaly and heavy. It glimmered under the sunlight.

Each fish was half a meter long. They could not move, but they still looked powerful.

‘Magical Beast! These are Magical Beasts!

‘Time to fulfill my palette again.’

Li Nianfan was pleasantly surprised. He tried Qiongqi before. Luo Fish also existed. ‘No way, are the beasts from ‘Classics of Mountains and Seas’ real? If so... I’m so excited to eat them.’

He wondered if he was lucky enough to eat them all.

Li Nianfan looked at Goddess Nuwa. Then, he looked at Yun Shu. He instantly smiled with understanding.

‘I get it.’

He asked, “Empress Nuwa, you just want to eat what I cook, right?”

‘Empress Nuwa brought her friend to her world, like how someone would bring a friend back to their place. She naturally has to treat her to delicious food.

‘Who’s better than me when it comes to cooking delicious food?

‘No wonder Empress Nuwa brought me two Luo Fish. She’s too embarrassed to ask for a free meal, so she brought the ingredients.

‘Wow, Empress Nuwa!

‘Perhaps Empress Nuwa boasted to her friend, saying that my meals are the best.’

He felt... happy and proud. 'I can't help being a capable man.'

Goddess Nuwa did not dare to lie to him. She anxiously replied, "Well, I would like to if I can."

"Haha! You can! Of course, you can! No need to be courteous, Empress Nuwa. Feel free to look for me for delicious food."

Li Nianfan laughed. He felt honored that Goddess Nuwa liked his cooking.

His casual words made Goddess Nuwa feel a warmth in her heart. She bit her lip and thanked him, "Tha—Thank you, Lord Saint..."

She could tell that the expert was not being courteous on the surface. He sincerely treated her as his equal.

'The expert's too nice to me.'

"No need to thank me. It's a piece of cake."

Li Nianfan waved it off. Then, he smiled and said, "Let's not delay then. Let's go. Back to my place. I'll make a Luo Fish feast!"

He felt like he was lucky.

Cultivators like Goddess Nuwa wanted to eat something extraordinary. Her ingredients were rare and precious, too. Li Nianfan thought it was unimaginable.

He had a personal hunting team. 'Is this the happiness of being a food expert?'

Li Nianfan naturally would try to please Goddess Nuwa and her friend. The Wuzhuang Temple could wait.

They immediately rode on clouds to the Fallen Immortal Mountain.

It was faster than walking. They saw the Fallen Immortal Mountain after half an hour. Soon, they arrived at the four-part architecture.

Creak.

The door of the four-part architecture opened.

Xiao Bai welcomed Li Nianfan, "Welcome home, my dearest Master."

Li Nianfan ordered, "Xiao Bai, hurry up and make a fruit platter. Serve our guests some good tea and wine."

Xiao Bai asked, "Master, the fresh yogurt's ready. Should I serve it as well?"

Li Nianfan was surprised. "Yo, nicely done, Xiao Bai. Of course. Serve it."

They followed Li Nianfan into the four-part architecture.

Daji and Fire Phoenix had not returned home for a long while. They instantly felt warm when they saw the familiar surroundings. They became happy, too. They suddenly understood how Li Nianfan felt.

'No wonder the expert chooses to be an ordinary man. He chose the quiet life because he's seen countless battles. The true meaning of life is the quiet after the storm.'

'Happiness has always been around me. I've asked for too much. I thought too much. It only makes me anxious. In the end, I was only looking for trouble.'

‘So what if people think I’m the best?’

‘The simple life is where it’s at.’

They oddly felt like they were wise.

As expected, opportunities were everywhere around the expert. They discovered something new every day.

They were at peace with themselves. Unlike Yun Shu, she was feeling a tsunami of emotions. It almost made her heart stop beating.

‘What is this magical place?’

‘Did I stumble into a super paradise in the Chaos?’

‘This must be a hallucination. It can’t be real. Right?’

The Saint was out of it. She dazedly walked like a zombie. Thankfully, Goddess Nuwa stopped her.

“Cultivator Yun Shu, are you crazy? What are you doing?!”

“I... I can’t control myself.” Yun Shu pursed her lips. Her voice was hoarse.

She could feel the Chaos Spiritual Qi in the air every time she spoke and with every breath she took. It was...

‘I think I’m polluting this place by standing here...’

“Calm down. Calm down!”

Goddess Nuwa hugged Yun Shu. She whispered in her ears, “Are you trying to die? What did I tell you? Behave yourself!”

“But the problem is I can’t control my body anymore.” Yun Shu took deep breaths to calm down, but then she remembered she was breathing in Chaos Spiritual Qi. She instantly went crazy again.

‘I can’t do this. I’m about to slump to the floor.

‘Is this how it feels to be corrupted by vanity? It’s...so wonderful.’

“Pull yourself together!”

Goddess Nuwa shook Yun Shu. “You’re such an inexperienced cultivator!”

She regretted bringing Yun Shu along. Her teammate was lousy. She might trouble her.

Yun Shu felt helpless. ‘Inexperienced?’

‘Go find an experienced cultivator in the Chaos then. Go on!’

‘They will have an instant mental breakdown as soon as they enter the four-part architecture!’

She remembered when she first wandered in the Chaos. She first witnessed how horrifying and vast the Chaos was.

Back then, there was a powerful cultivator with an Immortal Item that could produce Chaos Spiritual Qi each year!

One could not exchange that Immortal Item with Chaos Spiritual Treasure!

Countless powerful cultivators were envious. Some even begged for the Immortal Item. She was also very envious. Which was why she remembered it well.

Back then, she was prideful. She was envious, but she would not betray herself and become a bootlicker.

However...

She would not believe that her future self was standing in such an awesome place.

Gasp—

She took a deep breath.

That Immortal Item probably produced less Chaos Spiritual Qi annually than that one breath she took...

‘Damn, how can I stay calm?’

At that moment, she suddenly realized.

She did not become a bootlicker back then, not because she was prideful. It was because... The cultivator did not have enough Chaos Spiritual Qi.

She started to think of ways to kiss up to the expert. She hated that she was inexperienced in bootlicking.

“Have a seat, everyone...”

Li Nianfan was about to treat them with hospitality. He turned and saw Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu hugging each other. They seemed to be wiggling around too.

“Yikes—”

‘What’s going on?’

He hurriedly looked away. He pretended he did not see anything.

‘Oh, they’re ‘roommates’.

‘We’re still in public, girls.

‘This is so promiscuous.’

Chapter 500: Get Your Most Powerful Cultivator

Li Nianfan glanced at them.

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu hurriedly separated. Yun Shu finally snapped out of it. She started to behave.

Li Nianfan coughed softly and said, “Have a seat, everyone. Feel free to sit.”

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu awkwardly brushed their hair. Then, they sat down.

They were the only guests there. Daji and Fire Phoenix were the owners of the four-part architecture, too.

Yun Shu carefully sat down. She carefully breathed in the Chaos Spiritual Qi. She also carefully looked around.

Splash.

The sounds of water attracted her attention.

The clear stream flowed with a rockery at the side. There was a pavilion in the yard, too. It was elegant and beautiful.

Of course, that was not the point.

The point was...the stream was a Chaos Spiritual Water Stream!

Yun Shu felt a critical hit to her tiny heart again. The richness of the expert almost blinded her.

‘No wonder Cultivator Nuwa simply gave me a small bottle of Chaos Spiritual Water. I thought she discovered some sort of secret border. I can’t believe that Chaos Spiritual Water’s like ordinary water here.

‘But how would I know?! This is too freaking scary!’

Xiao Bai stood in front of the rockery with a plate in hand.

‘This Xiao Bai isn’t a living creature. It’s not a living being, but it can communicate with others. So incredible. Perhaps the expert made Xiao Bai?’

‘What’s Xiao Bai doing?’

Yun Shu was curious. Xiao Bai said, “Hurry up, please. Ten drops of jello!”

Drip! Drip!

Ten milky liquid dripped out from the rockery. It was milky white, but it was insanely clear as if it was the purest water ever. It was not solid. It was kind of like liquid, but not really.

Yun Shu could feel the enormous Chaos Spiritual Qi from afar. Chaos Spiritual Aura overwhelmed her. She almost choked.

‘What is that? Chaos Lotion?’

Yun Shu could not imagine it.

She noticed that Xiao Bai was looking at her. She hurriedly looked away. She suddenly realized most of the things in the yard were beyond her understanding. They were all beyond her expertise.

Her knowledge was limited. She could tell they were Chaos Spiritual Treasure. However, she did not know what they were specifically.

Her uneasy hands landed on the chair she sat on. She jolted again. Yeap, the aura of the Chaos.

‘Holy Mother of God, this chair’s made from Chaos Spiritual Tree Wood...’

She hurriedly lifted her butt. She did not dare to sit on it.

‘What if I dirtied the legendary treasure with my butt?’

‘Is this the place of a super bigshot?’

‘It is indeed... Unimaginable!’

‘Huh?’

'Are those... A bunch of chickens?'

Yun Shu looked at the row of Firefinches. She could see that two Firefinches were trying their best to lay eggs. Fresh eggs were coming out.

Goddess Nuwa said, "Stop looking. The expert's backyard's more remarkable. He has a Peacock in there to lay eggs for him, too. Jealous, right?"

Yun Shu pursed her lip and said, "Jealous..."

She finally knew the advantages of being able to lay eggs. She would smile in her sleep if she could live in a place like that.

A skill was required to be around the expert.

Xiao Bai gracefully walked over with a tray in hand. "Everyone, here's the yogurt."

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu immediately thanked it, "Thanks, Xiao Bai."

Li Nianfan smiled and said, "Try it. It's a brand new delicacy."

He grabbed a glass, too. The glass was wide on the top. They did not use straws but rather, a delicate little spoon. The yogurt was half solid.

"Yeah."

Yun Shu nodded. She noticed that everyone picked up the spoon, so she slowly picked up the spoon, too. She carefully scooped the yogurt with her spoon.

She had never seen anything like that. The yogurt was white as snow and it did not smell like anything either. It felt cool in her hand.

She opened her mouth and ate it.

The snow-white yogurt melted in her mouth. Her mouth was instantly filled with a sour-sweet flavor. Yun Shu could not help licking her lips. She looked mesmerized by the unexpected flavor.

She scooped another spoonful of yogurt and ate it.

She immediately shut her eyes and enjoyed it.

“Wow.”

‘Such a smooth texture!’

‘Such a unique sour flavor!’

It was not extremely sour like a lemon. It was also not stingily sour like vinegar. The sourness of the yogurt was indescribable. The yogurt was perfectly sour. It had its own uniqueness.

In other words, it was delicious!

Her teeth were itching for something to chew. However, she realized she did not need to chew anything.

Suddenly, she realized there was something else in her mouth. Apart from the yogurt, there was something slimy and bouncy. It was hidden in the yogurt.

It was an unexpected surprise.

She gently bit on it.

Instantly... The jello burst like a water balloon. Liquid exploded in her mouth with extreme coldness. It sent a shiver down her spine. Yogurt accidentally dripped from her mouth because she was not prepared.

The wonderful milky flavor.

Yun Shu hurriedly slurped it back up.

The taste was different from the yogurt. However, they worked well together. The combination of the flavors was extremely delicious. Yun Shu felt wonderful.

‘The Chaos Spiritual Milk that dripped out from the rockery!’

She had to scoop another spoonful of yogurt. She put it in her mouth. She excitedly stirred the yogurt with her tongue to search for something.

Her tongue felt the bouncy jello. Her eyes instantly lit up. She felt like she hit the jackpot.

As a Saint, she had lived for countless years. She no longer had the interest of a young girl. However, she felt young again at that moment.

A scoop after another.

She was mesmerized and almost forgot herself.

At the same time, she was licking her lips. A trail of yogurt was left on the corner of her mouth.

Goddess Nuwa, Daji, and Fire Phoenix were also like that.

They did not care about being graceful. They enjoyed the yogurt to their heart's content. In the end, only leftover yogurt was stuck inside the glass. They put the glass over their mouths and licked the insides clean.

They finally finished the yogurt. Dried yogurt flecks covered their noses and pretty faces.

They looked like messy kittens.

Li Nianfan noticed that they enjoyed it. He laughed and asked, "How's the yogurt?"

Goddess Nuwa replied without hesitation, "Delicious. It's so wonderful. We love it!"

Li Nianfan laughed. He naturally would not let go of an opportunity to bootlick. He played along and said, "Haha. As long as you like it. Feel free to come to my place if you want to eat yogurt again. My treat."

"Hold on. Xiao Bai. Come with me, let's prepare the fish."

"Let me help you."

Daji followed him. She tied her long hair and rolled up her sleeves. She also put on an apron with a Pikachu on it. Her voice was gentle yet serious. She smiled and said, "I'll work hard to learn how to cook."

She looked like the perfect wife.

Li Nianfan had to say, "No. Your hands are so smooth and delicate. I don't want you to hurt your hand. Just stand there and look pretty."

"Did you forget that I know how to cast spells? It can't hurt me. Hehe."

Fire Phoenix said coldly, "Don't try to steal my job when it comes to starting a fire!"

"Alright. I admire how motivated you two are," said Li Nianfan. Then, he asked, "But before that, shouldn't you two clean the yogurt off your faces first?"

Daji and Fire Phoenix were slightly startled. Then, they wiped their faces with their fingers.

Daji licked her finger with her pink tongue and sucked on it.

Gulp!

Li Nianfan gulped.

'Um... Can I help you lick off the yogurt on your face? I don't want to see the yogurt go to waste.'

Meanwhile, Yun Shu was trying hard to control her beating heart. She felt the rushing powers inside her body. Her powers were evolving!

It was incredible that a Saint like her could improve her powers. More like incredibly scary!

Staying at the four-part architecture was more effective than cultivating hard for 10,000 years.

'Is this what the bigshot eats? This is so unreal!'

She felt like she could never reach that level.

'I'm too honored. I'm too lucky!'

She was in a daze.

Goddess Nuwa laughed at her. She pushed her and said, "What? Do you feel like this is unreal like you're dreaming?"

Yun Shu sighed in relief. She exclaimed, "Yeah. I feel dizzy like I've been struck by luck."

"Same." Goddess Nuwa reminisced, "I was ready to come back to a ruined world when I finally returned. However, I didn't expect the Eldritch World to be so lucky. There's an expert in the realm!"

"You don't know how shocked I was when I reappeared in the four-part architecture. I thought I transmigrated.

"It still feels unreal. Life's full of surprises."

"Cultivator Nuwa, I feel like you are bragging!" Yun Shu clenched her jaw. Then, she sobbed a little and said, "But I'm truly envious. So, so envious! Boohoo..."

Meanwhile.

In the vast Chaos.

A big black dog walked while carrying a bald cultivator. He walked gracefully.

Why was it not the 'bronze bald cultivator'? Because the bronze paint faded.

The bald cultivator threatened Blackie on the way. Blackie did not mind slapping his bronze paint off. Permanently.

The bald cultivator now had a crooked mouth. He said, "Lord Dog, we're here. Right there."

He complied on the surface, but deep down, he was cursing.

'You damn dog! You dare cause havoc on my turf?! Haha, you're dead!

'I'll have Dog meat today!'

"Finally."

Blackie walked over. He instantly appeared in the Yunhuang World.

He looked around and pondered. "Since I'm here to fight, I have to find a way to get everyone to notice me."

At the Yunhuang World.

They were not at peace. New topics kept occurring.

First, the Master Longevity of the Zhengyi Sect was killed by an odd force from the Chaos. Then, another cultivator from the Chaos sneaked into the Yunhuang World. She captured two fish and ran.

The cultivators who chased after her were missing. None of them had returned to the Yunhuang World.

It was the season of disasters!

The cultivators of the Yunhuang World had all sorts of theories.

Suddenly, a hurricane appeared. A powerful aura appeared in the realm. It overwhelmed everyone. They could not breathe. Dark clouds rolled in and covered the sun. The entire Yunhuang World was dim.

Everyone felt the changes of the realm. Their hearts were beating like crazy. They looked up to the sky with hanging jaws. Their eyes were filled with shock and horror.

They saw... Dark clouds moving like crazy.

In the end, the dark clouds formed into a huge dog head.

The dog's head opened his mouth. His voice was groundbreaking. It echoed in the air, "Hello, hello, can you hear me?"

Then, the dog head went silent. Blackie looked to the side.

"Oh yeah. What is this world called again?"

"Cough. All living creatures of the Yunhuang World, listen up!"

"Get your most powerful cultivator and meet me! Or else... Don't blame me for destroying your world!"
