Chapter 511: Is This the Miracle They Spoke Of?

At the City of Hope.

Endless danger and brutality covered the land.

It was a city of despair.

Two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals manipulated the city behind the scenes and it became an arena for experiments and battle sports. The people of the city were like trapped ants. They could not resist. There was no hope for them. Their only hope was a miracle.

However, they never gave up. They still rebuilt their city for generations. They were determined to fight their way out of it.

The city was made for the children. They were born in war and hardship. They were taught to fight from a young age. The children had to resist so they could be the future for the City of Hope!

Which was why they grew up fast. However, their lives were cut short. They had been battling since young.

Perhaps it was a new form of strength—to find the meaning of life in hardships.

However, the light they waited for finally arrived.

The blinding light shined through the dark. They could not open their eyes. The light shone down on them like a waterfall.

The world was at peace again.

Everyone in the City of Hope was astonished. They looked emotional and in disbelief. Then, two holy figures slowly appeared.

They jolted when they saw one of the figures as if they were thunderstruck. "Empress Yun Shu!"

Elder Qingyang instantly cried. He sobbed with dazed eyes as he said, "Greetings... Greetings from Qingyang to the Master!"

Yun Shu said with mixed emotions, "Qingyang, I can't believe we're able to see each other again. I'm late. It must've been tough for you."

"It's not tough. I'm able to see you again, Master. I can die with no regrets."

Elder Qingyang shook his head. Then, he said, "Empress Yun Shu, you shouldn't have come back. They have two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals, and they seem to be powerful. Hurry up and run. You can still make it!"

"Two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals? We can handle them."

Yun Shu shook her head. She had a menacing glare as she said, "Also... I'm back now. How can I ever abandon you all again? How can I flee?"

Elder Qingyang felt touched but also anxious. "Empress Yun Shu, you..."

He was not as powerful as her. However, he knew that it was difficult for powerful cultivators like Empress Yun Shu to improve. She had only been away for thousands of years. There was no way that she could take on two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals.

Moreover... The opponents were terrifyingly capable.

Elder Qingyang begged her with a trembling voice, "Please, think this through, Empress Yun Shu. If you die, our city will truly be hopeless!"

Everyone in the City of Hope looked at her with tears in their eyes. Some were surprised and some were worried.

The children were inspired. They looked at her with respect.

“Is she Empress Yun Shu? Our Saintly Mother.”

“Is she here to save us? But... Can we win?”

“Empress Yun Shu. Run! We can hold on for ten thousand years!”

Then, everyone stopped talking. They looked to the sky.

Yun Shu and Goddess Nuwa slowly landed in the city.

“Don’t worry, everyone. I’m here. No one will hurt you again!”

Yun Shu sounded oddly confident. They were convinced and at ease. “I can’t believe we’re lucky enough...to run into a miracle in the vast Chaos!”

“Miracle? What kind of miracle made you so confident and delusional? How dare you try to face us?!”

A calm voice could be heard from the sky. The volume was not loud, but it was rumbling. Everyone quivered in fear.

Then, two elders appeared out of nowhere. The elder figures were in grey and black. They suddenly appeared and looked down on everyone in the city.

“I see that you have helpers. Just in time. I must capture you. I’ll enjoy watching two holy and beautiful Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal ladies fight against the beasts!”

They laughed creepily at the same time.

Yun Shu slowly levitated. Her powers were like tidal waves. She said coldly, “I shall kill you today. You’ll pay for what you did to my people!”

“Yeah, right. You?”

The elder in black scoffed. He swiped out a crystal ball. The crystal ball shined and heightened his aura. A roaring power washed over them. It instantly caused a landslide!

His body changed, too. He was enlarged!

Boom!

His foot crushed the ground like a huge pillar. The land was crumbling like paper, exposing the red molten lava inside!

The gigantic feet landed in the lava and continued to enlarge. It caused a lava hurricane! Lava was splashing out from the ground!

The giant stood tall with his feet in the ground. His body surpassed the clouds. Everyone looked up at the giant body. They could only see parts of his body.

Boom!

The pressure overwhelmed them. Their foundation was destroyed like a wet sponge being squished. The lava was splashing out like a fountain!

Stars fell from the sky. They were in an apocalypse.

Yun Shu and Goddess Nuwa pulled out their Lotus Lantern and Dustfree Mirror. Their light shields protected the City of Hope.

“Are you trying to protect this place? How can you protect this place? Stop joking!”

Cruel voices echoed in the realm. Their breaths were wild hurricanes that shook the earth!

He raised his arm. It was as huge as an endless sea. The arm was going to crush them.

A giant hand that fell from the sky. It was unimaginably huge. They could not resist it. It was too scary and invincible.

The giant hand cast a jet-black shade. It had not crushed them yet, but the light from the Lotus Lantern had started to flicker.

The crystal ball was the Mind Orb.

It could project a virtual reality with the actual power of the user. The user could form an attack with their imagination.

The elder in black looked down upon the insects and smirked.

“How will you handle this attack? If you dodge it, the City of Hope will be turned to dust. If you forcefully take it, how will you handle it? You shall abandon your people again. I bet you look good when you run like a coward!”

Everyone in the City of Hope looked at the incoming giant hand. They were filled with horror and despair.

The hand that could wipe away everything!

“Empress Yun Shu, dodge it!”

They all prayed at the same time.

Suddenly, a golden light appeared in front of Yun Shu.

The golden light was subtle, but it stood out in the dark. It became the only light source in the depressing darkness.

It was the Golden Hairpin. It looked uneven with messy patterns. It was not a refined hairpin.

The golden light was like a strand of hair compared to the giant hand. They could easily neglect it.

Everyone was dumbfounded, including the elder in black.

‘Is she going to block my attack with that?’

Yun Shu took a deep breath. She slowly pushed out the hairpin.

It was not like she was pushing it, but rather gently sending the hairpin out with an ‘after you’ gesture.

The elder in black knew that something was off. He frowned and scoffed, “Trickery.”

He attacked faster.

Then—

The Golden Hairpin moved.

It blasted toward the palm, leaving a bright trail of golden light.

It was not loud, nor did it create any obstruction. However...its aura suddenly heightened to an unbalanced level. It was hard to watch.

"This...this is..." The elder in black was frightened.

He watched as the golden light came closer. Then...the giant hand vanished even before the hairpin touched it.

The entire arm vanished. Any part of the arm that touched the golden light vanished into nothingness!

The arm vanished in an instant.

The elder in black could not make a sound. He still maintained his composure instead of a horrified one before he vanished.

The realm-changing elder vanished in an instant. He was no longer there.

The world was once again empty. The mess that he left behind reminded everyone it was not a dream.

Plop. The crystal ball fell to the ground. That was the television.

Everyone fell into a daze.

The elder in grey at the side almost stared his eyes out. His mouth was agape and his mind went blank. He lost the ability to think. He started to go into error mode.

'Mother of God!

'What is this?

'Where did my ally go?

'Something's wrong!

'They're cheating!'

He snapped out of it. Fear ran through his body. His body went cold as his hair stood on end. His hair was spiked.

'Wait a minute...

'Am I next?

'I'm going to die!'

He wanted to run. However, he realized that he could not move. The golden light was pointing at him!

Something was holding him down. He could not struggle or resist.

"Is...is this... Wisdom?!"

'Is this the miracle they spoke of? This is indeed a freaking miracle!

"No! I'm with the Ministry. Who dares to kill me?!"

Chapter 512: A Godly Book At The Bottom Of The Pile. Learn From Pictures.

Who was he?

What was the last word he left behind? Before he vanished?

The light did not make sense at all. It did not give anyone any explanation.

How horrifying!

On the surface of the ground, limitless lava was boiling and bubbling. The heat was everywhere, evaporating this world. For the cultivators, this was a small scene that nobody minded.

Everyone was still caught up by the light.

How enchanting, how shocking. They could not help thinking about it.

It was like sunshine in the darkness, the first ray of sunlight by the end of the skyline.

What kind of glow was that? They could not tell from their realm. They only felt that the light was beyond their world. It was like the Truth all of them had been looking for.

The Truth of all cultivations.

What Truth was that?

Since ancient times, nobody could tell.

And yet, they seemed to have seen it...

Gradually, they snapped back to reality.

“Vic...victory!”

“So powerful! If the elder in black didn’t have such a drastic change, I would’ve assumed the two of them to be actors.”

“Two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals vanished, just like this?”

Everyone found it hard to believe.

In a broken world like theirs, even a Saint was not to be seen around, let alone a Chaos Golden Immortal.

They respected the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal deeply.

And yet, two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals simply vanished, just like that. Right in front of them!

This was too triggering. Their scalps felt itchy as they trembled.

How unreal, this felt like a dream!

Qingyang Elder gulped and said with disbelief, “Tea—teacher, you’re so...powerful?”

“Not me, the expert who made this hairpin is powerful.”

Yun Shu shook her head and felt the power of Truth from this hairpin. She took in a deep breath and cried in awe, "You've no idea. This hairpin was just a by-product when the expert made another treasure."

"What!?"

Gasp...

Everyone was shocked. They felt as if they were listening to a story.

This was too magical! This refreshed their senses. This was way too powerful for them!

This by-product was able to kill two Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals. This expert was too powerful, too shocking, and undefeatable!

The children in town clenched their fists. They were in awe.

Was this an expert?

Affected by their surroundings, they respected and craved power. One day, they would turn up and conquer the world!

They learned a lot, there was a lot to learn!

"This is the miracle I was talking about." Yun Shu continued, "I was lucky to have met the expert for such an opportunity to save you all. We're still weak, so...cultivate well. Remember what he's done for us! We must pay him back whenever we have a chance to!"

Everyone said in unison with a determined look, "Yes, Empress Yun Shu!"

Following that, the crowd went to the opponent's territory. It was no longer a place to live, it was like hell.

Countless people and demons were locked in cages. They were killing one another, eating their flesh and cores. They were merged into one. It was a difficult sight.

This pain and wildness were beyond anyone's ability to cope. It was more traumatizing than soul-extraction. It was...insane!

These were the living forces of their world. They knew one another and it was an eerie sight.

Yun Shu sighed and said, "Kill them all, give them relief."

"What curse was this? How evil."

Goddess Nuwa could not watch any longer. This was beyond imagination. Having this happening in the world was too depressing!

"Teacher, I heard something. Someone formed a big organization to hunt down these strange beasts and many smaller worlds."

Qingyang Elder said, "This evil spell has some hidden secrets behind it."

"Hunting down strange beasts?"

Goddess Nuwa was interested. Mentioning a strange beast, she thought of the expert's menu instinctively.

The expert gave them the menu of natural beasts. There might be a crossover with these groups of natural beasts. Was that a hint?

Following that, Yun Shu gave some instructions before going back to the Eldritch World with Goddess Nuwa along with the television.

Recovering the world was not a one-day mission. The expert was about to get married. This matter was not as important.

In the Yunhuang World.

Two figures arrived from the Chaos. They took a step in and arrived mid-air. A gust of Qi was let out and nature was affected.

Many beings sensed it as well. Their hearts jumped with joy. They acted as if they were the children who had found their parents. They rushed over instantly.

“Godfather! You have to help us!”

“My Yunhuang World’s in trouble. It’s so difficult, it’s bad!”

A skinny elder in black robes exuded his Qi all over. His formations were surrounding him like his children, circling him. He seemed to have ripples around him.

His face straightened. “What is it? Tell me in detail!”

Instantly, the crowd told him all about it, from the death of Sect Master, to Goddess Nuwa catching the fish, and then the arrival of Blackie.

“From another world? A broken world? A dog as powerful as a world?” The skinny old man said coldly. He waved it off and the nature of the Yunhuang World appeared. He closed his eyes to merge with nature. He felt the arrival of Blackie. He saw the dog paw...

After a moment, he gradually opened his eyes. He frowned and did not speak.

“How is it?” Another elder beside him asked.

“What problem?”

“This dog’s too powerful, I can’t fight it.”

Another elder fell silent. His eyes were filled with panic.

“With such a powerful dog beast, it’s not easy. We must join forces to capture it!” A hoarse voice was heard from his mouth. He licked his lips with his tongue and said, “Let’s continue to join forces. To ensure our victory, we need to hurry and have more cultivators on our side.”

His tongue had a bifurcation!

...

The Eldritch World.

They were in a delightful mood.

There were lights everywhere with good vibes. There were flying beasts from time to time, glowing everywhere.

There were also colorful clouds shining in all directions. The rainbows formed a rainbow bridge, connecting the ground to the sky.

The sun was just right, the sea was calm, and there was no disaster. Everything was peaceful.

Everyone was busy. Anyone with a reputation started working hard to prepare for the event. They were doing their best.

Only the four-part architecture remained peaceful as always.

Daji and Fire Phoenix were preparing for the wedding ceremony in the Palace of the Deluxe Merit Saint. As the groom, Li Nianfan could not stay there, so he went back to the four-part architecture.

He sat alone on a chair, rocking it nonchalantly. He did not seem present.

Unknowingly, he had lived in the Eldritch World for seven years. He was about to get married.

And his wives were two goddesses who were as beautiful as flowers. No, they were actual Goddesses!

Thinking back, since the training given by the System, his life had changed from what he planned. It was too different.

He was clever to have come up with tactics for all kinds of human technologies. He befriended the cultivators and then slowly met the legendary characters.

Furthermore, he somehow managed to cultivate the Deluxe Merit power and managed to drink wine with the legendary characters.

Thinking back, this felt too surreal. This was a beautiful transmigration.

The people he met were all friendly.

He had no enemies and he was not looked down on by anyone. There was no dangerous moment, no fighting...it was blissful!

A constant bliss of stability.

“Although the System left me behind, no matter what, I should thank the System for bringing me to this world. At least, all these years, my life has been way more blissful than my previous one. I’ve seen and met many beautiful things. Life’s complete.”

Li Nianfan mumbled to himself and suddenly, he smiled and shook his head. “Thinking of the countless people before me who transgressed, they were constantly in fights with enemies everywhere. They were constantly in danger every day. They fought for their lives without a wife at the end...”

What for?

To be the best in the world? To seek the Truth?

How tragic!

Li Nianfan felt lucky. Luckily, he was not that kind of transgressor.

Now that he had two beautiful Goddesses waiting to marry him, he was having the time of his life! What else did he need?

Thinking of the ‘wedding night’ not long from now, he felt excited and was full of anticipation. He was drooling in bliss.

However, if possible, he still wanted to cultivate.

After all...

He touched his back and looked worried.

If his body was not in shape, it was definitely not the brightest moment being a man. How could he ever be prideful again?

He looked at Xiao Bai and asked, "Xiao Bai, I'm getting married."

Xiao Bai said, "Congratulations my master for the end of virginity. You're behind ninety-five percent of other men. This is worth celebrating."

Li Nianfan was perplexed. "Xiao Bai, how dare you! You're laughing at me!"

Xiao Bai said in a normal tone, "Sorry, my master. I'm not laughing at you, I'm just stating the truth according to the data."

"Alright. Let me ask you, between a husband and wife, if one side isn't as good, what should be done?" Li Nianfan looked calm with his eyes straight. He looked as if he was simply asking.

Xiao Bai looked at Li Nianfan.

Its eyes were shining nonstop. It seemed as if Xiao Bai was analyzing which side Li Nianfan was referring to.

Finally, it asked, "My master's worried that you're too good that the ladies can't take it?"

"Cough, cough. Possible."

"My master can consider some medications and positions. These are the two most effective ideas. Medications work on the inside, the positions on the outside. The scientific data showed that if the position was correct, the feeling is different and..."

"Stop! Don't tell me about science." Li Nianfan listened with his scalp itching. He cut it off. If Xiao Bai went on, he would have to learn with pictures.

Wait up.

Positions?

Learn from pictures?

Li Nianfan halted. He ran to the storage room.

There was a row of books with some study books by the corner. Li Nianfan started looking for them.

Finally, at the bottom of the pile. He found a thin booklet.

The cover was white grey with a beautiful lady revealing her shoulder on the cover page.

The book was named 'Safe Entry'.

The title seemed unsuspecting.

The content of the book had no words. They were all pictures. Each picture was very detailed with detailed movements.

Back in the days, when the System gave this book to Li Nianfan, he instantly placed it at the bottom of the pile.

A real man would not read this.

He would never read this but did not want to bin this either. He thought he would never need this but now, he actually needed it!

Li Nianfan gradually opened it and read it without blinking. He seemed as if he was reading a comic book. He felt as if this book was glowing.

A godly book! This was indeed a godly book!

The more Li Nianfan read it, the more caught up by it he was.

This book was too precise. Since he still had time, he wanted to learn everything...

Chapter 513: A Worldly Celebration.

Time was like water.

It passed calmly.

In the blink of an eye, it was already their wedding day.

Today, the sky was covered in a red glow—a miracle day. The land was in order with lights everywhere. Even in some empty hills, there were big, red flowers.

Today, birds were all over, chirping in delight.

Today, the world was celebrating this day. This was more important than any occasion. Everyone was busy with red blessing papers in front of their houses. They were all smiling and feeling festive. It was a celebration.

The children were in the mood. They were delighted and playing around. Their laughter was heard in all corners.

Countless people walked out of their rooms to look at the red-filled sky. They were all in awe.

This was a rare sight. The world was celebrating this day. It was a once-in-a-lifetime kind of sight. Every ordinary man felt delighted looking at the sky.

“Look, look at the star there!”

Someone called out excitedly. The person’s eyes were glowing.

In the red sky, many stars were appearing. These stars appeared in order, forming two hearts. In the middle, there was an arrow. It was a stunning sight.

Furthermore, the stars continued to appear, forming rows of lights and pictures. The sight was stunning. One could not help looking at them with excitement.

These stars were no longer moving. They were forming images with the sky as the backdrop. They were high above, forming the best blessings.

Following that, there seemed to be seven lights flashing behind the images. One could not get bored looking at it. It was all very captivating.

“So clever, so beautiful. What day is it today? Even the sky’s celebrating.”

“You don’t know? The entire world knows! A big figure from Heaven’s getting married!”

“I’m telling you all, not just the sky, even the Underworld’s celebrating this day. You don’t know? Many elders who were about to die were given one extra day with good health to spend with their families.”

“So nice? This big figure’s so kind to ordinary people. This figure must be so respectable!”

“Ha-ha, let me tell you another thing. Nowadays, the world’s been at peace and everyone’s safe. Let’s talk about the incident closer to us. Have you heard of the black mountain demon on our hill?”

“What about it?”

“Usually, the passing crews had to avoid the area, afraid of being killed. Recently, the demon’s no longer seen. It doesn’t cause any trouble as well!”

“How peaceful! We’re at peace! This is a noteworthy occasion! This day must be written in history.”

...

Meanwhile, someone ran over with excitement. “Everyone, the Xia Kingdom’s celebrating this day. They have transportations. Anyone can quickly sign up to go, there are two seats left in the horse carriage.”

“We’re going as a group. Join us for a lift!”

...

The Xia Kingdom.

Zhou Yunwu and Meng Junliang stood together. They looked up at the sky and smiled.

Zhou Yunwu saw that the world was at peace. He said emotionally, “The expert’s indeed an expert. He actualized the ideal world in my head.”

“A word from the expert, of course, the world has to comply. Even the Underworld celebrates this day. This is a big occasion,” Meng Junliang said in awe. Although this atmosphere would only last for a few days, it was enough to be recorded as the greatest moment in human history.

Meanwhile, a cloud flowed by. Yao Mengji, who had Immortalized not long ago, appeared.

“My King, Advisor, it’s time to go.”

“Thank you Sect Master Yao for the lift.”

Zhou Yunwu fixed his clothing and made a gesture. He said with a serious tone, “Someone, bring over my gift.”

They were all invited as guests. Of course, they made a lot of effort to prepare the gifts. This was their greatest gesture.

The Underworld, demons, sea races, and kirins all showed up with gifts. They looked serious and well-composed. They came with a sacred look as they approached the Palace of the Deluxe Merit Saint.

Following that, many Immortals came up from the ordinary realm. Clouds were everywhere and some Goddesses were dancing and playing music.

Dong...

A sharp sound was heard, followed by a sky-shooting light. Following that, the sky had an explosion of flowers, forming a beautiful sight.

The sound was just the start. In all corners, flames danced in the air as music resonated everywhere. The sky was filled with flames and eye-catching colors.

The flame started because Li Nianfan made one for Daji the other day. The ordinary people found it fascinating and so they were inspired by this. Who would have thought that they could use this to celebrate Li Nianfan’s special day!

At the Palace of the Deluxe Merit Saint.

Goddesses in long dresses were dancing. They were all busy decorating the venue or welcoming the guests.

The guests showed up with smiles. They chatted with one another. They got along well and seemed pleased.

Fruit platters and nice wines were served. The Heavenly Chefs were around with Xiao Bai as the Head Chef. Some other Immortals were helping out, wildly boot-licking Xiao Bai. They were all so enthusiastic. It was a unique sight.

Li Nainfan stood in front of a room door. He was patiently waiting. Along with a click, a figure gradually walked out. It was Daji.

His eyes sparkled.

Daji was wearing a silky long dress. With the shine of the red sky, it turned red. There was an embroidered golden sun. She had a golden phoenix hairpin on her head. She was glowing with elegance. She was a Goddess!

She already had a beautiful face and the makeup she wore further emphasized her beauty.

Around her clear eyes was thin eyeliner. She looked at Li Nianfan with a hint of shyness. Her long eyelashes moved slightly. Her fair and spotless skin was pinkish. She glowed. Her lips were like rose petals.

Today, Daji presented herself most beautifully. From inside out, from outside in, she was glowing with utmost beauty.

Even Li Nianfan felt lost while looking at her. A beautiful woman like her was about to become his wife.

If this woman was in his previous realm, everyone would have gone crazy about her for 40,000 years. She was a one-of-a-kind beauty. She could turn anyone wild, both men and women!

She was too perfect, too delicate, too sacred. From afar, she was out of anyone's league!

As a nine-tailed fox, she had cultivated far enough to achieve the utmost beauty. She was perfect with no flaws. She was almost as perfect as the Path.

Beauty was a Path in itself. If one was advanced enough with the Path taken in, one could become so beautiful that one's soul could be stolen away with just a look! They would do anything for her. Even nature would be affected.

"Mr. Li."

Seeing that Li Nianfan was staring at her, her red lips smiled. Her eyes were watery as if she was shy.

Li Nianfan held Daji's small hand. He said, "Daji, you're so beautiful today. How's Fire Phoenix? We should entertain our guests at the main hall."

Fire Phoenix walked out. "Mr. Li, I'm ready, too."

Her red hair was long and her red, flaming eyes were like rubies, glowing and glinting just like her wedding gown.

They were like two contrasting flowers accompanying Li Nianfan.

The guests arrived from all directions. The Immortals in charge of receiving gifts were worn out and tired.

These gifts were the most precious gifts in the world. They were too precious. Some Sects even gave away the most precious thing they owned. They were all very generous.

Taibai Jinxing held the gift list in hand. He was announcing the gifts.

"The Underworld gave a pair of three-life stones for Lord Saint's big day."

“Empress Yun Shu gave a television...”

“Empress Nuwa gave a red ball...”

“Eastern Sea Dragon Palace gave a million-year dragon core, worth a hundred thousand pounds.”

“Kirins gave a set of kirin arms, horns, set meals...”

...

In the outer world.

Yang Jing and Juling Shen were watching the celebration at the Heavenly Palace from afar. Their eyes deepened as their lips curled upward.

Today was a big day but they did not attend. They were more cautious than usual. They were looking at the surroundings of the Outer World closely. This was to ensure that no accidents would happen!

They were not disappointed. They did not show any emotion. They were merely fulfilling their duties and they volunteered to do so.

There seldom had things to do for the expert. They were proud of what they were doing.

Meanwhile, from afar, a bloody light flashed by, followed by some ripples.

Yang Jing’s third eye jumped.

“Our people are sending out enemy alerts!”

“It’s from the Big Dipper! Everyone, get ready, follow me!”

Juling Shen held on to his ax, his eyes glinting. He growled, “Wa-ya-ya! Damn it! Who’s so foolish to mess things up today! Hold it up, Xiao Chengfeng, I’ll come over to tear them apart!”

Chapter 514: Wedding Night. This World Will Be Over.

The enemy’s alert was not simply sent out. They only sent it when the energy was out of their league!

If even Xiao Chengfeng sent out the alert, the energy must have been strong!

Yang Jing’s face darkened. He sped up and rushed toward the Big Dipper.

When they arrived, spells were everywhere with Sword Qi rushing up. There were glows and sparkles everywhere.

A handsome middle-aged man with a square face was smiling mockingly. He was fighting against Xiao Chengfeng and Ye Liuyun.

Fighting as in playing with them.

This man was a Quasi-Saint, and he had a circular treasure in his hand. He was so powerful that he could have destroyed stars. If Xiao Chengfeng and Ye Liuyun were not as powerful with protective armors, they would not be able to hold up against him.

As for other Heavenly Soldiers, they were surrounding them. They were pushing against the ripples, trying to destroy the formation as they did not want to affect the expert’s wedding ceremony.

“How dare you!” Yang Jing growled. He scoffed with powerful Qi. He had knives in his hands as he rushed toward the square-faced man.

“How daring of you! Eat my sword!

“Sword Denting Chop!”

Xiao Chengfeng’s eyes sparkled. He was determined. No matter what, he had to stab this man with his sword!

His Sword Qi was very powerful. They formed a dent and lashed down from above!

This was actually quite risky. Since his cultivation was not as good as the man’s, he was fighting him without a shield.

However, his goal was clear. He would rather hurt himself to keep this square-faced man in place for Yang Jing to rush over and attack!

How dare this man come today to mess around! Xiao Chengfeng would not permit it! Even if he had to die, he still wanted to help maintain the expert’s reputation!

This was the pride of his life!

Xiao Chengfeng was still agitated. He scoffed, “Come on, I’m not scared. Come on!”

And yet, the man seemed to be able to tell Xiao Chengfeng’s intention. He merely scoffed and tossed the circle toward the sword.

The circle was circling in the air. It lashed against the sword light while the man tilted his head. He did not even look back.

Xiao Chengfeng was offended. “Bastard! Where’re you going? You’re so weak-hearted and yet you come here? Go home and drink milk!”

“Ha-ha, you’re about to die and yet you’re still so wild.”

The man with a square face made a gesture. He retrieved the circle and scoffed coldly, "I only came here to verify the location. Wait for it. In no time, my Yunhuang World will send you a big gift!"

With that said, his body flashed and he disappeared into the Chaos.

Yang Jing did not look good. He said in a low voice, "Someone from the Yunhuang World!"

Xiao Chengfeng pouted his lips and said unwillingly, "The world that Lord Dog screwed over? How dare they come back! Have they forgotten about the terror exuded by Lord Dog?"

Yang Jing said in a heavy tone, "Since they're coming, they must have planned it. Go and inform Empress Nuwa to increase our power. We need to be more alert!"

At the same time.

Inside the Palace of the Deluxe Merit Saint, the wedding ceremony had started. There was a red carpet, a built-in stage, and many lights. The atmosphere was luxurious.

Some fairies were playing on lutes and stringed instruments. Their small hands flew in the air, their small lips pouting. They formed a nice view.

The procedure was similar to an ordinary man's wedding, except it was way grander. The guests consisted of all the major figures in this world. He had gathered all the top powers in the entire Eldritch World. This was the biggest and most luxurious wedding in the Eldritch World!

The only difference was the lack of worshipping procedures. Since he had no relatives and the Jade Emperor insisted that Li Nianfan was the Deluxe Merit Saint who did not need to worship the sky and ground, they took out that part of the ceremony.

Finally, they turned it into making a toast to the sky, the ground, and the guests.

“Congratulations! The two brides are now married!”

Goddess Nuwa was the witness. With her voice heard, all the major figures applauded with smiles on their faces. They were cheering.

Li Nianfan’s heart landed heavily. It had finally come to an end. From now on, he was a man with wives—two beautiful wives.

He even had the mother of all human race, Goddess Nuwa, as his witness. His wedding ceremony was too advanced!

Meanwhile, he was excited and full of anticipation. It was about to get to the final stage. The wedding night!

He was about to test out his theories. He wondered if the book was reliable at all.

He pulled the red string over the Daji and Fire Phoenix’s heads. Then, he sent them to the carriage.

The carriage was pulled by the dragons while the pile of gifts was pulled by Kirins.

To fight for this arrangement, the dragons and kirins almost started fighting. They were jealous of one another.

This was a proud moment, something they could tell over generations.

Finally, they had a round of exciting Flying Chess to determine who was pulling the carriage and who was pulling the pile of gifts.

If it was not for Lord Kirin playing chess, he would have been scolded by everyone.

Along with the roaring of dragons, the luxurious carriage flew in the air, glowing brightly. It looked alive and most importantly, it was pulled by six dragons in front. There were six kirins at the back pulling a huge pile of gifts.

They crossed the sky and it was a majestic sight.

Heavenly Soldiers were standing by the sides of the clouds. With background music playing, there were beautiful lights everywhere.

Their destination was the four-part architecture. They were sending the brides to the four-part architecture for Li Nianfan to spend the night with them.

Li Nianfan stood on the platform of the Palace of the Deluxe Merit Saint. As he watched the carriages going further away, he wanted to go along with them. However, he held back the urge and continued to make toasts with his guests.

There were good dishes and conversations. They were all happily engaged.

Luckily, the guests came prepared. Though their hearts were still pounding during this banquet, they felt as if they were having the time of their lives!

The wedding of the expert was something the entire world should be celebrating. This was a wild celebration.

In this banquet, they had all earned back the treasures they had gave away and got back way more than they had given!

It was a different level!

The expert thought so highly of them and invited them over!

Dragin held the wine glass, her face flushed red. She ran over and cried out with excitement, "Brother, happy wedding day! I hope you make children, live long...no, never die!"

Never die?

This sounded strange...

However, he liked it.

"And me, and me!" Nanan ran over. She added, "Brother, I wish for you to stay united, stay sweet for a hundred...no, millions of years!"

Li Nianfan laughed. He ruffled their small heads and said, "You two have been thinking a lot. Children should drink less, do you know that?"

Dragin stuck out her tongue. "Brother, we're not young anymore."

The Jade Emperor and Empress came over with wine glasses. They greeted, "Lord Saint, happy wedding day."

Following that, many old friends came forward.

The event went on until midnight. Li Nianfan then bid the crowd farewell and went back to the four-part architecture.

"Everyone, eat and drink well. There are lots of wines and drinks. If you need more food, just ask Xiao Bai to make a few more dishes! Excuse me for leaving early!"

"Lord Saint's too polite."

Of course, nobody dared to mention the wedding night. They all smiled as they sent him away.

As Li Nianfan gradually went out of sight, they watched as he gradually disappeared. Goddess Nuwa's face lit up and she was emotional. She said, "The expert got married in our Eldritch World. This is the greatest opportunity we could receive. So wonderful!"

The Jade Emperor nodded. He took a deep breath and said, "Who knows, maybe the expert wants to develop the Eldritch World. It's a blessing to us!"

Getting married was not a big deal for the crowd.

The Truth was circulating, each had its sources. The two opposites were the roots of all Truth. The Truth in Chaos!

One would not last long. It would be strange for one man to stay single forever. This would cause malfunctions both mentally and physically. One would not gain the Truth.

Although some had forgotten their Path on the way, after cultivating, they had lost themselves. However powerful the force was, nobody would admire it nor cultivate it.

Out of so many major figures, the chosen ones to bear children had become a common thing among them. Some had love debts to return to.

To them, the expert getting married was part of him experiencing normal life. However, it was more of an experience.

Since he was not married to women from the Eldritch World, simply looking after this world was a simple gesture.

Meanwhile, the Empress suddenly lifted her hand and pinched the Jade Emperor's loose flesh. She scoffed, "Jade Emperor has had many experiences. I wonder where are those wives now?"

According to the legends, there were quite some rumors about the Jade Emperor in the ordinary realm. They had talked about him.

“This...” As the Jade Emperor was thinking hard and sweating, a bunch of Heavenly Soldiers rushed over. They looked anxious.

“Report...

“It’s bad, Jade Emperor and Empress. Someone from the Yunhuang World came. They wanted to destroy our world tonight!”

Meanwhile.

In the Chaos.

10 figures gathered. They stared in one direction with cold faces.

The square-faced man came from afar. He said in a low voice, “There’s indeed a broken world with not many powerful figures there. It’s nothing.”

He halted and raised an eyebrow. “However...they seem to be celebrating something big. They’re very cautious and don’t want anyone to mess around.”

“They’re hosting an event again?”

A bald man halted. He was speechless, “This world is such a joke. They host an event every three days. When I went the other day, they were preparing for an event as well. They were enjoying themselves.”

“Hmph! They aren’t powerful and yet they still have so much fun! They were born to be inferior!”

The leading skinny elder said mockingly, “They don’t want anyone to mess it up? Ha-ha, funny. We live in a world where power speaks louder than anything. Let’s ruin their celebration!”

With that said, he did not move. A black swirl gradually appeared in front of him.

The swirl was expanding with a strange Qi coming out of it. It was too powerful and had an irresistible power, ready to suck in everything in the world!

When the surrounding people saw the swirl, they were terrified. Their cores were unstable and almost got sucked in. instantly, they looked scared and respectful.

“Huh!”

Unlimited stars in the surroundings started to gather. Some only had a 100,000 kilometers radius, some had millions of kilometers radius. They were huge!

When they approached, the stars crashed and went into the black hole.

In the Chaos, countless stars rushed over. Gradually, the black hole started to let out red light. An extremely powerful star ignited with a strange glow. It seemed to have seven colors with the flame at its core.

As more stars gathered, the seed expanded more. Finally, it turned into a meteorite of a 300,000-kilometer radius. It had a very destructive power from within, and it seemed ready to destroy any world!

Like a beast, a mega beast, it was very scary. Even a Chaos Daluo Golden had to be cautious of it.

The skinny elder was calm. It seemed as if he had merely done a small thing. He gradually lifted his hands and pushed the meteorite further...

Vroom!

The terrifying meteorite had powerful Qi. It crossed the Chaos and rushed into the Eldritch World!

Gulp!

Everyone in the Eldritch World gulped at the same time. They were all terrified.

Was this how powerful a powerful being was?

The skinny elder said coldly as if he was the judge in control of everything.

“Let’s test the water first. If the dog doesn’t come out, then this world is....over!”

Chapter 515: Using the Candlelight to Destroy A Star!

In Outer Space.

Under the lead of Goddess Nuwa, the Jade Emperor and Empress went over with heavy faces.

Someone from the Yunhuang World was coming?

This was a challenge for the crowd.

After all, the Yunhuang World was way more powerful than the Eldritch World. They had way too many powerful beings. They were out of their league, completely.

If they came after seeing how powerful Lord Dog was, they were not friendly. It seemed that...

Goddess Nuwa said, “Anyone below Daluo Golden Immortal, go back.”

“Empress, we’re not leaving.”

“Today’s a big day. Please, let us do something. The more the better.”

“No matter what, even if we can keep them away for one second, we’ll do it.”

“Even if we can’t fight them, does it matter if we leave now? It’s better to stay on and fight till our last breath!”

Whether it was the demons, sea races, or Heavenly Soldiers, they remained determined and did not think of backing away.

Vroom!

Meanwhile, everyone jolted as a terrifying Qi rushed over. It came from the Chaos like a river beast rushing in, ready to engulf everything.

They were coming!

“This! The power...”

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu felt the worst. They did not want to waste any more time. They rushed toward the Qi.

The rest followed along.

As they leaned in, the feeling of shock was getting stronger as if they were about to be engulfed. Their hair stood up and their organs were shaking. They looked over in shock!

All they could see was that in the Chaos, an eye-catching flame was approaching with an unstoppable Qi. It was rushing toward the Eldritch World!

The rest followed behind.

The places it touched were affected with scars.

A meteorite?

No! Not an ordinary meteorite!

“If it was a normal star, it wouldn’t be as scary!” The Jade Emperor took a deep breath, looking shocked.
“What is it?”

As he finished his sentence, the meteorite came closer instantly...

Vroom!

An extremely scary Qi had materialized. It formed a wave as it rolled toward the crowd!

Although it was still far away, a powerful Qi was escaping it. The crowd was breathing rapidly. Everyone felt very stressed. Layer after layer, ripples made the temperature go extremely high. It was as if it was about to cook everything!

Too powerful! Unbalance-able!

“We can’t let this meteorite get any closer!” Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu said with a serious tone.

If it approached any closer, even the meteorite’s light would cause harm to the entire Eldritch World!

It did not matter if the Eldritch World was harmed. However, if the ceremony decorations for the expert were ruined, they would be too embarrassed to live in this world!

They had to stop it! They must!

They could not let it get any closer. The decorations for the expert's wedding cannot be harmed!

At this moment, they all had one idea. They were determined to stop this!

Dong!

A long sword scratched the sky and formed a long arch. The Sword Qi focused into a point and rushed toward the meteorite!

There was no fear and no backup. One word—fight!

A deadly fight!

“Ha-ha-ha, I, Xiao Chengfeng, am never scared of death! My sword's a longsword!” Xiao Chengfeng followed his sword and flew in the air with his hair flowing behind him. He used up all of his Qi to control his sword. This was all he had. “I'll merge with my sword to...kill the star!”

The longsword vibrated and rushed forward at the quickest speed.

He picked up the trash-talk from Li Nianfan. He found the last sentence hard to say out loud, even for someone as thick-skinned as himself. However, now that he cried it out loud, he was proud of it and felt very arrogant.

He would fight until his death! He was determined!

The power of the longsword was tiny in comparison to the meteorite.

Too tiny!

It was like the moon in the sky compared to the gravel on the ground. It was like a candlelight against the boundless star. They were not of the same level.

A moth rushing to the flame!

Hitting a stone with an egg.

This was what was on everyone else's minds when they saw Xiao Chengfeng rushing over.

Were they looking down on him?

Were they hopeless?

Even though they knew this was mission impossible, who was not afraid of death?

Sometimes, they just had to...keep going!

Fight until the end!

100,000 Heavenly Soldiers, a million demons, countless sea races all rushed out all at once. They were powerful like tsunamis. They gave their all and met the danger in front of them!

No matter how powerful or insignificant they were, at this moment, they were powerful. They all gave their best in time!

The Lotus Lantern in Goddess Nuwa's hand rushed out. The lantern floated away and a gigantic lotus was formed. It had a sacred glow all around it as if it consisted of all the power in this world. It rushed toward the meteorite!

Yun Shu's mirror in her hand was sent over, too! It formed a gigantic light screen. Like a worldly shield, it started to glow, ready to block away all dangers!

Nanan was among the crowd. She had the golden cudgel in hand as she mumbled, “Golden Cudgel, can you cut a star? Go on!”

She lifted her hand and her small body rose with unlimited energy. Just like a bullet, the golden cudgel rushed out!

The golden cudgel flew in the air and kept getting bigger. Instantly, it had turned into a sky-touching pillar, rushing toward the meteorite!

Dragin’s small hand reached up as she tossed out a dragon pearl. Her child-like face wore a threatening look. “All of the sea races listen up, transfer all of your energy into this golden pearl!”

Instantly, the dragon pearls gathered into a phantom of a dragon. The dragon was huge, like nine stars gathered into one. The Chaos functioned as its sea, and it growled and rushed toward the meteorite!

Immense energy was released. It was very terrifying. This was the combination of everyone’s power! The entire power in the Eldritch World gathered in one. They went all out and were ready to die!

At this moment, those ordinary men who looked up at the stars saw a light flashing from afar!

It was brighter than any star! It was the brightest star of all in the sky!

Many people cried out, “Is that a light? What’s the name of that star?”

The total power combined smashed into the meteorite!

It was as if a stone as big as the ocean was thrown into the ocean. A massive ripple was caused!

The flame of the meteorite ignited. It was ready to burn everything! Most of the power vanished!

Many treasures lost their glow. They were ruined!

Sizz!

Everyone spat out mouthfuls of fresh blood. Their cores were shattered into pieces and they were severely injured.

However, they all resisted with reddened eyes!

Xiao Chengfeng had grown countless years older. His eyes blanked as he felt his longsword crack. The longsword was ready to break into two at any time!

“Although I’m not as tough, even if the sword is broken, I must pierce through!”

The meteorite was still approaching. Power from all over was trying to stop it!

Everyone was not giving in, yet!

Meanwhile, the dragon phantom gathered by the dragon pearl jolted. It had a glow in its eyes.

“I can help out now without anyone knowing! This won’t stop me from hiding, I’m so clever.”

The dragon tail shook.

Click!

A crisp sound was heard. It was louder in the Chaos.

Everyone was shocked.

Swiftly after, the crack on the meteorite expanded rapidly. Crushed stones appeared and the attacks that could not get through gradually went in.

One inch, two inches, three inches!

It was in!

Vroom!

Along with a loud, resonating sound, the entire meteorite exploded. An eye-catching flame was seen as the ripples caused by the flame lashed out in all directions like stars. It was a majestic sight.

“We...did it!”

“I knew it, ha-ha...cough cough!”

Everyone was severely injured. Their powers were emptied as they stood wearily. However, they were determined with their eyes sparkling!

And yet, before anyone could cheer, a terrifying Qi suddenly appeared and overwhelmed everyone!

This was 10 times more powerful than the previous energy. It was beyond words and at this moment, everyone had no way of resisting it!

“This...this is...”

They looked up and saw the meteorite flying over. They felt the power coming out of it. Their pupils dilated with despair.

Many people could not even resist the Qi. They instantly fainted.

“Hold it!”

Among the crowd, someone growled. Nobody backed away. They stood in their spots and used their bodies to form a wall. They were using their lives to hold it!

Almost like a group of ants blocking the tsunami. It was funny and useless.

The crowd from the Yunhuang World had smiles on their faces. Just like watching a drama, they said coldly, “Is it over yet?”

However, in the next moment, they were shocked.

A black figure gradually approached. It was a black dog with a newly roasted pork thigh in its mouth. The black dog had cold eyes and seemed impatient.

It was walking toward the meteorite, one step at a time!

In the endless Chaos, it was quiet with no sound.

The meteorite came with the fire ready to destroy the world. It landed from afar.

Blackie was looking ordinary. He did not show any powerful Qi. His body was bigger than an ordinary dog but not too much bigger. He was walking, simply walking toward a meteorite that was countless times bigger than itself!

And yet, although the difference was big, the crowd felt at ease when they saw Blackie’s back.

With so many eyes watching, the gap between the meteorite and Blackie grew smaller. The meteorite was crashing down while Blackie walked over, walking while eating the pork thigh.

When the pork thigh was done, the two were only 10,000 meters apart. They would crash in a matter of seconds!

Blackie suddenly stood up on two paws with his front paws raised. He looked as if he was in a fistfight. With a slight backward pull, he rushed up into the sky and punched the meteorite.

This scene looked as if a super-dog was flying!

Vroom!

Eye-stabbing glow lashed out in all directions. The meteorite exploded into pieces!

As the light retreated, only Blackie was left in sight. He frowned and parted his dog mouth. A cold voice was heard saying, "How dare you screw things up on my master's big day? You affected me from eating. Tell me, how do you want to die?"

"Hmm! What a stubborn black dog! That's not all!"

"What a strange ordinary dog. It doesn't seem to belong to the Chaos. I've never seen one. Not bad, a surprise."

Along with dark laughter, Blackie's surroundings suddenly lit up like screens. Blackie was trapped!

Following that, three figures walked out from the Chaos. They were in black robes and looking airy.

The moment they landed on their feet, the screens were like river water with ripples forming. They went into the screen.

In a triangle, they surrounded Blackie.

Goddess Nuwa and Yun Shu had looks of shock on their faces. They widened their pupils as they cried out, "Three Realm Cultivators!"

How could that be?!

They were Realm Cultivators! The most powerful beings in the Chaos! It was impossible to meet one usually. They would be at the deepest ends looking for opportunities.

It was too rare for a Realm Cultivator to get involved. It had become a legend.

And yet, there were three of them all at once!

This was unbelievable! This was a big thing!

Goddess Nuwa took a deep breath and said in a shaking voice, "Their target's Lord Dog!"

"Combined forces?" Yun Shu's face was disturbed. She growled, "They want to capture Blackie to experiment on it!"

They wanted to capture a Realm Cultivating beast! And so many Real Cultivators were involved. They were so wild? What did they want to do?

The Jade Emperor and the crowd looked at the Chaos with extreme shock. They were also worried. Some wanted to help but they also knew that there was nothing they could do.

Now that they had emptied their energy, they were not even able to protect themselves. They could only hope that those powerful beings would not make it hard for them.

Among the three of them, one of them was skinny. He was the Father of the Yunhuang World. The other one had a slightly green face like wasabi. His eyes were darkened. The other one was elongated with his eyes flaming red. His pupils had crosses in them. He did not seem old but seemed to be the leader of them all.

“Let me introduce myself.”

The elongated man with flaming eyes looked at Blackie. He had a strange glint in his eyes as he said proudly, “My name’s Guimu. I want to borrow your life. Do you want to give yourself up or do you want me to take it myself?”

Blackie answered coldly, “I need to borrow your mouth to poop. Do you want to come over or do you want me to do it myself!?”

With that said, he raised his paws as limitless power condensed into a massive paw. It landed from the sky and crashed toward Guimu!

“Alright, let me check you out first!”

Guimu smiled and with a wave, a jade green turtle shell floated mid-air. It was glowing a jade green color as it formed into a big shield. A powerful Qi was coming out of the shell.

This was a Realm Cultivating Godly Tortoise’s shell. It was then turned into a treasure.

Since it was man-made, it was not a Chaos Treasure but it was just as powerful. It might even be stronger than the Chaos Treasure. It was known as the Dao Weapon!

With the appearance of this tortoiseshell, vibrations were caused. One could see layers of ripples shaking up the screens from all directions!

Even the watching crowd could feel the vibrations in their souls. It was terrifying! They could be dead anytime!

Sizz!

The tortoiseshell fell and started shaking. As Blackie scratched his paw, he shook it again and the shell was tossed out. Blackie did not stop scratching as he heavily slammed down on Guimu's body. As if hitting a fly with a loud 'swat', the screen behind lit up!

Half of Guimu's body was instantly torn away, revealing his torn flesh. His bones cracked as scratch marks were left.

However, even though it was a terrifying sight, he remained standing and recovered at a speed that one could see with his eyes. He said, unharmed, "How surprising. Even though you're just a dog, your energy's way more vibrant than any beast I've captured."

The Realm Cultivators could create their own world. Thus, they could recreate themselves. Unless their core was destroyed, they could not be killed!

However, a Realm Cultivator could be killed by another Realm Cultivator. They could use the same level of power to completely destroy one's core!

Therefore, Blackie remained calm and smashed away again!

"I'm getting more and more excited. I can't wait to study you already!" Guimu said creepily in a cold tone. "Move it!"

The three in black robes cast a spell at the same time...

Whoosh!

Around the four screens, countless chains rushed out. They were thick and big. There were so many of them that they could fill up the screens. The sight of it sent chills to everyone.

The chains seemed as if they were alive. Each chain was letting out a dark glow, very active. The speed was shocking with the power of destruction.

Even one strand of it was able to destroy a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal!

Sizz!

Suddenly, hundreds of chains tied up Blackie's body and his legs. Just like pythons, they started tightening up.

Blood flowed like water around Blackie.

Blackie's face remained calm like always, as if he felt no pain. He lifted his front paw and easily smashed the chains into pieces. All chains were broken and went back to Guimu. Blackie lifted his paw and slapped Guimu.

Ping!

His body was kicked away like a ball, his brain crushed, and half of his face was destroyed. His eyes were still on his face.

However, some chains popped out not long after, passing right through Blackie's back. They were moving vigorously as they drilled a big hole in his stomach. It was a shocking sight.

Guimu and Blackie's bodies were recovering at the same time.

However, before Guimu's head had regrown, Blackie was already closer to him. He scratched his paw.

This time, before Blackie could lash out with his paw, Guimu's eyes shot out lights. A black cross rushed out to destroy Blackie.

It was so quick. With just a shot, there was light everywhere!

Without a trace, Blackie's neck was cut open as blood splattered everywhere. With a flash, Blackie recovered and his eyes were filled with violence.

Woof!

He growled with a low voice as his paws grabbed onto Guimu's shoulders and tore him apart.

Instantly, Guimu's body was split into two with blood everywhere!

Following that, his paws grabbed two parts of Guimu's body and smacked them against one another.

Sizz!

Guimu's body turned into a pile of mud, falling to the ground.

Whoosh!

Countless chains dropped around Blackie. They connected with one another and formed a ball to trap Blackie inside.

"Why don't you taste my poison?"

The green-faced elder spat out his crossed-tongue and a strange laughter was heard. Instantly, a strange green light lit up the chain rapidly. Following that, the entire ball had turned green.

As for Guimu, his pile of flesh still had some Qi circulating it. His body recovered.

He licked his lips and placed his hands on his chest. By closing his palm, Qi was circulating all around.

“Lock the prisoner!”

Other than the chain-ball, a transparent cage appeared as power circulated all over. It had the power of melting—it wanted to melt Blackie!

...

At the same time.

Inside the Four-part Architecture.

It was feeling festive here. There was a red carpet on the ground with decorations everywhere.

Li Nianfan walked in and stopped before a red-colored door. His heartbeat fastened and he felt nervous.

He was about to sleep with them. Once he had entered, the feel...hmm!

It would be beyond words.

However, getting too excited and looking forward to it made him even more nervous and uneasy.

Most importantly, the two women in there were so beautiful, and they were both Immortals!
How...exciting!

He was at the peak of his life!

“Phew...”

Li Nianfan took a deep breath and with a gentle push, the door was pushed open.

Inside the room, there was candlelight. The lighting was dimmed.

With a faint bodily fragrance, two women with red head-cloths sat by the bed. They were waiting silently.

They were in their red wedding gowns, their waists skinny and their figures perfect. Li Nianfan took a look and he could already feel their softness and comfort.

The candlelight made it even more tempting.

Since they had heard some movements, Daji and Fire Phoenix's bodies squirmed. Their skinny waists jolted and went upright. Their fair hands were placed on top of their tummies. They were feeling nervous.

Li Nianfan did not ruin this silence. He walked over gradually, their breaths audible. Following that, he gradually reached out to slowly lift their head-cloths with both hands, one hand for each.

Daji and Fire Phoenix's beautiful eyes looked at Li Nianfan nervously. Their eyes were flirtatious before they quickly looked away. Their faces blushed red as they felt embarrassed.

Their faces were so beautiful that they could make all the flowers around them look unattractive. The dimmed room was lit up by their beauty.

They gave off two different vibes.

Daji was colder and quiet. She was embarrassed, yet tempting. She compelled one to care for her.

Fire Phoenix's red eyes came with a natural sense of passion. Even though she was embarrassed, she did not refuse it and was very alluring.

The seductive air filled the room, making one's scalp itchy.

Both of Li Nianfan's hands shook. He did not know how to start.

'What do I do now? Push them? Is there a prelude?'

He felt conflicted for a long while.

Daji said in a low voice, "Mr. Li, we'll...take off your clothes for you?"

"Oh, hmm, okay." Li Nianfan nodded.

Two soft, small hands started to remove Li Nianfan's clothing. He was wearing less and less...

"Wait up."

Li Nianfan suddenly grabbed Daji and Fire Phoenix's hands. He thought of something.

Meeting Fire Phoenix and Daji's scared eyes, he bit his lip and said, "There... There's something I think we can all discuss together."

There were many movements in the book that he could not describe in words. So, he wanted the three of them to learn it together.

There was no other choice.

Quickly, he brought out 'Safe Entrance' and placed it before Fire Phoenix and Daji. He covered his face and was too embarrassed to look at them.

"Ah!"

Upon turning the first page, Daji and Fire Phoenix gasped audibly. Their faces blushed red and their breathing was rapid.

However, it did not take long before their faces halted. They stared at the book without blinking. They had a heavy look.

This...this was the Double Major Path?

A Yin Yang Crossover Path!

The difference between Yin and Yang, Heaven and Earth. The notes of every being in the world, transforming into parents, the birth and reason behind everything.

This was the source and origin of everything!

This was very powerful!

There were too many benefits from practicing this Double Major Path. This was more insightful than any other Paths. This was way beyond!

One could get the other's power to fill up their bodies. One's realm would rapidly increase!

What a powerful master he was! He owned such a powerful cultivating secret! This was a Double Major Path manual! The most precious cultivating Path in the entire Chaos!

If this was spread out, the entire Chaos would go viral!

Furthermore...they could practice this with Li Nianfan! How blissful!

Li Nianfan was secretly observing Daji and Fire Phoenix. He saw how they went from embarrassed to closely staring at the book. They were looking with so much focus, they were more focused than himself. They seemed almost desperate!

They even talked among themselves in a low voice from time to time.

Furthermore, their faces were flushing red. They seemed vaguely excited with anticipation.

Li Nianfan could not help feeling his scalp itching.

What...what?

“Gasp... I’m feeling weak.”

Chapter 517: Ying Yang Gives Birth To Everything

In the Chaos.

A giant screen formed into a shield shutting down the area. It had immense power from within. Even a slight hint of it could make one terrified.

One could foresee how when it exploded, the world would collapse entirely and never recover!

In the screens, countless chains were entangling around, forming a gigantic metal chain in the mid air. It looked like a terrifying beast.

No matter if it was the Yunhuang World or Eldritch World, everyone went blank.

This was the fight between the Realm Cultivators?

How shocking!

Little did they expect the fight between the Realm Cultivators to be so absolutely cruel! They tore out each other's body and gave off destructive power. It was not a pleasant sight.

They were physically fighting with power.

However, it did make sense. When one arrived at this realm, fighting physically did make sense. The spell-throwing fight was old-fashioned. They did not need the visual effects anymore.

Furthermore, their bodies were torn out and yet they were fine as if nothing happened. This was hard to watch!

"Lord Dog!"

Nuwa and the crowd saw the chain ball and they were worried. Their faces turned pale and they clenched their fists tightly.

They had seen Blackie fight a few times. Each time, Blackie killed its opponent easily. It was usually very powerful. And now, it seemed to be losing. This made them nervous and very guilty.

"Three Realm Cultivators fight against one! And even set traps! What a disgrace!" Xiao Chengfeng was agitated. He was shaking and blamed his longsword for not being strong enough.

Nuwa said, "We're still alive, we can't sit back and watch Blackie getting in trouble!"

Jade Emperor said with a serious face, "Empress Nuwa is right, if not, we can fight him!"

When the crowd from Yunhuang World saw the screen, they smiled coldly with pride.

Especially the bald man. His body was beaten up by Blackie with his mouth twisted. His Core was harmed and he hated Blackie for that. He looked vulgar and very excited.

He scoffed coldly, “Ha-ha-ha, what a silly dog. Be wild! Wait till you die!”

Inside the screens, the three men in black robes frowned and spat out some Qi. They had a serious look on.

This was not an ordinary chain, it was a chain made of Chaos Ocean’s dark metal. It could keep recreating and tightly lock one’s core and body. It could minimize one’s power and energy.

They always used this to capture the beasts.

And yet, even though Blackie was inside with many chains going through its body, it was still fighting and giving out power. It was still looking active unlike the other beasts.

Guimu’s eyes glinted, he mumbled, “This dog’s body is...special! It’s strangely stubborn, what is it made of?”

The Poison God was very curious, “It’s almost immune to my poison. Where does this dog come from? Interesting, interesting. It seems like we’ve made new discoveries. Nice.”

“Vroom!”

Meanwhile, a cry was heard, resonating in all directions. Everyone’s core was shaking as if the core was about to leave the body.

Even the Real Cultivators jumped a little. They felt as if something big was about to happen.

“That...that!”

Yunhuang World’s Father jolted. He felt as if he was struck by lightning. He appeared to have seen the most unbelievable thing in the world! His pupils dilated and formed a needle-like shape. He gasped and turned into a sculpture.

Even someone in his realm felt his core shaking!

Guimu looked over and instantly felt his scalp itching. He cried out with disbelief, “Yin Yang Crossover Path, the Origins of Chaos?!”

Poison God was dumbfounded, he said blankly, “The Yin Yang Path! It can create a whole new world! How could that be!?”

In the direction of Eldritch World, it was originally covered by a layer of Chaos. And now, there was a layer of black and white Qi entangled with one another. A black line of crack was formed and the line was expanding from the side of the Eldritch World!

One could see with one’s naked eyes that it was expanding rapidly.

Instantly, it was already ten times bigger and still going!

Terrifying! How terrifying!

This scene was not strange for the Realm Cultivators. This was the sight of breaking ground!

Why?

Why was there a Yin Yang Path? To break the ground of the Eldritch World?

“Vroom!”

A layer of purple Qi rushed out from the Eldritch World like a tsunami. It was limitless. The sight of it made one difficult to breathe.

Too much, too powerful.

Purple Qi was rushing over!

“Hong...Hongmeng Purple Qi!?”

“How much of Hongmeng Purple Qi was there!?”

Poison God was dumbfounded.

Yunhuang World’s father was dumbfounded.

Guimu was dumbfounded.

After opening up the world, one could absorb some Hongmeng Purple Qi from the Chaos. However, the quantity was limited, only eight slots!

Eight slots represented the eight Saints to maintain the working of the world!

This was the birth of a new world. So the Hongmeng Purple Qi was a reward from the Chaos. Nobody could take more than they deserved!

And yet...

So much Hongmeng Purple Qi was taken! How big was this world going to be?

Too big!

The crowd was transfixed in the air. They could not move. Their eyes widened as they looked at the Hongmeng Purple Qi circulating the Eldritch World. Part of them had transformed into thunder, striking down. The thunders caused some ripples to form in the Chaos!

A new land started to make shape. It was extremely large and what they saw was just the tip of the iceberg. It was a shocking sight way beyond words.

More Hongmeng Purple Qi condensed and formed into raindrops going down along the thunders. The rain landed on the ground and turned into seas and rivers, along with trees...

Jade Emperor and the crowd watched with their eyes and mouths forming an “O” shape. The crowd from Yunhuang World almost had their jaws dropped to the ground. Their eyes were popping out.

They witnessed the creation of a world with shock. This was memorable for anyone!

The rain was falling, washing over the new Eldritch World. The leftover Hongmeng Qi transformed into countless Paths, entering the Eldritch World and spreading out. They went out of sight!

Meanwhile, a sacred Qi was rising up from the Eldritch World from all directions. Some were fierce, some were sacred, some were arrogant, some were airy. This was the appearance of many treasures!

“One makes two, two makes three, three makes everything! Yin Yang Path was the origin of the Chaos. It gives birth to everything and causes everything to move. It gives out a limitless Hongmeng Purple Qi to celebrate!”

Guimu’s eyes widened. His head was buzzing loudly and went blank, “This, this...this Eldritch World is so broken up! How does it deserve such a big opportunity?”

Poison God looked at the new world and his eyes reddened with blood veins showing, “Perhaps the Chaos is giving birth to a new world? Ha-ha-ha! Who’d have thought that this happened in front of us! This new world will belong to us! We’re getting rich! We’re getting rich! Ha-ha-ha!”

Yunhuang World's father laughed wildly, "This new world has countless transformations. Who'd know, perhaps there are Chaos Treasures in there? This is a massive opportunity for me! We've gained a lot from attacking the Eldritch World! We're in luck!"

Jade Emperor and the crowd stared at the Eldritch World strangely getting bigger. They were perplexed.

"The expert! It must've been the expert!"

Jade Emperor was shaking, "We're blessed by the expert, our poor land is now growing rapidly!"

Nuwa was emotional, "They had reached the peak. I knew it. Daji and Fire Phoenix are so blessed to be able to marry the expert. This opportunity is greater than our imagination!"

"The peak of the first wedding night!"

The crowd was excited. The rain started falling and washing the treasures on their bodies.

Suddenly, a limitless Spiritual Light shone brightly. The crowd felt their bodies getting nourished. Their emptied bodies and wounds were recovering speedily.

Meanwhile, the treasures used to fight against the meteorite were recovered. They were giving out glow, and their quality was improving!

...

At the same time, the Heavenly Temple was going through a huge change!

However, Xiao Bai, who was inside the Heavenly Temple did not seem to have seen the changes. It was walking over the Immortal Bridge nonchalantly. It was pushing a small trolley with all kinds of freshly prepared dishes.

When it arrived at the Deluxe Merit Palace and saw that it was empty, it halted and its eyes scanned around.

“They all left before finishing the meal? Even Blackie is gone?!”

“How rude! They look down on my master? And think my dishes are bad? I need to ask them to come back!”

Chapter 518: Blackie Is Bald, Warrior Xiao Bai Is Fighting For Their Rights

The Eldritch World was still getting bigger.

The scene was majestic, the sight was astonishing.

This was a whole new world, a terrifying world!

Sending one’s divine consciousness in, one could clearly feel the world rapidly growing. Compared to the previous Eldritch World, or even Yunhuang world, this was way more powerful!

Not only the energy, the quality was different. They could feel the world was now more spacious. Even the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals could fight there and destroy places.

In comparison, this world was way more dangerous than before. The opportunities came in sight after the rain. Since this was a whole new world, it was just like how the place was in the beginning. It was full of possibilities.

Inside the Eldritch World.

A terrifying change was indeed happening. As the rain dropped, all cultivators felt their power working. Following that, bottlenecks broke as easily as drinking water. They easily levelled up!

In the ordinary realm, those ill patients in bed were miraculously recovered. Many people who did not have Spiritual Roots suddenly had the capability to cultivate!

Meanwhile, the land was changing shape as well. This land was expanding rapidly.

The ten miles distance turned into a hundred miles, and then a thousand miles!

The trees went ten times taller over the night!

Some animals developed Spiritual Roots and turned into demons after the rain.

Some even had enlightenment over the night!

Overall, everything was improving rapidly. All the possibilities were developed in a terrifying way.

In the Chaos, the crowd from Yunhuang World watched everyone and everything from the Eldritch World upgrading. Their eyes reddened with jealousy. They did not feel good, they wanted to take out their treasures to wash in the rain...

And yet, the rain had no effect on their treasures. After all, they did not belong here, and were not entitled to the blessing.

“Ha-ha-ha, poor things. You want to take our advantage? Are you not ashamed?” Xiao Chengfeng mocked them with no fear. He had recovered and jumped up again.

“Ha-ha, your world is just lucky.” The bald man smiled coldly, he said in a mocking tone, “This is good, we’re the one in luck. Once we kill you all, this world will belong to us! Ha-ha-ha, the opportunity is ours!”

“Vroom!”

As everyone was feeling intimidated, a loud buzzing sound was heard coming from the screens. It was as if a terrifying energy had awakened. This feeling was filled with immense anger and emotions!

These emotions made one terrified and not want to mess with it. The Realm Cultivators were no exceptions.

This was because their instincts told them this was something they must not offend!

“Dang!”

The metal chain ball started to shake, there was an energy coming out from within.

“Is it actually fighting back?”

Guimu’s eyes fell heavy. He used the energy around him trying to hold it back. However, with a loud crash, the metal ball exploded into all parts!

A powerful Qi came out and formed a tornado. It was an undefeatable Qi too powerful! It even vanished the cage casted by Guimu. The Qi did not disperse, it was spreading out.

“Cluck!”

The screen had a crack and let out a Qi. The crowd from Yunhuang World were terrified. They were shaking.

In the screens, the three men in black robes were churned into meatballs. Blood rain was everywhere as the dust lingered in the air.

However, with just a flash of laws, the three of them rebuilt their bodies and resumed to what they were. They looked at Blackie in shock.

Yunhuang World’s father and Poison God exchanged a look, they felt lucky.

Luckily they were clever and knew they were no match to the Lord Dog. They did not attack it and asked to join forces. If not, they could easily get killed!

Terrifying! How terrifying!

“Lord Dog!”

“So powerful!”

Nuwa and the crowd had their eyes lit up with delight. Following that, their eyes blanked and looked concerned.

On Blackie’s body, there was still a china going through its stomach!

The chain was different from other chains. It was giving out a black glow with a sutra circling it. It was black like a dark hole. Even by looking at it, one could feel goosebumps all over with cores shrinking.

“Interesting, interesting.”

Guimu said with his hoarse voice. His eerie eyes fixed on Blackie, “A black ordinary dog, you’re very powerful and stubborn. If we didn’t come prepared, we’re no match to you even if we joined forces. Due to this, you make me even more excited! Now that your core is locked, how many more attacks can you throw?”

With that said, he laughed eerily again.

“You have successfully agitated me.” Blackie’s black eyes looked into Guimu. Its eyes were dark while its tone was calm with a hint of pity.

“Ever since following my master around, my master has been telling me to treat others with respect. Be kind and don’t get angry easily. Don’t lash out at others. As a dog, I should be well-restrained.”

Blackie mumbled and recalled the days when Li Nianfan was taming it.

Li Nianfan said so merely because he thought this silly dog would be ruthless and run everywhere. If so, it might die in a foreign land.

After all, this was a dangerous world. If Blackie ran around, it might die and become the food of other demons!

Let alone that, Blackie might even put him in danger and it would be bad!

However...Blackie must have taken it the wrong way.

"It's been too long, I haven't been so angry for so long! You forced me into this, your outcome will be way beyond your imagination!"

Blackie remained on the same spot. The Qi around it was rapidly rising. A gust of unknown Qi was appearing. everyone could not help holding their breaths and dared not to move."

"Ma...Master?"

Guimu frowned. His heart sank.

He was focusing on the black dog and neglected the master it was talking about. Now that he heard it again, he sensed that something did not add up.

A powerful dog like this had a master!?

This was a Realm Cultivational Dog! How would it have a master? This did not make sense!

Was it bluffing?

Before he could think it through, his pupils dilated with disbelief. He thought he saw it wrongly.

The others as well. They all looked like 'what's going on'. They even rubbed their eyes.

What was happening in front of them did not make sense. They found it strange.

Jade Emperor's lips were shaking. He could not believe, "Hair...hair removal?"

Dragin's cute mouth opened, she said blankly, "It's getting...bald? Blackie is turning bald?"

In such a tense atmosphere, Blackie said two sentences and started removing hair. Was that reasonable?

If this was not a tense situation, the crowd would have laughed out loud.

"Blackie, Xiao Bai is calling you to go home and eat!"

Meanwhile, a sound was heard.

Following that, Xiao Bai walked on flames and rushed toward them. It stopped in front of the crowd.

Its glinting eyes scanned through everyone. It asked in a robotic voice, "You all left in the middle of eating, this makes Chef Xiao Bai angry!"

The crowd felt chills, they panicked.

Nuwa quickly said, "Xiao Bai, the truth is, someone was screwing up on the expert's wedding day. We have no choice but to rush over here to stop them!"

Julin Shen nodded and pointed at the screen, "Right! Lord Xiao Bai, they're there!"

Xiao Bai turned over and did not speak.

It walked on flames and the screens looked invisible to it. It flew over it and stopped beside Blackie.

Meanwhile, Blackie's hair removal was halfway done. It was half bald and with fur on one side. It's dog face was still looking serious.

Xiao Bai looked at it head to toe. It said with an emotional tone, "Blackie! You're bald again! However, compared to when you're young, you're fairer now! You've gained weight as well..."

Following that, a robotic laughter was heard...

"Ha-ha-ha, ha-ha-ha..."

"You've successfully made me laugh."

Xiao Bai's glinting eyes formed a moon-like arch.

Blackie scoffed and said coldly, "Hmph! I'm going bald for my master! I'm proud of it!"

Guimu could not help staring at Xiao Bai, he asked in a low voice, "Eh, what is this?"

It was neither a demon or human. It was not alive, it was like metal. If so, it must've been a Spiritual Machine. However, it was not so powerful.

Xiao Bai stopped laughing and red lights shot out from its eyes. It turned over and stared at Guimu.

Meanwhile, it reached out a hand to grab on the chain penetrating through Blackie.

“You used such cheap metal to tie up Blackie?”

In the next instance. The chain started shaking as if it was alive. It was terrified, shaking and struggling.

Following that, as if a magnet, countless chains were flowing over and gathered in Xiao Bai’s hand. They went into its hand, forming a majestic sight. Suddenly, they all vanished and went into it.

“How could that be?!”

Guimu and the other two cried out loud. Their faces went blank, their worldview was refreshed.

These metals were made of Chaos Black Metals. They were very powerful and yet this unknown metal-man called it rubbish?!

Before they could think, the metal-man already raised its hand and pointed at Guimu!

A cold voice made it seem even eerier.

“You caused fear in Chef Xiao Bai’s guests and distracted them from eating! You’re sinned! Warrior Xiao Bai is here to fight for our rights!”

Danger!

A bone-shattering chill engulfed Guimu fully. It had been too many years, he had forgotten the feeling of terror. Let alone this eerie and chilling terror!

Run!

Guimu had this thought in his head. He then saw a flash of light in Xiao Bai's palm. A laser beam then shot out!

The speed was beyond limits. It was unreasonable. It touched upon him in no time!

Following that, Guimy felt his life vanishing!

His life! Not only his body! His life was vanishing from the Chaos!

How could that be? What power was that?

He was simply vanishing so easily?

And that light! So bright! So eye-stabbing!

That was his last thought before vanishing in thin air. Nothing was left behind.

To an outsider, Guimu's body felt like snow melting into nothingness. It was a shocking sight, very shocking!

"One."

Xiao Bai turned over and looked at Poison God. It clasped its hands.

Poison God had sweat all over, he cried out and tried to run away.

However as the light flashed, his body was unable to move and instantly vanished with no sound.

"Two."

Xiao Bai turned its hand at Yunhuang World's father.

He was trying to run away, how he wished he had four legs. How he wished he could give out everything to run faster. He wanted to be the fastest man in the world.

However, it was useless.

As Xiao Bai's hand gave off another flash, the Yunhuang World father could clearly feel his life getting wiped out!

There was no hint of resistance. He did not have a chance to say his final words before vanishing!

"Three."

Chapter 519: Dishes Are Life! Waste? Doesn't Exist!

"Gasp..."

"Gasp..."

The crowd from Yunhuang World and Eldritch World gasped. They thought they were dreaming.

Three Realm Cultivators, three of them! The strongest in the Chaos! To them, they existed way beyond touch! Like a legend!

And yet, they vanished right in front of them, quietly.

This was unbelievable! This was a miracle of the Chaos! Nobody could imagine this, this was way beyond their grasp.

Their eyes could not take this sight. They felt aches.

“Gulp.”

The crowd from the Eldritch World gulped so much that they even choked themselves.

“Lord Xiao Bai is so powerful?”

“The hand was meant for chopping vegetables, and yet it could kill so deadly?”

Jade Emperor and the crowd stared at Xiao Bai wide-eyed with utmost respect. Their hearts were beating.

They could guess that Xiao Bai was very powerful. After all, it had been with experts for a long time and looked special. However, they thought Xiao Bai was not as powerful as Blackie.

After all, Xiao Bai did not seem alive. It was in charge of...making meals like a servant. They were even served by Xiao Bai!

And yet, Xiao Bai could easily vanish three Realm Cultivators! So easy!

This was too sudden, their heads were not turning fast enough.

They were shocked. The Yunhuang World crowd was completely shocked! Their souls even went out of their bodies as they shook, “This, this, this...our godly father vanished?”

To them, he was the all-mighty and powerful godly father. And yet, he vanished just like that?

To them, this was like their world collapsing. Their world-view screwed over.

Most importantly, their terror rushed over like water. They dared not to move.

One of the elders was so terrified that his face twisted. He was shaking and he stuttered, “Ma...Master? The dog and metal-man have a master...”

This sentence was like the last bullet sent out to the crowd. They felt lifeless and chilly. Their cores are on the verge of collapsing. They felt too insignificant.

These two extremely powerful beings actually had a master. How powerful was their master? Did that even make sense?

Did something not add up?

“The changes in the Chaos was not a coincidence?”

The crowd was not silly. They thought about the changes in the Eldritch World earlier and sensed that something did not make sense. Perhaps someone was using manpower to expand the Eldritch World?

This, this...

Impossible!

Fake! It must be fake!

They cried out internally, instantly denying this speculation.

However, they heard Xiao Chengfeng talking to Junling Shen.

“Old Junling, our Eldritch World has improved so much. This is too powerful. The expert must’ve thought that our world is too small and so he decided to help us expand.”

“Old Xiao, I think you’re not right. Now that the expert is married to Miss Daji and Miss Fire Phoenix, he’s happy and so he rewarded us with this. Our Eldritch World is in luck! Being able to meet the expert is....waa...I can’t. I want to cry from excitement...”

“Ex...expert? No way. No way!”

The crowd from Yunhuang World looked in the direction of the Eldritch World. They were shaking in fear and disbelief.

Xiao Chengfeng smiled coldly, “Ha-ha, yeah. Today’s the expert’s wedding day. You’re all so brave to pick this day to challenge us. Who gave you the permission?”

Vroom!

The crowd from Yunhuang World shook. They felt their organs shattering and their heads buzzing.

Meanwhile, they felt unjust and jealous. They did not feel good.

A broken world like the Eldritch World did not deserve such treats from an expert of this level! They got really lucky!

This was so unfair!

They did not want to give in!

Wa...what did the Yunhuang World do wrong? They wanted some love as well!

Meanwhile, they felt Blackie’s eyes on them. They felt chills with sweat all over. Their scalps felt empty.

The bald man felt soft and said in fear, "Lord...Lord Dog, we've learned our mistake. We're silly, we're idiots! Please don't be like us!"

"One scratch!"

Blackie said coldly. Although it was now half bald, the other half of its dog fur was flowing in the air. It was dark and glowing, looking very soft.

"My anger needs someone to withstand. I will give one scratch, if you can hold it...you may live!"

With that said, its paw gradually lifted and went forward.

"Vroom!"

A gigantic dog paw phantom gathered. Like a bulldozer, it crashed toward the Yunhuang World crowd!

This paw slowly gathered in the air. It was Blackie's paw but countless times bigger. It was all over the place and powerful as it went forward!

This paw was too scary! It was not something anyone could withstand! The powerful Qi had overwhelmed everyone in this world!

This scene was similar to the meteorite crashing down earlier.

However the target was now different.

The crowd from Yunhuang World were shocked. They were wildly preparing their power, trying to use up all of their power. They held nothing back and used up all of the power. They merely wanted to live.

The paw pushed over and crushed everyone below it. quickly, the crowd was pushed away and vanished in the deep end of the Chaos. Livelihood unknown.

The crowd from the Eldritch World watched and could not help pursing their lips. There were six Chaos Daluo Golden Immortals among them. They were just like toys in front of Lord Dog!

“Blackie, you’re bald! You’re stronger now!”

Xiao Bai looked at Blackie and said, “I feel that whenever you want to get angry, you can shout: I’m turning bald, step aside! Ha-ha-ha, what a sight!”

Blackie remained its cold dog face and looked away. It looked serious as it pretended to hear nothing.

Two bigshots’ conversation was not something the crowd could get involved in. They pretended to have heard nothing and knew nothing. They were innocent.

They had to stay alive.

Feeling that Xiao Bai was approaching them, they straightened their faces with their hearts pumping rapidly. They were very nervous.

Nuwa said sincerely, she thanked, “Thank you Lord Xiao Bai for saving our lives.”

Xiao Bai said, “You’re all my guests. Of course I should give you an ideal dining experience. This is the bare minimum of being a chef.”

Jade Empress asked in a small voice with disbelief, “Lord Xiao Bai, you came over to ask us to...eat?”

“Exactly.” Xiao Bai nodded, “They distracted my guests from eating. This was disrespectful to my dishes. This is a deadly crime!”

Jade Emperor and the rest exchanged a look. they could not help smiling bitterly.

The three Realm Cultivators died so wrongfully. If they knew they were killed because of a meka, they would be so angry that they might even revive...

Xiao Bai pestered, "Hurry, the new dishes are ready. Don't waste them."

The crowd jolted. They were very cautious.

"Oh, now, now!"

"Lord Xiao Bai, don't worry. The dishes are our lives! We will rush back right away!"

"Waste? That doesn't exist! Do you need us to eat the plates as well? To be honest with you, it's my forte!"

...

At the same time.

Somewhere in the Chaos Ocean.

It was pitch dark here. Looking from the outside, it looked like a massive black swirling hole. It was full of all kinds of danger. It was giving out a powerful Qi.

A pair of eyes made of purple flames jolted open. It contained unlimited deadly Qi as its voice was powerfully heard, "Some senior members are dead. Find out what happened!"

Another pair of golden eyes lit up. It was so elegant that anyone would want to worship it, "Three senior members are dead all at once? What energy in the Chaos could do so? This is strange, very strange and interesting..."

Chapter 520: A World War, A Changing World

“Hwa-la-la!”

In the Eldritch World, the rain did not stop.

Jade Emperor and the rest returned for the Chaos with mixed feelings. They felt the changes in the world and felt emotional.

This was a familiar world and now it seemed foreign. They could feel the world moving, growing, expanding and strengthening!

The Absolute Era had completely vanished. The Immortal Realm and Ordinary Realm merged into one. There was no need to immortalize anymore. The originally broken world was now complete. It was even stronger than before. It was filled with even more possibilities!

Let alone the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal, it was now possible to cultivate into a Realm Cultivator here!

This was a boundless world! Meanwhile, they had a feeling.

This Eldritch World had changed so much. Even though they could not tell now, the elements were now different from the original world.

Jade Emperor and Nuwa had survived since the Ancient Times. Of course they knew that the world had the ideal conditions now just like new. It had the potential to create many opportunities. Of course, this world was way more advanced than the world back in Ancient Times.

Yun Shu felt the dense Immortal Qi in this world and the laws engraved in the air. She could not help saying, “Sister Nuwa, do you remember the Area of Gods I told you about?”

Nuwa's face straightened, "Sister Yun Shu, are you saying that the expert is creating an Area of Gods?"

"I'm not sure," Yun Shu shook her head, she continued, "However, based on these conditions, they were way beyond the standard worlds. I feel like only an Area of Gods is good enough for it."

The two took in a deep breath. They went wild.

They were discussing this Area of Gods not long ago, and now...they experienced the expert creating one! He even built it upon the Eldritch World and turned it into an Area of Gods. This was...magical! Like a dream!

"Sister Nuwa, if this is an Area of Gods, we have to be ready." Yun Shu said with a serious face. She said with concern, "Perhaps...in no time, there will be a World War!"

In the Chaos, there are powerful beings from different worlds looking for an Area of Gods. They hope to get opportunities from it in order to further develop.

And here, it was not only an Area of Gods, it was a newly formed Area of Gods. It was very attractive. If anyone found out the location of the Eldritch World, countless powerful beings would come over. By then, they would fight all over for the treasures and opportunities. Thus a World War would begin!

"I understand that." Nuwa nodded and her face straightened. She clenched her fists, "However...this is the Eldritch World, this is awarded to us by the expert. We have to cultivate well, so even if there is war, we can guard this place well and prevent anyone from disturbing the expert!"

"Empress is right!" Jade Emperor nodded, he paused and started thinking, "The expert's cultivation is way beyond our grasp. He could even create an Area of Gods. Do you think the expert is intentionally making this land more interesting?"

"Jade Emperor is right. I feel that the changes in the Eldritch World are both an opportunity and test!" Jade Empress said, "A figure like the expert is merely playing around the world. He does as he pleases. Of course he would make some challenges as he gets bored. The expert is likely looking forward to a World War. The only thing we must do is to not let him down while making the most out of it!"

“Yeah, the expert has given us so many opportunities. If we can’t do this, it won’t make sense. Anyway, we have to work hard!”

“Here’s to keeping our land and finding more opportunities. It’s time to build our strength!”

As everyone was discussing, they had gone back to the Heavenly Temple.

However, they saw that the Heavenly Temple was now five times bigger than how it used to be. The original architecture had been upgraded. The surrounding rivers were more grand and luxurious. There seemed to be a glow from within.

The sky was sparkling and clouds were everywhere. There was a sacred light glowing. Each tile did not seem very different but the crowd could feel that the materials had improved greatly.

In other words, they had levelled up!

This made sense. If the Heavenly Temple still looked the same, it would not look presentable at all. Furthermore, there was the Deluxe Merit Palace inside the Heavenly Temple, it was where the expert lived!

The Immortals and Gods were grinning ear to ear. The others were jealous and envious, “I wonder when my accommodation will turn out like this.”

Black and White Impermanence thought about their Underworld, the sea races thought about their ocean. They wanted to get back right away to have a look!

On the next day.

A brand new world.

A brand new day.

The sun was shining brightly and warmly. It was bringing lights to the world.

Inside the wedding room of the Four-part Architecture.

Li Nianfan looked at Daji and Fire Phoenix who were on each of his sides, he felt warmth and softness from them. He could not help smiling.

He gradually sat up, looking at the two of them closely.

They were like the flowers after rain, so gentle and delicate.

“I’m so blessed to be able to marry two stunning ladies like them. They’re Immortals! I’m having the time of my life! How nice!”

He could not help recalling last night. It was worth remembering. He was stunned by how powerful the manual was.

They followed closely to the manual. In the beginning, it was embarrassing and shameful. The three of them were awkward and made one wonder whether to laugh or cry. However, it was a new experience worth remembering for the rest of his life.

However, what pleased Li Nianfan the most was the efficiency of the moves. It gave him pleasure while maintaining his dignity.

Meanwhile, he saw Daji’s long eyelashes moving. His lips curled up with a naughty smile.

He looked at Daji’s delicate, fair and soft feet. He reached out to tickle them.

He found out last night that Daji was ticklish, especially feet tickles. She was so intimidated by it.

Her delicate feet halted and curled up. Following that, Daji could no longer hold it. She moaned and curled up her feet. She blushed and sat up, "Mr. Li, you're so naughty."

Li Nianfan smiled, "Daji, you're naughty. You're pretending to be asleep. And you, Fire Phoenix, if you don't wake up I'm going to pull your ears."

As expected, Fire Phoenix who had her eyes closed instantly opened her eyes like a frightened deer. She quickly covered her ears.

She blushed, "Mr. Li, let us help you get up."

Soon, the three of them put on clothes and walked out of the room.

Meanwhile, Xiao Bai walked over and said, "My lovely master, Xiao Bai has prepared you with the most nutritious breakfast. Soy, Dough Sticks and eggs."

"Thank you, Xiao Bai."

Li Nianfan nodded and focused on his surroundings. He felt something was different.

Swiftly after, his pupils dilated as he called out with disbelief, "Xiao bai, is our four-part architecture bigger?"

"Yes, my master. With my careful calculation, our front yard is five times bigger, our inner yard is three point two times bigger. The backyard is five point three times bigger!"

They got bigger!

No wonder the setting was still the same but it felt different. So there was more space now!

"Wait, even the mountain got bigger?"

Li Nianfan was shocked. He brought Daji and Fire Phoenix to fly up in the air to look over the world.

As they rose up, they saw more. Li Nianfan was very shocked.

What was it?

Everything seemed the same but different! The obvious difference was the size. Many things had gone bigger and more prosperous. Even on this mountain, it seemed to have grown taller?

Luckily he could fly now. in the past, it would have been exhausting to go out...

The backyard as well. There were already many plants planted. The decoration was perfect. Suddenly, there was more space now and it seemed empty.

Most importantly...where was the Fallen Town?

Why was it no longer in sight? Was the distance so big now?

He merely slept for a night. What happened?

He transgressed? Has the world changed?

Li Nianfan asked, "Daji, did you two hear the thunder and rain last night?"

"Mr. Li, of course we heard it." Daji and Fire Phoenix flushed red.

The rain was loud last night. However, the three of them were busy, they did not care.

As for the changes in the world, Daji and Fire Phoenix had guessed it. However, seeing that Li Nianfan was looking shocked, they understood it. Of course they acted along to look shocked.

They were good actresses.

“Whoosh!”

Meanwhile, a wild wind blew by with a cold Qi.

“Ha-ha-ha, the sky is taking care of me. I’m about to get undefeatable!”

An arrogant voice was heard ringing. Following that, the space shook up and a gigantic rhino was walking in the air. It was running energetically in the air, causing a tornado.

It was very strong. One could see its body growing bigger. It was like a rockery with hatred and violence in its eyes. It was growling, “I feel so strong now, I want to fight ten!”

It was very excited and wild. As it was growing wildly, it saw the three people in the air. It rushed forward wildly.

“Three pitiable small worms. Be good and turn it into my food.”

Daji’s face turned cold like the chilliest and most arrogant goddess. She raised her fair hand and pointed at the rhino.

“Crack!”

A layer of frost covered over the rhino. The frost expanded throughout its body instantly.

The rhino demon felt its movement getting slower, its speed dropping until it could no longer move. The chill was bone-stabbing when it finally reacted. It had turned into an ice stick.

The rhino demon blinked and looked perplexed.

As it was about to die, there was a nonchalant voice coming from its ears, “The rhino is quite cold but it’s okay. It’s in front of us now, we bring it home and ask Xiao Bai to sort it out...”
