

Bigshot 631

Chapter 631: The Backer of Shengshi Technology

"It seems that the boss behind Shengshi Technology is not simple. He must have a very strong backer."

"I think so too. After all, to develop an all-intelligent game in just four to five months and even destroy a company like Long Yue Technology, which has been developing in H City for more than ten years, is not something that an ordinary person can do."

"Could the person behind Shengshi Technology be the young master of a wealthy family or something?"

The more they talked, the more they felt that Shengshi Technology's background was not simple.

Very few people dared to provoke them.

If Qin Sheng heard their words, she would definitely have a headache.

This Song Cheng was invited by Fu Hanchuan. He had promised Qin Sheng that he would keep a low profile.

However, the lawyer he had invited had still caused such a stir.

But to Fu Hanchuan, this was indeed a much lower profile. After all, his initial idea was to invite someone else over. That was the number one lawyer in the country and one of the top five lawyers in the international rankings.

Song Cheng and Hong Yuan had already approached. They could not be bothered to discuss it anymore.

They went up one after another to ask.

"Lawyer Song, didn't you say that you don't accept external cases? Why did you accept Shengshi Technology's case?"

Song Cheng said, "I've received a favor from someone. I won't reject his request."

A reporter became interested and asked, "Who is this person?"

Song Cheng smiled. "I don't need to answer that, right?"

That reporter could only stop.

Another reporter asked, "As the plaintiff, Shengshi Technology, I wonder what kind of compensation do you plan to get Long Yue Technology to make?"

Hong Yuan replied, "No less than 100 million."

Hearing that, those reporters were stunned on the spot. They did not expect Shengshi Technology to have such a huge appetite.

They felt that Shengshi Technology could not even get 50 million in compensation, let alone 100 million.

"What are your chances of winning this huge amount of compensation?" the reporter asked.

Song Cheng's eyes were filled with confidence. He answered, "99% chance."

Hearing his answer, the reporter was happy.

Whether Shengshi Technology could get this amount of compensation or not, she could get a big piece of news.

Hong Yuan and Song Cheng did not answer their questions anymore. They went to the plaintiff's seat.

"Who is Song Cheng?" Fang Xuelin asked with a frown.

Jiang Tian had been concentrating on organizing the documents just now and did not notice the commotion caused by Song Cheng and Hong Yuan's arrival.

Normally, Jiang Tian would pay attention to the lawyer who was competing with him before the court session so that he could come up with a better response.

However, at this moment...

He really looked down on the lawyers from H City and felt that it did not matter who the other party was.

Hearing this, Jiang Tian replied, "That's the fifth-ranked lawyer in the country. He's very powerful. Whoever goes up against him will basically be in big trouble. He's one of the lawyers I admire. Even I don't dare to go up against him."

Fang Xuelin's face was ashen.

Jiang Tian was very puzzled. He looked up and asked, "Chairman Fang, why are you suddenly asking about him?"

Fang Xuelin raised his hand and pointed in the direction of Hong Yuan and Song Cheng.

There was a sense of helplessness in his voice. "Is he Song Cheng?"

Jiang Tian frowned. "Song Cheng? How is that possible? Song Cheng only takes cases from Imperial Capital. It's impossible for him to come to such a small place. Moreover, how can a mere Shengshi Technology invite him?"

Jiang Tian did not believe that Song Cheng would come to H City to help Shengshi Technology. He felt that Fang Xuelin had mistaken him for someone else.

Heart no longer believing it, Jiang Tian looked along the direction pointed by Fang Xuelin.

Chapter 632: Long Yue Technology's Crushing Defeat

When he saw this, Jiang Tian was stunned on the spot.

His eyes widened in disbelief.

Song Cheng!

It really was him!!

He really came to H City!!!

When Fang Xuelin saw Jiang Tian's reaction, he felt that there was even less hope for him.

Jiang Tian retracted his gaze. Cold sweat was breaking out on his forehead.

He did not expect that he would one day face off against Song Cheng.

Moreover, there were so many media reporters today. If they were to be shown on television, it would have a negative impact on him.

Jiang Tian really wanted to leave the scene just like that.

But he could not.

Jiang Tian wiped the sweat off his forehead. He turned to face Fang Xuelin and could not even speak clearly. "Chairman Fang, I take back what I said before. I can only say that I will do my best."

The other party had Song Cheng as a lawyer.

In addition, they had enough evidence to deal with Long Yue Technology. Even if Long Yue Technology didn't die, they would lose a layer of skin.

Fang Xuelin was flustered.

He scolded in a low voice, "Didn't you say that you're very capable? What's going on now?"

Jiang Tian was unhappy. "It would be fine if it was another lawyer, but this is Song Cheng, the fifth-ranked lawyer. How can I compete with him? If you have the ability, go and hire the top four lawyers in the country!"

Fang Xuelin was also aware of this, but his expression was still very bad.

He also knew that offending Jiang Tian at this time was a very unwise move.

He could only endure it.

At this time, the court had not yet started. Jiang Tian looked around, then stood up and went over to Song Cheng's side.

When Fang Xuelin saw Jiang Tian go over to look for Song Cheng, his expression became even more unsightly.

Jiang Tian said very respectfully, "Lawyer Song, I admire you very much. I didn't think that one day I would have to face you."

Song Cheng was organizing his documents and did not pay attention to Jiang Tian.

Jiang Tian's expression froze, then he introduced himself. "My name is Jiang Tian, and I'm also from Imperial Capital. I'll do my best in this case. I only hope that Lawyer Song will leave me some face. After all, there are so many reporters here."

Song Cheng finally raised his eyes to look at him.

His voice was very flat. "I'll fight for the benefits that should be fought for for Shengshi Technology. In court, there's no such thing as showing mercy."

Jiang Tian was displeased, but on the surface, he did not dare to offend Song Cheng. He could only reply, "Indeed, you can't show mercy. Lawyer Song is right to teach me a lesson."

He was met with a nose full of dust by Song Cheng.

Jiang Tian did not stay any longer. He returned to his seat.

Fang Xuelin sneered, "What? You went to look for Song Cheng? You're the defendant's lawyer, but you went to look for the plaintiff's lawyer?"

Jiang Tian could not be angry at Song Cheng. At this moment, he heard Fang Xuelin say this.

He also sneered, "Chairman Fang, don't be so weird with me. We're only in a partnership. If I deliberately don't defend you later, you won't be able to stand up to me."

Fang Xuelin shut his mouth.

The court session soon began.

Long Yue Technology did not have any evidence to exonerate them. Jiang Tian could only try his best to find the legal provisions that would reduce Long Yue Technology's losses.

As for Shengshi Technology, they had enough evidence and Song Cheng's help.

This time, Long Yue Technology had undoubtedly suffered a crushing defeat in the lawsuit!

As long as Jiang Tian defended Long Yue Technology, Song Cheng would find a reason to reject it.

Song Cheng's logic was very clear, reasonable, and without any flaws.

Jiang Tian racked his brain, but he was unable to say anything to refute it.

Shengshi Technology was completely crushing Long Yue Technology.

In the end, Jiang Tian was dealt a terrible blow and gave up defending.

Chapter 633: Went To Look For Fang Xuelin

Fang Xuelin's expression could no longer be described as ugly.

The judge left the court and after a round of discussion, he returned to the court and announced the results.

"Special judgment, Long Yue Technology will compensate Shengshi Technology's losses, 110 million."

"In addition, Long Yue Technology's illegal operation and illegal theft of other companies' secrets constitute a serious violation of the law. From tomorrow onwards, the investigation of Long Yue Technology will be carried out. If you are dissatisfied with the court's verdict, you can file a new lawsuit."

Fang Xuelin collapsed on the chair. His face was so pale that there was almost no trace of blood.

Hong Yuan looked in Fang Xuelin's direction and then nodded. "Lawyer Song, thank you for fighting for such a big benefit for Shengshi Technology."

Song Cheng said faintly, "You have a lot of evidence in your hands. If it were another lawyer, as long as they are a little famous, the benefits you will receive will not be small. You don't need to look for me for such a small matter, right?"

"Don't you know? I got carsick and rushed from Imperial to H City. I vomited all the way."

Because of carsickness, Song Cheng almost never took cases outside Imperial Capital.

If it weren't for Fu Hanchuan, he wouldn't have come.

Thinking of Fu Hanchuan gave Song Cheng a terrible headache.

He kept feeling that once he started, he would have a lot of things to do in the future.

Hong Yuan smiled. "How can that be? It's very difficult for other lawyers to get more than 100 million yuan in compensation. This is all thanks to you, Lawyer Song."

Song Cheng knew that Hong Yuan was just being polite.

He did not want to stay any longer. "I'll go back after the matter is settled. Also, ask Fu Hanchuan to look for me less often."

Many reporters were looking at them 'covetously'.

However, they didn't rush forward because all the court staff hadn't left yet.

Song Cheng decisively left through the back door.

Hong Yuan was helpless and could only face the reporters' questions alone.

Fang Xuelin couldn't even stand properly.

And Jiang Tian was ridiculed by Fang Xuelin before the court session.

He didn't stay for long and wanted to leave too. When he arrived at the court, he was surrounded by a group of reporters.

Their tone was aggressive.

"Mr. Jiang, aren't you a well-known lawyer in Imperial Capital? I understand that you can't compete with Lawyer Song, but the problem is that you've been at a disadvantage all this time and haven't fought for any benefits for Long Yue Technology. Isn't this a little dereliction of duty? You're not worthy of your title as a well-known lawyer."

Jiang Tian knew that the lawsuit today would be a great loss to his reputation, so he could only minimize this loss.

Jiang Tian replied, "You all know about Long Yue Technology. It's very difficult, and all the things that they have done are untenable. In addition, with Lawyer Song around, you all know his strength. It's understandable that I can't hold on."

He only wanted to leave right now.

Thus, he said, "I still have things to do. If you want to understand the rest, go and look for Chairman Fang."

As he said that, he pointed at Fang Xuelin, who was almost at the door.

Fang Xuelin's back stiffened.

His hands, which were hanging by his side, slowly tightened.

He did not expect that Jiang Tian would lure the reporters over.

At this time, it was too late for Fang Xuelin to leave because all the reporters had swarmed over. After all, Jiang Tian had nothing to ask.

"Chairman Fang, the company has been seized. There should be a lot of assets under your name, right? Are you planning to start another company?"

"Chairman Fang, are you planning to sue again?"

Chapter 634: Published the Story

"Chairman Fang, Shengshi Technology has obtained more than 100 million yuan in funding. I'm afraid that it will stand at another height. Long Yue Technology was destroyed by Shengshi Technology. What do you think about this?"

"Your reputation is basically gone now. If you were to consider setting up a company, the customers and those companies wouldn't believe you, right? How would you respond to this?"

"..."

The reporters' questions came one after another.

Fang Xuelin's mind was buzzing. He could no longer hear the reporters' questions clearly.

"Get lost," Fang Xuelin roared with a ferocious expression.

Those reporters were stunned. They had never expected Fang Xuelin to have such a reaction.

Fang Xuelin was surrounded by the reporters.

His eyes were scarlet. He pushed the two reporters aside and rushed out.

Fang Xuelin only calmed down when he came outside.

His heart was filled with hatred. He had never thought that things would develop to such a state.

The one who went bankrupt should have been Shengshi Technology, not his company, Long Yue Technology!

Things should not have developed like this!

Fang Xuelin's body turned cold.

He only knew now that he was completely finished.

The company was gone, and the money was gone.

If he wanted to start a company again in the future, there was no hope. After all, his reputation was gone, and no one would believe him anymore.

Long Yue Technology had gotten what it deserved, and it was finally over.

On this day, Old Master Lu called and asked Fu Hanchuan to bring Qin Sheng to the Lu Residence for a reunion.

Qin Sheng had not been to the Lu Residence for a week.

Old Master Lu had come once.

It was rare that Fu Hanchuan did not refuse.

Before she left, Qin Sheng received a call from a stranger.

Qin Sheng frowned and looked up at Fu Hanchuan.

“Brother Fu, I need to take a call.”

“Okay.” Fu Hanchuan nodded.

Qin Sheng did not leave. She picked up the call in front of Fu Hanchuan.

“Hello, is this Qin Sheng, Miss Qin?” A woman’s voice came from the phone.

Qin Sheng’s voice was very faint. “Yes.”

The woman obviously heaved a sigh of relief. “Miss Qin, I’ve finally found you. It’s like this. This is Dijiang Media. We’ve taken a fancy to a short story that you published in a magazine three years ago and want to make it into a movie. If you’re interested, we can talk about it in detail.”

Qin Sheng had nothing to do recently, so she submitted an article to a magazine.

She also used her previous pseudonym, Sheng.

That was why Dijiang Media had called her.

When she heard this, Qin Sheng rejected without hesitation. “I’m not interested.”

She didn’t even say a polite word.

The woman choked for a moment before continuing to persuade her. “Miss Qin, the price is negotiable. You can raise any conditions.”

Qin Sheng’s attitude was firm. “No need, thank you.”

She hung up the phone.

In the past, Qin Sheng would have agreed to this condition of hers because she was short of money.

But now that she had a billion yuan in her hands, she was not interested in that little bit of copyright fee. Furthermore, she was prepared to start an entertainment company, film a movie, and train a few celebrities.

She was prepared to adapt her novel into a script for the company to use.

Qin Sheng was confident in her novel.

Qin Sheng and the woman's voices were not soft, so Fu Hanchuan listened to them reluctantly.

Fu Hanchuan was very surprised. "Sheng Sheng, you published a story in a magazine?"

Qin Sheng did not hide anything. "Yes. At that time, the Feng family did not give me money. I could only earn my living expenses and tuition fees by serializing a novel in a magazine."

Chapter 635: Would Definitely Be a Huge Hit

Qin Sheng had only published three short stories in Qingyun Magazine.

All of them were popular.

Just the royalties alone were more than 200,000 yuan.

200,000 yuan was considered a very high level a few years ago.

Qingyun Magazine wanted to contact Qin Sheng to continue publishing, but Qin Sheng did not agree.

Although they offered a very high price, Qin Sheng still rejected it.

At that time, Qin Sheng only wanted to earn some living expenses and tuition fees to serialize short stories. Since she had money, she would not waste time writing.

After the college entrance examination, Qin Sheng glanced at the more popular types of novels.

Only then did she write an article for Qingyun Magazine.

Without a doubt, the quality of the novels written by Qin Sheng was top-notch.

The editor of Qingyun Magazine could tell at a glance that this novel with less than 50,000 words would definitely become popular!

She was an old editor.

She had been there since the first time Qin Sheng submitted an article.

She was very curious. Who could write such a novel?

She looked at the pen name. Sheng?

The editor felt that this name was very familiar. Suddenly, she frowned and quickly looked up a short story that was also written by Sheng a few days ago on the computer.

As expected, the writing style of the two novels was similar.

It was Sheng!

That genius girl.

This editor was in charge of Qin Sheng's manuscript. She had met Qin Sheng before, so she had a deep memory of Qin Sheng.

After all, Qin Sheng was only 14 years old when she first submitted her manuscript.

She was sure that it was Qin Sheng's first time writing a novel.

Even so, that novel was very popular. Many people bought magazines because of that novel. In that month, even the sales of the magazine had increased several times.

Two years passed, and Qin Sheng wrote another one.

Because she had written one before, this one was even more outstanding now that she had experience.

Qin Sheng's royalties for the entire novel also reached 150,000 yuan.

Qingyun Magazine saw the value of Qin Sheng and wanted Qin Sheng to write more, offering a high price.

The editor even specially went to look for Qin Sheng.

After much persuasion, Qin Sheng still refused. Later, after looking for her a few times, the editor gave up.

Who would have thought that after three years, Qin Sheng would still submit an article?

The editor could not help but stand up from her seat and run straight to the chief editor of Qingyun Magazine.

"Chief Editor, do you still remember Sheng?"

"Sheng?" The chief editor frowned. She tried hard to recall and finally remembered. "Sheng, who wrote a short story three years ago and was very popular?"

"Yes." The editor nodded.

The chief editor frowned. "Didn't she stop writing? Why is she suddenly mentioned?"

The editor looked excited. "She came to submit another story."

"What?" The chief editor was very surprised. She did not expect Qin Sheng to submit another article to Qingyun Magazine.

However, she quickly calmed down.

She frowned. "Sheng should have not written a novel for three years. It is inevitable that she will be unfamiliar with it. Moreover, the audience of novels is completely different from three years ago. Her novel this time is probably not as stunning as before."

The chief editor's tone was a little regretful.

Qin Sheng was very talented in writing. She was a good seedling. If she continued to write like this, she would probably have a lot of achievements in the future.

However, Qin Sheng's mind was not on this.

The editor immediately refuted the chief editor's words. "No, Qin Sheng's novel is completely in line with the tastes of these people now. Moreover, it's very innovative. I dare guarantee that if it were to be released, it would definitely be a big hit!"

Chapter 636: Buy the Movie Rights

The editor said confidently, and then she said, "Chief Editor, I'm sending you the manuscript now."

She turned on her phone and sent the manuscript that she had downloaded earlier to the chief editor through Penguin.

When the chief editor heard her say this, she was also interested.

She opened it and looked at it.

She originally wanted to casually look at it, but she did not expect that after reading the first chapter, she would be completely immersed in the novel.

For a moment, she forgot that there was another editor in the office.

When the editor saw that the chief editor had the same reaction as her, she smiled and quietly waited for the chief editor to finish reading it.

Currently, there were only 10,000 words of the novel, but the chief editor had read it for half an hour.

In the end, she still wanted to continue reading and scroll down.

The document was indeed blank.

The editor raised her eyebrows and asked, "How is this novel? Will it explode?"

The chief editor was so excited that her hands were trembling, "Explode, it will definitely explode! Push the novel for me immediately and print the first 5,000 words of this novel on the first page of the magazine. In addition, contact Sheng and ask her to send the rest of the manuscript over."

In the past few years, fewer people had bought magazines, and they had also built quite a few new magazines.

The competition was getting stronger and stronger.

Qingyun Magazine had been going downhill.

They had received fewer good articles.

The chief editor was worried about the articles for the past few weeks. She did not expect Qin Sheng to submit them at this critical moment.

With this article, Qingyun Magazine could hold on for a while.

“Okay, I’ll make the arrangements right away. Chief Editor, if there’s nothing else, I’ll leave first.”

“Go ahead.” The chief editor could not wait any longer. She reminded her worriedly, “Remember to contact Sheng.”

Qingyun Magazine ordered for urgent processing. Of course, they printed the 5,000-word novel on the front page.

In less than two weeks, the sales volume of Qingyun Magazine had increased tenfold, breaking through two million copies. This number was still increasing at an alarming rate.

Most of the sales were for Qin Sheng’s novels.

Dijiang Media had also discovered that Qin Sheng’s novels were being serialized.

They had sent people to Qingyun Magazine to ask for Qin Sheng’s contact information.

This was because four months ago, Dijiang Media had sent people to say that they had taken a liking to Qin Sheng’s novels and wanted to buy the movie rights. Qingyun Magazine also wanted to adapt the novel into a movie, which was a very good choice for Qin Sheng.

However, Qin Sheng had already transferred schools, and they didn’t have Qin Sheng’s cell phone number, so this matter could only be dropped.

At this moment, Qin Sheng had already left her cell phone number for their magazine, and they had given Qin Sheng’s cell phone number to Dijiang Media without saying a word.

Hence, the act of Dijiang Media contacting Qin Sheng.

Earning her own living expenses...

Three years ago, Qin Sheng was only 15 years old.

Fu Hanchuan’s heart was filled with endless pain.

Although he had been earning his living expenses by various means since he was young, Fu Hanchuan could not help but feel sorry for Qin Sheng when he thought about it.

It was not that Old Master Lu did not give Fu Hanchuan money, it was just that Fu Hanchuan did not want it.

“Sheng Sheng.”

Fu Hanchuan could not help but pull Qin Sheng into his arms.

His voice trembled slightly. “I’m sorry. I couldn’t participate in your previous life and have you suffer less.”

Qin Sheng could feel Fu Hanchuan’s guilt.

She put her arm around Fu Hanchuan’s waist. “Brother Fu, I’m fine. The Feng family’s experiences are nothing to me.”

Fu Hanchuan’s face was buried in Qin Sheng’s neck. He hugged Qin Sheng very tightly.

“Sheng Sheng, I will protect you well in the future.”

Chapter 637: You Two Are Together?

Qin Sheng comforted Fu Hanchuan as she listened to Fu Hanchuan’s strong heartbeat. “Brother Fu, I believe in you.”

Fu Hanchuan did not let go of Qin Sheng.

After a while, he finally calmed down.

However, when he walked out of the villa, he held onto Qin Sheng the entire time. Their fingers were interlocked.

Only when they got into the car and Fu Hanchuan had to drive did he let go of Qin Sheng.

There was silence all the way.

After getting out of the car, Fu Hanchuan held Qin Sheng’s hand again.

Qin Sheng glanced at the villa. She was too embarrassed to let Old Master Lu and Lu Ming see her and Fu Hanchuan being so intimate.

However, because of Fu Hanchuan’s abnormal mood just now, Qin Sheng swallowed her words just like that.

She let Fu Hanchuan hold her hand as they walked into the Lu Residence.

The sound of footsteps could be heard from the door.

Old Master Lu knew that it was Qin Sheng.

He walked over quickly.

“Sheng Sheng...”

He suddenly stopped what he was about to say.

Old Master Lu’s eyes were fixed on the hands of Qin Sheng and Fu Hanchuan that were interlinked.

What was going on?

Why were they holding hands?

Old Master Lu’s face darkened when he thought of something.

1

He walked up and pulled Fu Hanchuan away violently.

He scolded, “Walk properly. Why are you holding hands?”

Qin Sheng’s face flushed red. She looked away uneasily.

Fu Hanchuan could not help but smile when he saw Qin Sheng's reaction. His eyes were shining with a smile.

In fact, Fu Hanchuan's mood in Fu Garden had long disappeared.

He had been upset for so long just to get closer to Qin Sheng, and he enjoyed the silent comfort that Qin Sheng gave him.

1

Another reason was that he wanted to let Old Master Lu know that they had established a relationship.

He did not forget that Old Master Lu had been trying to stop them from being together.

In the living room.

Fu Hanchuan and Qin Sheng were sitting together.

Old Master Lu's expression was very unpleasant. He had always had a thought in his heart.

He could not hold it in any longer, so he asked, "You two are together?"

Qin Sheng lowered her eyes and did not answer.

Fu Hanchuan calmly nodded. "Yes."

This answer made Old Master Lu so angry that he blew his beard and stared straight at him. "Sheng Sheng just finished her college entrance examination and is only eighteen years old. How dare you lay your hands on Sheng Sheng?"

Old Master Lu was angry.

Qin Sheng had low EQ and did not understand easily when it came to relationships.

He had thought that the two of them would not be together at least until Qin Sheng was in her second year of college.

But now, less than two months after Qin Sheng finished her college entrance exam, Fu Hanchuan, this stinky pig, had snatched her up.

Old Master Lu was very upset and frustrated.

Fu Hanchuan poured himself a cup of tea and said with a smile in his voice, "Sheng Sheng has finished her college entrance exam and can start dating."

Old Master Lu glared at him. "Then you're really fast."

The more he looked at Fu Hanchuan, the more he disliked him. He disliked him even more than he disliked Lu Ming.

He regretted it once again. Why did he let Fu Hanchuan meet Qin Sheng so early in the beginning?

At this moment, Qin Sheng opened her mouth. "Grandpa Lu, I was willing to be with Brother Fu."

Old Master Lu's tone was sour. "You just confirmed your relationship, and you're already protecting him."

He felt uncomfortable, but there was nothing he could do. He couldn't let the two of them separate, right?

Old Master Lu warned Fu Hanchuan, "I don't care if the two of you fall in love. However, Fu Hanchuan, you have to be careful with your boundaries. Sheng Sheng is still young, and there are some things that you must not do until you're married. Do you understand?"

Chapter 638: Single Dogs Don't Understand

Old Master Lu said it clearly. It was very obvious.

Even though Qin Sheng rarely knew about this aspect, she could tell.

Her face was very red, and even her ears were completely red.

When Fu Hanchuan saw this, the smile on his lips deepened.

Old Master Lu knocked Fu Hanchuan with his walking stick and berated, "Did you hear that?"

Fu Hanchuan nodded and replied, "Yes."

Old Master Lu turned to Qin Sheng again. "Sheng Sheng, Hanchuan is a scheming person. You're innocent, so it's understandable that you were abducted by him earlier. However, you have to be careful. You can't let him get his way. A girl has to love herself, do you understand?"

Qin Sheng lowered her head and agreed. Then, she softly replied, "Yes."

Old Master Lu was satisfied. Who knew...

She added, "Brother Fu will be careful."

Qin Sheng understood that Fu Hanchuan would never do anything to hurt her.

Fu Hanchuan was patient enough for her.

Old Master Lu almost had a heart attack from Qin Sheng's words. If Qin Sheng had not said those words, he would definitely have hit Fu Hanchuan with his crutch.

No matter how angry he was, he could not bear to lose his temper at Qin Sheng.

He could only glare at Fu Hanchuan fiercely.

Compared to Old Master Lu's rage, Fu Hanchuan's eyes were full of smiles when he heard Qin Sheng defend him.

At this moment, Old Master Lu was waiting for him, and Fu Hanchuan looked back lightly.

The contrast between the two was very obvious.

One was so angry that he blew his beard and stared straight at Fu Hanchuan, while the other was so pleased with himself.

Old Master Lu's heart was even more stifled. He did not look at Fu Hanchuan anymore. He leaned on the sofa and closed his eyes.

Lu Ming came down from downstairs. Last night, he played games all night. It was already 11 o'clock, and he had just woken up.

Lu Ming clearly felt that something was wrong in the living room.

Qin Sheng was here. In the past, Old Master Lu would have pulled Qin Sheng and talked nonstop, and it would not be as quiet as today.

He walked over and sat down beside Old Master Lu.

He asked curiously, "Grandpa, what's wrong?"

Old Master Lu lifted his eyelids and said resentfully, "Ask him."

As he said that, he pointed in Fu Hanchuan's direction.

Thus, Lu Ming stared at Qin Sheng and Fu Hanchuan.

Qin Sheng felt very uncomfortable being stared at, so she took out her phone and turned her attention to her phone.

Even a cold person like Qin Sheng couldn't stay calm in this matter.

Lu Ming's eyes widened.

What was this?

They?

Were they together?

At first, he didn't think much of it, but the more he looked, the more he felt that there was a pink love bubble between the two of them.

Then he connected it to Old Master Lu's reaction.

Lu Ming immediately understood.

There was definitely adultery involved.

Lu Ming did not expect Fu Hanchuan to act so quickly. More importantly, Qin Sheng, who was not open to relationships, agreed so easily!

Lu Ming's mouth was wide open. He was very surprised. "Brother, Sheng Sheng, are you guys together?"

Fu Hanchuan saw Lu Ming's reaction and raised his eyebrows. "Yes."

"F*ck!" Lu Ming cursed. "Brother, you're really fast. Are you worried that Sister-in-law will run away with another man?"

Fu Hanchuan looked at him in disdain. "Love is what it is. Lu Ming, you single dog, you don't understand."

“Cough, cough,” Lu Ming coughed a few times.

He didn’t expect that one day, he would actually be despised by Fu Hanchuan in love.

Although he is single now, but...

Chapter 639: Keep Your Innocence

Lu Ming retorted righteously, “Brother, I had four girlfriends when I was young, and right now, you only have Sheng Sheng as your girlfriend. Usually, you don’t even have a female mosquito by your side. How dare you criticize me?”

Fu Hanchuan calmly took a sip of tea.

Hearing this, his hand that was holding the teacup paused. Then, he smiled. “You changed girlfriends in less than a week. It’s just child’s play.”

Lu Ming choked. He did not refute this.

At that time, he did not know anything. He saw that the boys and girls in the class paired up.

Lu Ming thought that he could not fall behind, so he also found a girlfriend.

This novelty would not last for a week.

If he did not like it, he would change it.

Later, he felt that it was no longer interesting, so he did not have a girlfriend anymore.

If this was not playing house, what else could it be?

Fu Hanchuan said again, “I have always been waiting for Sheng Sheng with my innocence. I’m not as reckless as you.”

Lu Ming: “...”

When did his brother become so flirtatious?

Moreover, he had been a single dog for 23 years. Was it glorious?

Qin Sheng felt that Fu Hanchuan’s words were deliberately said for her to hear.

Her gaze was somewhat evasive.

She picked up a cup of tea and drank it, barely suppressing her wildly beating heart.

Lu Ming took a long time before he finally said, “Brother, is it really okay for you to say that?”

Fu Hanchuan glanced at him lightly. “Is there a problem?”

There was a warning in his eyes.

Lu Ming admitted defeat. “No.”

Old Master Lu saw Qin Sheng and Fu Hanchuan together, and his heart was filled with anxiety. He always felt that his beautiful cabbage had been eaten by a pig.

He really didn't want to see the two of them anymore.

Unusually, he didn't ask them to stay for lunch and chased them away.

"You guys can go back. You're all an eyesore here."

Lu Ming looked at Old Master Lu with great interest.

He couldn't help but shake his head.

He actually chased Qin Sheng away too. He had not seen this for a long time.

Although Lu Ming didn't want to see Fu Hanchuan get what he wanted so early, it was worth it to see Old Master Lu despise Qin Sheng one day.

After Qin Sheng and Fu Hanchuan left.

Lu Ming gloated, "Grandpa, your granddaughter ran away with a man."

Old Master Lu had been holding his anger in since Qin Sheng was here, so he didn't flare up.

At this moment, when he heard Lu Ming's words...

He hit Lu Ming's foot with his crutch, and it wasn't light.

Lu Ming covered his leg and screamed, "Grandpa, you're killing your own grandson."

Old Master Lu said faintly, "With a grandson like you, I'll lose half a year of my life. Murder it is."

Lu Ming replied without fear of death, "Grandpa, don't you like Sister-in-law? She abandoned you and ran away with another man. Look at how angry she made you."

Old Master Lu frowned. "This has nothing to do with Sheng Sheng. If your brother didn't make a move on Sheng Sheng, would she have run away with him?"

Lu Ming: "..."

Was he selectively blind?

If Qin Sheng didn't agree, would his brother be able to abduct her?

Lu Ming didn't want to talk anymore.

He picked up the apple and was about to stuff it into his mouth.

Old Master Lu knocked on Lu Ming's head.

Lu Ming: "Grandpa, how did I offend you this time?"

His tone was full of resentment.

Old Master Lu was very disgusted. “You only woke up at this time and didn’t even eat your meal. You’re thinking about eating fruit? Aren’t you afraid that you’ll get a stomachache and go to the hospital?”

Lu Ming was very touched. “Grandfather, I didn’t expect you to care about me.”

Old Master Lu snorted coldly. “If you were to go to the hospital, I would still have to take care of you. I don’t have the time.”

Chapter 640: Went To the Capital To Teach Painting

Lu Ming: “...”

His expression froze.

However, he forcefully convinced himself that his grandfather was not saying what he meant and was concerned about him.

Old Master Lu thought about it.

Suddenly, he slapped his thigh and stood up abruptly. “No.”

Lu Ming glanced at him and was speechless. “Grandpa, what’s wrong with you this time?”

Old Master Lu paced back and forth in the living room. He was very anxious. “If Sheng Sheng goes to Imperial University to study, Hanchuan will definitely follow her. Sheng Sheng is being stared at by this pig with bad intentions every day. I’m not at ease.”

Lu Ming played with the apple in his hand. He was very puzzled. “Grandpa, you’re going to the Imperial Capital too?”

Old Master Lu stopped in his tracks. “Yes, I’m going too. I’m going to Imperial University to teach painting.”

His voice was very determined.

Lu Ming had just poured himself a glass of water when he heard that. He spat out a mouthful of water.

He couldn’t stop choking.

“Grandpa, you’re really going to Imperial University! Are you sure that Brother will let you go?”

Old Master Lu huffed angrily. “Even if he doesn’t let me go, I have to. I’m an elder.”

Lu Ming’s eyes were filled with schadenfreude.

He was certain that Fu Hanchuan would definitely not let him go to Imperial University.

His grandfather was probably going to be disappointed this time.

Less than a month after the launch of platforms like DG, the total downloads of Three Realms had reached 400 million.

This number was also continuously growing.

Shengshi Technology was also pushed overseas to launch Three Realms because of this all-intelligent technology and all kinds of fun settings.

Soon, Three Realms also began to flow overseas.

In less than a month and a half, the global total reached more than 700 million downloads.

Without a doubt, this number was terrifying.

It was the first game in history that could develop so quickly.

Even the domestic blockbuster game, after three years of development, could not compare to the overseas downloads of Three Realms.

And this was only a month and a half.

If it continued to develop like this, it would reach two billion.

Shengshi Technology also attracted a lot of attention. Many game companies wanted to cooperate with Shengshi Technology, but they were all rejected.

After all, Shengshi Technology could solve those problems on its own.

In addition, Shengshi Technology had also developed a full-time small game, which was also popular. However, it was relatively small, with only 10 million downloads in three weeks.

Of course, 10 million was a very high number for many games.

It was just that Shengshi Technology didn't pay too much attention to this 10 million because of Three Realms.

Now, with just Three Realms alone, Shengshi Technology was earning more than 8 million a day.

The eyes of many company chairmen were red.

However, with Long Yue Technology in the front, they didn't dare to provoke Shengshi Technology.

Even Long Yue Technology, which had developed for more than ten years and had a deep foundation, could go bankrupt at any time, not to mention small companies like them.

It was only two weeks away from the start of Imperial University.

Shengshi Technology announced that they would move the company to Imperial City.

Shengshi Technology was like a stroke of the sun. It was currently the hottest company in H City, and the limelight temporarily overshadowed HD Group.

This news was naturally reported by the media.

Du Kaifeng was living in his villa. The villa was very messy, and his beard was densely packed. It could be seen that he had not shaved for a few days.

His face was also very haggard, and his whole body was emitting the smell of alcohol.

At that time, he was reading the media reports in H City.

It was all about Shengshi Technology.
