Chapter 731: Looking Down On Women

Fu Hanchuan narrowed his eyes and asked, "Who is it?"

"F," Lu Ming said angrily, "F is especially arrogant. He even insulted our Chinese people. Fish and I have both lost. Now we're just waiting for you to avenge us."

Fu Hanchuan looked at the hacker logo on Qin Sheng's computer screen and said slowly, "Your sister-in-law will help you teach him a lesson."

"Pfft..." Lu Ming spat out the water that he had just drunk. "Brother, are you saying that QS is my sister-in-law?"

Fu Hanchuan said, "Didn't you already know?"

Lu Ming was still very shocked. Although he had already guessed that Qin Sheng was QS, the impact was not as strong as when Fu Hanchuan admitted it himself.

He coughed twice and quickly pulled a tissue to wipe his mouth.

"No, Brother, when did you know that Sister-in-law is QS?" Lu Ming asked.

Fu Hanchuan did not hide anything. "When your sister-in-law moved to Fu Garden not long ago."

Lu Ming thought of the last time he was abused by Qin Sheng, and his tone was rather accusatory.

"Then, Brother, why didn't you tell me?"

If Fu Hanchuan had told him at that time that Qin Sheng was QS, would he still have rushed to find QS to compete?

No wonder his brother had also gone online when QS went online.

Lu Ming smacked his head. He was really stupid.

He should have thought of this outcome a long time ago. Other than Qin Sheng, who else would his brother care about so much?

Fu Hanchuan's thin lips spat out, "There's no need."

Lu Ming choked and thought of something.

He widened his eyes. "So, Brother, you were teasing me in Black Emperor because of Sister-in-law."

Fu Hanchuan's voice was faint. "Otherwise, what do you think? If I had listened to you and helped you, wouldn't I have offended Sheng Sheng? Moreover, you shouldn't have provoked Sheng Sheng again and again."

Lu Ming: "..."

Didn't he not know that QS was Qin Sheng?

If he knew, he wouldn't dare to find trouble with QS even if he had a hundred guts.

However, didn't he fail to teach her a lesson?

Lu Ming's tone was filled with resentment. "Brother, didn't you see the result? When have I ever won? Every time, I've been struck so hard that I doubt my life. It's fine if you don't comfort me, but instead, you're blaming me."

Fu Hanchuan's eyes flashed with a hint of a smile. "Mm, Sheng Sheng did a good job."

Lu Ming: "..."

It's over, it's over. His brother must have been charmed by Qin Sheng.

Lu Ming had shut himself off.

He wanted to hang up the phone, but Fu Hanchuan's voice was heard again. "Lu Ming, from now on, when Sheng Sheng comes on Black Emperor, you have to be more lenient with her."

Lu Ming: "..."

He was speechless again.

Asking him to be lenient with Qin Sheng, wasn't this a joke?

That pervert Qin Sheng, perhaps only his brother could compare to her. Who could teach her a lesson?

It was already good enough that she didn't provoke others.

Lu Ming didn't want to continue talking to Fu Hanchuan, so he directly hung up the phone. His expression was very ugly. It was obvious that he had been dealt a blow.

He took a few deep breaths and told himself that this was his brother whom he had admired since he was young. He couldn't be angry.

Over here, Fu Hanchuan also put away his phone.

F's hacker profile picture lit up. He was online.

Fu Hanchuan sent a message to Qin Sheng. [Sheng Sheng, good luck.]

Qin Sheng quickly replied, [En.]

F saw QS and frowned.

QS was currently the number one existence on the Black Emperor Forum. He had specifically looked for QS posts on the Black Emperor Forum. He had some understanding of QS.

He also knew that QS was a girl.

He had always looked down on girls. He felt that communicating with girls was an insult to him, not to mention competing with QS.

Chapter 732: Get Out of Black Emperor

He quickly typed on the computer keyboard. [I don't compete with women. Call C over.]

Qin Sheng narrowed her eyes and replied, [I'll compete with you. You can't compete with C unless you can beat me.]

There was disdain and mockery in the lines of the F's. [Hiding behind a woman and being a coward, this is the man of your country!]

Fu Hanchuan saw this and his lips curled up. [With my wife protecting me, I'm naturally happy.]

Qin Sheng also replied, [Yeah, I'll protect C.]

After sending the message, Qin Sheng's face was a little hot. She didn't know why she said this.

The hackers who were watching were speechless

Can you not show off your dog food anytime, anywhere?

F sneered. [Let alone QS being a woman, even if you and C come together, you won't be able to win against me. You Chinese people are just a bunch of trash.]

Qin Sheng's eyes narrowed dangerously as her fingertips danced rapidly on the keyboard. [Cut the crap. You can't even win against a woman like me.]

F was angered by Qin Sheng's words. He was very disdainful.

QS and C were ranked first in the Black Emperor rankings because C had given in to her.

She actually dared to be arrogant in front of him!

Although he had never competed with women, he made an exception today. He would definitely teach QS a lesson.

He typed furiously, [Okay, then I'll compete with you. If I win, don't cry. Also, after I compete with you, C will come out and compete with me.]

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows mockingly.

He would win?

Then, she would make him not dare to touch the computer for a year.

Qin Sheng said, [Wait until you win. F, if you lose, get out of Black Emperor and apologize to all the Chinese people in Black Emperor.]

The hackers in Black Emperor were very excited when they saw Qin Sheng's words.

Their blood was burning.

One by one, they cheered.

[Okay, it's a deal.] F agreed without thinking.

He believed that he would definitely win.

The two of them entered the highest and most difficult system on Black Emperor.

[Let's begin.] Qin Sheng.

F glanced at Qin Sheng's hacker logo and was very disdainful. Then, he clicked the mouse and arrived at the first line of defense of the system. Qin Sheng followed behind and entered as well.

Qin Sheng did not dare to relax.

She attacked the defense line while observing F's speed.

It had to be said that F was indeed very powerful.

However, compared to Fu Hanchuan, he was still a little inferior.

Qin Sheng slowed down her speed. F caught up with Qin Sheng and was in front of Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng did not care.

The corners of her lips curled up into a smile.

She was the best at playing with others.

There was no better way to kill someone than by killing their heart.

Today, she would make him not dare to touch the computer for at least a year.

Qin Sheng's thoughts were unclear. Of course, if he knew, he would definitely laugh at Qin Sheng for overestimating herself.

F quickly tapped on the keyboard of the computer. His speed of conquering the defense line was very fast.

He took some time to look at Qin Sheng's position.

Behind him.

His eyes were even more mocking. A mere woman dared to compete with him?

She overestimated herself!

Today, he would let her see how powerful he was.

She really thought that she could beat him? In her dreams!

However, F did not realize that Qin Sheng kept the same distance from him.

The hackers who were watching the competition were not calm. QS was actually behind F?

Wasn't QS great?

She said she could win.

When they saw QS acting so sure, they thought she would win too.

But now?

Chapter 733: QS, Lost

They started discussing among themselves.

[This, QS isn't going to lose, right? If we lose again, won't F mock us even more?]

[God bless us, we can't lose.]

[I feel that this round is very dangerous. Look at Fish's strength. He's ranked first in the Black Emperor. F even won against Fish. It's not surprising that he'll win against QS.]

[Can't C just come over? She had to go up herself. Now, we're going to be ridiculed again.]

Some of the people here saw that Qin Sheng was going to lose. They couldn't stand Qin Sheng and were making sarcastic remarks, ridiculing Qin Sheng for overestimating her own abilities.

Soon, someone stood up to defend Qin Sheng.

[Don't mock her here first. Be careful of her face being smacked by QS. Haven't you been smacked by QS many times? I see that many of you have forgotten about your face being smacked by QS because a long time has passed.]

[I agree. If you have forgotten, I will help you recall the competition when QS first came to Black Emperor. There were also a few matches between her and Handsome. Many of you did not believe that she would win. What happened in the end? I want to know if your faces hurt? Anyway, I feel that I hurt a lot.]

[Don't you think that this competition is similar to the one between QS and Handsome? QS was always behind Handsome. Didn't she win in the end?]

[Yes, I have also noticed this match. QS might be doing the same thing as before, deliberately falling behind, and in the end, turning defeat into victory. Don't you guys see? The positions between QS and F are maintained at a certain distance. If QS is really worse than F, the distance between them will grow bigger and bigger.]

Seeing these words, the hackers who were making sarcastic remarks all stopped talking.

It was indeed possible.

Although QS was a girl, she was known for her bad behavior on Black Emperor.

They didn't say anything about the competition that day. They had really forgotten that not only did she beat up [The Number One Handsome Guy In the Universe], but she also beat up other hackers miserably all using this method.

She deliberately lagged behind to let those hackers think that she could win. At the last moment, she sped up and surpassed them in an instant, winning the competition.

Now, they did not dare to say any more mocking words and continued to watch the competition.

If they won, they would not have been slapped in the face.

If they lost, then don't blame them for saying that QS was overestimating itself.

F was attacking the last line of defense. He was only 15 seconds away from conquering the system, and Qin Sheng had arrived.

In the end, F pressed the enter key. [QS, you've lost!]

He leaned against the back of his chair, his hands on the computer keyboard moving non-stop.

Mocking words came out one after another.

[As expected, the Chinese are just a bunch of trash. They don't know anything and only know how to show off. Look, the number one hacker on the Black Emperor still lost!]

[QS, I thought you would win if you said that. I didn't expect you to be so confident. You're just acting tough!]

[Don't think that I will let you win just because you are a woman. I hate women like you who overestimate themselves the most. You actually dare to ride on the heads of a group of men from Black Emperor. Aren't you ashamed?]

[C, hurry up and come and compete with me! Don't be afraid to come out and compete with me just because you see how powerful I am. Hahaha, I think you are a coward.]

Qin Sheng lazily leaned back in her chair and raised her eyebrows.

Many of the Chinese hackers who were watching turned green with anger when they saw his words.

However, they couldn't refute him.

F won the competition, QS lost.

Chapter 734: Had Been Tampered With

Some of the hackers who had been making sarcastic remarks earlier, as well as those who usually did not like Qin Sheng, had also come out to mock Qin Sheng at this time.

[I thought QS was so awesome that it would be like how they treated [The Number One Handsome Guy In the Universe]. I didn't expect that they would reveal their true colors when they met someone slightly more powerful.]

[That's it, that's it?]

[Hahaha, those who protected QS just now were slapped in the face. Did they really think that she would be as lucky as last time?]

[Hehehe, F is right. QS is trash.]

Of course, such comments were in the minority. Most of them were defending Qin Sheng.

They still knew right from wrong.

It was normal to lose.

If it were any of them, they would be beaten up.

Therefore, they did not feel that they did not have the right to criticize Qin Sheng.

A lot of news kept popping up in the world.

Suddenly, it was as if a pause button had been pressed.

[World News: QS Beats F]

Those hackers did not react for a long time.

Even F was stunned on the spot. The hand that was typing on the keyboard also stopped.

After a long time.

Only then did a 'f*ck' appear in the discussion forum.

Following that, many hackers also reacted.

Win...

Win?

QS did not lose?

[Who, who can tell me what's going on? It's not F who won? Could it be that the system made a mistake?]

[I also saw F winning just now.]

[Even though QS won, I still don't have enough confidence. I keep feeling like the system made a mistake.]

Some of Black Emperor's technicians were watching the match. They were also very shocked by this result.

They hurriedly said, [I'll go over immediately to see if there are any mistakes. Wait a moment.]

F also did not react for a long time.

He had not expected the system to say that he had lost.

If QS had really won, then what he had just said on Black Emperor...

F raised his fists tightly.

The system must have made a mistake. He could not have lost!?

How could he lose to a mere woman?

In Black Emperor, everyone was anxiously waiting for the result. Was there a mistake in the system?

QS did not win.

Ten minutes later, the Black Emperor technicians returned.

The hackers could not wait to ask, [How was it? Who won? Was it QS or F?]

The technician did not keep them in suspense. [It was QS. I uploaded the video. I slowed it down by 10 times.]

He controlled the computer.

A video jumped onto the computer screen of the online hackers.

In the beginning, F had been in the lead until the last second, when QS broke through the last line of defense and conquered the system.

After the hackers watched it, they did not close their eyes for a long time.

Was this a coincidence, or was QS doing it on purpose?

If it was on purpose, how could she have timed it so precisely?

F had also watched the video. He was so angry that his hands were shaking. He quickly typed a sentence on the computer keyboard and sent it out.

[Impossible, I won! QS has always been behind me. In the end, how could she catch up to me? You must have done something!]

F's words quickly attracted the ridicule of a group of hackers.

[You lost, but you don't dare to admit it? Crawl, crawl for me!]

[Hehe, only you can win, others can't win. Double standard dog.]

[It's come, the face-smacking has come! Didn't you say that we Chinese are trash? You can't even compete with trash, who do you think you are?]

[Get out of Black Emperor!]

F was still unwilling to admit that he would lose to QS.

He gritted his teeth and asked Qin Sheng, [QS, did you do something?]

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows. She sat up straight and asked in return, [As long as the person wins against you, they did something?]

Chapter 735: Breach of Agreement, No Apology

[If you didn't do anything, how could you win? You've always been behind me!]

F was unwilling to believe that his strength was inferior to Qin Sheng's.

If Qin Sheng hadn't done anything, she would have been deliberately following behind him until the last moment.

Wasn't this insulting him?

Qin Sheng narrowed her eyes. [Then what do I have to do for you to believe me?]

F: [Let's have another round.]

Qin Sheng's lips curled into a smile. [Sure.]

Her hands had been itching for a fight these past few days. She was worried that no one would come to her to be taught a lesson. Very few people were willing to compete her on Black Emperor.

Since someone was willing to offer themselves to her, she naturally would not refuse.

Hence, the two of them re-entered the competition ground.

The most difficult system had been conquered by them. Hence, they were going to compete with the second most difficult system.

Seeing that they were going to compete in the next round, there were many hackers watching.

This time, Qin Sheng had been following behind F at the beginning.

However, those hackers weren't worried that QS would lose.

After all, QS had such a bad temper.

She liked to play tricks on people.

In short, all the hackers who competed with her, except for C, had to bear the blow.

In this competition, F had specially made a precaution.

He saw that QS was far behind him.

This time, F thought that Qin Sheng would not be able to catch up to him.

He sneered, "You still say that it wasn't tampered with? What a joke!"

He wanted to press the enter key.

His hand suddenly stopped and his eyes widened in disbelief.

When did QS break through the last line of defense? Wasn't QS still behind him just now?

The system's message popped up again.

[QS wins F!]

In the world, the messages started to appear again. They were all saying that Qin Sheng was awesome.

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows and sent out a message.

QS: [How was it? Are you convinced?]

F's hands were shaking. How did he lose again? He had already given it his all this time. Furthermore, he had increased his speed later on.

When he saw Qin Sheng's words...

F gritted his teeth. [Again!]

Qin Sheng replied, [Okay.]

In the third round, F lost.

In the fourth round, without a doubt, he lost again.

In the fifth round, the system continued to announce that QS had won F completely!

F completely collapsed on his office chair.

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows and asked, [Are you convinced this time?]

F wanted to continue answering.

However, when his hand touched the mouse, it kept shaking non-stop.

F's face turned pale.

He was afraid that for a month, a year, or even two years, he would not dare to touch the computer again.

She did not receive F's reply.

Qin Sheng said again, [You will never be able to compete with me. If you continue, you will still lose. You lost to a woman!]

F typed on the keyboard with difficulty. [Don't be proud, QS. I lost to you today, but it's just that you are lucky. My strength is not inferior to yours!]

Until now, F still looked down on Chinese hackers.

[No matter what, I still beat you.]

Qin Sheng's lips curled into a disdainful arc.

F was so angry that his whole body was trembling, but he had no way to refute.

Qin Sheng looked at the time. It was already 8:30. It was not early.

Qin Sheng did not want to waste time on F anymore. [You, apologize.]

F's eyes were fixed on the computer screen. He saw this sentence, but he did not move.

He had been mocking the Chinese all this time. Now, asking him to apologize to the Chinese hackers, wasn't that equivalent to throwing his face on the ground and stepping on it?

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows. [You want to break the agreement? You don't want to apologize?]

Chapter 736: Found Out F's Identity and Exposed It

F still didn't say anything and asked him to apologize to the Chinese. Impossible!

At that time, he was willing to bet with QS, and he was certain that she wouldn't win.

Now that he lost, he wouldn't apologize.

He wouldn't go up to Black Emperor in the future. If he lost this account, so be it. Moreover, the information he filled in on Black Emperor was fake. Even if he broke the agreement and didn't apologize, they wouldn't be able to find him.

When the hackers saw that F did not apologize, they began to discuss.

[F*ck! It can't be that he won't apologize, right?]

[I think it's 80% likely. He's too shameless. As a hacker, we value our reputation the most. I didn't expect that he would dare to trick us.]

[If QS lost, he would definitely not let it go. He would mock us Chinese people in all kinds of ways. He lost, but he wants to escape punishment. Double standard dog!]

[Hehehe, F, where is your face?]

[Can Black Emperor find F's true identity? I want him to become a rat in the gutter that the hacker world calls for people to beat him up.]

F was very disdainful when he saw these comments.

How was it possible to find his location?

He had spent three years completely perfecting the computer's defense system. They actually still wanted to find his location? They were simply overestimating themselves!

Qin Sheng could tell that F did not want to apologize.

She curled her lips. [Alright, since you're not apologizing, don't blame me. I hope you can cover up your real identity and identity as a hacker.]

Qin Sheng's words made F feel even more ridiculous.

In the past eight years, no one had been able to find his location. QS? Was that possible?

F looked disdainful. [If I don't apologize, what can you do to me? Don't even think about finding my identity. It's just a waste of time.]

[Is that so?] Qin Sheng's red lips opened slightly.

Her slender and fair fingers danced on the computer keyboard. [Then let's wait and see. We'll see you in half an hour at the earliest, and one and a half hours at the latest.]

After saying that, Qin Sheng went offline.

F looked at the reply and ignored the unease that was rising in his heart.

He leaned back in his chair and sneered. [Then I'd like to see what you can do.]

It was very early now. F went offline.

He began to check the protective system of his computer. There was nothing wrong with it.

QS should not be able to hack into it.

F turned off the computer. He felt that QS would definitely not find him, so he gave her more time. He could go online again tomorrow night.

He laid down in bed with ease.

Black Emperor was very lively.

[F is really despicable. He actually broke the agreement and didn't apologize to us. Moreover, judging from his tone, he's very proud because of this?]

[I suddenly realized that QS is so handsome, so cool! F*ck, she'll be my goddess in the future.]

[I'm really looking forward to QS taking out F's identity information to properly slap his face.]

[If he is really exposed, F will definitely be nailed to the pillar of shame. The hacker world will not tolerate him.]

[However, I feel that it will be very difficult to expose him. After all, a person with F's technology will definitely hide his identity information well. His computer should have a very good protection system.]

[It's better not to question QS. You have to learn to trust QS unconditionally. When has QS not done what she said? Since she dares to say it, she must be confident.]

Nowadays, many hackers had blind confidence in Qin Sheng.

That night, most of the hackers did not log off.

They were waiting for QS to send out F's identity information.

On the other side, Fu Hanchuan also used QQ to contact Qin Sheng. [Sheng Sheng, I'm here to look for his information. It's getting late, go take a shower first.]

During the match between Qin Sheng and F, Fu Hanchuan was online the entire time. However, he did not speak.

Chapter 737: Xie Hen Looking For Qin Sheng

It was almost 9 o'clock, and she still had class tomorrow. Fu Hanchuan didn't want Qin Sheng to tire herself out.

He could handle F by himself.

Qin Sheng didn't insist. [Okay, then I'll have to trouble Brother Fu.]

She took her pajamas and went into the bathroom.

Fu Hanchuan smiled dotingly and put away his phone.

He started to check F's IP address.

Because F had set up the protection system himself, even Fu Hanchuan took half an hour to crack it.

After he found F's IP address, Fu Hanchuan then hacked into F's computer to get information about his computer, as well as the QQ information logged in by his computer.

An hour passed. Fu Hanchuan collected F's identity information in great detail.

His family's identity, address, phone number, learning experience, and his identity as a hacker.

Qin Sheng was sitting cross-legged on the bed. She was reading Weibo.

Suddenly, Fu Hanchuan sent a message through QQ.

When Qin Sheng saw it, she was very surprised.

She didn't expect him to find such detailed information in just a short hour.

However, Qin Sheng thought of Fu Hanchuan being the number one on the Black Emperor rankings for many years, and then she thought of the legend about Fu Hanchuan on the Black Emperor Forum.

Qin Sheng was not too surprised.

She logged back into the Black Emperor Forum and posted F's identity information clearly.

And at the back, it was indicated that C had found this information.

Less than thirty minutes after F's identity information was posted on the Black Emperor Forum, the forum exploded.

[What, what did I see? F's identity information! D*mn, they really found it. Too awesome.]

[Even F's identity information could be found by QS and C, not to mention small fries like us. I once provoked QS. Should I thank her for not digging out my identity@.]

[Now that F has gone offline, I'm looking forward to his expression when he comes online and sees all his information. It must be very ugly. It's as possible it's the color of a pig's liver.]

Qin Sheng went offline after she posted the information.

She might be able to go to the stock exchange to buy stocks after one or two classes the next morning.

The next morning, Fu Hanchuan sent Qin Sheng to school after breakfast.

Qin Sheng got out of the car.

She waved at Fu Hanchuan and walked into the teaching building.

All of this fell into Xie Hen's eyes.

In fact, he had gotten Qin Sheng's class schedule and knew that she had classes in the morning, so he had been waiting for her.

When he saw Qin Sheng, he was stunned for a while, until Qin Sheng's back disappeared.

Xie Hen leaned against the tree, his brows furrowed.

Who was the man who sent Qin Sheng over?

Medical students. All the students in all grades had classes in the same teaching building.

Fang Ke's girlfriend was also a medical student. He sent her over to class. When she left, Fang Ke saw Xie Hen leaning against a tree. He was holding a blade of grass and no one knew what he was thinking about.

Fang Ke walked over and asked curiously, "Brother, why are you here for the first time today?"

Xie Hen glanced at him and said, "Qin Sheng."

Fang Ke was enlightened. "I remember now. Qin Sheng is also a medical student."

He reached out and tied Xie Hen's neck. Fang Ke said with relief, "Xie Hen, I didn't expect that you would be so devoted to pursuing a girl!"

Xie Hen took Fang Ke's hand off in disgust.

He looked a little dazed. "Does Qin Sheng have a boyfriend?"

Chapter 738: Qin Sheng Skips Class

Fang Ke shook his head. "That can't be. I've never heard of Qin Sheng being close to any boy."

He thought of something and paused, then he said, "There is one. On the first day of school for the freshmen, a man sent her over. However, there is a huge age difference between them. They don't seem to be boyfriend and girlfriend, but more like brother and sister."

Xie Hen's brows gradually relaxed.

It seemed that the man who sent her over was Qin Sheng's brother.

Fang Ke bumped Xie Hen's shoulder and winked at him. "Don't tell me you've really taken a fancy to her?"

Xie Hen glanced at him. "A graceful and elegant lady. A gentleman is easy to please. Is there a problem?"

He felt that he would not like a girl so quickly.

The reason why he agreed to pursue Qin Sheng was that Qin Sheng was very compatible with him. He could not say that he liked her, but for some reason, he wanted to get close to Qin Sheng.

Xie Hen followed his heart.

Fang Ke did not expect Xie Hen to not refute him. He shook his head in a daze. "No, no problem."

Xie Hen put one hand in his trouser pocket. "Let's go and play basketball."

An idea flashed through Fang Ke's mind. He suggested, "Don't you have no classes this morning? Xie Hen, do you want to go to Qin Sheng's classroom to listen to the class?"

Xie Hen frowned, puzzled.

Fang Ke took the initiative to explain, "You have to learn to create all the opportunities to get along with Campus Belle Qin, understand? Otherwise, why would you pursue her? Campus Belle Qin is like other girls. She will take the initiative to come over."

Xie Hen felt that Fang Ke's words made sense.

He turned around and walked toward the teaching building of the medical students, directly arriving at Qin Sheng's classroom.

Qin Sheng sat by the window.

She was reading a medical book, but it was not the content of this class.

Qin Sheng's seat was too far back, so there were not many people sitting next to her.

Xie Hen put one hand in his trouser pocket and went straight to a seat behind Qin Sheng. From his angle, he could see the side of Qin Sheng's face.

Qin Sheng was very sensitive.

Xie Hen's gaze only landed on her for a while before Qin Sheng noticed it.

She frowned.

She didn't pay much attention to him.

Three minutes had passed, but Xie Hen was still looking at her.

Qin Sheng tilted her head. "What's the matter?"

Xie Hen's first question was, "Classmate Qin, have we met somewhere before?"

Qin Sheng was too similar to the girl in his image.

Her eyes were similar, and the cold aura on her body was also extremely similar.

If the location did not match, he would definitely mistake Qin Sheng for her.

All these years since he returned to the capital, he had never given up on looking for her. That girl was a ray of light in his heart. If not for her, he would probably be in a gloomy state right now.

Qin Sheng thought that Xie Hen was deliberately hitting on her.

She turned her head and ignored him. She automatically blocked Xie Hen.

Throughout the entire class, Xie Hen's gaze would occasionally fall on Qin Sheng. Luckily, the professor in this class wasn't someone who liked to ask questions. Otherwise, Xie Hen would definitely be called up to answer questions.

After the second class, it was already 9:35 am.

Qin Sheng picked up her school bag and threw it on her shoulder. She wasn't preparing to attend the next class.

She went downstairs.

Xie Hen chased after her. "Qin Sheng, don't you still have class?"

Qin Sheng didn't stop walking. "Skipping class."

Xie Hen frowned. "Aren't you the top scorer in the college entrance examination? Do you know how to skip class?"

In Xie Hen's impression, people like Qin Sheng who had good grades were usually obedient girls.

They wouldn't skip class.

Chapter 739: You're Not As Good-Looking As Him

Qin Sheng glanced at him. "The top scorer in the college entrance examination is also a human."

After saying that, she no longer paid any attention to Xie Hen.

Qin Sheng came to the fence. She raised her head and narrowed her eyes.

The school fence seemed to be only a meter high.

Yes, it wasn't high.

A few words popped out of Xie Hen's forehead.

This Qin Sheng couldn't be going over the fence, right?

Wasn't there a school gate?

With this thought in mind, Xie Hen asked, "Qin Sheng, are you going to leave through this?"

Qin Sheng did not answer.

Xie Hen thought that Qin Sheng would really do this, so he suddenly asked again, "Isn't there a school gate? Do you have to leave through this?"

Qin Sheng finally paid attention to him. Her red lips slowly spat out, "It's too far. It's troublesome."

It would take seven minutes to walk from the teaching building of the medical specialty to the school gate.

Xie Hen was very worried. With Qin Sheng's small arms and thin legs, would she be able to climb up the fence alone?

"Qin Sheng, why don't I help you..."

Before he could finish his sentence, his words were stuck in his throat.

Qin Sheng climbed up the fence and jumped down from it.

Her movements were very fast.

She did not look like a girl at all.

Xie Hen was stunned for a second and followed her out.

He had practiced taekwondo before. Such a small matter was not difficult for him.

Qin Sheng saw that Xie Hen had caught up.

She frowned. "Don't follow me."

Xie Hen put one hand in his pocket. "You didn't build this path. I have the right to go where I want. Don't worry, I won't give you any trouble."

Seeing that she couldn't persuade Xie Hen, Qin Sheng didn't bother with him anymore.

Xie Hen followed beside her.

Although Qin Sheng didn't bother with him, Xie Hen was still talking to himself. "Qin Sheng, do you know who I am?"

After waiting for a while, Qin Sheng didn't answer him.

Xie Hen frowned slightly. This was the first time someone dared to ignore him, but he didn't have any thoughts of disliking Qin Sheng. He felt that Qin Sheng was... very cute.

She was much better than those pretentious women.

Xie Hen felt an inexplicable closeness to Qin Sheng in his heart. He had always followed his heart. Since he liked to be with her, he would let nature take its course.

Xie Hen answered the questions he had asked Qin Sheng. "I'm Xie Hen, the campus belle of Imperial Capital University. Qin Sheng, you're also the campus belle. What a coincidence."

"Campus belle?"

Qin Sheng stopped and sized up Xie Hen.

Xie Hen was confused by Qin Sheng's reaction. He didn't know what to do. Even his palms were sweating.

“Qin Sheng, you... Why are you looking at me like that? Is it because I’m handsome?”

Qin Sheng frowned. “You’re not as handsome as him.”

She withdrew her gaze and didn’t look at Xie Hen again.

Previously, Qin Sheng could also be said to be a face-con. However, after meeting Fu Hanchuan, she felt that no other man was as handsome as Fu Hanchuan.

Therefore, Qin Sheng had given up on that problem of hers, other than sometimes staring blankly at Fu Hanchuan’s face.

Since Xie Hen could become the campus belle of Imperial Capital University, his looks were naturally not that bad. He could be compared to Fu Hanchuan’s.

Their looks were on par, but each had their own style.

Xie Hen looked a little devilish. His pair of rippling peach blossom eyes were very attractive.

However, Qin Sheng added a layer of filter to Fu Hanchuan, thinking that Xie Hen could not be compared to Fu Hanchuan.

When Xie Hen heard Qin Sheng’s words, his brows were tightly knitted.

Although he did not take his looks to heart, Qin Sheng said that he could not be compared to another man. He felt very uncomfortable and stifled.

Chapter 740: Lin Corporation’s Stocks

Xie Hen asked, “Qin Sheng, who is that guy you’re talking about?”

Qin Sheng glanced at him but didn’t answer.

They continued to walk toward the stock exchange building.

Xie Hen could feel Qin Sheng’s obvious displeasure. He had changed the topic.

“Qin Sheng, how about we make friends? I don’t have a female friend yet.”

Qin Sheng was unmoved. “There’s no need.”

She suddenly stopped in front of a building.

Xie Hen recognized this place. He would come here a few times a month.

“The stock exchange?”

Xie Hen was very puzzled. “Qin Sheng, why are you here?”

Qin Sheng answered, “To buy stocks.”

After saying that, Qin Sheng walked into the stock exchange.

Xie Hen followed her and bought stocks. He was very good at this.

Perhaps he could teach Qin Sheng how to buy stocks so that he could get close to her.

He tried his best to strike up a conversation with Qin Sheng. "Qin Sheng, when did you learn to buy stocks? You don't look very old, so I don't think you know how to buy stocks. I'm also a veteran of buying stocks, and I rarely lose money. Let me bring you."

Qin Sheng came to a computer and sat down.

She was very impatient. "Noisy."

Xie Hen shut his mouth.

Forget it. When Qin Sheng bought stocks later, he could give her some advice.

Most people valued luck when they bought stocks.

If they were lucky, the price of the stocks would increase by several times, or even more than ten times.

If they were unlucky, their capital would decrease by half, and they might even lose everything.

However, very few people were lucky.

If she lost money, Qin Sheng would definitely be very sad.

Xie Hen really did not want to see Qin Sheng in pain.

Qin Sheng did not look at the other stocks and directly found the Lin Corporation's stocks.

There was a rumor that the Lin Corporation wanted to buy a very famous overseas pharmaceutical company. They had spent a lot of manpower and material resources, but they did not succeed.

Because of this news, the Lin Corporation's shares had fallen quite a bit. They were now at 120 Chinese dollars per share.

A week later, the Lin Corporation and the pharmaceutical company officially signed a contract.

They officially opened up the sale of medical supplies overseas.

When this news spread out, the Lin Corporation's shares would soar.

Qin Sheng knew this and had the advantage of being reborn.

When Xie Hen saw that Qin Sheng had chosen this stock, he was very surprised. "Qin Sheng, you have your eyes on the Lin Corporation's shares?"

Qin Sheng replied faintly, "Yes."

Xie Hen was relieved. He analyzed, "Although the internet is filled with negative comments about the Lin Corporation, the Lin Corporation has never done anything that they are not confident about. They must have a plan in mind to acquire that pharmaceutical company. I think within a week at the latest, the news of the successful acquisition of the Lin Corporation will spread."

Xie Hen was very talented in business and had a keen sense of smell.

He had never made any mistakes when it came to buying stocks.

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows. "When you say it like that, I suspect that you are a member of the Lin Corporation."

Qin Sheng's words were very normal.

Xie Hen felt that Qin Sheng was complimenting him.

A smile unconsciously appeared on his face. For the first time, he was glad that he had talent in buying and selling stocks.

He said humbly, "It's not difficult. After all, I often think about stocks at home. If I don't have some ability, wouldn't I lose a lot?"

Then, he suggested, "Qin Sheng, I think this stock is likely to double. I suggest you buy more and make a good profit."

"Okay." Qin Sheng nodded.

Even if Xie Hen didn't say it, she was prepared to buy more in one go.

After all, such opportunities were rare.
