

Bigshot 771

Chapter 771: Lin Haocheng's Girlfriend

At noon.

Back in the dormitory.

Shen Jiayue could not help but start mocking Qin Sheng, "Qin Sheng, not bad. You actually recorded my words. Why didn't I realize that you would be so despicable? Who are you pretending to be high and mighty for? Deep down, you are still a despicable person."

Qin Sheng was looking at her phone. When she heard this, she looked up and said with a faint smile, "Shen Jiayue, have you forgotten the lesson I taught you?"

Shen Jiayue's body subconsciously trembled.

Back then, when Qin Sheng pinched her wrist, she could not forget that piercing pain.

As if she thought of something, Shen Jiayue straightened her neck and said, "Qin Sheng, don't be arrogant in front of me. You're going to be kicked out of Imperial Capital University tomorrow."

Zhao Xiang had said this before.

Qin Sheng's lips curled into a smile. "I'll wait and see."

Suddenly, QQ's message notification sounded.

Qin Sheng picked it up and took a look. It was from the President of Imperial Capital University.

He replied that the dormitory was ready and Qin Sheng could move in at any time.

He also told Qin Sheng the location and asked Qin Sheng to get the key from the dormitory manager.

Qin Sheng replied, [Okay.]

She also let out a sigh of relief. In the future, she would be able to have some peace and quiet in the afternoon.

She put away her phone.

She looked at Shen Jiayue. "Don't worry, I will move out of the dormitory tomorrow. I won't be an eyesore to you anymore."

Shen Jiayue sneered. "You will be kicked out of Imperial Capital University tomorrow. Even if you don't move, you have to move."

Qin Sheng chuckled and ignored Shen Jiayue.

She turned her gaze back to her phone.

She entered Weibo.

The first thing she saw was the top trending topic. The topic was eye-catching.

[Shocking! Lin Haocheng's girlfriend appears.]

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows with great interest. She clicked into the trending topic.

There was a long description at the front. Qin Sheng did not have the patience to look at it. She directly slid to the bottom to look at the photo.

Qin Sheng's gaze froze.

There was no other reason. She saw Qin Churou. Qin Churou was beside Lin Haocheng. She had a smile on her face, and her actions were very flirtatious.

1

From the paparazzi's perspective, Qin Churou was leaning against Lin Haocheng's body.

Lin Haocheng was wearing a set of ancient clothes, and so was Qin Churou.

The relationship between the two of them did not seem simple.

If Qin Sheng did not know the two of them, she would probably think that they were a couple.

Qin Sheng narrowed her eyes.

It seemed that Qin Churou was trying to pull Lin Haocheng to increase her popularity.

If Lin Haocheng was not stupid, he should be able to see through Qin Churou's intentions.

Qin Sheng logged out of this Weibo post and continued to read other posts.

Lin Haocheng did not have a close relationship with her, so she did not need to pay too much attention to him.

If Lin Haocheng knew about Qin Sheng's thoughts, he would probably vomit blood.

He was Qin Sheng's brother, a blood-related brother!

Qin Sheng actually thought that there was not much to do with her!

Qin Sheng did not go to class in the afternoon either. Instead, she went to the laboratory.

After Zhao Xiang finished one or two classes, she had no more classes.

She also came over.

When she saw Qin Sheng, she was very disdainful.

It was really stupid of her to mix in experiments every day and do impossible research!

Zhao Xiang ignored Qin Sheng.

She hoped to see Qin Sheng do this. After all, if Qin Sheng did this, her exam results would definitely be very bad. When that time came, she would be the first in the first years of the Medical Department.

Zhao Xiang came to her position and she also began to do experiments.

Zhao Xiang's progress was very slow.

It had been a few days, but she had not made any progress at all.

She looked at Qin Sheng's movements. Research reagents?

Chapter 772: She Was Xiao Sheng

Zhao Xiang sneered. She had been mixing in the experiments every day, yet she still managed to achieve this level of progress.

It seemed that Qin Sheng, this genius, was just a genius in name.

Zhao Xiang was very disdainful. She no longer paid attention to Qin Sheng. She returned to her own experiment.

Qin Sheng was very serious as she watched the two tubes of reagents fuse together. She did not notice Zhao Xiang.

After the fusion of the reagents, the color also changed.

Qin Sheng took out two more drops and placed them under the microscope.

As she watched, a smile slowly appeared on her face. Then, she picked up the notebook and recorded it down.

After Qin Sheng had researched this, she did not stay in the laboratory anymore.

She took the notebook and left the laboratory.

Zhao Xiang looked at Qin Sheng's back as she left and sneered.

It seemed that she had really overestimated Qin Sheng.

She had left so early.

She really thought that she had skipped class to do this research!

Qin Sheng walked alone on the campus.

The villa that she and Fu Hanchuan were living in was very close to Imperial Capital University. Even if she walked back, it would only take eighteen minutes.

Xie Hen had appeared beside her at some point.

He asked directly, "Qin Sheng, did you appear at Nongxiang Primary School when you were young?"

He suppressed his excitement.

Qin Sheng stopped in her tracks. She frowned and asked, "How did you know?"

Xie Hen's pair of rippling peach blossom eyes seemed to be filled with starlight. "When you were nine years old, did you save a boy who was two years older than you from a hooligan? Later on, that boy followed you for more than a year and you taught him a lot. Only when you are strong will you not be bullied by others. Don't be soft-hearted when dealing with those who bully you."

Xie Hen had asked his subordinate to investigate Qin Sheng's experience a long time ago.

The results were originally released yesterday, but because of a small accident, his subordinate only sent the results to him now.

Xie Hen's experience of seeing Qin Sheng.

Nongxiang Primary School.

Qin Sheng's eyes.

There was also an inexplicable sense of familiarity and closeness in his heart.

Xie Hen had basically confirmed that Qin Sheng was that girl.

He came over to ask Qin Sheng now because he wanted to confirm it.

Very few people knew about Qin Sheng's experience.

Xie Hen asked this question, and Xie Hen's age matched it. Qin Sheng also guessed that Xie Hen should be that youth.

Her brows were tightly knitted as she replied indifferently, "I am."

If it was in her previous life, Qin Sheng and Xie Hen would have acknowledged each other, and her heart might have felt a ripple.

But now, her heart was very calm.

After all, they had been separated for two lifetimes. No matter how much friendship they had, it had faded.

Moreover, when Xie Hen had left without saying goodbye, Qin Sheng had not deliberately remembered him in her heart.

Hearing Qin Sheng's affirmative answer, Xie Hen was very excited. His heart was about to jump out of his chest.

"Xiao Sheng— I wanted to call you that when I was young."

At that time, Qin Sheng had not returned to the Qin family. Her name was Feng Sheng. Other than her surname changing, her name had not changed.

Xie Hen's name had completely changed.

Qin Sheng's voice was still very indifferent. "As you wish."

It was obvious that he was estranged.

"Xiao Sheng, are you blaming me for leaving without saying goodbye?" Xie Hen saw Qin Sheng's cold attitude towards him and explained anxiously, "At that time, my father forcefully brought me back. I went to the primary school to look for you, but you had already gone back by then."

Qin Sheng frowned. "You don't have to take the things that happened when we were young to heart. After all, we were still young at that time. The interactions between us were all children's play."

Chapter 773: Qin Sheng's Plans

Qin Sheng did not pay too much attention to Xie Hen's sudden departure.

It was just that she had suddenly returned to her life alone.

Being alone was pretty good.

Xie Hen was worried that Qin Sheng still had a knot in her heart. After all, he was the one who had left without saying goodbye to Qin Sheng.

At that time, he was sold to a village because he was kidnapped by human traffickers.

Later, when Father Xie found him, he returned to the Xie family.

He said again, "Xiao Sheng, I've been sending people to look for you since high school. It's just that it's been too long, and I couldn't find any traces of you."

Qin Sheng's expression did not change much.

Xie Hen said very carefully, "Xiao Sheng, are we still friends?"

Qin Sheng frowned and answered casually, "Anything is fine."

She looked at her watch and said, "It's getting late. I should go back."

"I'll send you back," Xie Hen said immediately.

Qin Sheng rejected him. "No need. The distance isn't far."

Fang Ke stood not far away and listened to the conversation between Xie Hen and Qin Sheng.

As soon as Qin Sheng left, he walked up quickly.

Fang Ke said in surprise, "Xie Hen, I didn't expect you and Campus Belle Qin to be childhood sweethearts!"

1

Fang Ke's heart was a little relieved.

Childhood sweethearts. If Xie Hen went to chase after Qin Sheng, he should be able to catch up.

Xie Hen's lips curled into a smile. "I've finally found her."

He finally understood why he felt a familiar sense of closeness when facing Qin Sheng, and his heart was beating so rapidly.

So, she was that little girl.

A ray of light in his darkness.

If it wasn't for Qin Sheng, he probably wouldn't have been able to take it anymore.

Xie Hen was very cowardly when he was young. When he was beaten up by others, he wouldn't resist.

It was Qin Sheng who taught him to fight back.

Fang Ke asked, "Then, Xie Hen, do you still plan to pursue her?"

Xie Hen glanced at him. "What do you think?"

Qin Sheng was the only girl who had moved his heart. He had already planned to pursue her, and now that he knew she was that girl, he would not give up.

Fang Ke frowned and said, "I have a feeling that she is more difficult to pursue. You should do it as soon as possible."

"There's no rush. I'll take my time."

Xie Hen walked in front in a good mood.

As long as Qin Sheng did not have a boyfriend, he would have a chance.

Of course, even if he did, he could still steal her away.

After returning to the villa, Qin Sheng told Fu Hanchuan that Zhao Xiang wanted to kick her out of Imperial Capital University.

Fu Hanchuan's eyes were icy cold, and even his body was emitting cold air.

He pursed his lips. "Sheng Sheng, I want to take action against her."

Qin Sheng held Fu Hanchuan's hand. "Brother Fu, I'm fine. I'm moving out of the dormitory tomorrow. I'll live alone. Moreover, this is a very good opportunity."

Qin Sheng told him her plan.

Her eyes were filled with scheming.

Fu Hanchuan couldn't help but chuckle. She was very cute when she schemed.

However...

"Sheng Sheng, you can become a shareholder of Imperial Capital University yourself."

“No, Brother Fu. I don’t have enough money on me right now. A large portion of it is invested in the stock market. Besides, if you become a shareholder, won’t you be able to protect me? Brother Fu, investing in Imperial Capital University is a sure-win business.” Qin Sheng blinked.

Qin Sheng had guessed it.

The so-called shareholder that Zhao Xiang mentioned would probably threaten the president by withdrawing his shares.

Then, she could ask Fu Hanchuan to make up for it.

Not only could she give Fu Hanchuan the opportunity to invest in Imperial Capital University, but she could also break the relationship between the Zhao family and that shareholder.

The opportunity to kill two birds with one stone, Qin Sheng would not let go.

Chapter 774: Her Character Is Corrupted

Fu Hanchuan heard this and did not hesitate to let Qin Sheng invest. The funds that would influence him in the future would all be in Qin Sheng’s hands.

He reached out and rubbed Qin Sheng’s hair lovingly. “Okay.”

The next day.

Huang Dechang came to the school.

He went straight to the principal’s office.

“President Huang.” The Principal asked his secretary to pour them a cup of tea and sat on the sofa. He asked, “May I know why President Huang is here today?”

Huang Dechang said directly, “I want you to expel a student.”

The Principal frowned. “Who?”

It was not that those shareholders had not interfered in the matter of wanting to expel a student over the years, but the Principal had basically rejected them. Very few shareholders could achieve their objectives.

At this moment, he had to protect this student with all his might.

Huang Dechang replied, “Qin Sheng.”

“Qin Sheng?” The Principal’s brows furrowed even tighter. “What did Qin Sheng do to make you want to expel her?”

Huang Dechang’s tone was very unpleasant. “She’s being kept by a man. We can’t accept a student with such a bad character, lest we ruin the reputation of Imperial Capital University.”

“Is there any evidence?” the Principal asked.

“Do you suspect me?” Huang Dechang asked Back.

The Principal’s face was serious. “It’s not our school’s job to expel a student at will. President Huang, if there’s no evidence, I won’t expel her.”

He turned his head and whispered to his secretary, “Go and help call Student Qin Sheng to the Principal’s office.”

The secretary agreed and left.

Huang Dechang was repeatedly rejected and couldn’t help but get angry. He said in a deep voice, “Are you sure you won’t expel Qin Sheng?”

His voice was full of threats.

The Principal did not say anything.

It was obvious that he did not want to agree to Huang Dechang’s request.

Huang Dechang stood up from the sofa.

He sneered and said, “Who would have thought that the shareholder who holds 12% of the shares of Imperial Capital University would not be able to make such a decision even after investing over a billion?”

The Principal had already vaguely guessed Huang Dechang’s plan.

His heart sank.

If Huang Dechang really withdrew his capital, his capital would have already risen to three billion. Imperial Capital University’s capital would not be able to turn over the funds, which would be a serious blow to Imperial Capital University.

As expected, Huang Dechang said again, “If you really don’t agree, then I’ll withdraw my capital. I think that Imperial Capital University doesn’t lack me as a shareholder.”

Before coming, Huang Dechang had already done some research on the financial situation of Imperial Capital University.

Imperial Capital University didn’t have this amount of cash now.

If he withdrew his investment, it would definitely be a huge blow to Imperial Capital University.

Therefore, Imperial Capital University had no choice.

It wasn’t worth it to offend a large shareholder like him for the sake of a small student.

Imperial Capital University could only choose to expel Qin Sheng.

The Principal hesitated.

Not to mention that Qin Sheng was the top scorer in the college entrance examination, even if she was an ordinary student, he would not expel her at will.

But if Huang Dechang withdrew his investment...

Huang Dechang saw the Principal's expression and was very pleased.

As expected, he could not withstand the pressure and was going to expel Qin Sheng.

To dare to disobey him, he was not qualified.

At this moment, Qin Sheng came in.

The Principal stood up to welcome her. "Student Qin Sheng."

Qin Sheng nodded politely. "Uncle Principal."

When Huang Dechang heard the Principal call out to Qin Sheng, he narrowed his eyes. "You are Qin Sheng?"

Qin Sheng did not answer.

Huang Dechang sneered. "If you leave Imperial Capital University, Imperial Capital University's reputation of a hundred years will not be affected because of you."

Huang Dechang was sure that Qin Sheng was being kept.

After all, this is what Father Zhao said. Father Zhao had no reason to deceive him.

Chapter 775: Withdrawal of Imperial Capital University

Qin Sheng sneered, "Where did I come from to destroy the reputation of Imperial Capital University?"

"You are being kept by a man. Imperial Capital University cannot tolerate you," Huang Dechang said righteously.

Qin Sheng's gaze turned cold. "Being kept? Heh, there will always be some self-righteous people in this world."

"How can you say that?" Huang Dechang's expression darkened. "You really have no upbringing. No wonder you would do something like being a mistress."

After saying that, he pointed at Qin Sheng and said to the Principal, "Expel her out of the school immediately! Otherwise, I'll withdraw my capital!"

Qin Sheng's lips held a mocking smile. She did not have much of a reaction to Huang Dechang's words.

The Principal of Imperial Capital University frowned and did not say anything.

Huang Dechang pointed at his watch. "You still have five minutes left. If you're not willing to expel Qin Sheng within five minutes, I'll withdraw my capital immediately."

After saying that, he sat back on the sofa, picked up the cup of tea, and drank it slowly.

"Student Qin Sheng, this..." The Principal did not know what to do.

The Principal treated Qin Sheng very well. Qin Sheng did not want to see him in a difficult position, so she said directly, "Uncle Principal, if you trust me, then let him withdraw his investment."

The Principal frowned.

Huang Dechang, who was sitting at the side, laughed disdainfully when he heard Qin Sheng's words. "Don't tell me you really listen to a little girl's words? Can she make up the billions? What a joke!"

Qin Sheng ignored Huang Dechang. Her eyes were full of ridicule.

Huang Dechang said again, "Qin Sheng, you have to be fair. You want me to withdraw my capital so that you can stay in Imperial Capital University. How about you give me the billions?"

"Uncle Principal." Qin Sheng walked closer to the Principal and spoke in a low voice, "I'll make up for the money he withdrew."

The Principal was very surprised.

He had forgotten that Qin Sheng had a relationship with Fu Hanchuan. Qin Sheng did not lack money.

The Principal's heart relaxed.

Even his voice sounded very confident. "You'll withdraw your funds, right?"

Huang Dechang was stunned and could not believe it. "You actually chose to protect a student and not care about Imperial Capital University?"

The Principal sneered. "I won't expel a student just because of you. Go ahead."

Huang Dechang was completely enraged. He waved his hand. "Alright, since that's the case, I'll withdraw my funds. Let's see how you'll end up."

As he said that, he picked up his phone and instructed his secretary, "I want to withdraw my investment from Imperial Capital University."

He also said a lot of things later on.

Huang Dechang kept looking at the Principal. He was waiting for the Principal to go back on his word.

Unexpectedly, the Principal did not say a word the entire time.

Huang Dechang frowned and returned to the sofa to sit down.

He said, "My secretary will be here very soon. She will bring the contract with her. If you want to go back on your word, there's still a chance."

The Principal ignored Huang Dechang and spoke to Qin Sheng.

Huang Dechang's frown deepened.

How dare he ignore him like this!

Up until now, Huang Dechang had thought that the Principal of Imperial Capital University was doing this on purpose. He was waiting for him to relent and not withdraw his shares.

Huang Dechang was very confident that the Principal would definitely go back on his word in the end.

Eighteen minutes later, Huang Dechang's secretary came over and handed him a document. "President, the contract you wanted."

Huang Dechang signed his name without hesitation.

After signing, he threw the contract to the Principal and sneered. "Sign it."

The Principal also picked up a pen.

Chapter 776: Money, She Took It Out

Huang Dechang gave Qin Sheng a special look and reminded her, "For the sake of a student, the Imperial Capital University is in danger. Heh, you'd better think it through."

The Principal smiled. He quickly wrote on the paper.

Huang Dechang's brows were tightly furrowed.

The moment he finished signing, Huang Dechang snatched a contract away. He stared at the name on it.

He really did sign it!

Where did he get so much money?

Sweat broke out on Huang Dechang's palm.

Was he really going to withdraw his shares?

In fact, Huang Dechang did not intend to withdraw his shares. He just wanted to use this to threaten the Principal and chase Qin Sheng out of Imperial Capital University.

Imperial Capital University received a lot of dividends every year.

Moreover, the development prospects were very good.

If they really divested their capital, then these dividends would be gone. Moreover, in the future, the rise in the value of the stocks would have nothing to do with him.

Huang Dechang's face was very dark.

He said in a deep voice, "Aren't you afraid that something will happen to Imperial Capital University?"

The Principal said mockingly, "Capital, you are not the only one who is putting out billions of dollars."

"Have you found a new buyer?" Huang Dechang asked.

He frowned and quickly rejected his own guess. "Impossible! How could it be so fast?"

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows. She did not hide anything. "I'm the one who put up the money."

Huang Dechang could not believe it. "You can easily put up the billions?"

“Imperial Capital University’s development prospects are good. I was worried that I wouldn’t have the opportunity to invest. Since you came to me of your own accord, I naturally won’t let it go,” Qin Sheng said nonchalantly.

She picked up one of the contracts and handed it to the Principal. “Uncle Principal, keep it safe.”

“Okay.” The Principal kept the contract.

Huang Dechang subconsciously wanted to snatch the contract, but he was stopped by Qin Sheng.

Qin Sheng curled her lips. “I’ve already signed it. Don’t even think about going back on your word.”

“Qin Sheng, you definitely don’t have such a large sum of money.”

Up until now, Huang Dechang was still unwilling to believe that Qin Sheng could take out this amount of money.

“Then we’ll wait and see.”

After saying that, Qin Sheng picked up her phone. “Brother Fu, I’ll send Huang Dechang’s account information to you. Send 2.7 billion into it.”

Qin Sheng had just glanced at the bank account information in the contract and memorized it.

She sent it to Fu Hanchuan.

In less than five minutes, a sum of money entered Huang Dechang’s account.

At the same time, he also received the message.

Huang Dechang looked at the message in his phone and couldn’t believe it.

This, this call really came?

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows and asked, “Is it enough?”

“Where did you get the money?” Huang Dechang remembered that Qin Sheng called him Brother Fu just now. He widened his eyes and asked, “Was it the man who kept you?”

At this moment, Huang Dechang felt that he had fallen into the trap set by Qin Sheng and Fu Hanchuan.

They were waiting for him to withdraw his investment so that he could become a shareholder of Imperial Capital University.

It was indeed a good plan.

Huang Dechang clenched his fists, his eyes filled with gloom.

Qin Sheng did not refute Huang Dechang’s words.

Huang Dechang pointed at Qin Sheng. “Principal Liang, look at what kind of student you are protecting. Her moral character is corrupt. She is so young, yet she is kept by a man.”

The Principal frowned and said, “They’re brother and sister, not the ‘kept’ relationship you’re talking about.”

When Fu Hanchuan was studying at Imperial Capital University, he had already seen the Principal of Imperial Capital University.

The Principal had a good impression of Fu Hanchuan.

Although he was a little cold and did things according to his will, he would never keep a mistress.

Even if they weren't brother and sister, they would still be boyfriend and girlfriend.

Chapter 777: Qin Sheng's Request

Huang Dechang's tone was mocking, "Isn't it? How can a student from H City have so much money?"

The Principal was getting a headache from Huang Dechang's argument. He said directly, "You're no longer a shareholder of Imperial Capital University. You can leave the school."

Huang Dechang's expression was gloomy as he said, "You're actually thinking of chasing me away!"

"I still have work to do. As an outsider, I have the right to ask you to leave."

At this moment, the Principal did not give Huang Dechang much of a good look.

Huang Dechang clenched his fists and compromised. "I won't withdraw my funds. I'll return the money from where they came."

Qin Sheng curled her lips and kept her phone. "That's not up to you."

The Principal called the security guards over and said to Huang Dechang, "Huang Dechang, you came here and asked me to expel a student, or you would withdraw your capital. You know that Imperial Capital University is unable to take out so much money at the moment, and that would cause the school to fall into crisis. It would be better to change shareholders."

Huang Dechang was so angry that he could not speak.

He came to Imperial Capital University today and was not thinking of divestment. Imperial Capital University's annual dividend was a lot, and he was reluctant to part with this money.

By threatening to withdraw his capital, he was certain that the Principal would agree to it.

However, he did not expect that Qin Sheng would suddenly appear.

Everything was ruined. Even his shares in Imperial Capital University were gone.

Qin Sheng stood up. She smiled and kindly reminded him, "Actually, I do not have any conflict with you. If it were not for some people instigating you, you would not have come to Imperial Capital University to ask for my dismissal, let alone losing those shares."

Qin Sheng's words successfully diverted Huang Dechang's attention.

Indeed, Qin Sheng had nothing to do with him. If it weren't for Zhao Biao, he wouldn't have come to find trouble with Qin Sheng.

1

The security guards also came in very quickly.

The Principal instructed, "Take him away."

"I'll leave by myself," Huang Dechang said in a deep voice.

The Principal didn't stop him. The security guards took Huang Dechang away from Imperial Capital University.

Qin Sheng nodded and took out the contract that she had prepared beforehand. "Uncle Principal, take a look and see if there's anything that needs to be changed."

This contract was about Fu Hanchuan becoming a shareholder of Imperial Capital University.

The secretary was very capable and knew the law very well.

The Principal showed the contract to the secretary. Twenty minutes later, she finished reading it and returned the contract to the Principal. "There's no problem."

Fu Hanchuan's name had already been signed on the contract.

The Principal also wrote down his name on the two contracts.

Qin Sheng took one of the contracts. "Uncle Principal, sorry to trouble you."

"No worries. This is what I should have done. If you hadn't come in time, I wouldn't know how to deal with it," the Principal said with a sigh.

Qin Sheng didn't hide her intentions. She said straightforwardly, "I'm just doing this so that I won't be expelled. I'm also interested in the shares of Imperial Capital University."

The Principal choked.

Indeed, Qin Sheng was the one who benefited today.

He had a headache. Why did he feel like he was being suppressed by Qin Sheng everywhere?

He was the principal, and Qin Sheng was just a student.

The Principal sat on the sofa, looking like he had a headache. He did not want to see Qin Sheng again.

He waved his hand and said, "It's getting late. You should go back too."

Qin Sheng coughed. "Uncle Principal, I have a request."

The veins on the Principal's forehead were throbbing. He had a very bad premonition.

Every time Qin Sheng took the initiative to look for him, she would make all kinds of requests, and it was usually very difficult to accomplish.

Meeting Qin Sheng's eyes, he felt that if he did not agree, Qin Sheng would not leave.

"Say it," the Principal said helplessly.

Qin Sheng did not stand on ceremony and stated her request. "There will be military training starting next week. I won't participate."

Chapter 778: One More Person To Protect

The Principal said with a headache, "Can you make a different request?"

This was a military training that all freshmen had to participate in. He had already allowed Qin Sheng to skip class. If another person didn't participate in the military training, it would inevitably cause people to gossip.

Qin Sheng reminded, "At that time, you said that as long as my request isn't excessive, you can satisfy it."

The Principal: "..."

This was not excessive?

Qin Sheng poured herself a cup of tea and sipped it carefully.

The Principal tried to get Qin Sheng to give up on this idea. "Military training is very important. It can help improve your willpower and stamina, as well as cultivate good habits."

Qin Sheng nodded. "I know."

The Principal: "Are you sure that your physique can pass the test?"

Qin Sheng replied, "I run every morning."

The Principal asked, "Can you tell me the reason why you don't want to do military training?"

Qin Sheng thought for a moment before replying, "It's troublesome."

The Principal: "..."

He looked at Qin Sheng for quite a while, but in the end, he still lost.

Qin Sheng was the only top scorer in the college entrance examination with full marks. She was a genius, and he could endure it if he still counted on her to contribute to the school in the future.

Moreover, he had indeed said that back then. He could agree to any of Qin Sheng's requests as long as it was reasonable.

The Principal could only say, "Alright, you can choose not to participate in the military training, but the problem is that you have to participate in the final evaluation of the military training. Your results can't be bad either. My request for you is 80 points."

He still wanted to put in his last effort.

If Qin Sheng felt that she could not meet his requirements, she would have to obediently go to the military training.

Who knew...

Qin Sheng still smiled and nodded. "Okay."

Qin Sheng had participated in military training in her previous life. She was very talented and had basically learned all those things.

80 points were not difficult for her.

His little plan was broken again.

The Principal: "..."

He waved his hand with a headache. "You can go out."

"Okay." This time, Qin Sheng obediently agreed.

Qin Sheng's appearance was very deceptive. She looked very obedient and quiet.

If one had not come into contact with her before, it would be very difficult to discover her bad character.

When the Principal first came into contact with Qin Sheng, he had been deceived by her.

After Qin Sheng left the office, the Principal looked at the contract in his hand.

An idea popped up.

Fu Hanchuan had become a shareholder of Imperial Capital University, and Fu Hanchuan was on Qin Sheng's side. If Qin Sheng had one more person to protect her in Imperial Capital University, wouldn't she be even more arrogant?

The Principal frowned.

Now that the contract had been signed, there was nothing he could do. He could only pray that Qin Sheng would be merciful.

Huang Dechang got out of the car.

He took out his phone and called Father Zhao.

Father Zhao's voice rang out. "President Huang, how is it going? Has Qin Sheng been expelled from Imperial Capital University?"

Huang Dechang's tone was very unpleasant. "No."

"No?" Father Zhao frowned. "You are the major shareholder of Imperial Capital University. You can't even kick out a small student?"

There was a questioning tone in his voice.

Huang Dechang said in a deep voice, "I used the withdrawal to threaten Liang Ping."

“Withdrawal?” Father Zhao was very puzzled. “Shouldn’t this be something that he would agree to? It’s impossible for Imperial Capital University to take out so much money in such a short period of time.”

Father Zhao had wanted to become a shareholder of Imperial Capital University since a long time ago, but he had never had the opportunity.

He had also proposed to buy his shares from Huang Dechang.

Huang Dechang did not agree. After all, the shares of the shareholders of Imperial Capital University were very substantial.

Chapter 779: Two Had Fallen Out With Each Other

When Huang Dechang heard Father Zhao’s words, he sneered, “The financier who kept Qin Sheng paid for it.”

Father Zhao had a very bad premonition in his heart.

Next, he heard Huang Dechang say, “Now that I’ve withdrawn my shares from Imperial Capital University, Zhao Biao, it’s because of your matter that I’ve come to this stage. Shouldn’t you compensate me for my losses?”

Father Zhao was also annoyed. “You being stupid, what does it have to do with me?”

Huang Dechang’s expression sank completely. “You don’t want to admit it?”

Father Zhao sneered. “At that time, I did ask for your help, but I didn’t beg you. At that time, you wanted to suck up to me, so you agreed.”

Huang Dechang choked for a moment.

That was indeed what he thought at that time

After all, the Zhao family was much better than his company. He had only agreed to help him because he had the intention of befriending Father Zhao.

At that time, he had thought that this was just a small matter.

However, he had not expected that he would lose his shares in Imperial Capital University.

Knowing this result, he would definitely not help him.

Huang Dechang’s expression was very bad. After a long while, he finally said, “I can’t bear this loss alone. After all, if it wasn’t for you, I, Huang Dechang, wouldn’t have come looking for Liang Ping.”

Father Zhao did not relent. “Don’t think that I will take responsibility for the stupid thing you did. If you have the ability, come and deal with the Zhao Corporation.”

Father Zhao wanted to shed all pretense of cordiality with Huang Dechang.

Huang Dechang’s company was not as good as the Zhao Corporation, so there was no need for him to be on good terms with him.

If they shed all pretense of cordiality, they would shed all pretense of cordiality.

The veins on the back of Huang Dechang's head were throbbing violently.

Father Zhao threatened again, "I advise you not to do anything petty. After all, it's very easy for our Zhao Corporation to deal with you."

After saying that, he hung up the phone.

Huang Dechang looked at his phone. He was so angry that his whole body was trembling, and his body was also emitting a sense of powerlessness.

He knew long ago that he should not go to the Principal of Imperial Capital University to curry favor with Zhao Biao and ask Qin Sheng to drop out.

Zhao Biao was a despicable person.

Even if he was in trouble, he would not help him.

There was no need to deliberately curry favor with such a person.

However, no matter how much Huang Dechang regretted it, there was no way to redeem it.

On the other side, Father Zhao called Zhao Xiang again and told her the whole story.

Zhao Xiang was stunned for a moment and said in disbelief, "Qin Sheng's man actually paid 2.7 billion for the shares of Imperial Capital University? Is that possible? That man only sat in a car that was worth a few million. How could he casually take out 2 billion?"

"No matter what, Xiang Xiang, in front of Qin Sheng, you have to control your temper. A person who can take out 2 to 3 billion is not simple," Father Zhao instructed.

He had a headache. He only had one daughter, Zhao Xiang. He had spoiled her since she was young. When she caused trouble, he would take care of it. Hence, he had cultivated Zhao Xiang's arrogant look.

If the other party did not have any background, there was no harm in offending her.

However, it was obvious that Qin Sheng had a big background.

Father Zhao had been in the business world for many years. He knew who could be offended and who could not.

Father Zhao did not want Zhao Xiang to go over and provoke Qin Sheng.

Zhao Xiang agreed unwillingly, "Alright."

Father Zhao nodded in satisfaction. "Xiang Xiang, if you don't take the initiative to provoke Qin Sheng in school, but if Qin Sheng wants to deal with you, just tell Father. Our Zhao family's daughter cannot be bullied by others."

Chapter 780: Was Isolated

After giving these instructions, Father Zhao still had things to do, so he did not continue to talk to Zhao Xiang on the phone.

Zhao Xiang held her phone and frowned.

She was very puzzled. Why would that man give out so much money?

Lin Haocheng in the photo appeared in Zhao Xiang's mind. She frowned. Was it another man who kept Qin Sheng?

Zhao Xiang gritted her teeth.

What kind of ability did Qin Sheng have to be able to seduce so many men?

She even made them spend billions to invest in Imperial Capital University?

At noon, Qin Sheng returned. She packed all her things and prepared to move into a dormitory arranged by the Principal.

Shen Jiayue frowned and asked, "Qin Sheng, are you moving out?"

Qin Sheng ignored her. She put the skincare products in her suitcase and zipped it up.

Shen Jiayue said again, "Qin Sheng, are you afraid of us, so you want to live outside? It must be very uncomfortable to be isolated by everyone in the dormitory."

Seeing that Qin Sheng didn't say anything, Shen Jiayue felt that she had guessed correctly.

She sneered again, "Actually, the people in our dormitory are quite good. They can get along well, but who are you pretending to be high and mighty for? Qin Sheng, as your roommate for more than a week, I kindly remind you not to be too aloof."

After Qin Sheng put all those things into the suitcase, she stood up straight.

Shen Jiayue took a step back and put her hands behind her back, her eyes alert.

She thought that Qin Sheng was going to twist her wrist like last time.

Shen Jiayue glared at Qin Sheng. "If you dare to hit me again, I definitely won't let you off."

Qin Sheng sneered. Even if she gave Shen Jiayue a good look, Shen Jiayue would still look for her immediately.

There were always some people in the world who liked to make themselves felt.

"Don't worry, I won't hit you so as not to dirty my hands." Qin Sheng did not hide anything. "I moved out of the dormitory because the Principal arranged a dormitory for me alone, the one by the lake."

Shen Jiayue's eyes widened. "How can that be? Isn't school starting now?"

Why would he arrange a dormitory for Qin Sheng?

Let alone the one by the lake?

There were many school leaders living there, and it was the best place to stay.

Shen Jiayue couldn't figure it out, so she asked again, "Qin Sheng, what's going on? Did you spend money to bribe the school leaders?"

There was a questioning tone in her voice.

Qin Sheng looked at Zhao Xiang, who was sitting in front of the desk, and said with a faint smile, "If I could bribe them, I think Zhao Xiang would have moved there instead of staying in this small dormitory with you."

Zhao Xiang clenched her fists and gritted her teeth. "Qin Sheng, don't be too pleased with yourself."

Qin Sheng had hit the nail on the head.

At that time, she did want a separate dormitory, and Father Zhao had donated a lot of money to Imperial Capital University.

The Principal did not agree.

Just now, she had been paying attention to Qin Sheng's movements. She was very jealous that Qin Sheng could live in the house by the lake.

Qin Sheng narrowed her eyes and said in a good mood, "If you could get a good result like mine, you could also get this kind of treatment, but unfortunately, you can't."

Qin Sheng was very patient as she argued with Shen Jiayue and Zhao Xiang.

Zhao Xiang said sarcastically, "Qin Sheng, are you sure it's because of your college entrance exam that you entered the apartment?"

Qin Sheng raised her eyebrows. She really wanted to know what Zhao Xiang would say next. "What else?"
