Chapter 781 Bigger Fish to Fry

At the entrance to the Origins Pond of Holy Dimension, the panicked Su Family was gathered. They were all trapped within the enchanted barrier and had tried every method to get out of it but to no avail.

In fact, they wanted to retreat as soon as they felt the coercive force from Master Thunder. However, it was already too late by then. Master Thunder needed only a single thought to successfully trap every one of them inside the enchanted barrier.

“What should we do, Young Master?” asked Bao Dao worriedly.

“Calm down. Even a Wisdom Dictator will have weaknesses,” replied Su Chen without flinching. He experienced a near-death experience before, so to him, this was nothing. Moreover, a Wisdom Dictator was a small-fry compared to the people in the Fallen Immortal Mountain.

However, as soon as he said that, the blood-clotting fruit tree and the blood-filled fruit vines suddenly flew toward the void as if being summoned! Su Chen’s expression changed. He immediately tried to pull them back but was blasted away by a terrifying force that forced his head to the ground.

“Big talk from trash like you. Indeed, being a Wisdom Dictator doesn’t make one invincible, but you’re not even qualified to cast your eyes on one!” said Master Thunder, cackling in the sky. He stepped on Su Chen’s body and then took the blood-clotting fruit tree and blood-filled fruit vines from his hands.

Although he was emitting a peaceful aura, the hair on the people of the Su family immediately stood on ends when they laid eyes on him. Not only that, they felt that their heads were about to explode as if they were under immense pressure that they could not bear at all. It caused their hearts to tremble to no end.

The power of a Wisdom Dictator could not be gazed upon directly! Su Changhe looked at Su Chen anxiously. He suppressed his emotions and asked, "What brings you here, Master Thunder?" The look in Master Thunder's eyes was as sharp as knives. "What is the relationship between you and the two little girls?" The four major families entered the Origins Pond of Holy Dimension, and only the Su family came out. Moreover, they also obtained so many Origins treasures as well as the blood-clotting fruit tree and the blood-filled fruit. It did not take a genius to figure out that they were somehow related to the two little girls and the cow. The members of the Su family heaved a sigh of relief internally when they heard his question, for it meant that Nanan and the others had successfully escaped. "Master Thunder, we're just acquaintances. They said that they'd help us obtain the treasures in the Holy Dimension in return for the blood-clotting fruit tree and the blood-filled fruit vines," answered Su Changhe, mixing truth with lies. Of course, he would not reveal their origins, but he also knew that Master Thunder would not easily let the matter go, so decided to craft his answer carefully.

"Master Thunder, you should know that it's impossible for us to bring out the blood-clotting fruit tree and the blood-filled fruit with our strengths alone," added Third Elder.

"Do you think we'll believe your words?" asked a cultivator of the Heaven Plundering Alliance coldly. "Master Thunder, they're obviously lying. Should I torture the truth out of them?"

Master Thunder shook his head, his face calm. He then smiled and said, "This matter isn't urgent. They're like a fish in a barrel now. Let's play with them slowly." "What do you have in mind, Master Thunder?"

"We'll give those people a chance since they want the blood-clotting fruit tree and the blood-filled fruit so badly." Master Thunder's eyes narrowed slightly as the corners of his lips curled up into a bloodthirsty smile. “We’ll wait at the Su family’s place for them to come. We’ll give them three days, and after three days, we’ll raze the entire place to the ground!”

He planned to use the Su family, the blood-clotting fruit tree, and the blood-filled fruit as bait. He would wipe out the entire Su family if Nanan and the others did not come. The Su family was just small potatoes that the world would not miss if they were gone. However, it would be great if they really could capture Nanan and the others by using them as bait. He had a bigger fish to fry after all.

“Take them all away and lock them up!”

Meanwhile, Nanan and Dragin had already arrived at the Fallen Immortal Mountain. Their little faces were full of anger and they were ready to vent it out.

“Miss Dragin, Miss Nanan, you’re back.” The Elite King, who was picking dung, was slightly taken aback when he saw them without Su Chen. “Where’s my helper?”

“We met some baddies in the Origins Realm, and Brother Su has most likely fallen into their hands,” said Dragin.

“What?! Who dares detain my little helper? Take me there this instant!” roared the Elite King furiously with a face as black as thunder.

He had been mentoring Su Chen all this while and found him to be hard-working. He began to give him a heavier workload, which caused him to feel a little maladapted after Su Chen left. Therefore, detaining Su Chen was like slapping him in the face.

“It’s useless for you to go there. It’s not as if you can win against them,” said Nanan frankly.

This snapped the Elite King out of his rage. The three of them—Nanan, Dragin, and the Milk Cow—were all stronger than him. If even they could not handle the baddies, then Nanan was right. It would be useless for him to go there. “Oh, it’s alright then. I’m fine with picking dung alone. I don’t need any help at all.”

Both Nanan and Dragin were dumbfounded as they silently sympathized with Su Chen in their hearts. ‘I pity him for having such an unreliable master.’

Then, they continued up the mountain and soon returned to the four-part architecture.

“Brother Li, we’re back.”

Li Nianfan was comfortably sitting on a chair, sipping tea, and flipping through a book. His face instantly lit up when he saw Nanan and Dragin. “You’re finally back! Did you have fun on your trip?”

Dragin pouted and said, “For the most part.”

Li Nianfan noticed the expressions on their faces and could not help but ask, “What’s wrong?”

“We were having so much fun, and we also found two new fruit trees. But then, some baddies tried to kill us when we tried to bring the fruit trees back, and we lost the fruit trees during our escape,” said Nanan vehemently.

‘Someone tried to kill them?’ Li Nianfan’s heart skipped a beat. He found the whole thing both worrying and funny. How could they still worry about the fruit trees when they were being pursued?

“Don’t think about it too much. They’re just fruit trees, nothing to worry about. I’m just glad that the two of you came back safe and sound,” said Li Nianfan immediately.

“But we managed to bring back some of the fruits, Brother Li.” Dragin placed the fruits on the table as she spoke. It was the blood-filled fruit.

Li Nianfan looked at the small red fruits on the table, raised his brows, and said in surprise, “Those are...wolfberries?”.

Wolfberries were the holy grail when it came to nourishing the body. He never thought he would get to see them in the Immortal Realm. He put down the book in his hand and carefully looked at the wolfberries.

Dragin and Nanan looked at the title of the book curiously. They saw that printed on the cover of the book were a string of words. ‘A Course on Chinese Martial Arts’.

Chapter 782 A Battle Skill That Surpasses All Origins Skills

Nanan could feel her heart thumping wildly against her chest just by looking at the book cover alone, for floating all around the book was the power of Origins. 'A book Brother Li would read must hold unimaginable secrets!'

"Brother Li, can I read this book?" she asked.

Li Nianfan did not even need to think about it. He threw her the book and said with a smile, "Of course, you can. Here, take it."

Then, he realized that the content of the book was of a completely different grade from the cultivating world of immortals. Hence, he added, "The skills in the book are really basic. You should just read it as entertainment."

Without saying anything, Nanan and Dragin quickly flipped open the book. As soon as they opened the book, the first page seemed to overflow with a golden light, dazzling in front of their eyes. This was not an ordinary book as a world opened up in front of their eyes.

"These are clearly supreme divine skills. One move can unleash the potential of the power of Origins, and it can even generate endless changes in an instant. One move after another, complementing each other, and winning over the wonders of heaven and earth!"

Just the first page was enough to immerse Nanan in the book, for it opened up a whole new world for her.

"And Brother Li called these skills basic? And to see it as entertainment?" Although they should be used to Li Nianfan's awesomeness by now, their scalps were still tingling. "Compared to the skills in this book, the Origins skills are just kindergarten level. Even a thousand Origins skills combined can't compare to these!"

They were shocked until they could not be any more shocked. They started to immerse themselves in the book. Before their eyes, the pictures in the book seemed to separate themselves from the paper as they started playing out each move in front of them, eclipsing the whole world.

Li Nianfan ignored them and refocused his attention on the wolfberry. Then, he poured some hot tea and added the wolfberry in. The effect of the wolfberry was very good. It could nourish the liver, kidney, and lungs. Not to mention, it could also remove one's body heat and improve one's eyesight. Overall, one would feel more energetic after drinking it.

Therefore, it was not uncommon to see people carrying a thermos of wolfberry tea once they had reached middle-aged. This might sound stereotypical, but it was undeniable that wolfberries were the best choice for maintaining a healthy body. Drinking wolfberry tea long-term could really benefit the body immensely.

'Of course, I'm not drinking for the health benefit. I just like that taste, that's all,' thought Li Nianfan as he leisurely sipped on the wolfberry tea.

After a while, Nanan and Dragin took their noses out of the book, their eyes revealing looks of enlightenment. They had certainly benefited a lot from the ocean of knowledge. The book contained a kind of battle skill that far surpassed any Origins skills. They were enough to dominate those of the same rank, and even those one rank above it! For example, a person's strength can only exert 10 attacks at most without the battle skills, but with these battle skills, one could exert 20 or even 100 attacks!

Then, Dragin noticed the tea Li Nianfan was drinking and asked curiously, "Brother Li, are wolfberries used for making tea?"

“That’s right. You can eat them, too.” Li Nianfan nodded and then said, “But the quality of this wolfberry isn’t that great. It’s not fleshy enough and the taste is a little lacking.”

‘This wolfberry was grown in the Origins Pond of Holy Dimension, so of course, it isn’t that great. I bet the quality will be ten times higher if Brother Li planted it!’ thought Nanan and Dragin knowingly.

“Brother Li, Dragin and I will definitely bring the vines back for you!” said Nanan determinedly.

Dragin nodded vigorously and said, “Brother Li likes to drink wolfberry tea, so we must bring back the wolfberry vines!”

Li Nianfan nearly coughed out his tea. “Nonsense! It’s not that I really like it. It’s just that I’d drink it from time to time.” After a pause, he said worriedly, “Also, have you forgotten that the two of you were nearly killed by the baddies? The two of you should stay home until things calm down.”

Nanan tilted her chin arrogantly and said, “Humph! We weren’t fully prepared the last time, but this time we’ll definitely bring the fruit trees back!”

Initially, Nanan and Dragin returned to ask for reinforcements, but after reading ‘A Course on Chinese Martial Arts’, they suddenly decided to take matters into their own hands.

'Brother Li must've taken out this book because he wants us to learn the skills inside, so we can take revenge on our own!' With the book in their hands, Nanan and Dragin led the Milk Cow to the backyard. Then, they stayed there to practice martial arts.

"Ha!" Nanan shot out like an arrow and punched the space in front of her. An explosion resounded in the air, deafening all those around them. With her power, this punch should have formed a terrifying shock wave, blasting away everything in front of her. However, what was extremely strange was that, except for the sound, it did not cause the slightest damage. Not even the space trembled. The power of Origins was clearly condensed on her fist, and there were even a lot of Origins circulating her. It would be a grave mistake to think that the punch was not powerful. Even a third-step Wisdom Elite would be instantly killed with that punch. That was exactly what made the battle skills so terrifying-it could maximize the power of Origins, so that every trace of power could be concentrated on where it mattered.

The power of a Wisdom Elite was very terrifying. Each strike used an immense amount of Origins which inevitably causes the power to be scattered. Even the Origins skills, though powerful, actually consumed a lot of unnecessary power. It was just like using a thick stick to poke the ground, only a shallow mark would be made, but with a small needle, a deeper mark could be made.

Although the cultivation base of Nanan and Dragin did not improve significantly after practicing, the control of power and the skills in battle they gained were incomparable.

Nanan and Dragin exhaled softly as they finished their practice. They could feel that their mana had condensed a lot. They looked at each other, smiled, and continued to read the book. "The last half of the battle skills are so difficult. I can't make sense of them at all," said Dragin in dismay.

"These battle skills are so much harder to cultivate even though they don't have the destructive power of an Origins skill. But there's no denying that they're more useful than the Origins skill, for they were born to be used in battle!" exclaimed Nanan. She then sighed and continued, "It'll be hard for us to master it within a short time."

“Then, should we continue to practice?” asked Dragin.

A cold light flashed in Nanan’s eyes and in a thick voice, she said, “No. We should go get our revenge first!”

They had entered a bottleneck. It was better if they could gain more battle experience. Besides, she was no longer afraid of Master Thunder now that she had leveled up. The most important thing for them to do now was to rescue Su Chen and the others. They shuddered when they thought of what would happen if they arrived late.

Chapter 783 Torture and Interrogation

“Brother Li, we’re off to bring the fruit trees back to you,” said Nanan and Dragin. Then, they rushed out of the four-part architecture. Blackie, who was bored out of his mind and lying on the ground, looked at the two girls’ retreating figures. He rolled his eyes, jumped up, and quickly followed them.

Meanwhile, at the Su family’s home on the Promise Star, the entire Su family had been reduced to prisoners with Master Thunder as their captor. In the Su family’s yard, in addition to Master Thunder, there was also a middle-aged man in a black long shirt, who was looking at Master Thunder in surprise.

“Master Thunder, surely it’s not worth calling me here just to tell me that you got your hands on the blood-clotting fruit tree and blood-filled fruit vines.” The middle-aged man’s tone was a little displeased as he continued, “Is this what you call a matter of great importance? Did you ask me to come here just so you could show off?”

The middle-aged man was Master Lightning, one of the four domain masters. He was also a half-step Wisdom Dictator. Not long ago, he received a message from Master Thunder claiming that he had discovered a matter of great importance that contained a huge opportunity. Hence, he rushed over as quickly as possible. In fact, he even moved around his schedule to accommodate him.

“Haha, of course not.” Master Thunder smiled and said, “Master Lightning, this matter is no trivial matter. We’ll definitely be able to make an extraordinary contribution to the Heaven Plundering Alliance if we pull this off. You and I always had an amicable relationship, so I’d like to share this opportunity with you.”

Master Lightning narrowed his eyes and he asked, “And what opportunity may that be?”

“After I sent my men to get the blood-filled fruit from the Origins Pond of Holy Dimension, I unexpectedly came across a bunch of extraordinary people, or to be more accurate, two people and one cow. They’re definitely hiding some kind of world-shocking secret behind them,” replied Master Thunder.

‘Two people and one cow? What kind of lineup is that?’ Master Lightning’s brows furrowed deeper, thinking that Master Thunder was pulling his leg. His expression gradually turned cold. “What secrets can there be?”

Master Thunder paid no mind to Master Lightning’s attitude. “The two people and one cow didn’t only bring out seventy-two Origins treasures from the Origins Pond of Holy Dimension, but they also brought out the blood-clotting fruit tree and the blood-filled fruit vines! You of all people should know the significance of this.”

Master Lightning’s pupils shrank rapidly and his expression finally turned into shock. One would require an extraordinary method to be able to bring out the blood-clotting fruit tree and the blood-filled fruit vines. Originally, he thought that the fruit tree and vines were brought out by the Thunder Master using some special method, so he was shocked to know that it was the two people and cow who brought it out.

“How did they do it?” he asked.

“And that is the million-dollar question. They have so many tricks that they managed to escape my grasp,” said Master Thunder with a smile.

Master Lightning nodded and said, “I have to admit that I find the whole thing interesting, but I really want to know why you called me here.”

“I have a hunch that they’ll come back for the fruit tree. Think of all the contributions to the Heaven Plundering Alliance we could bring once we join forces to take them down,” answered Master Thunder.

In actual fact, he felt that it was not safe for him to go at it alone, so he called Master Lightning for help. Master Thunder had always been cautious. Nanan and the others had certainly left a deep impression on him. Coupled with their mysterious origin, he knew he could not underestimate them if they really came back for revenge. Master Lightning being there would greatly increase his chance of winning the battle.

Master Lightning saw the scruples in Master Thunder’s eyes but chose not to point it out. Instead, he just said evenly, “I hope they do come back for revenge. If not, this trip will be wasted.”

At that moment, a man in black armor walked over quickly and said respectfully, “Greetings, Masters. I’m here to report that the dictator bloodline of the original Su family’s young master Su Chen was taken away and he was subsequently exiled to the Ancient Forbidden Area. He should've died there, but instead, he came back with the two people and the cow not long ago. They performed a flawless counterattack on those who wronged him."

"The Ancient Forbidden Area?!" exclaimed Master Thunder and Master Lightning in unison. They looked at each other and saw the disbelief and excitement in each other's eyes.

"So, it turns out that this matter has something to do with the Ancient Forbidden Area. Hahaha! This makes it even interesting! There's definitely something earth-shattering going on around there!" said Master Thunder excitedly.

Master Lightning's anger disappeared instantly and he said excitedly, "Master Thunder, it'll definitely be a great achievement if we pull this off. Maybe we'll even be handsomely rewarded and we might get to breakthrough to the true realm of Wisdom Dictator! You're truly a good friend for sharing this opportunity with me."

"Bring Su Chen to me now!" ordered Master Thunder hurriedly. "And bring his father, Su Changhe, too."

In no time at all, Su Chen and Su Changhe were brought over. Master Thunder stared at Su Chen and got straight to the point. "Tell me, Su Chen, is your recovery related to the Ancient Forbidden Zone? What opportunity did you come across there?!"

Su Chen's eyes were blurred. In his eyes, Master Thunder seemed to be as big as heaven and earth and his tone carried an irresistible majesty. All this made him want to answer his questions. However, he suddenly recalled all the pressure he had to suffer during his time as a gong farmer and Master Thunder's image shattered, causing him to wake up from his daze instantly.

"I don't know what you're talking about," answered Su Chen. Master Thunder sneered and said, "You keep surprising me. Not everybody can break free from my coercion."

"Boy, don't play stupid with us. We'll make sure the Heaven Plundering Alliance rewards you well if you tell us everything you know. Why, even the entire Su family will rise to great heights. On the other hand, I'll make sure the Su family dies if you don't tell us what you know, and I'll start with your father!" threatened Master Lightning coldly.

Coercion and temptation-Su Chen had been put between a rock and a hard place. Still, he chose not to divulge anything.

Master Lightning's eyes turned cold. He suddenly raised his hand and pointed at Su Changhe. Instantly, a gray flame erupted on Su Changhe's body.

"Ahhh-!" Su Changhe did not have any burn marks on his body, but his face was extremely distorted as if he was enduring boundless pain.

"This is the soul-refining demon flame which burns the Primordial Spirit. The pain is ten thousand times that of having one's body dismembered. Your father's Primordial Spirit should provide enough fuel for the flame to burn for ten thousand years!" The corner of Master Lightning's lip curled up into a cruel smile. "Ten thousand years of boundless pain. Tsk tsk tsk, it's terrifying just thinking about it"

"Father!" Su Chen's forehead bulged with blue veins. He clenched his fists tightly while his body trembled nonstop. He looked at Su Changhe with guilty red eyes.

Su Changhe endured the unimaginable pain and struggled to say, "Don't... Tell... Them... Anything!"

"I must say both father and son's loyalty is really commendable." Master Thunder laughed. He then raised his hand and a long black worm appeared. "This kind of worm lives on human blood and flesh. The itching and pain aren't something you can imagine. Can you really bear to see your father's Primordial Spirit being burnt while he's being eaten alive?"

Su Chen's mana exploded violently, making him look like a madman. However, he still found himself unable to move an inch. "I'm sorry, father! This is all my fault!!"

"What a filial son you have, Su Changhe," said Master Lightning sarcastically. Then, he raised his hand, ready to inject the worm into Su Change's body.

Chapter 784 Weak and Easy to Take Down You Say

A terrifying force exploded just when Master Lightning was about to inject the worm into Su Changhe's body. Then, the sound of a house collapsing could be heard outside.

A young girl's voice drifted into the ears of Master Thunder and Master Lightning. "We're back!"

"It's them!" Master Thunder's eyes narrowed as his mouth curled into a sneer. He exchanged a glance with Master Lightning before the two of them stepped outside together. Once outside, they saw Nanan, Dragin, and Blackie standing mid-air. Below them were the fallen black-armored men.

"What? No reinforcements? You just replaced the cow with a bald dog?" Master Thunder was taken aback. Then, he sneered and said, "So, you've come here to die!" Master Lightning laughed and said, "Hahaha, isn't this better? They saved us a lot of trouble."

He thought that he would be in for the battle of his life when he received the invitation from Master Thunder. Never would he dream that Nanan and the others would serve themselves up on a golden platter. This was like winning the lottery!

Blackie was immediately unhappy hearing what they said. He started to scold them, "You dare look down on me? Don't you know that I, Lord Dog, am so much more powerful than the cow?"

Master Thunder ignored Blackie, smiled, and muttered to himself, "I was looking forward to having some veal. Oh well, looks like it's going to be dog meat on the menu today."

"Damn you! How dare you ignore me!" Blackie bared his teeth and raised his paws slightly, ready to teach them a lesson they would never forget.

ever

However, Nanan quickly stopped him. “Lord Dog, you promised us that you’d just watch while we take revenge!”

Blackie paused for a moment, then coldly put down his paw. “Alright, I’ll leave the two small fish to you girls,” he said arrogantly. In the backyard, the Su family was dumbfounded. They were all looking at Nanan and Dragin with complex expressions on their faces, feeling both moved and saddened. “Why would they come back after successfully escaping?”

“They should’ve at least brought some reinforcements!”

“It’s over. The Goddesses couldn’t even deal with Master Thunder, so how can they win against both Master Thunder and Master Lightning?”

Su Changhe let out a faint sigh and said with a frown, “They should’ve thought this through.” “Father, they must be confident in winning if they dare to return! After all, they came from that place.” Only Su Chen held onto a glimmer of hope. He knew deep down that where they came from was unusual and held unfathomable secrets.

In the void, Master Thunder and Master Lightning had locked eyes on Nanan.

“Little girls, I’ll make sure you don’t escape this time!” said Master Thunder sinisterly.

“On the contrary, we’re here for revenge, so we won’t be running away,” said Nanan. “Revenge?” Master Thunder laughed sarcastically and continued, “You girls didn’t even bring any reinforcements while I did. What’s this talk about revenge? Hahaha!”

The people of the Heaven Plundering Alliance laughed along with him. It was indeed ridiculous.

“Stop wasting your breath with them. The sooner we wrap this up the better. Take them down!” said Master Lightning who was getting impatient. He then cast a giant palm attack that charged toward Nanan and Dragin intending to trap them inside.

“I’ll handle this guy while you handle the other!” said Nanan. Without hesitation, she then rushed out and punched the giant palm phantom.

“As if a mere Wisdom Elite like you could disarm my attack!” said Master Thunder with a scoff. Although the palm strike was not an ultimate spell, the power contained within was still above a Wisdom Elite. His mana was raging violently around his body, and the giant palm became more solid, ready to wipe out Nanan anytime.

Nanan remained calm. She slightly leaned back her body, her arm stretched out to the maximum. Then, she shot forward like an arrow from a bow. At that moment, all her strength was condensed in her fist, and the power of Origins in the void was also pulled into it, making Nanan’s fist like a vortex of power. The giant palm exploded on impact, but Nanan did not stop as she continued onward with her fist pointing at Master Lightning.

“How can this be?!” Master Thunder’s eyes widened and he exclaimed in disbelief. He could clearly sense that the power that burst forth from Nanan’s fist was not as strong as his attack. However, her power was condensed, and was able to pinpoint the giant palm’s weakest spot.

In theory, it sounded simple, but in practice, it required unimaginable control of power. Not to mention, precision. How was it possible for a little girl like Nanan to achieve it? She was only a third-step Wisdom Elite after all, while he was a half-step Wisdom Dictator!

Seeing that Nanan was charging straight at him, he quickly snapped out of his shock and said solemnly, "Dammit! I've underestimated you!"

Then, he met Nanan's punch with one of his own. The two fists collided and the space around Nanan instantly exploded, sending her flying. However, she suffered no injuries.

Everyone was dumbfounded. Not being hurt the first time could be attributed to the power being lessened from a long-range attack, but the second attack was fist-to-fist combat!

"How is it possible for her to be unscathed the second time?"

"How can this be? How can a Wisdom Elite withstand two attacks from a half-step Wisdom Dictator?!"

"Why did she run away at that time when she's actually this powerful?"

“She must be using some kind of secret technique. However, I don’t think she can continue like this.”

“That sounds logical.”

While everyone was talking, Nanan rushed toward Master Lightning again. Master Lightning snorted and his expression became solemn as he got ready to launch another attack.

He could feel that there was a strange force in Nanan’s punch just now. It was like the tip of a needle, piercing his own power so that it would leak into the surrounding area. That was what caused the space around Nanan to shatter.

Soon, he collided with Nanan again, and just as he expected, Nanan was blown away. Just like before, she quickly stabilized her body and charged at Master Lightning again.

“Let’s just see how long you can withstand my attacks!” Master Thunder sneered as he cast another palm strike toward Nanan. “Ha!” shouted Nanan as she cast out her own palm strike. This time was no different from the last two times. She was sent flying again. However, compared to the previous two times, the distance she flew was much shorter. This time, she only needed to take five steps to stabilize herself, and with every step, the void beneath her feet exploded as she unloaded her power into the void!

Seeing this made the Master Lightning’s heart skip a beat. Frowning, he glanced toward Master Thunder and asked, “Weak and easy to take down you say? Are you kidding me?”

Master Thunder did not answer him. He was actually feeling more panicked than Master Lightning. Three days ago, he could clearly suppress Nanan with ease. What could have possibly changed in the three days since he last saw them for them to become this much stronger?

There was only one explanation for this—they must have trained hard to improve themselves during the last three days. His scalp began to crawl when he thought of this.

Chapter 785 Suppressing with Pure Power

The Wisdom Dictator was named as such because he could dictate the lives of everyone in the world. In front of a third-step Wisdom Elite, the Wisdom Dictator symbolized invincibility. Today, however, this theory had been broken.

Not to mention the people of the Heaven Plundering Alliance, even the people of the Su family were stunned with disbelief. Even if both Master Thunder and Master Lightning were only half-step Wisdom Dictators, their current strength should put them way above a Wisdom Elite.

“Su Chen, you were right. There might just be a chance for them to win against the Wisdom Dictators!” said Su Changhe with shock.

“Three days... It took them only three days...” murmured Su Chen with a bitter smile. He was shocked at first but then found it unsurprising after recalling how his cultivation grew by leaps and bounds after he became a gong farmer employed by the expert.

“This is impossible! What kind of battle skill is this?!” cried Master Lightning furiously. It was then everyone discovered that Nanan had mounted a counterattack on him!

She was punching and kicking Master Lightning with fists and legs filled with great power like a surging river. Previously, she was sent flying by Master Lightning's punches but now, facing the same attacks, she could skillfully neutralize it with her power.

At the same time, Nanan's movements were extremely agile. After punching Master Lightning, she would get into a strange stance as she prepared to unload her force with the next attack. Regardless of whether the attack was blocked by Master Lightning, Nanan's next attack would definitely fall like a downpour, causing him to be in a flurry.

From a bystander's point of view, Nanan was actually suppressing Master Lightning. They had to pinch themselves to see if they were dreaming

"This is unbelievable! The power of a Wisdom Elite could actually counter the power of a Wisdom Dictator!"

"That little girl's so terrifying. Her background must be earth-shattering to have such a powerful secret skill!"

"What kind of battle skill is this? It was as if it was born to be used for battle. And did you all notice how the surrounding Origins are pulled along with the little girl's movement?!"

"This battle skill can mobilize more Origins than any of the Origins skills I know! And it seems to be getting even more powerful with each strike!" Everyone was in an uproar. They were all filled with shock and the desire to claim the battle skills for themselves.

Master Lightning's face became more and more serious. Although he was not injured, the fact that he was being beaten by a little girl was enough for him to want to dig a hole and die.

"Master Thunder, did you call me here just so you could watch me make a fool out of myself?!" roared Master Lightning.

"Don't panic, I'll help you!" said Master Thunder. He was just about to enter the battlefield when he was stopped by Dragin. What was even more shocking was that Dragin also possessed the same battle skill as Nanan, making it impossible for Master Thunder to go to the aid of Master Lightning. This made Master Lightning's face even gloomier. His eyes flickered and he started laughing suddenly. "We shouldn't use brute force against them. Instead, we should suppress them with our pure power!"

Instantly, the momentum around him exploded like a cannonball! The terrifying power overflowed like an avalanche, forcing Nanan to retreat. Then, with a flick of his wrist, a dark red square cauldron suddenly appeared in his hands and the thick Origins instantly boiled and gathered in the square cauldron. "Ten thousand Origins of Fire gather in me, burn the sky, and refine all things!" In an instant, a dark red flame rose into the sky from the square cauldron and swept over Nanan in a blink of an eye!

"Master Lightning has finally taken out his Origins Ultimate Treasure, the Heaven Burning Cauldron!",

"The flame in this cauldron is the divine fire that burns in the sky. It's known to be able to smelt all laws and Origins!"

"Previously, Master Lightning used the burning fire to annihilate the entire Green Spirit Sect. Even the sect master, who was a half-step Wisdom Elite, couldn't withstand it and perished in the flames."

“We’re going to win for sure!”

The eyes of the people from the Heaven Plundering Alliance lit up as they looked at the dark red flames with awe. On the contrary, everyone in the Su family was pale with worry.

“Dammit! How can the mighty Wisdom Dictator use pure power and Origins Ultimate Treasure on a junior who’s only a third-step Wisdom Elite?”

“It’s over, that’s the Heaven Burning Holy Fire. It’s famous throughout the entire Origins Realm on account of its terrifying destructive power.” “It seems that two Goddesses’ battle skills can only be used for hand-to-hand combat. How will they ever defend themselves against the flames?”

Master Lightning cackled loudly and his eyes were filled with pride and excitement. He had to admit that Nanan was strong, but it was exactly her strength that excited him. Even though the battle skills she had were more like a strange cultivation method than actual skills, and that the highest-grade Origins skill could not even compare to it, he could not deny that it was not only powerful but useful in mobilizing the infinite power of Origins. It enabled the cultivator’s strength to advance by leaps and bounds!

He would have the battle skills in his very fingertips as long as Nanan was subdued. Not to mention, the shocking secret she possessed! Thinking of this, he became even more motivated, and he quickly used his mana to urge the Heaven Burning Cauldron. “Refine!” The dark red flames flowed like water and seemed to be alive as it turned into a huge gaping maw, coming down on Nanan. Seeing this, Nanan’s face became solemn. With a flick of her wrist, her shovel appeared in her hands. Then, she started to practice martial arts on the spot! As she cultivated, more and more power of Origins was drawn around her, forming a force that could not be ignored.

“Useless!” Master Lightning’s eyes narrowed and he quietly manipulated the Heaven Burning Holy Fire to rush toward Nanan. Just when the giant flaming mouth approached Nannan, all her power suddenly condensed into a single point on the shovel. Then, the strongest force exploded as it smashed against the flames!

Bang! The huge flaming mouth dissipated. Nanan’s face was expressionless as she continued with her practice as if nothing had happened. “Holy Fire Purgatory!” Master Lightning scoffed and urged the Heaven Burning Cauldron even harder. The cauldron spun between his palms, emitting a dazzling red glow. The flames boiled like a raging sea as they tried to engulf Nanan.

However, the aura formed by Nanan’s martial art practice blocked the flames. At the same time, she would deal a blow with her shovel whenever a huge wall of flame rushed out to devour her.

On the other side, Master Thunder had summoned the thunder prison, trapping Dragin in it. Thunderbolts and lightning intertwined with each other, and the power they contained was enough to annihilate a third-step Wisdom Elite.

Cold beads of sweat began to form on both Nanan’s and Dragin’s foreheads, and there were signs of fatigue in their eyes. Anyone could tell that they were under enormous pressure. Even though they seemed to have blocked all attacks, they knew that they would be dead if they made one wrong move.

Although the battle skills they learned were miraculous and their manipulation power was superb, the requirements for use were obviously extremely high. Nanan and Dragin would make a mistake sooner or later if they continued to use it at such high intensities. Moreover, it was not as simple as blocking the attacks now that they had found themselves trapped in the fire and thunder prison. Even if the attacks ceased, it was only a matter of time before they would be eroded by the high temperatures of the flame and the paralysis of the thunder.

Chapter 786 Being Used as a Whetstone

Above the Su family's place, the sea of fire roared as the lightning shocked the world. Nanan and Dragin were trapped in the fire and lightning prison respectively, as if armageddon had descended upon them. They would be annihilated at any time. They did not dare to slow down their movements as they neutralized the attacks with their battle skills.

"Die!" shouted Master Lightning and Master Thunder at the same time with savage grins on their faces. The endless flames and lightning erupted instantly, washing over Nanan and Dragin in a domineering way.

The sea of fire and lightning blanketed everything, blocking everyone on the outside from seeing what was going on inside. However, everyone could feel the all-consuming power that erupted from Master Lightning and Master Thunder. It combined with the lightning and flames, frantically suppressing Nanan and Dragin.

"How will they ever survive this?" Su Changhe pursed his lips, his eyes filled with worry. It was already a miracle that Nanan and Dragin were still alive by this point.

Holding his breath, Su Chen said nothing, but his gaze never left the sea of fire and lightning.

Time passed slowly, and Master Lightning and Master Thunder still showed no signs of wanting to cease their attacks.

Half an hour, an hour...

The expressions on everyone's faces turned odd, and some people were even feeling a little sleepy. 'When will this end? Even a half-step Wisdom Dictator should be dead by now. What are Master Thunder and Master Lightning still doing?'

"It's been an hour! The two little girls should be dead by now."

"How's this possible? How can they have so much power in them?!"

"Those are the Heaven Burning Holy Fire and the Earth Destroying Thunder for crying out loud. No way a mere third-step Wisdom Elite could withstand them!"

"Unbelievable. Truly unbelievable."

"Look! Master Thunder and Master Lightning's faces seemed to be getting more and more solemn."

"The flames and lightning have changed!"

Everyone looked closely, only to find that the flames and lightning seemed to be pulled apart by some kind of force, making way for a vortex to appear in the center. Gradually, the outlines of two figures could be seen emerging from the vortex, and they were none other than Nanan and Dragin who never ceased in their defense. It could be an illusion, but everyone clearly sensed that Nanan and Dragin's auras had become even more terrifying. There seemed to be a kind of shocking power awakening within them.

Master Lightning's pupils shrank suddenly and then, he screamed in horror, "They're actually using our pressure to breakthrough!"

The scene from the first fight began to replay rapidly in his mind. From the initial bombardment of being knocked into the air, to being able to unload the force at close range, and then to throwing out punches even while in the flames... Nanan was clearly honing her battle skills and using them to turn the tables. This had been their plan all along!

Master Thunder's heart skipped a beat. "Quick, stop them!"

'Where did these two freaks come from? Again and again, they manage to come up with weird skills! It's already hard enough dealing with them at this time, and it'll be even more difficult to suppress them if they really break through!'

With a roar, both Master Lightning and Master Thunder rushed over to where Nanan and Dragin were. Master Lightning flicked his wrist, and the endless Holy Fire turned into a terrifying fire snake. It then wrapped itself around Nanan tightly while the Burning Heaven Cauldron flew out of his hand and came crashing down on Nanan. Master Thunder also summoned the endless lightning to converge into a huge lightning sword which then came slashing down on Dragin's head.

However, terrifying airwaves suddenly erupted from within Nanan and Dragin as if they had awakened a latent power. The majestic force rose to the sky. Yes, they had broken through to the realm of half-step Wisdom Dictator, too, making them on par with both Master Thunder and Master Lightning.

Nanan and Dragin chuckled. Then, they slammed a savage punch, instantly blasting away the flames and lightning around them. In the next moment, the fist phantom collided with the Heaven Burning Cauldron and the sword made of lightning.

The power they displayed was clearly the power of a Wisdom Dictator, but shockingly, there was no terrible aftershock. Because the two of them had attained perfect mastery over their power, there was no wasted power at all.

Master Thunder and Master Lightning were instantly sent flying in a parabolic arc while leaving a trail of blood in their wake. The bones in their bodies were all shattered while their hands had completely turned into powder.

However, their bodies recovered as soon as they urged their Origins of Life to heal themselves. Then, they were staring at Nanan and Dragin in horror. As for the other members of the Heaven Plundering Alliance, they were looking at them incredulously with eyes that were about to pop out of their sockets.

“Oh my God, what did I just see? How could they not die but breakthrough instead under the flames and lightning of Master Thunder and Master Lightning?”

“Did...did they just send Master Thunder and Master Lightning flying? Are they no match for two little girls?”

“Half-step Wisdom Dictators! They actually became half-step Wisdom Dictators!”

“The geniuses in the Origins Realm would curl up in shame if they knew about the existence of these two little girls!”

The people of the Su family, who were previously in despair, were even more confused. They were so surprised that they thought they were hallucinating.

The corners of Su Chen's lips curled up into a smile. "Geniuses of the Origins Realm? How can you compare them with the Goddesses? They're the followers of the expert, after all! Besides, not to brag or anything, even I, a gong farmer, can easily suppress those geniuses."

"They're so gobsmackingly strong!" Su Changhe was truly dumbfounded. He suddenly realized that all his common sense did not apply to Nanan and the others. As Su Chen said, the person backing them was beyond his imagination.

"What kind of courage does one need to challenge a Wisdom Dictator with the strength of a third-step Wisdom Elite, and on top of that, to sharpen one's self from the coercion?" asked Third Elder with awe.

Only those who were extremely confident in themselves and who were unafraid of death would dare to do that. By this fact alone, Nanan and Dragin were worthy of being called geniuses. Master Lightning's face contorted in anger. "You were actually using us as a whetstone?"

Nanan blinked and said innocently, "Yes, and you should feel honored to be our whetstone."

"Honored? Hahaha! Then, you should feel honored to die under the God-Killing Bow!" Master Thunder cackled maniacally, his killing intent horrifying and shocking. With a flick of his wrist, he took out a piece of jade, infused it with his mana, and then threw it up into the sky.

Instantly, all the power of Origins gathered and condensed into a golden longbow phantom! An extreme killing aura enveloped all the onlookers as soon as the bow appeared, sending chills up everyone's spines. It seemed as if it was born to kill, and whenever it appeared, a trail of death would surely follow in its wake.

“What’s this?” Nanan and Dragin frowned at the same time. They sensed a familiar aura from the longbow phantom.

Chapter 787 You’re Up, Blackie!

The golden longbow was suspended in the void like the sun, shining dazzlingly. A mysterious aura overflowed from it, making the world pale and dimming the light of the sun and moon. Everyone could feel that there was a shocking power hidden in the longbow, and it was just a phantom!

Dragin and Nanan were shocked. They faintly felt a familiar aura from the longbow but they could not put their fingers on it.

“We humbly request the executor to kill the Gods with one arrow!” said both Master Thunder and Master Lightning coldly with murderous intent glinting in their eyes.

As their mana poured into the longbow, a human-shaped phantom appeared behind the longbow phantom. The human-shaped phantom seemed to be a middle-aged man. He held the longbow and slowly pulled the string.

The world seemed to be pulled apart and a terrifying power shook the void. The surrounding aura gathered rapidly, draining the aura of the void in an instant, making the place a vacuum! Endless power gathered into long golden arrows that contained the might of destroying the sky and the earth. Their targets were Nanan and Dragin.

“That’s the Origins Summoning Jade. I never knew they possessed the power left over by The Executor!”

“These two little girls are really amazing. They forced Master Thunder to use the Origins Summoning Jade!”

“Well, compared with these two little girls, the Origins Summoning Jade is nothing at all. Their achievement would be enough to cause a commotion in the Heaven Plundering Alliance once they subdued the girls.”

“Yeah, they’re too extraordinary and they have a shocking secret behind them!”

“The Executor’s a real Wisdom Dictator, and he also has the divine weapon that was awarded to him by the leader of the alliance. His strength is too terrifying!”

Everyone in the Heaven Plundering Alliance looked at the phantom in awe. Their breaths were caught in their throats even though they knew they were not his target.

“Shoot!” The golden arrow shot out, leaving a trail of golden light in its wake. The power contained in the arrow was enough to make anyone despair. When everyone saw the golden light, their hair stood on end, giving rise to a feeling of impending disaster.

"It's over!" Everyone in the Su family cried out in unison.

Nanan and Dragin were equally as terrified. However, they chose not to show it on their faces even though they knew they stood no chance against the incoming attack. "Fall back! Let me handle it!" said Blackie suddenly. He walked slowly and calmly in front of Nanan and Dragin. "It seems like it's finally my turn," he said cockily. He continued to move forward, meeting the arrow head-on. This shocked everyone from the Heaven Plundering Alliance and the Su family. It was truly incomprehensible to them.

"This dog's crazy!" "He must be very loyal to sacrifice himself for his master!"

"What he's doing won't even slow down the arrow at all!"

"This dog's lost his mind. He's walking right into the enemy's line of attack!"

"This dog's certainly very extraordinary to be so indifferent in the face of death."

The arrow was approaching Blackie at an astonishing speed. There was no doubt that it could penetrate everything between heaven and earth! In the next instant, Blackie would surely be torn into shreds by the terrifying force and be wiped out from the face of the earth!

However, Blackie, who was still advancing, suddenly turned around and pointed his butt at the golden arrow! An ear-piercing explosion was heard, causing the void to vibrate with it. It sounded as if a diamond was drilling into something extremely hard.

The golden arrow and Blackie had reached a stalemate as the former drilled maniacally against Blackie's butt, trying to sink its tip into his flesh. However, Blackie's dope leather pants remained pristine as ever.

The powerful force spilled out and the power of the collision made everyone's scalp tingle as if they would be wiped out at will! After a while, the power of the arrow was exhausted, growing weaker and weaker. In the end, it dissipated with the wind.

The whole place was silent. Everyone's eyes were bulging out and their jaws were on the ground, completely unable to believe everything that had just happened. "What... What a hard butt!"

"How...how...how's that possible?!"

"What kind of dog is this, and what kind of pants is that?"

"He's so terrifyingly powerful!"

"That was The Executor, a real Wisdom Dictator, we're talking about! How could he not be able to pierce through the dog's butt with the God-Killing Bow?"

"Wow, and here I thought the two little girls were strong! It turns out the dog's the real bigshot here!"

They stared at the dog and were unable to calm the tempest in their hearts.

When did the Origins Realm have a Wisdom Dictator dog? “This is too ruthless!” Su Changhe’s jaw had dropped to the ground and he felt that his worldview had come crashing down. “I thought that cow was already special enough. Never would I imagine that this dog would be even more special than the cow! Su Chen, you’re right, a miracle has indeed occurred.”

The Executor was stunned as well, but he only had the power of a single blow. He looked deeply at Blackie. Then, he disappeared. “This is impossible!” screamed Master Thunder in frustration. His eyes widened in horror. “How could this be? Their combat power greatly increased once they replaced the cow with the dog!”

“Master Thunder, you lied to me! You said these people are weak! Why did you drag me into this? I thought we were friends!” Master Lightning was so frightened that his face went utterly pale and his hair stood on end. He had every intention of surrendering.

How could they win against someone who could withstand an attack from The Executor and his God-killing Bow? This was not the sharing of opportunities but asking for death! At this moment, he only had one thought, and that was to run away as fast as possible to save his own life.

Master Thunder had the same thought in mind. He was already preparing to make his escape. “The leather pants that dog’s wearing is probably as powerful as the God-killing Bow. Looks like only The Executor could defeat him.”

However, before they could make their escape, their pupils widened in horror because a terrifying pressure was bearing down on them, rendering them immovable.

“Do you think I’d let the two of you escape just like that after stabbing my *ss?” questioned Blackie coldly and sternly.

Then, a giant phantom dog paw phantom blanketed the sky, quickly making its descent above their heads as if they were flies and his paw was the flyswatter.

Chapter 788 Garbage Ultimate Treasures

“No!” Master Thunder and Master Lightning looked at the dog paw phantom fearfully. They felt a strong aura of death that almost suffocated them.

‘Don’t even think I’m going to go down like that!’ Master Thunder was determined to get out of this. The power in his body raged on as he condensed all his strength. The tears coming out from both of his eyes were not salty water but blood. Such self-inflicted behavior allowed him to briefly escape Blackie’s oppression.

Then, he said to the crystal in his hand, “There...there’s a big change and a huge opportunity in the Ancient Forbidden Area!” Boom! The dog paw phantom crashed down on them, and both Master Thunder and Master Lightning’s Origins of Life were instantly wiped out.

“Did Master Thunder and Master Lightning really just die?”

“They’re half-step Wisdom Dictators. How could they die?”

“Wow, that dog’s actually a Wisdom Dictator dog!”

“Don’t just stop there and gape! We should run fast!”

The black-armored men of the Heaven Plundering Alliance looked at the minced corpses on the ground and their souls nearly flew out of their bodies. Without hesitation, they quickly escaped to the distance. Although they were all Wisdom Elites, they were still no match for Blackie. Unfortunately for them, a giant dog paw phantom fell from the sky and wiped them out.

Suddenly, the world was quiet. Only the stunned people from the Su family were left. They were struck dumb and their minds were buzzing non-stop. They never thought that things would end up like this. It was all too dramatic.

The way everyone was looking at him made Blackie feel really good. “It’s fortunate for you all that I’ve been training with master all this time. If not, I wouldn’t last long in the Origins Realm,” he said proudly.

‘Ma...master?’ This simple word caused everyone in the Su family to tremble as if it was a bomb exploding. ‘That means the master’s even stronger than this Wisdom Dictator dog!’

Su Changhe gulped and asked, “Su Chen, who is this?”

It was also the first time that Su Chen saw Blackie in a battle. His power was more than he could ever imagine. “He’s the pet dog of the expert. As for his power, well...you saw it, too.”

Su Changhe was shocked. The expert was indeed an expert!

He hurriedly stepped forward, bowed to Blackie, and said respectfully, "Thank you, Lord Dog, for saving the entire Su family."

"Oh, it's nothing." Blackie waved his paw dismissively. Then, he asked, "Where are the fruit trees?"

"Here, Lord Dog. The fruit trees are here." Third Elder hurriedly walked over with the blood-filled fruit vines and the blood-clotting fruit tree. He handed them over to Blackie in awe. At the same time, he also brought over the Ultimate Treasures that were taken from the Origins Pond of Holy Dimension.

Blackie glanced at the treasures and said with disgust, "Don't give me this garbage."

'Gar...garbage?' Everyone was speechless and they almost vomited blood. They were willing to give up their lives for these treasures, and yet, they were nothing but garbage to Blackie? They should just dig a hole and curl up inside it.

'Even if he comes from an extraordinary background, he shouldn't call these Ultimate Treasures garbage. His horizon's way too high for us!' thought everyone in the Su Family in their hearts, not daring to say it out loud.

In short, they could not for the life of them understand why Blackie would call those Ultimate Treasures garbage. Nanan and Dragin carried the fruit tree on their shoulders, in a hurry to go back with Blackie so that Li Nianfan would get the fruit trees sooner.

"Lord Dog, Goddesses, can the Su family follow you?" asked Su Chen respectfully.

The Heaven Plundering Alliance had suffered heavy losses, and they would definitely make the Su family pay. In other words, the Su family would be wiped out by the people of the Heaven Plundering Alliance if they stayed there. Unsurprisingly, Su Chen could not let that happen.

“Whatever you want. You don’t need to ask permission from us,” said Nanan nonchalantly. “Thank you, Goddesses,” said Su Changhe, overjoyed.

The people of the Su family quickly got ready and followed Nanan and the others with a feeling of apprehension and reverence. They arrived first at the second dimension, which was still the same as before-full of deathly silence. There was no trace of power there, and even with the seven dimensions all connected to each other, it would take at least 10,000 years for anything to change in the second dimension.

“This is where the Ancient Forbidden Area was taken down. It seems like everything was completely destroyed by the war,” said Su Changhe sorrowfully.

“By the way, why did people from the Origins Realm want to come here?” asked Dragin curiously.

There should be nothing that could attract the geniuses from the Origins Realm since the Ancient Forbidden Area was sealed by Heaven, and not to mention the Origins was cut off, making the conditions incomparable to the Origins Realm. Why would they ignore the seal and enter the Ancient Forbidden Area?

“Actually, it was the Heaven Plundering Alliance who first came up with the idea of taking down the Ancient Forbidden Area, and it was they who forcibly opened up the portal to the Ancient Forbidden Area,” said Third Elder.

Obviously, everyone in the Origins Realm knew of this information.

“No one knows why they did this, but the Heaven Plundering Alliance has always been unpredictable. They’re hellbent on getting their hands on every opportunity, no matter how big or small it is. They’re like locusts during the plague,” added Su Changhe.

While speaking, everyone passed through the second dimension and went straight to the seventh dimension. The whole environment suddenly changed, and the rich Spiritual Qi and Origins aura circulated between heaven and earth. In fact, the amount there was not lesser than that in the Origins Realm.

This surprised everyone in the Su family. This should not be so, for the Ancient Forbidden Area was cut off. Without its roots planted in the Origins Realm, it should be impossible for it to have such strong power. However, their surprise turned into knowing once they remembered that the expert was there.

Afterward, they came to the Fallen Immortal Mountain. The people of the Su family did not dare to disturb the expert. They planned to find a place in the seventh dimension to settle down, but before that, they wanted to see where Su Chen worked. When they came to the place where Su Chen was working, the Elite King was picking manure. Seeing the group, he immediately laughed and said, “Hahaha, well done! You brought back my little assistant. Su Chen, I would’ve gone to save you if it weren’t for Goddess Nanan and Goddess Dragin stopping me. I’ve been feeling so lonely at work without you.”

“Thank you for your concern, Master. I promise to work harder from now on,” said Su Chen, touched. He then took over the manure bucket and manure fork from the Elite King and started to pick up the manure.

Everyone in the Su family started glitching when they saw Su Chen working skillfully. ‘He’s really a gong farmer! And the manure bucket and manure fork are both Ultimate Treasures!’

“Wait a minute... Those aren’t ordinary manure at all!”

“The manure actually contains powerful Origins!”

“I bet those manure are more amazing than elixirs!”

“This...this is incredible! I feel like I’m about to break through by just smelling the manure!”

“Young Master’s so lucky to be a gong farmer!”

Gasp!

All of them were shocked by the extraordinariness of the manure and a layer of goosebumps appeared all over their bodies. At that moment, they suddenly understood why Blackie called all the Ultimate Treasures from the Origins Pond of Holy Dimension garbage. Heck, even calling them garbage was an overstatement because those treasures...were not even half as good as the manure!

Chapter 789 The Whereabouts of the Five Battle Spirit Guardians

‘Today, I was fortunate enough to witness the world of a bigshot. I’ve learned a lot.’

“Su Chen, the expert entrusted you with such an important job because he thinks you can do it, so you must do this job well. Don’t let him down, okay? And under no circumstances should you eat the manure!” said Su Changhe solemnly.

Su Chen pursed his lips while thinking something sounded off about what his father said. However, he still nodded and said, “Don’t worry, father. I’ll definitely make you and the expert proud of the work I do!”

Suddenly, the stele shook violently, and then, an earth-shattering might erupted, condensing into a phantom who looked over to where Su Chen and the others were. Everyone in the Su family widened their eyes in horror when they felt the terrifying pressure bearing down on them.

“Sh*t, that stele’s actually alive!”

“Not only is it alive, but it’s also very powerful. It’s definitely a Wisdom Dictator!”

“It’s too terrifying. It’s worthy of being on the mountain where the expert lives. We can only blame ourselves for being too narrow-minded to think that everything was simple.” “Even the stele’s so awesome, I really don’t deserve to be here at all.”

Everyone took a gulp and spoke in awe. They were not afraid that this stele would hurt them. After all, it lived at the foot of the mountain, so it would definitely not be an enemy.

Third Elder quickly cupped his fist in a salute and apologized, "Greetings, senior. I'm sorry if we've offended you. Please, forgive us for not paying our respects sooner." The stele did not care about all that. It kept its gaze fixed on the Su family and in a voice trembling with excitement, it said, "I can feel Third Brother's aura on you. Did you see him?!"

Then, he turned to Blackie and the others and asked expectantly, "Lord Dog, Goddesses, did you?

'Thi... Third Brother?' Everyone in the Su family was dumbfounded.

However, there was a hint of surprise in Nanan's eyes. When she was in the Origins Realm before, she felt a familiar aura coming off Master Thunder's longbow. She immediately knew where the familiar aura came from when she saw the stele. That longbow must be one of the original seven Battle Spirit Guardians! "Uncle Steele, is Third Brother a red longbow?" asked Nanan.

Boom! The stele shook violently and it almost could not control its aura. "Yes, that's exactly it! You really saw him? How is he? Where is he?" it asked excitedly.

"Uncle Steele, we'll tell you everything, but please, calm down first," said Dragin soothingly. Then, she told the stele everything that had happened in the Origins Realm.

"Heaven Plundering Alliance? How dare they refine Third Brother into a treasure?!" The stele shook violently and bursts of incomparably tyrannical and murderous aura erupted out for it. It was as if it would burst out into the sky and fly straight to the Origins Realm in the next moment.

The seven Battle Spirit Guardians were transformed from the supreme powers of the world in order to suppress Heaven. They contained the pride and blood of the supreme powers, but now, one of them had been refined into a treasure. This was a monstrous humiliation!

“Please, calm down, Uncle Steele. We don’t know where Third Brother is now. Acting rashly won’t do any good,” said Dragin hurriedly.

“How did Third Brother end up in the hands of the Heaven Plundering Alliance?” asked the stele in a low voice.

“Senior, it was the Heaven Plundering Alliance who first entered the Ancient Forbidden Area,” answered Su Changhe.

The stele immediately figured out the link and said angrily, “So, the Heaven Plundering Alliance’s target is us? Dammit!”

Just as its namesake, the Heaven Plundering Alliance, claimed to plunder all the opportunities between heaven and earth. The Ancient Forbidden Area carried the catastrophe of the previous years, and also carried the heaven-sealing remains of the original superpower, so it was only natural for the place to become the target of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. Surely, they would not let go of the opportunity to get their hands on the seven Battle Spirit Guardians when they invaded the Ancient Forbidden Area.

“This means there’s a chance five of my other brothers are all in the hands of the Heaven Plundering Alliance!” The stele’s voice was hoarse with raging fury. The thought of the five brothers being refined into treasures by the people of the Heaven Plundering Alliance made its heart feel as if it was being stabbed by a knife.

Nanan's face flushed red and she said angrily, "The seven Battle Spirit Guardians are the projections of the heroes who suppressed the catastrophe, and you all should be worshiped by the world. What the Heaven Plundering Alliance did is unforgivable. We must rain down payback on them!"

"Don't worry, Uncle Steele, we'll definitely find a way to help you save your brothers," promised Dragin.

After appeasing the stele, Nanan, Dragin, and Blackie carried the fruit trees back to the four-part architecture. They arrived there in no time.

At that time, Shi Tuqin was moving a small bench to the corner of the chicken coop. She then sat down on the small bench and started to carefully draw a chicken. Her face was fixed in concentration as she drew the outlines of the chicken, stroke by stroke. Endless Wisdom intertwined with Origins flowed from the tip of her brush, bringing the drawing of the chicken to life. She was no longer painting but creating a powerful creature! The level of difficulty was not for the faint of heart. She felt that her fingers were as labored as carrying a heavy burden, and that was only from drawing a few feathers!

"I shudder to think how difficult it would be to draw Lord Dog if a chicken is already this difficult. But, I'll only consider myself proficient if I can draw Lord Dog. If only I could draw the expert... No, that's impossible! I shouldn't even think about it!" She hurriedly threw out this unrealistic idea from her mind. Having a goal was a good thing, but not if the goal was unattainable. It would not be a stretch to say that the thought of drawing the expert itself was a kind of blasphemy, given the indescribable level that the expert was in. At the same time, Qin Manyun was playing the Guqin. Her music was completely different from before; there was no fixed rhythm, and it was obvious that she was not playing from any sheet music. If one listened carefully, one would hear the sound of the gurgling stream, blowing wind, and the rustling of leaves harmonizing with the sound of the Guqin. The Guqin sound was blending with nature, using nature as the score to make music together. Endless power flowed around her, interweaving into the most beautiful notes. At the same time, it could instantly explode with enough force to destroy the sky and earth.

In the pavilion, Little Fox was staring blankly at the chessboard, obviously bored out of her mind. Her initial passion for chess had waned after playing the game for a long time; she was no longer so keen on playing chess, or in other words, she was no longer satisfied with playing chess by herself. She thought of the pleasure she felt when she abused her opponents during the chess game last time. This made her want to go out and abuse others again.

Little Fox sighed and said, "I envy Nanan and Dragin. I want to go out to play, too..."

It was at that time, the sound of the creaking door being pushed open could be heard.

"Brother Li, we're back," said Nanan happily.

Li Nianfan, who was drinking the last bit of the wolfberry tea, was stunned for a moment, and then said in surprise, "Back so soon? Oh hey, you really brought back the fruit tree! Well done. These are...wolfberry vines and a red date tree! All good stuff!"

Chapter 790 The Plan

"The red date, also known as jujube, can be made into jujube cakes, and it's also a perfect match with the wolfberry. Combined together, they can be brewed into jujube wolfberry tea, which is a great tonic." The corners of Li Nianfan's lips curled up into a smile, and he continued, "It's a pity that there isn't any snow fungus around, otherwise, we can make jujube snow fungus soup which is really good for the body, too."

"Brother Li, what's a snow fungus? Maybe we can look for it," said Dragin curiously.

“Hahaha, I’m so lucky to have thoughtful people like you. Like mushrooms, snow fungus grows on trees, but it’s very different from mushrooms in shape. It is white and gelatinous, making it easily identifiable,” said Li Nianfan.

Nanan and the others all nodded, silently taking notes in their hearts. Just like that, another small goal was born in their minds. Then, Li Nianfan went to the backyard to plant the red date tree and wolfberry vines. He would make a good cup of tonic tea at harvest time.

Nanan and Dragin stayed back to report the situation of the Origins Realm to the others.

“So, all the catastrophes since the beginning of time could be traced back to the Heaven Plundering Alliance?” asked Shi Tuqin through gritted teeth. She was also a victim of the catastrophe. If it were not for the catastrophe, there would be no Ministry, and her Little White would still be alive. Not to mention, she would not be a hybrid of human and demon.

“It’s obvious the Heaven Plundering Alliance has a huge ambition, but how dare they invade the Ancient Forbidden Area and kidnap the five Battle Spirit Guardians!” said Qin Manyun threateningly. The reason why the Ancient Forbidden Area was a forbidden area was that it contained great danger and chaos. It was the place where the supreme powers sealed the unpredictable Heaven. Only those blinded by ambition like the Heaven Plundering Alliance would dare to go there.

“The Heaven Plundering Alliance would definitely not let this matter slide so easily now that they know who you are. I’m afraid it would target the Ancient Forbidden Area again,” said Fire Phoenix.

“Meh! It’s not as if we’ll let them go easily, too! We’d still make them pay even if they don’t come to the Ancient Forbidden Area! For the sake of Uncle Steele and Sister Willow, I must rescue the other five Battle Spirit Guardians! Moreover, the Heaven Plundering Alliance claims to have plundered everything in the world, so there must be countless treasures in their possession. They might even have the snow fungus Brother Li wants!” said Nanan aggressively.

Daji’s eyes lit up while nodding in agreement. “That’s true! There’s always a deeper meaning to everything Master says. It can’t be a coincidence for him to mention the snow fungus at the same time the Heaven Plundering Alliance appeared. I bet the two are closely linked.”

Dragin pouted and said, “But how will we ever find the Heaven Plundering Alliance? They’ve always kept their location a secret.”

“There are many powerhouses like the Heavenly Palace and the various major sects in the seventh dimension who are willing to work for Master since he’s given them so many opportunities. It’s now time for them to make themselves useful,” said Daji. Many hands made light work, so she was sure that their success rate would be higher if all the major powerhouses went into the Origins Realm together with them.

“I want to go to the Origins Realm, too, sis! I can look for the snow fungus!” said Little Fox excitedly, jumping up and down. “I’m the Demon Queen after all! I can lead my army into the Origins Realm to search for the snow fungus!” Daji said nothing and just stared calmly at Little Fox who immediately stopped jumping around. She then dropped her head and in a small voice, she said, “I just want to help...”

Daji remained silent for a while. Then, she finally said, “You can come with us if Master allows it.”

Little Fox was all smiles when she heard that. “Yay! You’re the best, sis!” she said happily.

Meanwhile, in the Origins Realm, on a particular star in the Northern Star Region, stood many palace buildings. Deep in the most central palace, a middle-aged man was sitting cross-legged. Around him, all kinds of visions such as gold, wood, water, fire, earth, and so on were swirling about, while the endless power of the Origins flowed.

With a closer look, one would find that his surroundings were full of heaven and earth treasures. There was a river made of milky-white Wisdom spiritual liquid, and there was also an Origins fruit with a terrifying aura hanging above his head. In short, there were countless rare treasures. It was a very luxurious place for one to conduct one's cultivation.

Those were all the treasures that the Heaven Plundering Alliance had collected from all over the Origins Realm for countless years, and those were just the tip of the iceberg because the middle-aged man was just an executor in charge of the Northern Star Region. In terms of status, he could only be regarded as the lower management of the Heaven Plundering Alliance, but the treatment of his position was enough to make countless cultivators drool.

Among the many treasures, there was a fire-colored longbow that was the most conspicuous. The longbow was hovering in front of the middle-aged man's chest as it was being refined; its firelight flickering as if it had come alive. Suddenly, the executor's breathing became erratic, and he snapped open his eyes, causing electricity to crackle from the force.

"One of my spirits was destroyed?" he said in a deep voice.

Through the incomplete images transmitted from the spirit, he knew that the ones who suppressed his spirit were two little girls and a bald dog dressed in leather pants.

‘What kind of lineup is this?’ The middle-aged man frowned while all kinds of questions flashed through his mind.

The Heaven Plundering Alliance had branches in every corner of the Origins Realm, and he had seen all kinds of strange things but never a lineup as strange as this. How could such a powerful and strange-looking dog be unknown to him?

He suddenly stood up, and with one step, he instantly arrived at the side hall. There, the jade plaques of both Master Thunder and Master Lightning were broken, meaning to say they had already perished.

The middle-aged man raised his hand and pointed sharply at Master Thunder’s jade plaque.

The next moment, Master Thunder’s last words came floating out from the jade plaque. “There...there’s a big change and a huge opportunity in the Ancient Forbidden Area!”

The Ancient Forbidden Area? The middle-aged man’s pupils shrank rapidly, revealing a hint of excitement.

“Back then, the Battle Spirit Guardians guarded the entrance of The Ancient Forbidden Area with their lives, and they even managed to close it off. I can’t believe someone can actually come out of it after so many years have passed! And how was it possible for such a powerful dog to come out of there? This means that we can continue with the Alliance Leader’s plan,” muttered the middle-aged man to himself.

He immediately raised his hand and pointed at the other two jade plaques which belonged to Master Wind and Master Fire. “Go to the Ancient Forbidden Area immediately to find out the changes mentioned. Remember not to act rashly. There are existences there that can kill you. Your main purpose is to obtain more information!" communicated the middle-aged man.

Master Wind and Master Fire responded immediately, "We'll go as you've ordered!"

Meanwhile, a group of people had entered the second dimension and were proceeding cautiously. Some people had discovered the passage to the second dimension after all seven dimensions were connected. Gradually, some of them discovered that there was a whole new world beyond the dead and silent second dimension, so the others immediately organized themselves into a group to go on an expedition together. Impressively, the Left Messenger was in the group as well.
