Chapter 891: With a Life Like This, What More Can I Ask For?

Daji leaned over and took a look at the blueprints. "If it looks like this, I can just conjure it up with my powers."

Conjure it?

Li Nianfan was taken aback. He felt some anticipation in his heart. As he prepared to agree, he hesitated.

Immortal skills might feel incredibly amazing in his eyes, but directly materializing a room still felt a bit off to him. He felt like looking at that would violate the law of conservation of matter.

After a moment of silence, he shook his head. "No need. Building a room isn't too hard. I'll prepare the materials and it'll be done quickly."

After that, he started to busy himself with the materials.

Even though he could not accept conjuring a whole new room, using those techniques to help with the work was still necessary. With the help of immortal techniques, creating bricks or cement was incredibly easy.

Even averting the flow of the river was incredibly easy. Dragin merely needed to casually use a spell to part the flow of the river, directing the water flow to the river outside of the yard.

After the materials were all done, no one else needed to do anything. Daji and the others used their spells and built the room. Even though they were not a professional construction team, there were no issues with Xiao Bai next to them.

Li Nianfan saw that he no longer needed to worry about the things over there. So, he walked over to the backyard and picked out a few herbs. After that, he started to refine them.

Everyone seemed to have their own tasks. In just a short four hours, everything was done.

Li Nianfan walked into the hot spring room and immediately felt the hot air within. In the massive pool, the water was so clear that the bottom could be seen. The radius of the pool was about five meters, which was incredibly big.

The mist that was wafting above the surface of the water gave everyone the urge to soak inside.

Just looking at it made Li Nianfan's body go soft. It would definitely feel amazing to soak inside.

He poured in the medicine he had prepared.

Nanan curiously asked, "Big brother, what's this?"

Li Nianfan smiled and said, "These medicines will be able to completely relax your body when paired with the hot springs. It's something amazing."

After he poured the medicine, he turned to look. He then noticed Qin Manyun and the others all staring at him with an uncertain look on their faces.

Li Nianfan could not help but jump back.

What did they want?

Shi Tuqin's face reddened slightly as she said, "Then...would you like to soak first, or should we?"

Li Nianfan had a moment of realization.

He noticed he had forgotten something. Even though the hot springs from his past life were shared between sexes, it was not the best thing to do over here. He could soak with Daji and Fire Phoenix, but it was not good if he did it with Qin Manyun, Shi Tuqin, and Little Fox. Especially not Nanan and Dragin.

Shi Tuqin had a complex look on her face. In truth, looking at the expressions on everyone's faces, they were probably too shy to chase him out.

It was fine if everyone bathed together.

Li Nianfan really wanted to say that but held back in the end.

“Ah...”

He fell silent for a moment before he smiled, “How about this, this hot spring is quite big anyway. Let’s place a cloth in the middle. I’ll soak on one side and you can soak on the other. We won’t disturb each other, how about that?”

“That’s a good plan. Let’s do it that way.”

The women naturally had no reason to say no. They immediately installed a cloth screen in the middle of the pool before they rushed to the other side.

Li Nianfan could not help but shake his head with a smile when he heard the giggling coming from the other side. After that, he walked out of the hot springs to prepare himself some wine. After preparing a plate of fruits, he walked back in.

“Wow.”

The temperature was perfect, and it sent a wave of pleasure across Li Nianfan's body. Only his head was out of the water, and he soaked as he felt a sense of laziness.

The fruit platter floated in front of him. There were oranges, watermelons, honeydews, and other fruits on it. There was also a pitcher of amazing wine.

He poured himself some wine and finished it. After that, he leaned into the pool and closed his eyes in enjoyment.

With a life like this, what more could he ask for?

Li Nianfan was incredibly satisfied. His eyes could not help but look over at the screen.

How could a thin screen like that block out the figures of the women there? The silhouettes that came through caused Li Nianfan to blush.

On top of that, the giggling and the sound of splashing water provoked his heart.

Li Nianfan decided to be a gentleman and immediately discarded all his naughty thoughts. He shut his eyes and prepared to focus on the hot springs.

Yet, things never went the way people wanted them to go. The women quickly put their attention on Li Nianfan.

“Hey, what’s happening? Do you guys smell something good?”

“It smells like wine. I smell oranges, too.”

“It’s coming from Brother Li’s side. Could he be sneakily eating something?”

Daji immediately pushed the cloth slightly open. Her beautiful head peaked out in Li Nianfan’s direction. “Oh, so it really is you. Drinking while soaking in the hot springs is such a good idea. How could you enjoy it alone? Why’s your face so red? Is it very hot?”

Li Nianfan forced himself to remain calm. After that, he pushed the food platter over as he said, “Soaking in the hot springs really does feel quite good with some wine. Here, have some if you want to try.”

“Thank you.”

Daji let out a radiant smile before she accepted the fruit platter.

Unsurprisingly, cheers of joy could immediately be heard from the other side. After that came moans of enjoyment from drinking the wine.

Li Nianfan could not help but shake his head with a wry smile. His wine and fruits had been taken away from him.

He looked up at the ceiling with a happy smile on his face. He lamented, "What a carefree life. It would be great if I can keep going on like this."

He noticed that the Gods had treated him quite well in this life. Even though he did not have any immense power or strength, he still lacked for nothing. His life was happy and fulfilling. Could he not be happy with such a happy life?

So what if he had lots of power? Would that make him comfortable?

Those who lived to fight were never able to truly be themselves. Sometimes, even stopping to rest was impossible. They would constantly be pushed forward. They were like a bird without legs that could never afford to stop flying. Only in death could they touch the ground.

Li Nianfan was suddenly incredibly thankful for the system. Thankfully, the system had left before teaching him any cultivation. Otherwise, he might be fighting for his life at that moment, or even fleeing to a certain corner. He would probably be schemed against by countless people. Just thinking about it gave him chills.

Simplicity was happiness!

On the other side, the girls suddenly went quiet. Li Nianfan's mumbling had been very soft, but it could not escape their ears.

They felt a jolt in their hearts. All of them swore in their hearts that they would help the expert eliminate all dangers in the outside world so he could maintain a life like that. No one could disturb him!

Chapter 892: Heading Out

After soaking in the hot spring, Li Nianfan felt incredibly comfortable both inside and out. He listened to the happy laughter coming from the women's side but merely smiled as he shook his head, not joining them.

He knew that women usually took a long time bathing, so he went out of the hot spring and entered the room, preparing to have a nice nap.

When Li Nianfan exited the hot spring room, the laughter from the other side slowly stopped.

Daji lightly sighed as she said, "The gray mist is causing chaos all around the world. The situation's constantly changing. There's also the Heavenly Plundering Alliance constantly scheming in the shadows. The Origins Realm's in an incredibly complicated situation. If we don't deal with all these problems, how could we make sure the expert has a peaceful life?"

Fire Phoenix nodded before saying, "Daji's right. The words the master just said must mean he's...very tired."

The fires of anger flashed in her red eyes. She really wanted to solve all the troubles in the world!

The world would change whether one liked it or not. The Origins Realm constantly shifted. Trouble kept appearing everywhere. Something had even almost happened to Blackie last time. The expert must have seen everything. It would be hard for him to not feel sad.

Even chess masters had times when they were tired. They really wanted to help the expert maintain a peaceful life!

Dragin had her own thoughts as well. “The stories big brother tells us always involve the main character defeating all evil. After that, everyone would live together happily. Big brother must really, really want a life like that.”

Nanan’s eyes sank as she said sadly, “It’s our fault for not taking the initiative. We failed to suppress those evil forces.”

Splash!

At that moment, Daji suddenly stood up from the hot spring. Her feet lightly stepped out of the water as her white dress flew over and draped itself over her body. The scene looked like a painting. It was incredibly beautiful.

However, there was a frosty look in her eyes.

Little Fox was taken aback, “Big sister, you...”

Daji said in a cold voice, “I’m going to go to the Origins Realm.”

To the Origins Realm?

Everyone jumped slightly. They naturally knew what Daji was preparing to do. She was going to cause some trouble.

It seemed like the expert’s words had really stirred Daji’s heart. She suddenly wanted to leave the mountain.

Ever since the Seven Realms were united, Daji and Fire Phoenix decided that they would no longer take any action. They decided that they would stay hidden with the expert and focus on serving him. They would no longer care about the conflicts of the outside world. Yet, the situation in the Origins Realm was far too complicated. Daji was worried that it would affect the expert’s life.

Fire Phoenix said, “I’ll go with you.”

Little Fox and the others exchanged a look before they said, “Then we...”

“You should all just stay home. The two of us will be enough. We’ll be back quickly.”

Daji interrupted them. She looked at Dragin and Nanan and said, “Show me what happened when the person from the Heaven Plundering Alliance fled.”

“Oh...”

Nanan and Dragin did not dare to refuse. They activated their powers and triggered the scene that happened back then.

Nanan had used the Fallen God Bow to shoot down one of Tian Luo’s arms. Then, Dragin had used her tides to hold Tian Luo back. There was already karma formed between the two parties. A normal person would not be able to find any clues, but Daji was able to.

Very quickly, her face shifted as she ascertained Tian Luo’s location. She stepped out with Fire Phoenix and the two of them disappeared.

Qin Manyun and the others looked at where Daji and Fire Phoenix disappeared. They had shocked looks on their faces.

Little Fox exclaimed, “Big sister is so amazing.”

She had an incredible understanding of chess, as well as a lot of talent in a spiritual sense. It was enough to multiply her talents in chess manifold. She was even able to change heaven and earth, turning illusion into reality and truly changing a chessboard.

Yet, she was incredibly certain that it would be impossible if she really wanted to give Daji or Fire Phoenix any trouble. Even within her area of control, Fire Phoenix and Daji would be able to easily overcome it or escape.

Shi Tuqin exclaimed, "They did not even cause any ripples in the Wisdom just now."

Daji and Fire Phoenix had clearly moved in front of them just now, yet they had not been able to feel a single thing. That meant that they could get close to any of them without anyone knowing. The difference in their skills was no trivial matter.

Qin Manyun could not help but purse her lips, "Everyone cultivates next to the expert. I had thought that they would not be that far apart from us. I can't believe the two of them are actually so amazing."

She learned the ways of the zither and songwriting from Li Nianfan. Shi Tuqin learned how to write and draw. Their improvements could be described as soaring. However, compared to Daji and Fire Phoenix, there was still a huge gulf.

In the end, Shi Tuqin found the root cause and lamented, "There's nothing we can do about it. We're only training with the expert during the day. They train with the expert at night.

Little Fox widened her eyes in shock as she said curiously, “Is Big Sister still training with Brother Li even at night? What are they practicing? I’ve seen Big Sister with a red face so many times. Could it be thanks to the training?”

...

At the same time, at the Heaven Plundering Alliance, Tian Luo stumbled back to report his results. He had a pale face and was obviously heavily injured. He had lost his right arm and it was still bleeding.

The injuries caused by the Fallen God Bow were not so easily cured.

He walked deep into the Heaven Plundering Alliance and finally collapsed in front of Zhou Yuanhai.
“Leader, I’ve failed.”

Zhou Yuanhai raised an eyebrow as he said curiously, “What happened?”

“It’s just as you expected, the Heavenly Palace participated in this event as well. I thought that they would not be able to do anything much, but the situation kept changing...”

Tian Luo quickly explained everything that happened.

Zhou Yuanhai’s expression constantly changed. He had a thoughtful glint in his eye as he finally said, “If so many coincidences happen at the same time, they’re no longer coincidences. It was all a setup! Ah, an existence of this level really is amazing. Even if I'm so careful, it's useless. The moment I make the wrong move, everything ends in disaster!"

Tian Luo could not help but say, "Leader, who are you playing against?"

He had been with Zhou Yuanhai for many years and had personally witnessed many of Zhou Yuanhai's plots. The fact that the Heaven Plundering Alliance had reached this state was all thanks to him. Everything in the Origins Realm seemed to be the leader's plaything. Yet, everything he had done seemed to be a setup for this game!

Which game was worth wasting so many years and so many resources?!

Zhou Yuanhai had a deep look in his eyes as he said, "Fighting against God is so amusing! Fighting with people who defy the heavens is endless fun! Fighting against those who can overturn the heavens brings me endless joy!"

After falling silent for a moment, he waved to Tian Luo. "Come, let me treat you."

"Thank you, leader."

Tian Luo had a happy look on his face as he moved over.

Zhou Yuanhai waved his hand and a sliver of power appeared on his fingertips. He had been preparing to use it when he suddenly stopped. There was a sudden apprehension in his heart.

He hurriedly moved back and said carefully, "No, I can't save you. If I do that, I'll develop some form of karma with you. I would've fallen into a trap!"

Chapter 893: Crafty Escape

Tian Luo was speechless.

He stared at Zhou Yuanhai with his missing limb still oozing blood. The two of them continued to stare at each other.

"Leader, you really aren't going to help me?"

Tian Luo could not understand it.

Zhou Yuanhai ignored him, and instead, started to cast another skill. He started to calculate things in detail, and the unsettling feeling in his heart started to intensify more and more.

"Not right, this isn't right..."

He constantly mumbled. In the end, his gaze fell on Tian Luo as he said in realization, "It was you! You developed the karma! You love using karma to chase after others, so how could you not notice it?! Why don't you just die?"

Zhou Yuanhai's head almost exploded as he felt a chill throughout his body.

He had schemed for countless years. There were two reasons he was able to account for everything. The first was that he had lived for long enough, and the second was that he was careful enough!

At that moment, he had a premonition. He was about to face something dangerous that he had never faced before!

Tian Luo laughed and said, "Don't worry, leader. There's no one alive who can chase after my karma."

"What do you know?!"

Zhou Yuanhai's expression sank as he clapped his hands three times." Everyone, come right now!"

In a flash, dark figures burst out from the darkness. They were the central forces of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. At the same time, there were two who walked forward and stood in front of Zhou Yuanhai.

Tian Luo's eyes widened as he looked at the two and exclaimed, "Tian Qing, Tian Ta, you're both here."

“Tian Luo, you made such a mess of the task our leader assigned you and you’re in such a pathetic state. You’re too weak.”

Tian Qing mocked Tian Luo before saying seriously, “Leader, what happened? If you’re gathering us here, are you about to commence the next part of the grand plan?”

Grand plan?

There had been a grand plan, but everything had to be discarded.

Zhou Yuanhai had a wry smile in his heart. There were only two paths in front of him. The first was to head directly into battle, while the other was to cut off a limb to continue maintaining his outer status!

He decisively chose the second option. That was because he knew that there was no hope of beating an existence of that level.

With that in mind, his eyes sank as he pointed at Tian Qing. “From this day onward, you are the leader of the Heaven Plundering Alliance! No, you’ve always been the leader of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. All of you remember that!”

What?

Everyone was stunned.

They did not know what their leader was doing.

Zhou Yuanhai did not have any intentions of explaining things. He continued seriously, "Tian Qing's the alliance leader, do you all remember that?!"

Everyone nodded, "Yes."

After that, Zhou Yuanhai turned around and packed up his things as fast as possible. After that, he left without any hesitation.

Tian Luo could guess what the leader was afraid of and could not help but say, "Leader, surely you don't need to..."

Zhou Yuanhai did not even bother turning around. In a flash, he disappeared into the night sky. He fled incredibly quickly and left Tian Qing and the others to exchange looks among themselves.

The next moment, there was suddenly unending gray mist that came out of the headquarters of the Heaven Plundering Alliance's ground. In a flash, the whole space was completely covered. No one managed to avoid it.

Tian Qing and the others immediately used the methods Zhou Yuanhai had thought them to refine the gray mist. Their skills rapidly increased. At the same time, waves of memories that did not belong to them started to float in their minds, replacing their original memories.

Tian Qing's eyes turned gray as he said, "That's right, I'm the leader of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. I'll plunder everything under the heavens and turn into a supreme being!"

Tian Luo and the others immediately knelt on the floor as they respectfully said, "Hail, leader!"

At that moment, they had completely forgotten who Zhou Yuanhai was. Nothing was left of Zhou Yuanhai and all the karmic ties between them had been severed!

"Tian Luo, it's understandable that you failed your task this time. Come, I'll treat you."

Tian Qing waved to Tian Luo.

"Thank you, Leader." Tian Luo happily walked forward.

Tian Qing worked quickly. With a wave of his hand, Tian Luo completely recovered.

"Next, we should be targeting the ancient race! We..."

Tian Qing immediately looked up at the distant space. His eyes narrowed completely as he seemed to await a major enemy.

After that, everyone, too, felt something and looked up. They saw two figures, one white and one red, coming toward them under the starlight. They were surrounded by waves of mystifying energy. The formless pressure caused the Heaven Plundering Alliance's people to struggle to breathe.

It was the aura of the strong!

Tian Qing's expression sank as he coldly said, "Who dares come into the Heaven Plundering Alliance!"

Daji looked at Tian Luo and said, "The headquarters of the Heaven Plundering Alliance?"

"That's right."

"Then there's nothing more to say. The Heaven Plundering Alliance doesn't exist anymore from now on."

The moment Daji said that, she pointed a finger at the Heaven Plundering Alliance.

In a flash, an incredibly cold aura was felt throughout. It completely froze the Heaven Plundering Alliance. The layer of ice she conjured was absurd. It did not leave them any time to react at all. It was as if everything Daji had pointed at was frozen in an instant. Whether it was time, space, or even Wisdom, everything was turned to ice, unable to escape.

Crack!

However, very quickly, the ice started to crack.

Tian Luo, Tian Qing, and Tian Ta started to see cracks around them. After that, they quickly exploded out.

They coldly snorted as they flew into the air. When they saw that the rest of the Heavenly Plundering Alliance was already turned to ice, the three of them were shocked, and the flames of anger were ignited.

They were meant to discuss bigger plans that night. After gathering most of their primary forces, two people had somehow appeared without any rhyme or reason and acted against the Heaven Plundering Alliance. They had suffered great losses.

However, they were mostly afraid.

Tian Luo frowned as he said uncertainly, "The Wisdom of limitless freezing. You've actually completely understood the Wisdom of Ice. How's that possible?"

The Wisdom that existed everywhere was flawed. Not a single one was complete, unless...one absorbed gray mist.

However, Daji did not look like she had been contaminated by gray mist at all. How was that possible?

Daji said coldly, "Are you surprised? Aren't the Heaven Plundering Alliance refining gray mist as well? What are your goals?"

"Goals?"

Tian Qing's face suddenly had a look of confusion on it.

He did not know what his goal was either. He seemed to have forgotten something incredibly important. All he knew was that he was the leader of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. Thinking about it in detail, it was quite strange.

However, his expression quickly turned ferocious as he shouted out angrily, "Hahaha you don't deserve to know that. Go ahead and die!"

The moment he said that, he sent out a palm attack at Daji.

“Decaying Night!”

The starlight under the night sky suddenly disappeared. Unending darkness enveloped the world. The darkness seemed to be alive as it swallowed everything around them. It quickly wrapped Daji and Fire Phoenix within it, attempting to make them a part of the darkness.

That was the Wisdom of darkness!

Chapter 894: Fire and Ice, Together

The dense darkness seemed to solidify as it covered up everything.

However, the moment it was about to touch Daji and Fire Phoenix, a radiant flame suddenly exploded outward. It lit up the darkness and burnt it completely. It turned into a fire phoenix and headed straight at Tian Qing!

“Everything is false, cut it to nothingness!”

Tian Ta held a blade in hand. His blade let out a white light as he slashed right at the flames. It cut the flames in two, turning them to nothingness.

His blade technique was able to turn anything into nothingness.

After that, he let out a cold laugh as he slashed at the rest of the people from the Heaven Plundering Alliance that had been encased in ice!

In a flash, the ice disappeared. The people of the Heaven Plundering Alliance were free. They all locked onto Daji and Fire Phoenix.

“Your skills aren’t half bad, but you’re courting death for daring to enter the Heaven Plundering Alliance!”

Tian Qing laughed as he pointed at Daji and Fire Phoenix. “Get them!”

The whole Heaven Plundering Alliance launched themselves into the air. They started to activate their powers as various miraculous abilities locked onto Daji and Fire Phoenix.

Looking around, there were at least four hundred cultivators. Other than Tian Qing, Tian Luo, and Tian Ta, there were still three other Wisdom dictators. There were at least a hundred Wisdom elites!

The three of them were no ordinary Wisdom Dictators. Their control of Wisdom was incredibly impressive.

Their forces stood at the absolute peak of the Origins Realm.

However, Daji and Fire Phoenix did not panic at all. The Heaven Plundering Alliance's name had been in the Origins Realm for countless years. They had been talking about them for a long time, so the two women had naturally already been prepared. They had come to extinguish the Heaven Plundering Alliance!

They had heard Li Nianfan's lamenting. He really wanted peace to return to the world. They wanted to maintain Li Nianfan's peaceful life, but the gray mist enveloped the world. It was incredibly strange, and dark forces were in hiding, secretly plotting and planning as they fanned the flames. They were all nowhere to be found, and the only one that could be destroyed was the Heaven Plundering Alliance!

With the karma that Tian Luo left behind, they had come to eliminate the Heaven Plundering Alliance. It could be considered a great contribution in helping the expert maintain his peace.

"Unlimited Ice Seal!"

"Heavenly Fire Illuminates the World!"

Daji and Fire Phoenix exchanged a look as they moved at the same time.

The two supposedly opposed powers seemed to be clearly separated into two halves. It formed a majestic look as they rushed toward the Heaven Plundering Alliance!

Half of the cultivators were immediately frozen while the other half was burnt to nothingness.

Tian Qing and the other two could not help but feel incredibly nervous and shocked when they witnessed Daji and Fire Phoenix's skills. After an angry roar, they joined the battlefield as well.

In the far end, Zhou Yuanhai hid in the corner. He used his skills to observe everything that was happening.

"The complete Wisdom of fire and the complete Wisdom of ice. They're only a sliver away from becoming supreme beings! They should be the strongest of those next to that guy.

"If I make a move, we should be able to kill them..."

Zhou Yuanhai mumbled to himself. There was a glint in his eyes, but he stopped that thought in the end.

"I can't rush things. Even though it looks like I can kill them now, I'll only attract that person's attention. If that happened, no one knows what'll happen to me. To deal with an existence of that level, I have to be extremely careful!"

The reason he had abandoned the Heaven Plundering Alliance so decisively and abandoned all ties was that he was afraid of entering that person's game.

When he sent Tian Luo to retrieve the gray mist, he had never expected that it would bring about the destruction of the Heavenly Plundering Alliance. If he ended up falling into the expert's game, he did not know how he would even die.

“That level of existence can read the movements of heaven and earth. Some people were naturally born to be kings, and others to be bandits. Nothing can change that. Those who want to change it will be rolled over and killed by the wheels of heaven! No matter if it’s the light or in the dark, I can’t be the slightest bit careless. I’ve waited for countless years for this opportunity. I can’t be careless. It’s still not the time to act.”

Zhou Yuanhai could not stop warning himself. He slowly regained his composure.

Even though the destruction of the Heaven Plundering Alliance was painful, he could afford to wait. He had already started the most important step. After that, as long as he kept to his plan, he would be able to laugh until the end.

After a short internal struggle, he cast his gaze on the battlefield.

At that moment, the two of them had already merged fire and ice. Countless spells were dancing in the air. Terrifying power was clashing everywhere. Even space itself was exploding. The whole Heaven Plundering Alliance had been reduced to nothing. The rivers and mountains around them had all completely disappeared.

“Assemble, Heavenly Array!”

At that moment, Tian Qing suddenly roared. The whole Heavenly Plundering Alliance formed a seal.

Boom!

A thunderstrike could be heard in the plains!

Thunderstrike after thunderstrike fell from the skies onto each person from the Heaven Plundering Alliance. It formed into a lightning chain that was connected to the skies.

After that, the lightning started to move. It caused everyone in the Heavenly Plundering Alliance to be banded together. From the outside looking in, the illusion of a furnace seemed to have formed around everyone. After connecting, it turned into a humongous furnace.

Fire Phoenix and Daji were within it!

Buzz!

The power of heaven and earth resonated as it turned into an incredibly strong refining power. It tried to refine Daji and Fire Phoenix.

Tian Qing felt like victory was in his grasp. "I don't mind telling you. The reason why we managed to absorb the gray mist and not be affected is all thanks to this refining technique. It's even able to refine the gray mist, so refining you is like child's play! Hahaha!"

Daji and Fire Phoenix frowned, not saying anything.

They could feel a wave of danger they had never felt before. It was impossible for them to stand up to it alone.

Fire Phoenix looked at Daji and said unwillingly, "It looks like we have to work together again."

Even though the two of them had gotten much closer, even sleeping together every night, they were still not incredibly intimate. The two of them were incredibly prideful, so they naturally kept a distance between them.

Daji proudly stretched her hand out. "Come, then."

Fire Phoenix linked her hand with Daji's.

The next moment, fire and ice gushed out of their bodies at the same time. The Wisdom of ice and the Wisdom of fire were two completely opposing powers. Yet, they strangely gathered along the same lines. They reached a perfect equilibrium and started to form a pentagram around the two of them.

"H-how is this possible?!"

Tian Qing and the others sank unwillingly. They stared at Daji and Fire Phoenix as the two of them intimately started to perform taichi.

The power of fire and ice merged and gave birth to a power that defied all reason.

“Is this the power of a supreme being?!”

Chapter 895: Annihilation and Aftermath

Crack!

The numbing sounds of constant cracking filled the air. It caused the Heaven Plundering Alliance’s group to shudder.

Their eyes widened as they clenched their teeth, looking at Daji and Fire Phoenix with incredible shock. They started to shout as they used their own skills.

Yet, no matter how hard they tried, their formation had started to sway. Cracks were already starting to show on that illusory furnace!

Tian Qing had veins on his forehead as blood started to come out of the corner of his mouth. “How despicable. Ice and fire are filling the skies. There’s nothing that can withstand the exchange between cold and hot!”

“Ice and fire working together actually merges into perfect Wisdom. They managed to reach the levels of a supreme being!”

Tian Ta took a deep breath as he suppressed the horror in his heart. He immediately said, "Flee, everyone who can flee needs to run!"

Boom!

His voice was covered up by the explosion.

An immense torrent of power burst forward with Daji and Fire Phoenix at the center. It had completely destroyed their formation as it dispersed wantonly. Everywhere it passed immediately turned the Heaven Plundering Alliance's people into dust.

Tian Luo, Tian Qing, and Tian Ta flew back at the same time. They left a trail of blood in the air as they fell to the ground.

Daji said with a cold expression, "Where did you get your method of purifying the gray mist?"

That was an incredibly important question.

The gray mist wreaked havoc in the world. Its strength had exceeded everyone's expectations and knowledge. Even supreme beings from ancient times needed to pay immense prices to barely seal it.

They could understand the expert being able to cleanse it, but who were the Heaven Plundering Alliance?

Thinking about what the Heaven Plundering Alliance had done, they had even dared to plot with the gray mist in mind. It was not hard to guess that they had an incredibly secret plot they were working toward.

The Heaven Plundering Alliance being able to cleanse and absorb gray mist was far too unbelievable.

Tian Qing knew that they were done for, so he said bluntly, “Haha, the Heavenly Plundering Alliance already had the gray mist since ancient times. We managed to plunder all the treasures in the world, obtaining countless techniques and secrets. That was how we figured out this technique and became the strongest in the Origins Realm. I can’t believe you managed to figure out the secrets of the gray mist as well! There really always is a higher mountain!”

Fire Phoenix raised an eyebrow as she smiled coldly, “To figure out those secrets, you’ve probably experimented on quite a lot of cultivators. You’ve caused a lot of chaos as well.”

Daji and her suddenly thought about quite a few pieces of information.

The Heaven Plundering Alliance plundering all the treasures in the world had probably caused countless disasters in the Origins Realm. Thinking about it, most of it was probably related to research into the gray mist. The gray mist’s seal being broken probably had something to do with them as well.

Tian Qing coldly snorted, “To the victor go the spoils. Just kill us.”

Fire Phoenix waved her hand, and heavenly fire enveloped Tian Luo and the others. In a moment, they were completely burnt, and the Heaven Plundering Alliance was annihilated.

Daji and Fire Phoenix did not leave immediately. Instead, they cast their gaze at the Heaven Plundering Alliance's headquarters.

The headquarters might have already been reduced to rubble during the battle, but there were still some things remaining. Those were naturally all extraordinary treasures.

However, they did not really bother with the treasures. Instead, they looked at the gray mist that was in the center.

The gray mist was meant to be without form or shape, but it was actually being tied down by a special chain. It struggled repeatedly, but could not escape. At the same time, the results of the Heaven Plundering Alliance's research on gray mist were in the crystals around them. It was completely in line with what Tian Qing said.

Daji did not say anything. She merely pointed a finger at the gray mist. A blue light shot out from her fingertips and an immense chill covered up the gray mist. At the same time, the mist that had come out of Tian Qing and the others' bodies were also gathering there and frozen by Daji. In the end, it turned into a transparent box.

After everything was done, Daji had a look of suspicion on her face. She could not help but say, "Fire Phoenix, don't you think everything went too easily this time?"

Fire Phoenix fell silent for a moment before nodding, "A little. We easily managed to destroy the Heaven Plundering Alliance's headquarters and found out what they had planned for the gray mist. Everything should already be done, but why do I feel like something's missing..."

Even the leader was dead, so what were they missing?

Daji suddenly said, "The seven battle spirits should be with the Heaven Plundering Alliance. We only have five now, why are the other two not here?"

Of the battle spirits, the stele was at Fallen Immortal Mountain and the Willow tree was in the expert's backyard. The sword was with Xiao Chengfeng, the bow was with Nanan, and the pearl was now a hot spring. Every one of them had its uses and their values were immense.

Yet, the other two battle souls were not there, which was a bit strange.

Fire Phoenix shook her head and said imperiously, "Whatever, this group has been wreaking havoc in the world. They are the reason for all the unrest. We've already destroyed them, If there are any of them who escaped and try to cause any trouble in the future, we'll just destroy those strays when the time comes!"

"Yes."

Daji nodded lightly. After that, she followed Fire Phoenix back to the Ancient Forbidden Area. They had left in the night and destroyed the Heaven Plundering Alliance while the night still remained.

A long time after they left, Zhou Yuanhai's body slowly appeared. He had a chilly smile on his face. "From this moment on, all of my ties with the Heaven Plundering Alliance are cut. From now on, I am Zhou Yuanhai. No one will suspect me!"

After a pause, he looked at all the rubble on the ground and smiled. "Even though the Heaven Plundering Alliance is gone, it still served its purpose!"

After saying that, he pointed at the ground. He left a gold piece of paper on the ground. After that, he disappeared from the spot.

Not long after he disappeared, many figures appeared from the distance. They closed in incredibly carefully before they stopped in the air. All of them looked at the remains of the battle in shock.

They were all attracted there by the movements of power. Due to their fear, they waited for everything to stop before they moved closer.

"What terrifying power. Just the remnants are enough to chill my heart."

"What manner of existence was fighting here? Even as a Wisdom Dictator, I'm terrified."

"I can feel the aura of ice and fire. At the same time, two Wisdoms merged together to form an incredibly terrifying attack. Words can't describe it."

“That’s...the sign of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. Could this be the alliance headquarters?”

“Too strong. The Heaven Plundering Alliance that strikes fear into the whole Origins Realm was annihilated. Who did this? They even ignored all the treasures here. Do they not think the treasures are worth taking?!”

...

Everyone was full of fear, but it did not stop them from picking up the treasures.

The treasures that could remain unscathed were all at least sixth-grade supreme treasures. It was enough to be the ultimate treasure of many sects!

In a flash, everyone used various methods, even putting their lives on the line to fight over the treasures.

However, a moment after that, an old man accidentally picked up a gold piece of paper. He merely glanced at it nonchalantly, but his eyes immediately widened!

Chapter 896: Case Caused by a Piece of Paper

The old man grabbed the piece of paper in his hand incredibly quickly. After that, he started to retreat silently. He actually ignored the other treasures as he prepared to leave.

However, his abnormal movements immediately attracted everyone else's attention.

Everyone was looking for treasures and were on high alert for anything unusual. They were afraid that someone would pick something valuable up, so they naturally had their focus on everyone else.

Immediately, there was a flash in the eyes of three others. They surrounded that old man, closing in on him in three directions.

One of them recognized the old man and asked with a cold smile, "Elder Jin Yuan, where are you going?"

Elder Jin Yuan's expression changed slightly as he smiled, "I just feel like this place harbors a lot of misfortune. I'm worried that I'll bring trouble onto myself, so I've decided to leave."

Someone else continued, "There are so many treasures here. Even the damaged treasures are all highly sought-after materials. Retreating like that isn't how your sect does things. Did you pick up a treasure that's far more valuable than anything else here? Is that why you're retreating?"

Elder Jin Yuan's eyes narrowed, "Woriless Cultivator, watch your mouth!"

The cultivator let out a dark laugh as he said coldly, "Then what's in your hand? Why don't you show it to us?"

“You!”

Elder Jin Yuan’s expression darkened as he realized the predicament he was in.

The movements there had attracted the attention of everyone else as well. In a flash, countless divine senses were locked onto Elder Jin Yuan. They stared at him suspiciously.

“Blasphemy! Those who will get the treasures are all determined by fate. All of us have our own skills and we’re all picking up treasures in this rubble. How dare you steal from others? Do you have any integrity? Give way right now. Let him leave!”

Suddenly, a voice filled with righteousness was heard. A white-robed young man walked out with a white glow around him. There were even a few disciples behind him. He had a very noble look on his face.

Paired with his words, it was easy to gain goodwill from others.

However...

Elder Jin Yuan had an even more bitter look on his face. The others looked at the white-robed young man with complicated expressions.

The young man did not seem to feel how everyone was looking at him at all. He merely continued, "I'm Bai Piao from the Noble Pavilion. Fellow cultivator, don't worry. You can leave right now. I'll guarantee your safety!"

Yet, Elder Jin Yuan merely stood on the spot, not daring to leave at all. He looked at Bai Piao with deep distrust.

Bai Piao from the Noble Pavilion. He was incredibly famous. He was very strong and had made a name for himself with his heroic actions. He established the Noble Pavilion and managed to earn the moniker of the Righteous White Hero.

However...

As Bai Piao did more and more good, many people noticed one rule. To be precise, it was one problem.

Every time Bai Piao saved someone, nothing good would befall the other party. They would definitely be robbed a second time, and their lives were sometimes forfeited!

All of them were old foxes. They naturally knew what was happening.

Bai Piao definitely saved people on the surface before following them in secret to rob them again. Then, he would get a good reputation and even gain a treasure. It was a good plan.

The Noble Pavilion just sounded good on the surface. It was meant to trick the ignorant.

Only, no one really had any evidence. They were also afraid of Bai Piao's skills, so no one voiced any accusations.

Bai Piao saw that Elder Jin Yuan was still standing on the spot, and he could not help but say, "Elder Jin Yuan, don't worry. The people here will probably give me some leeway. You can just relax and leave."

How could he relax?!

That Bai Piao was a monster!

Elder Jin Yuan knew that Bai Piao had his eyes on him and decided not to leave instead.

He firmed up his resolve and said, "I've suddenly seen the light. It's far better to share any fortune I've received. Hence, I've decided to share the treasure I obtained with everyone. Please take a look!"

After that, he tossed the golden paper into the air.

The golden paper opened up mid-air, and the words on it attracted everyone's attention.

They read it word by word, and someone could not help but read it out loud.

“The gray mist reveals the future. Heaven and earth are overturned. The golden lake reveals itself, cleansing the mist!”

“It’s a way to cleanse the gray mist! There’s a way to cleanse it!”

“The gray mist reveals the future. Sure enough, the gray mist is the future. It can patch up the flaws in Wisdom!”

“Heaven and earth are overturned. The golden lake reveals itself, what does that mean? What can cleanse the gray mist?!”

Everyone was incredibly excited at that. They widened their eyes as their minds quickly worked to figure out the meaning within. Yet, they could not find an answer no matter how much they thought about it.

Those who were there were all either incredibly strong or came from a big force. They had naturally looked into the gray mist in detail. They knew that absorbing the gray mist could complete the Wisdom within them and give them a bright future. However, there was an immense price to pay. They would slowly lose their sense of reasoning and lose themselves.

However, the allure of the gray mist was far too great. If they did not absorb it, they would be forced to watch as everyone else got stronger. It was torture.

They had somehow found a way to cleanse the gray mist in the ruins of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. Anyone would be moved by that.

Suddenly, everyone retreated a few steps as they looked at each other in alarm. They were all afraid that they would be killed to ensure their silence. At the same time, they tried to figure out how to kill everyone else.

It was a massive secret. If they managed to keep it to themselves, they would be able to rule over the Origins Realm!

However, everyone quickly realized that no one there was weak. There were a lot of cultivators, so it was not practical to kill everyone off.

After a long silence, Bai Piao smiled and said, "The Noble Pavilion has its reputation. Could everyone please do me a favor and share this secret among ourselves but not let it spread?"

What was the Noble Pavilion worth?!

Bai Piao was the person everyone was the most on guard against. They cursed in their hearts, but they had looks of agreement on their faces.

"Bai Piao's right. These words are a riddle that can shake the world. It's not something that can be handled by just one force."

“Why don’t we form an alliance to look into this secret?”

“That’s a good idea!”

Immediately, they worked together to wipe away the remains. They then used their various methods to hurry back to their clans.

The next moment, Bai Piao returned there with the cultivators of five different forces.

Cold words came from Bai Piao’s mouth. “Those who know the secret are from the Luoxia Gate, Cloud Returning Sect, Tianqing Sect, and the Misty Palace. They’re just second-step Wisdom Elites. There are also six wandering cultivators who aren’t that strong. I’ve already left trackers on them. Let’s kill them all off. The fewer people who know this secret, the better. I trust all of you are thinking this way as well.”

They had already discussed everything in secret. They would kick out anyone who was not powerful enough!

However, everyone had been gathered together earlier, so they had no way of making a move. They had to attack after everything was settled!

Looking at how casually Bai Piao was detailing it, it was obvious that he was already used to these things. He was a repeat offender.

The other five shivered as they upped their guard. However, they did not say anything as they nodded before rushing over to attack!

It was going to be a night filled with death!

Chapter 897: Person of Tremendous Luck?

The River Gazing Sect's sect leader was an old man draped in black robes. He had black hair and a white beard. At that moment, he was sitting on the leader's seat in the great hall.

He was a cultivator, and a strong one at that, but he still had a look of defeat on his face. Gray mist would occasionally appear in his eyes, and his body constantly shuddered. Various things indicated that he had absorbed the gray mist and was fighting against the gray mist in his body.

He took a deep breath as he said in a stiff tone, "What happened to the gray mist explosion in the Southern Star Region?"

An old man spoke, "Leader, the gray mist over there has already completely disappeared. The people that went over there have all perished, including six disciples from our sect. The nearby cultivators said that the only ones to leave were the Heavenly Palace."

"The Heavenly Palace?"

The sect leader's eyes froze slightly as he immediately went deep in thought.

He had failed to hold back against the allure of the gray mist and used the gray mist to cultivate. Even though he managed to stop his cultivation when he felt the corrosion of the gray mist, he had still been contaminated. It seemed impossible to get rid of it, so they were at a standstill.

The gray mist had exploded in the Southern Star Region. He had naturally not dared to go forth himself, and instead, sent some disciples to mix within them. He also sent his people to constantly monitor the situation. He had been trying to figure out the best way forward.

Yet...

He never expected that the eruption at the Southern Star Region would disappear so completely despite how impressive it was at the start. He had thought that it would invite a slaughter. Yet, nothing seemed to happen.

The old man continued, "I hear that the Heavenly Palace has been collecting the gray mist. If they know of your condition, I'm worried that..."

The sect leader furrowed his eyebrows as he let out a cold smile. "The Heavenly Palace has been really active. What kind of a force are they? They always surprise everyone. It feels like there's a lot more to them than meets the eye. However, we're not afraid of them at all. I feel like they must have a secret behind them, so I'm actually quite interested in them."

"Sect leader, a great secret! It's a great secret!"

At that moment, a frantic shout could be heard from outside. Elder Jin Yuan hurried over with a reddened face. He had been moving as fast as he could and almost fell flat on the ground after failing to stop properly.

Other than excitement, there was also a hint of nervousness on his face. He had been worried that someone would try to kill him on the way back, but he had thankfully been safe.

The sect leader looked at Elder Jin Yuan and raised an eyebrow. "What happened? What was that battle earlier?"

Elder Jin Yuan took a deep breath before he exclaimed, "Sect leader, the location of the battle was actually the headquarters of the Heaven Plundering Alliance. By the time I arrived, the Heaven Plundering Alliance...was annihilated!"

"What?!"

Everyone in the hall had expressions of shock as they exclaimed in disbelief.

Even the sect leader hurriedly said, "Are you sure? The Heaven Plundering Alliance disappeared just like that?!"

The Heaven Plundering Alliance's reputation in the Origins Realm was known by everyone. Even though the River Gazing Sect thought they were strong and that they were no match for the Heaven Plundering Alliance. Every time the Heaven Plundering Alliance started something, their sect could only shudder and hide.

Yet, in just a night, the alliance had been eradicated?

How was that possible? Who had that skill?

Elder Jin Yuan said seriously, "I'm incredibly certain. I wasn't the only one who saw it."

One of the elders said, "Surely only a supreme being that's above a Wisdom Dictator can destroy the Heaven Plundering Alliance so easily? Who would make such a move with the current flaws in Wisdom?"

Another elder said, "The gray mist was suppressed so quickly and the Heaven Plundering Alliance was destroyed. Those two things aren't something an ordinary person can do. It's too terrifying. Which great warrior is making his move?"

The sect leader shook his head and said, "It's not someone we can touch, so let's ignore it. All we can say is that the Heaven Plundering Alliance offended someone they shouldn't have!"

After that, Elder Jin Yuan said, "Sect leader, that's not the main thing I wanted to say."

"Oh?"

The leader was stunned, and so was everyone else.

The Heaven Plundering Alliance's destruction was not the main point?

The leader urged, "Hurry up and tell me!"

"We found a piece of paper at the ruins of the Heaven Plundering Alliance's headquarters. Written on the paper was how to cleanse the gray mist!"

"What!"

The sect leader immediately stood up from his seat as he stared at Elder Jin Yuan. "Continue speaking!"

He had absorbed the gray mist, so no one was more anxious than he was. Most importantly, if he mastered the method, he would be able to absorb the gray mist with reckless abandon. That would practically be cheating but he might be able to scale to great heights!

Elder Jin Yuan did not delay matters as he said immediately, "The contents stated were, 'The gray mist reveals the future. Heaven and earth are overturned. The golden lake reveals itself, cleansing the mist!'"

The sect leader's eyes glinted as he said excitedly, "Sure enough, the gray mist represents the future. Only, what do they mean by heaven and earth being overturned and what's the golden lake?"

An elder said, "From the words, it must mean that we need heaven and earth to be overturned, and the golden lake to reveal itself to cleanse the gray mist. However, how do we overturn heaven and earth? What is the golden lake?"

The sect leader ordered, "The golden lake is either the name of a place or it's a gold-colored lake. I don't care which one it is. Send out our disciples, look through every single one!"

...

At the same time, similar things happened in all the sects that knew the secret.

Deep in the Celestial Demon Forest in the Southern Star Region, there was a deep valley. The outside of the demon cave was covered in the light of the night. It looked like a massive, ghastly face was etched onto the ground.

The Celestial Demon King sat on a stone chair as his eyes glowed with a terrifying light. He stared at a cultivator with a half-crying, half-laughing mask on.

That cultivator was Left Messenger.

After splitting up with Big Lord Demon, she had immediately been captured by the demons. She somehow felt like she had been struck by misfortune by being near Big Lord Demon.

The Lion Demon that had captured Left Messenger said, "Demon King, by your orders, we did not dare to venture close to the gray mist. We merely kept watch around it. In the end, only a few cultivators were able to leave the place. Among them was this person who we managed to capture."

"It went as I predicted. The gray mist is something incredibly profound. Going into it would've just been courting death. We also have instructions from the ancient demon to not get contaminated by the gray mist so easily. The time is still not here."

The Celestial Demon King let out a small smile, not surprised at all.

The only thing that surprised him was the fact that the cultivator in front of him managed to survive.

The Celestial Demon King could easily see through Left Messenger's cultivation level. She had just broken through to the Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal Realm. How did she manage to survive among so many strong cultivators in the gray mist?

Tens of thousands of cultivators that were stronger than her were all dead, but she was fine. How did she do that?

Was she...a tremendously lucky person?

Chapter 898: Sought After Wild Game

The Celestial Demon King stared at Left Messenger, causing her to get goosebumps.

“Huh?”

The next moment, it noticed something strange.

The Celestial Demon King could clearly feel a strange power moving within Left Messenger’s body. The power was incredibly mystifying. It exceeded all the Wisdoms that currently existed. It was able to fill in the gaps of Wisdom.

However, it was certain that Left Messenger had not been contaminated at all.

The Celestial Demon King was pleasantly surprised.

He stared at Left Messenger and said in disbelief, “How’s this possible? Did you encounter something miraculous at the origin of the gray mist? Did you eat anything?!”

“Eat anything?”

Left Messenger was taken aback. After that, she answered truthfully, “I did eat some fruits.”

Mentioning the fruit, she could not help but lament the fact that the Heavenly Palace really had good lives. She just ate a little and suddenly felt like she no longer had any bottlenecks in cultivation. She broke through her original realm and rapidly improved without even needing to train.

No wonder there were so many monsters in the Heavenly Palace. The power behind them was far too terrifying.

With that in mind, she had a look of horror in her eyes. She was really incredibly dumb back then to make an enemy out of them. She was incredibly lucky to just be alive.

Was she really that person with tremendous luck like the Celestial Demon King said?

At that moment, she suddenly wondered who she was.

The Celestial Demon King had been observing her all that while. He acutely caught on to that sliver of shock and horror in her face and said, "I know that you must've encountered a lot of shocking things at the origin of the gray mist. However, not only did you survive, you even managed to gain such a chance encounter. It's enough to say that I was right. You're a person with tremendous luck!"

What was he saying?

Left Messenger seemed to feel like the Celestial Demon King had misunderstood something, but she did not explain anything. Instead, she silently nodded.

The Celestial Demon King continued asking, "Tell me, what happened over there?"

"There were three caves at the entrance of the realm. The three caves were filled with danger and had practically wiped out ninety percent of the cultivators..."

Left Messenger immediately told the Celestial Demon King everything that had happened. Knowing that countless cultivators had died somehow, as well as the supreme cultivator in the end, the Celestial Demon King was incredibly thankful they did not participate in anything. Otherwise, they would have been in big trouble.

After that, he asked about the Heavenly Palace. When he found out that Left Messenger was from the Ancient Forbidden Area, and was even an enemy of the Heavenly Palace, he was incredibly shocked.

"Tremendous luck. You really do have tremendous luck. Otherwise, how could you constantly be the only person who remained alive? Everyone's already dead, but you even got an amazing chance encounter?" the Celestial Demon King lamented.

The other monsters look at Left Messenger respectfully as well, shocked by her past.

They had all thought that the Left Messenger's skills were far beneath them, but they ended up all throwing that thought away. Being able to become friends with such a lucky person would greatly benefit them in the future.

They really wanted to see what would happen.

Left Messenger remained stubborn. She naturally knew herself best. She did have a lot of luck, but those that were with her all ended up with misfortune.

The Celestial Demon King said, “Ah... You’re being too humble. With your past performances, you’re worthy of being called the Big Boss!”

The other demons had no differing opinions as they all said, “Hail, Big Boss.”

Left Messenger was incredulous. She said, “I’ve never even done anything, how could I be called the Big Boss?”

“You can contribute to us in the future. We’re helping the ancient demon gather the corpses of supreme beings. You have to be careful. The old cultivator in the gray mist was the best choice, but it’s a pity we missed the chance. However, I believe that we’ll definitely encounter a second one with your luck.”

The Celestial Demon King had a regretful tone in his voice.

The ancient demon was an ancient existence. He was one of the supreme demons but was only left with the husk of a soul. He needed a new body, and only the body of a supreme being could allow him to fully revive himself.

A supreme being's corpse?

Left Messenger shuddered, not knowing how to get one at all. Even if she found one, she would not have the ability to get it.

They might all be passionately calling her Big Boss, but she would bet that she would definitely die if she could not prove her worth.

She had to save herself!

Left Messenger's mind moved rapidly as her expression changed slightly. She immediately thought about something.

Right after that, she looked at the Celestial Demon King and the others, and with a sudden thought, two words sprang out in her head... Wild game!

Since they captured her, she would not show mercy.

She mustered up her resolve and said, "If you want the corpse of a supreme being, I think I know where to find one."

“What?”

“You know?”

The demons were all shocked as they looked at Left Messenger with glee.

The Celestial Demon King said excitedly, “I knew I saw something in you. You really are someone with tremendous luck. Where are you referring to?”

Left Messenger said seriously, “That place cannot be spoken of. I can only bring you all there. However, not everyone can go. I have to choose the right people.”

The Celestial Demon King waved it off, “No problem, choose anyone you want!”

Left Messenger shot a look at all the demons around her. As far as wild game went, she needed to choose the proper ones. The quality of the meat had to be the best. Of course, they could not be too ugly...

The various demons looked at Left Messenger as they posed, trying their best to show themselves off.

It was a valuable chance for them to make contributions with someone as lucky as Left Messenger. Just thinking about it excited them. Naturally, they fought for the chance, not giving any way.

The Celestial Demon King widened his arms as he smiled and said, "This is no small matter. Please, bring everything you need. You can even choose one of the six great elite demons.

The six great elite demons were just below the Celestial Demon King in standing, and they were all in the Wisdom Dictator realm. Their demonic auras were incredibly impressive.

Left Messenger jumped slightly as she glanced at them.

The six great elite demons might be naturally arrogant, but they knew that it was a great chance to establish some merits in front of the ancient demon. So they naturally did not want to give up the chance and started to sell themselves.

The first to speak was the one on the most left. It was a small-eyed and sharp-beaked short little demon. It said in a sinister voice, "If you need to sneak and dig around, then I'm your best choice. I'm an ancient rat. I can see through any barrier and void any defense. As long as you tell me the location, there's no way you'll return empty-handed."

Yet, Left Messenger shook her head. "No, you have too little meat."

Rat meat, small and disgusting. It could not even be considered wild game. She would just invite disaster.

"Hahaha, then pick me. I have too much meat."

A completely black Pig Demon laughed as it stepped forward. It was incredibly big, and its stomach was like a balloon filled with water.

The Left Messenger looked at it and shook her head, "You can't do either. You're too fat."

Chapter 899: Game Meat is Here

Too fat?

The pig warrior panicked at that as it hurriedly said, "Give me some time, I can work out. I'll definitely be able to slim down!"

"Go go go, just go away. By the time you slim down, the world would have ended."

Another demon warrior walked up. It flexed out his muscles, causing them to budge. After slapping his chest, he said, "Look at me, I'm filled with muscles. Just look at how bouncy my muscles are. I'm absolutely the best choice."

"Left Messenger, look at me instead. I'm not bragging, but my flesh is peerless among the demons!"

"Left messenger, I'm one of the heavenly sheep, how does my left look?"

All the demon warriors tried their best to show off their meat, looking at Left Messenger in anticipation.

Good meat. Other than the mouse and the fat pig, they were all good meat.

Left Messenger was suddenly stuck in a dilemma, wondering which of them she should choose for the expert.

The four elite demons saw that Left Messenger was incredibly hesitant, and understood that she was about to make a decision. All of them had incredibly serious looks on their faces, worried that they would miss such a golden opportunity.

After a moment, Left Messenger's eyes shifted between the cow and the bear. In the end, she clenched her teeth and chose the bear.

She would offer up that bear's head first!

For some reason, she really did not like that bear at first glance, so she decided to spare the cow!

Left Messenger spoke, "I made my choice. I'll go with the bear elite."

“Roar! Thank you, Left Messenger, for giving me this chance. I, Bear, will definitely perform well!”

The bear demon immediately roared at the skies before she jumped down. He smiled as he patted Left Messenger on the arm, “You have good eyes. I’ll make sure I take care of you in the future!”

“Thank you,” Left Messenger answered politely. In her eyes, the bear demon was merely a high grade piece of meat.

After that, she looked at the other demons around her.

Those demons had all already been ready. With a jolt, all of them started to show off their muscles.

Left Messenger walked around, and occasionally touched them with her hands a bit before finally choosing three of them.

They were the Black-Winged Tiger Demon, the Wind-Chasing Steed and Sea Swallowing Demon.

The Sea Swallowing Demon would naturally be used for soup. Three mains and a soup, Left Messenger felt like it was a very good gift.

She was very happy, and the demons she chose were very happy as well.

When the Celestial Demon King saw that the choices had been made, it said impatiently, "Big Boss, when do you plan on making your move?"

The Celestial Demon King was elated. He was full of praise for the Left Messenger's choice in his heart, but he still said, "Isn't this too quick? We should send you off with a celebration first."

Left Messenger thought about it and nodded, "Sure."

It would get them an extra meal in their stomachs, which might fatten them up a little.

After the meal, the whole group left for the Ancient Forbidden Area under Left Messenger's guidance.

Looking at them leave, there was a glint in the Celestial Demon King's eyes. It brought the five other elites back into the central cave.

The walls of their cave were incredibly wet, and there was an incredibly spacious room a few dozen feet away. In the center was a massive stone that had the image of a ferocious beast carved on it. Wave after wave of suffocating pressure surged out of the carving.

Below the carving was a massive furnace. It seemed like there was constantly a fire being lit in the furnace. There was a strange glow to it that lit up the carving.

That was the Ancient Demon, an ancient warrior of the demon race. The fire of its soul was within the furnace.

It was that thing inside that was protecting the Celestial Demon Forest. Demonic energy kept radiating out of it, allowing for the beasts in the Celestial Demon Forest to turn into demons even easier. It helped them in their cultivation as well.

Countless years ago, the Celestial Demon King found the carving which allowed him to completely change himself. That was how he ended up becoming the Celestial Demon King. The stone carving was basically the ancestor of all the demons within the Celestial Demon Forest!

“Hail, Ancient One.”

The Demon King and the others bowed incredibly respectfully.

The glow in the furnace lit up slightly as a threatening voice was heard from within, “I already know of what happened outside. You did well this time.”

The Celestial Demon King was quite pleased to hear that, and immediately said, “Do you think Left Messenger has potential as well?”

The Ancient Demon said, “That person is a little special. I actually couldn’t see through her. If you look at it that way, she’s definitely a rare person who is blessed by the heavens.”

The Demon Kings and the others gasped in surprise. Even the Ancient Demon could not see through Left Messenger. Left Messenger was definitely amazing, they could definitely expect good things this time.

The Ancient Demon said again, "It's our luck that we managed to meet someone like that. If we use her well, we will definitely greatly benefit from her."

The Celestial Demon King immediately said, "Ancient One, don't worry. I will definitely take good care of this person."

...

The Southern Star District was quite far away from the Ancient Forbidden Area. It took until afternoon the next day for Left Messenger and the others to arrive at Fallen Immortal Mountain.

The bear demon walked up and said, "Is this the Ancient Forbidden Area? We didn't really see anything special the whole way."

The Sea Swallowing Demon nodded, "I heard that the Ancient Forbidden Area is quite dangerous, especially since the Heavenly Palace is from this area. Now, it doesn't really look like we had anything to be scared about."

The steed said, "It looks like the cultivators in general here are quite weak."

Left Messenger felt a bit of sympathy for them, and could not help but say, "Appearances. These are all just appearances. However, if all of you want to take a look, we can slow ourselves down to look around. There's also plenty of good food around!"

The bear demon did not agree as he urged, "There's no need. The task at hand is more important, pick up the pace!"

After a moment, Fallen Immortal Mountain appeared in their sights.

The moment they saw Fallen Immortal Mountain, the bear demon and the other's suddenly had a serious look on their face. The looks of disdain disappeared as they looked on at that mountain which seemed like utopia. It seemed unfathomable, and impossible to figure out.

"Wisdom is everywhere. What kind of treasured place is this? Inconceivable!"

"Not only that, I feel like the Wisdom in the mountain is much more complete than in the Origin Realm!"

"Big Boss really is lucky to have found a place like this."

"No wonder the Ancient Forbidden Area is so mysterious. They really hid this well. If you hadn't brought us here, we would never have expected it."

The bear demon was already thoroughly convinced of Left Messenger's ability. Even he humbly asked, "Left Messenger, what do we do next?"

Left Messenger remained calm, "Don't go over for now, I'll go talk to the people around here to talk about the elite corpse."

"Alright, thank you, Left Messenger."

"Big Boss really is awesome to be able to talk to the people on that mountain. Amazing."

Under the looks of admiration in front of the demons, Left Messenger slowly walked into Fallen Immortal Mountain. After that, the demons looked at her as she started talking to a man carrying a bucket of shit. She would constantly point over at their area.

Chapter 900: Xiao Bai is Here

"So you came here to deliver meat," Elite King realized something when he heard that.

Left Messenger nodded, "That's right, that's how it is. Senior, you should know me, right?"

Elite King smiled. "I have some impression of you. You know how to run."

“What do you think of this meat? Will it catch the expert’s eyes? Let me tell you, I went through a great deal to pick them out. The quality of their meat will be amazing.”

“Their meat isn’t bad, but it’ll be hard for us to subdue them,” Elite King was a bit frustrated.

He looked at the bear demon’s power, and noticed that the bear was not weak even among Wisdom Dictators. Even though he would not be afraid with the help of the steel and Jiang Liu, they might not be able to stop the demon from escaping.

Left Messenger panicked. If she did not succeed, then she did not know what else to do. She was forced to say stubbornly, “Then... could you ask the one behind all of you for help?”

“That’s impossible. Don’t even joke about it,” Elite King hurriedly shook his head. How could they trouble the expert with such a trivial matter, or even ask the expert to do anything himself? That was far too absurd.

Just as they were discussing things among themselves, the bear demon lost its patience as it started to walk over.

The demons looked around the place and noticed that Elite King was just a regular Wisdom Dictator even though the mountain was incredibly special. They did not notice any other warriors around, so they started to get bolder.

The Sea Swallowing Demon walked forward and tried to be the voice of reason as it smiled at Elite King, "Fellow Cultivator, we're underlings of the Celestial Demon King. Please think about Left Messenger's request properly. We won't be able to help you if the Celestial Demon King ends up getting angry."

"If you don't agree, then we'll make you!" The steed and the tiger jumped out at the same time as they flexed their muscles.

They finally knew why Left Messenger was so intent on choosing the quality of their flesh. It was to put on a show, so they worked incredibly hard to flex in front of Elite King.

Their actions completely stunned Elite King and Jiang Liu who were not far away. Did those demons know that they were being sent here as meat? They tried so hard to present themselves, were they so eager to be cooked?!

When the wildlife around them saw the scene, they all felt incredibly out of place. Even after being raised for so long, they could not merely accept their deaths. There were actually those who voluntarily wanted to be cooked.

"If I hadn't witnessed it for myself, I wouldn't have believed that there were demons that were as enlightened as you in the world!"

Elite King was a little touched as he lamented, "Since you're already prepared, then there's no need to waste any time. Just reveal your true form."

What?

The demons were all stunned.

The bear demon coldly said, "What do you mean by this? What do our true forms have anything to do with this?!"

Elite King raised an eyebrow, "She's already sold you off as meat to us. How would we cook you if you don't reveal your true form?"

"She sold us?!"

"As meat?!"

"Cook us?!"

The four demons widened their eyes as they exclaimed in disbelief. After that, their gazes all fell on Left Messenger. It was as if they went through the most painful betrayal in the world.

Bear narrowed his eyes slightly as the killing intent in his body soared, "Left Messenger, is what he said true?"

The moment Left Messenger nodded, he would immediately explode forward and kill Left Messenger. If she shook her head, he would explode forward and kill Elit King instead!

There was such a terrifying aura coming out of the bear. The other three demons prepared themselves as well.

Elite King clenched the sh*t bucket in his hand tightly. Not far away, Jiang Liu stood up with his sword in hand, locking his sword stance onto the four demons. The steel let out a glow as a pressure started to emanate from it. Even Su Chen stood up from cleaning up the waste.

A battle was about to erupt.

Left Messenger shook as she left slowly.

“Everything on this mountain is quite good. The power of Wisdom constantly surges within. It’s absolutely a treasure of a place. I’ll use this chance to take a proper look at this place. If I can take over the place, I’ll definitely be rewarded by the Ancient Demon!”

The bear had his calculations in his heart as he let out a cold smile, preparing to move.

Suddenly, a clacking set of footsteps was heard from the mountain.

Xiao Bai was seen slowly walking over with a bucket of pig food. Nanan and Dragin felt a little lazy and asked Xiao Bai to do the feeding.

“Oh? What a strange lifeform. Even though it’s shaped like a human, it’s not a human at all. It’s not a demon either. It looks more like a machine?!”

The bear stared at Xiao Bai with a lot of confusion. However, his eyes bulged out when he saw the bucket of pig food in Xiao Bai’s arms.

“What kind of heavenly treasure is this? It causes a resonance in the Wisdom of my entire body. If I can eat it, it’ll benefit me immensely. There’s something this amazing in the world?!”

The Sea Swallowing Demon’s eyes turned red as it said hungrily, “W-what kind of food is that? I feel like just kneeling and eating it.”

The Wind Chasing Stood shouted, “Supplement, that bucket is an amazing supplement. It’s a treasure that can only be seen in our wishes!”

The Black Winged Tiger roared, “I can feel the power of origin that I lack. There is gray mist in the food. I-I want to eat it!”

All of them exclaimed as they locked their gazes onto Xiao Bai. The Wisdom in their bodies tightened up as they prepared to take it away at any moment.

Bear slowly walked toward Xiao Bai, "If you don't want to die, hand over the bucket."

Even without the body of a supreme being, they already noticed a lot of things just from their trip here. If they managed to get their hands on the bucket, they would greatly benefit!

Xiao Bai looked at the bear, and a red light flashed in its eyes.

Jiang Liu explained, "Lord Xiao Bai, they are a wild game that was just sent over. They're quite strong, so we couldn't subjugate them yet."

"Hahaha, you still dare call me that? Die!"

The bear demon's rage soared as he laughed out maniacally. He sent a punch straight at Xiao Bai.

In his eyes, one punch was enough to destroy Xiao Bai.

Xiao Bai merely looked up at the bear as Xiao Bai quietly stood on the ground. A red glow suddenly came out of Xiao Bai's eyes and fixed itself onto the bear.

The bear seemed to be locked in place as the bear's movements completely stopped.

After that, his body constantly changed, and finally returned to his original, black bear form in the end.

“Wh-”

The other demons were incredibly scared when they saw the scene. They turned around to run.

Xiao Bai’s red glow merely swept onto their bodies, and their bodies were immediately locked into place as the same thing happened.

The red glow disappeared as Xiao Bai said casually, “If they’re just meat, then they should focus on being meat. Why are they making such a scene?”
