Chapter 901: Barbeque Under the Night Sky

“Roar!” The bear demon opened its mouth, but could only roar.

The demons exchanged a look as they started to panic.

That was too strong and too terrifying. What kind of toy was it? Why was it so absurd?!

Was it hacking?

Elite King and Jiang Liu were gaping in shock as well. Once they snapped back to reality, they hurriedly sang words of praise.

“Amazing, Lord Xiao Bai is far too amazing!”

“Lord Xiao Bai managed something so incredible. Our eyes have been opened today.”

“Lord Xiao Bai is amazing!”

Even the steel created an illusion to prostrate itself in front of Xiao Bai.

Left Messenger calmly walked over and said respectfully, "Lord Xiao Bai, I chose out these animals very carefully. Do see if they make the mark or not. I'm sorry if I caused any trouble."

"Roar!"

The bear demon looked at Left Messenger in rage, wanting nothing more than to rip them apart.

However, they lost all their demonic power, so how could Left Messenger be afraid of them? She decided to ignore them as she said, "Take a look at how strong they are. They're incredibly muscular, and their flesh is healthy."

After witnessing how amazing Xiao Bai was, Left Messenger did not even dare to bring up the matter of the supreme being's corpse. She would be just looking to die if she wanted to negotiate any terms at that moment. Just being able to give them the meat was already a huge privilege.

Xiao Bai nodded, "They're all not bad. It's been a while since the master has held a feast. The wildlife is appreciated."

Left Messenger said immediately, "Lord Xiao Bai, don't worry. I still have a lot back there. I can send them to you in the future."

The demons were all about to cry. Left Messenger looked like she was intent on destroying the whole Celestial Demon Forest. Unfortunately, they were unable to send out any reports to expose Left Messenger. They cursed their fate!

Xiao Bai nodded and had Elite King drag the four demons up the mountain.

It was almost nightfall when Li Nianfan came back with the girls.

They went around Fallen Immortal city that day, admiring the sights along the river. They even helped out with some demons causing trouble. It was an incredibly fulfilling day, and they happily returned home.

However, when they entered, they were stunned.

“Xiao Bai, where did you get all this meat from? They look quite good. They should be quite nice.”

Li Nianfan smiled, “I don’t eat much horse meat, but such an impressive-looking horse must taste good. This tiger’s skin is practically glowing. I wonder what the texture will be like. This is such a big turtle, it will be great as soup.”

Xiao Bai answered, “Master, someone gifted them to you.”

“How thoughtful!”

Li Nianfan immediately thought it was those of them from the Heavenly Palace. Those immortals were all so kind. They would still think of Li Nianfan whenever they got anything good.

He immediately said, "Since the food is all here, we wouldn't be doing them justice if we don't eat them. Let's have an outdoor barbeque today."

"Awesome, barbeque, we're having a barbeque!"

"I'll go get the grill."

"I'll go get the spices."

"I'll start the fire."

...

Everyone was already very familiar with what to do, and they organized themselves very quickly. As for the location, they decided on having it wide outside. There was quite a lot of space, and they formed some stone tables and chairs.

The stars filled the night sky, and the moonlight illuminated the world. The birds and crickets constantly called out within the trees. Under the cool night breeze, sparks of fire danced around, warming up everyone's faces.

Everyone felt a deep sense of happiness in their hearts. It was a warm and happy sort of feeling.

"Xiao Bai, you can make the turtle soup. Shi Tuqin and I'll cut up the meat. Nanan and Dragin, make the skewers. Phoenix will be in charge of the fire while Daji, Little Fox, and Manyun will grill the meats. Pay close attention to the fire."

Li Nianfan assigned tasks to everyone, and they all started to busy themselves.

After being with Li Nianfan for so long and receiving some hints occasionally, everyone had some understanding of how to cook. It was enough for them to all help out.

Under the night sky, only the flames in front of the residence could be seen. It resonated with the stars in the sky, making for an amazing picture.

At the same time, A figure turned into the light on the Divine Sword Mountain and rapidly fell.

The two lords moved in shock at the same time, but they could not help but be surprised when they saw who it was.

The person was an old cultivator dressed in orange robes. He looked incredibly thin and frail. He should have had immortal energy filling his body, but his face was so pale at that moment. There was blood on his lips and his clothes. His breathing was weak and had been heavily injured.

The Lord of the Divine Sword Mountain and a serious look on his face as he pulled out some medicine for the cultivator, asking, "Cultivator Huang Long? What happened to you? Who injured you?"

"It was Bai Piao."

Huang Long panted as he said angrily, "The Heaven Plundering Alliance was destroyed by someone. We found a golden piece of paper in the ruins. There was an immense secret within. Everyone agreed to look at it together, but I never expected to be ambushed by Bai Piao's people on the way back. They were looking to silence everyone to keep the secret to themselves."

The lord let out a cold grunt, "So it's him! Bai Piao is such a scheming person. He pretended to be a noble cultivator for many years before showing his true colors. It looks like he's already given up on hiding anything."

The vice lord urged, "Lord, let's not waste any time. Huang Long as well. Just tell us what this shocking secret is. If you keep on wasting time, you'll end up dying before you can even tell us the secret."

Huang Long looked at the vice lord, "You're right..."

He immediately told them about the contents of the golden piece of paper. It confused and shocked the two lords.

They could not believe something so massive happened. The Heaven Plundering Alliance was destroyed, and there was even a secret about the gray mist.

The lord stuffed a recovery pill into Huang Long, "Huang Long, you have to hold on!"

Huang Long let out a bitter smile, "It's useless. In order to escape capture, I had to absorb the gray mist to save myself. I've already been contaminated by the gray mist, I'm already done for."

He even absorbed the gray mist?

The two lords looked at each other with bitter looks on their faces.

They were already good friends with Huang Long for over tens of thousands of years. They did not want to look on as Huang Long reached that state. They gathered gray mist as well. If it were anyone else, they would have just killed the person and took out the gray mist. However, they could not do that to Huang Long.

The moment they thought about gathering the gray mist, they had a sudden change of expression.

The vice lord could not help but say, "Lord, do you think Huang Long can be saved if we look for them?"

Chapter 902: The Pride of a Sword Cultivator?

“There’s hope? What are two of you talking about?”

Huang Long looked at the two mountain lords strangely, not understanding what they tried to say.

“You don’t have to care about that. All you need to know is that there’s an existence that you wouldn’t even dare to imagine.”

The mountain lord waved his hand, hesitating for a moment before he said, “Should we... give it a try?”

The vice lord nodded, “Yes, let’s try our luck. It’s great if we succeed. If we don’t, then it’s just fate.”

They did not explain anything to Huang Long before bringing it up to the Ancient Forbidden Area.

However, they stopped the Heavenly Palace’s soldiers before they even reached the foot of Fallen Immortal Mountain. After they reported who they were, they had to wait for Yang Jian to arrive and verify who they were.

The moment they found out that the expert had a barbeque, Yang Jian immediately brought a group of Heavenly Soldiers to guard the area nearby to stop any idiots from disturbing the expert’s excitement. He was surprised to see the two lords there, but his expression turned serious when he saw Huang Long.

The third eye on his forehead could see the gray mist fluctuations within Huang Long's body. He immediately said with a frown, "This person has been infected by the gray mist. Did you bring him here to be killed?"

"No, it's not like that. Cultivator Yang Jian, this is what happened..." The vice lord hurriedly explained what happened.

"So, that's what it is! The expert has a way to help with the gray mist. Lord Dog was cured by a single rabies shot last time, but you can't disturb the expert for this person!"

Yang Jian rejected it decisively. In the first place, even if it were him himself facing death, he would not have dared to ask the expert for help, let alone Huang Long, who he did not know.

The mountain lord said helplessly, "We know that too. We're just trying our luck."

Yang Jian let out a stern reminder, "The expert is having a barbeque. We're only allowed to stay at the foot of the hill at most. We can't go further than that, understood?"

The mountain lords hurriedly said, "Cultivator Yang Jian, don't worry. We understand."

Huang Long was stunned by their humble attitudes, not believing the sight in front of him.

Sword cultivators were all arrogant. They would never bow down to anyone, especially the two lords of the Divine Sword Mountain. They were at the peak of swordsmanship and without any peers. He knew the two of them well. Their hearts were incredibly firm, and they never submitted.

So what did he look at?

If not for the fact that he knew the two of them in front of him were the real deals, he would be wondering if they were possessed.

Huang Long could no longer stand it and asked quietly, "What's wrong with the two of you? Where's your pride? Who's he to be worth you acting so humble?"

The mountain lord did not mind at all as he said, "What do you know? Speak less and don't offend the expert."

Coward!

Huang Long cursed in his heart.

Suddenly, he thought of a possibility, which had his expression suddenly calm down. A tear even fell from his eye.

He choked, "I understand. You're acting so humbly because you want the other party to save me. There's no need for that. I will die if I must, but you can't sacrifice your resolve for me!

The vice lord looked at Huang Long with disdain, "You don't know anything, so stop acting like you do! The expert is currently having a barbeque on the mountain top. We're merely siding characters here. It's already very fortunate that we're able to be here. What's wrong with being humble? If I can become an insider by licking anyone's boots, I'd do it instantly."

Boom!

His words were like a crack of lightning that struck right at Huang Long.

A barbeque?

Is that not just having some fun?

Someone else was having fun, and the two of them waited at the foot of the mountain as some honor?

Where was the pride of a sword cultivator? Where was their nobility?

Also...

Side characters?

Licking boots?

They managed to say that?

“Absurd! When did you two become so self-deprecating?”

Huang Long shook as he spoke, and was filled with a sense of indignation.

The two lords completely ignored him.

At the same time, Li Nianfan’s food was almost ready.

Skewers and skewers of meat were put on the grill, letting out a sizzling sound. The smoke filled the air, and the accompanying smell caused their appetites to rise.

The red meat had a glistening layer of fat on it. With a bit of spices added on, the meat was ready!

Daji put a skewer next to Li Nianfan's mouth, "Try some of my food."

Li Nianfan was still cutting meat, and could not use his hands.

He opened his mouth and praised after a bite, "The outside is crispy and the inside is tender. The quality of the meat is soft and tender. The meat is accompanied by spice. It's a deep sense of enjoyment. The taste even lingers on my teeth. If I'm not mistaken, this should be the bear meat."

"You're amazing. Come, try this one," Daji took out another skewer.

"The meat is tough and incredibly chewy. It just needs a bit more heat to it. This should be the tiger meat?"

Li Nianfan smiled and said, "You're improving quickly. You can already be considered good chefs."

Daji and Qin Manyun said at the same time, "It's all because you've taught us well."

Nanan, Dragon, and Little Fox all had their heads buried in the food. Their mouths were filled with food and they were incredibly happy.

"Wow wow wow, this Black Tiger wing is so tasty. No wonder people talk about flying tigers, they taste so good."

“This bear paw is even better. I love bear paws the most. They taste so good!”

“I’m having so much fun. We haven’t had a feast like this for so long, but as opposed to barbeque, I want some fried food. Brother-in-law, can we have some fried food?”

Little Fox grabbed skewer after skewer of meat. She was so pretty, but she did not act like a girl at all. She kept on mumbling as she ate.

Li Nianfan smiled and said, “Of course, you can. You can pour some oil into the pot yourself and have your sister help you fry them.”

Dragin saw that Li Nianfan was still busy, so she said curiously, “Big brother we’ve already prepared so much, so why are you still cutting the meat. We won’t be able to finish if there’s too much.”

“This isn’t all for us. Someone else gave us all this meat. We can’t just have it ourselves. We should give it around for others as well.”

Li Nianfan said after some pause, “Xiao Bai, remember to pack up some meat and send it to the person who gave this to us. That’s right, how’s the turtle soup coming along?”

“Yes, master. The turtle soup is almost done. I’ll get the bowls and serve everyone,” As Xiao Bai said that, he went to get some bowls.

Once the pot was opened, everyone looked over curiously before they all collectively “ooh-ed”.

Since the turtle was really big, they used a large pot as well. The moment the pot was opened the gigantic turtle shell floated amongst all the white soup. It had an amazing smell.

Chapter 903: Like a Game

Nanan’s mouth started to water at the aroma, “Big brother, I want the outer parts of the skin.”

Dragin hurriedly said as well, “I want it too, I want it too.”

“Don’t worry, you’ll all have it. No need to fight over it.”

Li Nianfan laughed. The turtle was big, so there was naturally a lot of meat.

Xiao Bai served everyone a bowl of soup. Li Nianfan felt like something was missing and suddenly slapped his forehead.

Right, liquor!

How could they not be drinking with skewers in front of them?

He immediately took out the newest batch of dragon wine.

The wine was based off dragon blood, and had ginseng added to it. It was incredibly strong and fragrant. The only problem was that it was easy to get drunk off of, but that day's atmosphere was great for getting a little drunk.

"Come, cheers everyone!"

"Cheers!"

All of them raised their glasses at the same time before they started to eat happily.

Li Nianfan knew how much they could drink, and could not help but say, "Eat more skewers and drink less."

"Sir, why are you looking down on us? Our alcohol tolerance has improved by quite a bit."

Daji leaned into Li Nianfan's shoulder and laughed. Only her face was already blushing a little.

Qin Manyun rolled her eyes as she laughed, “That’s right, do you think we’re still the same as we were last time?”

‘Isn’t she just on her fifth cup? Her face is already so red, where did her confidence come from?’ Li Nianfan shook his head as he thought to himself.

He started to pile on the meat skewers in front of them as he said, “Yes yes yes, you’re all very good drinkers, but you can’t just drink. Eat some more!”

He was worried that they would get drunk before they even had their fill of the food. That group of women worried him all the time.

However, even with Li Nianfan trying to give them as little to drink as possible, they still all collapsed onto their tables in a short moment. They all mumbled to themselves.

“Now I need to carry you all back to your rooms...”

Li Nianfan was a little speechless. He shook his head and started to carry them one by one.

“That’s right, Xiao Bai. Make sure to give the leftovers away.

“Understood, my beloved master,” Xiao Bai nodded as he immediately started to tidy up the table. Other than the leftovers, he even brought along the bones that they left behind. After that, he started to walk downhill.

At the same time, at the foot of the mountain, everyone quietly waited. Only Huang Long sighed in frustration.

He felt a deep sense of pity for the two lords of the Divine Sword Mountain. He could not understand when they lost their pride.

Yang Jian looked at Huang Long, “Fellow cultivators, your friend doesn’t seem like he’s in a good state. He keeps on breathing out gray mist. Why don’t you just let me take him away for now?”

The mountain lord hurriedly said, “Ahem, no need. There’s no need. Hold on for now. Don’t worry, we’ll keep our eyes on him. The moment he turns into a white-haired beast, we’ll deal with him.

“Lord Xiao Bai’s here,” Elite King suddenly said, attracting everyone’s attention.

Other than Huang Long, everyone gathered over and said reverently, “Hail, Lord Xiao Bai.”

Xiao Bai looked around and pointed at Left Messenger, “You, come over.”

Left Messenger straightened her body and immediately said, "Lord Xiao Bai, is there something you need?"

"Master asked me to bring you all this to thank you for bringing the meat over. Here," Xiao Bai put down the leftover food and left.

Left Messenger was shaken. Her heart beat incredibly quickly, filled with anticipation. Could there be materials for a supreme being's corpse in there?

Everyone else stared as she opened up the things. In a flash, a wave of fragrance could be smelled by everyone.

Yang Jian and the others all widened their eyes as they exclaimed, "This is... the expert's dinner tonight?!"

"Gulp, there's even wine!"

"The expert's food is so fragrant as usual. Just a whiff of the fragrance causes our bodies to stir."

"Treasure, those were all unbelievable treasures!"

...

Left Messenger was a little dumbfounded. She did not know what all that food was. It was just food? What about the supreme being corpse?"

"Left Messenger!" Elite King suddenly looked at Left Messenger sternly.

Left Messenger did not know why, so she said weakly, "Senior, hello."

Elite King mused, "If I remember it correctly, you wanted materials for a supreme being's corpse?"

"That's right."

"It's obvious that the expert has already sent it."

Elite King continued, "Look, aren't those bones corpses? There's so much more meat as well. I can help you eat it and leave the bones behind for you."

Yang Jian said hurriedly, "I can help as well. I'll even drink the soup."

Jiang Liu and Su Chen rushed over as well, "Us too!"

The Divine Sword Mountain's lords roared, "We're the same!"

"Me, I have to help too!"

Even the steel at the foot of the mountain appeared, flying over hastily.

It had always just been a steel, and it never got anything to eat. It finally had the chance to. It was so touched it felt like crying.

Left Messenger was stunned.

It was just the corpses of those four demons. When did it become materials for a supreme being's corpse?

However, she did not even have the time to properly think about it, because Yang Jian and the others were all staring with heated gazes. All she could do was nod, "Alright."

Almost at the same time as she spoke, "Yang Jiang and the others started to move. They grabbed the meat skewers and shoved them into their mouths. As they did, they even fought over the food!

Huang Long covered his face and shook his head. He had a pained look on his head as he was filled with disbelief.

He looked at his two good friends, not believing what he saw in front of him.

It was one thing for them to throw their pride away as sword cultivators, but they also threw away their pride as humans.

All that food was the leftovers of someone else!

They fought over eating it with others? What caused them to live like that?

They called it a treasure, were they joking?

Left Messenger was stunned as well. She could not understand what was wrong with that group. Was that food worth going crazy for?

However, she was attracted by the fragrance of the food, and could not help but want to taste it.

She poured herself some wine and finished it in a gulp.

“Ah!”

She could not help but cry out at that amazing taste. That feeling was too amazing. She felt like she was on the clouds, floating around freely.

The surrounding breeze felt incredibly warm and gentle. Unending streams of Wisdom started to enter all of her pores, causing her abilities to increase at an unbelievable pace.

She went from a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal to being half a step into the Elite Realm.

After that, she entered the first stage of the Elite realm.

She was at the peak of it before she stopped!

What?

Huang Long was completely dumbfounded.

He stared at Left Messenger as his mind buzzed.

She broke through? Why did it look like a game?!

Chapter 904: Would You Believe Me?

It was a gift from the expert.

She finally realized it!

Left Messenger finally realized that she was tricked by that group of people!

If she knew it was something so valuable, how would she have ever shared it with them?!

“Get lost, stop snatching it. It’s all mine!” She shouted out as she quickly started to fight for the food. Then, she hurriedly swallowed some skewers and drank a mouthful of wine.

Buzz!

Wisdom resonated as it started to form images in the air.

Right after she gulped down the wine, she broke through yet another bottleneck, stepping into the second stage of the Wisdom Elite Realm!

She became a second stage Wisdom Elite just like that?

Left Messenger was stunned, on the brink of tears.

If cultivation was that easy, then what was the point of her training for thousands of years?

Not far away, Huang Long was already crying.

Another breakthrough?

She broke through again?

Just by eating some food, she went straight to being a second stage Wisdom Elite from being a Chaos Daluo Golden Immortal?

Where was the logic in that?

What manner of magical food was that? What type of person had leftovers like that?

He finally realized that the two lords of the Divine Sword Mountain did not fall. He was just the one who was ignorant.

He exploded as he did his best to crawl on the ground, shouting out, “My good friends, my dearest of friends. Don’t forget me, I’m still here. I beg you, give me something to eat! Even a mouthful of soup is fine!”

The two lords finally remembered that Huang Long was there. In the rush, they managed to spare some time to reluctantly hand a piece of meat and a bowl of soup to Huang Long.

Huang Long thanked them repeatedly before wolfing the food down and gulping the soup down.

The moment it entered his stomach, he suddenly felt a sense of heat permeate his whole body. His fragile body suddenly felt a burst of energy within it. The energy went from his stomach to his limbs. Even the gray mist he absorbed was being suppressed.

“Wait, the soup seems to have some gray mist that’s different. It also contains what is missing in Wisdom. Unbelievable. How extraordinary!” Huang Long’s body jolted as he widened his eyes.

The gray mist in his body was being subdued, and his injuries were rapidly recovering.

This soup was immensely nutritional!

The mountain lord mocked, "Hey, your injuries seem to have all recovered. Weren't you saying that we should maintain our arrogance earlier? What do you think now?"

"I was wrong, I was really so ignorant. The two of you are so much more knowledgeable than I am. The two of you are amazing!" Huang Long said. He was filled with admiration at that moment and wanted to become a side character to the expert just like they were.

After a moment, everyone almost ate. The Divine Sword Mountain's lord said seriously, "That's right, Lord Erlang, the news about the Heaven Plundering Alliance being eliminated is worth paying attention to. This involves the gray mist, after all."

Yang Jian nodded, "You're right. Anyone who can annihilate the Heaven Plundering Alliance would be terrifyingly strong. I never expected that there would be another way to cleanse the gray mist other than the expert as well. The Heaven Plundering Alliance did have many secrets."

He could not help but recall Tian Luo, who they met in the gray mist origin. Even after absorbing so much gray mist, Tian Luo was not affected at all.

"If you want to know who killed off the Heaven Plundering Alliance, I think I can tell you," Elite King suddenly said with a complicated expression after putting down his wine.

Yang Jian and the others were stunned as they said in surprise, "Who did it?"

“Daji and Fire Phoenix,” Elite King said those names casually. He heard it from Dragin.

Yang Jian jolted as said reverently, “What? No wonder!”

Elite King continued, “I heard that it was to quickly end all the chaos in the world. They made their move because they wanted the expert to live a peaceful life.”

Yang Jian was filled with self-blame as he lamented, “That’s true. They must’ve wanted to quickly clear away any chaotic elements because they were worried it will affect the expert’s cultivation. In truth, this should have all been left to us, but we are far too weak. We troubled them, I’ve not done my part here!”

Huang Long asked, “That... who are you all referring to?”

Huang Long was shocked at that moment. From Yang Jian’s words, he could tell that the Heaven Plundering Alliance was eliminated just because they were a chaotic variable. How imperious and strong would someone have to be to do that?”

It was the Heaven Plundering Alliance. How could they have been eliminated just because they were in the way?

“They’re the expert’s wives, but they’re more like servants.”

Huang Long took a deep breath in surprise.

“H-how could servants be so strong?”

The mountain lord let out a laugh, “What of it? The mongrel dog that the expert is taking care of can kill you with one wave of his paw!”

Huang Long had a stern expression on his face as he said, “The expert is extraordinary. How could I compare to a dog? Are you trying to insult that dog?!”

The mountain lord was speechless.

He was already starting to try and suck up?

Did he have no honor? Did he have no shame?

Yang Jian said seriously, “We should continue keeping an eye on the golden page and help the expert clear away all obstacles! We have to return the Origins Realm to peace.”

Everyone nodded, “That’s right!”

Elite Kick packaged up the bones that everyone spat out and handed them to Left Messenger, "Alright, since everything that should be eaten is already eaten, you should bring the bones back."

"These are bones that have been cooked in the expert's pot. It's probably even stronger than the bones of a supreme being."

Let Messenger carefully kept it, starting to have deep faith in the expert.

...

At the same time, Li Nianfan already carried all the women back into their rooms. He was so tired that he perspired.

The physical exertion was one thing, but his inner heart was greatly tested as well.

Daji and Fire Phoenix were one thing since he was already very familiar with them. The key part was Qin Manyun and Shi Tuqin. They were horrible drunks. When Li Nianfan picked them up, they immediately held on to Li Nianfan tightly and refused to let go. How could Li Nianfan stand a test like that?

Li Nianfan was almost dragged into bed by them.

It was far too terrifying.

There was only one person left, his sister-in-law.

Li Nianfan felt like she would be the most difficult one.

“Brother Li, come, drink!”

She talked in her sleep and had a cute and alluring appearance. It was indescribable.

Li Nianfan took a deep breath as he slowly picked up Little Fox, heading back toward her room.

Thankfully, Little Fox was incredibly quiet the whole way. Just as Li Nianfan took a sigh of relief and wanted to put her on the bed, Little Fox grabbed a hold of him like an octopus.

Li Nianfan took a breath of cold air as he took a stance of surrender.

Little Fox let out a pleased smile, “Brother Li, I figured out a move. You’ll never be able to go against it.”

“It’s the ultimate move. Do you dare go against me?”

So, she referred to chess.

Little Fox was obsessed. She still thought about it even when she was drunk.

Li Nianfan laughed and said, "Sure, let go first. We'll have a game right now."

Little Fox let go of Li Nianfan as she said drunkenly, "Okay, come here right now. I'll definitely defeat you utterly."

Strangely enough, she might be drunk, but she could still play. It was as if she was sleepwalking. How obsessed could she be to do something like that?

At the same time, Little Fox was dramatically improving, which greatly shocked Li Nianfan.

The two of them went blow for blow, really enjoying themselves.

Suddenly Little Fox moved a piece and said, "Hahaha, Brother Li, you've lost. This is checkmate now, I've won!"

"You're really good to be able to think of this move, but you're still too inexperienced!" Li Nianfan shook his head with a smile. After that, he moved a piece, and the board changed dramatically.

“What? How could this be?”

“There are many ways to revive a dead board, but very few ways to truly kill one. You still need training!”

“I won’t admit defeat, let’s try again!”

...

Early in the morning, Li Nianfan yawned as he walked out of Little Fox’s room.

He walked out to strange looks from Daji, Fire Phoenix, Qin Manyun and the others.

“Uhm, would you believe me if I said I was playing chess with Little Fox the whole night?”

Chapter 905: With This Person, You Can Rule Everything!

In the Celestial Demon Forest, the Celestial Demon King discussed things with the five remaining elite demons.

The bull said, "Too much time has passed. There are only a few supreme beings left. Most of them are stationed in one place, and would never fight. We could travel the whole Origins Realm and not even see a single supreme corpse."

The snake demon nodded, "Even if it was countless years ago, and Wisdom was still complete, there weren't many who could become supreme beings. After the disaster hit the realm, supreme beings have all fallen. Some would even turn into their hidden realms, not even leaving a corpse behind."

"Do I need to tell all of you of the various difficulties involved? Even if there's a supreme being's corpse, it won't be something just anyone can get. There'll be restrictions!"

The Celestial Demon King sighed, "I didn't come here to listen to your complaints. I want results! Rat, what's the situation with what I had you investigate?"

"I went to the origin of the gray mist. There's an aura there that forces you to submit. There was a supreme being there, but nothing was left behind at all. Left Messenger wasn't lying, the supreme being used his body to refine the gray mist."

The rat answered honestly before saying with a pause, "My lord, do you think Left Messenger will be able to provide us with materials to make a supreme being's corpse?"

The rat demon was astounded at that thought.

Left Messenger's skills were just like an ant's. How could she have any ties to a supreme being?

There were many strong warriors in the Celestial Demon Forest. All of them looked around for countless years and practically scoured the whole Origins Realm. They looked into far more hidden realms than Left Messenger had, but never even found a single bone. How could Left Messenger find it?

It refused to believe it.

“I don’t believe it either.”

The other demons shook their heads as well, voicing their opinions.

The Celestial Demon King let out a laugh, “That person is surrounded by great fortune. Even the ancient demon looks well upon here. There’s no harm trying. She might bring something back.”

It did not matter if it worked at all, they would not lose out anyway.

At that moment, all of them felt something and looked in the same direction.

A ray of light was rapidly speeding over, entering the Celestial Demon Forest.

Everyone was shocked.

“What? This aura... It’s her?”

“What happened? How did she return so quickly?”

“She’s the only one who came back. What about the other demons?”

The Celestial Demon King frowned.

Very quickly, Left Messenger arrived in front of everyone. They were all shocked to feel the aura from Left Messenger’s body.

The rat demon said in a shocked tone, “The second stage of the Wisdom Elite realm. You’ve reached that level? How did you do it?!”

The bull demon’s eyes widened dramatically as it said curiously, “If I’m not mistaken, she was not even at the Heavenly Realm before she left.”

“How terrifying! It’s the first time I’m seeing something as miraculous as this in my countless years alive.”

Even the Celestial Demon King was completely taken aback.

If Left Messenger was just an ant to them before, her skills were already quite impressive now. Her skills could already be considered halfway there compared to the pact among the demon race.

The Celestial Demon King said with a serious expression, "Left Messenger, what happened? Where are the other four?"

"The other demons... Have sacrificed themselves for the sake of the task!"

Left Messenger was full of sorrow as she said, "You didn't see it. To obtain the materials for the corpse of the supreme being, they were willing to sacrifice everything. They jumped up and offered their bodies and lives. They've turned into amazing... legends."

The Celestial Demon King's heart jumped as he said in anticipation, "Do you mean that you've already obtained materials for a supreme being's corpse?"

Left Messenger nodded as she offered up those bones, "Their lives were not sacrificed in vain."

"You got it?!" The demons were surprised and elated as they looked at it.

The moment they looked at it, they were incredibly shocked.

“These bones are so extraordinary. They have an incredibly alluring fragrance that stirs your appetite. A supreme being is no ordinary being. Even their bones are so fragrant.”

“I can feel a shocking amount of Wisdom coming from these bones. There seems to be the power of the lost Wisdom within!”

“It’s the corpse of a supreme being. It’s so amazing!”

“Strangely enough, why does this turtle shell look so familiar? It looks a lot like the demon who we sent over.”

“These bones also somewhat look like the bear demon’s claws...”

Left Messenger hurriedly said, “Let’s not focus on the details. It might just be fate.”

“That’s right, what happened with your cultivation?” The rat demon looked at Left Messenger seriously as it said, “Did you have some amazing encounter?”

Left Messenger nodded, “That’s right, I met someone incredible. I ate some of his leftovers, and my cultivation increase by so much.”

“What? It was that easy?”

“Only by eating some leftovers, you got so powerful?”

“You must’ve met a supreme being that’s still alive. Not only did he let you live, you got a great benefit from it?”

“How are you so amazing?!”

Left Messenger’s chance encounter shocked all the demons.

“I would’ve gone with you if I’d known.”

The bull demon could not help but utter those words. However, it quickly realized something was wrong. It was not as lucky as Left Messenger, so would it not have just died if it was there? Only Left Messenger managed to return from the place alive.

“Impressive, very impressive! I knew you were an incredibly lucky person from the moment I saw you!”
The Celestial Demon King looked at Left Messenger with warmth and Praise.

It must have been incredibly difficult to survive in that dangerous environment. Not only did she complete the task, but she also had an amazing encounter as well. He admitted that he underestimated her luck before.

“This time, you’ve established a great contribution!” The Celestial Demon King patted Left Messenger’s arm before heading into the cave.

“Ancient demon, just as you expected, that person’s fortunes are horrifying. She managed to obtain materials for the corpse of the supreme being so quickly. Take a look.”

“Really?”

The ancient demon was shocked as well. A formless energy picked up the pile of materials and sent it into the furnace.

“What special bones! I’ve never seen bones with such strange powers before. It seems to have been refined with special ways to reach a level of power that’s never been seen before. It’s much stronger than a regular supreme being!”

“Even more impressive is the fact that there’s even a supreme shell. This material is more valuable than any regular bone. With this, I can create an incredibly strong body!”

The ancient demon was suddenly incredibly excited.

After a moment, it said seriously, “Celestial Demon King, the heavens will occasionally give birth to special figures. They’re like the protagonists in the world, and they carry a certain light on them. It’s not something people can resist, and not something realms can measure. Left Messenger is precisely someone like that. If I manage to obtain her fortune, I can rule the world!”

Chapter 906: I Have the Advantage

The Celestial Demon King walked out of the cave. When he glanced at the Left Messenger, there was a deep look of surprise in his eyes.

He never expected that even the ancient demon would regard her so highly.

She was one of the key figures under heaven and earth!

After a deep breath, he told the demons, “With the bear demon already dead, the six elite demons have a vacant spot. Left Messenger has just made an immense contribution, so I’ll be naming her an elite demon. Are there any objections?”

Left Messenger was just at the second stage of the Wisdom Elite realm. She was still far away from being the strongest there. Being an elite demon requires at least a Wisdom Dictator usually. They have left spots vacant before due to the lack of Wisdom Dictators!

Somehow the rule was broken at that time, and not a single demon opposed it.

The bull demon said immediately, “Left Messenger deserves the spot of the demon elite. I acknowledge her!”

The rat demon said as well, "That's right, anyone who opposes her will be making an enemy out of me!"

All of the demons shouted out in agreement, not daring to say no.

Left Messenger's luck was plain for all to see, and her contributions were undeniable.

Left Messenger thanked the king earnestly, "Thank you, Celestial Demon King."

The Celestial Demon King let out a laugh, believing he obtained a capable subordinate, "Congratulations, you're one of the demon elites in the future! Hahaha, if it's possible, please look for the blood of a supreme being. It's the ancient demon's request as well."

Did they need blood too?

Left Messenger could not help but furrow her eyebrows.

Why did they not just say so from the start? She might have been able to obtain both of them in one go.

The Celestial Demon King patted Left Messenger on her arm, "I know this is a very difficult request, but I believe that you'll be able to do it."

...

The blood of a supreme being was different from bones. Bones could be preserved forever and were more likely to be found. Blood could flow and would turn into energy for the land. Unless it was preserved under certain conditions or was retrieved from a supreme being, it was practically impossible to get.

Left Messenger suddenly told the Celestial Demon King, "Celestial Demon King, I have something else to report."

The Celestial Demon King said in anticipation, "Oh? Do you have a way to get the blood as well?"

Left Messenger shook her head before she acted hesitant, "No, I happened to find out about an immense secret by accident while I was performing the task. I don't know if I should tell all of you."

The other demons suddenly got anxious.

"Left Messenger, we're all a family now. What's there to be so hesitant about? Just tell us."

"With how the Left Messenger is, the news must be an incredibly shocking secret!"

The Celestial Demon King said seriously, "Let Messenger, tell us!"

Left Messenger said, "The Heaven Plundering Alliance was eliminated by someone. At the same time, some people found a golden page in the ruins. There's a shocking secret recorded within!"

"What? The Heaven Plundering Alliance was eliminated?!"

"The Heaven Plundering Alliance is no weaker than the Celestial Demon Forest, and they have so many mysterious figures behind them. Could it be the work of supreme being?"

"There's so much happening now. The origin of the gray just exploded, and now the Heaven Plundering Alliance was dealt with.

"How terrifying! Why is all of this happening?" The demons were all incredibly shocked.

They were not exactly allies of the Heaven Plundering Alliance, but the news was still something that caused some unrest. They felt like they were in danger as well.

The Celestial Demon King was shocked as well, but he acutely caught on to the most important point as he hurriedly asked, "What's recorded on that golden page?"

"I don't know."

Left Messenger shook her head, "It seems to have something to do with the gray mist."

“What!”

The demons all exclaimed immediately. The fact that the Left Messenger left them hanging at the last moment was difficult to bear.

Even though the Celestial Demon King was disappointed, he did not forget to encourage Left Messenger, “I don’t blame you for that. The fact that you know so much is already really impressive. Your luck is something else.”

The bull demon asked, “Left Messenger, do you know where the golden page is?”

Left Messenger answered, “I heard that it’s in the hands of the Noble Pavilion.”

She deliberately revealed so much, but not the whole story, to lure the Celestial Demon Forest into going to battle against Noble Pavilion.

Since the Heavenly Palace was going to be involved in this as well, she figured that she might have those two forces fight first and reduce the number of opponents.

Left Messenger silently praised her intelligence.

Sure enough, the Celestial Demon King's expression sank after hearing her words.

He coldly said, "A secret that has something to do with the gray mist will be enough to shake the whole Origins Realm! It's not something a sect as small as the Noble Pavilion can handle. We have to take the golden page for ourselves!"

He went back into the cave to report the matter to the ancient demon and quickly returned.

He ordered, "Rat, immediately bring a team of demons to Noble Pavilion with Left Messenger. We have to get that golden page!"

"Yes!"

The rat demon immediately acknowledged the orders and started to organize his team with gusto.

During the night, a demonic aura filled the skies of the Celestial Demon Forest. The demons were everywhere as they headed in a direction after they gathered.

As they went over, Left Messenger asked, "Rat, what are you preparing to do?"

"Of course, we'll rush right over and take them by force!"

The rat demon did not even need to think about it as he said with an arrogant tone, "The Noble Pavilion are just a bunch of lower-class cultivators. The leader, Bai Piao, is an absolute scum. He calls himself a gentleman, but he's not even half a step into the Wisdom Dictator Realm. I won't even need three moves to kill him!"

Left Messenger looked at his confident demeanor and could not help but say, "I feel like doing this will lead to a lot of unexpected twists."

"Hahaha, so what?"

The rat demons laughed, "Left Messenger, do you know why the Celestial Demon King wanted you to come with me?"

"Why?" Left Messenger was curious about that. She never stopped working for them.

"Because he wants to use your luck to protect us!"

The rat looked at Left Messenger respectfully, "You're someone with great fortune. With your luck and my skill, we'll be able to do anything. I alone would have been enough, but this is an incredibly important matter, which is why you're here as well. With just a bit of your luck, we'll have an easy time."

The rat demon let out a laugh, confident that he had the advantage.

Left Messenger did not say anything but started to retreat a little.

After that, she would occasionally lag every once in a while. By the time they were at the Noble Pavilion, she was already at the back of the team.

In the team, only one black pig demon observed the Left Messenger. It only managed to get to its level because it was incredibly careful. So, it was fixed on Left Messenger the whole time. Wherever she went, it would, and tie itself down with the one with great fortune!

Immediately, it slowly got closer to Left Messenger and followed her moves.

“Who dares barge into the Noble Pavilion?!”

At the same time, the disciples of the Noble Pavilion rushed over.

“I’m your rat uncle! Call your sect leader out to die!”

The rat’s tone was cold. As it opened its mouth, a large rat appeared in the skies, and immediately swallowed the disciples!

Chapter 907: Supreme Being

“How dare you!” With that shout, five figures shot out of Noble Pavilion. The one at the helm was Bai Piao.

However, the moment they reached the skies, they felt the pressure from the rat demon and stopped.

Bai Piao was just half a step into the Wisdom Dictator realm, while the rat demon was already at its peak. The two of them were on completely different levels.

Bai Piao held his energy back and said, “Who might you be? Why are you at Noble Pavilion?”

As a fierce glint flashed within them, the rat demon narrowed his eyes, “I’m Rat, from the Celestial Demon Forest. I came here for a golden page!”

Hearing that, a strange expression flashed in Bai Piao’s eyes.

He did not understand how the news would spread into the Celestial Demon Forest. They were incredibly secretive, and the Celestial Demon Forest was in the Southern Star Region. There should have been no way they would find out.

However, he reacted quickly as he immediately said incredulously, “A golden page? What’s that? You must have misunderstood something.”

The rat demon let out a cold laugh, “Haha, you can’t hide your thoughts from a Wisdom Dictator. Die!”

It already knew the answer, and just played around. A large rat materialized in the air, opening its mouth and trying to suck the whole Noble Pavilion in!

Wisdom Dictators were unmatched. No one in Noble Pavilion could stand up against it.

Yet, as whole Noble Pavilion was fine even though the rat should have been able to swallow all of them.

“How’s this possible?!” The rat demon’s eyes widened as it felt an unsettling feeling in its heart.

“Left Messenger...” It could not help but turn to look by its side but noticed that the space next to it was already empty. When it turned around, it saw a blurred figure disappear into the distance...

“What!” A chill in its heart caused it to not know what to say. As it prepared to leave, it suddenly felt an incredibly horrifying pressure descend!

“I’ve hidden for so long, but a rat dug me out. It should die!” A cold and ancient voice reverberated in the rat’s ears, causing it to freeze in place.

...

It tried to use all the power in its body, but could only barely force open its eyes to look at a massive hand materialized from Noble Pavilion!

That palm was completely black, and countless worlds seemed to exist within it. It was as if the whole world was gone, and the hand was all that was left!

“It’s a supreme being. The Noble Pavilion has a supreme being?!”

“With just one palm, everything can be destroyed!”

“A supreme being, who could stand up to that? Why is he hiding here?”

At that moment, the demons lost all hope.

The massive hand enveloped heaven and earth, encompassing all the demons. It could kill all of them like ants with just a pinch.

Yet...

At that moment, the rat demon’s body suddenly jolted. Blood suddenly flowed out of its orifices and surged to the skies, blocking the gigantic hand.

The blood turned incredibly misty, and the power of an ancient demon emerged. The evil and murderous power condensed and revealed the majesty of the ancient demons.

An unending wave of demonic power encompassed everything as a fierce large demon started to form. Its whole body was a blood-red shell. The left eye looked like the sun, while the right eye looked at the moon. It coldly looked toward the Noble Pavilion as it appeared above the rat demon.

The power of a supreme demon was revealed.

It looked just like the ancient demon drawn in the cave of the Celestial Demon Forest.

It was... the image of the ancient demon!

“L-Lord!”

The rat demon reverently looked at the ancient demon as he said elatedly, “Thank you ancient demon lord for saving my life.”

The ancient demon ignored it and said, “Who were you back in ancient times?”

“Such an evil demonic power... So the ancestors of the demon race aren’t all gone.”

In the Noble Pavilion, the voice mumbled to itself. The hand was still there, and suddenly attacked!

“Wisdom is never-ending. The two of us will fight. You would be stronger if you had a physical body, but if it’s just your divine senses, I can defeat it with a palm!”

“Insolence!” The ancient demon roared as a vibrant red light shot out of its mouth.

The red glow was splattered everywhere and was the condensation of an incredibly sinister demon before. It look demonic everywhere as if the whole world was being controlled by the ancient demon!

The blood-red light pierced through Wisdom and headed right toward the massive hand!

The massive hand descended like a meteor and clashed with the blood-red light. The red pillar trembled and shook, and the ancient demon trembled as well.

Two supreme techniques clashed, and the ancient demon’s projection flashed, threatening to disappear at any moment.

“No, the ancient demon lord is going to lose...”

“He has no way of descending himself, and can only help us hold on for a moment, but we have no way to escape this situation.”

“Done for, we’re all done for.”

The demons let out wails of hopelessness, not even having the bravery to stand up to a supreme being.

As the red pillar was about to crumble, the ancient demon’s power suddenly rose rapidly. The red light started to boil.

The demons around it started to boil as well. Their blood started to come out of all their orifices and merge into the ancient demon’s projection.

The projection stabilized, and the red light it shot out became even more intense. Its roar reverberated throughout the land as it started to fight on an even field against the palm.

“T-The ancient demon lord is taking all our energy!” The demons all started to panic.

The rat demon immediately said, “We’ll just die anyway. We might as well make one last contribution to the demon race.”

“That’s right, merging with the ancient demon lord would be my honor.”

“Everything I have was meant for him anyway.”

In a flash, the red light intensified, and the projection expanded, suddenly winning over the massive hand.

“How dare you! Don’t even think about getting the source of my energy!” The sound that pierced through the heavens could be heard again. The owner of the massive palm was furious.

An ancient supreme demon fought with him, and at the same time, looked for the source of his power to determine who he is.

“If you’re going to be rude to me, I’ll be rude to you too!”

The ancient demon let out a cold snort as its demonic power completely smashed the rat demon and the others to nourish its projection, unleashing its strongest attack.

It was always a projection, and its whole body suddenly turned into the red light and clashed with the hand!

At that, the red light and the massive hand disappeared at the same time. Only energy remained, distorting the space and destroying Wisdom. It was enough to kill everyone nearby.

An incredible distance away, two figures were rapidly fleeing without even turning their heads around. They were far too anxious, and even their hair stood on its ends. It was clear that they ran with as much effort as they could.

Those two figures were naturally Left Messenger and the black pig demon.

The moment the rat demon moved, Left Messenger immediately fled, and the black pig followed as well.

They were prepared to look at what would happen, but the moment they saw a supreme being acting, their souls left their bodies as they ran with reckless abandon.

At that moment, they were still incredibly anxious, unable to calm themselves, "I escaped from a supreme being!"

Chapter 908: Native Land and the Sun

At the Noble Pavilion, the disciples all remembered the battle between supreme beings that just happened earlier in a daze.

Bai Piao quickly went to a room deep in the pavilion.

The next moment, the room distorted and changed into unending darkness. Dark whirlpools appeared everywhere.

Bai Piao immediately knelt as he said, "Hail, master."

In the darkness, a majestic voice asked, "How did the golden page end up moving that ancient demon?"

Bai Piao said in fear, "It was all my fault for not doing things well. Please punish me!"

"Humph!"

The majestic voice's snort slammed Bai Piao's face right onto the floor, and his body constantly shook.

After a long moment, the voice continued, "The ancient demon remained behind back then. Even if he's not dead, he shouldn't be far away from dying. He shouldn't even have a physical body anymore, so what right does he have to fight me? Continue looking for the place stated in the golden page. I want you to stop at no cost!"

Bai Piao immediately assured him, "I understand."

At that moment, a transparent lotus formed in the darkness and floated in front of Bai Piao.

A dense aura of wisdom exuded outwardly from the lotus. It suddenly shone brightly, as if the images of tens of thousands of worlds appeared.

The voice coldly said, "Eat it!"

Bai Piao had a look of excitement, "Yes! Thank you for bestowing this gift upon me, master."

After he said that, he immediately swallowed the lotus. In a flash, an unending light shot out of his body as an immense power surged to the skies. Bai Piao felt like a lock was undone on his body, and the power within him surged forward.

A Wisdom Lotus led him fully into the Wisdom Dictator realm!

...

Bai Piao knelt, "Thank you, master!"

At that moment, a figure was hidden in the skies of the Noble Pavilion, seeing everything that happened.

The figure was Zhou Yuanhai from the Heaven Plundering Alliance.

His eyes shone slightly as he looked at the sun in the sky, mumbling to himself, "Haha, a golden page falling into the lake managed to stir up all the fishes inside. The water is getting muddier, it's a good thing..."

...

In the Celestial Demon Forest, the demons were all knelt on the floor, not even daring to breathe.

Not long ago, the ancient demon let out an incredibly powerful force. It seemed to even cause the skies around the Celestial Demon Forest to collapse. No one knew what happened. All they knew was that the ancient demon was furious, so the demons kept on kneeling in fear.

At that moment, Left Messenger and the black pig came back. They were stunned to see what happened.

The black pig did not utter another word as it knelt as well. After that, he said uneasily, "Can someone tell me what happened?"

Another demon spoke, "We don't know what happened either. All we know is that the ancient demon is furious."

The black pig had a look of realization as it whispered, "So that's what happened. I know a bit about it. I saw the ancient demon fighting!"

"What?!"

"The ancient demon fought?"

It might have been whispering, but it could not be hidden from the Celestial Demon King's ears.

The Celestial Demon King walked over with a surprised look on his face, "Why are you two back? What happened?"

"Rat and the other demons are all dead. They were killed by a supreme being!"

The black pig said in misery before continuing, "If I hadn't been protected by Left Messenger, I would've died as well. Left Messenger is incredibly blessed, she's so amazing."

All the demons looked over at Left Messenger and took a deep breath at the same time.

A supreme being fought, but Left Messenger was able to escape with her luck? She even brought along a teammate. How strong was she?

The Celestial Demon King said in shock, "Is that true?"

The black pig nodded, "It's true!"

"It was nothing that amazing. It's thanks to the ancient demon lord that we managed to be saved."

Left Messenger chose that moment to try and seem modest. After that, she talked about what happened. All she said was that she received a sign from the heavens to leave the place as soon as she could.

“Even the ancient demon lord fought, that’s probably the source of its anger!”

“The Noble Pavilion hid the fact that they have a supreme being so well. What happened?”

“The key part is Left Messenger. She was blessed by the heavens enough to receive a sign!”

“Being able to escape a supreme being, Left Messenger is incredible!”

Everyone looked at Left Messenger reverently.

Left Messenger started to put on a show as she sighed sadly, “I’m not that lucky. I went on two tasks and caused so many fellow demons to die. It’s my fault.”

“Left Messenger, you can’t say that!”

The bull demon walked up and said seriously, “The first time, you managed to bring back divine bones for the ancient demon. The second time, you escaped a supreme being. Both tasks were unbelievable. As for the rest of them... To be honest, it’s normal that they’d die in a task like that. After all, they don’t have your luck!”

The snake demon shouted, “That’s right, you’re completely right!”

The Celestial Demon King patted Left Messenger on the arm and said seriously, “Left Messenger, you don’t have to blame yourself. All of us can see your skill. Don’t be fixated on the two dead elites. I feel like if it weren’t for your luck, we’d all already be dead.”

“The Celestial Demon King is right. If Left Messenger wasn’t there, we’d probably not only have lost two elites.”

“That’s right, it’s good for us!”

Left Messenger was speechless.

She found that the demons were all geniuses.

At that moment, the Celestial Demon King suddenly jolted with a look of surprise before he told Left Messenger, "Come with me, the ancient demon wants to see you. The other demon elites come with me too."

The six of them entered the cave immediately and greeted the ancient demon.

The ancient demon coldly snorted from the furnace, "Humph, the one who fought me is just a mouse who only knows how to hide. It seems like they can't just keep hiding anymore, and they're trying to pull the strings in the Native Land!"

"Native Land?"

Everyone had a look of confusion, not understanding what it meant.

The ancient demon said, "The Origin Realm is split into north, south, east, and west. These four zones can be called the Native Land."

The Celestial Demon King was even more confused, "If that person isn't in the Native Land, then where are they?"

The ancient demon said, "Other than the four areas, isn't there the origin area as well? That's the sun on your heads!"

“What?”

“He’s on the sun?!”

Everyone was shocked because they never heard about anyone on the Sun before. It was unbelievable.

The Origin Realm’s Wisdom all came from the sun. It could be said that the sun was the origin of all cultivation there. Its power was immense, able to turn anything around it to ash!

For example, the Origins Realm’s sun was like the sun to normal people. It was somewhere that could not be touched.

Yet, they just found out that someone could be at the sun!

Chapter 909: Drunkard Reappears’

“The whole Origins Realm’s Wisdom comes from there. The Wisdom there is so dense, and if he stays in there...” The Celestial Demon King gulped, his tone full of envy.

“You’re right. The area has complete Wisdom within! Truly complete Wisdom!” The ancient demon’s words caused everyone to start breathing more erratically.

Truly complete Wisdom!

To the cultivators in the Origins Realm, it was something incredibly luxurious.

Since the Origins Realm's Wisdom was lacking, they could never become supremes. A portion was lost and even contaminated by the gray mist. Absorbing it would cause them to lose themselves. There was no way around it, but they never expected the sun to contain complete Wisdom.

The cultivators who lived on it had it good.

"They're just a bunch of petty rats," After that, the ancient demon laughed in disdain.

"Back then, a madman rose rapidly and claimed to want to transform Wisdom and turn into heaven's chosen. That was what contaminated the gray mist, at that time..."

As he said that, the ancient demon stopped abruptly. The soul lamp flickered on and off as if it was going to explode at any moment.

"It was my fault, what happened back then can't be spoken about," The ancient demon hurriedly said in an incredibly respectful tone.

It caused the Celestial Demon King and the others to exchange a look with a buzz in their head.

Was...

Was the ancient demon just warned by a certain existence? Or was there some sort of restriction in the laws of the world?

No matter what it was, it was far too terrifying.

The ancient demon lord was a supreme being.

"A matter like this can only be known by special people. You're... not worthy," The ancient demon said honestly.

...

The Celestial Demon King hurriedly said, "We aren't worthy. Ancient demon lord, you don't have to say anymore,"

He knew that the more he knew, the quicker he would die. He was not even curious anymore.

"For those of them on the sun to be interfering with the Origins Realm, could the restrictions on them have loosened?"

The ancient demon mumbled, feeling a sense of urgency. It said to Left Messenger, "Left Messenger, you are extraordinary. Even I have to rely on you. Please help us with obtaining the blood of a supreme being."

Left Messenger's heart shook as she hurriedly said, "Ancient demon lord, don't worry. I already have something in mind, but this can't be rushed."

She acted quite panicked, not expecting a supreme to pay attention to her.

However, she knew where her limits were. She did not have any particular talents, she just relied on the expert.

She just gave the expert some meat, so she could not do it again temporarily. She would have to wait a while, and could not rush things.

The ancient demon encouraged, "I know it can't be rushed, just do what you can."

Left Messenger nodded, "Of course, of course."

The ancient demon said seriously, "Celestial Demon King, continue having people keeping track of the Noble Pavilion. Do your best to find out about the golden page. It's something special if those from the sun are involved."

The Celestial Demon King said seriously, "I understand."

...

In the Eastern Star Region, in the Endless Sea, Xiao Chengfeng arrived alone as he looked at the waves with a mystified expression.

The Heavenly Palace collected gray mist everywhere. After finding things out, they discovered that at the start of the gray mist exploding out, there were three places where it was the densest. One of them was the Endless Sea in front of him.

An explosion of such dense gray mist would normally represent a lot of tainted energy.

However, Xiao Chengfeng was still there, because the Sky Melting Sword led him there.

"What exactly is here?" Xiao Chengfeng touched the Sky Melting Sword and was filled with confusion.

The Sky Melting Sword was one of the seven battle souls, a peak supreme being from back then. Their origins were naturally extraordinary. Xiao Chengfeng hesitated for a long time before he arrived, but he knew that the place was incredibly dangerous, so he came there alone.

Buzz.

The Sky Melting Sword resonated in response, seemingly in fear and excitement.

Splash!

At that moment, the sea suddenly rose as countless waves formed a wall. It was incredibly high, obstructing Xiao Chengfeng.

After that, the huge waves formed countless hands and headed straight for him. There were even incredibly harsh and loud screeching noises.

“Petty tricks!”

Xiao Chengfeng smiled arrogantly, not even bothering to use his sword. He merely pointed his finger, and wave after wave of sword aura filled the air, surging outward.

The hands were immediately sliced away, and the huge waves were chopped off. The monsters behind the waves were not even given time to reveal themselves before they were turned into a sea of blood. All that was left was the gray mist floating in the air.

Xiao Chengfeng sealed the gray mist, and could not help but lament, “The Endless Sea is filled with gray mist. Just a random monster here has so much gray mist. The dangers inside are unfathomable.”

It's just the outer sea, and a third stage Elite appeared. Xiao Chengfeng was incredibly sure that there was a supreme being within the sea!

He was a bit apprehensive now, "Should we retreat for now and return another day?"

Buzz.

The Sky Melting Sword shook crazily.

"Alright, alright, I'll continue deeper," Xiao Chengfeng helplessly headed deeper in.

He moved forward and continued to kill monsters and monsters until half-step Wisdom Dictators started to appear.

"Fellow cultivator, save me," Suddenly, a frantic voice was heard.

An incredibly alluring girl was seen frantically running away in the sea. Behind her was an incredibly ugly and large fish. The fish's mouth took up half its body, and it was opened wide. Its mouth was filled with sharp teeth, and it was about to catch up to the girl and swallow her whole.

"Hero, please save me."

The girl rushed at Xiao Chengfeng as she cried for help. Her eyes were filled with tears as she jumped out of the sea, revealing her incredibly beautiful upper body.

Xiao Chengfeng did not move as he said coldly, "Stop acting, is there any point?"

"Boring."

The girl's expression suddenly turned cold. After a moment, nine snake heads grew out and rushed right at Xiao Chengfeng. The snake's eyes shone in a strange glow.

Xiao Chengfeng's expression suddenly turned blurry. After that, his feet started to slowly turn to stone. His legs, body, and head followed!

In a flash, he turned into a statue, falling into the sea.

A snake tail pulled the statue in front of the girl, "I haven't seen a human in such a long time, but he was so boring. No matter, I'll bring him back and teach him probably. He'll become my pet."

At that moment, a figure appeared in the sea, walking over toward them.

He had a gigantic guard on his back, “He probably won’t become your pet, but you... will turn into my wine!”

“Why are you here?”

The girl was filled with shock as she cried out, turning around to run.

Yet, a massive vortex suddenly appeared. She could not leave no matter what she did. After that, she was absorbed into the gourd!

Chapter 910: Sword Cultivator’s Inner Conflict

“Thank you for saving me, senior,” Xiao Chengfeng woke up from his stone form and respectfully thanked the drunkard.

He might have been turned to stone earlier, but he could still feel and see what happened.

That female demon might not be a supreme being, but she was not far away from being one. The man in front of him did not have that distance at all, he was a true and blue supreme being.

At that moment, Wisdom was lacking, and the path forward was already cut out. No new supreme beings were being born. The man was an incredibly ancient existence.

“No need to thank me, I’ve always patrolled this sea.”

The drunkard waved it off in a nonchalant manner as he took a gulp of wine and said drunkenly, “Good, this is good wine.”

Xiao Chengfeng saw for himself the dangers of the sea, it was endless and filled with strong demons. Everyone was contaminated with gray mist, and their skills were immense. However, the person in front of him was able to guard it himself.

How strong could he be?

No wonder not a single demon was able to get out of the sea and bring harm to everyone. That meant that the person managed to suppress a gray mist origin by himself.

Xiao Chengfeng was incredibly respectful as he said, “Senior, if you like to drink, I have some amazing wine here that you can try.”

As he said that, he painfully took out a small pitcher and gave it to the drunkard.

It was some wine that he set aside during the last feast. Every time, he would not finish the wine and fill it back up after he drank half of it. Even though it would get less and less fragrant, it was still better than not having anything to drink.

“Oh?” The drunkard grabbed the pitcher and placed it in front of his nose. His eyes widened slightly before he took a sip. He closed his eyes and stood on the spot, savoring the taste.

After a long time, he said, “It is some good stuff...”

He handed his gourd to Xiao Chengfeng, “You give mine a taste.”

Xiao Chengfeng took the gourd and took a gulp. He was stunned on the spot.

...

He did not think much of it initially, feeling like even a supreme being’s wine could not compare to the expert’s. It really could not, but...

He suddenly felt an incredibly familiar taste from the wine.

It felt like... the expert’s wine.

Xiao Chengfeng was stunned as he exclaimed, “T-This wine...”

The drunkard laughed, “I’m just like you, constantly diluting good wine. It’s just that I’ve already done it for countless years. Every time there’s only half left in this gourd, I’ll refill it. As I drank and ate, a lot of time passed.”

Those words reverberated in Xiao Chengfeng's mind.

For it to still taste like that after so many years, the wine came from the same source as the expert.

Could it be that there was someone else who could make wine like that other than the expert?

"After waiting for so many years, I finally found the same taste. He's finally back..."

"The him you're referring to. Are you talking about... the person who made the wine? Do you know him?"

Xiao Chengfeng was shocked. He knew that traces of the expert already appeared countless years ago. Back then, they saw the expert's calligraphy in the forbidden area of the Yun Clan. Now, he saw the expert's wine.

"I can't remember anymore."

The drunkard shook his head, "The thing I remember the most is that, after this moment, this name will no longer exist in the world. No one will remember the form or any memories at all. However, when the gray mist returned, so... will he."

That piece of the past... was cut off?!

Xiao Chengfeng's head spun. What reason could anyone have to cut off the memories of existence like the drunkards?

So would his memories be cut off in the future after helping the expert do so much as well?

Xiao Chengfeng suddenly panicked.

Suddenly, he heard the drunkard sigh and say bitterly, "Back then, we... lost."

Xiao Chengfeng's eyes brightened slightly.

So the memories were cut off because they were lost?

Then, if the expert won, would they get to keep their memories?

He had a lot of questions but started to feel a lot of pressure.

Buzz.

At that moment, the sword in Xiao Chengfeng's hand started to shake again.

The drunkard smiled when he looked at the Sky Melting Sword, "Come with me, the sword is looking for its old opponent."

Xiao Chengfeng walked right into the sea with him.

The sea looked incredibly blue on the top, but only after they entered did Xiao Chengfeng know that the sea water was completely contaminated by gray mist.

The drunkard moved in the water just like he did on land. He did not seem restricted at all. Everywhere he walked past, the demons contaminated by the gray mist would be wiped away, not leaving a single trace.

It caused Xiao Chengfeng to widen his eyes, feeling incredibly shocked.

Xiao Chengfeng gulped, unable to stop himself from saying, "Senior, could the old foe you're referring to be..."

The drunkard said plainly, "The old rival of the Sky Melting Sword's past owner."

“What?!”

Xiao Chengfeng was stunned. How strong had the Sky Melting Sword’s old owner been? He was at least a supreme being. His rival could not be that weak.

Now that he was the new owner of the Sky Melting Sword, would meeting that person not just kill him?

He had a straight look on his face as he said, “Senior, I have to speak the truth now. I merely picked up this sword, it has nothing to do with me. I don’t have to meet that old rival.”

Buzz!

The Sky Melting Sword shook crazily.

Xiao Chengfeng said, “See, even the Sky Melting Sword nodded. It agrees with me.”

Buzz!

The drunkard turned around and suddenly smiled at Xiao Chengfeng, “I can see something special about you. This time, you’ll do better than the last owner of the Sky Melting Sword.”

Xiao Chengfeng's eyes brightened, "What's special about me?"

"You're more shameless than he is!"

Xiao Chengfeng was speechless.

"I'm bringing you over to help save someone." The drunkard continued to walk forward, and Xiao Chengfeng was unable to control himself as he followed the drunkard deeper.

Xiao Chengfeng was stunned, "Save someone? Could that old rival have something wrong with him?"

The drunkard said seriously, "He's being affected by his inner heart, and ended up being contaminated by the gray mist. He sealed himself under the sea for countless years. It's not the most important timing. If he can't overcome it, he'll be contaminated by the gray mist, and another calamity will befall the world. I won't be able to completely guard the Endless Sea either."

Xiao Chengfeng's expression turned serious.

The problem the drunkard brought up was very severe.

However...

“Senior, my cultivation level is low, how would I save him?”

The drunkard said, “His inner conflict comes from the past owner of the sword. He’s always been stuck on not being able to find the strongest way of the sword. If you can beat him in that way, his inner conflict would disperse.

After saying that, an ancient coffin appeared in front of them. The coffin was incredibly rotten, and an unending gray mist circled the coffin.

“Drunkard, you’re here again?” There was an incredibly confident voice from within the coffin. Even not seeing the person still filled one with respect for the person’s strength.

The drunkard nodded, “Yes, I came here to save you this time.”
