Chapter 941: The Expert Cannot Be Disturbed

The drunkard was pushed aside as he looked at Xiao Chengfeng finish up the rest of the wine. He pursed his lips helplessly.

If he knew earlier, he would have poured a little of it into the gourd first. It was a waste for such a good wine to be finished just like that.

He felt a pang of pain in his heart.

The other one who felt pained was Zhou Yuanhai.

He felt a bit guilty and did not dare to fight over it with the Heavenly Palace. He thought that they would have left him some, but those people finished drinking all of it. They did not even leave him a single drop...

Xiao Chengfeng only noticed Zhou Yuanhai when he held the empty jar, "Cultivator Zhou, I'm sorry. We got too obsessed with drinking and forgot to leave you some."

"You're new and still don't know the rules. You have to fight for good things like this. You can't just look on by the side. Everyone was so focused on drinking, so who would think about you?" Yang Jian said in an earnest tone.

Cultivator Junjun smiled and said, "Next time, you have to be a bit more shameless."

"Ahem, thank you for the lesson."

Zhou Yuanhai coughed to mask his awkwardness. At the same time, he was full of hatred in his heart. It was a mere jar of wine. Once he succeeded, he would be able to create anything with a wave of his hand. Then he would show them what true hopelessness was!

...

He was furious inside, but his expression was as calm as water as he said, "Fellow cultivators, isn't it time for us to go visit the expert?"

Xiao Chengfeng nodded, "Yes, it's time."

At that moment, the drunkard raised an eyebrow as he said, "You're going to visit the expert?"

"That's right, do you want to come with us?"

The drunkard said seriously, "It's better if you don't go with that many people."

“Why?” Xiao Chengfeng and the others had looks of surprise on their faces.

The drunkard said plainly, “Did you forget the traitors?”

The traitors?

The Heavenly Palace’s group chilled.

The drunkard continued, “Back then, quite a few of the traitors were people who lived for Wisdom just like me. The Unrivaled was one of them, but what happened in the end? They chose to betray Wisdom. In this world, the human heart is the thing that changed the easiest, and it’s also the hardest to anticipate. That person is in a unique situation right now, so it’s better if you don’t let so many people visit. Otherwise, the consequences will be unimaginable!”

Hearing the drunkard’s words, the Heavenly Palace had a look of realization. They exchanged looks and found that they were too careless in their ways.

The moment anyone went in with ill intentions and disturbed the expert’s training, no one would be able to bear the consequences!

“Now, you are the protectors that he has chosen. You should perform your job properly. You can’t allow a single mistake to happen, and you can’t let what happened last time repeat itself! I don’t want traitors to appear among you again!” The drunkard’s tone was sad as he swept his gaze across everyone with a complicated expression.

Xiao Chengfeng and the others immediately said in a resolved tone, “Don’t worry, we won’t disappoint you!”

Yang Jian said, “Since the drunkard said so, we shouldn’t visit the expert so much anymore. Next time, we should talk to the people next to the expert instead.”

Cultivator Junjun said to Zhou Yuanhai, “Cultivator Zhou, we wanted to introduce you to the expert, but we can’t do it anymore. We’re sorry. I hope you can understand.”

What was there to understand?!

Zhou Yuanhai cursed in his heart, feeling like he swallowed a fly.

He plotted for so long to get closer to Xiao Chengfeng and the others and even gave up all of the seven battle souls. He even offered up the whole Heaven Plundering Alliance. It was all for the sake of meeting that person!

He never expected the fish to leave right as it was about to bite onto the hook. It was so tragic!

That stupid drunkard ruined all his plans!

He cursed inside, but could not do anything but smile, "I understand. Of course, I understand. I honestly don't need to visit him. It's enough for him to get my gift."

Xiao Chengfeng immediately praised, "Cultivator Zhou, you have a great sense of awareness. You're a talented person. Not bad!"

"Haha, that's too much praise..." Zhou Yuanhai forced out an ugly smile.

Juling Shen asked, "Drunkard, the gray mist is uncontrollable at the moment. What should we do?"

The drunkard said, "Of course, you should mobilize all the major cultivators to suppress the gray mist. It's a calamity of the whole Origins Realm, no one can escape from it. We should pay attention to two places."

Yang Jian asked, "Which two places?"

"First is the Unending Sea. It's expanding incredibly rapidly. The sea is swallowing everything up, enveloping even the skies. It won't take long for it to swallow up all the stars in the Origins Realm. It would be a terrifying calamity. It will become a force that can go against Wisdom itself."

"The second place is the Volcanoes of Disaster. It's not too different from the Unending Sea. It's currently being sealed up by an old friend after he paid the price with his life."

The drunkards caused the Heavenly Palace to pay their respects.

No matter the Unending Sea or the Volcanoes of Disaster, they could swallow up the Origins Realm incredibly quickly. However, a supreme being paid his life to seal the Volcanoes of Disaster. It was something worthy of respect and admiration.

The drunkard continued, "I feel that that old friend of mine won't die so easily. I'll go take a look at the volcanos."

Xiao Chengfeng immediately said, "Since that's the case, we'll follow you and save that senior."

The drunkard fell silent for a moment before he nodded, "Fine."

In the end, they decided that Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian, who were the two strongest, would go with the drunkard to the volcanos. The others would bring the soldiers with them and help the cultivators of the Origins Realm suppress the gray mist.

"We can't delay the matter. Follow me!"

The moment the drunkard said that, he jumped into the air. He headed right toward the volcanos, and Xiao Chengfeng followed closely behind Yang Jian.

On the way, they seemed to pass by neverending battles. It was a calamity that affected the whole Origins REalm. It was a battle between Wisdom and the gray mist. There were more and more white-haired beasts that were born from the gray mist killing everything in sight as well.

They saw many corrupted places, but also saw many paradises that were carved out by incredibly strong cultivators. The Origins Realm changed drastically.

At the same time, it was still completely dark in the sun.

The ancient demon chased after the Unrivaled's finger, transcended an unending distance as his physical body smashed past the restrictions of Wisdom and gave chase all the way here.

It did not want any revenge, nor did he dare to seek it, but his body seemed to hold a grudge. The body seemed like a crazed dog, ignoring any obstacles or danger/

In the darkness, two eyes that seemed to see everything opened. The pupils were gold and vibrant and seemed to encompass the universe. It was completely unrivaled, and no one dared to look into it.

The ancient demon shook at the sight, almost dying from the fright.

"I'm sorry for disturbing you. I don't want to do this."

"It's true. Believe me. I can't control myself."

As he said that, his body lunged forward like a hungry tiger, heading straight for the Unrivaled!

Chapter 942: Unrivaled Defense

Crack!

The ancient demon lunged forward, and his mouth bit right into the Unrivaled's body.

The Unrivaled widened his eyes in rage and disbelief, glaring right at the ancient demon who bit his thigh.

The ancient demon widened its eyes to look at his as well. The demon's mouth was still biting down, but its expression was confused and helpless.

The two of them widened their eyes.

"Die!" The Unrivaled roared as a terrifying aura exploded outward. The incredible strength was enough to shatter anything it touched. It pushed down on the ancient demon, sending it flying.

Normally, the ancient demon would have already turned to dust.

Yet, it seemed to be able to stand up no matter where it fell. It leaped back up and lunged at the Unrivaled again.

“What? I’m fine? I’m fine even after that?!”

The ancient demon said as it ran, lunging at the Unrivaled and biting at the same spot again.

The Unrivaled was a little stunned but still hit it away in anger.

“I’m still fine?”

“Wow, I’m so awesome?”

“Hahaha, Unrivaled, you’re not that great. Use a bit more power.”

The ancient demon started to feel a bit more relaxed. It noticed that it was not just free from injuries, it could not even feel any pain.

The body might not be controlled by him, but it was extraordinarily solid.

“Is this an Unrivaled defense?”

The Unrivaled looked at the ancient demon that still bit down at the same spot with rage.

He was the Unrivaled. He was Unrivaled since he was born. He was unrivaled in his spell power, defense, speed, and skill...

Yet, he noticed that the ancient demon was just like him. The ancient demon had an unrivaled defense as well. He was unable to break through.

Even though he did not feel anything with the ancient demon biting down on him, it was...

It was still so ugly!

The Unrivaled was never so humiliated.

Boom!

The ancient demon was sent flying again.

“Wow, how fun. Unrivaled, I’m going to bite you again,” The ancient demon already fully let go of itself. If it could not fight it, then he would just enjoy it.

During ancient times, the Unrivaled was such a strong existence. His powers were a match for even Madman Chu. Yet, the Unrivaled actually could not do anything about the ancient demon biting down on him. That felt great.

However, before he could lunge forward again, the Unrivaled raised his hand and pointed at the ancient demon.

In a flash, a cage appeared, turning into a seal and shutting the ancient demon in.

Bam!

The ancient demon’s body crashed against the seal, but could not break through.

After that, its body constantly crashed against the seal, not knowing of fatigue.

Bam! Bame! Bam!

“There’s nothing impressive about sealing me. Come fight me if you have the skills.”

“If you can call yourself Unrivaled, then let me out!”

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The Unrivaled’s eyes were filled with anger. He finally shut his eyes helplessly, sealing his hearing and trying to ignore it.

“Creating an invincible body so casually. It looks like you’re back. Are you trying to disgust me because of my betrayal back then? Haha, what’s the point? How boring!”

...

In the Volcanos of Disaster, the drunkard, Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian were already incredibly close.

Entering the place, they entered a corrupted world. There was gray mist everywhere. Even Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng felt suffocated. They felt strangely frustrated and hated the environment.

The drunkard said plainly, “You’re still not strong enough. You can’t completely control your power yet. Your Dao Hearts are stable, but you don’t have the skills. The gray mist is dense here. You will be corrupted if you are exposed for too long.”

Yang Jian said with some worry, "Drunkard what do we do?"

"Don't worry, you've drank that person's wine. It's not so easily digested. As long as you don't absorb it yourself, you'll be fine," The drunkard said with a smile.

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng rolled their eyes, feeling like the drunkard was toying with them.

He went on for so much, but it was all just meaningless talk in the end. It caused them needless worry.

Very quickly, they arrived in front of a rundown building.

The walls were broken down, and the fences were collapsed. It was full of scars that showed its age.

It was clear that it used to be a sect, but it turn to dust through countless years. What remained was a pile of rubble.

What shocked Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian the most was a shocking power that was coming from near the building. It was unmatched and undying. Yet, there seemed to be a hint of death in it. The two conflicting powers merged.

Yang Jian exclaimed, "The end of death is life, and the end of life is death. Is this the Wisdom of Life and Death? Even the residual energy causes me immense despair."

Xiao Chengfeng said, "Not long ago, there was a huge battle here. Even though they're all gone, the residual aura fends the gray mist away. It caused this place to be the only clean area in the corrupted lands! Drunkard, is this the friend you spoke about?"

The drunkard smiled, "It's him. That person keeps on thinking about not dying. This time, I can't let him do as he pleases. I have to make sure he dies!"

The three of them followed the residual aura and headed toward the volcanos.

Only, they just stepped out of the ruins when many white-haired beasts rushed out.

The beasts had wings on their backs and were shaped like dragons. They looked incredibly ferocious, but thanks to the corruption of the gray mist, all of the hair on their body turned white. They looked even more horrifying.

It was not just cultivators that turned to white-haired beasts if they could not contain the gray mist, but beasts as well.

"One blade to kill them all!"

Xiao Chengfeng's sword slashed out, and cut two of those beasts in half.

“Law of Heaven and Earth!”

Yang Jian’s body started to glow gold as a three headed and six-armed figure appeared behind him. The aura was terrifying. Each hand grabbed the heads of a beast, shattering them!

Only two of the beasts were at the Wisdom Dictator realm. The drunkard did not even need to do anything as Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian dealt with them easily.

However, when they were about to head forward, they encountered another ambush. The beasts were far stronger this time.

Woosh!

The surrounding volcanoes started to get unstable. Red lava started to flow out of the volcanoes. The next second, many beasts that were formed of lava jumped out. They had a humanoid shape but had no flesh and blood. They were formed with lava, and their eyes burned flames. Their auras were already in the wisdom Dictator realm.

This time, before Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian could do anything, the drunkard pointed a finger. His spell power encompassed the land as the aura of a supreme being exploded forth.

“Immortal Drunken Blade!”

The beasts of lava around them all exploded, turning back into puddles. There were suddenly no more enemies.

Chapter 943: Volcano Souls

Yet, the lava beasts were just exterminated when more beasts crawled out of the volcanoes.

They were like spirits of the volcanoes, impossible to get rid of. Their prowess was terrifying as well.

Yang Jian furrowed his eyebrows, "The volcanoes have souls. How did this happen?"

Even though everything under the heavens could gain a soul, it was incredibly difficult for something like a volcano to get a soul.

Humans were the leader in terms of getting souls, being born naturally with sentience. After that were animals and then plants. Mountains, rocks, and wood were never alive, to begin with. Unless something that defied the heavens happened, it was impossible for them to gain souls.

Yet...

All of the volcanoes there had souls, and they were not the weak sort. Instead, they were incredibly strong.

“Could the gray mist have even corrupted these volcanoes? It’s the whole area within the Volcanoes of Disaster!”

Xiao Chengfeng’s sword danced around, killing the lava beasts as he spoke.

The Volcanoes of Disaster spanned thousands of miles. There were volcanoes everywhere. If all the volcanoes were sentient, then they would be facing an incredibly difficult situation.

“Did you forget the person who’s backing all of you? Once you reach a certain realm, giving life to thousands of beings is just a casual thing,” The drunkard said plainly as he looked around him, seemingly looking for something.

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng were both startled at the drunkard’s words. In the expert’s courtyard, even the plants, the flowers, and the stones were unfathomable existences. Even a random piece of paper the expert threw away could become an unmatched spell.

The Fallen Immortal Mountain that he stayed in was already a place that exceeded all logic.

With the expert as an example, they were suddenly not that shocked anymore.

Yang Jian took a deep breath, “It’s just... The gray mist is horrifying. It was about to ignite the volcanoes.”

“There’s something strange here, follow me closely,” The drunkard said seriously before taking a step forward and flying over.

Around him were waves of mystical energy which eliminated the lava beasts around him.

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng did not say another word before they followed.

They were incredibly quick, and they went deep into the mountains.

“Roar!”

Suddenly, a red figure shot out of a volcano they passed. Sharp claws headed right for the drunkard!

The drunkard raised his hand and pointed at the claw with a cold gaze

Boom!

The claw was suddenly blown apart, but the monster was different this time. The other monsters would die immediately, while this one merely lost a hand. Not only that, it let out a roar, and lava flowed out and reformed its hand.

The aura of a supreme being could be felt exploding from its body as it blocked the three of them.

At the same time, monsters came out from two other volcanoes as well, surrounding the three of them.

The three monsters were formed of lava, and they had humanoid shapes. However, they did not have legs. Their bodies were stuck on the volcano and looked like the soul of the volcano. They could not leave the volcanoes but were incredibly huge.

The three monsters covered the sky, looking down at three ants.

Large amounts of the smaller monsters came out. All of them looked at the three with eyes of fire and terrifying smiles.

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng looked around seriously as their powers filled the heavens.

The drunkard raised his gourd and drank a mouthful of wine. After that, he rushed at the three supreme beings, "Perfect, I get to see how you taste when mixed with wine. Wine Swallows the heavens!"

His gourd flew to the sky and rapidly expanded, becoming as big as the supreme being monsters as it floated in the air.

Waves of suction came out. The monster's bodies started to get distorted from being sucked in. Part of their bodies turned into lava and went into the gourd.

"Roar!"

However, with a roar, the lava in the volcanoes turned into a massive red claw and swiped at the gourd!

"Immortal Drunken Blade!"

The drunkard pointed at the gourd, and the wine in the gourd shot out and formed into a blade. It might not be a divine weapon, but it was stronger than any divine weapon in the world. It cut up that flaming hand, and with a force that did not diminish, pierced through one of the supreme being monsters.

However, the monster's injuries were quickly recovered thanks to the nourishment from the volcano. It sent a fist at the drunkard.

"I'm undefeatable with wine. I can drink the rivers away!"

The drunkard let out a slight smile as he flicked his finger lightly. From the ground, a gulp of wine flew out in front of him, and he drank it immediately!

After that, his powers rose rapidly. His right fist clashed with the lava monster's fist.

Boom!

The lava monster's whole arm exploded with its massive body. It disappeared from existence.

“Roar!”

The other two beasts let out crazed roars as they opened their mouths at the same time, spitting out red flames that could even pierce through space and disperse Wisdom. It sped toward the drunkard!

The drunkard flicked his finger again, drinking a second mouthful before he used his finger to draw a few lines in front of him.

Those lines condensed and formed a circular image in the air. Like a shield, it stopped the molten lava completely.

The shield quickly let out a golden glow, counter-attacking with great force. Not only did it swallow up the lava, it even launched a counterattack that wiped the two supreme beings away!

At the same time, Xiao Chengfeng moved with his sword in hand, his sword aura surged and filled the heavens.

"I'm on top of sword cultivation. All swords bow to me!" He shouted out before he pulled out divine sword after divine sword behind him. They danced around him, and pierced into the group of monsters, killing them all. The sword aura covered great distances, and his blade was enough to chill the heavens!

His terrifying sword aura caused a tornado, destroying everything in its way!

"The golden body is immortal, and the heavens are endless!"

Yang Jian flew in the air as his whole body glowed in a golden light. He suddenly had three heads, all looking in different directions. On the three heads, the third eye let out a mystifying light.

A terrifying power formed within, and shot out after that!

The light it shot out was not an intense one. It illuminated everything like the sun did, covering many of the monsters.

The moment the light landed on the monsters, their bodies all started burning in golden flames before they disappeared.

Even though there were many Wisdom Dictators among those monsters, they were still a distance away from Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian. They were merely born from volcanoes. Other than some minuscule talents and spells, they did not have anything amazing. So, they were not as strong as normal Wisdom Dictators, which was why Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng could kill them easily.

Even so, Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian were still using up a lot of their strength facing so many opponents. If they did not drink the expert's wine before this, they would not have enough power to hold on.

Chapter 944: Do You Like Watching Shows

"Come, continue forward!" They did not wait for Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng to kill off all of the lava monsters. In truth, there was no way they could eliminate all of them anyway. The drunkard brought the other two and continued deeper into the Volcanoes of Disaster.

He seemed to have noticed something, and his expression was incredibly serious.

They just went a little deeper when more volcanoes erupted with supreme beings obstructing their way.

"There's something wrong here," The drunkard frowned as he said in a low voice.

The Volcanoes of Disaster should be at the same level as the Unending Seas, but he found that the Volcanoes of Disaster might be just as dense with gray mist as the Unending Seas, but the volcanoes seemed to be much more dangerous.

That point... was a little strange.

The drunkard already suppressed the Unending Sea completely just with his power for countless years. However, he felt some pressure at that moment. It was not because of the supreme being monsters in front of him, but for another reason.

The Volcanoes of Disaster seemed to be hiding something that was not exactly like the Unending Seas. It made the danger levels seem immense comparatively. Not only did the volcanoes have souls, but they were also even able to produce a lot of supreme being monsters.

Those monsters were unending and incredibly strong.

“If you don’t dare to move forward, then get lost!”

Suddenly, a furious roar came from deep within the mountains. It sounded like a dragon, incredibly threatening and challenging.

“Humph!” The drunkard snorted coldly as he hurriedly dealt with his opponents and went deeper inside.

No matter what sort of plans his opponents had, he was not afraid at all. He had to go deeper into the Volcanoes of Disaster!

However, as they went deeper, something strange happened.

The further they went, the larger the volcanoes were. However, it got more and more peaceful. In the end, there were no longer any lava monsters. It was incredibly peaceful and seemed harmless. It was as if the mountains here were all dead.

Yang Jian raised his eyebrows slightly as he said in suspicion, "What's happening? Could the voice earlier just be a false claim? In truth, the deeper we get, the safer it seems. Was the voice just trying to scare us away?"

"No, it's just that the deeper parts have been sealed by immense power. That's why the volcanoes are all calm."

The drunkard closed his eyes and felt around before saying that.

Those words caused Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng some surprise.

The outside of the Volcanoes of Disaster already seemed too terrifying to them, so the deeper areas were naturally a lot worse. It was sealed, so the immense power must be unfathomable to them.

The more they thought about it, the smaller they felt.

There was a glint in Xiao Chengfeng's eyes as he said, "The person who sealed this place... Could it be the old friend you talked about?"

"Yes, and no."

The drunkard shook his head, "That old friend of mine is at about my level. He still can't do something like that. It might have been the power of that person."

He looked at the volcanoes around him, trying to search for something. However, he abruptly looked up in a direction.

There seemed to be a horrifying power coming from that direction. Space itself was shaking as ripples in Wisdom were seen. After that, he saw two figures fighting each other.

One of them wore a black robe and had a curved nose. He had hazy eyes and a broad face. He raised his hand and gave it a light wave. The space around him started to crumble. With another wave, the space seemed to restore itself as it tried to cage its opponent.

Space seemed like a toy in front of that person. It was like something that the person could casually toy around with, create and destroy.

He was a supreme being that was versed in the Wisdom of Space. No matter if it were destruction, speed, or sneak attacks, he was practically unrivaled. Just a raise of his hand was enough to destroy every space in front of him. The destructive capabilities were indescribable.

His opponent was a muscular, shirtless man who looked quite ordinary. The man had thick eyebrows and large eyes. Around him was the aura of a supreme being as well. His body had a dark glow to it. He did not seem afraid at all even facing space collapse around him over and over. The power of space kept crashing onto him.

Even if space collapsed and the world was destroyed, his body was completely fine!

With each punch of his, the spatial images of the black-robed man were destroyed. He seemed incredibly strong.

What happened?

Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian both held their breaths. They did not know why two supreme beings suddenly appeared. They did not dare to make any sounds in case they attracted any attention.

However, the drunkard did not plan on watching the fight at all. He pointed at his gourd and summoned up two streams of wine, turning into short daggers and launching them at the two of them!

The blade broke through space itself, containing a sword intent that threatened to destroy everything.

The scene completely stunned Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian. They never expected that the drunkard would not just interfere, but attack both of them at the same time. He did not seem afraid that those two would work together against him at all.

The two of them stopped at the same time as they dispelled the drunkard's attacks with their respective skills.

"Drunkard, when did you become so dishonorable? You even tried to launch an ambush!" The muscular man said unhappily. The black-robed man quietly retreated, looking at the two of them carefully.

“Strong man, a traitor dares to talk about honor?” The drunkard said with a cold look.

The muscular man said, “I was just worried for my life back then. I never intended to be a traitor. Surely you won’t hold a grudge against me. I wasn’t the only one who did not do anything back then. Even the Sword Tyrant did not do anything.”

The drunkard said coldly, “Even a soldier who escaped war won’t be forgiven, and would be given a death sentence. It was such a calamity back then. The Sword Tyrant already redeemed himself, when will you do so?”

The strong man pointed at the black-robed man and said, “I know I’m deprived, but it’s not something that deserved death. Back then, I would have died if I fought, so it’s natural that I ran. Aren’t I here to save the Undying this time? Let’s not talk about it anymore. Let’s work together to kill this guy first. He’s the one who betrayed everything!”

The black-robed man had been paying attention to both of them. He suddenly shivered when he saw the strong man pointing at him, feeling an incredible impending danger.

The Wisdoms of Space suddenly activated as the supreme being protected himself. It would not just block any immense attacks but would send him to another space.

Yet...

It was useless!

His spatial defense was destroyed. A small blade of wine pierced through his body, leaving a gash on his chest!

“How is this possible? When...” The man suddenly widened his eyes as he looked at the drunkard and the strong man in surprise.

The suddenly realized something as he shouted angrily, “The two of you were acting just now?”

Earlier, the drunkard and the strong man seemed like they cursed at each other, but they just put on a show for the other one. They wanted him to let down his guard, and they prepared a strong attack the whole time. The man fell for it.

“Hahaha, do you like watching shows? You have to buy a ticket for that!” The strong man laughed out loud as he walked forward, punching right at the man!

Chapter 945: Selection and Growth

The man’s face sank, and he had a look of rage on his face.

He said in a low voice, “Divine Spell, Release Space!”

The space around him all turned into black holes. The strong man's attack hit straight at the black hole, causing his whole self to go into the black hole.

Space restored itself, and the strong man was gone. It was unknown where he ended up in.

After that, the man did not bother looking at the drunkard at all. Instead, he turned and disappeared from the spot, escaping through space itself.

However, his figure just disappeared when a wine sword slashed through the skies, forcing him out.

After that, sword after sword flew out front of the gourd. The power of the supreme being circulated everywhere. It had the power to destroy everything. It could pierce any form of Wisdom, even the Wisdom of space. It caused the man to have nowhere to hide.

"Space Solidify!"

The man pointed forward, and the power of Wisdom surged out. The drunkard stopped on the spot as the space around him solidified.

"Wine is never-ending, and sword intent is like a dragon!"

The drunkard casually recited a spell and the wine front he gourd shot out, falling onto the wine sword. It cause the sword to grow bigger and bigger, finally forming a massive wine sword. The sharpness of the sword pierced through space itself, breaking through any restrictions as it headed right at the man!

“Spatial leap!”

The man’s expression sank as he disappeared from the spot.

However, he noticed that the Wisdom of space around him were thrown into chaos His spell that could transcend thousands of miles in just one thought was suddenly only able to transverse a hundred meters.

Furthermore, when he appeared, the space around him exploded. Two hands shot out, ripping through space at pounced right at him!

The strong man ripped a hole through his space and returned.

Yet, this time he merely managed to get the strong man to stop for a moment. The fist continued moving forward, breaking through the spatial defenses in front of him as it fell on the man. It sent the man flying in a rain of blood.

At the same time, the drunkard's wine swords fell on the man as well. It pierced through his chest and seemed intent on eliminating the man's life force.

At that final moment, the man spat out a mouthful of blood. The space around him rippled as he suddenly disappeared.

The drunkard raised an eyebrow as he looked around, saying regretfully, "What a pity! He ran away."

"The Space Disrupter is a supreme being who's mastered the Wisdom of space. Few can stop him from running away if he wants to," The strong man said with a smile, "It's already quite good that we managed to beat him up to this degree. He must have run far away. He won't cause any more trouble."

The drunkard looked at him coldly, "You've finally dared to show up. Have you decided to stop hiding?"

"Back then, my Dao Heart crumbled. It's humiliating. Don't bring it up anymore," The strong man put his hands up and sighed.

After that, he looked at Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng, "New protectors? It's a pity that they're a bit weak."

The drunkard said, "If you knew that they only used a few days to reach their current heights, you wouldn't say that."

“A- A few years?!”

The strong man widened his eyes, wanting to say something before taking a deep breath, “If it’s because of that person, then it’s quite normal. However, he went through selection back then, has he gone for growth now?’

Yang Jian was confused at that, and could not help but ask, “Senior, what does selection and growth mean?”

“Wisdom is shapeless and unending. No one can touch Wisdom, other than that calamity... Back then, corruption descended, and Wisdom was corrupted. It was the first time everyone managed to feel Wisdom. Wisdom was able to communicate with everyone.”

The strong man paused before continuing, “A the same time, Wisdom chose out the few of them that were the strongest back then, passing down some amazing abilities. It caused everyone’s skills to improve rapidly. Choosing the strongest from back then, wasn’t that selection?”

“As for you... It chose you when you were still weak, and nurtured you into supreme beings. That’s obviously growth.”

Xiao Chengfeng said, “It looks like Wisdom is afraid of being betrayed again. It feels like the selection isn’t reliable, and that growing is better.”

The strong man was speechless.

The drunkard nodded and said, "That's precisely it. The supreme beings back then were practically all blessed by Wisdom, it's just that they were too selfish. In the end, those who did not choose to betray Wisdom chose to escape, leaving behind a calamity."

Back then, the Unrivaled was blessed by Wisdom as well. However, at the battle against the gray mist, the Unrivaled did not even appear. All of that caused Wisdom to not only fail to suppress the corruption but almost saw the destruction of the Flames of Wisdom as well. If the protectors back then didn't sacrifice their lives to protect it, the situation right now would be even worse.

Xiao Chengfeng said resolutely, "There's no way I'll betray Wisdom. I won't hide either!"

"I as well!" Yang Jian immediately said.

The strong man sighed and said, "Don't be so sure. Everyone is usually full of confidence before they see the true horrors. Only after you see it will you know if you can beat the feat."

The drunkard interrupted their conversation, "Let's hurry up and find the Undying. I'm afraid he'll die if we delay things."

"Honestly, if he still doesn't die this time I have to mock him a little," The strong man let out a laugh as they continued deeper.

Since the Undying sealed the area, the volcanoes around them were very quiet. On top of that, all of the volcanoes looked more or less the same. They were forced to look around one by one, not knowing where the Undying buried himself.

“Come, come here!”

Seemingly because everyone was so slow, that voice was heard again. At the same time, low rumblings could be heard from an even deeper volcano. A cold killing intent soared into the skies. There seemed to be a terrifying existence trying to break through the volcano.

“Stay here and don’t move,” The drunkard said to Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng before moving with the strong man, flying toward the volcano.

Chapter 946: Purple and Black Dao-Devouring Dragon

Boom!

Seemingly at the same time as the drunkard and the strong man arrived at the volcano, a wave of intense flames shot out of the volcano, rushing at the two of them!

It was incredibly fast and peerless in strength. Even space and Wisdom were broken through. It destroyed everything.

Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian shuddered. Thankfully, they did not follow over and face that attack. Their powers would have been stopped. They would not even have been able to fight back. They would have died on the spot just touching it.

However, the drunkard and the strong man had no change in expression as they activated their powers.

The strong man raised his fists as space shuddered around his hand. IT started to hum, which was the sound of power reaching its limits and causing the heavens to resonate. He became a supreme being with his strength alone, his body was at the peak of existence. His strength was enough to exterminate everything!

With one fist, he was able to break through the five elements, reincarnation, and even time and space. The power of a supreme being was enough to shatter all of Wisdom!

Boom!

The punch erupted. Just the wind alone turned into an amazing shield, blocking that horrifying power.

The drunkard's gourd flew in front of him with a wave. Like a gigantic shield, it blocked the attack.

They calmly and easily dissolved that terrifying and sudden attack.

After that, they stood at the mouth of the volcano and looked down.

They saw a massive blackish-red head floating on the lava. It glared at them with ferocious eyes as its dense and sharp teeth were shown in its mouth. On its head was a deep red picture.

It was a terrifying beast. The power it exuded shocked even the drunkard and the strong man.

Boom!

Suddenly, the lava that flowed in the mountain exploded. An unimaginable figure shot out, bringing an aura of destruction with it as it charged right at the drunkard and the strong man!

The two of them jumped in fright as they disappeared from the spot. After that, a massive and heavy tail slammed into where they were, causing a boom to resonate everywhere. The massive shockwaves spread, and it made Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian shake at how horrifying that force seemed to be.

Yet, under such terrifying power, the volcano seemed unharmed. At the same time, the tail did not go that far in front of the volcano. That beast could not leave the mouth of the volcano at all.

“That’s it. The guy used the power of life and death to seal it here!”

The drunkard looked at the volcano as he floated in the air.

The strong man said seriously, “Even a corrupted land shouldn’t give birth to such a horrifying beast. There’s something wrong with these volcanoes!”

The drunkard nodded and said, "After entering, I noticed that the monsters that are given birth here are stronger than anywhere else. They're even stronger than the monsters from the Unending Sea. There must be something behind the gray mist here."

"It'll be hard for the two of us to truly investigate the place. We'll have to use those protectors. Since they were chosen as the new protectors, they should be quite useful."

The strong man's gaze shifted to Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng.

The drunkard did not say anything. He merely called Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng over with a wave.

He said, "I feel the aura of my old friend in this volcano. However, we'll not be able to enter with this monster here. After this, I'll deal with this monster with a strong man. The two of you take the chance to enter the volcano!"

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng looked at that monster at the same time. They widened their eyes as they shuddered.

They were not even qualified to look at it, let alone go against it. They would probably die just from touching the shockwaves from the battle.

However, they nodded their heads without any fear. They would not retreat in such a situation!

Yang Jian said seriously, "Senior drunkard, please remember to protect us."

"Drunkard, strong man, with me here, you won't pass!"

Suddenly, the monster said in a low voice. Its body slowly moved as blackish-gold scales radiated a bright glow. It started to constantly let out immense pressure, inflicting fear on everyone.

It seemed like a dragon but was not one. It was filled with ferocity.

Seeing it, the drunkard and the strong man widened their eyes at the same time in shock.

The strong man said, "It's you?! You're not dead?!"

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng's bodies shuddered, not understanding where that monster came from to cause the drunkard and the strong man to lose their composure that much.

The next moment, the drunkard answered, "It's called Battle Crazy. It's the only Purple and Black Dao-Devouring Dragon in existence. It's also Madman Chu's steed!"

"What?!" Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian were stunned.

The only Purple and Black Dao-Devouring Dragon in the world. They never heard that before, so they did not know what it meant.

However, Madman Chu's steed meant it was something impressive.

Madman Chu single-handedly created the gray mist, causing Wisdom to split apart. He was so imperious, could his steed be normal?

It was an existence that defied the heavens. No wonder even the drunkard and the strong man could not deal with it together.

The strong man's eyes hardened as he stared at Battle Crazy, "You aren't using the gray mist?"

The dragon said coldly, "The gray mist is my master's illusion. It's what he's using to disrupt the will of the world. I naturally don't need it. You're still as annoying as back then, but you still won't be able to change the ending this time. You'll just end up losing in a worse manner."

"Your master's already dead, but you managed to stay on for so long. It's about time you went to see him," The strong man coldly said.

The dragon mocked, "My master is undying. Even Wisdom can't wipe him away. As long as there are still remnants of him in the world, he'll be able to revive himself. Do you think you're at the same level as him? What a joke!"

“Even if he returns, he’ll just die again. Now, let’s deal with you first!”

The drunkard raised his gourd and gulped down a few mouthfuls. After that, he sent his gourd to the volcano. The gourd expanded, turning into a suppressing force that enforced the seal on the volcano.

“One drink to move mountains!”

The drunkard’s figure disappeared as well. He entered the volcano and pointed a finger right at the dragon.

Within the volcano, the lava erupted, swallowing the dragon and the drunkard. The only power that was so strong it caused people to shiver was left.

“It’s time for a test of courage. You need to find your chances. Don’t forget what you said earlier. You can’t run!”

The strong man glanced at Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng before taking a step forward, stepping into the volcano as well.

Only Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian were left to witness the horrifying scene, dumbfounded.

Chapter 947: A Dream

The Purple and Black Dao-Devouring Dragon was an ancient beast. Even back when Wisdom was whole, only that one beast was born. It lived through the ages, undying and immortal. Even facing the destruction of worlds, it was still there, even after its owner succumbed to death.

Its power might not be equal to Madman Chu or the Unrivaled, but it was still absolutely at the top ten back then. It was an incredible supreme being.

No one expected Madman's Chu's mount to outlive him, or even for the mount to be guarding the Volcanoes of Disaster. What secrets did it hide?

"Xiao Chengfeng, what do we do?"

Yang Jiang could not help but ask. He stared at the battle within the volcano, using his third eye to its fullest. His third eye was so wide that blood threatened to flow out, but it was still hard to look at a battle between three supreme beings. Not only that, the terrifying spells and auras threatened to make his third eye useless.

He hurriedly shut off his vision, not daring to look anymore.

He said helplessly, "What else can we do? All we can do is wait."

Wait for a chance?

Xiao Chengfeng was speechless.

He merely felt the unending sense of danger coming from within the volcano. Terrifying spells flew everywhere, and the power of supreme beings seemed to be able to take his life at any moment. How were they supposed to enter?

However, there was no way they could run. They had to go in!

The drunkard and the strong man looked at the two of them while they fought as well. When the drunkard and the strong man saw that the two of them did not retreat, and seemed prepared to rush in at any moment, the drunkard and the strong man gave some silent praise in their hearts.

However, they would naturally not allow Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng to just put their lives on the line like that, so they exchanged a look as power radiated from their bodies.

“Drunken heavens!”

Wine flowed out from the drunkard’s gourd, surrounding the dragon. The wine vapor was incredibly powerful, causing the dragon to suddenly feel drunk, clouding its judgment.

At the same time, the drunkard sent out a powerful blow on its body.

Compared to how large the dragon was, the strong man was positively minuscule, yet the power of that fist was still incredible. It sent the dragon flying into the wall!

“Now!” After hesitating for so long, Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng finally saw a chance. They immediately shouted as they flashed right into the volcano!

“Roar!”

Yet, the dragon suddenly let out a crazed roar that contained unending rage. It caused Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng’s blood to lurch. If the drunkard did not save them in time, they would have been crippled, if not dead.

However, that moment’s chance was all they needed to enter the lava.

The lava was no ordinary lava. It was at a heat that even Wisdom Elites would find hard to stand. However, it was naturally nothing to Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng. They continued heading down and arrived at the deepest point.

Splash!

One by one, lava monsters rushed at the two of them with incredible killing intent. At least a few dozen of them were Wisdom Dictators.

“Thankfully, supreme beings are rarely together. There won’t be a second supreme being in the volcano, or we’ll be done for.”

Xiao Chengfeng sighed as he slowly closed his eyes. After that, he opened them suddenly as his expression looked like a sharp blade. It destroyed one monster a hundred meters away!

He pulled out his blade and sent an unrivaled crescent to slash out.

However, his attack was stopped by five lava monsters working together.

That mountain did not just have the Purple and Black Dao-Devouring Dragon. Even the lava monsters there were stronger than in other places. They knew how to use their natural-born talents.

Yang Jian used his powers, and three pairs of hands slammed into a monster at the same time, smashing it!

Three monsters were torn apart, turning back to lava.

He said, “We can’t just stay here. There’s no end to these monsters. We have to hurry forward!”

“You’re right.”

“Sword Domain!”

Xiao Chengfeng raised a hand and waved. Many swords flew and danced around him, suddenly turning into uncountable images. It formed into an unending sharpness that cycled around him, becoming a defensive domain. The sword aura left the monsters unable to get closer.

“Spell protection!”

The figure behind Yang Jian let out a radiant golden light as terrifying energy rose from his body. It forced the lava monsters around him to retreat.

They did not want to waste time-fighting against the lava monsters as they hurriedly rushed forward.

They could feel an immense suppressive power deep in the volcano. It was the old friend of the drunkard and their goal.

...

At the same time, in the courtyard, it was late at night, and the moon was incredibly bright. Yet, the stars were dim.

Li Nianfan sat alone on the stone chair in the yard as he looked at the sky with a strange look on his face.

He suddenly noticed that the stars in the sky were not as bright as before, and the air did not feel as fresh either. It felt like a curtain was draped over the sky and dimmed the stars, polluting the skies.

Like a veil, it caused the stars in the sky to disappear in the end.

Li Nianfan frowned and said, "Is there pollution in the world of cultivation? It's really... unpleasant."

"Ah."

Suddenly, the door opened.

Daji and Fire Phoenix walked out. After that, Qin Manyun, Shi Tuqin, Nanan, and Dragin all looked out of their rooms.

They looked at Li Nianfan with concern and curiosity.

Li Nianfan was stunned for a moment, and could not help but shake his head.

He almost forgot that everyone who stayed with him was an amazing cultivator. They would have noticed him going to the yard, not being able to sleep.

“Why are you still outside? It’s already so late. It’s cold outside, a bit on another layer.” Daji arrived next to Li Nianfan and gently put a coat on him.

Li Nianfan sighed lightly, “I had a dream and felt a bit frustrated, so I came out for a walk.”

Daji and the others raised their eyebrows. It meant that it was not a good dream.

Fire Phoenix said, “What did you dream of?”

“It’s nothing much. I just dreamt that all of you are no longer by my side. The world of cultivation is so dangerous, that I didn’t know what to do. I felt like I had no way to protect myself.”

Li Nianfan spoke of his dream. He had some knowledge of cultivation, or he would not be so frustrated with that dream.

Back when he arrived in the world, he was just a mere mortal. He lived for five years and had quite a good life.

However, once one knew luxury, it was hard to escape. He already knew so many powerhouses in many facets, and even had a good relationship with the Heavenly Palace. He even had Daji and the others to protect him, not needing to worry wherever he went.

If he suddenly lost all that, he did not know how he would continue living as calmly as back then. It would feel incredibly different.

So that dream was quite the nightmare.

Chapter 948: By Your Side

Daji and the others all fell silent at Li Nianfan's words. Their eyes were full of pain.

He dreamt that all of them left, and he was left alone.

He hinted at the traitors!

Li Nianfan was greatly impacted by the betrayal from the past lifetime. That was why he had that dream. He must have been incredibly sad when he was betrayed back then...

Daji immediately said, "Don't worry. No matter what, we'll always be by your side. We'll never leave you alone."

Fire Phoenix said firmly, “We’ll protect you!”

“Brother Li, I’ll protect you too!”

“Big brother, us too. We’ll protect you!” Nanan and Dragon hurriedly said.

“Yes, with all of you here, I’m not worried at all.”

Li Nianfan smiled as he ruffled Nanan and Dragin’s hair. He was really glad that he had so many people by his side. Looking at them next to him, Li Nianfan’s earlier frustrations were swept away as he felt at peace.

He waved, “Alright, alright. It’s late. You should all go to sleep.”

After saying that, he brought Daji and Fire Phoenix to sleep.

However, Shi Tuqin, Qin Manyun, Little Fox, Nanan, and Dragin all stood in the yard. When Li Nianfan went into the room, they glinted in their eyes.

Blackie slowly walked over with a thoughtful look, “Calamity is descending, and the corruption and traitors have reappeared. It’s causing Master to feel unsettled.”

Dragin could not help but ask, "Blackie, what should we do?"

"Let's go ask the tortoise in the backyard. That guy has lived for a long time, and has plenty of ideas."
Blankie turned around and lead the way to the backyard.

When they arrived at the backyard, the Divine Years Tortoise waited for everyone with widened eyes.

The cows, peacocks, willow trees, and even the dragon all had serious expressions on their faces.

Dragin asked, "Divine Tortoise, what should we do?"

The tortoise said slowly, "This lifetime is a lot harder than the last because the expert's situation is incredibly unique. He needs even more protection than the last lifetime, but we can't just sit here waiting. There has to be people suppressing the gray mist!"

Qin Manyun's expression sank as she said immediately, "We can go suppress the gray mist!"

"Difficult, very difficult."

The tortoise shook its head as it said in a tone of sadness, "Wisdom is lacking right now, and the Unrivaled is among the traitors. Only Daji, Fire Phoenix, and Little Fox have become supreme beings among you. Daji and Fire Phoenix needs to be by the expert's side. With your skills, you won't be able to suppress the gray mist or handle the traitors."

Blackie could not help but say, "Woof woof, then what do you think we should do? Why don't you do something?"

"I can't leave either," the tortoise shook its head as it said slowly, "everything under the heavens has its natural enemy and allies. Wisdom is in trouble, and the gray mist is bringing calamity into the world. The expert was born to meet the disaster, so the way to solve it is next to him. All of you have to figure it out!"

Nanan's eyebrows raise, "What do you mean? Can you make it simpler?"

Yet, the tortoise shut its eyes, no longer speaking.

"This old tortoise is always like this. He always acts like he's dead after dropping a riddle," The dragon could not help but say.

Dragin asked, "Do you know what the tortoise meant?"

The dragon shook his head, "It said that the solution is by the expert's side, so it should be referring to the residence, but who knows what it is? He didn't even give us any hints, how do we even start?"

Shi Tuqin said thoughtfully, "I remember now. Everytime there was a problem before, something from the residence has solved it. Even the flames of Wisdom were reignited by the expert's oil!"

"If that's the case, then the expert should have various divine objects that can help suppress the chaos. However, there are so many things here. Where do we even begin to look?" Qin Manyun had a bitter look on her face.

Little Fox said, "Since we don't know what to pick, then we should just bring a bit of everything. There should be something useful in the end!"

They started to move immediately, starting from the soil in the backyard. They dug up soil, filled up water, chopped off branches, and picked some leaves. They did not even forget to get eggs and milk. If they could have brought the stone tables and benches with them, they would have done so.

Shi Tuqin said in concern, "Will the expert blame us if we do that?"

"It's fine, if the expert asks, I'll say the beast in the pond did it. I'll have master make some soup out of Old Dragon," Blackie thought about everything.

Old Dragon was immediately angry, "Stupid dog, you're slandering me. Have you been planning on making soup with me for a long time already?"

"Yes, you're right."

"I want to eat dog meat. Braised dog meat is amazing."

"Woof woof!"

Blackie jumped right into the pond, biting the dragon.

Old Dragon refused to show any weakness as it bit back at Blackie's tail. The two of them bit each other, causing waves in the pond.

"Let go!"

"You let go first!"

"How can I let go if you don't?"

"Right back at you!"

...

Everyone rolled their eyes, ignoring the dog and dragon as they continued to look for things they could bring away.

After they had everything, the two finally let go under everyone's advice. After that, everyone walked out of the residence, determined to suppress the chaos.

The next day, Li Nianfan was stunned when he came out of his room.

What happened? Why was it completely clean? Were they robbed?

The courtyard was completely spotless. For some reason, he even felt like the roof was lacking a few tiles...

However, he noticed after walking around that the things that were missing were all insignificant things. Even the trash he piled up was all cleaned...

After that, he noticed a problem, "That's right, where's Nanan and the others?"

Daji smiled and said, "They should have gone out to kill demons and defend Wisdom."

Li Nianfan was stunned, "Why did they suddenly decide to do that?"

Fire Phoenix said, "It's because of your dream yesterday. Since you're worried about the dangers outside, they wanted to get rid of the evil outside. Then you won't have to worry."

"So, that's what happened..."

Li Nianfan could not help but feel touched. He felt a surge of comfortable warmth in his heart.

"They didn't need to do that. Their safety is just as important. They didn't even say anything before they left. They even cleaned up the place first!"

Chapter 949: Madman Chu's Corpse!

Inside the volcano, the sword aura surged forward, parting the endless magma. The terrifying pressure was felt everywhere, forcing a space in the magma.

Xiao Chengfeng rode his sword, breaking through the place.

Yang Jian condensed a golden body as his third eye glowed in a mysterious light, constantly sweeping over the volcano.

Suddenly, his expression turned serious as he said, "I found it!"

“Let’s go!” Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian headed in that direction.

The next moment a splash was heard.

They passed by a spatial barrier without feeling any resistance, arriving at a mystifying space.

Lava could not reach the place. The walls around them were golden. It felt very empty around them. There was only an ancient coffin at the center.

.....

The coffin was filled with the aura of age. IT did not look like anything amazing, but there was an aura coming from it that Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng did not dare to take lightly.

“The coffin is emitting an incredibly dense restrictive power. It should be what is suppressing the place!”

Yang Jian used his third eye to look for a moment, and he felt like even his third eye began to be sealed.

“Could this be the coffin of the drunkard’s old friend?” Xiao Chengfeng said in surprise and hesitation. He slowly walked toward the coffin filled with alarm in his heart.

However, he did not feel any resistance at all, all the way until he touched the coffin.

Just as he was about to open up the coffin with some force, a powerful voice was suddenly heard from within, "Junior, stop."

Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian had happy feelings in their hearts. The person who sealed the place was still not dead.

Xiao Chengfeng immediately said, "Senior, the drunkard asked us to look for you."

"I know, otherwise you'd have been sealed by me the moment you arrived," The Undying's voice was heard again.

Yang Jian said, "Senior, the drunkard, and the strong man are both currently fighting the Purple and Black Dao-Devouring Dragon. The danger in the Volcanoes of Disaster is over. You can come out now."

The Undying said, "What's the point of the two of them being here? This place is somewhere special for corruption. No one should come here. They should just leave things to me."

Yang Jian could no help but raise an eyebrow as he said reluctantly, "Why? You can tell us if there are any problems. There's a solution."

He did not think that there would be any problem that all of them could not solve together. That was because the expert was the one backing them. There was always a way.

The Undying said impatiently, "Just go if I told you to. Why are you asking so many questions?"

"Senior, we won't go if you don't tell us. We might even open up your coffin!" Xiao Chengfeng had a lively look toward him as if he would move at any moment.

"Idiot, how could you play around with something so important?!" The Undying scolded.

Yang Jian said, "Senior, you were the Undying in the previous lifetime, but we are undying of this one. We have the expert behind us, so I believe that there's nothing we can't solve."

"I know that that person is back, but this life will be harder than the last. You don't know what you will face in the future. You still have a chance if I stay here. You should leave," The Undying said plainly and incredibly firmly.

At that moment, Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng were swayed. They could tell that the Undying was not joking. There was something hidden here that they did not know about that concerning life or death.

At that moment, an incredibly tyrannical aura appeared in the space. The strength caused Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng to struggle to breathe.

It was far too strong. It caused them to feel like the power broke the limits of the world.

“Undying, are you scared? You’re right. This lifetime will be much harder for you. I will win!” With that arrogant speech, a portion of the wall slowly fell, revealing a corpse within!

The corpse was devoid of blood and flesh. The skeleton looked like rainbow-colored glass. The radiant glow turned Wisdom all around it into mist, looking incredibly divine!

It was just a skeleton, but the aura was enough to cause Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng to pale.

A thought flashed in Xiao Chengfeng’s mind, causing his head to go numb as he said, “Th-that’s...”

“My name... Madman Chu!” The skeleton did not move, but the arrogant voice was heard again.

Boom!

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng looked like they were struck by lightning as their minds went blank.

Madman Chu went against Wisdom, trying to turn into Wisdom himself. He was still around. At least, his skeletons were here!

Furthermore... his divine sense remained!

This news was far too terrifying. It meant that even Wisdom itself could not completely wipe Madman Chu away.

Yang Jian gulped as he said, "Could the Dao-Devouring Dragon be here because it was guarding Madman Chu's corpse?!"

"Senior, do you know what we can do?" Xiao Chengfeng could not help but ask with a whisper.

"Yes, you should just get lost quickly and stop distracting me," The Undying knew about the existence of that corpse. He did not leave because of it.

"Hahaha, what a joke! Undying, you were but a mere ant in front of me back then. Do you think a coffin that 'he' left behind can suppress me?"

Madman Chu's crazed laughter could be heard everywhere, "The tens of thousands of Wisdom change unendingly. There's no start and no end. There's no shape or form. I... have already mastered all of it. What's mere death to me? I knew I wouldn't succeed in the last life, but I also knew that he would eventually return. His return to this life is where the three flaws are. I'll succeed!"

Madman Chu's words caused Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng's expressions to darken.

They felt like Madman Chu talked about the expert. They would not tolerate such insults!

They did not hesitate to attack.

Xiao Chengfeng's Sky Melting Sword surged right at the corpse!

Yang Jian used his golden body to send out a destructive palm.

Their attacks were incredibly close to the might of supreme beings. It caused the space between the attacks to crack.

Yet, their attacks disappeared without a trace when they got close to the skeleton, not leaving anything behind.

The next moment.

Boom! Bam!

The Sky Melting Sword slashed through Xiao Chengfeng's back. That destructive power resonated throughout Xiao Chengfeng's body, causing a terrifying scar to appear.

At the same time, Yang Jian's palm strick appeared behind him, sending him flying. It caused his golden body to disperse as he fell to the ground, spitting out blood.

In a flash, they were already heavily injured. They were even done in by their attacks.

"How did this happen?"

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng widened their eyes in disbelief.

There were no signs and no fluctuations of power. Their attacks just disappeared from the spot and hit them right behind themselves. The power of that level exceeded any understanding they had.

Chapter 950: Creating Everything

"You dare attack me? Are the protectors now so wild?" Madman Chu mocked in disdain.

Even if he was just a skeleton, his skills were still incredibly shocking.

"Humph, this is just a skeleton you left behind after you died, what's there to be so proud about?" Xiao Chengfeng said, not afraid at all.

He took a deep breath as he pulled out the Sky Melting Sword. His life essence flared, slowly healing his wounds.

Yang Jian sat down cross-legged as he started to heal himself.

Those attacks earlier were their strongest attacks. They naturally did not feel could when they hit themselves.

“Haha, you still don’t understand. I’m not dead but simply given a new life. Wisdom is shapeless and formless. I gave up my physical body myself. Otherwise, how would I become Wisdom?”

Madman Chu’s words caused Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng’s expressions to turn serious.

.....

Before, they managed to see how strong Madman Chu was from a projection. However, at that moment, they realized that Madman Chu was even more terrifying than they imagined.

“You’re the new protectors, but you’re far too weak. As long as you submit it to me, the skeleton is yours. It can fuse into your body and make you truly invincible. You can easily defeat even supreme beings,” The skeleton said alluringly.

As it said that, it started to stand up slowly. It was just a simple movement, but it was like a wild beast that just opened its eyes, preparing to lunge and attack.

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng were both startled as they retreated in alarm.

The Undying's serious voice could be heard, "Two of you, hurry and leave this place."

"Join me, and you can control all power! Whatever that person can do, you can do too. Why do you need to be his loyal dogs?"

The skeleton walked toward Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian step by step. It raised its left hand, and a pool of water appeared, turning around its palm. From spirit water to an immortal pool to Wisdom Holy Water. It constantly changed. The skeleton was like the creator of everything, being able to make divine objects at will.

On its right hand, a sprout appeared. After that, it quickly grew into a small tree. The small tree radiated in a colorful glow as peaches, apples, oranges, and various fruits of Wisdom formed...

The scene caused Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng to go numb as they felt goosebumps.

Those images all existed in the experts' courtyard!

Xiao Chengfeng was with the expert for a long time and witnessed all the changes in the residence.

From spirit water to an immortal pool to Wisdom Holy water. The expert created all of that. He could easily create legends and grow fruits of Wisdom at a whim. His residence was always an isolated world, and his existence was incredibly unique to the world because the expert made everything extraordinary.

Yet, Madman Chu's skeleton replayed everything!

It could create everything on a whim. Even fruits of Wisdom were possible. He was like Wisdom itself, being able to create something from nothing!

"If you fuse with me, you will be able to do what he can. Haven't you just been following in his footsteps? It's right in front of you. What are you waiting for? Come, come..."

A very seductive voice sounded in the air, constantly assaulting Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng. They looked like they were struggling.

They worshipped the expert, seeing the expert as an omnipotent being. They never had him as a goal before, because they knew that that was not a level they could ever touch.

However, Madman Chu waved the chance right in front of them. It caused their minds to go blank.

It was like a commoner who only wanted to earn a million, never daring to think about a billion. Yet, someone suddenly put a billion right in front of them.

“Wake up right now!”

The Undying roared. An immense power exploded outward as strange patterns surfaced. It became incredibly powerful sealing powers as golden chains started to clamp on the skeleton.

Yet, the skeleton merely shook lightly, and those powers dispersed. It continued walking toward Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng.

“Wake up, wake up!” The Undying shouted urgently.

Yet, Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng looked blanked out. They were completely seduced by the skeleton. Their senses were sealed, cutting off all contact with the outside world.

The skeleton got closer and closer. It slowly reached out its hands.

Boom!

The coffin exploded open. The Undying let out a cry as he gathered unlimited gray energy in his fingers!

At that moment, the power of life and death surged to him.

Life became death and death became life. He could seal everything between life and death!

The Undying had a cold look in his eyes as he pointed at the skeleton's forehead!

Woosh!

The gray and white energies turned into violent waves, resonating everywhere. On top of the skeleton, a disc appeared, turning slowly as it descended on the skeleton.

On the skeleton, a golden glow radiated as countless runes lit up. Those runes symbolized the power of heaven and earth. They distorted the space and controlled Wisdom.

Two devastating powers maintained a balance, creating a power that shocked even supreme beings!

In the outside world, the drunkard and strong man saw their expressions change as they battled the dragon.

The energy even pierced through the lava, dispersing outside.

The strong man exclaimed, "It's the Undying's aura. How did he suddenly unleash such immense power?"

“I have a bad feeling about this. What’s hidden in the volcanoes to cause the Undying to do that?”

The drunkard frowned as a glint flashed in his eyes. He immediately formed some seals, wanting to end the battle quickly.

“Haha, those two protectors awakened master. Master told me that he would awaken with him. The aura of those two protectors was enough to wake the master up. You’re done for,” The dragon mocked, its words unsettling both of them.

The dragon’s master was naturally Madman Chu. What exactly did it mean when it said he woke up?

At the same time, several figures rushed over outside of the Volcanoes of Disaster.

It was three people and a dog.

It was Qin Manyun, Nanan Blackie, and Old Dragon in the form of a wizened old man.

They felt the terrifying aura coming from the volcanoes, which caused them to pause.

Old Dragon’s expression was heavy as he said worriedly, “This doesn’t look good. We don’t even have a supreme being with us right now. What do we do?”
