Chapter 951: Everyone Try it Out

“The more dangerous the Volcanoes of Disaster are, the more we need to suppress it. The corruption is growing too fiercely. We’re the Expert’s protectors. If we retreat, what more hope is there?”

Qin Manyun looked at those terrifying volcanoes and said seriously.

“Woof woof, no matter how dangerous the road ahead looks, we have to forge our path through. I’ve never lost while I followed the master, and this time is the same!”

Blackie flared his teeth, suddenly biting the dragon’s waist.

“Ah, do you have rabies? Why are you biting me?”

The Old Dragon let out a cry of agony as it turned back into its dragon form, biting at Blackie’s butt!

“You deserve to be bitten for trying to praise others at our expense! Why did you do that?!” Blackie refused to let go of the dragon as it spoke in a muffled voice.

After that, a playful look appeared in its eyes as its stomach expanded slightly. After that, it sent a wave of gas out of its butt.

“Ugh!” Gas shot out of its butt loudly.

The Old Dragon happened to be biting its butt...

Suddenly, the dragon’s face paled!

“My god! You animal! You dog! Ugh!”

Old Dragon looked like he was going to cry. He even started to fly around in space. After that, with a boom, he turned to mist and disappeared.

He abandoned that physical body, severing his ties and giving up on it.

The next moment, an old woman flew over quickly as the woman shouted at Blackie, “Filthy dog, I didn’t have that many clones in the first place, and now you’ve cost me one. You need to take responsibility.”

“Old Dragon, you’re the dog here. You even change genders so easily.”

Blackie rolled its eyes and said, "You're the one who was dumb enough to bite my butt. You asked for it. That's why I never bite anyone's butts. Come, continue biting it if you want!"

Blackie raised its butt, wagging its tail.

The old woman was so angry that her hair was raised as she cursed, "Your fart is so stinky. You must have some sickness."

"Alright, two of you stop fighting! We need to start focusing on suppressing these volcanoes. The Heavenly Palace said that Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng are here too. We don't know what their situation is like right now," Nanan interrupted their argument as she led the way toward the volcano.

As they moved forward, the lava on the ground flowed in strange patterns. It looked like a web that surrounded everything. The fiery hot aura flowed everywhere with the gray mist, holding a terrifying power within.

Qin Manyun raised an eyebrow and said, "There are signs of battle here. The sword aura is so tyrannical. It has to be Xiao Chengfeng. Be careful."

"Boom!"

The next moment, the volcanoes around them erupted.

Endless lava shot into the sky. Many lava monsters flew out, waving their claws at everyone.

Twing!

Qin Manyun flicked her hand, and a Guqin appeared in front of her. She plucked it lightly.

Music shot out in waves.

Everywhere the music touched, the lava monsters all turned to dust. However, right after that, the volcanoes erupted again, and more lava monsters appeared.

The Old Dragon said seriously, "These volcanoes have been here for countless years. There's probably no end to these spirits. We can't stay here and fight, hurry on forward!"

"Let's go!" Qin Manyun nodded plainly. She opened her way with her music, creating a path for everyone to move forward.

Yet, as they got closer to a volcano, they suddenly felt the power of a supreme being surge up. A massive volcanic hand shot out from a volcano, shooting right at Qin Manyun.

Qin Manyun's face sank as her fingers moved rapidly, frantically playing the Guqin. The music turned into a shield, protecting them from the massive hand.

The group hurriedly retreated.

"A supreme being appeared so quickly?" Nanan raised a hand, summoning the Fallen God Bow. With a pull of the bow, a red arrow shot out like a fierce dragon, shattering space itself as it shot right at the supreme being.

The monster's second hand shot out, clashing against Nanan's arrow.

"There's more than one."

Old Dragon and Blackie turned around at the same time, looking behind them.

There, a supreme being beast was floating on top of a volcano. It opened its mouth and shot out red pillars of flame right at everyone!

Old Dragon looked calm as he summoned a turtle shell with a wave. There was a torrent of wind as it turned into a shield and blocked the flame pillar.

He said, "We aren't even that deep, and two supreme beings have already appeared. We can't go deeper even if we want to."

“Didn’t the tortoise say that everything we need is by the expert? We took so many things from the expert, I refuse to believe all of them are useless!”

As Qin Manyun said that, she immediately took out a scroll with a drawing of a sword.

The scroll was just a test of Shi Tuqin’s. Li Nianfan saw that there were various problems with it, and made some changes before throwing it into the trash. Qin Manyun brought it with her.

The scroll slowly opened, and the sword within immediately jumped out of the paper, turning alive. Wave and wave of terrifying sword aura exploded outwards, turning into a light that shot out.

Everyone felt the sharpness of the blade as Sword Dao circulated. It slashed through the two supreme being monsters, slashing them in half as they disappeared.

“It’s useful!” Qin Manyun was happy. Yet, before they could continue, the two volcanoes erupted again. The power of a supreme being pressed down on them again as the endless lava reformed the monsters.

Qin Manyun frowned, “No, the volcano is unending. The scroll can’t remove it completely.”

Since it’s a volcano, it should be afraid of water. Let’s try the Wisdom Holy Water!”

Old Dragon had a serious look on his face as he circulated the water in his palm. After that, it turned into a water dragon and charged right at one of the monsters.

Splash!

The water shot through the supreme being's body, and fell into the volcano itself. The monster's flames seemed to have been extinguished by the water as it dispersed. Even the temperature of the volcano lowered.

Old Dragon raised an eyebrow, "The water is definitely more effective, but destroying these volcanoes will need a lot more power. It'll be hard."

"Roar!"

A roar of anger was heard from within the volcano. The violent aura moved the lava and the flames, covering the skies in a blood-red hue.

They looked at the four with flaming eyes, as if they wanted to fly out in rage.

What was the meaning of this?

They were being experimented with? Killed at a whim?!

Chapter 952: Fatal Blow

“Roar!” The lava monsters roared in anger. They were thoroughly infuriated.

The volcano shook as endless lava shot out, covering the skies. It seemed to threaten to cover everyone.

The heat caused space itself to distort, It was as if heaven and earth were being refined.

Nanan pulled her bow, and the Fallen God Bow shone in a magical and impressive light. The form of the sun appeared behind her as she pulled the bow. The arrow shot out like a dragon, carrying with it a devastating wind as it destroyed countless monsters as it moved.

Qin Manyun’s fingers flew as the sound of her music filled the air in waves. The music filled the air, eliminating the surrounding monsters easily.

As for Blackie and Old Dragon, they tried the things they brought from the expert’s residence.

“Wood shavings from the expert’s carvings.”

“A brush that the expert threw away.”

Everything they threw out glowed radiantly, filled with the power of Wisdom. They could condense the power to destroy anything as they annihilated the two supreme beings.

Yet, the lava monsters were unrelenting. It was not that useful if they just destroyed the two supreme beings, the monsters would quickly return.

In a short time, the supreme beings already died at least a dozen times. They would roar violently each time they revived, and Old Dragon and Blackie would throw something new at them. After a while, they got too lazy to even roar after they revived. They merely stood in place, waiting for Old Dragon and Blackie to pick out a way to kill themselves.

Old Dragon said helplessly, “No, it’s still not possible. I even used the cloth the expert uses to wipe his face. There’s still no way to solve our problem. Will we just be forced to fight our way in?”

“We won’t completely solve the problem if we don’t thoroughly suppress these volcanoes. We’re still just at the outer region, if we go deeper and face even more supreme beings, even using the expert’s things might not be enough.”

Blackie said helplessly as it continued to look through its pants.

Suddenly, it threw something out of its pocket

It was the black soil from the backyard. It did not think too much about it and merely tossed it at the supreme being.

What happened next surprised everyone. The black soil did not seem that destructive, but it ignored the lava everywhere as it headed straight to the mouth of the volcano. There were no images or magical glows. It looked incredibly ordinary.

Yet, it caused a change in the expression of the lava monsters. Their faces twisted in fear.

“Roar!” The two supreme beings roared, but it was not in anger like before, and instead in panic. It was as if they saw their natural enemy.

After the soil fell into the volcano, it rapidly expanded. Suddenly, it turned into a massive amount of soil that covered up the whole volcano.

“Th-that’s right... Wisdom Soil can grow without limits. Even with just a grain, it will give birth to an unending amount. So the correct way to deal with the volcanoes was to use the expert’s soil to bury the volcanoes!”

Qin Manyun’s eyes lit up as she immediately let out a smile.

Wisdom Soil was just something the expert used to grow his crops. Even though it was incredibly valuable, it did not look that impressive. None of them expected it to be so amazing. The expert was unbelievable.

“Woof woof, come with me. Let’s bury all the volcanoes here!” Blacki immediately said as it slowly walked deeper in.

With the solution in hand, everyone was much more confident. They felt a lot more relaxed, not anxious at all even if they walked among the volcanoes.

“Roar!”

As they got deeper, there were more and more monsters that got progressively stronger. The supreme being monsters roared, but Blackie just sprinkled some soil around, and the Wisdom Soil would multiply without limits, completely sealing those monsters.

Wisdom Soil was brutal toward the volcanoes. As they moved forward, they did not encounter that many obstacles at all. It did not take them too long before they got to where the drunkard fought the dragon.

“More annoying protectors are here. All of you have to die!” The dragon already knew what happened, and was incredibly angry at Blackie and the others.

The whole range of volcanoes formed thanks to countless years of corruption. Yet, that group filled them up one by one, completely sealing the corruption. How could it not be angry?

Blackie's eyes glinted, "Wow, your flesh looks quite good, I've never seen an animal like you before. How rare."

The drunkard said, "This is a Dao-Devouring Dragon. Even in ancient times, only one has ever been born."

"Wow, there's only one in the whole world. It must taste incredibly exotic," It was not just Blackie. Even Qin Manyun and Nanan's eyes looked a little excited when they saw the dragon.

After being with the expert for so long, they started to get more of a taste for wild game. No matter what beasts they met, their first thought was if it would be tasty or not.

"Insignificant worms. Die!" the dragon roared in anger as a light shot out of its eyes. It was incredibly quick, taking just a moment to produce enough power to destroy everything.

Dao-Devouring Death Gaze!

It was one of its most powerful spells. Even the drunkard and the strong man did not know it had the spell. They were not in time to block it at all.

The dragon deliberately hid that trump card for any surprises. With Blackie and the others appearing, it would wipe them all out!

It was a supreme being's spell. Everyone did not know what happened, but a shell suddenly appeared in front of everyone as a shield.

It was a secret defense that Old Dragon set up which would automatically activate in times of danger. He never expected that it would be useful.

Old Dragon shot out right after that, forming various powers around him as a golden dragon circulated with a roar.

He knew that the tortoise shell alone would not be able to block that horrifying attack, so he decided to use his clone as a defense as well.

Ugh!

The spell pierced through the shell and fell right on the Old Dragon.

The shell and Old Dragon disappeared without a trace, but the spell disappeared as well. Only then did Qin Manyun and the others react.

Blackie said, "Old Dragon, not bad. I have to admit that you did well this time."

Old Dragon was paranoid. Whether it be saving himself or defensive measures, it would always come up in incredibly crucial moments.

“Ah, I lost another shell and clone. I only have a few left. I wonder if they’ll be enough.”

Old Dragon appeared in the distance again, looking like an incredibly ordinary old man.

Chapter 953: I Think I Have a Way

The drunkard and strong man let out a sigh of relief when he saw that everyone was fine.

The drunkard smiled and said, “This generation of protectors might not be that strong, but they’re surprising.”

“They took on the Dao-Devouring Dragon’s attack. It’s quite unbelievable.”

The strong man nodded, “I also feel something different about them. I can’t put a finger on it, but they seem... livelier.”

Blackie licked its lips and said, “This animal is so strong. I’m suddenly even more excited.”

The dragon’s expression darkened, not believing that its attack was blocked. Even supreme beings could not do that.

As it was in disbelief, the drunkard and strong man took the chance to attack it.

“Drunkard sword array. Demon and God Slayer!”

The drunkard’s gourd seemed to have a never-ending supply of wine. The gourd tilted down, and wave after wave of wine surged out. After that, it formed many swords that shot around in the air. The massive power formed a torrent of blades, ripping through the very skies as it surrounded the Dao-Devouring dragon, threatening to rip it to shreds.

“Hold up the world!” The strong man let out a shout as well, raising his hand to grab the dragon.

His hand suddenly enlarged countless times, able to grab anything in the world. It enveloped the whole dragon, trapping it in his hand!

Their terrifying powers could easily destroy any normal supreme being, but the Dao-Devouring Dragon was not injured that badly even after being attacked, continuing to struggle.

“Roar!” The Dao-Devouring Dragon let out a furious roar as a pitch-black destructive ray shot out of its mouth. It swept everywhere, destroying the drunkard’s sword array.

The drunkard used another spell as he said, “The other two protectors have entered the volcano. We’ll hold this dragon back, hurry up and get them out. I suspect something happened in the volcano.”

“I’ll stay behind to help. My music should be able to affect the Dao-Devouring Dragon,” Qin Manyun said when she saw that the drunkard and the strong man were bitterly holding on.

After that, she sat in the air as she summoned her Guqin. Her fingers plucked at the strings as the mosaic shot out with a terrifying killing intent at the dragon.

The song she played was Ambush!

It was the first song Li Nianfan gave to Qin Manyun, and also the song Qin Manyun was most familiar with. At that moment, she played the strong with a force that was not like days past. It was incredibly powerful.

Even though she was still not a supreme being, Qin Manyun still studied by Li Nianfan’s side every day. At the same time, she had songs at that level. So, it was already enough to threaten supreme beings. The Dao-Devouring Dragon was also facing the drunkard and the strong man at that moment, giving Qin Manyun a lot of space to do what she could.

The music caused the wins to start howling, forming the image of an army. The army rushed at the Dao-Devouring Dragon from all sides, trying to completely trample over it!

Those images were no illusions, but materializations of musical Wisdom. Each sword and blade was real. Even a supreme being would die from being slashed tens of thousands of times.

“I’ll stay back. Blackie, Old Dragon, two of you go in.”

Nanan's face was incredibly serious as she immediately pulled out the Fallen God Bow. She condensed all her power into the bow, forming an incredibly destructive arrow that could pierce any Wisdom in the world!

Swoosh!

The arrow shot out horrifyingly, falling on the Dao-Devouring Dragon's body and piercing its scales!

The Fallen God Bow always had the power to kill deities. It was a supreme weapon that Wisdom created. It was used to its limits by Nanan. Even supreme beings would need to avoid it. Even if a single arrow could not destroy the Dao-Devouring Dragon, an arrow could still break through its defenses.

Even if it was just a small injury, many small attacks could tumble an elephant. She would shoot it countless times!

"Roar!" The dragon roared in rage.

It was humiliated. A weak worm challenged it. They all needed to die!

However, no matter how furious it was, it was still being held back by everyone's ferocious attacks.

“Let’s go,” Blackie said to Old Dragon before they rushed into the volcano.

They entered the lava, and their hearts immediately sank. They could feel an incredibly dangerous aura being formed.

For some reason, there were no monsters in the volcano at all. They faced no obstacles on the way deeper.

The deeper they got, the more horrifying the pressure felt. It was as if a terrifying existence that was even stronger than the Dao-Devouring Dragon was awakening.

As they moved past the barrier, the dog and dragon both frowned.

In front of them, the Undying’s white hair danced wildly. He already looked as thin as matches as the aura of life and death circulated him. Two energies seemed to coexist and fight each other at the same time, forming a terrifying power.

His fingers were pointed at the golden skeleton’s forehead as it shot out an incredibly powerful sealing energy, trying to suppress that skeleton.

Yet, that skeleton was not even being forced to retreat at that power at all. Instead, it reached out its hands as its hands pierced into Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng’s chest!

Yes, the skeleton pierced their bodies, but there were no holes. Instead, it looked like it was fusing in!

The skeleton wanted to fuse into Xiao Chengfeng and Yang Jian's bodies!

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng both widened their eyes as if they lost their souls. They showed no signs of fighting back.

"What are they doing?" Old Dragon asked. He did not understand, but he knew that it was not a good sign.

"This corpse is Madman Chu's. He's already both fused with and against Wisdom. He's trying to use those two protectors to revive himself and is transferring his energy.

The Undying said raspily in incredible nervousness, "We need to figure out a way to stop this."

"They've been scared by Madman Chu's power," Blackie immediately saw through it.

The power the skeleton showed at that moment was close to that of the expert the expert was always a god to Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng. They were probably completely shocked seeing that. They did not even have the will to resist.

"Madman Chu's far too strong. There's no way we can stop this skeleton, so the best way is to wake Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng up. As long as they reject this power, we can disrupt it.

Old Dragon smartly analyzed as he looked at Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng.

“Wake the two of them up?” Blackie touched its mouth thoughtfully as it had a sinister look in its eyes, “I think I have a reliable way.”

Chapter 954: That’s The Only Way

“Are you sure it’s reliable?” Old Dragon expressed his doubts. The dog was not the most reliable.

Blackie looked at him, “Why don’t you do something then?”

“I can’t,” Old Dragon shook his head as he retreated.

He had the self-awareness to know that Madman Chu’s skeleton was far too strong. It already set up restrictions around Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng. That terrifying power was not something anyone could break through. Even the drunkard and strong man would find it hard.

He wanted to know what that reliable method Blackie mentioned was.

So, he said rudely, "I think you're just bragging."

"Haha, then keep your eyes peeled and look at how awesome I am then."

Blackie suddenly raised its butt as it spoke. A surge of intense power condensed on its butt as those pants started to glow in black light.

The dragon's eyes were serious as it vaguely guessed that Blackie's solution had something to do with those pants. After all, that dog had nothing else on it but those pants. Most importantly, the expert gave it those pants.

The Undying crawled out from his coffin and was fully focused on Madman Chu's skeleton. He heard Blackie and Old Dragon's conversation as well, and his first thought was that Blackie was not reliable.

Why did this generation of protectors feel so frivolous?

He shouted helplessly, "If you have a way, then hurry up. I can't hold on for much longer. If Madman Chu's skeleton manages to reunite with a flesh body, then there's no way we can win this time."

"Don't worry, I'm coming! Look at my pants!" Blackie shouted. Those pants already flew out of their butt and landed right on Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng's heads. It was an incredibly tight fit and wrapped around both their heads tightly.

“That’s your solution?” Old Dragon was surprised. He would rather die than have those pants on his head.

The Undying was also shocked. Blackie did not save his teammates but sabotaged them. It put its pants on their heads while they could not move.

“Pants over your heads, evil will never enter. With the mosaic light, every spell is broken!”

Blackie chanted as if it was using a spell. The pants got even brighter at that. At the same time, the mosaic sown on it left the pants as it circulated Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng.

Old Dragon was confused as he said curiously, “Is it working?”

“Haha, of course.”

Blackie let out a cold laugh, “These pants have been with me for years. They’ve never left my body. I’ve never even washed it once. It’s a part of my butt and has my scent on it. It’s enough to ward off all evil. These pants will disrupt the connection between the two of them and that skeleton. It will awaken them.”

Never leaving its body?

Old Dragon and the Undying shuddered. No wonder it could ward off all evil. Even they wanted to retreat thinking about it.

Even Madman Chu's skeleton was shocked. He shouted, "It's that disgusting? Humph, I'll take it on!"

He looked at the two of them with the pants on their heads. If his possession was successful, then the one with those pants on his head would be him. However, for the sake of resurrection, he would do it. He would withstand the pants!

A while passed, and Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng showed no signs of waking up. Blackie started to frown.

Old Dragon and the Undying's expressions soured.

Even though they felt that Blackie was not reliable, they still held out hope that a miracle could happen. It was the only hope they had, but they were disappointed in the end.

"Stupid dog, it looks like your solution was completely useless. Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng suffered for nothing," Old Dragon shook his head in sympathy toward them.

"How could this be?" Blackie had a doubtful expression. He was very confident in his spell, but he never expected that it would be completely useless.

“If you really can’t do it, then hurry up and leave. Ask the drunkard and strong man outside to leave as well. Otherwise, you won’t be able to run if Madman Chu returned!” The Undying took a deep breath as he said seriously.

Blackie’s eyes sank a bit, “It looks like I’ll have to use that move!”

Old Dragon was shocked, “You have another plan?”

“I don’t use this easily. The moment I use it, heaven itself will be shaken. I have no other choice,” Blackie had an incredibly serious expression. With a wave of its paw, it summoned its pants back.

The pants left Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng’s heads before landing back on Blackie’s body.

After that, Old Dragon and the Undying noticed that Blackie’s whole body started to shake.

Puff puff!

A roar could be heard from within those pants that caused Old Dragon’s eyes to widen.

He was far too familiar with that sound. Not long ago, one of his clones was driven to suicide thanks to Blackie’s fart. This time, Blackie was releasing a series of farts. It was obvious how terrifying that was.

Strangely, he did not smell the farts at all.

He suddenly noticed that Blackie's pants were being slowly surrounded by the mosaic, seemingly sealing the farts inside. He shuddered as he realized what Blackie was planning.

"Oh my god, you're not human!" Old Dragon's expressions suddenly changed as he distanced himself from Blackie, worried about being caught up.

"Extraordinary times call for extraordinary solutions. Look at the second stage of my pants. Go!" Blackie shouted as its pants left its body again, hurriedly landing on Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng's heads.

"Horrible, this is too horrible," Old Dragon had an incredibly sympathetic look toward Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng. He could see that the gas inside the pants already turned green. It was poisonous.

Blackie pulled off something immense, and Old Dragon felt like it would work this time.

Sure enough, it did.

In just a few moments, Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng could be heard choking from within those pants. They slowly woke up.

“No, no!” As they woke up, Madman Chu’s fusion immediately faced rejection. It was very difficult for Madman Chu to continue.

“What is this thing trying to fuse into our bodies. Get out!”

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng felt something and immediately roared wildly as they activated their powers, forcing Madman Chu’s skeleton out.

Right after that, they cried out in agony, “Where’s this? Why is it so dark, and so stinky?! Ugh!”

Blackie waved its paw as it calmly retrieved its pants. It said with concern, “Yang Jian, Xiao Chengfeng, you’re both finally up. How do you feel?”

Yang Jian said, “I feel... terrible. My head completely stinks. I feel like chopping out my head and growing a new one.

Chapter 955: The Two Strongest Powers In The World

“What happened? Why do I feel like my face stinks so much? Bleugh.” Xiao Chengfeng’s hair was in disarray as his face paled. He had no way of showing off at that moment. He did everything he could to try to wipe away the stench from his head, but only found that his hand got stinky as well...

Blackie's face was calm as it said seriously, "Let's not get fixated on the details. You were almost possessed by Madman Chu's skeleton!"

"We know," Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng recalled what happened earlier, and broke out in cold sweat at the thought.

Madman Chu's strength was close to the expert's. It shocked them so much that they started to get unsettled, and were almost possessed by Madman Chu.

"How did you help us get out?" Yang Jian said curiously.

Blackie said, "Don't dwell on the details. What he needs to do right now is seal this place."

"That's right."

Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng looked at Madman Chu's skeleton in alert as they told everyone, "Everyone, be careful. He also has the power to create Wisdom. It's terrifying."

"I was so close... Whatever, you can all die here."

Madman Chu's skeleton started to cause their surroundings to change constantly. Even if he was just a skeleton, he could still create anything he wanted. He was awoken by the aura of the protectors and wanted to use the Wisdom of this lifetime to resurrect himself. He failed, but he was not angry about it. It was as if everything was still within his control.

With a point of his finger, an immeasurable power suddenly turned into killing intent as it rushed right at everyone!

The attack was formless, shapeless, and did not show any signs. Yet, it grinded against existence itself, containing limitless power. It was enough to turn Yang Jian and the others to dust!

The sudden sense of danger surfaced in everyone's minds, but they did not know how to react.

"Hurry up and leave!"

The Undying's face sank as he activated the Wisdom of life and death to the limits. There seemed to be the image of a death god behind him, as well as the tree of life. Life and death gave birth to an unfathomable power that protected everyone.

At the same time, the coffin was used by him to face Madman Chu's attack. Even if it was just a skeleton, the Undying did not dare to be careless at all. He gathered all the power he had, or he would have no hope.

That was because Madman Chu was already someone who could throw existence itself into chaos. His strength was on a whole other level that exceeded all imagination.

“I’ll be relying on you!”

At the same time, Old Dragon pulled out a tortoise shell to serve as a massive shield in front of everyone. A surge of dense energy radiated from the shell, giving everyone a sense of safety.

“The limits of life and death and the protector of time?” Madman Chu’s skeleton let out a small laugh as a horrifying attack descended.

Unmatched power shot out like the howling wind, causing the shell to turn to dust. The Undying and everyone else was sent flying like ants in the wind, violently slamming into the walls.

Everyone frantically scrambled to control their injuries. Their expressions turned to shock.

He... was too strong.

Yang Jian gulped as he trembled, “Is this the realm of someone who can go against Wisdom itself? Even after his flesh has eroded, he’s still unmatched.”

“Just think about how strong the expert is, and this skeleton’s strength would be acceptable. After all, this is the pinnacle of cultivation.”

Old Dragon said, “Thankfully, I’m just a clone. Don’t worry, I’ll remember all of you if you die.”

Xiao Chengfeng scoffed, “Do you think that’s a form of consolation?”

“We can’t fight against something like this. Let me try if Wisdom Soil will be useful, “Blackie reached a paw into his pants before throwing out some soil at the skeleton.

The Wisdom Soil seemed to resonate with something and started to multiply in the air. It seemed like the earth itself pushed toward the skeleton!

The skeleton let out a violent shout as its body glowed gold. The runes on the skeleton started to shine, and those runes seemed to circle the skeleton as if they had a life of their own. An immense pressure followed a sea of power surging at the Wisdom Soil.

The soil and the skeleton clashed, shaking the world.

The two powers that seemed to be from the same origin, but directly opposing, clashed against each other. It caused the Wisdom around them to distort. Just a little bit of the aura that was felt could even cause supreme beings to revere it.

Outside the volcano, the Dao-Devouring Dragon was already injured under the combined assault no matter how strong it was. However, it was still the strongest beast, and the only Purple and Black Dao-Devouring in existence. It was born of Wisdom and devoured Wisdom for sustenance. Those injuries were not enough for it to be defeated, and Qin Manyun and the others were not in a good state either.

Their spells constantly flew, but at that moment, all the spells disappeared.

It was as if they met their natural enemy, and no longer dared to appear.

At the same time, whether it be the Dao-Devouring Dragon or the drunkard, all of them were startled. They felt a terrifying aura coming from the volcano, and they did not dare to make any casual moves.

Qin Manyun said in concern, "What's happening inside to let out such a terrifying aura?"

"I can feel the power of the soil from the expert's residence," Nanan said.

In the skies, a few figures stood in space, looking at everything that happened.

They had very impressive auras and were supreme beings.

One of them said, "What a strong aura. It looks like Wisdom and the gray mist is fighting head-on now."

"Two of them are the strongest powers in the world. Anyone beneath them are ants. If a demon like Madman Chu wasn't born, we would never have been able to feel such power."

“That’s right, let them fight. The more intense, the better. Once they both sustain heavy losses, nothing will be able to stop us anymore. We will be the strongest!”

As long as everyone stronger than them was dead, then they were kings!

“Wisdom is shapeless and controls everything. Madman Chu can go against the heavens, but they won’t be laughing in the end.”

...

In the volcano, Blackie and the others stared at the Wisdom Soil with bated breath.

The Wisdom Soil twisted and turned in the air, while the skeleton’s golden aura surged out like waves. It slammed onto the Wisdom Soil, suppressing the Wisdom Soil and causing it to lessen.

Everyone could tell that the golden light showed signs of piercing through the Wisdom Soil. After that, they saw the skeleton slowly walk forward, attacking the Wisdom Soil with his fist!

Boom!

A crack formed in the wall of soil. Even with how special the soil was, it could not recover!

Chapter 956: The Dao of Indifference is Unmatched

“Not good, the Wisdom Soil doesn’t seem to be holding on!” Xiao Chengfeng’s expression sank as he felt his head go numb.

Madman Chu’s strength exceeded all their expectations. It was already past the limits of a supreme being. This was just a skeleton, it was hard to imagine how strong he was at his peak. No wonder even Wisdom itself had to cut a part off.

“Crap, you should just rest in peace if you die. Stop letting your skeleton run about!”

Blackie started to panic as well. It frantically scooped out more Wisdom Soil from its pants, “I’ll bury you in peace. Just hurry up and die. Stop bringing harm to others!”

The Wisdom Soil turned into a wall, surrounding Madman Chu’s skeleton. Wave after wave of sealing energy surged into the skies, trying to bury the skeleton. Yet, it surrounded Madman Chu, surrounding himself like a bell, keeping the Wisdom Soil out.

Even when Blackie emptied all the Wisdom Soil, it did nothing to the skeleton. Instead, the skeleton seemed to be gaining the advantage.

“Even that’s useless?” Blackie frowned.

Wisdom Soil grew unrelentingly, able to grow from one to thousands. It was endless, and the most fertile soil in existence. Yet, it still failed to seal that skeleton.

Who could do anything to the skeleton if the expert did not make a move?

“It’s a mere skeleton, I doubt we need the expert to do something.”

Old Dragon suddenly said as he looked at the skeleton, “Stupid dog, didn’t we forget something? What’s the most compatible thing with Wisdom Soil?”

Blackie was taken aback, and Yang Jian and Xiao Chengfeng’s eyes lit up at the same time as they said loudly, “Fertilizer, it’s fertilizer.”

“That’s right. If the Wisdom Soil can’t hold on, then we should give it fertilizer. Fertilizer can greatly strengthen the Wisdom Soil.”

Blackie’s eyes brightened up before it said, “It’s a pity we didn’t bring all that shit from the bottom of the mountain. It’s already too late now.”

“Hahaha, I’ve never left anything out no matter what I do. Even if it’s shit, I still brought it along. It proved useful this time.”

Old Dragon started to laugh as his Dao of Indifference worked its magic.

“How awesome! You’re something else, Old Dragon. You always think of everything,” Yang Jian praised.

“Next, let’s look at the fertilizer strengthening the Wisdom Soil!”

Old Dragon waved, and immediately summoned up a bucket of natural fertilizer. Without a second word, it poured it right at the skeleton!

Splash!

The fertilizer fused with the Wisdom Soil.

Suddenly, the Wisdom Soil expended incredibly quickly, as if it gained a new lease of life. The intense movements came with an incredibly powerful aura that even pushed back the skeleton’s golden glow. It quickly started to get closer to the skeleton.

“Ah, no! What did you do? Why is it so smelly?!” The skeleton’s mental state was in disarray.

Not only did he need to face the incredibly strong Wisdom Soil, it even needed to withstand an incredibly smelly biological weapon. It was an attack on both his spirit and his physical body. He could not stand it.

“If one bucket isn’t enough, I still have another!”

“Let me tell you, I even have some aged fertilizer stored. I’ll let you try it out,” Old Dragon summoned up another bucket with a wave, sending it right at the skeleton.

Splash!

Wave after wave of an incredible stench came out, causing Blackie and the others to have a change in expression as they pinched their noses.

Blackie was thoroughly convinced at that point as it said, “Wow, I’m really looking at you in a different light right now, Old Dragon! You’ve been hiding something like this?!”

Old Dragon brushed his hand over his beard as he laughed, “I’ve always been someone who wants to be sure of everything. I’ll always save up useful things, even if it’s just a little.”

“How terrifying, the Dao of Indifference is Amazing!” Even Xiao Chengfeng the braggart was amazed.

On the other end, the Undying was surprised as well. He gaped at the sight.

He thought that Blackie putting its pants over them was already crazy enough, but Old Dragon was even more ruthless.

At that moment, he felt a smidge of sympathy for Madman Chu.

The protectors of this life were not to be trifled with...

“Ah, no, you animals. You’re so despicable! I’m going to pull out all the stops!”

Madman Chu’s skeleton was about to go crazy. He was unrivaled the last lifetime. Even Wisdom was trampled over by him. How majestic was he? Yet, he encountered something so disgusting. It caused him to go crazy.

As the fertilizer increased, the skeleton could no longer hold on. The golden glow around him started to dim as the Wisdom Soil started to gain an advantage.

The golden skeleton disappeared, and what replaced it was black. The skeleton started to stink, and the glow started to dim to darkness.

“Die! All of you need to die!” He started to shout angrily as he charged at Blackie and the others.

Being covered by the Wisdom Soil, his strength was incredibly weakened. Even so, he was still terrifying.

“He wants to drag us down with him. Retreat!” The Undying said.

It was no longer worthwhile trying to put their lives on the line here.

He waved, and the power of a supreme being enveloped everyone, causing everyone to retreat.

They left the place and headed toward the mouth of the volcano.

However, Madman Chu’s skeleton was already insane. He started to summon up all the remaining power in his body to push back the power of the Wisdom Soil. He wanted to drag Blackie and the Others Down with him.

That humiliation needed to be paid for with blood!

Outside the volcano, Qin Manyun and the others already stopped their battle against the Dao-Devouring Dragon ever since the Wisdom Soil went against Madman Chu’s skeleton.

After all, the power from within the volcano was far too strong. All of them were incredibly worried, not knowing what happened inside.

Suddenly, all of them were startled as they felt an immensely strong power hurrying out.

“Are they coming out?” Their eyes were incredibly serious as they apprehensively waited for the results.

“Haha, master is unmatched. He’s returned. You’re all done for,” The Dao-Devouring Dragon let out a cold laugh. Only it knew how terrifying its master was. Even just a skeleton was still more powerful than any supreme being!

Splash!

The next moment, the Undying rushed out of the volcano with Xiao Chengfeng and the others, breaking through the lava.

When they saw that Xiao Chengfeng and the others were unharmed, Qin Manyun and the others let out a sigh of relief.

Splash!

Right after that, a pitch black thing rushed out. It had an incredibly violent and terrifying aura as it stood on the Dao-Devouring Dragon’s head, shouting out crazily, “Kill them. Kill them right now...”

Before it could finish shouting, the Dao-Devouring Dragon shook its body in disdain. After that, it fiercely slammed the thing into the wall, launching its destructive power at the thing.

“What is this? It’s so smelly. It stood on my head. It just wants to die!”

Chapter 957: Interfere

The Dao-Devouring Dragon was still not happy and sent another ray of annihilation at the skeleton.

Only then did it look up happily as it stared at Yang Jian and the others with a sinister glint in its eyes, “Where’s my master? He should be awake.”

Yang Jian and the others all had strange looks on their faces as they silently raised their fingers and pointed at the spot where the dragon attacked.

“Impossible! My master’s skeleton is undying, his golden body exists forever. Wisdom surrounds his body, so he should be golden. That thing just now was completely black, and incredibly smelly. How could it have been my master? Are you trying to trick me?!” The dragon widened its eyes and said viciously.

Blackie said casually, “There’s always the possibility that your master fell into a pile of shit.”

“What?!” The Dao-Devouring dragon was taken aback as an unsettling feeling crept into its heart. After that, it tried to feel the aura of that skeleton. Even though the skeleton was completely covered in Wisdom Soil, it could vaguely feel a familiar feeling from the skeleton. It was Madman Chu.

“Master, what happened to you? Who beat you up to like this!” It let out a cry of misery as it rushed over.

However, no matter how it cried out, Madman Chu’s skeleton did not give any response.

The skeleton was full of power, but it was sealed with the Wisdom Soil that was enhanced by fertilizer. He wanted to die with Xiao Chengfeng and the others with the little bit of strength he left, but he never expected that his mount would kill him before he could do that.

At that moment, the skeleton did not have a single shred of power anymore. It was completely sealed.

Xiao Chengfeng immediately stepped forward and said indignantly, “If I’m not mistaken, you were the one who beat him up like this.”

“I can testify to that,” Nanan nodded seriously.

Blackie said, “You should just punish yourself.”

“No! It was all of you. It was all because of you. I’ll take revenge for my master!”

The Dao-Devouring Dragon’s eyes were red as a dangerous glint could be seen on its eyes. It roared as it charged at everyone.

Yet, Qin Manyun and the others already fought the Dao-Devouring Dragon to a standstill. With the Undying and the others, the Dao-Devouring Dragon’s attacks became easy to handle.

The drunkard pointed at his gourd, and the gourd immediately became several times larger. It became even bigger than the Dao-Devouring Dragon, and slammed down on the dragon with the force of a mountain.

Right after that, the strong man let out a roar as he punched the Dao-Devouring Dragon. A terrifying cyclone shot out and slammed right onto the Dao-Devouring Dragon, cracking its scales.

The undying raised his hand, and gray flames started to call on the Dao-Devouring Dragon. Suddenly, it spread all across the dragon’s body. It was the flames of death, and burned life as fuel!

Qin Manyun was in the air, her dress flowed with the wind as her hands constantly played the guqin. The sounds of music caused waves of Wisdom to rise, gathering the Wisdom of the heavens as a musical world surrounded the dragon. It entered the dragon through its ears and every single pore, affecting the dragon’s soul.

At the same time, she did not forget to say, “Seniors, please don’t be too violent with your attacks. You should take care to not ruin the dragon’s meat. We still need to bring it back for the expert.”

Yang Jian nodded, "That's right, Miss Qin. It's the only wild animal of its kind in the world. We can't let it go to waste."

"One blade to take life," Xiao Chengfeng's sword slashed horizontally and his slash illuminated the skies, slicing right at his dragon.

Blackie raised its paw, and a gigantic paw slammed onto the dragon.

At that moment, the Dao-Devouring Dragon faced the suppression of the drunkard, the strong man, and the Undying as supreme beings. No matter how strong it was, it could not do anything. Yang Jian and the others might not be supreme beings yet, but their attacks were incredibly horrifying. They were beating up the Dao-Devouring Dragon.

"Roar! How despicable! You're just using your numbers to your advantage. If you have the skills, face me alone!" The Dao-Devouring Dragon roared as it frantically struggled, but could do nothing about it.

Blackie said plainly, "Do you think we're stupid? You're just a wild game, so stop shouting. Just be quiet and accept your capture! You shouldn't ruin your meat."

"How infuriating! You think you're worthy of eating my meat?" The Dao-Devouring Dragon was incredibly furious. It already resolved to blow up its own body instead of being humiliated by all of them.

Yet, the Undying saw through its intentions. With a glint of his eyes, he raised his hand. The ancient coffin shot out of the lava with a splash, and incredible sealing energy poured out, stopping the dragon from blowing itself up.

The Undying used that coffin to suppress the corruption here. The Dao-Devouring Dragon was naturally unable to stand up to that power alone.

“Be careful, don’t ruin its meat,” Qin Manyun reminded again.

Those words caused the dragon’s temper to blow up. It was completely crazed.

“Since we can’t harm it, let’s work together and seal it. We’ll completely seal its power,” The drunkard suggested.

“Alright!” The strong man and the Undying naturally agreed immediately.

Their power surged into the skies and surrounded the Dao-Devouring Dragon. Three waves of intense sealing power pushed down from three directions.

The drunkard laughed, “I’ll seal its divine senses!”

The Undying said seriously, “I’ll seal its body!”

The strong man raised his fist, "I'll seal its power!"

Buzz!

The powers surrounded the Dao-Devouring Dragon, and it started to slowly get weaker and weaker."

"Haha, show it some mercy."

At that moment, a faint laugh was heard. Right after that, three figures slowly walked down in the air. The power of supreme beings is pushed down on them.

The strong man's face sank slightly, "Space Disruptor, you're here again!"

"There's only one Dao-Devouring Dragon in the world. It's a pity for it to be sealed like that... Spare it on my account," One of the supreme beings said plainly with a mocking tone.

They hid in the dark, waiting for the protectors and the gray mist to deal suffer heavy damage so they could take advantage of the situation.

Yet, they never expected that Madman Chu's skeleton would lose somehow.

They did not want either side to be trampled over, so they chose to step forward at that moment.

A flash of killing intent could be seen in the drunkard's eyes as he said in a low voice, "Let it go? Who do you think you are to make such demands?!"

The Undying said with contempt, "You're just a bunch of rats who hid in the dark, only daring to show yourself now."

"Do you think we're negotiating with you? You don't even have the right to speak right now!"

The three supreme beings had cold looks on their faces as their power surged out!

Chapter 958: Treasured Painting

At that moment, the drunkard and the other two sealed the Dao-Devouring Dragon.

If the Space Disruptor's group attacked, it would break the sealing process. The Dao-Devouring Dragon would be able to break out and join forces with the traitors, It would not be good for the drunkard and the others.

“Hahaha, hurry up and let me go!” The Dao-Devouring Dragon laughed hysterically. It was incredibly pleasing as it mocked them. It never expected that the traitors would suddenly appear to help it, but that was good. The protectors had no choice in the matter.

At that moment, Blackie, Old Dragon, Nanan, and Qin Manyun stepped up, putting the drunkard’s group behind them as they faced the three supreme beings.

Qin Manyun said calmly, “Seniors, hurry up and seal the dragon. Leave the rest to us!”

“Oh?”

“With just the four of you?” The supreme beings raised their eyebrows as they laughed.

“The new protectors who aren’t even supreme beings yet dare to stop us?!”

“You’re looking to die!” they looked at Qin Manyun and the others. The power of supreme beings exploded forward violently. It was enough to suffocate anyone who was not a supreme being.

However, that obviously did not entail Blackie and the others.

Blackie's pants suddenly let out a black glow. Old Dragon summoned up another shell. Qin Manyun lightly plucked a string, playing a note that turned into a protective power that blocked the supreme beings' pressure.

However, it was just blocking pressure. They were still not at the level of supreme beings.

"We didn't want to kill you so quickly. We wanted you to fight on an even level with the gray mist. However, you're actually looking for death, so don't blame us!"

One of the supreme beings slowly walked up, walking to the front of the group.

There was killing intent in his eyes as an arrogant aura was felt around him. He slowly raised his right hand and pointed at Qin Manyun and the others.

That point was just a very normal spell, but it was being used by a supreme being. It contained a power of a supreme being, so it descended from the heavens like a hammer. It would need the power of a supreme being to stop.

It was like a grown man dealing with four ants. It was an incredibly trivial matter.

The drunkard and the others all had worried looks on their faces. Even if Blackie and the others were no ordinary cultivators and had treasures to protect them, it was still hard to stop a supreme being.

“I think that they must have a plan,” The Undying said with uncertainty.

He recalled Blackie and Old Dragon’s performances in the volcano. The two of them were incredibly despicable. Their methods even chilled the Undying’s heart. Even Madman Chu’s skeleton was killed by them, so they might really have a plan.

Precisely at that moment, Blackie reached its paw into its pants.

After that, it pulled out a scroll.

As the scroll appeared, a strange power exploded forward. Like a sharp sword, it sliced through the pressure of that supreme being. Everyone suddenly relaxed from the pressure the supreme being gave.

“What’s this?!” The supreme being shouted out in surprise.

It was just a piece of paper, but it caused his pressure to disappear. Even his attack disintegrated.

He stared at that piece of paper and suddenly felt his heart beating rapidly. He had the urge to retreat.

Blackie’s paw held that piece of paper as a nostalgic look appeared on its face.

“Old dragon, you have many treasures. Even the shit you keep is a treasure. However, all of your treasures combined are no match for this drawing,” Blackie said in amusement.

After saying that, it raised the paper highly, but still slowly opened it.

Buzz!

A radiant light surged out, covering everything in the world like a torrent of water.

There seemed to be a whole world contained within that piece of paper. It felt like it could replace the whole world around them.

When the paper was slowly opened, everyone noticed that a drawing of a dog was on the scroll. It was a very small dog.

Its black eyes were filled with innocence, and its ears were slanted downward. Its tongue stuck out of its mouth. It was unbelievably cute. It looked a little like Blackie.

It was actually a painting of a young blackie!

When the scroll was opened, the dog suddenly seemed alive. It slowly walked out and moved its little head, barking at the Space Disruptor and the others.

“Bark!”

It sounded clear and cute.

However, to the Space Disruptor’s group, it sounded like the whisper of the god of death. It made them feel like a calamity was about to befall them.

A formless power suddenly descended, falling right on their heads!

“No, how’s this possible? Even Wisdom itself was sealed!”

“Formless and shapeless. This is the power of Wisdom. Wisdom is acting!”

“So, they actually had a trump card... Wisdom gave them something to save their lives!”

The three supreme beings started to panic as they retreated. At the same time, they started to take out treasure after treasure as they circulated the powers in their whole body to defend themselves.

Yet...

All of that power disappeared!

The first to get attacked was the supreme being that attacked Blackie and the others. He let out a hopeless cry of pain as his body rapidly started to get destroyed. Even if he was a supreme being that had an undying lifeforce, he was still wiped out in an instant!

Right after that was Space Disruptor and the other supreme being.

They let out a shout as their bodies exploded on the spot, turning into pieces. However, their lifeforce remained. With a glow, they barely managed to reform their bodies. After that, they looked at Blackie in incredible fear.

“Haha, what do you think about me?” Blackie let out an incredibly pleasing smile.

Yet, the admiration and surprise he expected did not appear. Instead...

“H-how cute!”

“Wow, Blackie looked like that when he was young? I want to hug him so badly.”

“He looked so cute and innocent. His bark is adorable...”

Old Dragon rolled on the ground laughing, “Hahaha, stupid dog! You exposed yourself! You looked like that when you were young, so why are you so ugly now? It’s hilarious.”

Blackie’s face darkened as it almost left in a hug.

It said angrily, “Hey, you’re focusing on the wrong thing! Isn’t this painting amazing? It was something master made when he practiced his painting skills. Aren’t you all jealous?”

Everyone nodded, “Jealous, we’re so jealous. It’s so amazing.”

However, they could not hide the smiles on their lips.

“Enough, no one is allowed to laugh anymore!” Blackie shouted.

That was a valuable painting that it kept. It turned into a point of humiliation. It miscalculated!

Everyone immediately stopped laughing as they looked at Space Disruptor and the other supreme being mocking.

They were not supreme beings, but at that moment, they completely stood above those supreme beings. It was as if they were the hunters, and the supreme beings were the prey.

Chapter 959: Expansion of the Unending Sea

“Haha, we’re still alive. How dare you be so arrogant?”

Space Disruptor roared crazily, “It was just a painting. What do you even have left?”

They were really terrified, but as supreme beings, how could they bear to be pushed around by Blackie and the Others?

“If one isn’t enough, I still have another,” Blackie pulled out another scroll and looked at Space Disruptor mockingly.

Suddenly, Space Disruptor paled as he fled to a distance with the other supreme being. Their faces were full of alarm.

!!

Thankfully, that other supreme being was their meat shield facing the other painting. If there was another one, they would definitely die!

“If this painting isn’t enough, we still have a lot of other treasures. Who wants to come up and die?” Nanan pulled out a kitchen knife and said with a smile.

The kitchen knife was already a little broken down. Even the blade was a bit chipped. However, there was an incredible killing intent coming from it. It caused Space Disruptor and the other supreme being to pale as they rapidly retreated.

They exchanged a glance was a look of worry flashed into their eyes.

Neither of them were willing to charge forward. They already saw what would happen if they did.

It was like a gun that was pointed at a group of people. None of them were willing to take a bullet for anyone else.

“Humph, don’t let us see you again!” Space Disruptor spat out before he fled rapidly with the other supreme being.

They became traitors because they treasured their lives too much, so they were naturally not willing to take any risks.

“Cowards,” Blackie pursed its lips in disdain. After that, it opened that piece of paper, revealing that it was empty.

“How amazing! The stupid dog actually knows how to pull off these tricks sometimes,” Old Dragon praised.

Yang Jian said curiously, “Nanan, is that kitchen knife also fake?”

“That’s real. It’s big brother’s old kitchen knife. I picked it up from the trash,” Nanan said.

Xiao Chengfeng said, “Why didn’t we force them to stay behind just now? They actually hid in the dark and tried to get an advantage. How petty.”

Nanan sighed, “The knife will only be able to kill one of them, what do we do about the other one? There might even be other traitors still hiding around. We should scare them away.”

Qin Manyun nodded, “That’s right. We’ve already used up a lot of the expert’s things on the way. It’s better to be more careful.”

At that moment, the Undying, the drunkard and the strong man already sealed the Dao-Devouring Dragon.

“You despicable people! What’s the skill in attacking me together? If you dare, face me alone. Back then, I was something far and above all of you. Just you wait, I’ll have my revenge,” The Dao-Devouring Dragon was still frantically cursing even as it was captured.

Blackie patted it on its shoulder, “Don’t worry, you’ll just be a plate of meat for the expert after a while. The expert will make sure to take care of your meat well. We won’t let you go to waste.”

“You...” The Dao-Devouring Dragon wanted to curse some more, but it could suddenly not speak anymore.

The drunkard laughed, “I’m sorry, I forgot to seal its mouth earlier. I just did it.”

“Let’s go, I don’t know how Dragin’s doing. We should meet up with them,” Nanan said.

The Volcanoes of Disaster were thoroughly sealed, so all of them agreed.

However, before they left, everyone still used the last of the Wisdom Soil to completely bury the volcano. It made sure that Madman Chu’s skeleton would forever be buried inside.

...

After half a day, they met up with Dragin and Little Fox at the border of the Unending Sea.

At that moment, the Unending Sea already expanded its territory. It completely submerged the whole Eastern Star Region. All of the cultivators in the region were either dead or corrupted.

If Little Fox and the others were not suppressing the place, the sea would have expanded even more. It could have even swallowed up the Origins REalm.

“What happened? Why did the Unending Sea expand so rapidly?” The drunkard frowned slightly as he said in surprise.

The drunkard suppressed the Unending Sea for countless years and knew the sea very well. He never expected that the Unending Sea would cause so much destruction.

Furthermore, the Volcanoes of Disaster had Madman Chu’s skeleton and Madman Chu’s mount. It should be even stronger than the Unending Sea. Yet, the Unending Sea already posed a far greater threat.

It made him feel incredibly unsettled. It was like something was pulling the strings behind the scenes.

Little Fox frowned as she said bitterly, “If it was just the Unending Sea, we wouldn’t need too much to suppress it. However, the traitors are helping the Unending Sea, which is why no one can seal the place. There’s also a supreme being that I can’t defeat. If he wasn’t afraid of Brother Li’s things, I would have been forced to run.”

“The traitors again. What a bunch of rats!” The strong man shouted angrily.

“The Unrivalled really has gone crazy!” The drunkard’s tone was very dark. Not long ago, he was almost killed by the Unrivalled. That person crossed the line more and more.

Qin Manyun asked, “Where’s Shi Tuqin?”

Dragin said, “She went with Nuwa to suppress the other areas with the Heavenly Soldiers. For some reason, more and more places are erupting in gray mist.”

Splash!

At that moment, the Unending Sea suddenly started to rise. From the waves, an old hag slowly walked out.

She said in a pleased tone, “Haha, we meet again, drunkard. I bet you didn’t expect me to expand so quickly. A new era is coming. You’ll notice very quickly that everything all of you have done was useless.”

“Drunken sword formation!” The drunkard did not waste time talking as he coldly pointed at his gourd. Wine shot out, forming into blades that shot right at the old hag.

The old hag raised her hand, and the waves shot up to form a vortex in front of her. It completely blocked all the swords. The two forces clashed with each other before disappearing at the same time.

The drunkard's expression stiffened slightly.

With the expansion of the Unending Sea, the old hag got stronger.

Before, he could easily kill the hag. Even though she was able to use the Unending Sea to constantly revive herself, she was still unable to beat the drunkard. Yet, the old hag's skills rose to the drunkard's level.

The strong man and the Undying attacked at the same time, shattering the old hag.

However, she quickly appeared on another wave as she mocked, "Hahaha, you can't kill me."

"Dragin, have you tried using the expert's things to stop the Unending Sea?" Qin Manyun could not help but ask as she thought about how they dealt with the volcanoes.

Dragin nodded and shook her head after that, sighing, "We tried everything we brought with us, but we didn't find anything that could deal with the Unending Sea."

Chapter 960: Door of Wonder

Blackie asked, "Have you tried the soil from the master's backyard?"

Wisdom Soil was able to even bury volcanoes. It should have been a counter to water.

"We did. Wisdom Soil can keep growing, but the Unending Sea's water is limitless as well. The two can't beat each other, but how can we get as much soil as seawater?"

Little Fox shook her head and said miserably.

In the Unending Sea, the old hag smiled coldly as she looked at everyone. She was incredibly calm, knowing that no one could do anything about her.

!!

The drunkard and the others decided to ignore the old hag as well. After all, nothing good would come out of it.

"That's right, where are the traitors?" the Undying suddenly asked.

Little Fox and Dragin shook their heads, "We don't know. They suddenly left."

At that moment, Shi Tuqin flew over from a distance. Cultivator Junjun, Nuwa, and the others from the Heavenly Palace were with them.

They hurried back from the other corrupted places after receiving the news. That was because they did not know what the Door of Wonder was, and why it managed to cause all the traitors to retreat.

“The Door of Wonder?!” The drunkard, the strong man, and the Undying all exclaimed excitedly. Even their breathing grew erratic.

The strong man said in disbelief, “Are you sure you weren’t mistaken?”

Shi Tuqin shook her head, “Absolutely not, they mentioned the Door of Wonder. Do the three of you know what it is?”

“The Door of Wonder has reappeared? I’ve got it, that has to be one of the targets of the traitors!” The drunkard glinted in his eyes as he inhaled seriously.

The Undying said with a heavy tone, “The Door of Wonder is the highest gate between heaven and earth. It is where Wisdom gives its inheritance. Anyone who enters the door will be acknowledged by Wisdom. Wisdom itself will be their teacher, and they’ll be able to learn various Wisdom from within!”

The strong man exclaimed, "The greatest of legends, the Door of Wonder! Countless Years ago, it was something that only existed in legend. Only when calamity befell the world during the last lifetime did it reappear. That was how we knew that it existed!"

Little Fox and the others got incredibly excited as they listened.

It was obvious that the Door of Wonder was a holy land for cultivators. It was an incredibly unique place!

To be thought by Wisdom itself was a terrifying thought. The moment anyone entered the Door of Wonder, their speed of cultivation would increase rapidly. It was hard to imagine!

Qin Manyun raised an eyebrow as she said in surprise, "Seniors, you said that the Door of Wonder appeared in the last life as well?"

"That's right. The Door of Wonder appeared to help stop the corruption."

The drunkard nodded, picking up his gourd and gulping down a mouthful before he said, "During the last lifetime, Wisdom was corrupted and chaos descended. To give the cultivators the power to suppress corruption, the Door of Wonder appeared. We once cultivated within it. Even the Unrivaled did as well. Those traitors are probably cultivating within to increase their cultivation by leaps and bounds. The Door of Wonder is incredibly magical. Any enlightenment you gain inside would be a hundred times more effective!"

Xiao Chengfeng's expression changed as he said, "So you managed to become so powerful because of the Door of Wonder."

The drunkard nodded, "The Door of Wonder pulled up all the cultivators to incredible heights back then. At the same time, it made it so that the gulf between supreme beings was much larger. Even if everyone entered the Door of Wonder, the difference in talents meant that some people saw their power increase by ten times, while some only double their power. In such a situation, even fellow supreme beings were trampled over!"

Cultivator Junjun took a deep breath, "That's terrifying. To suppress the corruption, Wisdom itself had to move."

The Door of Wonder was a hack.

Wisdom itself opened up a hack for everyone in hopes that everyone would suppress the corruption after they got stronger.

No wonder the traitors rushed to the Door of Wonder, leaving everything behind. It was far too alluring.

Yang Jian sighed as he cursed, "What a pity! Wisdom gave up so much, even opening the Door of Wonder. In the end, it got betrayed..."

Saying that, everyone looked incredibly sorrowful.

"If there weren't any traitors back then, the corruption might have been thoroughly suppressed back then..." The Undying sighed and shook his head.

The strong man said seriously, "I can't believe the Door of Wonder appeared again this time. I wonder where it is. If the traitors have gone inside, they'll be incredibly hard to handle in the future!"

The traitors did not have good intentions. If they managed to get into the Door of Wonder again, they would explode in power. That was not something any of them wanted to see.

"Go! We have to go find the Door of Wonder!" Xiao Chengfeng said with resolve.

The drunkard immediately took up his old task, staying back at the Unending Sea to suppress it. The others brought the heavenly soldiers and searched everywhere for the Door of Wonder and the traitors.

Nanan, Dragin, and the others instead brought the Dao-Devouring Dragon back to Fallen Immortal Mountain. They quickly arrived at the residence.

Li Nianfan sat in front of the stone table as he looked at the book in front of him distractedly. Fire Phoenix and Daji massaged him.

It looked incredibly warm, but Li Nianfan's heart was unsettled.

Before, the residence had Qin Manyun, Shi Tuqin, Little Fox, Nanan, and Dragin around. It was always very lively. The sudden quietness made him a little anxious.

When Li Nianfan lived alone, he did not think much about it. However, he suddenly felt a bit lonely when the liveliness was taken away.

Furthermore, as he looked up at the sky, it was dark and gloomy.

Even the sun seemed dimmer.

The sky changed.

They went out to exterminate evil. He wondered if they encountered any danger.

“Big brother, we’re back!”

“Big brother, we brought an amazing animal back. It must taste very good.”

Suddenly, Nanan and Dragin were heard outside. Li Nianfan’s frown suddenly disappeared as a smile appeared on his face.

“Oh,” Li Nianfan opened the door, “welcome home...”

After that, he was stunned as he looked behind Qin Manyun and the others.

There, a massive animal lay on the ground. Its whole body was covered in purple and black scales. The scales themselves glowed, looking incredibly impressive.

Li Nianfan saw many beasts, but never saw anything like that. Furthermore, from its outward appearance, the beast was noticeably an incredible one. It was incredibly majestic, even more so than other dragons!

Most importantly, it was incredibly big. It was the size of a small mountain. That was why Nanan and the others did not bring it into the residence.

He raised an eyebrow, “The standards of your wild game are getting higher and higher...”
