

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 360-364

Chapter 360: Shock in the Chinese Chess World, Lin Fan's 141 Consecutive Wins!

When Lin Fan started the livestream, a large number of viewers quickly flooded in.

“666666666!”

“I’m finally here to watch Brother Fan’s livestream. Ahhh, d*mn, I’ve already seen the news. Gossip is a professional player. He’s going to invite Brother Fan to play Chinese chess with him.”

“That’s right. A professional player’s Chinese chess skills are not comparable to ordinary people. Brother Fan’s winning streak won’t be broken, right?”

“There’s a possibility. It’s not embarrassing for Brother Fan to lose. After all, the other party is a professional Chinese chess player.”

“D*mn, Brother Fan is already very powerful. He’s already at 9-1. It’s very difficult to win against professional Chinese chess players. Even 9-3 players might not necessarily win against 9-1 players. Everyone at this rank is an expert.”

Lin Fan looked at the comments in the livestream and his expression became serious.

He knew that the professional Chinese chess player, Gossip, was very, very good.

However, if he wanted to reach Xia Wanqiu’s father’s level, he had to cross the professional threshold first.

Among professional Chinese chess players, there were strong and weak ones. Gossip could be considered someone that had just stepped into the professional Chinese chess world.

After entering the room, Lin Fan went first.

Lin Fan still chose the central cannon opening. Next, he shifted his horse diagonally from the second to the third column and shifted his pawns across the river. He chose to rapidly advance his pieces toward the center.

Rapid advancement towards the center was a very brave offensive strategy. If the opponent made a slight mistake, they would find a loophole and win this round.

When Gossip saw Lin Fan's offensive posture, he smiled and said, "Lin Fan's level and strength are very high. However, it seems that he doesn't have much actual combat experience in Chinese chess. In that case, it's not impossible to defeat him. As long as I fight steadily and find an opportunity, I might be able to defeat Lin Fan. I shall let Lin Fan experience the strength of a professional Chinese chess player."

Immediately after, Gossip started setting up a true impenetrable defense.

Ten minutes passed.

Lin Fan and Gossip's Chinese chess game entered a stalemate.

The last player who set up an impenetrable defence was Liu Xinyi.

However, Liu Xinyi's defense had not reached the level of Gossip.

When playing against Gossip, Lin Fan felt like he was a hunter.

Gossip was very good at playing defensively in Chinese chess, and he would counterattack at any time.

As long as the attacker made a mistake, the attacker might become the disadvantaged party.

Fifteen minutes passed.

Both of Lin Fan's chariots had been traded with Gossip's.

Most of the other pieces had been traded away too.

Even every pawn had to be fought for. Every piece had to unleash its full power.

Lin Fan and Gossip were in a stalemate.

During the stalemate, Lin Fan had a slight advantage.

However, this slight advantage was not enough to win against Gossip.

“Is this... the strength of a professional player?” Lin Fan said, feeling some pressure.

He could feel that professional Chinese chess players were completely different from amateur Chinese chess players.

When ordinary players played Chinese chess, they would think three or four steps ahead before making their next move, or even seven or eight steps. This was how they operated.

Usually, this also included the ability to calculate. In one move, one could calculate the changes in the other pieces. One could even calculate if one had an advantage and how the opponent would deal with it.

As for professional players, during the midgame, when they made their next move, they could think of the changes ten steps ahead!

This was the powerful calculation ability of a professional player!

If one was not as good as the professional player, they would usually die in the professional player’s trap.

“Until now, there’s no way to completely win against Gossip. If this continues, there’s a high chance it’ll end in a draw,” Lin Fan said.

He had already used all his Chinese chess skills and everything he had learned. Even so, Lin Fan could feel the power of a professional player.

Now he seemed to have entered a whole new realm. All his Chinese chess knowledge was soaring.

On the other side, Gossip was also deeply shocked.

No wonder Lin Fan could obtain 140 consecutive victories.

“So Lin Fan is so strong... He was able to obtain 140 consecutive victories because of his strength.”

“My setup just now would have killed any amateur chess player. Only Lin Fan could dodge my attacks and counterattack.”

“Lin Fan’s strength is indeed extraordinary,” Gossip said.

“However, as a professional Chinese chess player, I can’t lose. Lin Fan, let’s fight!” Gossip said as he focused on this battle.

In this Chinese chess battle.

The tension was building.

Gossip was a professional player.

Lin Fan was an expert with 140 consecutive victories.

In his 141st win, Lin Fan encountered an incomparably powerful opponent.

There was no way out. He had to defeat Gossip to maintain his winning streak.

Not even a draw could be tolerated.

Therefore, Lin Fan had to defeat Gossip. He had to calculate better than Gossip.

Lin Fan would consider every move he made before making a decision.

So much so that every move was calculated to ten steps later, carrying out various changes and killing moves.

Finally... after 20 minutes, Lin Fan found a loophole!

He broke through in one fell swoop!

After finding the loophole, there was an earth-shattering defensive battle with Gossip.

By the twenty-eighth minute, only one of Gossip's pieces was left.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan still had two pawns left. Just the two pawns.

But no matter what,

No matter how many pieces remained, the end result...

Lin Fan had won!!!

Lin Fan had obtained 141 consecutive victories!

At the top of the screen of the Chinese chess software, a full-screen announcement!

[Congratulations to Linfan for winning 141 consecutive victories and defeating Gossip!]

Lin Fan felt himself playing a round of Chinese chess to his heart's content.

This was the charm of playing against a professional player. After 28 minutes of bitter battle, Lin Fan obtained a 141-win streak.

He was the final winner.

Now, he had successfully crossed the threshold of a professional Chinese chess player!

Lin Fan's strength was equivalent to a true professional player!

The livestream was in an uproar.

“He won, He won!!”

“Brother Fan is awesome. No way. The other party is a professional Chinese chess player. Brother Fan actually won against a professional Chinese chess player!”

“Although Gossip isn’t the most powerful person among the professional Chinese chess players, Brother Fan’s strength is obvious!”

“Oh my god, 141 consecutive wins. Who else can stop Brother Fan? Who else?”

[Little Yue’er gave Lin Fan 20 super rockets!]

[Cute little fan gave Lin Fan ten super rockets!]

[Gossip gifted Lin Fan a super rocket!]

The fans in the livestream began to crazily give Lin Fan gifts.

The audience in the livestream was shocked.

The Chinese chess world was equally stunned.

Gossip’s group of experts, Gossip himself, the many Chinese chess experts, and even the entire Chinese chess forum were shocked.

Professional Chinese chess player Gossip had lost to Lin Fan.

Lin Fan had also set a historical record in the Chinese chess world!

141 consecutive wins!

Moreover... with Lin Fan's current strength, even a professional Chinese chess player like Gossip could not stop him!

Chapter 361: The Strongest Challenge!

Gossip said, "I lost. Lin Fan's strength is indeed very strong. His understanding of the various tricks of Chinese chess is already very deep. Whether it's the opening, midgame, or stalemates, Lin Fan has mastered them to a very high level."

"I didn't expect Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills to have reached this level. I admit defeat," Gossip said.

As the group leader, he now knew Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills.

He had lost.

There was also a lot of discussion in the major Chinese chess groups.

"Holy sh*t, isn't Lin Fan a big star? How is he so good at Chinese chess?"

"That doesn't make sense. If even Gossip lost, then we're probably no match for Lin Fan."

"Who could believe that a big star could play Chinese chess directly to the professional level?"

"Who else can stop Lin Fan? We can only invite a more powerful professional Chinese chess player. Perhaps he can defeat Lin Fan."

"I'm so impressed. Lin Fan is awesome. He played Chinese chess live and even won so many consecutive victories. Is this what a genius is?"

"From today onwards, I'm also a fan of Lin Fan. I realize that no matter what Lin Fan does, he can do it very well. It's the same for filming television dramas, singing songs, and now even Chinese chess."

"I have never seen anyone play Chinese chess that well before."

....

Lin Fan was not affected by the comments in the livestream.

He knew that Gossip was not considered too powerful among professional players.

And he and Gossip had entered a bitter battle.

If not for some loopholes that Gossip exposed in the end and how Lin Fan happened to seize the opportunity, it would probably be very difficult for Lin Fan to defeat a professional Chinese chess player.

Now, Lin Fan finally felt the power of a professional Chinese chess player.

However, defeating Gossip could not prove his strength.

Instead, Lin Fan realized that his Chinese chess skills were not very good yet.

If he fought Xia Wanqiu's father like this, there was a high chance that Lin Fan would fail.

In order to obtain Xia Wanqiu's father's approval, Lin Fan felt that his Chinese chess skills had to be improved.

After playing Chinese chess with Gossip, Lin Fan felt that his Chinese chess skills had gone up another level.

Things like chess and Go, even every sport in the sports world, required practice to enhance experience.

Some things were not very useful just by relying on theories. One could only improve themselves in practice.

It was like playing LOL. Everyone knew how to give a few pointers. If either side made a mistake during the game, the audience would spit their food.

In fact, letting the audience fight on their own might make it even more appetizing.

It's useless to talk about strategems on paper. One had to actually engage in playing the game on a deep level.

"Everyone, stop praising me. I don't think I'm very good at Chinese chess yet. I'm still learning and improving."

"Everyone, don't spend too much money on gifts. If nothing goes wrong, today should be my last livestream in a while." Lin Fan smiled.

After all, he was the CEO of Jiaxing Entertainment and he had to prepare to meet Xia Wanqiu's father. Of course he couldn't livestream every day.

After today's livestream, Lin Fan would rarely livestream in the future.

After Lin Fan finished speaking, he started another round of Chinese chess.

Five hours passed just like that.

These five hours were the most exhausting for Lin Fan.

After winning against Gossip, many professional players became competitive.

All the experts in the Chinese chess world knew about Lin Fan.

Therefore, many people chose to play Chinese chess with him. If they could defeat Lin Fan, they would become the first person to stop Lin Fan's winning streak!

Among them were many professional Chinese chess players.

In five hours, Lin Fan played thirty games of Chinese chess.

And Lin Fan had won all of them!

He had not lost a single game. There were no draws at all too.

So far, Lin Fan had won everything!

Lin Fan had already won 171 consecutive victories!

After reaching 171 consecutive victories, Lin Fan had completely imprinted all the knowledge of Chinese chess in his mind.

His Chinese chess skills were also improving rapidly.

As a result, Lin Fan's Chinese chess ability had already risen to a very terrifying level.

Many professional Chinese chess players had been defeated by Lin Fan.

Although these professional Chinese chess players could not be considered true experts,

However, after more than half a year of hard work, Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills finally had results today.

"Ahhh, a 171-win streak. That's awesome."

"Brother Fan will forever be a god in my eyes!"

"Is there really no one who can defeat Lin Fan?"

"I saw several professional players being defeated by Lin Fan."

"Lin Fan even encountered an 8-3 expert just now. Do you know what the outcome was? The expert was killed instantly."

"Lin Fan is not giving the other party a chance at all when playing chess nowadays. He's too strong..."

The viewers in the livestream were completely stunned.

How could someone really be invincible at Chinese chess?

Even professional players would lose.

People weren't machines. They couldn't keep winning.

But Lin Fan had done it.

Lin Fan's achievements shocked the experts of the Chinese chess world.

"Lin Fan has already reached 9-3. No one's ever been this good."

"Lin Fan's potential is too strong, and his Chinese chess skills are very high. Whether it's offense or defense, Lin Fan is too strong. His calculation ability is also so good. When I've only calculated seven or eight steps ahead, he's already calculated more than ten steps ahead."

"It's too difficult to defeat Lin Fan. Unless Lin Fan makes a huge mistake, it's almost impossible to defeat him."

"I've never admired anyone so much before. Today is the first time I've admired Lin Fan so much."

"I can tell that Lin Fan plays Chinese chess to win. He's serious in improving his Chinese chess skills. We have to work hard too."

After winning 171 games in a row,

Lin Fan started his 172nd match and the last match of the day.

When he clicked start, Lin Fan realized that the Chinese chess expert ID of his opponent looked familiar.

The other party's ID was only two simple words: Wang Tianyi.

However, at this moment, the audience in the livestream stood up.

The various experts and professional players of the Chinese chess world came to watch the battle.

Even Gossip personally came, as well as the many experts in his group.

Everyone was in an uproar.

No one in the Chinese chess world could stop Lin Fan's winning streak now.

It was also possible that Lin Fan had never met a strong opponent.

But this one was different.

Lin Fan's opponent was a professional Chinese chess player.

Which, of course, wasn't all that surprising.

What surprised everyone was...

This professional Chinese chess player, Wang Tianyi, was the champion of China's Chinese chess world!!!

Moreover, Wang Tianyi had been the champion of China's Chinese chess world for five consecutive years!

It could be said that he was an unstoppable existence in China's Chinese chess world!

Many professional Chinese chess players were terrified by Wang Tianyi.

Many professional Chinese chess players were thrashed by Wang Tianyi.

The opponent Lin Fan encountered in his 172nd Chinese chess game was the number one player in China's Chinese chess world. He was the champion in China for five consecutive years, Wang Tianyi!

Wang Tianyi, the chess expert that countless people admired and no one could defeat, appeared.

And Wang Tianyi's opponent was the super rookie who had just risen in recent days, Lin Fan.

Lin Fan's 172nd opponent was such a powerful figure.

This time... even Lin Fan, who had maintained a 171-win streak, might lose!

Chapter 362: An Impossible Miracle!

Wang Tianyi's strength was obvious.

Everyone in the Chinese chess world knew about it.

In the Chinese chess world, Wang Tianyi was a legend.

In the past five years, Wang Tianyi had participated in many competitions.

Each time, he was the champion.

As the most important figure in the Chinese chess world, Wang Tianyi's strength and experience were enough to crush other chess experts.

Wang Tianyi was already quite familiar with all the ways to play Chinese chess.

It was no exaggeration to say that if Lin Fan could defeat Wang Tianyi, he would have absolute top-notch skills among the Chinese chess experts!

Although they had only met by chance in the Chinese chess app, this opponent in front of him was the strongest opponent Lin Fan had ever met in his life!

An opponent who might lose if he made even the slightest mistake.

This time, Wang Tianyi made his move first.

“D*mn, Brother Fan has met the Chinese champion.”

“That’s right. Wang Tianyi is the champion and the best at Chinese chess. Many professional players are not Wang Tianyi’s match. I’m afraid Brother Fan won’t be able to defeat Wang Tianyi.”

“I’ve seen top Chinese chess experts of the same level. Even if they tried their best, they could only tie with Wang Tianyi. I’m afraid only AI can defeat Wang Tianyi, right?”

“Brother Fan’s Chinese chess skills are very strong, but the other party is Wang Tianyi. It’s extremely difficult to defeat him. It’s almost impossible unless Wang Tianyi makes a mistake first.”

The audience in the livestream all recognized this big boss.

In the Chinese chess world, just hearing the name Wang Tianyi made countless Chinese chess players feel afraid.

This was like hearing Lu Bu’s name in the Three Kingdoms. Who dared to fight him?

Faced with such a strong opponent, Lin Fan focused.

His opponent in the 172nd game of Chinese chess was extremely powerful.

Lin Fan felt that his current level of Chinese chess hadn’t reached the top level.

There was still a lot of room for improvement.

As for how big the difference was, he would know after playing Chinese chess.

Whether Wang Tianyi would be serious or not, Lin Fan was already serious about this round.

In another livestream, Wang Tianyi was focused on talking about chess.

As for his opponent Lin Fan, who had 171 consecutive wins, Wang Tianyi didn't care much.

In terms of consecutive victories, he had never lost in any competition in the Chinese chess world. He did not feel very proud of such results.

In this game, Wang Tianyi took the first move.

The first step was for Wang Tianyi to take over the middle with the cannon and prepare to attack Lin Fan at any time.

Lin Fan's response was to shift his horse diagonally from the second to the third column to defend.

In a short period of time, both parties completed their opening moves.

Wang Tianyi smiled and said, "This ID... I think he's called Lin Fan. His level should be pretty good. I haven't met a strong opponent in this app. I finally met one today."

Then, the two sides started playing chess.

Wang Tianyi attacked fiercely.

Lin Fan could only choose to defend.

Ten minutes later, the battle between the two sides had reached a stalemate.

Now, it was even more of a test of their abilities.

Lin Fan felt like he couldn't breathe.

Wang Tianyi was indeed the champion of Chinese chess for five consecutive years. The suppression of his attacks made Lin Fan feel immense pressure.

Furthermore, when Wang Tianyi made his next move, he could already predict 15 steps away.

In fact, if Lin Fan took any wrong step, Wang Tianyi could expand his advantage and defeat Lin Fan in the end to obtain the final victory.

When it came to the middle game, it tested both parties' abilities.

The middle game was also the best at distinguishing how profound a player's ability was.

If it was a normal opening, many amateur players would have a certain pattern. There were only a few variations to the opening of Chinese chess.

The changes after the middle game were the most frequent and also the most testing of one's planning ability.

Faced with such pressure, Lin Fan chose to defend and look for an opportunity.

In the livestream, Lin Fan was no longer chatting happily. Instead, he was focused on calculating every move in the game.

There were still beads of sweat on Lin Fan's forehead.

This was the first time in his life that he felt so much pressure.

This pressure even made Lin Fan's hands tremble.

One wrong step meant defeat.

Lin Fan's mind was also spinning rapidly. All the Chinese chess knowledge in his mind surged and gradually connected into a line.

Lin Fan had already used all his energy to play chess with Wang Tianyi.

He had improved his Chinese chess skills through self-learning.

In the past six months, Lin Fan had filmed four television dramas, built a company, and hired many actors.

The girls like Xia Wanqiu, Su Xiaoyu, and Lin Kexin were all nurtured by Lin Fan.

For the past six months, Lin Fan had been very busy. He had very little time to study Chinese chess, but Lin Fan had still been working hard to learn it.

He did not rely on the system to have his current ability in Chinese chess.

Lin Fan had only played 171 Chinese chess games in total. He had never even lost before. It was said that failure was the mother of success. If Lin Fan lost, he could increase his experience and make his Chinese chess skills stronger.

But now, Lin Fan had not lost a single match and he was asked to fight the number one person in the Chinese chess world, Wang Tianyi.

Half an hour later.

Lin Fan chose to attack Wang Tianyi directly.

In return, he faced Wang Tianyi's exquisite defense.

The pieces on both sides were exchanged.

It was a draw!

A draw!!!

Until now, the match between Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi had ended in a draw.

It was very easy to tie in Chinese chess. As long as they could not attack and the other party did not have any chess pieces to advance, they would be tied.

A draw was very normal.

At this moment, the results of Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi's game were out.

It was a draw!

After the game was over, Xia Wanqiu walked into the room. She held a towel and looked at Lin Fan. "Meow, meow?"

Lin Fan smiled and held Xia Wanqiu's hand. He wiped the sweat off his forehead.

He tried his best and finally reached a draw.

Lin Fan also wanted to win and defeat Wang Tianyi directly. However, there was still a difference in strength.

Xia Wanqiu looked at Lin Fan and smiled sweetly. "It's fine. Wang Tianyi is the champion to begin with. It's already very amazing that you can tie~"

Hearing Xia Wanqiu say that, Lin Fan smiled.

The audience in the livestream was excited.

They hadn't expected Lin Fan to be able to tie with Wang Tianyi!

Even though it was only a draw and the 171st consecutive victory was interrupted, Lin Fan had created a miracle!

In history, only the top Chinese chess professional had fought Wang Tianyi to a draw.

The other professional Chinese chess players were all defeated by Wang Tianyi.

But today, Lin Fan had tied with the top Wang Tianyi.

This was already an almost impossible miracle.

Lin Fan... did it!

Chapter 363: Another Battle With Wang Tianyi!

“Oh my god, Lin Fan is really strong...”

“Wang Tianyi is a legend in Chinese chess. It’s extremely difficult to fight him to a draw. It’s already not easy for Lin Fan to fight him to a draw.”

“Although it’s a pity that he didn’t manage to maintain his winning streak, Lin Fan is already too strong. He can even fight such a strong opponent to a draw. After all, his opponent is Wang Tianyi.”

“That’s right. To be able to fight Wang Tianyi to a draw, I really admire Lin Fan. In other words, the current Lin Fan has already reached the top level in Chinese chess.”

“You should think about it. Even someone like Wang Tianyi can only tie with Lin Fan. Even Wang Tianyi can’t defeat Lin Fan!”

“666666, Brother Fan, forever my idol!”

....

The comments in the livestream flashed across the screen.

The fans were also giving Lin Fan crazy gifts and tips.

Lin Fan’s livestream had already given these fans a huge surprise.

They had watched the livestream for another five and a half hours today, and it was already night.

Lin Fan smiled and said, "I'll stop livestreaming today. I won't be livestreaming Chinese chess in the future either. If I do livestream in the future, I'll inform everyone on Weibo first."

After logging off, Lin Fan heaved a sigh of relief.

He had been playing Chinese chess for so long and was really tired.

On the other side, Wang Tianyi drank a glass of water and smiled brightly.

"This Lin Fan's skill is indeed extraordinary. To be able to obtain 171 consecutive wins, he deserves his reputation," Wang Tianyi praised. He was also a little shocked.

"That's right. Even you can't defeat Lin Fan. Lin Fan's ability is excellent. If he practices more, he will definitely be able to become a top chess player," another top chess player, Hu Weiyong, said.

"No, the current Lin Fan is already a top chess player," Wang Tianyi said.

"You didn't even use 70% of your strength just now, right? If you had used 100% of your strength, you might have..." Hu Weiyong smiled. He knew how powerful Wang Tianyi was.

"Haha, it doesn't matter. It's just a game of Chinese chess, not a competition."

"I'm also looking forward to Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills improving. It'll be good if I can compete with Lin Fan in the competition," Wang Tianyi said. "How about this? Send Lin Fan a professional invitation. There's a professional competition recently. He can sign up and participate in it. Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills will reach a higher level."

Wang Tianyi didn't defeat Lin Fan in his match with him and it shocked the entire Chinese chess world.

Gossip asked in disbelief, "D*mn... really? Even Wang Tianyi can't defeat Lin Fan? They played a game of chess?"

The group members nodded. "Lin Fan is too amazing. I don't even know how he did it. That's Wang Tianyi."

“I feel that Wang Tianyi hasn’t used his full strength yet. If he uses his full strength, he might be able to defeat Lin Fan.”

“Of course. After all, he’s Wang Tianyi. But Lin Fan isn’t weak either. Lin Fan might be second only to him now.”

....

After Lin Fan woke up, he received a message from Wang Tianyi.

Furthermore, he received an invitation to a professional Chinese chess competition.

As the largest professional competition in Chinese history, it was held in Shanghai. The prize money was as high as 1.5 million!

Professional competitions were also the place where one could train their chess skills the most.

There were amateurs and professionals who came to the professional arena to play chess.

Everyone was moving towards the highest honor, the championship!

Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi felt their shortcomings in the battle. He also felt that Wang Tianyi hadn’t used his full strength yet.

It was because of this that Lin Fan felt a little excited.

He did not win against Wang Tianyi this time. He had to win against him next time.

There was less than half a month until he could meet Xia Wanqiu’s father. Lin Fan could make good use of this time.

Lin Fan replied, “Thank you. I also have plans to participate in the competition. I have the time recently.”

Wang Tianyi laughed and said, "That's great. However, if you want to participate in this competition, you have to train well. Participating in professional competitions is different from playing chess on the app. These contestants came prepared and are all very strong. I happen to have a set of chess manuals here. You can study them more if you can't buy them on the market."

Lin Fan's eyes lit up. "Thank you, Brother Wang."

This was why Lin Fan had good interpersonal skills. If Wang Tianyi was willing to help Lin Fan improve his Chinese chess skills, why not?

The moment he spoke, he got closer to Wang Tianyi.

Hearing him call him Brother Wang, Wang Tianyi's smile became even brighter. "Brother Lin, you have to study it carefully. If you have any questions, ask me. I'll get someone to send you this chess manual in the afternoon."

Lin Fan smiled. "It's my duty. I'll study this chess record carefully. You didn't do your best in Chinese chess with me, right? If I can enter the finals, I'll definitely fight you a few rounds."

Wang Tianyi nodded. "Haha, sure. They're all to increase our skill in Chinese chess. Brother Lin, to tell you the truth, I'm already a little old and can't compare to young people. Physical strength and brainpower are very important when it comes to playing Chinese chess. It just so happens that a few scumbags overseas keep saying that their Chinese chess is better than ours. There are also some scumbags who say that Chinese chess originated from their country. They also say that the art of printing and paper making are from their country. The words "Chu and Han River" are clearly written on the board, but they don't acknowledge it."

"These scumbags are very good at chess and are clamoring to challenge us. Therefore, in addition to the bonuses and honor, we participated in this professional competition because we hope to choose a few people to defeat these scumbags from foreign countries and let them know what Chinese chess is."

"Chinese chess only originated in China. This will never change," Wang Tianyi said.

Lin Fan said, "Brother Wang, there should be many Chinese chess experts in our country. Why should we be afraid of them? Let's just fight them."

Wang Tianyi replied, "Those scumbags are very good at Chinese chess. Previously, when they defeated the top five Chinese chess experts in our country, they started to shout that they are invincible. Therefore, you have to train hard. If you have the chance, you might even be able to represent our country and defeat those scumbags."

After Lin Fan heard that, he nodded.

Playing Chinese chess in China could improve one's intelligence, but if some foreigners said that Chinese chess originated from their country, Lin Fan couldn't agree.

Some things came from China and would forever belong to Chinese civilization. They could not be snatched away by foreigners.

In that case, Lin Fan had even more reason to improve his Chinese chess skills.

...

After obtaining the chess manual, Lin Fan studied it seriously for five days. His Chinese chess skills had also undergone a huge transformation.

On the sixth day, Lin Fan participated in this professional chess competition. If he won the championship, he would receive 1.5 million yuan.

After playing chess for three days, Lin Fan had already entered the top eight.

After studying the Chess manual, Lin Fan was invincible.

Even professional players weren't Lin Fan's match.

Two days later, Lin Fan consecutively defeated his opponents in the top eight and top four and rushed into the finals.

In the other half of the competition zone, Wang Tianyi also displayed his might. He defeated countless opponents and entered the finals.

In a total of five days, Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi entered the finals.

And today...

It was the finals between Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi!!

Lin Fan also saw Wang Tianyi and shook hands with him. "Haha, Brother Wang, we meet again. I didn't win against you last time. This time, we have to play a few rounds of Chinese chess."

When Wang Tianyi saw Lin Fan, he smiled in relief. "Alright, I'll tell you first. I won't go easy on you this time."

Lin Fan patted Wang Tianyi on the shoulder. "If you dare to go easy on me, I won't let you. Let's play chess. No matter if you win or lose, I'll treat you to a feast."

Wang Tianyi's eyes lit up when he heard that. "I've long heard that your feast is delicious. Come and play chess. Hurry up and finish your feast."

Under the gazes of everyone, the official battle between Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi in the professional arena had begun!

Chapter 364: Overwhelming Strength

Today was the finals of the Chinese Chess Cup.

It was also Wang Tianyi's sixth year of participating in the Chinese chess competition.

In the first five years, he had won the championship and proven his strength.

This year, Wang Tianyi was still as strong as ever. He had defeated many professional players and reached the finals.

Today's finals would also be broadcasted live and there would be commentators.

As Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi sat together and were about to start the Chinese chess competition, the commentator's excited voice rang out.

“Everyone, today is the finals of the 21st edition of the Chinese Chess Cup!”

“There are a total of two contestants who have entered the finals. The first place is Wang Tianyi, who has been the champion for five consecutive years!”

“Second place is the dazzling newcomer of the Chinese chess world, Lin Fan!”

“I think everyone knows that he created a 171-win streak some time ago and is the first man in China to maintain a 171-win streak. His Chinese chess skills are obvious to everyone!”

“I wonder which contestant you think will win. No matter what, these two contestants will bring us the most exciting competition today!”

“The format of the championship competition is best-of-five. It’s a three-win system. Those who win three rounds first will be the champion of this competition!”

“The champion of this competition can receive a 1.5 million yuan reward!”

“At the same time, it will also represent the highest level of Chinese chess!”

The commentator’s excited voice sounded, clearly happy.

He knew Lin Fan.

It could be said that almost everyone in China knew Lin Fan.

Lin Fan’s popularity, ability, acting skills, every television drama he filmed, and every song he sang received the approval of the audience.

Who would have thought that Lin Fan, who had been doing well in the entertainment industry, would step into the Chinese chess industry and obtain very outstanding results?

Countless comments flashed across the screen of the livestream’s audience.

“666666666666!”

“I can finally watch the competition again and wait for the finals. If I remember correctly, the last time Lin Fan played chess with Wang Tianyi, it was a draw. Furthermore, Wang Tianyi shouldn’t have used his full strength then.”

“That’s right. Wang Tianyi will definitely use his full strength in the finals today. I don’t know if Lin Fan can win, but I feel that Lin Fan’s strength has improved greatly. He might really be able to defeat Wang Tianyi.”

“Not necessarily. Wang Tianyi is the champion for five consecutive years. I feel that Lin Fan is in danger. Ahh, I’m always very excited. I like both of them very much. What should I do?”

...

At the same time, there were many spectators.

There were also many cheerleaders.

Many Chinese chess fans were supporting Wang Tianyi.

In their hearts, Wang Tianyi was an insurmountable legend.

Wang Tianyi’s varied tactics and powerful strength received everyone’s approval.

In the Chinese chess world, almost all the players would admire Wang Tianyi when they heard his name.

Of course, there were also people who supported Lin Fan.

The girl walking at the front was holding Lin Fan’s sign. She was wearing a long white dress. She was a little cute and pretty.

“Ahwooh, Master is going to the Chinese chess finals today. Master will definitely win!” Su Xiaoyu giggled. She looked at Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi’s avatars on the screen and kept cheering.

“Boss will definitely win.” Su Muqing nodded and looked at Lin Fan.

“Needless to say, if Lin Fan loses, he will be the first to be punished.” Xu Yang hugged Lin Jingjing’s shoulder and smiled.

Lin Jingjing was holding Xu Yang’s sign and waving it like a fan.

Xia Wanqiu held a cup of milk tea and sat there quietly, feeling very happy.

If Dad saw this, he would be very happy, right?

Lin Fan had been studying Chinese chess for so long. To be able to reach this stage, she felt proud of him.

Pang Duoduo held the roasted chicken and sat down as well. She chuckled. “Needless to say, Brother Fan will definitely win. It’s just that the roasted chicken is a little delicious. Can you buy another one?”

He looked at Lin Qianwei who said unhappily, “You only know how to eat. If you eat more, you’ll reach 100 kilograms.”

Pang Duoduo touched his fat stomach and took a bite of the roasted chicken. He said aggrievedly, “Sister Qianwei, I want to eat. I’m hungry.”

Xia Wanqiu looked at Pang Duoduo with her beautiful eyes and smiled sweetly. “If you eat more, you’ll really reach 100 kilograms.”

Pang Duoduo finally wilted. She finished the roasted chicken in her hand and even licked the oil clean.

Under the anticipation of the audience, Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi also started their match.

Now that they were playing chess, Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi were very serious.

Neither of them would go easy.

When playing chess, the two of them could not speak to disturb each other.

Wang Tianyi chose to attack first or sharply.

Lin Fan tried his best to defend.

Playing chess face to face, Lin Fan felt the strength of a five-time champion.

Wang Tianyi's all-out attack made it difficult for Lin Fan to resist.

He was too strong.

Lin Fan's forehead was covered in sweat. This was Wang Tian's full strength.

The perfect attack and suppression from beginning to end made Lin Fan almost unable to catch his breath.

Although Lin Fan was also a top chess player, in the first round, he was still killed by Wang Tianyi.

Lin Fan lost the first round.

After losing the first round, Lin Fan drank a glass of water. His confidence didn't decrease.

Wang Tianyi had too many tricks and experiences. Before Lin Fan could react, he was already defeated.

This was Wang Tianyi's true strength.

The commentator also shouted, "Friends, Wang Tianyi won the first round. The score is 1:0!"

“Wang Tianyi used his rich skills, experience, and strength to defeat Lin Fan. He still has the strength to be the champion after five consecutive years. Wang Tianyi is the god of Chinese chess!”

“But this is the best-of-five format. Wang Tianyi only won the first round. It’s hard to say who will be the champion in the end. Let’s rest for 30 minutes now. The second match will begin later!”

“Lin Fan, you have to work harder too. Don’t be completely suppressed by Wang Tianyi. Try to find Wang Tianyi’s loophole. Charge!!!” the commentator said.

According to the plot of novels, after the protagonist lost or got into a disadvantage, he would be mocked by the villain, the audience, the passers-by, and anyone who mocked him and said that he was trash.

But in reality, no one mocked Lin Fan.

After Wang Tianyi finished speaking, he patted Lin Fan on the shoulder and gave him a bottle of spring water.

When Lin Fan was resting, Su Xiaoyu brought him water too.

“Master, you have to work hard. It’s fine even if you lose. Wang Tianyi is very awesome~” Su Xiaoyu looked at Lin Fan.

“I’m fine.” Lin Fan smiled and took Su Xiaoyu’s water.

Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu again.

“Meow, meow, meow?” Xia Wanqiu made a cute gesture at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan smiled brightly and his mood improved.

With so many people supporting him, no matter what the final outcome was, he would do his best to play every game of Chinese chess!
