

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 480-484

Chapter 480: How Can There Be Such A Great Boss In The World?

The next day, the company held a meeting.

Lin Fan gathered all the employees again.

“Everyone, although the Condor Heroes has been released and has achieved good results, what I want to tell you is that this is only the beginning of Jiaying Entertainment’s work.”

“The new movie script has been written. This time, we want to achieve better results than ‘Kung Fu Hustle!’”

Seeing their boss’s determination, everyone was excited.

Following the boss could indeed achieve great things.

After all, Lin Fan was a man who had done everything in every television drama and movie.

“Teacher Tian Zheng, please take a look at the script and make some changes. We can tell everyone the name of our script first. It’s called ‘Dying to Survive’,” said Lin Fan.

“Dying to Survive? What kind of movie is this?” Tian Zheng was a little puzzled. “In the history of domestic movies, there has never been such a movie. It has never appeared before.”

“It’s precisely because such a movie has never appeared in the history of movies in the country that I want to film such a movie. As for the content and essence of the movie, you’ll know after you see the script. When the time comes, you can come up with a satisfactory discussion plan and make detailed changes,” said Lin Fan.

“Alright.” Tian Zheng nodded and took the script. He was the person in charge of all the scripts in Jiaying Entertainment. Although Lin Fan wrote very well, Tian Zheng could sometimes give some good suggestions to modify them.

No one was perfect. Even if Lin Fan had very strong screenwriting skills, he would occasionally listen to his seniors' suggestions.

Lu Benkai asked, "Boss Lin, if you want the new movie's box office earnings to surpass that of 'Kung Fu Hustle', what should we do? The box office earnings of 'Kung Fu Hustle' have only been around for more than ten days, but it has already reached almost 700 million yuan. In the future, the box office earnings of this movie might even reach 1 billion yuan."

Lin Fan smiled. "Even if the box office earnings are only one billion, I feel that the results are average. Do you know how many hundreds of millions the box office earnings of Hollywood blockbusters can be? This is a level that domestic movies can't compare to. Therefore, what we have to do is to strive to catch up to Hollywood first. Then, we can talk about how to surpass Hollywood in the future."

Lu Benkai nodded. "Boss Lin, I understand. Then we will film this movie well. When should we start preparing?"

Lin Fan made a prompt decision. "We have to start preparing now. Filming this movie requires a lot of things and a lot of characters. It's very difficult and there's a lot of work to do. There are also a lot of things to prepare. I'll make a list now. We have to prepare as soon as possible. After we're ready, the movie can start filming."

Lin Fan even looked at Lu Benkai and smiled. "There's a lot of work this time. It's been hard on you guys. You have to prepare a lot of things in advance."

Lu Benkai immediately stood up straight. "Boss Lin, it's my honor to be able to work at Jiaying Entertainment. I will definitely do this job well. I believe that under your leadership, we will definitely be able to film even more classic movies."

After sending Lu Benkai off, Lin Fan looked at Liu Mou.

"Boss Lin, what mission do I have?" Mr. Liu asked. This was someone who had a good relationship with Lin Fan.

"Prepare for the second movie. I've already perfected the script. The second movie is called 'Wandering Earth'. My plan is to film two movies at the same time. As for the television drama 'Wandering Earth', I'll also be a character in it," said Lin Fan.

"Are the two movies going to start filming at the same time?" Liu Mou asked in surprise.

How much courage was needed to start filming two movies at the same time?

If the two movies started filming at the same time, it would be a huge risk.

After all, a company's energy was limited. It was abnormally difficult to film every movie well, let alone two movies starting filming at the same time.

"Yes, Jiaxing Entertainment has a total of two departments. One of the directors is Lu Benkai, and the other is you. You also know many capable directors under you. Now, I've already sent out the script. I believe you've already done the usual company training. For this movie, I plan to compete in our company."

"The final results of the two movies will depend on the box office earnings. Whoever has higher box office earnings and influence will be able to win in the end. Of course, I will also help you direct the two movies." Lin Fan smiled.

Such a bold plan could be said to be unprecedented.

When other entertainment companies made movies, they would have all sorts of entertainment companies competing with them. However, if Lin Fan made a movie, it would be completely different.

Lin Fan wanted to compete with himself!

What a bold idea.

Such a method could encourage everyone in Jiaxing Entertainment to be in a better state and mobilize everyone's enthusiasm.

In Lin Fan's mind, he felt that the script for "Dying to Survive" might be better. However, both movies had their merits.

Now that the script had been written, the most important thing was to do the preparatory work. Without the preparatory work, it was impossible to start filming directly.

“Alright, Boss Lin. I can accept all the missions. I will also arrange for them to be completed!” Liu Mou nodded excitedly.

Activating the competition mechanism in the company would result in a benign development.

Of course, the company’s post-production staff had already recruited many new employees.

These employees were also very capable. It could be said that there were many capable big shots in Jiaxing Entertainment now.

Lin Fan smiled and looked at Xue Kexin. “Xue Kexin, your mission is more important. I’ll have to trouble you.”

Xue Kexin sat in front of Lin Fan and said seriously, “Boss Lin, please instruct me.”

Lin Fan said, “I have a recommendation letter here. It recommends that our company’s post-production technicians go to a company in Los Angeles to learn about post-production technology. Especially the methods to create special effects for Hollywood blockbusters. No matter how elite the domestic staffs are, there’s still a difference between them and Hollywood. What you need to do is to bring them to Los Angeles to learn until they succeed.”

Xue Kexin asked curiously, “Boss Lin, in that case, the post-production of our two movies...”

Lin Fan smiled and said, “These two movies don’t need high special effects. The company has to plan for the long term. Only by learning now can we have something to use when we need it in the future. Do you understand after I’ve said so much?”

Xue Kexin nodded as if she had been enlightened. She felt that she could not keep up with Lin Fan’s progress.

“If you need more money, the company can arrange it for you. The company will give you the best treatment and you can sit in first class. When you go to Los Angeles, you can stay in a five-star hotel. Most importantly, I hope that you can learn something. The company will reimburse you for your school fees, food, accommodation, and transportation. Your salary will be doubled. What do you think?” Lin Fan smiled.

When she heard Lin Fan say that, Xue Kexin was stunned.

Was there such a godly boss? He could directly give double the salary!

Chapter 481: I Actually Really Want to Be Your Girlfriend

It was normal for the boss to treat his employees well.

However, Xue Kexin did not expect her boss to be so good to her employees.

It was simply amazing...

Have you ever seen the company give people first-class seats and five-star hotels in Los Angeles? They were all given the highest treatment.

Damn... even if he was welcoming a big boss, he wouldn't receive such high treatment.

This was equivalent to free training from the company!

After the free training, the company would give her double the salary!

In this day and age, the most important thing for a technician was ability.

As long as one had the ability, they would hire such employees at a high price.

Ordinary companies would not be willing to spend so much money to nurture employees.

Because this way, the employees might directly jump ship, which was very disadvantageous to the company's development.

Ordinary companies would think about how to squeeze their employees dry, but Jiaying Entertainment was different. It was completely for the sake of their employees.

If the employees wanted to leave or if any artiste wanted to jump ship, Jiaying Entertainment would not reject them.

However, the reality was that no matter which company tried to poach them, as long as they were in Jiaxing Entertainment, they would definitely not be willing to go to other companies.

Compared to the conditions of other companies, Jiaxing Entertainment was simply heaven!

Xue Kexin looked at Lin Fan in disbelief. "Boss Lin, are you really giving me twice my salary? I feel like I'm dreaming. You're giving me free training and such a high salary."

Lin Fan smiled. "Double your salary is nothing. You have to remember that what I want is to learn something. If you can't learn anything, you'll only waste your time. Jiaxing Entertainment needs you guys very much in the future."

Xue Kexin felt a sense of mission. Jiaxing Entertainment needed them very much.

She said, "Boss Lin, I promise that I will complete the mission! But there's a problem. Aren't you afraid that the employees will learn something and be poached by their competitors?"

Xue Kexin knew that many entertainment companies wanted to poach people from Jiaxing Entertainment.

Many people had already come to poach her personally, but she had rejected them.

At that time, if a group of staff learned Hollywood technology, how many companies would want to rope them in?

This was unimaginable.

This was also what Xue Kexin was worried about.

Xue Kexin could control herself, but she might not be able to control others.

No one could stop employees from wanting to jump ship.

Lin Fan smiled. "There's nothing to be afraid of. To be honest, if you don't learn anything or if you learn something and jump ship, I won't say anything. I'll transfer a new batch of employees to learn. If the employees jump ship again, I can even invite Hollywood's technicians to Jiaxing Entertainment. I don't think anyone won't go against money."

"I'm doing this because I want to nurture some talents for China's entertainment industry. When I leave the entertainment industry in the future, there will be young juniors who can support this empire. If these employees jump ship, they can also contribute to the entertainment industry."

Lin Fan looked at the scenery outside and smiled.

His current screenwriting and directing skills were indeed one of the best.

However, no matter how strong he was, it was impossible for him to change an era alone.

Lu Xun was amazing. He knew that studying medicine could not save some people.

Therefore, what Lin Fan wanted to do was to nurture others.

Lin Fan didn't want to stay in the entertainment industry forever. He would retire one day.

At that time, without him, China's entertainment industry would still be able to fight.

Xue Kexin was filled with respect.

This was the structure of a big boss.

This was Lin Fan's thoughts.

Indeed... what the big boss was thinking was completely different from what they were thinking.

Instantly, Lin Fan's image in Xue Kexin's heart became bigger.

Xue Kexin felt that she couldn't let Lin Fan down!

Soon, the staff of Jiaxing Entertainment heard the news.

“What? Boss Lin actually wants us to go to Los Angeles to learn technology. We can even stay in a five-star hotel.”

“D*mn, there’s even a double salary. What if I fall in love with Boss Lin?”

“Boss Lin is really too good. No one can compare to him. I feel proud to be able to stay in Jiaxing Entertainment!”

“I heard that after working for Jiaxing Entertainment for ten years, the company will give me a house. What kind of preferential treatment is this? In the future, if someone comes to poach me, I won’t be able to leave. Jiaxing Entertainment is my home!”

Lin Fan asked Xue Kexin to learn technology because he wanted to really promote movies overseas. Some technical things couldn’t be lacking.

After settling everything, Lin Fan called Lin Jingjing.

Soon, Lin Jingjing arrived at Lin Fan’s office.

“Boss Lin.” Lin Jingjing smiled sweetly, her voice still so pleasant.

“Mmm, how’s your English?” Lin Fan smiled.

“It’s alright, I only passed the eighth level.” Lin Jingjing blinked.

“Mmm. It’s indeed not very good,” said Lin Fan.

Lin Jingjing was stunned.

Actually, she was being humble by saying that. It was already quite amazing that her English could reach level eight.

“Jingjing, I want you to follow the most professional foreign language teacher and learn English. So you’ll probably have to study for a few months,” said Lin Fan.

“Huh?” Lin Jingjing looked at Lin Fan in confusion.

“Jingjing, do you know British English and American English? Different English accents are necessary for a voice actor. You can choose to accept this learning mission or not. I won’t force you.”

“One day, our domestic movies will go global. At that time, I don’t want to invite foreigners to dub. Our Jingjing is the most outstanding dubbing actor, that’s why I want to nurture you now. Your dubbing is the most professional among everyone I know. Your voice is also heavenly. No one can compare to you,” said Lin Fan. This was Lin Jingjing’s greatest advantage.

“Boss Lin, Jingjing will definitely learn English well ~ But I don’t have the money to find a professional foreign teacher.” Lin Jingjing giggled.

Lin Fan smiled. Lin Jingjing was still very smart. “Is a million enough?”

Lin Jingjing exclaimed, “There’s no need for so much. I just want 2,000 yuan...”

Lin Fan shook his head. “I’ll transfer you a million yuan. In two months, you have to learn something. Can you do that?”

Lin Jingjing said in surprise, “Of course!! Boss Lin, if you didn’t have a girlfriend, I would actually want to be your girlfriend too...”

Lin Jingjing blushed. She was an artiste and a voice actor.

However, she could rarely be the protagonist, so the remuneration was not high. She was better at dubbing and singing.

Lin Fan laughed. He knew that Lin Jingjing was joking. He couldn't possibly make Xu Yang a cuckold, right?

If he did that, Xu Yang would hang himself.

Lin Fan said, "Alright, do you have any other requests? I can help you fulfill them."

Lin Jingjing blinked. "Actually, money doesn't matter. Can you help me write a song? I really like to sing, but it's always been difficult to write nice songs ~"

Lin Fan nodded. "It's very simple. I knew you wanted this. I've already written it in advance. This song is called 'Courage'. I'll send you the lyrics and music later."

Lin Jingjing stood up, her face filled with joy. To her, money was not important. The most important thing was to have nice songs.

In Jiaying Entertainment, she also found her identity and value.

Now that Lin Fan wanted her to learn, it was equivalent to giving her a brand new door!

From today onwards, she was a brand new Lin Jingjing!

Chapter 482: Testing the Self-Driving Technology

Lin Jingjing was very happy.

She received a transfer from the company. It was a total of one million yuan.

In order to let her learn English, Lin Fan gave her so much money.

He even wrote a song for Lin Jingjing.

Lin Jingjing's voice was very nice and her singing talent was not bad. However, if she wanted to become popular in the music industry, the most important thing was her work.

Because there were too many people with nice voices, it was very difficult to become popular. This was also the reason why Lin Jingjing's career was not that popular.

Xu Yang saw that Lin Jingjing was so happy and smiled. "What are you so happy about?"

Lin Jingjing giggled and held Xu Yang's arm. "Let's go and eat hotpot. My treat ~"

Xu Yang was a little stunned when Lin Jingjing held his arm. "Treat me to hotpot? When did my wife become so generous?"

Lin Jingjing rolled her eyes and looked at Xu Yang. "Hmph, who's your wife? If I don't invite you now, I won't be able to invite you in the future."

Xu Yang: "Jingjing, you want to break up with me?"

Lin Jingjing said helplessly, "Do you think so? Which girl wants to break up with you and still holds your arm?"

Only then did Lin Jingjing explain, "Boss Lin gave me a million yuan and gave me a new mission. It's to learn English and learn the best pronunciation of American and British English. He said that he wanted me to be the most perfect voice actor."

Lin Jingjing took out the message from the bank and showed it to Xu Yang. His heart ached and he held Lin Jingjing's hand tightly. "Jingjing, you don't have to do this. I have money. I can support you."

Xu Yang was a big star in China, but Lin Jingjing was not. She was just a small celebrity who occasionally acted as a voice actor. However, she had many fans, but the money she earned was definitely incomparable to Xu Yang's.

Lin Jingjing said, "Hehe, I just want to help you share some of the pressure. Who said that women can't earn money? Women have to work hard too. How can we only rely on men to support us? Otherwise, we won't have any family status in the future."

Looking at Lin Jingjing, Xu Yang could not help but clench her hands. He wanted to protect such a girl well.

“How long will you be studying?” Xu Yang asked.

“Mmm... It’ll take at least three to four months. It’s quite difficult to learn English, so I have to work hard. I can’t let Boss Lin down,” Lin Jingjing said. She had always been very hardworking and knew that Lin Fan thought highly of her.

“Your health is important. Take good care of yourself. When you’re studying outside, you have to video call me every day,” Xu Yang said.

“Mmm ~” Lin Jingjing nodded. “Don’t worry, I’ll definitely work hard!”

“It might be a little cold in Los Angeles. Wear more clothes.”

“I know, I know. Let’s go eat hotpot first!”

....

Lin Fan sat in his office, planning his future.

Now, the entire company was operating and earning money every day.

Of course, the scale of Jiaxing Entertainment was not very big yet. It was not enough to rely on this to earn money.

He had previously invested more than seven billion yuan into the company of driverless technology. Now, the company was almost completed.

Just as Lin Fan was thinking, CEO Ma called.

“Boss Ma.” Lin Fan picked up the phone.

“Ha, Boss Lin, long time no see. Let me tell you, the company on the driverless technology is almost done. Now, we’re going to carry out the next step of the collaboration. If this technology can really be done, I can say that I don’t know how much money we can earn,” CEO Ma said with a smile.

“Sure, then you can contact CEO Wang. It won’t be easy for me to do this driverless technology alone,” said Lin Fan. “So my idea is to let Alibaba and Wanda invest together.”

Lin Fan was no longer the Lin Fan of the past. He had a strong mind for business.

Even if there were some things that he could not handle, he still had Su Xiaoyu by his side.

If driverless technology really appeared in the world, there was no doubt that other companies would join forces to suppress it.

It was impossible for Lin Fan to take time out every day to face so many complicated problems. The simplest thing was to share the pressure with Alibaba and Wanda.

Most importantly, it required money to promote driverless technology in the beginning.

Without money, this technology could not be done.

Only when technology was popular could he earn money.

Soon, Lin Fan reached an agreement with the two giants.

As it wasn’t a listed company, Lin Fan first occupied 70% of the shares, while CEO Ma and CEO Wang each occupied 15%.

Of course, to get these 15% shares, Alibaba and Wanda each raised 10 billion.

Lin Fan had the technology and didn’t need to put in funds.

Now that the company’s financing had reached 20 billion, they would have to undergo research and development of the technology and upgrade it. After that, they would have to make many changes, try it out, and submit it for review before they could slowly use it.

It was quite difficult to promote driverless technology completely.

The problems involved in this would even change transportation in the future, change people's lifestyles, and greatly reduce the accident rate.

However, there was a prerequisite. The driverless technology had to be flawless. Once the driverless technology got into a car accident, it would be very difficult to implement it again.

Soon, the company was completely established. A technical team was established and many professional technicians were hired.

To carry out a technology test, they needed a company to work with them.

The first company to work with Lin Fan was Porsche.

Without exception, the cars under Porsche were all top-notch cars on the market.

Although it could not compare to a sports car like Rolls-Royce, only many rich people could afford such a car.

"Boss Lin, choose our Porsche company. Let's do an internal test first. If the car breaks down, you don't have to bear the cost," the CEO of Porsche said with a smile as he looked at Lin Fan.

After all, the current Lin Fan was already a true big boss. He could even be on par with people like CEO Ma and CEO Wang.

In terms of business, Lin Fan had already succeeded.

"Mmm, sure. The company will test it out ourselves first, but there's nothing wrong with the technology. After the test, we'll produce a report. At the same time, we can contact the country and do a small-scale test," said Lin Fan.

The company still had a long way to go if it wanted to earn money.

Perhaps the 20 billion yuan raised by the two companies wasn't enough. However, Lin Fan wasn't too worried about these things.

After being busy for a month, Lin Fan finally heaved a sigh of relief.

This month of work was worth it.

At least the company's matters were finally on the agenda. What was needed next was time.

Lin Fan was not worried about the skills given by the system.

Chapter 483: Su Xiaoyu, Will You Be My Girlfriend?

Lin Fan opened the door of his house in a daze and found his room. He took off his clothes and lay under the blanket.

For the past month, Lin Fan had been very tired.

However, although he was tired, he still gained something.

Lying on the bed, he felt that his side was always soft. Lin Fan didn't care and fell asleep.

When Lin Fan woke up, it was seven in the morning.

Lin Fan realized that his arms were soft and warm.

When he opened his eyes, he saw a beautiful girl.

It was Xia Wanqiu.

"You're awake?" Xia Wanqiu blinked and looked at Lin Fan.

"Aren't I in my room?" Lin Fan asked. He was still hugging Xia Wanqiu, but he was a little puzzled. Could he have entered the wrong room?

"What do you think?" Xia Wanqiu blushed and said softly.

Lin Fan looked at the furniture and layout around him and realized that this was really not his room. He had actually slept in Xia Wanqiu's room.

He chuckled. "It's normal to be too busy and tired. Anyway, I'm just going to my wife's room. There's not much of a difference."

Xia Wanqiu stuck out her tongue and said softly, "I haven't married you yet."

Looking at the girl in front of him, Lin Fan smiled brightly.

Such a life was probably the best.

After finishing his work, he would wake up in the morning and see his lover in his arms.

Unknowingly, Lin Fan had an urge.

This urge was even more difficult to restrain.

After knowing Xia Wanqiu for so long, Lin Fan never felt true joy.

"Wife, I'm almost 26 years old. Look at this 26-year-old virgin life..." Lin Fan said. His hand was already on Xia Wanqiu's back as he slowly reached in.

Lin Fan was looking for the buttons on her bra, wanting to unbutton it.

Xia Wanqiu's cheeks were slightly red. She glared at Lin Fan and quickly sat up.

"It's time for breakfast. It's not good for your body if you don't eat breakfast." Xia Wanqiu slid away from Lin Fan's arms again.

"Ah ah ah..." Lin Fan watched as Xia Wanqiu ran away. He couldn't say anything.

He couldn't force her back, right?

This life...

In the eyes of others, Lin Fan already had countless women by his side.

But only Lin Fan knew that he hadn't become a real man yet.

This was such an important matter, a process of transformation from a boy to a man.

Originally, with Lin Fan's handsome looks, it would be easy for him to do this.

He had been with Xia Wanqiu for almost a year, but Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu were only limited to holding hands and hugging. They rarely kissed.

If he was with Su Xiaoyu, he might even have a child.

This was the difference.

Lin Fan could only sigh helplessly. After waking up and washing up, he saw that Xia Wanqiu had already prepared breakfast.

Looking at Lin Fan's expression, Xia Wanqiu giggled and walked forward. "I still have to work in the day. At night... okay?"

Lin Fan's body trembled and he immediately wasn't sleepy anymore. "Can I really do it tonight?"

Xia Wanqiu blushed and said, "Bad guy."

The breakfast Xia Wanqiu made for Lin Fan was very simple. A glass of milk, a scrambled egg, and two pieces of bread.

For some reason, this day was exceptionally long for Lin Fan.

After Xia Wanqiu finished making breakfast, she went out to work.

Su Xiaoyu was also working outside. Lin Fan was the only one at home.

Lin Fan had already arranged his work and was resting at home.

“How can today be so long...” Lin Fan sighed.

Then, Lin Fan went to the company to take a look and realized that time was still passing very slowly.

To be honest, it was a little strange. In school, there was still one last class before the holidays, but the 45 minutes of this last class were exceptionally long.

And vacation time passed really quickly. Two months of summer vacation passed in a flash.

As for playing League of Legends, there was no need to mention it. After a few rounds of ranking, it would be over in the afternoon.

Finally, the sun set.

Night was coming.

Lin Fan became excited.

Tonight was destined to be the happiest night of his life.

It was also the most ceremonial night.

Just as Lin Fan was looking forward to it, a call came in.

Lin Fan picked up his phone and saw the caller ID: Su Xiaoyu.

Thinking of Su Xiaoyu's innocent smile, Lin Fan couldn't help but smile.

“Are you Mr. Lin?” A male voice answered the call.

Lin Fan’s heart tightened.

“Who are you?” Lin Fan asked, his voice turning serious.

“Hello, Mr. Lin. I’m Doctor Li from Shanghai’s Xihua Hospital. Miss Su fainted when she was in a taxi. It was the female driver who sent Miss Su to the hospital. However, Su Xiaoyu is fine. She just needs some money for treatment. Can you come over and help pay the fees? I saw that Miss Su only had your phone number in her contact list, so I called you,” Doctor Li said.

“What did you say? Su Xiaoyu is unconscious? How is she now?” Lin Fan asked and stood up. The anticipation and excitement in his heart had disappeared.

“Miss Su’s condition is alright, but she hasn’t woken up yet. Mr. Lin, come over quickly.” Doctor Li’s voice sounded.

“Alright, I’ll be there soon.” Lin Fan rushed out. He didn’t even close the door of the villa. He drove to Xihua Hospital.

Chapter 484: Su Xiaoyu, Will You Be My Girlfriend?

When he arrived at the hospital, many people recognized Lin Fan.

However, the hospital gave Su Xiaoyu a special ward.

Looking at Su Xiaoyu outside the window, Lin Fan felt a little dazed.

He remembered that a month ago, Su Xiaoyu was still lively.

After only a month, Su Xiaoyu was lying on the hospital bed.

“Doctor Li, how is Su Xiaoyu?” Lin Fan asked anxiously.

“Mr. Lin, Miss Su’s condition is roughly like this. There’s nothing wrong with her body, but she’s a little weak. Perhaps it’s because she’s been malnourished recently. Coupled with the pressure from work and the coma caused by low blood sugar, although Miss Su is a big star, if she doesn’t pay attention to her diet, this will indeed happen.”

“I personally feel that Miss Su is a little depressed. I feel that she seems to be very lonely and isn’t as relaxed as she looks on the surface. The most important thing for patients is their mental state. Mr. Lin, if you have time, you can spend more time with Miss Su,” Doctor Li said.

“I understand. Thank you, Doctor Li. Can I go in and see her?” Lin Fan asked.

“Of course.” Doctor Li nodded.

Lin Fan entered the room and closed the door. Su Xiaoyu was alone in the ward.

She was lying on the bed with her eyes closed. Her cheeks were a little pale and she was wearing a hospital gown. Lin Fan’s heart ached.

She usually looked lively and cheerful. How could she be so fragile?

Lin Fan felt that he had always ignored Su Xiaoyu.

He had always ignored such a good girl by his side.

Su Xiaoyu had always been alone.

Other than her father, she could hardly find anyone else to communicate with.

Xia Wanqiu usually went to work and Lin Fan was also busy. Who could Su Xiaoyu talk to?

Lin Fan sat quietly in front of Su Xiaoyu and covered her with the blanket. He just looked at her like that.

So Su Xiaoyu was really beautiful.

Even in a hospital bed, she was still so beautiful.

After an unknown period of time, Su Xiaoyu finally woke up.

She opened her eyes and looked around blankly. When she realized that her surroundings were not familiar, she felt an inexplicable fear.

It wasn't until she saw Lin Fan that the fear in her eyes disappeared and turned into surprise.

She sat up and looked at Lin Fan blankly with a silly smile.

"Master, am I in heaven? Hehe, so I can see Master in heaven too." Su Xiaoyu smiled sweetly.

"This isn't heaven," Lin Fan said seriously. When he saw that Su Xiaoyu had woken up, he finally felt relieved.

Su Xiaoyu moved closer to Lin Fan and stretched out her hand. She smiled foolishly. "Master, you're Xiaoyu's heaven. Oh, I don't have a boyfriend. I probably won't have one in this lifetime. Master, can you hold my hand? I want to try how it feels to be held."

Seeing that Lin Fan didn't react, Su Xiaoyu's heart was filled with disappointment. She knew that she wasn't Lin Fan's girlfriend yet. How could she let Lin Fan do such a thing?

"I'm just joking. Master, don't make things difficult for yourself." Su Xiaoyu smiled. She always knew how to comfort herself and give Lin Fan a way out. She slowly retracted her hand. How could she dare to hope for so much?

Lin Fan smiled and held Su Xiaoyu's hand. It was cold and delicate. So this was how it felt to hold Su Xiaoyu's hand.

"Rest a little more. You still look very tired," said Lin Fan with a smile. He held Su Xiaoyu's hand and made her lie on the hospital bed again.

"Mmm ~ Then Master, you're not allowed to let go." Su Xiaoyu smiled sweetly and looked very satisfied. She would only feel safe in front of Lin Fan.

“I’m not letting go.” Lin Fan said in his heart. He really couldn’t reject such a girl. If possible, Lin Fan wanted to tell Su Xiaoyu to be his girlfriend now, but he already had a girlfriend.

Lin Fan was still a little conflicted.

After all, in this society, he could only marry one girl.

Xia Wanqiu was already willing to hand over everything to him, which meant that she really wanted to marry Lin Fan. However, at this critical moment, Lin Fan felt that he seemed to have fallen for Su Xiaoyu again.

Did this mean that he had to choose between the two of them? But... no matter who he chose, Lin Fan realized that he couldn’t bear to leave the other person.

While Lin Fan was letting his imagination run wild, Su Xiaoyu smiled and said, “Then Master, you’re not allowed to secretly do bad things when I’m asleep.”

Lin Fan smiled. “Am I that kind of person?”

Su Xiaoyu shook her head. “Who knows? Men like to look at girls’ long legs. Who knows if Master is right?”

Lin Fan nodded. “Alright, you’re right. I’m that kind of person.”

He lifted Su Xiaoyu’s blanket and looked at her long legs.

However, it was obvious that he couldn’t see her. After all, it was autumn and Su Xiaoyu was still wearing sweatpants. It was impossible for her to wear shorts. However, Lin Fan made a bold move at this moment. He took off Su Xiaoyu’s sweatpants.

Which man hadn’t done a few impulsive things before?

Then... Lin Fan saw long, snow-white legs and...

Su Xiaoyu was frightened. Who knew that Lin Fan would really dare to do that?

However, Su Xiaoyu didn't dare to say anything. She was frightened by Lin Fan's aura.

Halfway through, the adrenaline in Lin Fan's head disappeared.

Damn it, what was he doing?

He was simply a monster.

He had nothing to do with Su Xiaoyu. Even if Su Xiaoyu was his girlfriend, he could not do that.

However, Lin Fan still said, "You're quite pretty."

Su Xiaoyu blushed and looked at Lin Fan blankly. She said fiercely, "Master, you're really a bad person! You... you have to be responsible for me!"

Hearing Su Xiaoyu say that, Lin Fan didn't care anymore.

The rules of modern law made relationships monogamous.

If he only chose one person, Lin Fan really didn't know which one to choose.

The choice was clear now.

Damn it, if he was a man, he would want both of them!

"So be it," said Lin Fan. He made up his mind and rushed forward.

"Master, this is still a hospital..."

"Who cares where we are."

...

Because this ward was special and Su Xiaoyu was also a popular celebrity, she was not seriously ill, so the nurses and doctors did not disturb her.

Five minutes later.

Lin Fan was defeated.

This made Lin Fan determined.

Damn, earning money was a small matter.

The most important thing was to train his body!

Having a good body was the most important thing!

What was the use of just having money?

Lin Fan felt like he had become a man. He had completely transformed.

“Master...” Su Xiaoyu said aggrievedly as she looked at Lin Fan.

“Huh?” Lin Fan smiled and touched Su Xiaoyu’s face.

“Master, I really love you...” Su Xiaoyu smiled happily.

“Then... what’s our relationship now?” Su Xiaoyu looked at Lin Fan and asked.

“I’m sorry, Xiaoyu. I can’t give you such a gorgeous confession or propose to you like that. Therefore, I just want to ask you a question. Are you... willing to be my girlfriend?” Lin Fan asked.

Su Xiaoyu nodded obediently. "Mmm ~ Of course, I'm willing."

After Lin Fan put on his clothes, he helped Su Xiaoyu put on her clothes. However, this time, Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu's relationship had really changed.

Su Xiaoyu was his girlfriend!
