

I Signed-In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning –

Chapter 487 - 490

Chapter 487: I'm Sorry, I've Become A Scumbag (1)

Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu went overseas for two days to shop. It was a relaxing trip.

After that, Lin Fan returned to China.

Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu hadn't informed anyone that they were together.

Only Xia Wanqiu knew.

After all, it was very difficult for anyone in this country to agree to polygamy. Public opinion would not agree either.

However, Su Xiaoyu didn't care about that. To her, being able to be with Lin Fan and live a blissful life every day was what she looked forward to the most.

In the office.

Su Muqing walked in and looked at Lin Fan. She said, "Boss Lin, the company has already prepared all the plans for the two movies. One is 'Dying to Survive' and the other is 'Wandering Earth'. Everyone has agreed on the script for these two movies. Now, we're just short of choosing a role and we can start filming."

It was especially important when choosing a role in every movie.

Especially the two latest scripts, "Dying to Survive" and "Wandering Earth". To Lin Fan, they were both pretty good scripts.

However, no matter how good a script was, it still required the acting skills of an actor to act out this script well.

Otherwise, no matter how good the script was, it would be useless.

"What's the total box office of the movie 'Kung Fu Hustle'?" Lin Fan looked at Su Muqing and asked.

“One billion,” Su Muqing said. “Boss Lin, the box office earnings of one billion have already achieved the best results in the history of movies in our country. No movie has ever achieved such results.”

“Mmm, I know. The box office sales are not bad, but they’re not that good,” said Lin Fan.

It was only a billion yuan at the box office. Compared to foreign blockbusters, it was clearly still a level lower.

Therefore, Lin Fan had to film every movie well. No matter what, he had to strive to break through.

Su Muqing didn’t say anything. She knew that Lin Fan had always been strict with himself.

“Alright, inform them to get ready. For the selection of the actors for ‘Dying to Survive’ and ‘Wandering Earth’, inform the celebrities on this list. If possible, you can invite them to act in this role,” said Lin Fan.

Three days later.

Lin Fan had already decided on the main leads of the two movies.

This time, Lin Fan personally acted as the main lead of “Dying to Survive”. Lu Benkai was in charge of “Wandering Earth”.

No matter how much energy Lin Fan had, he couldn’t direct two movies at the same time.

With Jiaxing Entertainment’s current ability, even without Lin Fan, they could still launch good television dramas and movies.

The standards of all the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment also improved greatly.

After the preparatory work was done, the movie “Dying to Survive” was going to be officially filmed.

When filming a movie, every scene had to be filmed to the extreme. For the sake of one scene, they had to film it a few times until they could film all the characters well.

Every actor had a unique makeup artist.

Lin Fan’s makeup artist was a beautiful 18-year-old girl born in the 2000s. Her name was Tang Kexin. Because of her outstanding ability, she was chosen to work at Jiaxing Entertainment.

“Boss Lin, I didn’t expect you to film such a role. In the past, every character you filmed was very handsome, so it wasn’t difficult to put on makeup. Because even without makeup, you’re still very handsome.” Tang Kexin smiled sweetly and continued to help Lin Fan put on makeup.

After all, Lin Fan looked relatively young. As for the male lead of “Dying to Survive”, he had to pretend to be a middle-aged man. The role didn’t need a hunk to act. He had to show many changes in expression and emotions. The requirements for makeup were also very high. This movie didn’t depend on who was handsome but on Lin Fan’s middle-aged aura.

Lin Fan smiled. His eyes were still closed as he smiled. “It’s normal for an artiste, even a big star, to suffer a little in order to film outstanding works. There are no artistes who can succeed without suffering. Such artistes don’t exist.”

Tang Kexin nodded and focused on helping Lin Fan put on makeup. “Boss Lin, in my heart, you’re really a great person. You can film every movie so well.”

Tang Kexin’s eyes were filled with admiration. After all, the person in front of her was the big boss, Lin Fan. At the same time, he was a famous actor and director.

Her mission for the past few months was to stay by Lin Fan’s side and help him put on makeup. She had to be responsible for every scene Lin Fan acted in.

Lin Fan shook his head and said, “No one is born great. Everyone is ordinary. I’m just doing what I can. Isn’t it my job to film a good movie?”

Tang Kexin nodded and was deep in thought. “Mmm ~ I understand. Boss Lin is still so great ~ You have to work hard for this movie too. I’ll definitely go to the cinema to support you!”

Actually, Lin Fan wasn’t very confident.

When he was writing the script, because the system gave him extraordinary abilities, he was quick-witted and everything went smoothly.

But could this movie really become popular? Could it really meet the expectations of the audience?

No one knew that even Lin Fan himself didn’t think that every movie he filmed would be popular. Everyone had to fail eventually. It was impossible for anyone to succeed all the time.

Even so, Lin Fan still chose to believe in his script.

At this thought, Lin Fan felt that the system hadn’t come out for a long time.

Chapter 488: I'm Sorry, I've Become A Scumbag (2)

This had nothing to do with the system.

This was simply because Lin Fan had forgotten to sign in!

Some people even blamed a great and handsome mysterious Creator.

This had nothing to do with the handsome Creator. It was all because of Lin Fan.

“Sign in?” Lin Fan thought about it and decided to forget it.

He did not lack anything now. He filmed a movie and hoped that it would be successful, but he no longer needed to rely on movies to earn money.

However, Lin Fan wouldn't reject something that could earn him money.

It would take a long time for driverless technology to be fully applied. This was not something that could be done simply.

Furthermore, Lin Fan had promised Xia Wanqiu's mother that he would do something in the entertainment industry.

The system: “...”

As a system, this was the first time it had seen such a host. He was too lazy to sign in.

Damn it, were all rich people so arrogant?

This was like a rich person who was too lazy to pick up a hundred dollars on the ground. The system felt that Lin Fan was too arrogant.

“Ding... Due to the host being too lazy, the system will automatically sign in once.”

“Congratulations Master for obtaining the script ‘Ne Zha 2019’. The relevant materials have already been placed in the system inventory. Master can extract them at any time.”

“Note: ‘Ne Zha 2019’ is one of the domestic comics scripts. At the same time, it combines China's traditional culture and deified legends. The prerequisite for filming this movie well is that it requires very strong special effects technology. It's recommended to use it cautiously (If the special effects technology is not up to par, no matter how good the script is, the audience will not accept it).

The system even gave such a comment.

Lin Fan's eyes lit up.

If he knew that the system could give him a script, he would not have bothered writing it.

After spending so much effort writing the script, the system gave him such a good original script.

Especially when he saw the words "domestic comic script", Lin Fan's eyes lit up.

He had already asked Xue Kexin and the others to go to Hollywood to learn about this in advance. If they returned after learning it, it would not be impossible to film such a movie!

Signing in was just a small matter. The filming process was very complicated. Even if there was a script, it would take a long time to film.

Lin Fan silently stored the new script in the system inventory. He wanted to film the script in front of him first.

Tang Kexin smiled and said, "Boss Lin, the makeup is done."

Lin Fan didn't look at it and asked directly, "Is it nice?"

Tang Kexin nodded. "Yes, he's super good-looking. No matter how he looks with makeup, Boss Lin is still very handsome!"

"Haha, you know how to talk. Your makeup is really not bad. I can give you a raise." Lin Fan laughed.

Tang Kexin was really happy when she heard the word increase in salary.

She knew that Lin Fan was very rich, amazing, and generous. She didn't expect her boss to be so generous.

As a makeup artist, her monthly salary wasn't much. However, Tang Kexin was pleasantly surprised to be by Lin Fan's side.

It was really good to follow a rich boss!

Of course, Lin Fan's salary increase was just a casual increase.

After all, these costs could be considered in his rebate.

Increasing employees' salaries could also make them happy.

At the same time, it could allow him to earn more money. Why not?

As long as it met the system's rules, he could increase his employees' salaries, but he could not increase their salaries for no reason. That would not conform to the system's rules.

For example, if Tang Kexin put on good makeup, it was only right to increase her salary.

After putting on her makeup, she prepared to start filming.

A girl walked to the film crew and pushed open the makeup artist's door.

Ordinary girls naturally didn't have such authority. Even actors couldn't enter Lin Fan's dressing room for no reason.

Xia Wanqiu was here.

She walked in and stuck her head out. She held two cups of hot milk tea and looked at Lin Fan.

Seeing Lin Fan's makeup, Xia Wanqiu couldn't help but smile beautifully.

"Hehehe..." Xia Wanqiu laughed.

"Doesn't it look good?" When Lin Fan saw Xia Wanqiu, he stood up and walked forward.

"I just want to laugh for a while. To others, Lin Fan looks so handsome. So there will be a day when he puts on makeup like this. Here, I'll give you milk tea. The weather is cold, so you have to drink more milk tea," Xia Wanqiu said as she handed the milk tea over.

Lin Fan took the hot milk tea. It still had Xia Wanqiu's warmth and his heart warmed.

The location they were filming was still far from the city center. It would take four hours by car.

If there was a traffic jam, it might take five to six hours to get there.

"Looks like I've really become ugly. Sigh, maybe I'll look like this when I'm old in the future," Lin Fan complained. He looked in the mirror. He had already changed from a handsome man to a middle-aged uncle.

Xia Wanqiu cupped Lin Fan's cheek. "No matter what you look like when you're old, you'll always be the way I like you. You're also very handsome like this."

The film crew was still preparing and the other actors were also putting on makeup. Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu walked along the small path.

There were still people taking photos behind. This was something that couldn't be stopped. It probably wouldn't be long before Xia Wanqiu and Lin Fan appeared on Weibo.

However, Lin Fan didn't care. Anyway, Xia Wanqiu was his girlfriend. He could spread whatever rumors he wanted. Wasn't it normal for his wife to visit him?

"How long have you been sitting in the car?" Lin Fan smiled. As he drank his milk tea, he held Xia Wanqiu's hand naturally.

Chapter 489: I'm Sorry, I've Become A Scumbag (3)

"Five hours ~" Xia Wanqiu said.

"Aren't you tired of sitting for five hours just to see me?" Lin Fan smiled and squeezed the girl's cold hand. His heart ached.

"As long as I can see you, I won't be tired." Xia Wanqiu smiled sweetly and leaned on Lin Fan's shoulder.

The weather was already very cold. Xia Wanqiu was wearing a down jacket. Coupled with the fact that it was quite cold here, Xia Wanqiu's face and ears were a little red from the cold.

"Silly, you're not allowed to do this in the future," said Lin Fan as he covered Xia Wanqiu's red ears.

Xia Wanqiu smiled sweetly. "But I'm willing."

Lin Fan saw that Xia Wanqiu's bag was bulging and took a look.

"Why are there needles? Why are there so many threads here?" Lin Fan asked curiously.

Xia Wanqiu carefully put everything away. She looked at Lin Fan and said, "The weather is so cold now and the temperature is so low. You still have to film a movie. It's very tiring. Furthermore, you have to film it like summer and get drenched in the rain... My heart aches for you."

"But I can't stop you. No matter what you do, I'll support you. Also, your birthday is coming soon, so I want to knit you a scarf and a sweater. Also, can you tell me your parents' figures? I'll knit them a sweater to keep them warm," Xia Wanqiu said.

“Knitting sweaters and scarves? You silly girl, why don’t you knit one for yourself first? Besides, we have money too. We can buy even better scarves and sweaters,” said Lin Fan as he covered Xia Wanqiu’s cold ears.

She was always like this. When the weather was cold, her ears would turn red.

She still remembered that in high school, one day, it was snowing and Lin Fan’s ears were red from the cold. Then, Xia Wanqiu covered Lin Fan’s ears with both hands.

However, her feet were also cold and stiff.

Xia Wanqiu giggled and said, “I know, but I just want to knit one for you. I have to knit a sweater for Uncle and Auntie. This can’t be bought with any amount of money. Besides, I won’t be working this month. I don’t have to work very hard. I can knit a sweater if I save time. I can even save you some money.”

Xia Wanqiu was usually very hardworking at work. She accepted all sorts of endorsements and filmed. She rarely rested.

Such a girl earned a lot of money but was so thrifty.

A sweater and a scarf were not worth much, but Xia Wanqiu was willing to save them.

Even when buying two servings of milk tea, she would ask for the simplest and cheapest milk tea. Then, she would ask for expensive and delicious milk tea. Every time, she would give the expensive milk tea to Lin Fan.

“Do you know how to knit?” Lin Fan asked as he held Xia Wanqiu’s hand tightly.

Xia Wanqiu nodded and wanted to retract her hand. “Of course, I do.”

Lin Fan didn’t let Xia Wanqiu succeed in bluffing him.

He knew that Xia Wanqiu had never come into contact with these things since she was young. Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu’s right hand.

He discovered that there were a few small wounds on her right index finger and a long line had been drawn by a needle. It was still a little red.

“Does it hurt?” Lin Fan asked.

“It doesn’t hurt.” Xia Wanqiu’s hands were held by Lin Fan like this. She looked at him with her clear and beautiful eyes and smiled foolishly as if everything she did was worth it.

“It doesn’t hurt for you, but my heart aches.”

"I'm sorry, I've become a scumbag." Lin Fan lowered his head. He still felt a little guilty. Why would such good girls like Xia Wanqiu and Su Xiaoyu appear in his world?

Now that he wanted them all, Lin Fan felt sorry for these two girls.

Xia Wanqiu giggled. "You don't have to apologize. I agreed to it. That's why Xiaoyu went to your side. Furthermore, you're not a scumbag. You're my boyfriend and also my... lover."

Chapter 490: Filming Completed!

Then, filming "Dying to Survive" took more than three months.

For the past three months, Lin Fan had been filming for more than ten hours a day.

He was the male lead and the most important person in this movie.

Almost every scene had Lin Fan. Therefore, Lin Fan had to film every scene to the best of his ability.

For the past three months, Lin Fan hadn't rested much.

The entire film crew did not rest much either.

In more than three months, this movie was about to be completed.

In the finale, many extras watched the protagonist leave.

Finally, the movie... was completed.

All the filming was completed.

After the movie was completed, no one cheered as usual.

Many people's eyes were moist.

Lu Benkai found a random rock and sat down. His eyes were a little moist. "We're finally done filming. I've never seen Boss Lin work so hard in a movie. This is something I've never seen before."

"This is probably the most engrossed Boss Lin has ever been in a movie. He doesn't really care about his image." Liu Mou smoked a cigarette and exhaled a mouthful of smoke.

“Yes, this is Lin Fan. He always has strict requirements for himself. Who would have thought that as a big star, he has to film more than ten movie scenes a day. He has to film a scene repeatedly. The movie ‘Dying to Survive’ was filmed really well. I’ve never seen anyone who can set the plot of the movie so well. To be honest, I’m very touched after filming this movie.” Lu Benkai sighed.

After all, the movie “Dying to Survive” did not have many funny scenes. Most importantly, this movie could directly touch the hearts of all the audience.

Many cancer drugs were extremely expensive, and most people could not afford them.

Furthermore, this medicine could only maintain the patient’s life.

Coupled with the extremely high prices, countless people would lose their families and sell their houses and cars just to fight against the illness. In the end, they could only leave this world helplessly.

This was the helplessness of humans in the face of illness.

This was the main point of the movie. Every detail could touch the hearts of the audience.

Whether it was the pain of the cancer patient, the male lead’s choice between illegal medicine and legal medicine, or the fact that he had to break the law to save more people.

The change in the male lead and the plot of the movie allowed this movie to achieve its final sublimation.

Furthermore, this movie deeply reflected the change in the male lead. It was even adapted from a real story in reality.

There were no jokes with the usual funny style, but the plot was realistic. People were helpless in this environment, so before the movie was released, the director and the other staff were already teary-eyed.

“This movie is the best movie I’ve filmed in all my years of working. I feel proud to be able to participate in this movie. Although I don’t know what kind of results I’ll achieve after it’s released, I have no regrets about filming this movie,” Liu Mou said with a smile.

“After this movie was released, there were only two outcomes. It was either it became popular or it failed. No one knows what kind of movie the audience likes now. Previously, the style of funny movies was quite good. I thought that Lin Fan would continue with this style, but he chose to film ‘Dying to Survive’ and completely changed the style of the movie,” Lu Benkai said.

Liu Mou nodded. "But Boss Lin is such a person to begin with. Look, when he was filming television drama, it started with the historical drama Joy of Life, then it became the Xianxia drama The Legend of Sword and Fairy, then it became the anti-war drama Drawing Sword, and he even filmed the relationship drama Twenty Your Life On. Later on, he filmed the martial arts drama The Legend of Condor Heroes and The Return of the Condor Heroes. The style of every television drama is changing. Every television drama can be filmed so well, and all the television dramas personally directed by Boss Lin are extremely popular!"

"Boss Lin has already become very proficient in every style of television drama. After he transitioned to film movies, everyone thought that Boss Lin's movies would fail. However, Boss Lin used facts to prove what a legend is."

"Isn't the popularity of 'Kung Fu Hustle' enough to prove Boss Lin's ability?" Liu Mou smiled. He was no longer worried about Lin Fan's ability because Lin Fan's thinking was far ahead of theirs.

"That's true. Maybe 'Dying to Survive' can still become popular." Lu Benkai nodded.

"I heard that 'Wandering Earth' has already been filmed. The script for this movie was also written by Boss Lin. Although Boss Lin wasn't involved, this movie might still become popular," Liu Mou said with a smile.

It was very difficult for movies to become popular.

Even the most famous director could make this movie popular, but not the next movie. The audience's requirements for the movie were also very harsh.

Liu Mou was always confident in Lin Fan. Every movie Lin Fan filmed should be able to become popular.

After the filming was completed, Lin Fan sat on the rock and couldn't calm down for a long time.

This movie was finally over.

After filming the movie, Lin Fan was deeply moved.

He was the director and main lead of this movie. After filming for so long, the feelings he had for this movie were incomparable to others.

To be honest, Lin Fan wasn't too confident that this movie would become popular.

The second half of this movie had always been depressing. There were the deaths of all sorts of supporting actors and the helplessness of the patients in the face of illness.

Reality and oppression filled the ending of the movie.

Of course, there were also many touching parts.

Lin Fan wasn't sure if it would become popular.

However, Lin Fan had already spent a lot of effort on this movie.

It was already May, the end of spring, and the beginning of summer.

A movie that was filmed from winter to spring took a long time.

As for whether it could become popular, that would be up to the heavens.

Lin Fan was wearing a scarf that Xia Wanqiu had knitted for him.

However, the weather was gradually getting warmer, and the scarf was temporarily useless.

"Alright, send the movie to the post-production department. After the movie is completed, you can contact the cinema and release it quickly," said Lin Fan.

"Boss Lin, fast release? Don't you need to promote the movie? After the movie is done, it will take a lot of effort to promote it," Lu Benkai said curiously.

Which movie wouldn't need promotion?

Even if he was a big director, he still had to promote the movie so that the audience would know that such a movie existed.

"There's no need to promote it much. I'll just post something on Weibo," said Lin Fan.

"Leave the publicity to the cinema. Just promote it casually. The most important thing is to release it early."
