

I Signed-In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning –

Chapter 496 - 500

Chapter 496: The System's Farewell Gift Bag

In less than an hour, the news quickly spread throughout the Internet!

The results created by “Dying to Survive” and “Wandering Earth” were world-renowned!

The box office earnings for the premiere of “Dying to Survive” were 320 million!

The premiere box office of “Wandering Earth” was 430 million!

Such results were enough to shock the entire world!

Everyone from Jiaxing Entertainment was pleasantly surprised.

All the employees felt that such a long period of hard work was worth it!

“D*mn, d*mn, I really don't know what to say. Boss Lin is too awesome. Two movies actually created such a historical record. Who can stand this!”

“That's right. This is Boss Lin's awesomeness. I'm afraid no one can compare to him anymore. Such results are getting better and better.”

“Oh my god, the box office earnings for the premiere are already a few hundred million. Doesn't that mean the entire movie's box office earnings will start from a few billion?”

“Boss Lin is too amazing. Only Boss Lin can create such impressive results. I don't even know how to brag anymore. Haha, our Jiaxing Entertainment is awesome!”

...

The employees were celebrating.

Xia Lingling was even more stunned.

Overnight, her fanbase increased by 26 million!

It was just because of a movie that she became popular!

The most important reason was that this was Xia Lingling's first time filming a movie and she had such results.

When filming a movie, there were many things that she did not understand.

But she did not expect the box office sales to be so high.

That day, media reporters immediately came to interview Xia Lingling.

However, Xia Lingling rejected all of them. She had always thought that she was still a student, but she did not expect her popularity to rise so quickly...

The box office earnings of both movies were ridiculously high.

"Lingling, you're really amazing." An Yi sat beside Xia Lingling and smiled.

"Yeah, so awesome..." Mu Qing'er said.

"Lingling, give us your autograph first. I'm afraid we won't be able to get it in the future, haha," An Yi said.

Xia Lingling looked at the two girls and said, "It's all because of Boss Lin. How can I film such a popular movie alone? You guys have to work hard together. You'll definitely become popular in the future. Boss Lin must have his reasons for choosing the three of us in Beijing Film Academy. It's just that we don't understand. I also believe that you guys will definitely become popular!"

An Yi flipped her long hair and smiled. "That's not important. The three of us are already popular and have become big celebrities. As for the two of us, it doesn't matter. I'm proud of you for being popular."

....

Su Xiaoyu, Xia Wanqiu, Lin Kexin, Xu Yang, and Lin Jingjing were all shocked when they saw such results.

They had never thought that Jiaxing Entertainment could create such results.

So far, Jiaxing Entertainment was constantly improving.

And now, Jiaxing Entertainment had already made everyone look up to it!

If this continued, the box office earnings of these two movies would probably be even higher.

When Tang Yuan saw the news from the box office, she felt a little dumbfounded.

“A movie’s box office earnings are 320 million, and a movie’s box office earnings are 430 million. And this is only the box office earnings for the premiere. I thought that Lin Fan’s movie would never be popular again. Who would have thought that Lin Fan’s movie would be popular again? And this time, it’s popular...”

“I’m convinced, I’m really convinced.”

“Lin Fan, I feel like I’ve become your fan too.” Tang Yuan sighed. The pride in her eyes was shattered bit by bit.

He couldn’t compare to a monster like Lin Fan at all.

No matter how hard others worked, they could not surpass Jiaxing Entertainment.

The results created by Jiaxing Entertainment were enough to crush all the entertainment companies!

...

When Lin Fan heard Su Muqing report the box office results, he stood up.

???

The box office sales of these two movies shocked Lin Fan.

This was too exaggerated...

Although he was very focused and tried his best to film a movie, he did not expect to get such results.

It was already so popular now. It was equivalent to Lin Fan earning hundreds of millions every day.

In that case... Lin Fan was really rich!

“Got it.” Lin Fan nodded and pretended to be calm.

Su Muqing did not say anything else and left.

After Su Muqing left, Lin Fan opened the system interface.

Now, there were still two Critical Hit Consumption Cash Return vouchers.

They filmed two movies and both were successfully screened.

Some of the costs of the two movies added up to 200 million.

If he made a critical hit, who knew how many times he could get.

“Ding... used Critical Hit Return Card successfully.”

“Cost: 200 million. Critical strike return multiplier: 15 times.”

“Congratulations Master for obtaining three billion yuan. As the amount is too big, it will be delayed. Master, please take note...”

Three billion?

Lin Fan's eyes widened.

Such benefits... could only be said to be too awesome!

“Ding... Congratulations Master for becoming a God-level nouveau riche and living the life you want. According to your ability, you no longer need the system.”

“The system is automatically unbinding...”

“The system has been successfully untied. It has given Master a farewell gift bag. I wish Master a happier life.”

“Do you want to open the farewell gift bag?”

Lin Fan thought about it. He really didn't need to rely on the system anymore.

It was true that obtaining three billion made Lin Fan start off very well, but even without the system, Lin Fan could still earn so much money.

“Open it.” Lin Fan nodded.

“The farewell gift bag has been successfully opened. I'll give Master a mature 5G technology, 3 all-purpose medicine, and top medical technology. (With the current medical technology of humans, you can't treat terminal illnesses like cancer and AIDS. With this medical technology, you can completely improve medical technology, including blueprints, methods of use, procedures, and many other details.)

“Although Master's creative ability has reached its peak, Master will be given a movie called Titanic. Master can adapt it yourself.”

The system's voice sounded.

Seeing so many rewards, Lin Fan started to doubt his life.

If these rewards were spread out, it would shock the world!

As long as top medical technology could cure any terminal illness, he might be able to win a Nobel Prize!

There was also a top movie.

Until now, Lin Fan had already received two movies from the system. One was Ne Zha 2019 and the other was the Titanic.

The production process, script, and other details of the two movies had been completed.

And now, the system was about to leave.

“There won’t be a system in the future, right?” Lin Fan said.

“The system will automatically stay dormant. I wish Master a happy and healthy future.”

With that, Lin Fan could no longer sense the system.

Chapter 497: Lin Fan Is Rich!

After the system went into hibernation, Lin Fan couldn’t contact it anymore.

However, the system was right. He did not need it much anymore.

He should live an independent and happy life.

Just like that...

Forty days later, the box office results of “Dying to Survive” and “Wandering Earth” were out.

Jiaxing Entertainment also held a grand press conference.

The entire Internet was cheering for this moment.

As the boss, Lin Fan didn’t choose to appear.

Lin Fan rejected her with the excuse that he was busy with work. Now, Jiaxing Entertainment had already nurtured batch after batch of talents.

Even if Lin Fan didn’t do it personally, these people could still film a good movie.

At the press conference was the female lead of “Wandering Earth”, Xia Lingling, Director Lu Benkai, Liu Mou, Su Muqing, and many staff members of Jiaxing Entertainment.

It was also today that the box office sales of the two movies were announced online.

“Everyone, the box office record for ‘Dying to Survive’ has reached 3.07 billion, and the box office for ‘Wandering Earth’ has reached 4.6 billion!”

“Both movies were directed by Lin Fan. Lin Fan created an era and a legend!”

“This is... China’s God of Directing, Lin Fan!”

After the host finished speaking, the entire venue erupted into enthusiastic applause.

Everyone was cheering.

This press conference was also broadcasted live nationwide.

Countless comments floated past.

Countless people were celebrating this moment.

“6666666666666666.”

“Awesome, awesome. The combined box office earnings of the two movies are 7.6 billion!”

“Lin Fan is too amazing. He created top records one after another!”

“Why isn’t Lin Fan at the press conference? I want to see Lin Fan. After all, our Prince Charming is so handsome and awesome...”

A reporter quickly started interviewing Xia Lingling.

“Xia Lingling, the movie ‘Wandering Earth’ that you starred in has achieved considerable results. How did you do it? ‘Wandering Earth’ can be said to have broken the current highest record in the Chinese movie market!” the reporter asked.

Xia Lingling smiled and said, “Actually... I’m just a student at Beijing Film Academy now. It was Boss Lin who personally came to Beijing Film Academy and unearthed a group of newcomers. Fortunately, I was among them. When I first filmed “Wandering Earth”, my acting skills were very bad. It was Boss Lin who taught me from afar, comforted me, and gave me pointers.”

“Without Boss Lin, I wouldn’t be who I am today.”

“The reason why ‘Wandering Earth’ can achieve today’s results is mainly because this is a script written by Boss Lin. With Boss Lin’s guidance and the hard work of all the crew members, I’m just seriously completing my mission.”

“Here, I want to thank Boss Lin and every brother and sister of Jiaxing Entertainment who took care of me. I also want to thank every staff member of Jiaxing Entertainment. You guys have worked hard.”

Xia Lingling said sincerely.

She was already a big star with 30 million fans, and she had recently accepted two dramas.

Jiaxing Entertainment was working even harder to promote her.

But she had always known that she could become a big star because of Lin Fan.

“I once learned an ancient text called ‘Theory of Horses’. There is Bole in the world, and then there are Qianli horses. Qianli horses are common, and Bole is not common. In Jiaxing Entertainment, I’m not that Qianli horse. I’m just a small gray horse. It was Boss Lin who gave me such a chance to reach such a position. Boss Lin is my Bole.”

“Boss Lin, Lingling is sincerely grateful to you for letting me get to where I am today. I will work well in the company in the future and not let you down!” Xia Lingling smiled sweetly.

The audience applauded.

Lin Fan didn’t come, but there were legends about him everywhere.

All the audience understood that it was because of Lin Fan that many big celebrities were nurtured.

Su Muqing, Xu Yang, Lin Kexin, Lin Jingjing, Xia Lingling...

There were too many celebrities who were nurtured by Lin Fan.

After obtaining such results, countless companies and investors wanted to work with Lin Fan.

There were also dozens of companies that wanted Jiaxing Entertainment’s artistes to take on endorsements.

Especially Xia Lingling. There were more than 70 companies looking for her to endorse.

However, in the end, she only accepted seven endorsements.

Jiaxing Entertainment's artistes could not accept any endorsements.

After obtaining such impressive results, the big boss of Jiaxing Entertainment, Lin Fan, didn't even appear.

To Lin Fan, it was naturally good to be able to earn so much money.

It was quite good for a movie to achieve such results.

As for the rewards, Lin Fan couldn't be bothered.

It was the honor of movies to win awards.

Lin Fan didn't care if he wanted these honors or not.

Ever since Jiaxing Entertainment created one legend after another, Lin Fan, this big boss, rarely acted personally or directed.

The staff of Jiaxing Entertainment also had their abilities improved.

Lin Fan only gave his employees two missions.

Preparing to film "Ne Zha 2019" required quite advanced technology and did not require actors.

Furthermore, the filming this time would take a long time to prepare.

The second mission was to prepare for the filming of "Titanic".

"Titanic" was different from other movies. Lin Fan realized that he needed to make a lot of preparations before he could film this movie.

As for the other celebrities of Jiaxing Entertainment, they had all gone to work.

As a big boss, Lin Fan could just lie down and earn money every day. Most importantly, he had to prepare two new movies.

Unknowingly, it was already the end of the year.

A year had passed really quickly.

Lin Fan received many messages.

The dividends from all the major companies had been distributed!

“Brother Lin, I’ve given you the company’s dividends. It’s not much, just over 60 million. Keep it well. The bank will transfer it to you immediately.” Yun Qian sent a message.

“Boss Lin, the dividends from our New Era Lisheng Hotel have also been distributed to you. The annual dividends of 40 million have been transferred to your account.”

Then came the Bugatti, LV, Chanel, Estee Lauder...

Of course, Estee Lauder was Lin Fan’s own company.

“Boss Lin, your dividends from the Bugatti Corporation this year are 460 million...”

“Boss Lin, I’m the chairman of LV. I specially informed you that you can receive your bonus. However, I need you to sign this. Your dividend this year is 1.8 billion dollars.”

“Boss Lin, I’m the chairman of Chanel. Your dividends this year are $1 billion. I can transfer it to your account.”

“Boss Lin, Estee Lauder earned a lot of money this year and has opened up a huge market in China. You’re the chairman. I’ve roughly calculated that you can get 12.3 billion yuan.”

“Boss Lin, I’m Boss Ma. You should collect your dividends from Alibaba yourself. This number is really too big, haha. But it’s not much, only 40 billion.”

Lin Fan received all sorts of calls. Almost all of them asked him to get the money.

Lin Fan did a simple calculation. All the dividends added up to more than 70 billion!

Another three days passed.

Lin Fan realized that he was on the Forbes Global Rich List!

With 100 billion yuan in wealth, he was ranked 100th!

Good lord, Lin Fan was already one of the richest people in the world and was ranked 100th.

Damn... wasn’t this too rich?

Lin Fan smiled.

He only needed to film two more movies before he could perfectly “retire”.

At that time, he could just collect money every day and earn big money.

After that, he could marry Xia Wanqiu and live a happy life with Su Xiaoyu!

Chapter 498: Buy A Car!

At the end of the year.

In a car dealership.

A few ladies from the car dealership were preparing to welcome customers at the door.

There were also some salespeople who were warmly introducing various cars to the customers in the car dealership.

There were also many passers-by around the car dealership, looking at it from time to time.

As the most luxurious car dealership in Shanghai, it had the most customers and the most sales.

Buying a car here, even if it was a luxury car, could be bought without an appointment.

Furthermore, the staff of the car dealership here were very warm to every customer and would definitely not mock or ridicule them. She was an employee of the car dealership and was also poor. Why would she mock and ridicule another poor person?

One of the ladies was called Liu Yiyi, and the other girl was a university student called Hua Qingqing.

Without exception, the two girls were fans of Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu.

As there were no customers, the two girls stood at the door and whispered.

“Sigh, I wonder when I’ll be able to see my Prince Charming. If I can see him, I’ll be satisfied,” Liu Yiyi said.

“F*ck, how can it be that easy? Lin Fan is already a big, big star now. Have you heard? Lin Fan is already on that Rich List? He’s already ranked 100th. He’s the 100th richest person in the world. His net worth is 100 billion,” Hua Qingqing said seriously, a little envious.

“That’s right. That’s a fortune that we’ll have to look up to for the rest of our lives. Qingqing, how good would it be if Lin Fan didn’t have a girlfriend? That way, I can be Lin Fan’s girlfriend. I don’t think I’m bad at being his girlfriend. I can also cook, wash clothes, and have children. Furthermore, I can sleep with my Prince Charming..." Liu Yiyi revealed a fangirl-like gaze again.

Hua Qingqing nodded. "Of course... I can too. I can even be Prince Charming's concubine..."

The two girls blushed.

They were really blushing.

Lin Fan had already become the idol of many people, so it was normal for the two girls to blush.

They all liked Lin Fan very much.

There were simply too many girls who liked Lin Fan.

In the past, before Lin Fan became a superstar, he already had a nickname.

Girlfriend Harvester.

What this meant was that no matter how many girls there were, Lin Fan could make them his girlfriend.

Even if it was someone else's girlfriend, Lin Fan could snatch her over easily.

Many girls liked Lin Fan even if they had become someone else's girlfriend.

There was no other way. This was probably Lin Fan's popularity.

At this moment, Liu Yiyi saw a boy at the door and was stunned.

Hua Qingqing also looked at the boy at the door. Her face turned blank and then ecstatic.

They had seen their Prince Charming, Lin Fan!

And... Lin Fan was really handsome.

How could there be such a handsome boy?

This... they could not take it anymore.

Liu Yiyi and Hua Qingqing were even more excited.

They had just been talking about Prince Charming when he appeared in front of them.

And Lin Fan was the only one who came to the door.

What did this mean? He came to the entrance of the car dealership to buy a car.

“Mr. Lin, welcome!” Liu Yiyi was the first to speak. She immediately stood up straight and bowed to Lin Fan.

“Oh, oh. Mr. Lin, welcome.” Hua Qingqing nodded shyly.

They couldn't believe that their Prince Charming was right in front of them and they could only use one word to describe Lin Fan.

Handsome!

Lin Fan... was really too handsome.

Only those who saw Lin Fan in person would know how handsome he was.

The two girls were both university students. If they were girls from society, they might already be seducing Lin Fan.

“Hello.” Lin Fan smiled and walked in.

“I'm here to look at cars. If there's a suitable one, I'll recommend one,” said Lin Fan with a smile. He didn't put on airs and just walked in. Looking at the two girls, his first impression was that they were pretty good.

“Alright, Mr. Lin. Please come in. Hehe, actually, I'm really happy to see you. You're a big star. I thought I would never see you again,” Liu Yiyi said. She looked at Lin Fan with her beautiful eyes and was as happy as she could be.

“Me too, me too.” Hua Qingqing nodded and looked at Lin Fan.

The two girls' eyes seemed to light up as they looked at their idol.

“There's no need to make it sound so mysterious. Celebrities have to live too. Could it be that celebrities are like turtles hiding at home every day?” Lin Fan said.

“Hehe...” Liu Yiyi was amused.

Hua Qingqing was the same. Her cheeks were red and she didn't know what to say.

At this moment, another large group of people surrounded them. They were all salespeople.

Even the manager of the car dealership was here. After all, Lin Fan was their VIP customer.

The manager immediately bowed to Lin Fan and said, "Boss Lin, welcome. Liu Yiyi and Hua Qingqing are new employees. They're insensible and have neglected you. I'll immediately find the best salesperson to serve you."

Lin Fan frowned. "No need. Just the two of them will do."

The manager nodded and gave the two girls a look. They had to receive a big boss like Lin Fan carefully.

"Alright, let the others leave. Just these two girls will do," said Lin Fan. "Also, I don't like to be disturbed. Don't let a group of people surround me."

"Alright, alright." The manager nodded and bowed before slowly leaving.

Only Liu Yiyi and Hua Qingqing were left.

"Mr. Lin, what kind of car do you want? What functions do you want it to have? Can you tell me? I can match you with the most suitable car," Liu Yiyi said.

"I don't have any special requests. I'm just going back to my hometown to see my parents' car. However, the roads in my hometown aren't as easy to walk on as in the big city. My two sports cars aren't easy to use, so I came here to buy a car suitable for driving on a rural road." Lin Fan smiled. "The price doesn't matter."

Hearing Lin Fan say that the price didn't matter, Liu Yiyi and Hua Qingqing looked at each other.

This was... a tycoon.

If it was an ordinary salesperson, they would definitely promote the most expensive car.

Anyway, Lin Fan was rich. As long as they coaxed Lin Fan into buying an expensive car, their commission would be higher.

However, Liu Yiyi was still different from the other salespeople. She brought Lin Fan to a car and smiled. "Mr. Lin, look at this car. It's a Porsche Panamera."

"The Porsche Panamera is a large sedan. It has a body size of 5199*1937*1428mm and a wheelbase of 3100mm. The Panamera has a power of 2.9T, 3.0T, and 4.0T. It is also matched with an 8-speed dual-clutch transmission. It has a maximum speed of 306 km/h and a maximum horsepower of 550 horsepower. It has a maximum torque of 770 Nm and a 100-kilometer acceleration of 3.8 seconds. Furthermore, the body is very cool."

Liu Yiyi even looked at the manual. It was obvious that she wasn't familiar with it. Looking at Liu Yiyi's nervous expression, Lin Fan smiled.

"Yes, that's it."

Chapter 499: Lin Fan... Is Too Good

"Ah... Mr. Lin, you haven't asked the price yet." Liu Yiyi was stunned.

Was this how someone bought a car?

Although this car was not a very expensive car, it was still a Porsche.

It could even be ranked at the top of the Porsche rankings.

Liu Yiyi had almost recommended one of the best Porsche sports cars.

"How much is it?" Lin Fan asked with a nonchalant expression.

"Let me calculate. I can give Mr. Lin the biggest discount..." Liu Yiyi took out her phone and opened her computer. After calculating carefully, she smiled sweetly. "Mr. Lin can buy this car for 2.25 million."

"Sure, swipe my card," said Lin Fan as he took out his bank card.

"???" Liu Yiyi's eyes were blank as she took Lin Fan's bank card.

Lin Fan... wasn't he going to negotiate?

Ordinary customers would take a long time to negotiate the price of a car.

It was also very troublesome to understand the performance of the car.

It was very difficult to get a real customer.

It was just like selling a house. Sometimes, one might not be able to buy a house even after a month with a client.

"Mr. Lin, aren't you going to bargain?" Liu Yiyi couldn't help but ask.

"This should be your first time being a salesperson. Are you here to work part-time?" Lin Fan asked.

"Mmm..." Liu Yiyi nodded, a little embarrassed. "But I'll try my best to serve Mr. Lin. "

"I don't like to bargain when I buy a car, but looking at how you've been calculating for half a day, I think you've already offered the best price. Also... this money is nothing to me." Lin Fan smiled.

"Thank you, Mr. Lin." Liu Yiyi bowed again, her face filled with joy.

Hua Qingqing also bowed. Both of them were newcomers, but Liu Yiyi was in charge of selling cars.

She didn't fight with Liu Yiyi for a big customer like Lin Fan. She just helped Lin Fan pour tea.

She was just... a little envious.

The manager should be very happy to accept this big order.

Furthermore... the commission for selling this car might even be 10,000.

If she could snatch this order...

Hua Qingqing shook her head. She was very envious of Liu Yiyi, but she did not like to fight with others.

"Mr. Lin, have some water." Hua Qingqing poured another glass of water for Lin Fan.

"What's your name? Which school are you from?" Lin Fan smiled and sat down. Anyway, it would take some time to complete all sorts of procedures. It was more troublesome to apply for insurance. Lin Fan asked Liu Yiyi to help him do it.

"My name is Hua Qingqing. I'm studying in Fudan..." Hua Qingqing said.

"You're going out to work during the holidays?" Lin Fan drank a glass of water.

"Mmm... yes." Hua Qingqing smiled sweetly.

"Then what major are you in?" Lin Fan asked again.

"Management," Hua Qingqing said weakly.

"Is your family poor?" Lin Fan looked at Hua Qingqing's shoes. They were already very old, but they were clean.

"Yes." Hua Qingqing pursed her red lips and lowered her head slightly. She didn't dare to look up. In front of others, she always felt inferior.

Especially in her university, everyone was outstanding and richer than her.

She... also felt inferior.

She usually did not dare to look up. She had been working in the car dealership for a month but had not received a single order.

There was a client who said that he could increase her sales and she had to agree to one condition. That was to go out at night to drink with this client.

She did not know what he would do after drinking.

Hua Qingqing refused.

“Which year are you?” Lin Fan asked again.

“Fourth year.” Hua Qingqing looked at Lin Fan. Her heart was thumping and she was getting more and more nervous.

“Mmm, not bad. How are your usual studies?” Lin Fan asked again.

“It’s alright. I’m not very outstanding,” Hua Qingqing said with her head lowered.

Lin Fan smiled and called the principal of Fudan University.

Don’t ask why Lin Fan had the principal’s number.

Lin Fan had the contact details of all the top universities in Shanghai.

After all, if he filmed a variety show or a program, he might go to these universities and help them advertise.

When the principal heard the name Hua Qingqing, he spoke confidently.

Only then did Lin Fan understand that Hua Qingqing’s professional results... were third in the entire specialization!

Furthermore, Hua Qingqing had received a national scholarship, a principal scholarship, and even published an SCI thesis...

Hua Qingqing still had many certificates. She was already outstanding enough as a fourth-year student.

However, she was short of money and had to apply for a student loan and poverty aid every year.

It was said that commoners would often produce the top scorer. Lin Fan had really witnessed it.

Hua Qingqing was a great girl.

“Lift your head.” Lin Fan smiled. “Be brave.”

Only then did Hua Qingqing slowly raise her head and look at Lin Fan.

Only then did Lin Fan see how stunning the girl in front of him was.

Clean. That little face could be said to be quite beautiful!

Were all the university girls nowadays so beautiful?

“You’re very pretty. Why don’t you dare to look up usually? Is it because you feel inferior?” Lin Fan smiled.

Hua Qingqing didn’t say anything and just nodded weakly.

“Hua Qingqing, although I don’t know much about you, I can feel that you’re very outstanding and humble. You’re ranked third in your major. If you say you’re not outstanding.” Lin Fan knew how difficult it was to get third place in Fudan University.

Some results could not be achieved through hard work.

For example, mathematics. No matter how hard some people tried, if they did not understand it, they did not understand it.

“But with your personality, you’re not suitable for sales,” said Lin Fan. “If you want to earn money part-time, I’ll give you an internship slot. You can intern at Alibaba and earn 20,000+ a month. Of course, the subsequent income will be determined by your ability.”

“Of course, if you want to be a big star, I can nurture you too. You’re such a beautiful girl. It’s not a big problem for you to be a big star. If you can become popular, it’s possible for you to earn tens of millions a year.” Lin Fan laughed.

He felt that Hua Qingqing was not bad. If he nurtured her, she could become a good employee under him in the future.

After all, his driverless technology company was about to open. It was naturally best to let Hua Qingqing intern at Alibaba for a while.

At that time, she would be transferred to his company.

After all, it was better to leave the company to his trusted aides. Su Muqing alone could not handle it.

If one was not a trusted aide, one might be taken over. After all, the business battlefield was very complicated and there was a lot of competition.

“Can I really... do it?” Hua Qingqing looked at Lin Fan excitedly. She knew that she wasn’t good at sales, but she also knew how difficult it was to intern at Alibaba.

Not everyone could join Alibaba.

But Lin Fan... gave her such a chance.

He... was too good.

Chapter 500: The Current Lin Fan Is Too Rich!

“Of course.” Lin Fan smiled.

Lin Fan trusted capable people.

This Hua Qingqing looked pretty good on the surface. Furthermore, her grades in Fudan were not bad. She happened to be studying management, but she lacked some experience.

If Hua Qingqing was really capable, it wouldn’t matter much if she became a manager in the future.

To Lin Fan, it was fine as long as the management wasn’t bad. Most importantly, they were loyal.

As a leader, he had to have a basic quality, which was to judge people.

If he raised an ingrate and became a manager, he could even slowly manage it and make Lin Fan a puppet.

He could easily recruit management on the market. As long as he had money, he could indeed hire them.

However, these people might not be as loyal to Lin Fan.

Unless Lin Fan was busy with work in the company, that was impossible. Right now, Lin Fan only wanted to be a hands-off boss who didn’t care about anything. He could just leave the company to the management.

The person Lin Fan wanted to choose was definitely his trusted aide.

Su Muqing was one, and so was Su Xiaoyu.

Lin Qianwei did not have the ability to manage, nor could she do anything too core.

Su Xiaoyu was Lin Fan's girlfriend. Although Su Xiaoyu was indeed very capable, how could Lin Fan bear to let Su Xiaoyu handle these trivial matters?

As for Su Muqing, she was also a good person, but she was too busy with work. She opened a few companies in a row, and no one could handle her.

Therefore, Hua Qingqing was Lin Fan's next target.

If Hua Qingqing was capable and loyal, he could nurture her into his trusted aide.

If she couldn't do it, Lin Fan could nurture others.

Lin Fan walked forward and patted Hua Qingqing on the shoulder. "I'll leave such an important task to you. Don't disappoint me. Go to Alibaba for an internship and combine the knowledge you've learned with practice. It won't take long for you to improve very quickly."

Hua Qingqing nodded and slowly raised her head, revealing her stunning face. "It's not that... I mean, can I... really get such a high salary?"

That was 20,000 yuan a month.

This was only an intern. If he could become an official employee, he would naturally be able to get more money.

As for acting talent and becoming a celebrity, Hua Qingqing felt that she didn't have the ability.

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Is 20,000 yuan a month very high?"

Hua Qingqing nodded. Such a salary was really high...

For an intern to be able to train on a big platform like Alibaba from the start and receive such a high salary was simply the dream of many university students.

"Hua Qingqing, the most important thing is to train your ability. As your boss, I've never liked to brag. As long as your ability is outstanding and you've trained enough in Alibaba, your salary will definitely be higher in the future," said Lin Fan.

"Mmm... Thank you, Boss Lin." Hua Qingqing bowed to Lin Fan. "Boss Lin, I will definitely work hard and not let you down."

“Mmm, from today onwards, you don’t have to work here anymore. There’s a contract here. Sign it first,” said Lin Fan. In reality, Lin Fan had long stored these recruitment contracts and could print them anytime.

After printing it, Hua Qingqing took the contract and saw what was marked in it.

Interning at Alibaba for half a year with a monthly salary of 20,000...

The contract only lasted for a year.

And behind the contract, it was clearly stated that as long as she signed this contract, she would join Jiaying Entertainment for a year.

In other words, Lin Fan could transfer Hua Qingqing away anytime he wanted.

After confirming that there were no other bad treaties, Hua Qingqing signed her name on it.

“Boss Lin, thank you.” Hua Qingqing took the initiative to extend her hand, her cheeks slightly red. For an introverted girl like her, it was already very rare for her to take the initiative to extend her hand to the opposite sex. After all, in her eyes, signing a contract should be like this.

“Mmm, you’re welcome.” Lin Fan smiled and shook Hua Qingqing’s hand. A delicate and gentle touch came. Hua Qingqing gave him a different feeling.

“Boss Lin, can I add you as my contact number? Like my phone number, WeChat...” Hua Qingqing raised her beautiful eyes and her voice became lower and lower.

“No problem. This is my phone number and my WeChat account is also this.” Lin Fan handed his business card to Hua Qingqing.

Soon, Liu Yiyi ran over with her bank card in both hands. It was obvious that she had finished all the procedures.

“Mr. Lin, the paperwork is done. You can take the car and leave now,” Liu Yiyi said with a smile. Compared to Hua Qingqing, she was clearly more lively.

“Are you also a university student?” Lin Fan asked with a smile.

“Mmm, yes.” Liu Yiyi nodded. “Hua Qingqing and I are roommates.”

“Then how are your results?” Lin Fan asked casually.

“Aiya, it’s just so-so.” Liu Yiyi giggled.

“Boss Lin, Liu Yiyi is also in the management department and she has the best results in the entire department...” Hua Qingqing raised her beautiful eyes and looked at Lin Fan.

“I was too rash...” Lin Fan looked at Hua Qingqing and then at Liu Yiyi.

Damn, Liu Yiyi looked even more outstanding than Hua Qingqing.

However, Liu Yiyi’s personality looked more outgoing, while Hua Qingqing looked more introverted.

The two girls had completely different personalities.

However, there was one thing that made him outstanding!

One was ranked first in the entire specialization, and the other was ranked third.

Liu Yiyi giggled and said, “But it’s alright. Hua Qingqing’s professional grades are all A+, a few of her professional grades are A+, and a few of them are full marks. I’m only two points higher than her. It’s alright. Actually, most of the time, she’s the top student in Hua Qingqing’s specialization. It’s just that Hua Qingqing has been working part-time this year and has three jobs. She doesn’t have time to study, so she fell to third place.”

Lin Fan nodded and looked at Hua Qingqing. “You’re not allowed to participate in part-time jobs in the future. Are you short of money?”

Hua Qingqing lowered her head and hummed softly. Her eyes were a little red. “My father has a fracture in his leg and is sick and hospitalized. He needs money...”

Liu Yiyi nodded. “Actually, I’m accompanying Hua Qingqing to work. This way, I can help her earn more money.”

The main thing was that Liu Yiyi knew that Hua Qingqing’s character was not good at sales. However, there were not many places to earn money from working part-time.

Lin Fan said helplessly, “It’s so easy for the two of you to earn money. Your grades are so good. You can totally go out and be a tutor. It’s much more profitable than this.”

“Alright, I’ll go look for your manager first. I want the two of you,” said Lin Fan as he made a call.

Hua Qingqing and Liu Yiyi were outstanding enough, and Lin Fan didn’t lack money. He could nurture them into his trusted aides. Even if he failed, it wouldn’t hurt Lin Fan.

The current Lin Fan... was already too rich!
