

Chapter 12 Not so fast Nadia

Dolly thanked her again and left. Molly and Nadia also left to do their shopping.

Nancy and Lala were shopping in the mall, they have brought most of the items they needed, and were about to go home when Lala's eyes came to the jewelry store that was along the exit hall.

"Nancy dear, let's go and take a look," Lala said. And the two women went inside the store only to find Nadia and Molly shopping. Lala did not look their way instead she took one of the necklaces from the shelves and started admiring it.

"Who do we have here? Lala, so you have finally shown your shameless face in this city again" Nadia said as she came closer to Lala. Nancy quickly came between them.

"What is wrong with you Nadia, aren't you tired of this childish behavior," Nancy said.

"And who invited you to this? Don't you know how to mind your business" Molly asked from behind Nadia.

"Look, Nancy, leave these lost souls, and let's get out of here," Lala said and drag Nancy along with her. However, Nadia pulled her back and came very close to her that she was almost hugging her.

"I will leave you today but don't think you have escaped my problems," Nadia said and let her go. She winked at Molly when their face met. Lala was no longer in the mood of buying anything from the shop. She looked at Nancy and said

"let's get out of here".

And both of them headed toward the door

However, before they could get close to the door, Nadia started screaming

" Thief!!! thief !!. She stole something from the shop"

Two security men stopped Lala and Nancy from going out. The two of them were pushed back inside the store. All the shoppers stopped shopping to watch what was going on. Some of them brought out their phones to video what was going on.

Lala rushed to Nadia at full speed and yanked her hair. She kicked her so hard that she fell on the floor, Lala did not let her go, she pulled her up and was about to punch her when the two security men held her, stopping her from throwing another punch.

"How dare you humiliate me like this?" Lala asked still filled with fury.

"Are you not a thief? What is that thing in your bag if you did not steal something from the store?" Nadia said and cleaned up the blood in her mouth

Meanwhile, Molly has already called up Lucas the moment she saw Lala beating up Nadia.

"Open your bag let's take a look," one of the security men said.

"She stole nothing from the store. Nadia, you know that you are fabricating things " Nancy intervened

One of the security men took the bag by force and pour the content on the floor. There on the floor was a beautiful golden wristwatch that was still wrapped in a transparent nylon.

Lala's eyes opened wider in shock. How did this get into her bag? She tries to get to Nadia, but the two men by her side could not allow that.

Just then her phone rang. However, she was not allowed to pick up the call by the two men that held her firmly. Nancy picked up, her eyes were wet with tears, for the first time in her life she felt worthless and incapable of protecting her dear friend.

"Hello" she answered with a trembling voice.

"Where are you," Elise asked immediately after she picked up

"Elise we are at the Goose mall. Lala is in trouble" Nancy answered

"I will be right there," he said and drove straight to the mall. Someone send the video of what was happening in the mall to him. He felt horrible the moment he saw how Nadia tries to frame up Lala.

The door bust open and Lucas came in, he rushed toward Nadia and she started crying.

"Brother sees what Lala did to me, just because I was trying to stop her from stealing," Nadia said showing her brother the bruises on her body.

Lucas looked at Lala where the security men handcuffed her and sat her down like a common criminal while waiting for the police to come.

Lucas felt disappointed, what has gotten into Lala? Has she gotten to the extent of stealing something? He wondered.

Instantly, Elise came in. He saw Lala in a pitiable condition. He went to her, pulled her up, and hugged her.

"What is going on here"? He asked without looking at Lucas who was suddenly annoyed by his entrance.

"Elise thank God you came, I saw Lala shoplifting, can you imagine that?" Nadia said.

"Oh I see, how did you know that she was shoplifting"? Elise asked.

"I saw her doing it" she replied "

"And when her bag was searched we all saw the wristwatch in her bag" she accused

"Lala tell me what happened," Elise asked. Lala explained everything instantly Elise understood what happened.

"Don't you people have surveillance footage here? Let's find out how the wristwatch entered her bag" Elise said

Sweat broke out from Nadia's face immediately, she started pacing up and down the store.

"What are we waiting for let's go and check it."? Nancy said.

"Brother I am out of here," Nadia said.

"Not so fast Nadia, if I find out that you are the cause of this embarrassment then I will not give you any more money until you apologize to Lala," Lucas replied.

"Where is the control room or don't you people know here"? Elise mocked

The security men led them to the control room and the monitor was checked. The operator saw Nadia picking up the watch and zoomed on it. Nadia put the wristwatch inside Lala's bag and winks at Molly.

Everyone was speechless, especially Lala. She was shocked to discover how deeply Nadia hates her.

Lucas was so disappointed in Nadia. He couldn't believe she could do a thing like this.
