

Chapter 0015

Renea looked at Sophia and sneered. She spoke, "Sophia, being the daughter of the Shane Miller, the voice principle of the academy, did you get in by taking the admission exam?"

As soon as she finished speaking, the whole place was an uproar.

"She is Mr. Miller's daughter? No wonder she is so arrogant from the get-go."

I guess her connection probably got her direct admission."

At first, Sophia was shocked. After all, not many people knew about her identity, so she wondered how Renea discovered it.

However, as she heard the mockery and people pointing fingers at her, Sophia clenched her hands into fists. She looked at Renea and responded angrily, "So what if I am Shane Miller's daughter? I got in with my perfect score. Unlike you, who knew you were the poser, yet still dared to claim your sister's position. And now, you are shamelessly squeezing into Dream High Academy!"

"Sophia!" Kailey stepped forward pulled Sophia's arm and said softly, "Please don't say it like that. Our family is happy to live with Renea."

On the surface Kailey seemed to look as if she was defending Renea, however, inadvertently she confirmed Sophia's words, dispelling doubts for the others.

Sophia retorted indignantly, "Kailey, she is acting shamelessly, yet you still stand up for her. You shouldn't be so kind toward someone as shameless as..."

"Pa!"

Before Sophia could finish her sentence, a loud slap sounded.

The loud sound of the slap shocked everyone.

Sophia covered her face and roared, "Renea Morris, how dare you hit me?"

"Didn't you just said that I am shameless? I am just acting accordingly." Renea said coldly.

Sophia was so enraged that she wanted to fight back. However, Kailey stopped her. "Sophia, don't be impulsive. I don't want you to face any punishment because of me."

Hearing her words, Sophia instantly calmed down. After all, she didn't want to make trouble as soon as she started her academic term. She would have a hard time explaining herself to her mother.

She believed she would have many ways to deal with Renea.

"Renea, Sophia is straightforward person. No matter how carefree you are, you shouldn't have hit her. If you are unhappy with her words, then you can prove yourself. You shouldn't use violence."

Kailey's righteous words had won the hearts of many people.

Sophia looked at Renea and sneered as she said, "She is just a poser. How is she supposed to prove herself?"

"Come here!" Sophia pulled Ria and Tia forward. She said, "You, two, tell us how many marks did poser score in high school?"

Ria chuckled and said, "She had failed every artistic subject and scored a total of 249 marks.”

“She is just a one mark away from the passing mark.” Tia also said and chuckled.

Hearing this, Sophia walked up and smiled proudly, “Renea, what else do you have to say?”

“You wanted a proof, right? Okay, I will grant your wish. Next week is the preliminary exam for the artistic talents. How about we have a little competition?” Renea asked indifferently.

Hearing Renea’s words, the people around looked at her with contempt. They could tell it was a trap, yet Renea was stupid enough to fall for it.

Seeing that her scheme succeeded, Sophia smiled proudly and said, “Alright, but how can a competition be without stakes? If we win, how about you can clean all the bathrooms in the campus? Also I want to slap you back a hundredfold.”

“Deal!” Renea agreed immediately. Then she smirked and said, “Since I have accepted the bet, shouldn’t you also put up some stakes?”

“If we lose, we will apologize to you in public,” Ria said.

Hearing this, Renea sneered. "Isn't this too easy for you? If you lose, you will have to run 100 laps around the playground while shouting that you are the biggest fools in the world. Are you brave enough to accept?" She asked.

"There is nothing I am not brave enough for."
Sophia readily agreed.

Then, Renea took out a pen and paper, wrote down the terms of the bet, and signed her name. Then, she handed it to Kailey and the others.

"Sigh it, lest you guys go back on your word."
Renea said.

Sophia picked up the pen and was the first one to sign her name. Ria followed as the second, and then Tia signed as well.

However, Kailey signed her name reluctantly, looking compelled to do so.

However, the onlookers believed Renea was a clueless fool who had no idea she had fallen for a trap and was sure she would lose the bet.
