

Chapter 0016

After keeping the bet agreement, Renea ordered some food and ate slowly.

"Is this seat occupied?" Stella came over with a plate of food and asked.

"No!" Renea replied without even looking up.

When receiving a response, Stella put down the plate and sat opposite to Renea. Then, she began to size Renea up.

"I must admit, you are quiet something. Even after getting played, you still have the appetite to eat." Stella sneered.

Renea lowered her head and continued eating. She replied coldly, "Why would I torture myself because of someone else?"

"Just a moment ago, you seemingly close friends betrayed you in the blink of an eye. Aren't you feeling angry?" Stella asked.

Stella don't know why but she was extremely curious about Renea's indifferent attitude.

"Everyone follows their own path, and those with different principles don't conspire together. There is no need to get upset." Renea replied indifferently.

Renea's indifference piqued Stella's interest even more.

Then, Stella seemed to have thought of something and said angrily, "Why did you betray me just now?"

"Betray you?" Renea looked at Stella as if she was looking at a fool.

She had no impression of Stella, who had messy braids and heavy makeup. Stella was wearing a black leather jacket with various accessories, giving off an alternative vibe.

"If you don't tell my uncle my hiding place, he wouldn't have found me." Stella said.

The thought of how her uncle had caught her in the act infuriated Stella very much.

Hearing her words, Renea recalled what had just happened, and then the figure of Aron flashed across her mind.

Thinking about that familiar scent coming from him, made Renea frown again.

Stella looked at Renea from head to toe as she asked, "Did you betray me because my uncle is handsome?"

"Boring!" Renea replied coldly and left.

However, Stella chased after her and continued to ask, "Do you think my uncle isn't handsome?"

Renea ignored Stella. She couldn't be bothered to answer these boring questions.

"Do you really not think my uncle is handsome?" Stella repeatedly sought confirmation.

The reason why Stella was behaving like this was because Renea was the first girl, she had seen who was not interested in her uncle. To be honest, it was quite shocking for her.

"Renea!"

Suddenly, a familiar voice interrupted her thoughts.

Looking at Jasper walking towards her, Renea's cold eyes darkened slightly. Then how he humiliated her in the past played in her mind like a video.

In her past life, Renea used to live like a humble clown for Jasper.

However, upon seeing Jasper again, Renea no longer has any turbulence in her heart. Right now the only thing she could feel toward this man was a anger and desire to seek revenge.

As Stella looked at Renea and Jasper, a look of disdain appeared on her face.

'Is she not interested in my uncle because of this guy?' she thought to herself.

'Just a moment ago I thought she was a very cool. But now, it seems that her taste is quite terrible.' Stella contemplated.

"Renea, this is great! We can meet each other every day from now onwards!" Jasper said.

Then he stepped forward and attempted to grab a hold of Renea's hand. However, Renea avoided him.

"Hey, we are not that close!" Renea replied with a distancing demeanor.

Hearing her words, Jasper was stunned.

'Pfft!'

Hearing Renea's words, Stella who was standing beside her burst out laughing. She knew the person she looked up wouldn't have such a poor taste.

"Renea, what's wrong with you? Is it because of your family background? It doesn't matter. Whether you are the real heiress of the Morris family, my feeling for you will never change," Jasper said sincerely.

Hearing his words Renea sneered in her heart. In her past life, it was because of his sincerity that he managed to move Renea deeply.

However, when everyone treated her as a servant and bullied her, he hid behind Kailey and watched the fun.

Renea chuckled, "Is that so? If that's the case, would you willing to give up your current dreams of performing?"

"I..." Jasper didn't know what to say. He certainly wouldn't be willing. He had finally signed with an entertainment agency and was about to debut. Of course, he wouldn't give up.

Seeing him like this Renea scoffed and walked away.

Stella let out a contemptuous glance at Jasper before chasing after Renea.

"Why are you following me?" Renea asked coldly.
