

Chapter 0018

The results for this term's preliminary exam came out three days earlier than usual.

Due to the bet on the forum, the bulletin board was crowded with people.

However, Renea just stood under a tree near the bulletin board with an indifferent expression on her face.

"Aren't you going to take a look?" Stella asked curiously.

"That is unnecessary!" Renea replied indifferently.

Looking at her Renea indifferent attitude Stella had the urge to beat her up, but she controlled herself.

At that moment, Sophia and her group walked over arrogantly. After casting a disdainful look at Renea, they headed toward the bulletin board.

"Renea achieved a perfect score in the artistic examination."

"Wow, it's amazing that she got a perfect score!"

Upon seeing the scores, they all were shocked.

They couldn't believe it in their eyes. How could Renea, who had failed her past exams, would achieve a perfect score?

"That's impossible..." Sophia cried out in disbelief as her face turned pale.

Kailey's eyes also widened in shock as she muttered, "How is this possible?"

Then, the two of them turned to look at Ria and Tia at the same time.

Ria and Tia were shocked by the situation as well.

"Four of you, please proceed to the field to fulfil your bet," Looking at their shocked expressions, Renea walked toward them and said coldly.

Sophia retorted, "You have failed your previous exams! How could you possibly get a perfect score now?"

"The score for this artistic entrance examination is given by all the teachers. What's the matter? Are you trying to back out?" Renea looked at the four of them with her hands folded over her chest and said with a cold smirk.

The onlookers started their criticisms.

"Renea, we were just fooling around previously. You don't have to take it seriously. I apologize to you on behalf of Sophia." Kailey stepped forward and spoke in a soft voice.

It seemed like she was speaking up for Sophia. But in reality, she was shifting the blame entirely onto her while portraying herself as an innocent figure.

Stella sneered, "You guys are going back on your words. I am impressed you guys dare to talk so high and mighty of yourselves.

Renea smirked as she slowly retrieved the written agreement from the last time. "If you are unwilling to fulfil the bet, I don't mind posting this on the school forum, making it a pinned post for four years."

"You!" Sophia was furious.

Renea stopped smiling as her expression darkened. Then, she said coldly, "Are you running or not?"

"Fine, I will run." Sophia left angrily.

Ria and Tia glared at Renea before following Sophia to the field.

Since Sophia and the others had gone to the field, Kailey had no choice but to follow them.

"Wait a minute!"

Before they started running, Renea called out to them and approached them with a megaphone.

"Take this. While at it, don't forget to tell everyone you are the blind fools."

Renea raised her eyebrows slightly and stuffed the megaphone in her hand into the hands of Ria and Ria, "Take it," she said.

Sophia rebuked angrily, "Renea, don't go too far!"

"How am I going too far? You have agreed on it previously," Renea said coldly.

Sophia was angry and annoyed. However, she was speechless and could only start running with the megaphone.

Waves of voices rang out from the field. "We are blind fools!"

Upon hearing the commotion, more and more people gathered to watch the scene.

Renea took out her phone with great interest and captured this scene.

"Renea, that's enough!"

A scolding remark shattered her enthusiasm.

Jasper walked over with a stern expression and admonished, "Renea, how could you do this? Kailey is your younger sister after all. Do you really want to humiliate her?"

"How does it have anything to do with you?" Renea asked with disdain.

"Renea, you have changed so much that I don't know you anymore," Jasper said with distress.

Hearing this, Renea scoffed, "We were never close with each other from the get-go."

"Pfft!"

Stella's laughter resembled an invisible slap across Jasper's face.

"You!" Jasper left angrily and ran towards Kailey.
