

Chapter 0022

Renea looked at Sophia from head to toe. To be honest, she was very curious about the method Shane had used to get his arrogant and proud daughter to apologize in front of so many people.

Seeing that Renea still hadn't spoken, Sophia was enraged. She asked, "Renea, what do you mean? I have already apologized to you. What else do you want?"

"Who said that if you apologize me then I should accept your apology?" Renea snorted coldly.

Stella scoffed, "That's right. If an apology is useful, why would we still need the police?"

"Renea don't be so ungrateful." Sophia said and left angrily.

Stella glared at Sophia's receding figure and asked, "Is this an apology?"

Renea didn't reply to her. She was also curious about the purpose of Shane making Sophia apologize to her.

"Sophia, why did you apologize to Renea?" Ria asked in confusion.

"You didn't do anything wrong. If anyone's at fault, it would be Renea." Kailey said.

Although Kailey was also confused, she did not ask any questions as Ria did.

Tia chimed in indignantly, "Exactly, Renea is a scheming woman. In the three years of high school, she had been hiding her grades and deceiving us. Sophia, you shouldn't have apologized to her."

At the mention of Renea, Sophia was enraged and said, "Do you think I am willing to apologize to that woman? If my dad hadn't threatened to expel me from the academy, I wouldn't have apologized to her."

"What? Why would your dad do that?" Tia asked. All of them looked at Sophia with confused expressions.

Sophia rebuked angrily, "Who knows what Renea has done to him?"

"Did you just see that man? He is so handsome."

"Are you talking about the man who had just exited the vice principal's office?"

"Yes, I am talking about him! I heard Mr. Miller call him Mr. Kingston and was ingratiating polite towards him."

As they were talking, several students walked past four of them while talking.

Hearing that, Kailey frowned slightly.

'Mr. Kingston?'

'Could be that the famous president of the AK Group, Aron Kingston?'

'Could be he the one who made Mr. Miller force Sophia to apologize to Renea?'

'But what is his connection with Renea?' Kailey pondered.

The more she thought about it, the tighter she clenched her fists. Her fingertips turned pale with a hint of hatred in her eyes.

Sophia didn't notice any of it. She looked at Ria and asked, "How is the preparation for your birthday party tonight going?"

"Everything is ready. Don't worry. My birthday party will be wonderful tonight," Ria said proudly.

Kailey frowned and advised from the side, "Isn't this quite inappropriate? After all, we are still students. Going to such places is not a good idea."

"What's the big deal, Kailey? Don't you know Renea used to frequent there during her high school days?" Ria persuaded her.

Kailey hesitated to speak, but in the end, she held back her words. Although she was frowning, it was only on the surface. Deep down in her heart, she was secretly rejoicing.

Moonlight Nightclub.

Upon seeing the familiar shop sign, Renea's lips curled up in a cold smile. She was a frequent visitor here.

With familiarity, she walked up to the door of the private room reserved by Ria and marked 9999. It was one of the most luxurious private rooms in the nightclub, where the minimum expenditure for a night was several thousand or tens of thousands of dollars.

This was not something an ordinary household could afford to splurge on, it was evident that Ria had gone all out.

Upon opening the door, Renea found a lively scene inside. As she entered, the guests stopped smiling and looked at her with displeasure.

The first to show anger was Sophia. She pointed at Ria and scolded, "Why did you invite her?"

"We are all... friends." Ria replied softly.

"Friends? She is your friend, not mine. Kailey let's go." Sophia said as she pulled Kailey and was about to leave.

Kailey held her back and said, "Sophia, don't be like this. Renea and Ria have been good friends since their high school years. Of course, Ria would invite Renea to her birthday party! Can you put aside your past grievances and celebrate Ria's birthday together?"
