

Chapter 0034

When Stella suggested celebrating Renea's birthday today, he agreed without a second thought. It was rare for him to be this enthusiastic.

"By the way, Uncle Aron, you have only met Renea once. How could you develop feeling so here so soon?"

"Is it love at first sight?"

Aron ignored Stella.

"Uncle Aron, you must dismiss this thought. Renea is my best friend. Besides you are already 28 while Renea is only 18. Wouldn't it be a May-December romance?" Stella said in a tone that a concerned guardian might use.

'Renea is my best friend. If she were to marry my uncle, wouldn't that make her my aunt? How awkward it would?' Stella contemplated.

Aron glared at Stella before speaking, "Your eldest uncle just called me yesterday saying he misses you. He asked me to bring you back this week."

"Haha!" Stella immediately put on a pleasing smile. She said, "Uncle Aron, you are handsome and dashing while Renea is beautiful and charming. You two are destined perfect match."

Stella was never a person with principles.

Aron remained indifferent.

Stella continued. "Uncle Aron, I have Renea's contact information. I can give it to you."

Then, without waiting for Aron to offer his phone, Stella handed over Renea's messaging account to him.

'It's just a means of contact, after all. Renea probably won't mind.' Stella thought.

Leon looked at Renea with a courteous expression and asked, "Renea, how did you get to know Aaron and people from the White family?"

"Aron is Stella's Uncle," Renea replied concisely.

As for the White family, she didn't even know how she was connected to them.

"Are you friends with him?" Leon asked tentatively.

Renea acquiesced.

She considered him a friend.

Leon was overjoyed. He said, "Since you guys are friends, you guys should hang out more. Invite him to our home often."

Renea scoffed.

"Renea, with so many people around earlier, I didn't get a chance to give you your gift. Happy birthday!" Dylan handed over a gift with enthusiasm.

Renea reached out to accept it. Upon opening the box, she found a diamond bracelet similar to the one given to Kailey last time. However, this is even more exquisite and presumably more expensive.

Upon seeing the bracelet, Kailey was infuriated. This bracelet was originally meant to be her birthday present. She intended to use the birthday party as an opportunity to publicly humiliate her by giving away the old watch she wore to Renea.

However, she ended up being the clown.

Susan could not contain her anger anymore. Upon seeing how highly Leon valued Renea, she suppressed her fury. She asked with a smile, "Honey didn't plan to announce Kailey's debut today."

"There is no rush for that. Kailey is still in school, so we should prioritize her education for the time being." Lyons said solemnly.

Susan naturally knew that Leon's words were just an excuse. In Leon's heart, Renea had become much more important than Kailey now.

Dylan also said, "Dad is right. Education is more important."

However, after saying that Dylan put on a different expression when he turned to Renea and said, "I will be on set the day after tomorrow. Would you like to come along? There are several veteran actors this time, and the film was directed by a prominent director, Spenser Patel. I can introduce you to them, which could be helpful for you to enter the industry."

Upon hearing Kailey's face flushed with anger.

"Sure!" Renea agreed readily.

Dylan was caught off guard by Renea's response.

"When the time comes, do introduce them to me." Renea left with a smile.

Susan said discontentedly, "Dylan, what are you doing? Look at her indifference, why are you still sucking up to her?"

"What do you know?" Leon berated.

If Spencer were to find out that Dylan's younger sister is Renea, and that they are close, it could be advantageous for Dylan. I know Dylan is currently in a supporting male role. However, if Spencer were to expand his role and give him more screen time, Dylan might attract more attention. With more fans, we no longer have to worry about Dylan not getting any good acting roles in the future."

"Yeah, dad knows me the best." Dylan naturally thought so.

Although Dylan has gained some fans, he was still C- C-Lister. Besides, their company lacked good resources. Dylan wanted to become an A-list celebrity like Richard. Someone with the freedom to choose resources and possessed high popularity.

Leon looked at Susan and warned, "You had better treat Renea better from now on."

"Fine!" Susan responded unwillingly.

Leon cast a cold glance at Kailey before striding away emotionally.

 +5 BONUS

Back in her room, Renea unlocked her phone and saw three unread messages along with a friend request notification.

She first clicked on the unread message.

Richard texted, "Happy Birthday Renea."

"Did you like the birthday present?"

"I'm sorry, Renea. I couldn't get away from work. I will make it up for your next birthday."

Renea finally realized that Zayden was there on behalf of Richard.

She replied, "Thank you."

SURPRISE GIFT: 100 BONUS FREE FOR YOU

 GET IT

Comments

Support