

Chapter 0039

Chapter 0039

"Is that so?" Leon was thrilled. He hurriedly asked, "Did Mr. Kingston share any tips with me?"

"He said that the romantic drama genre featuring male and female lead has reached a saturation point. The audience is showing signs of boredom. Unless the storyline is exceptionally outstanding, it's difficult to capture their hearts."

Leon listened to Renea attentively.

He agreed that the current market did seem to be that way.

Renea looked at him and continued, "There is now a growing trend of Boys' love and the key point is that the majority of these fans are females. I believe you should understand better than me that women are the one who drive the market. If we can capture this market segment, it would be considering groundbreaking."

While listening to her analysis, Leon's eyes gleamed. His mind was already brimming with ideas.

Renea had already noticed his concern and deliberately reminded him, "If we change the male-male leads to a male to female pairing and leverage the power of an established intellectual property it could work."

"Renea, you truly are a devoted daughter to me." Leon praised.

"Devoted daughter?"

'That isn't for who used to say.'

'Since I'm already playing the role of a devoted daughter, I must fulfill that role to the fullest.' Renea pondered.

After returning to her room, Renea smirked coldly. She opened a drawer, revealing an ordinary iron box inside. There was a tiny model fish tank containing red liquid inside it.

The pungent smell of blood was so intense that it was nauseating.

Renea looked at the blood in the fish tank with a grim sneer. Then she tossed a dried fish head into that tank, and it instantly submerged in a blood-red liquid.

****

As soon as Renea arrived, on campus, Stella walked up to her and said, "Renea, do you know that Sophia had gone abroad?"

Renea remained indifferent and didn't seem surprised.

To secure his promotion, Shane would not allow any more unexpected incidents. After the scene Sophia caused yesterday, he naturally would not let her jeopardize his future in Z city.

"I heard about yesterdays incident. You shouldn't have let her off so easily. Now that she is gone abroad there is no chance to punish her anymore." Stella said indignantly.

Renea only responded with a smile.

She had never regarded Sophia highly from the beginning. She believed people like Sophia would get her own into trouble without needing her intervention.

She didn't make a fuss over previously merely to give Clark a way out. At least she could make Clark owe her a favor that she might need him to repay in the future.

"Dylan's new film 'Night of Blooming Flowers', starts filming this week. Would you like to attend the opening ceremony with me?" Renea asked with a smile.

Seeing Renea's mischievous smile Stella grinned slyly. "Sure, why not? If there is a good show to watch, we should certainly go."

They exchanged glances and smiled.

"Renea!" Jasper approaches her enthusiastically with a cup of coffee.

"I got you your favourite cup of coffee!" he said

Stella cast a disdainful glance at him and with sarcasm, "Jasper, don't you feel tired of giving Renea the same type of coffee every day?"

Jasper ignored her and looked affectionately at Renea.

Renea accepted the coffee, expressed her gratitude, and then walked away with Stella. But when she reached the corner, she threw the coffee into the trash bin.

The scene of Renea receiving the coffee from Jasper was witnessed by many, and rumors about them instantly spread.

"Renea sure has no shame. It was clear that Jasper has feeling for you, Kailey. I think she's doing this on purpose." Tia said indignantly.

Kailey clenched her fists tightly. She was fuming with anger but had nowhere to vent it.

She had the same thought as Tia as well.

'Renea had been cold to Jasper previously. But when she saw me getting close to Jasper, she deliberately seduced him.'

'She is doing this to me to make me look bad.' Kailey pondered.

'Renea, I won't let your schemes succeed!' Kailey narrowed her eyes maliciously.

Jasper would give Renea coffee on time every day. As for Renea, she would accept it every time, but throw it into a trash bin in an inconspicuous corner.

****

'Night of Blooming Flowers' started shooting today. Since it was directed by a well-known director and a popular influencer as the leading actor, it attracted massive media attention.

At the scene of the opening ceremony, media reporters from all over Z City gathered.

It was Dylan's first time experiencing such a grand occasion. Even though he wasn't in this spotlight, he was still extremely excited.

Renea and Stella stood inconspicuously outside at the opening ceremony venue while waiting for the ceremony to conclude.

Dylan claimed that he would introduce the director and creator of the TV series to her after the opening ceremony.

As the opening ceremony concluded, it ushered in a large-scale media interview. Most of the media outlets asked questions about the TV series itself and posed some trivial questions to the creators.

Dylan was the least noticed among them. For more than ten consecutive questions, none of them were directed towards him.

Then, a reporter said, "Dylan, I have a question for you?"

Upon getting some attention, Dylan was thrilled.

"Sure, go ahead," he said.

The reporter asked, "There is a recent online article about you, discussing you hooking up with fans and abandoning them afterward. How do you view this?"

There was an uproar in the scene.

"When did this happen?"

Everyone took out their phones respectively.

Dylan retorted, "What nonsense are you spotting here? Who gave you the right to slander me?"

The reporter appeared innocent. "Its already spreading online and there are chat records between you and your fans.”

Chapter 0039

“Indeed, this is quite shocking.”

“What a playboy! He was even involved with multiple people at the same time. That’s crazy!”

The scene was in chaos. No news was available as such an assassination scandal.

The reporters also start confronting Dylan one by one.

“Dylan, what’s the truth behind these. Did such a thing really happen? Or have you been framed by someone?”

“Dylan and peace respond.”

Comments

AD is coming

Support