

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 441

Peggy thought about it for a moment. “Well, Nebula City is a second-rate city that is also out of the way. I don’t think Harvey has any dealings with them.”

“Besides, Four Seas Corporation doesn’t adopt the business model of a traditional entertainment company. They have a complete chain of service, from scriptwriters to directors and even actors—they have it all. That means, if they wanted to produce a movie, they wouldn’t need to partner with too many companies. They wouldn’t even need to cooperate with a film studio. I don’t think they’d take Harvey’s threat seriously.”

Jolene nodded. Peggy paused before continuing. “Do you remember the movie Chasing Elegance?”

Jolene bobbed her head in agreement. “I do. That movie only made half a million at the box office. It was barely a pass.”

Peggy shook her head. “Chasing Elegance may have only made half a billion at the box office, but based on what I know, that same movie made a profit of two billion when it was streaming on Volcano Videos. That’s how crazy the effect of Volcano Videos is. It also proves that Four Seas Corporation doesn’t need the help of cinemas to sell their own movies, and their movies may make even more than they would if they premiere the movies themselves. That’s why I’m going to bet that the only entertainment company in the country that can safely ignore Harvey and his entertainment company is Four Seas Corporation.”

Jolene was truly moved by Peggy’s words as she felt a sense of hope and a burning passion replacing the hatred in her heart.

Peggy smiled. “By the way, have you heard about the large-scale variety show that went viral across the internet, the Galaxy Girls? From what I’ve heard, it has received good ratings, and everyone is anxiously waiting for the next episode. Once the new episode is released, it’s going to trend all over the internet with their publicity.”

Jolene nodded in agreement. She had seen the promotional videos of the variety show and knew for a fact that many netizens enjoyed it. Even a good number of fans had left comments on her social media account, lamenting that it was a pity she was not a part of Galaxy Girls. While Jolene looked unfazed on the surface at that time, she did feel a prickle of regret when she looked back at it.

Peggy said, “The show is produced by Four Seas Corporation, but I heard they ran into some problems. The main actress jumped ship mid-production, and they were forced to cancel the filming. I heard that they're still looking for a suitable replacement. If you go, you may very well be the best choice."

"Do you really think they'll sign me up?" Jolene asked eagerly, feeling the newfound hope in her heart soar to greater heights. Her eyes were shining brilliantly.

She was truly attracted to the idea of being the next Galaxy Girl. If she managed to join a large-scale variety show just after signing an agreement with a whole new entertainment company, it would be the biggest slap on Harvey's face.

Peggy gave her an affirming smile. "I think they will. You are the top trending celebrity of the year, after all. You already have a sizeable fanbase supporting you. Not to mention that Four Seas Corporation has already invested so much money into expanding its viewer base. Just mark my words, if you even hint to them that you're interested in joining their company, I'll bet you won't even have to approach them personally. They'll probably take the initiative to contact you themselves and beg you to join them."

Jolene felt the dark clouds that had been shrouding her heart for the past few days clear up. "All right, Peggy. I've decided that I'm going to cooperate with the Four Seas Corporation!"

"Okay." Peggy nodded in satisfaction. "I'm going to announce to the public that we're willing to cooperate with Four Seas Corporation. I'm sure it won't even be two days before they contact us."

Jolene paused to consider her suggestion. In the end, she shook her head. "I think we should keep the news private first. If Harvey catches wind of us trying to join Four Seas Corporation, he might create trouble for us before we can even do anything. Four Seas Corporation may have enough power to ignore Harvey's threats, but it doesn't mean that they're willing to become open enemies with him. We'll lose any advantage we have then."

Seeing the logic in Jolene's statement, Peggy dipped her head in agreement. "Very well. I'll contact Four Seas Corporation first then, Jolene."

Even as she spoke, she was pulling her phone out to call the company. As Peggy had predicted, when Four Seas Corporation learned that Jolene was willing to join their company, they were delighted. They quickly asked when Jolene was going to arrive at Nebula City, so they could arrange a welcoming party.

Jolene was beyond ecstatic at the news. Just thinking about how she was going to be the new female lead for Galaxy Girls made her feel overwhelmingly excited.

Suddenly, Jolene felt that being boycotted by her former company was not so bad after all. If she were not blacklisted, she would never discover the silver lining that would lead her to join Four Seas Corporation.

Chapter 442

Jack took the news of Jolene joining Four Seas Corporation very seriously.

He had been pressed under a mountain of work ever since Madison Zucker jumped ship from their company. Her sudden departure had set off an avalanche of repercussions that still gave him a headache whenever he thought about it.

However, the most important thing on his mind currently was that they still had not found a suitable replacement for Madison Zucker.

Their original plan was to go to Lumenopolis or Ruthorham to search for a suitable candidate, but everyone seemed to look down on Four Seas Corporation. They were all under the impression that being a company in a second-rate city, Four Seas Corporation was too small a company not worth any of their time.

The entire situation made Jack's headache grow worse day by day.

Alex had already kickstarted his tech dome project thanks to the thirty-five billion investments he had managed to attract. But under Jack's lead, Four Seas Corporation still could not settle the matter in finding a suitable female lead for the variety show. As a result, Jack started having doubts about his capabilities.

And yet, never in his wildest dreams did Jack ever expect Jolene to come and join their company willingly at this crucial moment. Jolene's initiative to join their company was a relief to him, as it helped to solve his current problem.

It went without saying that Jack had agreed to her offer immediately. He proceeded to send Jonathan, who was the best security guard manager in their company to escort Jolene.

As Jonathan had a background in military special ops and was currently learning martial arts from Charlie, he was highly skilled in many forms of fighting skills. In Jack's opinion, sending Jonathan to escort Jolene was already the highest honor he could extend to her.

After accepting his mission from Jack, Jonathan arrived at the airport on the next day half an hour earlier. As soon as he reached the airport, he saw a large crowd of young people gathered at the entrance of the arrival hall eagerly.

Some of them were carrying large banners that read "We Love You, Jolene," among other similar slogans. Jonathan abruptly realized that these young people were the fans of the famous celebrity he was supposed to fetch.

He was not a fan of watching either movies or TV dramas, so he did not understand anything about the trending celebrities. Moreover, he could not understand the crazy act of these fans either. But he had heard rumors which claimed that most diehard fans were unreasonable people who might turn on each other just for a chance to meet their favorite celebrity.

That was why Jonathan kept a safe distance from the crowd. He knew better than not attracting any trouble that was not needed.

“The fan sites just confirmed the rumors. Jolene Dalton is really coming to Nebula City and I’m so excited!” A young girl said eagerly. She was only seventeen or eighteen years old at most.

“Exactly! I’m getting nervous too! Who would’ve expected that Jolene would come to our humble city? Nebula City hasn’t welcomed a real celebrity in ages.” Another little girl chimed in, practically shaking with excitement.

“This is my first time seeing a celebrity up close, and she’s my super-idol too! Oh, I think I’m going to faint soon.”

After hearing the half-crazed declarations from the gathered crowd of hardcore fans, Jonathan could only raise an eyebrow. These fans are really crazy...

He retreated to the side, checking the time. If his information were correct, Jolene would be arriving in a few minutes. Then, he lit a cigarette to pass the time while standing in front of the car.

“Guys, have you all heard? Jolene’s coming to Nebula City because she’s going to sign an agreement with Four Seas Corporation to film Galaxy Girls. Our girl, Jolene, is going to be the superstar of Galaxy Girls!”

“You’re not kidding us, are you? Four Seas

Corporation must be very impressive nowadays if they can get Jolene to participate in their shows.”

“Of course! Their market value just skyrocketed again recently. I think Four Seas Corporation is worth more than a hundred billion now. There’s no other entertainment company in the country that’s richer than them currently. How is that not impressive?”

“Oh, stop arguing. I have a cousin who’s working at Four Seas Corporation, and he said that Jolene is coming to join Four Seas Corporation for good this time. She’s going to be our city’s superstar in the future!”

“Oh my god, if that’s real, it’s going to be awesome! We’ll have so many more chances to see her in the future!”

company, and only Four Seas Corporation can ignore Nebula Pictures like they don't matter and sign Jolene under their label.”

“Ah, Four Seas Corporation is truly becoming the pride and joy of Nebula City. I'm proud to announce that from now onwards, I'm an official fan of the company that made all of this possible—Four Seas Corporation!”

The other fans quickly joined in, laughing as they heaped praises onto Four Seas Corporation. Upon hearing that, Jonathan felt an inexplicable stirring of pride.

Yeah, I work at Four Seas Corporation too! And I'm the Manager of the Security Department there!

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 443

Just as Jonathan was feeling proud, he suddenly heard the sound of people screaming coming from the airport entrance. When he looked in that direction, he saw a group of people screaming and waving the banner in their hands.

Then, four bodyguards appeared and stood in a line to prevent anyone from coming near.

Standing behind them was a gorgeous-looking woman wearing a scarf around her neck.

Although part of her face was covered with a pair of sunglasses, everyone could still recognize her as Jolene Dalton, the celebrity.

Standing behind her was her assistant, a thirty-year-old woman who also wore sunglasses.

Another four bodyguards stood behind her assistant.

Jonathan had never seen anyone who hired eight bodyguards as the escort and created such a big commotion.

Normally, only second-generation rich men with tons of enemies or big bosses would hire that number of bodyguards for protection.

Does this celebrity have tons of enemies?

Jonathan shook his head silently as he was at a loss for words.

You already have eight bodyguards, but you still asked President Sawyer to send more bodyguards to protect you. Even the president doesn't get to enjoy this kind of luxury.

The fan couldn't stop taking pictures, but Peggy tried to stop them and berated, "No pictures, please!"

Jonathan could not fathom why they would inform her fans to welcome her but stop them from taking pictures. How very snobbish!

At that moment, he found it even harder to understand the mindset of those fans.

Their favorite celebrity had obviously wanted to increase her popularity by asking her fans to welcome her arrival at the airport.

Luckily, my girlfriend is not a person who mindlessly chases after a celebrity, or else it would drive me mad.

Jolene strutted out of the airport entrance, but she didn't see the representative from Four Seas Corporation. "Peggy, where are the people from Four Seas Corporation? Why aren't they here yet? Don't they know what time my flight land?" she asked unhappily.

When Jolene found out Four Seas Corporation wanted to sign her under their label, her fear of being banished from the industry instantly vanished.

Four Seas Corporation should treat me like the guest of honor because of my popularity and capability. They should lower their stance and beg me, or else I will not sign the contract. Then, they won't be able to shoot Galaxy Girls and it'll turn into a joke in the entertainment industry.

I believe I have the supremacy to demand a contract that would benefit me.

“I’ll check right away,” Peggy was equally upset about this because she felt like they did not prioritize them.

“There’s no need to contact anyone because I’m here to fetch you,” Jonathan pushed himself through the crowd and said.

Jolene sized him up and said in frustration, “Four Seas Corporation only sent you here?”

“Yes,” Jonathan nodded his head and said confidently, “I’m more than enough to protect you.”

Jolene looked at Jonathan in disdain and crossed her arm and kept quiet.

She informed Four Seas Corporation she needed at least ten or more bodyguards to escort her, but they only sent one bodyguard. Are they looking down on her?

Jonathan stiffened in confusion because he did not understand what Jolene meant. Right at this moment, Peggy lost her temper.

“What is Four Seas Corporation trying to do? Your company doesn’t want to collaborate with Jolene anymore? Have you ever done your research? Four Seas Corporation is nothing compared to countless companies that want to work with Jolene. I’m telling you now if you don’t arrange ten cars worth a million and above to fetch us, then we are not leaving this place!”

Peggy looked at Jonathan scornfully.

Chapter 444

“What?” Jonathan was speechless. Is this how demanding celebrity are nowadays?

However, he was just a bodyguard, so he did not argue with Jolene.

“Alright. Please hold on while I speak to my boss.”

Then, he fished out his phone and scrolled through his contacts to call Jack. However, he discovered he did not have his phone number.

He searched for Alex's contact and dialed his phone number.

He didn't even Jolene but made the call in front of her.

"Alex, the celebrity is upset because we didn't send a group of bodyguards to escort her. If we don't arrange ten cars worth a million each to fetch them, then she won't want to collaborate," Jonathan reported the situation truthfully.

Meanwhile, Alex was puzzled when he heard about the situation. "Celebrity? How come I didn't know about this?" he asked.

"What?"

Now Jonathan was confused. How can Alex not know about this?

Then he explained, “This is the situation. A celebrity took a flight here to sign a contract with the company. So, President Sawyer assigned me to fetch her at the airport. However, she wasn’t pleased with this arrangement and requested ten cars worth a million each to fetch her and her people, or else she won’t sign the contract with our company.

Alex was caught up with the Tech Dome program but understood the situation after hearing his explanation. “Wow. She is so arrogant? Does she think she’s the boss? Alright. Ask her to wait there. I’ll call President Sawyer now.” With that said, he hung up the phone.

He was about to call Jack when Maggie entered the study room, holding a blueprint in her hands for discussion. He kept his phone back in his pocket and diverted his attention to her. They went into an in-depth discussion about the blueprint, and Alex forgot about the phone call completely.

On the other hand, Jack knew Jolene came to Nebula City to seek help from him and that would solve his most urgent problem. After some thought, he decided to go to the airport personally to fetch Jolene to express Four Seas Corporation's sincerity towards her.

Not long after, Jack's car arrived at the airport entrance and saw a gang of people surrounding Jonathan and pointing their fingers at him.

Luckily, Jonathan was someone who knew how to handle such a situation, or else he probably wouldn't survive the tongue-lash from Jolene's fans.

"Excuse me," James pushed through the crowd to open up a clear path for Jack.

Some of the fans recognized Jack and gaped at him in awe.

This is the richest man in Nebula City, President Sawyer from Four Seas Corporation.

Even he came to fetch Jolene personally!

Only a minority of the young crowd could recognize Jack because he usually kept a low profile and seldom show himself in public.

At that moment, Jack was sizing up Jolene and vice versa.

He had to admit that Jolene was indeed a beautiful woman, no wonder she was popular and had a huge fan base.

“You’re the boss of Four Seas Corporation?” Peggy said while looking at Jack in a haughty manner.

Jack knitted his eyebrows, showing his displeasure immediately. He's the Director of the company and the richest man in Nebula City before Alex came into the picture, he was someone who was revered by all.

He never thought someone would treat him with such arrogance, let alone a celebrity.

He wanted to sign Jolene to the label and solve the dire situation, but he would not lower his dignity for her.

“President Sawyer, you came at the right time! They insisted that we arrange ten luxury car to fetch them, or else they won't leave with us,” Jonathan quickly explained after Jack's arrival.

“Ten luxury car to fetch them? Or else they won't leave?” Jack narrowed his eyes upon hearing the news. His urge to sign Jolene faded instantly.

He wanted to sign a celebrity who would help the company to earn money as a staff, not to be his boss.

“Since you’re the boss of Four Seas Corporation, you should’ve heard of Jolene’s fame and popularity. We’ve discussed this and you have agreed to send more bodyguards to protect Jolene too. However, you have only sent one bodyguard. What do you mean by that?” Peggy questioned.

“The manager of my security department can fight against ten men. Why don’t you try?” Jack said casually.

He’s the manager of the security department for Four Seas Corporation?

Jolene and the others were startled upon hearing the words. They could not help but examine Jonathan and then gave him the look of disdain immediately.

“Hmph! You’re saying he can defeat ten men on his own? If he can’t do it, what will you do?” Jolene scoffed and looked at Jonathan scornfully.

Chapter 445

“Go and find ten bodyguards. I’ll fulfil your requests and arrange ten Maserati to fetch you if they can defeat Jonathan,” Jack said coolly.

He had no doubts on Jonathan's capability.

Before Jonathan learned martial arts from Charlie, only a few bodyguards could compete with him. Now that he was learning martial arts from Charlie, his skills were better than before. Therefore, Jack had full confidence in him.

"Alright. If he wins, we'll follow you," Jolene snorted coldly.

When the fans saw the situation, they began to cheer for Jolene. It was as if Jolene was competing instead of her bodyguards.

"Jolene, take him down! Let them know that you're powerful!"

Although the words made no sense, Jolene enjoyed and reveled in their cheers.

Jack shook his head in silence and was rather disappointed. Although he didn't feel as eager to sign her as before, it would still be favorable for the company to do it.

After all, Jolene was the best candidate for Galaxy Girls in every aspect.

“Let the eight of them attack me together,” Jonathan said impudently and looked at the eight formidable bodyguards who were standing behind Jolene.

He was infuriated because this woman had doubts about his ability and had commanded him to call his boss to come over.

“I am enough to beat your scrawny a.” One of Jolene's bodyguards snorted and walked towards Jonathan.

Jolene's fans were excited when they saw the two bodyguards were about to start a physical fight. They came to see their idol and got to witness a free show instead. What a steal!

Her fans started to cheer for Jolene's bodyguard.

The cheers of the crowd instantly boosted his morale and made him cocky.

He clenched his fist and scorned, "I'll let you have three punches ahead of me. You can start first."

"Alright. Get ready to accept the punch," Jonathan sneered. He took one step forward and sent him a punch.

The speed of his punch was slow. When Jolene's bodyguard saw this, the corner of his mouth lifted into a cold smile as he swerved his body to dodge the punch.

He'd definitely be able to avoid his punches if this was the speed of Jonathan's punch.

When Jonathan's punch was about to glide across the bodyguard's face, he suddenly opened up his fist and slapped his face.

Slap!

Jonathan had slapped him within proximity. Moreover, he infused his inner strength into the slap and that sent his opponent flying across the room.

When everyone saw Jolene's bodyguard flew a distance of two meters after Jonathan's powerful slap, their eyes widen as they looked at Jonathan in disbelief.

Jolene could not believe her eyes. Her company hired the bodyguards and claimed that they were seasoned veterans. How could they lose to someone as skinny as a monkey?

Jonathan had a skinny built, but that did not affect his combat skills.

It actually worked better for him in terms of flexibility.

“I told you to let the eight of them attack me together,” Jonathan clapped his hands and looked mockingly at the bodyguard who laid on the ground with blood flowing out of the corner of his mouth.

“Don’t waste time. He can fight all of them at once,” Jack said.

Jolene and her assistant’s face turned white. They never thought Jonathan would be so capable.

“Attack him together and make sure you defeat him! If anything happens, I’ll take full responsibility!” Jolene was burning with rage as she turned back to the seven bodyguards who stood behind her.

Although the seven bodyguards were intimidated by Jonathan’s capability, the idea of attacking him together gave them the confidence to defeat him.

“Lad, you’re too arrogant! Let us teach you a lesson today,” one of the bodyguards snorted.

‘Stop yapping now. Don’t you know the villain always die from talking too much?’ Jonathan said sarcastically.

“Damn you!”

After hearing Jonathan's insult, they yelled angrily and charged at him.

The imposing force exuded from the bodyguards brought relief to Jolene and her fans.

They felt embarrassed when they saw Jonathan sent the bodyguard flying across the floor with just one powerful slap. They hope the seven bodyguards would be able to defeat Jonathan vehemently.

They didn't care if it was an unfair situation where seven people were fighting against one person.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

“Do you guys really think you can beat me? You can dream on.” Jonathan said mockingly and made the first move to attack them.

Jonathan was part of the special operations team and one of the best. He was highly skilled as he started learning martial arts since he was a boy.

Aside from that, he had been training under Charlie, which brought his skills to another level. Thus, any normal bodyguard wouldn't be able to compete against him.

Although the seven bodyguards besieged him, none of them managed to land a single blow on him. On the contrary, Jonathan managed to slap two of them and sent them flying across to the ground.

The five remaining bodyguards managed to hold on for less than one minute, then all of them laid on the floor, groaning and whimpering in pain.

Jolene's fans were startled when they saw how all the bodyguards were defeated. One by one, they turned to look at Jonathan in anger as they were not impressed.

They were furious at Jonathan for defeating their idol's bodyguards, but when they saw Jonathan fighting like a God of War, they did not dare to peep a sound.

The expression on Jolene and Peggy's faces was extremely grim. They never thought their eight bodyguards would be this useless. This was downright embarrassing!

"Drive the car over here and fetch the celebrity to our company," Jack said to Jonathan, then he left with James.

Jolene was all riled up as she watched Jack leaving the place, but she didn't dare to make a scene in front of her fans.

She lost the bet, so she had no choice but to follow them to Four Seas Corporation.

She thought to herself. After I arrive at the company, I'll take revenge on them by not signing the contract.

When she saw Jonathan drove a sedan and stopped in front of her, she wanted to back out immediately. The car was worth less than a million!

"You're fetching me with this lousy car?" Jolene glared at Jonathan sitting in the driver's seat.

Lousy car?

Do celebrities think they are superior because they are filthy rich? A car worth nearly a million is considered a lousy car?

The net worth of Alex is over a hundred billion, but he doesn't even mind taking the bus.

Who was she in comparison to him?

“Yes, this is the car provided by our company. If you refused to sit in this car, you can buy your own luxury car and drive to the company,” Jonathan said sarcastically as Jolene was starting to get on his nerve with her continuous demand.

What's with the attitude?

When Jolene heard his reply, she was instantly enraged.

She placed her hands on her waist and said indignantly, “I’m not going to sign this contract. I want to see who you can find to replace Madison Zucker in Galaxy Girls? I want to go back right now, book a flight ticket to Lumenopolis immediately.”

Peggy panicked upon seeing the situation unfold and quickly whispered to Jolene, “He’s a mere bodyguard. Don’t get so worked up over him and go overboard, or we will truly run out of options.”

Four Seas Corporation was giving them an opportunity and it was their only option. Jolene’s career would be over if they gave up on this opportunity.

Jolene gave it a second thought and decided to drop her arrogant act.

But I can't get over the fact that a lowly bodyguard did not treat me like a superstar.

"Alright. I will put aside my anger for now," Jolene said in an angry sigh, then she opened the car door and sat in the back seat.

Peggy gave the bodyguards a look to hint at them to find their way to Four Seas Corporation. After that, she followed Jolene into the car.

Shortly after, they arrived at the Four Seas Corporation. Jack had already arrived and was waiting for them.

His initial desire was to meet Jolene at the hotel to sign the contract, but he changed his mind after seeing her behavior earlier.

He analyzed the situation and concluded that Jolene needed this contract more than him. Therefore, he had the upper hand.

Under such circumstances, Jolene didn't have a choice but to agree to some of the conditions which did not benefit her.

After both parties signed the contract, he decided to treat them to dinner.

When the three of them came out of the elevator, they saw Alex walking in their direction.

Jolene and Peggy instantly looked like they saw their worst enemy; both their eyes were burning with fire.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 447

As far as Jolene and Peggy were concerned, they ended up in their current state because of this btard.

If Alex did not threaten Harvey, he would not fire them and ban them from the industry. As a result, they had nowhere left to go and could only join Four Seas Corporation.

At first, they thought Four Seas Corporation would treat Jolene like a superstar and make her famous.

Nevertheless, it turned out to be an entirely different story. The contract she signed was no different from the offers from other companies, which was not to her advantage.

Jolene took this as the biggest disrespect to a celebrity of her rank.

However, she had no choice but to accept the unreasonable conditions Jack had requested.

Everything happened because of this btard!

“President Sawyer, does this loser work for your company?” Jolene glared at Alex when she asked Jack the question.

Loser?

Jack was stunned for a second, and then a playful smile crept up his face.

Before he could say a word, Alex smiled and answered, “Yes, I am President Sawyer’ driver.”

He was slightly surprised. He didn't think Jolene would come to Nebula City and to his company; after getting banned from the industry by Harvey.

When he saw Jolene for the first time, he thought she suited the role of the main actress of Galaxy Girls quite well.

Unfortunately, Jolene was a problematic character, and he didn't want to hire her although she was a very suitable candidate.

He believed a public figure without a good personality was a ticking bomb. It would be a matter of time before it brought trouble to the company.

Jack narrowed his eyes at Alex's words. He instantly understood that Jack and Jolene knew each other and had a feud before.

If that were the case, he could only leave this matter in Alex's hands.

Although, he had high hope on Jolene.

Jolene wanted to say something when she found out Alex was Jack's driver, but Peggy held her back. She placed her hand on Jolene and shot a look at her while shaking her head, "Since you're President Sawyer's driver, we will not make things difficult for you. If you apologize to Jolene, we'll let bygones be bygones."

After all, they shouldn't go overboard since Alex was Jack's driver.

Even though they had signed the contract with Four Seas Corporation, Jack might not even stand on their side.

Moreover, she noticed Jack seemed disinterested when they were discussing the contract. So, if they caused a scene, it might backfire on them.

This was the reason Peggy stopped Jolene from acting rashly.

Jolene understood what Peggy meant and said, “Did you hear that, loser? Since you’re President Sawyer’s driver and I respect him, I will consider all your past misdeeds written off as long as you apologize to me now.”

Jolene’s logic was since she took a step back, Alex should take a step back too.

After all, they worked in the same company.

She had just finished speaking when Alex laughed mockingly and said, “As a person with poor moral standing, what right do you have to ask me to apologize to you?”

Jolene was furious and exploded in anger. She pointed to Alex and roared, “You’re a loser, but you dare to speak ill of me?”

Alex remained silent and gave her a sarcastic smirk.

She stomped her feet and turned to Jack immediately, “President Sawyer, you heard it with your own ears. He vilified me by saying that I have poor moral standing. You need to seek justice for me. It’s a small matter for my reputation to be tarnished, but it might affect the company’s image if the news got out.”

Peggy initially wanted to play things down until the issue faded into obscurity, but she couldn’t hold herself back any longer. “President Sawyer, we joined your company with sincerity, but your driver is atrocious! If you don't give us an explanation on this matter, we will consider terminating the contract," she said pompously.

Alex laughed coldly, "Then, please terminate the contract. As the saying goes, one rotten apple spoils the whole barrel, and I wouldn't want that to happen."

"Who do you think you are? You're just a driver. Do you have the right to even talk?" Jolene yelled furiously with a look of contempt in her eyes.

She thought Jack would definitely teach Alex a lesson by now.

But, in the next moment, she heard Jack coughed and said, "Well, we will terminate the contract then."

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 448

“What?”

Jolene and Peggy gaped at Jack in shock; they thought he was joking.

“Let me repeat myself. I said our company terminated your contracts,” Jack repeated solemnly.

Since Alex said there’s an issue with Jolene’s personality, I’m not gonna question that.

Of course I won’t hire someone Alex doesn’t want.

“President Sawyer, are you somehow mistaken? Are you really gonna terminate my contract just because of some loser?” Jolene pointed at Alex and was evidently perplexed.

“Did you just say he’s a loser?”

Jack chuckled as he said that. Once you know who Mr. Jefferson really is, you’ll pee your pants out of fear. I’m so tempted to tell him the truth.

“Is he not one? Is he not just a driver?” Jolene stated coldly.

“Really?”

Jack mocked, “Well, even a loser can make me terminate your contract. I am formally declaring now that the contract we have just signed is now void. You may take your leave.”

“You!”

Jolene was irate as he pointed at Jack and yelled, “President Sawyer, I hope you won’t regret this!”

She then marched off in a huff. Peggy left shortly after, shooting Alex a purposeful gaze before she left.

“That lady doesn’t make the cut. She’s like a ticking time bomb that will explode someday and ruin the company’s reputation. It was a good choice letting her go,” Alex stated as he watched Jolene leave.

“Mr. Jefferson, how did you even come across them?” Jack asked out of curiosity.

“I went to Lumenopolis a few days ago and met them in a bar...” Alex summarized what happened to Jack.

Jack shook his head when he heard that. No wonder Alex said there's an issue with her attitude.

She bumped into him first, and yet she asked him to apologize. With a personality like that, she'll definitely cause a lot of trouble.

"Even so, Jolene suits the role of the main actress in Galaxy Girls quite well," Jack sighed.

Jolene is young, pretty, and very popular. She really is quite a good choice.

Well, that's too bad then.

"Don't rush the selection process. It's alright if we delay the premiere of the show because the Ivy Media Group temporarily can't carry out the filming as well."

"Understood." Jack nodded before he asked, "We're heading out for lunch. Are you coming?”

Alex shook his head in response. “Nope. I just ate.”

As he spoke, he headed upstairs.

However, at that moment, he received a call from Carlene.

Alex flinched slightly and picked up the call after some hesitation.

“Mr. Jefferson, may I know where you are right now? I want to talk to you about something.” Carlene’s clear voice could be heard through the phone.

After giving it some thought, Alex replied, “I’m at the office. You can come over.”

He remembered that Carlene had asked him out for dinner via text message but all the messages were promptly ignored by him.

However, to his surprise, the Bolton Family never uttered a single complaint even when Madison jumped ship despite all the other businesses terminating their contracts with his company.

Well, maybe Ivy Media didn't want to recruit the Bolton Family, but regardless of that, the Bolton Family didn't cancel their contracts with us.

Through that incident, Alex

's impression of the Bolton Family changed drastically.

"Alright. I'll go there now," Carlene said somewhat excitedly.

“Okay.” Alex hung up shortly afterward.

Half an hour later, Carlene arrived at the Four Seas Corporation. She texted Alex to inform him about her arrival and to ask him where his office was.

Alex told her that he was in the waiting room, so she asked the receptionist to bring her there.

“Mr. Jefferson.”

Carlene greeted him immediately when she saw him smoking on the couch.

All this while, she had thought that Alex was a manager from the Project Management Department.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 449

“Please take a seat.” Alex nodded, choosing not to reveal who he was.

Once Carlene sat opposite him, Alex asked, “Is there any reason why you’re here?”

“Mr. Jefferson, may I ask if you still need any more members for Galaxy Girls?” Carlene asked shyly.

Alex sized Carlene up and asked out of curiosity, “Is it because one of your friends wants to step into the entertainment industry?”

Carlene shook her head awkwardly and corrected him, “Nope. Actually, I’m the one interested in it.”

“You?”

Alex stared at her in puzzlement and asked, “You’re a woman from a rich family who doesn’t need to work. Why do you want to step into the entertainment industry?”

Carlene shook her head and explained, “My family is not that rich. The Bolton Family’s business is actually pretty small. I was interested in singing and dancing ever since I was young, and even though I received no professional training, I believe that my foundations are quite solid.”

In fact, Carlene would stream herself singing and chatting with her fans live every night for a few hours; she was pretty popular at the moment.

Alex's interest was piqued when he sensed Carlene's confidence. He smiled. "Can you maybe sing a few lines for me right now?"

Carlene nodded immediately because singing was her strength. "Mr. Jefferson, what song would you like to hear?"

"Anything is fine. You can sing the ones you're most comfortable with."

Carlene nodded and soon started to sing.

She barely made it through a verse when Alex's eyes sparkled in excitement.

Carlene's voice was beautiful and clear - it could grab anyone's attention in an instant.

Alex was engrossed in her singing even though she was singing without any accompaniment, and he couldn't help but give her applause after the performance.

“Not bad at all. Your foundations are solid, and your voice is amazing. Please sing a few more songs for me.” Alex clapped and praised her at the same time.

“Alright.” Carlene was feeling a little emotional because Alex's encouragement and validation gave her a lot of confidence.

She then sang two more songs, and they were even better than the first performance.

Alex nodded in approval as he recognized that Carlene was talented in singing. Carlene's voice is very soothing. Anyone who's going through a tough time will definitely love her voice.

“You know how to dance too, don’t you? Please show me a short routine,” Alex instructed.

“Alright.” Carlene was ecstatic and confident at that moment. She played a beautiful song on her phone and started to dance to it.

She was svelte and as elegant as a swan. With how fluidly she moved, it looked like she was boneless.

Her moves weren’t flashy, but they made Alex enchanted by her performance. Her occasional smile even managed to make his heart flutter.

After her performance ended, Alex gave her a huge round of applause. He was amazed by Carlene’s talents and was captivated by her good looks.

“You were amazing. You said you wanted to join the Galaxy Girls, right?” Alex nodded in approval and asked.

“Yeah.” Carlene nodded firmly. In fact, she had come to the office because she heard that Four Seas Corporation was recruiting Galaxy Girls’ members a few days ago.

She was passionate about singing and dancing ever since she was young, and she even dreamed of being a singer.

However, no one had ever scouted her before until now.

“The only missing role for Galaxy Girls is the main actress. Logically, this position should be reserved for an A-list celebrity, but your singing and dancing have convinced me to give you the opportunity instead. If you pass the test, I will spend my resources on you.

I'll make you the next big thing.”

Carlene gaped in shock and excitement. She never thought Alex would have so much authority.

“Mr. Jefferson, don't worry! I won't let you down!” She declared proudly.

“Alright. I will arrange for someone to send you to the filming site in a little while so that the directors can evaluate you first. If the directors approve of you, you will be one step closer to being a superstar.”

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Alex asked Jessica to get the directors to head to the filming site. They were to bring Carlene there as well.

Jessica was shocked when she saw Carlene because the woman was indeed gorgeous in a very pure way.

However, a tinge of resentment surged in Jessica's heart when she saw how Carlene stared at Alex with affection and admiration.

A lady's sixth sense told her that Carlene fancied Alex passionately.

"Miss, are you Mr. Jefferson's secretary?" Carlene initiated the conversation in the car.

"Yeah." Jessica nodded.

"Huh? Isn't Mr. Jefferson just a department manager?"

Why does he have a secretary? Your company must really value him a lot, huh?" Carlene exclaimed in surprise.

Managers don't usually have secretaries, yet Alex has such a pretty one here. It's a testament to how much Four Seas Corporation values him.

Upon that realization, Carlene became a little excited. The higher Alex's position in the Four Seas Corporation is, the more authority he has. Probably no one would try to stir up trouble with me because Alex was the one who sent me, right?

"Department manager?" Jessica chuckled. Mr. Jefferson, are you about to play with a lady's feelings again?

"Is he not one?" Carlene started at Jessica in puzzlement.

“Did he say which department he is in?” Jessica asked.

“The Project Management Department,” Carlene answered.

“I see. Yeah, he’s the manager there,” Jessica chuckled.

Carlene suddenly sensed something amiss with how Jessica said that one sentence, but she couldn’t figure out what was wrong.

In no time, they arrived at the filming site where the directors were already waiting.

We should take this very seriously since the chairman’s secretary herself brought someone to us.

“Ms. Saffin.” The directors’ name was Jansen Hort, and he was a man in his fifties. He had been involved in the filming of variety shows all his life, so he was somewhat famous in the industry.

“Mr. Hort.” Jessica shook Jansen’s hands before introducing Carlene to him.

At that moment, the directors began sizing up Carlene.

Admittedly, the woman was dressed rather casually today - she wasn’t wearing any makeup. At first glance, she wasn’t as eye-catching as the smartly dressed Jessica.

However, their eyes sparkled upon closer inspection because Carlene had the looks and the body of a superstar.

“Mr. Hort, please come here for a second.” Jessica stepped aside, and Jansen soon followed her.

She whispered to him, “Mr. Jefferson himself sent her because he wants to make her the lead actress in Galaxy Girls. If you approve of her abilities, you can start training her.”

Jansen gaped in shock, but he soon came to a realization after he took a look at Carlene.

She is Mr. Jefferson’s lady, so we must try our best to make her seem talented even if she isn’t!

“I understand, Ms. Saffin. If she’s not too stupid or senseless, I can guarantee that she will be a superstar after Galaxy Girls airs, judging by how abundant the resources of Four Seas Corporation are.”

Jessica chuckled. “Please don’t get me wrong, Mr. Jefferson just thinks she’s very talented. Besides, he even said that you can just make her a side character if she’s not a good fit for the program. Just don’t offer her any acting roles.”

Jansen nodded in acknowledgment, even though he was scoffing on the inside. Isn’t this what Alex always says? If I really made her a side character, I can guarantee that I will be the next one fired from Four Seas Corporation.

Jessica didn’t know what Jansen was thinking about because she was simply in charge of relaying Alex’s message. Whatever Jansen wants to do is entirely up to him.

After that, she waved goodbye to Carlene before driving back to the company alone.

On the other hand, Jansen brought Carlene to the set because he wanted to test her abilities.

He wanted to figure out Carlene's weaknesses and strengths. Once he did so, he could direct the show in a way to hide her flaws and flaunt her strengths. That would make her seem more appealing to the audience.

If Carlene could read Jansen's mind right now, she would probably faint from excitement because Jansen had already recognized her as the next superstar.
