

Chapter 0048

The cast of 'My Childhood Crush' entered Dream High Academy. Everyone was competing to show off themselves, taking every shortcut they could find.

Richard sends Renea a message, "Do you know where I am?"

"My school."

"You are really smart. You guessed correctly right away."

Renea was speechless.

'Was there a need to guess? Everyone in this school know this?' She thought Mike, who was watching Richard send a message, was so helpless.

'Love made people foolish. And this guy was almost brainless,' he thought.

Richard sent another message, "Let's have dinner together after work. Consider it a thank you for saving me last time. And also a belated birthday celebration."

Mike's eyes widened and her heart was about to jump out of her throat. He was just about to remind him when he saw Renea's reply.

"I already received your thanks for helping me out last time. And you already gave me birthday gift. If we have dinner together today, I'm afraid I'll become the enemy of the whole school tomorrow."

Mike breathed a sigh of relief. 'Renea was quite understanding.' he thought.

Richard, who had been rejected, put away his phone unhappily, his whole aura became icy, and no staff dared to approach him.

Renea had just put away her phone when she heard the teacher announce that she and Stella had been selected as extras by the crew.

Sometimes fate worked mysteriously. Those who tried to get a chance to be supporting actors through various means often fail to do so.

On the other hand, those who didn't want it, always ended up being chosen.

Standing under the sun, Renea's forehead was covered in sweat. As a supporting member, she had to constantly stand under the sun and cooperate with others.

For her, this meaningless task was not as valuable as practicing more math problems in the classroom.

Stella, on the other hand, enjoyed it. She was not particularly interested in acting, but she came here to avoid her overbearing uncle.

However, standing in front of the camera made her feel an incredible sense of presence. The feeling brought her joy, happiness, and even a strong desire to showcase herself.

Kailey, Jasper, and Tia were also chosen.

This scene was a romantic moment between the male and female lead characters. They walked together on the school playground, and the male lead took the opportunity to confess his feelings to the female lead.

Begin the school heartthrob, the male lead naturally had many admirers.

Just as the main lead was about to confess, a girl suddenly rushed forward to deliver a love letter.

The role of delivering the love letter would also be chosen from the selected few.

The assistant director looked at them and pointed at Tia and Stella and said, "You two, walk in this direction. When you walk over, you must remember to communicate with each other, okay?"

Seeing that she was going to act with Tia, Stella was dissatisfied. However, thinking that it was just a performance, she endured it.

"We also need a couple," the assistant directors wondered over Renea, Kailey, and Jasper trying to decide which two would be more suitable.

The remaining role was naturally for the girl delivering the love letter.

Before the assistant director could speak Kailey said, "Director, you may not know that this is my sister. Jasper is her boyfriend. They are a real couple."

Renea sneered at her little scheme, but she couldn't be bothered to pay attention to it.

Jasper's expression changed and he didn't say anything.

The assistant director nodded. "That's it. The two act as a couple and walk past each other."

The assistant director nodded and said, "Alright, you two will play a couple walk from the front."

"The task of delivering the love letter will be given to you." The assistant director handed a love letter to Kailey and said.

After everything was arranged everyone was assigned to their designated jobs.

The male and female lead also arrived on the set with the support of the staff. The male lead Richard was not only the most popular character in the drama but also the most popular actor off-screen.

Outside the set, students from Dream High Academy had already gathered, hoping to catch a glimpse of Richard.

Alongside was Su Zan, the female lead of the drama, the popular actress Elena.

When Richard entered the set, he immediately saw Renea standing among the sporting members.

He was about to wave and greet her when he saw the crowd outside and decided against it.

Elena turned her head and followed his gaze to look at Renea. Her sharp eyes were seemingly lost in thought.

This shooting began, and with the clapboard, Richard and Elena got into character.

They strolled on the school playground with Elena lowering her head and a shy smile on her face.

Richard walked beside her portraying the restlessness and anxiety of someone who had just entered a new relationship.

"Hey, I like you." Kailey rushed forward with the love letter, gathering her courage amidst her shyness, and handed it to him.

Richard looked at Kelly. He had a deep impression of this person.

"Cut!"

The one who spoke was not the director, but Richard. Everyone froze, looking at him in confusion.

The director and assistant director came to the camera.

The assistant director asks respectfully and confusedly, "Mr. White, is there a problem?"

Chapter 0049

"Her emotions were off, so I couldn't get into the scene." Richard said, coldly.

Kailey's expression instantly turned ugly. Being denied her acting skills by Richard was not a good start.

The director and assistant director looked at each other. 'She was just an extra, and it was just one scene. How much emotion could she bring?' they thought.

Elena raised her eyes and unconsciously looked in Renea's direction.

'Did he pick on the extra because of that girl?' She thought,

Regardless of the reason, Kailey was just an extra. Since Richard had said so, the assistant director immediately replaced Kailey and had Renea, who was closest take her place.

Kailey was furious after being replaced. She glared viciously at Renea and walked up to Jasper.

Renea was called forward.

Richard didn't greet her. He pretended that he didn't know her, but his eyes looking at Renea were filled with endless tenderness.

Elena silently watched all of this. She had acted alongside Richard for so long, and they were even a couple in the dramas. But Richard had never looked at her with such eyes.

Even during the scenes where they were in love in the drama, his eyes were never this gentle.

The shooting began again.

Renea nervously approached with the love letter, tremblingly, handed it over, and said, "Hey, I... I like you."

The role's shy, nervous, and courageous demeanor was perfectly executed by Renea.

Seeing this, the director could not help but cheer.

Richard was stunned for a moment. The immersion was so strong that even he was instantly immersed in it.

"Cut!"

After the director called cut Kailey's lips curled into a mocking smile.

Jasper looked at her as if he was looking at a stranger.

"Let's do it again."

"Renea, I'm sorry. I didn't control my emotions well." Richard apologized softly. His voice was only enough for the two of them to hear.

"It's okay!" Renea returns to her original position.

Once again, Renea held the love letter in her hands, trembling with fear and anxiety. She walked up nervously and summoned up her courage to hand the love letter over. "Hey, I... I like you."

"I already have someone I like," Richard said coldly as he brushed past Renea.

Renea turned back and looked at his retreating figure, her disappointed eyes dimming.

Originally this scene was meant to be a passing movement, but the director felt that her turning back was so sad and beautiful, so he requested a slow-motion shot.

It was Kailey and Jasper turned to act. Although they had a scene to gather, it was just a distant shot. However, even so, they had to show the intimacy of a couple.

Kailey held Jasper's arms intimately.

"Jasper are you angry with me?" she asked.

Jasper lowered his eyes in silence.

"Jasper, there is a reason why I did that just now," Kailey said. With a touch of grievances, her face still carried a gentle expression, and her actions remained affectionate.

After all, they were only capturing visuals, not sound.

They were too far apart, and no one knew what they were saying.

Jasper was agitated, but he didn't make it too obvious.

"We have already confirmed our relationship. Why did you say that earlier? Just because it gives you a chance to show your face in the play? Am I even not as important as a role?" He asked.

"Of course, you are more important. How could you think that? Don't you understand my character? I... I did it for my sister. She likes you, and you know it." Kailey explained

Jasper looked at her in confusion. He was delighted that both Kailey and Renea liked him.

"If we had openly gotten together just now in front of her, it would have made her feel embarrassed and awkward."

Jasper was instantly conversed and couldn't help but praise her. "Kailey, you are truly so kind."

Kailey lowered her eyes slightly and accepted his praise.

The camera swept past and stopped Stella and Tia for three seconds.

"Stella don't blame me for not reminding you. Don't get too close to Renea. The reason why she got close to you and was nice to you is that you were a member of the Kingston family, and she can use you." Tia persuasively said with a righteous look.

Stella's thin lips curled into a smile and she asked, "You said that Renea was using me? What is she using me for? Helping me with my work? Or serving me food?"

"She is being nice to you for a reason. You know what? Just the day before yesterday, I saw her getting on a limited edition Roll-Royce. Who knows who she seduced?"

Tia displayed her jealousy vividly.

'A Royal-Royce? And it was a limited edition?' Apart from Aron's car, Stella couldn't find another limited edition of Royal-Royce in Z City.

'Wasn't it the day before yesterday when she called to the office by the teacher and was asked to do this and that.'

'So. did Aron do it on purpose? Did he want to date Renea?'

Stella was lost in thought.

Seeing Stella's expression, Tia thought that Stella was influenced by her words and secretly delighted, adding fuel to the fire, "Stella I reminding you because we are classmate. Renea is getting close to you because of your family status."

"Look at her, she is not the real heiress of the Morris family, but she has been clinging to the Morris family and refused to give up the inheritance left by Sir Morris. Its because Mr. Morris knows about her relationship with you that he treats her better than Kailey. Renea must have benefited from it."

Stella smiled slightly, "You know a quiet lot. It seems that Kailey had told you a lot... bad things about Renea."

Tia's expression suddenly changed.

At this moment, the scene had already finished shooting, and Renea walked over with large strides.

"Time to go."

The sun was too bright, and she didn't like it. Maybe because she had been in a dark place for too long and had become accustomed to the darkness.

Stella stepped forward and held Renea's arm, Smiling at Tia. "You are not just stupid. You are also arrogantly stupid. Do I need you tell me who I can be friends with, or who I can't?"
