

Chapter 0056

Chapter 0056

Then, Renea looked at Tia, who collided with her in displeasure.

"Renea, can you please help me? My father has cancer and needs a large sum of medical expenses. We have already borrowed money from those we could. We really have no one more. Now, only you can help me." Tia cried.

Hearing her words Stella sneered, "Aren't you friend of Kailey. She is the eldest daughter of the Morris family and $70,000 is just a small amount of money for her. You can borrow it from her."

Tia lowered her eyes after hearing this, even if she didn't say a word. Her expression had already said everything.

Renea then bent down to pick up the gifts, one by one. After that, she walked past Tia and left. From beginning to end, she remained silent.

In her past life, Renea used all her savings at the time to save Tia's father. But how did Tia pay her back? When Renea escaped from Dragon's handle and begged Tia to take her in, Tia drove her out stating that it was not convenient.

Renea was left with no alternative but to drag her wounded body in search of places to hide. She even had to spend the entire night in the sewer where foul rodents and stench-filled water were present, to avoid being discovered by Dragon.

She wouldn't have been able to go back to the Morris family if she had not gone to the police station the next day and made a big issue out of it.

Leon made every effort to convince her to protect the family's reputation.

Susan and Kailey, on the other side also lied to her, saying that they had been looking for her all night and had been up all night worrying.

If Kailey hadn't told Renea the truth about her being sold when she pushed her in front of the car, Renea would have foolishly believed that they had been looking for her all night. And that being sold to Dragon was just an accident.

Watching Renea leave mercilessly, Tia yelled at her back, "Renea, we have been in the same high school for three years, and I have treated you as my best friend. How can you be that heartless to not help me when I am desperate?"

"Friend? Haha!" Renea turned around in chuckled, "Are we even close to each other?"

Tia's face was twisted with anger as she watched Renea leave. Her hands were clenched into fists as the resentment in her eyes was about to overflow.

"Renea don't blame me for getting back at you if you are being so heartless." She said to herself.

'The values of female college students have been tainted. The student engaged in sexual behavior in return for being chosen for a movie. She was seen being picked up by a bunch of luxurious cars.' This was a recent post on the school forum.

"Wait, isn't it this Renea?"

"I didn't expect her to be such a person. I thought she was quite lofty before she even refused to return the gifts from Richard's fan. It seemed that she just doesn't like the gifts."

"Lofty? This is merely an act. Despite being aware that she is not the Morris family's daughter, she's shamelessly stays with them and take pictures in being treated like one. She is used to delicacies, so she cant bear the sufferings. I believe she simply hooked up with the wealthy in order to get by on her own."

"Don't you know about this? For the group play, the person the deputy director originally selected was Kailey, but it looks like Renea used some means and got rid of Kailey."

"It seems that this fake daughter has a lot of tricks. Poor Kailey!"
