

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 631

You're not worthy. She crumpled at the thought, staring mindlessly at the screen.

After switching off the phone, Alex let out a huge sigh. His frustration was out of place in the celebratory ambiance that surrounded him.

Alex thought to just check out her live stream, but Heather unexpectedly demanded him to send her presents.

Previously, as soon as Stuart sent her presents, she immediately agreed to meet him in person, without any regard for Dylan's safety.

Heather, who Alex once fell in love immensely, was now a changed person. For the sake of money, she could do anything.

If using Anonymuncle's identity was sufficient to get Heather to sleep with him, it was as if he had already been cheated on.

Without realizing that the concert was over and the crowd had dispersed, Alex sat on his seat empty-headed.

“Hey, Mr. Jefferson!” Alex heard a sweet voice calling out to him, which pulled him back to reality. He looked upwards and noticed Carlene standing in front of him.

He uttered, “The concert is over? Let's head back home then. Your performance is amazing. The company will provide you with more resources the next time.”

Alex was quite satisfied with the concert and he had a good impression of Carlene. The feeling was entirely professional, nothing personal or intimate of sorts.

Carlene nodded with gratitude. Her beautiful features were embellished by a pinkish skin tone. Her blush resembled a ripe apple, alluring and charming.

Just like any other ordinary man, Alex was tempted to bite into her.

Fortunately, he managed to curb those thoughts from materializing.

Alex coughed and said, "I have something else to attend to. Please excuse me."

Carlene panicked and stopped him in his tracks.

"What's wrong? Is there anything else?" Alex was confused.

Carlene raised her head shyly and avoided eye contact. The redness of her cheeks was readily visible. Even she herself realized that her actions were inappropriate.

“I am thinking of treating you to a meal as a token of appreciation,” she answered.

Carlene could not explain her actions. Usually, she didn't have any issues interacting with Alex, but it became awkward the moment they were alone.

She sneaked a peek at Alex and lowered her head again. Her heart was throbbing rapidly as if she was in love with him.

“That's not necessary. It's merely an investment from the company. Keep up the good work!” Alex explained.

He wanted to keep his distance to avoid any misunderstanding.

Carlene disappointedly looked towards Alex. Tears started to well up in her sparkling eyes.

In a last-ditch attempt, she begged, “All I ask is to treat you to a meal. Can't you just say yes to me?”

Alex was troubled by her response. He was a fearless man, but the single thing that he was most afraid of was a crying woman.

He swiftly answered, “Fine. Stop crying, please?”

The tears in her eyes vanished instantly and were quickly replaced by a bright smile.

Carlene suggested, “There's a restaurant nearby with some pretty good reviews. The steak there is delicious. Let's go!”

Alex didn't care about the meal. All he wanted was to get it over with.

Just as they were about to leave, a beautiful figure could be seen walking towards them.

Alex was dizzy at the sight of her bouncing chest.

Chapter 632

Alex's secretary, Liana seductively walked towards them.

“Mr. Jefferson, I made some soup for you. I've boiled it since I got off from work, and it took me almost two hours! I heard that you'll be here and I want to give it to you personally.” Liana showed him a thermos flask.

As she got closer to Alex, only then did she notice Carlene who was beside him.

She looked exactly like the person printed on the billboard. Almost immediately, Liana was able to guess who she was.

She must be the singer recently taken in by the Four Seas Corporation.

In the meantime, Carlene was also staring at her. Their gazes locked as sparks kindled.

As women, they both knew what each other were thinking.

They were sizing up each other, but they could not tell who was more superior. Finally, Liana gave Carlene one last stare before shifting her attention to Alex.

“That won’t be necessary. I’m having dinner with Carlene. You should have it yourself. It’s been a long day for you. You should get some rest too.” Alex rejected her gesture.

It was as if the cupid had arrived. Alex could not believe what was going on. First, it was Carlene, then followed by Liana. One problem after the other.

If he knew this would happen, he would never have attended the concert. Practicing Alchemy in the Sakura Club would have avoided all these shenanigans.

Carlene had her jealousy level skyrocketing. Ever since the moment Liana arrived, she had been trying to throw herself at Alex, even acting coquettishly to get her way!

“Mr. Jefferson, let's go. The restaurant is closing soon,” Carlene ushered him.

“All right.” Alex nodded.

While he got into the driver's seat, Carlene hopped into the passenger seat.

Liana was jealous of the two. She was not willing to concede defeat. Without asking, she entered the backseat of the car.

She shamelessly asked, “Mr. Jefferson, I've been busy preparing the soup for you. So, I have yet to have my dinner. Can I join you guys?”

Alex could not bring himself to reject her request. Since she wanted to join, it would be unreasonable to chase her out of the car.

Carlene, who was seated at the passenger seat was displeased. Her chest began heaving rapidly, clearly infuriated by Liana's actions.

This is too much! She only asked after entering the car! I don't want to cause a scene, or else I would have chased her out! So annoying!

As a clueless man, Alex was oblivious to the apparent uneasiness between the two ladies.

Upon their arrival, the three of them entered the restaurant together. With Carlene on his left and Liana on his right, the two gorgeous ladies attracted the attention of the surrounding men. Needless to say, they were all envious of Alex.

“What a life winner. Look at the two ladies that are with him. One delightful as an angel, while the other is so sexy.”

“If I were to be in his position, that will be great!”

“It's nice to be rich. I can be surrounded by pretty women.”

The people in the restaurant started talking about them. Alex could not bother to rebut their assumptions. However, he also felt that it was too high profile.

Liana swiftly sat beside Alex, leaving Carlene behind. Hence, Carlene was forced to sit opposite him.

Liana snarkily smiled at Carlene in an attempt to provoke her. Nonetheless, Carlene was unbothered and brushed it off.

The waiter approached them and asked politely, “Welcome to our restaurant. May I take your order, please?”

Soon after, the waiter left after taking their orders, leaving the three of them alone.

Carlene broke the ice and uttered, “Mr. Jefferson, thank you for giving me the opportunity. I did not expect you to reward me with five million!”

Carlene looked at Liana scornfully. She taunted Liana on purpose, to send her message.

Liana was obviously affected by her statement. Her eyes were filled with jealousy and discontent.

“It's just five million. All you have to do is focus on work,” Alex nonchalantly replied. Indeed, five million was considered peanuts to him.

Liana found an opportunity to undermine and humiliate Carlene. “That's a given. Although the sum is insignificant to Mr. Jefferson, you might think differently of it, Ms. Bolton. I'm not sure what's your ulterior motive for inviting Mr. Jefferson to dinner.”

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 633

Liana's message was clear. She meant that Carlene was trying to get in bed with Alex because of the five million.

Carlene who had always been reserved and soft-spoken, could not accept such preposterous allegations. Infuriated, she slammed the table and stood up.

Carlene's face blushed with anger and embarrassment. She stared intently at Liana, but no words came out of her mouth.

Liana once again took the opportunity and leaned towards Alex, feigning to be terrified after Carlene's outburst.

Her arms wrapped tightly around Alex, and her chest softly pressed against his arm.

Like a traumatized fawn, Liana clinched to Alex for warmth and support.

“Mr. Jefferson, she's so fierce. I'm afraid of her. Did I say anything wrong to Ms. Bolton?” Liana muttered shakingly.

It was the first time Carlene had feelings for a man. Ironically, it was also her first encounter with a person like Liana.

She knew Liana did it on purpose, but she could not outwit her. Although feeling enraged, she chose to suppress her emotions as Alex was present.

“Oh, come on. Are you a three-year-old kid? Surely you must know that your statement was highly inappropriate!” Carlene firmly rebuked.

She felt better after reprimanding Liana. She initially wanted to leave right away, but that would mean falling into Liana's tricks.

Today, I'm going all out against this woman!

“You...” Liana was antagonized. She was about to launch a counterattack but managed to control herself.

Instead, she shook Alex's arm and complained, “Mr. Jefferson, why does Ms. Bolton like to speak ill of me? This is my first time meeting her but she's being so mean.”

Alex chuckled and withdrew his arm. Although Liana was an attractive woman, it was inappropriate to behave as such in public.

He knew what was going on in their minds, but he could not do anything about it.

Alex made it very clear to Liana that he was not interested in her. However, Liana was rather adamant.

Either way, he would have offended one of them, which was undesirable. At the end of the day, they were both very capable persons that contributed to the company's growth.

After some thought, Alex uttered something neutral, "Carlene's personality is like that. She's not picking on you."

Liana was disappointed. Her tricks had always worked on most men, but it was ineffective against Alex.

She felt like talking to a wall!

Carlene sarcastically replied, “Stop trying to play the victim! Instead of surrounding yourself with men, you should pay a visit to the mental hospital. Maybe you will find out what's wrong with you!”

Liana distended from the embarrassment and her face was colored in red.

Alex chuckled. He never thought that a well-mannered woman like Carlene had such a dramatically different side of her. She was sassy and sharp with her words.

At the very beginning, Liana had the upper hand. But Carlene managed to stand her ground and she fought back hard. The back-and-forth war between the two women was fun to watch.

It was even better than watching a movie in the cinema!

A ceasefire only happened when the waiter brought the food to the table.

Not far from them, five people walked into the restaurant.

They were Zachariah and David, together with three men in black suits and sunglasses.

Zachariah inadvertently noticed Alex who was seated near the window. He stared at Alex, eyes initially full of hatred but sparkled at a thought.

David looked in Alex's direction and squinted his eyes. “Hmph! How unfortunate it is to meet him here. He really is an unavoidable enemy!”

Zachariah quickly joined in and agreed, “That's right. However, to meet you here, his luck has just run out.”

“He's even with the girl that you like! We must teach him a lesson!” Zachariah added.

Chapter 634

All of a sudden, a group of men surrounded the three of them.

Alex had already noticed them when they first entered. He even heard the conversation between David and Zachariah.

He put away his utensils, kept quiet, and stared at David and his men.

On the other hand, Carlene and Liana were not as calm. They were obviously petrified by the sudden ambush.

David stomped his feet on the table, causing the plates to rock back and forth.

“Isn't this the piece of trash from the Jennings family that lived off a woman? How does he have the audacity to come to a high-class restaurant like this?” David looked towards Liana and Carlene.

David did not expect Alex to be surrounded by two captivating women. One of them was even the famous singer, Carlene!

David stared at Carlene mindlessly, mischievous thoughts flourishing in his mind. Carlene and Autumn—they're both so beautiful!

Carlene was uncomfortable with David staring at her. She looked towards Alex for help. “Mr. Jefferson...”

Alex raised his hand and signaled her to calm down. Quickly, he turned his head and glanced at David. “What's the issue? I'm just trying to have dinner. Why do I need to report to you?”

Zachariah immediately rebuked him, “Who do you think you are? How dare you speak to David like that! Do you have a death wish?”

Zachariah was yelling near his ear. Annoyed, he turned around and gave Zachariah a tight slap. “Unless permitted by me, keep quiet and stand over there!”

Zachariah was completely caught off guard. He never imagined Alex to respond so aggressively. Although his face stung in pain, he kept quiet and dared not speak a word.

Then, he obediently retreated to a corner.

At first, David wanted to teach Alex a lesson. But looking at the two attractive women beside him, he changed his mind.

Rather, he would prefer Alex to keep him entertained. Even better, David was planning to expose Alex's true colors.

Perhaps the two of them would even leave Alex for him!

Suddenly, David recalled that Carlene used to address Alex as “Mr. Jefferson.” That must be it!

Alex must have tricked her into thinking that he was some business owner.

The other woman must have also fallen into the same trap!

Alex, you piece of trash! I'll expose you!

“Hey, Alex, the Jennings family is now bankrupt. Are you looking for the next target to live off? Is it Ms. Bolton?” David scoffed.

Live off? Is he referring to Alex?

Carlene and Liana were confused by the statement. They were unsure if David was talking about Alex.

Carlene refused to believe it. Alex was the chairman of the Four Seas Corporation—a man who could effortlessly reward her with five million! It was impossible that he was a man who lived off a woman.

Liana was even more skeptical as she knew Alex very well, especially the extravagance of his wealth. At one point, she wondered if David was mentally unsound.

Alex calmly replied, “Even if the Jenningses are bankrupt, what does it have to do with you? Also, whether I lived off a woman is none of your concern!”

David was exasperated as things did not go as planned.

Shouldn't the two women be angry at Alex after discovering the truth? Why aren't they saying anything?

Alex was unbothered by David's statement.

On the other hand, David felt humiliated, as if everyone were laughing at him!

As the son of the prominent Zucker family, he could not bear the embarrassment and erupted in anger.

He stood up and garnered the attention of everyone present in the restaurant. “Guys, check this out! The famous piece of trash from Nebula City that lived off a woman, Alex, is cheating on his wife and deceiving two beautiful women!”

David's volume was loud, attracting everyone's attention and they looked towards them in an instant.

Those who envied Alex in the beginning quickly changed their opinion of him. They initially thought that Alex was a rich man, but he turned out to be a man who lived off a woman. He lied to the two gorgeous women!

“A man who lived off of a woman has the audacity to cheat! How shameless can he be!”

“Right, what an embarrassment!”

There were a series of discussions ongoing.

Alex took a sip of the wine as if none of it concerned him. In his view, David's action was childish and amusing.

Carlene and Liana kept quiet, leaving Alex to deal with the matter. The Zucker family was not a big deal that could threaten Alex.

They stared glacially at David, hoping that Alex would punish him.

David was dumbfounded. What's wrong with the two of them? Are they brainwashed by Alex?

“Alex is a man who lived off a woman. This is a luxurious restaurant and he may not be able to even pay for the bill!”

Carlene smiled and shrugged indifferently. “That's not an issue. In fact, I am the one who wanted to treat Mr. Jefferson to a meal.”

David was riled up by her answer. How is it that Alex can influence such a pretty woman to spend money on him? Look at her. She's so proud because of it!

David could not wrap his head around the situation. In the end, he chose to give up.

David's anger was exacerbated by David's nonchalant reaction. Therefore, he decided to teach him a lesson.

Disregarding his image, he furiously yelled at Alex, “Who do you think you are? Bastard! I've been wanting to teach you a lesson!”

He then pointed towards his three bodyguards.

“They're my men. I'll let you off the hook only if you crawl in between my legs. Or else, I'll make sure you suffer the consequences!”

David wanted him to shame Alex in front of everyone, especially Carlene and Liana. That way, he could no longer pretend to be someone prominent anymore.

Alex smirked in response. Those who knew about Alex could foresee the unfortunate fate that would befall David.

Alex stood up, giving David the impression that he finally caved in. Hence, David had his legs wide-opened and gawked at Alex deviously.

David then uttered, “I knew it all along, you wuss! Know your place and do as I say. Lick my boots in the process. Also, don't forget to bark like a dog. If I'm happy, I may consider paying for your meal.”

Everyone looked towards Alex, thinking that he would abide by David's demand.

Some even retrieved their phone and switched on the video recording function. They wouldn't want to miss out on posting it online.

Zachariah stared at them excitedly. In the past, he was forced to lick the urinal because of Alex. Since then, Zachariah harbored great animosity towards him.

He reminded, “Mr. Zucker, a nasty person like him should lick the urinal until you're satisfied!”

David nodded in agreement. “That's a great idea. Roll over to the toilet and lick the urinal after you're done.”

Zachariah chuckled in elation. This is even more exciting than partying in the club!

All the while, Zachariah had been traumatized by the urinal-licking incident. However, this was the chance for him to take revenge on Alex. Obviously, he was enraptured.

Alex, serves you right!

David believed that Alex would not dare to retaliate against him. There were five of them, and his bodyguards were skilled fighters.

Besides, the Zucker family was considered one of the prominent families in Nebula City. Alex would not dare to make an enemy of the Zucker family, especially when the Jenningses were facing bankruptcy.

Chapter 636

Alex approached David in big strides. “What? To lick the urinal? What makes you think I will comply with your demands? Do you think that your three useless bodyguards can do anything to me?”

In a swift moment, David felt his domineering presence. His heart started beating rapidly, and he cowered in terror as he hid behind his bodyguards.

Nonetheless, he refused to accept defeat. “How dare you say my bodyguards as being useless! You must be blind! They're retired members of the special forces unit and can beat you up effortlessly.”

“Is that true?” Alex walked towards him, smiling. Even when facing the three bodyguards directly, Alex did not flinch.

Zachariah suddenly yelled, “Alex, even on your deathbed, you're still pretending! Mr. Zucker, ask your bodyguards to teach him a lesson!

He could not tolerate Alex at all. If he had the skills, he would surely beat up Alex himself.

David did not want to waste any time either. He instructed, “Beat him up! Even if it takes his life! If anything happens, I'll bear the responsibility.”

As a fight was about to break out, the people in the vicinity instinctively stepped backward, fearing for their safety.

Although they knew that Alex was more than capable of handling the situation, Carlene and Liana were still worried for his safety.

How can one man win a fight against five! Not to mention that they were members of the special forces unit!

We don't have enough time to call for backup.

David will not let Alex off the hook easily. Is he going to die in here?

For the short twenty years of her life, it was the first time that Carlene had romantic feelings for a man. She would not stand by and do nothing!

No way!

Carlene made a firm decision and stood up. Without hesitation, she went in front of David and said, "Mr. Zucker, please stop. I beg you..."

David gestured the three bodyguards to stop. It will be a waste if they were to hurt a pretty lady like her.

"Why? Are you pleading for mercy on his behalf?"

Alex was baffled.

Carlene nodded. "Please let Mr. Jefferson go and spare his life. I will do anything to repay you. Just let him go."

David uttered, "Anything? If I want you to keep me entertained tonight, will you agree? If you agree, I'll let him live. Ms. Bolton, what do you think?"

David was sizing her up, mesmerized by her body. He couldn't resist the thought of having sex with her right then and there.

He still could not figure out what Alex did to seduce such a beautiful woman, to the extent that she was willing to do anything for him.

Carlene closed her eyes and nodded in frustration. "All right, I agree, so long as you spare his life."

In actual fact, the three bodyguards were no match for Alex. However, he never thought that Carlene would block them in their path.

More surprisingly, she was willing to do anything to save his life, even if it meant sleeping with David.

What a huge sacrifice! Alex didn't dare to imagine.

More importantly, he would never let a woman like her fall into the claws of a scumbag like David.

Liana, who was shivering in a corner, looked up to Carlene with absolute respect.

They're both women and shared the same feelings towards Alex.

But Carlene could go so far as to sacrifice herself. Her bravery was impeccable.

David eventually pulled her into his arms. He then took a sniff of her body, imagining despicable thoughts in his mind.

Carlene stood still and did not fight back, fearing that David would go back on his word.

Just as David's hands were inching towards her body, Alex charged towards him and launched a ferocious kick. David was sent flying across the room.

Chapter 637

What just happened?

Everyone who had witnessed that scene could not believe their eyes. Someone had sent David flying with one kick.

The most notorious toy boy in Nebula City actually struck the oldest son of the Zucker family. He must be sick and tired of living!

Everyone felt that Alex was particularly ungrateful. In order to save him, Carlene was willing to offer herself. Yet, he was still looking for trouble.

David landed far away after being kicked by Alex. Thankfully, he worked out often and was in good shape. If not, he might have passed out from the attack.

Even though he did not pass out, David suffered nevertheless. Blood came gushing out from his mouth.

Zachariah and his three bodyguards were startled at that sight. They did not expect the useless Alex to be so daring.

Zachariah stared at Alex furiously. “Why the hell are you guys still standing here? Get him and beat the sh*t out of him!”

The three bodyguards rushed toward Alex aggressively, and they could not wait to tear him apart.

Alex showed no sign of fear. Instead, he took a step forward. Well, since I wanted to stretch my muscles, I might as well entertain them.

“Who dares to cause trouble on my turf?”

Just then, a loud, authoritative voice boomed from the second level. Everyone went silent and turned toward the source of the voice.

They saw Jason walking down the stairs slowly.

“Oh my! We didn't realize that the most powerful and influential Taylor family is also dining here too!”

“That's right. I heard that both the Taylor family and Zucker family have a good relationship. Now that Alex has hit David and members of the Taylor family are here, I'm pretty sure this fellow is a goner.”

“Perhaps by tomorrow, Alex will no longer exist in Nebula City.”

The crowd started gossiping among themselves, and they were very certain that Alex was going to meet his maker.

When David saw Jason, he was slightly taken aback. However, the cordial relationship between their families put him at ease.

That restaurant might be Jason's territory, but if he wanted to slaughter Alex there, David was sure that Jason would not mind.

David struggled to get up from the ground and staggered toward Jason. "Jason, it's me."

"What happened to you?" asked Jason.

David was infuriated when he thought about it.

"Jason, I don't want to talk about it. This piece of trash puts on an act in front of me. When I wasn't paying attention, he assaulted me. I didn't want to cause any trouble on your territory, but I hope you can allow me to teach this jerk a lesson.”

Jason was a little curious as well. Who could it be? Who has the guts to go against David? With that query in mind, he looked toward the crowd.

When he spotted Alex, he was thrilled. He pushed David aside and made his way toward Alex.

“Dr. Jefferson, I didn't expect you to patronize my humble restaurant. If I knew you were coming, I would have invited you to the second floor for a drink,” said Jason respectfully.

David was about to lose his mind. Did Jason just address that piece of trash as Dr. Jefferson? What's going on?

Why is he being so respectful toward Alex? That was also David's first time seeing Jason treat someone with so much reverence.

David knew Jason very well.

Jack might be the number one tycoon in Nebula City. However, the Taylor family was far more superior compared to Jack. Each and every member of the Taylor family held powerful positions.

In that moment, David was stunned.

Chapter 638

Alex turned down Jason's invitation right away.

“Thank you for the offer, but I have a small trouble that I need to deal with.”

Did Alex just reject Jason's invitation?

It's Jason after all! Is there something wrong with Alex?

Anyone who gets to speak with Jason will consider that a great honor. Who the hell is Alex?

Is he really a loser who lived off of the Jenningses?

The crowd started to notice that things might not be what they seemed to be.

After being turned down by Alex, Jason did not seem angry at all. Instead, he asked in confusion, “Dr. Jefferson, what kind of trouble are you in? I may not have your kind of expertise, but in Nebula City, I have some say in certain matters. If you trust me, please let me handle the issue for you.”

Since Jason had offered his help, Alex was more than happy to take his hands off things. He returned to the couch and pointed at David and his men.

“This is the bunch of people causing trouble for me.”

There was a complete change in the situation.

David's face darkened. This is going to be awkward for me. How did things unfold in this manner?

“Jason, this guy is a liar. How can you be duped by him? Both our families go way back. You won't go against me because of a piece of trash like him, will you?”

David refused to believe that Jason would cross the Zucker family because of a loser.

As soon as he finished his sentence, someone slapped him so hard across his face that the corner of his mouth bled, and his teeth became loose.

The person who slapped him was none other than Jason's subordinate.

Jason sneered and eyed David with disdain. “How dare you be rude to Dr. Jefferson. You don't even show me any respect. I have no choice but to teach you a lesson on Dr. Jefferson's behalf.”

When Zachariah and the three bodyguards saw David being slapped, they charged at Jason's subordinate.

It was one man against four, but Jason's subordinate was on par with them. In fact, it took him around five to six minutes to finish all of them. The four men lay on the ground and could not get up.

Zachariah, who possessed no martial arts skill, suffered the most.

Both his legs were broken, and even his arms had been dislocated. There were bruises all over his face, and he lay on the floor gasping for air like a dying dog.

“Y-You...”

David lost his brazenness when he saw all his men being beaten to the ground. In that instance, he had lost all of his confidence.

His utmost concern at that moment was to get out of that place. Once Jason was not around, he would find a way to get back at Alex.

David started retreating and made his way out of the restaurant. It was not far from his car. Once he got into his car, it would be impossible for them to get hold of him.

Unfortunately for David, his attempt to escape did not elude Alex's eyes.

“Mr. Taylor, he's trying to get away,” said Carlene all of a sudden.

Stupid woman! David was about to run out when Carlene said that.

The security guard immediately closed the door. There was nothing David could do but to wait for Alex to carry out his punishment.

David was desperate and started threatening, “Jason,

I don't know what you are thinking. How can you offend the Zucker family because of a piece of trash? If you dare to lay your hands on me today, I swear I will declare war on the Taylor family and fight you till the end!”

David's threat had no effect on Jason. Even if it meant that he had to become enemies with the Zucker family, he was unwilling to offend Alex.

After all, Alex was someone who could cure even lung cancer. Jason desired to be on good terms with Alex.

He cast a glance at David and shouted, “You have offended Dr. Jefferson! Get down on your knees and apologize to him now!”

“I will never kneel in front of a loser. No way!” cried David stubbornly.

Just as he finished his protest, someone kicked him in the knees, and it caught him off guard. He immediately fell on his knees.

As he was struggling to get up, Jason's subordinates pinned him down.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 639

“Alex, you useless piece of trash! How dare you expect me to kneel in front of you! Let go of me right now!”

David was still as arrogant as before. Even though

Jason was on Alex's side, David knew that Alex was a loser who lived off of a woman.

The moment he finished insulting Alex, he was slapped the very next second by Jason's capable subordinate.

“You...”

David was about to open his mouth to scold him again, but there was no chance of that happening. One slap after another fell on his face. There was no way David could argue back.

Two minutes later, David had lost a total of four teeth, and his face had swelled up like a pig. He looked ridiculous.

His former arrogance was gone.

“S-Stop hitting me,” begged David weakly.

Alex shot him a sideways glance and continued eating. He picked up a piece of meat with a fork and put it into his mouth. These cutleries are hard to use. I rather use the ones I have at home.

Seeing no reaction from Alex, Jason was worried that he was not satisfied with the punishment. He said to David, “Apologize to Dr. Jefferson and ask for his forgiveness! If not, the beating will continue!”

“M-Mr. Jefferson, I beg of you. Please don't hold it against me. Please forgive me. I won't do it again.”

Afraid of being beaten again, David could not be bothered with his pride anymore. He got down on his knees and begged for mercy in front of everyone.

“Well, since you have already been punished, I can let it go!” Alex wiped his mouth with the napkin. What a chaotic meal.

Jason gestured with his hand, and several security guards threw David and his four unconscious men out on the street.

As his bum landed on the ground, it hurt so bad that David wanted to scold the security guards. Just then, he saw Alex looking in his direction, and he had to control himself.

This was the first time in his life that he had suffered such great humiliation. David hated Alex right to the core, but there was nothing he could do about it.

He looked down at the four unconscious subordinates of his and kicked one of them viciously.

“Useless piece of sh*t! When I get back, I'm going to fire all of you!” With that, he spat on the man on the ground.

David could not care less about their wellbeing. He walked alone to the parking lot and planned to drive home.

Shortly after, David noticed three men with their backs facing him, and they were blocking his way.

The anger in him had not subsided, so David yelled at the three men, “Get out of my way!”

At that moment, the three fellows turned around. The two men and one woman were the three powerhouses of the Phoenix Organization, Ashton, Bucker, and Aurora. They were also known as Zeus, Kong, and Persephone.

All three of them looked at David at the same time.

David could sense a murderous aura coming in his direction.

He started to panic and took a few steps back.

“You are...”

Before he could finish talking, Bucker threw a punch at a car next to him. Bang! The car flew and crashed into other cars before stopping.

David's eyes were about to pop out. Surely, he isn't a human? He only threw one punch, and the car went flying.

When David turned to look at them again, all he saw was a shadow charging at him.

Before he could react, there was a pat on his shoulder, and he heard the voice of a woman behind him. It was Aurora.

“You don't need to know who we are. All you need to know is that we can help you to kill Alex.”

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 640

“All of you can help me to get rid of Alex?” asked David in disbelief.

Those three mysterious and powerful characters appeared out of the blue and claimed that they could help him to eliminate Alex. David refused to believe that such a good thing could just happen like that.

Ashton was toying with his hidden weapon and responded, “Of course, but not now. You will need to arrange for a secret hideout for us to stay.”

“Fine! I promise you that as long as you can kill Alex for me, nothing else matters. In addition, I will pay you for your service,” agreed David.

There was no doubt about their abilities since David had witnessed it with his own eyes. Furthermore, they must have slaughtered countless people in order to exude such dangerous vibes.

Alex, I want to see if you will be so lucky to escape the next time.

Aurora smiled disdainfully. “There's no need for any payment. We are not interested.”

How much money can the Zucker family possibly give? Money is the last thing that Phoenix Organization needs.

Despite being despised, David dared not utter a single word. Knowing their abilities, he was smart enough not to offend them.

David took the three of them to one of his villas located in the suburb.

“Why did you stop me from killing that fellow?” asked Bucker in puzzlement.

Earlier on, when David was walking out of the villa, Bucker had wanted to smash his brain to pieces. However, Ashton put a stop to it. As a result, Bucker was unhappy.

Back when David told them to get out of his way,

Bucker was already prepared to kill him.

Ashton explained, “Kong, don't be so impulsive. David will come in handy. Don't forget our current situation.”

Aurora sat on the couch and placed her long, slim legs on the coffee table. “For the time being, we have to keep a low profile. We have sneaked into Eurasia, and the secret forces are still hunting for us. Are you trying to attract their attention?”

Upon hearing that, Kong became quiet. It was true that he could not do anything to David. On top of that, they had to figure out a way to kill Alex without alerting the secret forces in Eurasia.

Aurora said casually, “If we know how to manipulate David, Alex may even come to us on his own. When that happens, the combined forces of the three of us will be enough to finish him off.”

Meanwhile, the moment David reached home, he called for a private doctor to attend to his bruises and replace the teeth that he had lost.

During the entire process, David was in such agonizing pain that he even beat his doctor to vent his frustration.

“David, are you all right?” asked Zachariah with concern when he saw the state David was in.

Zachariah was sitting in a wheelchair, and someone had pushed him into the room.

Once David saw who it was, he threw the ice pack that he had been holding to his face at Zachariah.

“You still got the cheek to ask? If the four of you weren't so useless, I wouldn't have suffered such humiliation!”

There was no way Zachariah could have dodged the ice pack since his legs were broken. The ice pack hit him right on his head, and a bump appeared almost instantly.

With an aggrieved expression, Zachariah said, “Mr. Zucker, you saw it yourself too. We have tried our best, but Jason's man was too powerful. We stood no chance of winning.”

Suddenly, David remembered the three mysterious characters, and he felt a burst of confidence. “It won't be long now for Alex.”

Zachariah had no idea why David said that. Alex had Jason on his side, and there was nothing they could do.

“David, Alex has Jason as a backer.”

David snorted and said, “So what? The Taylor family is nothing!”

No matter how powerful and influential the Taylor family was, David believed that they did not possess highly skilled fighters in the likes of the three mysterious characters.
