

Chapter 0064

Chapter 0064

Tia had no idea that Renea would have such an influence and made so many people support her.

"Excuse me, is this Miss Hughes?"

Tia looked at the man in a suit and leather shoes in front of her when she regained her senses after nodding in confusion. She answered yes

"Hello, I am the lawyer entrusted by Miss Morris. This is the lawyer's letter that Miss Morris asked me to pass you," As Ethan spoke, he handed over the lawyer's letter.

Tia was so scared that she took a few steps back and did not dare to pick up the lawyer's letter.

Looking at her panic-stricken look, the corners of Ethan's lips curved up slightly and he sneered in disdain.

'Since she was regretting her doing now, why did she do it in the first place?' Ethan thought.

"Mr. lawyer did you make a mistake? We are just ordinary people, and we don't offend anyone. How could we involve in a lawsuit?"

Ethan laughed out of extreme anger at Mrs. Hughes's last struggle. However, then he felt like laughing upon finding out how ridiculous Isabella was an insult of laughter.

'They were really like a family. Why didn't they expect that things would turn out this when they use slander to earn money?' He scoffed inwardly.

If something went wrong, he would lose the common people as an excuse. The common people could not bear it.

Ethan handed the lawyer's letter to Tia again, "Miss Hughes."

"No, I didn't do anything wrong. What right does Renea have to sue me?" Tia didn't take the lawyer's letter, no matter what.

"I wasn't the one who kept her as a mistress. I just... just ... I just proved that she got in a luxury car."

Ethan lost his patience and put the lawyer's letter on the table.

Just as he was about to leave, the door of the ward pushed open again, and several uniformed people came in.

"Excuse me who is Miss Hughes?"

Looking at the person who came Tia's face turned pale as she stammered, "I... I'm."

"Hello we are in charge of the donation stations. Someone reported that you borrowed the donation. Please come with us."

"No... no... no, I didn't." Tia was so scared that she stepped back step by step. Her pale face became paler.

At this moment Tia's mother fan also panicked and said, "Are you mistaken? What kind of trap is this? My husband is indeed suffering from cancer. The hospital fees and medical fees can be found in the hospital."

"Yes... yes, yes." Tia grabbed the straw for help and hurriedly explained,

“My father's cancer is real, so the treatment fees. You can check it. I didn't lie to you, please trust me.”

“We will conduct an investigation and hope that you can cooperate with us.”

After saying that the people in charge of the business gave orders.

Seeing this, Ethan frivolously raised his eyebrows. Since all the relevant information had been released, the higher-ups might have already investigated it thoroughly.

Even if Tia's father did have cancer and needed support, the amount of money he needed to pay was several times higher than the amount he needed to support. There was still no support for him to stand up, which was already a lie.

It looks like Kevin was worrying too much. Even if he hadn't appeared, Renea would have been able to resolve this matter.

Even he was full of administration of the method of taking drastic measures.

Looking at the report, Tia was desperate.

Isabella panicked when she saw that her daughter had been taken by a man who was responsible for the crime. She went up to them and said, “You can't take my daughter away.”

“Mom... mom... go find Kailey. Go and find Kailey quickly. The one who can help me now is her,” Tia said hurriedly.

She felt that Kailey would be the only person who could help her now.

Kailey had said that she would help her.

Isabella nodded repeatedly and could only watch helplessly as Tia was taken away.

In the Morris family.

After leaving the hospital, Isabella went to the Morris family to find Kailey. However, the housekeeper didn't even let her in. She wasn't even able to see Kailey.

However, Tia said that now Kailey was the only one who could save her, So, Isabella would not give up so easily. Even if she didn't see anyone, she didn't leave.

Kailey was in a room on the second floor. Through the window, she looked at Isabella, who was standing by the roadside, and her face darkened.

"Why hasn't this old thing left yet?" She said.

Kailey's face was filled with anger. She opened the door and shouted downstairs, "Butler, why is this that person still outside the door?"

"Miss I have already told her that you are not here, but she won't leave, no matter what," the Butler said awkwardly.

"I don't care. Get her out of here," Kailey shouted.

'If her father came back late and know that she had connection with the Hughes family, it will be not good for her.'

'Now, that Renea had won father's heart because of Arron, she could not lose her father's heart at this moment.'

'Besides, Tia was already a useless goof for nothing. It was useless to save her.' Kailey thought inwardly.

"Yes!" The Butler left an embarrassment.

It was raining softly in the sky, however, Isabella had no intention of leaving. She knew that Kailey was at home, so she had to see her today, no matter what.

She had only one daughter Tia, who had been smart since she was a child. Now, she got to the Dream High Academy, which was the hope of the Hughes family. If Tia went to prison, what else could she look forward to?

"Why are you still here? I told you that Miss Kailey is not here. Get out." The Butler said impatiently.

He drove Isabella away like he was driving away some cat or dog.

Isabella grabbed the Butler's arm and refused to let go. She cried and begged, "Please... please, let me see Kailey, just once. I will just say a word to her and leave."

"Miss Kailey is not at home." The Butler pushed Isabella away impatiently.

Then he looked at the bodyguard standing behind him and yelled, "What are you guys waiting for? Get her out of here."

Hearing that, the bodyguards stepped forward and dragged Isabella away from there.

Chapter 0064

"I beg you... please let me see Kailey. I really have something to urgent to talk her about..."

However, no matter how hard Isabella begged no one paid attention to her.

The bodyguards drag Isabella on the road and throw her on the roadside.

Isabella sat by the road, crying in grief and despair.

SURPRISE GIFT: 100 BONUS FREE FOR YOU

GET IT

Comments

Support