

The Hidden Billionaire Heiress (Lyra Melvin) Chapter 84

Darkbell's messaging network and hacking skills were all at an elite level, and he soon found Hannah's location and sent it to her phone.

It was an abandoned playground.

It seemed that it was not just a disappearance, but an abduction.

"Dog eat dog? Kind of interesting."

Lyra looked at the information that popped up on her phone screen and smiled lightly.

Knowing the exact location, she took action immediately, changed her clothes, and quickly went alone.

This time, the people who was behind the scenes seemed to be not expecting her to come so quickly, and only one person was sent to guard here.

A dilapidated shack in the amusement park.

Hannah was blindfolded and tied tightly to a chair, being anxious and upset.

She thought she was going to be killed, but suddenly she heard the sound of a fight coming from outside!

Was someone coming to her rescue?

She was so excited that she knocked over her chair and squirmed on the floor, crawling over in the direction of the door.

Just halfway up, the iron door was slammed open and there were very soft footsteps getting closer.

But she didn't dare to move or make a sound because she didn't know which side was winning out there!

Until the black cloth in front of her eyes was lifted, and after gradually seeing the face of the person in front of her, her pupils were dilated.

She can't believe it was Lyra from ...Angle Group!

And she can't believe she came alone!

So did she know what she had done?

"Who are you? ... are you here to kill me too?"

Lyra looked at the girl on the ground whose lips were trembling. Obviously she was scared to death, but still pretended not to recognize her.

She didn't know that her subtle changes in expression could not escape Lyra Lloyd's eyes.

Lyra didn't want to talk to her and got straight to the point, "Tell me, who told you to put Stephanie in the water on purpose? Who was contacting you?"
