Chapter 841

Tris could only blink his widened eyes, unable to believe that he could not even last a minute against the young man.

He's so young, but he's so powerful! Alex's action was beyond Tris' imagination. Even Hadriel of Raven Sect was not as skillful as Alex at his age.

Being swift, accurate, and ruthless, Alex had not given him any room to do anything. The young man in front of Tris was truly terrifying. It was only at that moment Tris realized how much danger he was in.

“Young man, don't... don't do anything first. Let's talk it out. I shouldn't have crossed you. Tell me any requests you have in mind, and I'll do my best to fulfill them. Please don't kill me,” Tris begged.

The men in the hot spring thought that Alex had a death wish, but as it turned out, the one who was doomed was Tris. Hence, they could not help but be impressed by the young man's prowess.

If they were as capable as Alex, they would not have let an old gay pervert toy with them like that.

Meanwhile, Alex did not let go of Tris' neck. He had yet to say anything threatening, but Tris was already terrified for his life.

“If you want to live, then tell me everything about Leight Sect. If I find out that you are lying to me about something, I'll make sure to torment you to the point you'd wish you were dead!”

The entire time, Alex had a smile on his face. Once he was done with his speech, he used his left hand to invoke his Mortal Force before shooting it toward one of the decorative rocks. Instantly, it disintegrated.

Furthermore, many had seen the gigantic golden afterimage of a palm after Alex had shot out his hand.

One of those people was Tris. A moment ago, he did not know how powerful Alex was, only that he was powerful. However, he now knew that Alex was certainly a Grandmaster, for he could materialize his Mortal Force.

A Grandmaster in his twenties is something unheard of even in the secret forces. Who really is this young man?

“I'll tell you everything! I'll tell you everything!”

Tris was convinced that Alex was truly powerful.

Without daring to omit anything, he then told Alex about Leight Sect's details.

In Leight Sect, there were three elders and one Sect Leader—Young. The first elder was almost a Grandmaster, and the second elder was a third-phase Master.

Alex did not think of the three elders as a threat. Even if they were to attack him all at once, he would still be able to defeat them easily. Although they were only a phase or two away from him, the power gap between each phase was massive.

On the other hand, the Sect Leader of Leight Sect would not be an easy opponent. He was a Grandmaster. Similar to Alex, he was in the first-phase, but Young had been in the first-phase for over twenty years. Hence, he was exceptionally well-versed in controlling his Mortal Force.

Still, regardless of everything, Alex was someone who had exchanged blows with the three second-phase Grandmasters in Doomsday Prison. Therefore, he would still be able to fight against Alex.

The only thing Alex was worried about was whether or not Young would have some kind of secret weapon or some kind of Pill. As he could not get any information about that from Tris, Alex decided to find out in other ways.

If he did anything reckless, then he would become the target of the entire Leight Sect. The best method for him would be to defeat all of the elders first before dealing with Young. That way, Alex would not need to worry much about any aces Young had up his sleeve.

As for the perverted Tris, Alex did not show him any mercy. He slammed his hand on the top of Tris' head,

“I don't know how many men you've forced to serve you. The mere thought of me disgusts me. Someone like you should go to hell as soon as possible.”

Once Tris was dead, the men in the hot spring instantly tried to escape. If they were to succeed in escaping, others would surely find out what happened in the hot spring.

“If you don't want to die, stay right here. Anyone who doesn't listen will end up the same way as this old pervert!” Alex roared, and the people instantly stopped moving.

Not a single soul there dared to make a sound.

Once Alex was done with Tris, he walked toward the doorway, about to look for the other two elders.

However, just as he opened the door, he was greeted with the sight of someone familiar.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 842

“Alex, I was just about to look for you! I didn't think you'd have come out by yourself. Well, that saves my time,” Zack said to him.

The moment Alex saw the lunchbox in Zack's hand, he realized what was going on—Zack had to be there to bring him food.

“Did you make this yourself?” Alex asked.

Zack nodded with a smile before exclaiming, “Alex, from now on, I get to stay at the Grant residence's kitchen. I don't need to be a security guard anymore! I'm now in charge of peeling the potatoes and washing the ingredients in the kitchen. Although I can't cook yet, I'm sure I'll rise in ranks in the kitchen eventually. This is the dinner I've made for you. Hurry and try it! Alex, you've helped me out so much today. I don't know how to repay you because I'm neither talented nor rich. This is the only thing I can give to you. I'm really sorry.”

Alex then patted the sad Zack's shoulders and consoled, “You're a man. Why are you mumbling and grumbling? Man up. This is nothing. Since you've made this for me, then give it to me and let me try it out.”

Alex then took the lunchbox from Zack. The moment he opened the lid, he saw the delicious roasted meat. Even Alex, who had eaten all kinds of delicacies, drooled at the sight of the food.

He then put a piece of the meat into his mouth. Instantly, the flavor exploded on his tongue. The meat tasted wonderful, and indeed, Zack was a fantastic cook. It seemed like there was a reason for his size, for the food he made was far too appetizing.

Soon, he polished off the food in the lunchbox. As he wiped his mouth, Alex praised, “Your cooking is amazing. It's a waste for you to be cooking here. Why don't you come and work for me from now on instead?”

If the Jefferson family had a cook like Zachary, Alex would definitely gain more weight despite being an extremely self-disciplined person. Moreover, Zachary and Stanley would certainly be able to enjoy good food every day if Zack were to say yes to him.

Zack never thought Alex would say that, so he was taken aback for a moment. Then, he asked in confusion, “Alex, did you just say that it's a waste for me to be here and asked me to work for you?”

“That's right. Would you give up on joining the secret forces and coming to work for me instead?” Alex queried.

In a way, it was fate for the two to have encountered on the bus. Moreover, the two of them had gone through Cory's incident together. Additionally, Zack had deliberately brought him dinner. Hence, more or less, Alex liked Zack's character.

If Zack were willing to give up on joining the secret forces to work for him, Alex would certainly treat him well. However, if he chose to remain in the secret forces, then perhaps, after ridding the secret forces, Alex would not keep an eye out for Zack anymore.

Meanwhile, Zack hesitated upon hearing Alex's question. He did not know much about Alex, for the two only met today.

On the other hand, working for the secret forces, even if he was only working in the kitchen, was akin to working for gods. The job he had was something others yearned for.

“Alex, from now on, I'll be working for you,” Zack finally said with determination.

After mulling over everything, Zack came to one conclusion—Alex had saved his life, so what reason did he have to reject the other man?

In the beginning, Alex wanted to get rid of the two elders in Leight Sect that night. However, he ended up drinking and chatting away with Zack.

One was a talented and rich genius, and the other was a poor man from a village.

Despite their differences in identities, the two were merrily drinking and chatting. That night, Alex was the listener, listening to Zack's stories.

Chapter 843

The next morning, Alex put on his clothes and planned to go out for a walk after he woke up. Since Tris' death would be found out before long, Alex needed to finish some matters as soon as he could.

Alex wandered around the Grant residence because he wanted to know the level of the disciples in Leight Sect.

After observing for some time, he noticed that there were hundreds of disciples there. Although the Grant residence was a big place, there weren't enough rooms for everyone. Therefore, some of the disciples lived minutes away from the Grant residence. That way, they could get to the Grant residence should there be any emergencies.

Besides that, Alex didn't think of the disciples here as his threat since the highest level of the disciples was only a first-phase Master.

Just as he wanted to ask about the address of the two elders, a shrill voice rang out from behind him.

“Hold it right there!”

Alex turned to the source of the voice and saw Eve behind him. Seeing that it was Zack's ex-wife, Alex continued walking and ignored her completely.

“You're just Mr. Tris' toy! Who gave you the right to wander around? Don't you know you'll make the place dirty with your footsteps?” Eve yelled at him when she saw him walking away.

She only heard from the two black-robed men that Alex was only chosen due to Tris' fetish.

Alex shouted back at her, “B*tch, could you shut up? Do you want to let the entire know how much of a sl*t you are?”

Eve's face turned red with anger because she didn't expect Alex to speak to her like that. The next moment, she shook the arm of the black-robed man and said pitifully to him, "Look at him! He's disrespecting you! You have to teach him a lesson!"

The black-robed man was none other than the man in charge of the selection process the other day. That was why he knew Alex.

"You're right. He needs to be taught a lesson! Baby, how should I take care of him?" the man asked Eve as he caressed her cheek.

Eve didn't like Alex from before. Besides, with how he spoke to her earlier, she wanted to get back at him badly.

"I feel angry whenever I see his face. Can you chase him out of Leight Sect? He's not worthy of being in here anyway!”

The man hesitated a little when he heard what she said. Since Alex is Mr. Tris' now, I don't have the right to chase him out without Mr. Tris' command.

In the eyes of a commoner, he was a God. However, he was merely a plain disciple with martial artist level from Leight Sect.

“I can't help with that, but I can beat him up for you. Would you like that?” the man said.

Eve wasn't completely unwise, so she considered the man's suggestion. That idea isn't too bad. If it weren't because of this nosy person, Zack would definitely take me back!

“Okay! Please let him pay and beg for mercy!”

Alex scoffed as he watched the two of them. He remembered how Zack still called out to Eve's name last night when Zack was drunk. Oh, Zack. Why do you have to do this to yourself? This woman doesn't deserve you.

Alex wouldn't go easy on anyone who proactively provoked him. Therefore, he struck the man's chest immediately when he saw the man dashing toward him.

There were only about five to six meters between them. However, before the man even touched Alex, he flung backward immediately as a result of Mortal Force.

In an instant, the man flopped to the ground hard, and his bones shattered. It was supposed to be a fatal blow, so the man was lucky to be alive because Alex decided to hold back a little.

When Eve saw how the man flung backward, she was completely terrified. She was rooted to the spot and was trembling uncontrollably.

She used to think that Alex was someone who only had money, but she didn't realize that he was so strong.

“Hey, you asked for Cory's help and that loser's help to teach me a lesson, didn't you? So, anyone else?” Alex asked while smirking.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Eve was completely out of ideas. She didn't expect Alex to be so strong. How can I win against that?

She didn't want the same fate to befall her, so she quickly got down on her knees to beg for Alex's forgiveness. "I'm sorry! I'm so sorry! I was wrong! Please don't hold it against me! I'll do anything you ask! Please have mercy on me!"

Alex shoved her away with his leg. He didn't want anything to do with her because he completely despised her. If it weren't for Zack, he would've already killed her.

Eve felt angry inside the moment Alex kicked her. What? I'm already begging for your forgiveness like that, but you're still treating me this way?

At that moment, Eve saw two men from a distance walking toward them. They were wearing gorgeous and expensive-looking clothes. Although they had wrinkles on their faces, it was obvious that they were of some special status.

Eve recalled that the black-robed man mentioned something about the two elders of Leight Sect. If I'm right, those two are the first and second elders of Leight Sect!

It was as if she had found a ray of hope when she saw the two elders. Hah! Alex, your end is near!

The next moment, she got up and scoffed at Alex. "Hah! You're just as sickening as Zack! Don't you even dare to think that I'm afraid of you just because I kneeled earlier! If you think that you're unbeatable just because you are a little strong, you're dead wrong! Look behind you. The first and second elders are coming here. They'll surely make you pay for hurting their disciple!”

When the first elder, Vladimir, and the second elder, Demetrius, were one hundred meters away from Alex, the latter had already felt their presence. The reason he killed time with Eve and the disciple was that he was waiting for the two elders to reach him.

I can't believe this stupid woman thought of them as her savior. How foolish!

“Nobody in the world can stop me from dealing with you. Besides, I've already thought of the perfect way to deal with you. The best way is to destroy your pretty face so that you won't be able to seduce other men in the future,” Alex replied coldly.

Eve subconsciously took a few steps backward while cupping her own face with one hand when she heard Alex's terrifying threats.

“Y-You...” she said while pointing at Alex with her other hand. At that time, she was terror-stricken and angry at him.

When the two elders were just a few steps away, she ran toward them and shouted, “Mr. Vladimir! Mr. Demetrius! Please help! That man killed someone from Leight Sect!”

Originally, the two elders were chatting happily. However, when they heard Eve's cry for help, they looked in Alex's direction and saw the disciple gasping for breath nearby.

“Mr. Vladimir, Mr. Demetrius! This is the guy who beat him up. This man said he wished to destroy the entire Leight Sect!” she continued.

Hmph! No matter how strong you are, there's no way you can fight against these two elders! Hahahaha!

You're definitely done for this time!

However, something else happened which was completely out of her expectations. Instead of running for his life, Alex attacked the two elders.

At first, the two elders underestimated his abilities. They only realized how dangerous Alex was when he landed a blow on Demetrius' body.

Since Demetrius didn't defend himself, Alex sent him flying. Fortunately, Vladimir caught him in time. Despite that, the attack made Demetrius spew a mouthful of blood.

“Demetrius! Are you okay?” Vladimir worriedly asked as he caught Demetrius.

Alex used the same amount of force in this attack as he did with the disciple. The latter only ended up that way because he was only at the level of a martial artist.

On the other hand, Demetrius was at the top form of his third-phase Master. Although he didn't suffer as much damage as the disciple, he was badly hurt as well.

Demetrius pressed his hand against his chest.

“Vladimir... He's no ordinary man! That attack was almost as powerful as yours. We must be careful!”

Demetrius said as he looked at Alex warily.

Seeing Demetrius' injuries, Vladimir didn't look down on Alex anymore, and he completely believed what Eve said earlier.

It seems that this man is here to wipe our Leight Sect.

Both elders exchanged glances briefly and launched an attack against Alex at the same time. Eve, who was standing at the side, smirked at the sight of that. There's no way you'll survive this time, Alex!

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 845

“Who the hell are you? Why at you here in Leight Sect?” Vladimir asked Alex coldly.

The latter's appearance caught the two elders off guard because they thought they were the strongest. Where did this young man with extraordinary powers come from? I have to find out who sent him here so that I can prepare all the sects for the invasion.

“Who am I? I'm just someone who doesn't like how you do things in the secret world! You pretend to be all high and mighty! Well, I don't care if secret forces are formed, but if you do as you please in the real world, I'll have to step in,” Alex replied.

“Do you really think someone like you can stop us? You'll have to go through us first!” Demetrius snapped back in his deep voice.

He had a grudge against Alex after the latter attacked him. Now, you wish to fight Leight Sect? I won't let you!

“Let's stop wasting time. We'll attack him together and get rid of him for good! Once we're done, we'll send him to Master Leighton and let Master Leighton decide what to do with him,” Vladimir interrupted while holding a talisman with his fingers.

As for Demetrius, he took out a weapon and charged at Alex at the same time as Vladimir.

Since Alex didn't think highly of the two elders, he put some distance between them and himself with a single kick. Coincidentally, he dodged Vladimir's Totem of Electric.

The moment he dodged it, a yellow talisman appeared at the place he was at. Immediately, lightning struck the ground, and a big, black hole was formed.

What was that? The talisman can direct the energy from lightning! I'm going to become ashes if it hits me! As expected of an elder! The runes that he's using are even stronger than the late Mr. Tris'!

“Let's see if you can dodge this! Hah!” Demetrius cried out as he aimed his Sword of Thunder at Alex's chest.

Alex was able to tell the power of Mortal Force and energy from Leight Sect from Sword of Thunder.

With a nimble move, Alex dodged the attack and countered. He punched Demetrius' back with a swift move as he narrowed his eyes. Once again, he sent Demetrius flying.

In the meantime, three more talismans appeared in Vladimir's hand, and he was muttering some incantation that Alex couldn't identify. The next moment, the talismans self-combusted.

What is he doing? Oh, sh*t! He's going to use the ultimate move!

In an instant, a big circle appeared under him. Just as he wanted to move away from the circle, he realized he couldn't leave the narrow space. He seemed to be separated from the world outside the magical circle by Mortal Force.

Without hesitation, Alex blasted at the invisible shield with Mortal Force. However, it was futile. Nothing happened to the invisible shield at all. It was as if his Mortal Force was completely absorbed by the air.

“Stop it. It's no use. I can't believe I'll have to use Five Lightning Talisman against you. You'll die a worthy death. Don't even think about walking out of that circle alive. Unless you can survive Lightning Tribulation,” Vladimir coldly announced when he saw how Alex was struggling.

Of course, the world outside the circle would not be able to attack Alex as well.

Right after Vladimir finished talking, the sky turned dark and was covered with dark clouds in an instant. The wind was strong as well.

Sounds of thunder could be heard repeatedly in the sky while lightning danced through the sky like a dragon. The lightning looked like it would strike at any moment.

Eve was stunned by what she saw. At the same time, she admired the mighty beings from Leight Sect even more. Mr. Vladimir can control the lightning! Hahaha! Alex, you'll definitely die this time!

Chapter 846

In that short period of time, countless ideas on how to escape from the space in the circle appeared in Alex's mind. Sh*t! I have to get out of here! There's no way I'll stand and wait for my doom! Even if he was strong, he could sense how dangerous Lightning Tribulation was.

At first, he planned to break the invisible shield of the space and get out. However, he quickly thought of another way after that plan failed. The second way was to dig a hole and escape before the lightning struck.

Alex then noticed that he was completely trapped even when he tried to dig. He had no way out.

With that, Alex sat down and prepared himself mentally for the lightning. It seems that I can't dodge these lightning strikes this time. Fine! Since I can't escape, I'll just brace through them! I doubt that this half-*ssed Grandmaster can kill me with them. If I died because of that, then I'm not a real Grandmaster.

Alex watched the sky as it grew darker and waited patiently for the lightning to strike. Suddenly, lightning in the shape of a dragon came at him.

In the face of such a sudden blast of lightning, Alex had no other choice but to conjure his energy to hold against it.

Bam!

The moment the lightning struck, he felt as if he was electrocuted. All his clothes lit up in flames and turned to ash. His hair was no exception.

He continued standing strong despite his darkened skin after the first lightning strike. In fact, the lightning was stronger than that in Doomsday Prison.

Although the lightning strike was strong, it was weaker than what Alex had expected. The next moment, the second lightning struck. It was stronger than the first one that even holes appeared on the ground.

Alex swayed a little from the lightning, but he remained standing.

Vladimir was shocked to see Alex standing after receiving two lightning strikes because he didn't expect the latter to be so strong.

Hmph! So what if he can handle two lightning strikes? There are five in total, and each strike gets stronger than the one before! There's no way he's powerful enough to survive all of the five lightning strikes!

Bam!

After that, the third lightning struck Alex directly. Even Eve, Vladimir, and Demetrius could sense that it was stronger than the two lightning strikes from earlier.

Although they didn't get struck by the lightning strikes, they could feel the numbness on their skin from more than ten meters away. Oh my God! I wonder how Alex is feeling?

With that, the three of them turned in Alex's direction. The third lightning strike was so strong that the entire space in the circle was covered with black smoke. No one could see how things were inside.

The three of them continued to stare until the black smoke slowly cleared up.

Alex's knees and hands were on the ground, and he was badly injured from the third lightning strike. After coughing twice, he slowly got up.

After experiencing the power from the three lightning strikes, Alex was certain that Vladimir didn't create the talismans himself. Then, he recalled Tris' talisman.

The gap between the power of Tris' and Vladimir's talismans is too big!

However, he knew that he didn't have the time to ponder on that since two more lightning strikes were coming.

Alex didn't defend himself at all when he received the first three strikes. However, Alex prepared himself for the fourth strike by conjuring Mortal Force so that it would surround his body like a shield.

“Oh my God! He can still stand up! He's too strong!”
Demetrius exclaimed as his eyes almost popped out in shock.

Vladimir's expression darkened at the sight of that as well. As he thought of something, his expression lightened slightly. Hmph! You might be strong, but Five Lightning Talisman is stronger!

Chapter 847

The three talismans were given to Vladimir by Young, and it was one of the two precious weapons of Leight Sect. The strongest weapon was Nine Lightning Whip in Young's hands, while Five Lightning Talisman was the second strongest.

The reason Vladimir decided to use such a precious weapon was that he felt he might lose his life if he didn't use it, especially after Alex landed the blow on Demetrius. In the end, he used it with the hopes of ending Alex's life.

Vladimir's guesses about Alex's strength were confirmed after seeing how Alex endured the three lightning strikes. If Demetrius and I continued to attack like how we did earlier, there's a big chance that we'll become dead bodies by now. His body is so terrifyingly strong! Could it be that he's more powerful than Master Leighton?

Vladimir stopped himself from thinking too much about it out of fear. Instead, he prayed that the Five Lightning Talisman would be able to kill Alex.

Bam!

The fourth lightning struck, and the two elders took more than ten steps backward in response to it. They were afraid of getting hurt by the strong lightning.

As for Eve, the colors drained from her face as she hurriedly ran more than ten meters away and hid behind a big rock. Once she hid there, she peeked a little in Alex's direction.

You'll surely die this time! I'm sure you'll become charred meat after the lightning strike!

Although Alex had his Mortal Force to protect him, he still suffered from heavy injuries because the fourth lightning was too powerful.

He couldn't hold it in anymore, so he spat out a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground. His breathing became irregular.

At that moment, a childlike voice sounded in his mind.

“Master! Master! Are you okay? Should I help?”

“Can you do that? How can you help?” Alex asked in his mind.

“Hey! I'm an ancient jade, okay? I'm strong! Although I haven't reached that level yet, I can still use some powers to cast an extra layer of protection around your body. You will still feel the impact of the lightning, but you'll feel a lot better. At least your life won't be in danger,” the condensed jade, Jade, said happily.

Ever since he got his hands on the condensed jade, he had known how amazing Jade was. However, he didn't expect it to be a growth-type of treasure. Wow! Jade is really amazing! Its power is already so strong now. If it gets even stronger, won't its powers be off the charts?

“No, I'm good. It's only five bolts of lightning. I'm too weak if I need your help with that,” Alex rejected it.

Alex could feel that the energy in his body had heightened after enduring the four lightning strikes. Although it hurt him a lot, the lightning strikes weren't completely useless.

I wonder how powerful is the fifth lightning?

“Master, are you sure you don't need my help? W-What if... Master, please reconsider it. Five Lightning Talisman is very powerful! Not even a Grandmaster in the second phase can survive it easily!” Jade said. Her voice was full of worry.

Although it was asking Alex, it had already made up its mind that if Alex's life was in critical danger, it would do its best to save his life even if Alex turned him down.

“I know what you're thinking. Listen, you don't need to do anything. I don't think I'll need external forces to survive the lightning!” Alex said as he clenched his fists tightly, and his aura radiated from his skin. I must try it this time!

Bam!

With the fifth lightning strike, the Grand residence shook, and the plants swayed from side to side as if they were cowering in fear.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 848

“Oh my God! Why is there lightning and thunder out of nowhere? This is too scary! Let's wait in the house!”

“No way! It looks like a God's tribulation. Oh my goodness! Get into the house! The lightning looks way too scary! I think anyone who is hit by the lightning will definitely become shreds!”

“Is that caused by the Five Lightning Talisman of Leight Sect? The opponent must be super strong for them to resort to using it!”

“No matter how strong he is, he'll surely die after that lightning!”

The chatter continued among Leight Sect. However, no one dared to get close. Normally, in this kind of situation, the wise would choose to stay in their homes. Only the unwise would get close to see what was going on.

Young Leighton, head of Leight Sect, heard the thunder from Five Lightning Talisman even when he was training at home. He opened his eyes when he heard the sound.

“Could it be that someone amazing is here? I don't think Vladimir will use Five Lightning Talisman if he has any other choice,” he murmured.

Even if that person is strong, he won't be able to leave the space in the magic circle. He's as good as dead there!

He closed his eyes again and continued training the moment he thought about that.

Ahh! I don't care if I don't get to see his body! Eve scrambled off to save her own life because the lightning was too scary.

Meanwhile, the two elders used their Mortal Force to protect themselves when they saw the situation. They knew how powerful the lightning was, so they moved more than ten meters backward before it was safe.

As for Alex, he had no way of escaping the lightning. The moment it hit him, he felt that everything was pinning him down, and the feeling was followed by an intense numbness. The surface of his skin burned, and there was a hint of barbeque smell from his skin.

Instead of being blasted into ash, Alex lay on the ground without moving. He looked like a corpse without any signs of life.

“He's dead! He should be honored to be killed under the five bolts of lightning! But, it's really a pity that I had to use Five Lightning Talisman. I wonder when's the next time I get to have the talisman of this power again?” Vladimir sighed.

“I doubt that we can stand against him if you didn't use the talisman. We would've surely died if it wasn't for your quick thinking,” Demetrius said worriedly.

Vladimir nodded in agreement. It's a little wasteful, but I'm glad our lives are saved.

Right at that moment, Alex's charred body moved, and he eventually got up.

When Vladimir and Demetrius saw that, their eyes widened in shock, and they slumped to the ground. They couldn't believe their eyes.

“How is that possible? How can that b*stard still be alive from all that lightning?” Vladimir sputtered in disbelief.

Demetrius, who was standing next to Vladimir, was completely dumbfounded. He was so shocked that he couldn't think anymore, so he was only staring at Alex.

Suddenly, Alex charged at them with his palm attack. A faint golden palm with dancing lightning dragons could be seen from a distance in the air.

Bam!

Before the two elders could react, they turned to ash and had disappeared from the surface of the Earth.

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 849

Alex survived the five bolts of lightning, but he suffered from great injuries. The surface of his body was charred, and he looked like a scary, hideous monster.

“Master! I'll heal you!” Jade said worriedly.

This time, Alex didn't turn it down. Instead, he nodded. I can still handle the pain, but I look way too scary right now. I think anyone who walks by me and sees the state I'm in right now will be wetting their pants. It's perfect timing for Jade to heal my appearance!

Jade released some energy after getting Alex's agreement. Immediately, a ray of golden light wrapped around Alex's body, and his charred skin slowly healed itself. Not long after, the charred skin was replaced by soft and supple skin.

Eventually, there was no sign of char on his skin. Although his skin was completely healed from the golden light, he had become a big baldy.

Jade laughed out loud when it saw Alex's bright head. "Master, you look too funny! You became a big baldy! Hahahaha! You look exactly like an egg!"

Since Alex lost his hair when he was burned by the lightning, no one knew if it would grow out again. There was a possibility that Alex would be bald for the rest of his life.

As Jade laughed happily, it didn't realize Alex's darkening expression.

The next instant, Alex knocked on Jade's forehead. "Ouch! Master, that hurts! How can you hit me when I saved your life?" it complained while looking at him pitifully.

"Who did you call an egg, huh? I dare you to say it again," Alex said with his darkened expression as he crossed his arms.

Alex was p*ssed off by Jade's reaction because he already felt bad about losing his hair.

"Master, you're not an egg! You're the most handsome and coolest baldy in the whole wide world! Well, on the bright side, you can save on shampoo!” Jade said and started laughing again. It couldn't hold its laughter back.

“If you call me a baldy again, I'll teach you a lesson!” Alex warned it as he pulled its ear.

Suddenly, Alex noticed something different about Jade. Wait a minute. It looks bigger than it was earlier. It only looks like a one to a two-year-old toddler, but now it looks like a four to a five-year-old child!

“Ouch! Master!” it cried out.

Alex quickly let go after realizing it. “Jade, did you get bigger? What's going on?”

Jade pouted and angrily turned in the other direction without answering Alex.

“Fine, I'm sorry! I shouldn't have pulled your ear, okay? Come on, tell me. How do you get bigger all of a sudden?” Alex asked.

Although Jade turned to look at him after hearing his apology, it still sounded angry. “The fifth lightning not only enhanced your Lightning Attribute, but I also absorbed it and grew as well! I told you that I'm an ancient jade that can grow, right?”

Alex nodded at that, even though he hadn't quite grasped everything Jade said earlier. The last attack I launched at the two elders indeed had lightning powers. Wow! Who would've expected that enduring the five bolts of lightning could give me this power?

Suddenly, Alex thought of a question as he studied Jade. “Jade, are you a boy or a girl, actually? Why can't I tell even though it looks like you're almost five?"

FINDING OUT THE BILLIONAIRE

Chapter 850

Jade was taken aback by the sudden question because it didn't know how to answer it. I-It's not up to me to make that decision! I'm an ancient jade, so I don't have a specific gender. However, back in ancient times, I became a man and fought alongside the God of Death.

"I think Master gets to choose my gender once I'm older. I'm still little right now, so you can decide when it's time,” Jade replied.

Alex didn't expect that he could choose Jade's gender, so he got even more curious about it.

Right at that moment, Jade spoke again. “Master, are you sure you don't want to put something on? Aren't you afraid that someone might walk here and see you in your birthday suit? By the way, that mean woman is hiding in a room about fifty meters to your left! Don't forget to teach her a lesson! I can't stand her!”

Alex was stunned after hearing what Jade said. Wow, my skin is healed! But I can't go around without clothes on!

At that moment, Alex had no choice but to take the disciple's black robe and wear it.

The disciple wanted to stop Alex from taking his clothes, but he couldn't even move his body.

“Thanks for your clothes! Hey, you're really tough. Not many people can still stay alive after receiving my blow, and you survived the shockwave too!”

Alex turned and left the naked man on the ground after saying that.

After he was done with Vladimir and Demetrius, Alex's next target was Eve.

Before long, he reached the doorstep of the room Eve was hiding in. With a kick, he destroyed the door, and Eve screamed in fear as she scurried under the table.

“Come out! You have no way to hide,” Alex said coldly.

He sounded like the Grim Reaper. Eve was trembling badly under the table, and she didn't dare to come out.

Alex got rid of the table with his Mortal Force, and Eve screamed. Without the table as her shield, she hurriedly kneeled in front of Alex.

“Please spare me! Please spare me!” Eve continued to beg him

Eve finally realized how wrong she was to offend Alex. He is stronger than everyone in Leight Sect! No one else could've survived the lightning strikes!

“Remember what I told you earlier?” he asked coldly without a single trace of pity.

Eve paled at that. Of course, I remember! You said you'll ruin my face! How can I live in the future when my face is disfigured?

Eve continued to shake her head as she prayed for Alex to let her go.

Alex ignored her. If it weren't for Zack, he would've killed her already.

Since she continuously provoked him time after time, he wouldn't have shown her any mercy.

Alex took a few steps toward her and carved something on her cheek with his nails.

“This is what you get for taking a man who loves you for granted and cheating on him! Those men who wanted to kill Zack will have the same fate!” Alex said coldly and left.
