

The Hidden Billionaire Heiress (Lyra Melvin) Chapter 88

He raised his hand to wipe it, and found it was nosebleed!

Some people saw this scene and did not hold back their laughter.

Master Dacey was furious.

This was the most insulting and wretched way to lose in front of everyone!

He had been in the martial circle for decades, but this was the first time he had been abused like this! He can't accept this result!

"Go to hell!"

Just as Lyra turned her head and was about to walk off the stage, Master Dacey suddenly snuck up on her from behind at breakneck speed.

Sheila and the others, who were about to get indignant because Master Dacey had lost, were thrilled to see him fight again and stood up on the spot.

Almost instantly, before anyone could react, they saw an extremely fast figure suddenly rushing onto the stage and kicking Master Dacey away.

Master Dacey didn't even hit a hair on Lyra's head and flew off the stage two meters away, vomiting a lot of blood.

Keith stepped in front of Lyra. His precious black suit pants were not soiled a bit.

He stared at Master Dacey and his tone was cold, "Admitting defeat is the rule. You dare sneak up from behind, shameless."

Master Mokusei, who previously performed martial arts with Master Dacey, also came forward with angry accusations.

"Master Dacey, you have seriously violated the purpose of the competition. I have contacted the National Martial Arts Association to remove you from the tournament! Get the hell out of here!"

"No! No!"

Master Dacey was unbelievable. He had lived half of his life on the martial arts association's fund. If he was publicly removed, no association will want him in the future!

Then his life will be over!

Before he could get over the shock and devastation, Abigail was wheeled up on stage by the maid in her wheelchair.

She picked up the microphone and announced with a flourish.
