

The Hidden Billionaire Heiress (Lyra Melvin) Chapter 94

But she clearly did not see the Carver family's name in the list of participants beforehand.

If the Carver family really wanted this land, then this bid for ... could be a bit difficult!

While Fiona's face was dark, Sheila had a completely different focus from her.

"Lyra, you're hanging on to my brother, and you're still having an affair with Mr. Lloyd, and now it looks like your relationship with Mr. Carver isn't pure either!"

Thinking about the last time Cody had taken her to the Matthews family's welcoming dinner, and to the bidding this time, Sheila gritted her teeth with jealousy.

"Does Keith know about this kind of behavior of yours!?"

Before Lyra could say anything, Cody was the first to frown and snicker.

"With your big face, protruding eyes, unpleasant voice, you naturally can't understand how attractive Lyra is to people."

"You!"

Cody was young, hot-tempered, and had always been vicious to people he hated.

Sheila's face turned red with anger.

She had always been confident that she was good-looking. Whenever she went, she was always the object of praise and pursuit. It was the first time for her to be so disliked!

The key was that this person came from the Carver family, and he was a popular actor!

Although she was angry, she feared the Carver family, and can only vent her anger out on Lyra.

"What kind of mesmerizing did you put into them? Why are they all so inclined to you?"

Lyra just smiled and didn't answer.

But the calmer and light-hearted she was, the more she appeared to Sheila to be deliberately pretentious.

"Just you wait, I'll make you pay!"

Lyra pulled her lips together, "I'll see what happens."

Sheila's words did not hurt her in the slightest, and she could only glare back at her, trying to overpower her with her presence.
